urge i would not normally spend 200 for a pair of jeans but when they went on sale i decided to go for it i am so glad that i did mother has a customer for life these jeans are the best by far i normally wear a size 4 27 in most jeans but wear a 28 in j brand and some others s o i was a little nervous by previous reviewers not just on this website i decided to go with th e 28 since in mother brand this is actually a 4 6 they fit great love this layered turtleneck dress super cute and super comfy love the contrastin pattern and fabric of the top half and th e skirt also the skirt is very hip hugging as shown in the photo with the result being flatter ing i wore it to work with sweater tights and boots winter in seattle and felt completely put t i am wearing a medium and for reference my measurements are 38 30 40 this is an amazing top fits perfectly beautiful detail and amazing fabric i actually came back to the site just so i could order it in all available colors but unfortunately it s only in navy don t hesitate to b uy this like everyone else i ignored this vest in the store my mom actually gave it to me to try on and practically forced me to buy it it wasn t until i got home that i discovered its ve rsatility i got it in the beginning of june so haven t been able to wear it much but fall is q uickly approaching and i already have at least ten outfits to wear with it it s classy and can dress up any outfit beautiful color and flattering fit on me i bought the size 4 and it fits m y 5 5 125 lb frame perfectly i love that it has sleeves no worries about upper arms it is l ight and silky even though it is not made of silk it is elegant and casual at the same time thu s versatile i will wear it to three different weddings this summer and can make it work for the office too love it worth every penny unlike some of the other reviewers i found this dress to be true to size post pregnancy i am a 6 on top and an 8 on the bottom ordered a 6 and it is perfect 140 lbs and 34c perhaps that s because i m long waisted and the waistline hits right below my rib cage \n\nthe colors materials and quality are wonderful i can see wearing this in the winter and summer in fact it will look lovely against sun kissed skin \n\none thing the t op portion appeared to be a knit in the pictures online howeve these are great they fit tts i m a 26 in most denim brands that s the size i got the material has some give but doesn t st retch out the color is not super white so you can actually wear them in the colder weather seas on as well at 5 4 they were a little longer on me than shown on the model i find them very c omfortable i love this dress it is so comfortable and easy to wear i was able to wear it to w ntions that the fabric is thin and i ordered it anyway because the design was unique besides i have another bailey 44 dress and felt that i knew what to expect on quality when it arrived i was pleasantly surprised while not thick the fabric is a better quality than my other dress plus the style is unique and flattering i am 5 4 and it hits 2 3 inches above my knee i wil l definitely wear it to work with knee boots these cuff jeans are very good looking 4 stars bc t after washing it once according to tag instructions it is pilling like a well worn sweater wo uld nan these are nice cords albeit they look slightly more faded in person i like the style high waist and the cropped flare which actually fit me perfectly as regular length since i am 5 1 they do run small i am normally a 25 26 and the 27 fit perfectly very disappointed that i ordered this dress and a large was too big returned and asked for an exchange to a size mediu m it was apparently not available in the medium i was charged a 5 95 fee for return shopping so i immediately went to website medium available and i had to pay another 12 95 for shipping seems a bit unreasonable but really liked the dress i was pleasantly surprised with this cardi gan i get so many compliments i can easily see me carrying this into my fall wardrobe it is a little pricey for what it is but i love it so much that i am keeping it i am normally size 4 6 and the s fits great the rope straps are just adorable this is a really well made great looki it stayed within that range super cute with shorts airy light love the white ordering anot her color love the way this looked online on model would not recommend for a shorter or curvy person such as myself it just ended up looking like a very chic potato sack on me and was not flattering i am very self conscience of my tummy and this covers it up without being too baggy there is plenty of room i originally bought a small then went to an extra small then went back to a small i wear a small in most things great nicer looking tee this is a vary cute blouse i ordered both colors in my typical medium intending to give one to my sister i couldn t decid e what color to keep but went with the black simply because it fit my style better looks great with dark jeans the tan stripe is very cute a little more summery and looked better on the sis he shirt does pill this top is so comfortable and better quality than i expected ruffles fall nicely over your sholulder and there is a fabric underarm i don t have to wear a tank top under neath like i normally would with tops with wide opening around arms color is beautiful too i r eally love it true to size i am always searching for effortless items this is a cute and clas sic shirt that meets all those requirements i actually really like the sleeves it take a basic tee and elevates the style i bought the teal but am also thinking about ordering the white too can t go wrong with a classic white tee nice jeans just fyi they look more slimly fitted in th e photo than they actually are when you get them that s why i returned them otherwise fine i bought the green and white and waiting to see how these wash based on previous reviews they are definitely not figure flattering and make you a bit boxy you could belt it but i won t i ll ju st wear for errands and lounging better than my sports tees i bought mediums because if it shr inks a tad the small might be too short in the arms and i wanted a bit more arm coverage i tho ught this top would make me look extremely boxy but i couldn t resist the stripes and the cut o f the top i did size down and so glad i did adorable fun and flattering and that s comi ng from a curvy girl with a ddd bust soo soft i got this in black and it s a great basic t shirt the v neck is just right in depth and the material is very soft and lightweight the fit is good the back is long which can be good or not so good depending on how you want to wear it i really like the la t shirts because the material has a nice soft drape and they seem to fit ex ceptionally well i love the style of this swimsuit on the model when i purchased is i didn t r ealize that there was no support wire padding lining in the chest the rest of the swimsuit was great but i did not like the look in the chest it provided no support i ended up returnin g it this jumpsuit is fabulous in person it is elegant and easy and very figure flattering i have a very curvy shape but a 34 ddd bust so i would say i am a top heavy hourglass this jumpsu it does me right the only thing i would say is i don t think it would be very comfortable on a person with a long torso i am 5 3 and bought this in 6 regular and the length is perfect with heels but the whole top half fits me perfectly but shows alot of boob if i m not careful but i don t think it would be s i love the loose vibe of this top the bold stripes are super cute i can dress this up or wear with jeans and sneakers get this top ladies this top takes every oth er tee and blows it out of the water it appears subtle on the hanger but it looks so lady like on the flutter sleeve are darling the top does have a lot of volume but the drape is so lovel y it adds some shape it is perfect to wear everyday and dress up i bought to wear with the br yden skirt for reference i purchased ordered the xs though i am wearing a s in the photo and i am 34c 26 waist the shoulder fit okay with easter size but there was a little less v i jus t bought this top in size medium and i love it super comfortable and flowy if you want to dry it in the machine just put cold air and it won t shrink don t use hot air you know how you hope that a dress that you order online is as good as you think it will be well this one is be tter then i had hoped it fits beautifully it is crafted beautifully there is nothing i don t like about it i was pleasantly surprised at how light the fabric is i thought it might be a he en in the florida heat do yourself a favor and grab this one before it s gone love this dress it is very comfortable and stylish looks great with flats or wedges material is soft and comfy definitely worth the price adorable denim dress fabric is lighter than i imagined but is very flattering perfect length this is not a form fitting dress at all so if you re going for that pass on the dress or possibly order a size down this \r\nan unexpected purchase i found this on my way to the dressing room \r\nthe fit is stunning i sized way down i e normally wear 10 12 curvy and bought a small \r\nit accentuates my curves and is incredibly flattering i bou ght the navy and will be adding another color soon \r\nthe material is viscose blend soft and flowy it s a nice addition to my work wardrobe i am very frustrated i ordered the pxs and pxx s back in may at the time they were both on back order until early august last week i receive d an email that the pxxs was no longer available i emailed customer service and got the reply t hat the shipment of pxxs was damaged and so that s why they were no longer available i did rece ive the pxs and while the length is good for me at 5 4 it is enormous through the entire body shoulders down to the hemline i know the pxxs is the size i needed i love these they are so s oft the high waist is awesome and fits like a glove they don t stretch out i wear with a heel and get tons of compliments they make my hips look smaller than they are this is one of my abs olute favorite dresses of the season fun flirty and fashionable i wore it with a chunky neckl ace floppy hat and sandals one time and with wedges and dangly earrings the other time it is a must own dress i was a little nervous to buy these because they are such a statement piece but i love them they are so comfortable which is rare for jeans they create the optical illusion t hat i am a super model so i will wear them as often as possible very flattering and comfy win win paige jeans are obviously known for their luxurious feel and amazing fit these jeans are t he best new addition to your collection the perfect high rise and not as extreme flair these m ight beat out your skinny jeans for your nights out they do come extremely long so they will m ost likely need to be hemmed i get huge compliements when i wear them and told how they complie ment my legs in the best way if you re debating on whether to jump onto the flair trend i d go with these great fit i m petite and bought size 29 my hips and waist differ by 10 so i m ver y curvy i love the fit and look just by rolling them up my 1st pair of ag jeans and i will def initely buy more i have been searching for months to find a pair of top quality slim fit high waisted jeans either straight leg or flare my search has ended with these flare jeans from pai ge thanks to retailer the fabric is incredibly soft yet has that little snap of stretchines s we have all come to expect in expensive jeans i also like the dark wash and the fact that the re aren t those odd color striations across the hips i bought size 27 which fits me perfectly virtually all my other jeans a lovely blouse very well made i had a baby last year and recent ly weaned so my bust line is changing right now somewhere between a 36d and c the medium was a little roomy for i could ve easily sized down but i like the airy look so i think i will keep it this size quality fabric very comfortable yet dressy i d definitely recommend this blouse these jeans are buttery soft and very flattering unlike many jeans these do not ride down my wa ist as i wear them i am a bit concerned about them long term as they list rayon as the primary fabric which means they have to be washed very carefully still i highly recommend nan nice s tretchy shirt nothing special so i wouldn t pay more than sale price i ordered this online it s fine i am usually a small in tops and it fits true to the size good material no complaints looks good layered super soft and flattering fit i m 5 feet 4 inches and petite was the perfec t length i love the look and the simplicity of this top it s very casual but also super cute my only issue with it was the fabric started to ball up after a few wears but i still love it i ordered this on line i love the sleeves and the pleat in the back but the top runs large i ordered a small but it is too big other reviews say that the top shrinks when you wash it how ever i m not sure if the store would let me return a washed item if it doesn t shrink enough fo r my taste i think i will probably be returning this top nan purchased this top in the store o n sale love the material very soft and comfortable love the black and white combination i am petite so the top is a great length on me i can see that if you are tall it might be to short i received this tank today and i fell in love with it immediately i am petite 5 3 36b 108 lbs and purchased this in the only size left which was a small yes it is very billowy but i do a half tuck into my pants and that solves the problem perfectly and looks great i have very w ell toned arms and the way this is cut just accentuatea this yay the fabric is soft and the o verall look is super feminine so very happy with my purchase plan on wearing with jeans shor y looking for a sweater to take on a trip to europe in a few weeks i bought it on the spot i b ought it in neutral which is the only color the store had and after seeing the darker color am h appy with it i love the belt since most sweaters don t have anything to close them and the belt lays perfectly as well i chose to ignore the other reviews saying this shirt was too wide think ing that my wider shoulders would fill it out but that s not the case the shirt is adorable an d soft and cute on but just too wide around the armpit chest area and with the horizontal strip es it just didn t look attractive i would love to try the next size down to see if it works bu t the black and white xxs is sold out so back it went i am only 5 4 with a shorter torso so th e length was fine for me i am always on the hunt for jeans and regularly buy paige these jean s are different than the regular paige styles in all the best ways they are made with super so ft denim that is comfortable and very flattering the waist is high so my tush doesn t hang out when i sit i love them i am 5 8 and 140lbs and these are long i can only wear them with hee ls but i was looking for a dress up jean and these are it nan the quality of this top is wonde rful thick enough to prevent see through but thin enough to create a beautiful drape the frin ge details are lovely the top is slightly roomy ranks between true to size and runs large i e leaves room in the back when i clasp my hands together and stretch them out in front of me but not really enough to size up i m 5 4 120 lbs athletic build and the small fits well my only issue with the aesthetic is that the pattern of the lace on the upper pa this is definit ely a cute top i am 5 1 34a and bought the extra small it fits well very flowy a little sh orter than i like but it still looks cute it s thin but soft and comfortable i wore it just like the model with my long jeans and some wedge sandals and it looks great for a spring day l ove this dress really nice quality timeless design not to mention the flared sleeves are so f lattering this dress makes me feel so cute and tiny i normally struggle to function in off the shoulder tops but deal with it because i love the way that they look but this one really is the perfect fit and has just the right amount of give without being too loose the body size and len gth does run large so size down on this one now i understand why the petites were all sold out whatever modes i got this shirt because of the flutter sleeves and i m not disappointed it is a classic t with that little bit of an edge due to the sleeves it is not fitted which is what i was looking for it also covers my bum which i don t always like hanging out there in all i t s perfect for my needs i got the turquoise one and i may get the white one too dress is so c omfortable great for town or resort 5 7 size 6 34a and i got a size small easy to wear with black or grey i will wear as a work jacket not necessarily just an outwear piece i am a fan of flutter sleeves always have been however at 42 years old i sometimes feel as if i can t carry them off not the case with this shirt bordeaux has found a way to balance just sleeve with fem ininity and maturity i m a size 12 in jeans and tops i ordered s large and it fit beautifully very flattering exactly as pictured great and lightweight for summer but long enough with the cowl neck to layer for colder seasons so comfy and easy love love love this sweater lots of c ompliments as well i tried this on in the store in a medium by accident thinking that it wa s a large i loved it even though the front was way too short on me and the elastic waist was wa y too tight the store didn t have the next size up and after reading the other reviews i decide d to order my standard xl online its a keeper i am plus sized and have an ample mid section an d this was still flattering on me i plan to wear it with a black duster sweater leggings and boots all winter long and then when the wea this shirt seemed to run really small especially in the chest i m debating exchanging for a new size bc this was really cute but i m not sure if i need to go up 1 or 2 sizes it was so tight i just got this sweater and it really is a great fall weight i disagree with other reviewers that it is oversized and that the sleeves are long i fo und the sleeves to be just right and it to fit normally i almost wish i got a medium just so it would be a little baggier and the sleeves would be a little longer i got the green and am reall y happy with the color pretty blush color that is still neutral enough to wear with just about any outfit runs true to size imo can t wait to wear it this fall winter i recently came acros s this dress in store and decided to try it on i immediately fell in love my husband was patie ntly waiting outside the dressing area to see it and give his opinion but i knew i was going to get it regardless of his thoughts this dress could be worn with heel flats sandals bootie s etc the one drawback i have is the high cut of the wrapover in front as other reviewers hav e said i plan on wearing this places where i won t be sitting for long periods of time because i see that many of you like myself fell in love with the look and feel of this sweater and re luctantly bought it even though it sheds like crazy i just wanted to let you all in on a little trick to stop the shedding it will sound strange but it worked like a charm fold up the swea ter seal it in a ziploc bag and pop it in the freezer for 24 hours bam it will shed no more now i can completely love this sweater i bought this sweater in the green and loved it so mu ch i ended up ordering the pink also it looks great with jeans or with a pencil skirt the silh ouette is flattering and the sleeves though big don t get in the way while i m working i m a little worried about the looseness of the knit and the amount of lint it shed at first so i don t know how long it will look and feel new also one of the buttons on the pink one was hanging by a thread when i first pulled it out of the package at this i really love how comfortable and versatile this dress is the midi length is perfect for booties or flats and the cowl neck is l oose and fluid so it lays well the only complaint i had and it s minor is the tulip skirt do esn t stay closed well when i walk or sit which reveals more inner thigh than i am comfortable showing i have to be very mindful of the skirt all day i teach high school i found this at m y local store on sale and immediately snatched it up i did not think of the wrap flying open un til i got home and tried it on again luckily i was able to sew it up enough without compromisi ng the drape and movement of the dress and without causing anyou pulling or puckering which isn t always easy when working with jersey \n\nthat said i really like the dress otherwise it s su e high lo hemline flatters my legs bought this to wear to hawaii paired with a panama hat and a pair of flatform sandels i have not worn yet but excited to try it out soon with jeans and b oots comfy but has a nice sweater look not too casual sleeves are very long but don t think i want to downsize great structure i was so excited for this coat when i saw it in the catalog but disappointed when it got to stores the faux fur pictured both here and in the catalog looke d much more of a burnt red brown color than the straight up maroon that it actually is in store i d say it even looks a bit purple the nice thing is that it is detachable and you can replace it with something else if you really don t like the color i have decided to buy it anyways beca use the fit of the coat is lovely and simply stunning it sheds on my cloths something fier ce not much i can do as i don t want to return it because i love it so i love the longer panel in the back and the side slits nice weight and feel i just wish it didn t shed so much soft versatile comfort what more could you want in a legging i bought this for an upcoming late sep tember seaside trip because it looked like it would be warm enough for cooler nights but not to o warm because of the open weave i just received it yesterday and i adore it i got the pink c olor and was really torn between the green and the pink i was hoping the pink would look more b eige from far away per one of the other reviews and i was happy that it does up close you can really see the pink but from an arm s length away or more it looks beige wi well fitted kinda slouchy sweater matches photo and product description looking forward to cooler temps i am in love with this sweater i am 5 4 and wear a size 8 and bought a large perfect length and fit w ill wear with jeans or leggings the quality was amazing and i can t wait to wear it i can t wa it for it to get colder so i can wear this out love the ochre color paired with the maroon faux fur lapel i especially love the detail at the pocket edges very well made the faux fur is lux uriously soft and removable this will go great with denim and long skirts the wool is a bit st tom without too much width peplum love the color weight and styling on this sweater it is sof t and comfortable and i will wear it a lot the only downfall is that it sheds so it can not be worn with leggings or you will end up with fuzz everywhere this is just the perfect sweater in my opinion i got it in the rose which is a gorgeous subtle color that will go with just about anything i love the knit pattern and the buttons and the sleeves are nice and long which is c rucial for me at my height 5 11 overall i just see myself throwing this on over everything so i m sure i will treasure this for years to come just lovely gift for my daughter who has t k at it and regret it now as i want to keep it one bummer is the smallest size xs runs big t he skirt falls on my lower waist aka hips on me not on my waist bu i love the look it has poc kets where the pattern reverts the fabric is soft and thick making the skirt structured the le ngth was nice on me though ti is a mini and there is no petite size the hem still was above my knee and therefore was acceptably flattering the colors are also nice for fal this skirt is su per cute and versatile dressed up but still pretty casual with a sweater tights and boots i d say true to size or maybe runs a little on the large side definitely doesn t run small love it great quality i didn t expect the neck to be so wide but it still looks nice i like this s o much that i ordered it in both colors it is soft can be worn both ways and i like the crissc ross detail very comfortable not formfitting i usually order a medium or a large and in thi s one sized down to a small this has instantaneously become my favorite sweater in my closet t he fit is great a little oversized which makes it very cozy i purchased my usual size xs the shade of red is perfection i wished it was a tad bit softer but would buy again and again the only problem with this top is that it only comes in two colors this is a lightweight easy to w ear top that surprises you with the cute design details it will be easy to wear in the heat of my hometown i don t think it is too thin and i won t need to add a camisole i am 5 2 and we igh 120 and i got a small perfect i love this tee s much i bought 3 different colors the bac k is beautiful it is so comfy and soft but its added spice makes it perfect for those times you want a little more style this t shirt is perfect for summer light breezy easy i m 5 4 5 34dd 150 lbs m fits well the front and the arms fit like a t shirt which means it looks bust y for me but that s how t shirts always are for me the back has something extra and that s the reason i m keeping it love this jacket really wish it came in real leather as well but can t b eat this price point great cut fit and love that the zipper is black looks like it is worn i n leather most peoppe can t tell that it s vegan i absolutely adore this top i got it in th e blue and went back a few days later and got the gray as well it s super soft and casual but s till really cute it s a little long i m 5 4 but i tuck in the front or tie a knot on the side and it looks good i wish they had more colors so i could have a few more of these very flatter ing cut very loose flowy runs a little big for a small but fits well for someone who somet imes fits medium depending on the cut i need to wear a bralette with this top love the coral color of this shirt only wish it was a little longer in the front falls right to my jeans wais tline i have these tops in white and blue very comfotable to wear the back part swings with m ovements and is flattering good price so i got one for my daughter lovely warm sweater excel lent quality fits as shown on model i saw this in the kelly green color one size larger than my normal it didn t look much but i was so drawn to the very pretty green color so i tried it on a nyway boy am i really glad i did this is more than just your basic everyday tee the back has a very cute gingham pleating detail that hangs well when paired with a skinny jean or leggings material was pretty substantial for a tee and definitely not see through i am a true m on most retailer tops and this one is pretty true to size the on i love this jacket it is a perfect mo to style jacket without being overly aggressive looking because it doesn t have the silver hardw are instead all the hardware is black which gives it a cleaner minimalist look it is not super heavy it also has a cute blue and white striped lining which if you turn up the sleeves adds a surprise i bought it in a size small so that it was comfortable and i would be able to put a li ght sweater under it if i wanted to i generally take an xs or sometimes a s this top is simple but super cute and comfortable the bow in the back adds a feminine touch and it fits well no g aping arm holes and not too tight or too loose the white color is slightly see through but not enough to wear a cami with my neutral racer back bra the xs fit me perfectly for reference i m 5 6 small busted and 125 lbs very cute top i ordered the white it is thin so you might w ant to wear a cami with it will look very cute with jeans shorts or skirts love the back wis h it came in more colors would definitely order it in black this top is perfect i love the f it and the length and the weight of the fabric it is thin without being sheer i just wish ther e were other fun colors this is the perfect little shirt when you want more than an ordinary t shirt the pattern on the back panel adds a nice little extra touch the blue tone is very ric h looking and could be dressed up or down i usually pick the large size when it comes to fitte d jackets but in this case i decided to go with size medium i have a broad back and round shou lders and large upper arms when i put the size large on the body of the jacket looked too box y on me the medium is much more flattering but i cannot put a thick layer on underneath when the weather gets cooler i am pairing this with my herbalist dress and my other sleeveless garme nts i am 135 36d 38 28 35 this top is adorable i love it i couldn t figure out which way t o wear it so i just wear it both ways the tag is on the side which allows you to wear it either way it does run big i normally wear a medium and i could have used a small but kept the mediu m because i like very loose clothing this is a great casual shirt that works great for a day at the beach and is also comfortable enough to wear to sleep wore this shirt to school one day wit h an undershirt underneath and wore it again hiking several days later with just a sports bra un derneath i love swing dresses but they never seem to work out for me however lately i have be en trying on swing tops like this one and they are super scores i love this top in my store t hey had a rack of test materials where they don t have the full line but they have a look at som e online features or clothes that are very new releases this was on the rack i knew it wasn t my size but i tried it on anyway and i am absolutely in love i am waiting for a sale as always but i am going to get this i this is a very cute and unique cropped jacket the attention to det ail is excellent i am normally a small but had to size down to an xs as the style is a bit boxy and to make it more fitted tailored an xs looked better i am 5 5 118 lbs 34c slim athletic build it is a chic alternative to a cardigan on a cooler day very feminine fun and if you lik e this style i highly recommend i am a 6 8 and both fit the same so i went with the 6 36c bust 29 waist short torso fabric nice and light and i need no cami very attractive blouse and very retailer i am not usually one for super girly tops but i could not resist this top the materi al is beautiful and this top can definitely be dressed up or dressed down i think it is extreme ly versatile it is a little bit see through but if you just wear a nude bra it s perfect i usu ally wear a 00 or 0 but i got a 2 in this top because it is a little tight in the sleeves across the shoulders but if you size up you should be perfect super cute and i definitely recommend y ou get before it sells out i love this shirt it s such a beautiful striking color yet still s imple enough to not take the spotlight the peekaboo shoulders are totally cute i bought anothe r one of these when it went on sale so now i have two just in case haha love this top b c it s very feminine got this at 20 off and it s very flattering this is a cute and quirky feminin e top with the ruffle detailing and polka dot flannel inside the sleeve cuffs i wish it was lit tle longer and maybe not flannel then it would be perfect but overall i liked it i am 5 5 1 35lbs 34c curvy muscular frame plus a relatively short torso and the small fit throughout th e shoulders and chest the design and quality are fantastic \ni had to order a little larger bec ause of my bust and shoulders it s still flattering though can be dressed up or casual i wis h it came in more colors i was a bit apprehensive about buying the top after reading the revie ws surprisingly i love the shirt it s very feminine soft light for the hot months and f igure flattering just got this top and i love it it s color is more saturated in person which i like more of a pinky purple very sweet and feminine i still have a bit of a mommy tummy a nd the style hides that pretty well it s very soft and comfortable as well overall happy with this top so i recommend wearing with something more fitted or with a flare jeans or tucke d in like the picture i love the detail of hte polka dot on the sleeves and collar inside so if you leave the collar open or roll the sleeves up a bit you see hte contrast \nit is a bit sh ort and i am petite i ended up with regular size anyway otherwise it may have been too short \n\ncolors are nice and i love the material it is very soft and hoepfulyl warm my orffice is freezing should ahve grabbed it i am not sure why the first reviewed hated this dress so much i personally like that it looks a tad retro length is shorter but not mini or too short i ord ered the xxs p and it looked ok on me and i am older the colors are fun and appropriate for f all or winter the sparkle golden thread can bring this dress into the holiday season and be yond i love the turtleneck part only thing is it is really high and the embroidery gets a li ttle lost in it top of the design feel is thick no love the pattern i thought i would be hos ed and need a petite but the regular xs fits nicely it is on the thiner side so great for sum mer office is cooold \r\nlove subtle squares glad they still had my size at sale great ve ry flattering bohemian dress and it s silk it s a cute top but the only complaint i have is t hat it is difficult for me take off it goes on easily but i get always have a bit of a struggl e trying to take it off my shoulders tend to get stuck so i can t pull my arms out easily i ju st wish the top had an extra button or two on the back or was made with material that allowed fo r some stretch without fear of destroying the lacework i didn t want to size up another size be cause i have a petite body shape that would ve been overwhelmed b i really love this top it loo ks so sweet and beautiful and is perfect for dressing up a pair of jeans if you are on the shor t size it may be a little long so keep that in mind i love it i ordered the xl and the colors are just as pictured the material is so soft the problems too short and too small i m a litt le over 5 ft 5 inches and this top ran so short on me i wish there were three more inches of m aterial and then it would have been great it was cut a little tight along the shoulder line too i was so disappointed that this couldn t work on me i like a romantic style especially for com fortable basics but this was a pass for me i had to return it the ruffles on t i have the pi neapple dress from last year when i saw this top with the lemons i was in love i don t usuall y pay this much for a top but i had a special event coming up i searched and searched but not hing compared to the lemon top so with my birthday discount i bit the bullet and ordered it my first thought was that it didn t seem very substantial for the price i decided to keep it th ough because it is such a unique piece i wore a beige cami underneath along with a beige skirt and it beautiful sweater very delicate fabric unique design but it runs very small i usually wear a m but ordered a large based on the previous review hoping that would do the trick the s izing along with being long waisted isn t a good combination unfortunately i m returning the sweater this is a very stylish cardigan but it runs small i usually take a small but i took a medium in this for reference i am 130 lbs chest 36c i fell so in love with it once i put it o n but you have to watch for snags as it is extremely delicate got the 20 off today and couldn t be happier with this purchase i saw someone else wearing this sweater and had to find it i m 5 5 and 118 lbs and ordered the small the back of the sweater hits a few inches above my back p ockets i ve been wearing it with a tank underneath and it s been the perfect sweater for fall w eather i was worried the poncho effect might make it hard to wear this sweater with a jacket bu t it s actually less bulky than other real sweaters i have this dress is beautiful however it should be noted that there is a gold threading detail throughout the dress which is not pict ured the dress appears to be a solid cream print in the pics but in person it has gold and crea m i sized up bc i didn t want it to be too fitted i m between a 6 snd 8 so i went w medium it fits will but slightly big i d say tts though beautiful sweater cool enough to wear on a flo rida evening and it will be perfect for vacation the sleeves hit right above the wrist bone ex actly as shown on the model and i really like that sheer fabric but still a sweater you will need a cami or tank underneath can t wait to wear it i just received this sweater in the mail and when i first opened the packaging i questioned as to whether or not they sent to correct col or be aware that this brown is actually gray i checked the site to see if it was even offere d in gray which it is not additionally the sweater is quite a bit shorter than the picture on the model implies i still love it the comfy coziness of it will be great for fall in new engla nd looking forward to wearing it the pictures do not do this blouse justice the pleat in the front is so flattering that i did a double take this detail doesn t come through the images wh ich is a shame as it is the most beautiful element of this blouse the collar that stands up ju st enough is something unexpected and the sleeve length is fun yet sophisticated i am madly in love with this blouse and highly recommend it to anyone \r\n\r\nit is extremely see through s o unless you want to show off your nips you should expect this is really a lovely top but the color online is not quite what the color actually is in person this was a find in my store toda y and it is a little more lilac than the picture shows the cut is extremely flattering and the fabric is very soft as is the case with most one september items the one recommendation that i have for this is that because the main fabric is a soft knit the proper undergarments are reall y needed i tried it with a lace bra and you could see a lot the details of the beautiful pink t op comfortable love the color and print style and sleeves good quality didn t have the issues with the placement of the bees over my breasts that other reviewers did the bees were at the sides of my breasts covered my butt for the most part in jeans flattering cut i got an x s 5 2 34b 115 i read the previous reviews but decided to try it out since retailer was h aving 40 off sale items \r\nit looks very flattering on me and great fit for my body type \r\n i would recommend beautiful material great design get a bigger size runs huge returning the m for a s normally a m top and s bottom in sizing very soft wonderful colour love the color of this dress however found it a little boxy and the arms are too tight i ordered up a size m which is probably why it is boxy and i can hardly get it over my arm i am very athletic pro bably should have sent it back i love this top was not immediately in love with it when i saw it on line but when i saw it in store the other day and got to try it on i fell in love the co lors at a little deeper in person which i loved it is a traditional soft flannel top it is fi tted and flattering a must have for fall winter this shirt runs true to size i m an xl and i t fit perfectly that is my first reason for loving it it is super soft and so comfortable i do n t want to take it off the trim inside the cuffs and button line is navy with large white polk a dots which i love the ruffle of the shoulders i m not super wild on but it does give it a to uch of different the color of the photo is very accurate i love the muted pink in the plaid i love this more than my pineapple top i am 128lbs and wear between a size 2 4 in tops got this i n size 4 same as the pineapple and fits perfectly and comfotably the color is white and has a lovely lace pattern i would say it runs a litle on the small side material is a bit more stiff than my pineapple top but i love the way it feels in my opinion this is a staple top you can dr ess it up for a wedding or just going out its super lovely they were so popular at the retailer near me tw purchased as a gift but needed to return due to recipient weight challenged in past 6 months heavier material of neutral tone with detailing of epaulets pairs well with dresses skirts jeans jeggings and whatever style of boots veratile garment and will re purchase for s elf in future i spend a lot of time on the retailer website it never occurred to me to try thi s dress a salesperson suggested it in the store and i tried it on it is really cute on i boug ht a thrift store denim jacket to throw over it the only con is the sleeves i am 5 3 and my a rms are not very long the bell sleeves are a little crazy on me but they will be hidden under the jacket saw this in the greenville sc store and it caught my eye i ordered a petite a wee k later and i adore it nice embroidery a little sparkle the sleeves are voluminous but it m akes me feel sassy picked this up on sale was on the fence about the bright reddish orange co loration but it really says summer and goes so easily with multiple summer pieces it is genero usly cut and made very well i ve worn it on cooler rainy days and it really brightens everythin g up best part is that it launders well too this top hangs very nicely on me i got the blue a nd have received compliments every single time i have worn it it may help that i m tallish with long legs i usually wear it with black leggings and ankle boots love love love it soft and unique love the sleeves my usual size medium fits perfectly per the other reviewer i guess m y bust is large enough for the flowers to be on the side and not directly on breasts my only wi sh is that it has some embroidery on it love this top has a bit of a retro flare but so ado rable on looks really cute with a pair of faded boot cut jeans love this dress from the great fabric soft yet substantial that s similar to sweater material to the amazing detail of the f lower design it s really so unique and i mean that in a good way to the color a tan with go ld flecking and lastly to the really flattering fit not to mention those retro bell sleeves all around a fun dress it was true to size and not too short hitting my 5 4 height about 2 a bove my knees this top is a mix of materials a silk and more of a t shirt material i purchas ed for dressier wear but the material makes it more casual i like the sale price so i m keeping size down runs a tad loose i thought this blouse ran a bit large swinging wide at the hips it does bunch in the bust area if you are larger a correct undergarment fixed this problem i am a 36ddd and thought the size 4 was perfect this jacket was a little shorter than i had expected but i still really enjoy the cut and fit of it despite being batwing and sort of poncho like t his sweater is quite flattering on hangs just right unique cut and soft fabric i tried this o n in the store i m usually a 6 in tops but it was tight across the chest i sized up to an 8 an d it was still tight i would have considered the 10 but with the 8 there was too much fabric on the bottom overall design and material were good but the sizing was off i got m in black with white it s ok material is soft and nice classy plan to return it since color is not flatteri ng makes me look old i bought this dress during the retailer weekend and i m so happy i did this is a very well made well designed dress that is quite figure flattering the marriage of artsy and colorful on a neutral background makes sense and the combination of colors and the sty le of the dress work well together the wearer will definitely have several options for footwea r pairings this dress is as fun and playful as it is classy i can t wait for an occasion to wear this dress ordered this in my normal size large in taupe the jacket fit tts the length w as cropped but just long enough hit just below my belly button to feel comfortable and not too short for my 5 9 height the quality feels good o k i soo wanted to love this dress if you ar e slim and small chested it is true to size and lovely i am slim and tall 5 9 but am large ches ted a 36d i usually wear an 8 10 so bought a 10 it was too tight around my chest and back so i went up a size to a 12 it was better but not exactly comfortable i could get away with it bu t for the price had to send it back the idea of going up another size yet again was a thought b ut i worried it wouldn t solve my issue got this in the blue floral and absolutely love it lo l on the previous comment about it being a poor man s pineapple blouse i think the pineapple bl ouse prints are too large on a petite person like me i m 5 2 thus i prefer this blouse i co ncur with the previous reviewer about getting makeup on the blouse due to the narrow collar if you wear makeup like i do you must find a trick to taking it on and off for me i put it on pr ior to putting on makeup i even put tissue paper around the collar while putting on makeup and don t even think it doesn t work with me only because i have very skinny arm i can not handle t he arm part of the dress it is still very pretty though i would keep it if i fit the arm na n this t fits perfect and looks great with just about anything my only concern is the fabric is super light not enough to be see through but just enough to make me question the quality i li ke it and i have worn it a couple of times now with no issues though the drape is nice and not super revealing discreet enough for work i ordered the white and if it holds up i will certain ly order another color because it is very versatile nan i was on the fence about this top beca use i don t typically do longer tunic styles however it really is quite lovely i paired it wi th long jeans wedge sandals and a delicate necklace so pretty it fits very nicely and i was surprised at how much i liked the length love the feminine take on flannel and how it fits like a tailored shirt i am a bit long waisted and the side slit reveals a little too much when i lif t my arms if the shirt was just a little longer it would be perfect i ve been coveting the fir st edition of this top pineapples and was thrilled to find this same style with lemons i call ed my local store and put a few sizes on hold so i could ensure the perfect fit good job i did the top is beautiful but it s super tight across the back fine if you want to stand still lo ok pretty if however you want to go about your usual activities like eat for example i d su ggest you size up for reference i m usually a 2 4 in retailer tops 34b 5 5 and 130lbs i pu rchased this is off white and it is a stunner feminine check stylish check hem hits at a fl attering part of the body check great with jeans or tailored pants check i cannot say anythi ng bad about this blouse well maybe the button back is a little convenient but it sure looks pr etty i am 5 21 2 and 110 pounds and usually wear a 0 or 2 but i purchased in a size 4 and it fits perfectly can t wait to wear this with my olive green skinny jeans i ordered this in blue and loved the color i m not typically into the flowing top style but i tried a few items on my last order this being one it s unseamed at the bottom which was my primary reason for returni ng it i couldn t see that in the photo online but if that is your style this item is good q uality soft comfortable material and a great spring or fall blue the fit and style of this d ress are beautiful it s a bouncy fabric that is light and comfortable i really wanted to love it but the color just didn t work for me the pictures make it look like it s a nice cream colo r but it s very tan and i can t pull it off with my coloring love so comfy i wish they came in more colors i d order every one i ve been searching for a pretty and unique party top an d thought this was it it is beautiful and unique but much too cropped for me and i m only 5 3 sadly i had to return maybe would be more appropriate on someone younger i ordered these jsut c oz they were on sale i now wish my size was offered in more colors only mossy sage was left though nice neutral color really0 \r\n\r\nthe fit is great stretchy but stil lslightly structu red i ordered the 25p and that was perfect length fine too i am 5 1 5 115 lbs \r\n\r\nlook ed really nice with a pair of red heel i was trying on too i wear jeans so much therefore i lo ve to a variety in color these jeans are so comfortable they are like wearing sweat pants but they truly keep their shape so well i bought the red which is a year around red kind of a bri ght apple red i will definitely be buying another pair of these ag jeans i really like this to p for reference i am usually an xs or s in retailer tops since many of them run large howeve r in this top i ordered a size m and it fit nicely in any brand other than retailer my usual size is m as i am 36d bust 132 lbs 5 5 nan this top is a little big but i sized down and lik ed it a lot can be casual or can dress it up with a statement necklace perfect fall shirt i lo ve this dress i have an hour glass figure and the dress is very flattering on me i didn t enco unter a problem with the colors or pattern as others have stated i like to wear swing tops beca use they are comfortable not confining this is definitely true for this top i have an xs and it is quite spacious and boxy shaped this is a simple cotton shirt but the ruffle adds a nice d etail and without being too much ruffle either great to throw on with jeans love this jacket it is soooo soft and goes with everything you will want to wear it every day loved it so much i bought my mother one too got this for my wife for christmas and she is very happy with it t he size is perfect for her and she regularly orders things as a medium from this store i bought these in vintage sage and i grab for them as often as my favorite skinny jeans if you are jus t dipping your toe in colored pants i would reccomend the same color it is undertsated and easi ly paired with so many other colors the legs run a little big but the waist is tru to size so for comfort i went with my usual size this fabric is the same as the turtleneck swing dress by maeve it s lightweight and stretchy the problem with this particular dress is the pattern in t he fabric will be a little different on each dress depending on how the pattern was cut when it was made i had to try on 5 different dresses to find one that was cut so the pattern looked and fell in the right spots when wearing the dress hence 4 stars the bodice is lined but the skirt itself is not it is not see through i m 5 4 and 120 i have only worn this 3 times with no s igns of pilling yet it is good for cool spring days evenings for me it ll be the cooler 3 se asons sweater i wear a size large and it fits properly i have worn lightweight long sleeve kni t tees under this with ease in the sleeves i think a slim sleeved shirt blouse would work equal ly well while i like the idea of the pockets i think they ll stretch out easily beyond a tissu e or quick hand warming i removed 1 star due to the high price and i receive i also agree with the other reviewers that it s important to try on a couple due to pattern differences this dres s has a beige base the photo is a little misleading i ended up returning it because the colors didn t do much for me i think they look great on the model but that s because the beige doesn t blend into her at all i also think it s a little overpriced for what the dress is a great summ er day dress love these jeans fit great i ve had other colored denim from ag that stretched o ut too much were too thin but these are a nice thicker fabric i ordered the red and the moss and the red fit a little better than the moss in the same size not sure if the dye process affe cts the fabric but the red pair seemed a bit more substantial the moss is great too though so i may keep both i wish i could buy this is more colors so easy to dress up or dress down i ord rfect fall transition top gosh this is a beauty maeve can be a little iffy on sizing but i f ind this to fit tts beautiful details fit is comfortable yet elegant nice length i have zer o complaints on this it is sheer enough to need something underneath but the fabric is lightwe ight enough that the extra layer doesn t seem bothersome nice quality piece not overly delicat e despite the lacy details and sheerish fabric love this blouse looks like a fp blouse yet a bit cheaper and well made looks feminine and edgy on may size out for taller gals b c it is a bit on the shorter length i am 5 5 and the length is just right on me untucked the lace on th e sleeves are gorgeous and neckline is not too high i liked the top it is cute but i didn t k eep it as i have similar tops like it and i had better options however \n\ncolor it is true th at htere are differentials in the coloring of fabrics in this top but that is not necessairly a bad thing it kind of gives t personality \n\nlace part this is where i have a similr one tank all alce like that darker ivory drkest part of hte shirt cut to neck is flatetering and dif ferent from the low lunging things we see a lot of \n\nbody true to size i it is a pretty dres s but not what i had hoped for i ordered it online i like slits on sleeves but the dress does n t fit me well so i plan to return it \np s it has pockets i usually wear either an xs o r a small and i went with the small because i wanted it flowy and long because i am 5 9 it is a great fit but it is a little sheer i will probably have to wear a cami underneath i got this shirt 2 weeks ago and have already worn it 4 times i love it and every time i wear it i get com pliments on it it is so flattering with jeans or nice fitted black pants if you are wavering a bout getting this shirt get it i promise you will love it not sure where to start with thi s top it s that good i am usually a large in most maeve tops and that s sizing up for extra f low i ended up grabbing this piece of perfection in an xl only because it ran a little shorter than i anticipated and was kind of tight through my shoulders i wanted more flow as always so i went up in size for that reason i feel it runs pretty true to size this is the perfect trans ition piece from summer to fall and is definitely a must have it has sold out with frustrated t hat retailer tops have been so short lately i m 5 7 and it hits at the top of my pants makes me look a bit boxy so disappointing because i wanted it for family photos otherwise the design is gorgeous having a hard time returning it but for the price point it probably has to go back nan looks great it is more off white tan then white though this is sure to become my favorite s hirt this shirt is feminine and the fit is perfect the white lace is strategically placed so you do not have to wear a cami on those hot summer days but you can for the work day i cannot wait to wear this this top is so pretty i love the lace details and the embroidery which real ly makes this top something special it s true that it is on the shorter side but that seems to be an intentional aspect of the style i didn t find it to be too short sitting well below my wa ist line i m 5 10 i usually wear a medium in retailer clothes and this top is no exception i t fit perfectly i know this will be one piece i wear quite often i just loved this online and love it in person so feminine and delicate just perfect for summer get togethers i wore this dress yesterday for the first time and got several compliments its unique and super pretty in p erson it hides flaws well and the material is nice i must have bigger arms than the model beca use you can barely tell from the picture what the arm slits look like i don t mind the way they look but the way the piece of fabric there grazed on my arms all day kept making me feel like my bra strap had fallen down speaking of bra straps the neckline is wide and i felt like i kep t havin the fit on these is starkly different than the black hawk version also being sold onli t buy this is exactly as pictured and fits as it does on the model in the last picture my only hang up is that it s a little pricey for a t shirt the fabric is standard t shirt material not stiff but also not super soft which i was hoping for my hubby had no idea what the pattern was til i pointed it out nice dark indigo with minimal fading medium denim thickness with stret ch i bought size 25 and it is snug but doesn t squeeze my hip is 34 5 and 28 waist love th ese i will be getting them hemmed up to ankle length i am 5 5 and find the little kick out a t the ankle from getting them shortened to be very cute and classy if you keep them full leng th to your shoe they will have a slightly baggier bootcut look these remind me of my point sur hightower straight leg jeans with maybe an i love this dress it is a very casual and loose fit which makes it super comfortable i highly recommend it since it is versatile for fall and sprin g and can be styled quite a few ways i purchased this tee in the blue and it is so very cute i ts such a soft thin tee and a delight to wear on these hot summer days i went with xs on this o ne and i still have plenty of room i have paired it with jean shorts capris and it goes reall y well with the pilcro hypen chino shorts i bought this tee for the cute print otherwise this tee is nothing special i usually wear an xs but bought an xxs based on how loose the tee look s on the model it s pretty thin and more like a slub cotton i think i will hand wash it just in case i wasn t sure about this dress when i ordered it online but thought i would give it a try i am 5 2 ordered an xs and thought i may be too short to pull something like this off a in many seasons i agree with others that the shape is not perfect it does billow a bit by the hips but the xxs petite someone returned was good on me length was perfect sleeve were not too tights 30dd 26 5 in waist 35 in hips 115 lbs \r\ncolors are subdued making the jacket more neutral keeping in mind for later this top definitely drew my attention when i walked i nto the store i loved the back and the fabric is super soft silky i tried it one and the usual o buy it i really must avoid the store \r\n\r\n115 lbs for reference i ordered the xl in th e blue version and the fit is true to size it matches the model s photos the material is very thin definitely need a tank cami underneath the pattern is adorable the colors are much brigh ter in person it s such a fun tee for summer i just wish they hadn t sewn the sleeves in the v arious places it s a little awkward it shrank while washing air drying so it needed to be re shaped if you get it and it s running a bit big washing it will help with the fit i like pa i was attracted to the colors when i first saw it then i saw the back of it the largest sz in t he store was an 8 i had to order it and got a sz 10 i then returned it for a 12 in order for i t to drape properly in front shorter than i usually wear but worn with a higher waist bottom i t fits nicely and that back not only is is striking i am able to wear my regular bra under it and the straps don t hang out i wanted something for the hot summers here and this fits the ti cket very lightweight and airy it s somewhat of a strange design short in the front hitting an inch or two above the knee but the back is unusually long the lining is awkward and kind o f tight and difficult to get into the material is very thin and although i haven t noticed any strings or unraveling like other reviewers it s not the highest quality overall the dress is n ice and lightweight but not the greatest quality got for a mother day gift think she will l ike it because she always at the beach and is very happy go lucky new mother i was immediately drawn to this top in the catalog when my local retailer had it in stock and in my size i tried it on it fit so well the front wasn t too low and the back was fantastic with its multiple st raps i wore it the same week to a dinner with friends i like the multiple prints and the navy blue edging i bought the turquoise necklace too because it topped off the look so well the fab ric is silky but washable the top is very well made and fun to wear this was a fail for me al though i ordered size large it barely fit my midsection when tied and was too small in the waist the fabric is nice though best on thinner frames than mine love this so colorful and cute wi off to tighten around your waist you get a very flattering look the color and fabric is great the white with the colorful stripes i am not disappointed the sleeves are rolled and tacked i t seems to run a little big in the torso all in all a great summer tee love it got a lot of

i thought this was a pretty and unique top the material looks and feels like a basic t shirt ma de into a striking fitted top this isn t apparent in the online pictures the side seams are sl itted open nearly up to the waist so it is a bit revealing my only problem with this shirt was that the bottom part flared out too much away from my body and there is a lot of material there so i wasn t sure if i could get it tailored to look good on me these relaxed fit jeans are supe r soft they do run a size large i am a size 26 in the stilt style and the 25 in these fit well with a little room as cute in person as the picture shows good quality worth the money aft er a long wait for this dress to come in i finally received it the wait was worth it \r\n\r\nt he colors and pattern are just like they are online the length comes right to to the top of my knees i am 5 7 a couple of things to note the sleeves are narrow if you have skinny arms no problem the fit across the bust is snug enough that if you have a large bust there will pro bably be a gap at the buttons there are gathers at the shoulder giving the sleeve a slight puff broidered edessa top highly recommend i ordered this dress in a size 8 my normal size at reta iler it is a lovely dress and so feminine but it is incorrectly sized i couldn t begin to but ton it i reordered it in size 12 if that tells you anything buyer beware unless you are itsy bitsy you need to size up i will say that as pretty as the photos are the dress is even more lovely in person i ve been eyeing this for months and finally bit the bullet and am so happy i did before it sold out i love it i was afraid i couldn t pull it off because i m 5 3 and very petite but i don t think it matters it feels so light and airy and i can t wait to wear it at the pool and the beach as well as over some white tank tops and jean shorts great piece this d ress is indeed so lovely in person i am so glad i ordered 2 sizes 0p and 2p based on the stra ighter looking cut i am 115 lbs 5 1 5 adn 30dd bra size verdict the 2p fit better why th e cehst area is a little snug and hte buttons kept trying to open and did i would have ahd to leave it pen and wear a tank under this dress not an option with such a unique piece \r\n\r\n other things color wow very nice in person i was afraid that the colr would wash me out but no i have very p i tried these on to compare with a different style and didn t like this one a much also ag brand these fit better at the waist but seemed long on me and made me look frum p ear i think they are really comfortable adn on the longer legs would be great buy f you are taller than 5 foot 1 5 inches reference i am 115 lbs and tried on the 25 really wanted to love this top but the proportion was not right for my body type also the print with the silhoue tte was a bit too country bumpkin for me the blue on this jumpsuit is actually a little darker than pictured it s very cute on but i would order a size down for a more fitted look my usual 0 petite had some extra fabric that layed awkwardly on my body i would wear this everyday if i could the red color is so rich and the cut and structure of the top is perfect and flattering i ve worn to work out or dressed down with jeans and flip flops the only thing i didn t like about this is i wish it was a little bit shorter but otherwise great throw it on with pants an d add a bit of color and spring summer ness to your outfit i ve never spent this much on a pair of jeans but per another customer review that they were worth every penny i took the plunge so glad i did and also glad i sized down one size be careful when you put them on i keep put ting my toe through the hole at the knee maeve is hands down my favorite clothing brand so i am a little biased but this is just the cutest top i saw so many pics of this top in the gallery t hat i had to have it i waited for it to go on sale and ordered it in my usual size 6 which norm ally is perfect in maeve tops this is just a little snug in the shoulders but not enough to sen d back for an exchange if your on the fence go for it i love this top i waited for it to go on sale and it was well worth it it has a peplum bottom and it is slightly longer in the back i found it to be true to size but if you are going to but reaching up the arms do run a little tight overall the mock neck button closure on the back and the feminine flare of this top cr eate a beautiful classic look i was so excited to get these i paid for two day shipping and ord ered medium and large sadly they did not fit i usually wear medium but ordered both just in c ase i m very disappointed that they run so small and are not true to size they are super cute from someone skinny awesome jeans cute and comfortable size down as they run a little big i wore this jumpsuit to a newport wedding and got so many compliments i m 5 2 105 lbs and the 0 petite was perfect with heels this dress is beautiful it was on back order and i waited about three weeks to receive it i usually wear a size 8 in retailer but because it was a button down dress i ordered a size 10 the bottom is a great fit but the top is difficult to button it is a heavier weight so i feel it is better for the spring than the summer season i love this shirt it is classic and elegant it is versatile and can go with lots of different things be mindful it is see through so you must wear a tank underneath i got it in white and it can be dressed up or down i like how the sleeves are slightly longer than your average shirt definitely recommen d this top is a departure from my usual style but i had to give it a try because it looked so comfy yet structured i wish the material was less sheer as i have to wear a cami underneath whe n i wear it to work i m 5 3 135lb and the 6 fits just fine this is a gorgeous dress but i d id title my review worth the trouble because of the buttons which a few other people mentioned i ordered this from the website and when i tried it on at home a button snapped right in half my mother put on all new buttons that were stronger but look exactly the same of course i shou ldn t have to do that to be able to wear the dress but i love eyelet and was willing the new b uttons cost about 2 00 so not a big deal in the end \r\n i agree with another revi this was a g ift for a bachelorette very pretty and sexy without being too over the top love the print abs olutely adore this dress details fabric and deep pockets here is the caveat at least for me i am a typical size 6 and ordered the dress in a size 8 for a little looser casual fit the 8 i s so small i can barely place over my shoulders and cannot button i have reordered a size 12 an d 14 perhaps the dress i received is not tagged properly so disappointed as the item is on bac korder this top is the very same top meadow rue had a couple of years ago i have that top and it is identical so my guess is meadow rue and deletta are owned by the same company i was looki ng for a dress that would make me feel as special as i would feel when i attend my daughter s ba by shower this design featuring a variety of spring influenced flower motifs embossed upon an eyelet fabric was exactly what my mind s eye envisioned the use of the solid colored shirtdres s button line and cuffs softly pulled all the elements of this unique work beautifully together i found the fit to be almost costumed made for my figure the number of compliments i received o n the da i ordered these in the taupe which is more like a rust color they are really cute on but they run a little big and long so i had to return them they would be great casual pants fo r the weekend though if the color and fit were better this is about the cutest thing since we ll i don t know but it s pretty cute yes i agree with the other reviewer who said it looked be tter in hand than on the web has cute soft ruffle just above hip and the stripes are soft past els the buttons at the nape of the neck are sweet there s the word sweet that s the perfect de scriptive for this quirky laid back feminine piece tts nothing weird or uncomfortable about t he fit but it does seem a bit shorter than the picture shows i am 140 lbs nan this jacket is ex tremely soft and comfortable with a heavier textured fabric i think it is expensive for what i t is 138 probably best to wait for a sale i saw this en route to the dressing room at an reta iler store and picked it up to try on despite the store only carrying this in petites i tried it on anyway and didn t want to take it off it s very wearable and comfortable the sides have boning which keeps the fabric from riding up or down i have a little postpartum tummy and the s hape and pattern conceals that nicely \r\n\r\ni m 5 6 160 lbs and 36c i typically wear a 10 and bought this in a 10p the length waist and bust fit perfectly i m super happy with the way these jeans fit i typically buy ag jeans for fit and quality this pair is extremely comfy with the right amount of stretch yet still somewhat relaxed they do run a big large so i sized down and they still fit great lots of compliments this top is a keeper subtle plaid flowy fit so cute with skinny jeans and booties i would definitely recommend i had been looking at the d s that the button holes are too tight for such delicate buttons one button shattered when i tri ed to get it undone and what s even more crazy is that mine did not come with any extras so i guess i ll have to go to the fabric store to find a match i ll be sure to get a bunch just in case a couple of minor notes it smells like chemicals and i won t be able to wear a bra beca use the chest is a tad tight however the dress is cute enough that i ll deem it worthy to we this is a truly beautiful jacket that goes with so much dressed up or even over something casu hout being sloppy i would say it does have more of a sweater feel to it but with the zipper c an easily pass as a jacket it s lightweight but enough to keep you warm on a spring or fall day i would say it fits pretty true to size i got the ivory during the big weekend sale extra 40 off but even at this is a 3 season item that can function as a cardigan or a jacket and will look equally good with jeans or with work slacks the seaming gives it a bit of structure the a symmetrical zipper gives it a little twist the texture gives it interest i bought it in navy a nd i m considering the ivory the cotton the print and the online presentation of this dress a re beautiful i ordered right away but there are some discrepancies the shoulders have a puff to them that i don t notice on the model and that doesn t flatter athletic shoulders the butto ns are cheap difficult to button the waist sits much lower on the model than it must on anyon e else it s nearly empire on me and there is a lot more volume in the skirt of the dress than is shown in any photo because the dress is tig this is a lovely dress it is on the heavy side and lined so i would not recommend for hot summer wear but the material and style are adorable the skirt is definitely a line not sheath but i prefer that it runs a tad too tight in the ch loose flowing and has a slip underneath it i m personally a little hesitant to buy clothes onl ns a little tight around the upper arm shoulders area when stretching arms out i normally wear a size 2 4 depending on the top and the 6 felt better i am 5 4 and 120 lbs and ordered a size 0 the dress fit perfectly in the shoulders and arms and below the waist but i could barely fit my 32a size chest in the dress the other reviewers are not kidding about the chest area being very narrow i have had to order a size 2 instead we ll see if that works i wanted to love this blo use but the peplum came too high up on my waist i have a short torso and i m busty so the pla cement of the peplum just didn t work for me it is a very pretty color and fit fine in my norma l size but the peplum just didn t work on my short torso i think this would be a very pretty b louse for people with a different body type than mine mom loves these and she looks great going to the gym the cut outs are so cute super cute casual top i m usually a medium and this fit perfectly 5 9 145 lbs it s not quite as long as it is on the model but cute nonetheless i loved this dress the moment i saw it pre ordered it but when it arrived the fit was off \r\ni am almost always a size 4p in retailer clothing this fit wonderfully everywhere except the sho ulders and chest were very small i am 5 2 and 120 lb with a small bosom a cup the shoulders were too tight and the chest gaped and sadly i had to return this dress \r\ni may try to find it in the store to try on multiple sizes for the right fit i saw this top online and loved it i w

asn t sure about sizing and because i don t live near a store i decided to order two sizes i m 5 8 and typically wear an 8 or medium in tops the 8 in this top though was much too tight in t he shoulders i sized up to a 10 and it fit beautifully i am a brand loyal ag fan best washes best pocket placement and these are no exception they do run a little big i usually wear a 26 or 27 in the stilts depending on the fabric content i tried these in the 26 and 25 both fit b ut i went with the 25 because these will stretch at least 1 2 size the distressing is the right amount however i gave 4 stars because one area is directly over the knee which i don t care for solved it by having a seamstress reinforce the back of it with a similar i wanted to love this d ress the wool is lightweight yet warm and drapes beautifully the plaid print is rich however it is much darker in color than shown in the photos the dress runs very large i ordered it in my typical size and it was too big dolman sleeve dresses usually look great on me but the cut of this dress while beautiful was nothing remarkable for as expensive as it is it would have had to be an amazing dress for me to keep it sadly it didn t quite make the cut it s a sham na n i love this dress and had so hoped to wear it to a wedding in june the fabric is a perfect we ight very nice cotton i only wish i could have kept it i am 5 3 133 lbs and usually wear a size 6 which is what i ordered it was fine in the skirt but the top was at least a size if not two sizes too small for 32 chest i did not want to wear it open with a tee and so had to send i t back the wedding date does not allow for the new available date for the dress beautiful col or is true to pictures no stretch no liner looks good with white or nude tank super soft and comfy so far not stretching out but still recommend buying down a size this dress is unique an d lovely it is a one of a kind dress i found it to be true to size the only downside is the q uality of the buttons i m keeping this dress but it s going straight to the dry cleaner because right out of the bag it has a very strong chemical smell like it had been stored in a gas sta tion then i m replacing all the buttons the fabric is a thick eyelet folded over with these teeny thin shell buttons that are a complete design fail two were broken right out of the pack age also i m a size 0 in most retailer dresses and this dress has plenty of room in the waist almost too much space but the top i hav this is a very comfortable dress i absolutely love the design the feel structured and has weight and the 3 4 sleeves perfect dress for brunch and work the fit is not giving in the chest area i needed to go up a size due to the inflexibi lity of the material even tried it without a bra nope wasn t a happening i ordered a size up and love it \r\n\r\nthe only con are the buttons they are very thin and not a good choice fo r the heavy fabric broke one in the fitting room nan the nolan s are my favorite pair of jeans from any brand they are skinny leg but not too tight and the material is oh so soft i buy 1 2 sizes down as they stretch out a lot love this timeless piece but it was a bit looser fitting than i expected i consistently wear xs so i had an idea of how i thought it would fit i still kept it though because you can dress it up or down and it will never go out of style i loved t his dress and i am usually a 2 or 4 in dresses this was cut too small on the bust i m a 32c an d it pulled at the chest i didn t re order it because i felt it would look more like a house dr ess and be too baggy in the hips this top is perfect to dress up and dress down pair it with h igh wasted pants and you are set i got this sweater in white and i love it the photo online do esn t do it justice it s not frumpy at all and looks looks great zipped up because of the slant ed zipper my boyfriend calls it my claire underwood sweater this dress has a flattering and fi tted cut which perfectly compliments the unique eyelet fabric it is at once elegant yet casual perfect for the office or better yet afternoon tea in a far flung british colony of yesteryear which brings me to the buttons putting on this dress makes one wish one had a ladies maid but the effort is well worth it for this stunner of a dress as others have said it runs small and tight in the chest and is not for the well endowed i am a petite 5 2 and fit this is a wonderf ul top the fabric is soft and comfortable with a beautiful drape the pattern is very pretty the curved hems are very flattering and the top is versatile it can be worn with shorts as sh own or a skirt with a belt or pants i have pilcro wide leg pants in orange yellow and green and this top looked amazing with all of them a great little find love this tank i am petite a nd this was the perfect length for me i wore it with white jeans and a blazer love the print super cute and comfortable soft fabric drapes nicely i wear this with an orange skirt white s hirts or jeans i get lots of compliments on this top and get more use out of it than expected i m so glad i tried it on a nice surprise nan beautiful dress beautiful color and design as the other reviewer says it has an expose good quality gold color zipper on the back that doesn t show in the picture however it adds to its style and beauty i love the dress and so happy t hat found it in my size finally these shorts are great both the design and fit are beautiful i would say that these run true to size i bought my usual size 26 and they fit perfectly the y fit a little high waisted which i love the material is so soft and are so comfortable i wou ld recommend these shorts if you re thinking about it it s simply a super cute and versatile ju mpsuit you can wear it as is or over a shirt or t neck drapes well hangs well looks good fro m the front and the back i am 5 5 120 lb size 4 fits perfectly only drawback has to be dry cleaned so pretty and flattering it s my new favorite blouse it s also really comfortable i do not tuck this one in i love the knit material makes it extra comfy and breathable the colors are very pretty and wearable the quality and cratsmanship are impressive it has a straight bottom hem and slight boxy cut which i like i am 5 3 and weight 126 lbs i ordered the small but i was going go a slightly bigger comfy fit i couldn t be happier with this purchase love this top got xs fits perfectly wish it came in more designs beautiful shorts i m 5 3 130 lbs and athletic muscular build the 4 fit perfect which is my true size great print that will go with plenty of different colors i feel like you can dress it up or go more casual tried this on to see if the size works in regular size and i love the fir it si very feminine and flattering i will have to go back for it both apttenrs are really nice and it also comes in balck in my store \n\nneckline is super flattering i ordered this top in xl in the navy print it fits true to size it s made of two very soft materials the printed part looks like sailboats to me it doesn t wrinkle or have a static problem the solid knit portion is a good quality too i love the styling details of the ruffled neck and the middle pleat it s flattering i like how the details make this a dressy version of a t shirt while being very comfortable too nan nan this jumpsuit has the best fit i could ever imagine for a jumpsuit jumpsuits are always tricky for me but this one fits like a dream i would say it runs true to size with the exception of being a little bit big in the chest you could go braless with this jumpsuit as there are nice little cups for the girls but i put on a strapless bra just to fill out the top part that s not typically a problem for me being a 32d i don t think i could size down though or it would be too tight in the wais i am not really a fan of jumpsuits rompers etc but i love this jumpsuit very good quality and design fits well but i thought the 4 was pretty large for a 4 i mean i probably should have gotten a 2 which was sold out but i don t usually have to get a 4 tailored i did in this case but it was still worth it these pants are fabulous i want more colors \nand i got them on sale i will find myself reaching for this top time and time again i tried these on in a 6 which is my usual size in bottoms that are not designer jeans and they fit ok they were a little short waisted but i have a long torso sizing up to an 8 helped but then they were fairly wide in the legs they are meant to flare out a bit i believe but it was too much for me i like them but i don t love great cut and high quality fabric the top gives you a nice hourglass shape and i love the way it hangs half way down your butt i purchased the blue one it s a very brilliant royal blue nice color the patterned portion is quite heavy which provides a nice drape hangs really well without being clingy or too loose great top for jeans i got the purple version in a xs i purchased it on sale so it was a great deal i usually don t wear large prints but i loved the print and the ruffle detail very feminine it also hides the tummy roll so that is always a plus i ve worn it a few times and threads are already unraveling but easy fix this is a cute top and i did not even need my usual petite size thanks to the 3 4 length sleeves i liked the semi abstract sailboat pattern and the style is comfortable to wear however the tie at the neckline didn t appeal to me so ultimately i did not buy it this must be the only structured t shirt at retailer at the time of this review i love it the neckline is perfection the ruched sleeves are long enough to cover my upper arms i found it a bit see through and added a white cami \r\n\r\nsizing i ordered an xs normally i wear a small in retailer brands and a med in most other brands size small t s have been too large lately i m 5 5 tall 135 lbs 35 29 36 34d long torso narrow across the shoulders and short arms \r\n\r\nfit loose fitting t s l an adorable tank wearing it right now \r\nfits this curvy girl well though may consider wearing a tank underneath as the keyhole does show a bit of cleavage \r\nif in between sizes consider sizing down \r\nperfect print for summer i am a jumpsuit convert i tried it on just in case but was amazed at how easy and effortlessly adorable it is i purchased the black petite 4 and love that it is super versatile in terms of seasonality and styling options i have an hourglass figure and the draping and fit of the piece work very well this was my first time to try this brand and they fit so well and are super comfortable i love the pockets also i am 5 1 108 and i got a 2p and they fit just right i bought this top in lavender this top is light and smooth on your body and true to size i m 5 4 34dd 150 lbs m fits well it hides the imperfections in the tummy area and i find myself going for this top a lot it s a very easy to put on and take to it off love the print and comfort of this tank however it does run about 2 sizes larger than normal it is also not a fitted tank it has some flow which is not exactly what i was looking for i really can t say enough about them they have the perfect amount of stretch are so comfortable and they keep their shape really well i would say that you could wear them 3 times before washing also the color is perfect they are tts and even allow for a little extra holiday weight without becoming a torture device since there isn t one where i live i ran into retailer while waiting for my daughter to pick me up saw this and bought it off the rack w out trying on had to get a m as they were out of s and yes it s a tad large on me but still glad

i got it i think it will be a nice transition piece into fall in hot texas love how the linen drapes and it makes me feel a bit more dressed up than a cotton tee the ruching on the sleeves is an extra nice touch i tried this on in the store on a whim it is so flattering soft and p retty i generally wear a size 12 and bought a l although the m might have fit also it s got p lenty of room the chiffon yoke is not particularly sheer and a nude bra strap is basically invi sible the jersey is adequately opaque so no camisole needed my dimensions are about 40 bust x 33 waist i ve been stalking this beauty since it came out and when i saw it went on sale wit h an extra percent off code i knew i had to purchase well worth the price i paid a bit steep a t full price \r\n\r\ni went with a size medium i usually take a small 2 4 in retailer tops and these days i m around a 32c i m also tall with long arms the design is very forgiving with the cropped sleeve and non closing front so you have some wiggle room it fits me like it was custom made \r\n\r\nthe material is a lightwei i purchased the blue version in store it s a nice roya l blue not navy although the it could be worn with navy i thought the fit was flattering t he middle piece pleat is less obvious on the blue than the purple the tie at the neck can be untied and it is still not too low cut note the inseam runs a little longer than stated above if you are truly a 29 inseam you may want to get the petite size i purchased the petite small my inseam is 27 and the trousers hit the ground in stocking feet however the length can be c hanged depending on where you wear place them on your hip \ni ve worn these trousers at home and around town with ease they are a wonderful cold weather go to wardrobe staple i wear a nylon trouser slip with them to prolong the need for cleaning i saw this in my local store last nigh t and was instantly drawn to the color it is more greenish than yellow i say this alot but thi s was so much prettier in person i would not look twice at it online the picture does it no ju stice i am not a pancho person but this looks very luxurious and expensive and it feels so sof t and warm i tried the xs s and it fit perfect i am typically a medium in other brands at ant rho it is boxy but that is the point of a sweater of this type it will be p great causal tank the back is a bitter longer than the front i m 5 6 and the back model shot was right on for w here it his me at the hip butt the material is a poly spandex rayon mix that feels predominatel y like polyester and rayon and has a little bit of give \r\n\r\n i go between a medium and small in most retailer tanks and like to achieve a look that is somewhere in between form fitting and flowy quick stats 130 lbs 34c and the small was perfect without being too tight across the chest i can t wait for our warmer weather to arrive here in minnesota so i can wear this lovely tank top the style is so flattering it doesn t bag out to make you look pregnant the back yok e is solid navy blue chiffon which is a nice touch soft fabric drapes beautifully the armhole s are not oversized the fabric is opaque so no camisole required \r\n\r\ni am 5 5 and 120 lbs and 36a i purchased size small love it goes well with a lot super soft beautiful colors lov ely style feminine and has a nice flow fiattering fit in back also nice holiday blouse reall y very pretty this is a beautiful color and nice heavier fabric love the style armholes not t oo big the body is loose fitting at torso but chest area is fitted at 36 c size small i love this top with skinny jeans or pencil skirt as shown on model top looks just like it does on mod el as far as fit fabric is so comfy color is gorgeous fit is flattering for large chests thi s top is an amazing go to piece and yes i have all the colors i could grab my hands onto i wil l say that under the arms small little balls of fabric begin to appear with wear therefore it will need a quick once over with your sweater shaver from time to time good staple for a great price the fabric is lovely color was great but unfortunately it ran a bit large this might b e a case of girls with boobs vs girls without i have a small chest so for me this just didn t stay in place i was worried about the arms squeezing me so i got a small rather than my usual x s bad choice the diamond in the middle pooches out rather than hugging your body which was wh at i was hoping for when i raise my arms the whole shirt ends up riding up pretty awkward th ere s also a lot of fabric i thought this top was absolutely beautiful online and it doesn t di sappoint in person the fabric is divine and i just love the paisley design after putting it o n though it did look just a tad boxy but not enough to return it i would definitely recommend the top and maybe a cute belt to accompany i really like this top i am usually a medium in re tailer clothing and so i ordered this in medium it did not fit right across my chest the empir e part cut right across my breast and not underneath like it is supposed to i returned the top for a large and it fits just right in that area other than that this top is light and airy flo wy and pretty i love it lovely silky top 100 poly i typically look better in more cool ton es this top is neutral enough that i could pull it off it really has three very pretty compli mentary patterned fabrics the front v is very deep and the arm holes are quite roomy so either size down or plan on wearing a cami to conceal cleavage and bra i had a hard time deciding to o rder red or turquoise as both colors are really nice in person the black of course is a clas sic another reviewer found the top to be small but i found it to be a little big on me in my u sual size not too bad but a little bigger than expected \n\nteh neck part is effortless as the am very pleased with the quality and think that the fit could go well on most body types i got the denim color which may not be the best color for all but i love it because denim is timeles s and very versatile i would suggest this to anyone and could not be happier with this go out and buy it now you won t re i bought this during the 25 off dress sale but alas it is a chemi ith some skinny jeans and boots i decided to order this color in a small to get a different loo k i m just as pleased with the fit of the smaller size i think this size will work better for tucking in and more tailored looks yea these shirts are so soft and made of substan this shirt looks just like it does in the picture and my favorite detail was the buttons i was a little d isappointed in the stitching of the front tucks as it looked sloppy at the ends but you might find that rustic charming this is a great top for spring summer i ordered an 8p and it fit we ll everywhere except the chest so i m returning it my bust is about 37 32ddd and it was sli ghtly too tight if i go up a size it will probably make me look bigger than i am nevermind the horizont these shorts are divine the fabric is sturdy and there is a weave of sparkle that i di d not perceive from the picture i am rarely disappointed by maeve and this was no exception i am a 32b and broad shouldered and my normal size 6 fit like a dream the white print is opaque s o no bra see through such a cute fun print the fabric has a really soft hand too this top is so pretty and the fabric is really soft but it does fit a little bit small in the bust i am not extremely large busted but the buttons gap open just a little and it s tight across my back otherwise i love this top and the colors are really really nice i had no issues with size or length i m 5 9 34c bust and i bought the striped shirt in a 4 and the umbrella print in a 2 th e 2 was ever so slightly tight at the second button but i was wearing a heavy cotton cami i cou ld have worn a 2 in the striped top as well i am broad shouldered and the shoulder seam in the size 4 dropped a little so there was plenty of room these shirts are adorable i usually don t like button downs but this style is very flattering the material is light and drapes w i purcha sed this shirt in the black and it looks great it fits well and the design with the different c olor dots adds character this shirt can be worn with anything and for just about any occasion thanks retailer for another winner this sweater is beautifully made from quality yarn if you are between sizes you might want to order a size down i usually fit between a size m and l de pending on the brand in this sweater i took the medium but i am debating returning for a small as i would prefer a petite length and the sweater is slightly wide across the upper back i m ho ping it may be restocked as i would buy this sweater again cute top well constructed was sur prised at the various gatherings i hadn t noticed before ordering really like the billowy aspec t on the bottom received lots of compliments i love this top and bought my usual xs i don t h ave any issues with the buttons gaping but am 34b so i m not a busty girl i got the adorable um brella print and living in a rain forest in southeast alaska it could not be cuter i also found this blouse fits well and runs true to size a size 2 was perfect not too tight and not too ful l the umbrellas and raindrops are so cute and bright i will wear with jeans or dressier slim p ants what fun based on reviews i got the medium pink size 8 petite because some said it was tight in the bust area and pulled at the buttons creating a gap i m 5 6 and 32d i figured the 8 petite would be big enough in the bust area and the petite would be shorter it was too big an d even though it was petite still too long wanted to like it but at full price decided to re turn i bought the umbrella print in the petite length i m pleased with the whimsical print and crisp colors the fit is just right for me although the style runs a bit wide at the waist it s a casual loose fit more fitted on top at the bust shoulders and sleeves and flaring out bel ow the waist i would wear it untucked over jeans or a narrow skirt the only thing i m not craz y about is the rayon fabric though it is a substantial weight and machine washable this top wa s a great purchase even though it s a bit expensive love the colors and the fit i have many ma eve shirts and this one does not disappoint i purchased the blue and love it i do agree with o ther reviews though that the chest is a little tight while the rest of the fit is small i love the way this dress fits and flares in all the right places making it one of the most flattering dresses i ve tried in a while for me maeve dresses tend to run a bit big so i sized down to a small i m typically an 8 10 the colors are a little deeper richer in person which made me ve ry happy i love the flounce in the skirt it adds more swing to the dress the only draw back was the v neck came down a bit low easy fix with a cami for work i love this cut of shirt the stripes are fun i did have to go up a size due to my bust 34dd which made the lower part a l ittle bit more flow y regardless i still love this top so much that i have bought 3 of the pr ints available contrary to what previous reviewers have said i think this top fits really well and is very flattering i also don t find it too long at all i normally wear a size small and got this in a size 4 no gapping at the chest and i m a 34d 5 4 124 lbs 36 27 35 and the colors in the striped version are really pretty i plan to wear it now and right through spring i did have a quality issue however the first one i received had bunched up stitching where the pleats begin right below the po this is a really cute shirt for spring i love the colored strip ing and you can dress it up or down have not worn it yet waiting for it to get a little warm er i m a huge maeve enthusiast tried this on in three different colors and although these typ es of maeve tops have had sizing differences from season to season this top is more true to siz e than others have been more recently the petite size for me was too short to tuck in but the regular worked perfectly the top is roomy flowy and the white version is sheer but a white t ank under it would be perfect the green umbrellas are adorable a great way to spruce up your w ardrobe for spring i love this shirt it is so feminine and comfortable will be on s i am built small up top size m and the 6 fit perfectly the buttons did not gape at all i gr abbed this during a 20 off sale so i will state first that i don t think this top is worth full price and even at 20 off i wasn t wowed enough to pay that much for it the colors are more sa turated in person and very pretty however the cut both the length and the width just made it too overwhelming on my size 14 16 frame i ordered the xl and it was wayyyy too big through the chest but sizing down to a large meant that it didn t flow over my hips as well because it s so long i think i got this in the dark coral color it is lovely i m taking it to hawaii love th is top flattering on my post baby body its feminine and soft sizing i m have broad shoulders back 36c 34d short waist and i usually wear a m in a knit top that s what i bought so i d say that this tee is tts it is a little longer in the back than front but not as a high low to p would be rather it s sort of tunic like in style i have worn it over leggings with and with out a sweater and the added length covers me i admit that i m a tad on the short side at 5 2 and that i have no hips straight up and down and no waist my shape is an upsid nan so flatter ing the length is perfect and hits just above the knee in front slightly longer on sides i was looking for a versatile dress that could be worn to church work luncheons or casual eveni ng events this one fits the bill i love that it pays homage to the boho peasant trend without being shapeless or making me look too wide i am 5 6 long torso 132 lbs 32d and the small fi t perfectly i got the black motif print this is a great blouse the fabric is a fine rayon whi ch is soft and has a lovely drape to it i have found rayon to be a good fabric all year and qui te cool in the summer i am 5 7 long waisted and 127 lbs with a slender build so i usually wear a size 6 this fits perfectly as well as being quite flattering it can be worn loose or belted with a contrasting or black belt over skinny jeans it would also be swell with a pencil skirt it will cover any fashion flaws i usually like to shop the s love this blouse it fits well wit h a slight flare at the bottom doesn t wrinkle much and washes in cold water perfectly have ha d compliments on the style and design a definite buy these are the perfect way to battle the c alifornia heat in style more beautiful than on the picture you can t see but there are gold t hreads running through the fabric pair with a sandal and a flow top and i m good to go love t his top kept looking online but really wanted to try on so once i made it to a store i was s o happy they had my size i m 5 1 but prefer regular sizes in retailer for the length i got t he xs and it is a lovely fit tts love the colors in the pink top nan i am a 10 m and got the 10 it fits perfectly and there is room in the bust i m 36 38 c the shirt feels very nice and silky up to the skin i m just not sure about the print i got the umbrellas it s cute but may be a little too cartoonish it does look good with a green or blue puffy vest for colder days still trying to decide if i should keep or return but only b c of the print i d love this in s ome solid colors i ordered this top on sale and so glad that i did i am usually a small in top s but had read that it runs small i went with a medium and wish that i picked the small it is definitely a swing top it s best feature is the detailing it s gorgeous i paired it with jean s and a white denim jacket love these pants the are super comfy and very flattering but they are very long i did manage to have them altered but you may risk losing the flare which is unf ortunate considering the price i am somewhere between a size 6 or 8 so i ordered this dress in a size small mistake too small the color of this dress is so lovely it s between red and ora nge will probably order it in medium i really love this dress because it can be dressed up wit h wedges or heels for a wedding or cocktail party but could also be dressed down with a cute pa ir of gladiators i love the pockets too i m very happy with my purchase and would recommend to anyone who needs a go to summer dress for many occasions i was looking for a romper for a long time which i don t need to care whether to wear bras after taking shower and relax because of i ts design with a line on the top no worries for a relaxed romper the texture was not as silky as i wished but you will like this if you want a light on weight i can t believe these aren t s old out yet i had no problem getting this over my head this top has such beautiful colors an d embroidery quality is good flattering on at this price it is probably the best deal i v e gotten on anything from retailer i would recommend this top absolutely love love love bu t alas had to return gorgeous fabric and elegant design i purchased for an evening summer wedd ing however the cut of this dress is more suited to a small bust line and a short waist i fel t like it hit at my rib cage and not my natural waist and my top half was spilling out of the ne ckline it was slightly loose so i don t think sizing up would have helped maybe i needed to si ze down i m 5 6 145 lbs and had the 10 loved but it didn t fit me properly also noticed the this sweatshirt is the perfect solution to chilly mornings or evenings sundry s lightweight fle ece is never too warm or cool the fit is true to size the short sleeves look even cuter rolled up once or twice i know i will be getting a lot of use from this top once early summer comes al ong i really liked the style of this dress the top was nice and stretchy and the bottom is so soft and silky i love lace and thought that was a nice detail for the top the colors are a lit tle brighter in person the red in the pictures here is more of a hot pink in person i m planni ng on buying some hot pink flats to wear with it at a wedding this summer \r\n\r\none reviewer said she didn t like the placement where the dress fell i have a short torso and long legs so i like to try to emphasize a and another addition to my wedding guest wardrobe the skirt pri nt is gorgeous and i can t wait to shop for the perfect shoe and accessories i m very hippy wit h a thinner waist and this hides that i love the pockets and the fact that i can wear a regular comfortable bra all around a great purchase i was going to order a size 2 online but decided t o check my local store first hate paying for shipping especially when so many retailers offer free shipping regardless of the purchase amount all that was left was a 0 and 10 i decided to go ahead and try the 0 just for size comparison i m usually a size 2 but this dress fit perfect in the 0 a 2 probably would have been ok but may have been a bit looser in the top i love the lace fabric on the top and the contrast it provides to the skir this is a very beautiful and wel l made skirt it looks a little like ribbon material it is very think and lush and the pockets add a little extra special to it the waist band is very sturdy and it wears very flattering ev en putting my hands in the pockets feels very thick and silky i am 5 1 with a 27in waist and t he size 2 fit really well just above the knee i tried on the xs in store in crimson i would n eed petite the color and fit were very flattering on me pale skin the dress feels very sil ky i love the back how it ties and how high the neckline was on me in the front the little f lutter at the bottom of the dress is also a nice touch my only concern was whether this looked like a negligee i think i would buy it if i had somewhere to go just not sure the fabric is appropriate for work \r\n\r\nreference 115 lbs 30dd 26 5 in waist i am normally a size me dium or small at retailer depending on the bust and could not even get the medium in this top past my neck it runs very small unfortunately the size large was not in stock for me to try t ruthfully i might have needed the xl in this it runs that small for reference i am 5 6 14 5 lbs 34dd also the beading on the top i tried was coming loose and some was already missing seems to be a common fault based on what other reviewers have said nan the quality and aestheti c of this dress is wonderful the fit and look are classic i am 5 10 and the dress falls mid thigh this is a beautiful dress for a special event simple but with sparkle at the neckline an d an unusual print i am very happy with this purchase nan ordered this top the second i saw it \r\ni wear a small or med depending on the cut and fabric noticed it is cotton and w ent with a medium \r\nso happy i went with the larger size runs very small especially in the chest and there is no give in the fabric \r\nstunning top but would go up one possibly two sizes i love this dress its feminine sassy and very comfortable it fit my body type well i d say i have more of an athletic build broad shoulders 36c straight in waist hips plus i hav e a lovely left over tummy from two babies the top has stretch and is a higher waist which i s slimming on my body the bottom material is a thick and high quality with a design that is bea utiful in person it sits out from my waist and hips and easily covers the left over tummy and i s super easy to move in po they were way way too small i bought a 32 and they would probably f it someone that usually wears a 28 i was so sad to send them back because i loved them i love these jeans and want to keep them but they are so long im 5 7 and they wrap all the way under m y feet so i cant even have them altered because it would cut the flare out its kind of crazy ho w long they are adorable comfortable piece runs slightly big for reference i am 5 3 and 120 123lbs i wear a size 6 8 the quality of material on this skirt is very good and quite heavy t he waistband has a little stretch and the skirt is lined there are pockets longer on me than t he model which is fine because i m wearing it to work this skirt has no black it s dark navy and brown in it and will not look good with black tights which how i wear skirts to work can b e worn with no tights it s a made of substantial curtain like material i m keeping i wore this dress for my bridal shower and got a ton of compliments it fits great and is very well made ve ry soft and luxe materials and really well made pockets a nice detail and otherwise a great cut and length petticoat underneath a cool detail too fits nicely i m a standard size 4 most pla ces also perfect for those in between occasions can be dressed up or down and worn with flats or heels i don t understand the low rating the head opening in my size 2 is perfect and i don t have a small head \r\nthe style is both flattering on many shapes and very comfortable t he embroidery is gorgeous and the blue hue can be paired with many colors it be worn with jeans on the weekend and also dresses up beautifully for the office if worn with a jacket and a pair o f slacks i wore it with an olive jacket and jeans last week and received compliments \r\nthe c aveat is that it wrinkles a lot fabric was a little more shear than i thought it would be w hile not a big deal it was missing a few of the silver beads along the front line of the top returned nan when i saw this dress i knew i had to have it i loved the colors and design i am a wedding planner and dresses with pockets are my uniform \r\ni was a little concerned after re ading some of the other reviews but i ordered anyway and am glad i did it fits perfect and loo ks just like the photo i too was dubious about the dry clean only label but purchased it anywa y because it was really cute and comfortable the shorts part is lined which is nice not see through the waist is a smocking with elastic it s also very thin thread the first one i tr ied on had a couple of stitches ripped in this waistband and because of that the fabric sort of bubbled out i bought a different one knowing it was delicate this isn t a romper your going to want to shimmy over your hips because of great for hot weather dress up and dress down don t need to decide what to match with and bottom or top this runs huge not large huge and hung in quite a baggy way bought a medium 5 10 150 lbs and i could have gotten an x tra small m aybe if there were free shipping i would have reordered but now its just too much of a hassle t his skirt is exactly as i had hoped it would be the zipper works great the material feels nice and the liner is attached to the skirt so there is no bunching effect after the first time i wo re the skirt i went out and bought more tops to go with it i highly recommend this skirt the s tyle and material are nice but what i love is that it does not give me a wedgie and i think it would still fold nicely on shorter frames i m a little heavier than i d like due to postpartum fluff and have to gradually lose because of breastfeeding so i look for bottoms with enough giv e in the waist that will still fit once i reach my goal weight for reference i m about 33 wais t x 44 hips with a goal of 31 waist x 40 hips so roughly a size 12 14 getting back to an 8 1 0 i bought a medium and it stretches enough to fit this skirt is a solid staple and the colors are just lovely the flat elastic in the waistband doesn t rol saw this skirt in the sale room a nd figured i d give it a try i m always looking for comfortable skirts that aren t too tight ar ound the waist once i zipped it up i knew it would be a keeper the waist band is super comfor table and it has a hook eye closure as well the material is a little heavier weight but that s fine it can work for winter as well it s soft yet structured the pockets are always a plus i f you want to step away from the normal shapes and colors this is out of the box i paired this gorgeous top with a black v neck cardigan mother lookers and black booties and felt and looked so totally feminine and amazing i honestly lost count of the compliments that i received be ading is sewn on tightly and the stitching on the embroidery has no loose ends i am 5 3 108 and took the regular size small highly recommend super comfy easy to put on and super cute you can dress it up and dress it down i m usually a size s and the small fits fine but i think the xs would have fit better love this skirt very fun and feminine it is a great fit and i lo ve the layering contrast of stripes length goes right to below my knees which is perfect for m e i am petite and curvy in the photo of the dress you might have a hard time telling that the top half of the dress is the lace part and is a stretchy knit fabric while the bottom half i s polyester and not stretchy at all \nfyi 36c 34d short waist broad shoulders back usually a 10 12 in a fitted top dress\nthe navy lace of the top as i said is knit therefore it was to o stretchy and the straps actually were already too long it was so loose that i needed the sm aller size in the top half of the dress 10 nan i am 5 2 and got this in a 6p i would say it fits tts the top also has some give but the waist is just a few inches away from being empire i think the dress on the model is pulled down to de emphasize this even so it is a very cute d ress plan to wear it with a navy velvet jacket for easter great material quality and versati lity is there it is easy to get in and out of which is hard to find and the fit is adjustable a t the waist i can t say enough good things about this romper i am curvey on the bottom and hav e never been able to get on board with the romper trend because all the ones i had tried were to o short or were clearly made for models and teenagers this romper is a great length and style f or all ages and body types the material is so soft and is the kind of material that won t easil y wrinkle it can easily be dressed up for a night out with wedges and jewelry or dressed down f or day with flats and maybe eve great summer shirt loose fitting but especially wide the bu tton gather in back is a nice detail i would of paid double the amount for this romper i am a m edium and the medium fits perfect i am a little long in the torso so some rompers aren t comfo rtable but this one is this is going to be a summer staple for sure nan cute top for jeans or capri pants love the sleeve length perfect for end of summer going into fall very soft and pa irs great with skinnies and sandals or booties still trying to find a sweater to layer it with runs true to size i am an xs 0 and got the xs i was a little worried because i am so petite i usually swim in tops like this it fits perfectly and comfortably i m 32b 26 36 straight and s lim and the 0 fits like a glove it s a nice change from all these loose billowy sometimes sa ck or tent like dresses if you are busty or have a broad rib cage you ll need to size up for sure the slip is fitted and im wondering if it will stay put love all the colors in this dress navy was better for me the white washed me out and was just underwhelming the band of lace hit s high on my waist at a spot that is flattering and slimming which doesn t happen of finally a j umper that works for me i am 5 6 but i have a long torso so most jumpers ride up in an uncomfor table way this one is perfect the material is light and perfect for warm weather the top is v ery adjustable for all different chest sizes i personally think the pant length looks better if you are under 5 8 because it comes down closer to the ankle but then again if you have long thi n legs you might not mind the bottom hitting at your calf i can t say enough good things about this jum this is a very cute dress with a comfortable fit my only gripe is that i could not ge t the top of the v neck slip to stop shifting to the side i tried on xs regular and xxs petite i would need xs petite 115 lbs 30dd chest 5 1 5 \r\n\r\nlove the cut very cute and flatter ing the tie back is styling but this piece is very trendy and so i decided to pass as i am not sure how often i could wear it to work will wait to see if it goes on sale patter is very n t get huge around the midsection i got the red and it will go great with pilcro khakis or den im i love this dress it is an easy throw on and go dress the fabric is very soft and the cut is faltering fit is true to size i bought this dress for my sister s bridal shower and it was a hit i was a little bit surprised when it arrived because i did think it was going to be actua l tweed it is not it is simply a tweed pattern i think it makes a little bit more casual bu t it was a fun dress for an afternoon bridal brunch one thing i wish it had pockets not sur e why this says online exclusive as i bought it in green in the store i also saw it in a must ard color at another location but in any case \nthis is an adorable and flattering dress fabri c is kind of a chino weighty but not too heavy great color and design runs a bit small my no rmal size was snug and i thought that in the summer heat i would not want it that clingy so went up a size i love it and would buy it in more colors this is a great dress it s cut nicely is flattering and it s not too short if i put it on i look put together in a matter of seconds the dress fits true to size one thing i would agree with the other review that this is not rea lly tweed instead it is made out of a patterned stretchy material that is a little thinner th an tweed the colors are really beautiful and while the blues and reds are more intense in real life it looks terrific nan i found this to be a very feminine and flattering dress it is pret tier in person i have the ivory and black print i agree that it takes a bit of effort to get t he slip positioned properly i might wear a different slip however i was able to get the slip t o stay in place the print and fabric are a nice quality i typically wear an xxsp or a 0p i bo ught this in the 0 regular because i like my dresses a little bit longer i think it runs just a little bit small got this in the dark blue wash there is significantly less color variation than pictured online it s a medium wash and incredibly soft i typically wear m or l in this b rand due to very broad shoulders and muscular biceps if you have a similar frame and you typica lly wear one of two sizes go with your larger size \r\nthis feels incredibly silky it s lightw eight so it can be worn almost year round and will layer well over say a tissue style turtle neck in the winter it s longer in the b perfect for when you re a guest at someone s home hav ing guests or just lounging prettiest set you ll ever own you ll feel as if your on vacati on even if you re not i wouldn t travel without this set highly recommend love this was my first time ordering or even knowing about retailers what a pleasant surprise i will shop often this is a really great top it is really soft and made very well it could be a casual top with jeans or dress up with some chunky jewelry and cute heels i wasn t sure which size to get bec ause i mostly get mediums amd i sometimes get a large i ended up going with a large and it seem ed to be just a little too big but it doesn t have that look at all it looks so much better in person than on the computer overall a very cute top these are such under rated pants i love t he fit style fabric everything about them they are the perfect weight can be worn with bo ots sandals flats etc they run tts i got my usual 26 get yourself a pair while they last you won t regret it the design and workmanship of this dress are outstanding the fit may be tr icky for some i am small busted and the bust and even the neckline are very tight and fitted s till flattering though i typically wear a 0 or 2 in dresses and purchased this in a 2 i could have worn a 4 5 8 127lbs the length is perfect as i purchased this in navy for a wedding the navy cami slip underneath is top quality with adjustable straps and snaps to hold them in place at your shoulder overall a sweet and dr i ve had a hard time finding the right jumpsuit and hav en t ha a lot of luck with retailer clothing lately but this is perhaps my favorite retailer pu rchase of all time i m petite and busty 5 2 34c d and was pleasantly supposed at how well t his fits the pattern is a bit faded like the best kind of vintage find so it works for someon e short like me and because the back has a tie closure it can adjust as needed i ll be wear ing it with a sports bra that crosses in back with 4 straps whic i don t have anything but rave s here this is a perfectly proportioned jumpsuit of high quality fabric in a neutral color wh ich is like a denim looking blue color with a beige starburst pattern much much nicer in perso n than in the product photo and has a really neat slightly nubby texture that adds interest i t s easy to get in and out of the back of the waistband is elastic and stretches so the only thing you have to do is tie the back which is really easy the top as someone menti this is o ne of the most flattering tops i ve ever owned i m a little confused by the other reviews beca use the model in the photo doesn t have it tacked in the back you can see on the photo of the b ack there s a button to pull it in which makes it so incredibly flattering it s soft and beaut iful but very delicate i d wash it separately and carefully and rarely i actually had to r eturn my first one because of a hole in the material overall one of my new favorite tops this is a very cute top my only reservation is that where the elastic is on the side sticks out a li ttle more than i would like it s not that big of a deal though i love this dress it is beaut iful feminine and fits perfectly i am a 4 in a dress size i have long wait 5 7 very happ the texture and the cut of the dress although the dress was very well made it just wasn t rig ht for me this is my favorite jumpsuit purchase of the season flattering casual look well ma de light material easy to dress up or down can t wait to wear it again agree with other revie wers that the dress doesn t look like the picture so retailerpligie should really change it out however i m keeping the dress since it does look cute on definitely more yellow in it than you can see i usually don t do jumpsuits because i m 6 ft tall and the torso is usually too short i saw this one in a store though and decided to try it on it s very light and soft cotton and f it great lengthwise overall the fit is way too large though i m usually a size 12 or 14 and i was swimming in the xl as in the waistband was at least 4 inches too big the back of the wais tband has elastic so if you aren t sure what size to get size down i got a size l and it s sti ll a bit too big the back retailer is totally killing my wallet because i can t resist these m odern city meets prairie boho dresses i bow down to the textile designers who created this prin t it s stunning as for reality vs model shoot it s pretty much what you see the colors are spot on the outer dress is sheer the bodice is slightly fitted with a fuller skirt that doesn t poof too much all poly construction with no stretch whatsoever i had a bit of a struggle get ting the outer dress over my shoulders but once a i like the soft green color the chino fabric and the casual vibe this dress exudes perfect for spring and early summer runs tts but may be snug for bustier gals wish this had pockets nan i have an upside down triangle shape i am a 4 6 on the bottom and a 10 12 on top i have a short waist i have very slim hips and virtually no waist so a typical jumpsuit or romper really doesn t fit me this one is the exception likely because it ties in the back but the s fit me perfectly the bottom half is easy but not oversi zed the top half of the jumpsuit is adjustable so there is no issue with size i am 36c on top but i think that i could pull off the top without a bra you can nan sleeves were a bit too lon g and the size was too big but it s really cute and if they had a smaller size i would definitel y have exchanged wanted a jumpsuit that didn t look stupid on a 50 year old this is it ord ered a large and it is a little loose around the waist but still fits and is comfortable extre mely well made and very cute the only complaint is that it is difficult to tie the back i fell in love with this dress the second i saw it in store i haven t experienced any of the issues ot hers have i love the short flowy feminine look and i think it can be dressed up or down it w ould be great for a summer wedding or cocktail event or dressed down as a day dress with a jean jacket i ve received compliments every time i ve worn it i love wearing this it is a little s lice of summer which i am desperately hanging on to the color pops it s so very comfortable the back is a work of art can be dressed up with a pencil summer skirt or down with capri styl e pants i bought this for myself and my mom and we both love it i got it in a small and almost wish i had gotten it in an xsmall it s super comfy and appropriate for work the sweater is a g reat fit and the styling is very original and wonderful it will be great with leggings jeans or even a straight skirt i would definitely recommend this sweater thee are beautiful pants s o soft to the touch true to color ca t wait to wear them in the fall for a special occasion rms is i love the cut of these pants i m very curvy and the high waist and wide leg is perfect for me these hang off the hips beautifully i m 5 2 and the petite is perfect with heels i di dn t have to hem them the one drawback is that they get very static clingy which is frustrating i wear them with a cream tie blouse and wedges they re really comfortable for reference 5 3 130 athletic muscular body type broad shoulders slim hips \r\ni bought my usual size 4 and i t fit perfectly like other reviewers said this is a very fine corduroy fabric the thicker fab ric really helps smooth any bumps and bulges and the a line skirt was flattering overall i lik ed this dress but the color didn t do much for me because it just wasn t wow on me i found little things to nitpick the bodice is very flattering but the way it cuts in shows bra straps i initially bought the red and blue sweater in a medium i usually wear a large and the medium f its perfectly and is still a bit baggy i m tall 5 9 and so i love the length of the sleeves when they are unrolled it s a very versatile piece with sleeves rolled down you can fold the c ollar so the red is out of sight and just have a navy blue sweater either look is nice i loved it so much i bought the black and brown version also the fabric doesn t feel thick but it is v ery insulating and i absolutely love this shawl jacket i usually use it as outerwear and it is the perfect piece for those in between weather days in new england when it s too cold for winter wear and not warm enough to go without a jacket the black brown works great with whatever you r e wearing so versatile and i love that it has pockets this robe is so pretty i kind of feel l ike a movie star when i wear it the embroidered flowers and trim are a very nice touch the fab ric is very light and soft i m sure it will feel nice and cool on those hot summer nights ahead the fit is true to size and is actually a bit longer than what is shown on the model i am extre these jeans fit snug but not confining they have some stretch to the material so that you can m ove with ease i love the way they fit my body with one exception unfortunately they did not ha ve the petite available so the length is about 3 to 4 inches too long on my 5 3 frame the dark blue makes it acceptable for casual friday yay i am 5 3 102lbs and even though i will have to hem them the overall fit was great i tried this in a size medium i have purchased several rom pers this summer and that s usually the size that fits i m 5 4 and hover around 130lbs i m s hort waisted i don t have a long torso but this just fit if you look at the model in the pic she s bent to one side giving the look of blousing at the top but if you stand upright it s ve ry straight and smooth i could get it to blouse over the waist but then i had to pull the botto m up so high the shorts became way to short i like the m it s impossible to tell but this dres s is made from very fine wale corduroy the neckline is very flattering for a smaller chested wo man with a sharp cut that makes a strapless bra required for peace of mind the dress does ha ve snaps to hold your bra straps in but i went ahead with a strapless the back has a neat squa re cut the skirt is slightly longer on both sides which gives the dress movement even though the material is heavier than typically used for this season or cut i wore it i wanted to love t his the color in the picture is pretty true to life the top fit well if a bit smaller than us ual but the skirt piece was way too flared for my petite 5 frame it was too voluminous comp ared to the top of the dress the material is very soft but thin and is lined which was a ple asant surprise sadly a return for me love it easy to wear true to size there is a slight t exture which makes it very cozy i purchased this top in the navy the picture makes the top look like an interesting blue with some purple in it but in person the top is just navy the lace and fabric are soft it fits true to size i almost always wear a small and the small fit fine it wasn t quite my style but it s a pretty top that will be great for spring and summer i boug ht this in the sable green you can wear this blouse tucked in or out if you re wearing somethi ng lie leggings it is comfortable and the color is very flattering beautiful lace detail and v ery soft material runs a little big i am keeping this because i got a great deal 30 off sale price it fits great i alternate between xs and s went with s and overall it has nice quali ty thick fabric secure toggles etc but what is with the lack of lining i would hesitate to buy anything from this brand at full price because of that there are just large seams on the inside which is tolerable because of the type of fabric but come on i received my coat today in love it is so flattering in so many ways it may not be form fitting but i love all the det ails and i m a sucker for hoods this is a great fall winter coat especially if you live in the south it will probably only work as a late spring early fall coat for you northern ladies my o nly compliant is that the arms are too long but i m only 5 so it ll possibly be the perfect f it for someone else this is a great go to top it isn t too low too tight too dressy or too casual i m 5 1 and ordered a small petite it fits perfectly especially under the arms where tops always show my bra it doesn t go too low i have to admit i purchased the dusty rose color i m not sure how great it complements my olive skin but i love it anyway i ordered this for my friend and she loved it i m a bit disappointed in this top i m keeping because retailer s shipping rates are obnoxious and i don t have a store near me by the time i pay for shipping both ways i could have paid for 1 2 the shirt the loft has some very similar tops for about 1 2 the price i love meadow rue and their material is fabulous but the design is off on this on e you can t size down because the armholes and top are fitted but the bottom is a tent not my usual style as i m short with a short waist this i got this in white and was surprised to see that it fits me i am very petite but with a 32d bust and purchased the xxs this fit me perfect ly the fabric is soft and kind of silky the straps were not too long the hem hit just at my h ip line i am buying the other color i just received this coat and love it the only downside i s that online the color looks like a royal blue which i wanted but in truth the coat is a basi c navy this was not a deal breaker for me i love the details it is not lined as someone menti oned earlier but it s not meant to be a heavy winter coat i can t wait to wear it with jeans b oots and a striped or plaid tunic i love this dress even more in person than in the photo it i s more sleek and fitted than it appears on the model the seams are flattering and the fabric is lovely i fell in love with this online and i m so thrilled that it s even more beautiful in per son it is a stunning very dark teal velvet with the most gorgeous embroidery perfect fit qua lity and nicely lined a keeper for years to come i think it s true to size for reference i m 5 1 100 lbs and the 0p fits perfectly i bought this vest hoping to be able to throw it over lo ng sleeve tops for fall and it s perfect for that it adds a bit of detail with the buttons and pockets on the vest unbelievably soft fabric that doesn t feel like it will pill i ordered dar k grey i m 5 3 130 just after baby and size m fits well super flattering doesn t smash my ry nice i was hesitant to buy this top after reading previous reviews but i love it granted i am two months postpartum so i am looking for tops that are airy it s summer in socal but cov er up my tummy the material is soft and stretchy and it does have a loose shelf bra type inset so not a real bra but at least something there i wore a free people bralette with it and it loo ked perfect really happy with this top i like the casual yet detailed look of this piece it looks great with crops the casual tie string makes the piece feel very laid back but the detai ls are so pretty i have it in lavender it looks way better in person saw it at the store and grabbed it immediately absolutely in love with this dress perfect to wear to work or for a cas ual brunch or cookout i m a 34b 27 waist and 36 hip and 5 3 and went with the xsp very im pressed with the quality and well worth the sale price this top works very well with a white or green cardigan for work the color is more green than in the photo and it is wider on the bottom it hides a non flat stomach very well without looking matronly i ordered a small petite but i am heavy on top so i did not find the armhole problem that the other reviewer had my only con i s that i don t love the high low thing that every retailer top seems to have these days but i c an live with it great material that drapes nicely super comfy feels cool but it s a thick mat erial not at all see through so happy i purchased this and super easy with the snap buttons but the shirt is very well made and high quality material would look great on all sizes and sha pes i m 5 4 and about 140 small chest normally i m a s or m with tops but bought this in a m because i like a slightly oversized shirt though it s also made to be looser and longer stil l at 5 4 i m not swimming in a m i am petite so ordered in the store and they shipped to my home i ordered a 24p and they fit great they stretch a tiny bit goes with a lot of tops and t hey are light weight which is great with houston westher this gorgeous dress is what retailer is all about natural fibers like silk and rayon and cotton unusual beautiful prints and colors n ot your average day to day find i bought this in my usual size l and while i could use a bit m ore room in the top it works either unbuttoned one button which shows the beautiful turquoise slip that comes with it or i am going to stitch it down the front so the buttons won t open an d the top won t gap at the bust i am 5 5 and the dress is a perfect l these are nice and light weight and comfortable this top is cute it adds a pop of color to my day and seems to be of hig h quality the colors seem more vibrant in person and the material is quite soft and stretchy a s another reviewer pointed out the peplum is only in the front it sounds really weird but i do n t really mind the look because i ll be wearing a jacket over it i m usually a size 12 14 with a 36dd bust and the large fits beautifully this is a very slimming well made nice fitting top i just disliked the colors they did not look good on me otherwise this is a very nice piece t his is a great looking top but the sizing is way off in the photo it looks a little oversized i am normally a medium but this one was very small sleeves several inches too short and it is m ore like 25 long instead of the 35 listed on the description in the right size i think it wil l be great but i m not sure whether to go up one size or two it s so hard to tell exactly what this sweatshirt looks like from the online photos it has a white and pale sky blue tie dye look all over with a sea foam green floral print runs tts the floral print isn t centered on the on e i received but for 11 i ll be keeping it when i got this top in the mail i was impressed by the colors they were very vibrant and i loved the feel of the material as well however the top did not look good on i have an hourglass figure with a dd bust and the peplum just made me lo ok like i didn t have a waist the arm holes were also very big and showed my bra overall i thi nk this is a very cute top but would probably be better on women with more athletic figures i m 5 2 and bought the dress in a petite medium i like to buy clothes that i can wear to work and this dress was almost too short if it were any shorter it wouldn t have worked if i were to b uy it again i d probably go with a non petite size also i ordered the dress online and i foun d two snags in it as soon as i pulled it out of the box i don t think they will be terribly not iceable but just beware that this dress will apparently snag easily i plan to wear it with a p urse without meta i picked this up on sale and was glad i did the material is just the right t hickness for some of the chilly days we have here in spring in the northeast the fit is right o n but size up if you are unsure or inbetween the detail down the back is adorable and adds a p oint of interest to this sweatshirt the fit is boxy but i think it compliments and balances t he overall girly design great casual pant for the summer wish there were more colors white or beige would be great comfortable great fit sizing is consistent with my normal designer denim sizing 26 i m also 5 3 and the regular size pant is just right for me i bought this tank for work but the color of the print is slightly muted compared to the photo i usually wear a xxs o r xs i am 100 lbs 5 1 and i got the xs thinking it will be loose which i wanted the arm hol es were down to my waist and it was also unusually wide the quality of the fabric is nice thou gh not to heavy and not too thin i just received these in the mail but had to send them back to the store because they are too big i usually wear a 28 and sometimes even a 29 in most ag an d mother jeans the 28 in these were loose in the waist and overall baggier than shown in the pi cture i ordered size 27 so hopefully these will fit just right since they are really cute the beige color is just as pictured and almost a rust color which goes well with a dark grey top as shown wore this dress for easter dinner and received many compliments it is delicate and if no t careful the diamond pattern can snag i loved the comfort and ability to dress up or down i o rdered the regular instead of petite as i wanted the length at my knees not thigh high and it f it perfect at 5 4 this dress is beautiful and unusual i think the colors shown in the picture are a little brighter than the dress i bought the turquoise and gold seem slightly more muted in person which isn t necessarily a bad thing there are sequins along the shoulders of the dre ss that you also can t see in the picture but they aren t gaudy or too stevie nicks bohemian i didn t find the bodice of the size m too tight as another reviewer noted it s my normal size and though i m a little chesty 32 34 i liked that this was a unique take on a sweatshirt prett y seam down the back and weight of material i m going to return it because i wish it was a litt le more of a loose baggy fit and under pattern is darker than i thought so wanted to love this top love the look entirely but the medium was beyond snug so i sent it back for a large hope fully the bigger size will make it a keeper material is thick and warm print is very pretty i received complements from all age groups fits a little boxy but it works very nice material s oft and feminine colors however the waist sat higher than my natural waist and was uncomfortab le unfortunately it s going back ordered my regular size 27 they were tight when they arrived but they stretch a lot i like the looser style so was vey pleased but think they are at least a size larger after one wear this is one great button up shirt the fringe hem is a fun little detail that gives this shirt some serious versatility it looks great layered under jackets and sweaters with a came underneath or all on its own the fabric could be a bit thicker i am bet ween a small and a medium a 6 or an 8 and bought this in a small love this shirt it is gre at quality and fits true to size in a comfy not too fitted way that a button down should fit i love that it is a classic white cotton shirt with a modern edge with the little bit of fringing on the bottom and sleeve cuffs it s great to wear with jeans or leggings and i can even see dre ssing it up or down depending on the accessories worn i have already gotten lots of compliments when wearing it everyone wants to get it for themselves i d even get it in another co these are so comfortable and surprisingly flattering i bought the taupe in sp for reference i m 5 2 115 lbs curvy on bottom i was afraid it would give me a bubble butt and it didn t could be dressed up with right shoes accessories i did the happy dance when the dress arrived but the v ery sad dance when i tried it on unfortunately instead of following my instincts i took the r eview here and reviews from some other sites to heart and ordered a size bigger than usual h uge mistake as in this dress was huge much too big to alter and keep the integrity of design for reference i m 5 7 130lbs 34c i usually wear an 8 dress due to a very large rib cage i ordered the 10 but was literally swimming i think a 6 woul nan i was intrigued by this top it s very cute but i feel that the tassels are just slightly too big and if the fringe would have b een a little more subtle the top would be cuter i m still on the fence with this one i ord ered the red in a size xl the fit is perfect it matches the model s photos the material is so soft it s definitely a cozy fabric the red color description is wrong but the photo accurat ely shows how it s really an orange shade the color is cheery since it s bright it will be gre at to use on cold days i bought this dress for a christmas party and received lots of complimen ts at 50 even though i live in a cold climate i was looking for something not black stylish and comfortable that i would not roast in at a party it is a beautiful green color with nice em broidery front and back and the shape is very boho i like my dresses a little more fitted so i bought the xs and i am usually a small so size down and had the waist nipped in a bit by m y seamstress to give it more of a flatteri i love this top tassels are not too big material is thick i wish is was a little longer though i really like this top a nice spin on a class swea tshirt fun with a pair of jeans or cords great everyday dress i bought a small 5 9 135lbs and it really fits nicely this is the cutest cardigan i purchased it in the red i wish there were more colors first tried on a large but wanted a little more room which an xl gave me it is just what i wanted to update my wardrobe bought the camel color and love it nice for cool even ings and mornings spring through fall soft and comfortable delicate yet not too much so that y ou wouldn t wear often great with leggings perfect with cold weather hard to find if you have large calves retailer is only place i could find leg warmers to fit they are nice and thick an d warm and true to color i really love this dress it s very flattering and comfortable and a ll the buttons keep the wrap in check i ve gotten lots of compliments on it also it s got poc kets love the shirt fits great and is so cute a must have for fall i ordered 3 different sty les of jogger pants and these were definitely the ones to keep true to size and instantly comfo rtable due to the soft material they are made from the taupe color i got will go with a lot to o these are great pants that you won t be sorry you bought beautiful sweater perfect length surprisingly warm i ordered two of these in orange as holiday gifts this year both were loved great style and quality will hopefully make this a go to sweater for both recipients i would ha ve loved this tee but the color didn t love me it s sort of a mustard orange the embroidery is beautifully done but i felt the size of the yarn tassels were too big and looked a bit odd but i have a large bust so don t like to draw attention there it s a sweatshirt and not a tee shirt but it flows and doesn t grab anywhere it looked so nice under a jean jacket if it weren t for the color and tassels it would be a keeper for me believe the reviews this dress is very fla ttering great quality and an excellent print i got the polka dot i was concerned about the wrap front since i am busty 32dd but this looks great is appropriate for work love i love the mustard color and fun boho details of this shirt however the sizing was a little weird i o rdered the small petite first and it was just too short which is rarely a problem i have so i ordered it in the regular small it s perfect in length but a little loose on top which i m fi ne with overall very happy with this purchase and have received many compliments on it nice w arm long cardigan that can work for many seasons works well over a dress this vest looks exact ly as in pictures which is a good thing for online exclusives i love the fact that it s lined a nd the texture and color of the fabric is very nice has a good solid quality feel to it it do es not have any buttons or belt that comes with it but looks perfectly fine just left opened i wore it with belt as well and it add to the structured styling of the vest more on the conserva tive side of retailer i have been searching for the perfect white shirt this is it i love how the collar lays and the longer length and frayed hem are perfection the fabric is super soft t oo i am very pleased with this purchase great sweater for casual days just the right length a nd fabric weight very versatile fit is true to size not oversized this is a cute top although it runs fairly large i have washed it once and the fray did ok however i m a bit concerned ab out how the shirt will wash over time with the frayed edges nan love love love this top it s got a little bit of a native american vibe without being over the top i tend to wear a small in retailer but the medium was the way to go for me it s not long and the style errs on the not tight side if you can go between two sizes don t get the smaller one and i love the shade of yellow a great wrap dress with many buttons the dress stays on better than any other wrap dres s i ever owned great for the beachy business look classy but immensely comfortable i feel li ke i look sharp without having to sit poker straight this top is as pictured i m 5 feet 120 po unds the small petite was a great fit the material is cozy soft and somewhat thick dress it casual with jeans or elevate it with slacks received this dress for christmas and fell in love the detail and fit is perfection the buttons go all the way to the bottom of the skirt so no co ncern for pesky flyaway exposure should the wind blow the detail on the arms w the buttons is a lso cute and i personally loved the longer sleeve that almost comes to my elbow it s very flat tering overall a great little dress i came into the store to try another dress on and was give n this dress to try it is perfect i paired it with black tights and tall boots for a family ph oto i got it in the wine color highly recommend and very fun for winter it does run really la rge i usually wear a small but got an extra small it is such a cute dress the mulit colored a spect allows me to wear many different color shoes with it the dress can be formal or informal and it works for a myriad of occasions please purchase it this is a lovely sweater the m oss color however is really camel which is what the photo indicates it fits tts is all cashm ere and is knit in a brioche stitch that gives it loft and texture that can be seen well in the detail photo i am generally not a fan of raglan sleeves but in this case it works with the over all construction of the sweater one that features interesting decreases lines and angles it is very soft warm and lightweight and can be worn as a casual piece or dressed i was excited to see this dress as i d bought the sparrow boiled wool sheath dress in xs last year and loved t he fit however this dress does not fit the same way the top fits fine but the waist and the bottom are way too big i laid it over my sparrow dress from last year and the bottom is at lea st an inch wider two inches if you go by the total circumference i m planning to exchange fo r an xxs and see if that one fits better i purchased this in grey and wine and both are wonderf ul the boiled wool is light but warm and not itchy fits nicely through the bodice and flares o ut to create a nice shape the pockets are terrific and lay nice and flat i m short but the pet ite was well above my knee i could have worn petite small just fine it fit nicely in the bodic e the smaller size brought the seaming up a bit higher to form a more empire waist but i chos e the petite medium because i wanted it loose through the wais i bought this on a whim i have a difficult time finding a great fitting suit especially online \r\n\r\nthis suit is structur ed so well the material will seemingly last way longer than most of my other suits that are pr iced much higher the material i feel holds in my stomach i have a large bust and it is comfor tably supported in this \r\n\r\nthe design is so cute and i love the way the way crisscrossed it makes a one piece feel less like a one piece this dress in coral is a beautiful color and aw esome material only problem is it runs a little big i am a pretty true to size small and shoul d ve ordered an xs the hips are a little wide and v in the neck a little low instead of sendin g back i just wore a camisole and leggings w ankle boots and it looked very cute regardless thi s piece is very comfortable and feels well made it is not slimming i have had a lot of complem ents while wearing this dress i purchased it in the grey other reviews felt that this dress ra n large i agree that it might be a little larger than other retailer purchases i have made but not by much i purchased it in small usually what i wear in dresses i m very tall at 5 9 mos tly legs and the length is great also the neck line is perfect on me and i have a fairly avera ge torso length i am very happy with the purchase first i love wool if it s 100 wool i l ove it if wool isn t your thing then this dress isn t for you i ordered this dress online in the burgundy it is not itchy it falls above my knees and i am 5 3 it is warm and cozy with p ockets which i love with the sleeves being short i am wearing a long frilly cardigan over it i ordered the small did not notice a size chart with this product i am usually a size 4 or 6 it fits great in the bodice but runs large through the hips however this is a deliciously sof t and cozy cashmere sweater the cashmere is thick and knitted with a ribbed brioche stitch the sweater is true to size though a bit boxy so i did size down for a slightly more fitted and fl attering look the sweater is a little on the short side but i m petite so i thought the regul ar xxs was perfect the stitch details are lovely and it it so soft i want to wear it every day it did start to pill after one wear but this is the nature of cashmere i m very pleased loved that this was an 100 boiled wool dress but unfortunately runs very large i tried the small and extra small both were really large in the hips i will maybe try the xxs was hoping to make this is winter staple i love this shirt it s super comfy and i love the design and detail i t does run large so order a size down this dress is really beautiful i have already worn it t o both an engagement party fancy and just out to dinner casual it fits most occasions depe nding on what you pair it with which always makes me feel like i have gotten my full money s wo rth i ve gotten several compliments on it the best one being that it looks as though i was wea ring a piece of art the outside material of the dress is silky in texture and has a nice sheen to it it looks true to the picture on the website the dres i love this dress so much that i pu rchased it in both grey and wine i find the cut very flattering and slimming and love the pock ets it works great for northern california winters with tights boots boiled wool sweatercoat over it while outdoors and on its own indoors i wish there was a long sleeved version i feel exceptionally cute and cozy while wearing it good job sparrow btw i bought the other current ly offered sparrow wool dress the mock neck dress and this one is just an inc overall this s wimsuit is what i needed and have been looking for i normally wear bikinis but i needed a one p iece and i wanted something unique and different i ordered the chevron print and i do love th e colors and retro look of the swimsuit if i could change a couple of things i would have th e legs and booty slightly more high cut but not much and i might have wanted the option to t ake off some if not all of the straps other than that i do love it and i doubt that anyone else love this sweater but it s too large will exchange for smaller size because i really want it such a unique mix of prints but it totally works much better and more vibrant in person tr ue to size fits more like a maxi on me since i m 5 1 the sweater is very soft it has an inter esting pattern i purchased the neutral color in size xs which runs tts it s definitely a cozy sweater to wear this winter this top is super cute the color is beautiful and the lace detail is very feminine im a 36c and got the size small it fits great i agree with some of the other reviewers this dress runs very large when i tried on the xs in my local store i loved the col or and thought i could work with it with the right bra or camisole but it was just cut far too low in the front and when i tried it on at home it was just too roomy and not fitted enough i ordered both an xsp and an xxs today so we will see if they fit better it is an adoreable desig n cut and color it just runs way big so size down if you decide to get it i wanted to love th is dress i bought the cranberry color and it really is gorgeous the cut was wrong for my body type it is a bit roomier than expected but i wear a size 36ddd so the seams on the chest hit a t a very awkward spot i m sure it would look great on someone with a smaller chest this bathing suit is so cute it fits me great i m 5 10 and about 130 and ordered a medium my only complain t is that the outside straps sometimes fall off my shoulders which could be annoying if you are doing anything active but overall a great modest and cute swimsuit nan les fauves is another version of last years larkhill swing dress but better one the swing has less to swing but in a good way they reduced the voluminous amount of material while retaining the fun swing aspect two the dress is shorter so it s more flattering to the vertically challenged like me what s t he same still wonderful silk discreet pockets beautiful abstract floral print and those horr id little buttons that are difficult to fasten on the back of a tight neckband collar i h the moment i laid eyes on this beauty i was mesmerized there s so much going on with the print bu t it all works it s so fun and flattering and versatile since the variety of colors go with ju st about every thing i own in my closet it can be fancied up or casualed down depending on you r shoes and accessories like the first reviewer recommended size down i bought an 8 instead of 10 and my bust is 36dd with a wide rib cage i really wish this was a midi on me but alas no petite sizes w the collar from a distance looks like it has seen better days very scruffy but it is so silky soft and the slight sheen to the jacket is a nice twist to an ordinary army type the fabric is definitely thinner than i expected but it 39 s also softer and better for layeri ng i dig this jacket very much because i can wear it like a thick shirt or as a jacket and the removable collar gives even more versatility i am short so i opted for regular xs i m 5ft2in 34b 26 waist 36 hips the bit of spandex stretch helps me achieve the fitted look without loo king too tight i love military green color it s a happier neutral than black or brown without saying it goes with everything and flatters all body types i m 5 120 and the 4p fit like a gl ove i have a bigger chest and there is no pulling on the buttons the colors and fit on the dre ss are perfect i had so many compliments when i wore it found this dress at my local retailer it was one of those dresses that just catches your eye very very beautiful print the dress is loose and flowy and feels so comfortable on i purchased it without a second thought i am 5 1 and usually wear a 0 or 2 and the 2 was a better fit for me so breezy and cool for summer t his dress does run large but i m wearing it loose and flowy bought it for desert trip music fe stival with booties and a hat or headband very hippie chic my husband thinks it s adorable t he prints are darling so cute so comfortable so pretty so i guess i love everything about i t it is not too short on me and i think you can wear it in many ways thought of adding a ves t thought of boots can t wait to wear it i agree the material is substantial so it isn t fl imsy for fall or winter happy with this purchase runs true to size i went with the op i some times chose regular length but this one is just right in the petite i have long arms but these sleeves are just right i am 5 ft tall b this jumpsuit is cuter than it looks online my store displayed it with a brown belt which dresses it up it is perfect for our hot summers with brow n or silver sandals i will wear it with a short sleeve white cotton tee i m 5 7 and bought t he extra small pricey but worth it so stylish so retailer great piece using as a night gown slept in it last night like a dream i like the make of this dress the fabric is thick and lig ht at the same time \r\nthe cut is loose and flattering the different patterns are also very fu n colors are gorgeous nice details the buttons are sturdy \r\ni tried on both 0p and 00p n ot much difference in the 2 i would go petite if you are on the short side the 00p was just a bit snugger near the chest but didn t gape the waist is definitely meant to be looser so don t expect a fitted dress length was slightly above the knee very quick delivery ordered sunday and in my mailbox tuesday before noon nice fit length is perfect i m 5 3 and the regular siz e 6 hits just above the knee one thing is the nice little button in the back fell off just as i was going to try it on found on the floor and i will just sew it back on other than that i lov e the print and everything about the dress true to size retailer i love the unusual print but the cut didn t work for me i ve got a round back side and a sway back and the dress made m e look twice as big front to back than i actually am because there s no shaping to help it adjus t to the curves so sad great basic tank with a bit of a flair at bottom that makes it super cute will layer with cute bra most likely the coral color is great too very pretty i also g ot the white this dress is even more beautiful in person it fits true to size and drapes nicel y from the body without being tent like as some swing dresses are prone to be the material is very nice and the pattern is stunning and unique as someone else mentioned you can pair this w ith a cardi for work it s also perfect for a night out it s easily dressed up or down and loo ks amazing with a skinny belt i m happy i bought this one love this dress thought the color s would be too much but it actually isn t and is just so cute got a ton of compliments on it wh en i wore it the material is light but not see through at all the length is perfect and comfor table to sit around in this will be my go to dress this fall oh my this dress fits wonderfull y on so ready for autumn i have a big bust this dress does not split at the buttons got this in gray pretty good quality all around good basic i know this is labeled under activewear bu t the fabric is a dream it s incredibly flattering and could absolutely be worn in any outfit i just bought the moss and may end up getting the other colors too i generally am a l or xl an d the large fit well it s alined and has a bit of stretch to it it s so comfortable highly re commend i tried on this jumpsuit on a whim thinking it be a great throwback to the 70s it is a ctually very flattering on with the lines running down vertical giving a slimming look to any figure it is also very soft and comfortable on and has nice large pockets on the sides it do esn t look dated at all once on and i m sure will get plenty of use as the weather warms up fo r reference i m 5 7 tall and weigh close to 130 lbs and found the small fit well the only drawback was the pice but i this is a great top i almost walked right by it because it is so s implistic compared to the other things in retailer i just wanted something super casual and thi s fits the bill the fabric is a dream and it has a nice drape without being overly voluminous i usually love white tops but the white was my least favorite i ended up getting the moss and t he gray i could have gotten either the xs or the s i went with the small because it was a litt le longer and had a wee bit more room in the upper i generally wear a 27 jeans fit perfectly s kinny but not too skinny saw this dress in the retailer catalog and tried on in store didn t need a dress but ended up purchasing as will be wearable for summer early fall seems like a pri nt dress cut and style that will be used for many seasons outer fabric is a bit delicate may sn ag and a bit wrinkly as another reviewer said but works with the dress this dress is very com fortable and casual but in a high quality fabric that makes it great for a summer dinner with d ressy sandals i don t think a bra can be worn with it which i don t mind at all but might be a problem for others these citizens of humanity jeans are indeed pricy but worth the money they fit slim through the hips and not too loose in the legs to make you feel like they are huge ve ry versatile and look fabulous with a cropped sweater or even a hip length top add a pair of ch unky shoes and you have a great look i even tried them with dansko clogs and they looks cute i t s a great break from skinny jeans and much more chic than boyfriend jeans i think this dress is very pretty and i like that it s made of silk i also like the way it fits since it skims ov er my figure flaws without being too poufy what i don t like is the sloppiness of how the prin t was stitched on my dress the print frame is offset and details are cut off in both the front and back you can see similar in the model shot from behind for the price i was expecting a l ittle more quality control i also do not care for the lining i do not think the off white is what a great purchase especially on sale as this tank can t get more comfy the material is s oft and great to wear during those warm weather months love it i stumbled upon this dress yest erday at the store and fell in love with it i wore it today with boots and received tons of com pliments it is light comfortable and flattering i love that it is machine washable too this is a beautiful dress it fits true to size i have some issues around the middle and this just f lows away from the body i am 5 5 and it falls to the knee on me longer than pictured on the m odel the fabric is a nice weight that can be worn three seasons the print is pretty and romant ic i m planning to wear this to my daughter s very informal wedding and know i ll be comfortabl e and look put together this was a lucky find i saw this top online and fell in love with it as i live in white cotton comfy tanks but i was concerned that it might make me look like i was wearing a tent from the side profile since i am top heavy 36d and i happen to have this probl em with some tops and dresses so i went into the store to try it on in a size l and i was shock ed how not only did it not look like a tent it had a slimming effect i felt so attractive in it i had a hard time looking at myself in the mirror believe me this i loved this dress when i saw it online i could not wait until i see in one of the local stores i bought it today unlike o ther reviews i think this dress runs large i am a 4 and bought the zero maeve tends to run la re online i have the gray green and white the white requires a undershirt for me but that s no problem the shirts are darling they re under activewear and i think they could be used that ard to find a dress that looks easy and at the same time shapes you the various cuts of the dif ferent prints are placed in the right place in the body easy dress and beautiful there should be more dresses in this style in different color combos i bought a xs in black i like the weig ht texture and thickness of this fabric it feels like it smoothes over and holds the lines of my body in well may be the other reviewer got a pair out of an odd batch which could mean ther e are inconsistencies i would like to see how the color and the stretch holds up with future wa shes it would have gotten five stars since if it came in petitte length but i will pick up a c ouple of more if it hits sale i love this dress but it is inches shorter than the description says or shows i am only 5 7 and it is 2 to 3 inches above my knee otherwise it is a loose fit and hides all problem areas a seasonal must have nicely made medium weight cozy buttons to half way down i am petite and the xs fits with enough room for layers underneath highly recomm end nan fit is oversized but intentional flattering on love the neckline modesty might call for a tank top underneath if bending over fabric is soft stretchy and has a good quality heft to it wish this worked for me i am 5 9 it is much shorter than it looks in the photo and th e pockets did not hit my hips or torso in the right spot the neck was kind of tight on me too i love the idea of this dress but need it longer the dress is very roomy overall these pants a re comfortable and cozy great for lounging around and cute enough to wear out of the house to c offee or running errands i ll be wearing them a lot the dress is very pretty however the desc ription is deceiving i purchased it not just for the look but because it was listed as silk b ut that is not exactly true the under slip is silk but the outer dress what you see is definit ely not it is a cheap thin material on top skirt is stiff not loose or flowy as the picture would have you think i will keep it very happy i did not pay full price love this top \nperfe ct under a jacket for work or on its own for date night i have a long torso and the length is p erfect so dainty and different i purchased this dress for myself however when i tried it on at home the length was too short i gave the dress to a relative who is petite and the dress fit her perfectly i have been eyeing these pants for about a month or so every time i stopped by my local retailer store i would check them out but never actually bought them well today i finally went for it and i am so glad i did the floral pattern is very feminine yet unique and the colors are uplifting and cheerful for spring the material is very soft light and flowy and i m sure will be comfortable in the heat of summer the only drawback i found was that the fabric is not very stretchy and i like to be a this cut and shape of this skirt is very flattering i am normally a medium but the small fit and looked much better less bulky the material is nice almost sweater like but not so heavy it s a very versatile skirt highly recommend nan love this dress going to wear it for thanksgiving love the material i recommend this topper but with reservations it is beautiful looking especially the lace portion \r\nit is also very wide the gathered portion is a complete design fail it balloons up right below the bust making one look wide and pretty ridiculous it s obvious that the model is hiding the gathered poof by placing her arms close to her body but i knew this from the other reviews posted here so it was no surprise \r\ni ordered size s the smallest available and it fit very wide more like a i was shopping for a holiday outfit today at my retailer store and my sales associate suggested i try on this top i have lo idea where it was on the store l yet it s a very pretty top that stands out when you have it on i took this in a small because it s meant to run shorter i felt xs would have been too small i purchased it to wear with jeans or dress pants pretty detail blouse shows off my arms and minimizes my waist i love it i love these sleep pants they are the perfect length i \r\nam 5 10 and slim these fit great its so hard to find pants that fit tall slender women these jeans fit great but i think getting the right size is key i bought my usual denim size 26 and at first i thought they were too tight but as the day wore on they softened and conformed to my body and fit like a glove if i bought them in a larger size i m afraid they d bag out like jeans tend to do i think it s the legging style that makes them so form fitting i wish they were ankle length like on the model but i m 5 5 and they are quite a bit longer on me than the model nan i love this dress but it is too short to keep i am 5 8 and weigh 124lbs most of my cloths from retailer are either a size 4 or a small but this dress is substantially shorter than other dresses purchased from retailer it looks adorable on but it is just too short about 3 inches above my knees to be considered professional enough to wear to work i ordered this coat in a size xs during the promo it just arrived is too big sleeves way too long big under the arms it s labeled xs but looks more like a m i don t mind an oversized fit having the sleeves altered but this is just not working if petite were available it may work for me it is nicely made soft comfy button front which i prefer instead of snaps i think it wld be super cozy on a cold day love the print i am of small build 5 3 115 usually a xs s occas petite first mermaid ish skirt ever that s flattering enough to pull off with a curvy lower body the material is light weight sweater knit that hugs in all the right places and its unique cut along the bottom make it very in the moment the color is a rich deep gorgeous brown with subtle highlights that draw from whatever top you pear with it runs large so size down i had higher hopes for this top and thought it would be fanicer but as a previous reviewer mentioned the quality of the material and elastic waistband makes the top look a little cheaper in person i m glad i got it on sale with the extra 25 off \n\ni was hoping to exchange it for a small but it s sold out by now the top runs a little large normally i m between a small and a medium but i think a small might even be too big i put it on this morning in the dark and by the time i got to work love the mara hoffman basketweave bikini bottoms in fractals red i went to her website for the size chart and got these in a size m very good fit just a bit cheekier than her classic cut bikini bottoms i got them with the matching basketweave bikini top \r\n \r\ni m 5 2 currently 33 25 37 to 38 depending on where i measure upper hipbones are 34 fuller thighs and bottom so i never know what to order i think a size s would be too skimpy so i hope these hold up well in the waves \r\n \r\nco this is a beautiful well designed top the pattern is laid out to match on each side the back has a narrow center insert of sheer fabric for an interesting detail with wonderful construction this sheer fabric is also added to the bottom as an edging this measures only 1 1 4 wide and lays flat and finished off well the sleeves have excess fabric for comfort but do not make one s arms look heavy the unusual neckline shape in the front is well sewn and lays flat nicely i think this top is i love this skirt but it is so long that i have ordered the petite as well to see which one i will keep i am tall but even pulled up higher than my waist there is at least 3 inches too much in length and i want to wear a flat shoe or boot with it if i keep this one it will need to be altered \nit has pockets which i love it is an effortless long skirt which i will wear christmas day for sure the pattern is stunning with the mixed prints the fabric is silky it can be dressed down with a i ordered this dress looking for something to wear out for an evening after seeing the other reviews i wasn t sure about it but i was very pleased when it arrived i find it is elegant and sexy but also modest enough when i sized up by 1 i normally wear an xs in dresses but found the small fit per fectly it is form fitting particularly in the waist and back without being too tight i m excit ed to wear it and think it would look beautiful with a long necklace nan all of my friends love d these pants as did i these are so gorgeous the sequins seem well stitched the small fit me well hanging straight as pictured not too snug or uncomfortable they hit me at the ankle the re are back pockets these have been a staple for me the last three years i have owned three pa irs of them in black i haven t been able to find them in black for some time and i need these b ack in my life please please bring them back these are true to size and photo i wore them to the opera and cant wait to wear them with sandals and a tee this summer these pants fit true to size i have a small waist and curvy hips and while i have always loved the low rise ag stev ie these offer more coverage at the back with the same great slim fit through the leg the leng th is also great for those of us who are not super tall the have some stretch but i wore them s everal times without washing and the never got baggy in the knees or other stretch points i own two other pairs of ag stevie in traditional denim and they still look great after years of wea i bought this top on the advice of another tall reviewer and i m so happy that i did this is the perfect top for tall girls i did size down from my usual large to a medium the top was still oversized but in a very pretty way i love the material this top is so soft and extremely co mfortable the v neckline is very pretty and not too low i can see myself dressing this up wit h nicer pants for work or with skinny jeans for a more casual look if you are a tall girl thi s top is a must h these looked so fun i had to have them i usually wear a 14 in pants but the large fit well despite a lack of thigh gap and walking in these all night i didn t lose a sing le sequin they re comfortable and get a ton of compliments if you re considering them i defin itely recommend going for it this silk skirt was not the best look for me but may work for oth ers i purchased the med which fit fine i just wasn t in love with the print colors the skirt has quality material and is well made it s very light and airy i did return it i wish these z ipped up instead of the drawstring they are super cute but don t care for the way they sit on t he hips what a great top i am 5 9 136 lbs with a 34d chest and this top looks and feels g reat on i am usually a 6 and the small fit perfectly i purchased the grey and it is a nice med ium grey color the v in front hits in a great spot not too low but just low enough to look f eminine i haven t washed and dried the top yet so i hope it looks as good after washing as it does brand new i was hesitant to order because of the earlier reviews but i find this top real ly works for me so i am glad these are great pants i was nervous because when i saw them at th e store they looked pretty linty but after wearing them a number of times they are not bad i ha ve to run a lint roller over them occasionally but not more than other black pants i wear these to work and they are very comfortable kind of stretchy but very flattering the higher rise th an the other stevies makes them work really well for work allows them to look less jean like i highly recommend these can t believe they aren i love these jeans cant believe i never purch ased them earlier i m always a 30 in paige and ag and this was no different i will say that i did fit into the 29 so it could be that they run slightly large the fabric is amazing and th e white is perfect love that it is not see through and fabric is substantial the length for me at 5 5 was at my ankle i loved them so much that i bought them in white and beige cream highly recommend i was returning some things when i saw these jeans and had to try them on they must be magical pants because they are slimming and very flattering amazing jeans i ordered this s hirt online and didn t even try it on it is super see through and i would need to wear a tank underneath and i don t want to have that extra layer in the summer \r\nit is cute though i spen d most of my time searching for the perfect pair of jeans okay maybe a slight exaggeration bu t only slight finally the the ag stevie s are it this is my third pair now for more colors i love the neckline on this sharp enough for work but cute for a fun night out too only comp laint is it s soooo flowy on the bottom i could hide a baby under here for sure i got the medi um thank goodness or it would have been ridiculous i m 5 8 160lbs great for fall i agree wit h the first reviewer this dress is just ok nothing to write home about if you need a throw on dress in a pinch it s nice to have on hand but there are probably a lot of other retailer dres ses that fit the bill that are better quality than this one it is also very body conscious in t he back the material is a thin ribbed rayon on the cheap side overall it s a comfortable p iece but it s more like a thin long sleeve t shirt rather than a quality dress it would have been a gr i love the way the neckline is open not too low it also falls on your hips just righ t \r\n\r\ngreat buy i think these jeans are amazing they are very flattering and most of all co mfortable i often will go up a size when buying white but i didn t have to with these they als o relax very nicely as you wear them buying white jeans has always been a challenge often they are to thin and not that flattering i don t feel the same about these they are the perfect sum mer white jean i think i need another pair i have owned a lot of stevies in the past the only problem with them for me has been the rise i have always thought they would have been perfect w ith a bit of a higher rise voila these have the perfect mid rise for me they are really sof t too long for my 29 inch inseam they bunch at the ankles but don t drag i would love for th em to have a skinnier ankle but i also think they re fine how they are i bought my normal size they may turn out to be a tiny bit loose after wearing them t beautiful suit i had been eyeing this one for weeks and finally decided to just buy the darn thing \r\nit is tiny just beware as in it doesn t cover much especially on the booty not a bad thing but buyer beware if yo u are looking for more coverage size up i wear a 32d and ordered a medium top good thing i di dn t get a small i have to get the band taken in a bit but i need the coverage in the cup \r \nfor the bottoms i also got a medium and usually wear a small or medium in swimwear bo i saw th is top at my local store and tried it on a whim it is so much cuter in person than it looks onl ine i wouldn t have given it a second look based on these pictures it perhaps runs a tiny b it large but i stuck with my usual size small since it hung nicer on my body than the xs did i f you re thin you may want to size down i have a decent amount of padding that keeps me from wanting to wear anything fitted 5 4 130 lbs the little dots are more prevalent in person an d the peplu gorgeous color plum and is very comfy the lace at the top is just enough to be fe minine but not too much to be trashy \r\nlike many of the other reviewers i sized this down an d am glad that i did i think the larger size would have been tent like the dahlia bell sleev e blouse is absolutely gorgeous in my opinion i have already worn it several times with white cropped denim or the cropped fringed pilcro denim jeans it also looks great with the pilcro rol led shorts in navy or white i took my usual size large and though the fabric seems like it may be sheer if you wear a nude bra you do not need a cami beneath the blue band hits right about the waist of your jeans so your jeans don t show thru either this blouse is lightweight and v c ute staple in classic style overall fabric weight is good will be able to get by with nude br a many wardrobe options with this staple this top is fabulous so comfy and the lace at the t op is just right it does run a little big but drapes so well it looks fine i got the plum but tempted to get the ivory especially at the sale price a steal i tried this on in the store in regular size i often need petite i think on this one i could go either way \n\nthe cut is flattering fit and flare and the colors are rich i like the flowery design good spring piec ture doesn t do it justice works very well with a tank underneath and a skirt or over a knee le ngth dress wore with boots and received many compliments it s classy i loved this top when i saw it online and ordered it right away however the fit is way off i am always a size medium always but i was swimming in this and had to return it even if it had fit i wasn t thrilled w ith it i thought it would be something i could dress up especially with the lace detail but i nstead it looked really frumpy i would recommend this top as long as you know to order a smalle r size and are looking for something a little more casual the dress is very cute probably more on the casual side i ordered the 2 petite and it hits me a few inches above the knee which is what i wanted the material of the dress and under slip is a little thin but it looked nice aft er i ironed it the top part of the dress looks great and shows off my shoulders nicely looks g y purchase l but the m fit better it s thin but not see through so it lays well i absolutely love the dahlia bell sleeve blouse this blouse has a lovely flow perfect for fall sleeves hav e a slight bell that hang nicely i would recommend this blouse to everyone i purchased this in the ivory color in store and liked it so much i ordered the plum color on line i am almost alwa ys an xl but this fit better in the l size it s very soft and comfy and i love the swingy styl e will be wearing it a lot i m happy with this sweater a few things that may help others 1 the detail on the yoke is made from a silky taupe colored fiber 2 it is ivory not white and 3 although the fit is true to size the sweater runs short so if you prefer a longer fit you may want to size up this is one of my favorite tops it is comfortable and an easy throw and go t op i am a big fan of denim tops and the lace on the back gives it that extra detail and flare very pleased i got this top in white and absolutely love it the top can be tucked in or worn out it is very elegant and will go well with skirts as well as pants and even jeans can t wait to wear it i m always an xl in retailer blouses and to be quite honest sometimes the xl are to o tight to keep however in this blouse the size medium fits me like a normal size xl would me aning i had to go down 2 sizes even at size medium the blouse is still very loose and flowy th e body is cut like a trapeze a line so very forgiving the fabric has a lot of stretch to it s o the arms aren t tight the fabric is very comfortable and the lace detail is nice just a head s up for anyone who would c first off this top is super cozy i adore an easy top that has beau tiful detail and this one does the fabric is a lot like a thermal shirt but not too warm it s very stretchy not sure if it will stretch out with wear but you could easily size down the body has a ton of room because of the cute cut you could wear it oversized without it drowning you or you could size down to keep it more slim the lace is simple and even more beautiful in person i highly recommend this one especia ordered this in my usual medium knowing it was me ant to be over sized but i could easily have put another of me 138 lbs with junk in the trunk inside it so i m returning it for a small feeling sure that there ll still be enough extra for a slouchy look this is a very loose fitting style jacket if you like your jackets oversized g et your regular size if you prefer the slightly loose but not baggy fit like the product phot o size down as noted by another reviewer the sleeves are incredibly long i would say if you are a typical size 0 or 2 unless you like the oversized fit you are likely sized out of this jacket it s a shame because the quality is great and the windowpane print is beautiful i m sa dly sized out i bought the neutral color this is a lightweight tunic sweater that can be worn during spring the lace detail is so pretty i ordered my normal size small and would have pref erred an extra small the top flows nice but would ve been a better overall fit if i sized down i m 5 7 140 lbs for reference make sure you size down at least 1 size this dress is super flat tering i love everything about it the print and detail on this dress are so much better in per son especially the neckline i agree with the previous reviewer in that it felt spring timey to me flattering fit and flare however the top runs extremely small i am usually a 6 in retailer dresses and i could barely zip the 8 over my bust but the 10 was enormous rest of the dress fit fine but if you are large up top you might want to size up fabric does not stretch overall too cute to pass up for reference i am a 34dd color of the dress matches color on my monitor the neckline is sheer i am 5 4 125 lbs 32d and ordered a size 6 i thought it fit perfect this is a great spring summer dress and can be worn with dress heels or flats for a dressier look it can also be worm with tennis shoes white converse are my choice for a more casual look \r\n\r \ni think this dress could also transition to a fall winter piece paired with tights and a suit jacket or cardigan \r\n\r\nalso i love the pockets though i do see ho what a beautiful flowin g top i am either a large or xl in tops but only needed a large in this top i purchased it in the neutral color but will probably get it in plum if you have some flaws in your middle this conceals everything the material is so soft you can dress it up or down and wear it from now u ntil late fall the plum color was beautiful but i have more to wear with neutral a great ver satile top really cute stress i love the pattern and feel that this dress you can easily dress up or dress down the neckline is the main reason why i bought the dress it is a dress that hit s above my knees so i like how modest it is the slightly open back is also a nice touch it s a dress that can easily be dressed up or dressed down perfect spring dress i m 7months preggars and this top actually compliments my belly extremely comfortable i m always on the hunt for go od white blouses to pair with business casual attire or everyday wear this was a great tank i love the fabric it s nice and sturdy and you don t have to worry about wearing a cami beneath i t this fabric does wrinkle some so bear that in mind i really like the shape of the top near t he shoulders it s a great conservative cut the little criss cross detail on the back adds a bi t of charm to the top i would definitely recommend this to others this dress fits me perfect the only complaint i have is that it was a little snug around the neck every now and then it wa s a little snug getting in and out of the dress too overall the design is beautiful and it is definitely my new favorite usually the whole boho style looks funny on me but the cut and prin t were subtle enough for me to pull it off the colors are beautiful probably flattering again st any hair or skin tones i took my usual small because the shoulders were generous enough wo rd of caution this is dry clean only this is a really pretty shirt the colors are beautiful it runs large and it s semi sheer shape is loose and boxy but because it s more sheer it di dn t seem as boxy i m tall and this was long enough only change would be to make the sleeve s a little less bell like not tight but lose some of the volume i do a lot of online shoppin g and consequently a lot of returning when i saw this shirt online i was really excited about it it just looks very elegant nice and airy when the shirt arrived i almost thought that i should return it because there was blue lint all over the body and sleeves turns out that this is part of the shirt if you zoom in you can see the blue specs woven in i didn t end up retur ning the shirt because it s extremely comfortable and i still get a lot of complimen really lo ve the print of this dress and the eyelet detailing around the neck very flattering i love the se pants these pants are perfect if you like a slim style but can t comfortably wear skinnies i like the heavy weight corduroy fabric and seaming details i bought the wine color but as p ictured it really is rust or copper colored which i prefer i love wearing this pullover with leggings and boots it s soft comfortable and loose fitting nan the blue is not see though at all and the length is perfect so many tops now are on the longer side or have the high low hems this one is great love it kinda want the white one now nicely made pretty details but it s cropped fairly short and is rather boxy wore with orange linen pants and it was cute bought this shirt in the black runs tts very comfortable and flattering past left of center shirts i n this style fabric seem to run a little large but i bought this in my usual retailer m and it s great very similar to last years style but perhaps a tad more fitted i gave it a 4 for qual ity b c i have noticed a little bit of pilling under the arm area but overall it holds up pret ty well these pants have a really cute design however they are a bit short and i m only 5 4 i m still happy i purchased them but i thought i was purchasing full length pants as shown on the model and not capris i am 5 3 118 lbs and fit perfect in size s petite good material an d flatting this is a gorgeous top however it is very sheer and see through maybe the fabric would have been better if it was a bit thicker love this top such a pretty color and so comfy sleeves are a bit long but fits pretty true like most left of center washes and dries in the dryer very nicely i liked this shirt so much i ordered a second one online in the same size but different color unfortunately the second one is much shorter than the first and looks less like a tunic or more like a cropped flowy top not a good look so the second one is going back oth erwise the shirt would get 5 stars washes well super soft and comfy and looks great with all kinds of bottoms jeans cords leggings wish it came in more colors i typically wear a m or l in retailer tops and took the l in th perfect for the weekend purchased the purple it is a n ice soft purple great with jeans xs petite was perfect 115 lbs loved it i have receive so many compliments when i wear this it fit great i ordered the orange version in size xl it fit s true to size the fit on me matches the online photos it s so comfortable to wear i love the unique details of it i ve washed air dried it too it retained its size the color is outstan ding it s such a pretty shade that looks more red online than it does in person there s more o f a darker orange tint to it i ve gotten a lot of use out of this tee hopefully it ll come bac k in the fall in more colors i m in love with this print the fabric is very soft too as other s have noted it is small in some odd spots and a little big in others but overall my usual size worked out great i wear it with a cute belt to enhance an hourglass look because it s pretty d rapey really versatile lovely tunic this top is a cross between a shirt and sweater great le ngth and very soft it does run a little large so size down if you are n the fence hangs nicely in the back was looking for a top with this style i ordered this top wondering if it would fit in the hip area after reading the size chart it showed a close fit the answer is yes there s room to spare which is a good thing i like the nubby front material and the hemline s asymmetr ical style i ll be layering this top with sweaters and jackets all winter very soft feeling fa bric wouldn t mind another one in a different color i bought the grey which is a gorgeous col or i like the long length in the arms though i tried it on in different colors and the arm len gth did very soft and pretty i like the length the back does wrinkle but i still like the s hirt it s loose casual and flattering it s a little roomy but this shirt is spectacular i ve gotten so many compliments on this one whether worn with jeans work pants or shorts all weather as other reviewers have said the material is sort of sleek feeling not traditional cotton for me i love that as i ve been able to wash stains out of this shirt more easily tha n i otherwise would i am normally a tiny tiny petite but i ended up buying this in the xs re gular because the style worked even though it s a bit loose this top is great to wear to work o r for enjoying brunch or dinner with friends it is very comfortable and pairs great with jeans for a dressed down look i sometimes wear it under a chambray dress and have gotten a ton of com pliments great purchase this is a light so fun to wear shirt it s delicate and can be worn t o dress up jeans i would very much recommend it love it i love this shirt i have it in black and purple i found the fit tts and looks great casually with a scarf or dressed up with a nice necklace you can t go wrong with a cute long sleeve shirt that is soft i like the length goes just past my bottom in the back but not overwhelming \nit is more fitted than last years style i bought this shirt in black and green and now bought the orange it is casual and stylish at th e same time material is soft great shirt i was undecided whether to get regular or petite i am 5 4 but i didn t want it to be sloppy long ordered the petite xs as other reviewers suggest ed ordering down and its perfect length falls on me same as the model above not heavy and very soft casual but not sloppy sleeves are a tad long which i prefer i love a good white blouse a nd this shirt does not disappoint the detailing of the lace and bead work make it extra special i just love it it can be dressed up or worn with jeans it runs a bit wide i normally don t bu y a petite in tops because i am long in the body but i did with this one after i tried the regul ar love this top the material is very comfortable and it s loose fitting which is what i was l ooking for this is so comfortable i had to buy another one looks great under sleeveless sweat ers interesting texture adds interest nan so this top is kind of short but that is pictured it hits right where it does in the photo which i like it is a sheer material not terribly so but you will most likely need a cami which you could pair a long one with to offset the shorter top if you don t like the shortness i love the top it s very pretty detailing cute just as p ictured i ordered a size 2 and it fits great i usually wear petites but you really don t need to get a petite because it s short as it is i have broad sho love this but the one thing that made me buy this is that if you look at the pic the girl has her hand in a pocket there is no pocket which makes me bring the rating down some one else had noted that the v is deep th ey are very right be prepared to shift the shirt lots unless you wear something under i t is other than that i really like it i ordered this shirt last week and i wore it as soon as it arrived it is a beautiful shirt with an original design it is rather casual but you can dr ess it up with the right accessories the print appears to be navy it was advertised as black and it looks great with jeans i would certainly recommend this item nan this is a really great tunic purchased it in black and it is very flattering i love the side slit detail the materia l may seem very casual but it is extremely comfortable and can be dressed up i m 5 3 130lbs a nd a s fits perfect i am not a big fan of lace but this shirt has just enough it actually look s better than the photo and it looks even better when you wear it i have received numerous comp liments on this shirt everytime i ve worn it this blouse is made out of a high quality material flows beautifully and the neutral flower pattern makes its yellow green base pop i played with a bow and decided that it looks the best tied lower than on the model to form v shaped neckline this piece will transition easily from one season to the next and from causal to dressy for the reference size 12 was the best fit form my curvy 36dd frame i was eyeing this blouse when the catelog was mailed to me earlier this year i never got a chance to try it on in stores but whe n i saw it online and on sale i snagged it what i didn t realize was the intricate design of th is blouse ithas really pretty lace all over the top and then fine beading securely sewn on the blouse has crochet sleeve designs and also a very pretty neck bib area it fits me tts and very comfortably i love the airy feeling of it and it actually also isn t too long on nan love this sweater it s perfect for chilly florida evenings love the loose boxy shape and it s very cozy not itchy luv the loose fit and quality fabric great piece for layering a must for every clo set very flattering fit although i think the white is slightly boxier than the chambray i lo ved this shirt online and went to my local retailer store the other day and wanted to try it on i didn t even get past the hold it up and measure the length test we tall people often do as it was incredibly short there is no way i could wear this shirt at 5 11 \r\n\r\nunless you ha ve a short torso and want to rock the icky high waisted pants that are everywhere right now t his beautiful top might not work for you \r\n\r\noh and it s sheer camisole needed for white a nd navy super cute and flow mine had a bit of stitching problem so i am exchanging it for the same thing fabric feels great def recommend a great everyday tee dress it up a bit with a gr eat gold necklace looks nice with jeans and brown boots i love this sweater i have gotten s o many compliments it is so comfortable and unique i am planning on ordering the same sweater in another color i wear a small and ordered a small it fit me perfectly i shop at retailer fo r a lot of my clothes because they are well made and different this sweater is very cute it lo oks great with a blouse underneath and open the zipper or it is great with a camisole you will need something underneath especially if the temperatures are low as it is a wee bit shear i am a small medium ordinarily but it depends upon the designer this runs a little large but keep th at in mind if you plan on layering the price is right and the zipper is aesthetically pleasing i have the blue and oatmeal beige color both are great pieces to any wardrobe i really like thi s sweater it runs a little larger than expected but i like my sweaters big super super comfo rtable and not itchy at all bells out to much i had to send it back love these jeans they fit great they feel great i am 5 9 5 135 pounds they fit everywhere you would like them to unrol l them and they are long love love love so wonderful i just bought my second pair this cream sweater is a great addition to your wardrobe the length hits below the waist and the zipper add s an updated touch to the look is a bit itchy but there s room for a light layer underneath i can only review the ivory as that was the only color in my local store this sweater is very fla ttering as it is fitted on top but has a nice flow over the hips plus the zipper allows for more room or to show off an underlying top the material is soft and the ivory is very pretty in pers on i bought the ivory sweater lovely color and softness the zipper is a great unique feature that i love the bottom has a wavy shape with extra fabric definitely creates a bell shape ju st got these jeans last week love the quality which is typical of pilcro jeans i usually have to get a tall size being 5 10 however they sold out quickly so i decided to order the regula r inseam in my usual size they fit great since they are more of a boyfriend jean they don t f it too snug so i m able to get away with the regular inseam i m usually a 26 27 tall and the 27 regular works love the cuffs and rise in the jeans i ve worn with booties heels and am w aiting for warm w absolutely stunning the color the pattern the quality i love everything ab out this top love the style of this sweater and it just happens to be warm too i love this to p it has a relaxed fit without being frumpy and it looks great with boyfriend jeans or skinny jeans and boots it s a great soft fabric that doesn t require a cami underneath wish there we re other colors i was pleasantly surprised by this beautiful sweater being that it s a wool bl end i thought it would be itchy against my skin to my surprise it is quite the opposite very cozy and soft with plenty of wiggle room i m very tall and having enough length for my arms is always a concern the sleeves are long and comfortable this sweater is quickly becoming one of my new favorite go to pieces this top has great detailing and color does run a little big but adds to the style and movement of the tank the stitching around the bottom makes it cute fo r layering i hoped i would hate these because i have a zillion pairs of jeans as i suspected they re amazing and quickly became my favorite they have just the right amount of stretch so f lattering nan i remember the first time i walked into an retailer store like walking into a dr eam of all my favorite things i ve finally found a store whose products help me to express myse lf as a writer i love whimsical out of the ordinary i have found my honey hole every time one of the pastel bags w ribbon handles is past over the counter or i push add to cart on my c omputer i do a little happy dance in my heart my closet is like a candy store filled with swee ts treats thank you retailerp i really love these jeans they are so comfortable and are very flattering i am 5 10 and a size 6 i bought the 28 regular and they fit perfectly i have high hips so i appreciate the mid rise in these the length was perfect too so i m glad i did not p urchase the tall the length was the same on me as in the picture the jeans arrived uncuffed a nd they look just as cute without the cuff as they do with i will definitely wear them with and without a cuff for different looks i am very happy i bought this sweater for my future daughter in law for her birthday in coral she lover it the contrast of color in the yarn is hard to see in the photos grey and bright coral just beautiful i got this 25 off before christmas i imm ediately started wearing it thinking it would be a staple i like the swing shape the shape fe els just right not too baggy but the material is more washed out looking than the picture rev eals collects lint like crazy and out of the box the sweater looks like it has been laundered several times also there is a particularly prominent hole in the chest area as you can see in retailer s picture it looks out of place in person i m left loving the s just received this t op in the mail purchased at the sale price beautiful classic piece that can easily be dressed up or down excellent quality fits tts for reference i m 5 5 120lbs ordered the sp xs i kept the xs the sp had an elastic waist there was no drawstring not sure if this applies to all petite sizes or just the one i received let me preface this by saying im totally keeping t his dress \r\n\r\nit is kind of a weird design but intriguing i received it in the mail yester day i am 5 6 125 lbs and have hips as a previous reviewer mentioned this dress is more fitt ed than a swing dress as it appears fortunately the xs fit me just right but i cannot gain an other lb \r\n\r\nmy husband said that i looked like i was in a choir because of the higher neck design and bell sleeves but he too found the dress somewhat alluring when i saw this sweater o nline i honestly didn t think it was really anything special however when i saw it in my local retailer store i really liked the knit as well as the color kind of an off white pinkish i de cided to give it a try i have to say that i really like this sweater a lot the cut is quite fl attering even though it is baggy and it is very soft i think it will look very cute with a pair of skinny jeans and boots this winter glad i decided to give it a try i have been looking for a vest this winter and i saw this one online i am a huge fan of swing tops i don t care for su per fitted clothes the knit says part wool so i was expecting it to be a little scratchier how ever when i got it it is so soft and more cotteny feel to it than wool but has the warmth of wo ol when wearing it i really have to try not to wear it everyday just love this vest it s my f avorite purchase this season i am a size 10 in tops and i can either do a med or a large i thi s sweater is so much better in person it is a heavy soft knit that fits perfectly i am petite and thin and took the reg xs it is very flattering and drops just below the hips the bottom is a bit flowy i bought the beige and bright pink color the pink is very dark and bright and has an orangy tint to it i wear a dark beige cami underneath super cute with cuffed dark jeans and black booties love this sweater bought it in pink and grey and it looks great with jeans grea t quality and true to size great fit in waist hips and butt i wore them all day and they did not stretch out \n\ni am tall but the length of the jeans with the cuff is a tiny bit past my an kle bone i want it just above the ankle bone so i am re doing the cuff slightly and then i must send these to my tailor to close the cuff completely they look silly when the big cuff isn t at least tacked in place perhaps by design they were left this way so each of us buyers could find the proper length and close the cuff ourselves purchased this sweater in pink which is a beauti ful blend of grey and pink i purchased my usual size xs and it fits great through the shoulders sleeves and body i did try on a s and the body was too boxy also i tried a couple of differen t ones in my xs along with other colors and found them to run a little differently so you may want to check this out the sweater is beautiful and easy to wear the zipper adds a unique deta il which can be unzipped part way to show a tank or just to draw a great jeans especially since i m getting tired of my skinny jeans length is great for someone tall like me 5 10 unless yo u wear heels with them but these are more sneaker sandal jeans the sweater looks cute if you ge t the right size it meant to look a little oversized i think the color is pretty in person h owever it looks different online and in person so keep that in mind the material is very warm a nd a little itchy you will need to wear it over a long sleeve undershirt the look is nice but i t is for a cold day i just ordered this item and wore it yesterday received compliments from m y friends truly a great sweater feels soft to the touch i love the cut and how it falls aroun d my hips sleeves were nice and long i am a tall lady with long arms almost 6 ft weighing ab out 155 i got the med which was a perfect fit for me love the off white almost thinking of ge tting the peachy pink too i got an xs in this suit i am 5 1 100 a32 this was much much t oo small it was very tight around the chest and i am only a 32a it is however a good looki ng suit i suggest sizing up this sweater is really pretty i love the way it looks on but it is a bit itchy and scratch if you don t wear something under it the are so comfortable flatter ing and i feel i can wear them with a lot of styles dress them up or down it all looks good great product make more like this please ordered size 12 it fits but pulls a tiny bit in the midsection also way too long hits below my knees the dress is beautiful crisp black color n ice fabric great neck it s also the kind of dress that must fit well to look good i had to re turn mine the pictures of this sweater do not do it justice i would have passed it over online but it immediately caught my eye in the store the yarn is soft and cozy and the flair at the bo ttom adds a feminine touch zipper is cute v neck is just right it is not too low i know i w ill be wearing this sweater a lot very happy with this purchase i didn t see the pink or navy in the store on the real i needed a sweater they gave my tummy some room what yes i d love s ome more pumpkin pie know what im saying what appeared to be lack of constriction in the bell y region of a tiny model made me hope with fingers crossed it would look like that on me pleas e please just swing and not cling mmmmm k the majority 70 of the fabric content is natura l and a sale was going on so i went for it and purchased this sweater online so glad i did thi s is a fun cozy sweater i feel you can dress it up and use it casual too i bought the ivory i n size s i m 5 2 although i put it runs true to size it s is a tad tight around my upper ar ms not uncomfortable i have normal to somewhat skinny arms so i don t think it was my body ty pe i didn t check other sweaters in the same size to see if it was an isolated case it is to b e worn loose it has quite a bit of material all around mid to lower part just fyi totally my style i love how it hangs and is so soft and comfy material is thin enough to be fairly lightw eight and i was worried about it being clingy so happy it s not body skimming and very flat tering for full bust v neck helps here if like me you don t like tight chested clothing also love the length of this top i m 5 4 and 36ddd size l fits me just how i like it the sweater looked different on each model so i wasn t sure what to expect luckily it fitted me similar to the one i was hoping it would the cream sweater model i m 5 6 and got a size small i like th at it hangs just past my hips and the long sleeves also the v neck isn t too low so i don t ha ve to wear a camisole it s very cozy and doesn t itch this sweater runs a bit large bulky aroun d the bottom area you can kind of see in picture i purchased this online in medium as i m 5 9 so normally wear that size i could probably have ordered a small but will keep the medium just a little too full around the hem also the v neck is somewhat low cut pink color is nice and p ale pink i found this set once while browsing the website i fell in love with it and kept a ph oto of the set so i could save up to purchase it as luck would have it my mom surprised me wit h a gift card so i applied it to my purchase i m so happy with the set it s wonderfully flatt ering and makes me feel sexy i want one in every color great sweater heavy without being to o warm great layering piece hard to find longer shorts that i like these are really cute i t hought from the pictures that the backside would be faded and lighter which i wasn t thrilled ab out but willing to order and give a try great to discover this is not the case nice regular c olor on back and no fading really cute shorts nan this sweater is heavier and has more of a sw ing shape to it than i had expected but it is fitted enough at the top that it still fit the b ill the pink is woven with a taupey color and the effect is great almost a little retro reco mmend this vest nice design fabric is thicker than expected might suggest a size smaller plenty of room in loose styling when i wore this dress i got tons of compliments the quality is great along with the style these jeans are perfect in every way i found that i took one size s maller than i do in the pilcro chinos they are comfortable and have a small amount of stretch t o them i knew i was buying them the instant i put them on they look great highly recommend i have a hard time finding jeans that fit and these ones are just right i am 5 8 125ish lbs an d the 26s fix perfectly they hug in all the right places and they are the perfect length i wil l be wearing them uncuffed there is no effort required to uncuff them they re not sewn or anyt hing they have just the right amount of stretch and love the little cute details throughout the m thank you retailer for always helping me find great jeans love these jeans comfortable fi t and material is soft fit true to size and have a good rise i think this sweater is well exe cuted for what it is a chunky knit trapeze sweater i agree with another reviewer that i would ignore this product online but it caught my eye in person there was only one of the pink sweat ers left in store the interwoven peachy heathery color is sweet and flattering since i m 5 1 i ordered had the petite version to try hope it works out cuz i m eager to own something relax ed and cozy that s actually flattering and isn t a sweatshirt like the swingy fit looks nice w ith a long fitted tee underneath and skinny jeans the color online says black but it looks more like a faded black like it has been washed too many times as soon as i saw this dress online i knew i wanted it i was immediately drawn to the belled sleeves and lace embellishment along th e neck shoulders i ordered online and was so happy with the fit and quality of the dress i am 5 5 and it hits just an inch above my knee it s the perfect little black dress for a fun da te night or an event got so many complements really comfy but runs big i m usually a large an d i wish i had gotten the small this top is beautiful everything about it is beautiful it has lovely detail on the back as well as the front i chose a size 12 which seems to run true it fi t however regretfully i had to return the top i came back here hoping i could find it in ivor y or black but there s only one color the dusky rose is lovely but i m blonde and true pink is fine this shade not so good although as someone else here commented it is a stunning shade of pink very unusual like old dried roses i l i had been eyeing this top for awhile so deci ded to snag it when it went on sale i m still on the fence i love the material and pattern but it is really long and i m 5 10 it looks very roomy with jeans but i still want to try it with tights and boots to see if that looks better overall i think it is a great piece this is a bea utiful piece the fabric is a nice weight and the cut of the lace across the shoulders is flatte ring the sleeves are dramatic but not overly fussy sadly i returned the dress because althoug h it is a swing style no waistline it has a very straight cut i was hoping it was more of an a line silhouette to accommodate my hips but alas if you self identify as a pear this may not be the dress for you the linen fabric is elegantly thin feels and looks lovely in nature pilco fashion these jeans are amazing i wear them rolled down they have a slight boot cut but not overly i am 5 10 and the bottoms fall right to my heel meaning the hem doesn t drag on the gro und finally the perfect pair of jeans they also do not stretch out and keep shape after wearin all day highly recommend although a little pricy for pilcro worth the splurge this is a darl ing dress it is super flattering except if you are a swimmer and have broad shoulders unfortunately i had to return it because it pulled so tightly across my shoulders chest i orde red a size 4 and it was actually true to size other than failing to accomodate for an athletic u pper body i m 5 4 118 lbs wish i could have kept this one i purchased all three colors t his sweater is gorgeous i love it it s made well all three colors are beautiful and it fits g reat it s definitely true to size i m thrilled with this sweater adorable this sweater is ve ry pretty i love the knit and the cream color for some reason it just didn t flow the way i wa nted it to and i didn t love the v neck just didn t pull me in completely this is a love at f irst sight item bought that home after seeing it on the model very soft and lovely especially love the tie back i wore it with a t shirt underneath i am 5 4 and size small i bought xs an d still a bit long wish they have petite at the store this swimsuit is very well made and even prettier in person i m 5 8 and about 145 pounds i usually wear a size 6 i wear a 34d bra i found the suit to run a bit small i returned it because despite how much i liked the style it just wasn t flattering on my body type good quality tank very flowy and longer if you are shor t i ended up returning it just because it didn t do much for my current postnatal figure but o therwise this top is just so pretty and unique i tried on this jumpsuit on a whim and bought it immediately finding a jumpsuit for my body type is hard small chest rounder in the middle and hips like whoa but i have to say this one is ridiculously flattering love the quality and feel of the fabric i ve worn it both braless and with a bandeau and have not needed to wear a shirt underneath but then again it isn t a piece i plan to wear to work i m usually a sz 8 10 and go t the medium regular which is perfect i m 5 5 and the bottom hit this is so cute with a shirt o r tee under neath the look is better with a shirt underneath very adorable for many occassions i ordered the petite sizing b c i like my pants more cropped i am in between sizes and styles after having a baby this dress looks great on my curvy figure and enhances my look with the cin ching of the belt and the detail of the flutter sleeves perfect length and really fits well i am very happy with it this sweater is a great oversized warm and very soft cozy winter treas ure it is very comfortable to wear and looks cute on i really believe it would be flattering on almost anyone i highly recommend it especially now that it is on sale this top is so comfo rtable to wear the way that it hangs makes it as light as air wonderful for hot weather the p attern is beautiful this shirt style is boxy however the material is soft and this shirt is v ery comfortable i love the look of the cuffs this is a fun shirt to wear sorry but i disagree with a previous reviewer who wrote that this buttondown is sheer and runs large as for sizing i purchased my usual size small the fit is intended to be a bit slouchy and it fits perfectly through the shoulders and the bust love the high low hemline and the back isn t too tight acro ss my bum i ll also note that i m 57 years of age and might tend to be a little more modest whe n it comes to sheer fabrics the see through factor is not an issue with this buttondown i m i love this jumpsuit \r\n\r\ni would like to first say that while a gorgeous model i actually th ink this piece looks even better on different body shapes \r\n\r\nsizing \r\ni love the shape the style and the comfort i tried it on in a dressing room where it turns out another woman wa s trying it as well i am 5 5 and usually wear a 4 or 6 and got the small she was a bit shorte r and pettte and it looked fabulous on her it is loose all over and so flow and fabulous it h its me where it hits the mod this top is so pretty in person it bells out at the bottom just th e right amount i bought this in store size xs i weigh 125 130 it was displayed with a white blouse i cannot imagine wearing it as pictured i bought it for work it has nice detailing ba ck side pockets the straps that tie so cutely in the back is what adjusts it to your body ev en at 5 5 it is still cropped i look forward to playing with it in regards to flats heels b oots long sleeve t shirts turtle neckes even sleevless stuff great material creative design luckily i am small busted and will be able to get away with nothing underneath the closure knot ting on back is innovative a sexy jumper easter mother s day tea baby shower \r\ni m 5 2 1 20 and ordered a 4p true to size beautifully made flowy feminine i can t wait to wear this these are such quirky pants they re a lot of fun well made and i love the wide cropped legs they do run small though most reviewers say they are true to size i wear a 4 6 or 28 and in these i had to get a size 10 very tight at the waist even though the rest of the pant flows ea sily and is loose great color they ll be perfect for spring and fall and you can probably pai r with boots in the winter just a fun staple to my wardrobe probably should have noticed the m aterial this jumpsuit is made of before buying tencel thus little to no give kind of like line n and silk beautiful material soft with a slight sheen the top portion fits well and the tria ngles cover the girls well 36dd unfortunately there is no give on the back end for my bottom which is quite round and its tight around my thighs which aren t small either l xl and 14 an d sadly an xl would be too big upstairs and baggy around the middle sigh oh well this is a nic e heavy sweater for cold days and lounging in jeans very comfortable and flattering i saw thi s in the store today tried on a small and a medium and a medium fit me better which is unusual usually i am a small this top is fitted around the chest and flowing at the bottom a little lo nger than usual but the pattern is so pretty that i got it i am 5 4 135 pounds and got a mediu m super soft super comfy pants pain in the butt to iron out the wrinkles they came with i fe ll in love with this jumpsuit at first sight the color is stunning and very striking i found i t to run a bit large so would suggest sizing down for optimal fit but all in all a great piece for summer that will transition nicely into early fall this is such a pretty dress i was worri ed the arm holes would be too big since it was hard to see them in the pictures but they are pe rfect there is a built in red slip underneath it is so cute on and really flattering by itself or even with some white skinny crop jeans underneath this pants are comfortable and classy the y go fantastic with tall booties as it gets colder very nice soft fabric has a nice swingy dra pe and flair i use it to work out in sleep in and just hang out around the house could be pa ired with white pink or black leggings and a scarf too very happy with this purchase nan i abs olutley love this sweater is is very cozy and warm and can be paired with many different outfit s i am upset i didn t get one in every color i was lucky enough to get these on sale with an a dditional 40 off making them a fabulous deal they are nicely made and the shade of blue is v ery pretty my only complaint and the reason i m on the fence is that they are so big i usuall y buy a 31 in the ag stevie jeans occasionally a 32 so i figured i d be safe sizing down to a 30 wrong i could have gone to a 29 and possibly even a 28 they re that big i do like them though and may just try shrinking them in the dryer i bought this in store after seeing it onl ine and am in love with the shape the cropped legs give it a style advantage in my opinion f or reference i m 5 6 120lbs and a bcup i got the xs \r\nthe torso was too baggy and lost it s shape with a small \r\nas one reviewer mentioned it seems to be meant to be worn with a shirt underneath i ve tried with longer sleeved tops and with tank tops and they both look great es pecially white \r\n\r\nit has a modern cut and is very versatile i plan to wear sheer top run s big usually i m a size medium but got small in these \r\nvery pretty great summer top i g ot the small even though i usually order a medium for sweaters because i prefer them bigger and i m glad i got the small the sleeves are very long which i love and the sweater is also loose fitting also love the color is gorgeous and it is thick but super soft i wouldn t wear anyt hing underneath it unless tucked in because the front just comes to the top of my pants overall it s gorgeous and i would definitely recommend this this sweater was exactly what i was hoping for it is true to size it actually is cozy which i love in the winter the color is so pretty the quality is good it is fun and stylish i do recommend it i love the look of this garment from the color to the detailed design it is just awesome looking i tried this in 3 sizes 2regular 2petite and 0 regular i often order petite pants and they work but for this item the crotch was too high for me to wear a petite size and the legs were short enough to look awkward i returned it for the 0 regular which fit me best i m 5 5 110 lbs i haven t worn it out yet but am excited to wear it to a couple weddings this season one fallback is that i probably one of my favorite turtle neck sweaters it looks so chic and cute on i love this dress so very much i wish i could keep it but it doesn t look right on me i am 5 2 100lbs 32b 24 waist 33 hip dress fit me well except for the fact that it made me look very wide i think the combination of the ruffles on the sleeves with the blousey ness and my short stature was not a great combo it will be amazing on tall slender women but did not flatter my short frame \r\notherwise beautiful this fit me perfectly i m petite and it is a little long but i like the length it s perfect so cute this top is really great for the summer the fabric is light and gauzy so it s perfect for hot days i don t like to wear a cami in the summer and this shirt does not require one when worn with a nude bra i love the window pane pattern and the light pink color is very flattering and subtle i m 5 5 124 lb with fairly broad shoulders and wear either a small or medium i ordered the medium in this shirt and found it a bit large so the small would have worked as well i would say that your re i ve worn this twice now the first time was after trying it on and realizing it was perfect immediately purchased and never took it off the second time wore it to my internship office followed by museum and a concert incredibly versatile constant compliments 5 7 135 pounds 34 c 27 28 waist meant to be loose carefree incredibly modern does wrinkle after long periods of sitting but not enough to dislike the biggest complaint for me and my retailer coworkers is that it is an incred after a few months of coveting i received this jumpsuit as a gift apparently my longing wasn t too subtle and was delighted to find it didn t disappoint at all the material has a nice weight and falls away from the body but still is very swingy and light it is great for our slightly chilly spring yet i expect it will be fantastic as the weather warms up i am 5 6 and usually a 26 or size 2 in bottoms and an xs or s on top i got this jumpsuit in an xs and it fits very loosely much lik it is soooo cute i m trying to figure a few things before deciding to keep how one goes to the bathroom when wearing it i can t figure out how to get it on without help tying the straps in the back i really love this piece because it s classic and the style transitions from day to night the color caught my eye first but once i tried it on it was knotting the tie in front and seeing the elegant texture it created down each pant leg that sold me i felt too comfortable to be stylish but there i was multi tasking my full time passions in the retailer dressing room no big deal \r\n\r\ni am a tall size 4 6 woman for taller girls like me who a intend to wear a small heel with the piece these are great for summer except you need to size down unless the pair i received was an anomaly these run very large i tried these jeans on at the suggestion of the salesperson and couldn t walk out of the store without buying them even at full price of over 200 which i don t usually spend on jeans first of all the material is so buttery soft you can t believe you are wearing jeans secondly i could actually find a pair that would fit my smaller waist in comparison to my larger than i wish hips 27 28 waist 38 39ish hips 5 4 i ended up with size 26 they are very thin and i worry about how they will i bought this in the plum love the color i got this in xs which is my usual size it s a little bit baggy but i think this is the style of the sweater the front on me is not as long as pictured but just covers the top of my pants my daughter liked it so much she bought the exact same one this is a very nice top however it was too large for me i ordered a medium and needed a small i am 5 9 145 lbs i will try again with a small saw this on the mannequin and tried it on just for kicks \r\n \r\npros \r\n breathable fabric all cotton with a lovely color \r\n \r\ncons \r\n runs large which is the style of the top anyhow however i was swimming in the medium and i normally fit in size 10 12 or m l tops with retailer stuff you can easily size down and have plenty of room left but if you like it really baggy then stick with your normal size for reference i m a 36c and hourglass and had ample room in a medium \r\n s at 4 11 i usually have to order items in petite and sometimes still have trouble fitting properly into items but i was able to buy this sweater in an xs i figured with the high front and low back i wouldn t be able to fit it but it looks great on not only is the fit amazing but it feels amazing as well it s such an easy wear and the high low look is effortlessly chic i love everything about this sweater it s well made the color is lovely and best of all i can wear it with skinny jeans without feel overexposed in the back i think my husband thought it was rather shapeless but i like the look of a bigger sweater with a skinny pant a must buy at this great price the fabric is soft and the col ors are bright it fits well over the shoulders and the neckline is placed just right on the che st the bottom portion of the tank is more of a swing style item than a form fitting tank i am very pleased with the top and will wear it often i ve been wanting to try the cropped pleated p ants style and i like these the material is nice comfortable and the bow adds whimsy compare d to other brands i ve tried these pants fit the best the waistband goes up higher in the back so there s no gapping a big plus for me just one thing i find cartonnier to run small so i w ould suggest ordering one size bigger this was my favorite piece of apparel i have purchased in a very long time fun trendy and comfy yet dressy piece dress it up or down based on the occas ion caught my eye because of the colorful graphic print in my closet because of the super sale price it fits as expected in size medium a little bit long since i m short i m unsure of th e longevity since it s a viscose mix feels a little scratchy so if you re sensitive be aware i don t really wear tank tops without layers so this is a great addition to my casual wardrobe fits perfectly and is quite adorable too keep in mind is that where it s cut off on the leg is a bit awkward if you re not wearing heels i tried this in an xxsp i am normally an ssxp or xsp it fit me well everywhere except in the crotch where i was given a slight wedgie not the look i was going for if i sized up the rest of the jumpsuit would be too large on my frame \r\n\r\na lso i don t feel the quality matched the price point the one i received had a lot of loose sti ngs already and it was unopened previously that being said it is a beautiful color and on the right body the style would work well it just wasn t for me i love the style and color of this jumpsuit i ordered a petite and with tall shoes it s still about 3 too long the side seam n eeds to be taken out at the bottom to hem it so that s a pain in the rear \r\n also this has a side zipper but you step through the neckline to put it on if any part of me was even a tiny b it larger this would never work \r\nthe biggest issue is that it armholes bust gaps a lot the re should have been a dart from the armhole down towards the bust i m hoping to be after readin g the reviews i was hoping to be able to try this on in store i was able to try on a xxs and a xs in the store on the sale rack i tried both on and i usually will take an xs or small in swea ters funny but the xxs seemed to be a little longer in the front and the fit is nicer on me a fter reading others review of this sweater i thought for sure it would be super short on the xxs but it wasn t just goes to show you should always try on first i did not feel that the sleeves if there were more colors this tunic has nice soft fabric and nicely done embroidery that make it stand out it s comfortable and the fabric is very nice but it is not flannel as advertised the tunic is made out of a double gauze cotton which is a great fabric with a casual look this is a very flattering blouse gorgeous detail with the beading this sweater is absolutely adorab le i was worried about the layers looking too frumpy but they were not i normally wear a size medlum 8 but i sized down on this sweater on a gut feeling and bought a small i didn t want it to be too loose or billowy and it fits perfectly will be so cute with jeans but also with s kirts for work you will be so happy you bought this one i love this i agree with previous pos t that say it is much better in person the fabric is high quality but not too thick i bought this to have something light to wear on a trip to italy and it will be perfect the color is so lovely and the flowy detail at the hem makes it unique it s a basic without being basic i m so glad i added it to my wardrobe i tried this on at antho today and loved it the pictures online are not doing this garment any favors it is flattering in person the fabric is a light fabric i was a little disappointed in this since i like things to be a little warmer but this is proba bly better anyway with spring coming it is coming right today it s snowing i like the under layer that is kind of silky which i think adds a special touch to it it is versatile and could be paired with anything feminine with beading in front love the neckline and flow nice fall c olors sleeves button really nice fit in shoulders if you like this style it is absolutely bea utiful on may be short on those with long torsos nan i tried this on in the store on a whim then had to have it i m normally a small but really loved the way the medium fit good thing b ecause it was the last jacket like it in the store super soft comfy a great purchase fur is removable for easy washing or a different look this is such a great piece throw this top on with a pair of skinnies and some booties and you re dressed it walks the line between too ti ght and too loose beautifully for my figure love the contrast lining it washes beautifully i hang to dry i wore it twice the first week i owned it size s was best for me i m 5 4 140lb 34b and generally a size 6 and hits below my waist just far enough to make my thighs look enor mous i think how it fits depends alot on body type the material is nice color pretty not che ap looking so i will keep it but must wear a topper to slim down thise ugly thighs of mine nan i ordered these jeans on sale based on the great reviews but when the arrived the color loo ked different from the online pictures i don t love the color but decided to try them on anyway since i ve never tried ag before well they are so soft and comfortable and fit great i didn t want to take them off so i ended up keeping them now ag is my favorite brand for jeans i m in love with siyu i saw this jacket cape and the brilliant colors drew me in i had to have it i m so glad i purchased it it is wonderful i would say that the colors are a bit more muted than in the puctures but still a brilliant statement piece i was considering getting the sleeveless golden mock turtleneck to go with it but glad i didn t the neck of the jacket comes up fairly high and it probably wouldn t have shown the wool material is very fine not scratchy and a b it stretchy i haven t worn a pair of levis in ages and had forgotten how great they are i have recently lost weight and i have to say they are very flattering i wasn t sure at first how i wo uld ilike the frayed hems but they are growing on me this dress is really cute it s not a com plete bag on you i read that other reviewers complained about the fact that it is see through and that is the case but i own multiple pairs of skin toned underwear and did not find this to be a problem the fabric is lightweight but perfect for the summer it does wrinkle but a stea mer is your best friend this skirt is not only cute but really comfy i really like the materia ls it s made of and the way it seems to hug my body in a flattering way i m 5 2 so the only do wn side is that i wish it came in petite but i still kept it because it looked great hitting me right above my knees and high at my waist love this skirt i love this jacket it s the prettie st and most stylish jean jacket i ve ever owned the sleeves run small i m an xs but chose a sm all so i can button it and wear thin sweaters underneath more importatn super soft matieral an al in the fabric but jsut dind t feel right as cardigan maybe purchase if you are looking for a light robe \r\n\r\ntrue to size tried on xs maybe petite would work too this is a pretty dr ess although it runs smaller and the colors aren t as vibrant as on the website the waist ran very small for me in a size 10 which is my normal size and normally runs looser in the waist are a as i have an hour glass figure this probably will look very nice on someone smaller i tried this blouse on in the store and chose not to purchase it i did not think the fabric or design w arranted the price point as it felt a bit cheap and there s not much to the design it is true t o size   my usual size 4 fit well enough i m on the tall side with an average bust and i did no e is thin but very well endowed she also thought it made her shoulders look broad personally i liked it on love this sweater \r\nsoft and cozy and the ruffles are not overwhelming   just a touch of pretty \r\nit will look pretty with a turquoise necklace for a pop of color \r\nclassic comfy and classy \r\nan anhtro a   \r\nruns very true to size ordered my usual size an it fits perfectly my daughter loves these she wears them around the house all day when she doesn t have to go out i have another paper crown dress that is a favorite this dress has the same q y the fit did not work for me i am large busted and need a bra this dress cuts in at the shou lders and did not work with any of my bras except strapless also the waist cinches but without a defined band this looked a bit more frumpy again i suspect the fault is in my figure not t he dress \n\nfor someone with a smaller bought a pair of these with a gift card i got for my bir thday   just ordered another pair   i love them for everyday use and working out this dress is a dorable the material is thin and wrinkles easily but it is so flattering the cut is a little f lowy like typical off the shoulder dresses but this one is cut in at the waist so your figure is not swallowed up it combines the sexy summer vibe of an off the shoulder look but flatters like a fit and flare dress it is fairly short while i am only 5 4 in an xs it falls just a bit fur ther up on my legs than the model pictured makes no sense to me   the color is a rich coral pin k a nan nan nan i saw this in the store on a beautiful autumn saturday afternoon and was inspire d for what i wanted to add to my wardrobe for the season this blouse is just fun without being loud or overpowering the coloration works beautifully with my wardrobe and i can wear this dres sed up or dressed down with skirts leggings trousers jeans   with a vest jacket or sweater or on its own it is substantial enough not to wrinkle and look sloppy it is easy to launder an d will travel well with my capsule i picked this tunic up on sale it works wonderfully with sev eral of my cardigans and vests just add skinny jeans or leggings and some boots for a fun supe r comfortable look the sleeves are oddly extra long but not a deal breaker as rolling them up gives that unfinished cool look i hate ironing but i will iron this top as its so much fun to wear the embroidered and beaded detail is quite nice these jeans really look very nice on the ze up i am 5 9 136 lbs bought both 27 and 28 decided to keep the 28 mainly because the lowe r part of the leg was fitting too tight in the 27 looked more like a skinny jean but bunched up at the knee   they are tapered   i also own a pair of 100 cotton levi s wedgie in foot hills i n size 27 which fit a bit different than these   the foot hills definitel quirky tunic length t op has a windowpane print on the inside and the grey plaid looks like flannel but is cotton th e red burgandy embroidery adds punch and it has a boho flair size down one size runs big great buy on sale i wanted a foundation tee to wear under cardigans and it s great for that perfect length interesting textured fabric i got the white in a large fits well a bit oversized bu t in a good way stick to your normal size love these although i m exchanging mine for a size l arger they are definitely wide leg have plenty of length i m 5 6 and there is a good inch of extra length but i found the waist band to fit snug without a ton of give i also am working o ff extra baby weight in the stomach hip area though but thought it was worth mentioning i m pr etty curvey probably a size 31 in jeans right now and exchanged a l for a xl great quality i really like this denim jacket with the plaid underneath i also like the removable fur lining be ing that i live in florida i really don t need that i ordered a size small which is my normal s ize and a medium the small was tight in the arms so i decided to keep the medium i am really glad that i followed the others review in regards to sizing i ordered xs petite and was pretty excited when this arrived based on the reviews however and maybe it s just me the top was rea lly really large on me especially around the shoulders and upper arms so the shape was not fl attering sorry to have to return this item i wasn t sure how this dress would be sized so i o rdered it in two different sizes and kept the smaller one i would say it does run a little bit large but not much \r\ni agree with other reviewers that the dress came kind of wrinkled but o verall the dress is like it was pictured \r\ni think that this dress might be better for taller women i am 5 8 and i think it fits well but i could see how it would not be flattering if i were much shorter overall i am excited to wear this love this fits great warm and soft wou ld recommend this suit is perfect in every way the leg opening could be a little bigger for th e size i would be a small if the leg openings were a bit bigger \n\nplease please offer another suit before december 2015 so i can buy for our cruise i saw this a few months back and wanted it then and now i bought it i missed a few promos but i ended up getting it at full price in a large my usual size i like in the pilcro denim jacket line i love pilcro and have several of t his brands denim jackets and each one is very special i love the use of the plaid details it h as a weathered appearance the denim and my distressed treatments are not too severe as some r eviewers have commented on the holes i will say this jacket runs small i tried this cardiga n on today at retailer and i absolutely loved it it s much cuter in real life than it looks onl ine it s a perfect sweater for my skinny jeans long sweater tall boots winter uniform nan i am curvy on bottom i am 5ft 9 and this is very long it s ok to wear with jeans or leggings and the longer tunics are stylish these days however it s long enough to be a dress i bought a lar ge my usual size i gave it 4 stars because it is sized bigger then a large it is 100 cotton so maybe it will shrink a little i am ok with it though it is very loose and a relaxed fit the e mbroidery on the neckline has pretty little beadwork all over the stitching very cute detail i love the patter i agree with the other viewers that this cardigan is significantly better lookin g in person i am 5 7 126 lbs and bought the medium it is more fitted than how it is on the mo del it keeps its shape after multiple wears and is very comfortable i m glad i have it this i s a really unique floreat top unfortunately the petite sizes sold out so i went with an xs thi s was too big too wide in the shoulders and chest all around actually my other issue is that i t s a heavy material i just feel like if i was wearing it around all day i might burn up in it it did not feel like it was breathable and finally i m 5 2 even the xs was too long in the ba ck \r\n\r\ni could see how this could look really cool on the right person i m just not that pe rson to pull it denim faux fur flannel hooray i absolutely love this jacket and i ll wear it all winter even under my warmer winter coat i m 5 6 130 and usually a 2 4 in retailer and the small in this coat was plenty big in the waist chest and even had room underneath to add a s econd shirt or light sweater it seems a little shorter on me than in the photo maybe that s the only drawback retailerpologists has always carried the best sweatpants i wish they sold th ese in more colors very flattering this is a great piece you can do many things with it i wo re it to work and church i love pajama pants by this company i have a couple now and they ar e all so soft and lightweight i bought these immediately after trying them on i was totally su rprised to see these very cool edgy pants at retailer the color and details are spot on great quality i wore them with a blaclk leather high platform boot and black top tucked in i receive d a lot of compliments these look like they should come from europe i just wish retailer would buy better quality and more interesting things like these pants this tunic has really cute deta il it is hard to see in online photos but there is dark brownish beading over the embroidery the fabric is not as soft as i would have liked but it s still a keeper because of the two patt erns embroidery and beading also it is long and does run large but i think the measurements given in the description are accurate it is a tunic after all i ordered an xs petite and it w ill be very cute with leggings and boots the lace front is more detailed than i expected but i n a good way the sleeves are softer on the outside but the inside is not too scratchy as other s have said in my opinion it is comfy but i feel that the lace part is fragile and i will need to be mindful of where i m sitting when wearing it not a deal breaker though i am a teacher and love finding cute comfortable clothes i wore this for the first time today and got complim ents all day long i felt so stylish and i was still able to do what i needed to do i sized do wn from my typical size small beautiful detail on the back slightly sheer in front but dark br a or cami fixes that shorter in front than back but not too short goes with jeans and pants pl us a shorter cardigan or denim jacket would look great i saw this and had to have it it is so beautiful it has pops of color that can be paired with so many options i like the uniqueness of the flowers being on the backside it is thinner fabric so i will have to wear a black cami underneath but i have no problem with that especially going into cooler weather anyway it i s very flattering on this one will go fast thank you retailer i have gotten so many complim ents on this top it does run very large i m normally a large returned for a medium which is still a bit on the large size the small was even still large but much shorter so i loved it so much i just took the medium it s a tent style or trapeze style which doesn t completely sho w in the images super nice thin linen like cotton and absolutely beautiful love it this top is lovely and so perfect for this time of year when you want to look fall ish but when it s stil l too hot to wear long sleeves but i m pretty sure it s navy not black very dark navy yes s till not black compared to every other black top in my closet it looks navy so that was a lit tle disappointing but i m keeping it because i m a sucker for a flowy top and i can wear it ri ght now this top is fun to wear looks great with black grey or my wine color jeans love it i m not entirely sure if this shirt just runs large or if it fits oddly boxy the flowered mater ial puffs out on the sides a couple of inches under my arms i m usually a pretty solid size m edium but i think i m going to try to exchange this for a small to see if that solves that weir d fit issue because it is a nice idea of a design and comfortable overall but if that doesn t solve the trick if not recommend b c that side puffiness isn t flattering i went into the sto re to try this one on bc of my broad shoulders and muscular build in arms as sometimes the ope n shoulder pieces fit snug this dress was perfect and so soft fit me like a glove i have a long torso and am 5 8 so it s a little short but throw on some tights and booties and it s p erfect i m a size 10 12 and got a large i bought this blouse with the 30 off price i don t think i would pay full price for it but for the sale price i think it s fair as the other rev iewers have said it s definitely navy in front not black but it s a nice color combination an d can be worn with dark jeans or with black pants for a more casual work look it s sheer but a dark cami underneath fixes the problem i think it fits true to size with the understanding that it s supposed to be flow y and loose oh my gosh do i love this jumpsuit i am so glad that i bought it it is beautiful and fits perfectly classy and beautiful and made in the perfect co lor the design is slimming as well there is nothing that i would change about it i may be wear ing this for my 60th birthday this month and am sure i will be getting it out for other occasion s in the future i love it this dress fits true to size i ordered an 8 and it fits like a glov e it is a bit shorter than i thought i m 5 8 but will be perfect with leggings in the winte r and for the weekend in spring it is a nice weight linen not too thin the dots aren t white they re more light blue very cute dress i m going to a wedding in dec and looking for somethin g different thats where my retailer comes in their is this beautiful lace jumpsuit staring m e in the face saying im what u r looking for i m 5 4 117 and the petite size 6 fit perfect lo ve the navy blue color all set i am ready no lycra in this skirt says my label ignore the w ebsite description it s 100 cotton so no stretch \n\nme 28 29 waist and 36 hips the medium is a snug fit on my true waist i love it and will be tucking in shirts tees when i wear it o therwise it seems true to the pictures dark and long the slit opens above my knees i m 5 6 \n\nthe pockets are in a kind of odd position in the very front but the trick of that is they ad d no bulk to hips so it s a win i was specifically looking for a nice pair of high waisted je ans and this pair fit the bill i am a little unsure about the unfinished hem hence the 4 rating on design i would have preferred a finished hem i am 5 4 and they are a tad shorter than i no rmally like to wear my jeans i have had them for a couple of days still deciding whether to ke ep them despite the fact that i really love them other than these two issues the longer back ma kes this one of my favorite pieces for fall the navy blue pairs well with the floral accents on the back this blouse is a little too sheer for my liking but nothing a cami cannot fix this j umpsuit is absolutely beautiful it fit like a glove and made me feel incredibly classy and sexy at the same time i am 5 4 and 120lbs and the 4 fit like a glove and right at my ankles and ab ove my elbows the 6 fit a bit more loose and below my ankles and right at my elbows it is so d ifferent and easy to wear this is a beautiful dress the dress is a lighter blue when compared to the picture and the fabric is thick but the shape is beautiful the waist is very fitted but it didn t feel uncomfortable i didn t think the fabric was itchy as others mentioned i do thin k it is a bit short on the front it is a high low dress but at 5 4 that is not a problem for me it was true to size for me 135 lbs 34c i ordered this dress on a whim in my normal size

8 and if fits perfectly i felt so pretty when i put it on i love the volume of the skirt with the tighter top it was very flattering to me the linen thickness was nice but not for summer i n florida maybe spring but its lovely purchased this for new years eve and an early january we dding can t say enough good things about it the lace fabric is soft with the perfect weight t he style is slimming and flattering although i am short i have a full bustline and ordered reg ular rather than petite and it fits perfectly pants are very easy to hem if needed \nneeds very little by way of accessories because the lace edging is so beautiful 4 seasons appropriate thes e tailored front flowy back tops don t always work this is long enough to wear with leggings an d quite flattering i ordered this after falling in love with the near identically patterned red linen shirtdress this dress has almost exactly the same construction but the cloth is slightl y heavier weight and there is no slip because the fabric is thick enough to not need one a f ew other reviewers mentioned that the cut was ill fitting or unflattering obviously that depe nds on the wearer s build this dress seems cut for relatively small busted people so i lucked out i love the classic a frame outlin this dress was an adorable a line in the front and a shif t dress no pleats in the back tack onto that a high low hemline and it s just trying to be to o many things would ve loved to see this dress as a true a line fit and flare it would ve been perfect fits true to size it s a cozy sweater that doesn t make me feel frumpy still stylish and it s not too heavy but still warm enough it s like wearing a blanket sort of definitely sh eer with the big loom wear a camisole under it i got compliments the first day i wore it i bo ught this sweater on a whim in the store without trying it on when i got home i decided it wo uld probably lose it s shape and it seemed a big clunky sweater and i planned to return it a fe w days later desperate for something to wear i grabbed it and decided to keep it merely to h ave something to wear that day i m so glad i did \r\n\r\nthis is a great sweater layered with a cami it looks fantastic it does not lose its shape or grow it is structured so it doesn t f eel sloppy it has w love the design fabric is very light and flowy i like a tank underneath f or a little extra coverage runs a little wide size down such a fun top i ve had tons of comp liments i usually wear a size 8 and i purchased a medium but wish that i had sized down to a sm all every time i turned around received another complement it was perfect for a december weddi ng great for a holiday party and fit the bill for christmas eve very comfortable and slimming i m still amazed at the number of complements received the navy blue lace is elegant and comfor table not scratchy like some lace the v in back of the jumpsuit makes it easy to zip and unz ip i have some some imitations and thought i might have a problem zipping up the jumpsuit not a problem absolutely a nan i would never have noticed this from the product shot it was on the one of a kind rack at my store the open work that shows off your bralette or a cami is sexy and it has just the right amount of slouch super comfy i loved it bought a medium soft and comfy without being too thick or too warm flattering cut quality material and construction fully op aque so no show though true to size i m 5 8 140 lbs my usual size small is perfect could not improve upon these joggers love love love such a cute top can be dressed up or down i wore it on sting break and had many compliments i tried this one with the free ship 20 without much expectation so i was surprised by this nice piece i am not usually a fan of sheer shirts but this one manages to be sheer yet not see through the black color works that magic the line n makes this a nicer material rather than the usual knit i am not usually a linen fan as it giv es me the itches but this is soft and light the back is really beautiful and brighter colors i n person the balance between the front and back lengths does work a very comfortable runs a li ttle large purchased a medium and probably should have gone with a small i couldn t wait to tr y this on because i love the brand holding horses this dress did not disappoint although i det est the difficulty with side zippers why can t they simply return to the back seam i was easi ly able to pull this dress on because it had some give to the fabric once on the dress has a v ery flattering fit over the bust the wrap over bodice is already secured with a stitch and thr ough the tummy i believe these were sized s m l so i took my regular medium \nlength wise par i love jumpsuits in general however it is usually either a yay or a nay and this was definitel y a yay i am currently wearing it right now as i write this review the waistband hits perfectl y on me i am 5 7 and about 160 and i bought the large super easy to throw on i d been eyeing this dress for a while wondering if it could work for me i wound up ordering the sp size when it went on sale its pretty perfect i am 5 4 and currently 130 lbs it fits well if a touch lo ose in the waist but i think if i had purchased the xsp it might be too snug through the bust as it s fairly fitted there the neckline comes a little lower than i usually wear which is par t of why i wanted to order the petite size rather than the regular that and the length but i can i ordered this in grey first but didn t care for the black lace so decided to try the cream beige neutral and i just love it i have areas i am trying to cover up and this really f its the bill without looking too much like an oversized tunic the back is the clincher differe nt and surprising washes excellently but i did line dry as i was afraid of shrinkage if there are any left you won t be sorry and the neutral color looks good on almost everyone i have come to scoop up basically ever elevenses jumpsuit that they release because they are perfection al s it up classic and vintage dress style the fringy hem and more conservative length is so fun and makes the strapless top stand out with a stunning necklace this will be a versatile piece no doubt i first saw this shirt on one of the workers at the retailer stores and it looked beau tiful i loved it so much i had to order it when it came on sale the fit is a little too short for my liking but i think i can make it work also it does fit a little snug around the arms b ut it at least it doesn t show your undergarments overall i think it is absolutely beautiful the fabric has a beautiful shimmer to it and it looks easy to dress up for a day at the office o r a night on the town or paired i went into the store not expecting to walk out with this dress i just happened to try it on in an xs and i loved it i probably could have gone with a petite b ecause it s long but it didn t bother me enough and i didn t want to wait for it to be ordered it s nicely fitted through the waist and definitely looks better with a belt the downside is th at the lining is short mid thigh and tends to bunch up underneath which then makes it puff out slightly this didn t bother me enough to return i i am mad for plaid this dress is my new favo rite why i ll tell you the picture online does not do it justice but you must add a belt the dress is cut lower in the front but has a great stitch to keep it from gaping open over my d cup chest the material is soft and breathable the xsp was perfect for my 5 2 frame my typi cal size you know how sometimes you put something on and don t even have to look in the mirror to know you like it well this is that piece of clothing i bought a jumpsuit last year at retai ler and wore it all the time so i wanted to get a new one this year i saw this on the website a nd liked it all the way through when i put it on at the store comfy casual not too young for my 56 year old self the right length and i can comfortably wear a regular bra with it perfect on all counts this top is adorable fits like a glove which makes me a little nervous there w ere no washing instructions attached so i will hope for the best the quality of your garments a re always excellent its only the risk of buying on line sizing which makes me hold my breath until i can try my order on it is a joy to get items that fit from retailer my favorite online store such an adorable and comfortable dress just love the fit the design and the comfort of the denim fabric it s quite flattering fit s true to size and i can t wait to wear it to casua he natural fiber of this dress both the lining and outer layer are comfortable breathable cott on the dress has a casual contemporary vibe with the plaid weave and asymmetrical hem but is s urprisingly fitted in some areas the bust of the xsp was too tight for me and as a 34 b i don t usually have the problem of being too busty for my clothes i normally wear an xsp in a dress that seems loose and flowy like this one but this dress is more fitted than you might suspect f rom the webs this shirt is a 10 i ve been looking for an off the shoulder top that i can wear a bra with i almost never spend full price on retailer items but this one is worth every penny d on t hesitate just buy it i studied this dress for weeks before i finally bought it i am so ooo glad i bought it much more fabulous than the picture soft quality denim that is not too h eavy for summer very fitted on top love the pockets and the torn hem nan this dress has great potential i happen to have a longer torso so the fit was off as a previous review stated it s short waisted and a lot a skirt which i agree the hem is also funky i am still deciding if i w ant to keep it but if i do i plan on altering the skirt to be narrower and hemming it a bit sh orter too for reference i m 5 3 and weigh 110 and i purchased a size 0 i have been unable to find a jumpsuit that looks good likely due to my long torso this is the first one that doesn t make me look like i am a tall five year old easy to dress it up with a statement necklace and fits perfectly i am 5 6 120 pds and bought my normal xs highly recommend especially with t he current extra off promotion this sweatshirt is very cute on it works well with leggings o r skinny jeans it s the perfect thing to wear when you want to be comfortable but still look fe minine i agree with the other reviewers about the versatility and the fit of the dress i am 5 9 and yes the pockets hit just a tad high but the fit of the bodice and bust is so great that i am willing to overlook this small flaw the only thing that has really bothered me about the d ress that i haven t seen anyone else comment on is the slightly strange odor from the denim ma ybe it just happens to be my particular dress but i have noticed this strange smell from a pair of seven jeans i had purcha i loved this dress the second i saw it in the catalog and had to hav e it i had been looking for a plaid dress for awhile but couldn t find anything that i fell in love with till this one i love the front of the dress and the asymmetrical details it s just b eautiful my only complaint would be that the back of the dress is pretty blah after all the aw esome going on in front i was disappointed in the view from behind but i still love this dress and will be keeping it and wearing it for a lon when i saw this dress the model was standing in an outdoor setting and i fell in love with it but then i noticed the model in an indoors photo t he dress looked different as i studied the difference it was the way the plaid fell on each dr ess the one i liked fell more vertically giving it a slimming effect and the others were horizo ntal giving it a widening effect so i went to my local retailer to see they had the one i like d on a dummy it is tts and the plaid matched perfectly the front flo i purchased this in the 6 p and the 8p both fit similar but the 6p was just a little more form fitting the problem i ha ve with this top is that while the top of the shirt and the shoulders are awesome the rest of t he top is pretty boxy i am a 36c broad shoulders i did layer it with a longer necklace which helped deter the boxy look if the mid section could be a little more form fitting it would be a perfect top soft cool fabric great for summer i m a sucker for plaid i tried another plai d shirtdress from retailer and it looked like a housecoat on me this is lovely a bit fitted but very relaxed and casual i ll be able to dress it up for casual days at work it s got enoug h lovely details to be stylish i think the waist looks a bit simple so a belt helps dress it u love the pattern and colors of this dress the quality of the fabric is great i initially order ed my usual size xs but found it a bit roomy so i ordered both an xsp and an xxs the xxs was m ore fitted and the xsp was too short in my opinion i am still on the fence about the xs and the xxs the xxs has a tighter fit but it is also tight in the bust and i wonder how it will be if i have to reach for something will it be too tight even though the xs runs slightly big i ca n still work with adorable top but i have to agree with what two other reviewers said that i s is boxy and unflattering i have a similar patterned top also by maeve but the sizing on tha t runs small medium large the s petite that i have doesn t fit quite the same as the 4 petite in this blouse this is definitely more square in the torso and the ruffles do stick out more very flouncy it just made me look frumpy instead of the sexy date night look i was going for i am 5 and 120 lbs also i didn t the torso runs a bit long but this is otherwise a comfortable and cute dress the dress is well structured and refined enough to wear with a cardigan to work on casual fridays but fun enough to wear on its own to a summer festival because of the length i would suggest wearing with heels as it hits below the knee i would suggest a size down espe cially if you are smaller busted this is my third dress the first one was the right size but t he plaid fell on the dress in an awkward way the second one was a size too small but this one is perfect i am wearing it with a belt and loving it walked into the store and the first thing that caught my eye was this dress great pattern and fabric a quality versatile piece i am a size 4 and purchased an xs petite seems to run just a tad big amazing beautiful dress that is very slimming and elegant while casual but it is only for smaller busted women i have a mediu m and am a 34c it s tight and pulls strangely i ve seen that comment elsewhere i tried on th e large and it was too big everywhere but the bust i was looking for a dress to conceal my post baby body but wanted to be able to wear it once i lost the extra weight and this dress does the job the fit is very flattering and it hangs nicely great material i had my eye on this dress since it fist came out but hesitated to order due to some of the lower reviews when i got a ch ance to try it on i loved it i did go up a size i am 5 5 so i had it shortened to above the knee i didn t mind losing the unfinished hem had the hem match that of the pockets i am a 34 c but the bodice is stable and even if i pull at it it stays put so happy to find this especi ally on sale i plan to wear it at our company party which is help on a large charter bo because of my body type i never thought i could wear a romper i tried this on out of curiosity and am so glad i did it fits well i did size up because of my thighs is comfortable and an alterna tive to a dress the patterned bottom did not accentuate my lower body which was a worry i got compliments when i wore this to dinner with a pair of sandals dress is awesome and makes you lo ok skinnier i m 5 6 125 lbs wear size 2 or 4 normally and small or extra small 34b bra i tried on size 2 and it fit great this dress rocks i live the soft material and side pockets n ot a lover of a line skirts but this one is subtle i do need a strapless bra but if you are m ore endowed than me you won t need it the hem is unseamed leaving it a bit edgy since the de nium is light i can wear ghis dress now and into summer i live in texas so probabley won t be w earing it after june covering my i ordered this online with out previously trying it on and it fit nicely just love the colors draping and material nice and light good spring or fall dres s i wore it with black flats but it would look great with booties too very flattering i recei ved a ton of compliments i love jumpsuits but this literally feels like pajamas it doesn t loo k like pajamas but it is soft and cozy and isn t too big or too tight anywhere i am 5 6 and 13 0 and i purchased the small and it fits just like the model the button in the back at the top i s a little hard to close but the whole thing comes off and on easy which is such a bonus in a ju mpsuit this is a winner it can be worn casually or dressed up strapless dresses can be so fla ttering so when i saw this on retailer i had to order it this dress did not disappoint for ref erence i ordered a size 4 and i am 5 5 135 lbs 34b chest in the chest area it fits perfectly while the ribcage area is a little snug but not uncomfortably so the pockets are great the de nim quality is great and i like the frayed bottom of dress i got compliments straight away on the beauty of the dress from two men which i thought was quite interesting because i i bought t his top in two colors because i need more statement tops and thought the colors were different e nough for a really great top i have only worn the ivory so far and love it comfortable great style and solid quality so the fringe isn t fraying or falling out \n\nif i could change one thi ng it would be the itchiness around the neck opening it s not horrible but it can be distractin g and mildly uncomfortable \n\ni am really happy with the tops and can t wait to start wearing t he black one t very comfortable and soft i wish the neck was a bit lower and it runs on the lar ge side i am 5 7 wear a 10 12 i ordered the l and it was very big on me will try it in the m though i m worried that it will be too high in the waist on me i got the small 5 7 150 lbs pe ar shaped fit was a little sung mainly due to the lining i wore it once already super cute i w ashed it in cold and line dried it as i was afraid of shrinkage i thought about getting a medium but all sizes except xs are sold out i must be careful not to gain any more weight otherwise th e dress won t fit me anymore i ordered this dress in a size 6 for reference i am 5 7 145 lbs i love it the fit is perfect unlike other reviews i was aware the hem was unfinished and i l ike the look the top part does not seem to short the style to me is kinda retro i wore the d ress with flip flops and a large chunky necklace i received lot s of compliments it is my favo rite dress right now i need to start by saying i m 5 10 i think that s why i love this dress so much it s not too short on me like so many it is a classic fit that is flattering on me th e raw edge detail makes it a little more fun then just a strapless denim dress and the pockets a re the best i love dresses with pockets they don t stick out weird or anything either the onl y negative which prevents the perfect 5 star review is the bottom is fuller than i would like a line is a little misleading it s defini i m 5 8 130 and ordered a small it fits very nice and it s flattering my daughter doesn t like it as she thinks it looks like a t shirt tucked into p ants i get that but it fits nicely and i like the pattern and tapered legs these are truly slo uchy leggings i am short 5 3 so they do bunch quite a bit for me but when paired with a long chunky sweater they are perfect unlike the other review i felt that they ran a little on the l arger side i am typically an 8 10 and ordered the m l they sit nicely on my lower waist and do not sag but the length is long long long i recommend these for wearing out or around the house the beaded shoulders make this a unique tee shirt it turns an ordinary tee shirt into a more ey e catching one i bought 2 different colors and love them i prefer the little boxier fit as it is very flattering the material is a nice weight not too thin i got these in the neutral colo r quickly understood why they re categorized as loungewear if you re going to wear them out of the house wear a tunic or a dress over them i folded the scrunch part up over my calves w ore them like boot socks when i went out i got a m l they fit about on par with other legging s tights of that size range \n\nwhen i got home i rolled them down put the bottoms over my heels the rest of the bottoms scrunched around my ankles i recommend them for around this flew out of my local store so fast i had to order on line simply stunning was reluctant to pay high price but worth it will get much wear beautiful flattering blouse this has a nice vintage cut and soft feel with the metal detailing of a blinded out rock n roll tee it s perfect with jeans a leather skirt or even lounge pants it s a great top to throw in an overnight bag for a weeken d away because it s so versatile on the advice of other reviewers i purchased the m l in this i tem boy was i happy i did i am normally a size 6 8 and because of the sheerness issue mentione d by another reviewer i purchased the larger size they are still sheer in the rear end you mus t wear a tunic or longer shirt skirt with these if you are hanging around the house it is not t oo bad these are very comfortable and feel great while wearing the color is great and the look is good they are really long when you remove them fr i love this shirt it fits great and looks awesome with shorts or skinny jeans i love the beads on the shoulders i liked it so much that i ordered it in 2 colors i cannot even tell you how many pairs of white jeans i have tried on i n my quest to find white jeans all brands and all styles and finally i took a chance on these a nd have found the ones these are great quality as true for any ag pants i have ever purchased they are a crisp white and are not see through and the fit is amazing i have athletic legs and with my muscular thighs and calves it has been difficult to find a pair of white jeans that didn t hug to tightly and therefore fitting poorl this top is very feminie i love hte pelats and flo wer details it can be however a bit boxy i think if you have wider hips i might avoid grea t to go with skinny pants ejans though could size down if shoulders are not too wide bough t this as transitional wear post baby 2 i love them will probably end up wearing them all winter long i love that i m 6 foot they still are scrunchy at the bottom which i honestly was n t expecting gorgeous suit sexy cut on the back but seems to hold you as well suit runs ver y small i wear a 4 in regular clothing i bought both the small and medium and just exchanged i t for a large this appears much more pink in person i m not really a pink girl but thought i d try \r\nthe way the shoulders are cut makes my defined shoulders arms look too intense for my l iking this would look nicer on someone more petite and less athletic in my opinion i like that the bust has slight padding that can make a bra unnecessary for yoga spin pilates ballet or barre class it s nice and fitted and true to size would be really cute on the right person cu te top i actually got a lot of compliments on it the white is slightly see through which doe sn t bother me but could bother other people all around cute casual piece love the tee in the red it s not too sheer and the metal detail on the shoulders turns it from a simple tee to a te e with a little more pizazz fits true to size i take either a medium or large in retailer and this in a size large fits well it is a bit boxy but not sloppy on sale it s a great deal the simplicity of this t shirt will go with jeans shorts or anything casual the macrame and bead details give it that extra style i bought the red and white and love them both the red is war m and bright with pink undertones despite the boxiness of the fit it ran true to size for me i did not think it was too big its meant to be loose and slouchy rather than fitted this blous e is not only flattering but a great way to dress up a pair of jeans fits well but a big tigh t around the arms had to go up a size this top is lovely it s got a decent length to it so i t can be tucked into nice pants or a skirt the gold beading design on the shoulders is a little heavy which can sometimes cause it to slip sag off the shoulder not entirely off but enough to reveal a bra strap for a kind of off shoulder look it s very flattering if you tuck it in o r even if you don t i got this top in red and it s lovely a little more towards than coral s ide than crimson i am a 5 10 size 4 or 28 long i need a 33 34 inseam woman i bought the s m and they fit perfectly with all the excess length bunching at my ankles as designed i m thrilled i bought the light color one thing wear nude underwear and lighter or just short s ocks these are definitely see through however i only plan to wear these with long tunics and sweaters anyways something always reaching down to my upper thighs at least so comfy and coz y this top has glam written all over it the pleating gives it a delicate look but is not cheap ly made or feeling it lays so beautiful i would say this runs tts but because i am busty i si zed up to give it more of flowy look because i am busty it also looks like high low blouse no need for a necklace the flowers and shimmer do all the work for you i paired it with leather le ggins and it was adorable i m 5 5 145lbs and i m usually a small medium depending on the vendo r i bought this shirt in a red medium and love it yes it s boxy and a little big but lays ni cely and i think it s meant to be a bit big i ve worn a black cami underneath and the shoulder hangs off a little to the side giving a little extra sexy look to it this shirt washes well per instructions didn t shrink or loose it s shape and i ve washed it three times now i ve had man y compliments on how cute this shirt is love nan i just bought this shirt on sale i d been eye ing it for a bit and when it went on sale i had to get it its really cute and comfortable and f its really nicely it s not too short or boxy and the detail on the sleeves is great i usually do not like three quarter sleeve shirts and i do not like tie necks of any sorts this blouse ha s both and i love it i loved it in pictures and against my two dislikes listed above i gave i t a chance i am glad i did the shirt is lined in the body which means the white one is not see through yey no need for cami underneath the lining also adds extra warmth as this is a very thin fabric shirt the sleeves are loose enough so that the 3 4 length does not restrict me the tie some the red is so pretty in person i love the details on the sleeves only complaint is the fit is pretty boxy and couldn t size down because it is borderline to short in length did b uy it today and we will see if it work out nice quality but enough material for two sets of t ights can scrunch up at the bottom for a different look i bought this shirt specifically for t he extra details on the shoulder when i received the shirt it was a little stiffer than i expe cted but not enough to return it for being too uncomfortable cute design details on shoulder m ake the tshirt more special but it runs large so that kind of takes away from the styling got i t on super sale so i ll keep it maybe a wash will shrink it a bit they re great i saw them featured in one of the marketing emails they looked comfortable and cute different with the le g warmer type bottom i went to the retailer near me but they didn t have them in store this w as a slight disappointment because i wanted to try them on for sizing purposes but i ordered t hem because they were affordable in the 30 range cute comfortable and stylish they also en ded up fitting perfectly as well nice job i love these with tunics and little dresses they hi t at a funny place on my hips though i wish they were a bit higher up since the waistband is thick they show through tops unless they are pulls up above my hips and they re a bit too shor t waisted for that but i was able to stretch them a bit and i love them the metal detail th e shoulders is the perfect touch to an otherwise ordinary tee \r\nregarding sizing i am 5 4 36dd and i usually have to buy l in tops and make alterations after reading the other reviews i ordered a m s because my shoulders are narrow the s fit better front measurement shoulder to hem is 24 on both the s and the m plenty of length for me i also wasn t looking for a tight f it around the waist and tucking in just the front as shown on the model looks great i saw thi i m normally an xl but i bought a l since so many said it was big and boxy the l fit great it s tailored to the body but not tight fitting just as shown on the model \r\n\r\nthe detailing at the shoulders is heavy compared to the light knit of the fabric of this tee so it pulls the n eckline forward a bit \r\n\r\ni bought the red and wow it s a bright fireengine red that s ju st stunning it looks lighter in the photo it arrived all squished up in a little tiny roll so it was really wrinkled absolutely love these leggings warm comfortable great way to relax after a long day snuggle up in these do stretch even longer after a while but wash and wear again is easy even wear out of the house bought in green and love how well they go with swea ters shirts etc for the sale price this is an amazing deal i tried the white version of t his shirt on in a size 10 because being on sale that was all they had available in the store it was unfortunately too large with the v of the shirt plunging rather low and the sleeves han ging off my shoulders and i didn t buy it when i came back a few days later i found this in a size 6 in black i honestly don t know my shirt size in numbers but i d consider this one a sma ll to medium so i d say it s fairly true i slightly balked at the cost but i am completely sati sfied and glowing about the product and it is made in the usa in these times that means a lot 100 supima cotton and the perfect design with reasonable deep v neck front and back and the sl ightly lengthened sides very ultimate design for a tee i bought the dark grey the tag says w ash before wearing which is one extra step still i find this supima cotton tee pretty much divine i bought the dark grey in medium my usual size i received this blouse for christmas a nd it is just gorgeous it fit true to size and goes with my whole romantic feminine style tha t i have without being overly girly not too sheer so no need for a tank underneath and being that it is neutral it will go with just about everything i own love it i wanted to love this skirt but i got it today and i just was a little disappointed i read all the reviews but i fou nd it ran small and really fitted not straight pencil like on the model it is a knit and it l ooked like cotton has a lot of give but it hangs a little weird the panel in the front doesn t lie flat and looks a little funky the colors in the skirt look exactly like the picture on li ne so that was good i liked it but didn t love it and for 98 00 i want to love it i am be i saw this dress online and thought it looked just ok i happened to see the dress in my retailer store today and thought i would try it i m so glad i did this dress looks so much better on i m usually a 10 12 in dresses at retailer i tried this in a large it fit perfect it s doesn t cling to you but it doesn t hang like a sack either i think it made me look taller and thin woohoo i would say it s a little on the thinner side it s not a heavy knit it s two layers of thinner knit as yo wearing this dress for the first time now and i love it soft material co mfortable and easy to dress up or dress down making it good for all kinds of different occasio ns \r\n\r\ni was a bit nervous about the initial purchase due to other reviews saying this dress isn t great for pear shapes but i whole heartedly disagree i think it actually just needs a be lt for those of us with particularly curvy figures i m wearing a belt around my natural waist and have bloused out the top and it looks g i don t love this skirt as much as the other reviewe rs do it fits a little bit weird on me and i wanted the tie to be adjustable so i could bring in the extra fabric a bit the knot is not adjustable the skirt is borderline tight around my rear and legs so i can t size down the knit is substantial so that s something but i found the extra fabric around my middle just wasn t flattering on me i had recently bought and loved lilke s tideline pencil skirt which also has a fabric tie wrap such a cute skirt the fabric is comfortable and light and the the tie in the front helps conceal some of those tummy issues a lot of people want to hide i received this dress today for a june wedding i was so excited about it and the quality is beautiful but unfortunately i am going to have to return it it runs very big i normally like to wear items a bit bigger baggier but with this dress it needs to be tight on the sides bummer i had bee struggling to find a romper with longer length shorts i t seems like so many of the rompers have short shorts for the bottom half and i wanted something to hit upper mid leg something like a 4 inseam on a short on a whim i ordered this and hoped it would be long enough and sure enough it is perfect still stylish and still short for summe r without it being so short on the bottom well made nice closure at bust so there is no gaping i bought my typical size xs and it fits perfectly it s loose but not overly baggy which is wh at i was looking for the material seems very durable my concern with all white tops is being t oo thin and see through and that was not the case with this shirt the front comes right above m y crotch and the back covers my cushion i ve only worn it once and that was with some bootcut j eans booties simple earrings and a statement necklace i highly recommend it a little long still but loved the fit \nflattering on me i have thighs and these balanced out the thigh effe ct color wash was also very nice in my opinion can be wrn with any top really i had to mak e myself return them jsut coz of price but on my wish list for sure i would not have tried thi s on or ordered it by myself but my stylist brought it over for me to try as it was on promoti on well ok i get it i actually liked it on but the regular size was too big in the arm hol e thinking of it i should have ordered the xxs maybe i will \n\nflattering style comfrot able fabric really nice overall i love the cut of this shirt interesting back and it hangs nicely surprisingly flattering i m usually a small and needed the xs in this shirt fyi ve ry soft and overall just very pleased with this purchase i bought it in the denim as well thi s is an all purpose outfit well made good material it can be worn many ways nan i loved this top when i laid eyes on it online and in person it did not disappoint it is a beautiful and u nique top the color is striking and the style is adorable i can t wait to wear this with some flare jeans and espadrilles this wash is so beautiful but i found the rise too long for me so happy i found them in 24p here on the site they are wonderful but i d like to caution with resp ect to proportions \r\n\r\ni have long legs for a petite ha and a petite upper body these j eans almost entirely differ with respect to length so id say if the your torso is fairly true t o a regular fit and your legs are shorter you totally save on hemming the regular fit jeans l ike another reviewe noted hemming will reduce the fl i ordered this dress in oatmeal the minute i saw it online i m 5 5 and 115 lbs and my usual xs fits perfectly i would say this dress wil l be the most flattering on a long lean body type it will show bumps and bulges i will wear it asap with booties and a jacket and it also looks great with flip flops or sandals for the su mmer very happy this dress is just my style i have been waiting for it to go on sale since it hit new arrivals when the sale hit the extra 30 off i pulled the trigger unfortunately for m e it was a little snug in the bust and as a tall lady the waist hit me at slightly the wrong s pot i am 5 9 and am a 36d so if you are tall and busty this will not be the dress for you j ust from the way it is cut and manufactured the skirt section of the dress has a hook underneat h the vest section that it is pretty i like how this dress is really different and fun with the slit up the front and the short layer revealed underneath it can be worn in many seasons i wor e it yesterday with sandals but i could also see wearing it with booties and a cardigan cute dr ess this is a great skirt i am always on the lookout for machine washable clothes that are fun and work appropriate this skirt is really flattering on my body the only thing that s a little off is the tie at the front but it s still really stunning on this suit is super cute i think it will be too short in the body for taller girls i am 5 4 117 pounds 32c and bought the medium very cute fit but it s almost slightly too short in the body maybe if you are smaller on top you will get more length in the body i really want to keep this suit i might consider the larg e but the rest of the suit fits perfect i love the style and quality of this skirt the materi al is a bit heavier than anticipated so it works well in cooler months and the thickness makes it easy to wear a shirt underneath it fits true to size my usual 6 is form fitting without be ing overly snug or pulled \n\ni am on the taller side and the skirt is fairly long it comes t o the bottom of my knee i wanted to love this but if you carry your weight in your hips butt o r thighs this is not the dress for you runs tts i m 5 5 135 lb and the small fit but made my lower half look even wider than what it it also felt like it was a bit too long in length nan it was hard for me to pay full price for basic white button down but i am so glad i did the hig h low and split back detail give the shirt a unique look it looks cute with jeans and wedges as a dressed down option i bought this to go with the shoreline skirt and it looked really good to gether this is a staple that can be worn multiple times and for many years love this when i f irst saw it online i thought it was a bit pricey for a plain white shirt but i finally gave in and ordered it i m so glad i did i ve worn it twice in one week so it won t be difficult to ge t my money s worth it s very soft and fits perfectly looks great with jeans or dress pants i like to tuck the front in my pants and leave the back out i seriously love this skirt i bought it for my college graduation and i was complimented by everyone that saw it not only that but it is beyond versatile you can dress it up make it casual or make it professional it is extr emely ideal especially for the price it also is the most comfortable skirt i ve ever worn so t hat s a plus this dress runs tts the fabric is a good quality and it has pockets i am about 5 5 and it hit just above the knee i really wanted to keep it but it hit me at an odd spot a nd not on my waistline this made the dress look awkwardly full and me look hippy despite the f act that my waist is 26 and my hips are 35 cute and comfortable has layered design with bla ck underneath which adds dimension and warmth can wear in multiple seasons with and without jac ket i tried this on in gray while in store it was the cuff detailing that initially attracted me once i tried it on there wasn t a lot i loved about it so it didn t leave with me but now th at it s on sale it s the perfect choice i m wearing a medium in the photo and the only real d ownfall is how long the arms are on me and i have long arms maybe sizing down would help but i fear i have too much winter weight to hide to take a small for reference i m 5 6 145 lbs cur vy hourglass generous hi this tunic is a casual comfy yet stylish piece that is a great additi on to my wardrobe the only thing i find might be an issue is the thin material i tried wearing a tank top under it but the material is too thin and the outline of the tank was too noticeable and looked odd removed the tank and all was good pairs great with leggings i wasn t sure how t his would look on but it is very flattering looks great with leggings or jeans i have receive d many complements comfy but constantly picking pills off of it from first wear i love this jacket can dress it up or dress it down over a dress skirt or jeans very soft and flatterin g this tunic is super comfy and will look great with leggings or skinny jeans i absolutely lov e the detailing on the sleeves i am so glad i ordered this item this color rich pattern will t ransition nicely into the fall season it wears well with a bare leg and will look great with op aque tights later in the season the higher waist and gathering work well on my figure this jac ket feels like a throw blanket but has shape and is appropriate to wear both casually or dresse d up to make it profession enough to wear to the office the jacket is bias cut and longer in th e back to cover your rear since it s fleece the sleeves roll up easily and you can move around in it with ease it has pockets big enough to carry your phone i m 5 7 135 with a small chest and i got the jacket in my normal size small and it s loose enough for me to wear layers underne ath if i w this is my first pure good piece i am not disappointed i am 125 and a 34c orde red the small fits like a dream love the moss color nice long sleeves i will am picky about sleeves comfortable fabric the detail at the cuff is lovely i can see this versatile piece t aking me through the entire year comfy will be great with a sweater or vest over it love the pink color love this blazer combines a chic pulled together look with super soft comfortable material will be great for the office and the weekend runs a little big am typically a large o r xl so i ordered the xl and had to exchange for a large might have actually been able to size down to a medium but didn t want to deal with the back and forth again i like the dress on lin e color flowers cut etc but when i tried it on it was just meh the color did wash me out a bit the flowers are still beautiful but the cut wasn t as flattering on my body as it was on the model 0p fit ok but i didn t keep it you ahve to tie your own shoulder straps so adjusta ble i guess that is a plus \r\n\r\n115 lbs 30 dd 26 5 in waist the lengths is what drew me to this top i love the simple look of the cowl neck nice detail to the sleeve that creates a more than casual look nan beware ladies these are the first pair of cartonnier pants i ve tried tha t actually run large i have several other pair of cartonnier crops that are sized way up to a 1 0 my normal size is 6 or 8 to my surprise my normal size 6 in these for perfectly the fabr ic is way different than the printed crops i got the bright red and fabric is stretchy great fit and great weight for summer perfect for lunch with the girls pta or saturdays with the fa mily this skirt is a perfect addition to your fall wardrobe i am usually a medium but sized d own to a small for a more fitted look the light pink is slightly sheer but will look great ove r leggings and jeans i love the detail on the sleeve like many clothes this looks much better on you than on the model with a little bit of curve it is not shapeless but very flattering i wore it out with friends for drinks and they all exclaimed at how elegant it was the wrist keyh ole is a nice touch and quality is very good for reference i m 5 6 125 lbs thanks for the tip to size down i am typically a m or a l 36d and i sized down to a s it is perfectly struc tured and warm and soft and beautiful got it on the 40 percent of sale items so the price was r ight absolutely a classic i got the plum color thanks retailer for another wardrobe staple i was so excited to receive this shirt it is a beautiful color and material and very well made i loved the lace detail and wanted to love the shirt however i put it on and the seem hit right at the top of my bust it broadened my shoulders and the fabric started right at my bust so it f lowed down from there making me look boxy and wide i am a 32dd 5 3 and 115 pounds for referen ce if you are more narrow and don t have a chest this would be absolutely adorable but sadly fo r me it had to go love these charlies the side zip is a nice change of pace and the dark grey g oes with practically everything i own fabric is a perfect weight for spring and summer too i o rdered one size up mainly because i put on a couple pounds this past winter like usual and th e description said slim fit i went from a 6 to an 8 and the 8 s weren t big at all so they mig ht run a tad on the small side side zipper is a little harder to zip near the waistband but i don t think that can be prevented beautiful fall winter piece so soft and comfy was unsure a bout it when i saw it online but once i saw it in store and got to try it on and feel it i could not put it down i felt you could definitely size down this coat is so beautiful like others i wouldn t have even considered it online but i tried it on in the store and absolutely fell in lo ve with it is the softest material ever and is so flattering on the jacket runs large so size down it s a good jacket to throw on the go but i don t see this lasting long bc after he first wash it started piling the quality of the material isn t great i ve been looking for sometime for a spring summer jacket to wear on warm days over light clothing i wanted something feminine and just structured enough to move beyond casual this fits the ticket it is a very pale grey a nd a soft cozy fabric i am 5 8 tall and 118 lbs and usually wear an xs in many items but a s in jackets due to the shoulders these shoulders were large on me in the s the waist was also l arge but worth having it altered if you find this on sale it s a great buy love this skirt i thought it would be much shorter but when i tried it on it was the perfect length and super cu te the material is thick but not uncomfortable and very move able this is a gorgeous piece of clothing true to size simple yet flattering lines very comfortable it has such flattering l ittle touches as well such as the detail work on the sleeves love it love it love it i just wish it were machine washable i love this top from the details on the cuffs to the draping at the neck to the light weight yet very high quality material this top is my new winter spring t ransition piece i m 5 3 small chest and a slight curve in the hips the arms of this top fit me fine but because the fabric doesn t stretch you may find the sleeves too fitted the length is perfect for hiding the butt without looking like pajamas about mid thigh i ve paired it wi th cuffed jeans and sneakers like the model is w i have wanted a fleece jacket for ages for wa rmth and practicality but i m not the sporty type this is the perfect alternative i got it i n wine and use it over a cardigan and dress or jeans it is a lovely color and passes as wool t his is one of the best things i ve ever purchased at retailer highly recommended btw it runs quite big i m generally a medium to large but the small is perfect on me wow great find and a true fit i totally dislike pant shopping and these are a gem \r\nslimming flattering and so co mfortable the style is great great basic summer pant so soft light and warm will work as an outer layer or fit under a coat the wine is beautiful with a subtle two tone contrast between the outside and slightly brighter inside even though it s just one layer relaxed and casual ye t will dress up a tee or blouse \n\ni m usually m or even l but the m was too droopy at the shou lders so went for the s which looks less slouchy and more jacket y on i loved the mustard colo red version of this skirt for summer and was thrilled to see it reissued in darker hues same co mfortable fit and cool textured fabric that doesn t wrinkle i found the regular sizing to still be above the knee and the wide elastic waistband great for either a cropped top or a belt will wear often really soft and perfect for work or leisure fits a little large but ok i usually t ake a small or medium size 8 or 10 and the small in this jacket fits nicely but a little big very comfortable will be great for travel nan i love this skirt and was so happy to see it in stores again in a great color for the fall the fit is great for me because i do not have a flat stomach and the elastic makes it comfortable to wear the material is a good quality this skirt adds the perfect pop of color to my closet long thin tunic perfect over leggings great for casual day but look pulled together i love most pure and good clothing pieces mostly because t he fit and fabric are comfy and made of good quality materials this tunic does deliver on both counts but i is very very long and straight up and down \nfyi i have a boyish figure having no waist hips i have a broad shoulder back so the cowl neckline coupled with the very long and straight tunic doesn t really flatter my body it would be okay for just haging around the house but i wouldn t feel comfortable wearing this tunic out love this bra i was looking for somethin g feminine and sexy and this is perfect it s exactly as pictured i was worried the material wo uld be too delicate and fragile but it s really durable my only issue is that it fits a tiny b it awkwardly because of the solid material on the side but it doesn t actually look awkward ju st feels a bit odd at first i highly recommend it if you re looking for something sweet and sex y i love charlie pants i ve bought a few in the past and i ve never been disappointed with qu ality style or fit i love the side zip on these and the nice flat front as a result i wish m ore pants were side zip so much more flattering than having that part stick out under fitted sh irts i got these in a 4 my usual size and while they fit a little more snugly than my other s ize 4 charlie pants there is enough stretch that they don t look or feel too tight i also got these in the regular r such a beautiful well made dress the color of the dress is slightly mo re pink in person a very pale pink the lining is an off white color it fits very well asid e from being a bit long i m 5 and ordered the xxs petite so glad paper crown is making xxs p now nan nan i got several compliments when i wore this dress it s very comfortable and will be great for fall i just recently purchased this skirt and i love it \r\nit s cotton with spandex incorporated so it s soft and not stiff it hugs your waist and accentuates your butt nicely t he lace up is unique in design so it can be dressed up with a sparkle blouse or dressed casual in a t shirt i m 5 1 in height so the length is very flattering and it zips up in the back g reat color cream and excellent quality a cute dress i did not have the issue with the slip bei ng too tight i wish it had a little more shape to it while flowy it looks a tiny bit tent lik e i still like it and wear it into fall with booties and boots really comfortable dress to wea r pretty flower design good fabric and ribbon details are well placed thankful it came with a cotton under slip because it s very sheer fabric and i didn t have to think of what to put un derneath have worn it twice since it shipped and i m really happy with my purchase online or der and shipment was super fast too i m short and curvy and just had a baby love this cape bec ause it s super comfy and warm but not too warm have had it for a couple of weeks now and it s my go to for running around during the day the description says grey but it reads a tiny bit gr een like light camo green but so slight that it still pairs well with most everything \r\n\r \nusu a med but got the xs s because of how slouchy it is anyway med looked too big in the shou lders morher jeans are my favourite they are soft and fit great make my saggy butt look good they do stretch with wears but shrink again in the wash they do shrink quite a bit so don t dry all the way i recommend mother to all i purchased a petite size which fit great except for the slip the slip is at least 2 inches shorter than dress super comfy and flattering perfect for fall with at pair of booties i really like this dress despite the somewhat gathered skirt it has a clean line and doesn t add a lot of volume around the hips the blue is a great color the length is well above the knee but i m 5 10 i can see wearing this dress in the fall with leggi ngs or tights and boots bought one for myself and one for my mom we both love it super soft boxy and oversized but great for layering over a belted tunic tried this on on a whim and so gl ad i did it is lovely i can t wait for next summer now as i ll definitely wear this as a dress with a light cardigan seems tts 34d and 5 2 i bought in a small and it fits nicely a bit p ricey for what it is 68 or 58 would have been more appropriate i think so try to get it on s ale i bought this as a gift for a friend that is getting married in a few months it s so sof t and cozy i m tempted to keep it i got the xs s regular in white and was worried it would be too long but hits my natural waist belly button and i ve got a shorter torso and am 5 4 5 i got this during the 40 sweater sale and feel it is worth the full price a fun piece but not on e to keep you warm on a cold night more of a cab to curb piece this dress is great wear now a nd into fall with boots and leggings it seems to have structure with the seams and is nicley fl owy this dress can be casual or you can dress it up for going out i just love this dress wha t s lovely surprise this jacket cape poncho is first it is a substantial piece heavier than it appears it has an almost faux suede feel to it with a deliciously lush french terry lining it looks and feels very rich i bought both colors and was glad i did i live on the coast and this will be fantastic over a sweater for morning walks along the shore i m a l xl and the m l size is a perfect fit very pretty dress but the fit is not great i have to get help to take it off because it s tight in the shoulders ok so this is adorable i am 5 3 and medium size and had to take this to my alterations people because i loved it so much but it fit awkwardly the b ack was too long and hung funny on my short body after it was reworked it is the cutest thing i own they also made the little belt tighter across my waist it is super versatile my alterat ions people ran out and bought themselves one after they saw mine so if you are not a tooth pick or tall know it can be amazing with a little attention these are super cute shorts great pattern pockets yay and really nice fabric but they re just a little too short for me run a little small and the side zipper is something of a pain i don t know if it was a construct ion issue on the pair i received or a stupid user issue but it seemed as if the seam with the zi pper was just off not really a side seam but more toward the back plus the zipper sticks on the waistband seam making it even more difficult to zip i wish i had read the these are my firs t pair of mother denim and certainly not the last they fit true to size i am a 26 in designer denim such as j brand paige ag i bought these in a size 26 and they fit perfectly they hug m y curves nicely i am 5 3 so they bunch up just a little bit at the ankles which i can easily ha ve altered but honestly don t need it the quality is great nice denim material with a lot of stretch to it i love my skinny jeans tight and these were exactly what i was looking for this is a delightfully soft and fluffy sweater i might have bought it if my store had the petite siz e the white was pretty and a good weight not too light or heavy and comfortable it would be fun to layer over various outfits it did not seem to shed i just ordered this top and i love i t it is a perfect top for fall days with a cute leather jacket i got this online in a sale and couldn t wait to try it on at home it s so cute the fabric is a great print and the fit is swi ngy which i love i have a larger bust than waist and i m 5 8 160 lbs i ordered my normal si ze 10 and it fit perfectly i can t wait to wear it with booties this fall this cardigan is ver y soft and feminine it looks nice on but it sheds everywhere i decided to pass on it when it g ot white fur all over the other clothes in the fitting room if you don t mind the shedding then i would recommend this sweater just received and sorry to return i am 5 9 i wear a size 8 i o rdered the m l it way really big and to wide it has been a long cold winter and spring but i t is going to get hot \r\nand this is a perfect dress for july \r\ni tried this on and did not f eel the need for a slip or a cami yes it is lightweight no i would not consider it for work but when it gets hot in the summer i feel like this will be a perfect slip on and go dress for days or casual evenings \r\ni wear a 12 and the medium fit perfectly\r\ni considered ordering t he small since i had some extra space but again it is going to get hot i am usually an xsp o r 0p but i ordered up one size 2p due to previous reviews complaining about the tight slip ho wever i definitely did not need to size up the slip is fine and the outer shell is billowy an d i should have stuck with my usual size when i put it on i was not in love due to the dress be ing so roomy but a second check in the mirror showed that the fabric seams draped well and it overall looked pretty cute it hits about 2 inches above my knees and therefore seems pretty p i purchased all the colors of this wonderful tee after receiving the first it s machine wash and dry and they ve all held up well through multiple washes so far the neckline and fit is flatte ring for a larger bust due to the ribbing but would be great on a more athletic figure as well the fabric is soft enough that the 3 4 sleeves don t bug me like some other tops do all the co lors are great and you ll want more than one true to size this is a nice flowy dress that i pl an to wear in the fall with long boots i love how light it feels the pattern is very cute fr om the front i liked it but when i turn to the side you can see just how voluminous it is it ended up looking a bit tenty if it had just a bit more shape it would be perfect in the end not the most flattering bought pink and cream colors on sale arm holes on my usual size medium were large so bought smalls and like them a lot i m 5 9 and longer front and back worked well fabric weave nice weight and good for summer or cooler with sweater or jacket over it love this top a little heavy but looks great with shorts or white jeans dress is true to size has a bui lt in liner with thin straps so it is not see through really cute on most comfortable and grea t looking i got complements from everyone literally this top runs large an entire size i am on the fence about it it is quite stylish and well made it is fairly heavy and seems lik e it would be very warm the burgundy color is nice the issue i am having with it is the way th e lower black arms are sewn in the upper arms it just seems somewhat odd overall though it is very forgiving especially with the black border around the entire bottom it is the perfect top to showcase a great long necklace and it would be great with leggings this arrived in my sto re this morning and it is as cute as it appears online i m a curvy gal so i honestly wasn t fe eling like this would look good on me but it is thick and the fabric is sturdy so it lays on me exactly the way it does on the model the fabric on the blue side almost has a vinyl feel to it like it would be rainproof the sherpa layer is super soft and in my opinion even cuter than th e blue side the trim is all lined with a faux leather and the ties on each side can be adj this chemise is very pretty in person when i tried it on i was surprised to find that it looks more like a sundress than a chemise the material is kind of thin but if you wear a nude colored bra underneath it it won t show it looked super cute with a denim jacket on i took my normal size s and it fits perfectly for reference i am 5 2 34b 120lbs i am very happy with this purch ase and i can t wear it as a chemise a coverup or a hot day sundress highly recommended i l ove the ease of style of this dress perfect for summer and to wear for a cruise the only probl em with the dress is that it comes unlined if it was lined it d be perfect if you plan to wea r this over swimwear it s great if not make sure to wear neutral underwear since it is partly see through would need to get a slip along with this dress \r\n\r\ni m 5 and got a s p i cou ld have easily gotten the xs the dress hits in slightly lower on my thigh than what is seen on the model as soon as i tried on this cardigan i knew i had to have it it takes your outfit to a glam and high end look the fabric is oh so soft and i loved how it draped the sleeves hang l ow and give you a vintage feel i would give this a 5 star rating however the downside to this cardigan is the shedding it shed all over my black pants when i wore it and on my friends too i really went back and forth on returning this but i think it s so beautiful i am keeping it i am hoping over time the sh cute dress to throw on and go fits pretty true to size except for th e slip underneath it s a little tight and i felt to short for the dress i ended up wearing a f ull slip i had under it and that work great usually i d wait for a sale on rayon loungewear but i would have gladly paid more if this was cotton or silk despite the poor fabric the design is light and beautiful with a high quality floral print that s distinctive and elegant i can wear this with a thin strappy slip or a lacy cami bra or with a cardigan jacket and lacy boy shorts an retailer employee wore this chemise under a denim shirtdress and belted the whole outfit toge ther it was perfection i purchased size m and my figure is 39 i love pj s and other assorted lounging pieces and this one is exceptional in fact i plan to buy the pj bottoms made with th e same fabric i tried them both on in the store and ultimately decided on the chemise because it is very special \r\nthe fit is tts fyi 36c short waist broad shoulders 5 3 \r\ni normall y wear a m l in a chemise and i chose a m in this one there is plenty of room but it is more fitted to my shape as a chemise should be the piece shows curves without showing bumps i was w aiting for this top to go on sale because its one of those tops that you can probably only find the right weather to wear it once a year so i was so happy i could order this ahead of time and pick it up in the store the same day i bought this dress for fall and will get a lot of wear ou t of it the fit is perfect loose but structured plan to pair with booties over the coming m onths love love love this in the pink not as big a big of the off white but it s nice too i sized up on this one and i m glad i did the slip for this dress is very small and in my normal size i doubt it would ve have even covered what needs to be covered for a dress like this too wo rk other than that this swing dress is adorable work appropriate and the pattern is sweet ev en though i ordered a 12 instead of my usually 10 the sleeves were a bit constricting but hit at the right spot i see myself throwing this easy little number on a lot nan the saundra tank is a very pretty and feminine knitted top it is soft and comes in a very delicate pink color \r \ni took this on a recent trip and it paired well with capri tights and wedges it was very comf ortable to wear having a medium weight to it the only issue that i had was that the cut below y our arms is very deep and made it difficult to hide the side of your bra it is a rather loose f it so if you prefer something more form fitting you might opt for a smaller size nice loose f itting dress to wear in the summer and to transition into the fall i had no problem with the sl ip being too tight 5 3 118lbs and went with my normal size 2 it was loose through the body but sizing down would have made the dress too tight on my shoulders it s great with boots or fl ats the dress is adorable and has a very nice fabric and a slip that goes underneath it was ju st too big for me even as a swing dress this is a surprisingly cute faux fur coverup it s much cuter in person than on the model i will be wearing mine over a little black dress for the hol iday parties it s very glam perfect for going out it s also very soft snuggly and comfy mo st faux fur makes me look gigantic and wide but this one looks a bit like a little capelet or s hrug and very flattering it flares out nicely in the back too and it has a pretty lace knit s tripe pattern on the back it does shed a bit though also this is totally different great add ition to my wardrobe i ordered this shirt in the xl in both colors and i am in love as a large chested lady with a bit extra around the middle this shirt is super flattering and perfect for everyday summer weather i m sure i will be wearing this all summer yay retailer i love tunics i love sweaters i love turquoise i ordered this in large and it fits well but the arms are v ery long i don t like constantly pushing sleeves up so i wear it with the cuffs turned back a previous reviewer commented on the length and another about the bagginess i didn t have issues with either it hits just above my knee 5 5 and it is appropriately proportioned around the t he body of the sweater so what s my reservation how the sweater is more delicate than it seems the i saw this in the store and loved the feel of the fabric but did not want to pay full price i was very happy when it went on sale the top clings nicely without feeling tight i got sp 5 5 125 as i worried the neckline would slip off fits perfectly fabric has a very slight sheen i just hope it holds up to washing and caution is needed as you may create pulls with jewelry if careless i ordered the xl in the green motif the shirt is fitted through the body i m a pear shape so it s tight around my hips it s cut straight down i ll need to wear this tucked in or belt it pull it up a bit closer to my waistline so it s more comfortable the colors pattern i n the green motif are prettier in person i love orange roses haven t found any shirt or dress with orange roses before so i kept it i used my birthday discount to splurge on this i think i t s over priced for what it i i love this tunic perfect for the beach or by the pool gorgeous design and even better in person light weight i am usually a small medium and originally bough t the small but ended up returning for the medium so i had a little more room up top for wearing over my swimsuit this sweater is very nice i bought it online recently with a discount on the discount and felt i got an amazing bargain it is not larger than expected but is not exactly t he fit the model s picture implies it is a roomier design nonetheless it is well made and all wool instead of that mystery mix of fibers that sometimes is the case with things described as wool the one thing that might be more discouraging to online buyers is that the color is not t he lovely blue the picture depicts i love the look of this bra but unfortunately it is pretty skimpy and sheer i need a little more padding to define my shape and i wish it had modesty padd ing this wasn t for me so i returned it great unique style top for casual or dress i bought th is for a beach getaway with the purpose of using it as a beach cover up it was great for this p urpose however i also bought it thinking that i could use it as a dress during the summer i p robably won t be using it for purposes other than the beach as it is extremely light weight and a bit sheer also although it s hard to see it in the photo there are slits on the side of the dress all of these elements make it perfect for the beach when you want a breezy light weight dress bu i really love the look and style of these i am not a fan of thong underwear definitel y prefer these bikini or hipster styles but sometimes it s hard to find them in attractive de sign this pair is definitely attractive and i like how they fit and look a lot i ve only worn them once and they held up well for the day i often find lace can rip on the first wear so i was wary they did okay but i do worry that they seem delicate enough i could accidentally stuc k a thumb through it and rip for my 5 9 36 c bust hourglass frame and 170 lbs i got the med ium and found it fit well a bit snug but i didn t want to go to large and have it too loose at the top my thoughts below \n \npros \n lots of stretch and comfortable due to being p art modal \n the pleating on either side on the shoulders just drapes so lovely with the cowlne ck it just gives it an edgy look that i really like \n this grey has actually a minuscule ho undstooth like or checkboard like appearance that s ha i tried this on even though i usually am not interested in cowlneck tops the fabric is heavier so it is not good for hot weather the f abric is a weave of lighter and darker colors you can see if you zoom in so it has an interes ting texture very flattering because it is fitted and not boxy thanks to the previous reviewer who noted the details and size of the blouse i purchased this blouse it s true to size size s mall fit me perfectly i m 34b 26 waist 36 hips and it even fit my muscular arms and broad s houlders perfectly the color is very rich a wine color some of the jars of jam have berries o n it and of course the tassels have spoons at the end the neckline is so perfect feminine ye t appropriate for work how cute is that it is a silky material and flows perfectly as in most ribbed camis this stretches out so size down it is very pretty delicate e g fabric is thin and the silver grey color has metalic thread running through plan to pair it with an retailer g rey bolero sweater for the holidays this is an adorable topper for all these ballgowns when you have no top that said it was a lot shorter on me than i expected i attribute this to the fact that i have a chest the fit is true to size but while not showing much tightness around the ch est to any gape in the buttons in the back it became more of a crop top i have been needing a short topper so i m definitely keeping this the back button detail is adorable the lace for me is soft and not stratchy or irritating but i only trie while there are a countless number of wi ze i wear a 0 2 and petite 5 ft 2 in i purchased the xs but not in petite becasue i wanted the length it fits fine in the shoulders but the sleeves hit me at my knuc this sweater is pret ty fits tts feels soft against the skin and has a good weight to it so cami is absolutely not needed i particularly like the buttons on the side you could unbutton to have the sweater feel more swingy and show more of the underlayer the design in the back is simple and flattering for all figures i think this shade of gray is also appealing to me as it s not too light or dark a ng a flattering shape the colors and pattern are accurate on screen vibrant and rich the tie front is a pretty detail allowing the top to feel a little dressy very happy with this purchase maeve has done it again with a fabulous blouse i bought in the blue motif and the colors are so wonderfully fall the length is great for skinny jeans and leggings loved that it covered the r ce of a previous reviewer and tried one size down it fit perfectly i am usually between a 10 o r 8 in retailer dresses depending on the cut the size 8 in this was great i am near the small chested side a 36b and there was still plenty of room in the top the swimmers on the dress are embroidered and i didn t really notice until i saw the inside beautiful detail the dress is a lightweight cotton and great for warm weather its even more flattering to be a i really loved t he material and the feel of this item however it does run very large even though it is meant t o be loungewear it is great as a top with skinny jeans or leggings the shape is flattering on m y postpartum body even though the material is stretchy cotton and the shirt fits well across my shoulders and chest the swing shape hides my stomach area the material doesn t seem particular ly breathable so you might want to avoid wearing it in really hot humid weather but for my su mmers in the pacific northwest it ll be fine this dress is really gorgeous really fun and bea utifully made i m typically an 8petite 140lbs 5 4 34dd so i got this in an 8 and it was hu ge on me there was so much extra room in the chest and the back and it was much too long for me even if i sized down it feels a little age inappropriate for me i m 21 and it felt very conse rvative and unflattering i think this dress is excellent just not for me i adore this blouse i bought it in the blue at my local store and ordered the white so cute be careful i dried my blue one i openly did not read the care instructions haha and it shrunk a little still beaut iful though i loved the look of the dress it s a very flattering design however i absolutely hate the side zipper every time i have worn it the zipper will get stuck and it is a struggle to get it up the side tie is a very cute touch but you definitely have to figure out the best way to tie it so you don t have a huge bump of fabric on your back having said all this i sti ll did get a lot of compliments from this dress i do wish the dress had a lining i bought this dress as soon as i received the retailer catalogue i rushed to the store because i absolutely f ell in love with it when i tried it on i went a complete size down i m usually an 8 but i sn agged this beauty in a 6 the top part really does run larger so unless you have really broad s houlders you ll need to size down the sleeves hit my arms at a nice place and the little tie in the front is awesome because not only is it an interesting detail it can be loosened or tig htened d this blouse combines two things i love swing tops and bows just received this and am very pleased the blue version is very pretty i recently purchased another top by the same bran d and ordered a 6 for this i ordered a small and am glad i did i would suggest ordering your regular size the top is fitted the bottom is very fluid they were sold out of the medium tha t i usually wear in tops so i got a petite large hoping that would work it obviously isn t the ideal fit but it will manage it s very cute but the colors aren t as vibrant as they looked in the pictures for example the red in the floral print looks more like a rust color in person bu t i do like it and plan on keeping it will look cute with dark jeans and brown boots this is a great top easy breezy and perfect for fall in miami perfect top for spring too love the whims ical pattern a great addition to any wardrobe ok so after reading the other reviews i m sad to say i rated this as runs small only because i usually buy one or two sizes smaller in maeve than i settled on with this dress it s actually an adorable dress but i m sure you have to have the right figure i don t think any one woman has the same figure as another and this dress is m ade for someone with a very definite hourglass figure i have a large chest a moderate middle a nd large hips i really loved both sizes but i chose to size up b i ordered this top in xs and b lue its subtle but pretty on as the style gives it a boost it is a bit snug in the shoulders cut a little snug in armpit but i would not want it larger it does not affect the appearance is not uncomfortable just noticeable when moving arms around nice fall top want to try with b lue or white jeans and boots really cute fun print nice summer dress i have to agree with an other poster who was dissapointed about the dress not being lined i mean any dress over 50 should at least be lined but overall this is an adorable dress very flattering and so fun for summer if it were lined i would have purchased but that s all personal preference as i cannot stand having to wear a slip i love this sweater i found it in the sale section a few weeks ago but wasn t sure if it would be too bulky it had a dark smudge on the collar left from someone o r something i thought maybe it had been left behind by others for that reason because the quali ty was so nice thankfully i washed it and the smudge came out \r\n\r\n\r\ni live in houston the print is cute but a little bit odd it s a swimmer in a cap the tie is fun i loved the pr int on this top in navy from the picture and loved it even more in person it is gorgeous and the top feels high quality that said as usual with maeve clothing it fit me strangely i am cu rvy with a small upper body 34 d but larger bust and maeve tops are almost always too tight i n the bust and too flowy around the middle which creates a pregnant look on me at least i fee l their fit model must be small busted so for small busted ladies this top would be lovely i a lways love everything about the top it s very versatile wear by itself or with a cute jacket i t s a great staple to have in your closet this dress is the opitome of summer day or night ru nning errands during the day to a casual night out this dress will be that go to favorite i fee l it runs small on the top i am large busted and i sized up for this reason and it still could be roomier i wear a size 10 on top and for referance i got the 12 i will keep it as it is not uncomfortable but for a drees that lends to a drape on top i wish they would have made it roomie e if easy to add a denim jacket or a cardigan it hits approx 3 4 above the knees but has a co and comfortable it is versatile and can be worn at both work or out for a casual evening date it is cute without a belt but i prefer one just to give it more shape i plan to wear it often this season i am 34b 28 37 and purchased a size small i made a visit to the store specifically to try on this dress and it was a disappointment for me i tried on size 6 regular i m 34b 26 waist 36 hips and i could not zip the dress up half way the zipper is on the side but it s m ore to the back which i have to stretch my arms all the way back to reach it it stopped at my w aist and was too tight for me to zip up anymore i tried on an 8 regular and the entire dress wa s huge i m 34b 26 waist 36 hips i like the regular size because the l i love this top i t is soft flattering and beautifully cut designed i get so many compliments every time i wear it i have the blue and the green and wish they had the white in my size beautifully elegant a ut i look very thin i just need to call for a price adjustment since i payed full price i am 5 0 109lbs and the 00 petite fit perfectly the length was great too as one reader noted the zipper can be a little tricky but dont let that deter you from getting a pair of these sweet du ds it stretchs out a little as the day goes by but that is bearable it has a hint of pink to it too can be dressed up for the office or dressed down love this chinos they fit tts and th e blue is vibrant bought them in pink too for reference i am 5 amp amp amp 39 5 amp amp amp quot and weigh 122 lbs and bought size 27 the fit is a bit slouchy much like in the photos i read all reviews and i decided to try as the price was great first of all i am 5 6 145 lbs at hletic build not skinny but have muscles the sweater fits great just like glove it does not make me look fat the quality is great sweater is warm cozy and well made i am not sure about color as it s brighter as it shown it is not quite coral it s a little bit darker which will m ake it difficult to match it with the sleeves run small so if you are taller then me just keep it in mind th sw i was fortunate to order the perfect size the first time i am 5 3 and 125 an d ordered the size 4 it is a great fit these lightweight pants are super cute and i especially love the way they are cut to dip a bit lower not asymmetrical just talking about the drape on the inside hem so outside hem is perky and the bottom looks wide and is flattering these zip up the back and the back lays flat which is also flattering i love the look of the fabric so if i have a complaint it s that for the i love charlie trousers i must have 8 pair i sometimes have bought a particular style in every color that being said i love these for the fabric and gene ral overall fit pattern is on trend in color and versatility i wore them out on saturday to a casual restaurant and today at work with a business like blouse and cardigan but i hate the s ide zip i generally hate invisible zippers period because they tend to get caught at seams an d i have had them break on other garments this one is this dress is so soft and fits like a dr eam i m a new mom and the tie perfectly masks what s left of my mummy tummy while still helpin g me feel stylish for fall loved these in the store but the 00 was sold out everywhere and i no ticed the fabric was very stretchy i bought the 0 petite online and was worried about the lengt h they fit great i m 5 5 perfect easy effortlessly beautiful design and just my favorite pajama ever i m not my ideal weight right now and these make me feel attractive again love thi s is different from any bra i ve had before in a good way the lace over the front is really be autiful and no annoying straps means it s comfortable fit and support are both great i didn t notice that it was silk when i ordered so it was a nice surprise to open something so luxe and elegant i wasn t expecting an underwire either based on the s m l sizing but it has one i o rdered the sapphire it is simply beautiful \r\nlove love love \r\nsuperior hunter st yle and quality which never disappoints i love the dress overall however found it a tad snug in the bust area overall a beautiful dress to own i like the color and design of the pullover sweater so i bought it as a christmas gift for myself it arrives almost the same as the pictur e the only complain i have is that the size is a little larger than i expected however it stil l look good on me got charlie trousers last year in a different print in my usual size 4 5 2 115 they initially fit perfectly but stretched out in the thighs and waist and now are loose this time i bought a size smaller size 2 they were snug but i felt them stretch during the fi rst wear and they fit fine now i recommend sizing down because they stretch out love the prin t for summer i love anything beachy and had to have it nice comfortable material which isn t hot for summer got the regular si this top looks just like you see it on the website design is super cool and color is awesome almost acid washed in areas but know that this top is super super thin and will not provide any warmth i wish it were a bit thicker in fabric it would hav e been perfect for the cool fall and going into winter especially for the price the medium in t his one fit me better than the small i am 5 9 and 140 lbs love this dress it can be worn in c old or warm weather with tights and boots or sandals and bare legs the fit is roomy and a littl e longer in back it washes nicely without losing length i have never purchased printed pants b efore but i was so smitten with the cute little shells that i had to try them on i was impress ed with the fabric which has some thickness to it but will still be perfect for summer i also have athletic calves and unlike other cartonnier pants i ve tried i had no trouble getting thes e over my legs win win i m usually a size 8 and while it was fitted not loose like on the mod el i know they will stretch being 5 4 i m just on the boarder of having mo in the quest to f ind comfy cute casual tops i took a change on this one it s cute but quite oversized it just overwhelmed me i ordered the large and generally wear medium or large so you can safely size do wn at least a size or two and still get the fit shown on the model the style and color just did n t suit my coloring or body type but i still recommend because it s comfortable and different enough to be a nice addition to someone else s closet i am 5 5 about 110 lbs and the size 0 reg ular fits me well sometimes i order petite but the regular fit me just right they are higher waisted than most pants i wear but they are completely adorable and comfortable to boot love t he pattern the sturdy quality is tangible definitely going to order more of these pants in dif ferent patterns as they become available i love this dress which for me will double as tunic ov er leggings tights the fabric is very comfortable for fall into winter for southern california and looks super cute with booties or boots this will be a mainstay of my wardrobe i love this dress it is exactly my style which is probably why i love it girly frilly flowy i love h ow much material it has it flows and twirls in such a nice way because of the amount of fabric it s the right length that the amount of material is not overwhelming i m 5 5 and it hits jus t above my knees i am currently 6 months pregnant and it s plenty roomy to fit now and will a lso mask the post baby belly this summer the only 2 cons and the other reviewers touched on th ese as great style and the color can be dressed up or down i love it wish i would have bought them in every color love i wore these with high heels to a formal gathering i received many co mpliments perfect for summer you can dress them up with heels or wear flats or sandals and be casual i have a pear shape so i think they fit best for my body type love them love these pa nts it s hard to get really dark dark black jeans with a little stretch and these are perfect i also like the cut as a bit of a change from skin tight leggings and the fabric is super cool like a lightweight brocade denim i get compliments every time i wear them i love these pants they fit perfectly and are great for casual days at work great quality too love i ve been b uying pilcro for years they are good quality comfortable and wear well my only complaint is and this a general complaint of all pants today is that these are cropped i have a 35 inseam these stop well above my ankle but i love the color and the general fit i m used to having most of my pants even those labelled tall be too short so i don t mind it too much i feel as thoug h it runs a little big due to how much stretching that happens as you wear them it s pretty muc h a tra very charming well made and comfortable it is a heavier material with a slip so it s a great spring dress if you have cooler days but i could see in the summer if you have 80f temps it could be a little warm i have a 34c d chest and i didn t find it too snug like the other rev iewer pretty tts for maeve i really like the pattern and the cut of these pants the fabric is nice too however i was disappointed how much they stretched out the first and only time i w ore them i am 5 6 and about 150 lbs i ordered size 10 i am going to try to exchange them for a size 8 since they stretched so much lovely sweater good quality fabric pretty color \r\nas the reviewer say it is very thick wool pile if warm is not what you re looking for you may wa several colors i wear the moss most often i d recommend your normal size or size down if in be tween sizes they stretch a bit as you wear them one other thing after being washed and dried the color has lightened significantly i love this kimono it s so soft very beautiful and deli e length was fine mid calf i gave a 3 for quality though because all the ones in my store wer e tearing in the back where the shoulders meet the back i bought it anyway because it looked li ke an easy fix and it was so darn cute and comfortable on i was so excited to see that these we re on sale post holidays love the style and the fit my only disappointment was that they don t have as much stretch as i thought they would i wrote above that it runs small but if it had m ore stretch then the sizing would be ok for reference i m 5 5 and 10 i usually wear 25 in pil cro pants but these felt tighter i would exchange for a 26 but they re sold out unfortunately i am 5 3 and 115 lbs i ordered 2 on a whim and i m so happy i did because they re so flatterin g this is a gorgeous jacket love the softness and the style is unique and fresh the color is going to keep me cheered through the winter this will look great with a scarf and leggings the photos shown here really do not do this bomber jacket justice the colors of the embroidery are much deeper and richer in person it is very well made having no loose threads whatsoever the retailer store where i bought mine featured this jacket over an ivory color lace blouse and it l ooked much more stunning than over the darker color that they show it here with it does run tru e to size as the other reviewer mentioned too i took my usual size large i would say that if y ou re betwe i bought this to wear with a skirt that i wanted to dress down i needed something that was long enough to be able to tuck it in without having that awkward line its a great fit not for the curvy women fit in the waist but bunched around the crotch i love this flattering a nd comfortable jacket it has a nice stretch and the color is out of this world i think it will pack a big punch this fall i stopped into retailer the other day for some window shopping and as soon as i saw this cardigan it was love and i had to try it on the sleeves run long on me b ut i m on the shorter side so it was to be expected everything else about this cardigan is amaz r me i just tried it on in store and had to have it so soft and easy to throw on i m 5 6 and it hits at the knee i usually wear an xs or small in tops and the xs fit great i just love sle eping on snow sweaters and this one is no exception it s soft and cozy and very warm i do have sensitive skin so i found this a bit itchy right away but that went away after i wore it for a bit this is oversized but in a great way you could size down if you wanted something a bit mo re fitted sleeves are long and pre cuffed sweater hit me mid lower thigh worth every penny i sized down one size and they look amazing i never would have thought that i could wear a jumpsu it and it actually look good on me but this is it the fabric is weighted some so it lays ver y flattering and is very comfortable the sash can be tied several ways front back or side i will be traveling in this to the beach and pairing it with an retailer wrap and then wearing it alone with sandals once we exit the freezing airplanes a racer back bra works great with this p iece and the pockets are an added bonus it looks like a d i love this jacket let s be clear th ough it s not for warmth just for style but it s perfect for fall in california i love the de tailed work and have already tried this with so many different layers a light blue tank off wh ite shirt tshirt and it looks great with lots of things and truly makes the outfit love unique pieces like this and i will be wearing it often i bought my usual size small sleeves are a bit long for my 5 4 frame but they didn t have in petite and it looks great i got this dress in the holly green and it s a lovely shade perfect for fall and winter this is why i gave it the hig h rating however be warned that the lining is very form fitting i thought the dress had more of a fit and flare design to mask flaws like a belly and larger backside but that s not the cas e i had to return it but for more slender shaped ladies the dress is likely a winner agree w ith other reviewers this runs narrow in the skirt the top is also quite low cut and it s alre ady lined so i can t see wearing a cami or slip i like the black and white print and the shape and might have tried a size larger in the store finally it s an awkward unflattering length i m 5 4 and it hit below my knee i love the feminine feel and look of this skirt it is unique and matches many different shirts and looks great with a jacket the only thing is it does run l arge i ordered a 6 my usual size and it is very loose not form fitting like the photo but s till cute and wearable downsizing would ve been better this was a return in my sale room and i just decided to try it on love it fits true to size thought kind of hard to zip up all the way colors are great got the petite size the pattern is different for each one so each is unique mine has lot more navy blue i like the light fabric and embroidery on a otherwise hard look b omber feminine can be worn casually with jeans and a t shirt or over a dress lovely on every note fit i ordered botih the xxs p and xsp had tried on regular xs in store tried on the xx sp first and kept it didn t try on xs p since the fit is loose bomber on me i like it a lit tle more fitted there is enough room for a sweater \r\n\r\ni am 115 lbs 30 dd 26 5 in waist arms were not too snug either i tried this one as a xs and xs petite and of course the peti te is the way to go for me length slightly below around the knee if i pull on the straps then the hem hits the knees i wish the blue was still available in petite now that it is on sale t he waist is adjustable and so are the straps the material is airy like linen pretty and flirty and appropriate for work can t go wrong \r\n\r\n 115 lbs 30 dd 26 5 in waist i ordered the x xs petite only size in petite left at the tme0 and that was right for me i usually should say used t get xs but with the looser styles lately xxs seems to fit me better hte leg hem falls below my knee but not too low on the calf the waist is comfortable hte weird part is the fabr ic the sash part seems to be lighter and the softer part is on the inside so it would seem \r\n \r\nfor reference i am 115 lbs 30dd 26 5 in waist this dress is very well made fully lined and overall quite beautiful however i will have to agree with the other reviewers who say that it runs small i am typically a solid medium in retailer clothes 5 9 36b 155 lbs apple sha ped long torso but the medium in this is skin tight not a good look the large fit much bet ter and i did not find the skirt to be like a pencil the fit is like the picture and the lengt h is at the knee anyway interesting that there is a such a huge differen this sweater is super soft and comfortable runs very big i usually wear a large i purchased a medium and it is almo st too big love classical look and this dress may look great on not so much curvy shape price is great with extra 40 off so considering to get dark red one as well now wow i have never own ed a pair of pants that fit so well this is my first pair of pants from retailer i always have the too tight in the thighs and gaping at the waist issue but not with these at all i was s o surprised i purchases size 26 in both tan and blue the perfect amount of stretch and so comf than i like to spend but i will get a lot of wear out of them they look and feel fantastic i highly recommend these so glad i was able to snag these killer 70 s ish flares they are super cool at a nice length love the button detail i ordered these in my current size and they fit r ight out of the box love them so much this is really flattering it s one of the best purchase s i ve made through retailer i know it will work with a lot of different body types the medium fit me well i bought a petite version by mistake but it still fits it jacket of the season th is bomber is absolutely perfect not only is the embroidery beautiful but it s super comfy as w ell it s lightweight nicely lined and well made i only gave it four stars for quality simply because the embroidery could get pulled and frayed if not careful you should expect that with a ny silky embroidered fabric however i would highly recommend this jacket for any body type lo ve the fit of this dress i m 5 2 120 and the petite extra small fits perfectly the waist is s sweater because it would be lovely had i been able to wear it as i was when i ordered it \nas i am in a wheelchair temporarily i find the sweater too bulky in a sitting position \nif you are slender and are looking for vertical lines that are slimming in a style so fashionable now this is the sweater for you the neutral colors and the bulky weave i also love because it goes with everything a go to sweater coat this is my first pair of pilcro pants but defiantly not my las t i always have a hard time trying to decide between a regular length and a tall because at 5 1 0 i usually fall somewhere in between i ordered the regular length and couldn t b happier the y are just long enough to wear a shorter heal with or a pair of flats the beige color is really nice and pairs nicely with the sky blue mock turtleneck sweater i also ordered from retailer i love the retro 70 s style too i couldn t be happier wi tried on standard xs and the photo on li ne is slightly misleading as i thought that there were more colors involved in the embroidery pa ttern in person the pattern is not as intricate with only 2 solid colors the body of the shir t is light airy billowy not as form grazing like on the model which i don t mind i still lov e the top but would have to go for a petite xs or even a petite xxs so that it would be a little more fitted all around note that the embroidery on the dã colletã feels lik dressed up or dres sed down this summer dress is perfect the skirt is a lot of fabric like others have said but it s part of what makes this dress fun and because the top is fitted i find it very flattering because you can adjust the tie around the waist to make it fitted that being said the design s ort of threw me off when it arrived in the mail because the waist as well as straps around the s houlders are adjustable at first it looked like a sack but when it s on and adjusted it will l this dress intrigued me a bit online but not enough to order it to try it even on the rack i wasn t so sure about it but decided to try it this afternoon i couldn t have been more pleased it is fresh flattering flowy light and beautiful even though there is quite a bit of fabric the vertical stripes and nipped in waist make it extremely flattering i didn t realize this cam e in blue as well i may add that one to my wishlist but the red one is a definite winner it w ill make a great love the subtle pattern i think it will be great for a number of occasions th e fit is very flattering not lined but high quality heavyweight fabric does not seem to make i t necessary i absolutely love this i m 115 5 6 and the xs is roomy because of the style but it drapes very nicely and it s a perfect fit with my new loafers and cropped pants i m all rea dy for fall he slightly felted knit is a nice touch it s also really soft the images definite ly do not do the jacket justice the detail is beautiful and the fabric is unexpected and quite luxurious this is soft to the touch and just beautiful \r\nit is a little roomy but true to si ze i love it that way \r\ntotally on trend for the season i tried this on in the store and tho ught the flowy fit and asymmetrical hem were great the fabric is thin which is nice for summer but lined at the top half so it s not transparent except below the knee the waist is quite high and has flexible elastic for an easy fit i liked the skirt a lot and came online to find it in petite sadly it is sold out of most sizes in the petite length i wish antrho would order more of the petite sizes because they seem to sell out fast this is one of those rare garments that is actually as flattering on me as it looks on the model just like the picture it hangs like a dress and emphasizes my curves without seeming too revealing the weight of the fabric creates g raceful movement while the loose cut keeps it cool and breezy for reference i am 5 4 and cur vy 34d 35x28x39 and i ordered a small petite this is a smaller size than i would wear in mo st styles but it fits almost like it was made for me the tie hits slightl love how this fits length is great so i didn t need to hem you wouldn t be able to flattering on muscular athlet ic legs bottom i bought in navy and then had to buy it in another color it fit so well the mat erial is beautiful and as others said its a bit fuller than one might think i am returning beca use it s high waisted with a thick elastic waist band not my style i suppose it would work wi th a thick belt as i said its beautiful just not my style this lovely number met all my expe ctations ordered an xl and glad i did the fabric and styling has flattering drape and it can be dressed up or worn for a casual night out if it was available in another classic color or a subtle neutral pattern i d probably purchase a second one hint hint retailer i was a little h esitant about sizing based on reviews but my normal small fit perfectly it is a little low cut for work but with a scarf will be fine i wish it was a bit shorter hits just below the knees o n me but overall great i have a fairly straight body type and think dress probably works best on this type although if you were small on top and curvy on bottom i think this could be cute t oo for the price point with the sale its definitely worth trying i got the black and white a nd i you can t go wrong with this one it s is super flattering the size medium fit perfectly for reference i have a 38in chest 32 ff and in the medium i was not over exposed and it can be worn with a racing back bra with it not showing i wish it came i more colors please retaile r make this one in more colors this dress is beautiful i am happy i chose the sky blue color i read a review before ordering that said it was more beautiful in person it certainly is i ca n t wait to wear it the only issue is that it runs a tad bit too big i am very thin and usual ly an xs in retailer clothes i could ve fit an xxs good thing the straps can tie and be adjust ed also it is a little longer than i thought it would be on me i am 5 7 other than that i love this dress i m not a big fan of rompers but love this one it is very flattering and comfo rtable i love that you can dress it up with some heels and accessorizes or more casual with fla ts this is a lovely romantic skirt that hangs nicely it is lined except for the ruffle on the bottom as others have said the waistband is stretchy and molds to your shape it is high waist ed i called the store to hold a size 4 and 6 for me to try when i got there i finally settled on a size 2 so it runs a bit large i have a 25 inch waist and 36 inch hips if this fits your style give it a try you won t be disappointed the dress is true to fit and very soft you can dress it up or be casual with a denim jacket on the hanger i thought this would be a great work dress but on my curves it was pretty scandalous really low cut will need to pin it and hugs curves if you have them it s comfortable and i like the pattern i have a number of maeve s j ersey dresses so i m not expecting it to last incredibly long but at 25 off it was a good deal okay so i have an upcoming day of travel with four kids a husband on crutches and a flight le aving at 6am for which i have to leave my house at 4am followed immediately by a le cirque show upon our arrival i ve been looking for something to wear during this chaos and this is it the fabric is dreamy soft and the drape perfect yes it looks like a dress but i am happy for th e conservative pants jumpsuit it actually is the pockets hold my phone without sagging and i c an wear sneakers du i m a 34c and 136 lbs the dress falls just below my knees perfect for the colder weather i bought this in m in two colors because i love it so much the fit is so flatte ring and the material is so soft and comfortable i continue to find maeve dresses classic qual ity flattering and comfortable got several compliments on the dress the first time i wore it and know it will work well for both the office church and even a holiday party or two i m righ t on the line between petite regular sizes and could have gone w a petite probably medium s ize instead as the dress is just a touch long with a deeper neckline for my frame otherwise it fits well and the color is great even if it s not quite the same as in the photo overall i m satisfied with my purchase absolutely love this cardi it s perfect with nice jeans and boots o r my black pants i am nearly 6 tall and a medium is plenty long in the sleeve and overall leng th it adds warmth but it s breathable so it doesn t give you the super hot effect when going in side they only reason i gave a 4 in quality is that it is loosely stitched so you can get caugh t on things otherwise it is a great addition to my closet nan this fit me perfectly with a l ittle room but think it s meant to be this way so easier to get on and off this feels like a dr eam and is very good quality definitely a heavier piece but i like that it is so very flatteri ng and drapes beautifully to hide my tummy the back is adorable too retailer hit it out of par k with this one grab it before it s too late i m a 36ddd and size 14 and the large fit perfect ly i bought this sweater coat as a gift for my mother she absolutely loves it it does seem to run a little large and the sleeves are especially long the navy and grey color combo is very n ice it seems like it will be very warm too i love this dress i ve received compliments from e veryone it s long enough to feel appropriate for work or teaching in sunday school and it s beautiful i saw this on one of the gals at my local retailer and fell in love it is the cooles t bomber and i instantly fell for it i went with my normal l and i will be wearing this all fal l and winter long it s just so unique and eye catching i saw this online and went to the store y esterday to find it i tried on a m which is my normal size and a s which if clothes are bag gy i ll buy for a more fitted look the s was too small in the shoulders and my arm movement wa s restricted so i bought the m this is definitely true to size it has a blousy waist to it s o no amount of downsizing will make this a fitted jacket notice the model is pushing the jacket down with her hands in the pockets to make it look like it has a more defi my favorite of the se ason i purchased the grey sweater while shopping with girlfriends i love it so much i ll be pu rchasing the brown as well i would normally wear a m l but tried it on and purchased a s i don t like very fitted items however a small fit perfectly on me this item runs big as everyone said the fabric weighs and therefore the romper is flowing gracefully and it is real soft you can wear it without bra it looks so flattering but still feels so comfortable it is the reason that i placed an order online and it is also the first piece out of the package that i paired wi th excitement and went out full of contentment the only thing is that i received mine with the place where the two bands meet with the back broken i had to sew them all together it almost f elt li i bought this on sale in all 3 colors it doesn t look like much in the photos but that s really the point this is a staple basic piece layer on colors and prints like a printed ja cket scarf or bag i bought this in wine along with the sweater knit boots and a bag with a pr int that ties the colors together the shape of this dress is great fitted through the waist a nd not a lot of extra fabric in the skirt midi is usually a bad length for me 5 2 but since th e skirt isn t overwhelming this dress is easy to dress up or down and is very comfortable you know when you re shopping and you don t buy something you like but later you can t stop thinkin g about it that was the case with his sweater i saw it paired with a cute top in the store so i tried it on on a whim i m so glad i eventually got it it s toasty soft and thick with the perfect amount of quirk this is the perfect warm cozy boho sweater the blue trim really stands out and brightens up the grey this sweater will look cute over any outfit or with jeans i hav e long arms and the sleeves almost cover my hands which i really like i highly recommend this especially at 20 off i just bought this skirt in the store and i m happy with it it can be dr essed up or down it is made of washable silk so it doesn t require dry cleaning but it should b e hand washed or on delicate cycle obviously it fits through the hips without being overly cli ngy the waist is a wide stretchy smocking style so there is some give i really wanted to love this but the length of the pants was so awkward and dowdy if they were longer or shorter this would be a win nice fabric not too clingy so it is attractive on top and hips this jacket is a show stopper great fabric beautiful embroidery well worth the price i love this it is c omfortable flowing and reminds me of glamorous women in 1970 s movies i especially love that i s completely looks like a shirt its pants because i don t have to worry about my skirt flying up as i race around the city bra no bra doesn t matter which i love as someone with a large r bottom then top and am pretty tall i usually have trouble finding one piece items that aren t too short in the crotch waist zone very roomy without looking like a sack i originally bought this in a medium for reference i am 5 10 155 lbs it was tiny i sent it back for a large and it fits beautifully the fabric is incredibly soft and the dress is very flattering and comf ortable i would just recommend ordering up a size fit and style very nice returned because wa y too long and bottom detail interfered with hemming they were at least 4 too long i am 5 8 so heels would fix the issue but i don t want to wear them with a comfy pair of pants nan i hav e been a loyal retailer customer for at least 10 years now so i don t say this lightly this mi ght be my favorite clothing purchase ever the overall design is incredible the feminine detail in the embroidery combined with the traditional bomber style is done so well i somehow snagged a medium petite and it is absolutely perfect there is enough room to fit a sweater underneath but the sleeves and waist are the perfect length something which is difficult to find at 5 2 also i must say i ve never owned a romper and never had any desire to but the classy design i n black soft flowy fabric reeled me in prompting me to push my boundaries a bit i m so glad i did i don t think i have any other piece of clothing that makes me feel so classy or so fun and certainly not at the same time i wear it to work in an office environment with a cardigan and the cardigan goes off after work as i run errands or play with the kids i love it and it even has pockets i m a sucker for my normal size 32 fit tts the length is great i m 5 9 i love the button detail on the bottom makes them a little unique i love this sweater comfortab le and flattering great for going out causal and staying warm just purchased it in store ver y soft and cozy great neutral color too i am usually s but bought it m just to have it slight ly oversized i think i m on the opposite side of the fence when it comes to fit because i love this dress it may be because i don t have much hips or curve to my waist that this dress is not tight as it is on others it does make me look like i have some shape down there because it does n t cling i ordered the holly green and i adore the shoulder detail confused as to why that sa me detail follows along around the inside of the dress across the shoulders because it itches a little i do have to wear a cami this sweater is such a cozy knitted dream the mixed knit contr ast trim hood adds enough visual interest to keep it unique from other incarnations out there i t s a little open work but still snuggly warm with layers the fit is very roomy but not sloppy looking that s why i picked runs large as you d have to size down for a somewhat slimmer look if i could afford to buy the other color now i would i wish retailer would commission a green v ersion and a brown version red too what the heck as others have mentioned they re quite lon g i m 5 8 and need to wear 2 heels to make sure these don t drag they re much tighter in the butt and thighs than my other pilco pants i love the button detail at the ankles i loved this classic bomber jacket online and in the brochure sent to my house so i was thrilled to see it i n my local retailer store i anticipated that i would need a large but i was wrong the m fits perfectly \r\nfyi 36c broad shoulders back short waist size 10 12 in button up or fitted to ps and dresses usually 10 and a m in a loose fit or knit top \r\nthe m fits me just like the m odel in the photo so i would think that you are between sizes like i usually am you should siz e down the z flattering flowy comfortable the back strops have elastic so easy on and off f lows when you walk the ties have two different types of black fabric matching knit on one side a matte crepe on the other love the pockets very versatile piece these corduroys are perfect the flare is just enough to be current without seeming overly trendy or costumey they make my l egs look super long and look great with a professional top or my favorite with a drapery tshir t half tucked \nthey are pretty long i m 5 5 with pretty long legs and i could use a 1 hem wh ich shouldn t affect the style much until then i m wearing them with a 1 5 inch platform and th ey re perfect highly recommend if they still had my size in other colors in stock i wo nan per haps it is the 69 s vibe that hit me but i had to check this out with the free shipping week i am so glad that i did \r\ni fear wool as i have sensitive skin but this is soft and snuggly the structure will allow for fit over many different types of under layers but unlike so much offer ed lately it is not huge or tent like but a perfect fit it is a heavier weight light coat w eight this is perfect for me in the south the color is as pictured golden in my xxs petite the sleeves are p i bought this jacket recently and i actually had been watching it in my retail er store but they didn 39 t have my size someone must have returned a size small and i sco oped it up i probably would have bought the xs but it was gone i went with it a little over sized and love it great quality and workmanship on the embroidery more like the items that retailer used to sell in 2004 and 2005 super cute love it i went to my local retailer store on saturday to pick up some new cute things that i had my eye on \r\nafter collecting the items i came in for i saw this romper i tried it on and it was amazing \r\n comfortable soft and s o versatile bonus i left so tremendously happy it will be a win for \r\nmany years to co me i m always on the lookout for those special clothing items that add pizzazz to my wardrobe this is one i had been looking for a bomber jacket and tried many but this one falls elegantly and is really beautiful i can t wait to show it off i ordered this after seeing the rave reviews it is not for me just like the culottes i ordered this romper makes me feel like a grandma i said i d recommend to others bc of the other reviews but again this was not for me i also didn t like the back of the romper no way i could even get away with a racerback bra b c it s so low cut the good though it is super comfortable and is a nice heavy fabric tts also i m a med 8 10 and the medium was correct in this this has quickly become my favorite sweater i am thinking of getting another one in case mine wears out it s comfy cozy and soft love it l ayered over t shirts or long sleeved collared shirts and am looking forward to trying it with a dress and bare legs once it s warmer out it runs kind of big i m 5 8 and usually a size 6 8 a nd i got an xs the s fit too i bought this dress as a consolation prize when another dress i w anted didn t suit me i was shocked by how flattering it was because on the hanger it was just meh the material is soft jersey heathered and it hangs well it has a simple lining but tha t doesn t interfere with the fit it is a little low for my personal taste so i wear a cami or scarf but for those less well endowed you d probably be fine without one for the record i ty pically wear a 2 4 125 pounds 5 8 and 32 ddd br this dress is fantastic it s super flatterin g and very versatile for reference i am 5 4 and 155 lbs and usually a size 8 10 in retaile r dresses the size medium fit perfectly highly recommend this item i am excited for spring so i can wear this i purchased the orange it is actually more of a red but i like it colorful a nd flattering fit i received this product and love the color and sheen of it it is not too fla shy and would work great as a dress to an event day or night with the right accessories i am a bout 5 7 and 115 lbs and usually wear a size 0 in dresses the size 0 fit but was a little loo se if they had a 00 it probably would have been too small though you definitely cannot bend ov er in this dress because it is too short but i didn t feel it was inappropriately short otherwi se it flares out just slightly on the this dress is so comfortable and looks so good i love th e low back and the swing in the skirt i ordered the tangerine which is really more red than or ange this is a simple slip on dress perfect for traveling as it doesn t wrinkle i will wear this often when the warm weather arrives this dress is lovely i m tempted to buy it in all of the patterns that i like but i m forcing myself to be economical i check regularly to see if it s on sale however then they re all mine \r\nthis dress is soft comfortable classy and h as the unique feature of having a low cut back my only complaint is that the holes for the arms droop sometimes so reveal my bra this could be from my shape however because i am rather bust y the dress runs true to size and is easy to clean it s one o lovely dress fits great very f lattering flirty loved it so much ordered another one in a different color can t wait for war m weather so i can wear these dresses i ordered this online and the colors are prettier in perso n the blue and gray contrast nicely and have a beautiful sheen to them i am usually a 2 at ret ailer and while that fit i felt i could size down i am slender and since it is a shift there was little room in the waist butt area i ordered a 0 and that fit perfect if you love blue li ke i do this dress is for you love these jeans wish i could snag another pair because the fi t is just on point as is the wash the side slit at the ankle really looks great with heels a definite buy i just purchased these jeans on line in my regular petite size 27 27 35 116lbs a s that s the size i almost always order but ended up exchanging them for the next size up and fo und the 28 s to feel much more comfortable so i d suggest sizing up one size the jeans run a bi t tight in the thigh and waist area and though i could also get away with wearing the 27 s i ju st personally prefer the fit of the 28 s better these jeans give a nice shape in the back are super soft and are the same color the shorts have a linen look but have just a touch of stretch to them which is great for keeping their shape i m 5 7 140lbs and the shorts hit about 5 down my thigh which is just long enough to cover but still sexy the 29 s fit but snug all over the 30 s gave a looser look but still fit in the waist i have the navy and the mango definitely re commend loved pattern quality and fine details on this dress but it ran large i ordered pet ite small and it was way too loose baggy i had to return it i went bsck to order a petite x s mall but it was no longer available in this size on line so disappointed \r\n\r\nfyi i m 5 112 115lbs and small boned always wear size petite small but not fir this dress \r\n\r \nthis dress is comfortable well made lined and pattern is extremely pretty with nice border which is hard to find for petites a first of all a caveat i am not curvy at all i am average height but petite in terms of features and bones and such specifically i am 5 feet 6 inches ta ll and about 123 pounds and boyishly shaped with a feminine and timeless style all this means t hat i can get overwhelmed by dresses clothes with a lot of fabric or large prints and such if y ou are shaped like me this dress will be perfect for you it highlights your advantages slim a nd petite and give you curves that i wish i had natural sadly i had to keep only a few dresse s not all of them so that one is in my wish list if my xs petite goes on sale in red and blue i am pal so that is hte better color for me i have not seen the green in eprson but the neutra l color is very nice too if you are not into red \r\n\r\nmaterila thin ish strecthy super co mfortable may be cool in a cold area though brr \r\n\r\nfit xs petite fit perfectly everywher e surprisingly the shoulders are capped sleeves i dind t exepct having them fall i finally visited a store with petite and this dress was there so of course i snagged it to try on i love the colors i mean awesome the fabric is also very soft but the cut was just huh on me n othing to go raving about i think it would be nice for a casual day but i often just wear jo ggers or yoga pants on casual days so for the price i left it i was concerned about purchasi ng this dress when i read about two slender people buying it i m 5 6 145lbs and athletic i no rmally wear a 10 and i ordered a 10 the material is really pretty but stiff more like brocade the cut is different and it s not form fitting or feature enhancing but it s comfortable and lo oks attractive the arms and neck are not binding or cutting they are interesting touches that make this different from other shifts it s lined falls a bit above my knee but not love this s weater you can wear it with just about everything i have worn it with dresses leggings and je ans you can dress it up or down wonderful quality for the price purchased the blue motif colo rway which as other reviewers mentioned is cream mushroom black heavier lines and very dar k navy grid part looks good with both my cropped and duster length black cardigan print is a nice balance between neutral and interesting a lighter weight knit but still opaque and skims o ver versus clings to the body\r\n\r\nthe fit is very flattering and forgiving the rushed mids ection is cut higher and lower on the side seam to give a more hourglass line the scoop b if yo u like the way this dress looks pictured you ll love it when it arrives the patterns and color s are vibrant the fabric is of high quality and the dress is lined with a black slip for sizi ng i m a size 2 or 4 and the xs is a great fit while i often order petites for dresses this petite was short enough on me to be mistaken for a tunic i m 5 3 this is a great throw in yo ur weekend bag summer dress it runs a bit large especially on the top but i ll make it work back is a bit low so a cardigan would be required for office wear i wanted to love this dress the open back the lightweight fabric and fun print perfect for spring and summer it could be i m too tiny for this dress but the front of the dress wasn t flattering it just hung and ther e was an odd tuck in the waist that made it look like it ballooned out under my chest above my w aist i purchased this in the green nice print not overwhelming slips on hides a bra and wa s simply comfortable to wear can easily be dressed up or down but i was looking for a dress th at i could slip on at the last minute to go out to dinner with friends i took it on a trip to f lorida and it did not wrinkle in my suitcase what more can you ask for this dress is so flatt ering and comfortable i got the green which is not too green this is the perfect dress for a s pring day and can be dressed up or dressed down purchased the petite size of these jeans and th e length is perfect for my 5 3 height the description doesn t mention what length the petite s ize is but i believe it to be 31 inches the jean is cut small in the hips and snug in the thigh s so consider going up a size if you are curvy great color and style i may be 60 something but these jeans bring me back to my youth love them i orderd this product in a size large because i was afraid of it being seamless would make it too tight on my larger chest 32ddd however th e opposite happened because it doesn t have any kind of seams it is very boxy and not skin tigh t like i expected however it still works because it does fit me around my chest comfortably and when worn under something it gives a nice blouson effect also the v is a very nice depth not too deep or too shallow overall i m happy with it because it s a n this dress is one of my new favorites i usually wear a medium petite but had to size down in order to get it to fit properl y i was able to get the green one while visiting in san francisco i wish more stores had a pe tite section it was great to be able to try things on since there were so many colors to cho ose from and the 20 full priced items sale was going on i went in person to retailer to check these great dresses out glad i did online i was torn between several prints but in the dressi ng room there was a clear winner for me just for personal preference the prints are still all great these dresses are so flattering and comfortable great with a cardigan or jacket for wo rk or sandals for the weekend definitely tts i am pretty much always a m in e this is a beauti fu l dress unfortunately it runs extremely large i wear sized 10 12 and ordered l i was lost in all the material but because i love this dress so much i am taking a chance and ordered it in small very beautiful colors unfortunately the cut is much too tent like and it looks like a maternity top on me i like a flowy bohemian top but this one was too much for my tastes sadly i sent it back i bought this dress because i thought it would look good on her and it does to my knowledge this dress looks great on everyone the fabric is light and of moderate quality th e finishing is acceptable a great basic i got it in tangerine beautiful soft material very flattering and cute dress i am petite so i will have to do some alterations to make the top po rt shorter but other than that it s a perfect dress the perfect simple black top great fit can be dressed up or down closet staple i was so excited to order this dress however once it arrived i realized that the fit doesn t work for me i carry my weight in my stomach and backsi de and the dress clung to my trouble areas i ordered this in a large and its a super cute dres s but this time the large ran super big i usually wear a 10 so sometimes mediums are too small i m going to exchange it for a medium and see if that fits better the beading detail is beautif ul but just had too much fabric down below i got size 26 and they don t fit me as ankle they f it me as long skinnies but the quality is so good they re smooth and stretchy but they feel t hick enough that when you pull them on you can tell it s quality denim a great pant buy if you re looking for soft as butter grey jeans in retailer s defense silk chiffon in general is supe r fragile got the top in turquoise and the color and design are beautiful i m 5 3 117 lbs and took an xs fits true to size i m able to wear a nude strapless bra with the top and looks grea t i have worn the top a couple of times and by the end of the day i had a few snags i was able to pull the thread back inside the top never ever cut silk chiffon i love the top so much i b ought a second one in the same color and size as a back up un this is the most flattering dress i have bought in years the fact that it s machine washable was a huge plus fabric is so comfor table and the length is perfect i wear either m or l and went with the large for a little extra room but either would have fit well i saw this dress online and drove to the store to try it o n i love it i bought the tangerine color which is really red and blue not black i am 5 7 130 pounds 34b and i got the xs the small was too loose in the upper portion and the arm holes were big like another reviewer reported i have a long torso and the dress fit perfectly it s a lovely soft fabric and i will take it traveling with me as it won t wrinkle and it s washabl e the back is cut low but surprisingly my bra didn t sh beautiful washes well in a garment ba g on delicate has little clips in the shoulders to hold bra straps which is crucial with the sc oop back if you have sloped shoulders like mine i normally go for a large but was definitely a medium in this dress 32 waist 32f bra \r\nonly minor complaint is that the pattern at least on the red though probably also on the others is just printed on the outside and the inside is faded almost white so since the sides of the dress are slightly longer than this is my favorite dress i ve bought in the past year it is super flattering and can be worn for work or casual we ar the fabric is soft and comfortable can t wait till the weather gets warmer so i can start w earing it regularly \n\ni m 5 5 145lbs 37 29 39 i got the medium petite and it fits perfectly lovely dress but i would recommend ordering a size smaller than you normally do i had to retur n my original order to size down the bottom half was fine with either size but the medium was baggy in the back torso area i m 5 8 150 i bought the tangerine version which really i s more red than orange it s versatile and can be paired with various third pieces and shoes i do have a long torso and this waist is a bit short on me however green feminine and flattering love this dress i just received this dress and tried it on it s a nice dress that is flatteri ng but the material was much heavier that i expected it to be it s way to heavy to wear in the florida heat so unfortunately it s going back i purchased this in both the black and the turquo ise and wish they made more colors this top is perfect for our florida 90 degree weather i am usually a medium in tops size 6 8 broad shoulders size 36c and i purchased this in a 6p and a 6 as they were out of petite in turquoise i do prefer the 6p as i am 5 2 i would say this runs generous as there is ample room to move i wear mine with a nude bra on the turquoise top a nd the bra straps show a bit but they are almost covered by the s this dress is gorgeous and ha s beautiful lines it is a little on the big side but the fabric drapes enough that it doesn t matter i love this dress and will be purchasing it in other patterns the fit is incredibly fla ttering and the fabric is lovely doesn t wrinkle easy to wash and wear i am 5 7 190lbs bott om heavy with a 38c bra size i purchased the size large and it fits me perfectly though perhap s a little bit snug in the waist if i wanted a looser fit an xl would probably work though mi ght be a bit loose on the top the low back hits just above my bra strap but does in fact cover all straps for reference this dress is amazing ordered one with a discount the dark blue wit h flowers print and it was becoming my go to for work so had to bite the bullet and order two o ther colors full price size m fit perfect 5 7 150 i ordered this dress on a whim because of t he 20 off on mother s day weekend and i am so glad i did this dress is very flattering i have a hard time finding dresses that are a little loose but don t make me look fat this dress has j ust the right cut i recommend it for anyone who likes something not to tight but also flatterin g purchased dress in blue motif love it it is casual and comfortable no fuss dress love the sexy open scoop back that is just high enough to comfortably cover my bra strap this is a beaut iful summer dress i especially love the exposed back which is the perfect cut to not show your bra and feels professional enough for work plus it s comfortable drapes nicely and is machine wash and dry i am so glad i returned this dress for a size down i am 5 10 and 160 lbs curvy and muscular build and the medium was surprisingly much too large on me i returned it for a s mall and oh my it is perfect i plan on wearing this to two summer weddings this year and wil l then wear it for work it really is a go anywhere do anything sort of dress i ordered the man go and the navy in size 28 i am 5 and 130 lbs both arrived with the size 28 label on them th e mango fit perfectly perfect length on the legs and very flattering the navy on the other ha nd was an inch shorter and an inch narrower i kept double checking the packing slip and the la bel inside the shorts to see if they accidentally sent a 27p but no it was clearly a 28 i bro ught that back to the store and ordered another navy 28 hoping that pair was just mislabeled 28 or this is a perfectly lovely jersey dress it s really comfortable true to size and the cut is flattering you can wear it to work with heels or to the playground with your kids in sneakers o r sandals i didn t want to take it off sizing is straightforward on this one just order your regular size there s nothing tricky about sizing the xxsp my regular size depicted here wa s just above the knee and not quite as long as the product description great buy waiting for b oston weather to coope this dress is flattering in so many ways fitted through the bodice with a lovely flare from the waist down to cover those hippy hips sizing is perfect i also bought i t in the navy black color you can dress up with heels or down with flip flops i bought this dr ess in three different patterns i love it so much i am 5 7 and around 135 pounds usually a s ize six or eight in dresses ordered the small and fits perfectly if a little bit curvy frame great for women on the busty side fits beautiful and is stretchy but not too clingy i m a size xl and i m busty so my review might not apply to everyone \r\n \r\ni really wanted this jacket to work however it did not i tried this jacket on in my usual size xl and it was nowhere near the correct size this jacket runs small i don t see how anyone with a bust is going to be able to button this jacket the jacket is not lined and it is very fitted so putting the jacket on a nd taking it off will require a very thin shirt to be worn underneath \r\n \r\nthe style of the jacket is very i ve had this dress for a while now and waited to write a review glad i did i o riginally ordered the mp 5 5 130 lbs while it looked nice accentuated my waist it was a bit big in the chest area it probably would have been ok but i am picky about fit after debating f or awhile i ordered the sp and it fits much better when i pulled it out of the package i was wo rried it was too short but it s not it hits right above my knee in fact i compared both dresse s and there is not much of a diffe i love this jumpsuit it s unique comfortable and fits true to size you can dress it up or down depending on the event every time i wear it i get loads of compliments super easy and cute i received lots of compliments i ordered this dress the insta nt it appeared online hoping that tangerine would mean red and not orange and what luck i t was the perfect red for my coloring nothing orange or bricky it was a true red the backgro und color is actually a deep navy but it looks almost black in some angles the fabric is super comfortable it s long enough for work easy and fun enough for a date and perfect for spring s ummer months \r\n\r\nmy only problem with it is the top is too large i am a 34 a 5ft 3 it sli ps on easily is soft flattering it will definitely be my go to dress i love the green pat tern the fabric hangs and moves beautifully thick enough to cover undergarments without slip o r liner ballet back is nice detail i m curvy and generally between s and m s has a little roo m to spare generally flattering piece great for summer this dress is soft and comfortable it s perfect for summer i ordered my usual size 4 petite and it fits perfectly 34 26 5 1 i was a little skeptical to buy this dress at first because of the pattern in all honestly i am so h appy that i did it s so unique and truly a one of a kind design when tried on the dress is ver y slimming nan i bought these on a whim on mother s day when i was out shopping i didn t try e ven try them on at the store i got them home and couldn t believe how great they fit and how co mfortable they were the length is perfect for me not too long or too short they did stretch o ut a bit upon wearing them but i like the comfortable relaxed look i washed and dried them in the dryer they came out perfect i bought the coral color will be buying more as it is hard to find shorts that work for me i rec i absolutely love this dress the color is beautiful the fi t is flattering and it is so comfy i didn t want to take it off until bedtime it is an all arou nd winner if i could do one thing to make it absolutely perfect i would take and inch or two of f the hem i am think of doing that but seriously i am not sure i want to have it out in alterat ions when i could be wearing it it is just too comfy and cute these do run small for pilcro wh ich i think runs large overall after reading other reviews i decided to get the size i would or der in ag or coh and the like thanks fellow reviewers because i m pleased when i first put the m on i said no the waist was a tad big but comfy and the legs seemed tight with the slits at the bottom going right to my ankle 29 inch inseam i thought these looked ridiculous however once i had them on for about 10 minutes they just sort of molded to my body and loo the petite w as a little bit long on me i m 5 2 but it otherwise fits true to size and is very soft and co mfortable breezy covers enough that it is work appropriate or for something outside a keeper these shorts are really cute and are a flattering length grey color has a silvery look to it k eepers i purchased this dress on a whim it is easy to wear and very comfortable the empire w aist is flattering however the dress runs large and the lower half is a line the neckline is very flattering and you feel put together when wearing this dress \r\ni am happy to have it in m y wardrobe a go to piece for years to come this dress is very comfortable lovely and versati le i know i will wear this often throughout the spring and summer months because of it s elegan t ease i purchased a small and am a 34c and 28 waist fits perfectly what i love especially ab out this dress are the comfortable soft fabric and the shape of the back the scoop and longe r back hem are very ballet dancer the green off white print is very pretty for spring sizing is a little tricky for me as i m between petite and regular sizes the hem length in the sp is p erfect about 1 5 above the knee in front but the waist sits a little high the top seam of th e waist section is above my natural waist and the bottom seam sits right under my navel s beaut iful dress i love this and am tempted to buy it in more colors fits true to size in a flatte ring way love the cut of the back and the flow of the bottom over all this is very cute it i s very short but has very good quality material this dress is nicely made and hangs beautifull y i did find the shoulders a bit too wide even though i have pretty broad shoulders then again i m also pretty tall and the length on this dress is really nice so i ll take the slightly wide shoulders the low back and gathered waist are very flattering a perfect dress to wear in the s ummer great dress comfortable to wear and flattering with the stretch cinch waist and the sof t flare of the skirt i feel flirty and fun with its open scoop neck and dipping back plenty of space and simplicity to accessorize or not i bought it in black white and red each with its ow n feel love love love i m 5 8 122 lbs 34b and have an athletic frame fairly narrow hips and i bought an xs in red usually i am a s with retailer for dresses although occasionally a m for slimmer dresses but i found that the top part of this dress required me to size down to an xs as the low back design of the dress fit too loosely with the size s it hung so that it sh owed my bra straps and the sleeves were a tad baggy under the arms showing about 2 of bra unde rneath my guess is that if y fit true to size and very well hit the leg at a good length i m 5 5 they were perfect these are comfy and cool i got the blue which is more royal than navy in opinion it goes well with almost anything i can wear all the neutral colors in addition to orange red yellow and patterns they are flattering and like other reviewers i went up a size to 28 in the blue perfect length not too short got the same version last year in white 27 5 4 128lbs i purchased the green dress it is very comfortable and soft is as pictured highly recommend for a casual everyday dress looks like good quality which it is i ordered petite sm all it is perfect size i m usually a 6p i am obsessed with these shorts i bought blue ones l ast year and loved them so much i needed another pair i purchased the gray ones and they are a beautiful hue even with my pale legs i think they will be very versatile the fit is perfect hits at just the right length to be flattering and appropriate not too short super comfy i am fuller on the bottom so shorts are tough to find and these are truly amazing i can t wait to w ear them when it gets warmer for reference i am 5 4 about beautiful dress i ended up getting it in both the red and the green the fit is absolutely perfect and it flatters pretty much any figure one thing i would say is that you should get your exact size if possible i ordered it o nline because it was so pretty in the 4p i happened to be in the store the next week and i ttri ed on the 4r in the store just to see how it looked and it was awful i was so disappointed but then my dress arrived in the mail and the 4p fit me perfectly i m so glad retailer this is so p retty in person and really nice quality with soft velvet stitched on beading is very firmly sew n on great fit runs a tad small i am a curvy size 8 but as with many flowy swingy retailer to ps i needed a small to not be swimming in it perfect with skinny jeans and booties and can t w ait to wear it this holiday season cute sweater the side panels are perforated so you may want to wear either a nude bra or a cami underneath these didn t work for me because i am too strai ght shaped for these jeans try them if you have a smaller waist and curvy hips and bottom i di dn t have anything to fill out the hips and seat for reference i ordered size 25 and they wer e loose in hip and seat but fit my waist my hips are 34 5 and waist is 28 they are a thinne r stretch denim than they appear but not jeggings thin i was thrilled to find this in a store to try it on the fabric is light weight and the cut of the sleeves make it very unique my only gripe is the length it hits the very top of my pants so if you lift your arms in any way becau se of the cut of the sleeves the whole shirt lifts up and shows belly but i loved the eleganc e of it so much i decided that i can live with the shortness i will just wear a tucked in cami underneath this fit true to size nan didn t even wait for a sale on this top so adorable and fits great i bought a medium and wear a small in most things i like that it is a touch big as it hangs better that way this top is so cute a little cropped light for a sweater tank in my opinion and runs a little big so i sized down one size beautiful fabric and fit the ruffles a re such a fun addition definitely recommend with a high waisted pant or skirt for work so cut e on the picture shows the belt doesn t come with the belt i ordered both colors in xxs xs p and xxs p were both sold out at the time sale came on verdict fits really nicely but short i would have to wear this with higher rise pants or pencil skirt like the red one is pictures w ith a polka dot skirt i decided to keep the red one because it is a bot more unique i do hav e a few navy tops the xxs fits fitted can t think of another way of saying it so i like it as it will go nicely with looser bottoms i love the sleeves the ruffles make t this is a great sweater just to throw on with jeans or a skirt simple and the tie on the back gives it a femini ne flare i ordered the green version in size xl i knew it was cropped and it fits me as shown o n the models so i think that s true to size the knit is very soft but it s the color that s amazing such a rich bright emerald green i love the look of it it s awkward fitting on my pea r shape i layer a long tank underneath with this on top but the hemline of the sweater cuts a t an unflattering place still the softness and the beautiful color make it a staple in my clos et when i m staying at home love this top perfect date night top you can dress it up with a cute pair of heels or wear it around doing errands in some flats wanted to get this sweater in the red but the size has been sold out for a long time then saw the navy go on sale and snatche d it up great fit cropped shorter than most sweaters very classic looking and perfect for laye ring into the fall love the overall design especially the tie on the back i know it will becom e a favorite i do wish it were a tad longer though i bought this sweater in the navy blue and love it it s soft and not itchy and the tie back detailing gives it that extra something speci al i m 5 7 and 38 d waist line 27 28 inches and the size m is a perfect fit wore it yesterda y to my son s 3rd birthday party with jeans and received a lot of compliments i love it the fa bric is a heavier denim and it has a nice stretch being tall i appreciate the length the sizes run a bit large i m usually a 10 12 but the 8 is perfect great color and fit and feminine the fit is incredible the print is very subtle but makes them a little bit edgy and easy to pair w ith many things i already have in my closet fun light weight sweater for fall or sprint love the vibrant green color maybe for christmas the tie back makes it unique i have worn this swe ater many times i have received great compliments i ordered this in black and loved it so much i ordered the red color too it hasn t arrived yet but i m hoping its tan like it appears to be online it fits tts 5 3 and 110lbs the xs fit perfectly and wasn t too long i love this sweater it is classic but has details that make it fresh and different the tie in the back off ers very interesting detail i love this sweater i was nervous after reading the reviews but o rdered it anyway and i m so glad i did i got it in grey the tie back v back feature is my favo rite part flirty and feminine unique but also subtle i don t think the material is scratchy it may not be as soft as some of my other retailer shirts but i wouldn t call it scratchy it w as perfectly comfortable to me i will say that it s a little short though i vary between a m a nd l depending on the shirt 5 9 long torso 36c i ordered this shirt through the website hopi ng it would look like it did on the model it does very nice thick fabric fits true to size no complaints at all lovely holiday blouse flows at the bottom but doesn t bell out like some tunic blouses the arms aren t cut in to much and i found that flattering to my shoulders the ve lvet and trim is strong and solid while the bottom half has a sweet little polka dot finish cha rming and romantic wasn t sure about sizing so i ordered the xl and they fit my 5 3 153 lb fr ame they d work for any height because they gathered quite a bit around my ankles but easily ad justed to look like they fit amazingly they don t show the squishy bits at all it s a substan tial thick knit i m returning because i don t have the body for these and i m short waisted so the top wide slenderizing part of the waistband starts well above the area where i carry my we ight in my tummy mid section i highly super comfortable while also being very flattering i m 5 7 135 lbs and ordered a size small which fits perfectly i get lots of complements on the col or which is as pictured love these for yoga climbing and lounging i really like this sweate r it is surprisingly warm it is not very form fitting which can slenderize but i enjoy laye ring with a lacy tank and don t have to worry about sucking in the guy either i m 5 8 and typically wear between a 6 8 the medium was definitely baggy i ended up with a small in 2 colo rs \n\noh and the bow detail really does add a fanciness to an otherwise comfy snuggle sweater i love this brand and the 8 fits perfect i am typically an 8 in retailer skirts and this is no exception medium to heavy weight soft denim which is more of a darker denim shade with a wide a line cut the pockets are distinct and give the skirt character it is pretty long and full look ing on my 5 4 inch height i purchased this on sale plus promo and very happy i was able to rece ive it as it became a sold out style in my size the hem is a wide stitch hem and gives it a nic e look i look forwar love this top very flattering and fits true to size top hits below mid t high this is a nice simple understated sweater i got the green and the navy and they look di fferent enough to keep both it s a throw it on over a shirt sweater with the right length to let whatever is underneath show and the ribbon tie on the back is a nice touch \n\ni also like that the width of the sweater is an alternative to everything that s cut so tightly fitted it s a nice width with some room without being boxy nan this top is gorgeous the picture just does not do it justice i bought it solely based on the one review that said it looks very good and it does the velvet work at the top makes it look very dressy the sleeves are not with big holes that show too much the top and sleeves are perfect i really like this top i can t belie ve that the photo doesn t show it s gorgeousness it looks so much better in person i so wish i t came in more colors i was not sure how this would work on my short stature but it is truly c ute the color is a lovely cranberry red and the weight is light and versatile this piece can b e worn layered in fall and winter but also with crops or shorts and a tee in the spring and summ er overall this top is very cute it needs to be ironed before you can really judge it s cutene ss the sleeves are short and feature gold toned plastic buttons for the price of the shirt i thought the buttons looked cheap love love i am thick in waist and have thinner thighs and leg s and these fit beautifully size down one size very comfy no muffin top or tummy rolling ov er and nice boyfriend look without being too baggy very cute so happy i found these worth try ing on this top is so pretty and easy to wear the material is super soft it s long enough to tuck in as pictured but looks fine untucked the back is gorgeous and will prompt me to wear my hair up to show it off great purchase on retailer weekend i d be surprised if it lasts long en ough to make it to sale love this shirt it is long enough in back to wear with leggings it is very cute and casual on not fitted at all i am 5 2 and ordered a regular size so that it fits longer i have a curvy figure and have always loved the way pilcro jeans have fit aka plenty of stretch for butt and thighs and small waist i was really excited to try their skinny high wai sted version first i don t like the faux whiskering on the jeans i think it makes them look c heap second the fabric had more stretch than i m use to for pilcro denim and made them feel l ow quality i don t think they are terrible i just think i should have been more careful about reading the percentages of stylish great color great fir in between weather \r\nmay need short ening but constructed in a way that will make it easy amazing dye so unique\r\nyou can put in w ashing machine no prob make sure you put in dryer with a non static dryer sheet for the dress to be super soft overall very nice pair of boyfriend style jeans super comfy i asked one of the in store stylist for help styling them she was very helpful and showed me lots of possibilities for these pants also good for a post partum tummy chambray top that is soft but thick heavy so it drapes well and is very flattering on untucked the top is shorter in the front and longe r in the back it hangs like a tunic almost a line so do not size up or you will have too much material i am a sz small in most retailer clothing and the sz 2 fit nicely sz 4 was too loose around my arms and the sz 0 was too tight around my chest nice neckline and a pop of surprise with the gorgeous lace detail in the back i sized down from a 27 p to a 26 p because i like a l ess loose fit if you want a slight baggy look then go with your usual size i love the style c ontrasting hem color and slight distressing look great for end of summer into fall very cute t op the sleeves were more quarter length on me looks great with jeans if i could live in pilco jeans i would maybe that s my goal for 2016 they are so comfortable and flattering i sized do wn as others and i m really happy with the fit my other pilcos are a skin tight 30 but these a re a comfortable 29 the top is so soft and the lace detail in the backs makes this your no so average chambray top the fit is flattering for a curvy figure i bought the xs in green and eve ry time i wear it i get compliments all day it s a more youthful style than i usually wear but i couldn t resist the dark green color i wear this with black leggings and flats and it s a per fect dress for a school day great boyfriend style jeans run large though i had to order a s ize down this top is so beautiful and well made and the detailing in the back is gorgeous it s unexpected and makes this piece really special it does run a tiny bit large i ve gotten reta iler chambray a before and they usually shrink a touch in the wash and then for just right i h aven t washed this yet but even a little large it fits well and hangs nicely without being over ly baggy get this you won t regret it i love this silhouette it is such a flattering cut bu t the prints didn t work for me please make this in black or grey or any solid color pretty please this dress is very flattering and well made i can hardly wait to wear it it s one of my favorite retailer purchases although i find 150 a little pricey for a sleeveless sweater b uy it i bought a size medium which fits me exactly it is an off white which is what i wanted i will be wearing it with a sweater skirt for the sweater dress look it is comfortable and v ersatile also with a jacket this dress is very cute on very flouncy i know it looks like a gi ngham dress but it s a more like a silk dress with a gingham pattern the one issue i had was t hat it ballooned out at the back where you tied it on any size bug or small and i am larger o n top so i don t know what would happen with someone with a small chest i wouldn t have minded if it did the same thing on the front but it was just the back i was initially drawn to the sh ade of blue that these were as i was looking for a lighter late summer denim after trying them on i found that i did not want to take them off they fit well and did not squeeze me anywhere no muffin top as another reviewer noted they are definitely a looser fit so size down i probab ly could have even sized down again because i found them to stretch out after a while leaving a less flattering fit but certainly still s comfortable wear absolutely worth a try if these je ans work for you you re a lucky girl the fabric is really thick and soft pocket detail is coo l and the hidden multicolored button placket is a nice detail i ordered down a size they re ti ght across my thighs and seem shorter than a 30 inseam the fit is boxy and not flattering on m e but pants are so cute i may keep them anyway the fabric is quite thin and sheer it runs a li ttle small also that being said they are really beautiful pants especially on sale i m 5 2 and 105 lbs normally a size 25 petite for most jean brands but learned after receiving my online pu rchase that these jeans run large i exchanged them for a size 24 petite and thought they fit ok ay at first but after testing them around the house they kept stretching and i felt like they w ere going to fall off my waist didn t want to wear a belt with these because it distracted from the relaxed style sadly had to return my purchase i just bought these jeans today i absolute ly love them \r\ni usually wear a 25 or 26 in any jean depending on the fit i bought these in t he 25 regular they fit so perfect they definitely are not a legging fit nor are they a baggy boyfriend style on the tag these jeans are described as a girl fit slim with a dash of ease that describes the fit of these perfectly they are not tight not baggy at all just a bit of ease at least on me i am 5 5 the regular length is perfect the fab this jacket is beauti ful the embroidery is very well done the jacket is fully lined in black i usually wear a l xl and definitely needed the xl as it runs a little small just got these and they are great i ord ered mine online and took the advice of many reviewers to size down i usually wear a 27 someti mes a 26 but got these in a 26 and they are perfect the material is soft and stretchy would h ighly recommend these to all i kept coming back to look at this vest for the color and design a nd finally gave in vest is my favorite when dress layer i hesitate because no descriptions abo ut the model height the vest may look perfect on her and look like a maxi dress on my 5 4 body it turned out just fine the front is below my knees like the picture of the model i love the b eautiful red and the material that stretches just enough for my arms to move around this is de finitely a good buy i just bought this shirt last week in stores and i love it it looks differ ent on me i bought an xs though i m 5 8 135lbs not typically an xs though i m pretty small on top it s 3 4 sleeves on me and tight at my forarms i love it it so cute and you can t see in the picture but the design has a tiny bit of shimmer the detail is cut out but not really se e though so i don t feel like i have to wear a tank or anything under it as long as i wear a nud e bra did i mention i love it i hope i this shirt is so great i fell in love with it once i s aw the back if you re looking for a classic looking shirt with a little pizzazz this is it i have wide hips and this tank if great because it s a little boxy without making me look huge i t s excellent quality and i look forward to wearing this tank all spring and summer i pair thi s jacket with a black pencil skirt and it looks very put together the embroidery is lovely and well done but the jacket would have been nicer with a polyester lining because it clings a littl e when you put it on and it s an awfully heavy jacket for the summer but overall i love it and how i look in it i think it runs true to size wow i got this top in blue and i m in love lo ve the whole off the shoulder trend and this does not disappoint i sized a bit down usually g et a 2 and i got a 0 since it fits a bit snug and the back shows the fau tank in the bank i find it really classy like your on trend but not trying to bare too much skin i think it coul d even be worn in a professional setting because of that its very upscale looking in the navy \r\nwould totally buy different colors if it came in others but i m no these jeans are adorable i m so sad they didn t fit my legs are bigger than the rest of my body but i usually have good luck with wide leg pants if you are looking for wide legs these are not the jeans for you i f ound these jeans to be more fitted than slouchy \r\nfor reference i m 5 4 and 160 i m heavi er thru the hips and thighs and ordered both the 31 32 petite i usually take 32 p in pilcro and the 32 fit well but was by no means slouchy however still very flattering and unique i ha d purchased the other pilcro em in 32 p and they did fit looser and i would also recommend that style always count on pilcro for great fit and style these were very nice but had to return i have a hard time with jeans as i am big and curvy in hips and butt these were tight in those places and big in the waist in maeve i run between a size 2 4 my regular size 4 was too tight in the shoulders the fabric didn t drop off the shoulders like it does on the model it also f elt too tight near the back were the button is almost as if there was not enough fabric the s leeves were also too short and tight around the arms sized up to a 6 and all those issues were fixed since this top is billowy anyway the size up really didn t mess with the shape of the to p love the gold color so pretty love the crochet detail on the back yes it does show the b ottom band of your bra i think i m okay with that i had on a magenta colored bra when i tried this on and it was a nice pop of color i think the top runs tts to slightly big if you re in b etween sizes i would go down i am a 34b and i ordered a size 4 so i haven t tried on the 2 but i think it would fit too and not be quite as loose in the arm hole area i m sure this top will sell out before it hits sale i wanted this top so bad i ordered one size up only size left in navy and it is a little big but i still love it so fun love the color a really beautiful we ll made dress runs extremely big though i m not petite by any means and ordered a large but i m positively swimming in it an oversized look works for this particular dress but i think it s supposed to be more fitted so i would recommend sizing down from what you might normally expect for a piece of this style i m obsessed with the cut and style being 5 11 i don t have a lot o f good jean options to wear with heels these jeans are amazing fit beautifully but the fabric q uality doesn t seem to be there after 2 wears the seam started separating at the crotch and th us wasn t the case where i was trying to wiggle into pants too small i ended up returning but m ay give them another shot at some point i saw this in the store and grabbed it to try on due to the material and the back i was surprised how nice it felt on and how the back looked i had a blue bra on and it really could not be seen which was a worry i loved how the back lay and that it was shorter in the front even for the sale price it was expensive but i went home with it it will go great with long skirts jeans and any color pants i was very happy to walk out of t he store with it i am 5 4 and about 120 i have a slende this top is gorgeous but the sleeves are all wrong they re very tight for about 5 at the bottom right up to the elbow making it ti ght when i bend my arms it s also loose in the armpit area the bottom of the sleeve starts und er my chest and is styled that way so i m considering returning i actually drove an hour to t he nearest store to size up but the sleeve feels even more tight ugh i love the quality loo ks otherwise and the front is double layered so no need to layer the front i okay this is the cutest sleep jumper i ve ever owned it s soft and cozy and even a tiny bit sexy i give it 4 s tars because it s a little on the thin side not sheer but close really fun little piece defin itely recommend these jeans run true to size very comfy and i love the frayed bottoms nan love these funky jeans they are a little baggy like boyfriend jeans i wore them with a linen white tee and wore them dressed up with a silk top and boots for casual friday they are versatile love these jeans i love the concept and it fit nice and looked cozy yet a bit sexy however t he material was a tiny bit scratchy and warm so with no long sleeves you would have to wear a sweater or something on top and i was looking for a simple one piece i would have loved this an d not returned it if the fabric was soft it should be it s all about being cozy so let me sta rt by saying i love non skinny cut jeans i m a curvy athletic type with thick legs so when a j eans comes around with a generous fit i m thrilled these jeans are generously cut through th e hips and waist giving it a boyfriend type of cut the denim is soft like your old favorite p air of jeans that have been washed 1000 times i did size down one size and probably could have gone down one more size but i still want a bit of a looser cut pilcro denim always has stretch in the perfect fit and i ve gotten so many compliments i buy all my suits from here now love t his so much i have received so manu compliments let me begin by saying i own quite few pilcro jeans the script and hyphen to name a few absolutely love them they fit tts super soft with just the right amount of stretch the em jean have the perfect retro look super soft with just enough relaxed fit to still look stylish unfortunately i noticed that they have gone up in pri ce a bit since they were introduced as the signature jean for retailer anddddddd they are no lo nger made in the usa but in china so you may need to try on while the dress is pretty it s a lot more boring than it seems online the box top is actually a completely separate piece whi ch is kind of neat you can choose to remove it or not the box top is very wide much wider th an on the model and very unflattering also the dress is a stiff silk fabric and doesn t flow like you would think it would returning it this is a sweet lightweight top that i will wear a gain and again nice touches in the front and back little keyhole opening with two buttons at t he neck in back this outfit was online for months with no review so i was skeptical to order bu t very glad i did as it is better in person \r\nit is beautiful high quality tommy bahama insp ired suit i am 55 so short shorts are risky even though i am a typical size 4 or 6 i took a 4 in the blazer and i am typically a high 4 or low 6 in size so i would say the blazer is very tru e to size i took the size 8 in the shorts as i felt they ran small and i wanted the extra lengt h they ride a bit lower on my waist an i think i ordered this in an xxs because of the other re views making it sound like it ran large and i m happy with the size and overall look of this te e on me i m 5 3 about 105 lbs and 34aa i generally order xs or xspetite the cuffs of the sl eeves are pretty tight and the v neck is higher than i d like but otherwise i really like the lo ose casual fit there s no armhole seam they re dolman sleeves the tee i got translates to t he beautiful coast it does say made in usa on the label a super cute and comfy perfect for f all and winter apre ski great with skinny jeans or leggings and ankle boots i had my eyes o n this top ever since i saw it online i couldn t be happier with it it is very comfortable fl attering and unique i think it will wear well into the fall with black skinnies this sweater i s so beautiful on it is thick material but does not make you look boxy it fits so nicely and is flattering the design is just gorgeous if you are considering this sweater get it you wo n t regret it \n\ni m normally a small 4 6 and i ordered a small it fits true to size the fi t is perfect so if you want it slightly more relaxed order one size up super comfortable and cute i have received tons of compliments one this dress the material is soft and the print co lors are awesome this dress will get a lot of use over fall winter and spring runs a little b ig i am typically a s but chose the xs love love love this dress is short but super flatter ing i was surprised when i tried it on in store that i liked it as much as i did the lace de tail around the neck is unique and beautiful i m 135 5 8 32dd and the small fits perfectly it s easy to wear and can be dressed down with tights and boots or dressed up wanted this dres s several months ago but it was out of stock finally was able to order and very glad i did it is perfect it fits exactly as i had hoped the length is great right above my knee and it hang s beautifully looks great with my caramel colored boots and i received many compliments just h oping they do some more drop waist dresses especially for summer at the beginning of the seaso n i lusted over an ivory haute couture side sliced tunic so much that i almost sprang for the 8 00 price tag when i saw this at retailer i realized it was similar but had certain design ele ments that made it even more unique than the other i just received it and i was not disappoint ed that cable neckline is beautiful the 3 4 sleeves are perfect to show off a bracelet or two and whether worn with skinny jeans as shown or wide leg trousers as the haute runs true to si ze but some details were not as expected the slit is only on one side and the look is more like sweater dress than sweater tunic the length is not as long as pictured on the model i m 5 7 an d the sweater ends half an inch below knees \nthe side slit starts too high my waist is exposed unless i wear high waisted leggings \nother than that the sweater is darling the cotton 68 a nd acrylic 32 thread is soft and thin not bulky at all the sweater stretches lightly with w ear a after the second wash the stitching in the armpits completely fell apart after sewing it back up wearing it and washing it a third time the stitching in the other armpit completely f ell apart as well not sure if this was just a fluke but it was very disappointing now that bo th armpits are sewn and all other stitches are intact i must say that this is a great dress i would have returned the dress to retailer but i ve already washed and worn it so again very disappointing i would say i have a number of sweaters from moth and they never disappoint the ones made with this ultra soft and warm yarn are my favorite i bought both colors i wear it with jeans or dressier clothes i d say it s very versatile the ivory color needs a little cam isole or tank underneath the sweater is beautifully knit and has a soft and nubby texture hope it washes well maybe size up if you want a looser relaxed feel hits me right around the hip b one and i am 5 8 can easily be dressed up or down with accessories i love this sweater becau se it is an edge to it fit is true to size and its soft and confortable due to the black sheath being out of stock in all sizes for quite some time i took my chances ordering an 8p in navy which was way too big on me i also didnt love the navy i wish i could try the 6 or 6p in black but out of stock and wouldn t arrive in time for my events sadly returning nan gorgeous patter n even prettier in person runs slightly large in my opinion could size down nice to have as a petite option i saw this dress in the store loved the print so much i had to try it on i d efinitely do not own anything like this i tried on a m i agree that it runs large on my pet ite hourglass frame it was a bit overwhelming however i was prepared for that paired it with a brown belt absolutely loved it the belt made the dress a little shorter definitely accent uated my curves in a good way such a beautiful casual dress that is actually comfortable i ca n t wait to wear it with tights with i just love this dress it is so pretty and feminine and co mfortable the colors and patterns are perfect for both spring and fall and i know that this is one piece that i will get a lot of use out of originally i thought the cut would be a bit boxy but it is not at all in fact the fabric is beautiful soft and flowy with a lovely bohemian a esthetic it looks great with tights tall boots and a big floppy wool hat any one considering this dress should defiantly try it on as it is highly u i originally wanted the black in 00p bu t it wasn t available around the date of my husband s company party i was bummed out until my 2 nd choice the navy was delivered and wow i love this dress i felt stunning without having to show much skin i followed another reviewer s advice and applied pliers to the front fasteners the zipper in the back is all it takes to slip in to this hot mama piece i wore this dress with a simple gold cuff neutral colored pumps and a gold clutch i look forwar this is a gorgeous d ress the print is beautiful and unique however because it is baggy the dress does run big on s maller frames i would definitely recommend sizing down fabulous dress i was looking for that one dress that i could spend a little money on and wear to a variety of events mostly weddings i received tons of compliments and was very comfortable in it the hooks on the front of the dre ss to start to unhook themselves if you don t really clamp down on them but that was the only i ssue i don t know how flattering this would be on shorter ladies only because it ends right ar ound your knees this is baby soft and a great basic i ordered my normal size large and it clin gs in an unattractive way so you might want to size up for a better fit if you re not going to w ear it as a layer the black color is saturated in a good way it s also very long but i m short so this would be perfect for taller frames i love this jacket i was hesitant to order but i m so glad i did it s such a cute unique blazer to add to my wardrobe fit is very true to size f or a blazer i was in search of a few sweaters that were functional for the winter but also fit my style i will have to wear a camisole underneath but i love the feel and the fit i always h ave a problem finding sleeves that are long enough the sleeves are an appropriate length i lov e this dress perfect with high boots and the quality of fabric looks and feels great fits jus t like it shows in the picture \n\ni am size 6 and i ordered the medium and its flows well on me i like it a little looser for that boho look great sweater cozy and thick the bands at the wa ist and wrists help keep this sweater in place the loopy knitted fabric adds a bit of texture t o the gray which makes it a little more exciting than your average gray sweater i got a small a nd it fit perfectly i have this in the blue teal color and i love it so far i m considering buying it in other colors this tee is stretchy comfortable and soft even after being washed a few times it fit true to size on me xs although it s a bit form hugging so if you want a looser fit consider sizing up the only thing about the blue is that it s not quite as dark as in the photo on the website i wish retailer would make these kinds of basic tees more often i love this dress because it s so comfortable and has this hippie peasant vibe that i don t genera lly wear plus it s a three season dress with pockets bought the medium but i should have sized down to a small on top i m a m l girl and the medium is huge i m not going to exchange since i wear a sweater over it right now this dress looks good with or without a belt with long boots booties and sandals so happy with this purchase byron lars knows how to make you look like a w oman with his magical dresses i decided to get the navy i also own the sold out marguerite ak a carissima in bronze instead of the black or white since everyone and their mother owns it alr eady the lace of the top is different more delicate but less intricate it s still very beau tiful my body type is inverted and the dress is hourglass so the size 8p fits great on top but loose on my hips and rear i m going to keep this dress and do mo this dress is one of my r ecent faves from retailer the fit is great i m 5 8 and 145 i ordered the small and it s perf ect nan my mom pointed out this dress in the store a while back and i said cute but no way i could pull that off i am a short curvy and busty lady and have never been able to wear straple ss dresses i ended up ordering it for a wedding and it was a perfect fit i got the petite sm all and the fit up top is snug but comfortable and holds the ladies in with no bra needed amazi ng the fabric is dreamy and this dress is so easily dressed up or down hides flaws excellent all around fits perfect nan these are cute nice overall fit tts and length was like model on my 5 7 frame quality and comfort were also nice for me the issue was color when they ca me in at first i did a double take wondering what i had ordered and if it was the right item th e colors are very bright most notably an almost neon orange the colors plus the diagonal lines blue hem combo felt a little clown like to me i try to pick versatile items that i can wear mul tiple ways and i just couldn t imagine many ways i tried this on in the store in the xs size t he pattern is striking and really makes you think of all the things you love about fall having said that i did not buy it and probably won t unless i find it on the sale rack later it is rea lly more of a poncho than a sweater the fit is very oversize through the body and i tried the x s size it is also fairly cropped on me as i am tall i would only wear it with a shirt undernea th the sleeves and not attached to the shoulder but start further do i ordered the navy green combo in xl and it s prettier in person the fit matches the model so it s true to size for me it is loose through the body it s not slimming but not widening either if you like how it look s on the model that s how it should be when you try it on \n\nit s soft and flowy and perfect f or feeling comfortable i love how the arms and chest are more fitted the material has give to it the stitching everywhere was well done no loose strands it s a great basic i m going t lo ve the look of this poncho which is not as large billowy as i thought it would be i tried it on as a whim in the store and fell in love the colors are more beige than gray for those of yo u with pale blue underdone complexions it may wash you out love the orange knit running throug h to give it a little pop i m 5 9 132 pounds and the hem was a bit cropped on me may want to consider a tank top or t shirt underneath the fair isle details are gorgeous and the wool is th ick but not itchy the neckline is a perfect crew cut style not too tight but compliments the neck itself the stitching has a lot of beautiful neutral colors so you can wear this with jeans blue or gray cords etc so many options i really like this top the material is thicker than i thought which is a good thing it fits me very well and is very comfortable i definitely reco mmend this shirt this dress is quite lovely in person but it runs very small particularly in the bust i m usually okay with a large in retailer dresses sometimes medium but i had a hard time getting into this and the top was literally about 10 from being able to zip up granted i have a larger than average bust but that s still excessive and the fabric has no give whatso ever \r\nthe online pictures are pretty accurate representations in terms of look and shape i t hink it would probably be best for pear s beautiful dress stretch material makes sure it fits t he figure nicely great value tried on today this dress has the most soft dreamy fabric i ve e ver felt unfortunately for me strapless dresses are not flattering on me but for anyone looki ng for the perfect summer strapless this is it i am sad that it didn t work for me this dress is absolutely charming i could not find the petite size so i went with the 0 regular it was t oo too large for me felt more like a size 4 i am 5 2 and 112 pounds thought the 0 would fit the fabric is soft the style charming and it is easy to fold and take on a trip it didn t wrin kle in the package it was shipped in i tried this dress on today and ended up buying it its a thicker material and looks better in person more red and white striped with an uneven hem the back of the dress is a bit more like a swim suit i probably is best for smaller chests i m gue ssing it runs a little bit big as the medium fit nicely on me and lately i m a large medium sm all large i am waist challenged i like a narrowly cut structured sheath dress sort of like th e 60s styles this is a great dress either belted or loose with great accessories and lovely sho es it has so many colors in the pattern you can wear this with anything and the fabric is so high end and quality that you can definitely wear this to work with a jacket and then change int o a denim or leather jacket and tough high boots and go out for the evening in the fall winter it arrived in the mail and righ i ve had my eye on this cute knit top for awhile and when there was a sale i picked up both colors they fit me like they do the model a little loose and swin gy but not overly so the colors look spot on like the picture i am rather top heavy 34dd b ut with the colors being darker on the top portion i feel like this works without accentuating my bust too much i am 5 4 and weigh 149 the medium worked out great the knit is soft and it a ppears to be made well the only drawback is a rough there s a free people version of this top a nd this by far surpasses the fit of it i m 5 3 and purchased the xl and it fits me exactly like the model i would say it is tts and extremely soft i do recommend this dress with some caveats 1 it ll be difficult to find a bra that won t show straps and 2 it s very figure flattering s o if you re body conscious particularly tummy i tried this on in the store in a size 4 and it was too tight i d need a 6 or possibly a 8 if i wanted a little room the store didn t have e ither though it was too tight it was very flattering and more comfortable than i assumed the neckline is a little awkward the front straps of my racerback bra peeked out the sides this mi ght not be an issue with a bigger size although the dress is heavy like other reviews mentioned it is sturdy enough to not be see through and the material is extremely soft i am currently an xs or small in nearly all retailer clothing however a d cup bra i think that if you are a small er person the dress may be too much to carry but for those of us that find it is sometimes hard to get a great fit on top and still fitted through the waist it is perfect many compliments the hem is so fun also other reviews mentioned the bow i love this dress the fabric is butter soft the strapless top stays in place and it hangs beautifully it is such a wonderfully comfor table summer dress as previously stated i m in love let s begin with the fabric it s heavy but not in a burdensome way as soon as you put it on you feel like you have a quality piece of clothing on next aesthetics this dress is flowy and feminine and a bonus it made me look b ustier than i am perhaps because of the stripes i didn t find myself pulling this dress up all the time once i put it on it stayed in place perfectly bottom line this dress goes from dres sy to casual without a second thought and it s on sale grab this one maeve did it again great material vivid color and amazing fit i tried this dress on 2 weeks ago but didn t purchase wh en i saw that they were having a sale i couldn t get to the store quick enough \r\nladies if yo u re bottom heavy like i am then this dress will make you look awesome nan the retailer stylist had showed me this on my way out of the fitting room and i m so glad she did i went back in to try it on and loved it it almost has a spanx like stretch to the material which perfectly ke eps its shape and is so well made i also really liked the open part in the back because it adds an extra something to the dress but you can still wear a strapless bra if you desire i plan on wearing it at the beach on the 4th of july nan nan this dress is comfortable and a great piec e to travel with goes with ballet flats sandals to ankle boots cute dress but way too big i ordered a 2 petite and i m swimming in it i m usually a size 2 4 and 5 4 \nwill exchange for s maller size since i think it would be really great if fit properly nan this is a gorgeous piece the pattern and color combination are classic fall the sleeves for a xs s are slightly short i am 5 8 but the rest of the fit is great with the type of fabric and poncho style i would rec ommend wearing something underneath i love this dress the fabric is a little heavy so it won t blow away on a windy day and bonus even with my triple d chest i m comfortable not wearing a bra with this but may not be what you want to wear on a really hot day the shape is flattering on any body type i am 6 months pregnant and it still looks great it can go from spring to summe r to fall quite easily with the addition of a jean jacket and some converse or vans instead of sandals i d absolutely recommend this dress the design of the pant hangs nicely and fit well i love coats and have a collection of unique ones and this one is in my top 3 wow is it a stunn er totally different and very classy not my every day coat but will be used for dinner outings and special occasions with the right outfit i did reinforce the buttons since there had been ma ny complaints about that which is why i only gave it 4 stars for quality great design on this one retailer this t is very cute and comfortable could be worn casually or dressed up a little bit with jeans very cute pattern on the shoulder area love this top these jeans are so comfort able and they are made of the softest fabric i love that they can be dressed up or down love t hese bought the green t shirt very pretty subtle floral detail near the shoulders love sca lloped neck design this t is more sheer than the average t so i ll be layering it over a tank fit is true to size i am 5 9 and i wear my usual 27 like i always do in pilcro i am so sad tha t they are too short they are 32 5 inches long and it s just too short for my legs even with fl ats the fit is great and they run true to size but they are too short for tall girls i usually buy the wide leg linen pants and those are long enough these needed to be about an inch longer i do recommend them if you re a bit shorter nan love the fit perfect for accomplishing the dressy jean look i always take the same size in pilcro and this is true to size but not stret chy as in some of the other pilco styles cute and comfy i usually wear a small but bought a me dium because it appeared to run a little small this coat is so gorgeous it s true to size fit s perfectly warm and flattering this dress is very beautiful and looks great on however had t o downsize one size nan i love this dress i was worried it would swallow my petite frame but i t is flowy yet flattering i have worn it to several different occasions it looks great with ti ghts and boots and just flats the lace detailing makes it unique this is one of the most beaut iful coat i ve seen could not wait to wear it even found the perfect dress boots for it but t he first time i wore it all the buttons broke and fell off the buttons have a thin plastic shan k that you can break just by buttoning your coat extremely poor quality i had to have all the buttons remade a coat this pretty and this expensive should at least have decent buttons the i nside of the coat is pink huge polka dots really cute it also runs very small i wear love the coat style and fit are a perfect fit true to size \nthanks for the previous reviews about the button i am extra careful taking it on and off versatile take the collar off and wear on a sw eater or whatever inspires you nan this dress is really flattering on fits true to size perfe ct length i m 5 6 dress hits just a few inches above my knees it s simple yet versatile se asonally right now i plan to wear it with booties sandals in the spring omg when i saw this coat in the baby blue i knew i had to have it i tried it on and fell madly in love i decided i t was the only thing i needed in this world it is soft and cozy comfort with an old fashion ho llywood glam its almost sold out already so grab it if you can cuz its divine does run a litt le big so i got a 0 instead of a 2 and its perfect the fun coloring of this tee gives what wou ld otherwise be a basic tee it s flare it is a very soft shirt and will be cute with anything the length is good too you can tuck in or leave out i believe it is tts it might be a little sheer in some lights but i think you could pull it off with a nude colored bra it s not sheer enough to me to warrant an undershirt this top exceeded my expectations i got it in the gray s triped pattern size small it s probably the combination of the pattern and the removable paddi ng that makes it very flattering on my small chested figure i would imagine big chested gals wo uld not find enough support in this one though the fabric is very soft and comfortable with ju st enough stretch overall very happy with this top but does it have to be so expensive retai ler i just tried these on at my local seattle store and ended buying a size up i feel they ran small as i am usually a 29 in most and got the 31 in these the 30 fit tight but it looked nothi ng special just like a very high rise mom jean and i was bursting the top button so this jean is made for hourglass bodies for sure the 31 is loose and slouchy and it looked really different i n a good way so it came home with me they are a washed out black grey color with some tie die e ffects did not care fo this coat is truly gorgeous in person it s an investment coat one that i will probably wear for years to come because the style is timeless and the color is lovely i found it to be very high quality in fact i would love to see more coats of this caliber from r etailer the other reviews had me hesitant to splurge on it but i don t plan on wearing it butt it is a cute top and i loved the fit and it s super soft feel but i m kind of getting tired of the sheer shirt thing this year i bought this for the summer and it s hot here so not wanting t o have to wear a shirt under my shirt it s not crazy sheer but still undecided if you live in a state with no sweat you ll probably be fine i ll have to walk around and try it in differ ent lighting situations and think about it this top is awesome it fits well and has a flatteri ng shape it s true to size and i love it love this dress i wear a size large but had to retu rn and order a medium planning to wear with boots it s a light dress cute for work the only downside is that it wrinkles easily these are pretty good high rise jeans probably the best yo u ll find for the price they re all one color no whisking or fading so they look dressier tha n your average jeans and the cut through the leg is bone straight which i think flatters most body shapes i agree with the other reviewers they are tight i got these in a 25 my usual siz ch out the way most levi s do very high quality dress there are two layers the under navy an d over white crochet which makes this worth the price however it is very straight making the dress fit like a bag if you have hips or boobs tried petite and regular and both were too baggy even in xs so glad to see high waisted jeans again very soft very comfortable and the raw ed ge hem makes them just edgy enough this is a bit pricey but i think the akemi and kin quality is worth the price this photo is quite inadequate to let you see the gorgeous dye color and flo dress is fairly low cut on me although i am small chested but i wouldn t feel comfortable wear ing it to work i got this dress in the navy blue and it fits perfect there is a little too muc h fabric in the middle but it allows the dress the stretch more the fabric on the button is a little thin and not lined but you really can t see anything through it i m 5 2 and usually pu e probably been too short i ordered the black and white version online and the dress fit perfe ctly it was very well made with a nicely textured heavier cloth and the overall appearance is very classy it is a versatile dress and i would highly recommend it i normally take a small o r medium in antrho tops i ordered the xs s and i m kind of swimming in it i think it s a good look though and will complement shorts or skinny jeans i could wear this through all seasons i n the pnw so i expect to get a lot of use out of it i was afraid the embroidered shoulders woul d be stiff and stick out but that isn t the case at all the sweater is all soft and flowy drap es nicely and can be easily dressed up or down worth the price as soon as i saw this piece on line i knew i had to have it like other reviewers the black flower part on the shoulders can be itchy underneath it does run large but that s my style i love pairing pieces like this with sk inny jeans or leggings and booties can be dressed up or down highly recommend bought the gr ooks nice on nice flowy dress only thing is that it has the high low skirt which i think is getting outdated beyond that it is a cute dress i love both the color of this sweater as well as the buttons on the cuffs this sweater is an easy pick any day of the week and goes well with felt much more casual than i expected from the pictures online that said it s a great dress an d i am keeping it just adjusting my expectations what i plan to wear it for love this poncho it s casual has a bit of a sexy vibe comfy great with leggings probably boots once it s a li ttle cooler soft and lacey lace is sheer so a cami is needed runs very big i ordered a l an d need a m unfortunately no medium left great top with lots of character hate i missed this cute top i bought this in the orange color might not be the color for everyone but with my colo ring looked great very similar to the picture online fit is perfect very comfortable the fab ric is night stretching but flattering bought this with the 30 off sale not sure i would hav e paid full price based on the fabric but love that i got if for extra off the sale wish the o thers were in stock because i would have bought them too rompers are usually tough for me i am petite especially on top 5 2 110 lbs 34a but have a healthy butt and hips which can make sizing difficult in this romper i tried a regular xs and found the fit very flattering the t op was blouse y on me but not overly so and the arm holes didn t gape which is usually an iss ue for me with non petite sizing the elastic waistband is also great as you can adjust it to h it you in a flattering spot and keep the shorts from being too short which this is a great dres s that i was eyeing for some time i bought it after new year s with the 40 off discount unfor tunately the dress arrived with a defect so i have to have it fixed \n\nthe quality of the dress is amazing the details are truly unique one could tell that the dress is very well made howev er it does run large i bought the xs and feel that i could have downsized at least one to two sizes it s very comfortable and it could be dressed up or down \n\noverall im happy with the p urc i ve always loved the idea of jumpsuits but could never find one that worked either the print was too crazy or the length was too long or the waist line looked funky on me this one worked perfectly i m 5 4 and the regular xs fit nicely can t wait to wear this especially in the spring summer i bought this dress thinking it would be cute for christmas in florida but wh en i received it i wasn t so sure about a christmas dress i like it for a casual night out with high boots super cute i received many compliments absolutely love this piece 5 6 and 120 lb s and ordered a small fits perfectly this jumpsuit has become a regular in my outfit rotation i get compliments every time i wear it this is the first romper i have have purchased and is so cute i am in between a small and a medium usually 5 7 135 lbs and athletic the medium fit o kay but with some extra fabric the small fit better and was much more flattering the romper f eel well made can t wait to wear it this jumpsuit is great i finally found a jumpsuit that wo rks with my longer torso the fabric is so comfortable and moves with you i m planning to pair a thick belt with the jumpsuit over the portion with the tie just for some added detail while w earing the piece it s quite easy to get in and out of i loved wearing this outside on a hot da y the fabric is a nice quality you can t tell in the photos but it is a jersey knit fabric t he color labeled red that looks orange is actually coral it s a nice color i usually wear a tr ue size 2 and that s what i ordered but i found that it is slightly big i can wear it but wo uld have preferred half a size to a full size smaller a versatile dress that you can wear often this sweater is absolutely gorgeous the green is a lovely rich shade and the material is wonde rfully soft i love the slightly slouchy fit but it s far from looking shapeless i bought my u sual size small 5 8 140 straight athletic build size 4 6 and i love it casually paired wit h boyfriend jeans and ankle boots or a little elevated with a skinny and heels \n\ni m so happy to have tracked it down in our local store i d buy them all if there was more in stock i love this sweater i ordered the xs petite it fits perfectly it is soft i hate itchy sweaters the peach color is actually more pink but i love the color great buy i m ordering another one j ust purchased this in the lilac color in the store in my usual xs size the cut and shape are ve ry flattering with the waist sitting lower than my natural waist in person the color looks ve ry different than on the website it is more a lovely neutral taupe to me one thing is that the snap at the neck is placed about one half inch off in order for the neckline to lay flat since this jumpsuit is so cute i decided that this is an easy fix i can do myself i really like this sweater a lot it runs huge though i have a m l and i m swimming in it 5 9 sz 12 14 i like the length and the swingy ness there s enough coverage for me to feel comfortable layering it o ver a bra cami and leggings the shoulder detail is what makes it the only downside is that the threads on the reverse side of the embroidery are a little rough but not enough to bother me t he knitted fabric is soft and cool feeling i plan on wearing it into fall with real pants and i ordered this online and was so excited to try it unfortunately it didn t work for me maybe i ts the style but i had issues with the fit maybe i m too long waisted it just didn t seem to f all properly i liked the fabric loved the length could see getting a lot of use from this i would definitely recommend trying it on this is beautiful fabric and a good fit but it s such a pain to get on and off that i just don t want to hassle with it the button is in the back a nd very tricky to reach too bad because otherwise it s darling this sweater is comfy and ligh t and the buttons are a great added detail i bought this as a gift but i tried it on anyways a nd almost kept it for myself great for early spring days love this top perfect for fall winte r it does run large but it looks great love nan this sweater is very warm yet light the pink color is very cute and the buttons are detailed very nicely it hangs a bit low under the arms and definitely tightens at the wrist i ordered the xs size and i find that i am unable to push the sleeves up this is so beautiful and has a subtle uniqueness nicely designed romper with an wide elastic waist band that can be worn on the hips or around the waist not too short for this 60 body and very comfy i wear either a med or large and went with large for this a good buy nan tried this little number on in store i am 51 years old not a bad body gave th is a shot it looks minus my slightly wrinkled knees great and very close to what it looks l ike on model very happy with one i have been wanting this skirt for a long time i was worri ed about waist which is fitted i finally ordered it and it i very cute the waist is indeed fit ted but there is some give to the fabric fabric is soft cotton not unlike denim with some stret ch there i a soft cotton liner in skirt i took the cloth belt off because i cannot retie it so neatly as in the photo also i just don t want a bow on my stomach i own a cute narrow belt tha t i will wear with skirt as i think something is needed nan i didn t go with the intention of ev en looking at a dress but decided to try this on once i did i knew that i had to get it it s so cute i got the one listed as green motif which is actually a royal blue bodice the colors are vibrant and it s so comfortable i should have known with the combined sizing but this is v ery wide even in the xs sm it s a beautiful sweater a thicker gauge of yarn than it appears t o have and the pointelle holes are also larger than they appear it is fairly itchy if you do n t mind that just way too big for my small frame almost falling of the shoulders which is no t the look i was going for if you want a wide and boxy look or have a larger frame this could be great for you it is pretty and quite unique i m 5 0 125 lbs and the petite small fits perfe ctly i love the length of the shorts not too short and not frumpy either the waist has a hidd en band so it hugs you in a good way and makes the top half slightly blousy so it s forgiving will go great with gray booties black wedges or sandals i really like this dress it has a ver y flattering cut and a stretchy forgiving fit so you could go your normal size or up a size and both would fit great i got the red orange and i have worn it once and got 3 compliments in th e few hours i was out great buy especially on sale this is a great sweater i gave it four instead of five stars because it runs unusually wide and is a bit boxy if you like your clothes a little big this is the sweater for you i love this romper it s really flattering and well m ade at most stores i wear a medium but normally at retailer i wear a small i had to exchange the small for a medium but other than i really loved it this sweater is so soft beautiful and well made it runs just a bit large but i love the look ordered a size 0 my usual at retailer very flattering fits well pretty can t wait to wear this in the fall design is understated ye t pretty nice poncho swing style haven t worn it yet so i can t rate the durability or wash ex perience yet glad i got this on sale cute light summer dress wish it worked for me the tank part of the dress is light and super comfy the bottom part of the dress is narrow and a bit fit ted doesn t work for a curvy bottomed girl i was drawn to the green blue color in store it s so cute and comfortable i m usually a size 2 4 and needed the 2 the bodice is flattering and t he length was perfect on me i m even 4 months pregnant with my 2nd baby and this will work with my growing belly for another month or so it s got great stretch this top is very airly and swi ngy definitely need to wear skinny jeans to off set the volume on top it is a pretty top and also unique so i kept it i like the feel stretch and softness of this dress it s very comfort able sadly as others have commented the armhole openings are just too long causing the dress to fit and look a little off around the chest area on me i considered sizing down to a 4 but i t fit beautifully other than the armhole area unfortunately it will have to go back i am 5 7 120 lbs 34d and ordered a 6 i m 5 9 with a slender build but have always found rompers to not be figure flattering however this one was perfect not too short nor long and looks great hig hly recommend i was very pleasantly surprised by the beautiful intricate threaded material of this shirt it takes the shirt from a casual top to an intricate and unique piece in my closet t hat can be dressed up or down the top is definitely larger than i expected i wear a size smal l ordered a small and it s very wide lots of extra material as it falls i checked it to see if i had accidentally received a large when it first came it looks like a baby doll shirt with the shirt getting wider and more this piece was really great for summer you can wear it dressed up or down i wore it over another green retailer dress with wedges i usually never layer cloth es but it just made sense i love it i was not sure whether i would like an xs or a s rompers can be tricky i am 5 6 123lbs i went ahead and ordered the xs and it is perfect it is just l ong enough in the body for me the shorts length is perfect not too short or too long i can t wait to wear this very comfortable looks good on like the fabric also this dress is gorgeous in person it is so much softer than it appears the photo and the fabric moves well what you ca n t see from the picture is that the bodice sort of overhangs the skirt by an inch or so which i s really nice for accentuating a small waist and separates the top from the bottom in a cool way \r\n\r\ni am 5 6 135 lbs and curvy 36 26 39 for reference i ordered the 4 and it is loose alt hough still flattering thanks to the forgiving cut wish i had gotten a 2 but now they are sold i noticed some reviewers didn t like the loose shape of the dress it is indeed a dress with a l ooser silhouette than most but that s what makes it unique and expensive looking i loved the e xtra material in the dress especially in the back it flowed gracefully and beautifully i can imagine wearing this dress for many occasions and feeling instantly chic with minimal effort it was also very figure flattering i ordered the size l and it was a perfect knee length so i would say this dres cute top perfect by itself or for layering i sensed it would run large so i ordered an xxs 115 lbs 5 2 36dd size 10 12 top and 12 14 bottom\n\nthese tank tops are li terally the best thing i have ever purchased from retailer the colors and patterns are gorgeous i have four of these yellow green navy birds and the white with navy flower the top layer a nd middle liner are heavy high quality polyester the bottom layer is a comfortable knit the e xtra layers make this top warmer than most tanks it s perfect for layering under a sweater or jacket it s very loose and flowy i could have such a cute and comfy dress to wear colors are vibrant just as they appear in the picture the m fit was better for me than the small 5 7 140lbs for reference it s such a great dress to throw on and go love it i love this dress i bought it 2 weeks ago and have already worn it 3 times each time receiving multiple compliments it is easy comfortable and cute also love that you can tie it in the back or the front great dress i was worried at first that this dress might make me look like a circus tent but it is ac tually incredibly flattering also super comfy first day wearing if i got compliments from frie nds and strangers likes colors the design of the flower is very pretty the color blocking is a nice touch and in this season but it is pretty short \n\ni bought thh petite right off the b at as i assumed i would need that but i really dind t it ended up beign too short \n\n 4 slee ves always flattering but hte cut is meant to be comfy i think it would have looked better on me if it was a little more hourglass hsaped if that makes sense \n\ni am usually xs and that was fine so buy your usual size ok one siz gorgeous but so so small recommend ordering 2 s izes up this is not only comfortable but incredibly flattering being 6 0 it s also long enoug h for me i really liked this dress in so many ways i m tall and pear shaped so the flowy shape is great for me however the deal breaker was how the armholes were cut it isn t that obvious in the photos but they are cut in around the bust in the front in a way that was really weird l ooking on me and it was too expensive to keep something that s unflattering too bad if they h ad just had a normal armhole it would have been a home run lovely fabric and nice that it has p ockets this dress is super cute flattering and well made but it runs very small i am usually a 6 so from other reviews i ordered an 8 and it is still tight in the hip area it zips but the fabric pulls a bit in the front and it rides up when i walk i am going to try and exchange it f or a 10 because i think i ll get lots of wear out of it i love the cut of this dress i can see how some would not like the way the arms are cut i love the pockets and the way this dress flow s when you walk it it it s very fun to wear i am wearing it to an awards show and was a little worried it may be too casual but the texture and weight of the fabric make it look more dressy i will be getting a lot of mileage out of this dress if you think you can pull this off by all means try it the fabric is excellent quality thick yet soft and the floral print is lovely u nlike a lot of the prints this season i am not exactly short 5 6 and not wide 34 26 36 b ut this made me look like a houseboat too bad as it is such an interesting cut i ordered down his dress in store today the only reason i didn t give it 5 stars is because it is dry clean on ly although i will probably attempt to home wash it runs very large i am usually a medium but currently nursing a baby so need large to fit the chest but i bought this dress in a small also it can be elegantly worn backward so the zipper is in front to provide nirsing access i don t t ve love love \r\n\r\ni think my only quibble would be that the lining on the inside fits more snugly than the dress itself and when i was walking it rode up it s like a stretchy mesh type material but i m carrying a few more pounds than i d like right now once i lo i have been eye e cut of the neckline is very flattering and the pockets are definitely a bonus you could dress this up or down with flats or heels it s very versatile it will be perfect for summer and in the evening you can throw a sweater or even a moto jacket over it definitely worth every penny i was a little nervous to purchase this top as there were no previous reviews but it intrigued me especially with the sale price i love it i am 5 6 and got the small it hits just at bel ow my knee in the front and a few inches above my ankle in the back it is perfect with a pair o f skinny jeans or leggings what makes it go from a frumpy tunic to a cute flowy top is the slit ace needs accessorizing the aged look may not be for all but overall i love it i adore this dress but i never would have bought it if i didn t wear it with a belt as some reviewers have said it s a sack the belt takes care of this it still isn t a slimming dress but i really do n t mind the elegance and comfort make up for it \r\n\r\ni m 5 10 34c and curvy in the hips and the medium fit perfectly i could see this fitting strangely if you were larger in the bust ng about this dress is perfect for my body type i used the tie belt as a cinch to gather the f er half so maybe the excess fabric balances out my body but looks terrible on other shapes i a m 36dd 140 5 3 and i purchased the medium petite i am torn about this dress the print is ver y pretty and the fabric has a gentle flow to it the top part is great but the portion below the chest reminded me of a tent it is tricky to pull off if you are well endowed on the top or wear a padded bra i liked the look better when i tied it at the back with the ultra thin belt straps which gave some shape to the waist i agree with the other reviewer that a slim person could car ths so glad i got it excellent quality blouse and sooo pretyy i was worried when i saw on l ine that is 100 cotton i though it was a cotton blouse that would get wrinkly but i was plea santly surprised when i saw it in the store it is a substantial weight cotton gauze that looks like hand stitched embroidery i d say it fits tts i m 5 4 120lbs and the xs fits perfectly the skirt is flattering and quality is nice will be good for cooler days in the fall a bit war m for a hot summer day but nice for a night time event i bought this blouse in ivory which is almost white just as pictured it s pretty sheer as shown in the pics and the cotton lace ins ets show the top and straps of my bra despite this i m keeping the blouse and will sort out ho w to wear it because it s so unusual and gorgeous if black looks good on you it s bad on me i d probably go with that colorway over the ivory because it s easier to blend a black bra with a black blouse than a nude bra with an almost white blouse the blouse runs i needed to get this hemmed about 3 4 inches but it was well worth it this is a gorgeous effortlessly glam outfit the material is silky soft with some stretch and drapes beautifully i am a 12 14 and got an x l i think a large would have been better this had extra width at the waist but it worked wit h the tie belt i loved wearing this and felt comfortable all night i found this tts ordered a m i m an 8 and not annoying to put on i ended up being glad it doesn t have a zipper when i tried it on i thought it would look better with a v neck so i tried it on backwards with the hook and eye open in the front i think it s identical back and front except for that and it lo oks cuter with a slightly lower neckline especially for a bustier person like me i might sew d own the flaps on the inside of the neck so it makes a somewhat high v neck with that al this sk irt is much more vivid in person which i like the fit though was off for me i ordered my usua l size medium i wear a 6 or 8 in bottoms the medium was fitted you could see every curve de finitely not comfortable with that i would probably have a better fit with a size up however i am not a fan of the gray lining that you can see on the inner back portion of skirt so i th ttering i don t hink this picture does the skirt justice the regualr size was a little long on me i would order a petite if like me you are 5 1 5 went xs at 115 lbs the skirt is also a bit stretchy not stiff \r\n\r\ncolor is way prettier in person i never looked twice at th sk aw it online \r\n the material is definitely high quality and the bottoms i knew would stay put if they had fit me in the first place i ordered a size medium in both top and bottom the botto ms were much much too small and the top was just ever so slightly too large i should ve known s ailer has been making all of their tops so short lately i m 5 7 and a dd i ordered a large si mply because it s a cotton tee and i didn t want a fitted look per se my only criticism would be that the material is a little thin in the front i just ordered it in black too the top is r eally pretty it is sheer and needs a camisole wish the material was a little softer think it fits true to size love me some pilcro jeans these fit like the stet jeans \r\n\r\ni got my usu al size 27p and the fit is good but not too tight i am not crazy about the hem but they feel so good that they are worth it they don t come above my ankle like on the model but come slightly below which i really like i will say that if you want a true black you may not like this color they are more of a faded black i bought this in the pattern in a size medium i am a size 4 6 38 around the hips butt the small fit but felt very clingy to my curves the medium gave me a little more wiggle room and didn t outline every curve of my butt the material is very soft and comfortable but it didn t feel thin or cheap or see through it has a nice weight to it i am t all almost 5 9 and it fit me just as it appears in the picture i love this skirt fits gre at snug but comfortable and the length is perfect for wearing with ankle strap sandals the mat erial is soft and hangs nicely my new favorite skirt i am 5 8 and curvy got the large which was perfect for my fuller figure tried and pictured the regular size small my stats are 34 35a 28 36 and i usually wear a 6 or an 8 on top in shirts and blazers the small here was nicely loo se so it might run a bit big \r\nin person the colors are dark navy on light beige \r\nlovely h eavy weight cotton and stitching \r\ni think it s deliberately a bit short hit at my hip i m 5 6 but i like this \r\nthe 3 4 sleeves are a bit nowhere for me i wish they were full length but that s my only quibble since the reviews are quite polarized for this dress i thought i d throw in my 0 02 first to clarify there is indeed a zipper it s well hidden under the l ar m i didn t think there was one based on the reviews and got it on zipped fine once it was on i could feel the zipper not uncomfortably i just realized there was one dress does not have a lot of give so i imagine that zipped it would be difficult to get off because no give don t order down that said i found this dress to this is going to be a favorite the fabric is sub stantial without being heavy it has a beautiful drape this blouse is loose but skims the body closer rather than being blousy it works perfectly worn with a skirt or pants and belted or tuc ked but is not too blousy if left unbelted i purchased the black with the lovely feather patter n the colors are vibrant i m always looking for something black with some color because i tend to wear a lot of black on the bottom this fit true to size i am this is a nice style and patte rn but it is quite clingy around the hips so beware if you don t like to reveal too much in th at area i do love the tulip like hem this is a very pretty top with nice lace details the lin en makes it not quite as soft as 100 cotton but still comfortable and breathable the fit was j ust right in the small petite i tried it on in the store and was very tempted but wound up not buying it because i have other similar tops i would snap it up if it went on sale or if i neede d sizing up not because it runs small i think it s pretty true to size but i think it looks be tter a bit loose drapery fabric is soft and pretty tailoring is f this skirt is so flattering and comfortable tried both colors gorgeous but kept the white as it offers more versatility in my wardrobe happened to have an retailer cami that follows the lines of this top exactly to help conceal how transparent it is the black color will also need a cami strong sunlight or a camera flash will be revealing a lovely layering piece under sweaters vests jackets so pl eased this shirt is really lovely the fabric is soft and comfortable and the embroidery is ver y well done it looks great with jeans and adds a little feminine touch to the look ok so mayb e i am too picky because the pattern is lovely the colors are great the fabric is quality the fit is flattering the sizing is appropriate that said the high to low hemline shows the inner fabric so it kinda stands out when you are moving and i find it distracting so unfortunately i a m returning it sizing reference i wear a size 8 10 in pants i m 5 3 and the medium petite fit comfortably found this vest in the sale section actually rolled up in a ball on the floor wha t a great find the colors and texture are rich strong navy blue base with rich other shades an d one an retailer associate gave me this to try on since i love white clothing and lace i trie d on a large for my 5 9 36c hourglass frame and found it to be a tad large and probably could go down a size my thoughts are \n \npros \n breathable and comfortable fabric due to cotton linen blend \n lace detailing at the top is lovely \n runs tts except i found th e arms ran a tad small and i have smaller circumference but there s enough stretch \n \ncons \n extremely sheer very pretty top with beautiful lace detail both front and back love the way the material feels and it hangs very nice actually slimming i purchased the black would highly recommend love this blazer it s a heavy jersey fabric which is comfortable all day with no wrinkling and it has a cute light grey jersey knit trim around the pockets which a dds visual interest and keeps it from being a boring navy blazer the sizing is correct i wear a 6 and the 6 fits perfectly it s got a slightly athletic boyfriend fit it s not boxy but don t look for a really skinny tight fit around the waste i love this t shirt it s a little bi t dressy because of the lace but the t shirt material is great for casual wear i tried on the w hite but ended up buying the black because the white is so sheer i ll still have to wear a laye ring tank with it but the black just feels less sheer for some reason really cute and nice qual ity t shirt i got this in black will probably get in the purple print too the purple is a bit more casual while the black can be work appropriate if with a nice top very comfy this midi s kirt arrived and i tried it on immediately the fit was perfect and i wanted it badly enough to say that it would balance my 5 5 height and 135 lbs if i just wore a higher heel shoe then i saw the grey lining showing from the back of the skirt through the scalloped front it s a beaut iful skirt flows nicely and could be flattering on a taller person who can forgive a poorly des igned lining i would recommend giving it a try cute basic white shirt with nice detail i lov ittle bit softer i am a sucker for soft things however i am keeping the shirt and it will be great for work or play super comfortable great with jeans or leggings i would definitely orde r a size down this is the softest shirt super comfy very baggy but i d say true to size for t he style it is a bit thin and i m worried how it will hold up or would have given the full 5 s tars i m not a usual fan of the turtle neck but this is so soft i love it love this with legg ings or jeans for a casual look quality seems ok though i m hoping for no shrinkage after i wa sh since it s the perfect length at the moment i m 5 7 and it just covers my butt good sale purchase i love this dress i read the reviews on it before i purchased and they were spot on i have broad shoulders so i ordered the large it was still plenty roomy but i wore a royal blue sweater with it and it pulled the waist in just enough to make it fit without a belt i would bu y it again this is not my usual style but the print is gorgeous and the dress is really high quality i m glad i purchased it definitely runs big i am usually an xs or s depending on bran d but i ordered an xs p it fits pretty well and falls at the perfect length just above my knees i m 5 3 110 it s a little shapeless still but that s the look i m still sort of wondering if i should have gotten an xxs but the xs p definitely works especially for the length can t wait to wear this amazing sale pri this shirt is so comfortable soft and super cute definitely re commend i tried on xs in the store returned and it looked huge on me i like the rushing idea the material is super soft but overall couldn t justify even at sale with 40 off as it wasn t flattering when it looks big blue color nice in person the model does not look as good in th is shirt as it looks in real life it is flowy flattering and elegant not to mention warm and soft i hope it holds up very flattering dress but i think the black is more of a washed out na vy black instead of a true black which made matching this with other black times cardigan tigh ts etc difficult it runs a little large i got a small and it was still a little large in the shoulders but maybe that is just my body type otherwise i love this dress the fabric is nice and could pass for silk even though it is viscose rayon the pattern is pretty and flattering s adly the fit was just off big in the center but tight at the hips if i size up the v neck mig ht be too wide i m disappointed that i ll have to return it it probably would look great on a different body type i would recommend it for apple body types but not for pear body types i ag ree with the review that says this is better in person than in the pic online great sale price and super cozy but thin enough to transition to spring i adore this dress it s so charming gr eat quality lovely fabric beautiful color the fit is supposed to be boxy and probably won t w ork on a beautiful curvy body with a petite athletic body i feel beautiful in it i wear a sma ll or xs and i definitely needed an extra small pair it with black or camel sandals or boots it s lovely flattering comfortable and a fantastically versatile color and style if you d li ke the garment to fit about how it does on the model i d say that it s tts the picture represe nts the color accurately is a very dark slate grey i ve found that the color is a great neut ral i can wear it with other neutrals or with colors as featured on the model the style is a lso really versatile i can wear it as a stand alone t shirt or under a blazer to work \r\n\r \ni ve washed the garment once on the fit tts very flattering and slimming with fitted thighs a nd slight flare can be dressed up given the beautiful and classy dark wash the hint of stretch makes them super comfortable the only thing is they are very long will have to hem unless you are 6 ft tall in my 5 5 case i m afraid the hemming will take away some of the flare effect ag please make pants with realistic length still very happy especially since i was lucky to get my size during a promo the previous reviewer was right on with her review including that the s hirt is a bit darker in color irl i m writing this review to emphasize how large this shirt run s i m typically a small in shirts usually a 4 and occasionally a 6 if it s a very fitted style i m 5 5 125lbs 34b and i went with the xs in this and it is huge on me i really like it th ough so i m considering reordering in an xxs i ve never worn an xxs i m starting to get frust rated with inconsistent sizing especially i saw this online and didn t think twice about it but then i came across it at my local store and it s so much better in person it is incredibly soft and cozy i purchased the gray stripe version and two solid color versions cream forrest green i can see this being a great staple over the fall winter with leggings boots and a long pendant extremely well made tank top great for work or a night out love love love this turtleneck it s soft and cozy and i ve already reached for it on several chilly days it definitely runs larg e i sized down and it still has an oversized swingy shape let me start with i love this dres s but i m totally confused there is a pleat in the center of the dress which if you look a t the first photo on retailer s website you can see that the model has the pleat in front but when i recieved the dress the tag is on the pleat side meaning if you put the pleat in front you re wearing it backwards then other pictures show the model with no pleat in front i tried it both ways and neither way felt wrong i thought it would fit funny if i flipp surprisingly flattering and so very soft and comfortable have had many compliments on this super cute paire d with skinny jeans and boots also purchased the ausaria infinity scarf in navy which contrasts nicely with this top and a plus no signs of pilling yet this dress fits true to size i order ed an xs like i usually wear as a small was falling off of me when i had tried on in store the colors are more vibrant in person it s a really pretty dress and is very well made the fabric is solid and light weight i don t think it would work for someone with a lot of curves unless t hey sized up though as it is a really straight dress that is meant to lay free this dress is wo nderful fits perfect very comfortable wonderful colors i m a big ag fan so i was excited to receive these for my birthday i really love everything about them but boy were they long eve n with a 3 inch heeled boot i was stepping on the hem i m 5 7 so i don t often have to get th ings hemmed but that was a must with these jeans i recommend these jeans but unless you re 6 foot tall plan on running them to the tailors has to be one of my favorite retailer purchases the shirt is so soft and can be paired with so many different items the turtle neck will help k eep you warm although the actual material is a little thin don t let that dissuade you though you won t be disappointed by this purchase i m going to get the other color too nan mutliple layers of buttery softness i bought the blue and it s true to size it is soo soft i could wea r this to sleep it drapes beautifully highly recommend it now i want to buy all the colors g reat quality beautiful print definitely a steal given its current sale price it does run larg e order a size smaller works perfect with a belt this dress is gorgeous and feels so soft lo oks great with booties and flats can be paired with so much jackets scarfs long necklaces s o glad i bought it i did down size to a small from my usual medium and got the regular instead of petite fit great this tunic is lovely and versatile looks great over a pair of jeans or as a dress i never write reviews although i do most of my shopping online but i had to write one f or this tunic i got it in the blue and sized down from a small to extra small although i order ed both to see the smaller size fit better around the shoulders it is a bit retro funky and el egant at the same time great price for such a quality piece bought this for my 21 year old dau ghter and she loves it the blue color is very pretty and she says she gets lots of compliments and requests to touch it because the fabric is gorgeous it s a bit boxy and a little short t o wear as a dress for her 5 9 height she says she risks showing her undies when she raises he r arms but she likes is so much she s just keeping her arms down nan perfect dress for the fall in texas the velvet is on point for this season the dress is very roomy on the bottom hal f wish it was a little more fitted but overall a great dress got tons of compliments i siz ed down to an xs from my usual size small and it fits perfectly it is cropped but i like the s wingy shape that will work well with high waisted bottoms i did have to get a replacement becau se my first top had some beading coming off when i received it in the mail but this new one see ms much more sturdy i saw this in the store on a mannequin in baltimore and i had to try it it almost felt more like a sweatshirt than a true sweater i found the top to be a shaped small er at the shoulders and chest and widening as it went down \nthe sleeves were rolled up which sh owed a soft peachy look underneath which was cute but i am on the fence on to which size to go with like other reviewers have said if you go up a size for shoulder comfort it gets a bit too swingy on the bottom the length was n this top is very cute and is made out of soft material th at isn t clingy at all and you don t have to be stick thin for it to look good i don t like to show my arms normally but this top is very flattering all around i love it this top is absolut ely beautiful i especially love the richness of the black and burgundy one i am typically a si ze medium but purchased the large because i wanted it to fit a little bigger and longer i was going for more of a tunic style if you re broad shouldered like i am you may opt for a bigger size as well because the sleeves can look a little silly if its too small i love this piece th ey re calling it a tunic but its plenty long enough to wear without any pants i usually wear a small xsmall in retailer sizes and i definitely went with the xsmall size down to avoid the pot ato sack look i think this piece is so great for fall definitely a must buy i saw this on a m odel in the house and home catalog it looked very comfy but with an edge of elegance i saw it in store in the navy and loved it the other color is very washed out not good for me being a b londe i didn t try it on and got a small as it looked as it ran a little large i m 5 4 130 lbs and it fit perfectly it hits above knee a little longer than on model it hangs beautiful ly and the blue color is stunning looks expensive i received a few complements the first time i w the cut fabric and detail on this dress is incredible it runs a bit small though usually i wear a 00p but the 0p is plenty snug 5 4 110lbs 32c fits just as on the model looks much like photos but slightly more yellow in tone cute top agree with other reviewer that it is re ally nice in person the colors are rich and the embroidery is beautiful it is a very full swin g top but be aware that the sides are a few inches shorter than the front and back this isn t evident in the photo shown i usually wear a sm in retailer tops and the small looks larger on me than how it fits on the model in fullness and especially in the arms it s still cute enough to keep but i personally probably could have gone down a size purchased this shirt for holiday photos and it worked great very flattering and a fun take on plaid more feminine than your cla ssic plaid button down i was looking for a red and black plaid top with a twist and this tee d efinitely fits the bill i plan to wear this shirt with a long sleeve tee under it for extra war mth for casual holiday events and can see it with a skirt and cardi for work fabric is soft an d comfortable fit is loose but not too boxy i loved this dress and tried on the xs in the stor e and then ordered the petite i thought if i ordered the petite it would not be as baggy it is just way to boxy baggy for someone my height and weight however i would recommend to someone ta ller because the velvet is great quality and it would have been an amazing dress to have for fal l and also for winter for reference i am 5 0 and weight 113 pounds i love the way this dress moves on you and the high low a medium fit me perfectly i am 5 8 and the long part in the bac k barely touches the floor in flat shoes the colors are sort of fall but the top is like a sun dress i think you could wear this any time of year with the appropriate accessories i wore it with a 3 4 length sleeved cardigan and sandals in oct and it was perfect the fabric feels nice great quality it s on sale so you have nothing to loose i bought this in the blue motif and i love the colors of the plaid the first day i wore it i received many compliments the armholes are a bit low but i wore a cami underneath i don t think it is that noticeable unless your arms are raised the whole time i like my shirts to be a bit longer and this is perfect since i have a longer torso i am normally a size 6 m 34b and the med fit perfectly i love fitted top dresse s like this but i find them hard to fit well on my body this one fit perfectly straps can be l et out or taken in easily and i get tons of comments on the print i just love this hoodie it is so soft and comfortable i am usually an extra small and that size fit me great i wish it di dn t have the brand on the back of it but i can get over that this is a very cozy piece that i will wear many times love this hoodie so soft and goes with everything highly recommend for c omfort and style great company i wear an xxs petite and this dress was still large i like tha t look so i m okay with that but the sides do stick out a little bit if you have a smaller frame i bought this shirt in every color i look sexy and the best part is how comfortable it is it i s very versatile i wear it at networking semi formal events dinners going out with friends a nd everywhere i feel awesome with it the large is perfect for me and is just my style not to o baggy but just shapely enough to where to the office with or without leggings as the fall app roaches i bought the blue the color is rich and saturated the material is soft and all around comfortable which is my number one factor in buying clothes love its versatility too since a jacket and scarf can dress it up shoes also dress up or dress down the dress all in all a barg ain i love this tunic it runs slightly large i ordered my usual size small i am 5 4 125lbs and it is a looser fit but falls nicely i wear it as a dress and the blue gray color is so pre hey hit just right at the ankle and aren t too loose at the bottom it seems like they are made well but will wait until after the first wash i m someone that wears leggings all the time but love that these look like absolutely love this little shift i bought it on a whim really it just harkened back to my crushed velvet loving days of the 80 s crushed velvet then was just so mething fuzzy that had been run over by a car and maybe thrown up on a few times at a punk rock bar this is not that sort of velvet it s also not some cheap polyester looking knock off of true velvet i always find those to have a somewhat plastic sheen to them that is exactly wha t i was worried about judging from the pictur love this dress and so does my boyfriend took my usual size 2 and it s a little snug but the 4 would have been too big i read all the reviews be fore purchasing this and took the advice of others on sizing up i am 5 4 hourglass shape 32d 27 inch waist size 28 pant size and normally wear a size 4p in retailer dresses i ordered a 6 p and the top was way too big on me i went straight to an retailer store to try on a 4 regular and the top half was perfect on me a little too long for my liking about an inch below my knee so i re ordered it in a 4p this dress ran true to size for me i recommend trying it on in i ab solutely love this dress it s a great summer dress that s flirty and fun i feel this dress run s pretty true to size except in the bust area the buttons at the top pull a little bit on me un less i wear a bra that pushes the girls up and together i m a 32ddd just so you have an idea i m 5 10 about 145 150 lbs and i m a 4 6 in dresses i m usually able to get away with a 4 i hav e a bigger bust and bum but a super tiny waist i m just barely able to get away with wearing a 4 in this dres this dress is very sweet and summery i disagree with all the other reviewers who complain about their not being enough room in the chest i wear a double d and i didn t notice a ny pulling which is definitely a problem i ve experienced in other button down dresses i also appreciated that the straps were wide enough to cover a bra though i definitely will have to h ave them shortened the color is not particularly vibrant kind of a soft yellow thoat might not be flattering on every skin tone i ordered the 0p in red and love these pants the only proble m is even in petites these are long on me maybe ok with 4 inch heels the cut is comfortable and flattering i have muscular thighs and these fall nicely on me the color is also nice for t his fall i purchased last year s version grey and turquoise but reverse from what is offered this year and they are very comparable although i bought them too big last year fabric not p rone to easy wrinkling highly recommend reference 1 if i ever find something i can wear sans bra i am pretty much going to buy it just looking at this dress i wouldn t think it possible but it is this is a rare occurrence for me honestly the dress is a little tight a pulls a lit tle bit across the chest 32d but being able to go braless trumps that for me hopefully it is n t too noticeable i did find the straps to be extremely long so i had them shortened this dress is adorable and i ve received so many compliments it s so comfortabl i love this crushed velvet dress in the rich blue color i plan to wear it with short peep toe boots and also with ankle leggings and flats so glad velvet is in this year love everything about this dress excep t it runs huge i am busty and usually wear a 12 in dresses but the large was completely sha peless on me will try medium and hope it is better bc otherwise i love the dress saw this ja cket online and decided to search in store for it i found it and although it definitely looks more mustard in the picture online compared to the bright yello it really is i felt it fit very well it runs large i usually am a size 6 however i ended up buying a size 4 for a more fitte d cropped appearance the material is heavy but made very well and feels great on i recommend this blazer for any female that wants to brighten her closet up for spring love the buttons bec ause i am currently nursing my 5 month old easy access i m a 32dd 5 9 147 and it fits fine in the top got a size 4 love how it flows over my pear shaped hips i thought it was a sunflowe r print but actually moths haha very cute wish i would have waited and got the sale price b ought my it in may for mother s day love these leggings great fit great look perfect with bo ots and oversized sweater bought a couple of different fabrics highly recommend nan i adore m aeve tops and this is no exception i m small on top 32a ordered my usual maeve size 0 i m 5 3 105 lbs ordered regular not petite because the front of this blouse is already short fi ts appropriarely but take note it is much more blousy than it appears in the photo you have to try it on either you ll love it or hate it i do love it s slightly oversized blousy fit so i was not hesitant to put it in the dryer on low for about 15 20 minutes well it shrunk up lik e nothing nan i actually paid full price for this over the winter and i m not sorry i did great top w lovely fabric i usually wear a small but in this top an xs so it runs a bit large very cute top and so comfortable it runs big i m between a medium and large i ordered the large and it s definitely a little big but wearable i probably should ve swapped it for a medium but it s still really cute the fabric is super soft and the grey is pretty but it is light grey not dar k grey as described when you select to buy it my biggest issue with the top is that the cold sh oulder arm reveals the entire arm so if you aren t completely toned with your tricep and all ov er arm it will show which is why i bought this to hide my blunders this is a really beautifu l dress the pictures don t capture it well enough was looking for a comfortable shift dress th at is versatile this fit the bill for reference i am 5 3 and weigh around 113 lbs i got an xxs and it was a bit baggy but shift aren t supposed to be tight also has some fun details look forward to wearing this i ve been hesitant with crushed velvet comeback but this dress i s adorable first it is not a tent on me it s the perfect fit for the style not too swingy b ut definitely not fitted this is the dress you can grab on a day you don t feel like sucking it in throw a blazer over it if you need you look professional wear to a girls brunch with bootie s or a night out with the hubs the little extra detail i didn t see online that was a pleasant style surprise is the almost strap looking piece i wasn t sure i would like this top but wanted something different than what i already own i ordered it in an xs my usual size and it is sl ightly loose which i knew it would be based on the cut it looks great with jeans or shorts i purchased the black and white striped one because it looks more interesting the ties may drive me crazy we ll see i like the weight of the fabric i just hope it doesn t pill for reference i am 5 3 and 123lbs i usually wear a 2 4 this top is a nice piece to transition into fall it goes well with jeans but it could also be dressed up with black pants i was really nervous whe n ordering this dress because of the other reviews but i couldn t get to a store during the mot her s day event and really wanted this little number it arrived yesterday and i m already so ex cited to wear it especially once i get just a tiny bit of a tan i love the fact that it is yel low and white stripes with the dragonflies on top the pattern is so much cuter in person than i t appears online the fabric is also a good weight and it is lined which greatly simplifie run s a little big but cute and comfortable also shows bra straps a bit on each side even when i ordered a size smaller overall very happy with it based on reviews i was concerned that this dress would not fit in the chest area however i find that i have ample room there i am a full c it is a tiny bit tight in the waist but not uncomfortable or unflattering i will go ahead and say that it runs small for that reason the straps are a little long on me and will need to be taken up also there is no zipper so getting it on and off requires unbuttoning the buttons so it s not fast \r\n\r\noverall quality is very nice and it is very prett love love love this dress i was worried the velvet would look cheap but it absolutely does not i bought an xxsmal l and it is a little tight in the chest but everything else fits perfectly i bought this in t he slate color but am seriously considering buying the lighter color as well after reading man y of the reviews stating the dress can have the potato sack look i certainly had concerns part icularly since i am petite hourglass athletic and approaching 50 i decided t give the blue s hade a try the lighter shade is beautiful but was afraid it would wash me out with my darker ha ir and olive toned skin let me start by saying the blue is so beautiful and rich looking the v elvet has such dimension and is no ordinary velvet material it is also lined when i first trie d i listen to all the reviews size down i got the dress in my usual size large thinking it wou ld fit well size i have large hips and a booty i was wrong i could camp out in the large it was super large \r\n\r\ngot the medium and its fit amazingly its a tad bit tight in the chest barely tight but im a 38dd and this is not an unusual thing for i just need to wear a thinner bra and it will be perfect cant wait to wear it loving the velvet trend this fall thinking ab out getting the blue too it is very cute i think actual one is much better than the picture i m going to be straight out this dress is very flattering and will get you a lot of male atten tion so be warned \r\n\r\ni am a 34c and i got a size 2p it fit s tight but just right i hav e no trouble with the buttons at all i am 5 4 and it comes above my knee the material is ver y quality and seems as it will last a very long time i get complimented very often when i wear it this was a cute design but didn t work for me the fabric was slightly see through and too tight around the bust this blouse looks even better in person it fits true to size and is ligh tweight i am not a huge fan of designs on shirts and usually stick with solids but i find this design to be very flattering i just bought it today but i know i will get a lot of use out of i t it s beautiful lovely quality gorgeous bird but the fit just doesn t work for me i m usua lly a medium which is what i got it s just too tight in the chest for ref 36d as is it alrea dy flares out some in the bottom so i m not gonna bother w a larger size unfortunately i bought this dress as a birthday present to myself which i wore to a recent weekend vacation to dallas texas and i absolutely love it i love the color and the design of the dress as i think it is ti meless and i will get a lot of use out of it for years to come \r\nhowever this dress is tight in the chest area and i would recommend sizing up i am 5 10 156 pounds and usually wear a us size 6 but when i tried this dress on in a size 6 the dress stopped buttoning up underneath my bust i end cute and different\r\nlooks good belted\r\nwill try with lace leggings love color a nd fabric are beautiful new fav love i am 5 3 118lbs with short legs and a long torso i was worried these would be too long they fit to perfection super excited about this purchase tod ay was my first visit to our new store the sales person had this on and i liked the medium tone s of the colors many times i hesitate to order because i never know if the brand will run small and this does not if you wear a medium in michael kors shirts order medium i m not sure why i t s considered a blue motif i think it s more on the black and cream side other than that th is is a great silk top for warmer weather it s lightweight and airy and you ll probably want to wear a nude bra underneath looks great with jeans and heels for a fun night out as well as trou sers for work i m 5 7 and almost 130 lbs with a 34a bust and a small fit great i ve worn this top with leggings and straight leg jeans looks great with both it s almost like a t shirt but not as clingy and way more style i m 5 3 165 and the large fit great it hid my leftover baby belly and still looked stylish with flats or boots only complaintbis that the armholes are cut low so side of my bra is visible but overall it s well worth it love the crushed velvet and t ried it on in the regular sizing in blue but really needed the petite although i tried on the xs in the regular sizing i was afraid i d need my normal sp so i ordered that instead of the x sp should have stuck with the xsp and will be exchanging it for that size it definitely is dre ss length but dowdy dress length in the regular for me at 5 1 and the petite sizing is not al l that much shorter but enough to be cute expecting a lot of use especially over the i ordere d this sweater and it is beautiful i am returning though because it fits snug through chest shoulders and upper arms i am an xs and that is what i ordered and it was tight through these areas if you are busty it would be a definite problem this is a beautifully made jacket i end ed up buying the cream color as the yellow had sold out the cream goes with everything so that was probably the right decision the inside of the jacket has a silk lining with a scotty dog pa ttern the jacket fabric has just the right weight to hang properly without being too heavy lo ve this dress and the color runs small great quality haven t washed it yet but guessing it wi ll shrink if i dry it awesome texture waffle knit i got the stripe it has a removable palm t ree pin i love this dress i rarely pay full price at retailer and couldn t take the risk of lo osing this waiting for a sale i tried on two different size 4 and a 2 and they all fit the same a little large in the bust and the straps a tad long on the 4 s i typically can go between 2 an d 4 at retailer and with this dress the 2 was a better fit i m 34b and i had room in the bust on the 2 and the 4 was loose in the bust i did t have any gaping issues others commented about i d have given it 5 sta i tried this dress on in the store but decided to think about it because of price i ended up buying it later on line i usually wear a medium 5 7 128 lbs wide should ers but got a small in this dress it does run the risk of looking like a sack but sizing down did the trick the easy going loosness yet elegance is why i like it it is so comfy but looks l ucious i plan to wear it often this fall and christmas i saw this dress in the store and immed iately grabbed it i think that if i d only seen it online i wouldn t have looked at it twice i n person the fabric is so beautiful a shining and classy velvet crinkle that could go way way dressy with the right accessories this dress runs large like all of floreat s items i am 5 2

110 and normally wear an xs or 0 but had to size down to xxs petite for the right fit like on the model the only drawback is dry clean only based on the content of th nan i purchased all 4 of the color pattern offered all fit beautifully and have washed up great with no shrinkage w ith line dry the only pair i had retuned were the blue motif because they were made from a very different material with not near as much stretch and felt much smaller to me and not as comforta ble the pattern was cute and may work just fine with those who have a different build i felt t hese were in general true to size no doubt i will wear these all winter \nthanks antro i love the off the shoulder trend but don t like having to wear a strapless bra so this style caught my eye it is cute and different and people compliment me on it swingy but flattering and i got th e turquoise but i like it so much i just ordered another one in the black and white stripe this is a beautiful blouse very pretty and looks well made unfortunately i had to send it back i m looking for a more classic cut it has an a line tent shape when i put it on and put my arms ab ove my head the bottom of the blouse was up to my bra \ni would order from this brand again i have nothing but positive comments to say about this sweater i m 5 6 130 pounds and i got a me dium because my shoulders are a bit wide and my sweater fits me just as it does the model it s not bulky but it is very warm and the colors are out of this world a very high quality and unu sual piece that will be in my wardrobe for many years the blue color is sublime the material velvet iridescent cool the fit is loose and not something to wear to show off your figure but it is has a cool swingy boho vibe that was what i was expecting add a cool shirt jacket to e levate it and give it more structure this dress is very very flattering which i was a little su rprised about because i have a smaller chest it is pretty long coming to right around my knees and i love the buttons i would say that the quality is not 100 there it is very thin material but i am still very happy with it i really wish they made this dress in other colors because i would buy them in a heartbeat it is a perfect summer dress and i can t wait to wear it i love the color coral pink and the open shoulder design of this top but it s too blousy at the bott om way too much fabric i ordered a small i am 5 4 and 120 lbs i might try an xs if they st ill have them in stock fabric is comfortable the ties on the sleeves add a special touch even though i m currently at a 34f in the bust the size 12 works for me although i did install 2 sna ps between the top 3 buttons to keep everything in line i m 5 5 and my torso is often too shor t for regular sized clothes the straps were too long for me but to my delight i discovered tha t this particular dress is designed to unstitch and tailor the strap length with ease with thos e small alterations this dress fits like it was made for me plus the pattern and fabric are top notch i tried nan i 39 ve been eyeing this dress for weeks finally i took the plunge and boug ht it the velvet is gorgeous and the style is fun and playful i know many of the reviewers sai d it was running large but i had to order an xl because i nearly got stuck in the l no stretch im normally a size 16 and carry most of my weight in my stomach butt and hips definitely more o f a shift than a swing however its still just lovely looking forward to paring it with a kimon o for a wedding tomorrow i love the built in layers of this shirt it looks great layered with a long sleeved shirt underneath for winter also being a teen in the 90s it reminds me of a lit tle bit of grunge but in a less brooding more classy way if only i still had my doc martins i find the fit to be great slightly loose but not baggy and the fabric feels light but not fra gile great little dress for a picnic i am a 34dd and didn t have a problem buttoning the dress unlike another previous reviewer i had purchased a size 8 my only reason for return was the pr ice and my wallet otherwise this well made dress would still be in my closet love the buttons when i saw this dress online i immediately passed on it but i was drawn to it s faint shimmer and soft feel in the store and decided to try it on i am usually xs s in dresses and tried th e xs 5 4 34b 27 waist it fit beautifully it comes about a couple of inches above my knee a nd makes me look slim from the side which isn t typical of shift dresses i plan on wearing it with flats now and tights and booties when the weather gets cooler would be a great holiday or new years eve dress i tried the red version at store it fit really good and i loved it then i found the blue version online and liked even more it can be worn for business and casual love these leggings the color i haven t been able to find a pair of great brown leggings for years i was concerned the small might not fit but they are perfect i love this shirt the front is a little shorter than i thought it would be but overall it is so cute and comfy wish they had it in more colors bought this for the beautiful fabric and easy fit which it has fits nicely through the shoulder area and is a little on the baggy side in the legs but the draping fabric m akes up for that i bought it in petite small and it is definitely long enough for a dress love this shirt it runs a bit big i ordered the petite 4 and its a bit long in the sleeves if i d on t roll them up and a bit long and big in the back but i love the look and it is classic gr eat with skinny jeans i am not someone who normally wears overalls this is actually my first p air but i m so glad that i took the plunge and bought these they fit amazingly while being bo th perfectly trendy and perfectly timeless if you are on the fence about overalls in general t hese are a perfect first pair \r\n\r\ni m a 25 in most denim brands and was also a 25 in these the bottom portion fits perfectly and doesn t look sloppy like i assumed overalls would be at all the top is perfectly casual \r\n\r\ni m so ha i have been dreaming of the perfect overall that i can live in this spring summer these overalls completely fit the bill i would normally wear a size 24 but i wanted the fit to be more relaxed with a slight slouchy look i went with a a size 25 and they are exactly what i wanted i feel like i can move around feely in these th ey are extremely comfortable and the denim is pretty lightweight i highly recommend these a ve ry nice fall into winter tunic length is long enough to wear along line as a dress with tights and tall boots i found it true to size the color of slate blue is beautiful love these weari ng them today with a longer tunic style denim shirt and cardigan and boots nice subtle print i think they run about 1 size small i m normally a size 0 25 the xs was a bit snug and the mater ial stretched so you could see white around the seams where the print pulled size s fits great without any pulling and waistband comes up far enough incidentally i like them so much bought the same leggings in plain black elsewhere and the size s was the best fit in those too love lo ve i have a pair of elevenses very similar to the turquoise and grey pair and i get non stop co mpliments on them they are very flattering and drape beautifully the fabric is also complete n o fuss and no fade this time i went for the red pair and i love them they really go with the current upscale 70s vibe they have the 70s attitude without the poor quality of most vintage 70 s clothes i purchased this dress to wear to a horse race but will also be wearing it all summer long the material is light weight and has a vintage flare to the print the button in the cente r of the dress add an extra detail that keeps the dress pretty and casual the navy version of t hese pants are beautiful the contrast gray stripe is subtle and slimming and continues through details in the pockets \r\n\r\ni am 5 6 34 26 38 and i wore a size 4 regular and 4 petite the regulars were very long and even heels couldn t help them the pant leg covered my foot covere d my toes the petites were much better and i rarely order petite they hit the bottom of my f oot with no heels so i think a heel would make them look right i m just not sure if the petite the fabric is divine it s a thin polyester knit that just floats on your body it s soft and dr apes wonderfully it s like wearing a nightgown \r\n\r\nthe styling is so sexy it looks really alluring but it s actually just a plain ol tank top with a bit of a sleeve dangling at the elbo ws it s very modest really \r\n\r\nthe silly thing is it tickles yeah those dangling ties tic kle your arms when you move lol\r\n\r\ni bought the grey in a xl and the fit is perfect it say s dark grey but it s really l i love these pants they are a great addition to my work wardrob e the fit is very flattering with the wide legs falling perfectly and they are a great length i got the red which is a beautiful and brighter than the pics the fabric is a nice weight per fect for fl winters i personally like the mid rise as it helps with tucking in shirts that are on the shorter side i highly recommend these pants as a nice alternative in color and cut for t he office i m 5 7 and 135lbs and i purchased the awesomely different top the first time i wor e it i didn t wash it so it was big on me it shrunk from washing so it fits better now there i s some unraveling of the frayed edges though i like this on the model so i ordered it it is no t quite as deep in color as online but still pretty it fits well not too loose and not tight at all i will get great use out of this all the way through spring love this dress i sized up f rom a 6 to an 8 because of the small bust issue and it fits perfect perfect casual summer dres s with a vintage feel i thought i would take a chance even though reviews suggested tricky sizi ng issues unfortunately it s true it was very tight at the waist and bust even though i sized up to a size 8 i took it back to the store saw this at the store and it is breathtaking in per son as the previous reviewer stated i too consider this a dress and not a tunic and it s not really crinkled either the dress is structured very soft and so gorgeous on i tried on a reg ular x small and it fit but a bit uncomfortable at the mid section the small fit better it s m eant to be a bit loose bohemian looking and the hem falls right at my knees which is perfect f or the office i m 5 2 34b 26 waist 36 hips i have medium o i just received this and absol utely love it i love cold shoulder designs and this one is unique and so well made i am usu ally a size small and it fit perfectly i would say it runs true to size and will look perfect w ith white or black pants and a cute sandal i am so glad i got it love the quality i was a bi t unsure when ordering because of the cut of this blouse i have a lean athletic torso but i am a 32dd sometimes tops like this can make me look heavy or pregnant love the fit though it fit s lovely and comfy it goes well with jeans or cream colored pants and will be a nice addition t o my spring wardrobe love this dress i ordered the blue for some color and it is nicer in per son than in the photo the fabric and color are beautiful can dress this up or wear for work i am 5 110 lbs and 35 26 35 and got the size xs petite it is a loose fit but not too loose ver y unique dress that i can wear all fall and winter super cute retro styling and i adore the pat tern however i had some fit issues that were worth noting i tried the standard 6 on at my local store but the bodice was so tight on my 34 b chest i was determined to get this lovely summer f rock and had the sa order an 8p to be shipped to me i m currently taking my 8p for a spin today but only after some alterations even through the dress was quite large in the bust there was s till the dreaded button gaping so i added 2 snaps in between some of t you have to give this dre ss a try yes it runs small i m usually a 4 in retailer dresses 32dd 5 5 130lb i could n t button the top button with my bra on but i could without it on it fit perfect every where else it is very flattering in every way it s 100 cotton lightweight and soft the flare doe s not have too much fabric and is actually slimming unlike other fit and flare dresses the sz 6 fit more comfortable and i could wear my bra which looked better and gave my breasts a lift this is very cute i got a lot of compliments when i wore it i m 5 10 so i always struggle with tops being too short but this was ok cute shirt i m 5 3 and 120 lbs size s fits perfectly a littl e shorter in the back than i d like but great for layering i got a m in this top and was a litt le scared but i absolutly love this top i was debating on it and then caught it on the 30 off sale my first retailer purchase and it definitely won t be my last great quality so comfortab le and very cute this is the perfect dress to wear casual or dress up a bit perfect for fall and super comfy i love this dress it is a fun and flirty summer dress i think it can be dress ed up or worn casually i am a 36c 29 waist 40 hips i bought a size 8 and it fits me great as others said it is a little snug across the chest but i think it is supposed to be with the proper bra it fits very comfortably i am going to wear it for mother s day brunch this piece i s a winner solely b c of the sleeves otherwise it s a plain large tee however the sleeves a re gorgeous and so unique had they had my size left i would have purchased in other colors i got pink it runs large so size down absolutely love the diagonal zipper it is extremely fla ttering for the office and comfortable a great layering piece with a simple blazer or alone looks high quality my only one minor complaint is that the bottom tends to move away from my bo dy as the top is wide on the bottom hence gives you a lot of leeway in the stomach area may not be a good thing or may be a good thing still overall a keeper rec d so many compliments on this absolutely beautiful comfortable and versatile try it with white crops and cute hee ls i got this on sale i sized up from my normal 10 to a 12 based on reviews the 12 is too lar ge for me and i d need a 10 which is sold out the straps are very long i think even if i sized down i d have to have them altered also the dress i got is missing the bottom button sending back i m not too sad i ordered the pink pippa swing dress with the same order and love it i h ave featured two pictures below one is size s the other is xs petite i m 5 feet 120 and a 34 d i highly recommend this dress i definitely could have gone either way but felt sizing down would be more flattering i actually love the thickness of the cotton fabric on this top i am t ired of too thin shirts that develop holes right away i love the color too i am usually a mediu m and the medium fits well if a little roomy i love these jeans their fit is fabulous and the y are very comfortable my new favorite brand of jeans i love this dress it fits perfect i m 5 3 108 and ordered xs i think the off white stone color is true to the picture i will be wear ing this dress as my wedding dress for our small intimidate wedding i can t wait i just receiv ed this in the mail today and i love it its adorable very flattering and hides all the spots y ou d want hidden i don t find that this runs too large i ordered my usual size large and it fi ts tts it s not meant to fit snug i ordered this in the navy color beautiful and flattering love the detail quality of make and fabric comfort i ve been looking for a top like this e xpect that it will wash fine it s not see through and i always wear a nude bra got xs in whi te and it fits well not too loose and billowy i m 5 2 115 highly recommend this jacket i s just as stunning in person as online high quality and just overall fabulous design as much a s i loved it though i couldn t get over the fact i was jingling every time i moved it seemed li ke it could cause piling issues and i thought it might get annoying wearing for an entire day i loved this and wanted so hard to keep it but i need functional chic pieces not noise makers any ways fit was great looked just like the model on me so i would recommend but with caution as for this loved this online and it did not disappoint lightweight and super flattering fabric is sh eer with a lovely windowpane pattern top front of the bodice is lined looks great with a pair of jeans super easy to care for toss in washer in a mesh bag and it comes our perfectly will likely be a go to summer piece the design and fabric on this suit are even more gorgeous in per son than on line i am 5 4 and between 138 140 and ordered a medium the thing i especially lik e about this suit is that it has adequate cup size and support i am a 36c or d depending on the bra and this suit is very flattering and provides nice coverage and cup support the straps can be shortened if you want a little more bust support the material and design of the suit itself feel substantial and even without the straps it do love this top very flattering on an hour gl ass figure because even though it has a more of an empire waist it is not so volumous as to over whelm the figure as so many retailer tops are these days one caution i had to go up a size t o accommodate my bust normally a size 6 or small in retailer tops but a 34dd so went up to a size 8 the top is more snug around the bustline so just be warned if you are well endowed \r \nthe fabric is sheer but not overly so embroidery is well done over all a b the ruching on th is suit is super flattering i ordered the medium i am 5 6 150 lbs and usually a solid m edium in most retailer items though i would definitely recommend sizing up with this guy i was able to get it on and it certainly held everything in place but since it is a one piece pulling it on was a bit of a struggle and i certainly could have used about an inch more fabric from top to bottom i will be returning and exchanging for a large i was really excited to get these pants but was somewhat disappointed when i received them the fabric and color are great b ut i was expecting a more traditional cut after examining the ones shown on the model i need to size down on boyfriend cut jeans and i would have initially but the description doesn t say an ything and the model doesn t look like she s wearing a boyfriend cut so i didn t now the size i need is unavailable so i am returning these sigh i so wanted to keep them i fell in love wi th this dress when the catalog came in the mail and jumped online immediately to order it the d ress just arrived and is not as pictured in the catalog the picture of the model walking on th e beach in that picture it appears to have black lining or a black slip underneath when in real ity there is nude lining sewn into every edge and isn t going anywhere for a minute i thought about having it removed by a tailor but it seems the entire dress would have to be re sewn some of i loved this dress i kept putting it on trying to figure out how to get my boobs to not fall out all over the place this is not a dress for larger breasts it is absolutely beautiful other wise these pants are beautiful and very comfortable i am 5 3 and 120 ordered an extra small i had to hem them because they are extremely long otherwise the fit is great i love this dress i think it will be awesome to wear this summer but also a great transition piece into fall very boho this is a nice dress but i m glad i tried it on in the store not for women with bigger b reasts i m 36d and size 10 didn t fit me on top lace part was too short to cover the whole are a other than that color is great i purchased these pants once i saw them go on sale i had se en them a little while back but with summer coming to an end i didn t want to spend 88 for a p ant a wouldn t wear often the 49 plus 20 off is a great price they are really cute and just as pictured good quality too however they were at least 3 inches too long i am 110lbs 5 3 and ordered the xs like i always do they fit perfectly except for the length worth the 20 to get hemmed these pants are nothing short of amazing they have a great wide leg with plenty of beautiful flow to them i am 6 months pregnant and can wear them under my bump but they are by no means maternity pants i have only gained 8 lbs they have a nice silky material that will b e great for hot summer weather and will be great comfortable travel pants the only downfall is the length i am 5 6 with long legs and will have to get 2 3 inches chopped off i have 2 of th ese now by the same designer it s comfortable and will be a staple in my closet for summer ear ly fall and spring it is a little on the long end but with platform heels it s perfect i noti ced the reddish one actually barney purple in my local store and had to try it one since i l ike this cut of dresses from my teenage years the color was my main concern but this proved pe rfect overall it is low cut in the bust but a scarf can fix it for us modest girls there were quite a few loose threads on the lace and stiching that i had to trim off for the reference i am 5 4 120 lbs and an xs was perfect very cute shirt but the white is see through i could see every detail on my bra i returned for the pink which is just as cute i felt comfortable w earing this to a party easy to wear and accessorize\r\n i love these pants saw them in store couldn t do it at full price but they re a steal on sale super soft comfy love the wide leg fits true to size i m 5 2 125 lbs ordered the xs bc no petite waistband fits a bit tight bu t i prefer that to them slipping down would buy again only thing is the fit is a little loose so i wish the xxs petite wasn t sold out or that there was a xxs at 115 lbs i tried on e xs regular that made the skirt a maxi on me 5 1 5 and it was nice but a bit loose i would hav e worn it as a sexy strapless i tried it just not daring enough to actually wear it like that so i ordered the xs petite we shall see \r\n\r\nthe navy and beige is a nice classy combo i co uld see it being pulled off in all seasons depending how you pair it while the blue color pict ured is stunning i purchased the white poplin in store two best features the ruffle on the ne ckline continues across the back and dips into a small v a great detail especially for shor t or swept up hair during summer months next this white fabric s crisp finish is coupled with a just right weight solid enough to be opaque but light enough for warm days plan to pair it with skinny jeans throughout spring and summer thrilled this skirt is really cute it s bod y conscious but not tight the material is soft and stretchy making it flattering and comfy wh ile it s smooth in the back the draping in the front could hide tummy issues as another review er said you can dress this skirt up or down i typically wear a s 4 in bottoms at retailer and the s fit tts also i love the different take on the high low hem you will need to get these p ants hemmed if you are not six foot tall as they are quite long but they are so cute that the extra alteration expense is worth it imagine wearing pants that feel like pajamas but that loo k like a million bucks is this not every woman s fashion fantasy nan i really love this top but am afraid i may need to return it because the fabric is so delicate that little snags began to show up within hours of wearing it and they show really badly as black spots because the fabric is made with light and dark delicate threads it feels so good on though you must be super careful with it i have no idea how the little snags even got there yep absolutely tickled to death with this top light airy cotton poplin with personality plus such an aesthetically pleasing piece i haven t been this pleased with an article of clothing in some time this blouse speaks to me i am 5 5 142 lbs and the size eight was a tad large might have gotten a six but this is fine it is very blousy on the bottom but when it speaks to me it says belt or tuck anyway the neckline is just too much it gives such personality to the piece the open ne i was so excited when these pants went on sale tried them on in store and ordered online tried both medium and small and they both work thanks to the elastic waistline they do run very long so if you re super tall these are great otherwise prepare to wear very tall heels or get them hemmed if you know the meghan trainor song and who doesn t you ll know what i mean i could tell by the photos online that this skirt would enhance curves and i am fine with that however it is very snug in the rear i can honestly say i had made it to my 40s without ever once wondering or worrying does my butt look big in this that is until i tried on this skirt however i chose to keep it since we were going to hawaii soon and i decided it would be fine as a casual skirt and cover up i i love this dress good for work or social occasions flowy fabric and not boxy the length is perfect not too short i can t wait to wear it picture is accurate as to color the pants are everything i expected and much more the material is a delicious and light weight the colors are beautiful white base with jade green and black design there is a very comfortable elastic band waist with tie i am 5 9 and ordered the longer length and they are just to the ground i weigh 140 and have a slim figure and the medium is a very comfortable fit i would highly recommend these if you like looks that are up to date and comfy these are a win win i really love these pants as loungers not sure i would wear them outside the house because the legs are very wide yes the elastic has the problem that others have mentioned but i just hold it in place when i pull them on and it stays put but the fabric is so soft that i put them on every night after work and sometimes don t take them off before bed pockets are a nice touch something i have come to love about retailer pants i tried this skirt on in the store it fit like a glove that doesn t happen very often for me but couldn t find the right top to pair w it so i passed on it but when i got home i found the perfect top already in my closet so i ordered it online it doesn t seem to lay quite as nice as the one i tried on in the store but i m keeping it regardless highly recommended this skirt fits tts never spent this much on a dress so it needs to be amazing for me to keep it i ve never seen flannel patterns and colors like this the details in the back are unique but in the end i decided to return because it s too long and although it fit fine in a size large it didn t look that great on me the dress has an exaggerated drop waist that was too low for my short waisted frame the fabric smells odd i tried belting it but the pockets and back buttons created bulk if you are like me and your shoulders are broader than your hips the boat neck on this won t be too wide on you \n \ni am normally a m or l in retailer tops and went with the m and i have very large biceps if you re broad shouldered but have smaller arms i would recommended sizing down a size \n \ni have a very long torso and didn t find this to be too short but i love jeans with a 10 rise if you are going to pair this with low or medium 8 5 rise jeans then yes you will i fell in love with this top on the spot and paid full price for it which is a rarity since everything goes on sale it s a beautify top well made and sits well on me i am 5 6 usually wear a size 10 but got away with an 8 in this one i do have short torso so i can see it having a problem for someone with long torso or someone who s tall what s even better is that it went on sale and the store was nice enough to give me the difference back i m thinking about getting the other two colors i do love these pants but they are way too long for me and will have to return them the petite sizes are sold out it is true that the elastic in the waistband is not attached to the waistband fabric and does get twisted when you put the pants on however to me that is not a show stopper sorry i cannot keep them i do love retailer and will continue shopping with you this dress was a maybe for me online but when i tried it on i was totally won over i got the raspberry which is a really pretty color i have 34dd chest and it fits nicely on me fairly true to size and is super flattering on me more so than most swing dresses love it i love flowy pants like these pattern looks different the green is pale like on the far right smocking is a beautiful touch and they are a nice weight and well made had to hem them up about 2 and i m 5 8 about 180 xl fits perfectly really cute skirt found it to be too much material on my frame 5 4 would look really great on someone taller the tie in the front was pretty but a bit bulky on me and ultimately i want a skirt i can wear both ways with shirts tucked in or out this one is tuck in only so sending back will look really great on someone else though nice knee length skirt very cute adorable shape tank top but extremely huge \r\n does not come in petite and is not even close to fitting me \r\n extra small is like a medium \r\n not a sky color lik e the picture it is a black and white type of the shirt which needs a thin camisole underneath shirt is definitely white but would look great with the black or gray camisole underneath \r\n b etter for taller larger sized people love the colors i m 5 2 and the regular goes down to my ankles like a petite dress would normally if you get petite it would be as high as it is on th e model the material is comfortable and i can see this as a pretty versatile piece i am 5 7 a nd wanted a swing type of dress that wasn t too short to be too young or too long to look frumpy and this fits perfect it s very comfortable it has nice quality in the fabric not all polye ster like many of the swing dresses out now \r\n\r\nit s a bit longer in the back and has a ver y ethereal quality without being childlike it s pretty the sleeves are long enough and the ela stic fits well no pinching i can wear a full bra with it and both boots and super sexy heels l ook great wi this skirt looks very nice in person and it hugs one s cure beautifully the hem is uneven which makes it more interesting i am 5 2 120lbs tried it in the navy beige color in s ize s and size xs and i found size xs fits better the fabric is soft and stretchy and it drap es well because i am petite the length of the normal size fits me more like a maxi skirt it g oes all the way down to my mid calf unfortunately the petite xs is sold out so i have to set tle with the normal size xs sti i purchased this dress in the berry color it is beautiful and feminine the length fit just like in the picture i love all the detail and ease of this dress i m 5 2 34d and purchased a size 2 it fits true to size this is a gorgeous dress with a great boho styling the color in person is exactly as it s shown it is wearable all throughout the ye ar easily paired with boots or sandals while the fit is true to size i found the lace detail ing has no stretch to it so the bodice is a little tight i love this dress and can t wait to we ay off my soapbox and thanks for the free shipping weekend \n\nraspberry is quite beautiful truly as pictured the lacework should be more resilient than many the shape is reigned in by t he bodice not elastic btw and the love this top looks really cute with a pair of high waist j eans it is a nice thick cotton fabric that does not stretch out after wearing it is short so for me the high waist pants were a must but if you don t mind showing your belly then it would be cute with anything the boat neck collar is not so wide that it shows your bra straps as with some overall it was a good fit i loved these online and am even more in love since receiving t hem in the mail the band on top is a great touch for these flowy pants i m 5 9 and they are st ill a little long but other than that they are perfect i bought these yesterday and i love the m they are super comfortable and are the perfect length and size i m 5 8 and 150 i tried on both the small and medium small for kicks but turns out they were a better fit the medium f it great too albeit a little baggy on the thigh these are now my go to pants for summer and tr avel i can t wait to start wearing them this is so comfortable and so flattering i got it in two colors i think it runs tts i sized up so i could wear it lower on my hips i m 5 2 and go t the regular size rather than petite and it s more of a maxi skirt on me way longer than on th e model this is what i wanted i can never find maxi skirts that aren t way too long even when i try petite but if you want it more midi go for petite sizing personally i love cloth and s tone this top however sheer is still a nice top to have in my rotation it is thin lightweig ht and sheer but with a cami or nude bra can be pulled off nicely i did find the top to be tt s for me but the sleeves were snug i purchased this on sale with extra 30 percent off so i was justified in getting it i am 5 2 110 lbs and i ordered my usual size xs and they fit perfect ly they are so soft and comfortable and keep me very warm i can t wait to take them with me wh en we go to the snow next month it s lightweight which is perfect for summer officewear when i don t want bare arms my fear with buying any white shirt is that it will be too sheer this shi rt is sheer but not as much as most in part due to the pattern that camouflages any sheer ness i don t find it to be see through when wearing a nude colored bra that matches my skintone exact ly i ve worn it to work with a nude bra and it was a great transition shirt between the office and happy hour i went a size up to a small becaus this top is really cute the plum is a lovely color and the top fits true to size love the back detailing and it is really good t shirt qual ity i absolutely adore this top it is super soft i purchased it in the wine color i would re commend this for anyone if they have other colors i plan on buying them i am going to wear thi s with jeans and my furry vest in the fall winter this is a lovely dress but much more casual than i thought from the picture the material is very thin and casual i needed a dressier dress and i didn t need another casual dress so i sent it back but it would be fine if you want some thing casual i bought this dress on clearance and think it will be cute next summer on a super hot day with ballet flats i have no idea what it s doing in the fall collection am looking for ward to wearing it 10 months from now this dress had my attention immediately online but in p erson it was even prettier i would not say the colors are very pink as the color selection in dicates rather browns with possible pink undertones and yellows and even a splash of dark gr een in the print here and there there isn t a ton of give or stretch to the fabric so a larger chest may need to size up i am 5 5 135lbs 34c curvy muscular frame and the size 4 fit just right though i don t have a ton of extra room in the chest yes it is thin but a great summer bl ouse the body runs true to size but the sleeves are tight i may try to size up so the sleeves can be more comfortable love these soft cozy leggings fit like a glove perfect for weekends lounging sleeping during cold winter weather want more of the same i am very happy with this shirt i don t like skin tight clothes i bought this top a bit loose but it does not look like i am wearing a sack it is tunic length on me so i have worn it with jeans and boots i love the way it flows while i walk very flattering on would definitely recommend i bought this for our daughter i tried it on when it arrived and the material is fabulous and feels soooo good agains t the skin the purple is a stunning color very subdued and classy if she does not like it on christmas after gifts are opened guess who is going to keep it for herself if she loves it as much as i think she will then i ll just have to get one for myself the pleats in the back are very flattering best of all is the fabric it is luxurious thank you retailer for yet another amazing they are like those cozy wool socks they are true to size they don t stretch out at least yet even after i stretched etc i am going to get another pair since i envision wearin g these often in the cold house very pleased with this top i got the blue and white first and now i m getting the red and white the material is comfy and not sheer and the slits at the sid e and the zipper in back add extra style i love this comfy top and if it couldn t get any bett er the pleated back makes it extra special it is easy to thrown on and still feel put together i purchased this top in the green and i m absolutely enthralled by the rich color i do agree th at the quality of the pleats could be slightly better however i believe it s up to par with the price point i typically wear an xs xsp and ultimately decided to go with a small for a more ove rsized tunic top look but otherwise i d go for your normal i love this top i think the knit ri b quality is quite lovely and the color is gorgeous i bought the plum color and got many compli ments while wearing it i like that it s a little on the longer side i wore it with my pull on ponte pants and booties very cute never want to take this tee off so comfy neutral ecru stripe with a teeny bit sparklecolor is superb goes with a ton of items from my own closets n eed more in every color print stripe just feels ooh soooo good i bought the black one on a n extra 40 off sale and i just love it not thrilled about the other colors but i might order another one just because i like it so much super soft and comfy i had to order a size up since the mediums were all sold out but i like the way it fits not too big at all this is a great l ce i paid for them because normally i don t like to spend so much on leggings i love this shirt and the colors it brings out this shirt makes a great statement it can be worn with jeans and look great or worn with slacks i great a lot of compliments this fits a little short on me and i ll have to wear a shirt underneath even with a high waist pant i still adore it get it for t he price very nice long sleeved shirt the fabric is soft and warm you can wear it on its own or easily compliment with a jacket love it material is soft and color goes will with any colo r i couldn t be happier with this top it is very flattering and not at all shapeless as sugges ted by another reviewer least not on me yes the materiel is somewhat thin but it is advertise d to be a tee shirt type material that is why it feels so comfortable on with nice stretch and softness i love the pleated back giving it neat detail and a added feminine touch i ordered t he dark purple color and it looks just like in the photo \nthanks retailer this blouse fits true to size i carry alot of weight in my mid section and this blouse easily covers and hides m y mid section where i m not having to tug or pull down i have this blouse in the olive green in xl and it fits perfect i wore this on christmas with my family this color is really cool becau se it can go with black grey or tan shoes the back pleats are unique and do not add bulk the back is also lined so you don t need a tank fits tts and i thought it was fairly flattering o n sale this is a great deal love this dress very flattering fit though it runs big i usuall y wear a s m and got an xs in this dress the only concern is the fabric is thin but love it no netheless a comfortable shirt that has a touch of dressy to it this dress is very versatile it will be cool and comfortable in the summer but one could also wear it with leggings or skinn y jeans in the winter with a sweater or jacket it can be worn casually with a belt or dressed up with a statement necklace and earrings for a night out the black color is more like a charco al grey which suits me fine grab it while you can it s a good deal for the current sale on s ale price this t shirt is huge i am 5 tall size xs and i am swimming in this xs i m trying a size down it is meant to be oversized but this is extreme i loved the delicate and feminine print of this blouse at first sight the fit was perfect just enough room to be flattering and comfortable without adding any unnecessary bulk the style and print could even be paired with a more classic skirt and pumps and go to the office the length was also spot on it s not too long to be a tunic yet long enough to wear with skinny jeans or even leggings on an errand runn ing day the blouse is very lightweight and sheer making it that much more comfo my husband bou ght me this set for christmas and it was hands down my favorite gift these leggings let me tel e the top flares some but not over whelming or maternity like plenty of room on my s i really love this camisole but it s shorter than i expected when i saw this skirt on line i wasn t im pressed especially at the price but then i saw it in the store and i had to have it it s beau tiful definitely a colder weather skirt due to the nice weight of the fabric the colors are lo vely and subtle with a little sheen ensuring you can wear it with many tops and for many occas ions from everyday to dressier length is just at the bottom of the knee for me 5 7 with a flattering and comfortable cut purchased for myself and loved the fabric and unique design it runs very large and the size smaller was not available so it was returned i purchased this jack et in red i have several boiled wool jackets from retailer and this one did not disappoint it is very warm and appears to be high quality it looks good both snapped and open i do believe t hat it runs large i settled on an xxs petite and am just under 5 4 i had to order on line so popular that my store had sold out i ordered the cranberry colored jacket and love the color fortunately the salesperson talked me into a small as it runs fairly big i m usually a true med t for cool fall days i just purchased this sweater but have not worn it yet as it is still ver y hot in the va dc area the print is super cute in person it reminds me of a missoni knit patt ern the color is described as gray motif but it s really more greens and browns very fall col ors the sweater is soft and comfortable the knit is fine not chunky and doesn t add bulk it is fitted through the chest with an empire waist and flowing over your stomach and hip area won derfully forgiving of any extra bulges you just not my style it is light and the color is lovel y and summery but the cut of the sweater just did not work at all for me and it wasn t overly soft though that wouldn t have mattered if it fit me better this dress is beautiful lovely c olors and design but it s huuuge i m usually a s m in tops and dresses but i got an xs after trying it on in the store i m busty and have hips and still have a bit of room the length is g ood a little above the knee but still work appropriate with my curves it s not my most flatter ing dress since it pretty much falls straight down but i think it s too pretty not to keep my preference is clothing made of natural fibers but i couldn t resist trying this on once i felt it the cut out pattern in the fabric the color the buttons the design of the back all add to make a dress i m going to wear with leather flip flops during the day or wedges a denim jac o ordering petite the red color is like a wine color very nice i also ordered green to see th e color in person i am not sure which i will keep can be worn with anything really jeans pa nts or skirts or dresses this sweater is so well made and uniquely designed one of the main reasons i love retailer is for how toy make wool sweaters timeless affordable and versatile \n\nworth the money this is a simple design but feminine and dressy enough for a summer weddin g this dress is great for hourglass shapes but it does not hide your features love the dress but ended up returning it as i m not sure how often i would wear it the only down fall is the d ress is straight so you have to take smaller steps but stunning dress i wore this top recentl y and received several compliments it s a great top with the off the shoulder trend plus you c an wear a normal bra underneath runs large so i recommend one size down i got this cute tunic in store in the coral color during a 25 off sale items promotion it s a fun quirky piece with mixed fabrics and can be worn alone with leggings or layered with a jacket skinny jeans and bo ots a versatile piece it does have a few issues i found he armhole to be slightly large on my petite frame even in the xs not a deal breaker but a bit of a pet peeve for me i ll probably end up wearing cami under it most of the time since the top knit portion is a somewhat loo one in every fifteen items of retailer clothing fits this jacket is one easy to grab and keep chil elt a little boxy over the middle section my six year old son said that it was the most beautif ul dress he had ever seen buy this i saw this dress online and fell in love with it it is jus t as beautiful in person too very delicate but receive so many compliments every time i wear it is two separate pieces a slip dress and the overlying fringe dress i am 5 4 and need a 2 i nch wedge heel to keep the bottom from dragging probably could have tried to order the petite b ut figured i d probably be wearing heals anyway i normally wear a 6 8 in dresses and the medium fit perfectly and is so flattering the top half is flow i am 5 1 and 120lb with curves and mus ss made me look tall and lithe i took the xs petite because the xs the fringe was too long on t he bottom there is plenty of blouse on the top to accommodate the girls and you can pull the dress up or down to make it more blousy or more of a fitted column dress to your preference it s more of an antique ivory color and beautiful with gold or silver sandals i had to have this j acket looks much better in person i bought the navy color the fit is great it has a flowy bo ttom and is unstructured i wear a dark navy t shirt or cami underneath great with jeans and ov er the knee boots or booties its a bit heavy and bulky to wear under a coat this dress is so u nique and is high quality it came nicely packaged and unfolded with no wrinkles i bought it as a cool summer dress for events and it fits the bill i wore it once and received many compl iments the only issue is that you cannot take even medium size steps wearing this dress a sid e slit would have solved the problem but that would not have deterred me from buying it the st raps for the slip underneath are great so that i could adjust it so my bra would not show i al most didn t try this dress i walked by it a few times and am so glad i gave it a try the fit i s amazing so flattering the color and material for fall is perfect it looks great with bootie s and heels i bought this online in dark green after trying on the burgundy i usually wear a m edium 5 2 120 but i looked better in the small in this jacket the combination of very deep green black and tan is beautiful the cut is very flattering with the jacket open or snapped cl osed it is nice enough to wear with black pants or skirt but looks just as good with jeans i a m in my 60 s and this look is chic and fresh without being too young for my age it s also ver y well made i love it beautiful dress flowing but not too much volume not too short but not dowdy gorgeous deep jade color with chartreuse accents flattering waist not sure why the mode l is covering that part up but it s a nice waist with a tie belt i think it looks really smas hing in person not too formal perfect for a daytime event like a bridal shower what a cute sw ing sweater and so easy to layer this jacket looks great snapped or left open and the collar an d hood leave such a soft look around your neck this has such great elements of cozy and warmth just in time for cool weather this dress is gorgeous with fine detailing and even though i m c otos i m 5 8 32dd i usually wear a 6 and the small is great my only complaint is that th e bottom of the skirt around the ankles is super tiny and i feel like i have to take itty bitty steps it s a bit off putting not to be free to stride normally i recommend the dress but you may consider like i am having a professional add this dress is amazing the color is a little darker then what s pictured but the dress is great very delicate you have to be careful how y ou handle it i saw this dress online and purchased to see how it felt on i love the material a nd its quality it did run a little big i usually wear a medium in most retailer clothing but sized down per other reviews the dress is beautiful and look forward to wearing through fall an d winter but just wish it tapered a little more from the waist down i bought this with the inte ntion of taking it on a very warm trip and i think it ll do just fine it s a wonderful open g auge knit delicate and light but substantial enough that i don t fear snagging it constantly the cloth has a nice weight and drape and while the fit is on the loose side it does look inte ntional wonderful as a pullover or by itself i have the minty blue green color and it s divin e definitely worth the price 5ft 6inches\r\n135lbs\r\nshort waisted small bust 30dd \r\n the color is more watermelon pink than that slightly orangey tone that s shown on the website i or dered a six petite because i wanted it to be kneelength the four petite also fit but was a lit tle constricted in the bust the dress is weightless 100 silk i agree with the other reviewer about the bust of this dress it s probably not great for large chests because of the ruffles i love this jacket something to get cozy in on cool california winter nights and still light eno ugh to wear open and walk around without getting too hot i am 5 3 and have a medium frame but 34 dd on top i bought a medium because i hate things to be tight around my chest and this is p erfect my only disappointment is that i wish it had pockets i got the wine color and it is ver y beautiful wonderful unique and comfortable jacket i do recommend it this is a beautiful sw eater it s very lightweight and sheer so best to wear a tank or camisole underneath also bet ter for warmer months i ordered the light aqua color and it s lovely i sized down in this and it fit perfectly i normally opt for petite in skirts but i stuck to regular for this skirt and it was much more flattering adorable and well made tried this on yesterday in the fitting roo m and i really wanted to get it but two problems 1 not made for c cup bra women or larger and 2 the ruffles come right out of the nipple line area of the chest so when you see yourself at a profile view there s these ruffles that look like they re coming out of your chest just sayi ctly without being too tight i ve gotten a lot of compliments on it i just got this dress and am so excited to have it hanging in my closet i ve been eyeing it for a long time and am glad i got it on sale i felt like a greek goddess when i tried this on and cannot wait to wear it it fits like it was made just for me the outer material is a little heavier than expected but it n ing shee this is the most comfortable sweet beautiful romantic and timeless dress i bought t he green motif one is sz 14 and it fits perfectly i am smaller chested usually a 12 medium lar ge up top depending on the item and a sz 14 xl 33 for pants so perhaps this dress runs one size small the color in the detail shot is most accurate it s bright cheerful and dreamy this i s truly a beautiful dress the delicate fringe like fabric throughout makes it unique and and th e column silhouette with slight blouse like top is elegant perfect for summer with comfortable stretchy slip that comes with the dress the material on the waist line stretches and is very co y size down i just bought this and tried it on on a whim and am so happy i did it s so much m ore flattering on than this photo depicts i think it ll be one of my summer staples this year give it a try i tried this in the store a few weeks ago when it just came out because i loved t he neutral design and look of it and came back the following week to purchase it with my discoun t code because it really is worth it \r\n \r\npros \r\n true a line silhouette if you have curves and hips like i do 5 9 36c hourglass 165 lbs then this skirt will flatter you completely there s a lovely swing to the dress and it drapes wonderfully because it s a thicker fabric \r\n runs tts i can normally wear oh how i love this dress i was pleasantly surprised at the texture of the fabric it is a wonderful feel of cotton and not that poly that sticks to your fingers it fits like a dream true to size romantic and flirty i can see this with co wboy boots and hat as well as with evening sandals the possibilities are limitless i am so ha ppy i was finally able to snag one up as a return because it sold out just love it i also plan to wear it in the fall with a jean jacket it is a winter whit i don t care because i like be it so much but make no mistake it is not black but rather a dark navy however please don t let this fall negatively on your decision to buy it it s fabulous this sweater is the best sweater to throw on over a buttoned blouse t shirts long sleeves tanks i always get comments on how comfortable and adorable this sweater is a worthwhile buy if you know one september and you kn ow what s good for you then size the heck down maybe even two sizes if your particularly slim or want the dress to fit tighter any way this dress is simply scrumptious the embroidery at t he bodice is so detailed and pretty the layers are light and soft like silk but it s rayon pol y and the sleeves are sheer and voluminous i actually prefer the sleeves rolled up because the y are too long neckline features a slit v with two hooks to close if wanted co this jacket is sweet and swingy and showing an early sixties vibe that i adore a bit cropped and wide so defin itely size down so your proportions don t look off i took my medium and it was way too wide and unflattering so i switched to a sp looks and feels great with layers these run tiny i wear a 25 26 in pants and took a medium in this bottom and i m still not completely comfortable with th e fit love the floral print but with a bottom this small you don t really see much of the flow kind of a retro look but more modern and updated very happy with my purchase such a pretty sk irt i think it s a very versatile piece a bit heavier can t wait to wear when it cools down m ore i saw the dress that is similar to the skirt in the catalog last month and loved it too no te the skirt does not have the same shine in the fabric that the dress does this is one of my n ew favorite dresses i ordered this in pink and think it looks even more gorgeous in person th at it does on the model it s more of a reddish color the dress hugs my body in a flattering wa y i m a 34b and the dress fits very comfortably but it might be a tight fit for someone with a larger bust i m usually a small for retailer dresses and the small fit like a glove it is wond erfully flowy and extremely elegant i can t wait to wear this out this dress can be flatterin g on any figure type but especially for women who need a little curve i always wear a 6 in hd and this fits nice and snug around the middle with a becoming flirty skirt that is lower in the back than front flat chested women will have to fill it out with a padded bra it may not be a great cut for a short person as it has a long line to it and lots of busy ness only drawback which depends on your taste is the yellow pattern it s a weird kind of greeny yellow i ordere d the red color it is really good quality the brownish accents with the burgundy is beautiful and different unfortunately i found it to run very large my normal size fit like a tent and i had to return this tunic is comfortable and casual it is as pictured and flattering the two materials make it flattering i ordered the white and it is see through it really does need a camisole which i found a little distracting given the fact that it is already layered i which i had ordered another color because it is cute this was such an impulse buy i bought it onlin e during a sweater sale and i am so glad i did this is definitely one of my favorite recent pu rchases it definitely seems more like a coat than a sweater but it is lightweight i ordered t he red and it is beautiful it looks great buttoned or left open and i think this could be dress ed up or down though it does have a hood so that gives it a slightly more casual feel it fit s true to size and it is definitely shorter in the front than the ba tried on a size 2 regular and it fit well felt incredibly soft and airy and is handwashable i m 5 2 currently 33 25 3 7 or 38 with narrow shoulders and torso somewhat long waisted but petite from bust to shoulder s i often wear a size 0p or 0 in retailer dresses and tops the arm holes were a tiny bit low but not terrible a petite would have been shorter but also more of an empire waist the pink r eally is more of a red like the online photo great color i tried this dress on in the store an d it fit pretty much perfectly in all the right areas except that the top of the zipper puckered away from my body and didn t lay flat it just kept poking my arm i tried it in a smaller size to see if that was the issue but i encountered the same issue too bad as it was otherwise lov ely and felt very comfortable \r\n\r\ni tried the green color i think in person it s slightly more rich green less blue aqua than the photos online i love anna sui s lines makeup to everyt hing this dress is beautiful in a very usual sort of way and after trying it on i couldn t see anything spectacular that made it unique or special somehow the elastic waist does make this dr ess forgiving and it runs big the hem is lovely scalloped each detail is very nice in and of i tself but when put together in this dress there is no wow that justifies the full price tag no w that it s on sale i ll keep it probably for summer i like the tunic but there are no care ins tructions in the garment if i wash it once and it shrinks or the dye runs it will be going back please send care instructions i love the fabric and design of this dress you will definitely g et noticed and it s comfortable just slip it on and go love this skirt purchased it in a 0 and it fit fairly good sat high up on the waist which i like however now that i have worn it i should have ordered it in a 2 i think the 2 would have let it sit further down making it not so short i do recommend this skirt but i would order both your regular size and one size up 0 is my typical size in full skirts but i have no idea where i would wear this dress i tried on the size 2 in store someone had returned it but i always loved the cut and color of this dr ess been in my wish list so i tried it on anyway it is so lovely the cut is super flattering the bow on the chest is beautiful and the colors are much nicer in person pinker the feel is a bit satin0like soft i would need the 0 as it was a bit wide on the chest but not a petite surprisingly usually do need petite in dresses \r\nif i ordered this jacket to complement the larkin dress by moulinette soeurs which i planned to wear to a funeral the pair together were perfect the jacket added just the right touch in fashion and practical warmth on a sunny but ch illy february morning in alexandria va i ordered my usual size and it fit perfectly if not a tad bit large but then i m not very tall so occasionally items have more material than i need but i never worry about that since it doesn t usually affect the lines of th ordered online hed ging my bets on size chose xs s because i have broad shoulders and muscular arms and wear anyt hing from 2 8 sizes depending on brand my gamble paid off it 39 s a beautiful sweater soft comfortable nice drape \r\n\r\n i suspect that finer boned more petite customers might complain of swimming in this but it worked well for me i agree with the other reviewer on the slimming effect of this tunic and can t wait til the weather warms up so i can wear it i m 5 5 140lbs and the 6 was a perfect fit one thing i didn t notice in the images at least not the main imag e is that the slits on the side at the hip are pretty high not a problem but just something i hadn t noticed also for me i wasn t too sure about the color combo initially but it works in person the silk sequin adorned fabric of this dress is just gorgeous and i love the mix of colo rs and patterns the shape is very plain though this can work to make the dress less formal s o that you could wear the beautiful fabric to a more casual event but i m not sure it s the mos t flattering style i am between sizes and i sized up but am wondering if i should have gotten t he smaller size maybe that would made for a more flattering fit i was also a bit disappointed that the prettiest parts of i love this skirt maybe i love wrap skirts in general but many mis s the mark this one is just right it does not have elastic waist band which always makes me lo ok frumpy instead it is a side zip and allows for the tummy to stay flat as well as the pleats the embroidery is just enough and you may not be able to see the design of black on black in the fabric which makes the skirt i usually wear a size 6 but the 8 fit just right so you may want to size up i was so happy to discover that my size 00 petite had suddenly become available ag ain online probably someone s return and i wasn t disappointed when i tried the tunic on it f it great unlike other recent online purchases from retailer love the plaid and the style the cut should flatter many body types definitely worth the money \r\n\r\nplease retailer expand your inventory in petite sizes the cute stuff sells out so quickly nan saw this tunic on line and loved the color combo tried it on at the store and found it to be true to size for me i m a 34 dd 5 ft 4 and the regular size 10 fit fine i was curious to see if the petite size would fit best with the loops for the tie belt being a little higher but none were available still t he regular 10 works well excited to wear when the weather gets warmer like the model with white skinny or cropped jeans and wearing it open as a duster with a tank or cami seems very ve the material used is soft and breezy and good for summer the design is unique and catchy the two co ns its dry clean and runs very large i normally wear m from retailer and this top in s still too roomy since its for summer i m keeping it as it is i seriously wanted to cry when this dr ess didn t fit me i knew ordering it that it was a long shot i m a 36d and strapless rarely wo rks this was no different the dress ran true to size and it is precious i love tunics and the colors of this one is what caught my eye overall the tunic is nice but i have to agree with an other review that the stitching at the top of the slits is not good i also agree that the slits are to high they should have made them stop at a lower point it gives an odd effect the tunic looks good especially with tights it is tts and i believe the top probably looks better on some one tall because the length of it is so long compared to other tunics love the versatility of t his dress looks better in person this is the perfect lounge sleep cami i am 5 1 120 lbs and purchased the dark purple small it s hangs a bit loose my preferred fit for sleeping shirts good quality easy washing machine delicate and cool and airy for hot summer nights loved al most everything about this top the colors are great comfortable fit but the length was a litt le too long for my 5 4 frame i also wasn t a big fan of the large side slit i would still reco mmend this great top this is a wonderful style the dress does run large i m 5 4 and 135 and t he xs fit great it s a very comfortable summer dress have had many compliments on it dress ru ns very large quality is great and the pockets are a great addition it s a bit baggy i m norm ally a 6 8 medium but went with the small here i debated for a while but finally went for it o n sale and i m so glad the colors are just gorgeous in person delicate stitching on the should ers adds a feminine touch great with my jean jacket which gathers up the extra material just ri ght looks great with summer sandals and booties for fall i love love love this dress comforta ble with leggings or cropped skinnies would be better as a solid as opposed to a plaid print b reathable and airy fabric this is that one special whimsical beauty that you hope to open on c hristmas morning super comfy not at all itchy and the pattern and colors are super stunning e ven more vivid in person i ve never seen anything quite like it very eye catching and oozing f or compliments can be dressed up or down quite easily very warm and surprisingly true to siz e even with the m l combo i d say definitely worth the price it is expensive but this heirlo om worthy piece is worth the splurge i definitely think this may have worked had i tried on a p etite sized version for the length i was not at one of the stores with the petites i did feel like at 5 2 the regular size is just too long i tried a size 4 on with leggings and that didn t look right the size 4 seemed fine 34b chest 118 lbs maybe if i had a different pair of pa nts on but the slits up the sides of the shirt made it look not quite right with leggings i kep t thinking the shorter size would have helped i really li i love the color combo and the desig n make me feel tall and thin i know this is going to be very cool to wear on a hot day i like it with my white jeans and you can wear it a number of ways i love this brand i still wear th e plaid from last spring it s a got to have i love wearing this to bed and it s really pretty the lace is thin and delicate so it can get snagged easily but it s pretty comfortable the on ly thing that could make it more comfortable is if the material underneath the bust was looser though it wouldn t be as supportive overall i think it s a very beautiful chemise very comfor table fits true to size i also have this in white fits snug in the top but hangs loose around the waist making it very comfortable shirt is very flattering the polka dots add a playful tou ch super cute i love this with white leggings that skim my legs b c it is a looser top that yo u can cinch at the waist one small complaint is that the tie is awkward with the side slits bu t for the sale price i can overlook this in person the colors are prettier and it s more inter esting than the front shot in the model i tried on and bought my regular medium got home and t ried it on and realized it s too big i got these jeans on sale and have been very happy with t hem they seem to go with everything just a really nice basic skinny jean to have lightweight with a little bit of give they fit tts for me and hit about an inch and a half longer on my le gs than the model in the picture i m 5 6 i ve had them for a couple of months now and keep e xpecting them to show some wear in the knees bc of how often i wear them not yet any marks on them have come off easily in the wash overall very happy i was pleasantly surprised by the qua lity cut and softness of this dress it can be dressed up or down with or without leggings ti ghts and is cute with boots or flats my only complaint is that the sleeves are not near as lon g as what is shown in the photo i d say more like 3 4 sleeves thankfully there is elastic at t he cuffs so the sleeves can be pushed up and the the material can slightly drape over the elas tic dress is lovely the sleeves were shorter than i thought but otherwise nice fabric and ver y pretty cut nan nan love this jacket it fits very well and is super comfortable you can wea r it to work or on the weekends super versatile i am tall and typically wear a size 10 12 so i thought i could pull this off even if it was large as the other review noted but the thing ab out this piece is that it is more of a cover up than a tunic it fits like a poncho with my arm s at my sides it fit me similar to the model picture but if i lift my arms to use them then it looks like i am wearing a dress that is designed for someone twice as large as me the reason for that is that it doesn t really have sleeves it s more like hol overall nice material and s tyling but be prepare for it to be huge i purposely sized down and i still felt like i was swim ming in this the neckline is beautiful whether pulled forward or slipping back the pure merin o knit is very fine with the two front panels cut on the bias raglan sleeves with high armholes it is a tiny bit itchy and normally i m not too sensitive but that may improve with a handwash in eucalan or something similar \n \nfit for size xs on 5 2 currently 33 25 37 30d or 32c bra with narrow shoulders and torso \nsnug at the shoulders but as it is a pure merino knit it doe s stretch the front length just when i was purchasing this i asked to myself do i really need another black jacket when it arrived i realized that this is not just another black jacket th is jacket is special it is light weight but structured it is the perfect length and the fabr ic feels amazing this jacket is my new favorite nan i love this shirt it is so soft and a bit see through so recommend wearing a camisole underneath perfect with jeans the fit is slightly boxy but works well stylish and super comfy even though it s a relaxed oversize fit it is sti ll very flattering and pretty i dressed it up with cool jeans and my fave free suede boots my only complaint is that it is not available in more colors pretty please make more color variati ons so pretty 5 4 115 lbs and the xs fits perfectly the red detail at the shoulders is pr etty and i liked the contrast between the red and white the fabric is soft and comfortable it is a sweater knit fabric more substantial than you might guess from photos the sleeve ruffles were a little poofy for me and combined with the loose fit it made me feel a little too girl is h this could work for you if you are looking for a peasant style blouse with a forgiving shape and nice details but it wasn t quite right for me these pants were a wonderful addition to my wardrobe the fun print and texture add interest but at the same time are not too busy they s eem well made and they have a slim and flattering fit the side zipper is also a nice touch i would definitely recommend this item i saw this suit in the store and was immediately drawn to it i did not think it was gonna work because i have boobs real ones and i was not sure it wou ld provide enough support it is the cutest suit ever have enough support to get away with it b ut definitely couldn t go for a jog ha it will also look great with white jeans and double as a bodysuit if you like loose flowing tops embroidery and fluttery sleeves you ll adore this top i went a size down and it s a perfect fit these pants are so comfy well fitting and flatt ering i will order the same style in more colors and patterns because i can tell this will be m y uniform this summer true to size if you like a close fit like i do size up if you like a loo se fit length is shorter than capri more like a 1950s pedal pusher cute nan these pants run large than the true size it is so comfortable and can be dress up or dressed down i love the l ook of this right away i found it ran small to retailer s clothes where i m inexplicably a xs or s here i was a m i also am a dd so would have appreciated more support but as the other r eviewer i can get away with it to wear this cute suit this top is beautiful and unique but al so i predict it will be high maintenance with the sleeves definitely have to be careful with the delicate sleeves i was happy to see this top come back after being sold out the cream is a pretty color not too warm toned the cut is true to size although very fitted in the arm hol e area the sleeves rather fitted the fabric of the sleeves is fairly fragile but should be doa ble if not overly worn the chest fitted with an aline cut rather loser in the back it is also somewhat see through although not as bad as some i have tried overall it s a really great top but would need to be worn with care gr i love these shorts they are thin lightweight and not see through however the reviews are correct i am usually a size 2 or 4 in shorts i am 5 1 11 2 pounds and i had to size up to 6 i was able to zip the shorts up but the fit wa a little tig ht the 6 offered me the comfort of more room overall nice shorts i should have known to siz e up since that is what i usually do for skinny jeans ordered a size 27 should have done 28 good quality denim just too tight in the legs for my taste i debated trying a bigger size but decided i just don t love the distressed look on me although i love that they offer high rise p etites for reference 5 2 115 lbs curvy on bottom usually a size 4 6 for pants i agree wi th another reviewer that these are not ankle jeans however even as regular jeans they fit grea t and the color is lovely and very versatile i normally need to have my jeans hemmed but the le ngth on these is perfect for my 5 4 frame i bought about 20 dresses online in an attempt to find a few dresses for derby week in kentucky this was one of the 2 that made the cut i m usually a 6 and i bought a 6 it fit like it was tailor made for me i questioned if it was too tight a t first but decided it was just right and felt great in it for a full day at the track it was comfy it almost felt like it had built in spanx i didn t have to wear a bra and it gave me gre at lift almost like a bustier i got so many compliments mu while i have to agree with some ot her reviewers that this is not the most flattering coat as a size 12 14 with hips it does my h ips no favors but the comfort and warmth make up for it this coat is so soft it s like weari ng a puffy blanket unlike typical puffer coats it does not have any kind of vinyl feel to it but nor does it have any wind or water resistance at all with all that said the comfort and co sy feel won me over i ve received several compliments as well so maybe it s more if you have a love for vintage romantic feminine attire this is the dress for you it evokes memory of days gone by it isn t just beautiful the quality is superb make sure you check the measurements fo r this little beauty has so stretch to it i absoluty love this dress it hugs in all the right places giving a sexy yet very classy look very much a mad men look the quality is fantastic and could easily pass for a vintage dress that has been kept safely preserved i would recomend every lady has one of these in her closet especially when you need to feel just a little bit pr ettier i ordered the mauve in size xl and it fits true to size it matched the photos online a ll of the details are prettier in person it s delicate but it s washed dried well very prett y shade of mauve it was bit on pricey side but it was love at first sight i couldn t let go af ter i tried it on it is soft lightweight moves with me keeps me warm not just from top up it feels silky to the touch and is very versatile and stylish \r\n\r\nruns true to size and it expands a bit the more you wear it i love to shop at retailer for tops that i can wear every day they always seem to have pieces that are comfortable casual and quite different from what you would find in most stores this top is exactly that it fits true to size and is washable a ll you need are jeans boots and a neutral necklace and you are good to go you can t go wrong i f you purchase this top it is delicate and soft the sleeves fit great on my 5 10 130lb frame but the shoulders on the size small were too tight so i am exchanging it for a medium the linin g is unusual the front is fully lined but the back is only lined to the shoulder blades which is somewhat noticeable on the model i would choose to wear a cami underneath for extra coverage i loved this the minute i saw it in the store but left without buying it i called the store an hour later and asked them to hold it for me so i could get it the next day \r\n\r\ni love it it s still a little too warm to wear it in nyc yet but i will soon i m thinking 40 50 s is the perfect temps for it \r\n\r\ni rarely say this but i don t think the photos of the coat above do it justice worth every single penny size up they are very tight i like that you can dres s this shirt up or down go out or lounge in it very comfortable and i would recommend buying it i was looking forward to trying this on after seeing it in the catalog i wear an xs or smal l in retailer tops and tried this on in an xs it was huge reminded me of a maternity top it w as much more flowy on me than it looks on the model the material was nice thin but not see thr ough the macrame detailing seemed well made i d recommend this if you re looking for a flowy t op but definitely size down great top for in between seasons comfy soft roomy fyi the patte rn has tiny holes that will show through i e bra skin etc i just bought this today so i c an t say whether or not it will wear well but i think it will i love it bc it s different and s uper comfy but also stylish i know that when i wear this other people won t have it on i think it looks better in person than on this model in picture love these vintage soft jeans they do run small so be sure get a size larger i am typically a 27 and i ordered a 28 look amazing with boots flip flops and slip ons love mother jeans work every time i agree with everythi ng the other reviewer stated this top is very billowy and runs large it would be nice if i did n t have a chest the other issue with this top is the macrame detailing is made more out of a s atin like material and i wanted it to look closer to natural raw fiber the pink is slightly mor e pink in person but it s not that far off had to return warning it s totally sheer so you w ill need to wear a tank under it or unless you re very confident in your mid section you can wea r a bandeau or just a bra it s definitely a lounge leisure wear piece and great for layering i f you want to wear it out it s lightweight and perfect layer over a simple dress or top i live in this over the weekends i am a larger gal broader shoulder and purchased an xl it s true t o size and roomy so bummed i ordered this in the raspberry color then actually saw it in a s tore before it arrived to my house so i tried it on while i agree with the other reviews it r uns big in some areas something about the neckline just wasn t right on me it seemed to ride u p higher and wasn t what i wanted also the raspberry color is almost more of a burnt orange when i think of raspberry i think of pink or red this was neither of those the top itself is cute though and super comfy if it we i purchased this dress to wear to a wedding in june i am 5 4 32d and 120lbs i bought the size 2 and it fit like a glove didn t even have to wear a br a the quality is beautiful the fabric stitching and detail are top notch and well worth the p rice the way the seaming hits you on the hips and but is very flattering especially for girls who may not be that curvy it accentuates your curves for sure it reminds me of an old hollywoo d wiggle dress \r\n\r\nwith that being said the dress does h gorgeous and well constructed dre ss runs a little small couldn t button up the size 8 although i can fit into a size 6 of other dresses by this designer also the back buttons are very difficult to button especially by your self i had to return it but am contemplating ordering it in a size 10 billowy top perfect fo r casual comfort the topic is definitely not raspberry it is a sunset orange disappointed as i was going for a match i should have gone off of the picture and not the color name i m glad the previous reviews had mentioned the dolman sleeves so i was better prepared for how it would fit you do have to do some rearranging of the fabric but it generally stays put and isn t both ersome the neckline is a bit more structured than shown in the pictures but it only adds to a more sophisticated look great fabric and color as well fits true to size soft material and un ique look the sleeves and overall cut of this shirt are flattering i was worried it might look boxy or baggy but it didn t at all the dark gray is a gorgeous color and can be dressed up or d own definitely going to be a staple in my closet i love these pants they fit great nan beaut iful sweatshirt top that can be worn to work this is very cute it s lined it s smocked it s longer on me than the model in the picture i was a bit concerned about the short length but the skirt actually came to just above my knees which works well for me it might run a tad big beca use it is a pull of skirt i look forward to wearing this light weight skirt on hot days his sum mer this dress is truly a work of art and i ve received many compliments on it \r\n\r\nbe wa rned though that it may require extensive tailoring to fit you i m 37 28 40 so pretty darn h ourglass shaped and 5 feet 3 inches i ordered the 8p the dress was still huge in the the wais t and not flattering at all the neckline also was too low for my comfort if you re busty n ecklines get pushed out and more things show my tailor was able to bring the neckline up by ad ding seams in the sleeves and this dress is gorgeous the fabric is thick and layered with well designed lines since the fabric is thick it gives very little around your body i have wide hi ps a big butt and bust so this dress unfortunately was not a good fit for me i usually fit in a 6 petite and for this one i got an 8 it fit around my bust and hips but was bunched up in th e back i would definitely at least give this dress a try because it was very beautiful size do wn on this top bought it online and when i took out of the packagei quickly put it back in you could have put 4 of me in the xs i think even an xxs would be huge extremely boxy i recommen d it only if you can find the correct size i love these shorts nice material good fitting an d great look i sized up usually an 8 and i ordered a 10 based on others reviews and it was the right choice these are a great casual short or dressed up with shoes and a nice shirt i like t his sweater i am 5 4 125 lbs and bought the xs if i had to do it again i d buy the xxs fo r a fitted cardigan it ran slightly big it s a thin material you would layer it over a tank or tee so this top is adorable light and airy and i like the loose fit i think it will nice and c ool for summer the red is very flattering color i have fairer skin and feel like it gave nice color without being overbearing love this top my only complaint is that i feel like the the ar m hole is a bit snug not enough to not keep just wish there was a little more room i like thi s top and agree that it does run large i find the fabric to be somewhat heavy which i consider a good thing as it will hang nicely and do a good job of hiding imperfections it does have a pleat in the back which is not so apparent in the photo here i love the neckline a slight bi t of a v neck love love this sweater shirt i have worn it out to dinner and work with leggin gs it is soft and comfy the pleats in the back are beautiful and do not require constant ironi ng i even bought it in the pink as you can see there is an array of differing opinions on her e and i share sentiments on both \r\n \r\npros \r\n the texture and feel of this is grea t it is very comfortable and is different \r\n tts for the most part i normally can wear size s 10 and 12 m and l with most retailer and got the medium and the fit was overall fine but mor e snug at the hips if you re more slim straight it ll probably fit you like on the model \r\n good length not too short or too long \r\n the mock collar is ni these have a great fit desi gn i ordered a size larger after reading that this style runs on the small size typically i m a 27 but ordered a 28 the wash has a great vintage feel about it i also love that these do not lose their shape after wearing all day this is a super cute tank received compliments when i w ore it to work i took a chance and ordered this top on sale even after reading the troublesome reviews this updated take on the turtleneck is a keeper for me the purple color is vibrant and the collar lays without repeated fussing i ordered the xs 116 5 4 for reference and the fit was tts and close to but not snug on my torso there is room for a button down blouse underneat h as styled in a gallery pic and i did not find the sleeves to be problematic as it fit me cl ose enough to the body to not giv just received pants and even though they are labeled petite they are not the inseam is 28 for a waist size 26 which is not what the description states i new i had to have this dress the moment i saw it i am a recent convert to byron lars and have t hree dress of his design they are all 6 or 6p so i felt confident ordering a 6 whoops this dr ess fit perfectly up to the waist it was even a little roomy but i couldn t button it up any fu rther than that it is a little weird since i always thought i had a narrow ribcage anyway i w ill have to exchange it for an 8p and hope for the best it really is an exquisitely beautiful dress and unbeliev i took this into the dressing room for fun and wow so glad i did i got the r egular m and it fits perfectly it is very slightly roomy but i think thats the design and it st ill looks great as a petite the regular m fit perfectly heals or no heals its comfy and lov ely it s a light material so it flows the shine is just enough to dress up when i need i m a 12 and usually buy xl of any t shirt looking style but the large fit perfectly i am howeve r not large breasted cute pants not for me a petite size may have changed my mind more like ankle pants on my 5 2 frame and a bit large all over that said the fabric is stretchy and the y would be super comfortable love the snaps on the waistband classy casual while contemplatin g on purchasing these pants after receiving them quality was superb waffle material 5 spandex beautiful green color and 2 snaps in the front zipper and 2 front and back pockets material has alot of give and wide legs these pants don t come to the ankle so don t expect it sort of like capri but longer lose fitting and wide legs nice addition to my closet i hit the jackpot now and again w this store this tank blouse is flowy and i love the design it was immediately comfortable and seemed true to size i wore it to a family event with a sweater black leggings and boots i m 5 5 36d and usually wear medium in retailer tops and this fit beautifully from the get go just love it i bought both colors thinking i might like one since i wasn t totally sold on colors looking online well the cut is sooo flattering that i was sold and had to keep b g to lose i love it the bottom hem is slightly flared but does not look like a maternity tee i m going to wear this with a fun scarf skinnies and colorful flats this tee is a must so i o rdered a 0 and p0 when i received them i could tell right away that i d prefer the 0 and it loo ked to be the perfect size then i tried to slip it on over my shoulders it was tight it was the right size but it was so hard to get on over my shoulders and then to take it off i needed m y husband s help it fit great otherwise i loved the feel of the fabric the design of the bod ice going up a size would not help me as then it would be too large in the bust area i m a 32 oing to buy it in multiple colors it fits so great not just another striped tee perfect drape lightly fitted at the bottom sides so it skims the body is super flattering the subtle shimme r is just right love the gray very versatile irresistible i m a size 4 small this is tts nan i m glad i discovered this super easy to wear flattering summer dress on a recent store vis it if i had only seen it online i m not sure i would have ordered it i prefer it styled with flat sandals for an effortless boho look i m 5 5 slim and small chested and xs fit perfectly looks great on fits beautifully this is really my favorite top i wear it all the time like e very day it s so soft a beautiful rich color blue has nice detailing and so flattering on a hot momma like me who still has a little tummy from my three lovely children snuck it in to m r is more like a chartreuse than the picture it s really pretty i saw this dress and loved eve rything about it i was so sad when i tried it on and it was just too big they were out of the smaller size so i had to return it the dress is well made and the color is just a bit neon com pared to the picture i was so bummed to see how quickly this top sold out online in the black however to my delight i happened to stumble upon the shirt in my size in my local store recent ly knowing it was sold out online i immediately grabbed it to try on big mistake i instantly fell in love i m a curvy woman 34d chest wide hips small waist and a slight tummy and this shirt fits beautifully in my usual size which is a medium in deletta hugs my figure without m aking me look big i work in an office wh nan i ordered this top black in both small and mediu m i can get usually away with small at retailer but am size medium in all other stores as soon as i received the package and opened it up i knew i would keep this top it has a gorgeous text ure to it a slight sheen and is well made it s extremely comfortable as a t shirt would be b ut has more structure and looks very chic the waist nips in just enough to give the flutter hem a little flare at the hips and is very feminine i have a long tor i love everything about this sweater except the sizing i purchased the deep red in xs the yarn weight is perfect for me in los angeles the length is perfect the sleeves are bell shaped but not at all a problem for me they re not so big that they get in my way at all unlike another reviewer the collar can be fo lded in a way that it stands upright for a kind of retro look which i love the only problem is that the sweater is way too big i can handle a wide swingy style but with the sl i ordered th is in a size 4 and it is great quality the only problem is the size of the slip the top is ver y tight across my average chest but fine elsewhere odd fit the dress fits great and i debate d finding another slip but ultimately decided to return it i loved the shirt the fabric was a mazing and i loved the way it fit unfortunately it didn t look good on me but i would recommen d this shirt to anyone who can pull it off the look i was sad i couldn t love this ripple fron t top fabric is beautiful love the lining and the fit is perfect looks great with pants and s kirts i also love the sleeve length i purchased this in both white and black great for spring and summer this top is sold out in my size online but i was fortunate enough to snag one in the store great top that can be dressed up or down the ruching across the front is very slimming tried the top with skirts and pants looks great with everything i usually wear a size small in deletta tops but sized up to a medium to accommodate my chest i am a full c cup i highly r ecommend this purchase i was looking for a comfortable top that looks put together and cute for work and this one fits the bill i couldn t decide between black or white so i got both if i had to choose i would stick with the black because it s more slimming particularly for those of us with a large bust it s not as heavy or stiff of a material as it appears in the pic whic h i like but it still has structure great basic with some flair i got the small my normal re tailer size and it fit perfectly this top is just as pretty in person as it is online i usua lly buy petites but ordered this one in the regular length and i m glad i did perfect on me at 5 2 my usual size medium fit great everywhere else too love their fabric choice as well i m getting really tired of the thin cottons and slub jersey materials being used so often now dele tta made my day once again love this jacket so much so comfy and great for traveling i love the fit and the way it wears out 6 items i purchased online this is only one that made the cut it s super soft and cute on the only thing i didn t like was the cute lining is attached by but tons but it needs more attachment points to keep it from showing i m going to fix that myself but i hate sewing things that i purchase so it lost a star for that i got this top in white an d it is cute the fabric is a weird kind of polyester and kind of shiny i got the medium and i t pulls a little around the chest overall i like it i am very happy about the jacket i like t he material and the cut i was able to wear the jacket for a walk on a rather windy day about 6 0 f with a thin sweater underneath and it felt comfortable \r\n\r\nthe fit is very flattering i would prefer the sleeves to be a little longer 5 7 125 lb got size s also i wish the li ning was full not just the front detail it would allow more versatility but that s just me \r\n\r\noverall i like it great jacket love that the hoodie insert is removable so i can w ear just the outer jacket for work love this top wore it for the first time today and it looks so good soooo flattering from the front the back is plain but ive got some back fat so i wea r a jacket i wanted to love this shirt it s got a thicker material a flattering shape and the uniqueness for a basic top however when i put this on it just looked like it was ill fitting o ver the chest i think if the pull was below the chest it would be much better i agree with th e other reviewer it s refreshing to find a top that isn t all baggy or sheer which seems to be the current trend right now \r\n \r\npros \r\n lots of stretch this was so comfortabl e and the rayon lining inside really makes this breathable \r\n the ruched detailing sleeves a nd overall length is great \r\n no cami needed with the white i see in the pics on the model t hat appears to be cami underneath i wrote a nude bra and didn t have an issue at the front beca use it s two la i love this blazer it s so comfortable i just wonder if the company makes more o this jacket justice i saw it hanging in the store and had to have it even before i tried it on it s extremely versatile worn as shown as a layered look or the zipped liner is can be removed and this can be worn as a simple blazer it s the perfect weight for spring fall it s f itted and so cute this jacket runs true to size not large i usually wear a 4 and the small fit perfectly this jacket is the best i m trying to step up my work wardrobe game while still maintaining some personality and this blazer fits the bill it s soft structured and best part nner with jeans the fur is so soft and the quality is superior it has real fur hooks four to close it and the side pockets are adorable definitely a buy and a bargain on sale this is the second dress i buy at retailer this year and this one is spot on exactly what i was looking fo r feminine dressy yet can be dressed up or down depending on the circumstance the fabric in t his dress is particularly gorgeous very comfortable on the skin very flowy so it doesn t have a heavy quality to it and the design is amazing with the navy ribbon on the front i completel y fell in love with this dress this is a little number to keep for many years received this to p as a gift from a friend with great taste found fabric to have high quality feel and texture a nd it fit quite well love how the flutter layer creates a different look this is a nice top i t is dressy and cute tts i am 8 or 10 and got a med would look great with jeans pencil skirt s slim cut pants very happy with this purchase this is a great top it does run a bit large b ut it s intended to be flowing i got so many compliments the first time i wore the top and its actually quite flattering great purchase especially on sale this is a wonderful one piece swi m suit it s very flattering on and the colors and design are just lovely i also love the suit s vintage feel and that it s sexy without being overly revealing i seldom pay full price for cl othing but this item is definitely worth every penny i bought a size medium and it fit perfe ctly this is a great shirt for fall very comfortable and flowy without making you look dumpy tried it on in the store ended up waiting to buy online at the sale price i love this top i m 5 7 135 lb and the small fits well probably could have fit in the xs it is more fitted at the top and flowy at the bottom i ordered it in orange and it is a very pretty peachy coral str ipe highly recommend for a comfy top that can be dressed up a bit more than your average t shir t i really like the look of this jacket but i think it runs small and i must return the one i received i am debating about ordering the next size up because it is so cute it can go with je ans or khakis and bright or white shirt underneath it seems very versatile will be a good tran sition piece between seasons i also like that it is made in the usa beautiful top but it didn t fit i am small chested with wide shoulders normally wear a xs or s ordered the xs and it s wallowed me i fell in love with this on line and when it arrived today i think i love it even m ore because the white portion of this sweater is really a medium pink color which looks so chic although i am not usually into pink this looks so stylish with the pink instead of the white t his is a piece you might find in a vintage store in the village in nyc can t wait for it to get chilly so i can wear it for reference i am 5 1 36c chest and the small fit perfect the quali ty is really high end as well like this top it s not too thin but still remains cool too bad it has to be hand washed love this top and wish they had more colors in xs but the sale was to o good so they were sold out i m 5 10 140 lbs an xs fits great will go with jeans or legging s this top is a great versatile long sleeved shirt i m 5 10 and the sleeves were long for me so i don t know why it s listed as 3 4 length i could see where sleeve length would be a proble m for more petite ladies the wine color is beautiful it is slightly more fitted than the pictu re i was afraid it might be semi sheer but its totally fine i wish it was a bit longer in the torso but it s not short like some sweaters this season i do tend to have a shorter torso so a tall lady with a l i ordered this blazer so i could look more put together for work but still feel comfortable it checks both of those boxes it s almost like a sweatshirt material with mo re structure and has a great cut style my only word of caution is that i thought this jacket w as white with blue stripes but the white part is actually a light heathered gray i think i wou ld have preferred white but i still like it enough to keep got my normal size small which fit great this dress has a nice soft fabric and pretty details in the stitching and there is a matc hing slip with adjustable straps that snaps onto the inside shoulders i found the length in pet ite to be fine but the loose fit to be unflattering for me as a short person 5 1 however th e photos here on the website with the model are quite accurate you can see exactly how it fits loose through the waist if that s what you are looking for go for it but personally i didn t find it to do anything fo i needed to size down to a small it s very flowy but the color pal ette and the open stitching around the neck and hem are really sophisticated and pretty great l ooking please dry clean it or you ll ruin it fits well easy to make an outfit look stylish lo ve the style and fit but it does stretch out during wear by the end of the day it feels big i love this top it is comfortable and different from other tops in my closet i bought this shi rt at the store and after going home and trying it on i promptly went online and ordered two mo re i ve gotten multiple compliments anytime i wear any of them great for looking put together with no fuss \r\npeople that have commented there s were destroyed in the wash didn t read the care label which says dry clean this dress has gorgeous fabric and impeccable quality construct ion i m 5 4 118lbs and large busted 32 dd i am usually an overall size 4 but when buying dr esses usually have to purchase a six to accommodate my chest i ordered a size 4 because that wa s the only size left and was going to take a chance it fit perfect across the chest but the ov erall dress is enormous does not even slightly silhouette your figure it is like a giant stiff triangle i was going to return but was so hesitant nan i love this top very slimming and cool fabric only problem it is very delicate and will snag as a mater of fact mine arrived with a h ole in the back i m returning for exchange as i love the way the top looks but know i will hav e to be super careful not to snag the fabric i run between an xs and s in most retailer shirts i went with the xs in this one and was glad i did the fit is lovely and flattering i loved thi s shirt the second i put it on then went to order it in another color following the advice o f other reviews i ordered a size larger than normal since the reviews said runs small in the b ust the dress ended up being much too big everywhere including the bust \n\nthe dress was beau tiful and great quality sad i ended up with the wrong size i love this top and wear it all the time it s a gorgeous pale blue and feels amazing it is a tighter fitting shirt so if you lik e looser clothes size up great top a little large but i shrank it a little in the wash and i t fits a little better now i love the structure and pattern of this top as well as the lovely coral orange color it can be dressed up or dressed down love it great layering top so comfy feels soft as my pjs bought it in 3 colors very flattering the material is not the softest bu t it s an easy one to throw on with jeans nan i love this swimsuit the color the pattern and the coverage the material is different for me but easy to get on and off my complaint is that although the backside looks great there is no padding in the front for a full coverage suit t his leaves little to the imagination i m torn on finding justification to keep it i like this shirt as in general i prefer more form fitting and less flowy shirts however after washing th e shirt and hanging dry it has shrunk to be too short to wear with even mid rise jeans so good if you don t like long t shirts bad if you are tall like me 5 8 and don t want to wear a cr op top i tried this dress on in the store and loved it it s unfortunately out my price range b ut if i could have afforded it i would have bought it i m about 5 10 and the length of the si ze 2 was perfect sexy back and great color the shirt is very comfy and is slenderizing in the waist area i bought this top when i was 6 months pregnant and wore it the rest of the pregnancy i am 5 4 34d and 135 lbs i got all the way up to 172lbs and a chest size of 36dd now that i m not pregnant i don t think it flatters my new figure anymore ha but i seriously wore it al l the time when i was pregnant so gotta give it at least 4 stars it s hard purchasing clothes online i was hesitant on this shirt wondering about the size and that it might be too plain or boring when i received it i was pleasantly surprised as its texture adds a nice bit of upscale to this basic tee if your debating on whether to choose a larger or smaller size i went with t he smaller size as its a looser style and fits perfect this jacket has great style is really c omfortable and looks good with jeans or nice pants i usually wear a small or extra small in al l clothes but thought the arms were tight in the small the medium is a better fit i originally bought this for myself but it was way too big on my backside since i don t have much junk in th e trunk i decided to pass it on to my sister since it was just too pretty to return it fits h er much better and she s worn it on a few occasions it does run larger and the pants are very l ong definitely have to be either hemmed or always worn with heels it s an adorable take on the casual sweatshirt i love the layers but i wish they were just a little different they hang a little strange perhaps if the bottom one was a smidge longer i m not sure or if the sweatshir t layer was a little longer and the blouse bit was therefore longer it all hangs just a little off but it s not so off that it looks bad i m petite so it s cute on but i think if you we re tall it might hang a little weird a warning though i ordered a small and the this dress i s lovely i tried it in the red and the black decided to keep the red as i have so much black going to wear to a spring wedding i will feel so comfortable and appropriate just looking for a great statement necklace tts and very feminine and flattering looks same as on model love t his style if you like style highly recommend armholes not too big yay this shirt is structu red enough to wear to work and flirty enough to wear out on the town the details around the nec k and the bottom make it very unique i paired it with a chunky necklace and got tons of complim ents however i could imagine this shirt may not work for those with a bigger bust line as ther e isn t much give in that area in my opinion the quality and uniqueness of this piece far defi nitely warrants a full price purchase adorable cut and style comfortable and cute it s the pe rfect flexible top to wear to work with a skirt or more casually with your favorite pair of jean s love this really cute version of a sweatshirt fits true to size through the shoulders and b ust line however since i am larger in the bust area than the hip the lower half of the top lo oks slightly large on my body the sweatshirt is cut very straight so it would probably flatter a person with a pear or straight shape the inside material of the sweatshirt is a little rough however the appliquã design makes this shirt a keeper the design of this top is super cute an d the material is decent the only flaw is that despite buying the smallest size xxsp it s st ill very boxy on me i wish it was more fitted at the waist which would make it much more flatte ring however since i am actually pregnant this actually works to my advantage for the time b eing love this top it has a beautiful appliquã that is reminiscent of many past retailer favo rites it s comfy yet cute and fashionable i love this dress the fabric and overall design ar e beautiful however the dress fit runs small at least for me i ordered a size 10 based on th e reviews i have another byron lars dress in a size 8 that fits well i kept the dress because it is so pretty i love this tunic i am typically an xxs petite so i should have known that th e regular xs would be too large but i took a chance on it unfortunately it was in fact much too large it is too bad because i absolutely love it the fabric is soooo soft and comfy i ord ered it in the blue and it is prettier than pictured this is a great dress for the beach or po ol side or just knocking around if you live in a hot climate or take warm weather vacations i highly recommend this it takes up ve this is one of those dresses that might be better for thos e under 40 on me the fullness of the pleats and the bell sleeve made me feel like i was wearin hiquita this cardigan is super soft and comfy with nice big pockets and an easy feel i am glad i read the other reviews before i bought it though i usually wear an xl and they are often to ke it a lot this top is very cute and appears in person just as it does in the picture fits tr ue to size and the item is made well i had many complements and it was fun to wear \n\nunfortun ately i did have to iron it right out of the bag i originally purchased this sweater in a size small 5 4 125lbs and i was swimming in it i went into the store and exchanged it for a size x s and it still runs a little big i do love the quality though and its so soft it s made of a s weatshirt like material which gives it a lazy sunday feel it is definitely more casual than you r typical cardigan but is so cozy this is quickly becoming a go to for after yoga or just lazy sundays at home great product i m 5 0 125 lbs and 34d i ordered a 6p and it fits perfectly the color is more of a bronze mixed with gold and chocolate the picture does not do it justice i got the grey in my normal size large and it fits as shown love the cowl neck although it s a bit awkward and oversized the cowl is a lighter shade of grey and a nice contrast it felt a bi t itchy and is a tad boxy and short i decided to return i love this dress the fit is spectacu lar and if there were any problems with the hook and eyes in the front coming undone as stated i n previous reviews it has been corrected the dress does not come undone and it moves beautiful ly with you walking sitting and bending i wore this to a holiday party and the color is just a mazing a coppery and brown gold pattern very flattering i will purchase more byron lars dress es for certain great top i ordered online because i needed a white top that i could get away w ith wearing in fall to work even though it s white i m busty and normally shirts like this make me look gigantic like i m going to tip over but this was a very flattering cut and fit i highly recommend it was also comfortable and i wore it with blue slacks to work the flower is partially dark blue i m 5 8 and the length was perfect not too long in the butt but enough t o cover it subtly i just got this in the mail absolutely gorgeous the hook and eye closure is very secure i have no problem walking or sitting in this dress i ordered a aize 8 going by the previous reviews that this dress ran small i could have ordered my normal 6 but the 8 fits pre tty good just a tad big the dress is more chocolate brown than black and the detail is really s tunning you can t find unique dresses like this anymore truly beautiful i thought this dres s was beautiful and the quality is amazing i thought it was going to be black and gold but it has a lot of brown in it as well i ordered a petite i m 5 61 2 and the petite was just above my knees whereas the regular came below my knees this is a dress i can wear to many events thi s sweater is a grand dad style sweater i love the pattern of the fabric it does run a bit larg e especially in the length of the sleeves it definitely fits a more oversized sort of look i find it very comfortable perfect for a casual weekend outfit i received this yesterday and the fit for me is so strange to tight in the bust and the arms were to big for me i am so bum med the arms do not stay on my shoulders i have many tops but maeve and they fit me well thi s is the first one i have to return this top is made well and i do recommend but it should be tried on before purchasing as it is pricey if it does not fit you love my new top i wear it ca sually with skinny navy pants and dressed up with new wide leg winter white pants it s funky st yle garnered lots of compliments as a mother of two teens i love to dress cute and appropriate it really pairs well with so much and the bold flower makes it stand out i didn t want to get t he black carissima because i already own the mona so when i saw this gorgeous marguerite for sa le i had to bite the main colors are chocolate brown copper and rose pink such a beautiful c ombination the hook fits like a glove and looks amazing on it fits so many different body type s but yet is flattering in all the right places i got 00p and have a smaller chest and hip but it really gives a nice shape got compliments all night when i wore this to a formal dance but i could see myself wearing this again and again for holiday parties or other occasions someone else mentioned that this fit like a grandpa sweater and they were absolutely right it s definit ely loose fitting but it s really cute and well made i usually get a medium size in tops sweat ers but after reading the other reviews i ordered the small and i m so glad i did it s the p erfect casual cardigan i wish it came in more colors i am addicted to these dresses as usual the detail is amazing and the shape is so flattering \nas some reviewers mentioned the dress is much more brown than shown on the picture so if you re looking for a black dress there are othe rs in the collection that are much better otherwise gorgeous dress i bought this top in a lar ge i washed it in cold water and it shrank just enough to flatter the material is great in t hat when i washed it the blouse hanged quite nicely no ironing needed also the material is h eavy enough that no tank is needed underneath the top thakoon had made the same top last summer and it had cost around 500 this top is even better due to the material and i could buy it for a fraction of the price highly recommend this blouse is very versatile it can be worn with je ans or dress pants great fall color \r\nit is very sheer and you will need to wear something u nder it it s pretty in person with an original print design i bought this blouse in the purple motif and love it for work great design and print \nbased on the existing reviews i sized down from my normal xs to an xxs and i actually wish that i would have stuck with the xs only because the blouse is tighter on my biceps than i would prefer but i am keeping the blouse i always ap preciate this in other reviews so hopefully it helps i m 5 2 117 lbs and a small 32b i ord ered this dress online but it turned out to be too small i loved the color fabric and overall quality i should have ordered one size up i bought this is the orange red motif and it is a be autiful print although in person it is a more rich reddish color than the washed out model imag e the entire shirt is sheer so i will need to wear something under but that doesn t bother me i have a small chest 34a and find that the front of the shirt is noticeably longer than the ba ck but that wouldn t be an issue if i was a little better endowed this looks gorgeous with bla ck pants and a blazer not sure that it is worth full price b great transition into fall for la yering easy breezy dress up or down is thin so it does need a cami this top us flowy breathabl e and feminine the fabric is light so it doesn t feel like you re wearing a swing dress with h e down to a small or 6 some other tops i d go to medium or 8 i just received this in the mail and must say its one of my favorite purchases in a long time from retailer the navy polka dot c olor combo is classic yet fun with the orange looks great on its own as well as under a cardy this will be in heavy rotation i ve bought similar blouses from retailer before that i didn t l ove as much as this it s not boxy or wide on me it s a great length and i find the 3 4 bell sl eeves to be elegant i bought the purple one on sale and went back for the red cream my only co mplaint would be that the stitching could be of better quality the fabric is very nice love the print loved the look of the blouse online but the one i received has weird pattern placemen t that i m not a fan of mine was mostly cut from the mum sunflower patterned fabric and none of the pretty teal and red pattern the shirt online as a good combo of patterns mine is a sol id mrs roper all over flower print way overboard that said the cut is cute and the yoke at the back is a nice detail hoping i can exchange it for one that looks more like the online pic this is such a cute top perfect for fall layered with a sweater this dress is incredibly soft with sleeves that can be rolled up or down it is extremely versatile while the dress is very c omfortable and mostly fits true to size i found it to be ever so slightly snug through the hips at first however i am somewhat difficult to fit with an accentuated hourglass figure overall i am very happy with this purchase and look forward to wearing it during my travels this blouse was exactly what i was looking for perfect for those last balmy days of summer fabric a bit sh eer but it flows beautifully and the pleating details and higher neckline make this top truly s tunning it is very flowy so if you re looking for something more fitted this might not be for you i love this top it is the cutest top i ve purchased in a while the colors are so fun and the cut is flattering it will go with plenty and will work for day and night for work and on w eekends you need to get this top before it sells out retailer please get this top in more patt erns i ordered this in the tangerine and it is so cute its very comfortable and flattering i wore a tank under it but didn t find it to be as sheer as other reviewers i paired it with sli idn t think my boyfriend would like it because he generally likes more form fitting pieces yes big surprise but he actually commented out of the blue that it s really sexy comfy and sexy score i love this dress it fits like a dream and is incredibly flattering i vary between a 4 and a 6 in dresses and the 6 was too large on the bust but the 4 fit great the dress is longer than in the picture the model must be wearing heels but it doesn t quite hit the ground with f lats the fabric is light and airy it comes across a little more formal in person but is versat ile enough to be worn more casually as well i love this top i also have it in blue i wish it came in more colors prints i would definitely buy it i bought the navy polka dot top and i lo ve the way the design lets you work orange into your wardrobe if it s a color you wouldn t norma long this is one of my favorite recent retailer purchases i wore it to work and a presentation many people commented on how much they loved my top and then turned back around to take a secon d glance to realize it wasn t paisley but leopards and tiger prints it s really fun and fits we ll great for work or dressed down with jeans nan not sure why this tunic dress is rated only 3 stars i love it as i do all coth stone pieces and it is cloth stonw as another reviewer p ointed out the material is great and fit is tts except for the sleeves being just a bit tight this dress does not run large as do some c s pieces so don t size down i m 5 7 126 lbs and sl for you i plan to layer with a thin tee underneath tights and boots for once i found a peasant top that wasn t a balloon i m 5 1 and curvier on top and the small fit great the blouse billow ed a bit but it didn t make me look like a hot air balloon the pattern of the blouse a mix of various floral swatches is very pretty the blouse will look great with black skinny jeans and boots for fall i can t wait to wear it i purchased the orange tiger print and absolutely love it the colors and pattern are rich and vibrant and can easily be dressed up to be worn for work or a night out the fabric is flimsy and not substantial i thought it ran a little small i usu ally wear a large in this style but it was too tight the top is a pretty and has a nice patter n it does run large and is it a bit billowy i am 5 4 petite and ordered a small maybe the xs would have been better however the top swallowed me up and was unflattering the colors are t rue to the picture not very bright but would be a nice transition to fall top \r\nthe feel of the blouse was nice and maybe if i was taller and ordered a smaller size it would have been bett er i like this the fabric is soft and a little less orange looking than in the photo i m usua lly a size 12 or 14 and the size l is very small on me as in i d have to lose a little weight for it to look normal on me also it s a bit annoying that you have to undo all the little butt ons in the bodice to get it on and off when going to the bathroom but otherwise it looks cute a nd even has pockets i found this in the returned section of the store in a large i am normally a m but the fit would have been too small in the shoulders it is very light weight and the colo r is much lighter in person which means it will go right into spring really flattering cut thi s shirt is perfect for fall got so many compliments the first time i wore it i love this shirt because it s casual yet fun the first time i wore it i received several compliments because of the fun tassels i love the tiger print its subtlety is the perfect added quirk to an outfit i bought this in the purple print the fabric is soft similar to silk looks great with black b urgundy tan pants skirts i find it comfortable and received compliments on it at work i have n ot washed yet cannot comment on washability incredibly flattering cut i got so many complim ents when i wore this dress to a friend s wedding with the built in bra you don t have to add extra uncomfortable layers it stays put with or without the straps the skirt is blissfully ful l and fun for twirling i had a little trouble figuring out the belt as it wraps around multipl different colors i am so in love with these pants i generally stay away from wide legged pants because i think they make me look shorter i am already short but these are awesome the fabric is not very thick so they are moveable which is great but not so moveable that they feel like p alazzo pants they will hold their shape i love the polka dot design so much and i actually real ly love the whole outfit with the black tie top these pants are long on me but it isn t surpri sing since i am pretty short i am t i am short so this ends up being really long on me but i l ike that i can show off some amazing heels with this skirt lately i have been getting into gre y so that it puts more attention on my accessories the cut of this skirt is amazing and the th ick waistband is non traditional which makes something that normally would be boring really sta nd out plus it helps hide baby fat the fabric is a medium weight but it does flow nicely a nd it does not seem to wrinkle easily which is a huge plu gorgeous wide leg sweats i did wear t hem outside but i wore with a long t because they are slightly see through if they are snug on y our bum they don t seem like they will last long because they are thin but the cut is adorable and very flattering they were a gift not sure i would have spent 78 but i do love them saw t his in store and could hardly wait to try it on the print is adorable and colors are vibrant t he material is heavier than i d like for hot phoenix summers but decided to get it anyway will be great for work i noticed that there is a little more room in the chest area of this dress bu t not a deal breaker seems to be well made in general and i love the pockets this dress runs a little smaller than most maeve dresses but it is so cute i still ended up getting my regular s ize 6 but will need to wear spanx with it to get a smoother line nice material and great colo r the store had just gotten it in when i bought it and everyone who saw it was raving over it this dress looks great with bright color but size runs small in retailer dresses the petites u sually fit me better i m short but this regular fit well looks super cute i ve gotten so man y compliments on it comfortable and the pockets are always nice i loved this dress the moment i saw it online and debated ordering it as i wasn t sure the color would work on my pale skin b ut wow so pretty it fits like s glove in fact i almost had a hard time zipping the side where the fabric changes the tie waist in a beautiful addition the chest seems roomy enough i am a 30 dd and the 0 petite fit it is surplice so may give more if bigger chested the skirt is a ki nd of lace and looks pleated at the same time my only complaint is the side zipper i wow that dress is short at least the epite was not falttering on muscular thighs perhaps a regual r size on that one would work but the bodice was a perfect fit so not sure there i decided not to try it on as i figured this dress is very seasonal and trendy otherwise if you ahve t he money to spare and leaner legs i would recommend it the cut was actualyl flattering otherwis e i didn t have bunching issues like others and my 30dd boobs fit in the 0p color and pattern are prett beautiful color emphasizes a small waist top is fitted so if you re curvy beware i m a 32 ddd and size 10 skirt is roomy agree with other reviewer that zipper is not smooth r eminds me a little of a prom dress i had in 1987 which could be good or bad i love these p ants purchased them in white the fit is great the fabric is just the right thickness given they are white i don t want the fabric to be too thin a bit long so i will have to have them tailored but vey happy with these pants absolutely lovely dress in a gorgeous color drapes well the pe rfect blend of pretty and sexy so much more beautiful in person 78 for a pair of sweats seems like a lot of money but not when you consider the amount of wear you will get out of these pant s they are thin and a little on the long side but very flattering plus the thin material mak es them perfect for summer nights i love the pockets not a big fan of the tie on the front bu t that s just a personal preference i won t just be wearing these on the weekend i found lots of fun tops and jackets in my closet that will turn these pants into something i ll b this dress is my first retailer purchase in several years i saw it in the window and had to try it on i m quite small usually a size 0 2 at most and 34b at the top i had to size up to a 4 in this dr ess for it to zip up and be moderately comfortable \r\n\r\ni love the 50s vibe of the volume at the bottom the cotton is nice glad to see retailer go back to offering natural fabrics \r\n\r \nvery pretty color and print the material is so soft and i really like the design i got the map one as others mentioned sleeves are quite short almost morel like a muscle tee than a t shirt but i don t mind looks really cute under a cardigan for fall too based on reviewers co mments i sized up and ordered an 8 normally i run 4 6 and while the waist fit pretty well t he bust was too large and roomy i m a34b bust i eventually got ahold of a 6 and the waist sti ll fits and the bust is much better so for me at least the two dresses i got are true to fit and the dress is very pretty and i m excited to wear it i guess since it s fall i may have to wait until next year the dress is very feminine and very flirty i love orange melon colo red dresses this one does not disappoint it does run extremely small around the rib cage i ha t and the style is very cute i ordered a 4 petite and i typically wear a 2 or 4 regularly the 4 petite was a great length above the knee but not inappropriate i wore to a bridal shower an d received a lot of compliments aaaaaaamazing tunic it was love at first sight and the detail is spot on the total weight is heavier than expected but that is due to the impeccable quality of the top i m so in love with these pants they are so flattering and made of thick material they do run a bit large though so i d suggest you size down i also like they they re high waist ed the gold button details are gorgeous as well great pair of pants i like the pattern on thi e print on this dress harkens to the old days of retailer if you miss the fun prints and whimsi cal styles playful textures and conversational pieces this dress is for you at 5 7 34c 2 7 28 waist i bought the size 4 runs tts site claims it s a fit and flare but i think it s mor e of a sheath cut the thicker canvas like material has stretch but gives good form i wear mine as a jumper pinafore with a white shirt sleeve blouse my only complaint is that as a dress the arm holes are a nan while the cut drape and shape of this dress are very attractive seein g the fabric in person was disappointing to me it s clearly well made and there are abundant hi gh quality details however the combination of a large ish pattern and the wrinkly thin cotton still felt kind of limp and cheap i sent it back i wore this sailboat dress with blue wedges t o a wedding and received tons of compliments from men women and children i love the material pockets and flattering cut definitely iron it beforehand because it wrinkles can t wait for t he weather to get warmer so i can wear this one as others have said the material is heavier but i think that s a positive as it is very structured and slimming i m a fan of maeve dresses and this is no different this dress is very cute i loved it the quality is excellent however th e fit is off i m 5 1 107lbs 32c this dress was roomy in the bust and was a little too broad shouldered it was tight around the waist this caused creasing and buldging in the back the co lor is much more vibrant in person i would have kept it if it fit properly i love these tees i ordered 2 of the map shirt they are comfortable and stylish i knew that i would wear it so m uch so i bought a spare this dress looks and feels classy and expensive every time i wear it out i get compliments on the color and style what can i say this is a winner it is stunning gorgeous a perfect summer dress that looks like sunshine and orange sorbet it is classic earl y 1960s look which is exactly my style i am usually a 14 or a 16 so i went with a 16 based on the reviews and it fits divinely i don t need another orange dress but this is a keeper grea t dress love how flattering it is and that it has a little bit of a retro feel the dress is we ll made too maeve does not disappoint unlike many of the tops and dresses which recently hav e been billowy a bit shapeless and not form fitting this hugs all the right curves it s ador able eye catching and the pattern is so cute i paired it with nude heels today and a jacket so fun just like the wynwood top in all 4 colors the level of fun and playfulness is unmatched it s tts i am 5 4 115 and got the 2 thank you retailer thank you maeve this pull over is so easy to wear very comfortable and has a great bohemian vibe it s quality seems higher than what i was expecting lots of details tassels fringe and hood i travel a lot for work interna tionally and it s become my go to for the plane dinners and excursions makes a boring outfit l d send back and try a 12 i tried the size 2 regular in store they were a bit roomy and since i am 5 3 i was glad that they were offered in petite they did not carry petites in the store so they ordered a petite 0 for me i tried them on when i received them and they fit like they h ad been tailor made for me the rise was a bit short but not a deal breaker however they were very long and i hoped that i had shoes that were high enough i often hem pants but figure when i buy petites there is no need also the hem this blouse is perfect for a summer afternoon it s very light and the v neck back on it is super cute the coloring is amazing it s hard to find anything with those two colors incorporated looks perfect with jeans or shorts and can be dress the right places and makes my extra baby pudge seem nonexistent before baby i was a bikini onl y kind of girl so i wasn t sure how i d feel in a one piece in this style it really is better than i could have imagined i highly recom this top is a great addition to my summer wardrobe i love it because it does not cling to my body and in a hot humid summer i want things that flow this is super cute and flattering the lace in the back is soft and not too revealing love the lace on the back it s a sweet take on a typical tee comfy a little on the boxier side but a g others have said i seem to have been buying many maeve prints lately and got used to that fit this blouse fits slimmer but not tight and ends up extremely flattering the arms are also a b it slimmer in cut but not too tight the fabric has a little give stretch and so even f they a ren t totally loose it s still comfortable the lace detail is subtle but pretty i am going to wear this to death i can tell i have been wanting this skirt since it came out and was overjo yed when it went on sale i got my typical 00 size 24 26 waist xsmall xxsmall shirts dresses but when i tried it on i was a bit confused the waist is a little roomy so there s no way i cou n a suit but it s well worth the money i m 5 3 140 lbs and my stomach is my biggest problem area i ordered a size 8 and it s a perfect fit and very flattering i love these jeans the minu te you put them on they feel broken in and comfortable they do have a long inseam and need to b e worn with a stacked heel but that adds to the aesthetic i ordered my normal size i usually we ar a 27 and could have kept them but wanted a snugger fit through the bum so i gave them to a f riend and ordered one size down and got the perfect fit for me for those of you that don t care for stretch jeans you would probably like these they feel like 100 cotton but better no stret ch at all which i m glad i m not a fan of the stretch to me these are those comfy go to jeans i got my usual size 28 which i perfer in these because i can use the pockets with ease the pock ets are lower side pocket which are great you will likely need to hem them unless you are prett lders is incredibly small i ordered up from my normal 2 to a 4 and it was still too tight the re is no way i could even lift my arms over my head without ripping out the back of the jacket i fear a 6 will be too big this one is going back sadly this is perfect if you are looking fo r comfort and style in the same bathing suit nan the fitted high waist with the wide legs make for a flattering and comfortable short perfect length as well dress up or down love these sho rts and wish there were more colors beautiful dress i usually wear a size 4 regular or a 6 pe tite if the dress has sleeves i ordered this in the 6p and it is too big wish i could exchan ge it for a 4p but it s no longer available have only tried on but it is a very cute skirt and i think will be comfortable to wear i love the texture of the material i do wish it came in ot her colors it is a little heavier material but not too much i was originally looking for a den im skirt with a fit and flare shape i then saw this skirt and decided it was much more versatil e than denim it is a mid weight skirt lined good length just above the knee and the swingy shape is perfect i will wear it now with boots and a chunky sweater when it warms up flats an d a short sleeve sweater will be cute i ordered a small but i really should have paid more att ention to the other reviews because it does run large i ordered another one in e this is online exclusive so i ordered both sizes xs and s it runs pretty large so i kept size xs the material can be stretched but i like the feeling of it and very comfortable to your skin i am so happy receiving so many compliments wherever i go i m always nervous about length on ponchos and t his one was perfect fit like the model and i am 5 7 it is definitely a thin semi sheer knit but it looks so classy and elegant with a black long sleeve under it and jeans i love that this doesn t require dry cleaning and makes me look put together for an easy day to night look i m 2 5 weeks pregnant and love that this works now and later very happy with this purchase i boug ht it in black and cream great weight soft fabric beautiful lace looks really nice on teh pi ctures i tried on thre cream as this was the only color availalbe at my store tried on per sty list recommendation it is very thin you can see ripples from my belly lol but still fairly f lattering i ended up purchasing but it is in my maybe pile for now wil lwait before wearing it to be sure can t wear a grey bar with it that htin beautiful dress loved the navy and t he low v neck in front and back but i had to return for smaller size i am 5 2 114 lbs i orde red small and it was a little big and definitely long i returned for an xs petite and am hoping it will fit perfectly this skirt is a great staple i somewhat agree with the first reviewer th at it is a little big but not huge i bought a m which is my regular size and i have to have it shorten the length but that is typical for me since i am very short but i liked the waist and didn t feel like it was too big and i have a very small waist i don t like tight elastic at the waist and this sat very comfortably on me nice heavy material for the winter i ordered this in size xl it fits true to size it does have a boat neckline which runs a little tight on me but everything else feels comfortable i know this isn t a flattering style horizontal stripes on m y plus sized pear shape isn t my favorite but i love the back the knot isn t very comfortabl e to lean against i just love the lace in the back that i wear it when running short errands wh ere i don t have to lean back a lot it does need a tank underneath or it s see through in the b comfy and different almost like a sweater fabric i bought the 0p and love this skirt it works well dressed up for a night out or i even wore it to my nieces baptism have received a ton of compliments each time i ve worn it i purchased this top in the oatmeal beige color i love it the material is very soft and it fits true to size i would have purchased the black color too i f it was still available so happy with this top i love the fabric the colors and the flowy fi t definitely recommend i am 5 39 4 125 130lbs c34 bust i ordered this dress for a wedding in size 2 and it was too big exchanged for the size 0 and it fits perfectly order 1 size down ladies i love this dress it s adorable and great for summer with a unique style it s a bit un usual with the high and slightly ruffled neck it can easily be dressed up or worn more casually this is the most flattering dress i ve found this season particularly around the stomach area i m 5 3 and took a petite size which fit perfectly this dress is a bit translucent so skin t oned undergarments are a must this top is really pretty and flattering i bought my usual size and its loose and flows without being too boxy the pattern is beautiful and the band on the top stays up well like the other reviewer i was super lucky to find this dress at my local stores i tried both the medium and the small usually at retailer i wear a medium however this dress in a medium did not look flattering on me it hung off my shoulders and the material was too loo se in between the velvet tiers making my bottom look bumpy when i tried on the small the dres s fit and flattered me perfectly by far the best dress i ever owned i truly recommend you try this dress on before purchasing fo i was pleasantly surprised when i received this top in the m ail i expected the top to be more of a tee shirt but it is very soft and more like a light swea ter i feel the sizing is true to size but the design is not meant to be close to the body for me the shoulders and length were perfect \r\n\r\nthis top is all about the sleeves matador pe rhaps but it was the sleeves that attracted me to this sweater i will wear with with a vest s kinny jeans and booties this dress is the best of all worlds sophisticated modern and flatte ring i was surprised that the dress is actually two separate pieces a navy blue slip and a b old magenta lace overlay which will be perfect going into fall and the holiday season i had tw o babies back to back and am not back to my pre baby shape but i was pleased to see how flatter ing this dress was i will be wearing it to a wedding in a couple of weeks and i know i will fe el comfortable and confident in it this is so cute and i love that it is not heavy or bulky lo ve this dress ordered a 0p and it fit perfectly this is a beautiful dress and my husband agre es i m 5 5 114lb and the xs was long on me and a bit baggy on top i looked in to having it taken up but i think that will be hard to do without damaging much of what s elegant about the dress i hope that someone with more curves and a bit more height is able to enjoy this one the fabric is more sweater like than it appears in the image but it makes the dress both cozy and c omfortable the skirt is a faux wrap that s secured at the waist by the tie overall the dress is high quality true to fit and very flattering this turtleneck is already wrapped and it s s oon going under the tree for me i bought it when i saw it in the store and tried it on it s fi tted but not too tight or snug just fitted and flattering the lace cutout area is so flatter ing and unexpected i love this top and think it will be a wardrobe staple both for dress and casual i ll wash it carefully just in case it seems well made but i d hate to snag the lace i have vowed to only purchase high waisted bottoms from here on out because they are just more i n line with my style these shorts did not disappoint i love that they re versatile enough to w ear with a cute top wedges or with a t shirt and flats great find i got my normal sz 25 wh ich is usually a tight fit these zipped up perfectly though this is such a cool top sweater i like simple designs with a twist and the sleeves add that great with skinnies and heels i do not think this dress runs large i think it it is true to size i am usually a size 10 and a 34d d definitely curvy and tall at 5 8 the large was perfect for my bust i ordered a med also an d it looks really narrow in the waist length is below knees as pictured i was finding that the zipper under left arm is very catchy i even checked the med and it is worse that concerns me but love the dress so i am keeping the large length is so hard i hardly ever find a dress the hits a little i couldn t wait to try this dress on when i first saw it featured it is stunning i love the red lace over layed with a blue slip it adds a fun color contrast to the piece i am usually a size 6 in retailer clothing and found this one comfortably true to size this dress ha s a very renaissance chic quality which is very feminine flirty and unique a great find for fa ll winter parties i can t wait to wear it \r\n\r\nif i had to find a fault with this dress it s the lack of pockets retailer d beautiful and femine dress it comes with a slip which is a bi g plus it fits well and the sleeves are flowy and just at the right length the only downside i s that the bottom is not hem and being lace it is delicate you have to take care wearing this this is a very nice well made skirt but beware it runs extremely large in size around the wais t i usually wear a m in most things and i am going to return this skirt for an xs these short s work well for shopping running errands or spending hours on dirty baseball bleachers they a re not too short and are true to size love the fit not so tight you can wear a short top wit h these but not slouchy either color goes with everything for wrinkles i hung them and spray ed with water wrinkles gone bought 2 pair for traveling these joggers are amazing they fit true to size if not a bit loose i purchased my usual small size 6 the seams are sewn perfect ly and the fabric is dreamy i wore these to work with sandals and was so comfy and appropriate all day in the hot weather the color is a deep gray and goes with everything the front panel m akes them a bit more fitted and there is even back pockets it is a very pretty bra light weigh t and beautiful lace however i have yet to find a t back that does not make me feel like i am going to spill out to me it ran small i now know to get a 34 instead i am working on losing w eight perhaps that might help with the fit really fun comfortable pants i haven t worn them y et as its hot here but i can t wait i tried them on with wedge sandals a lacey bohemian top a nd they looked awesome i also tried them on with white rocker booties and my vintage t that say s italians do it better and a jean jacket i m loving the look feel of them bring on the c ool autumn days this is so flowing and perfect to hide any flaws i adore it i do wish this cam e in a 30dd sizing purchased he 32d and it fits though the band is looser than desired i am s till keeping it i love the back will be great for some of my dresses ti used to wear strapless bras to wear recommend true to size if we take into account how some brands are making things bigger for hte size i ordered both the xxs and xs and xxs was more flattering years past xxs would be way too snug my size didn t change pros i actually thought the cut was flattering o n me the top is very cute hte bummer for me is the fabric the grey part is not as sift as i w ould have hoped and the shirt part can wrinkle did in the package length was nice for both sizes so overall i would go smaller for a as in the other review this dress runs small i m u sually an 8 but it was tight and short i would love to exchange for a 10 but it s out of stock the beading and the colors on this dress are breathtaking i was so disappointed it didn t fit the background is more taupe nude than cream which i actually really like okay these are serio usly the cutest black jeans i ve ever put on my body i can t say enough positive things about t hem sure the color bleeds a little like the previous review stated but they re black jeans i haven t encountered a single pair of designer black jeans that don t have some color transfer \r\n\r\nalso these jeans are really stretchy which makes them a dream to wear \r\n\r\nhere is my one complaint i am normally a size 29 30 depending upon brand cut etc i had to size down to a these are super comfortable i love feeling like i m wearing pajamas in public but being pr operly dressed although i wear them around the house often too i don t regret spending this m uch money on these pants it was worth it since i m wearing them so much i bought the denim ch rocket high rise crop last spring and had so much fun wearing them that i had to scoop up these babys when i saw black same fantastic fit only i had to size up so i assuming they run small i n black i could sleep in these they are this comfy and so flattering i ve got a flat behind an d the placement of the pockets really give that lift i need in back i d buy one in every color if i could so worth that price tag i stalked the website to get this in a pxxs it runs a ta d large this is a beautiful garment i receive many many compliments every time i wear it in fact nearly everyone comments on it it is surprisingly warm for a cape i love that it works s o well over my bulkier sweaters as others have mentioned the buttons are a little difficult b ut i found that they got easier with multiple wearings i disagree with the reviewer that feels the collar must be worn up i actually like the collar down from the moment i saw this top i kne w i had to have it the colors of the embroidery are just so beautiful it is even prettier in p erson than it is online love this top it is a little big through the body waist i thought it would be a little more fitted but i still love it the bow really makes the shirt i own many of the natori feathers back close bras and decided to try the front close version for spring summer tops and dresses i purchased the yellow and got the matching hipsters panty i no longer see th e yellow available but you could find elsewhere or maybe retailer will bring this color back it is lovely for sizing i tried my normal size 34b and the cup size larger per other reviews the 34c did end up fitting better so i also recommend going up a cup size excited for warmer we ather i loved the colors of this vibrant dress the beading is fabulous the dress does run smal l i sized up one size i wore it out and got a lot of compliments i was excited to nab this lov ely because i am a sucker for a faux layered look i am usually an xs or s depending on the des igner so i went with xs in this top based on reviews that it doesn t drape well i barely got my arms into the sleeves i thought maybe it was a mistake and i received a child s size i eventu ally did get it on but barely got it back off size up 1 2 for comfort if you have to have this girl i was bummed my local retailer did not have a m for me to try returned for ref i would buy these in every color they re incredibly soft and stylish and feel like wearing pj s in publ ic as a mom items in my wardrobe that are easy to throw on in a flash comfortable to run arou nd in with my kids and still look like i took some time putting together my outfit are priceles s these fit the bill on all counts they look fantastic with a pair of booties and a light flo wing top \n\nthese have to be the most comfortable joggers ever made this top makes me feel lik e the artist i am it s so beautifully embroidered and detailed i wear it with cords or jeans a nd it never gets boring it was worth every penny i love this shirt and have received complimen ts each time that i ve worn it there is a lot of visual interest from the vibrant colors stitc hing and mesh panel on the back and it is a great transitional piece from late summer to fall a nd into winter my only complaint is that the threads pull easily and there are no laundering i nstructions so i had to log in to the website to learn that it was machine washable i would de finitely recommend using a lingerie bag washing on delicate and not pu i loved this top so much that i ended up purchasing it in another color it works with so many different outfits both ca sual and dressy it is super comfortable and so soft i would definitely recommend it oh this i s so much prettier in person what you can t see from the pics is that the bottom flutes out a b it it is quite charming fits true to size i love how this long sweater drapes it s soft fee ls great on and looks fabulous over leggings or skinnys i fell in love with this top when i s aw it online i love tracy reese the pattern is beautiful and the yellow is even brighter in pe rson i ordered a size small even though i normally wear an xs in all tops for whatever reason there was no xs offered which is odd the straps are adjustable which is good but unfortunately you absolutely cannot wear this top without fashion tape to keep the straps from falling off you r shoulders the straps slipped off my shoulders constantly i wore a coobie i love everything a bout this dress the style fit colors and design of fabric quality and feel of fabric so hap py and highly recommend i love this top other reviewers have mentioned the softness of the mat erial and the cozy perfect for fall perfect for the sf bay area winter but i would like to c all out my favorite element of the top being the scoop in the back it adds just a little bit of soft sexiness while being just right for a comfortable weekend sweater to a dressed up office ap propriate shirt this shirt is so soft and very flattering i ordered the navy in a medium 5 1 0 150 lbs love how it scoops in the back i get nervous shopping online but this top fit per fectly wasn t too long or too short it has nice flow and dresses up or down depending on the look you re going for i got the off white with blue polka dots and love it i m 5 7 with a 36 b bra size and a size 4 fit perfectly and could not have been more comfortable one big plus for me is that it is virtually wrinkle free i purchased the orange which is a lovely muted orange not neon or too bright and received multiple compliments when i wore it to work the first time bought the gray online just to try it and i ve already worn it 3 times very soft love the flow iness and the scoop in the back gives it a slightly less casual touch without losing comfort t he only concern i have is that it may pill up a little and not sure how it will hold up in the w ash i m 5 5 135lbs 34c curvy muscular frame and the size small was perfect true to size this top runs large i am going to return the medium i ordered for a small \r\ni wish it came i n different colors i love the style such a pretty blouse drapes nicely though it is a little on the large side i got my usual medium and had to fix the straps a few times but a fun summer top that makes you feel super feminine maybe i could have sized down but i got it online on cle arance so i didn t have the chance to try on another size still love it i ordered this in the burgundy and am in love with the print and color very feminine without being over the top \r\ni m 5 4 123lbs 34a and the 2 fit perfect the cut is drapey without being maternity like and i appreciate that s it not as long and full as many of the other tops out there making it easier to wear with some pants or skirts it even has little snaps to hold your bra strap in place alt hough i doubt i would use those this top is appropriate for any age without looking too girly i ordered this in both the white and navy colors navy being what looks like an ivory background with navy spots when i received the blouse the background on the navy is actually a light grey beige color that makes the whole top look kind of dingy when ordering the navy version be awar e that the product images don t show the true background color on the top just received this in black and am in love it has a stevie nicks vibe and i look forward to wearing it as a swimsuit cover up dress with black slip underneath and even with a black tank and skinny jeans it real ly is beautiful i am 5 3 and was worried it would be too long but it just hits above ground wi th flats and will work even better with wedges \r\n\r\nit is big and will flatter a variety of sizes even though i m a 6 8 i don t feel like it s too overwhelming \r\n\r\nmy only concern i s how nan this is such a fun happy dress i saw it in the store on the rack that has online retu rns so there was only one available to try on it was a size 4 and i usually wear a 6 in retaile r brands i loved the dress and tried it anyway and it fit perfectly which is why i think it run s a bit large for reference i am 5 2 and 140 lbs hourglass shape but a bit fluffy in the tummy and upper arms it has an empire waistline and a zipper in the back it is so light and a iry and super comfortable it ha lovely summer top comfortable and cool for hot summer days be autiful fabric fits tts highly recommend i just love the bright yellow floral pattern and the off the shoulder sleeves the loose fit is really ideal for when i just want to throw something on and run out the door but look super cute at the same time it runs a little large to give you the flowy look but i like things flowy so this wasn t an issue for me but a plus i love this i n the red motif looks great with jeans or white for maeve this runs a little larger at 5 8 130 lbs i typically need a 6 to keep the front from pulling gaping the 6 in this was roomy and the 4 was also good took the 6 for a little extra length the shirt hits be about like the mode l in length and while a little cropped it won t show your stomach wow great top i have al l the colors now wow like them all great weight cozy but not too heavy nice that no pilling e ither love it i love the look of this pullover however it was too short and heavy for my sma ll frame with narrow shoulders sleeves were too long as well i rarely buy anything at full pri ce at retailer but after trying this dress on last weekend i had to buy it because i couldn t handle the thought of not having this dress in my life i m 5 feet tall and a size 12 so this w as definitely a maxi on me but there is just enough room at the bottom that i can safely wear it with flats i m very pear shaped and this dress is extremely flattering on me even my husban d agreed that i needed to buy it even though he hates my shopping clothing add i purchased this top as a swim suit cover up and it is perfect i was counting on the model in the photo being ta ll so that the top would be longer on me and that was true great product nan being a 34d i wa s nervous about the gaping between the top two buttons given the other reviews i read they re r ight it totally gaps even when standing still so i took it to the tailor they sewed the seam between the top two buttons easy fix for a blouse that otherwise works the color is great i g ot the red one and i like the fabric i didn t think it hit awkwardly at the bottom seam looks great with skinny white jeans nan i m glad i tried this on i was drawn to the burgundy and pin k floral print but i wasn t so sure about the cut or style of the top once it was on however i loved it i don t much care for the a line tops that remind me of maternity wear they re cute on rail thin young girls but not so much on mom bod women in their 40s this top is the except ion the details from the buttons to the thin pleats the unique cut of the bust line and the pr int make this top both lovely and flattering i wore i m a big fan of maeve products still eve n when i like something i always prefer to try on in the store just to be certain i decided to risk it this time and was so happy when this top came and it fit perfectly i m 5 3 150 lbs but carry more weight on bottom so i ordered the 8 it s just right cute and flowy i ll probably g et another one in a different color i bought this in wine in both the small and medium both fi t but am keeping the medium since it drapes better and looks like the photo with longer length i n body and sleeves light material is a great weight since heavy sweaters can be too hot in heat ed offices style can be dressed up or down for office or weekend have ordered the blue and gre y only concern is how well the fabric will launder i love almost everything about these jeans color fabric and rise are perfect unfortunately they bag at the knee on me should have ord ered a size smaller than my usual but since i have worn them i will keep them looking forward to wearing this on a beach holiday what a delight of a dress i saw it online and it piqued my interest in person too with only one size available i was limited to try on a dress two sizes too small so i ve factored that in to my review the dress is very light and would be see through without the attached slip the length fell just above my ankle with the design allowing for a movement and flow to the bottom the colors are vibrant in person perhaps even more so than online the fit seems to be true to size though i have to i got this in the green blue pink motif and i love it really nice flow and not tent like at all 5 8 135 and in a size 6 i don t find this shows my stomach at all it s really comfortable and i love the colors i did get this in store at 15 off and i think it s a little pricy for a rayon shirt without the discount very comfortable sweater tts i felt the back was a little too low to wear to work but it works perfectly reversed tempted to buy it in another color loved this blouse but tried on size 8 my size waaaaaay too big tried a 6 still big but the 4 was perfect the only problem was that it did get a bit shorter in length but also ended up a little more fitted which i really liked this shirt was exactly what i was looking for it s fitted at the top with just the right amount of swing some of retailer s shirts can have too much swing for me but this is just right the color is great too i agree with other reviews this shirt is more like a thin sweater it is so soft i was walking around the first time i wore it asking people to pet me i just got it on sale and wore it twice this week already i ve gotten so many compliments i bought this on sale in grey i love it so much that i just bought a navy and burgundy one too it runs slightly large but i like my comfortable sweaters to fit large definitely an important staple to any wardrobe a while back the moss ikat print appealed to me online but sometimes these style tops look maternity on me so i passed up well abt a month ago i spotted the moss in the store had to try it it really is cute love the print even more in person the size 4 was fine but the armholes exposed the bra a little i wondered if it wld be a little too short after washing well the size 6 was a little longer a tad more flowy oddly the armholes covered the bra the 4 didn t i went w the siz this is such a cute summer tank to wear with capris or shorts it is loose fitting and while i normally prefer the petite sizing at 5 1 i got the 00 since i liked the longer length i purchased the wine and navy colors and the neckline isn t too deep at all love it love this sweater one of my favorite fall purchases by far love how it hangs especially the low back it s simple comfortable yet so chic at the same time i bought the grey and goes great with skinny jeans and boots i wore this tunic everyday on vacation in hawaii runs a little small i m usually a small and the x small was just right perfect length short but not too short this dress ran large on me i am a 10 sometimes an 8 but went with the 10 it just hung on me giving me no shape the colors are pretty and the dress was nice but i expected it to wow me more for the price sending back may try again if the next size makes it to sale perfect fall accessory and transitional piece for cooler days classic red and black check with a fashion flair great with jeans or dress it up with jewelry a great find i was hesitant to order these especially because they didn t have a petite since there s shipping and i thought i might have to return them i know that most shorts from retailer run a little big i m usually a 4 but in retailer bottoms 0 2 i ordered the 2 regular since there were no petites they re not too high waisted i think they could have gone higher but they re not low either love them they re so fun and i can t wait to break them out i love this dress i have it in the other color black and white but now i see this color scheme and i think i may actually like this one better i love the wider stripes near the waistline which gives it a slimming appearance the knotted look gives this dress a beachy feel which gets me in the mood for summertime i love that the pattern is bold but the color scheme allows this dress to still stay in the casual category and still be insanely flattering i love that i could wear this dress eve versatile and fun dress color is better in person than picture looks great with jeans jacket for chilly moments doesn t wrinkle on long airplane trip and rolls up teeny tiny for packing love these shorts such a pretty print i love the design of this cape most capes are coats which can only be wore in the fall months here in the midwest since winter is too cold this cape is more like a layering piece for indoors similar to a cardigan sweater which i like it can be wore in an office setting or out on the town with jeans the constructions is well made as well for a blouse this beautiful and whimsical i just can t understand why the little button loops would need to be constructed to maintain security on fort knox i patiently worked my way through the gauntlet of them because i was determined to try it on but ultimately i can t see doing this again for a pricey top that shouldn t require hard labor to access the fabric is perfect a beautiful cotton lawn without any sheen which really brings out the contrast of colors it is slightly see through this dress looks so beautiful on the model and i couldn t resist ordering it on line i have an athletic build read small hips straight i m 5 5 and 135 lbs i was very disappointed when i put on it s made for a curvy build the dress was just too big especially around the hips i think this dress is probably beautiful on a curvier build this shirt is comfortable and looks just like the picture my only complaint is that it is quite boxy so not very flattering the colors and details are great the material is good quality and thick if you are looking for a light t shirt this is not for y ou nan i saw this in the store and wanted to try it on but ran out of time a week or so ago i thought i would need petite but surprise it does not come in petite so i started obsxessin g that i had to try it on whcich i did yesterday mistake because i love it and even if it is not peite it workedc with heels and online it already says only a few left so my size will not make it to sale so i bought it full price \n\ncut is very flattering and colors are grea t also can be worn any seas i love this blouse the shape is very flattering the fabric is sh eer perfect for those hot summer days i especially like the way the sleeves fall just enough flounce the buttons are a great detail i didn t bother undoing them just threw it over my hea d looks great dressed up or down nan very pretty color slightly darker than on my computer a bit like a light periwinkle lavender embroidery is lovely and the dress has a fresh spring pe great dress for the spring summer months good quality and was a nice deal on sale beautifu l top had trouble with the buttons but i just slipped it over my head to avoid trying to get t he buttons loose it will look great with dark jeans and mules i bought this shirt because the reviews convinced me to i bought it in the blue color and it s really cute the design on the s leeves is also great and the back of the shirt looks cute too i have this top in both the green and blue and live them both the back of this top is so cute and makes the whole top the embroid ery is cute too i was hesitant to try this duster vest because i m on the shorter side 5 1 11 tely a keeper the fabric design of these shorts is so great i don t adore the fit they are a little short waisted for my long torso and the leg openings flare out more than i prefer and are about 1 2 1 inch longer than i would like but i can fix the inseam issue by hemming them i may still pick them up just because i love the fabric so much hi quality fabric and detail fit rea lly well i m 5 4 120 and they will be a staple of my summer wardrobe i found this dress on a pretty good sale i d never pay full price that said it s very stylish it reminds me of marni mui mui or prada as other posters have mentioned it does run tight across the bust i love this little vest such an easy outfit completer just throw it on over jeans and a tank or long sleev es and voila effortlessly chic the colors pop and it s the perfect length if you re on the f ence with this one definitely give it a try you won t be disappointed this is the first thing i saw when i walked into retailer and immediately snagged it it is so flattering and true to si ze pretty colors unusual styling there is nothing about this beauty that i don t like i saw this at my retailer store and hesitated to try it on as it looked so long i m only 5 1 so it goes to above my ankles it s like a midi dress on me but i really love it it is so flattering there is a inner lining that smoothes out anything you don t want to show it s the usual bailey got it or commented that they liked it i guess i made the right decision the inside is a super soft gray jersey knit wears great with black nan nan i just got this shirt the other day and already love it it fits like a basic tee but the details on the sleeves and back are really cu te the shape is loose at the bottom which makes this really comfortable \r\nmy only complaint is it s a little tight across the back but this does not hurt the overall fit and comfort of th e top this is a little thicker than a tee shirt too so the quality feels nice so cute modest length perfect with a flowy top and wedges for date night or t shirt and flip flops for a littl e dressier daytime love the colors this is a great tee true to size i ordered the large and i t skims nicely over my hips it has lovely quirky design features in the back and pinkish cross stitches on the sleeves and shoulders i got the blue and it looks just like the pic great weig re what the big to do about the buttons is all about i was able to slip the blouse on over my head without undoing any of them with no problems yes the buttons are difficult but unless you re breastfeeding they shouldn t be a deal breaker the blouse is exactly what i was expecting so pretty feminine and flattering also though it is a tiny bit sheer i plan to wear it with a nude bra and no cami very well made and would flatter the right body type i sized up to a me dium normally size 6 but the front part where the wrap came together did not cover me the on ly thing you could see was the grey liner i m not sure this one was not sewn incorrectly or it ran terribly small i have had success with bailey 44 in the past so maybe this one was just not for me the quality of the fabric and design are well done i bought this shift dress for a bla ck plaid nye event and it fit the bill perfectly for a cold winter s night looks great with tights and boots has pockets and dresses up nicely i like a good shift at this point in the h oliday season leaves room for that last bit of seasonal eating and drinking looking forward to wearing this through the winter months i loved the lavender color on the cape it was soft a nd comfortable but the design on the front ruined it for me it took me all of 1 minute to know it was going back it looked like florescent bird feathers nothing wrong with that it just wasn t my style at all i was a bit disappointed as it would have been perfect for cool ca nights it looked more subdued in the photo it s not i clicked i would recommend to others as it is nicel y made and i guess just not my taste as far as the colors an beautiful and comfy love it i absolutely love this dress it hugs your body without being clingy very flattering the fabric is so soft i am 5 7 120 lbs and i usually take an xs or s i got a m in this dress becaus e of the style and fit and it was perfect i gained a million pounds in the last couple years so now i usually stay away from anything clingy or stretchy but this dress is genius it somehow l ooks smooth over everything while clinging to the curves in all the right places and none of the wrong ones i m 5 5 about 190 pounds and have a proportionate hourglass shape the m actually fit great normally i d wear a large but the stretch and flattering cut of the dress made the m look better i would venture to guess most people could size perfect except a little snug around the hips very forgiving silhouette i got this dress and the material was super fuzzy and itchy the prior reviews stated it was warm and cozy and not itchy at all but i found it to be uncom fortably so the dress was true to size for me and the length was good i loved the plaid in the material just wished the material had been more soft and not rough the material reminded me of mohair loved this dress and was even happier to learn i could order it in petite i purchased the washed out blue color it is lovely with blue or black jeans medium fit great it is heavie r cotton and ever so slightly stretchy this is not the kind of cotton to eventually come out o f the dryer with tiny holes around the bottom of the tee it is very comfortable the embellishm ent on the sleeves is a nice touch and i like the yoke with loop closure on the back a fun add ition to my casual wardrobe i love these shorts love that the inseam is longer than 3 the pa ttern is awesome perfect for spring my thighs are always going to be bigger than most so i si zed up 1 size like i do in all cartonnier pants these are a must have for spring summer just g ot this vest in my store yesterday and i was immediately drawn to it the outside of the vest is this thick knit in an oatmeal color and a bright cobalt blue even brighter than it appears onli ne the inside is a jersey knit fabric in grey its an eye catcher for sure i knew i needed to try it on the vest is longer in length like it appears in the photos my only gripe is the fi t its great around the neck nice and full but i wish the body of the vest was larger it fit s very much i saw these shorts while leaving the store and immediately went back to the register to add them to my wardrobe they fit me true to other cartionnier clothing i m 5 7 126 lbs and took a size 6 there is a significant amount of stretch in them but do not grow as the day goes on the colors are bright and fun without looking juvenile let me start by saying i was not in the market for a new dress i bought this because it was retailer day and because in my seasoned experience as an online shopper this many positive reviews is rare so i d better listen up and because i really like the other bailey 44 dress i own wow i am glad i made the impulse decisio n to buy this i love it my husband loves it and it s comfy for reference i did size down and went with a petite had i not i think the dress would look on me like it does on i love this sho rt i normally wear size 10 this short just bit larger than average 10 it is not to short not t o long just perfect i love this dress very comfortable soft absolutely i was sorry to miss the original offering of this dress when it went on sale so i jumped and ordered the gray blue green black stripes when offered i purchase almost all of my retailer clothes online the dress es i am interested in are not generally offered in my local store so there is always that momen t of truth when i get to find out if something i fell in love with actually works for me as e veryone else has said this dress is fabulous i got my usual size 10 i am 5 5 small busted an d i never write reviews and i do a ton of online shopping but i had to write how amazing this dr ess is so happy with this purchase totally worth every penny it fits like a dream the rouchi ng on the side is so pretty and i love the full coverage at the top such he pretty colors too perfect dress love this top very flattering and form figure i dont see the issue with the buttoms has elastized back enough to pullover in and out material is thin yes but not so se e through i m so keeping this this is a very stylish casual top it fits great i plan on wea ring it with a long sleeve black tshirt underneath or black turtleneck i absolutely love the cr ochet detail at the bottom at the altar of bailey 44 all hail the gathered stripes dress be cause it can do nothing wrong especially to my body i got the mp and this piece totally enhan ces what little i ve got so happy wanted to love this dress the fabric is very nice pretty colors great quality and style it just didn t work for my body type it would fit great on som eone with narrower shoulders probably want to size down love these i m about 5 4 and they fi t right at the ankle the slit gives them a little more detail than regular jeans i ve worn the m several times and they haven t stretched out at all perfect for spring dress looks awesome en though it did not work for me i tried the small and extra small the first way too big le ngthwise hit my knees as well as in the shoulders the latter to tight across the chest not for me but worth a try i am typically a small with usually never have a problem with length i have athletic calves from running so i really struggle with straight skinny jeans but these fi t me just fine and don t look like jeggings i think the slit helps i have a 29 inseam and t hese hit just above the ankle great find especially on sale i was lucky enough to hit retail er day in san diego and snagged this little number it is truly better looking in person the d ress hugs in all the right places and actually fits tighter than the model shows but the materi al is that soft but stretchy and gently molds to the shape of your body i was really surprised i would have never tried this dress from the photo shown so glad i went in it s really adorab le this is a very fitted dress i love it and it is very comfortable but might only be appropri ate for date night as it really hugs curves there is a lining of the same material underneath t hat holds you in a little i think it could go with a lot of different shoes and you could dress it up or down with jewelry jacket even a large sweater over the top tts i definitely would n ot recommend sizing down i m a 8 10 and the med is right for me very flattering and comfortabl e doesn t show undie lines i am 5 7 and it hit me at same spot as shown in photo a keeper can dress up or down i typically wear a medium but typically steer away from body con styles l was perfect fit for me form fitting but not skin tight i ordered this top in 2 colors because i thought it would be great with leggings i always love my retailer purchases but this fell a little short i think it may be the type fabric it is but the way the back hangs so low on my f rame 5 4 it doesn t drape nicely over my leggings the style of the top is very cute and mayb e if i wanted it for skinny jeans it would be ok i returned them both to the store \n\nthis is one that would be better to try on first i love wearing this so much i wear it with leggings jeans and i also like to pair it with is a long linen skirt that i have i purchased it in plum and then went back for a second in moss i got them before they went on sale for fear they d be out of my size i am very happy with my purchase i highly recommend these leggings are perfect i normally struggle to find pants that are comfortable and flattering but these are exactly what i ve been looking for they are so versatile they can be worn for a lazy day in or a night on the town a new staple in my wardrobe sheer and lightweight perfect for summer great detail c ould not justify paying full price great jeans especially if you are on the shorter side 5 ft 3 for example they run very large i typically buy size 28 29 and bought a size 27 and had a t ailor take in the waist a bit i m syked for these for fall this tee has a loose fit very comf ortable covers my backside with inches to spare flattering fit although oversized i m a small medium in most retailer tops the small fit me nicely 34dd 140lbs 5 6 bought it in olive and m ustard great for layering or weekends this dress does indeed run large like the other reviewer s mentioned but it also runs small in the shoulders i m 5 3 and usually a size 6 the xs fit perfectly in the body but was a little too small in the shoulders i liked the dress enough to size up to a small to fit the shoulders and then just had the sides taken in slightly i did pu rchase this dress during the 20 off sale so that helped justify the cost of alterations soft fabric and long flattering perfect for leggings i am pleasantly surprised by this purchase i went back and forth on buy in this but ended up trying it out so glad i did it is very flatte ring and a very nice color it fits perfectly and i look forward to wearing it with my distresse d denim and boots for fall i love the cut of this top it flares out nicely and is very stylis h the blue is also soft on every skin tone even my super pale skin i like that it has some detail not just the plain chambray denim color the xs was nice i didn t try petite or xxs ju st bought the xs in store you can adjust how tight the fit is by tying the top and loose is n ice in this style the length was also good 115 lbs 30dd chest nan this is a thick material but it is also airy i got the white and don t have to worry about it being see through it is a little boxy but the hem hits a good length and doesn t bother me really great for work in the summer and going between really hot and really cold temperatures a good basic piece that can be dressed up or down that is definitely worth getting runs big especially if you re on the short er side very long on my 5 3 frame even in extra small material was thinner than i d hoped doesn t look as smooth as on the model this top will really only look good with leggings pant s with any detail or rear pockets will show through and detract from the look i do like the sle eve length and rich colors for fall it s soft and feels nice on skin \r\ntrue to size and fits just fine more form fitting than model picture i m thrilled with this purchase and looking fo rward to spending many years with this classic on the subject of fit i generally wear size med ium for tops but my broad shoulders occasionally have me in larges since the thick textured fa bric is mostly cotton and minimal stretch with a mix of linen the larger size will provide mo re room and comfort i m honoring my tts choice for folks who prefer a more fitted look ove rall this piece wears well i ordered the dark turquoise skirt and it fits perfectly the mater ials is a very high quality corduroy and the color is beautiful i really like the buttons on th e front as well gotta love warm skirts for colder climates love this shirt so comfortable and the style is really flattering adorable comfortable i m 5 3 115 lbs and ordered an xs i absolutely love this top it is soft comfortable and perfectly flowy this is definitely my fav orite go to casual summer top i have never looked good in a legging stretchy denim jeggings are usually the most i can get away with but i am amazed how flattering these are the fit is g reat i got a m cause i m small but curvy in my hips butt the material is thick enough not to reveal too much and the faux pocket in the back does a lot to make one feel less exposed the l ength seems like it would be a great compromise between short and tall girls too i m pretty s hort but they aren t too long on me there s a ve i just tried it on and it fits well with no extra room it seems like a nice fall piece to have in your wardrobe the color leans more towar ds green now i have to figure out what to put on top when i wear it \r\ni think it will be cute with boots these are the best leggings i ve ever worn because they are structured and substant ial they are less casual than ordinary leggings i bought them for a trip to paris and i wore them many times they re sleek stylish comfortable and they go with everything love this ski rt i purchased the chino skirt during the summer and wore it weekly this skirt is the fall e quivalent flattering and true to size there is some stretch to it so it s very comfortable highly recommend nice chunky knit cotton tank with cut out shoulders sporty looking armholes are the right size and bra doesn t show no holes to see through even in white tts i took my usual medium falls to about hip bone approx 20 from shoulder not tight not baggy but has a nice comfortable drape i got in white best to put it on before applying makeup this goes grea t with black and white print pilazzo pants love this top bought this skirt in the light plum c olor nice soft corduroy fabric \r\nit fit well not too short \r\nwill be cute this fall with a sweater and boots \r\nmy only complaint i wish it had pockets living in alaska means fall s tarts early and winter runs long this great little skirt is perfect for casual fridays and week ends i am 4 11 and ordered the petite 4 which is a little big around the waist but could tuck a sweater or shirt in absolutely love this skirt and thinking about purchasing in another color nice rendition of a summer halter that resembles denim i bought my normal small but could have downsized to an xs if your busty stay with your normal size as it is more tts i like the blue plaid colors and the soft cotton material it s made of it has a very nice flow with the cute pe ek a boo back neckline the interior fabric lining is also a quite lovely chambray blue that nic ely offsets the blue plaid this shirt is so pretty and casual however with a nice scarf it can also be worn to a nicer restaurant it also hides all my flaws the only concern i have is it s a bit thin material and not sure how long it will last having said that i love how the materia l looks and falls on my body i love it so much i bought a white shirt as well as the lavender i bought this top on sale in the store and immediately came home and ordered it in another color online i love the length even in the xs which isn t always the case i am 5 9 and a size 2 and the xs fits me perfect even after washing and drying a couple times looks cute under sweaters a nd vests can wear all year round lightweight and good neckline i bought the first one in the gold color which i call mustard i really love the high low style and looks great when worn wit h a long necklace s when they went on sale i bought two more black and grey i love that the y are perfect for layering when it s cold but that i can also wear them alone in other seasons thy ran a bit large for me so i was able to purchase the small i am small boned but large in the bust i m also short 5 2 but they don t look too long especially when i wear great style and fit i purchased the wine color and i m probably going to also get the other two i typical ly wear a 10 12 in skirts bought this in a 12 and it fits perfect however the fabric is super stretchy so a 10 may have been sufficient i bought this in the faded pink rose color which is inexplicably called red motif and it is very comfortable yet not so stretchy as to fall off i did size down from 12 to 10 there is a bit of puckering of the front placket but i believe b ased on my history with pilcro that there will be enough stretching out to even out that pucker ing i wish there were pockets though i can see it may be a design decision i love the faded in between color but the other colors are great and i can see gett love the material more natural fiber than synthetic the pattern and the colors also it is cozy the one con is that it is really big and crazy long so long that it may be a show stopper on the fence about that nan they were fine i had hoped they d be more like begging a though more structure they were ve ry much just leggings and rather unflattering in the crotch area they felt well made though mi ght work for someone else not a bad legging love this dress the color is gorgeous what you d on t see until you see the dress in person is the beautiful detail of the stitched flowers on th e dress i received so many compliments when i wore this dress the sleeves are sheer and the ma terial light weight you can wear this dress year round i love these kind of dresses retailer knows how to do this right love this store great basic item can be worn with leggings or pant s dressed up or down or layered on fit and color are true to size and picture lovely feel to this almost cowl neck turtleneck it s quite thin and has 3 4 length sleeves so it won t keep you warm but the fabric is soft the ribbing is flattering and the fit is loose without feelin g frumpy overall a good staple that s a bit more interesting the mauve ish color looks great with grays i ordered this dress in the green and i love it it does run a little large so i we nt down one size which was ok by me it is super cute fits great and goes great under cardig ans and jackets this top is super cute nice and light for the hot weather with a tts fit the model is wearing a light colored bra so it shows through but with a black bra there is no pr oblem this top is great it looks much better in person it s still kind of a faded look but it s not as light as shown here also the exact location of the plaid is different on each top it runs just a tiny bit large but i liked it loose so took my normal size there is another fabric lining the front in a very cute print will be a nice loose and cool top for summer love the t ie in the back as well nan the tank is very structured thick yet breathable not see through the coral is much brighter in person and the white is more like a light cream color the white is versatile for all seasons but i like the coral because it s such an unusual color size regul ar xs is fitted on me not too tight not too loose but over the course of the day it stretche s a little and the hem falls at the upper hip i m 5 2 34b 26 waist 36 hips my favorite p art is the arm holes are not too big the knit a i saw this skirt at my local retailer store and thought it was just another corduroy skirt until i got up close and personal it feels so soft y et there is structure to the skirt hurray for a bit of spandex for movement the first button i s different from the rest of the buttons and i appreciate that type of details only the wine co lor was available in the store and it is shown just like on the photo the skirt falls right abo ve my knees and size regular 4 fit me very well i m 5 2 26 waist 3 i like this top it fits nicely the knit is thicker than i though it would be t but i still like it i purchased this ta nk in white the material is very soft but it is very thick which i was surprised by but i st ill like it the fit is a little boxy i have an xxsp and it fits a little large hangs perfectl y just like the photo i almost sent it back just because of the boxy look but i think i make it work this summer going to keep it light weight and cotton great summer top runs a little big but it suits me i m short and find the straps a drop loose because they re a fixed length m eant for someone a little taller than 5 1 me but they are not falling down so far also if yo u look at the photo of the model wearing the top in black you can see through the lace to the b ra underneath if you just wear a bra the same color as the top it s not at all noticeable grea t piece for summer great pants with a couple of quibbles \r\n\r\nthese pants have mini blue st ripes in the fabric so in real life they look a bit more blue than they do in the photos these are not white pants but they would fill the faded blue denim niche in your wardrobe and also like faded blue denim these pants are more opaque than most lightweight white pants are these d ays you would not want to wear black underwear with these but likewise your undergarment choic e would not be immediately apparent compa bought this dress online in my usual 0p for a special event and liked the cut but found the area around my stomach and the bottom of the open area on the back to be a bit large this in the back created the potential problem of flapping open so t hat you could see down the back of the dress surprisingly they had 00p as well so i reordered t hat one and love it \r\n\r\nkeep in mind that the style is very subdued and elegant especially from the front with a little bit of fun added to the back with the i love this top it s classic and classy but with a fun update being a henley the gingham is super cute the texture of the f abric is really nice and soft and thick it is fully lined i plan to layer it for winter and c an t wait to pair it with white capris come spring i bought my usual size xs and it s a little snug at the hips where i m more curvy but perfect overall highly recommend i love the classy design and the little surprise bow in the back i am 5 2 and about 107lbs size 0 fit well i w as afraid it might be too short but on me it is just above the knee the bow on the back did no t hide the bra strap on me but the fabric is thick overall so that it can be worn without one the fit is great once on but it is a little hard to take off since the zipper is not on the si s i bought the red and it is gorgeous i love how it hangs heavy but fluid i usually wear a 4 but i bought a 6 and it was perfect the color on this dress is absolutely gorgeous the fabri c is great and the bow detail in the back makes the dress much more interesting i also quite l iked the length i m 5 5 and weigh about 132 and bought a 6 regular which came to a couple o f inches above my knee not as short as it looks on the model overall style and aesthetic i love \r\n\r\nthe problem with this dress is the fit i tried it on in the store starting with an 8 too big no problem tried the 6 still a bit large gap skirt fit perfectly nice constru ction hidden zipper full lining nicely done would love to see it in navy or black this is one of those dresses that hides on the rack until you see it and you think hmmm this is reall ou are wearing almost nothing it s very pretty too i wear a 34b bra and the small fits me it doesn t have a lot of support but it s very comfortable for wearing at home or on errands the cups are a little far apart but it still works if you re looking for something pretty and comf her reviewers have said it is a true shift dress i m 5 2 114lbs and the 0 fit me like a glove it was a little hard to get the top on because the bow is not detachable wish there was a snap or something but once on i was in love i may have to safety pin my bra to the bow so it doesn t show because it kept showing when i tried on overall a very beautiful dress very cute dress for 5 5 or taller i used to walk by this dress thinking not much of it but one day i realized it had a bow which im a complete sucker for tried it on fell in love tried on the 4 and 6 w did not cover my bra strap below the bow which made me think i needed to size up i m not sure if that would have fixed the weird fit in the front but i just decided to return the dress in th i love this tunic with that said the reason i only gave 4 stars over all was because the materi al wasn t what i was expecting it s more like a thin sweater like material with raw edge which normally is fine but i do worry about how long this will last the design and colors are lovely i have worn it with leggings and cropped jeans and it looks fantastic great summer top dress tu nic great cut fit the length is perfect too i like the weight of the skirt overall good f i found this to be true to size m fit me well 5 7 140 lb usually a size m for tops it do es have a straight fit and it hits at the waist i wouldn t call it cropped but if you prefer longer tops you may want to layer it looks cute with a collared shirt underneath and you can p he quality softness and style of this with a hood for the win i was a bit confused with all t he reviews here some said this runs small and others said it runs big\ni decided to go to the s tore and try it i m 5 6 and 112 lbs i m usually size 2 or xs \nwhen i tried the blue one xs i s very tight on the arm and i would have to size up if i ever want to wear a sweater underneath \nhowever when i tried the beige one xs fits me well with some room for sweater \neither one i s beautiful great quality as you would expect from this brand i ordered this dress in a size 1 2 i m 5 9 and 180lb i usually wear size 14 but the 12 fit beautifully the material has a ni ce stretch to it so that i think it would still fit whether i gained or loss 10 lbs when i pull ed it out of the box i immediately thought it read grandma but was pleasantly surprised when i put it on it is snug in the waist and flares out nicely from there it hits me on the knee ex actly as it does the model in the picture i plan on wearing this maybe for christma i received this dress as a birthday gift and am completely in love with it there are some things about it that i wish i d known but are by no means deal breakers first you can kind of see this in t he model shot the keyhole neckline is not sewn shut at all it s completely open it didn t ca use problems for me but some women may not be comfortable with that my dress didn t have any z ippers and so was a pullover the band that runs around the waist has little to no stretch so y ou have t the shirt fits nice and has a classic cut i would imagine this to look good on just a bout anyone the shirt is soft and comfortable but is rather thin and see through the stitchin g is coming undone a little bit in some areas wouldn t pay full price for it but it s worth it on sale absolutely beautiful dress i bought a size 8 and found it tts i typically buy 6 8 in retailer dresses the print is gorgeous i am a sucker for anything with poppies and i love the silky material hugs your curves and flows nicely i was worried the torso would be too long bas ed on prior reviews and because i am of short torso but it fits well would definitely recomme nd i absolutely love the fit of these jeans they are perfect in length and fit nicely on the h ips they are fitted and look nice with boots but they do not feel tight at all because of the legging material legging material while comfortable typically feels thin but these do not an d they are quite warm \n\nthe one major drawback is that the pants have pilled on the thighs i have had these pants for about 1 5 months now and i have washed them and have hang dried them about 4 times i have neve i saw this coat online and loved it the blue collar is great the le ngth is great fits over bottom it is quite warm the arms are a little tight but they loosen u p the sale price plus 40 off was the ticket i love this dress in the fact that it isn t low c ut isn t several inches above the knee and bam it has sleeves the length is gracious and the all over print flattering for a full figure the skirt has a wonderful swing to it i m 5 4 and 165 so i ordered the 12 regular it does fit and has stretch to the fabric however it is too long in the torso on me so much so that the low waist seam pops up and the zipper bumps out whe n i move around i pulled up the top by an inch or two and the d i ordered this dress online and am struggling to decide about whether to keep it the fabric is soft and comfortable and has a m ore casual look the dress makes my boobs look awesome but doesn t do much for the rest of my b ody the main reason i m on the fence about keeping it are that i m not sure if i would wear it to work the slit goes up fairly high and the fit draws attention to my bust i think that i wo love this dress i am 5 4 117lbs and got an xs it s just barely small on me but works great i t looks amazing and i can t always wear maxi dresses they don t always work with my body type this one is perfect the color is gorgeous i highly recommend this dress just bought this jack et on sale and i love it it s like a soft compfy sweatshirt love the longer length i feel li ke it runs pretty true to size i usually buy an xs or small and the small fit fine the sleeves are a tad long but not too bad the model has them scrunched up but i find they are too snug to do that i would highly recommend this jacket just love the feel and look of it i am so please d with this midi dress i ve already worn and laundered this dress multiple times and i cannot e st low enough to provide a subtle sexy dã colletage i love the length of this dress as i really dislike my knobby knees and this exposes enough leg from the sides and disguises the ugly knees for me i m small 5 1 and 90 lbs and the petite xxs fits really well the fabric feels soft t oo i can t wait for warmer weather so i can wear this i went on a wild goose chase for these j eans as they were sold out all around the country i finally got the last pair from some store in the midwest they are my favorite pair of jeans they fit very well however for the price they should not get loose and baggy after 1 2 wears i hate that they need to be washed and drie d so often so that they will fit properly expensive jeans should not sag i have abercrombie je ggings for a fraction of the price that never get loose even after 20 wears i was a little hesi tant to buy these given that i am just 5 1 i didn t want to look like an extra from the set o f newsies but these are very well made and tailored for a woman s body the trousers actuall y accentuate the waist and the cropped leg works well for a petite frame they are nicely lined and the wool blend is soft and not scratchy i love them nan this dress is incredible soft and flattering it sits higher on the waist than most other dresses i ve received from retailer whi ch is actually great for me as i have a short torso i have been able to put it in with the reg ular wash cycle which was a pleasant surprise the only issue was with the overlapping fabric o n the top i ended up adding an extra stitch to avoid being totally exposed i love this jacket and the price was a great bonus it fit perfectly and is nice cozy and warm well made and the b eige color is great i splurged on this dress when it was first in stock a year ago and haven t regretted it for a minute it is my go to dress for work cocktails and once two weddings in o ne day the print is gorgeous and the fabric is super comfortable i love twirling in it as the dress has just enough stretch with a little flounce the length is ladylike and the sleeves provide perfect coverage for my arms the seam between the bodice and the skirt hits right at your natural waist and the look really flatters you want to buy this it s so comfy and stylish yet casual the sale price is amazing if anything the arms of the coat are a bit thin compared to the body of the coat overall it fits well though i ordered an xs i almost want to order the other color i love it so much i will probably wear this year round but it will be especially cute in autumn like other reviewers i did find that this jacket runs big i am usually a size 2p or an xs and found an xxs in store and fits well it ll be a great everyday jacket i love this i can dress it up with a sharp white button down and skirt or match it with grey leggings and boots for easy sunday s this dress was hard for me to get on but once i did my oh my i am quite top heavy including my upper arms and back so forcing the waistband over my shoulders made me panic a bit after the struggle it fits like a glove and skims over all my yucky parts can t stop caressing the fabric and i hope my date aka the hubs feels the same dress is not lined i would ve liked a soft mesh type lining similar to what plenty uses petite was sold out so i bought medium regular and it skims the this great casual jacket has a confusing fit but if you know what you want and understand the style you can be surely happy with this plush smooth stadium coat first the neutral beige fits a little easier but it is definitely larger in the body compared to the navy for both colors the shoulders and sleeves are fitted perhaps a little tight while the body has an a line flare and subtle hi lo hem the neutral really flares out a lot while the blue is a gentle flare if you have narrow shou i was really excited for this dress to come and hoped it would work well for a couple of holiday parties that i will be going to this season i wasn t sure what i thought when trying it on but i am thinking it will go back since i still am not super excited about it for me the waistline was a bit high and it had a bit of a frumpy feel i love the floral pattern but overall it just wasn t amazing nan nan i love this jacket but in contrast to the other reviewers find it to run a little small i usually wear a small at retailer and got a size medium as the small was a little tight under the armpits this might be because i have a large chest but i wanted more room in case i want to layer great dress for vacations i love the style of this dress and the way it lays looks nice on just wish it were longer i normally wear size small but had to return for a medium so that it was long enough this coat is really nice and cushy and warm but it runs very very large i am about 5 7 150 lbs and i ordered a medium and i probably should have ordered an xs because it was ginormous i returned it in favor of another jacket i m sure i would have loved it if it were smaller but i found something i liked more in the interim it s also a little bit darker in person just a little bit i was expected it to be more creme white and it was like a tan i feel in love when i tried it on i m 5 2 an usually have to hem long dresses but this on fits perfectly it s full length on me it s shorter on the model but i think it looks better full length and it s a gorgeous burgundy soft and comfortable can t wait to wear it love to just throw on this shirt with whatever accessories and skinny jeans easy to wear and very comfortable this tee is such a staple for me i bought it in the green and it is such an elegant deep emerald the perfect shade the shirt has some detail that is not shown there is stitching seaming along the side in the front and back that give the shirt a good structure the shirt also has a great weight to it the knit is sort of a vertically ribbed knit but thicker than a classic ribbed tank top the edges of the material are also open almost frayed edges the additional detail on this shirt defini i was just at the store and purchased this cute top which runs tts for me i wasn t expecting to find anything at the store but the beautiful lace and adorable tie at the front caught my eye so i bought the small which is my usual size at retailer 34d 27 35 and it fits perfectly the material is a touch thin but that s okay with me since i don t want heavy clothes for the warmer months anyway i also don t find this top particularly see through as it s black and will wear a full coverage bra wit this is the most beautiful dress ever i m very short and petite with an hourglass figure and a rather large chest this dress feels like it was made for me i often have a difficult time finding a dress that flatters my figure and is slimming i was shocked that it was even a little roomy in the chest the cut is so beautiful and it is very well made while the lining might be too short for tall girls being only 5 1 the lining is perfect the length in the back is just a teeny bit too long so the photo does not do this dress justice at all it s a light lavender and extremely flattering i m athletic so have broader shoulders and hips and this is an amazing fit for me also the front has a small button to make it more modest which is closed in the photo of the model but if you leave it open va va va voom so to summarize beautiful spring lavender fabulously feminine fit get it i am 5 4 and a curvy girl and find this dress to be super flattering in fit and length i got a size 14 which is my typical size the slip is a little tight in the bust area for me so i find it easier to put on first and then the dress over which is possible because it snaps in and out at the shoulders it arrived super wrinkl ed but i found tossing it in the dryer for a few min helped is it dry clean which is slightly high maintenance but so cute it s worth it great dress for transitioning in this is definitely again a bit big i m usually a med that is what i got i could have gotten a small but the ar m holes might have been a tad tight then i m keeping the med in case it shrinks as it is part rayon and rayon always shrinks if put in the washer it is a great casual piece that will go wi th most anything i love the tie as you can then tighten the waist up a bit or leave looser t he material is soft and not clingy this is why i love a rayon blend it hits me below my waist love how breezy this shirt is and adds unique texture detailing to your outfit the simple bla ck color is a nice touch so the color does not compete with the detailing i ordered this becaus e it looked to be a good fit for my casual lifestyle and it doesn t disappoint it s cozy ligh tweight but warm flows well and looks great tied or worn loose i ordered my regular size large in the grey it fits as shown just a bit longer because i m short the color is more of a blue gray with white striations that are well placed it s really striking for such a casual piece v ery pretty highly recommend love this top very flattering love it so much i actually wish i t was a dress a knit summer dress with a tie at the waist would be perfect seems to run a lit tle big so if you re deciding between sizes size down this sweater runs true to size i am 5 7 and 125 lbs and ordered the small it has a beautiful mix of colors that reminds me of a crea msicle it is a well made heavy sweater that will definitely keep you warm if you like the fee l of wool buy it if not pass on it i saw this on a mannequin at the store and was instantly drawn in by all the beautiful blue lace and the overall design however when i tried it on i p ersonally found a few things that just didn t work for me \r\n \r\npros \r\n blue la ce is lovely throughout nicely done \r\n there s a little snap closure at the front of the dre ss where the fabric overlaps at the bra cups i can only assume it s to make it easier to get th e dress on it s a nice little detail although not sure if really this skirt is so cute highl y recommend super easy to dress up or to dress down it isn t shown as well in the picture but it has really intricate and pretty detailed stitching throughout the skirt i have gotten so man y compliments on it random people have even stopped to tell me how much they like it and where they can find it it runs a little small so i recommend buying it a size up also if you re tal ler like me it is a little short in the back overall a great buy this sweater is beautiful bu t runs big i got the xs 5 3 110lbs and it s very roomy i love the thickness the color th e pockets and even the roominess except for the sleeves they are very long and very wide whic h makes it look bulky if sleeves were slimmer it would look like a cute intentionally oversized style instead i look like a kid who borrowed a giant sweater i think it would work better on a taller slim person but i still like it i don t think they are an easy fit cut they are more like skinny jeans as i was looking for something more relaxed i decided to return them the qua lity of the material is good the color is nice i saw this online first and didn t care for it then i saw it in store and purchased it with little memory of the online experience because the dress is that much better in person it s nearly seasonless looks great with fall boots and has garnered many compliments this is one of those that the internet can t really do justice to i withhold a star for quality since the snap in keeps for the slip were confusing and maybe it s just the one i bought one of the keeps was detached from the this top is very versatile i w ore it out to dinner with skinny jeans on a friday night but it can easily transition to a satu rday afternoon stroll around town top i actually love this dress the colors on the dark gray are mesmerizing the design of the placket adds a special touch to the look my issue is the w ay it looks on my body not flattering i already have a squarish apple squarple body and t he cut emphasizes this more i was hoping the fabric would hang on me the same way the ivory dr ess on the curly haired model does so i sized up all this did was make me look wider especia lly at the shoulders the drawstring at the elastic makes this is a great bikini bottom i purc hased this along with the matching top and you can definitely tell a difference in the quality of the material for these the print is beautiful and the cut is very flattering my only iss ue is a matter of personal preference these were much cheekier on me than the photo of the model i have a larger behind for reference i am usually a 6 8 28 29 in bottoms and purchase d a medium sizing up would have only presented an issue in the waist fitting this top is lovel y i wanted so badly to make it work for me but it is just too short and makes me look broad i am 5 11 and have a long torso and the keyhole where the tie is gapes fixed that with two saf ety pins though and would have stitched it shut if i was keeping this lovely blouse \r\n\r\n the fact that i cannot lift my arms up without flashing my tummy to the world didn t even deter me enough to return it \r\n\r\nbut the overall fit was just boxy on me it made me look larger o verall fo i just received this top today and as usual retailer doesn t disappoint it s beau tiful runs a bit generous and has such pretty detail i m 5 2 128 pounds and always wear a siz e small this small fits well with just enough room to be a little generous around your waist w hat a steal don t miss this perfect addition to any wardrobe this dress is a great weight and it s very comfortable i m glad i tried it on when i saw it in the store i probably would have passed it by online great detail lined and not see through i m 5 4 and 115lbs and it s still the 0 is still a little baggy but that is the style of this dress this is a great little top the tie sits right at the waist and loose enough to slide over top of pants or shorts the detailing at neck and shoulders is very eye catching i received several compliments when i wore it i bought these on sale for a great price online without seeing in person and was pleased to find that they are very versatile could be very casual or great for weekend shopping etc the purple is a great shade and the fit is great i m 135 pound for reference and i purchased the size 28 fits great structured but still comfy figure flattering so stylish i have gotten tons of compliments on this sweater i absolutely love it i m 5 1 and this top was too long for me it s pretty but expensive for what it is nice fit very comfortable if you wear a thin shirt underneath i purchased this in purple and agree with previous reviewers who ve mentioned that it looks more casual in person it can be dressed up with the right accessories though and the fabric is really excellent quality soft and durable i really like the contrasting plaid back it s a subtle but fashionable detail i bought the delaney blazer in size 6 and i really like it there are surprising design elements which make it a unique piece the buttons of the sleeves are mismatched the back material is different from the front it has some exposed seams like others have said it does have a boxy fit which i don t mind i also found it to be a bit short if both of these things are fine for you the blazer is a great addition to a casual creative professional look my 16 year old daughter fell in love with this when we saw it in the store at the beginning of the summer but it was much much too expensive when i saw it on sale at the end of the summer i jumped on it she loves it i am in love with this suit i got the white floral it s beautiful and classy it feels like great quality too i am going to get the black color too when it s back in stock i am 5 9 and about 140lbs 32 dd and i m wearing a medium i got both the small and medium and decided to keep the medium it does have more fabric with the medium but the bigger size covers my chest and bigger bottom i bought a suit similar to this last year and loved it this year i bought the pineapple print and it is beautiful size 2 it is classy sexy i have a long torso so i like that it covers me better than most one piece swim suits i try on i highly recommend this product a versatile pretty and feminine addition to your closet perfect with black pants jeans shorts dress it up dress it down i ordered both colors in different sizes xs and xxs petite were no longer available so can t compare there \r\n\r\ncolor i liked the black better for these reasons \r\n1 color can be worn year round just add a nice jacket or cardigan and ok for winter season \r\n2 ivory was kind of see through\r\n\r\nsize xxs fit me better the xs was wider and bigger arm holes \r\n\r\nsadly the xxs was the ivory so i didn t keep either of them \r\n\r\nref 115 lbs 30dd 26 5 in wasit i added this to a stack of try ons on my trip to retailer today not expecting to be impressed by this number but was blown away when i tried it on 148 dollars is a little pricey but didn t hesitate it was so beautiful i am a 32b and normally wear a size 6 and the small fit perfectly can t wait to wear it on vacation in new orleans in a couple of weeks i bought this earlier in the summer in size xl i ve gotten such good use out of it the fit on me matches the model the details of the crochet lace add such a nice touch not your typical hoodie but just the same comfort i ve washed in cold in my machine air dried it hasn t shrunk one of my favorite purchases perfect for chilly weather or when you go into a c areas would love this in other colors great piece i found this in your store and had to have it i wore it on a date night and received more compliments than i can count the attention to detail makes this jacket special i am 5 ft 5 inches 124lbs and a 4fits but a 6 is perfect for a sweater underneath i actually went back a bought the other color worth every penny i wanted to get a couple tops for date nights that went well with skinny jeans and this hit the mark as mentioned before this top is translucent and thus would recommend using a cami as well however the embroidery is beautiful i have not had it cleaned yet and thus cannot comment on the durability can t wait to wear it out this shirt is simply pretty it s light and dresses up a distressed pair of jeans gorgeous lace detail on this classic swimsuit absolutely love it fits true to size this beautiful blouse first caught my eye in the store i thought it was a bit pricey but couldn t keep thinking about it walked away without it then i went online and it had gone on sale i knew i had to have it the large fit perfectly i got so many compliments on the blouse i wore it with skinny jeans and little boots i couldn t be happier with this gorgeous blouse loved this top bought it during the recent promo and thought the sale price more fair i sized up because i wanted a swing ier silhouette and more room at the neckline the top is impeccably made and the embroidery is sturdy i did not find the top see thru and am wearing it with a racer back black bra and have no issues i love this great quality and flattering i d definitely agree that it runs true to size as i had to size up because it was the only size available and it is a little large in the stomach and rear but it works well in the chest area the v neck isn t too low and the sides provide good coverage up top also it covers the rear end well material is nice and thick and the seams are good qua lity super happy with this purchase just wish it was in stock in the smaller size so it held m e in more nan this is a truly exquisite top it looks exactly as it does online with cascades of delicately embroidered flowers on front and back and a slightly ruffled neck very chic and vers atile with skirts or pants \r\nmaterial is very light and chiffon like and it s fully lined so n o need for a cami it s ever so slightly see through in the sections that are not embroidered bu t only in very intense light \r\nit fits tts i usually get petite sizes but i got a xxs regular because i wanted a longer length and for sizing i normally wear either xs or s in tops i m 5 7 130lbs 34a i tried on both and both fit but the arm holes were a little too tight on the xs i ended up picking the s because it felt most comfortable when i tried on the ivory color i co uld see my blue bra underneath and it would require a cami the black didn t i love the embroi dered design and ruffled neck i agree the buttons on the back of the neck are a tad difficult t o button but it s not a deterrent i am absolutely in love with this bathing suit and i want it in every color possible i bought the black one last year and wore it all summer as no other sui t that i already owned could compare i get compliments on it every where i go it s flattering comfy and it s a one piece that doesn t make me feel frumpy buy this suit perfect fit though it is shear i found that i could wear it without a cami i absolutely recommend this shirt it f its tts i love this cover up it does feel big when you first put it on however you just pull on the strap and tie it to your liking i am 5 2 so this hits a little lower than on the model in the picture but it does not drag on the floor this is my new favorite cover up now all i need is the sun i got the floral suit and honestly it s the most beautiful bathing suit i have ever owned i have yet to wear it to the pool or beach so i don t know how it holds up when gett ing wet i can see where other reviewers have said there is no support in the chest it is padde d which is nice but no underwire or anything to hold the girls up if you are big chested this could be an issue not so much for me looking forward to wearing this suit when the weather gets warmer ordered this on a whim in my normal size large and so glad i did it s just beaut iful the color is a tea stained white background with soft grey blue and cinnamon colored tiny flowers it has a soft fairy princess vibe that could be dressy or casual the 3 4 sleeves have elastic it just flows nicely over the body and isn t oversized like so many tops there s a ruf fle with a slight peplum in the back it s a beauty i absolutely love this tank it goes great with a pair of jeans and cute booties great colors and material i love the nigh neck the slee ves are small should buy a larger size than usual other than this is perfect like it but it s quite short and rather boxy i ll keep it because it s pretty versatile i bought this top for my sister s birthday so the review is based on her opinion she loved it and told me the embroid ery was beautiful she said it was tts she also stated that the blouse was so versatile and cou ld be worn dressed up or down love the look love the fit for both professional and casual look s such a beautiful pattern i think you could wear it with a skirt and it wouldn t even read as a bathing suit love the lacy pattern in front great fit i bought a medium when i usually wear a small in retailer it fits a little loose so i d probably buy a small if i bought anothe r one but it all depends on how you like your suits to fit i m an xl in retailer tops and the xl in this blouse fit wonderfully i bought the blouse in black but will also probably purchase it in the cream the blouse is made very nicely however i had to deal with about 6 embroidered pieces that were not knotted i had to take a needle and thread the loose pieces to the back of the blouse and then knot them in with the rest of the embroidery some of the individual flowers just came out entirely however this is such a stunning blouse and i feel so g i saw this top a t my local retailer and instantly fell in love i didn t even try it on first because i just kn ew when i finally got home and tried it on it didn t disappoint ultra feminine and sexy at t he same time the delicate high neck coupled with the exposed cut in shoulders really sold this for me then you come to appreciate the beautiful sewn in flowers loved this one so much pr ettier in person than online it is a really cute sweater i thought it would be a little longer based on the picture on me it hits at my waist but i am still okay with it the design is uniqu e and i am happy with the purchase delaine blazer so many little details with a slight bit of r uggedness loved the unmatched buttons checkered back and fraying that gave this piece personal ity making it appear less stuffy easyily dress it up or down that being said it seems to run t rue to size except the arms and shoulders were very tight i would consider going up a size if m ore of an athletic build ordered a 4 but i think a 6 would have been perfect this swimsuit is amazing i am 5 4 and about 135 lbs and ordered a small however i am returning it for an ex tra small just a personal preference as i like my swimsuits a bit snug so they don t get loose when wet the fabric is very forgiving and stretchy which is why i m exchanging for a smaller size i can slide the size small up my legs with ease but the fabric is also very sturdy so it seems i haven t worn it in the water yet obviously overall very cute and surprisingly fla tte nice quality beautiful colors so nice i bought another as a gift i bought this in june on a sale and am so glad that i did it s so pretty and classy the neck has stretch so it s not t ight at all it s styled like a swing top but it really isn t there isn t much of a fabric abu ndance to this although it is loose and cool i bought an xl which is my usual size and the fit is fine \r\n\r\nthere are 2 layers of fabric i do not think a cami is needed at all \r\n\r \ni bought this in black and the floral embroidery just pops i m just not a white fan due to cl eani simply perfect i ordered the white floral maillot in a large 5 6 ish 145 pounds and it is so comfortable and flattering that i do not want to take it off the colors are so vibrant an d accurate which is great considering not all internet item photos are the same in person i do recommend ordering a size up the medium was snug but definitely remember that your suit shri tremely pretty swimsuit gorgeous cut in the front with the lace and the floral print very flat tering to hourglass shapes coverage across rear end is a bit less than i would prefer but it s so very pretty that i m keeping it several comments from friends that this could be worn as a t ank top for regular wear it is so pretty this top is feminine and sexy it can be dressed up or dressed down i love it and will hold onto it forever i love this blazer so much i bought it in both colors i m 5 7 120 pounds and bought the size 4 which is perfect initially when i tried it on in the store i thought i needed the 6 because it was a little tight in the arms and should ers the 6 was too boxy on me and i m so glad i went with the 4 it stretched especially the ar ms and fits perfect i love how i can dress this down with a graphic tee and jeans or dress u p with a blouse and cropped black pants i like how this jacket is very versatile you can wea r it to work or play it does have interesting detail on it i kept it based on the price and t hose details i have the olive color the arms are a little tight very pretty top but like the other reviewers said the neck is very itchy i live in florida and i don t think i can wear this during the summer unless i get the neck lined i got an xxs p which was a little shorter than i would have liked so i am returning for xxs this top is absolutely adorable i cannot express h ow much i love it paired with skinny jeans and a bright cardi for the spring this can easily t ransition into summer it s actually cuter irl than in the picture if you are on the fence abou t this get it you won t regret it wasn t too sure about this jacket when i got it in the mail seemed a little boxy on maybe a smaller size would ve worked better but i want to be able to l ayer however i m keeping it because it s versatile i love the contrast of the front back and the buttons on the sleeve which actually button and un button meaning they aren t just for sho w and the sleeves can be easily rolled up a great basic jacket with some neat details this ha s been my go to top every time i go out lately i just make sure i am with different people the length is perfect and not too long i wear a strapless black bra and you cannot see through the shirt the only thing i don t like about it is the three buttons in the back at the top are ver y very difficult to button the embroidery is breathtaking it is more flattering and interesti ng in person i would highly recommend it it is true to size figure flattering and unique t he only reason i gave it four stars for quality is because the neck is a little itchy if you ar in love with this dress online i listened to the reviews and ordered a size up i got it in the mail and couldn t wait to try it on i was sad that to find that while it was tight across the chest and the keyhole in the back seemed to pull it was really large in the body in addition while the lace is beautiful it is very fragile i still think this is a great dress but definite i absolutely adore this skirt sadly it was a lot of skirt for me i m 5 feet nothing and it wou ld have been too much fabric to hem wish this skirt came in a petite size great color and a fu n option for the fall wedding season i just received this top and love it the fabric is soft a nd comfy it is just as pictured no surprises lace up fronts are a hot item for spring for re ference i am 5 7 and weigh 127 the xs fits perfectly i thought this is nice when it was a new arrival i put it in my wish lsit as i liked how the cut looked on the modl but i dind t thi nk i would love it as much on me i ordered it when it hit sale the material is fluffy and has a shimmer you can t see on the online picture one of hte thread will need to be cut but no biggie it is so ute the beading is also very subtle but pretty my stylist brught it in t tr y onin the store loved it somuch she is ordering one for herself the cut i this top was always on my wait for sale list now it is and i had to pass i love the look on other people the laec up is super cute and trendy but the cut was just too big on me it left me blah i think if you are tall and are looking for a nice white shirt then go for it it looks so nice half tucked wi th skinny jeans this is such a unique piece and could be dressed up or down i can see myself wearing this with skinny jeans and a tee and adding a statement necklace or wearing over a dress i tend to get hot so i like how light weight this is even though it is lined it is of excellent quality but may run slightly small or at least smaller than other items i have purchased throug h retailer the drape is extremely flattering and i think that would be true for every figure my favorite feature is the oversized the shirt is beautifully made and very comfortable i m a m edium though and i ordered as such but it s way too big for me love this top but the xs is s till way too big swallows me 5 1 petite wish it came in a petite offering sadly had to ret urn this item i love this dress splurged while i was doing my christmas shopping to get this f or myself and i m so glad i did it s such a comfortable dress stretchy and not too thin or t oo heavy of a fabric it pairs well with tights and a long cardigan in the winter or on it s ow n with a statement necklace style and fit are great this dress is super flattering this is a n awesome go to for dressy or casual wore it with booties for a dinner and flats for temple and was perfect for both lace is a little delicate but worth the extra care the cheshire dress is lovely the fit is true to size and the quality is awesome i love the way the sleeves lay on my shoulders i would definitely recommend this dress i m 5 7 125lbs and the small fits perfectl y the sleeves are the right length i have long arms and legs and the body fits loosely with out looking sloppy at my height the small is not long enough to wear as a tunic which is fine \r\n\r\nunfortunately the shirt arrived with makeup stains around the laces and the inside of t he shirt so i had to wash it before wearing it \r\n\r\ni only purchased this shirt because it w as on sale this top is gorgeous and flattering for spring the fit is beautiful one thing i find that the seam that goes across the stomach does chafe a little bit however with a light t ank underneath this is no issue at all and the top is well worth it love this jacket this pict ure shows the sleeves rolled down but in the stores they have them rolled up and i have to say that is how you ll most likely wear it as the sleeves might be too short if you rolled them down however it is still a fabulous fall coat it does run slightly large but it depends on how you want it to fit i am typically a medium and i bought the m l because the xs s was a little foug ht in the shoulders i bought last weekend and already wore twice because it looks gre i love th is skirt the color is beautiful much darker than in the photo the only issue i have is with t he length it s much longer in real life i m definitely going to need to have it shortened i m keeping this cute and fun dress but i agree that the top is tricky if you have a larger bust or shoulders i got my tts 6 and am a 32dd with broad shoulders and can wear it but it s snug the top would probably look better in an 8 but there s so much volume below i kept the 6 i m 5 7 and thought it was short but just fine for anything other than a professional setting i have to ddlers so not the best dress for bending over but fun for when i m out and about on my own \r \n\r\nbig compliments this sweater is very comfy and looks great with tighter leggins beautiful color fits great and the material feels great on going to buy a second one in a different patte rn this is an awesome blouse it is well made the fabric is thick and soft it drapes beautifu lly i love the tie at the top i wish it came in other colors other than the denim offered i am 5 4 115 pounds flat chested the xs fit well the online picture does not do this top just ice much cuter in person soft and so comfortable got this in my usual xs paired with a white fluffy sweater and jeans to wear to a casual charity event hope they do more of this top in ot her colors i m a short girl but i usually wear tops in a small or medium at retailer for me i would have needed this shirt in a size at least one notch smaller than even offered this shir t is adorable love the details i wanted it so bad which is why i paid so much for a basic t s hirt still it was large to the point of frumpiness and could have used some sort of scoop or v neck to break up the dots love this jacket you will definitely want to size down though i am usually a medium large but i was swimming in that size i opted for the xs s and it is perfect i bought this top on a whim it s not 100 my style but wanted to try something different the fabric and print are amazing so unique soft subtle and delicate great fit as well my only complaint is not the fault of the top but if you have a bit of tummy the fold at the peplum re ally brings it out so you d have to wear high waisted bottoms or suck it in the hem is also rea lly flowy more so than shown in the pictures theres a lot of fabric so it kind of ruffles more at the bottom rath tops are a challenge for me i am top heavy so i often have to size up to avo id pulling in the bust this one is not over sized in the bust but i am able to open the laceing for a little more wiggle room but still not look like i am wearing a tent fabric is wonderful it is not too thin and not too thick it does pull up slightly in the wash it requires a littl e ironing or a good steaming this duster is light weight good for a inside a chilly restauran t but not really warm enough for cold outdoor winter weather \n\nreally punches up a black on b lack outfit polished artsy interesting look runs large has a feel similar to a swing coat with less swing \n\ni ve received many compliments on this piece wear it with confidence it i s on the bold side this coat is a classic i would wear it every day if it wasn t so distinct very comfortable flattering and stylish i really love this dress it s very flattering for al l body types i m 5 4 120 and i purchased a small it also looks really cute with a stretchy belt in the picture it doesn t show this but it has these cute snap sleeves that adds some g reat detail it s also very comfortable it is a thin material so for those looking for a thick er fabric this may not be the right dress loved it i love the swing and the pretty color of the dress it s fun to dress up or dress down the fabric is a little thin so you will need good undergarments if you have lumps and bumps i love this top because the gold dots add a bit of bl ing to your otherwise average slouchy t shirt i didn t notice that the dots are actually distr essed until i got the shirt and then looked closer at the online pictures worry not they are supposed to be that way and do not peel off the sizing is a bit odd but i assumed that it corre sponded to xs s m l so i ordered my usual xs 0 size and it worked out just right i m giving t his shirt an overall of 4 stars instead of 5 because this shirt nan i love this top although i wish i had ordered the large rather than the medium i am 5 4 138 pounds and a 34d the medium just fits but is ever so slightly snug across my shoulders it will work though i will probably have it dry cleaned rather than risk shrinkage by washing at home love this perfect in the sum mer with bright strappy heels or sandals or booties in the winter i m obsessed with this skirt and was so excited when it came in the mail i ordered a m and it was massive i m 5 9 and typi cally wear a 6 or an 8 as i don t really have much of a waist am built more like a column i wa nted it to sit right at my waist right under my ribs wanted to wear a crop top with it but it fell down to my hips which made me look significantly larger the quality is amazing and the sk irt is even better looking in person worth ordering in a size down and getting it tail i saw th is in the sales section today and was drawn to it by the color and style i really didn t think it d fit on me even though the only size available was a size 12 because it looked like a shea th type dress that s more body hugging and usually such dresses just don t work well on my wide r hips and hourglass frame howeverl here s what i thought \n \npros \n beautiful b lush pink it looks exactly the same in person as online \n very comfortable as the other revie wer mentioned t this was actually at my local retailer store it reminded me of another online exclusive that was a dress and had the same flower shapes but the color was a soft pink this is exactly like that \n \npros \n it is so lovely with the pleated front love this hen ely the lace up is cute the shirt is comfy so versatile beach coverup or over jeans i got th is in blush pink and the details are very pretty the dress is wide might have a tailor bring i t in on the sides but its very comfortable and i like that it covers my arms a bit but still k eeps you cool i have had my eye on this dress since the spring in yellow but it sold out qui ckly i jumped on this dress as soon as i saw it come out in different colors this fall i purch ased the peach color and it is really lovely i will be wearing this dress for family photos th e lace and the details are so very pretty i am usually a size 0 or 2 and purchased in size 2 s ince there is no stretch to it it is a beautiful dress and i highly recommend it wish it came in white now i would ve been scared off by the fabrics had i not seen the cute flattering cut if this spring top love the futuristic look of the fabric and style brought back by the rise de sign throughout like the previous reviewer claims this top is even cuter on us non models who are pry not as washed out the color combo is another positive because it s both flattering and versatile i wore this tee under a comfy cardigan on a flight to denver i received several comp liments beautiful elegant sexy i love the fit can be dressed up or wear with jeans it s gr eat i love simple comfortable tops with interesting details and one that i can easily throw on without much fuss this top is made for people like me the ribbed knit is super soft without being too thin the lace is quite pretty without being too delicate normally tops like this ha ve the lace portion sewn to the hem but this top actually has a whole layer of lace under the kn it outer shell so it s like wearing a layer of lace and ribbed sweater on top of the lace the good news is the lace i recently purchased the reading room cardigan in the color pink the col or is beautiful and very flattering with my olive complexion i ordered a medium and although it s not a traditional fitted cardigan the shape was very flattering good length for my 5 6 height and is very versatile great for transitional weather into spring love the simple non f ussy style of this dress note that the color is not ivory as described and expected not the f irst time retailer makes that mistake however i still found the oatmealish warm beige color to be flattering to my skin tone warm tones look best on me like that the shoulders are covered while still feeling sleeveless gives it a dressier feel the fine texture is lovely this does drape up top while the bottom clings a bit but not overly much for me to feel immodest i am 5 nice sweater just did not look good on me sorry going back true to size nice unique shoulde r neckline fit and blousey full on the bottom and arms which taper in for me i prefer to wear it tucked or partially tucked in to add waist definition though a vest or belt can also be used sheer you will need a cami lovely flow and colors the collar pleats and neck tie add a roman tic interest just beautiful great jean i will live in these this winter so flattering bum l ooks good leg is slender and lengthening perfect petite jean with a flared leg i love this sw eater but i m on the fence about keeping it only because i haven t figured out a way to layer an d wear it it really does appear best with a plain white top and jeans i ve tried it with sever al other things in my closet and just haven t found another combination that sells it for me i really like my pieces to be more versatile so i can mix and match them into other outfits this piece is just enough of a statement that for me wearing it with more simple clothing stapl es is great tee for layering love the sweet lace along the bottom the lace lines the entire bo dy of the tee and it s a little thin so i prefer a cami underneath but a nude bra would be invis ible i usually wear a small sometimes an xs and the small fits like it does on the model i s aw this classic beauty on a mannequin with black trousers and it looks gorgeous so i went back to try it on looks better on vs on the table\ni have broad shoulders and the small worked this reminds me of a kimono or poncho rather than a cardigan but that aside its a beautiful sweater the feel of it is luxurious and is soft and comfortable i would size down at least one size i m usually a medium to large and i bought the small i gave this piece 4 stars because it is a to uch boxy it s seems like a piece i ll throw on with jeans and wear to a casual dinner in the fa ll definitely a fall winter item love love love \r\nthis is true retailer the color is love ly and it s so soft i love the seams in the back and the overall raw seam style i received t his top today and though the color is not white as shown in the pic it s a beautiful top its m ore ivory as mentioned the lace is like a lining covering the entire body except the arms unde rneath the ribbed fabric like the other reviewer mentioned the lace is not itchy but soft and v ery pretty i totally love it this is my new favorite top in my wardrobe received this blou se to wear for the holidays and was not disappointed the design of the shirt is to be relaxed a nd flowing i usually wear a medium which is what i ordered the shirt fit fine but i probably c ould of managed with a small if i did not want it as relaxed so if you are between sizes you m ight want to size down if i did order a small the sleeves might of been a tad short since i ha ve longer arms the shirt is sheer so you will need a cami underneath i wore a black one which w i instantly fell in love with the graphic pattern on this drapey layering piece and i ve rece ived compliments every time i have worn it however i seriously considered returning it because the way the garment is cut causes it to bunch awkwardly at the sides maybe it s still just too big even though medium or large is my size in tops the medium in this sweater clearly looks ba ggier on me than it does on the model in the photo for instance it is definitely not slimming but the striking patt i love and live in these but the recent scoop tanks i purchased were thin not as great so i want to recommend them because they are really versatile but the quality has deminished this is no exception to the rule i love turtlenecks and this one is going to be a f avorite do know that this is not lightweight even though this is sleeveless it is definitely a substantial knit the color is a beautiful nutmeg and can be dressed up or down i purchased a g orgeous neutral beaded necklace to go with it and it is simply stunning it does bell out a li ttle at the bottom which in my opinion is the only design flaw i normally wear a medium in mos t retailer tops and the small is a i really likes these jeans they are comfortable with stretch and look cute the price is high but an investment for sure this is a very pretty blouse with a vintage romantic looking fabric the tiny pleats near the neck and shoulders are lovely i lo ve the colors black brown and cream it s hard to find a top that can be worn well with both black and brown the long tie adds a romantic feel this blouse is totally sheer so requires a c ami or tank i actually love the blouse but returned it because it is super blousy i am 5 2 140 lbs and the small was fine it is just so blousy that even belting it didn this top has s lightly more of a burnout effect than i realized i like it and its great for layering but you must wear something underneath as it is quite sheer the color of this cardigan is beautiful an d the material is very soft this is a great layering piece took it on a trip and wore with bot h a long sleeve and tank under it is more khaki color then the photo shows which was a goo thing for me love the color love the design at the hem this top runs wide i m still deciding whether to keep this as i think the wide hem may be somewhat flattering on me love love love this dress you can dress it up with high heels or down with sandals a mid weight material wi th seperate slip that serves as a lining i am athletic 5 7 and 132 lbs and bought a size s mall i have broad shoulders average waist short torso small hips and long legs in the sp ring a denim jacket would look perfect with this dress i can t stop wearing this it s perfect for layering the fit is great loose but not a bag i love that it s a wide open knit it took m e a while to finally try this on after seeing it in store for a while i wasn t sure about the c olor then i saw it matched with the brush stroke charlie trousers which i had just purchased and loved the combination so much i had to finally try it i love the fit and feel of this top i agree with a poster before that the photo does not do this top justice my only wish is that t was a touch longer i am super pleased with this cardigan which is at a terrific sale price i saw this in the pink color in the state street retailer in chicago and i loved the feel of the material but wasn t sure about the color for me when i saw they had a neutral striped version o nline i decided to get it the material is very soft and the beige neutral color has a gray und ertone which is good for my skintone the front is double layered and it has a fun seaming detai l in the back and an unfinished trim whi it s hard to tell how jeans will fit when shopping on line i was very pleasantly surprised they are super soft very high quality and look even bett er in person i m 5 3 118 lbs and i ordered the 27p and may have to get them taken up an inch b ut they fit perfectly through the hips and come in at the knee i m big in the hips and small in the waist and they fit perfectly highly recommend for petites out there i have this tank in al l colors it is superb for layering comfortable and i love that you can reverse it for a diff erent neckline and it s long enough there was only a l in store but i tried it as a gauge gi ven i am normally a xs 0 i knew it was going to be too big but wanted to see if i could get an idea of how it might look in my regular size it truly is a lovely blouse gauzy fabric flowy feel and an easy piece to dress up or down however the xs was much shorter in the sleeves abo ve the wrist bone on me and much shorter in the body sat at mid pelvis for ref i am 5 7 this completely altered the look and i think i would have i m 5 1 and 110 pounds and i ordered t he 26 petite the jeans are fabulous flattering comfortable i could go on and on the fab ric is super soft and the fit hugs in all the right places it is a nice flare bottom i will ha ve to wear these with heels or wedges they are too long for flats i like that i can wear this over anything only drawback is that it s short sleeved so it semi defeats the purpose of having a cardigan but it s so pretty i can t return it the fabric is really soft and the cardi has a cute and comfy slouchy loose fit reminds me of free people cardis with the extra long sleeves and loose fit great to throw on over workout clothes or with jeans and a tee shirt easy piece would size down i m getting lots of use out of it i highly recommend this top i am busty and was concerned that it might not be flattering but i find it flattering i also don t have the g reatest arms so i wore a crisp white top underneath see my pics below hides any tummy pooch a nd is so flattering runs tts i ordered a small i m 5 120 lbs the petite might have been too short for my taste don t hesitate i love the style of this top there s good stretch to the fa bric so it s very flattering the length is good for me as the previous review stated it s a l ittle long but for me it s lengthening the lace is lovely too i ll wear it with some white je ans for summer if you love the print then this is the dress for you it is so incredibly flatte ring for hour glass shapes and it has pockets i wanted to keep it but i just did not like the pattern and every guy i showed it to hated the pattern if they had it in a different color i w ould buy it in every color very light weight and soft fabric i bought the blue but did not try green or grey i love blue with my skin tone and am afraid green may make my skin look yello w did not see the green in my store though very comfy and flattering dress runs tts great sw eater coat i bought the camel color and it looks so good over all black it runs large i usual ly buy a medium in sweaters but his one i bought the small it is very unique and a cool take on a peacoat i ordered this in xxs petite and it fit nicely the green color was nice the cut wa s just above the knee flattering but not wow it is nice if you need a casual dress to hang ar ound go to the beach playground with kids etc but there were just better options for me so i returned it the size fit me well at 115 lbs 30dd chest i say go for it if you need a nice soft casual dress ok to size down i bought this dress in the green color and i am absolutely i n love with it it is very figure flattering and looks great even though i have a larger bust it is also a great length hits about an inch or two above the knee highly recommend i have wanted a boiled wool jacket for years finally i got the gray navy soft warm and classic i e xpect it to last forever it is the right weight for out door wear in warmer climates or late fa ll early spring in minnesota the sleeves are long but push up nicely and roomy enough to go o ver a long sleeved blouse i paired it with the tartan charlie trousers and it is very polished for work soft but someone sensitive to wool might find it itchy i agree that it is a little b oxy but i t nan i am not sure where all of the other reviews on these pants went but when i or dered mine there were mostly all good reviews i absolutely love these lounge pants someone me ntioned that they thought they were a little itchy where the lace is but while they may not be t he softest pants ever they are certainly very comfortable not itchy at all i am 5 6 140 lbs and i ordered the medium the fit was a little snug at first but as i wore them they stretched and loosened i also wear them with i bought this jacket in the grey blue color and i absolutely love it it is warm an sophisticated and versatile i am 5 4 and 160 lbs and the medium was goo s up with a fitted dress or dress down with jeans very versatile and comfortable i always get compliments on it this top is very comfortable and really cute on the material is super soft i bought the white and am very happy with it but it is a little sheer so i have to wear a cami with it i would definitely recommend i saw this online and thought the idea was super cute bu t was not sure if it would be worth the money because it looks typical but when i went to the store to try it on i saw it was anything but typical the fit is perfect and the fabric so soft i wanted the dress in the green but they were already sold out in my size at the store so i ha d to order it online i cannot wait until it comes in i will wear this often during the summer i love this sweater it is a beautiful color and i love the boxy shape very soft love love lov e the fit is amazing and truly well made this jumpsuit is a classic and it fits perfectly i just wish the button was a little bit more secure but other than that it s a 10 lightweight warm in cold nice as a day jacket works well as a casual coat very soft but a little wooly it s re ally nice color thinking about buying another i got the dark one this top is really cute the fabric is soft with a little stretch to it the lace shoulders with the denim cutouts add so muc h to this top i was afraid it might make it too stiff bulky around the shoulders but it does n t very cute the armholes are cut on the bigger side but not so big that it shows your bra s trap or anything just comfortable the cut is also very nice and the pleats make it more body s limming runs pretty tts i ordered my usual medium and it s not quite as form fitting soft fabr ic waistband is flat no vpl lace trim cuts in a bit for a little vpl but still nice lightweigh t barely there but full coverage would buy again love this jacket got it in the charcoal co ger \r\n\r\n i m 5 8 145 and bought a medium i purchased this sweater in camel and love i t the fabric is very soft and lightweight perfect for warmer climates with chilly but not cold weather i m 5 9 and got a medium but the sleeves seemed a bit long to me it s also a bit bo xy due to double breasted the cut so if you have a petite frame it may overwhelm you otherwise it s definitely a great coat for the money i m 5 8 140 lbs and small worked perfectly great dr ess this is such a perfect tee to wear on cold days it s a fall winter spring staple for sure it s very soft and falls perfectly i would definitely recommend it this dress might be the mos i m 5 7 34c 28 jeans size 4 dress one of these beauties ended up in our store and i had to try it on the sleeves are no joke serious bell sleeves that could have looked comical with th ity to try a small which i suspect is my actual size buying it oversized made this magical it feels modern i actually think because the whole sweater is oversized on me it makes the sleeve s less cartoonish lucky enough to have the chance to try this on in the store the sleeves are not big this is my favorite dress purchase so far in 2016 the fabric feel and thickness is wond erful it flares out a little but not too much order the size that matches your largest measure ment on the size chart for bust and waist or if you have broad shoulders the larger of your typical size range i m typically a 00p or a 0p with a 00p hip measurement a middle range 00p is 24 0p is 25 waist measument 24 5 and a 00p bust measurement but my shoulders are broad a nd athletic 0p the larger i love my new dress it is comfy classy and so easy to wear you ca n dress it up or down with ease i m looking forward to seeing more styles from this designer i hope soon don t miss out on this dress it s a must have for your wardrobe really liked the c olor but the style was too cropped and boxy for me this sweater was short wide and unflatterin g however i like this designer so i ordered another style with a different silhouette very ni ce design and color beige however i am 5 1 118 athletic and i thought the petite small was a bit too short even for this cut and just a bit too tight in the upper arms when wearing over a light weight long sleeve dress may work well over sleeveless will see if a regular smal l fits better but then the sleeves will be too long and not easily hemmed like the petite sleev es can be the fabric is a bit felty for a boiled wool but not a deal breaker i have been look ing for a summer dress with a bit of a chic flair to it i was thinking black tank top dress a fter weeks of hunting for the idea in my head i started to branch out i reluctantly tried this on thinking it would be baggish plain and possibly too short wow was i wrong this dress i s everything more wear with some wedges belt it although it doesn t need it at all layer a high neckline lace top over it the possibilities are endless although i loved the green the b gorgeous pattern and colors for autumn maeve does me good when it comes to maxi dresses i ha ve to say that the sizing is all over the place i am generally a medium but the small and xs fit me well also the stretchiness of the jersey is very comfortable and forgiving except at th e ruched waistband which took longer to stretch out but it did eventually i do need to hem if i want to wear flats but the length works for my higher heels there are pockets and a lining t o my knees i am i love boiled wool paired with classic silhouettes and this bonette combines be st of both the fabric is soft not too substantial but still warm for my climate goes great wi th many outfit combinations has a flexible cut for my body type i chose to to buy the size sma ll and while it s a little tight in the upper sleeves because my upper arms are chubby i can w ork with it when i wear the right top the medium was a just a bit too boxy for the profile i wa nted but i may get it any way in the i like this coat especially the collar and cuffs but the buttons were too eye catching for me i wanted something more subtle still i recommend the coa t completely versatile and absolutely perfect for days when my pea coat is too heavy looks ama zing with jeans or with slacks for work i highly recommend this jacket this boiled wool jacket is warm and cozy it does run a little big i have to fold the sleeves twice but it looks great and i got compliments immediately you would expect anything woolen to be slightly scratchy thi s is incredibly soft i couldn t belive it s veltevty soft texture when i pulled it out of the c arton i had to check the content ag immediately to comfim the cut is not too fussy but slimmin g and the sleeves are nice and long it was a little dissapointing that the usual attention to t he styling on the back of the piece was missing here it s a straight plain back with no darts plackets peplums or ruching saw this in the store and had to have it i got the green because its different i am typically a 4 or xs in most dresses sometimes a small i bought the small i n this dress until i realized it was a little too loose if you like that look the small could have worked too the xs didn t look like a bag on me and could be dressed with a belt for a more fitted look i like the knee length and fabric is super soft definitely recommend stylish or c omfy often the choice when looking for casual but not with this top it s comfy and cozy and s tylish to boot the sleeves are fun and create a nice line of interest you can pair this with j eans for a casual day or dress it up with slacks and heels and be comfy either way i fell in lo ve with this sweater as soon as i saw it i was a little unsure what the quality would be like j ust from the photos but i went ahead and ordered it and it is even more amazing in person it s super soft and well made it s also very warm even though it has such a large open weave the pr ice is definitely higher than i would normally pay but this is a piece that will stay in your c loset and wardrobe rotation for years and years definitely worth the investment i agree with the pre lovely socks great color stitched well a little thin i went a size down on this top it was to billowy in my regular size it has the elastic waist but it was bunching up too much i n that area i love the embroidery it is gorgeous will have to hand wash for sure receive d this yesterday wearing it today and am happy it 39 s warm and cozy perfect blend of swea tshirt and sweater for when you want to be comfortable yet still look like you tried i 39 m 5 39 4 5 quot and 130 lbs i ordered an xs and it 39 s still pretty roomy which is how i think i t 39 s supposed to fit i would prefer it to be a little more form fitting but not enough to s end back great with skinny jeans and boots i tried on the xs in store and loved it stylist said i need xs petite but otherwise it looks great the cut is flattering the neckline is a t ad higher and almost has a mini cowl the colors are neutral and would love to wear with a nice pair of dark flared pants or skinnies so at 115 lbs 30dd i would go with xs petite i am bel ow 5 2 fabric is very soft too had to have these when i saw them online usually an ag gir l but loved the button fly and boyfriend fit originally ordered a 28 and returned for a 27 af ter a couple of wears wish i bought the 26 a must have i love these jeans i have a few pair s of citizen jeans and like the way they fit these are a slim boyfriend jean not too baggy very flattering with any top loose or tight fitting wish retailer carried the white i boug ht this top last week and absolutely love it it hides my muffin top and falls in all the right places it does not cling but is very flattering for my size 12 14 body coh emerson style jean s are the best fit and style the pacifica color is a light blue and nice for spring and summe r i love the slim boyfriend i have thighs and they fit like a skinny without being super tight there is just enough stretch no holes either they are easy to dress up or down and have become my new favorites this is a darling dress at this price point i tried some of the more expensiv e options in the off the shoulder dresses this season and this one is as flattering and as well constructed as the others the fabric is light but it is not sheer it is smooth with a bit of a sheen it is airy but not drapey like a rayon would be i would describe it as a lawn upon arri val the packaging indicated that it is considered a cover up the site did not describe it tha t way but it may explain the comparat the fabric is quality nice thicker fabric the fit was st range the top part fit great through the arms and shoulders except my bust makes the front sti ck out and results in a maternity look it was also slightly wide i considered taking it in on the sides ultimately it wouldn t be worth the money it would be a great top for someone with a smaller chest love love love this top so flattering and forgiving bought it in white grea t for summer i love this shirt i ordered a medium and the sleeves were very long and the shi rt was wide in general i returned it for a small and it is perfect size down i love the comfy gauzy feel of this shirt i am a loyal retailer shopper but find many items are hit or miss th is definitely is a hit especially in black i am 5 4 125 lbs and 36ddd i usually take a m or m petite in retailer tops because this is flowy and long a s petite fits perfectly the style is one of a kind the lace is heavy and top quality and when you try on the right size it hits pe rfectly the lavender is a dusty shade that won t work well in fall winter it would look wonder ful in cranberry or forest green i bought this top in all colors as i love it so much it is li ghtweight and perfect for our hot humid summers i actually wear the top backwards because the f ront of the top is longer that the back to me it looked stranger to have it longer in the front size wise i think this top runs pretty large i am usually a medium in most tops sometimes a s mall and i purchased this in a small petite it fits great i even tried on the xs petite and w hile it still fit in armpits and chest it was just i usually wear a small or medium in meadow r ue i am 5 2 120 broad shoulders i ordered both the sp the mp i tried on the small pe tite first and it was too tight in the shoulders arm that was without lifting my arms forward o r up i tried on the mp and it was perfect i would have to say this is my favorite fall top so far the color is very pretty more of a lavender than pink the lace detail is delicat e and pretty the top is more like a tunic get the petite if you short i love peasant shirts s o wanted to try it cute top but v neck was lower than i was expecting i have to wear an under shirt under this for that and also because of sheerness fyi shirt is off white so stark white cami didn t work was struggling to find something but have the leana v neck in navy worked pe rfect and follows neckline exactly now really cute need something not long sleeves to wear und er for spring weather here but will keep and try to figure it out 5 4 135 lbs ordered xs na n i ve been waiting for this to go on sale and just picked one up in store the details and sty le of this blouse do not disappoint since it s billowy in nature a size smaller fits me perfec tly for me a good pencil skirt makes me feel so ladylike i love eva franco pencils but be warn ed they are designed to be a tight fit through the tush i wear a 12 and i ordered the 12 in thi s skirt the pouch another reviewer pointed out seems intended to be a pocket but because the s kirt fits me pretty snugly it doesn t stick out when i walk and sit the fabric does seem like i t would snag easily so i ll choose accessories thoughtfully for reference i have a 33 waist an d 42 hips i am wearing this right now it s a funny fabric almost like a bedspread but the c ut and fit are perfect i am short and i love the length of the hem the babydoll style and the 3 4 sleeve very cute for summer work or going out this top has really beautiful lace detail t he color is much deeper pink than the picture online i ordered the xs petite and it fits fine b ut i like my tops longer so i wish i had gotten the regular xs instead it is very pretty i hav e 9 5 10 size feet and these are a bit small the heel doesn t quite make it around my heel to where it s supposed to be still they re comfy and not too thick or too warm i really like the stripes of different patterns good trouser socks i imagine if you re size 7 or 8 these will fi t perfectly i got the mint and the pink colors and they re very true to how they appear on my computer screen cute socks very comfy as well good quality in person i bought this top in wh ite i wore it with black skinny crop jeans it is very cute and flattering the length is just so that it makes the swing top flattering without is bring too overwhelming i received lots of compliments the quality is great and the top washed up well too love it for reference i m 5 5 125 lbs and bought the top in small i saw this peasant blouse online and thought it looked c ute but not really enough to spend the money on i purchased a few other things instead i happ ened to go into the store to see a different top in person and spotted this one it is definitel y cuter in person as with most tops like this it is baggy and loose however probably due to the elastic at the bottom this one doesn t look overly big and shapeless just a pretty top tha t will be perfect for spring for reference i am 5 6 115 a i recommend zooming in on the fabri c as there are like ink streaks on it which at first i thought was a flaw but it is clearly show n and is actually a nice touch to make these different the fit is true to size or a tiny bit small if you are curvy in the hips i wear a 10 12 and the l is fine but i wouldn t want them a ny smaller super lightweight the piping detail on the sides is really cute alright so i real ly love this shirt but i am having it taken in to fit me i weigh 110 and am 5 foot 3 and prett y petite and this shirt is too big on me and i got an xs i didn t wanna get xxs and am glad i didn t because i think it would be too short i m going to keep the shirt but it is too big on me it puffs out in the front and some in the back when you stand certain ways and i need to hav e it taken in or else it isn t as flattering as it should be the material is awesome and i lov e it is the perfect shirt that looks and feels great i wear a size 4 and it fits perfectly thi s shirt fits beautifully though might be tight for the large chested the fabrics is very soft and the look classic and feminine i love these pants but they are a bit too long like the rev iewer below they hit me right at the ankles i am 5 6 i am going to hem them a bit also they were a little bigger in the waist than expected could have ordered a size 28 instead of a 29 e very so often the perfect pair of bottoms comes along this style was it for me i m tall 5 9 so the length fits perfect for a crop wide leg trouser i will be able to wear these in the summer as they are light weight enough and also into fall before it gets too cold can t wait to wear t hem extra bonus i got them on sale if you are short these will probably be more like a long le g trouser on you also fit true to size can t say enough about these pants \ni often find leggi ngs to be to revealing when wearing them with long but not long enough top i have a longer tors o so finding tops that hit this sweet spot is an issue for me i also don t love long flowy tops with jeans all the time the portions look all off and i look and feel heavy in my middle sectio n \ncue these darlings with out any buttons zippers on the front your shirts will lay flat and crisp i feel comfortable and appropriate at my causal work o i love this suit the bottoms ran a bit too big on me i m usually a small but an extra small would have fit more comfortably th e small wasn t huge so i kept with them and im still very happy with this purchase i purchased these bottoms with the matching peplum top in romantic floral i also purchased the higher waist ed bottoms just in case \r\ni returned the higher bottoms and that s saying a lot \r\ni have t wo sons and now struggle with fit in regard to two piece bathing suits \r\nthe higher bottoms j ust didn t fit right and i didn t need the extra coverage because these fit so well and the pepl um gives extra coverage though not really necessary \r\nthe others cut in a bit in the seat an d hips and these nan oh how i dread online shopping for bikinis especially bottoms however t hese bottoms are incredible the fit is perfect you know when you are wearing normal underwear and you ask yourself why can t bathing suit bottoms just fit like this these bikini bottom s do you can t tell by the picture but they are a really great weight not too thick and bulky very flattering perfect rear coverage doesn t pinch your sides truly the most flattering bot toms i ve found in a long time worth this shirt is so soft and luxuriously feeling the materia l looks very nice and seems well made it has a nice length to it so it can be worn properly wi th leggings without any worry i m a 36d and can t get the button to close properly so i d reco mmend sizing up if this could be an issue for you overall it will be a very versitile piece i m excited to add to my wardrobe i love white blouses in the summer this one is perfect bought o ne size down and it is perfect the lovely tailored neck is very flattering and hard to find i do send it to the cleaners just to make sure it keeps that crisp cool look for hot summer days i still have mixed feelings about this pants the fabric is nice soft and flows well the fit i s good i ordered 30 could have gone with 29 not a big deal the one thing that is off is the length i am 5 7 and these come right to above my ankle nowhere close to how they sit on the model the issue with this length is that is neither here nor there too short for regular pant length and too long for crops i will probably have to hem them a bit which is a disappointment when you pay so muc the color of this top is perfect for summer it is a light lilac tone the f abric is also light and super soft great cut too even my husband liked the cut of the shirt

\r\n\r\ni ordered a large based on other reviews but found the arms to be a little tight but no t enough not to keep the top the shirt does run slim being a 36d i do have to keep the top but tons unbutton but i am okay with wearing a little cami under the shirt i m so glad i bought thi s the picture doesn t do it justice it s lightweight flowy and super comfy i ll be wearing t his all the time very lightweight so it doesn t get hot love the material it s soft light an d flattering color says light grey but it does have a bit of a blue lavender hue to it as anoth er reviewer said i love cloth stone and this is one of my favorites well worth the money or dered in my normal size large and i love it beautiful fit striking pattern that s quite slimmi ng the stripes are deep chocolate next to a mauve purple gray on a white background it looks b lack so lots of colors would work on top the fabrication is a soft rib knit and it has a substa ntial elastic waistband it overlaps in the front and the opening falls a bit high so that may be a deal breaker for some because it does expose some upper thigh i like the look but i m 5 3 so it works well nan i love the color it has a lavender hue it s slightly see through but bre athes nicely and is very soft and comfortable it falls long in the back and fits slim through t he torso 1 i m 5 5 tall 143 lbs and 38 36d 32 40 and the medium fit me well \r\n\r\n2 my only problem is that the collar keeps falling to the back i feel like the shoulder isn t cut right to sit on the shoulder i seem to have this problem a lot with this brand where the shirt just wants to fall to the back this is a beautiful blouse however it runs big i order the smal l and had to return it my measurements are 5 4 135 34c 28 38 for reference you will not regret buying this blouse but it has to be the right size if not it would look like it did on me frump y i kept taking it off and putting it back on trying to make it work because i liked the mater ial that much but if you look at the model she has her arms straight down when i lifted my arm s i had 3 inches of extra material on both side th love the material it is a thick cotton b ut it is structured enough and thick enough so that it doesn t cling to me in a bad way its l ike wearing a sweater my only beef with it is that the seam where the black material is stitche d to the gray material creates a bump in the silhouette the black material is the same as the gray and it also has a herringbone pattern thats not really visible in the pictures i would hav e preferred a uniform material rather than a panel sewn in not a huge d nan these bottoms are c omfortable soft and fit perfectly the pattern is exactly the colors online i love these but i should have ordered the size 25 instead of my usual 26 i can wear them higher with a tight be lt but they are still too long too cute to return though best part covers my bum perfect fo r teaching casual girls night or casual date night my only complaint is there aren t other c olors awful decision i would have purchased at least 5 of these at the right price right on t rend easy to wear but a bit snug in waist which the vendor gave item specific sizing to make the selection of the size a bit easier so soft and comfortable this is a comfortable and easy shirt that is meant to be slightly looser i wear a size small in all cloth and stone and found this shirt to be true to size the extra small was too tight in the shoulders and didn t have th e right look to it \r\n\r\nsame fabric as my other cloth and stone items however i had to stea m the cuffed sleeves and back pleating after washing and drying to make it look nice and crisp also the cuffed sleeves are sewn that way which i like this is a cute top that is very soft a nd comes in nice colors it s body hugging but not clingy i m 5 5 120 with square shoulders a nd a longer torso and when i initially tried a small i thought it looked ok but when i tried o n the extra small it looked much better the way the top is cut it fits a bit weird under the ar ms as you can see in the photos but it wasn t enough to keep me from picking up a few colors w hen it went on sale i like wearing this under a jacket or cardigan with jeans this is a nice sw eater it is comfortable and a great top layer it fits tts but be aware that when you raise you r arms it rides up pretty high i bought the grey brown option i find it to be more brown than grey what a special skirt so beautiful great quality i got on sale but still expensive and it was still worth it i will be wearing this for years just bought red today to wear to a conference to stay warm over floreat peasant blouse and pilcro serif jeans love love very fla ttering and plan to wear with skirts on airplanes for warmth and for travel very versatile h ighly recommend i bought this top in all four colors soft material elegant design relaxed f it a true staple for every closet i really love this brand and i love the fit of this blazer my bottons were loose on this jacket and i got the rose color too and i do agree with the other reviewer that the color is more terra cotta great for spring and cool summer night it runs tts im a 36dd and the medium fit nice this top fits so well and looks much better on than in the pi cture love this medium weight wool cape it is so much prettier in person the photos look a bi t boring but this cape is very versatile and simple to wear some capes hang oddly on me but thi s one was flattering without the bulk not itchy either the photos don t really show the sleeve s clearly but there is a sleeve built into the cape the taupe color is a rich neutral that can be paired with thin or thicker turtlenecks or shirts the sleeves are bracelet length so full le ngth sweaters will show und i saw this sweater and just about died i loved the accentuated shou lders and beautiful knit detail on the sleeves lucky for me retailer day started a couple of d ays after this sweater debuted and i snagged it right away i just got it and am in love it fi ts true to size and the shoulders and sleeves are everything i hoped they would be the neckline in very flattering as well it is soft and the color is gorgeous if there is a negative it wou ld be that it is a bit boxy in the torso and doe as is true of a bunch of the fall clothing pho tos the colors are totally washed out in these model images which is such a shame the embroide ry is bright and vivid and totally unique on this the bib area is actually a soft corduroy whic h i think is nice to transition into fall and winter in terms of fit i do feel like this is ma ybe geared more towards the slender build it is a slim cut which i found really flattering for me since i sometimes swim in tunics at 5 7 128 with a very small i ve had my eye on this pon cho for weeks and finally scored the olive green one over thanksgiving black friday special i w ould say the color is more mustard yellow which will go well with a variety of jewel tone tops etc the poncho is a nice weight but not too heavy i am 4 11 with short arms but i went ahead and bought the regular xs instead of the petite sizes and the length is perfect i am seriously considering getting the cranberry one as well a classic buy for winter which i m sure this is s uch a fun pullover sweater i m not much for sweaters so i thought this would be a neat alterna tive im between a small and medium so i went with the small due to the swing style it fit won derfully i m even happy with the length which completely covers my behind i m 5 6 i choose the gray and it s a great neutral but now i m contemplating going back for the red as well hop efully a promo will come along soon love a gray sweater and this one is stunning layered with a plaid tunic and worn to work with many compliments the only downside is the poncho shape wi th the large wing like sleeves makes it impossible to wear a coat over this sweater if you wan ted to wear in the winter cold you would need a cape also not an ideal piece if you need to li ft your arms for any reason keeping that in mind though i still really like it for days when i want to look cute and won t be don t a ton of moving aro love this top that simple originally go t one with a stain retailer quickly sent a replacement \r\nuseful with many skirts and pants w ell made colors are great the fit is flattering but as soon as you raise your arms the whole shirt lifts there is no picture of anyone lifting their arms be sure to wear something und er i purchased this shirt in white and black the white is more ivory isn and is a bit thin see through the shirts can be worn with jeans or dressed up with a skirt i just wish it was a little more form fitting i do like the hint of stretch in the fabric very comfortable as well thank goodness for a nice white basic tee that is not see through i go back and forth between a n xs and s depending on how i want an item to fit i don t like things to be too form fitting b ecause i still have a little post baby pooch i went with a s in this shirt and it works well m y only complaint is that the neckline is not totally straight where the seam comes up from und er the arm to hit the neckline it bumps out a little bit but it s a great nicer basic that will go well with almost i initially bought this in the stone color and loved it so much the first ti me i wore it that i went back for the red without a doubt my favorite purchases of the season have gotten so many compliments on both and despite the fact that the style isn t form fitting it is still somehow very flattering would highly recommend this sweater to anyone these jeans are so great i m thinking of getting a second pair for when the first wear out despite the pri ce they hug my curves and make me feel like a bombshell the fabric and stitching is all good q uality and sturdy these are comfy but they definitely are not thin like legging jeans love th em looks and fits just like the picture fabric is nice and soft looking forward to wearing th is tunic as soon as the weather cools just a little i bought this in rose and i really like the jacket the color is not rose but the picture is accurate it is more terra cotta as previous re viewer s said it is pretty casual but you can dress it up with a chunky necklace and dressy boo ts i do wish it was a tad more fitted in the waist i think it looks better buttoned but i do wear it open as well i bought this in purple and then just now in navy i love the sleeve length and neckline this shirt is made of a very soft knit material a so its very comfy and flattering goes well with jeans shirts and shorts i definitely recommend purchasing this shirt i m prett y flat chested 34aa so it s hard for me to say how the sizing runs on this top for others to me it s a slim fitting but not tight true to size t shirt i tried the xs regular dressing ro om photo and the small petite other photo and i d say the main fit difference was in the shou lders the small petite fit me better in the shoulders xs petite wasn t available also the ne ckline of the small petite came up a little higher the white is a slightly dingy off white but i think the i love ponchos and the colors are gorgeous but the pictures make it look much longe r than it is i would ve loved it if i were petite but i personally don t think it s meant for t aller people such a shame first saw this poncho on a petite blog and after reading reviews hap pily paid full price i followed the petite reviews and purchased the xs regular the length hit s right below my bum so it s perfectly structured to wear with leggings the cable knit is super soft and very warm wore this for the first time last weekend layered over a long sleeve tee and was perfectly cozy outside for a fall day in chicago this item will not last long and is well w orth paying full price the dress i received was not in the least what i was expecting and in t he best way possible i initially purchased the dress as something i could wear to work but whe n i put it on it was clear the dress was meant for something a bit more fun it s more along th e lines of a sweater dress and is very flattering and chic love love love this tunic i was w orried about getting the regular size because they don t have my size in petite anymore but im g lad i took a chance getting the regular size my daughter said its just perfect on me very pret ty love this poncho purchased xs in gold olive color and the length is good i could have size d up for extra length but thought there was too much fabric in body for reference 5 8 slender love the diagonal cable pattern and curved design the sleeves are more comfortable for me pushe d up a little but if left long works well and are about wrist length the color is great for fal l but could easily transition into winter spring the gray is a lighter gray and is nice too b ut size xs not availab i fell in love with this tunic on instagram and couldn t wait to find it during the tops promotion it was absolutely not a disappointment as the other reviewer mention ed the colors of the embroidery are brighter than they appear in the online images and this ac tually makes the shirt more beautiful they re rich and fallish but not at all over the top \r \n\r\ni m thrilled with the quality and overall cut of this tunic i would agree that it might b e best to run to a larger size in a range i di great fabric and nice cut like other reviewer said fitted but not too but it was just too short for my legs i do wonder if the descriptio n is wrong but i didn t keep it long enough to measure and check this nice fit wish it was a l ittle longer but i really do like it and feel good when i wear it love this top runs true to si ze exactly as pictured adorable jacket i ordered the medium 5 4 135 lbs sleeves are long and have to roll them up ordering the petite medium to see if it fits better pink color is gre at so soft a casual tunic yet polished and interesting enough for work darker blue than the photo and the colors are much brighter and prettier in person i purchased this sweater at my l ocal retailer store a few weeks ago i picked the dark grey color which is more of a neutral bei ge or oatmeal color i love it i just wish i had purchased it earlier to wear through the fall it has a substantial weight and is warm this sweater poncho has a great drape that is really fl attering especially in the back it does have slits on the sides so you really would need to we ar a layer underneath i ve worn it with a turtleneck and button ups and it looks rea this is a great everyday top for pairing with jeans or a nice skirt love the wine maroon color super com fy i took other reviewers advice and ordered a size up and it was a little too big i had to o rder this dress three times to get the correct size ordered a petite which worked great i real ly like the dress now that i found the size that fits best love the color perfect for so many occasions church special events and dinner out great with flats and wedges i know i will be wearing it lots this summer did i mention i love the color worth repeating i tried this on in store but didn t purchase it due to price then kicked myself afterwards when my size was sold o ut online i really wanted the gray i finally was able to order my size when it was restocked v ery briefly and am so happy i did this is such a cute poncho \n\ni also have the angel of the n orth poncho from last winter and don t like that one nearly as much that one was too long thi s one is the perfect length it curves down in the front and back and then comes up at the side s r i love this jacket works so well with business casual outfits and the color goes with almo st everything great over blouses or t shirts by far my favorite purchase in quite a while i l ove this i bought it in the red color in person it is a deeper color than it looks online and it has some flecks of lighter yarn in it that just add to it s beauty it is very soft and cozy it is warm without being hot i typically wear a small sometimes medium at retailer i bought a medium only because i wanted it to be a little longer so that i could wear it with leggings and feel comfortable i am 5 8 though so if you are shorter than you may not need to size up it l ooks great with a received the jacket today i love it but because it has no stretch in the ma terial it feels a little snug across the shoulders i have long arms and it fit perfect for the length i tried to order the next size to see how it would fit but it was sold out i ll keep l am totally impressed these jeans have a comfortable stretch and rugged wash that is trendy fu n they are the perfect everyday jean and look great casually with a pair of birkenstocks or con verse low tops the only thing worth pointing out is that i am pretty short 5 4 and the regula r length fits me perfectly this may be an issue for ladies lucky enough to have some extra inch es on me i really like this dress a lot the material is soft and comfortable it is clingy but not in a bad way the design can camouflage some figure problems i thought it looked better wit h a belt so i added a skinny beige pink belt which worked great can t say enough about how comf ortable this dress is nan this poncho is perfect the slits on the side may seem intimidating a t first but wear a flowy tank under neath it for a nice added detail it s easy to wear over a fitted dress as well or a high waisted full skirt \ni have red hair and the gold looks amazing with that hair color but the grey and creme are neutral and go well with a lot of options a lo vely creatively designed tunic that just isn t for me the embroidery is certainly intricate a nd the chambray shirt has a wearable hand but the combination on my body type didn t look quite right probably because i am too top heavy and apple torsoed i think if i were more slender t he fit would look like a flattering dress i had purchased the size 10 and i am 36dd 140 i sa w this online and decided to go to the store to have a look at it in person i was not disappoi nted at all it is so gorgeous i purchased the burgundy color and have received so many compli ments it is very well made i am 5 5 126 lbs and purchased a small i think some others ment ioned it falls short in back but on me it falls well passed my bottom maybe they purchased a p etite like another reviewer i initially passed by this sweater and thought nothing of it until i noticed it on display super cute and ultra comfy the kind of sweater that just beckons t o be warn in the fall i purchased this in the olive color and just love it very cute and flatt ering for a poncho type sweater i do think it runs a bit large so i sized down for the perfect fit i highly recommend this item other than the color i got the rose color which is great i think my favorite part about this jacket is that the sleeves are actually long enough i am 5 7 and the sleeves come right to my wrists if not just a tad longer onto my hands it s also go t some stretch to it so it doesn t make you feel to stiff as you wear it you can move in it it s very comfortable and pretty this is basically a poncho with arm holes but it looks great and is well made \r\ni got this in the wine which is a beautiful color the design is nice and looks expensive but i m not sure how it will hold up after washing it is oversized and a litt le boxy i m a medium or large on top and i ended up purchasing an xs and it fits just fine in t he shoulders and arms the rest of it is still roomy though short but perfectly fine i got th is on sale so it was well worth the price point i am 5 feet and 120 lbs i ordered the honey quality was excellent no button issues fits true to size i ordered a small petite my issue w as the chino fabric was too casual it s okay if it were on sale i would keep it but not at fu ll price color is as shown in the honey no issues on arm length but i like mine a little long er it s kind of menswear which some gals would like i am a 34 c and it only looks good button ed up on me i d say if your on the fence give it a try it s tts i bought the wine color typi cally wear med or large med was plenty big the color is deep and beautiful is so soft and flowing i love it nan i was so sad to have to return these pilcro jeans my calves are just to o athletic for these jeans they weren t comfortable they were a little loose in the waist so sizing up would not have fit the tight in the calves problem i have two pairs of stetson crop flares and they fit perfectly in fact i love the pilcro stetson crop flare style wish retailer would sell more of this style this blouse is gorgeous i purchased in two colors and absolutely love it just a side note i normally wear a size small blouse or size 4 6 blouse in this i went up a size and purchased the medium i love this top very comfortable and versatile \r\ni will be purchasing the top in all the other colors this skirt was very figure flattering and the e lastic waist is comfortable and does not cut into my sides has a great look i bough this in the blue green color and it s absolutely beautiful just as it appears online actually the shirt in general looks just like it does online it s fitted up top and flowy everywhere else this may be because i m fairly straight figured it s possible it would be less flattering on a big ger bust i agree with the other reviewers who say the fabric wrinkles too easily i am sometime s an xs and sometimes a s and i ordered the s in this and like how it fits note in meadow rue soft and pretty but way too big and wide love the bell sleeve detail i m exchanging for one s ize smaller nan this blouse makes me feel young vibrant and beautiful i got it in 2 colors with the coupon special i love how it fits and it s slimming love it i have broad shoulders and it is very slimming i love the quality of this little gem it s going to be used as an unde r a sweater top and also to fill a v neck line dress up that s too low for me it s made very we ll in my opinion but it runs a bit too full so if you are between sizes you could easily go down a size pretty obsessed with this top it feels like a cotton poncho it s definitely made to b e over sized and flowy it even hangs off the shoulder some it does run very large i m normall y a medium to a large and i purchased the xs never ever an xs normally even still it s loose as it s designed to be so definitely size down 2 sizes other than that super comfy and a casua l top that can be worn to make my leggings and flip flops a little more fancy would also be n ice with jeans for a casual i love pilcros i have a few pairs and all in 28s so that s what i ordered however they are so tight i could even button them i haven t gained any weight and all my old pairs fit fine i liked the color and length so much i m exchanging them for 29s hopef ully that will do the trick bought this top on a whim on a tops sale and am really glad i did it s a nice two in one piece that can be dressed up for the office with a blazer or down with je ans and a sweater striped portion of the shirt is a ponte stretchy material i am 5 5 135lbs 34c curvy muscular frame and the small was perfect and even roomy i don t like things too tigh t absolutely love these i ordered them in bronze and i m thinking about getting the lilac pai r as well they re super comfortable and look great on nan when i put this skirt on my aunt sai d that looks like a skirt with class she s right this skirt feels as wonderful on as it looks i love the faux leather slash it is the perfect detail without detracting from a printed top i think it is great to just slip on no zipper for those days i even pulled this on over a dress bailey 44 hits it out of the park again i have 3 dresses and now a skirt t e colors on the web site are brighter than they are in person just fyi this is a great tee i bought this in th e green in a size m i m normally a small but because of the fitted look i opted for the medium i probably could have sized down to the small but the medium is still fitted just not too tight which is actually a nice look the only thing i wish was different are the sleeves the sleeves are just a little too puffy for me but it s so cute that i m keeping it i ordered the green an d lilac the pink color was not offered when i placed my order so that was not an option i foun d that it ran true to size but was a loose fit the lilac color had white streaks from the the dyed effect but it looked like someone had spilled paint on the front in one area so i did not even try that one on for now i am keeping the green one but it is a deeper green than picture d and also a looser fit than on the model i do like that it is 100 percent cotton and very so b ought this online to get something in the purple family it s a deeper hue than pictured and as others have noted there are variations in the color all over cute with jeans definitely an up grade from a boring old t one word to the wise saw the pink in the store today definitely n ot pink it s orange i m 5 6 127 lbs and 34b bought xs and it is perfect cute and simple top a little tight through the bust looks great tucked or out and super cute with a simple ja cket easy piece to dress up or down i ve got a bit of a love hate relationship with this top the fabric feels a little odd and wrinkles crazy hard and i m not a fan of the open ladder ribb on over the bust really who needs to see the top of my bra but i love love love the overall fit the details like the polka dot trim and the sheer tucks and the color blue green it lo oks good tucked in or loose and i can layer it under cardigans and jackets i ll get a matching ribbon and sew it in under the ladder ribbon so it s act this tee has the cutest details and the green is actually a beautiful deeper green the shirt has a great fit and looks so much more fl attering on than the pictures show 5 4 109 got an xs slightly loose exactly how i like it the somewhat mottled dye type color makes it a casual piece for me great with jeans nice fabri c thickness super cute pants fit and color just like model picture i fall between a 28 and 2 9 waist and all that was available was a 29 so i ordered it online however when they came it was just a bit too big loose so i had to return them if i had been able to get just the right s ize maybe size own a bit if in questions i think i would have kept them love this chemise pe rfect blend of comfort and sexy i bought it in pink size small i m a 32d about 115 lbs and if fit perfectly i could even probably go to an xs but i didn t want to wait the fabric is super soft and the color is vibrant looks exactly like the picture decent price really like these they fit really well and look great with a pair of chucks and a sweater if i m dressing down a b it as well as with flats and a nicer blouse really versatile i m kind of pear shaped and the se seem to minimize my flaws a bit too so that never hurts i ordered the teal color it is a beautiful color the fit is a bit odd like one other person commented but the pros outweigh the cons i am thinking of ordering the other colors too i had never worn pilcro jeans and i took a chance and ordered without trying them on i couldn t be more pleased i wear a 26 but it is often difficult to find a good fitting pair of jeans these fit comfortably and don t feel too t ight but are fitted enough to look great i like the little bit of extra room around the top a llowing the jeans to feel comfortable i ll be back for more pilcro jeans the lilac pic of this shirt doesn t do it justice it is so darn cute on the band around the waist really draws y our eye in and makes your waist look really small love that also the pleated sleeves are just so feminine and pretty the fabric is like a washed cotton very soft i can see this be ing dressed up or made really casual i bought the green color and am going to wear it with a chunky turquoise necklace and pencil skirt love these so comfy and a great color also love th at it came in petite it is so hard to find avoid crop pant in petite love this chemise the lace detail is cute the length of the skirt is longer than many of the night gowns you d find i n the cute not frumpy category and overall it is super soft and comfortable for lounging and s leeping bought the large and i m normally around a size 8 10 between medium and large dependi ng on the cut of the item the large is slightly on the big size so the straps move around when i sleep not a big deal for me so i kept it i usually wear 26 or 27 in pants but i sized up t o a 28p for these the waist is a little big but better fit overall i ended up buying them in t he white also nan i recently purchased this blouse in black i love the soft yet crepe like fab ric and the small bit of negative space trim just above the bust line gives it an air of eleganc e comfortable and breathable i see this becoming a how did i live without this staple the m oss color intrigued me so i ordered a medium instead of large because it looked oversized i gen erally wear a large medium is a good fit probably could have ordered the small but wanted to preserve the draping on the side this top is very wide but it looks great on so do size down love the color variations it s true to the pics and is a nice addition to my casual lifestyle lately retailer tees have been misses for me but i was intrigued by the reviewers comments about the shaping of the tee to enhance the illusion of a waistline that drew me in because i have a short waist and some shaped tees just cling there and emphasize rolls more than my waist but no t this one it is more fitted along the back waist and looser in the front i generally order si ze large in tees as i did with this one i don t think the fit is too big because it s cut not t o cling anywhere i h nan i love this pair to add some color to a plain outfit however they ra n just a tad bigger than i expected those are very cute and lavender color is very beautiful in person however i do not like the cut waist goes about inch higher than usual pilcro which for summer heat is something i do not find neither practical nor pretty and unfortunately i have to send them back also this year pilcro runs little bit tighter in waist than usual so you m ight consider ordering one size up if you are between sizes this top reminds me of something ou t of the 40 s it is super comfortable and just makes a very clean look i absolutely love this t op ordered the moss color in size xxs i am 5 5 105 lbs i typically wear xs and 0 in retailer clothing this top is kinda flared loose fitting so i would size down the website currently say s it s by everleigh but the tag says eri ali color is a little darker in person but tie dye e ffect is spot on it s beautiful and super super comfy i am currently wearing it with my lulul emons but can defin see this top being dressed up with a cute pendant necklace and skinny bla l ovely dress the beautiful colors are exactly as shown on the website i m 5 2 and it reaches a bout midway down my shin i m normally a size 0 and i ordered the x small and it fits perfectly definitely a keeper pilcros always fit perfectly and these jeans are no different the style is great and a little different with the slits on the side i bought the gold color which is a litt le brighter than pictured for that reason i m on the fence about keeping them i wish there we re other bold colors to choose from since most of the other choices seem washed out in love wit h this blouse i first got in ivory went back and got in black you can dress casual or up got these in my usual size and they are wonderful the gray goes with everything i m hoping they co me out with some greens or blues too i love these jeans i came on here to see if they were her e on sale and they are but alas not in my size i probably wear these three times per week t o work going out with friends all over i got the gray and i would say the color on the site i s true to how they look in person i bought mine in the store and i will say that i ve been on t he fence about whether they re gray or purple but the site says gray if you want a true gray th at is a more blue ish gray then these are not it because i got these in gray like other review ers mentioned the waist is a little higher not 70s though but the jean had great control so i t holds everything in instead of creating a muffin top which many shorter waisted jeans do co ntours to the leg love it nan another wonderful deletta top is hanging in my closet i love th e cotton i love the style medium fit perfect it is loose around the middle so soft and comfo rtable i purchased the lavender washout i know i will be wearing this frequently they are rea lly cute the fabric is a little stiff but the details are nice the waist seems big so i sugges t sizing down i bought 27 p my usual size and sent them back for a 26 p because the waist was b ig i ordered this in the white in my usual size 26 and these were too big on me 5 5 110lbs the pants bunched up unattractively around my thighs because they were not form fitting i am ho ping to exchange for the size 25 because i prefer a tighter fit the style of the pants were ver y cute i like the side slit detail and the cropped look i m hoping these pants work out for me in the smaller size nan nan i love pilcro and this pair is another proof why i love it i bough t a pair in light red the color is so pretty the fit is perfect i normally wear petites but this time bought a regular length and i love it it is not too long as the pants are cropped and not too short as the petite cut might have been \r\npilcro never disappoints me as i have m any different pairs and love each one of them may go for another color in this same style they are awesome super cut but easily wrinkles eg i ironed it got dressed then bent down to tie my daughters shoe and the whole front bottom was super wrinkly i thought that it d go away but it didn t just got worse by the time i got out of my car at work front and back were notic eably wrinkled all day living a casual life style in key largo fl i love a fitted t shirt inst ead of a boxy shape i m 67 years and am very active and fit love your store classy this is te e is so soft and the other one in the same brand is the same love the details also and the colo r wash great fit looks excellent with jeans as well as tucked in with a pencil skirt these ar e very well made jeans the fabric is substantial and gives a lot of stretch with movement i ad ore the extra inch or so in the rise of the waist and they make my butt look great however th ese jeans fit like a glove when i put them on first thing but within an hour or so of wear they are so baggy it s like wearing a size bigger i d say perhaps buy a size smaller if you want the m to fit snugly through the day if you like roomy then buy your regular size super cute and c omfortable has a shape not boxy these are my favorite pair of capris ankle jeans ever i m 5 4 120lbs and got the 28 petite in gray the fit is fantastic and the length is perfect for sum mer days couple inches above my ankles the gray color is so versatile and i can dress it up o r down i plan on getting it in other colors as well since the fit is so good super flattering cut and the material is like buttah no seriously it s like a 10 yr old tee soft the colors ar en t even close compared to online though the green is a brighter almost grass green and the p ink is more like a salmon color i didn t see the lilac in the store i purchased the teal blue and the color is striking though i put true to size the decorative top is slightly tight around the bust and the bottom too is fitted and not flowy for a looser fit you may want to size up for a more fitted look it is true to size i snagged this top with the 25 off sale and it s ado rable i got the white and it goes great with some skinny jeans or tucked into a skirt i found it ran true to size my only complaint is that like some other reviewers have stated it does wr inkly very easily and i would say for full price i don t think the quality is worth the cost b ut on sale it s a great shirt these are a great versatile pair of black pants they look chic without trying too hard and they work well dressed up or down they do run a bit big as others h ave said i generally wear a 16 and thats what i got in these but they re definitely big and bag out by the end of the day the top is adorable and i love it however the pink is not pink but m ore of a very faded orange color i was really hoping for pink but the shirt is a keeper i love this fabric and the design details of this top but i am only 5 3 and this top ends above my w aist shoulders and sleeves fit perfectly and the neck and back details are very flattering i e nded up keeping the shirt because i love the fabric so much but i am trying to find a way to we ar this shirt with how short it is tucking in or wearing with high waisted bottoms are all i ca n figure out for someone without a perfectly flat tummy this top also caught my eye in my loca l store and being a devoted deletta lover i had to buy it is a straight slim fit so i bough t a medium instead of my usual small to glide over my curvy lower half it s thin finely wove n knit with two cute little buttons at the top of the side slit the cut and longer length in t he back is very flattering i bought the heathered black and have worn with my black pilcro legg ings it s a great top to wear over leggings or skinny jeans no belts with th this dress is ver y pretty but only the bottom is lined the top is completely see through and you would need to w ear a tank or slip underneath i wanted a dress i could just throw on and not have to layer so i t didm t work for me but if you don t mind layering or your bra peeking through it s still a v ery beautiful dress i m usually a petite in most things but this wasn t available in p so i ord ered an xs the length was good not too long not too short but it was cut way too low for me on i love this top the fit is perfect and i particularly like the longer back there is a split between the shorter front and longer back which is brilliant so you can move and sit without it pulling around your bum looks great with skinny jeans or with leggings it is very light weight and is perfect for spring the sleeves are slightly fitted and very comfortable the quality and construction is great i am 5 feet and got a petite xs which is perfect i wore this dress to my work christmas party and got compliments all night it s a beautiful dress with fantastic detail s and it is very comfortable i am 5 5 5 and about 122 lbs i am typically a 0 on top 2 wais t and 2 4 bottom i ordered the 2 and it was the right choice for me it was a little snug on t he bum and around the thighs it pulled ever so slightly in the front but it still looked good it s stretchy without looking like it is stretchy the top part of the dress fit well and the p hoto of this dress does not do it justice this dress is absolutely gorgeous the construction i s very high quality i always worry about peekaboos with button front dresses as i am very busty total non issue with this dress the petite fit is also spot on it is slightly large in the bac k bodice for me but i always have that problem it s an easy tailoring fix \n\ni think i m in l ove with byron lars 3 perfect length and colors i get asked where i got it on the reg every t ime i wear it mostly a casual vibe with flat sandals i tried this dress on and thought it wa s stunning the cut was just right it fit all my slight curves i m 5 8 and 145lbs a slender b uild and bought the size 8 it is lined and the material is high quality with an illusion of she er the length hits me just on my knees and the look is so audrey hepburn the belt is made of a grosgrain black material and adds another elegant touch if used it looks great without it too of course this dress comes at a high price point but with the 25 of full p fits great comfort able this dress is beautiful and unique but if you are more pear shaped get the correct size to fit your hips it fits very close through the behind but is stretchy as i was putting it on a nd felt it hugging me closely i thought it would never work but when i looked in the mirror i found it looked quite nice even though it clings and the stretch allows plenty of movement if i size up to allow more room in the hips then i think it will be too loose on top so i will jus t wear it with spanx th this top has beautiful subtle metallic bits in the pattern fell in lov e with the fabric looks great with high waist pants great transitional top comfy and great f it i like my tops to be somewhat roomy and this was great in a small i usually buy medium t his dress fitted me like a glove i ordered the size 4 at 5ft7 and 130lbs it was perfect thoug h i could not weigh two pounds more i cannot wait to wear it it has that wow thing going for i t very good quality too this dress is adorable the ruffles are a very cute detail the top is a bit transparent for the price it probably should have included something to make it less tran sparent but it is so cute i will just put a cami underneath runs true to size my usual xsmall fit perfect 5 4 34c 135 lbs i didn t find the top to be that blousy i thought it was perf ect for me don t get me wrong this is probably cute on someone else but not me i looked in t he mirror and just laughed it was that bad so if you re considering getting this size down o rdered mine in large and it looks like i m wearing a barrel the pink is pretty but the horizont al striping did nothing for my shape the fabric is soft i m just over trying peplums sexy ye t sweet and demure all points checked with cute little number this is the third byron dress i ve bought and like the melodist i purchased the 8p and had the same issue too loose in the hip s this is very cute but i will have to size up my large to extra large and normally i wear a m edium or large it is quite tight as a large it looks a lot cuter on the model so i am hoping the extra large does it this is my third byron lars and as usual it is absolutely gorgeous and so worth the price it completely flatters the body and all the details add so much interest cr eating a very unique dress several months ago i bought the byron lars pieced brocade dress siz e 10 it s a little large through the torso area but with the belt it fits good enough since i have loved this dress so much i wanted another byron lars dress so i bought the carissima sheath and the sunrose dress both in a 10 they both were way too big so i ordered a size 8 and they bo th just barely fit oh was i disappointed so one more try i ordered this dress the allusi one sheath size 10 and yepeee it fits perfect this is a cute dress it fits well i have a bust do it s not as loose as it is on the model runs short i m 5 8 solid size 10 just got this i n the mail yesterday and i want so badly to love it but it s just a little too big and boxy i m 5 5 125lbs and ordered a small but i really wish i d ordered the xs not sure if i ll exchange or just return seems high quality and the pattern is gorgeous it s basically exactly what i m looking for until i actually put it on and then it just kind of looks like i m wearing my grandp a s old sweater i bought this in the dark gray and it s got a lot of blue undertones to it it s beautiful and flattering in my regular size not too fitted not as loose as on the model bu t still roomy enough i ll take the advice of a previous reviewer and wash only the armpits when needed this fabric is so delicate i m afraid it will shrink if i ever submerge the whole thing in water it s a gorgeous piece and i m happy to have it for the remaining cool days of the seas on this sweater is beautiful and looks exactly as pictured in terms of fit length and color the fabric is super soft and not at all itchy feels soft like a boucle type knit the sleeves are 3 4 length and the weight is maybe a medium weight not super warm i wouldn t see this tak ing me too far into a northeastern winter but for right now it s perfect fit is tts i love this dress however b c of my broad shoulders i need to size up i would say if you have a stra ight and slender frame then it s tts the bottam half was fine it was a tad bit snug around the arm pits for me it is very cute for spring summer it is sold out love this top this is a very comfortable everyday top worn primarily with jeans please make it in more colors i think it should be less expensive i loved this top when i first saw it online and it did not disappoi nt when i received it in the mail it s very lightweight perfect for spring cool summer night early fall i really like the design and like that you can tuck it in there is enough fabric in the front to give it a flowy look that i appreciate bc i will be giving birth soon and my post baby body will likely need some coverage great top surprisingly this poncho is both flatterin g and soft i must say i didn t think the fabric would be as soft since a lot of knits have woo l but this is great i purchased both xs s and xs s p \r\nthe petite was just slightly more fi tted so i went with that i love the boat neck on me it gives the poncho an elegant look col ors are nice and neutral i think i will wear this with dresses and jeans both great purchase 115 lbs 30dd 26 5 in waist i am so glad i tried this on last minute in my store it was on a tbale and saw it no hte stylist picks so decided why not try it on i thought i would need a p etite but hte elngth of the regualr hit me almsot one inch above my knee which is a sweet spot for me petite may hit me too high to be able to pull ths casual style at work and i wear char acter shirts with jeans or joggers on the weekends so i ordered the 0 for me the store 0 ha d a stain on it \r\n\r\ni am 115 lbs for referenc gorgeous dress colors as appear in pictur e thick material quality is good sizing im usually a size 2 or small got a small and it is big in the chest length is below the knee would recommend a size smaller than normal not a hu ge deal small alteration job this is a lovely top received many compliments felt very femini ne and perfect for chilly spring please take this to the dry cleaners you will avoid feeling distraught as i did after washing it which is the recommended method to clean it and seeing it shrunk to half it s previous size sad i love this poncho sweater it feels cozy and looks real ly cool can t wait til the weather cools down so i can wear it i saw army green pants similar to this in the store but then found these on line and ordered them instead i love them they s tretch out a bit so i am glad i sized down i could possibly have sized down even one more size i got a 27 the waist is very comfortable so maybe this is just the fit after all they are b asically stylish fatiques either way they are casual but on trend i have planned a ton of out fits in my head already because these pants will go with so much i think the cuff w i searched far and wide for this dress after ordering an 8 10 and 12 from 3 different stores in two diffe rent cities in a span of 2 months i finally settled on the 10 i literally went searching for this while on vacation too i m 5 5 5 160 lbs and 36c bust and the 10 fit perfectly this dre ss is adorable and i ve worn it to the office and on the weekends this will definitely be in my biweekly rotation this summer the quality is on point and it was definitely worth the price tag i was these menswear inspired trouser and beyond cute and comfy great color and fit soft inter ior dress up with a blazer or go casua with a tee adorable great little shift dress for me i t seemed to run true to size i m 5 4 5 and curvy the regular size 10 fit perfect about 3 a bove the knee a really fun design with the fringe can t wait to wear once the snow is complete ly gone this is soo cute and definitely runs tts i ordered both the 6 and the 8 and ended up k eeping the 8 i absolutley love this and i think it is unique and fun i plan to wear it on a va cation in a month i love clothes and my mom raised me to look for styles that are different a nd unique these pants are it they fit beautifully but run slightly big i m between a 4 and a 6 actually kept both the 4 fits great in the hips and legs plenty of room if you have curves i do not but it s a tad tight in the waist if that helps these are a perfect length at 5 7 they hit above my ankle bone and look perfect w a pointed closed shoe i love the colors and am bored to death of black and grey i m 5 feet tall so dresses are hard to find for me but th e petite sizes fit accurately i m very pleased with the dress really really like this dress expected it to be shorter based on other reviews but at 5 6 it it was a great length for me it is true to size and while it was a little bit of a loose fit it was just enough to hide trouble areas sometimes i struggle with dresses such as this because they are too big on top and snug i n the hip area but this one was perfect for me great find i love these pants i saw them and had to have them i love the classic plaid style and have always loved the blue green combinatio n i purchased the fisherman sweater and saw these pants and new it would be a hit get complime nts on this combo all the time first thanks retailer for not putting itchy wool or fur in this it s so soft gorgeous bias for is super flattering for those of us with less than perfect bodie s for reference i m 5 5 32dd 28 38 size xs s was perfect i ve worn this twice now and go t a ton of compliments on it it s so comfortable and looks great the lavender color is gorgeou s highly recommend these are fantastic jeans true to size but know that if you are average he ight you ll need to wear heels with these imo flare pants look much better with heels anyway i am a little retailer obsessed and have a lot of clothing from here this has to be the best thing i ve ever purchased it is so soft and beautiful i am 5 11 and 150lbs and got the m l fits perfectly and doesn t swallow me up but it does hide my bottom and the sides come up but no t to wear my side stomach is showing it does sit at an angle on the body but to me that s so pe rfect a little different and not a defect it is not itchy whats so ever i love this with skin ny jeans and brown boo i ordered my normal size large and am sadly returning because it s overly large and long on my frame the slight dolman sleeves are too long and wide and better suited fo r longer arms than mine love the pointelle sleeves they add a soft feminine vibe hard to tell from the photos but the texture is almost fuzzy the gray color is beautiful and its actually made from multi colored beige and gray that looks silver in the light it doesn t itch or shed i don t like it enough to try a smaller just to back up what everyone else is saying this ponch o is perfect it is indeed super soft casual and fun i personally thought the coloring at the bottom was even prettier than pictured this poncho is not tight around the neck yet not lose it goes right over your head without messing up your hair i love the sleeves they can be worn above the elbow or easily pulled just down below it a great alternative to a sweater i ordered the petite xs s and i m 5 3 hits right at bum i liked this sweater in the picture but was less impressed when i saw it in the store it looked a bit odd and perhaps cheap to me still i decid ed to leave it on my wish list and got it as a christmas gift once i tried it on i really like d the way it looked and felt it s flattering comfortable and looks great with jeans it s real ly cozy i rated it tts but you could almost size down on it this is a very sweet soft sweater however it runs very large and is very boxy i would say at least size down 1 2 sizes i wanted to love them but i had to send it back cute casual drawstring short runs a little large but n ice style for an oversized look nice length for long legs this dress is even better in person i am usually a size 2 and i went up to a 4 it is my favorite dress this spring it is so cute w ith booties or sandals i would say that it runs slightly small so you should get the next size up if you re busty or have hips it has been selling fast you should get it while you can i loved how soft the top was on my skin plus the sexy detail in the back was a win i purchase d this sweater in grey to take on a fall european trip it is very pretty without being overly f rilly a marled heather grey color soft and warm without being too bulky light enough to wear in the daytime but with enough coverage to transition into a cool evening casual enough to wear o turn in earnest to wear this sassiness out great sweater very pretty and warm i would say it fits true to size but the fit itself style is just a little roomier just like on the model i usually take an xs and the xs fit great \nthe tag says to dry clean or hand wash in cold i al ways wash my wool sweaters in cold water in a garment bag on delicate wash and have never had a problem \nbut when i did that for this sweater it shrunk to a size that would fit a 4 year o ld the fabric in the arms stuck together like velcro very inter excellent dress for lounging in the house or for sleeping very comfortable and a little sexy at the same time nan this is a great quality top it did not look great on me since i am quite top heavy but is lovely absol utely love as others have mentioned it s super comfy and the colors in the bottom definitely b righten up the sweater the online brand says monogram but the tag says sleeping on snow wei rd i get the great reviews these do for me what no jogger could i have hips i never thought these would work they do and they look just as cool on me as the model i am a 10 12 i could o nly find a 12 but i think a 10 would be perfect they are effortlessly cool and casual for all body types i m so excited i tried these on this is my fourth amadi piece from retailer i lov e their signature fitted crossover top design which i am finding in many of their pieces like t he lola jumpsuit crossfront lola dress and others this dress has the same crossover top desi gn with a slim maxi silhouette the fabric is 97 rayon and 3 nylon with a neat texture tha t doesn t come through on the product photo but adds to its appeal in my opinion because it hide s wrinkles it fits tts and the same as the other amadi pie soft slouchy and comfortable \r\n what more could you ask for this sweater is super cute and perfect for a fall day however i a m 5 amp 39 9 amp quot and ordered a small which was way too long in the arms the sleeves came down to my fingers wish there was an xs i could order because i do love it my only wish is th at the front waistband were more high waisted but other than that the pants are darling flatt ering vintage yet on trend and made with high quality fabric and tailoring i am 5 2 125 pound s and i bought a size 4 they are a perfect fit this sweater was gorgeous however i think it was to boxy for my figure it had to go back as it was not flattering i would recommend this pro duct to someone with a taller slimmer figure i m 5 6 145 lbs i received so many compliments on these pants these are not only classic they fit amazing look great with heels and or booties match both black and brown so i usually find that retailer tops run large everywhere else i m a medium but i m always a small at retailer but with pants or slacks i m usually an 8 and i al ways have to size up in retailer to a 10 but based on some of the other runs large reviews i stuck with my normal size 8 and they fit perfectly super cute not lined but the material has a nice weight to it so that doesn t bother me will def be wearing to the office this top is s uper cute and comfy just wish they would have made more xl s ran out fast i am 5 10 and usua lly wear an 8 10 top in retailer so i purchased a large in this top to get the length and look of the model in the picture it was too short and didn t fall like the picture i tried to excha nge for the xl and it was already sold out bummer was looking forward to wearing this all summ er 4 stars for running out of a size so quickly please make more this is a beautiful skirt t hat is extremely well made i noticed most of the comments on here in which it worked for women are those who are petite and slim i m neither i m 5 9 36c hourglass with more meat to my bo nes my thoughts \r\n \r\npros \r\n fabric is amazing breathable great summer dress but i d wear it more as a top honestly \r\n fairly easy to get on \r\n ample room in chest \r \n\r\n \r\ncons \r\n too short like others mentioned if you re tall this is going to be an issue \r\n too snug in the hips i tried on a size 12 and i love this poncho it so soft and cozy looks great with a pair of tights or jeans just adorable i have many ponchos i thi nk they are timeless fun and sophisticated and this one is definitely a nice addition to my w ardrobe as many have mentioned the center of the poncho is off center however this does not detract from the beautiful pattern on this item i will enjoy wearing it with a tee or tank und erneath this winter and fall great purchase this is so cute i love the stripe and fringe co mbo i took my typical size 4 kind of short for a 5 7 frame but love otherwise this dress i s great but extremely short i m 5 6 wear a size 4 6 the 6 looked like a tunic on me it was so short great design execution this is essentially a striped jersey sleeveless turtleneck made of a nice high quality jersey with a delicate lightweight soft sweater attached over it so you get this really pretty look where the jersey underlay means the sweater hangs beautifully no clinging at all and the sleeves are just the sheer sweater so pretty \n\ni got the lavender looks exactly like the pic and it is true to size love this sweater beautiful detail thicker yarn and well made sweater has more structure to it than i had anticipated which makes it look more tailered while being soft and comfortable hits my lower hip and i m 5 6 receive compliments every time i wear it when this poncho first came online i ordered it in the xs s my usual size i was a little disappointed that the point in the front oddly hung low was off center the back was centered i returned it when i spotted them at the store recently i tried on a few in the xs s to compare see how others hung i found that one of them hung fine in the front centered the back was a little off center which was fine it s soft comfy love the soft white color border trim it s just perfect i love these pants i vary between 10 12 the 10 fit perfectly since they are designed on the fuller size perfect for my body type of small waist and a bit of bottom so many colors to coordinate with these pants teal green retailer yellow black i am not fond of ankle pants prefer longer pants i took the cuffs down and lengthened the pants the only problem is that these pants are so exquisitely made removing the cuff tacks was a challenge perfect pants for those of us who have shape great pants i m 5 6 and about 130 the size 2 fit nice at the waist and loose in the thigh they hit right at the ankle the colors are nice muted the details are great overall great pants so soft high quality perfect poncho sweater that will go with every pair of jeans you have love love this dress the description says pull over styling but it s not there is a side zipper which i think makes for a better fit i bought a 4 which fit great i m 5 4 125 lbs and it hits right above the knee i was hesitant to buy this but i m so glad i did this is a beautiful poncho i am petite and usually ponchos overwhelm me but this fits just right it is extremely soft not itchy at all the color along the bottom of the poncho is actually a bright pink color it looks a little more red in the photo to me i m still happy with this it will be a wonderful addition to my fall winter wardrobe great product very cute and high quality dress but it is very short the length wouldn t be that much of an issue except for the fringe which is awesome and unique by the way hits right at the butt wish this dress and subsequently the fringe was 3 inches longer best bathing suit bottoms ever low rise doesn t work forever and this bottom is perfect if you want a little more coverage without being too mom ish the ruching gives it a really cute retro feel as opposed to a granny panties feel my usual size small fits great and i definitely did not have the problem another reviewer did with it coming up past the belly button it hits me right where it hits the model in the photo i just wish they made it in more prints there are some really cute top such a fun jacket great to wear in the spring or to the office as an alternative to a formal blazer very comfortable love cloth and stone this dress looks and fits exactly as pictured soft and casual with great design details high quality fabric and lots of bottom back coverage also it did not cut into my hips which is fabulous so if you re looking for a little more coverage this is your bottom i found it true to size i m 5 8 and 150 lbs and i got a size 8 i bought this in both colors for it is perfect for me it looks great with jeans and then dress it up later with pants this is why i love retailer i love this dress the colors are beautiful i find it hard to find dresses that are knee length and with sleeves and flattering this is all three my only complaint is sleeves are a bit long but overall awesome i really like this romper and i ordered it to fit my bottom i m a 6 on the bottom and 4 up top i ordered a mp to cover the bottom and a petite for my height it s a keeper but i will be belting or adding something to cinch it at the waist so that it has more of a shape this jacket is perfect swings just the right amount without looking too big i ordered these in a medium and they fit but i wanted more coverage so i sized up i wear a 26 or 27 and i took the large the large isn t tight at all but the medium was i like my bottoms to have a lot of coverage and don t mind them a little big i like how much coverage they provide but still look feminine and cute oh how i have searched for a mid rise bottom that was not matronly and finally i have found one they cover just enough of the back without looking like my mothers bathing suit butt and the ruched sides add just enough interest to not be boring in a solid color and speaking of the color the blue is beautiful i am happy with these and hope they hold up for several years i am 125 lbs and the small fit perfect i saw this jacket in the store and it looks and fit beautiful it fits tts and is forgiving to the curvy this is a staple piece to have during the fall or spring highly recommend these are very stylish if you are short they are a little baggy at the bottom they are a bit over priced i bought them before they went on sale good quality and feel light and airy i love the concept of this dress i love the stripes ruffle hem and little cut up detail but it runs huge i m 5 3 148 lbs and typically wear a 6 8 i went with the xs in this dress it flairs out significantly near the waist and hips which makes it super comfortable but not th e most flattering i wish they had tapered it in slightly to give it a slightly more fitted look i m keeping it and think it will be cute with booties in the fall but i m not 100 on it nan i just bought this jacket for my mom to take with her on a trip to europe it is perfect perfect packing piece that doesnt wrinkle and is a substantial enough weight to wear on chilly evenings considering buying an additional one in my size i can t wait for the milder weather to arrive so i can wear this tunic it is very stylish and elegant and one of those rare pieces that makes you feel good wearing it the other reviewers are right this runs huge why have a number of cu te tops been running so large lately i m 5 1 and 100 lbs and was drowning in the xxs petite i t also almost reached my knees i thought it d be a cute little tunic to wear in the fall but it just looks ridiculous because of how large it is and how there s no taper or shape maybe even o rder 2 sizes down the quality is pretty good if you can make the sizing work for you i am hipp ie and always worry about coverage this was a nice fit good coverage but did not look old lady ish i felt like a 12 year old wearing my big sister s dress it s a bit too roomy and long for my frame in my normal size large hitting below my knees the top part fits my large 34g chest nicely but it becomes a wide a line through the hips the fabric is a bit thick like a sweatshir t knit so it doesn t flow softly over the body the fabric of the lace vee insert at the hem is thick and looks awkward i love the black and white stripes very striking would love a top in these colors and fabric beautiful fabric great quality fits true to size love them nice wei ght and loved the design but the inside was what i loved the most it doesn t show in the photo s but the zipper is a light blue and the fabric is double sided so the inside is lined with li ght blue flowers on a darker blue background cute detail the only drawback was the length of t he sleeves they were about 2 too long and i have long arms there wasn t enough stretch in b and of the sleeve to keep them up once you pushed them up the only other option i came up with was to fold this is a quirky whimsical uniquely designed top that s sure to get a lot of comme nts and opinions and hopefully good ones i really love it think it is what it is a fun co nversation piece and isn t that what s great about fashion tts very comfy yes boxy but i d on t think in a bad way the ruffle on the bottom is adorable would look great with slim ivory or white denim and booties or even a darker denim hits mid bum nice quality too like the oth er reviewer said there s a nice inner lining and the material of the jacket is just so nice l ooks a little like a blazer when worn but the heather gray makes it a dress up or down sort of piece i absolutely love this dress it s great for business casual it s also such a great colo r for the transition into fall these bottoms are super comfortable i think they run a little b ig for a small i bought another swimsuit from retailer and the bottoms are also small and fit a little better than these it goes well with the peplum swimsuit top im so excited about wearing them this season this is a cute casual dress that could be worn with flip flops or boots this romper is really cute it s flowy and wide at the middle which i like it s comfortable i orde love this piece it s a beautiful and chic piece that is perfect for any occasion i love this j ust bought it and so glad i did really want to wear it out so hopefully the weather will cool down soon since i am in the south and we are experiencing an extremely warm winter regardless it will be with me a long time so if i don t use it this season i will eventually as it is ti meless and goes with anything ok so who likes to buy bathing suits apparently i do because t his one arrived today in the white and rust and i m buying the black one in a second i can t p ass up such a flattering suit the ruched bottom gives just enough extra so it s not skin tight to your bottom and the top has just the right amount of cover the whole suit is easy to wear nicely made and flattering through the roof this shirt is adorable but it s really just a cott on t shirt based on the picture online i thought it would have more weight be a more substant ial fabric again it s adorable but not sure how long it will last ordered both the black and white and ordered both in 0 and p2 preferred the black over white and the p2 fit the best howe ver they reminded me too much of a maternity top so they both went back \r\nif you order you w ill need to wear a cami underneath at least i would not a terrible top just not for me i boug ht this dress on a whim i am so glad i did got it in black it is stunning and comfortable cute tee it s a casual tee with some nice detailing that gives it some style the fabric is a g red a large it skims perfectly over my back and lower half no grabbing sleeves are cut nicely for those of us who don t love their upper arms the lacing adds nice detail and interest it s soft and comfy it s an unusual color that will go with almost any bottom great now and under a jean jacket or cardigan as the weather cools cute top great for the inner maid marian fan fun twist on t shirt in regular size also ordered the alexandria top in somewhat similar vein but didn t care for that one at all this one was cute and the fit is flattering the other is b oxy and boring to me recommend this one great dress nicely structured but the fabric is very thick and since it s lined it s a very warm dress not something you would wear in the spring especially in the summer ordered in petite so hem length was perfect on me i m 5 love this top the material is very soft and though this isn t a thick tshirt it holds its shape and supp orts the grommet detailing nicely i m 5 7 about 130 not busty and got a small fits great the color is more of an off rose blush has more of a brown tint than the photo shows i actual ly saw this dress on an associate and didn t like it but as i was trying on other things i saw my size hanging on a rack in the dressing room and thought why not just try it glad i did i t is so flattering on and you can dress it up or down it s so versatile i received so many comp liments when i wore this glad i gave it a try i absolutely adore this dress i was nervous to try it because i just had a baby thinking that the waist tie looked potentially bulky stiff bas ed on the images i am so glad i gave this a shot it is actually one of the few dresses that i am comfortable wearing right now the tie helps make me look like i have a waist even though i don t right now while covering up some of the leftover baby weight i grabbed this is my usual size s 27 34b 5 7 and found it to fit perfectly plus the t the print caught my eye the n i felt the breathable cotton fabric and had to try it on i am only 5 2 and have a small wai st but sized 32dd bust with hips and have a hard time finding clothes that fit well this dress fit me perfectly i have dressed it up and down and always get compliments this dress was on th e pricey side but has turned out to be worth every penny wow i didn t think this dress would w ork on my curvy frame i still have a baby belly and some dresses look like mumu s on me this w as so flattering the waist cinches nicely and the length is just above the knee i am 5 6 and 145lbs for reference the weight its light cottony and it looks great with flats and wedges \r \nlove it my stylist brought me the regular xs to try on in the store and almost told me i shou tite before deciding good decision there is less fabric in the skirt so it seemed anyway s o i am less overwhelmed buy the skirt the cut is super flattering and length was actually bett er the longer sides hit me around the knee i wasn t sold on the dolor as i have pale skin but there is enough dark to com this dress is the absolute best it is comfy flattering cute pretty much the best dress ever as a previous reviewer said ti is a 3 even 4 season dress throw it on with boots and a wool cardi in the winter and youre all set i didnt even think twic e about buying it perfect length a little longer in the back but not too short in the front a nd i do not like short dresses skirts dont think about it just buy i really liked this dre ss the tie defines the waist and the skirt volume is flattering one minor concern i had was t he dress is a bit thin although the skirt is lined i think this will be a great summer in fall transition piece so gorgeous the details make this tank so special the subtle sequin around t he neckline are just enough to make this a dress up or dress down top perfect with skinny jeans for an evening date night or a black cardigan for the office the fabric is soft almost like a very light weight knit sweater but so light that you can wear it for summer i haven t gotten a dress from retailer in a long time that i like as i do this one this is the old retailer qual ity extras and unique design fits like it was made for me tts i am 5 5 142 lbs and the 6 i s perfection no enlarged arm holes or funky fit it has lining as well as a tu tu slip underne ath so you can create your own fullness in the skirt it is very fitted at the bust and waist an d will hide numerous flaws at the hips this dress is spectacular so don t wait press the butt on saw online and had to have got it home and i was swimming in it i normally am a size l in most retailer brands but this felt so large the actual top is lovely with an airy artistic quality to it not sure if i will go back for the medium or not this dress is really beautiful and high quality the pattern color and fabric are great the fit is flattering i m hourglass to pear shaped and the size perfect for me in petite please keep offering high quality clothes in petite sizes by higher end designers was hopeful this might work on my petite pear shape i am 5 probably 135 140lb one to two sizes larger on the bottom when i first saw online so wen t to store to give the regular size a trial run before ordering the petite size online you can never tell with these flare dresses some just make the hips look so much worse and haven t had a lot of luck with casual retailer flare dresses this season first tried on the medium and fell in love instantly was looking a little big but thought orde i walked right by this dress until an associate of mine asked me to try it on i am so glad she did this dress is far more flatter ing on me then i expected and it has pockets after assessing it further i decided i liked the material it is lined and will not make you look like a wrinkled up paper bag after sitting down i bought a small i compared the medium and both would work on my frame because of the tie waist i am 5ft 3 137 lbs 36b chest and i have a proportionate athletic figure for my new favorite i wouldn t have thought twice about this dress handling on a rack in store but after seeing so ma ny cute pics of ladies in this dress i caved i needed a petite so ordered a sp and xsp the l ength on both is perfect i m 5 0 and both hit above my knee in front and hit at in back and on sides i didn t try on a regular in store but based on the sp xsp i m pretty sure there d be t oo much material for a petite frame the xsp is cut slimmer and if i had a tiny waist i d proba i just bought this dress in the store and i love it i m in my 50s and it does every thing i nee d a dress to do it has sleeves it s modest enough and shows my shape the colors are great and go with most shoes i m heading to italy soon and this one will see me through many museums and churches great buy this dress is elegant and really lovely it looks like a throwback to the 2 0s and 30s it drapes nicely and i think it would be flattering on most body types and this is why i am recommending it but be warned it runs large \n\nthe problem with the dress is that th e slip might as well not be there at all it is completely sheer for example i have a couple t attoos and you can see them right through the fabric which is not the look i m going for this might be a deal breaker for some for me i this dress is an absolute win i was won over on the hanger by the linen fabric s lightweight nature and then i tried it on such a good fit for my high waist and the tie was super flattering i love this with booties as i was wearing today b ut think it will be adorable with espadrilles as well for a more summery look it s also the rar e three season dress with its cut and coloring working most of the year for sizing i d say i t s true to size i got my regular size s with no trouble with this bra surprised me by how good it looks on the placement of the lace and cups creates a flattering silhouette i m 5 5 127lbs ordered size small not sheer bodysuit snaps great to wear with skirts and wide leg pants it s easy to miss the fine details that make this top special the fabric inset around the collar front placket is an abstract blossoming spring branch print overlaid with 3d decorative embroide ry and clear sequins is trimmed with a delicate lace the sequins are eye catching in a very s ubtle shimmery way \r\n\r\nbeautiful under a sweater love the top s double layer look fits tt s not too sheer \r\n\r\nyou might have to wear a strapless bra or do without one altogether be cause of the neckline and i too was immediately drawn to this dress online and was this close to ordering a petite when i stopped my my local retailer and they had just gotten it in in regular only of course i tried it on in the xs regular and was thrilled to find it fit perfectly and was so flattering on my hourglass figure i m 5 1 and 115 with a 32 dd chest no gaping or pull ing the waist and shoulders were where they should be and i found the length with the hi lo he m to be just above my knees in front i think the wash is just as pictured and the fit is great i actually got a 29 when i usually wear a 28 but when i wear a belt with them they hug the waist perfectly im always on the search from 28 length however these jeans are a 30 and still look excellent if i roll them up once i loved this dress the moment i first saw it i have another d ress from this brand that i ve had for a couple years and wear it all the time plus i love the t ie waist detail however after trying this dress in both a size medium my typical size and a s mall i ve given up it does not look good on me and i think thats because i am a 34b there is room in the chest even in the size small so would look really good on a curvy girl i m 5 5 or dered regular size and it came to just above my knees i m actually surprised no one has reviewe d this yet i took the plunge because it seemed like a classic wardrobe staple nothing too flas hy or fancy that would go well with many outfits my thoughts below \r\n \r\np ros \r\n fits tts i m normally either a 10 or 12 and got the large it fit well and the elasti c isn t too tight fit very well for me because i have wider hips so if you re straight or slim you could probably size down \r\n exactly as pictured it does have a nice flow i agree with al l the positive reviews about the look fit and comfort of this dress definitely a four season dress for winter i plan on wearing wool tights wool coat and boots and keeping the waist unti ed for me both the medium petite regular looked good just a bit tight in the shoulders sinc e that s how my body is built i m keeping the regular hem version my stats for fit reference 5 3 140 36dd meaty arms shoulders back small hips no waist bum i love love love these brig ht red jeans they fit great they re super soft and comfortable and the bright red is a great punch of color only sad about how expensive they are at that price point i decided to return them but am hoping they get marked down i was excited to try this dress on in person and so gl ad i did it s actually really cute the material is soft and super comfortable the dress hits just above the knee and the tie in the front accentuates your waist i was pleasantly surprised at how cute it really is i m excited to wear this to work worth the price i am 5 1 and curvy and purchased this dress in medium petite and it fits to perfection i love how light breezy it is for those hot muggy summer days the tie front makes this style very flattering for all body types and the skirt is lined so it is not see through plus the pockets this dress is a winner i love this dress great fit and quality love that the skirt is lined this is a real t hrow on and go piece i ve worn it with wedges and with espadrille sneakers my only complaint i s that the sturdy material makes it difficult to get the tie waist to lay down flat but overall an amazing dress i love this dress the colors work well with my olive skin color it has pocke ts and it has a hi lo front back â\xa0â\xa0i have slim hips so the tie waist is very flattering which gives an hourglass figure â\xa0â\xa0i am 5 2 116 lbs and a 32d â\xa0â\xa0i usually need a petite size because retailer dresses run a little long on me but i was able to get away with getting an xs regular because of the hi lo length it fell perfectly above my knee top is very cute and wearable fit is boxy but nice i ordered this in black and white thinking you can nev er have enough silk camisoles \r\n\r\ni returned the black because it looked like polyester th e white is actually a cream ivory not bright white as pictured it is also not the best feeling quality however the fit is good and true to size this was a lovely skirt the colors are beau tiful and the style is not too poofy like other ball skirts \nit is very high waisted and at 5 8 the length was similar to the model dark burgundy sweater cable pattern in front subtle h ard to see online embedded with panels of brown tweed in peplum section beautiful fall sweater soft and comfortable looks great with skinny jeans would also look nice with a casual skirt or pants beautiful color slightly roomy fit not fitted but not boxy true to general size love this for fall and winter flattering comfortable unique i fell in love with this piece when i saw it in store a few months ago when there was 25 off dresses i decided to pull the t rigger and ordered it online since i didn t try it on back then i ordered my usual petite size 10 but found it to be too big it s too bad i had to return it because it s a beautifully desig ned dress i like the neckline rouching on the side of the bodice the lining and slim silhouet te the dress is very stretchy i found that i could take big strides comfortably in i hoped to love this based on the prior review but i didn t it s a beautifully crafted top but the print didn t look good on me and although i grabbed during the sale it s too expensive to keep when i t s not perfect beautiful print agree with other reviewers that the small snap at the bust is inadequate for anyone with a d or greater bust size the dress was a perfect length on me with h eels even after i kicked off my heels i didn t find it too long like other reviewers wind doe s open op the front so i may get it altered so it s no longer a true wrap dress i purchased this in the black and received it today it is silky feeling and is a quality camisole the color i s a muted black not all shiny as some silks are and they often look cheap but this looks grea t and could be worn alone under leather or with a sweater kimono i usually wear a medium in tops and this fit true to size i am 5 2 and it doesn t look too long but i do wish it came in a petite still keeping it the concept of this sweater is really pretty my usual size xl f it perfectly not tight or too loose the color of the sweater is not like the photo there is a lot more of a brown tone by putting the sweater on and taking it off i must have torn a hole be cause there is a 1 1 2 inch tear in the front where the peplum bottom panel has been felted to t he body of the sweater it literally pulled apart where the two fabrics meet the other issue i have with the sweater is the area where the front a three tops for the price of one i fell i n love with this top the moment i saw it online i tried it on as soon as i received it with jea ns and it looked just how i hoped it would not too short just right then i tried it on with t he buttons in front and just loved how it looked this can be worn 3 ways back buttoned fr ont buttoned and as an unbuttoned throw on over a tank and shorts recommend this highly for jus t about any body type this dress fits perfectly and true to size the waist detail and flair i s fun and flirty it s probably my favorite dress i ve ever bought love the style and fit grea t buy my legs aren t as long as the models however so it falls a bit lower on the knees this i s a unique blouse it reminds me of the unique items i would find at the store many years ago i t is a gorgeous item it does have a boxy fit but it is not unflattering i am very pleased wit h this purchase and would recommend this product \r\nthe quality is nice and it is an item that people will notice every now and then a piece like this one comes along at retailer and i quic kly make the purchase without any regret \r\nwithout being stuffy or old this top is simply ele gant the floral is very high end designer think italian made for a fraction of the cost made of 100 bamboo it is light without being sheer there is no need for a cami with this one the fabric has the body of a good linen but it doesn t wrinkle nearly as much it does require dry cleaning though if this matters to you i was so afraid to get a too small blazer based on ot her reviews that i ordered this two sizes up i am usually a 0 or 2 in a blazer and ordered a 4

it was huge i then ordered a 2 and it is just right it s comfortable and chic and i love the b lue and black combination nan i cannot wait for summer \r\nwhen i received this item i felt t he same as the other reviewers it may be a little pricey for the material then i tried it on i love it just add some accessories and let s go i found this during the tag sale this year g reat classic hacking jacket that still feels modern thanks to the cut a bit shorter and bright metallic buttons i got it in a light grey which will work well with many outfits heads up to c urvy short waisted girls this blazer really worked well for me due the shorter length and great waist placement really flattering it does seem to run a bit small particularly in the sleeves and shoulders so i sized up which also allows for layering underneat i honestly just love the ha nky panky brand i know it sometimes feels a little extravagant to purchase their lingerie but the quality fit and style are so good that it is absolutely worth it this piece is no exceptio n i don t normally purchase lingerie like this but saw this chemise and decided to try it jus t as the other pieces from this brand it s comfortable and gorgeous so high quality and classy it s a great cut the fabric is clearly lace but beautifully done and the feel is lov i bought the petite and my only wish oddly enough is that the length at the bottom was 3 inches longer as a petite this dress his just before the knee and should be mid calf as shown in the picture however the design is exceptional and i will wear this all year from sandals to ballet flats to boots this dress is even more amazing in person the beading and embroidery are quite intricate and add a touch of elegance the kimono like sleeves have the same details especially nice for toasting \r\nbe aware that the dress is not mid calf but just below the knee a surprise but sti ll quite lovely the lines of the dress and exceptional detailing should make this dress a timel ess classic i look forward to wearing it to many occasions when a lbd would be just too expecte d simple blazer with cute details buttons on the back and lining this will look good both in the office over over a pair of jeans and booties i was able to go with the regular size instea d of petite because i will wear with the sleeve rolled up i was not in the market for a black blazer but saw this in store and had to try it on the quality of the fabric and overall aesthet ic is fantastic love love love the gold buttons this will look great for work with jeans or even as a cover up over a cute dress i am a generally a size medium sometimes small and tend to fall between a 6 and 8 i went with the 8 in this jacket i purchased this blazer and its so comfortable it runs small i am usually a size 6 but had to get it in size 8 i will be getting a lot of use out of this blazer it can be worn professionally with skirt or solid color dress o r casual with jeans the fabric so very soft almost like a sweatshirt this bra is everything l ooks good and feels good so happy with this purchase for reference i am a c cup and got a med ium i do have a little side boob action happening but i m still happy with the fit of the mediu m the reviews are right about these fitting perfectly in the fitting room i knew right off i ha d to get them i have a flat rear end and these make my rear look great i m 5 5 about 130 lbs and i chose the 29 i initially bought both the 28 and 29 to make sure they would not stretch o ut and the didn t i didn t want to be squeezed in with the 28 i think they are very well made and i ll love wearing them for a long time ok stop everything take out your credit card ord er this blazer immediately i m obsessed with blazers but was on the fence about ordering this one i mean how many black blazers can one girl own but after reading the outstanding revie ws i decided to go for it i m so glad i did the online pictures do it no justice whatsoever i was afraid the polyester blend gold buttons would look cheap but boy was i in for a surpr ise when i opened my package the black fabric looks high end this is a beautiful dress with gor geous details but it is not as long as it appears in the photo i am 5 9 and ordered an xl the dress comes just below my knees these jeans are the best fit perfectly so soft comfortable and look great on i am in love i put them on and did not want to take them off i am 5 3 and simply love the length for me plus in my opinion the high waist is a s dream so comfortable an d really flatter my curves these are pricey which is my only real complaint but they are feeli ng worth it as i see myself wearing these a ton and the quality seems great so i am thinking th ey will last a long time don t hesitate to buy these i m curvy have very muscular thighs and a m just under 5 5 i was not very optimistic when the sales associate told me i would love these jeans she was right they re amazing they are incredibly flattering just the right length for me even tho cropped as i can wear them as full length or just add one or two rolls and it s a crop the fabric is amazingly soft and they immediately felt like a favorite old pair of jeans the pockets are well placed so they do wonders for the bootie oh and this is my second jacket from this brand cartonnier and i am thoroughly pleased \r\n\r\ni love the quality and texture o f the fabric of this coat i think the styling is super classic with a little bohemian edge \r \n\r\ni am 5 3 and 120 lbs and the size 4 fit me perfectly i have been watching this skirt an d only scooped it up on sale plus promo it runs small and the size 10 fits like a size 8 would fit 145 lbs and curvy figure flat tummy but have hips and tush the quality is just ok and no t worth the full price but on sale it was doable i love a line styles and this skirt is differe ng worn more in spring and summer and a go to skirt that looks sharp website pho i love this i tem i ll wear it as a cover up or to dress up and go out the material is great for summer lig ht and breathes \r\ni first ordered a small because the medium was sold out it fit too high wa ter i then ordered the large and it fits great the medium may have been fine too i m 5 4 14 5 true this blazer runs small so size up beyond the beautiful depth of color from the herrin gbone black and dark blue the stretchy fabric allows for flexibility in what you can wear under neath and for both your bloated and your skinny days best of all this blazer could be worn 3 4 seasons out if the year and it s got a super soft lining these jeans are worth every penny the y fit me perfectly as soon as i put them on and i wore them the rest of the day they are true to size with very generous stretch if anything i would size down they feel durable but not like typical denim very soft i am 5 3 and about 117 or so and my normal 25 fit like a dream i did end up exchanging these because there was a small nick on the inside of the left thigh an d i was afraid they might tear right open if the new pair comes without defe this is a sweet li ttle jacket i saw it in the store but was unsure because of the price but after trying it on i just fell in love the cut is really flattering the jacket does run small i really enjoy the little pop of color on the sleeves my only complaint is the buttons make me nervous because th ey seem to be heavy and i worry that i ll lose one but only on the front 2 the arms and back b uttons seem to be just fine overall this is a fantastic buy that is great for an office setting nan i was hesitant in purchasing these without trying them on first but i m happy i did they a re higher quality than the typical legging the sizing runs bigger than average i don t usually wear this much color but i m so glad i purchased this top it is really cute on and professiona l enough for work but with a tank underneath and the buttons undone its casual too i have rec eived several compliments both times i have worn the shirt sleeves are a bit long i bought nav y in my usual size s and the color and fit are exactly as pictured very good quality cotton t he pocket can lay funny on the hips but a little adjustments does the trick i wore this chemise at home and hubby noticed it never happens i wore it to study in coffee shop with boots and s carf and felt comfortable warm and stylish great staple well made and well priced absolutely stunning dress true to size and flows like a dream i loved the design of these pants and got them to go with the matching jacket the problem with them is there isn t enough stretch to keep them up i found that thru out the day i was pulling them up as they would slide down the pant fabric should have had more stretch or they should have put stronger elastic at the waist these are a comfortable flattering casual pant i usually wear a 27 in skinny jeans so i dropped dow n to a 26 to make sure they weren t to baggy i love them and will wear the a lot these are my new favorite pair of jeans very flattering particularly on the bum the wash is great dark and slightly distressed with a frayed hem at the ankle the leg is straight rather than super s kinny which i am really enjoying as of late fyi i am usually a size 29 in denim but went do wn to a 28 in this style this is such a comfy dress and recommend it to anyone pairs amazing w ith leather boots and hat this dress is very well made and the fabric hangs beautifully i weigh 125 and usually wear a small but sized up to medium for a longer sleeve and hem the print fabr ic and style make it appropriate for daytime or evening it should transition nicely to fall and will look great with boots i bought these on sale and love love them they are comfortable and super cute with the print detail on the calves and around the waist i am waiting to receive the matching hoodie don t know it i will wear them together since i don t like to be too matchy i have worn the leggings with a long black tunic top and grey slip on sneakers very happy with this purchase love this top the color is very pretty great for the holidays i haven t washed it yet but it says machine wash which is a plus for me this blouse drapes nicely the 8 in the store was too big which is not what i usually find with maeve i wear a 6 or small in most blous es i ordered the 6 and it was still too big so i hope the 4 will work i received this dress i n both colors oatmeal and blue for christmas and i love them they are super comfortable and great with leggings i can wear them just to lounge around the house or dress them up a bit for church i am 5 10 and 140 lbs and i got the small it fits true to size i would definitely reco mmend i have gotten constant compliments on this dress and it is very flattering i normally we ar a large or a size 12 and i had to order this in an xl i am big busted so that makes the diff erence \r\n\r\nthis could be so easily dressed up but easily made casual with a denim jacket or sweater \r\n\r\none of my favorite fall purchases love the length and long sleeves so comfy to sleep in great purchase i ordered the navy one too this dress is super comfortable and well made i am 5 10 150lbs and the large was a little too big but with a belt it worked out just fin e i was on the fence about ordering my normal med but so glad i did it fits sooo well i do th ink its more suited for warmer days since the material is very thin its sort of a cropped lengt h and looks great with sandals and heels i don t like showing off bra detail and will add some kind of closure detail to hide bra or wear a very lightweight top underneath this was a great b uy especially with the sale i originally ordered this blouse to wear for work i was pleasantly surprised that i could wear it casually with jeans fits comfortably and hugs my curves cute to wear with leggings i like that it s easy to just throw on it s fitted at the top and easy to c hase kids around but doesn t look too momish or sloppy great shirt i am a tshirt wearing girl so i like to have a lot of different styles this is more than a tshirt great style and thicker than expected great fit overall love it i bought this blouse after i saw my aunt wearing it t he color is lovely i spilled soup on it during my first wearing and it laundered wonderfully i am so glad such an easy piece to throw on very comfortable fit is great buy this dress you won t be disappointed it s lovely and can be worn in the summer and easily transition to fall o r even winter with opaque tights tall boots and a denim jacket the neckline is unique and stu nning demure yet sexy something that can easily be worn during the 9 5 work day or into the evening i bought my regular size m and it hits just about my knees i don t think this dress ru ns small at all wanted a cooler weather casual weekend errand dress and this is very confortabl e to wear with artistic leggings and tall boots pockets are always handy and it is easy to styl e with a contrast scarf or long necklace for added warmth can add a full slip or wear alone in spring with sandals received numerous compliments wearing the first time so purchased the navy one several weeks later anticipate wearing these dresses often and when the cotton finally wear s down will use as a nightgown love perfect top the color is absolutely beautiful and the fit is better than i imagined it would be love having never tried this brand i didn t know what to expect these are a boyfriend cut with a straight leg not fitted like a skinny jean the fab ric is soft and lightweight definitely a summer time jean the stripes are nice subtle but not iceable i ordered the 31 s i m a size 12 and they fit okay i have a tummy and the jeans fit o ddly in the front crotch area almost tight and clearly defining the dreaded camel toe i tried them with a variety of undergarments with the same result every ti for reference i am 5 5 and 1 18 lbs the small fits nicely the style is flattering i have a big rib age so as with many ba ck zip styles that area is a bit tight when i sit down not too bad though ican wear it to work and out for a date both colors are a bit subdued but i will enhance the pink or blue floral ton es with a sweater jacket and jewelry cute but not sure it s worth the price point i might rea ch for it in sale and while it was cute on i just don t spend that much on a daytime casual dr ess i m sure you could dress it up with heels or something but there s something about this dre ss that screams casual daytime still very pretty and flattering i loved the neckline and detai ling there tried this dress on in a s and it fit very nicely it s a very unique dress and i lo ved it but i just didn t know where i would wear it this dress is true to size it looks sexy on the model but much more modest in person great for work i worse this dress to a rehersal di nner and received so many compliments it was a perfect summer dress the colors are true to th e picture and beautifil it is also very well made comfortable and flattering i am 5 3 and 13 0 lbs and i ordered a medium petitte which fit great it was short but not too short it will be a go to dress i was walking to the fitting room and i saw two of this dress on a rack an xs an d small i could tell by looking at it that it runs small so i grabbed a small to try on i did n t want to love this dress it s expensive but i did it is so pretty and flattering i wish it were an inch or two longer but it s ok with tights in the fall will be fine not sure i wou ld wear this to work as i am a teacher and it is too short for me it definitely runs small i am between a 2 and a 4 so i took t nan just recently purchased and think it s ok for the price would never pay full on this one that s from an retailer shopper who s purchased plenty at ful l price design is cute but definitely looks like a sleep shirt esp in the lighter color so so on construction the bottom seams pucker slightly the pockets bunch up weirdly steaming laund ering don t help the shoulders also hunch up oddly could be because of the thicker fabric se wn to the knit but laundering didn t help that issue either i would give it a 3 5 if half star possible like other reviews said the material is a little cheap and back zip got stuck when i tried to unzip it before trying it on overall nice color and flattering look that could be dre ss up or down i am 5 8 155lbs 36b and m is a little snug for me on the top i highly recomme nd this dress it is super flattering and i got so many compliments it fits like a glove and ho nestly made me look 10 lbs thinner very romantic and has great movement the length is perfect since the top is quite modest it s nice that it s on the shorter side makes it a little flirt y i wasn t sure of the pattern at first but it fit so perfectly that i overlooked it and bough t it anyway by the end of the night i was in love with the pattern it really stood out and i c an i was so excited for this to come in the mail once i got it and opened it up i actually wen t back to verify this was in fact pajamas it is great quality and super soft some positives we re that it has pockets who knew and like stated before it is super soft and comfortable th e only negative is that it is not physically attractive it is very baggy and it a lines out it s fine its pajamas but if you are wanting something cute for bed and you have a straight body th is may not be the answe great top very easy to wear looks great with jeans or dressier pants this dress is very lightweight and great for fall spring weddings i received several compliment s all night sits very nice on the waist as well love this dress had to exchange it because it runs a little small i got the right size and it is beautiful this very unique dress is exquisi te and so versatile suitable for daytime or evening and will look great with a cardigan and t ights for year round wear it fits perfectly and seems true to size to me i m 5 2 about 112 pounds and got an xs the description says the dress can be machine washed but with the delica te trim around the neckline i plan to hand wash it carefully so happy with this purchase thes e are so cute i went into the store to buy something else and came out with these i usually wear a 10 and bought a medium these are also lower price than i expected also well constructe d thank you antho very cute and flattering but i d order at least one size down i m usually a 25 26 and just during the time i tried on the 25s in the store i could tell they d loosen up enough for a 24 i ll review more once i have them had to order since they don t typically have 24s in store so can t comment on quality as of yet love the jeans the color is listed as blac k for some reason but they are definitely blue like the picture and what i love most is i ve al ways wanted somewhat distressed jeans but for me the ripped jeans look doesn t work these are p erfectly distressed without being hole y i also love the length i m usually a 29 person becau se i love ankle length for boots tall and short these are listed i think a bit shorter than t hat i think but didn t feel cropped they are also made of some special very comfortable night gown love that it had pockets fit is as expected nan ordered online just received this vest so disappointed love the garment but it is way too small i wear a medium in most clothing and size 6 in a dress but the medium in this vest isn t just snug it is definitely too small even worn alone i can t button it i am now ordering the large and keeping my fingers crossed as i w ant to wear a tee under it hoping i won t need to return both the m and the l thinking of orde ring an xl love the lace back panel unique design would not call this blue definitely more of a grey color but it is pretty got size small and it fit well 5 6 140 lbs i looked at the other reviews before purchasing and this is the one time it didn t work out for me a lot of peo ple said to size up so i ordered a medium and it was far too big on me i reordered my regular small and it s perfect it s shorter obviously but not so short that it is unwearable i can t wait to wear this out i do like the shape of this piece it is eye catching due to the length and flattering however if you are chesty this piece shows off more than i was comfy with an d i don t think i ve ever had that problem with retailer in the body i needed an xs or i woul d be swimming in it but up top the xs showed much too much cleavage 34d 5 115 i m st ill keeping it but i have to watch where i wear this love this un basic white top it s very fl attering on and i love that it s a versatile piece that can be dressed up or down depending on the occasion i am usually a size 8 in maeve tops dresses but i found a size 6 fit me a bit bet ter in this particular top if your e in between sizes you may need to size down i definitely recommend this top just fab great length great pattern flattering fit and even pockets go rgeous and soft luxurious feeling sweater i purchased this in the pink purple color that is no longer showing as available and just love it it s unbelievably soft feels like a blanket i fo und that if you sort of fold the neck line under a little it drapes like a cowl neck a little a nd not quite as off the shoulder as it s very cold where i am can t see wearing it that far off during the winter that was my solution and i love it i m typically and xs bought the xxs b c it appeared what a cute top i would say true to size it is a pullover so i went with a 6 for easy dressing the scalloped tank around the shoulders is unique and lays nicely i would sa y the top is a lined in cut not too swingy at all a great length to be left out or tucked in i can think of so many uses for this top i may grab another to keep on hand will be adorable w ith skirts or shorts i love workout dresses and skirts i sport them in both yoga if they have an under layer of shorts obviously and in high cardio classes as well as for things like tenni s i like the extra breeze a dress skirt will get you and find them to be really comfortable i really like this dress as it is not a super bold color it is hard to find workout attire that i s not neon colored i prefer things to be a little more relaxed and less look at me like when i am working out this dress is flatter i love a crisp white poplin blouse and this top is perfe ct in that role i am between a small and medium in retailer tops because this top looked a lit tle bell in the model photos i decided to order a 6 it was a bit snug across the chest for re ference i am a 34c i returned it for the 8 and it fit perfect i m not sure why this top was o ffered during the winter because it will likely hang in my closet until april highly recommend this blouse for summer 36dd 10 12 in tops 12 14 in bottoms\nthis is a wonderfully soft and wa om the neckline was a little fiddly when i first tried it on however like one of the previous reviewers i folded the left side under a bit to make an asymmetrical cowl neck and it lays very nicely and looks great runs a little big i tried the medium and it fits perfectly another gre at sweater from moth love this i adore pilcro great for us gals who have thick hips thighs a nd a slim waist they fit tts and are a great staple for fall the color says dark orange but th ey are as pictured a perfect dark tan i wish that retailer would buy more size 33 in all pilcr o they always sell out fast and i am always out of luck unless i find them when they first come out also please make a full length boyfriend jean pilcro love this velvet t shirt is perfect for the holidays i usually wear a size 12 top or a l but i ordered up and got a size xl it i s very tight around my chest 36c and armpits and the v neck sometimes spreads apart a lot if i move my arms around a lot but other than that it looks great just runs small if you are a size 14 or larger i don t think that this will fit i haven t owned a skort in years this one is super cute and so soft i love the details the asymmetrical cut and the buckles i bought it in olive green it fits really well i m 5 5 119 lbs with an athletic frame and i purchased a s ize 2 my normal size it fits comfortably around my waste and thighs but with some wiggle room \r\n\r\ni m wearing it today w a navy blue cream floral tank top white navy striped vans and a gold dangly necklace i love that its a versatile item and i m looking f i love retailer cloth es but i ve often ordered shirts in an xs that i really needed an xs petite in because of the l ength and fit through the bust but they didn t have any petites in the size i needed i m at 5 1 114 pounds i got this shirt in xs not petite and am thrilled with the fit the material i s formfitting enough to look like a petite and it doesn t drop below my waist line i m thrille d with my purchase a little more see through than you would think but has super cute smaller d etails also needs to be ironed a lot this floral tank looks so cute on the layered cut is ve ry flattering and i ve received several compliments while wearing it adorable really nice thick fabric yet lays really nice scarf included love the poncho style will get me throught the en d of pregnancy and will look great after as well this dress is extremely comfortable the dress is slightly loose under the armpits but the other than that the overall fit is great can be dr essed up or down i ordered this in size xl the fit is true to size it fits me as it does on t he model the draping is very flattering i m a pear shape and this shape works well it definit ely needs a tank underneath you could sew a bit of the top to keep it closed otherwise everyt hing can show i like using different colored tanks to pull out the colors in the pattern \r\nth e quality of the material is outstanding the print looks so much prettier in person it s very vibrant the photos online at least on this sweater is so beautiful soft and warm the neck i s a little different and meant to be worn off the shoulder i don t wear it off the shoulder if you just work with it a bit it will lay nicely i get compliments every time i wear it beautif ul skort true to size and very comfortable the actual shorts part of the skort is a nice mode st length they have the appearance of a skirt with the utility and feel of a nice pair of short s i can t wait to wear it again i am very pleased with my purchase so this is a super soft c omfy sweater the color is great and i really wanted to love it but the dolman sleeves sort of annoyed me that being said all of the good things about this sweater almost made me keep it t he neckline is also really neat it drapes nicely and stays that way if you are on the fence g ive it a try great pair of work slacks with a flare wear these with boots give a very rich loo k super flattering cut and flat waist \nhighly recommend these for fall through winter this is theoretically a great summer top addition to your wardrobe i love the floral print it s bold and lively primary colors on a black background i m usually a size small in retailer tops and n either the small nor the medium fit me very well the small was a bit too fitted everywhere and strangely the medium gapes at the front when i m sitting but not standing i m 34b otherwise he ight weight proportionate with broad shoulders another reviewer mentioned a design flaw the floral print i i bought this in the mauve in my usual size small i think this sweater is intent ionally big and slouchy so i would say it runs true to size it is very soft and the weave is a iry not going to be warm enough for a below freezing day but i love the style the neckline is a bit fussy but i think you just have to wear it and let it fall the way it wants to the sleeve s are long enough to cover your hands the sweater when pulled all the way down covers my butt and half my thighs and i m 5 9 t i mentioned the sizing is true to size but it should be impor tant to note that they will loosen throughout the day so when i order another color i will size down one size the color is as pictured too \r\nthese are great for casual and business casual wear so comfortable and perfect and flattering for my shape athletic with muscular thighs \r\n can t wait to order another pair true to size i found got the medium and had a bit of room to spare usually i m a 6 on the lower half 34 28 36 \r\nthe upper portion is a very very light heathered grey almost cream and yes i found it to be see through \r\ncomfortable but either fo r lounging round the house only or wear a tunic to cya i absolutely love this sweater and the c olor is beautiful i read through the reviews and purchased a medium as i read that this sweater ran large i m very happy i sized down \ni haven t yet worn it and hope that it does stay off t he shoulder as pictured without having to constantly re arrange \ngreat sale price i was nerv ous to order the pants because i didn t think they looked great on the model in the picture the y are by far my new favorite pants the fabric is so soft and stretchy yet hugs my curves does n t stretch out during the day i was expecting the fabric to be thick or stiff but it is very lightweight yet professional for work the cut is perfect i wanted black culottes but i m only 5 5 so a lot of them overwhelm me these are fitted at the top and gradually looser through the thighs a good design comfortable fit however sizing is way off i am a 34c and the small fits with minimal support agree with the previous review not sure it is a keeper nan very warm and snuggly gorgeous color nice fit i have a little trouble getting the neck to lay right but ma naged so it works for work i can t say enough how toasty it is very good quality and styling i like this sweater i bought it in small and medium because it was 25 off and i didn t want my size to sell out im keeping the small im 5 5 and 140 lbs and hourglass the medium was way to o much fabric its still roomy in the small but its lush looking and soft and will look pretty with jeans and high boots i ordered the one in the beige as well but i think the lavender color is prettier in person i think the beige may wash me out hope this helps i love these the col or and the style but they are once again too short they are not 33 inches i need 32 inches to go to the floor these are above the floor so they are not 33 inches very disappointing i am u sually a 4 in maeve tops but i sized up to a 6 i am 5 7 127 lbs it is a crisp white comfort able easy to wear tank that requires some ironing or steaming it doesn t look like much in the photo but once i saw it in person and tried it on it was an easy decision to make the purchase it is feminine and has a pronounced a line shape to it i tried this dress on and convinced myse lf that i didn t need it on another visit i tried again and couldn t resist it is amazingly c omfortable and a great alternative to shorts jeans pants you can dress it up a bit with sandals vs athletic shoes but the fabric does tend toward more festive picnic or outdoor concert vs wedd ing i prefer wearing dresses so this is a wonderful addition i normally wear a large to medium but due to other reviews i ordered a med and could ve worn a small i still love it and i m so g lad i ordered this is a super cute top the online image does not do it justice the scalloped edges around the arms give it a flirty and feminine look i got lots of compliments when i paire d it with the shorebird pencil skirt the material is thick enough to not make it see through an d it s pretty tts i was a bit skeptical about this lovely sweater but now that i have tried it on with a pair of skinny jeans and tall boots i am sold it is so soft and full of movement it has a very unique design the purple color is gorgeous and inviting i will enjoy this sweater a ll winter long i am usually a small medium and the medium fits a bit big but looks beautiful on the neckline does fold in and adds to the appeal super flattering fit i am generally a lar ge large and the medium of this shirt fit really well the drape of the fabric was very forgiv ing of my tummy great look also my 1 year old son loves the colors and flowers this dress is amazing and spans multiple uses i brought it to st john with me and used it as an after swim d ress as well as a going out on the town dress it is flattering and a light but durable material the only thing that was even remotely challenging was that i needed to adjust my bra straps to b e hidden overall i loved the dress and totally recommend it this top is so fun but more impor tantly it is sooooo soft and comfortable taking the sweater out of the package i was kind of skeptical because of the shape but to my surprise it looks like as it does on the model it doe s take a minute to figure out how to wear it i ordered the medium normally wear a size 8 and is a little long but goes with my personal style i love the idea of being able to wear it out without looking frumpy or comfy at home this is a beautiful sweater warm looks great with jea ns as well as more formal work clothes the neckline gives it a stylish boho twist beyond the tr aditional i love the color and it can function almost like a neutral complimenting almost any other hues highly recommended i m a sucker for anything in rich velvet tones and fabric the retailer i visited only had the dark blue top \n\n \n\nit is tts and hangs nicely on the body even for gals with longer backs there was no issue of see through with the blue hope fully the pink is the same due to the dark color and thicker material the sides are a tad see through but only at the cap sleeves the rest is well lined \n\nmy only complaint is the v cut at the chest it s entirely too low for my liking every t get creative with the neckline or let it fall where ever this is a purposefully slouchy uber casual super soft this top is amazing it s a little stretchy but doesn t cling and it s surprisingly flattering on my curvy figure i have a large chest and the shirt fits perfectly with or without a cami underneath the material is very soft and the print is vibrant and fun the shirt does run a little large the only sligh t issue i have is that it is a little shorter than i usually like on my long torso other than t hat it s pretty much perfect i am always on the hunt for a white shirt that is not too sheer so that i can wear it without a cami underneath on that count this top is a winner \nregarding the fit it is a shorter top so i am not sure that it would be able to be tucked in a bottom fo r most people i am short waisted and i wouldn t be able to tuck it in \nin fact i think it is really meant to have an almost cropped fit \nfyi 36c 34d broad shoulders back short waist in a fitted shirt i take a 10 12 but i tried this great print and material but this top runs l arge i m 36c and usually wear l in most lines retailer carries but this was just big i reorde red in a medium very soft material probably will pill quickly but it is super comfortable it is also very low cut it works perfectly for me for breastfeeding because each of the front pane ls can be easily pulled to the side a cami underneath is required the model definitely isn t w earing a bra i ll be wearing a nursing tank under this definitely a good print for summer thi s shirt is so soft and lovely i will be wearing it a lot after i make one little adjustment i don t mind some cleavage but the bottom of the slit in the middle of this shirt goes all the way down to my bra and i feel like i m showing a lot of side boob inner side boob cleavage i don t know what the word is but it definitely feels out of place in a professional setting h owever i m going to sew a hook and eye onto the top of the slit so i can close it and it will b e more like a ke i m a huge skort fan from way back but finding a cute skort is harder than fin ding a needle in a haystack so when i saw this on line i was excited and when i saw it in the store my hopes were confirmed this is truly a stylish functional skort the diagnol hem is f lattering along with the two buckle details love the pockets you even get a little bonus pocke t the fabric is a beautiful color moss and soft so it hangs in a flattering manner instead of bunching up this skort looks grea love this skort bought it in green in store and am now go ing to get it in black on line fairly true to size maybe on the lightly larger side soft well made and comfortable bought size 4 am 5 5 110lbs i love this sweater it is so comfortable an d lightweight i am always warm and i can see myself wearing this sweater without getting overhe ated very flattering as well this dress has a nice flow and it is simple but versatile you can pair it with a jacket or cardigan for the winter and use it year round however it runs one size large i love this top the wine color is beautiful the fabric is soft the details are pr etty and it fits perfectly it is long and will likely look best with leggings or skinny pants and boots love this sweater and it is so soft and cozy cause it has a little wool in it not s cratchy at all 5 4 138 usually wear size 6 i got a small regular not petite looks great with leggings and skirts not to long for a shorty like me i tried on the blue floral dress in t he spring but found it too large on top i liked the new red motif dress and sized down to a med ium which fits much better this is a pretty sweater that is great for transitioning to fall we ar it sleeveless on throw a leather jacket over it for cooler nights fights true to size the g ray is a very pretty color great addition to my wardrobe this blouse is an all season winner i bought the taupe and can wear it with or without a cami under a sweater alone with skirts pa nts jeans i am 5 7 135 and a medium was perfect although i normally wear a small i love thi s top it s so soft and the cut is so flattering for a sweater the sleeve holes are low enough so that you could easily layer underneath it but high enough to be work alone the knit is a per fect fall thickeness warm but not too thick i am 5 11 130lbs and i got the medium for the ex tra length i ordered the floral blue dress i am a size 8 10 and ordered the medium it did not find that it was large on top as others had mention i love the smoking but would also look grea t with a belt and boots it makes a great all weather dress i am 5 8 broad shoulders can some times wear a size 4 depending on the cut i purchased the size 6 and was a true fit just enough flow to give you room to move but not too much to make you look larger than you really are the fabric us light and great quality perfect for a summer night out so happy with this purchase t his dress is just lovely i love the pattern and the cut and it s very comfortable to wear i l ike it because i can wear it just about anywhere and it s appropriate you can dress it up or d own i get lots of compliments when i wear it nan this sweater is soft and comfortable it s th e perfect transition piece from summer to fall and in winter can be easily layered at 4 11 it s a little large and could have sized down to an extra small petite but still love it this dress is much larger in person than it looks on the model but i absolutley love it there is an inner tie that helps taper the waist a bit and the material is gorgeous gorgeous material great leng th for tall girls warm without being too heavy super soft i ordered the grey and white in sma ll and have returned them for extra small i feel like they run a bit big though i seemed to hav e gone down a size at retailer in the past year not sure if its vanity sizing this is a classi c sweater and a timeless staple elegant and sophisticated the grey is that nice soft grey tha t doesn t wash a fair complected person out and is flattering with all complexions great this i s a great transition piece wear with jeans or dress it up with a cute skirt modern unique ve rsatile love it paired with the essential culottes usually size 4 small but got the xs otherw ise the armholes dipped down too low as did the back hem of the sweater just received this gor geous blouse and i couldn t be happier it s stunning not sheer at all but light and breezy i typically wear a medium sometimes a small but i ordered the medium since velvet tends to be a little tight in the shoulders on me this medium is a little roomy so it fits more like a tunic which is what i ve been looking for all spring the blue is even prettier in person a true blu e a perfect find this is the most fabulous sweater ever i really hesitated spending 368 for a sweater but this sweater is worth every dime it is soft and luxurious i tried it over a cash mere cable knit dress and it looks unbelievable i also tried it over jeans and it looks equal ly as good if it came in another color i d buy it too i have this in the beautiful spring gr erest i know you cannot tell from the pictures but the fabric on this is incredible it is ver y light and extremely airy so that it flows when you walk i am a rather petite individual so it would require excessive tailoring for me to wear this both in length and in the top i think it was true to size with this exception and i wish they offered this in petite i would have tailor ed the length if it was only that but on the top i am not large chested there was a bunch of extra fabric that just lai i m pregnant 2nd trimester and really wanted a beautiful non mater nity dress i got this in ivory and it s just perfect the lace on the sleeves is really comfort able i love the fit and i love the length i got tons of compliments on it my only regret is that i didn t also get it in slate and i really wishing it would get re stocked this sweater is a beautiful quality well made piece of art it looks on exactly like it looks online when i ordered it i was worried that my usual size xs might be too tight however it is a perfect f it it is fitted yet it still has a comfortable looseness with some extra room in the length ink i am very happy with this suit it is gorgeous and very well made my only suggestion is to use your normal swimsuit size when ordering rather than their recommendations i am a 4 6 in dre ss size but am curvy with a large bust i went with a medium because i thought there was no way i would wear a small the medium actually fits great in the waist and bottom however is small i n the top for me i m ordering a large to compare coverage this sweater vest is the best it is so versatile i ve already worn it over a dress and recieved compliments all day the knit is su bstantial without being to thin or heavy i love the little flecks of color in the yarn as well it makes coordinating easy i thought the faux fur might be too overwhelming or hot but thankfu lly it s not at all runs true to size worth full price ordered this vest in both the xs and p xs i liked the length and overall fit of the xs however i ended up returning both due to how the vest draped the outer fabric is a bit more stiff which made the vest balloon out more then what i liked overall it s not a terrible vest but just not for me i ordered ths thinking it w as likea blazer but it is soft and not structured like a t shirt however it is rather flatte knees very versatile dress may be dressed up or down depending on shoes love love this sweater vest quality is wonderful and the fit is great highly recommend picked this darling vest in a medium i have been eyeing for sometime but really did not want to pay full price after checkin g other manufactures i came back to this vest at retailer as the other reviewers mentioned the softness spec of colors which enables you to wear the vest with so many colors in bottoms and t ops the pockets the belt which i love as much as the pockets though the faux fur collar i do wish was removable the faux fur will limit me in getting away with wearing this vest i immediat ely purchased this dress when it came into store at 5 7 it hits enough above the knee to be fl irty but still not too short and is appropriate for me to wear to work sleeves are fitted whic h helps to balance the trapeze fit i m just concerned with keeping the lace in good condition but overall i love the dress i have this dress in white and i have worn it twice for completely different events i wore it with red heels for a dressy look and then with boots and a jean jack et for a more casual look i am only 5 4 and it hit above my knees it s a soft white that is ich is perfect although i usually wear a xs petite or xs i m 5 2 currently 33 25 37 30d 32c bra with narrow shoulders and torso a bit long waisted the ribbed darby sweater hugs every si e sleeves end about an inch above my elbows and can be folded up \r\n \r\nwell made very light weight knit of 57 cotton 43 polyester the ribbing detail is very well thought out there is bias bought this sweater as soon as i saw it the knit ribs and the length help slim your lines it is flattering even on my heavier mid section the material is airy but not see through yay i love that the deep v neck with collar is not too deep for the office i would buy another if a o wear this dress with tights through the winter the dress is super comfortable with a unique s hape only downside the arms and chest run pretty small so if you usually have a hard time fitt ing sleeves try a size up nan the sweater is thinner than i expected but very cute so i m keep ing it it seems well made so i m not expecting easy snags it washed well love this dress i agree with the other reviewers i had to size up one size but then it was perfect i m 5 5 125 r your reference i am a curvy athletic build with broad shoulders very flattering fits tts love the colors does not give any lift up or support to breasts i am a 36 c and i was fine with this it is so flattering to back and overall a flattering fit i was ok with my breast not being supported and uplifted if you want support this is not for you it does look exactly as it does on model in regard to coverage showing some cleavage but very little i am 5 6 127 lbs and not very fit and took a medium my husband really loves this suit and gave it two big thum i love th is top it s loose and flowy yet flattering and the colors are fun the armholes are cut a lit tle low so a cami is necessary after one wash and lay flat dry the wrinkling is substantial hope i can steam it back to its normal shape i ordered xs petite but i think i better ordered x xs which was already sold out at the time i purchased i recommend one size smaller for this swe ater this sweater is designed very wide for your shoulder which could be fallen down for people who usually prefer petite size but it s really adorable very cute very flattering the peplum is fairly subtle and really works falling at just the right place for me i m 5 5 i got the r ed and have worn it over a dress and with jeans the color is deep and works well with my pale s kin the fabric is quality and looks like it will hold up well over time   always an issue with sweaters \n\nunlike some of the other reviewers i found it ran slightly large i am small frame d but large chested and often take a medium in sweaters but a small is roomy o i bought this to p for my daughter and it looks beautiful it s a pretty jade green color and has a nice flow to it the back is very flattering as well i had originally bought this top in one of your stores and loved it   got sooo many compliments   while reading my e mail one night i saw it on sale of course i would have bought it anyway   now i have 2 of my favorite tops   i ordered this to p in rose   the color is actually more of a cream with navy and yellow stripes but i could tell that from the photo when i was ordering   the fit is true to size and the cut is very flattering excited to add this gem to my summer wardrobe if your looking for something to spice up your wa rdrobe this is it rich in color and a luxurious soft hand but so much better in person i plan to dress up with a long knit tunic and tights plus over the knee boots or with destructed dark d enim and booties i got the burgundy color and may go back for the blue as well this is a stapl e for many seasons to come nan my only reservation is that i wish the tail wasn t so much longe r than the front i returned it reluctantly because i needed something just a little dressier fo r the occasion i bought this is a size small i m 5 8 140 and the fit it perfect it is a very pretty red and looks very cute on i m very happy i bought it but i did buy it on sale otherwise i may have hesitated because of the price this structured sweater is beautiful and timeless go rgeous seasonal color and style is classic i typically order medium but wanted a more flowy loo k and got a large great purchase great fit i ordered a m l in this vest and it fits perfectly thirst is cozy and stylish in fact i ordered the same vest in another color it s versatile en ough to wear with both skirts and jeans i also think it s a timeless piece that will stay in st yle for years to come nan so lovely   perfect print   graphic   want to buy in both colors but the yellow is perfection this is a very nice flattering thing which can be worn as a dress or a shirt therefore decided tiokeep it the back of this top is nice but it is very flowy i orde red a small 32dd normally a 4 6 in retailer tops   a smaller size would fit better but is no t available overall nice but wish it came in a smaller size i love love love this sweater it is slightly fitted so that is drapes beautifully   notice it has 3 4 length sleeves which is fine for north caroline where it does not really get cold   i purchased the blue and i wore it w ith fitted jeans very soft material length is great a little more loose than i would have lik ed this is a perfect change of seasons into cooler colder   months piece \r\n\r\ncolors \r\nt he colors are muted the pattern is modern and stylish the cut flattering \r\n\r\nsizing\r\nth e sizing is generous and fit is easy love length which is true to the product photo fitting at about the bottom of my fingertips i love the coverage without looking too covered \r\n\r\nqu ality \r\nit s soft a great weight   and the quality seems good i have already worn it a few times and it is not one of those sweaters first i did not notice the description mentioning met allic thread i was disappointed when i opened the box to find it is a metallic but actually i m glad i didn t know because i love it it does not look cheap and it really works the pale pea chy color is gorgeous and the metallic is subtle enough the real issue for me is the size i or dered the small and it is huge enormous especially from the back the seam on the sleeve is ju st above my elbow so it s almost a bat wing kind of thing and i ordered both colors in the xxs p knowing that size goes fast i used to wear xs or xs petite consistently but this last year i have found myself needing the smaller size vanity sizing   in this case the xxs p was perfect for me length was around mid thigh could almost wear as a dress if i were younger and not as m uscular in my thighs   the waist and chest are fitted but not snug fitted in the sense that it follows my natural curves   the flower patterns are so cute it does cut at the p loved this ves t when i tried it on in the store and ordered it during the last sale   i usually wear a mediu m and the xs s fit much better than the m l   getting excited for fall   now if the weather w ould cooperate so i can wear this cute new vest this shirt is versatile for work and fun my s ister has this shirt and thought it was so cute i ordered it too fit is perfect body slimming i m glad i purchased it love this vest it is super soft and cozy yet fits and lays well not b ulky so it s a great piece to layer over flannels it has a bit of stretch im short 5 2   so it s a little long on me but it s super cute and i love it   this is a beautiful light weight s weater great for the texas weather the red is a great color for the holidays too i love the l ooks of this sweater on the model after receiving it it was still very pretty and stylish to l ook at my problem is that i am petite and the sweater seemed to run very large it wasn t very fitted i think the detailing in the back would look better fitted it made me look rather dowdy and or matronly unlike how it looks on the model i think that was because it was just too big i returned it this is my favorite find of the fall i got the mustard color and it is wonderful very soft nice shape unique design i am usually between a medium and large in tops but i fou nd that the medium was a little too short for my liking   i am 5 ft 8 in tall   even sizing u p it s far too short for me to wear as a dress as some others had mentioned but looks great wi th jeans and boots the large is perfect i love the neckline with the pleated ruffles and tie it s graceful and distinctive yet still understated love my new wardrobe addition fits perfect and goes with everything i purchased this sweater in red it s a deep rich color and although i usually opt for black you can see the beautiful details on this sweater much better in the red i love this item this was another unusual choice for a larger busted woman like myself but i c ouldn t say no to that sweet little back detail i ll attack the waist with a cropped jacket fo r those looking to add volume or flowy fabric you ve found your answer and then some this dres s is adorable thanks to everyone who commented that the dress runs small as that s definitely t rue i ended up ordering up two sizes and got a perfect fit i was afraid the wrapped skirt migh t emphasize the hips too much but that isn t the case it adds a bit of quirky style and makes this different from the usual shirt dress it s great with booties or chunky wedges some of the reviews about this being cheap fabric made me nervous about purchasing but i did and i love it the material isn t super thick but i like that as i tend to run hot it s super soft material an d feels good on i wanted to love this shirt and thought i would based on the reviews it runs really large however and while i love how flows it is i also looked pregnant i am keeping thoug h looks nice layered under a jacket or sweater but alone i feel it looked sloppy and big which is sometimes just what you want so it is staying in my closet nan this dress is effortles sly chic i wore it with black tights and booties and it was perfection will definitely be a ca sual staple year around i ordered this in xsp navy with the merlot burgundy flower and it fits above the knees as pictured the tunic is medium weigh and has a line shape with a loose waist a nd i find it very comfortable the sleeve are straight cut not tight and 3 4 quarter in length i will wear it with leggings and boots booties this coming fall i find this tunic is well made and disagreed with one review that it is cheaply made wrong color fyi 102 lbs 32c this swe ater is so much cuter in person than as pictured i bought the lovely red one today i got my us ual size xs i plan to wear it more fitted as a top rather than as a jacket although i can sti ll layer it if i want the color is divine the weight is just right not too heavy but not too light sometimes peplums overwhelm me but this one did not it hits at just the right spots and is flattering all over particularly making my waist look small i tried this on and think it wi ll look great with leggings and boots it s very flattering without being too tight or too baggy some of retailer s clothes are just too full and baggy for me and make me look large i am 5 4 140 lbs and ordered the medium which fits perfectly i ordered both the navy and yellow but the yellow has not arrive yet i do not have an retailer where i live so i ordered this tunic online the material is extremely soft comfortable not at all itchy tts i fell in love with it im mediately and can t believe how many compliments i received all day long when i wore it to work with some skinny ankle length pants can be dressed up or down this is certainly going to get a lot of use this fall runs big but the fabric is nice and comfortable i had to return first o rder and order the next size up it is short in the front but a nice length in the back it will be a great dress for fall and the color is unique more brownish orange than red it will look g reat with boots nan cute design and interesting back feature runs a little big and is comforta ble and flowy this is absolutely a 1 season top the material is very thin and flowy with the front v plunging pretty dramatically i m using mine as a swim cover and i m thrilled to report the mottled pattern on the cotton hides perspiration \r\nthe first time i wore this top i pai red it with denim shorts and the hemline completely covered the shorts so it was way more of a mini dress than a long shirt which is ok if i wear it again as a top rather than a swim cover i d just go with yoga shorts benea i had this on my wish list but saw it as a on of on black friday and it just happened to be my sisz p it fit me perfect if anything it runs a little big but it is great to layer it can be worn sipped over a cami with lace showing or as a r egular cardi jacket over first layer the detailing is loely even tho it is 40 off today i g ot it with the 25 off store wide sale my size sold out before this promo so i am very glad i got it when i did just in time for all the christmas after reading all the reviews i thought i would have to size up went into my local retailer and found this dress in a size 4 burnt orange color last one in stock it was still marked 79 so i think thats why it was still there i c rossed my fingers and tried it on it fit perfect not to short or tight in the upper sleeve i m 5 4 so maybe that s why the lenght was fine on me if you can find this in your local store t ry it on it s really cute and comfortable i also have the front lace up j nan i have this in b oth the black and red great design very flattering and soft the red is the perfect color wil l get a lot of west from these for many years i first saw this vest displayed in the window and admired the colors and weave i couldn t get it out of my mind so i had to make a special trip back to retailer to buy it it is soft and drapes well looks amazing with denim and boots i th ink it will be my favorite fall purchase nan the tunic is very pretty when i visited antho sto re i was just fallen in love with it \r\ni purchased purple one because the color is for fall this is good for straight and slender body type \r\nplease purchase it before it is gone this v est is sooo cute i bought the red really a dark burgundy and it is perfect for fall i want ed to buy the other color but it s sold out online i m 5 3 and the length is fine i m usual ly an xs 2 or 4 at retailer and the regular xs s is the perfect size i am on the busty side an d doesn t make me feel too heavy like some vests deep purple keeps it fall flower design keeps it feminine pockets make it fun love it and can t wait to wear it i love this top it falls i n a romantic and easy way it s very flattering and looks great i just had a baby two weeks a ater i love angel of the north sweaters i bought the small 34b and it fit tts the pleats in the back hang without pulling it also flatters the figure with it s shaping it is a lightweigh t sweater in a great shade of red just love it nan great too love it s flow dolan is a great brand however it s definitely large and baggy which is fine just know it s not tight i m 5 10 and 135 and ordered a s i ordered the green top in store after trying on a medium that was huge the small fits me well and i love the flowy style and softness of the fabric i like it with ski nny capri jeans and the color will transition well into fall i m in florida where it is still v ery hot in october if you typically wear either a small or medium order the small in this top this is a beautiful sweater tunic dress i ordered in the mustard color and wearing it will bri ghten my day on a dreary winter morning it is so hard to find winter clothes in bright colors the sweater is soft and not itchy it is a bit longer than i expected maybe 35 i am 5 7 b ut that is just fine it can be worn with leggings or tights dressed up or dressed down i coul dn t be more pleased i m 5 3 with a 32h chest ive always had a hard time finding clothes that fit well because i m chest heavy this fits perfectly without making me look bigger than i am an d hides my post pregnancy pooch well \r\n\r\ni usually order a medium at retailer and ordered a medium in this sweater just picked this up at my retailer and i just love it its totally diffe rent than your typical tee the bottom is more of a blousy silk material and the top is a super soft knit it lays really well and is long enough to wear with leggings my favorite part is the t strap in the back such a beautiful detail and so much fun my only criticism with this top is where it hits on the bust im a little more full figured so the top looks better on me when the silk part isn t under my boobs kinda have great design beautiful colors well fitted got comp liments so much cuter than the picture i bought a m and i m a 34c i thought it was comfy n fla ttering love the style of this vest and an added bonus is how soft it is every vest is differe nt though so if you re shopping in the store be sure to look at all of them comfortable th e color was great just as it looks in the picture nice design i love the print on this it s a super cute sweater but i didn t think it worked so much for a 56 yr old with a thickish middle the med was a bit snug but expect the large would ve been too big 5 3 150 lbs a great stat ement piece for anyone with the figure to carry it i tried both the xs s and the m l and found the larger size to be more roomy in the shoulders and just swish a bit better around the hips this is a change from many long vests my closet which tend to be size small or medium as are m y blouses and tops however could happily live with either size and color gorgeous i purchase d the poppy pocket tunic in yellow the color is perfect and looks great with my dark grey leggi ngs cannot wait until it s cold enough to wear this sweater is the reason i shop at retailer unique cute comfy the yellow really isn t one of my colors but it s so different that i ha d to get it and the cut is so flattering that i had to go back to get the purple it may run a tad bit generously i m 5 4 124 lbs 34d and originally got the small i wound up returning an d getting the xs that sizing was slightly more form fitting without being clingy we had a hint of fall weather in colorado so i immediately threw the yellow versi like the first reviewer i love the color and look and agree that it is much longer and wider than it looks in the photo i am 5 3 116lb and ordered a small i was planning to wear it tucked into palazzo pants as the model seems to have done but they must have used some other way to gather up the sweater in bac k because there is no way such volumes of material can be tucked into anything and the metallic threads are itchy so i had to finally layer a full sleeve tee under it to be able to st very pr etty top the fabric is wonderful i enjoy the movement and the style only downside is that it is cut a little low for me but it does look great and the fit is otherwise perfect i love thi s sweater hoping to order the other color the weight of the sweater is perfect not too heavy i also really liked how the sweater lays with leggings because it is not bulky great sleeve len gth i went to retailer for a pair of pants and walked out with this tunic in the blue motif and the pilcro cords in dark turquoise this sweater like the one i purchased last season by the sa me designer is well made and the fabric is luxuriously soft like cashmere soft am so excited that the weather is finally cooling down to wear it this too is great to throw on when running to class or going out love the two different materials and the back detail i am petite with so mewhat broad shoulders iusually wear 2 or 2p dresses i ordered a 2 and it was tight in the sho ulders hip otherwise this is a cute dress looks better on the person than in pictures the t ie is an interesting twist on an otherwse basic shirtdress the fabric drapes nicely on the body i reordered dress in a 4 inever wear size4 hopefully it s not too big or long i purchased the poppy tunic in gold it s a beautiful rich color and overall am super happy with the cut of t his sweater retailer has been emphasizing oversized flouncy tops for a few years now that do n othing for those of us with small waists big booties this top is just the opposite and i hope to see more like it the wide neck is graceful and the sweater curves in nicely without hugging the body beautifully designed to flatter a women s figure i love the fit and feel of this clas sic but modern cardigan perfect light weght sweater for the holidays i love the detail in the back the xs was a great fit for this 5 2 115 lb body when i first saw this in the store i l oved the idea of this shirtdress with a twist i tried it on in my usual size 4 but could not ge t it over my 32d bust i wrote it off and moved on back in the store shopping for a party dress i saw this was now on sale although not right for the party i decided to try it in a bigger si ze a size 6 was not available but a size 8 was perfection if you are willing to size up you will be rewarded with a comfortable versatile dress that can be super casu i am super happy wit h this purchase this top is so soft with a nice amount of flow i m wearing it with a bolero sw eater over it making it wearable in the fall and in cooler weather i also purchased this top i n the gray green shade and it lovely as well i bought this in store without trying it on bough t my typical size xs the armholes are cut very low as is the front neckline it has an overall slightly slouchy fit i definitely could not wear this to work without a camisole underneath ot herwise i really like the style and the black and white striped color way will go with alot l ove this top the fit is so comfortable and it flows beautifully when you walk the added bonus is the flirty open back cross strap design to make even your exit an attention grabber pairs g reat with some jean leggings and wedge heels \r\nloved it so much i went back and ordered anoth er color nan this super cute sweater is comfy and fun to wear i love it as much as last years wool paned sweater tunic except this sweater is too short on me to wear as a dress wonderful with leggings and boots i bought the blue in size m regular and my stats are 63 t 39 c 28 w 3 5 h 30 i tall chest waist hips inseam this is my favorite kind of dress comfortable unique and can dress up or down i am 5 2 and 100 lb and bought the regular 0 because there were no pe tites available it fit perfectly the material is buttery soft and looks like it will hold up w ell and i love the orange red color the tie detail makes this dress stand out and i find the c ut very flattering so glad i ordered it love this sweater not too long or bulky true to size the fabric is super soft great quality i first saw this top earlier in the year i watched for it to go on sale and it finally did over the labor day holiday 40 off i was very happy about that it runs a tiny bit big i got the s i wonder if the xs would have been better but i kept the small because of the price and how cute it looked on it looks gray online but it is more gr eenish gray it has a cute back detail too it looks cute with jeans and gray pants it is just cute and different than most of my other tops thank goodness i looked at everyone s reviews bef orehand because i ordered a size up 4 and it fits perfectly i am usually a size 2 but can def initely tell it wouldn t have fit correctly had i ordered a 2 the orange color works well for e ither a fall dress with leggins or a spring dress by itself i love it it s really crazy how mu ch i like this sweater i am surprised by the weight of the sweater it is a medium light weight that will be appropriate year round it fits perfectly and is very flattering open or zipped i will wear this as a stand alone top with a tank underneath for now and in place of a spring jack et when the weather is warmer this is a nice find nan this is a modernized hippie sweater so beautiful blue is more for fall but i think the mustard color has more personality the large f lowers add attitude pockets show comfort it is soft part silk fabric and lays nicely it is not thick enough for warmth but there is room for a tissue turtleneck regular s fits me well it should be relaxed look not fitted and i wear it as a dress with thick tights and boots i a m 5ft2in 34b 26 waist 36 hips and the hem falls right above my knees love the top love th e color love the back detail as a larger chested woman the shape was lost a bit but i just c ouldn t resist usually retailer s designs run small for me but this large fits great super co mfortable long enough to wear with leggings love the back cutout design and fabric choice dep ending on bust size it may seem to sit funny but it s not meant to be a true baby doll design that sits under the bust mine looks great love this vest i bought the red color and absol utely love the feel of the fabric you can wear it over a variety of clothes dresses turtlenec ks long sleeve shirts perfect staple for the winter and fall nan this top is very cute the f it is great and the material is very comfortable i am a 5 7 135 lbs and wear a 36d and the med ium fit great this shirt was very cute i ordered it as something to be able to wear to class w ith leggings and it is perfect the colors are great and the length is very nice it will be a n ice piece to layer with a jacket for the the fall i love the style and the flow of this shirt definitely worth the purchase and very flattering i have worn this with a tank and shorts and k now it will be a great fall piece over a long sleeve tee the pattern is pretty and the fabric i s soft and warm it can be casual or dressed up this product is true to the picture what you s ee is what you get exactly what i needed post pregnancy this top is very comfortable with a dr ape that hides my tummy the back hits that perfect spot where it looks great but still hides a normal bra nan this is an adorable top i had to have it in both colors it has a unique shape to it and the simple details give it so much appeal the beautiful fall like colors can be laye red easily into the cooler weather of the season i liked everything about this tunic except the way that it looked on me the fabric was great not too heavy not too light the design was cu te and i loved the colors i got the yellow it was cut well and a good length for me i am 5 2 that being said i am curvy and i felt like i looked even rounder in this top if i was 6 8 taller it probably would have been perfect so happy i purchased this it s a gorgeous piece a nd perfect for fall and winter the colors are soft and beautiful and i feel like this will pai r well with a lot of shirts in my closet i saw this top and immediately knew it was for me i l ove it and i disagree on it being one season too i could see making this work all year for su re i love the green gray color and it flows so beautifully it s perfect the back wasn t a pro blem for me when wearing a normal bra i couldn t see my bra maybe if this is a problem your br a is up too high on your back i m very petite and didn t have a problem with it i bought a sma ll could have possibly used a xs but they didn t have it but beautiful design and perfect for warm days it has a lovely open back with the perfect amount of loose fitting flow i bought thi s dress online to wear to work and i did not expect anything too impressive based on the picture of the model i am really surprised at how beautiful well fitting and soft this dress is i am in love it fits snugly but the fabric is so thick that it is still very office appropriate i work at a law firm i ordered the small petite and it comes to the top of my knees beautiful d ress lots of compliments will transition well from summer to fall as other reviewers mentione d this sweater is truly nice in person i love the different patterns from the fabric the cut is also flattering not boxy the collar on me turend the other way around dark showing and i t also looked nice i wasn t planning on buying anything but it was thanskgiving weekend with you know discount not regretting it \n\ni will wear it many ways jeans and tshirt for we ekends if i get out of my workout clothes but also could be worn over a nice black blou i tri ed on the refgular xs and it fit btu the cut was wring on me i moved up the dress as though it was cut petite and what a difference i will ahve to roder the petite for sure \n\nte material is a thicker knit very strectchy and warm enough to carry the dress through winter and spring \nthe shoulders are well covered in a flattering way the chest area is crossed over open no t stiched close so yo ucan adjsut as needed te tie jsut falls but is attached to the dress o n one side so it i loved this jacket the minute i saw it saturday sunday is one of my favorite brands even cuter on than the photo short back at natural waist long in front great quality fabric thick and warm fits very narrow in sleeves so i went from small to medium to have room for a top underneath the medium is perfect back is stylish solid tweed grey with front patter n wrapped around from front sleeves and collar a black diamond pattern and ribbon trimmed edge overall very interesting grey black c i love these jeans i am normally a 25 so i went with a 25 petite i m 5 4 and the length was perfect the 25 was a little big so i m going to order the 2 4 petite and compare they r a great material and very stretchy great comfortable dress with sty le this ran a little large so i returned for a medium so glad i did you can dress down wi n impulse buy when i was buying some tops at my local store the other day the piece is gorgeous and looks great over a black tank top it is very versatile in that you can wear it so many diff erent ways as an accent piece over a t shirt bathing suit cover up over a dress it is a deli cate material so i m sure you have to be careful washing it but it has a feminine flowy style that is very unique the only thing that i m not sure o i m short only 5ft and this is beautifu l and flowy it s just below my knees and i think it s perfect i have only worn it twice out an d literally everywhere i went i received a compliment and asking where i got it it s unique an d no one else carries one like this i know some customers mentioned the price being a bit high but i disagree i would rather pay for something that i love that has good design and quality i nstead of 50 or 60 for a so so product that s what i love about retailerpolog this is a lovely jacket i thought it was going to be thicker but it s so classy and chic i got several comment s on it and i ve only worn it once great jacket to have in my closet i can wear it to work t o dress up an outfit for school or to complete an outfit nan this lacey dress fits well and is very comfortable i spotted this dress at my local retailer to be honest i saw it on a rack wi th a sale sign on it and didn t think much of it then i saw it on a salesperson wow i think this dress looks much better on someone than on the hanger so i recommend trying it on \n\ni a m 5 3 32b and i bought an xs it fits really well right about the knee similar to how it is shown in the photo so taller women may find it to be a little shorter \n\nthe ruffle fabric t hat comes down the side adds an interesting nan nan nan i ordered a xxs as i am a size 0 it fit s very well i am 5 5 and the dress hits me 2 inches above knee i would wear this with thick t ights and boots the sleeves are unlined but because the material is of high quality it does n ot seem too shear you can belt this dress if you do not like the loose swing style i love the print and colors i was not really aware of the silver sequence at the hem but i do not mind it however i feel it does dress it up taking it out of the every day wear c did want to love this jacket because i have so much black and white but i saw it on my daughter and had to have it i usually take a large but i needed an extra large and the fit is great the material is not too heavy so i know it can wear it year round by adjusting the weight of tee underneath nan after eyeing this online several times i saw it at my local store in person it is just so pretty it does have a romantic look to it i wasn t looking for it the sa was wearing it she is much t aller than i it draped nicely over her denim jeans says she loves it just had to have it w ell of course i was going to try it too at 5 3 117 it was to my knees in the front longe r in the back a little on the overwhelming side love the crinkly fabric embroidery detail sh ort sleeves i love this sweater and don t think the pics do it justice i ordered the light bl ue lavender color and couldn t be happier it s great with leggings or jeans and booties or boot s i received many compliments the one time i ve worn it so far so glad to have snagged this on sale but i wouldn t have hesitated to pay full price this tank is fairly soft and fits true to size i like that i can pick between a v or round neck depending on my outfit it truly offers a profile to layer with anything the only complaint i have is that the edging wears faster than the rest of the tank i ve trimmed some pilling off of it to keep it looking neat otherwise th is is one of my favorite tanks and i have purchase two more so i can always find one when i wan t it \r\n\r\nthis tank has some stretch so i imagine it fits a range of siz this is a lightwei ght knit dress that is well designed but very form fitting i decided to return it because at al most 40 there are parts of my body that i don t need to show but if you re in great shape or wi lling to wear shape wear this would be super cute this kimono is gorgeous and i ve gotten many compliments it looks good with a t shirt and jeans or with something dressier i love it nan i am very surprised by the low reviews of this dress this dress is obviously a very loose fitting style it is a bit of a man repellar dress the quality of the fabric is beautiful and the patter n stunning i find the loose flowy style liberating and comfortable i love it with otk boots an d tights for winter but also planning to wear with sandals in spring i am 125lbs and purchased the petite small nan this is great and very soft inside i am wearing it around my house all th e time great over workout clothes or jeans and leggings the pictures of this dress are terribl e compared to seeing it in person and i instantly fell in love with this dress when i put it on the fit is very flattering with a touch of 1920s flare the colors are better in person too wit h the lightest color being pink not white as pictured cute simple top that completes an outfi t all on it s own it is pricey but i finally took the plunge and bought it nan i love that ret ailerpolgie has petite sizes now i am 5 4 and 115lbs i bought the 0p and it fits perfectly t he dress is very cute and the colors are a way to transition into fall when its still warm out i would have bought this had it not been for the way the pockets are sewn in they are attached on the inside by a string if the string broke the pockets would dangle for the price you would think they would have sewn pockets in to the vest too bad the color heft style quality are perfect i did go down one size since my usual size was too large in the waist i absolutely lov e the look and fit of these jeans i did have to size down i ran into problems after washing t he fraying on one leg was twice that of the other looking very unbalanced after looking closel y i found that one leg had a top stitching very close to the fray to prevent further fraying th e other leg did not have this stitching thus the fraying double in size i have sent a request to customer service for a replacement pair these are adorable jeans just be sure to check for s titc the online pic does not even do this beautiful blouse justice in person it is stunning and goes with everything i tried this on at the store the fuzzy trim around the bib is adorable a nd the overall texture with little puffs woven into the fabric has a nice quality feel to it th e pattern of flamingos is fun and the fabric is soft it does run on the big and flowy side i t hought it was very cute and comfy but ultimately did not buy it because the price is rather high and the petite length is sold out i ll snap it up if it goes on sale lovely small whale cords they fit too tight around the waist for me unfortunately i will have to return i just bought t hese jeans today they are really cute comfortable on i love pilcro jeans as they fit really well they are made well they are always on style i did have to go down a size as well but th ey fit beautifully comfy stylish for me the v was too deep on this one but the colors are beautiful i ve been trying on boyfriend jeans for more than a year finally found a pair that fit and were comfortable many of them had no stretch at all and were very uncomfortable these have just enough stretch but not too much i usually wear a 29 30 tried on the 29 which were c omfortable but too loose at the waist the 28 were a perfect fit \r\ni m 5 8 140lbs never wou ld have thought i would love it so much based on the picture online but saw it in person and it s so cute colors are very rich in person even the soft pink not a big pink gal works so w ell with the other colors great quality with full lining i lucked out and picked it up for a steal on clearance with another 40 off just love it pilcro is an incredible denim brand and i ve never been disappointed these are no exception minimal distress perfect length i m 5 8 and they hit just like the model great color and super comfy they have some stretch to them a nd definitely fit baggier so depending on how you want them to fit i sized down for a snugger fit these are fantastic love this dress great for dressing up and down or just to throw on fo r the weekend the fit is very flattering but i will say the fabric is very thin so you must use a slip it s totally see through maybe i didn t read the description correctly but i was surpr ised that this skirt has two front slits thigh level rather than just one as shown in the pho to above it s gorgeous silk the patterns are vivid and the pleats are classy giving just the right balance of form and flow however when i sat down very little coverage which means i wouldn t wear it much i considered taking it to my tailor but too much effort and howeve r it s beautifully crafted if you re looking for som very soft color and soft to touch the mat erial is light and airy and it feels great on i wear a medium and bought the small i would def initely buy this in another pattern if they made it as cute as the flamingos i saw this skirt o nline and loved the vibrant colors pattern and style it looks even prettier in person the ma terial is light and soft the skirt is fully lined so you don t have to worry about it being see through also the skirt is a good length for me and won t drag on the floor happy with purchas e recommend i love how unique this vest is i m still figuring out how to wear it in a feminin e way as it lacks shape at the waist and the collar sometimes doesn t behave i think the sweat er texture makes it more casual but i could belt it and wear with fancier shoes to glam it up it is a nice third piece to keep warm for fall or winter hopefully i ll wear it more once i fig ure it out only worn this once but had multiple compliments such a cute pattern and style onl y complaint is wish they would have done the sides with a split it kind of wants to hug the hip s and then be too wide in the middle still love it this top runs a tad big it s beautiful in person and sooooo soft definitely an retailer staple top material and cut is great i really lo ve this top it is soft lightweight and really pretty it has quickly become one of my favorit es exciting design beautiful fabric love this dress i definitely agree with the other reviewe rs who said this top is better suited for someone tall and slender the design on the lace is be autiful and i love the scalloped hem but it is somewhat boxy and flowy which didn t seem to wo rk on my curvy body proportion wise i bought this dress for work and receive tons of compliment s when i wear it the material is soft and breathable which makes it comfortable to wear all da y at work with a light jacket i do agree with the other reviewer though it does show every bum p especially in the tummy i also noticed that some of the fabric flaps will flip up when i sit down but i am going to sew the flap down so it stops doing that fun fun fun love the polka do t but also the cut on this skirt is very flattering and retro it is perhaps a little yellower on the ivory side but neutral nonetheless te fit is very flattering 0p fit waist hops len gth 115 lbs 26 5 in waist i think i will have to keep this lovely item as i doubt it will mak e it to sale in my size this skirt is really beautiful and well made the color is a cream off white like other reviewers mentioned it fits mostly true to size i have a straight build with a wider stomach and no hips and my usual 4 fit a tad tight in the waist but perfect in the hips i just love this skirt first of all i ve noticed that maeve is running big i m normally a siz e medium or 6 and two occasions now i ve needed a size small and this is no different of course i ordered the medium and would need to exchange it if i want it to fit better it s loose allove r the only reason i m not exchanging it is that the color washes my olive skin color other tha n that it s a beautiful dress it hist at the same spot on the leg as in the model s pictures f or reference 5 9 36b 29 38 i can t wait for the first signs of fall so i can wear this the fabric is a nice light weight and the fit is very flattering as another interviewer comment ed it can also be worn as a dress well worth the investment very cute coat but could not kee p it for the price just not sure it is worth almost 200 00 with tax added to cost when it is top is really cute i love the asymetrical pattern it s long enough that it goes great wit h my black skinny jeans the v neckline is perfect not too low i got this in my usual size large and it fits perfectly i wish that the sleeves were slightly longer but that shouldn t be a problem for someone not as tall it s a quirky and ador i ordered the navy which is reall y stunning by the way and the cream i asked my husband to choose the color for me and he asked me to keep both of them there you have it that should say it all it is a beautifully done lac e with an attached camisol liner which if i m not mistaken is on snaps so that you can remove i t and wear your own cami if this one has a weird fit for you the navy is really pretty due to t he stark contrast of two shades of blue as i said my husband saw the cream colo very cute ever yday tee usually run between an xs or small with retailer and was happy i chose the extra small a great updated on a classic strip tee eva franco has done it again by creating another fabulou sly flattering unique and compliment grabbing skirt it runs true to size and is very easy to move in and wear this is my 10th skirt of hers and i love them all i bought this top in ivory and love it i m 5 5 125lbs and 32dd i usually wear a small or 4 but sized up to a 6 i have n o issues with the fabric this is a steal for the sale price i really liked this dress it s s o comfy i could sleep in it plus it s quite flattering however if you have a tummy which i d o you have to really suck it in the dress will show bulges but the layers make it a little mor e forgiving that the typical fitted dress the length is great and conservative enough that i wo re it to work today though it does ride up as you walk the blue is dark enough it could almost be worn with black shoes almost the top is really cut well with the perfect neck the style and color is very nice but the fabric is a bit stiff the fabric doesn t have much give and isn t as comfortable as most of my other retailer t shirts still a cute top for the cooler weather i to tally thought this was a dress when i tried it on and bought it in the store there is a drawstr id not disappoint in that area it is long enough for work and hits just above my knee finally the colors are great the shades of blue muted red and peachy pink are lovely i m 5 tall and 95 pounds and ordered this in an xxsp it s a little loose but still looks really attractive on my body it s warmer and thicker than i thought it would be and lined i love it taller peti tes might want to size into regular because even on my super petite body it hit a few inches abo ve the knees perfect length for me but will hit higher for those taller \r\nit s going to beco me a staple this top is so much cuter in person it s light and airy and very feminine can be the keyhole at the back is large but did not reveal my bra this sweater vest is versatile and adorable just runs very small i normally wear an xs from retailer and just exchanged for a e all summer the terry is a somewhat unusual choice for a dress that otherwise would have been on the fancier side but it makes it sooooo comfortable it s even more breathable and lightweig t is that the cut is a bit out of whack the medium just barely fits my hips but it s pretty lo ose on top y i love these pants they are really comfortable without sacrificing style perfect for the office or just running around i m 5ft 9inches and 165 lbs i bought the medium which fi t this reminds me a bit of a vintage tennis sweater wide rib v neck loose fitting nice crea my cotton blend size was a bit hard to gauge this sweater is long lower hip length and has d olman sleeves so it has a quite roomy fit however i ordered the xs s my normal size and it is scaled proportionately so the fit is true lightweight and cute these pants do run on the l arger side which is fine is you like a more relaxed look i usually wear a 10 12 in pants and i had to exchange the large for a medium which fit much better great for summer weather super co mfortable and flattering casual jeans i m 120 lbs 5 7 normally size 26 and the 26 fit perfect the dress is nice but i was not excited about the color the only color is this blue also ever yone has their favorite fit i think i like some other fit better my biggest problems are color and that is made majorly from synthetic materials otherwise it fits well and for the right body type it will be perfect fit \ni like to own dresses made of more natural materials this top is fantastic something about it has an ease of elegance and grace the overall structure and desig rneath the buttons on the back are a nice detail these capri length pants are awesome i do r ecommend sizing down though as the l was really big on me i am a 10 12 with most of my weight i n my rear so normally never size down in pants the fabric is really nice and the print is vers e i got this dress in coral and i absolutely fell in love with it the moment i tried it on the fabric is very soft and flows nicely i am 5 3 and i got it in regular but the length is not too love the fit the color and the feel i am a curvy girl and these are great they hit me just r ight now pilcro jeans used to strech out really bad but they seemed to have fixed the problem i wore these jeans at work for 10 hours and they did stretch some but not a dress size so i would buy the size you feel the most comfortable i think these are a no brainer very pretty as shown runs true to size however fabric is scratchy on skin when i received the dress it was true to onship with these jeans when i first put them on i felt like i had finally found my favorite p air of jeans everything about how they fit and looked was just perfect and they were offered in a petite size but then two hours later they were sagging the fabric is so cozy but it just stretches too much too fast i am not willing to give up yet so i ordered another pair in a sm aller size i m less than thrilled about having to shell out the for two pairs but i r i lov e pilcro jeans i have many pairs and usually i m a 31 the sales girl said to buy them a size smaller because they stretch out i should have listen wore them one day and totally bagged o ut hopefully they will shrink in the wash stretch out fast\r\n\r\n5 8 130lb i order size 26 w hich is my usually size they fit prefect for about 3hr and then stretched out feeling not right on my body maybe i should have gone down a sizes even so i feel like the and quality don y after a large holiday meal i m usually between a small and medium 4 6 and didn t really n otice much of a different between the two sizes \n\n note it does not come with the camisole s hown in the photo but any black or white standard camisole would work i purchased another top same brand in the same style from retailer and really love it the fabric is lightweight which makes it great for multiple seasons i travel extensively and these tops hand wash and hang to d ry very nicely i wear a gray tank under this one and love the look i also like the long length as usual i will probably tack the neckline up an inch or so so that it s not so low just my thing overall the pattern and the fabric are very nice i usually wear an xs or s i pur the f it on these is amazing and the color is great too sometimes the fading is too much on jeans but this is just right the rise fits really well and the length is great love pilcro i purchased the moss green version of this sweater in a m petite i m 5 3 135 lbs with a full bust i love it it fits beautifully and i have received many compliments on it from both friends and stud n a size 25 and they are perfect i have not worn them all day yet so i cannot comment on whethe r they stretch out after wea nan it s rare to find clothing made of quality fabrics and this is a fine soft wool blend the design is feminine without being over the top and the fit is sligh tly loose as pictured on the model i would not recommend wearing it with a belt as pictured it makes it look too trendy and detracts from the shape of the cardigan which is beautiful on its own just skimming the body it is a perfect topper and can work for daytime or an evening ou t really lovely and one of the few things i decid normally i would not have bought this color and print it is just not a color that i usually wear but after reading reviews i ordered it on line i love love this top it looks good is flattering and is a very nice and different color i wore it with berry leggings and love it the top is very comfortable can be worn with pants a nd leggings the only issue i have is that since the jersey fabric is only at the back and not i n the front it pulls at the tummy section in the front and shows an o ordered these in a size 3 2 and they fit perfectly lovely but i am sensitive to some fabrics and i couldn t bear the fee l of this lace wish it had worked so pretty in the picture this top is both cute and flatteri ng it is also soft and the colors are gorgeous i highly recommend i got this when it went on s ale in navy and coral colors awesome dress for any occasion as far as complaints go about th e straps its meant to be low cut i really like the basket weave bodice although that does make it more difficult to zip up but i found it was easier to just slip the dress on zipped up since the stretchy fabric gives quite a bit rather than deal with the zipper i normally wear about a 0 2 in most retailer brands and have the dress in both sizes didn t notice a big differ i am in love with pilcro pants i am typically a petite 26 or 27 i m a 27 in these khakis which is cou ld have them in every color and style true to size so great fit from top to bottom i am 5 5 and it hits my hips at just the right spot not too high or too low it also does not flare out too much so it will not give off the impression that you have something to hide in the tummy are a it is very soft and comfortable the material is not fragile so it should be easy to maintain its shape after washing amazing style great fabric and a dress for all occasions bought the b lack and love it beautiful soft flattering but not clingy i bought in the green which is not a typical color in the summer palate which makes it all the more appealing love love love these the model does not do them justice since she makes them look like high rise pants they are very soft with 15 stretch which is why i sized down i usually wear a 30 you can remove the roll a nd they fit perfect w a heel for those curvy women they look great also have a slouchy appeal too but tailored i went everywhere looking for chinos and these are the best ones out there for reference i am 141 pounds and 5 4 just losing weight from having a baby and absolutely bough t these in store and bought another on line super comfortable and great for a casual look grea en different shoes and accessories will dress this up or down i plan to travel with it several times this summer it will be a great option to wear on the plane and arrive looking chic love these pants they are comfortable and flattering i generally go for neutral colors but the blue is a beautiful shade that s easy to wear thank goodness chinos are in this year i was so excited when i saw these pants and they did not disappoint when i put them on the material is so soft with a decent amount of stretch in them making them incredibly comfy they fit true to size and are very flattering not too baggy or frumpy looking i purchased the rose colored pants which are basically a light nantucket red color for reference i am 5 8 and 135 40 lbs and bought a size 28 i d be very surprised if i don t end up purchas i ordered this dress after seeing it styled with a beautiful cape when it arrived it was incredibly soft and the color was a pretty muted pink however once i put it on it clinged to all the wrong places having a larger chest made it show a lot of cleavage and if i can t wear a standard bra with it it s too complicated in a regular tank dress it would have been a yes overall a great dress but probably for another body type these pants are my new go to i am 5 6 122 and the 25 fits perfectly they do give a little \r\n\r\nlots of colors to choose from i have the washed blue and am thinking i need to get more colors comfortable and a great color for spring and summer i tried on the xs in store but ti was a little big on me and i usually get petite in dresses unless they are mini dresses \r\nso i decide to order the xxs petite it fits much better the length is at the highest point just above my knees the chest part fits better on me as xxs p the plunge is not low not too high and is flattering i can wear a regular bra that can attach as t back and you won t see anything \r\nthe model on the picture is what it looks like as a usual size so xs instea i went with the xs because i didn t want the v neck in the front to be too low it looks cute paired with a kimono and a necklace i have these in 3 colors and i always wear a 27 in pilcro i could probably size down but i like them a little loose they are great to have in the spring and summer they are very soft and very comfy so to put this in some perspective when i tried on this dress for my husband after bringing it home he described it as possibly the best dress you ve ever bought so that s definitely a winner i think what makes the dress great is that it s not clingy but still had a good drape on the skinny models it looks large and flowy but on my curvier body it draped beautifully and is super flattering without being clingy or too tight i m usually a size 10 36ddd and i sized down to a medium s i cannot say enough about these chinos i hope retailer will keep them around for a long time despite the news that says retailer is going the way of jcrew these pants are more stylish and comfortable than any other chinos i have owned i am a teacher and being comfortable and stylish at the same time is important i am a 10 to 12 and a 30 fits me fine please please retailer keep making these every season in fun colors i generally love pilcro pants and these are no exception the fabric is heavy but soft the color is so vivid but still easy to mix with other top combinations they are comfortable and flattering i am 5 2 and these are not crops on me with the rolled up hem they are a perfect full length pant but that works well for me these pants are a life saver i love to travel with them and have washed them in a hotel sink rolled in a towel and hung dry with good results picro does not usually fit me well these pants are the exception i m 5 6 and if i uncuff them they can be worn as regular length great for a baseball game \ni will panic if retailer ever changes or discontinues them i recently bought this is a medium black and it is a perfect fit it s a beautiful top and the peplum portion is perfect and long enough for someone with a lon torso for reference i m 6ft 175lbs and usually wear a 10 12 or medium large top i went with the medium based on other reviews i i was lucky to find this on sale these pants come in great colors and fit nicely if you determine your correct size which may not be what you usually wear i have several pair but i am concerned about investing anymore because of all the complaints on dye stability retailer is going to have to address this if it is going to continue carrying this product now that said i had a bad accident on one pair of these pants and the outcome was successful i wore them to a dinner party and spilled grease on them from one of t these pants are amazing they are so comfortable and fit true to size i typically wear a 28 or 29 depending on the pants and the 28s fit me perfectly i bought the olive green pair and they are everything i have ever wanted in a pair of olive pants i love that they are tighter in the butt area and loose in the knees and calves so they are not restrictive i want every color nan perfect for a hot day and skins the body beautifully so soft i am usually a medium but got a small which fit perfect usually swing dresses do not compliment the waistline but this one did bought this on sale and wore it to work yesterday with black skinny pants and leopard flats with a big gold necklace i m busty and have to be careful with peplum styles but this one does well i ve been looking for colored pants and these are the best \r\n\r\ni am typically a 10 or 12 in pants and the 30 fit well i tried on the rose color and loved those the fit was great though they wouldn t be long enough on me if i tried to unroll them though you can i liked how they fit my butt hips and thighs which is usually the most important part i find that lots of colored pants accentuate the cellulite on my thighs too much but that was not at all the case w ith these \r\n\r\nthe fabric is bought these and they fit really well and are super comfy love the color will probably live in them this summer i have three pairs of these so i must like t hem the fabric is soft and comfy right from the start i think they might run just a bit large or small depending on the color you get i tried on a pair of pink ones in a 29 in the store i wanted the moss color so i had to order that and decided to order my usual size 30 they fit pretty much like the 29 s in the pink but this fabric stretches so i m happy with them they r e not too boyfriend y so not sloppy and you could dress them up wi i purchased this in the gold in store when i got home and saw it also came in turquoise i ordered those right away as well the fit is amazing the pants are very slimming without being tight they are a comfortabl e and flattering pant i really love the colors and will probably snag another pair or two when able these are a great pant to dress up or just look snappy casual in they are a great versati le pant i normally wear a size 8 and weight 155 the 29 fit perfectly picture says the model i s 5 10 i am 5 8 the dress hit me shorter on my leg than it did on the model i loved everythin g about this dress it did run a little snug so i was between a small and an extra small i can t wear mid thigh dresses to work so i am sadly returning the dress i am going on a trip to sou th africa in may and needed pants that were cute durable yet comfortable and not frumpy these are definitely the ones i was looking for the fit is great not too tight and not too baggy i got them in three colors and all of them match what is on the site i definitely recommend these chinos as you will be able to wear them to lots of different places dressed up or down bought this in the green because i thought it was a bit different it is super flattering and the fabri c is so soft and comfortable i have it in an xs and a s and haven t yet decided which i am keep ing as they both work i m 5 4 and 116 going to wear it on an upcoming trip and i think i wil l get a lot of use out of it during the rest of the summer into the early fall i saw the black too and am tempted to buy that as well have i mentioned i love this dress these were my go to work pants i have 10 pairs so disappointed that you are not making them in tall anymore i wil l have to look elsewhere when buying pants please bring them back i find these to be nearly per fect the quality is idea soft yet sturdy the stitching is unique based on the color which i love and while they re super machine washable i never need to iron them for a business casual look i tend to like things on the baggy side so as a 5 7 gal with about 120 pounds on me i w ear a 28 but i m sure a fitted look would be more appealing to most that said i often get lar ger because they re a tiny bit shorter than i like so i wear them kinda low and if i love this color when i saw this beautiful blue color in the store i had to try them on so pretty if you love pilcro chinos you will be happy with these same great fit and an awesome color so cute a nd comfy great fit i bought them in green and they look great with wedges sneakers or sandals dress up or down pair with a t shirt and cotton blazer adorable this material is quickly beco ming a favorite of mine i have two other dolan dresses made of the same material i do wash min e cold water delicate cycle i hang dry it i am broad shouldered and heavy chested and the cut of this dress is extremely flattering you can dress it up or dress it down too love that love these chinos they are so soft have the right amount of stretch for a curvy figure and th e colors are great i have purchased the khaki and blue so far the blue color has the perfect w ashed faded look i love that they have petite sizes available i will be stocking up on the oth er colors i loved the moss so much had to go back to get the gold these chinos look wonderful on they can be dressed up with pumps and a blouse as well as dressed down with sneakers and a t shirt very versatile about a month ago i purchased the pilcro hypen chinos in moss size 28 pet ite i loved the color and fit so much that when i saw free shipping being offered i decided to get another pair this time i ordered the color pink and of course size 28 petite well the co lor really isn t pink and unlike the moss color it does not look the color online the color is more like salmon or apricot definitely not pink what bothered me more is the fit this pair was too big it s mind boggling why the sizing pilcro pants are always a positive purchase quality fabric great design i purchased the pink for spring and whenever prettier in person than on l ine they are a peachy pink color will go with anything dress them up or down love these pant s got them in yellow gold color pair them with retailer anafa tiered top which also has some yellow tones to it goes lovely good quality important for me the color is soft not overly bright yellow fabric is soft as well great fit pilcro runs one size smaller this year i co mpared with pants that i ordered last year and sure enough one inch difference in waist i did not notice difference in other dimensions of this garment so my best guess is that pilcro decid ed to make tighter waist due to some complaints last year about waist being too lose i person ally prefer sporty silhouette and am not thrilled with this change but pants fit and are nice c olor and quality so they stay however i am not sure i would order th nan 1 i m 5 5 tall 14 or i m now considering getting another pair while the free shipping deal is going on they are great pants with a great fit i m an xl in retailer tops and purchased this in the size xl it fits very nicely not tight i usually have problems with peplum blouses hitting me oddly since i have a short waist but this fit beautifully i like the feel of the high quality fabric the color green works so well with my red hair i highly recommend this blouse these pants are grea t the color is beautiful the fabric super soft fit is slimmer than expected but sill nice i love these pilcro pants i had them in two colors both beige and khaki super comfy and they stretch out a little around the waist with wearing however i recently ruined both sets in the wash because i used a stain stick remover to try to get some grease spots out of them the stain stick instead lifted the dye off of them now i have two sets of pants with odd light splotches on them so sad they aren t more color fast i own quite a few deletta tops and this one nai ls it a great staple in a pretty color i purchased the green peplum tops can be hit or miss for me and often come up short or balloon out too much this one is so flattering i initially o rdered a medium 5 8 145 but exchanged for a small when i found the medium to be a little roo my on me the small is perfect the top is made of a medium weight material and is slightly fitt ed nipping in at the waist the skirt piece falls nicely and is l my favorite pants they do run slightly large so i sized down i have 3 colors and will continue to add more i bought thes e pants in white and tan they are comfortable and fit great however they tend to stretch i ju st got them and they are already starting to become uncomfortably loose i still really like the m but i recommend you buy a little tight so they become comfortable i originally got this for m yself but it was just a little bit more snug than i liked i ended up giving it to my daughter it fits her nicely and she wore it to her holiday party at work and it was a hit i ve been loo king at these online for a while now and couldn t decide if they d fit me or not i have large muscular thighs and pants always run tight when i was in the store today i decided to try them on anyway and boy am i glad i did the fabric is super soft as everyone else mentions and the y are nice and loose but also look like ankle pants i actually sized down who doesn t love i t when they get to do that i loved the way they fit so much i bought two pairs i love the p astel dolan is my go to for comfy pretty practical dresses i m 5 0 125 lbs and i consistently wear a petite small in this brand i bought the taupe not my favorite color but i had too man y lbds and the green was not a summer color i chose taupe to wear with my bronze and turquoise jewelry summer must have this top is an easy classy staple for summer tts and drapes well g reat shape beautiful dress skims the body perfectly and flatters the silky and breathable fabr ic is everything it s made of cupro used as a silk substitute but breathes like cotton uniq lo uses it in their airism products which makes it perfect for summer weather i wore it to a summer barbecue dressed down with a denim shirt tied at the waist and simple jewelry but can easily dress it up with a chunky heeled sandal and statement jewelry it s gorgeous get it \r \n\r\n\r\nthe colors of the fabric a nan i have always been a pilcro fan and these are so comfor table and fit well in the legs i m 5 6 and 128 and the size 26 fit very well these are my fav orite pants i love the fit and they are comfortable i have them in several colors i hope you never discontinue them i am now on my third pair of these pilcro hyphen chinos they fit my bo dy type well which is pear shaped they are super comfy relaxed and my go to pant i love tha t they are a pop of color with what i am wearing vs just a normal jean i can t say enough about these pants this top has a flattering shape the neckline is low but not too low for work a nd it flares a bit at the bottom my only complaint is that it is short i have a longish torso and this shirt hits right at the top of my pant s waistline i just prefer tops to be a bit long er but it s still a cute top these chinos are very well made and has a really good fit not to o tight but a bit more relaxed so depending on the look you are going for these are great howe ver i ordered the bright aqua pair and received a pair that is really more teal a bit disappoi nted but i ll live i m 5 4 with a 30 inseam without shoes these hit about half an inch below my ankle when not rolled up twice i love the pilcro stet pants want them in every color ever y season please retailer never stop making these\r\npants i also love the new addition to th e family the pilcro capri pants would love every color of these too these pants feel great fit is true to size the blue color is very unique definitely recommend nan i have these pants in a larger size but recently lost some weight and wanted a smaller size \r\nthey are so comfor table and soft and go with everything \r\nkeep in mind that they run a little large and do stret ch a bit once you wear them \r\njust wish they would be available in tall how i did not notic e this dress for weeks i do not know this is absolutely the best casual dress i ve ever had the pleasure of owning and i hope my future includes acquiring the other sold out colors i was fort unate enough to buy the holly in m and taupe in mp and they both fit well and look flattering on my unproportioned body this dress goes well with many layers or on its own and is going to work for at least three seasons in my area the drape of the willa complements my over large upper pi lcro has my heart their cut and style are perfect for me no more squeezing into skinny jeans dear retailer please always sell pilcro and maeve brands they are amazing i had to return th e 2 for a size 4 and it is still snug in the ribs i am very petite and usually wear size 0 and xs the regular length hits me perfectly above the knee as i like the previous review to order up was good but i m writing to say i had to go up 2 sizes i am 5 5 110 lbs small frame these pants are so comfortable and fit exactly as i expected i love the variety of fun colors i went with the gold they are cooler than jeans but just as versatile i am 5 10 and the length on me is the same as the model this dress is stunning and very flattering i am a few months postp artum with just a bit of belly flub left and this skims in all the right places without showing that the fabric is gorgeous although it seems like the darker colors can be a little sheer i got the holly absolutely love this would consider picking up another color i do find it runs a little small compared to other dolan pieces including those in this fabric i have a tunic an d another dress in a small i got a medium here these are the most comfortable pants i have trie d this season without sacrificing the style they look best rolled up for that casual chic look and can be dressed up or down these do run slightly large i m 5 1 and 102 104 pounds and took the 24 petite size i bought the white color and will probably try another color or two before m y size sells out love these and really recommend them happy to have tried this one on in store unlike other peplum the bottom portion does not pop out looks good under a cadi as well find this top very versatile i got both colors since they are both flattering these feel well made and so soft but for me they were just too low and too baggy all i did was pull them up and f eel uncomfortable i wanted them to work maybe in a smaller size they would feel better i orde red my normal 25 in the light pink they were very cute i think i just have a hard time with p ants with a rise this low comfy i bought the moss color i really like it great causal pant fo r spring and summer i got the yellow ones and love them so much i ordered the stone color very comfortable and i can wear in th office or on the weekend thinking about ordering every color i love the pilcro hyphen line fits my 5 4 frame and athletic build perfectly i m 135 lbs and wear a size 28 these trousers arrived today yippee i really wanted to love them i do like th e color and the cut not crazy about the fold over waist the fit through the waist hips and t highs is true to size the biggest issue is that the description states that the inseam is 31 5 which is perfect for me however these pants are actually 33 5 in the inseam which makes heels a necessity if i want to wear them without altering them i rarely wear heels these days so tha t does not make me happy one leg great summer pants real wide leg fit perfect even my muscula r thighs run a little roomy right of the rack but stretch out terribly in my regular size the y start falling off after few hours of wear long dragging on the floor on my 5 7 frame great lightweight pants for summer size down the length is slightly long and they stretch out throu ghout the day i m 5 8 normally a 33 in pilcro and took a large in these so cute i m 5 2 5 an d petite and had originally ordered s but decide that it was a bit large for me so i returned it and ordered the xs and it fit like a glove with breathing space i love the conservative style i can easily move around in it when i m in the water with my baby i don t have a large chest bu t i imagine this would great for big busted girls it s lightly padded around the bust area the skirt detail is very cute and the print is unique i ve already gotten compliments on it super cute 5 9 135 lbs and the medium was perfect to wear with a long sleeve shirt underneath good quality and lined too perfect for daytime when a leather moto might be a bit much i bought the se pants for a planned trip to southeast asia where i want to look put together but also be ver y comfortable the lightweight fabric is perfect for traveling in warm climates where one should n t necessarily be wearing shorts in certain public places or when visiting religious sites the se pants can also go to the pool out on errands and to brunch i bought the navy and would cons idering also buying the beige great find and very reasonable sale price this is the perfect sw eater for early spring lightweight but not too thin i m 5 2 125 lbs the medium fits perfec t i ordered this only because it was in the stylist s picks and decided to see what it was abo ut i ordered a petite and don t regret it the petite on my 5 1 5 falls right by te hips whi ch is more flattering for a bomber style top not sure if descriptions says that but it is a bi t bomber style the color is truly ivory not as white as hte picture depicts though now that i look colsely you do see a contrast with the white top the model is wearing so don t expect v ery white as mentione this is such a pretty top and a great multi season piece i love the col ors and pattern and the cut is flattering it s not too low cut in the front which is nice it is woven on the front sleeves and knit in the back so i m a little nervous about how it will was h i usually wear a m in retailer tops and a l in tiny they usually are truly tiny but in this tiny a m was good this sweater is much more brilliant in person the photo online doesn t do it justice a couple of things the faux fur collar is removable and it is attached with buttons of the same color as the sweater the color is also more buttery than it appears it hits right at the hip which is so nice for wearing with dresses or skinny jeans and boots for a night out i am 5 3 108 pounds and the xs hit me at hipline and was roomy without being oversized it s really fun and festive with the collar pants are professional super comfortable and color matches loads of tops love them i love wide leg linen pants and i m always in the market for them i ve purchased these in two colors and have been happy with them so far the waistband is fold over and snug not too tight or too loose the length is longer than advertised i m 5 10 and typically take a 33 5 or 34 inseam these are long enough for me so they have to be a 33 at least others may complain but i m happy this was my first choice as one piece suit after having 2 babies the minute i put it on i just loved how confortable it felt and very flattering in all the right places the fabric is great i m 5 4 and 155 lb i ordered a 10 and it fits great i am 6ft tall and wear a size 12 bottom i ordered these in a large because i wanted the length to be as long as possible and they were perfect i have a 36 in inseam and these pants drug on the floor i could even wear my wedges with them and they were still beautifully long and drapey i bought the silver color and it was definitely more of a khaki i probably could have easily worn a medium as i did have to pull them up when i walked throughout the day this may be because of the stre i tried this on in the store and loved it it runs large i m 5 7 130lbs very short waisted and i got the xs i realized it had a sheer section on the side but the store paired it with a beautiful scarf that helped cover the sheerness i didn t feel i needed a cami while wearing the scarf plus the scarf will keep me warmer and let me wear the shirt a little longer in the fall the waistband is reminiscent of yoga pants except looser i think these pants are a little large and wide legged i have a bigger butt and i like my pants on the looser side overall so maybe that is why they were super loose on me i think they are a great way to get away with wearing casual pants when you need to dress up i feel like they would look best on a taller person i need to get them hemmed these are beautiful pants pretty basic but comfy and you can dress them up they definitely run large in both length and waist i m 5 10 and having a little bit of a platform or heel is helpful my only con would be these are long even in petite they are long otherwise i have no complaints i love the comfortable fold over waist band ah i am planning to wear these on a long flight they will help me look put together and keep my legs warm i always freeze on airplanes plus they will feel good i am 5 4 and must wear more than a flat sandal i tried on with a wedge and it worked well not sure if i will hem or not might wait till after washing lovely ordered my typical pxs d bought these in both moss and navy fits perfect love the style and the roll down waist excellent quality \r\nbought the peachy color top with the elephants to wear with the moss colored one and received lots of compliments this is a great jacket my only issue is sleeves are way to long and had to have them shortened this upped my price by 45 00 oh well its still what i wanted i love this top but i do need to wear a navy cami underneath as the pic shows the lace in the mid section makes it completely sheer in place kinda odd placement in my opinion but if you don t mind the sheerness or a cami it s a great top this top is very cute it looks good with leggings boyfriend jeans and flare jeans be careful it will shrink i bought an xs because other reviews said it runs large it fit great but i accidentally put it in the dryer and it shrunk the sleeves that were already were fitted and not loose like the picture shows shrunk so that they are a little snug on my arms thankfully it s still wearable because i do love it and have gotten several compliments on it love this zip cardigan with removable faux fur it did not look like much on the hanger but once on it is soft rich and just adorable it can be dressed up or down perfect for a finishing piece over a dress to wearing with jeans and skirts the fabric is soft but substantial the only negative for me is the zipper sticks a little a plus it is a ivory shade and is a good basic i chose my typical medium and fits perfect 34 dd chest for reference sale price plus promo made this a winner i love these pants i m 5 10 and the length is perfect could even wear a little heel the fold over waist is so comfy they feel like pajamas but look very classy i bought the navy and silver more of a khaki color on sale for a great deal the washing instructions say line dry but i threw them in the dryer on low and they came out fine just need to remove and hang quickly for less wrinkles first i must agree with the other reviewers who said that this jacket is short because well it is that being said it is a perfect length for someone who is petite like me i am not a fan of lengthy tops or jackets which tend to make my short body look like a blob i love the length or shortness of this jacket aside from that it fits true to size is wonderfully warm and cozy and makes me feel fabulous when i m wearing it it is my new favorite jacket really beautiful pants but run a very large i usually wear four and am 5 10 the media was way too big in the waste and elsewhere and very long i completely agree with the other reviewer this sweater is so much prettier in person i ve been looking for years for a tasteful fur sweater and i think i finally found it the size large was true to size for me aside from the very long sleeves but i also have short arms the fur isn t overwhelming and i love the pockets i usually find sweaters with wool itchy but this one is not it s 26 wool i do plan to wear a cami or tank underneath i love this shirt it is so soft not boxy at all very flattering my only complaint is that there aren t more colors i really love this sweater beautiful color and nice texture i can t wait to wear it overall i thought this was a very pretty blouse i loved the colors and the design the construction seemed good others mentioned that it ran large but i am tall and often struggle with the shoulders and arms so i purchase my normal size small i believe it is the width in my shoulders that caused the blouse to hang funny you could see a decent amount of the back fabric hanging around the front sides which looked odd it made the front fabric look like it was cut at an angle i am not br the fold over is so comfy not the most flattering but really when you are wearing it you are going for comfort i think bought these on sale and trying to decide if they are worth it or not most beautiful dress i have ever seen or tried on i read all of the reviews and it seemed ladies with hips stated the dress ran small so after over a year of watching this dress and waiting for it to go on sale i order a size bigger than i normally wear i was devastated that it was too large all sizes except 0 and 00 were sold out so now i am stuck returning my dress or paying a small fortune to have it altered these are some of the cutest jeans i ve seen in a while i ordered my usual size 28 and they were too big i m 5 9 and about 140 lbs i always were a 28 i reordered the 27 though and they fit perfectly the only disappointment was they make my butt look flat and emphasize my stomach which isn t the case in other jeans i think it s due to the high waist they fit almost like a pair of pants oh well i m keeping them i tucked in a striped sailor tee and they looked adorable superb quality and design i am a 34d and 120lbs i am a size 6 to 8 but mostly 8 due to my hips and top i am pear shaped and 5 6 the dress was a little loose but i just need to get it a little fitted but you can hardly tell i love the floral patterned so intricate it truly looks like a princess dress it is little heavy and at least it s not too tight for dancing i recently bought this dress in an retailer store to attend an art museum event the open back created an awkward bra exposure problem which i solved by buying a gabardia camisole by lacausa the same brand and print as the dress the dress is described as casual but it can be dressed up with gold shoes or sandals \r\nthe retailer saleswoman brought me the dara vegan leather jacket in plum by hei hei to complete the outfit the contrast between the airy dress and the vegan leather was chic and i am obsessed with this dress i wore it on new year s eve i felt stunning in it i can t wait to wear it again as soon as possible \nvery good quality my regular size 6 fit me but i cannot gain not even a pound more i m 5 7 144lb i m between slender and curvy i just received my dress yesterday and it is gorgeous i actually ordered 2 sizes 00p and 0p depending on some cuts i m between those 2 sizes i am 5 1 92 lbs but with holidays eating i have gained 4 pounds so far so the 00p was bit too tight all way from hips to bust area i was able to zip it up but was a bit painful to keep breathing and got some weird wrinkles on the back between waist line and derriã re \nthe dress is a beautiful cocktail of sexy curvy silhouette with the baroque flavor this runs a little big and falls off the shoulders a bit i didn t like it as much as i had hoped i love these jeans i bought my normal size 28 but after just two hours of wearing them they had stretched out so much that i could take them off without un buttoning them i probably could have gone two sizes smaller but i wanted them to fit loose my local store was willing to offer me an exchange kudos to retailer s wonderful customer service and standing by their products i actually wear mine un cuffed with boots and it looks super cute i love the dress enough to go on a diet i sized up but still have reservations about the integrity of the seams if i should sit at any point during its wear i hate skin tight clothing and wear a 0 in everything else the 2 made me feel as if you could see my cervix i own other byron lars dresses that fit in a 0 something happened with this dress for me this top ran true to size i m so glad i ordered it in my normal size because the spandex would have made the top way too clingy for me i am normally a 8 medium on top and 12 bottom i ordered this in a medium and do not find it large at all if you are going for a fitted look sizing down may be best but i didn t want it tight on me it s a little looser than what is shown on the model but it still fits very nice and not sloppy i am not a fan of baggy tops i have no issues with this dress is stunning the combinations of patterns fabrics is beautiful and the cut is very flattering i tend to wear a 6 or 8 depending on brand and the 8 fits perfectly i am 32c on top and more of an apple than a pear shape so the straight lines hide the tummy but shape the hips love love love i can t wait to wear this normally a 28 and on a fluke i dragged the 27 to the fitting room the 27 hung better that the 28 \n\ni have a belly but not much in the hips so this was surprising most things are too tight in the waist \n\ndenim feels very soft they may not last but it s like butter the dress is a great buy especially since it was on sale it fits like his other dresses flattering as i don t have a big bust and have a bit of extra skin from pregnancies but with this dress i feel amazing get a ton of compliments when i wear it this dress stunning for the hourglass figure the hips may be a little narrow i bought the 6p and 4p an d the 4p fit best i read some reviews that said the hips were snug it s true a little difficu lt to sit down haha but the dress is so flattering shoulders are a little loose and i have pre tty broad shoulders and a full chest i m 5 4 32dd waist 27 and 130 lbs size 2p is perfect fo r me 32a 25 waist and 32 hip with a lot of room left for a big dinner the design is excep tionally creative and attractive and the fabric is of very high quality this dress is gorgeous and perfect for holidays unlike other byron lars dresses that have some stretch to them this d ress is fitted and has no give i typically wear a size 4 135lbs 5 8 34c but in chest the 4 was too tight i could zip it but could not breathe lol i sized up to 6 and the fit is true pe rfection runs really big i usually wear small and this was falling off my shoulders very comf ortable and soft material also looks brighter in pic than in person this is a richly detailed top that i bought to go with some nice skirts the length hits right at the waist so it won t ov erlap a special skirt at the waist and create extra bulk it is lined with a flesh colored mesh layer in the white color you can see this layer in the photos but i wasn t sure if it was part of the piece or a camisole the model was wearing however it is still somewhat transparent so you would want to wear it with a flesh colored bra or cami overall i am very happy with this i s a gorgeous dress it comes with a black silky belt but mine was too large which is probably why it is not shown on the model photos i think maybe it only works if you re on the larger siz e for the dress it s very easy to get on and off due to the front zipper i was worried about b ra straps showing on the low cut back but they actually show more at the broad shoulders i m n ot sure if that s more apparent because i went up on the size to have room at the hips there is a cute kick p this is an amazing dress beautiful fabric and color comfortable too it s like w earing air sorta chameleon like because this print literally goes with anything and looks unfo rgettable on it s slimming too i got the large and it flows so nicely over my body the back i s completely open it closes with a tie at the neck and the waist that drapes beautifully and lo oks great from the side view the fabric is a bit sheer so i ordered the white cotton slip by th is designer which is slightly snu i m not the type of woman that wears dresses but oh man th is dress i ve been eyeing it for a while and it finally went on sale then the extra 30 off m ade me cave got it for 115 i bought it one size smaller 8 to encourage me to not over indul ge this xmas and if fit like a glove for reference i m 36 bust 30 waist and normally a size 10 in retailer it accentuates your curves hugs your body while being sexy conservative the intricate embroidery is exquisite and very eye catching measurements 30aa 24 waist 5 4 \n\n i historically wear 00p in jcrew and most retailer brands i purchased a 0p and it fit well with a little room i really hated that the waistline is almost a drop waist the ivory brocade panel comes low on the navel so it makes you look shorter than you really are \n\nthe most impressive part of this dress is the neckline shoulder i have pretty narrow shoulders so it s a quasi boa tneck and it s quite lovely this dress truly is a work of art and i am becoming a little obsess ed with byron lars clothing line this is my 3rd dress by him and i have been a size 2 in the o ther dresses the 2 does fit in this dress but it is a little snug not sure if a 4 would look a s good because it is meant to be form fitting the panels trick the eye into making you look thi nner too my dimensions 32c 26 33 it fits perfectly in the hips and waist but is tight on top when this arrived in the mail i knew there was a 50 50 chance of a sheath dress working with my body type athletic on top larger on bottom i usually wear size 6 in a line dresses and i fo und this dress size 6 in the sale room and barely squeezed in ordered size 10 and love it for ref 5 8 135 lbs 34 b the belt is adjustable which puts everything in place the front collar blends seamlessly into the sleeves and the brocade panels are such a great quality of ma terial reminding m the quality of this sweater is excellent it is well work the money i am 34 d 5 4 and purchased a medium fits perfectly for a fitted look and hits right at my natural wai stline i found this dress on sale recently in store and it was in my size a 2p i tried it on and it fits perfectly for my 34 d and 5ft frame since i found it in store and it is an older dr ess there are some frays in the threading probably from being shipped handled etc i still bought it for the sale price i look forward to wearing it out i love these jeans another winn er in the pilcro line i took a size 29 i normally wear a 30 31 depending on cut i am 5 4 inch es and about 150 lbs curvy with small waist and the 29 fits comfortably and very flattering to m y figure love the button front and the red details i recall having jeans like these about 15 years ago and this cut is so perfect cute and stylish the regular length hit just slighting a bove the center of my foot so wearing with flats will be perfect i am not a high he i tried the se jeans on in my regular size and they seemed way too big but still kinda cute i went one siz e down and suddenly they were the most adorable comfortable jeans that i ve every had and i ha ve a lot of jeans i love them they are very soft with gorgeous fading around the pockets th ey are button fly which is unique i got them on the sale on sale price and they are well worth every bit and more i plan on wearing them with boots although high heal shoes should be beautif ul with t i am in lust with this fabulous dress it s a feast for the eyes it s so busy and det ailed yet it all works fit on me is perfect i did not have to size down or up my upper torso is larger m l than my bottom half m s i also have a square waist this dress makes me look like i have an hourglass figure i love it as much as the mona dress another point goes to ease of putting it on i own six byron lars dresses and this is the easiest one to put on just zip up and go i fell in love with this dress two years after it sold out so i m so lucky to have go tten my greedy little hands on this eye catching retro modern number my mom adores the fit on m e as it reminds her of her youth in the 50 s and 60 s i originally sized down to a 6 not reali zing my bust wide rib cage would make the fit difficult wish i could have found an 8 but settle d for 10p and will have a tailor finish it i m also going to remove the tulle layer since i wan t to wear as more casual frock thin and soft lays nicely form fitting but with enough fabr ic to move around and scrunch up without looking tight the double v makes it shift downward so the cut in front is pretty low i have to keep adjusting it so it doesn t show too much not su re how it ll hold up after a couple washes because the fabric is so lightweight normally i woul d take a size 0 or xs in dresses but after reading the reviews i am glad i took a size larger the 2p worked out very nicely and i am 5 3 102lbs it is a bit stiff when i walk around in it an d losses some of its shape don t get me wrong but i love the dress and am always receiving comp liments on it i love everything about this dress the patterns are gorgeous and the mixture of fabrics and textures are so unique that they make such a beautiful statement i got this in a 0p after reading review and am usually a 00p 0p the dress fit a bit baggy on me but if i can find some way to tighten the belt it would definitely still be wearable i agree with other reviews t hat the top is larger my measurements are 31 24 34 and i felt like the bottom fit comfortably with some room but the waist and i am a shopper i shop a lot this is one of my favorite dres ses of all time so unique and as others have said like a piece of art the fit is tight thro ugh the middle but that s what makes it look so perfect i wore with tall brown suede boots and got compliments from ken and women alike i love it it runs big though definitely order a size smaller the underneath slip is stretchy which is great but the lace outer shell runs big this cute dress was very nice on however my only reservations were the thickness in the arm sleeves the dress has this thick curtain like material on the sleeves that seemed to big and cut way to wide for my skinny arms i thought about bringing this to the tailor but i feel it would be a lo t of work and the bulkiness of the arms would just be the same \n\nother than that the colors an d dress are beautiful this dress i had to try it on of course i fell in love with it it i s so gorgeous in person like a piece of unique artwork you ll never find a dress like this or der at least one size down or the double v neckline will insist on slipping off your shoulders everything else about this top is great this is my new favorite sweater it is a great mid weig ht sweater that hangs beautifully with an interesting bottom hemline im so happy with this pur chase im 5 9 155 and the m is perfect it is my favorite piece in my closet right now it is cute it feels like a pillow i just want to sleep in it but i also want to wear it out so that i can show it off this is a perfect sweater to dress up or dress down very comfortable and sty lish i love the slits on the side works great with skinny jeans or leggings this is a beautif ul quality knit i do wish that it was a tad bit longer i m 5 7 with a long torso and found i t to hit like the model shot since the sweater flares a little at the bottom i think it might be more flattering a little longer keeping this regardless because it will still get plenty of wear love the top this is an attractive black top with a unique back which will match pretty m uch any thing in ones closet yes i would say it runs a size bigger however it does not take awa y from the quality nor design i saw a lady trying this on in the store and fell in love with swe ater picture does not do it justice there is so much detail my usual size is small and it fit perfect well worth price ladies don t let this beauty get away never paid much attention to i t on line but went into local retailer today and it was returned by someone i couldn t get it o n fast enough it is gorgeous runs tts i took the small for reference i am 36c top and petite this will work on any body type you won t be sorry well worth the money for the style and fabr ic i bought this sweater to freshen up my fall wardrobe and just love it adds texture and warm th to every outfit per baily 44 s usual no visible lines hits in all the right places extrem ely flattering washes well all of it fo this price especially you d be fool to pass this litt le number up definitely a curve hugger i bought the summer version of this dress sleeveless w hite with black stripes earlier this year and it was my go to dress all season long was very e xcited to see a fall winter version to pair with tights and boots bought a medium again and it fits great this is a very flattering dress and the material is lightweight yet substantial and forgiving of flaws this top is beautiful however it runs beyond big \r\ni ordered my usual siz e and i could have fit 2 of me in this top \r\ni am reordering and going 2 sizes down \r\nthe ti e back and embroidery is beautiful i liked this sweater s design i like tunics the sweater is a light weight knit the sleeves are long i got the green which is lighter than the picture th e slit on sides go up about 18 inches from the bottom the sweater is comfy but a shirt is need ed under or your love handles will be showing if you have them i also ordered the cream colo r but it was more brownish than white so i returned it i was so excited to see this on sale with an extra 25 off no brainer i bought the cream color which is the most beautiful sand col or just as shown it is super soft and thin a good quality thin knit it s just too long for m e it just doesn t quite look right on me i still have to give it a high rating because it is t ruly exactly as pictured i m 5 9 and it hits just above my knees and the slit runs up to my bel t if i could knock 3inches off this i d have it in every color this sweater tunic is lovely soft just enough structure in the top to not look like a sack pretty color i ordered the ras of those things that i know i won t regret because at some point an occasion will show up that i ll wear it to its soft comfy and flowing and accentuates the body s curves without being too tight or clingy its a classic perfect spring transition piece saffron yellow but medium weig ht and breathable this color is in for spring and the perfect blend for a not too warm cover up i m so sad this doesn t come in a petite length because the dress is extremely long the fabric and design is beautiful although i do wish the fabric was a bit more flowly this sweater is so soft and comfortable looks dressy with skirt and booties or casual with leggings and flats thi eye i got it in yellow it is such a great sweater tts i love retailer sweaters always great quality and design this one is no exception i have the navy blue one and it fits well true to size just what i was looking for soft cozy and warm i love this robe it is my new favorite for lounging around the house i purchased the blue and i love the style and fit of the shirt i worry a bit about the slit showing too much cleavage in certain positions but my friends have a ssured me that it is work appropriate very flattering and i received a lot of compliments when ave dreamed up a lovelier jacket it fits like a glove it s absolutely the softest thing ever and the removable lining is far warmer and plusher than i expected i wore it out tonight on a a clear cold night i felt like i was wearing a hug nice feminine waistline and pockets in all the right places round it all out i look forward to unbuttoning th i knew once i saw this o nline that i would love it because of that i almost feel like my review is biased i have been searching for a jacket like this for awhile i own the holding horses version from a few years b ack but that one is just not fitted enough in the waist for me even though it has a drawstring waist this one too has an interior drawstring waist and it is more fitted in the waist giving the feminine appearance i desire but it s not too tight i am small up top 34b but larger thes e are my first paige cords pants and they seem to run much smaller than the other brands i wear i m normally a 32 in all other brands but with these the waist is pretty tight i do love the le ngth i m 5 9 and they are plenty long i also love the bell flare i m not sure what makes thi s brand so much more expensive as the quality though nice seems comparable to cheaper brands i ordered my usual 0p and this skirt seemed a little long for me the 00p might also have fit if higher on the waist as it hung a little so in that sense if you prefer higher waisted skirts you can size down i am 115 lbs 26 5 27 in waist the cut is nice and does flare out but the one i received was folded and you could see the folds so it didn t do the skirt justice the top layer is almost off white while the under skirt is pink so that is a nice contrast the ap pliquã is pretty at the beginning of summer i first ordered one of these tops in size xl i li ked the colors and the material was such a soft open weave i thought it would be perfect for t g that might stop me from attempting to wash them in the machine against the instructions which say to hand wash only i wish they had been made machine washa i picked these off of the rack at retailer mainly because i loved the navy black and brown combo of the squares i tried on the medium because they looked on the small side even though i usually wear a size 4 or small in pants good thing too these fit really well so they do run small albeit a bit long in the regu lar medium on my 5 3 frame i could have used a petite for length if they had been there but t hey didn t that s ok i don t mind rolling them up it makes a statement i like ye love the su i m glad i saw it in store as the picture online does not do it justice the colors are really r arger size i am i between a 4 and 6 so tried the 4 thinking it would be boxy it is very fitte d with no opening to assist in pulling over shoulders i am hoping the 6 is only slightly bigger the shirt also had a slight musty odor it s a rather thin chambray with 3 4 sleeves the top came to just the top of my jeans which should work for higher waisted skirts or layering i got the size wrong and the right size was ot available so sad i really loved this this is such a cute vest nice and cozy so cute paired with a long sleeve tee statement necklace jeans and recently and this one finally works for me at 5 7 with a long torso awesome quality not ov erly delicate and beautiful detail perfect lace tank i am six feet tall and this top hits me about where it does on the model i ordered xl and feel it is a generous tts it is very figure flattering and not too tight across the bust it has a thin lining so no camisole is needed so beautiful bought these online sale and am really happy with them soft and light material feel breezy like a beach pant should this top arrived by mail this morning it is beautiful ev en prettier than the picture fits true to size and is wonderful quality cannot wait to wear it when i leave on vacation this weekend love it super cute super comfortable watch those bra s traps i ordered this dress and wow this is one really pretty dress my only drawback is that the dress is not fully lined for this price i was expecting a full lined dress the flower deta il and beading is amazing but this one is going back hopefully it will be on sale soon i might reconsider this shirt is really quite cute it can be dressed up or down depending on the occasi on it s also forgiving and quite flattering my only concern is that it is a bit see through in certain lighting but it is very subtle i definitely would recommend i am petite and so ordered this top in a petite size and found that it ran large i am also pretty busty to boot but found there was more than enough room the length was still a bit long for me however it does hit on my where it does on the model the top is wonderful quality thick and not see through at all i am almost tempted to get a regular size and try to wear it as a dress this was a miss for me t he armholes are too low it s lined and heavy way too long just didn t wow me the lace is stu rdy and beautiful though i love this tee while it is true to size i feel it is meant to have a loose fit that being said it is a very flattering cut and has a great drape super comfy fl attering and classic i love this sweater as others have mentioned it s not the softest acryli c in the world but i can overlook that for the simple fact that it s adorable i like the cropp ed fit pairs perfectly with high waisted jeans skirts the embroidery has a sort of handmade fe el to it without looking cheap the slit up only one side makes it unique in my opinion i did e xpect it to be a bit heavier but it s a great layering piece and ideal for transitioning into c older weather i may be biased because of i love the feel and quality of this sweatshirt howeve r because of the embroidery lace detail on the shoulders it makes it a little stiff so the sho ulders look slightly boxy first pair of mother jeans went with my regular 25 as in my citizen s paige ag and it fits well the waist doenst seem as high as it looks in the model i wish it was the fabric is stretchy and soft it looks the same finish color as online a greyish denim i like it nan gorgeous piece although much longer than it appears to be in the photo the pric e however is a bit steep i m not sure that i m going to keep it because i just don t think it looks as expensive as it is i m 5 9 and 150 pounds and got a medium the cut is very flattering on me and i have received many compliments when i wear it it is lined so no need to wear a cam i underneath great colors somewhat odd fit but it works don t love the bell on the tassel so i need to find some way to get that off but otherwise i love it and i am definitely keeping i accidentally found this gem at my store today i adore layering my style and this is a perfect edition it s light but has enough weight to it that it has some movement and doesn t stick to other fabric i wouldn t quite call it gauze since its heavier than your typical gauze it s s uper long i m 5 8 and it definitely went to my knees when worn buttoned up it s clean and cla nder it so cute this dress is a beauty i am 5 11 and plan to wear this as a tunic over leggi ngs or straight leg pants the embroidery is really pretty even though it does run a bit big i would have liked a size 12 or less but it was completely sold out except for a size 14 it is so nice with gorgeous high quality denim that i will make the best of it may need to get some ta iloring but in my mind this dress is so worth it i m only 4 11 and this top comes to the top of my knees i could wear it as a mini dress lol so it is definitely a tunic for us shorter g als now it can be shortened the underlayer can be cut and rehemmed shorter then the over lay lace has to be very gently snipped around the scallop pattern a few rows up i m debating whethe r i should do it or not the bottom is simply a snipped off row from the fabric to create the sc allop lace trim anyway \r\n\r\nas far as sizing it s tailored i didn t f as in previous review s this top can be worn in many ways it could even be used as a pretty bathing suit cover up i small fits me perfectly i loved it so much i purchased the blue as well love love love i w as a bit worried when i took it out of the packaging but once i tried it on all was well it is a cute and comfortable outfit with enough detail to be stylish i love rompers and this one is a great addition to the wardrobe i have this dress in red and black and i m contemplating getting the green one it s amazingly soft and falls beautifully really flattering and i just had a bab y color it is incredibly comfortable and versatile you can dress it up or down love it i ve been eyeing this dress for some time and it finally went on sale so i decided to buy it i bough t a size small and while it fits through the shoulders which is the place i need a little more room the body of the dress needs to be less sack like for lack of a better term i thought it w ould hide flaws but unfortunately it makes me look bigger than i am it kind of bags out even at the back where the fabric is gathered under the yoke that being said i don t really want to return it beca this top has a nice quality feel to it with natural fibers and i love the pom pom s however it does have a roomy fit so you might want to size down as a petite person i have a tendency to get lost in very billowy styles overall comfortable and cute and a nice rich blu e color i purchased this sweater after i saw it on a salesclerk at my local retailer store i a m usually a xs but based on reviews decided to size up considering the description of the fit of arms when it arrived it was overall ok but seemed boxy at sides so i exchanged for my usual siz e it arrived today and fits great less fabric along sides but still good length for my 5 8 sle nder frame the arms and shoulders are not too snug the colors are beautiful and it is out of t he ordinary a statement piece so soft warm and comfy the colors are absolutely beautiful and represented accurately in the photo i went with a small based on other reviews and while it fi ts it is slightly big i probably could have sized down for a more tailored look but i like the extra room and think it still drapes well without looking bulky for reference i m 5 7 115 lbs 33 25 33 and mostly wear an xs 2 in tops it does shed which is not a big deal to me but might be a deal breaker for others so i thought i woul i m a little hesitant about the dropped hem sty le but this drapes so well and looks utterly chic i wore it to a poetry reading with some fluev y a 4 petite i ordered the petite small in navy and it fits just like the model photos i tried it on in the store in a regular small and x small and could have gone with either but the peti plunge bra wi saw this online and thought it would be perfect for my upcoming plane ride origin ally ordered the teal color but when it arrived i was disappointed that it was more of a muddy e hits me in the mid knee in the back hem and barely above my knee on the front hem not mid t high like on the tall model i probably would have preferred a petite size but they were sold ou t anyhow i decided to keep this dress because it is super comfortable but still stylish enough to wear to work the slightly fitted a i love this dress i was apprehensive about it at first because of the light material and boxy style turns out the material is very flattering and it hangs very well the style isn t as boxy as it seems it still flatters the figure without showi ng all your imperfections and it doesn t fit like a tent i am 5 4 and i ordered the petite it s short enough to show off you legs but not too short for being less fitting i like the balan ce of the short length and it looks great with heeled boo this is great without a belt with or without leggings it drapes just right and is flattering for big busted big behind women like me this is one of the best things i ve ever purchased at retailer it s comfortable stylish and flattering i ordered it in black and i m now ordering the green as well i usually wear sm all in the dolan line and this is no exception i am 5 2 135 lbs athletic build and the reg ular small fits perfectly i loved the idea of the placement print around the neckline and shoul ders and even the nape the print transforms an otherwise basic t shirt into an eye catching top it lacked in the length department and there was extra fabric under the sleeves that wasn t fla have both colors and love them they wash nicely and i like the baseball cut at the bottom i especially like the print at the neck line very cute and feminine i purchased this for travel for a work meeting i paired black slim pants under with heels \ni added a long simple necklace y negative i would buy it again in a heartbeat i purchased this top in the white and love the contrast between the stripes and floral pattern around the neckline it fit perfectly however i m concerned that it might shrink because then it would be too short i am 5 3 tall 120 lbs an d small busted it draped really nicely small would give me a little more length but may be too loose i bought this in the grey as shown in the photo as i m not fond of horizontal stripes and i felt the striping would distract from the floral accent of this tee the gray is light and as pictured in the photo \r\n\r\ni bought an xl and the fit is tailored with some loose flow to it it is not boxy or big on me \r\n\r\nthe fabric is a soft soft thin cotton knit and very cool f his these are my saucy fun jeans when the ps brought them over i wasn t sure about them but at 5 3 they make the perfect ankle jean they look great with boots and are so comfy i typically wear a 26 27 but i sized down in these because they re a lower fit on me and i wanted the waist to be tight as the darling fiance says they make your derriere look great i d snag these on sale i have a long torso and wider back thick middle in proportion to my narrow tights i was worried after reading other reviewers comments for reference i m a 2 in pants 26 27 in jeans xs in retailer tops but for floreat and maeve i m always a 6 i ordered a size 6 and it was perfect with my long torso i expected this dress to fit weird but it was perfection in love i wore it with faryl robin lace up sandals i love ag jeans to begin with but even still sometimes certain styles miss the mark at least on my body type i was pleasantly surprised with this pair and even though they are pricey i couldn t pass them up they miraculously stay on my hips and i don t find myself pulling them up every few minutes hallelujah other than that they are stretchy and soft with out losing their shape they hit right at the ankle for me 5 2 the hem is frayed which i m hoping doesn t unravel too much with was i loved the color and style then put them on and didn t take them off they are so comfortable cane believe it they are going to be my fall staple i saw these paired with the denim swing tank in the store and was inspired by the nautical look the fit was a little snug i am between a 4 6 in pants and definitely had to go with the 6 and even that was a little tight for reference i am 5 6 and 125 lbs curvy on bottom the sales lady said they will stretch and there is some give to them but i don t anticipate a lot of stretch they are slim fitting all the way down and are flattering to the rear i think they look better in person than on lovely lovely dress great quality unfortunately runs rather large at the hips i wear a size 2 and the xs fit well in the chest but large at the hips i ordered this dress in the red stripe and i love it it is casual and easy to wear with flat sandals or booties the dress is not really sheer like you might think from the picture and it included a nice knit under slip in a pale peachy pink shade that fits true to size as well the dress has more of a soft woven cotton feel to it the slip is not really necessary but nice that it is included i looked at the blue color but it looks more like a tunic in the pictures i think that the looks are i don t usually go for the tenty cut in a blouse but this one has such pretty detail and with a little cardy looks great love the black and white detail and embroidery this dress has great details and fit well on my hourglass shape it just felt too covered up at the arms shoulders though if the sleeves had been shorter or it had been sleeveless i think it would have felt a little more modern the waistband on the one i tried on was also twisted so you might want to check that before you buy \r\n\r\nfit is tts a little on the short side i love the perfect length of these i am 5 6 and i love subtle capris which are very hard to find unless i tailor them of course but these are the perfect length and the color is great i have worn them twice and was stopped over and over again by people asking who made them new favorite the waist runs a little tight but legs and tush are true to size i love this pant it is so soft and has some stretch in it the first pair i tried in a size 10 and the sales associate suggested trying a size 12 as ithis pant should not fit tight as it is a trouser tie 12 is perfect it reminds me of a retro pant which i love i ordered this in the red stripe material i love it it is so soft and easy to wear i m wearing it as a bathing suit cover a nice pink slip is included i bought this dress to wear to a fall wedding it is absolutely gorgeous the actual fabric is much more detailed in person sizing is accurate the dress is knee length there is a little tulle underneath to give it the a line shape i am a pretty consistent size 2 or 2 6 ordered these in my usual 26 and yikes right out of the package knew they d be way to small they have a lot of stretch in them so i was able to get them buttoned but they were wayyyy too small and looked awful i returned them for a 27 which i am still waiting for i ll update this review when they arrive other than the size issue they were just as pictured expected if you re very small framed and or petite i would size down in this unless you want a really slouchy look and fit \r\n \r\ni have very broad shoulders and very large biceps and typically wear a m l in retailer tops sometimes if a top is a pullover style as opposed to button down i have to size up to a 12 to get the top to accommodate my shoulder width and biceps so i was leery the size 8 italian 44 would fit but it does with room to spare albeit it is not as loose or long in the ar cute jeans but they hit me a little higher on the calf than i would like so sadly i will be returning them nan i really like these they re not too distressed and the frayed ankle looks great not too casual that you couldn t wear them to the office the length is perfect on me i m 5 1 i can wear them with sandals and booties without having to roll them up they do run about one size small i m 5 1 120 lbs a slightly curvey petite and the 27 fit best i saw this on the rack and tried it on because it was just so beautiful the beading and embroidery details are unlike any piece of clothing i ve seen in a ready to wear store it feels and wears much more like a couture piece \ni wasn t planning on making such a big purchase but it s just so beautiful i had to have it i doubt i ll find another item of such quality and craf tsmanship for the price \nruns large i m normally a size 6 135lbs and the size 4 fit perfectl y i love ag for their soft stretchy denim and flattering fit bought these today and couldn t be happier i usually order stevies in the petite ankle size but the regular capri length fit perfectly skimmed my ankle i am a big fan of ag i m sure i have 15 20 pairs i will say that i have rejected some of their offerings in the past because the fabric has been weird denim that is so stretchy it doesn t look like real denim fabric is so thin it shows every lump or bump et c so i m always cautious especially with their stretch twill that aside these particular je ans in this gray color are awesome ag nailed it great color supportive slimming fabric grea t length and rise a job well done ag \r\n\r\nhowe i was hesitant to order this top since i did nt know how well the design would be made on the front i liked it but sometimes items are diff erent when you get them this shirt was as pictured the design is well made and there are no st ray strings and i think it s probably one of the nicer designs available the top iis a dressier fabric but can be worn with jeans as well as dress pants also some shirts with this cut are sk impy in the front and leave more skin exposed than what you see here t i love this sweater def inite classic i get lots of compliments on it i love this dress i bought this top in the wine color i just love it as soon as i wore it i received compliments because it has so many unique details i bought a medium and it was just the right size the fabric is breathtaking both the jewel tone colors and the burnt velvet that would flatter any skin tone as usual eva franco cl othes run small so i went up a size size regular 6 i am 5ft2in 34b 26 waist 36 hips fit we ll the hem is below my knees appropriate for work but i think it would look better as a skirt or a sheath dress the top part looks strange does not enhance any curve and turns the dress to frumpy on short folks like me thus one star off whoa these are very high waisted but i think i like it this is a very 70s style with the high waist and wide legs the brown motif is kinda funky i am a 70s vintage lover though so i was pleasantly surprised the tall length is more t han adequately long for my 6 2 frame i may need to take them up a little bit in fact this sk irt fit but is very body con if you are not comfortable with such a tight fit consider sizing up overall the design is beautiful and the fabric is heavy hides bumps i plan on ordering o i went back the next day caved purchased it s one of my favorite dresses for summer now i l d no shape on me this top does sit weird feels like a circus outfit but at the same time its unique in its own way i ordered a large and it was true to size in shoulders and chest area but larger and wider waist down probably because of the way this top is styled i m 6ft tall 160 lb s i have curvy body and small chest 34a and i felt that top was a little too cropped for my long it this sweater is really pretty and soft in real life but if you purchase the coral color be ready for a little bit of a surprise when you open the package while it looks more orange an d subdued online it s more like a hot pink coral in real life definitely more pink than orange and far more vibrant than pictured still pretty but not necessarily my taste so still deciding if it will go back or not the cut and fit of the sweater is wonderful though it s so soft and airy but definitely love love beautiful soft great color very comfortable i have worn this dress with a jean jacket birkenstocks or a dressier wedged sandal it washes beautifully and is super soft would buy in different colors if there were more options looks better in person i loved this skirt but it was slightly too small i did not realize it pockets which is always a d rawback for me in dresses skirts i have an hour glass frame and the extra fabric from pockets i s too poofy in my opinion beautiful color and high quality fabric i found this skirt ran very small and i had to go up a size from what i usually wear maybe it is meant to be worn really ti e tight side but is a stretchy material i m between a 6 and an 8 and went with the six because i liked the way it hugged my curves as an hourglass shape i sometimes have problems finding pen is one fit great throughout and was both slimming in the front and flattering in the back i wa s also worried that if i tucked anything into this skirt there would be weird i bought this dres s as a pool beach coverup but it is so cute i think i will also wear it other times as well it is very comfortable and lightweight perfect for the hot weather i adore this dress i bought a little over a month ago and have already worn it many times rare for me it is so easy to throw on and yet it s stylish and flattering i don t have the time or energy i used to get dressed up so i love this when i bought it it was knotted on one side in the front that s the only way i wear it now it just adds something to it and gives it more shape i ve washed it several times laid flat to dry and it has held up well i m definitely bookmarking this to buy this dress loo ks simple but man is it unexpectedly sexy and oh so comfortable the deep v neckline and side slits elevate this from a simple tshirt dress to something else add just the right accessories and this dress transforms i have the xs and its just roomy enough without being clingy and did i say how comfortable it is the fabric is perfectly lightweight without being flimsy and color is a cool saturated denim color i receive compliments every time i wear it love love love th i m 5 7 128 lbs broad shoulders and got the 6 my usual 4 fit but was a little snug i would recommend going up in size in this style the 6 looked better because it is supposed to be a box y swingy top loved the color the fabric is soft and comfy ordered in my normal size large bu t quite my style so to achieve more of a silhouette i was lucky enough to stumble upon an xxs p petite in store i normally would never even try something on in this size but it looked pr etty generous so i decided to give it a try so glad that i did it gave more figure and i liked the length a bit shorter with this dress i think you can achieve the lo so cute rompers are h ard because they are so cute but rarely work for all body types this one is so super cute the material is so soft and comfy feels silky i got a small and fits perfect i m 5 4 and 117lbs so it runs very true to size when most clothes from retailer run big i love rompers but only ha ve one other one this is by far my favorite i can t wait until it s much warmer and i can wear hought so i had to try this and i am so pleased i did \n\nthe fit is great and not too tight a llows for a little room for ladies with hips i only wish the zipper went down a little further so shimmying out of it were a little while the white version is a tad more twee this one in bla ck is edgier more sophisticated tts for my 33 chested broad shouldered self in a 4 all the unique details add up to an outstanding versatile piece how it blouses out in back opaque eno ugh to wear without a cami the scallops i may keep both colors super cute but order at least o ne size up this top is large like with free people i got an extra small and washed it right away and put it in the dryer and it is soft and perfect so comfortable and will be a go to top with jeans pj bottoms or leggings i love the pocket and my cell phone fits perfectly i am now orde ring the other color for reference i am 5 5 and 125 pounds i am 5 2 and 125 pounds and wear a 4p i ordered the size 4 with the willingness to hem them my goal was to get this true high w asted style which is extremely flattering when the pants arrived i was first struck by their high quality fabric and the top notch tailoring the fabric is substantial yet it drapes beautif ully the true high waist flatters but the buttons and slant pocket details further whittle the waist i am so happy with my purchase love this top beautiful received a lot of compliments i love the design of this top the pattern is beautiful and the back unique i am a mom of tw rt is a show piece the design is beautiful and the fit is flattering for different body types i got my usual size even though i have a smaller waist and larger hips and thighs the skirt lo oks cute with the split back buttondown by cloth and stone you will not regret buying this piec e hesitated to try it on because it was t shirt dress and my experience has been that fabric is unforgiving for dimples or imperfections i was wrong with this one it s great color is n ice fabric looks textured bc of the dye the neck line is perfect i like a lower v and the le ngth is great bc of the side slits i tried it on with the front panel knotted at the bottom ho w it was on the hanger and i love it had to get can dress up or down but i d say this has m ostly a casual feel i bought this well made cute top today and love it it can be day time casu al or dressy for dinner you will want to probably wear a cami underneath since its see through its perfect for summer im a 36d 5 7 135 pounds and usually wear a medium but the small fit perfectly with room to spare cuter in person great swim top good coverage and very comfortabl e be advised this is not reversible like title suggests saw these in the store and had to have them i wear them rolled up they are lightweight whenever i wear them i want to smile the bir ds with hats are so funny i wear them to run errands have worn them when flying etc can t sa y enough good things about these pants they wash well no ironing needed the blue is a beautif ul color rather unique and it is really soft being cashmere although for the price i do feel it should of been a bit more special i also feel it s loose lower half feels a bit maternity all that being said i do like the overall sweater and am keeping it as the color and feel win b eautiful top and beautiful bright color this does run 2 sizes small in arms and chest unless yo u are very narrow in stature and flat chested i am usually a size 6 and a 36c and broad should ers and size 10 just its in underarm area i have short torso so love the length but those with very long torso may find this blouse too short if you get the right size this topics really ado rable my husband also gave it a big thumbs up nan these are darling love flannel and pattern which is very upbeat wish they were a little more pegged slim tapered at the bottoms love this top tried it on in store so glad i did since it runs large and i had to size down to a medium the color is a beautiful camel and the material is soft very grateful the fabric content did n ot contain dreaded wool lol therefore leaving it soft and comfortable to wear the price tag was a bit much considering it is only a sweater vest but with retailer price equals quality so i don t mind spending the extra i ordered these in a xxs a little nervous about them being too small and i was very pleased with the fit for reference i m 5 2 98lbs these are great for a ll seasons the lining is warm yet adds a pop of color when cuffed the crowns on the birds are pretty nifty i love this top the neckline is so unusual and so flattering i am normally eithe r a small or xs but this fit great in the xs i was also able to wear a regular bra which is al ways nice since i am large chested great top highly recommend bought this tank on a whim bu t i m so happy i did so flattering comfy and well made i tried on te regualr size xs as tha t is all they have in my store and decided to get them anyway even if a little long on me why because htey are so cute rolled up with the yellow color showing \n\nsuper comfortable have not washed htem yet but hipefully they remain a decent wuality this sweater is substantial well m ade fabric is thick and comfortable the length is on the shorter side not cropped but shorter perhaps if they had petite ti would be cropped the sleeves are perfect length too on me it lo oks shorter on the model they hit at mys wrists i do usually need petite length it seems a s imple top but it is quite beautiful in person i strongly recommend it even for the price \r \n\r\nxs and i am 115 lbs 30dd chest 26 5 in waist great top but it runs smaller than other to ps in this brand the chest and arm area is small otherwise this top is great just plan to siz e up one or two sizes length was nice hit right at the waist the material feels nice and i lo ve the flared arms i ve had great luck with items from sunday in brooklyn this vest is anothe r fantastic purchase the color fit match the photos the material is so soft i ve worn it quit e a bit since i received it and it hasn t pilled it s washed well too the braided part can be folded down if you don t want it higher on your neck it will still lay flat drape nicely it s perfect for cold weather i d love to see this come out in other colors too this vest is so f unctional i think it is much prettier in person than in this photo it has a much softer look t o it and is less orange more tan i ve worn it with a lot of different things over a sweater d ress at work with soft pants and a long sleeve t shirt or skinny jeans pants and a simple top wish it came in other colors gray navy or green would all be amazing one of my favorite pie ces this season for sure i do think it runs a little bit large but i think the next size small er i love these overalls but they run very small i had to return and reorder when i saw these de with something that felt better quality i just got this in the green and i d say the color i s deeper darker than shown more of a turquoise green or muted teal color it s the densest th ickest cashmere it s 100 cashmere i ve felt in a while and it s so soft but it just doesn t look good on me i m 5 3 and about 105 lbs and usually wear xspetite i got this in the xs reg ular hoping it would be long enough for leggings and i don t think it is in the back plus it s just too bell shaped and i m slightly pear shaped already it sunday in brooklyn has been killin g it lately with their tops i could not decide between this and another of theirs but i am gla d i chose this one first the design is great very cunning style the sleeve length matches th e length of the top tier which gives this top a very finished look the color is a beautiful je wel like raspberry red with a bluish undertone and the fabric is a nice washable poly i wore my usual size xs at retailer this is a very cute top i am 5 4 170lbs 34dd and a large fit great it fit perfectly in the chest but the top is meant to be baggy at the bottom and long i t covers my bum looks very cute with skinny jeans love it this is a great effortless top y ou can dress it up or down and fits true to size it s forgiving and the straps draw your eye to the most flattering part of the body the fabric is stretchy and and comfortable very cute top and nice material but the fit is strange there s a reason that the model has her arms at her s ide the shoulders fit perfectly in my usual small but the body is very loose the sleeves are full probably twice as full as seen in the pictures which adds interest but was unexpected als o the arm hole is wide so the bottom seam of the sleeve attaches low on the body of the shirt which creates an awkward silhouette i normally love designs by whit but i m not sure about thi s one fit great with moving room colors very vibrant just right for a house with lots of cool air conditioning beautifully made shirt however the sizing is way off the sleeves and across t he chest are really tight while the rest of the shirt fits fine if you get a size larger then t he shirt in the body is to large would recommend if you have really tiny shoulders arms and ch est such a shame since i really love the shirt this is a beautiful top but the fit is odd it s roomy and flowy in the bust and waist but the arms are disproportionately tight i wear a size 8 in all hd in paris tops but this one didn t fit anything like the others i wouldn t even know what size to recommend because it s almost too big in the body while being too tight in the arm s the lace and mock neck is beautiful though so i m hoping to find someway to wear it comfortab ly otherwise it will be going back i have several lilka pj bottoms and i m glad to add these ones with the adorable bird print to my collection tts soft flannel striking colors only wis h they had pockets this dress is as stunning in person as it is in these pictures i m petite and so it s longer on me than it is on the model i got a 4p and the waist was perfect i though t it might look matronly as it was longer but it looks classic i feel like i could dress it do wn just a bit with flats and a cardi or wear it to an event with heals and a wrap it s so comf ortable and forgiving in the waist and belly area which is icing on the cake i had absolutely no reason to buy it but once i tried it this pjs are adorable they run tts and are extremely comfortable the fabric is great the design is fun i thought the dress would be perfect for wo rk and also wear for a fun night out the fit was perfect up top but the bottom part was to full and a lot longer then i expected so i had to return it pretty pyjama pants that can be worn ru nning errands dropping off kids this dress is a winner the material is not stiff like many ne oprene dresses it is soft and silky and has amazing drape the dress is very flattering the m aterial is very stretchy even through the waist so it is and easy perfect fit on different bo dy types i loved the shorter versions of the dress but they weren t workable for me but this length is perfect and there are pockets that are sewn in with perfect detailing they don t st ick out or disturb the line of the dress i have no idea why this has bad reviews how is there any left this is a beautiful piece that i had to have in both the navy and green i love that it comes with a cami it 39 s very flattering and not too wide or boxy the lace detail is amaz ing i bought my usual size and it fits perfect love this top this top in the remaining blue green is not the top pictured it s like the photos posted in a recent review by inwonderland the color is deep and beautiful the neck is high the lace is floral there s a seam under the bust with a center pleat falling from it there s no reason for hesitancy at the sale price th is top is beautiful at the present price grab it the fit was tts for me a bit loose if any thing the blue green color which is not pictured is shown in my uploaded photos nan this dr ess fits really cute i actually think it s cuter in person than on the site really flattering the skirt hits a few inches longer on me than it does on the model so it s appropriate for work and networking functions i m 5 3 110lbs i got the 0 and it s great vibrant colors and birds what s not to love these lounge pants are so cute soft and comfortable they do run a little large when i was finally able to find my size available online i didn t hesitate i am 5 4 1 23lbs 34d and size 27 jeans i originally ordered a small wow was i surprised it was too sma ll and cropped i returned and ordered a medium received today and i have to say i was supe r happy it fit perfect in fact it fit much like how the model s fit in the photographs this i s very practical it goes with many things and is very comfortable it can be worn with differ ent leggings or with jeans and it is well made thanks retailer yes it runs very large i usu ally wear a m and ordered the xs s i like the oversize fit and i think this poncho is unique c hic and modern definitely worth the price especially on sale very nice quality fabric just b ought this top in an xs and i can amp 39 t wait to wear it i amp 39 m 5 amp 39 3 and 115 po unds i usually stick with the petitie tops but the regular one fit me perfectly you might need to wear a cami as it is a little see through a great addition to my wardrobe this is the kind of weather i want to wrap myself up with a cozy and soft blanket but i can t really walking aro und with a giant bulky blanket this cardigan is as good as i can get it s so soft comfy and w ell made nowadays most of the knitwear are made of dominantly polyester this one is mostly nat ural material with has a much better feel than the man made kind \r\ni like how this garment is not too bulky and not too tight warm enough for the breeze but not too thick love it i saw th is online and couldn t wait to get my hands on it my only problem was choosing a color i got t he black one it is a bit hairy but soft and smooth as well it feels very high quality it has two nicely placed buttons if you d like it kept in place but it s just as nice loosely draped it will work well dressed up or down it runs large but clearly intended to this dress has a b eautiful shape it was a onesie in a store only one they had and i m glad i tried it on usual ly i m a 6 or 4 this is an 8 and it s a perfect fit definitely size up at least one dress siz e the knit shoulders are beautiful and the belt is slimming i love the writing on it it s a c lassic dress and it makes me feel beautiful and unique i had been looking for an off the should er top or open shoulder as the trend is really in right now but that proves more difficult fo r me muscular traps and shoulders not always flattering anyway i decided to order this i saw it paired with a wide leg jeans tucked in that is how i like it tucked in it is o therwise a little boxy on me wide shoulders means the whole thing shifts out the fabric si a t iny bit wrinkle prone but not too badly both colors are nice but thought this is a great up t o date twist on a must have staple a black or grey cardigan easy flowing and flattering sty le and warm enough for fall weather i absolutely loved this dress the style is flattering and the mix of fabrics and lace make it truly feminine and unique the only problem is the bust runs really small i normally wear a 4 6 in retailer but i ordered a 6 and and 8 and both were way to tight in the bust very disappointed because i really wanted to keep this dress i tried this on in the store and almost considered buying it until i looked at the price tag i think it s uniqu e and interesting i just don t think it s worth the the fabric is nothing special and the construction is not complicated enough to warrant the cost i would consider it on sale retaile r has more interesting sweaters made with softer blends for a similar price all things conside red i don t think it s a smart purchase i am very glad i purchased these shorts on sale bought the coral color in a large 5 7 140lbs with a generous underside and long legs i usually wear a m or a l in yoga pants the l here fits really nicely not too tight and enough length in the inseam so that i don t feel silly practicing outdoors in the park the rise is also perfect won derful sweater and fashionable for autumn the only thing i do not like about the sweater is tha t it sheds very bad bring a lint roller with you when you wear the sweater i like wearing legg ings with this sweater with its blanket like proportions so soft and comfy have only experienc ed minor shedding nothing problematic oh just wow this jacket is simply wonderful ordered my regular size large and it s a bit oversized due to the swing cut and absolutely adorable on lov e everything about it except the length which is very cropped it s lightweight yet warm and ver y cuddly the snap closure is wonderful then there s the leather trim which just takes it up a notch plenty of room for a sweater and it s lined although it s so cropped i think the length will be attractive worn over anything that s longer nan i was very excited to receive this dres s online only so had to have shipped the colors are classic primary as shown the outer fabri c is heavy and canvas like but the lining is white nylon ish the length was good the dress is nicely lined but sadly runs very small in the bust i am a size 8 and a 34b and this dress was t oo small for me i rarely have this issue sadly it s going back i should have waited to read reviews and sized up fyi the belt has a look that appears worn similar to p such a beautiful dr ess with my favorite print it does run a size small if you ask me the size 10 i got fits more like an 8 the corduroy belt really sets the waist off i love this top because it can be worn o n or off the shoulders and looks equally as cute either way i bought the red color and it is su per cheerful and perfect for summer looks great with faded jeans i love the poplin fabric alt hough the stitching quality is shabby and i expect this won t hold up long enough to wear again next summer for the price i feel like it should be crafted a little bit better i am narrow sho ulder d and bra size 36 b or c and while a medium might have fit me better o love the look beau tiful color great length but with many of retailer s lace skirts dresses and shirts the zipp er did not eat to cooperate the pictures do not do this dress justice this dress is gorgeous the color is beautiful and it is so flattering on even better this dress is machine washable simply hang it up to dry and it looks like it is fresh from the cleaners i love this dress so m uch i don t even mind that i purchased it at full price and now it is on sale buy this dress f or a special occasion it is so special this dress is beautifully made and has a lovely shee n to it it s elegant and can be worn on different occasions it s a very feminine dress i orde red the dress in a few sizes and a size 2 fit me the best as i have a small bust line mes demos illes style incorporates lots of material this cotton layered voluminous dress is an eye catch er but not for all figures i like this bohemian style because it is different and can be worn w ith a belt to show off more of your figure or loose fitting \r\ni ordered a 36 size which fitte d perfectly around the bust but i have broad shoulders and there is no zipper i had to purchase the 38 size so i could remove the dress over my shoulders without too much trouble so soft and pretty but the fit is off on me i m an xs 0 and the seam on this hits right across my bust wi th the 3 4 length sleeves it makes the whole thing look like it shrunk in the wash on my pre te en daughter however it looks perfect so i guess i d say size up if you have boobs love this sw eater comfy and trendy can t wait to wear with my new retailer knit leggings whimsical and el egant fits a bit snug in rib cage but that works well for me i m a 32c this dress is absolut ely gorgeous the top portion fit a little smaller than the typical size i order the zip side w as a little snug but the fit is very flattering the lace detail and belted design are very pre tty the skirt portion has more volume than i tend to like but it is it beautiful i saw this o nline wondered abt the sleeve length on me i was thinking about ordering the petite size sinc e i m only 5 3 sometimes cardigans have longer sleeves than i want it was at the local store so i tried on the regular xs in the grey the fit sleeve length was fine what i didn t care f or was a slight itchiness wool fiber some mild shedding alpaca fiber i decided against it but it is nice looking 5 3 117 i ordered this in an xl and when i pulled it out of the bag it seemed huge i wear both l and xl depending on the sizing when i tried it it did look lik e the photo it s meant to be a little voluminous the arms were a little snug so sizing down was out of the question it looks great tucked in to a pair of flair jeans i gave the asthetic four stars because of the design which is just a teeny bit off the lace is delicate too btw so care will be needed not to snag it this tunic is flattering and high quality just be sure y ou size down this top is cute i got the mint coloured one and like it with that said the sew ing however is a bit off the bottom of the top is angled there is no mention of that in the de scription so it is safe to say it is not part of the design it is not tremendously noticeable but i noticed it i will still keep this top coz i can camouflage that defect with a cardigan it is sheer so if you are wearing it for work without cover a camisole would be required or a nude bra i am 5 0 109lbs and great top high quality could use some stretch recommend it this is a great top except i wish it was a bit longer or i wish it came with a short tank i t hits right at my pants which wouldn t be terrible although not ideal except my tank that i n eed to wear under it is long and so i either need to tuck it in or it will hang past the shirt neither is what i was hoping for still like it so debating whether to take it back i think at full price i will return and consider it again it it makes it to sale this top is lovely but al so a little bit itchy the detail around the neck is beautiful but it s very annoying i can t d ecide if i will keep it or not this is too much fabric for me 115 lbs 30dd 26 5 in waist sh ort even in the smallest size but i saw another costumer try it on and it was sooo lovely th e fabric has a shimmery thread very pretty the cut was super flattering on her curvier body i t was gorgeous she tried it on with boots and also put on a long vest over it every way was be autiful jsut not on me sadly so i say give it a try may work for you this dress is as comfo rtable as it is adorable i am 6 2 and usually wear 12 14 but the 10 fit me love love love t his dress i wanted to love this top but similar to many of retailer s styles especially this season this top is very large and tent like normally i like a larger top but i was not expec ting the length of this top it might be cute belted if that is your style but still much more like of a tunic than a top could also make a nice maternity top i am 5 7 and ordered a mediu m and this top hit me much lower than pictured on the model the fabric and pattern as well as the neckline are very nice super cute on i love the print and the tie detail and the fact that the tie actually tightened which makes the waste adjustable the slip is a tad tight but it doesn t bother me its stretchy so it s not uncomfortable i bought size xs i usually wear a 2 in dresses i usually buy petite because of the length but this fell about 2 above the knee on me which is perfect for work so i didn t need the petite i am 5 3 125 lbs i loved the soft fabric fine for year round in southern cal this dress is lovely and easy to wear if you are sho rt and you buy regular size not petite i am 5 1 and i bought the regular medium so the length of the front falls just above my knees i can wear it to work without leggings the other thing i love is it has pockets and it fits generously i weigh 140 lbs and will usually fit in a med ium if i don t breathe and a large if i use a belt but in this size medium regular i can breathe and i need a belt ergo i don t feel like i need to lovely jumpsuit can be dressed u p or down i agree with the other reviewers that in my normal medium the torso length is a bit short making the garment pull i sized up to a large and with room in the hips and the correct torso length the jumpsuit works the bust is cut for a smaller gal for reference i am 5 7 3 6a 155lb beautiful lace shell great with jeans for a night out or with a skirt for a more fo rmal affair good quality not itchy no complaints about this top i like that it s very soft a nd the length is good as a tunic would recommend definitely size down it does run large howeve r it is a sweet floral print made of rayon so i would dry clean as rayon shrinks i love tunic lengths and this one is a bit longer than most tunics but for me still works there are 2 small pleats on the front and the ruffles on the neckline are a nice touch it is made well i have a long black sweater that will make this work right into the fall and winter i fell in love with this top online i am obsessed with the little flounce detail on the sleeve and the slight a lin e shape of the body i was able to try it on in store and was glad i did because i ended up sizi ng up to a small from my usually x small i still put true to size because i think the forgivi ng cut allows the top to work in multiple sizes i even tried on a medium and it still looked li ke it fit the arms are a bit tight as the other reviewer mentioned so keep in mind when choosi really cute top love the ruffle detailing and the pattern quality could be slightly better sin ce i slightly expected the material to be softer either way i m happy with the top got my usu al xs and it fit perfectly it s meant to be a looser top so i don t mind that it runs a little bigger i absolutely loved the look of this top and had to try it on so i ordered it in xs and s because i own a few other tylho shirts and know they can run large when they arrived i could tell with just one look how huge this top runs i didn t even bother opening the s for referenc e i m 5 4 and 135lb 32c and the xs is slightly too big through my bust it s barely snug und erneath my arms and not at all fitted down the sides of my ribcage but i m okay with that since it allows more room to wea i bought this dress with my birthday coupon i love the design of the fabric and i think the length is great it s a lightweight dress which makes it a nice for mor e seasons sandals in the summer light sweater in the spring fall and tights slip and heavy sweater in the winter the underarms wrinkled a lot the first time i wore it which makes sense because i was wearing a sweater the rest of the dress did not wrinkle at all very satisfied l ove the design of this denim dress so unique i did buy a size larger than i would have normall y looked at based on reviews if on the fence go up but do get this one it has no stretch so a size 8 waist measures 15 flat with 17 under the arms not really for big busted girls i am 5 8 and the length is right at lower knee worth the sale price for sure this dress is fun an d flattering love the pieced denim look and the a line style unlike other reviewers i found t his dress to be true to size for my pear shaped figure the length is long enough to wear anywhe re and i think it would be flattering on a variety of ages and figures i was very patient with this dress i was waiting almost forever till this dress gets on sale when i tried my usual 6 s ize it was way too tight but i could zip it i am 5 6 145 lbs the dress covers my knees an d it s a perfect length so when i sit it does not show too much of my length so it s a work fri endly it has side pockets which can be very comfortable as well the cut is great it s a line the thickness of material makes belly look great in case if you care i also like color a nan i ordered this on a whim as i though hey i don t have off the shoulder tops let s try ti look s cute \r\ni ordered the nude after debating but glad i did it is a bit warmer in color and i need warm colors to complement my pale skin teh nude almost has a slight pink hue to it mayb e i am seeing things it is soft not sure there is wool i am not that sensitive to wool felt soft to me \r\n\r\nsize i ordered the xxs as i think lately retailer has been making things ba ggier and on a shorter pe this is a great skirt and i have received so many compliments wearing it it s soft as butter and adorable with the ruffle on the bottom i do find it runs small i u sually wear a 27 in jeans or a small in various tops and bottoms and occasionally find i can fi t in a 26 or xs but i purchased a medium in this skirt this is a very versatile piece so far i have worn it to work i m 5 6 and it s not inappropriately short at all with tights heels and a jacket but i m excited to style it for purchased this in two sizes because other reviews said it runs small i found that it was true to size for me cant wait until it is warm enough t o wear it i love this dress because it is different and unique i agree with others that the to rso runs tight i got lucky and it still fits snuggly i think that s the look the upper part sh ould get with the bottom more a line and flowy \r\nit s super cute though the material is trul y jeans material therefore quite heavy and think maybe not a dress for summer more spring or fall with a little sweater love the perfect go to black legging i bought two pair comfy wais t band not too tight no muffin top you won t be disappointed buy them i ve been looking for an off the should sweater like this for over a year looks great on and doesn t itch can t wait for fall so i can wear it nan the lace on this is gorgeous it s feminine and elegant and fancy definitely know if peplum style tops work for you before purchasing if you have a large waist it will just make you look bigger but the top portion is nice and fitted so i think it s very flattering i m 34c 140b and got the small fits great based on the reviews of others i order ed this dress a size larger than i usually wear and it fits perfect i am an 8 so i got this in a 10 this is the perfect casual dress for pretty much anytime of the year can be worn with san dals in the spring and summer or boots in the winter love this dress very comfortable and sty lish wanted my size but they only had a size larger available still bought it but feel good in it glad i purchased it after reading all reviews i didn t know what to expect but i reall y loved the design so i ordered it any way how positively surprised i was this dress has a str or better understanding of the fit i am 5 7 144 lb and 34c i m between s and m in tops beca use of my wide shoulders but size 8 in this dre the weight of this denim is perfect thin enoug h for a nice drape and wearability for all seasons but still thick enough to be structured thou gh there is absolutely no stretch which is probably why so many are finding it to run small i am a true size 6 but find that most retailer brands run quite large therefore i usually wear a 4 and that s what i purchased in this dress the bodice is a bit snug but not enough to size up for me personally i know it s mostly a spring summer dress this top is comfort wear or somet hing i would wear to feel comfortable and cozy on the weekends but not something i would wear to work because of that it is not an item i would traditionally purchase at retailer that said i t is one of the best comfort clothing pieces i have found in a long time and i fell in love with it i like the color which is good for transitioning into spring time it is a thicker material which is great for transitional weather but also makes me more comfortable this gorgeous dress a rrived today the color is beautiful but the sizing way off i cannot move my arms it is ex tremely snug across the shoulders but the rest of the dress is loose as shown in the picture if i went up a size to fit my shoulders i d be swimming in this dress so all you gals out the re with anthletic tendencies beware of this dress it is for women without shoulders with tiny arms too bad this is otherwise gorgeous would look great worn over a sexy slip with the bo t his color is perfect deep and rich it is exactly as it looks on line the velvet is super soft on the outside while the inside is more of a woven finish it makes it a little less cozy but the drape is great the fit is slim across the shoulders and chest and full everywhere else th e waist is lower in the back than the front so it sits lower on the hip i m 5 4 140 34b and i got a small petite because i liked where it hit my waist better this means i won t be wearin g it without tigh i was looking for a velvet dress for the holidays this one was beutiful in co lor and teksture \nthe only problem was that it was snug in the shoulders going a size up would have made it too roomy elswhere it s just not for me and i really like it it s made very well and it looks great from the front not so much from the side i m a 36c and this shirt bells out a lot from my chest so much that i will be returning it i look like i have an extra 20 lbs o n me i was very excited to try out this dress i ve been looking for a velvet dress for a coupl e of years now and i m not digging this one the fabric itself was a let down right off the b at it s cheap looking to me i ve seen nice velvet and this is very shiny thin and slightly s heer the dress cut itself is what i was expecting a loose baby doll type dress the length hit above my knees the overall effect made me feel very gypsy ish my husband gave a firm no wh en he saw me walk out of this is the 4th pair of current elliot jeans i ve bought i m 5 4 so t he length is perfect for flats they are so soft and cozy wish they had a design on the pocket s but love them none the less fit length and design were perfect i took this skirt on a recen t business trip and it transitioned perfectly from meetings to cocktail with an accessory change this is a beautiful sweater the color is not bright red rather a dark coral nonetheless it is much better looking in person than in the web photo i only have one complaint which may be reas on enough for me to return an otherwise perfect sweater i wore this for approximately three hou rs today and could not believe the pilling under the arms and side of chest area some pilling i s normal and expected on any sweater but if this continues at the rate it appears to be going i will contact retailer i really liked these leggings so comfy they are so soft and the waistban d is thick about an inch wide i am a size 10 in pants i got a size m i have a 33 inch inseam and these came down to my ankles these leggings have textured stripes at the calf and hip this skirt is gorgeous the picture doesn t do it justice it has beautiful sparkle and glitter in th e material i received tons of compliments on it the biggest downside is the material it seems to snag and pull so easily in a short 2 hours of wearing it the material was already pulled in two different places i will keep the skirt because it is so pretty but have to not get upset wh en the material gets worse over time this skirt is shimmery without being too much rich colors and perfect fit tts nice elastic middle so comfortable and gorgeous online photos do not do thi s skirt any justice i agree with a previous poster i normally never buy anything brown but the re are pops of teal and magenta throughout you can t see the gorgeous shimmer and the interesti ng layered colors online in addition this skirt has a stretch waistband plus for the holidays and is so flattering not too tight but shows just enough of your curves physique i like that the skirt is longer as well will look cute with boots i purchased the size medium love love l ove this pair of underwear yes i m writing this about underwear they re comfortable flatter ing and no vpl visible panty line without having to wear a thong this is an absolutely fabul ous skirt i cant wait to wear it the biggest challenge is finding the best way to accessorize it i am an artist and have lots of clothing but haven t created that ab fab combo yet i will nan when i got this skirt i figured it was a muted sweater skirt what i got was a much fancier sparkly sweater skirt the blue is more of a bright sparkly teal and gold thread is woven throug hout oh my it s spectacular really beautiful i ve been searching for a velvet top or dress fo r awhile this arrived yesterday and it s absolutely beautiful the color is rich and the fabric is thick and feels and looks like a very expensive high quality item i got it with the 25 off promo but it s worth every penny of the full price can t wait to wear for the holidays get thi s dress i love this dress i saw it on the way out of the store and was struck by the gorgeous color and rich velvet fabric and had to touch it and then try it on i did not find it to be tig ht in the shoulders at all nor do i think it looks cheap on the contrary the shape is indeed boxy but it is still very flattering and comfortable i wore it to a christmas brunch and got a ton of compliments the only drawback for me is that it has to be dry cleaned for reference i am 5 6 1 2 and usually wear i love this shirt red navy is one of my fave color combos and t he vintage feel is fantastic the fabric is a little thicker and more sweater like than i was ex pecting but it s a good thing the top isn t heavy but the knit gives it more texture intere st \nthis is the perfect thing to throw on for a casual sexy look covered but form fitting an d flattering got this dress in the mail today and will have to say that it is not the most fig ure flattering dress i own my 5 5 athletic frame looks pretty boxy in this that being said t he fabric is a soft shiny blue green the garment swings nicely and has a slightly lower hem in the back on me anyway and i think that s fun who needs close fitting clothes during the holi days i m keeping it i plan to wear it with hot pink tights and boots either this rouching is going to accentuate your waist or it s going to accentuate the fact that you just had a baby and ate too much linguini unfortunately i have 10 more pounds to go and sadly this dress pointed th at out \r\n\r\nthat said i had to give it five stars all around because it s good quality desi gn etc it ll be great but not for me \r\n\r\ngot a medium and it fit nicely with the except ion of pointing out that i still have baby belly to lose 5 3 34d 150 pounds hope this was hel these jeans are extremely soft to the rich as well as stretchy and flattering they do not lose their shape after a whole day of wear i am 5 3 and the ankle length fits me as full lengt h i am a big fan i was not a fan of these leggings these were very unflattering i could see that after wearing these all day they could start stretch out i just didn t feel like they woul d hold up for even one season i tried this on in the store yesterday and i wanted to buy it ver y much the jacket would work well for many sleveless tops or dresses all summer and would work in an office but on me the unusual cut of the arms emphasized the worst part of my arms sagg y or fat area in a comical manner if they tried to design a garmet to make arms look bad the couldnt have done it better further the extra material against the body added bulk at my narro west point i am hourglass again not flattering i am very pleased with the quality and fit of this dress the reader outfits next to the listing were darling i do not care for the model shot i think the dress is true to size and well constructed oh look i have a booty and would look at that i have a waist too yes this dress is way casual for its price point soft stretch jersey in a heathered wine color but it s all forgiven because it fits me like a glove i really love the gathered waist detail and what it visually does to my non hourglass body wish there were mo re colors available i would pick them up in a heartbeat i purchased the medium petite my st ats for fit reference 5 3 tall 140 36dd 28 waist 35 hips wide this skirt is a real d ress up piece it is simply stunning and indeed appears to have been designed by an artist the aqua blue lining adds a definite pop of color while the shimmering knit outer layer is simply lo vely i plan to wear it out to dinner with friends this weekend and know that i will receive lot s of compliments i ve never owned sweater leggings before so these were my first i had to order large because well i have some junk in the trunk am 10 12 on bottom and 8 on top these are a teeny bit scratchy but i m hoping with a wash they ll soften up but they re really loose too so i m also hoping they ll shrink a teensy bit this skirt is a dream so so beautiful looks way c ute with brown boots give this a go don t listen to any negative review this skirt is perfect ion these leggings are super comfy i took the advice of other reviewers and ordered a size dow n and the leggings fit wonderfully lately i ve been having a problem with leggings falling down at the waist and these stay up nicely so i was very pleased the leggings have a slight itch bec ause of the sweater feel but they are very warm and i enjoy wearing them i don t know how this dress looks on your monitor on mine it looks dark green which it is i was pleased with this aspect since i had hoped it would be as pictured despite the color description as slate that aside it was a bit too large on me and since i am on the shorter side at 5 4 i looked a bit like a child s doll in it i wish it had looked better on me because the color is beautiful and so is the quality beautiful sweater i love the color and the fit the cowl neck isn t too tig ht and the sweater hangs away from the body without being boxy it comes down to the low hip on me very soft and cozy i purchased the aqua in xs fits perfectly and i m 5 5 127lbs i thoug ht these were pretty on the website but in person they look like a work of art the colors are vivid bright reds pinks greens blues yellow with flora fauna houses writing type a nd so many other things on a white and cream background they are very soft medium weight flann el for me they run true to size i wish they had pockets though i ve been looking for exactly this i really love it it is heavy but made extremely well and on sale a great price i ve tri ed or bought nearly every retailer cashmere sweater this season this one fits the best and the yellow is a bit darker in person not quite mustard but a deep rich yellow i wish they would of fer more colors love these lounge pants i live in florida and was worried they might be too he avy not the case at all very soft and lightweight so comfortable caught a sale in oct and purchased the gray beautiful light gray i am normally a med or lg and the small in this sweate r was perfect i am larger in the bust so it is not boxy on me added a delicate pin to the shou lder and it was darling for our casual christmas dinner beautiful color great style design on ly drawback is it s not as soft as other cashmere i ve purchased got the xs and the fit is per fect looking for a stylish rain resistant coat to wear to ireland this fall and looks like this could fit the bill the 30inch length is perfect the faux fur lined collar and opening edges is a lovely touch fur ends about 6 inches in so not fully lined but great for weather in 50 s low 60 s with a sweater added ample room for that i love the look wish the pockets were just a b it bigger i can barely fit my hand in but overall i think it s a keeper \r\ni ordered m l and am usually a medium or la i bought this in aqua the color is beautiful the quality of the cash mere is great i have worn this 3 times since purchasing this can be dressed up or down the co wl neck is not overwhelming and looks great with a shorter chunky necklace or even a scarf flat tering hem line very versatile shirt fits great i wore it for work and got lots of complement s looks very elegant i also got the pants featured on the model since i liked the outfit so mu ch beautiful piece very well made and drapes well i love it runs a little big i d go a size smaller very cute in person too soft to the touch and comfy as a person on the shorte r side the roll up cuffs sold me on these pants can t wait for it to get cool enough to wear th em i love camisoles like this and retailer always has great ones it has a nice length so the lace detail can show underneath a jacket or shorter cardigan it s fitted but not tight this i s a beautiful sweater high quality cashmere was used as it is very soft as other reviewers sta ted the sweater does run large so i purchased one size down and ordered an xxs for a perfect fit i went with yellow which is a great color this is not high low which i love i am so thr illed that just as soon as i m finished writing this review i m going to purchase another swea ter in red i bought this blouse in a size 4 my normal size to pair with winter white slacks a nd gun metal pumps it was a hit i felt beautiful and professional and received many complimen ts at work as well as at an after work gathering the quality is surprisingly sturdy given the la ce work the collar and cuffs really set the design off this top is much more impressive in per son bought the aqua because sizes were sold out the bright color will be a welcome change this winter among all my neutrals it s lovely soft well fitting and i only hope we have a few day s in the south so i can wear it well worth the price would be a lovely wardrobe addition for a ny age changed by what it s worn with shoes accessories this shirt is beautiful and well ma de the lace is soft not scratchy at all looks great with a cream or gray cami underneath lo ve love these flannel sleep pants i bought a pair 3 years ago and have been on the look out fo r the style again these are truly the most comfortable pajama pants i have ever owned i recent ly ordered this and am so glad i did i absolutely love it my hips and butt are not tiny so i was very nervous that this would be a giant pouf on my lower half but it lays perfectly flat an d has a very gentle a line contrary to other comments i am 5 4 and 130 but the xs fits perfe ctly and keeps me looking trim the waist sits just barely below my natural waist very happy wi th this purchase would buy more if there were additional colors who doesn t love an elastic w aisted skirt bought this dress in store after trying it on loved it it s sexy with the lower c ut front the fabric is flowy and breathable runs true to size usually wear a 10 with my hips but the 8 fit better on top the sides are well designed so your bra doesn t show i m 5 6 32g size 29 30 jeans and athletic hourglass built i can t wait to wear it out the pictures don t d o it justice i really like these shorts i m quite petite and have a hard time finding shorts t o fit other than high end denim brands these are great b c of the sizing i wear a 24 in most d enim and the 24 in these fit perfectly also love the length not too short or long going to or der a second color i have the plum and love it ordered this is the navy in a size m i m 5 5 135 lbs 34d it was huge it is also very billowy but i m going to try it in a petite s i also changed colors to the ivory as the navy was really plain hoping this size change works i couldn t wait to try on these shorts after reading all the positive reviews about them my loc al retailer had them in the bright blue and coral in my size 26 and 25 i purchased the 26 and a m content with them they are a very lightweight cool pair of shorts they do have a little stre tch to them and the length is perfect i have to note they do wrinkle a bit but perfect summer staple this top is wonderfully comfortable and well made i ve taken a few accidental naps wh ile wearing it because i was just so comfortable at the same time i receive complements on the shirt every time i wear it itt pairs well with so many types of pants the only negative is tha t i only own one the cream color i regret greatly that i did not purchase it in all available colors when i had the chance i really hope to see this top come back again later the color was very different and vibrant chose to size up for extra room and length this runs very short i h ad to size up so i could wear as a dress still too short to wear to work with a cardi but adora ble to wear to daytime summer events and date nights with hubby i am 5 6 length may work bett er for shorter women love the style and fabric very feminine float and easy to wear with sand als on a hot summer day i purchased this in the light red and love it this top is so incred ibly soft and ridiculously comfortable definitely worth buying the material is high quality and can easily shift from season to season wear alone with shorts and wedges for summer or put it over a long sleeve top or even a holding horses jean shirt with a pair of black leggings an d boots for fall \r\nabsolutely love the softness and the consistency of the fabric these sho rts are very flattering will def purchase another pair this tunic is a great length i m 5 4 and it hits me mid lower thigh it s so soft and flowy which i love i got a medium which is my normal size so i would say it runs a little big given that i m almost 5 months pregnant with my second but it will still look and feel great post baby arm holes are big but a cami can fix tha t i got both colors available the ivory and light red i love this nice and lightweight s uper stylish this skirt is adorable i like it because its different and i like this length the cactus look gray in the picture but they are green i love this tunic i m 5 5 and can wear it as a dress with bike shorts or leggings it is so soft and comfortable and i love the pink c olor very versatile my favorite thing about this piece i am a 36dd and haven t bought a butto n down shirt in years until this tunic which fits over my chest and is so flattering many revi ewers are saying that this tunic runs large i agree but for those of us who are busty it s an opportunity to wear a cute breezy style with buttons and a collar these shorts are comfortable and are just the right length i have the blue and it isn t as bright as shown in the pictures but it s a great color nonetheless that coordinates well with many wardrobe items when i tried on my usual 25 i found the waist fit a bit snug so i bought the 26 for a comfortable fit i sho uld ve stayed with my usual size though because after wearing for an entire day the shorts loo sened up quite a bit and developed a saggy look to them i m so disappointed with this this dres s is so beautiful in person i actually am currently wearing it with jeans and i get so many com pliments on it this picture on the website does not really do it justice very flowy beautiful top dress this is another i ve been looking for me a funnel neck sweatshirt to feign athlet icism with i love it the material is incredibly soft and warm the fit is a little snug around a larger bust and the lines would probably be more flattering on a more well modelesque frame but i m thoroughly attached size up if you re looking for movement i ordered it online so i wasn t sure how thick the sweater coat would be and when i received it i was pleasantly sur prised at the thickness and high quality definitely worth the price i agree with the other rev iews perfect color and weight to the dress should wear well in summer and fall i m 5 5 34c 140lbs athletic and got the 6 regular fit well and the length was perfect with flats i love th ese shorts they are cuter in person than online they fit perfectly casual somewhat loose ai ry feeling i am 5 3 105 lbs took my usual size 25 i wear shorts a little lower on my waist and i prefer the looser fit if you plan to wear them up higher on your waist you can probably size down but i didn t want to worry about shrinkage and i wanted them to be easy and comfy t hey washed nicely machine wash cold laid flat light iron touch up i ordered in moss green nice color this top does run large i m 5 8 142 lbs and usually a medium i bought a small and p robably could have gone xs that said i love this top its soft and comfy and swingy i bought the light red and its pretty true to the online color this top is not quite what i expected bu t it is good quality and very comfortable looking at the tall willowy model in the pictures i thought the top would be about tunic length and hang straight down in reality the design adds volume to your frame by cutting out in a kind of a line from shoulder to mid thigh in fact the shirt is so long and has so much flare that i think if i had ordered the regular size rather tha n a petite it would actually make a cute dress for reference i m 5 4 a love the length cut placement of pockets the stretch has positive negative consequences though minuses easily wrinkled grow 2 sizes within the day pluses comfy bendy they re designed to be more of an a ctive short so the wrinkles give are quite fine they only stretch in unnoticeable areas if we re to repurchase i d size down but i love the bright color comfort so much i m keeping t hese as is i m a 6 8 should have purchased the 27 s i like this top another reviewer menti oned that it was a great top for a busty girl i agree i m a 32g and could have sized down to a small but i kept the medium because i wanted the extra length to have the option of wearing i t as a dress the small may have caused slight button pulling but since the fabric has stretch and the top has a generous cut it wouldn t look insane my only issue is the fabric pills i wo re the top once and the fabric near the armpit pilled a lot especially for the light red color is really nice i ordered an xs but usually order small because of the cut and it was perfect the fabric is heavy but loose the collar stands up nicely and the buttons lay flat i purchased this beautiful piece on sale but i would have paid full price have been on the hunt for decent shorts all summer as an elder i need some length comfort style and attractive fit these mee t all the criteria i m 5 3 and got the 31 s they re lightweight but substantial enough to kee p their shape love the faux cuff too they stretched a bit but still have a perfect fit got th e grey on sale and getting 2 more in other colors left in my size at full price so good beauti ful dress the details are lovely it feels a little bit like a nightgown i always wear a slip bust does run a little small so i unbutton the first few buttons armholes feel a little small a lso i was excited to receive this tunic in the red more of a rose color yet so disappointed t o find out how large it runs my usual size with retailer is a small sometimes xs after read ing through the reviews i ordered an xs and even the xs is too big just too much fabric unf ortunately the xxs is sold out and the xs will be returned i can tell this is will be a go to shirt this summer simple lines yet a little different style soft stripes slits on the sid e seams and short but not too short that it bares the stomach it will look great with jeans d ressier with slim white pants or skirt or a pair of nice shorts i don t usually go for button d own shirts but this one was a bit unusual and caught my eye immediately the fabric is soft yet holds it s shape i love tunics and really wanted this to work i got this in a size s and it is absolutely gigantic everything else about it is great and i still haven t decided if i will tr y to swap it for an xs which is definitely not my usual size which is usually m but often s a t retailer the pink red color was quite pretty if you have broad hips fear not you can siz e down and this top will still be generous around your hips basically if you re deliberating b etween s and m for this top get i tried this on a whim during the sale with no real intentions of buying but the moment i put this on i feel in love the denim is soooooooo soft it is heaven seriously one of the most comfortable pieces i have ever tried on the fit is very flattering an d it can be worn multi seasons so it went home that night i put it on and walked doen the stairs and my two year old daughter said mommy is so pretty score this dress is so simple and can be styled so many ways plus it seems very these have become my go to shorts as i can dr ess them up or down love this shirt the material the design but i have not worn it yet the side openings are strategically placed to show my least flattening angles if you know what i mean i will be sewing these two openings and hope the shirt still looks and fits beautiful t rue to size and love the color great to wear dressed up with wedges and a blouse or dressed dow n with some mephistos and a tee linen fabric makes them light for summer heat love love love this top i saw this online and immediately knew tha tthis had to be in my wardrobe i wear a lo t of navy in my estimating the classiest color there is black is passe it is simple ve ry wearable with pants with skirts the very thin stripe adds interest without really being a pattern that conflicts with other patterns i did have an issue with some threads that were rand omly hanging from sleeve cuff but nothing important yes it is cropped very much so so if i m 5 9 and wear a size 12 this dress runs tts though there is no stretch to it found the b ust to be a tad tight 38c it is light with good movement i did not find it short waisted and i thought the proportions were correct the length was just long enough to make me feel comforta ble wearing it i m looking forward to wearing it to holiday dinners this season this is a supe r cute tunic it is simply way too big these are so cute and the colors are great however th ey stretch out about 2 sizes they fit me perfectly and i sized down and they stretched out abou t a size 1 2 to 2 sizes too big i m bummed out because they are perfect in every other way did n t think they would stretch out as much as they did and they look awful once\r\nthey ve stretc hed out wish i didn t take the tags off or i would have returned them size down at\r\nleast on e size i could have sized down two sizes hoping they shrink lik this dress is breathtaking in person the back tie the lace on the sides the hem the sleeves the pleats at the chest and the liner is opaque so it s not see through but it s very white baby doll cut and very short in order to avoid the maternity wedding ish look a few rules must be applied thanks to retail er stylist buttons all the way up a belt is a must to break the monotony of the all over whi te and lace look i purchased size 2 regular and it still falls about 3 inches above m this is an understated elegant denim dress the fabric color is just the right fade and thickness not t oo thin and not too thick which is appropriate for most occasions it s very soft and can get a bit wrinkly but nothing major my local retailer has only the regular size and it s true to size size 6 my usual size for holding horses brand fit well around the bust and waist area i m 34b 26 waist 36 hips busty gals may want to size up this dress shows cleavage so if you re consc ious like this shirt is really cute it s shorter than most and it s supposed to be that way if you don t want your midriff showing if you stretch this shirt isn t for you it has slits o n the side also the material is super light so will be great for summer i just loved the way i t fit and that it s different i ordered an xs and i m about 5 5 and 120 lbs love these shorts got 2 pairs on sale just because it s hard to find shorts that fit nicely and are comfy with a g reat length this bathing suit has everything i especially love the ruching in the waist and th e boy short bottom finally the coverage my booty needs i ve worn it dozens of times and it sti ll holds its quality and looks brand new i get a lot of compliments every time i wear it \nthe only drawback is it doesn t dry very quickly after a dip in the pool or the lake it stays wet f or hours even when i m laying out in the summer heat i tried these on in my local store and imm ediately loved them they are so flattering on my hourglass shape the flare leg balances out th e hips great quality and very comfortable i know i will get so much wear out of these i bough t a size up from my usual size and they fit perfectly i love this skirt the material is soft a nd beautiful i love wearing it with black tights and boots the skirt is quite a bit longer tha n how it appears on the model however unless the model is 10 ft tall i am 5 2 and if i pla ce the skirt under my ribs it reaches right above my knee it works though and doesn t look bad i would still recommend you buy this this was an unexpected surprise i love the material of th is short sleeved almost sweatshirt summer tee the entire design reads late summer stripes wit h a cozy twist the first time i wore it made me realize how tricky it can be to wear stripes an d this design deconstructs all my previous hangups i love this great quality and super cozy perfect to throw on for casual summer nights this is a great quality product with unique design i bought a size 8 a few years back not my regular size but when used it tend to sag so this tim e i bought a size 6 my regular size this is definitely my go to top for work weekends or night out with the husband i ve worn it with skinny jeans black tights and skirts it goes with just about anything easy to accessorize with a simple long chain necklace or a statement piece i th ink the gray combo was a bit more flattering than the green combo i love the colors on this dre ss very nice on a pale skin i ahd this in my wish list for so long and it finally went on sal e i ordered it and was very pleased only drawback is the collar was a little irritating but i am ok with it it fits like a glove o i didn t think it would as there are no petites but t hat worked for me the lace pattern is classy and the hem is totally fun great purchase maybe petite would not have bothered my neck \r\n115 lbs 30 dd 26 5 in waist cute tunic fits on t he fitted side but i love it with a vest layered over nice material note if you have a large chest the seams hit in an unflattering spot nice shirt just not great for the price i agree with other reviews this is perfect to throw on for running errands or just hanging out at home super soft and comfy got the blue and now want the grey this top is my go to running errands top on the weekends its super comfy and not to warm to wear throughout all the seasons runs tr ue to size and i get a bunch of compliments on the quality this long sleeved tee is soft and be autiful the swing design is so pretty and flattering the seams along the front and back are a lovely addition i also appreciate the higher neckline which is increasingly hard to find in th ese kind of tees would love it in more colors i bought the black i tried the white as well b ut it was too transparent for this particular style and the tank top underneath gave it a sporty appearance not horrible but not what i wanted so the white went back nan the delicate detail at the neckline on this sweater adds such a pretty yet subtle touch \ni layer it with various ca mis for a different look each time \ni ordered the dark yellow and it is a very unique and rich shade and goes well with so other many colors \nlooks gorgeous with a mint or aqua cami for a p eek a boo effect \nclassic yet unique \nruns very true to size i bought one size up in these fu n cropped pants i am petite but wanted these to fit longer so i ordered a regular size they a re perfect there is a nice patterned texture to these pants that is hard to see in the pictures they are worth the price love this shirt i have it in black i have a larger chest but i don t feel like the seams hit me wrong this is super cute and swingy i however think the price i s way too high for a think cotton tee i m 5 1 and always bought 27p they didn t have petite an ymore so i bought 27r knowing that it ll hit my ankle instead of being cropped it s very cute as an ankle length with some flare my only issue is that the 27r was very tight around the crot ch and upper thigh it s a very tight fit just right there and not enough of stretch to be c omfortable when sitting i wonder if it will stretch out a bit more from wear i then ordered a 28r to see if that fits better and it fits a tad loose ev this chambray is super soft it has s uch a great feel and texture i love the detail and design on the front it adds just the right amount of interest without making the top feel busy and still very neutral in color so you can d ress it many different ways i m not sure how this fits in comparison to other holding horses sh irts tops but i had to size up one from my typical retailer size because of the my which isn t large so excited to get a lot of use out of this these cords are beautiful in the wine color and fit very well i am 5 1 and got the petite size and felt they were a little to short i know they are cropped flare but they hit me at a weird place hindsight i probable should have order ed then one size up this is the most intricate delicate beautiful dress i have seen in a long time the pale blue coppery brown and dark purple tones are so complimentary of fair skin dar k hair and light eyes unfortunately my normal size was far too snug especially on my hips an d this is now sold out the fabric has no give so i would say with any curves size up if you c an find this beauty i m heartbroken to be returning it very comfortable shirt washes up nice ly with just a little ironing on the pleats cute detail of colored thread on buttons just a tad tight in the shoulders but not distracting no button placket chest gapping i bought this tunic over christmastime at full price i absolutely adore it in my opinion it isn t too thick or too thin i got my usual size large and i think it fits perfectly there are side slits so i t s perfect with skinny jeans or leggings it s flattering because of the vertical stripes in th e fabric also with the grey color there is a difference in the two fabrics that are used in th e construction so this adds some additional visual appeal i haven t had any problems with snag ging i am in love with this tunic i wear it with everything jeans leggings and just tights s uper comfy quality design runs a bit large but i like that comfortable and cute versatile co lors that can be worn with virtually anything i get a ton of compliments on this cute and comf ortable you can t go wrong this is a lovely jacket it is easily paired with different bottoms and tops and is such a fun take on the standard blazer with the beautiful ruffle pocket detail they are not actual pockets though which i thought would have been an easy thing to incorporate my chief issue with the fit is that it is a tad boxy i am a standard xs xxs and this runs just a tad big and a bit wide but unbuttoned it falls seamlessly if you use the clasp it actually looks bigger regardless i love it and was o this is a beautiful jacket the fabric is soft and drapes wonderful truly a great addition to any staple in your wardrobe i am having the sleeves shortened as i prefer a more 3 4 length i am 5 5 150lb generally size medium shirt size 6 or 8 pants and bought a size 8 i have had two c sections so my stomach has some problem areas whi ch can be easily highlighted in a swimsuit not this one i felt good it hid my problem spots showed off curves and stays in place i can t speak to the durability of it yet however it mak es me feel great and that is tough when i am in a bathing suit that in itself makes it worth t he price try it i bought these pants in the wine color and i love them i found them to be tru e to size i always wear a 27 in pilcro and these were no exception i am finding the cropped fl are silhouette to be so versatile they are more ankle length than cropped on me as i am 5 3 bu t i think i prefer this these pants can easily be dressed up or down have worn with a dressy top and heels as well as a denim shirt and ballet flats super cute fell in love with this dres s when i saw it beautiful design and flow although it needs an underskirt because it is a see through also it is a bit tight on the chest section i haven t wore it yet so more to come i really like this blouse it s hard to find a short sleeved button down that the sleeves don t st ick out and look weird this one does not have this problem it is a bit sheer but i don t mind wearing a cami with it it is flowy but not boxy baggie has a very nice flattering drape i m 5 3 110lbs 32c petite frame the 00 regular fits great i m often a petite especially in pants and long sleeved tops but went with the regular size here bc i wanted the longer lengt h i love this shirt it s a nice simple long sleeved tee with some nice details i especially l ove the seaming on the front back very flattering these feel so soft and amazing i especia lly love that the length work for me just a tiny bit long and i am 5 4 i did find that they ra n smaller than my pilcro and other jeans i thought i d be the exception these pants are super cute great fabric and color kind of loved them but they do run small by about one size just something to keep in mind while ordering other than that they are lovely well made pant s this is my first one piece bathing suit and i absolutely love it the quality is great the color doesn t fade \r\ni usually wear a size 4 but i ordered a size 6 and it fits perfectly i l oved this top so much i bought both colors soft and warm without being too thick or bulky love the wine colored cords but i tried them and i was disappointed because my normal size was too small i usually have to size down in pilcro pants but not these i m an 8 and the 30 wasn t g oing to button i love the slight cropped flare and the color did i mention the color but va nity wouldn t allow me to buy them hopefully i just got a mislabeled pair this is a terrific t op the supima cotton is super soft the black a deep black i love that antho is listening and that it s made in the usa the lines and flow are beautiful and flattering i bought the m edium and am a reliable size 8 top medium 34f the sleeves are nice and long don t miss out on this classic tee friends great dress that is very flattering works well with flats or can be dressed up with heels perfect for travel because the material doesn t wrinkle would highly recommend this dress these cords are great lightweight for fl winters and the bootcut flare b ottom is super cute with ballet flats or booties i am 5 10 and typically a size 8 the size 29 fit perfectly they have a little stretch to them which is great very flattering wish i could order in more colors i ve been looking for a navy shirt for some time and this is it it s sof t drapes nicely but it s not as dressy as silk shirt would be the navy is really blue not a b lack navy like so many i ve washed and dried it in the machines and it came out well shrank ju st a little but that made it perfect for me it was true to size because i liked the slightly o ver sized boyfriend fit yet it still has shape if you want a fitted shirt go down a size or l ook for something else nan the weight and drape of this shirt is wonderful it is very comforta ble while still being flattering you could wear it with jeans and sneakers or heels fits true to size and the navy color is very deep i love this top i just bought it on sale so the price was great but it would have been totally worth it paying full price great quality unique and great fit i look forward to wearing it all year i absolutely love this dress beautiful prints and design i would say to size down though as it is rather flowy i am normally a small and wen t to an xs and it fits much better this is definitely a keeper i really love the top but fyi it s really an open front vest and the under tank doesn t come with it it s nice because you ca n mix it up with different colors underneath but i think they should have noted that fact in ca se you weren t prepared to receive half of what you thought you were purchasing i wish this dre ss was just a bit longer it was beautifully made and i loved the colors just too short for me this top is exactly what i was looking for rich olive color and very versatile great as a ligh tweight jacket casual or dressed up button up i purchased a medium and it fits great 5 7 br oad shoulders narrow waist and full hips just got this dress in an xl i ve never ordered fro m retailer before so i expected their clothes to run small i was wrong it s a beautiful high q uality dress but i think it s just too big i may end up exchanging it for a l definitely size down in this dress i love this dress so much comfortable flattering and really pretty i wis h i could buy this dress in every color i love this shirt it is very soft and has a nice cut and drape fits true to size wish there were more colors love these level 99 pants newport style dress them up or down wearing mine today with a moth top i also got at a looking kind o f 70s chic light jeans for a hot day i almost passed this in the store but i am glad that i t ried it i really like that the fabric is so soft and has a blouse feel and is machine wash able yay love nice blouses that don t need to be dry cleaned i would describe the material as thicker so some may not like this for warmer weather looks great with a long necklace like the minuet i am typically a small and purchased this in an extra small and still have plenty of roo m in love just wow beautiful colors although they re dark you can still see all the variation s the flannel is light and not too heavy there s visible black lace just below the shoulder p retty buttons ordered the large my normal size and it s a perfect fit roomy but not oversized so well made i think this will be a favorite for years i am 5 5 normally about 120lb but i m about 145lb now at 9 months prego i purchased the small i can t resist buying retailer clothes even though they might not fit me currently however because this shirt is drapey it actually fits over my baby bump now and it will be perfect as a nursing shirt and then regular shirt late r it is so soft and great quality will be cute dressed up for work or down with jeans i m onl y 5 3 so i ordered a small but i have a larger rear size 4 6 end and bust 32dd the small g ave me plenty of room in the top the bottom area was definitely meant for someone with a smalle r butt but i don t feel over exposed or anything the fabric on the bottom is thick which is rea lly nice it makes the body seem slim and keeps the white from being see through even when wet the long sleeve design is also awesome i have gotten numerous compliments on it the top has an inner liner i am 5 3 28 38 and got the sp had no issues whatsoever and love the colors i lo ve this dress like another reviewer said it s the perfect teacher dress i wore it on the firs t day of school it s comfortable and flattering and super cute i received lots of compliments swing dresses are the holy grail of comfort whatever s going on underneath doesn t matter becau se you re all arms and legs and billowy fun and this dress doesn t disappoint beautiful light and silky fabric with a pattern and color palate that can easily work all spring summer and int o the fall with some layers a great unique dress this is an adorably gorgeous swing dress th e fabric is soft and flowy and everything a swing dress should be i was concerned that it woul d be too short but it s the perfect length fun while still being classy a nice chunky eccent ric bib necklace and nude sandal wedges would complete this outfit beautifully highly recommend got lots of complements on this one worn to work with skinny pants and a chunky necklace class ic look with a twist would also look adorable with jeans as shown i ordered this in sand and l oved it so much when i received it that i went back and ordered it in black as well it is very flattering and sexy i sadly only noticed this top once on sale i tried on the xs and it was just a bit big i would need the petite so i had to leave it behind 115 lbs 30dd but it is adorable can be dressed up and classy casually with jeans or sweetly so many ways love th e subtle polka dots oh well i am sure i will find something similar i love the top is more of a cream color than an ivory it s also a bit boxer than anticipated fit is true to size i g rabbed this dress in green when i saw it on sale plus there was an additional percentage off th at day online and they had my size while it s slightly loose in the body of the dress that wi ll probably tighten up after the first wash since it s rayon then it should fit like a glove i didn t experience the zipper issue there is a hook eye at the top to keep the fabric toget her and the zipper was stiff so it won t unzip of its own volition it is a tad bulky at the to p of the zipper w i recently purchased this tunic and love it its not to big hangs just right arm holes are not to big and the material is very comfortable looks great with white jeans sho rts or just jeans i will get a lot of wear all year round fits true to size oh slimming too i had been searching for an almost 50s style dress and i saw this one and instantly loved it i wind up sending back so many things i get through retailer but this dress was everything i hoped it would be i got the green one with the white dots very comfortable it just out a little wit h the hips because of the cut which is very 50s styling it makes the waist look more narrow nan i love finding cute tops on sale that have great potential but just need a little altering i bought this one in my usual size medium and took it in 2 inches on both sides it s still a lo oser fit but much cuter i didn t want to size down fearing it would be too tight in the should ers and underarms it s also a softer cotton fabric similar to brushed cotton rather than the crisp cotton most white button down shirts are made of i really wanted this top to work but i f elt that it was big and boxy it s shorter in the front and longer in the back the seam and pep lum hit at a strange place and made me look disheveled it s definitely worth trying on but did n t fit me this is all around a pretty feminine take on the white shirt very cute the dot pa ttern adds some drama without it being too over board this fit of this top is fairly generous on me at least but it doesn t have a lot of stretch i could probably be either a s or xs but took the xs to get more of a silhouette this is a great dress it s comfortable easy care and it looks fantastic i love the bright green color it s easy to wear alone casually or dressed up with cardigans or jackets for my climate this is a year round piece i can tone down the co lor and layer for cool seasons and wear it alone in warm seasons this is a great dress good q uality fabric the pattern color are spot on the silhouette is divine would work on many bo dy types i also love the length cute top wish they had xxs looks great with jeans and a fun necklace like pix i got an xs 5 4 and 135 lbs and it s still a little wider than i would pref er but i m not a skinny jeans gal so might look better with those i decided to keep it since n o xxs wore all day with jeans for a more casual event then added a skirt and high heels later for a theater show super comfortable and looks great for all occasions this is my favorite top i m a 36d and usually wear a medium or large i love this paired with skinny jeans or my level 9 9 blue shorts i can see why the other reviewers think this top is huge in the waste it s wide and not tailored at the waste the key to super cute fit is to size down then it will look li ke it does on the model in the picture i went with my regular medium and felt like i was wearin g a giant moomoo so i sized down and it immediately looked like it does on the model in the pic ture it s super adorable in person the collar and the polka dots make this playful yet very dr essy and feminine and appropriate i have been in love with white lace tops lately i saw in the description that there was a polyester lining i m really not into wearing a cami all the tim e as it takes away from the lace my personal opinion so i m a little disappointed there there is no lining very pretty styling is a bit more swing love this top so much it s very uniqu e and one of those tops that s effortless to wear i was expecting it to be boxy because of wh at other reviewers had written but i find it to be flattering and comfortable i m glad i order ed the small because i do think the medium my usual size would have been too big i am 5 4 34 c with a pear shape this dress fit me perfectly in a medium 30 inch natural waist i had to use a safety pin to keep the bosom from gaping too much so a smaller chested person would likel y not have any issues however the material and design were perfectly pinup and work appropriat e so i was willing to make adjustments for it beautiful nightie looks like its really well ma de and fits really well i m normally a size 6 8 and the m was perfect definitely recommend th is fit perfectly i am 5 7 138 pounds and ordered a small i was very pleased with the way it draped over my body i bought the black one i love white shirts and can never have enough in my closet this one is gorgeous and is way prettier in person than it looks on the model it has a peplum bottom with sort of but not quite appliquã d large polka dots all over it is a pullover so there are no buttons on the peplum i normally wear xl in retailer tops unless they run very large i tried on the large in the store and it fit but i knew if it shrank when i washed it i d never be able to wear it again i ordered the xl which came tod it is so beautiful and just as s hown in the pictures very elegant i normally wear a small and it hung off me just a little i was so excited for another fun white shirt this was fits the bill its cute it does run alittl e boxy maybe a hair large it is also not white white has a touch of ivory still is a great top with skinny jeans received a compliment yesterday while getting coffee the lady was going online to get one for herself i m usually a small but the skirt of the dress was a bit loose an d added love handles to my figure when i wear it a smaller size would work better it s cute an d i love it but the material is form fitting and do a larger size isn t flattering an xsmall fo r me i have this top in the blue print and i love it i m super tempted to buy it in the black a s well since i love it so much but it might be a little pricy to have two of the same top the only thing i will warn women about this top is that if you are busty then i would recommend goin g up a size i wear a small in most retailer clothes but i went for a medium in this top while the small did fit in al other areas it looked like the buttons were going to pop at my bust th is top is adorable on the online picture doesn t do it justice a sales girl in my store had it t is perfect sometimes buy a m at retailer but the small was perfect which is what i d wear at in most brands i was slightly shocked it cost more than the other tops i bought but it was to o pretty to put back wore with dark flare jeans to dinner that very night i love the style of this jacket \r\ni will be curious to see how it holds up in the rain \r\nit s very well made an d has cute details \r\nit does run large this dress would have been perfect in a medium petite beautiful dress wish i had sized down i found this dress to be perfect for the winter season i ts warm sleek and classy this dress is made in the usa so it is worth the price i love the o t quite the length of tunic i love this romper so much i m a tall girl 5 9 so often times it s hard for me to find a romper that isn t too short the length on this is perfect this romper is an adorable design and the fit is great the material is a great quality and its really comf ortable i m 5 9 34b bra i usually range between an xs and s i went with the s on this one and it fits great i definitely recommend this if you re thinking about it i love love love this to p i love it so much i bought it in two different colors so i can wear it more often i think it s feminine chic and classic i ve worn it several times and i each time i ve had more than one person comment on it i normally wear a small but they only had it in an extra small and i actua lly like how it fits which is why i think it runs a little large the only place that it is a bi t small is the cuffs at the end of the sleeves i usually just unbutton those anyway so no i jus t got this top and can t wait to wear it for spring summer it is a lovely lightweight material and hangs loosely and comfortably it definitely runs quite large so i would at the very least c onsider ordering on the small side of what you normally wear if not sizing down one completely this is coming from someone who usually likes tops on the roomier side so trust me on this ove re it looks like it fits her very well i don t feel like it fits me quite as well it s borderl ine maternity ish just a little too large and should come in at the waist just a touch more i agree the bow i e seems weak fa i bought this in every color and would probably keep buying it if there were others the fit is loose yet flattering quality is good feminine pretty ruff les that don t add bulk and i love that it makes me feel pretty and put together post baby thi s romper is so cute and comfy the fabric is soft and a beautiful shade of blue with light blue dots true to the photos i sometimes have issues with rompers due to my long torso but this f its great with shorts hitting about the same as the model image i m 5 7 i really love the v neck on this too it s simple but a really flattering cut that i don t think would expose even ladies with a larger chest definitely a nice everyday piece excited to wear it on a hot summe r day at the pa size down runs a bit large sleeves are cute and overall a pretty piece little clack dress classic shape but is pretty low in the v neck i am busty 34dd and need a push u p bra to make the neckline close it s very easy to wear and super comfy i love this sweater c oat i just put on a pair of leggings and boots and i m good to go it s warm and flattering and comfortable and i can wear it anywhere it works at the office out to eat shopping or even jus t hanging around \n\nfit some of the other comments mention the small waist this is a fitted s weater not a roomy piece for layering over other pieces i like the fit because i get the warmt h of a big sweater without the bulk the fit is similar to dresses that i have purchased at anth i absolutely love this top i m always either an x small or 0 2 in mauve i think this top runs small i tried on an extra small and it was too tight in the chest i m average in bust this ro mper has a great shape you know that long saggy grandma butt that some rompers give you this one is not that it s cute and adorable and those long stitched pockets are so flattering to us short folk i m 5 4 on a good day 125 32g and this fits great i picked up an xs i m never an xs and it was very flattering i m usually a 4 27 in pants for reference the v neck and the way the shoulder seams start to angle in at the top make this very flattering it is long enough for me to love this tunic i bought it in black and wore it with skinny jeans and flat black boo e weekend i have been needing a rain coat and saw this one on sale so decided to try it on i do wish it was more fitted but it is pretty cute the embroidered detail is nice too bad the xs petite is sold out i have no idea if it will hold to the rain though this top is not bmea nt to be super fitted it is flowy and romantic i have ordered the petite to decide which siz e to keep but my usual xs was fine wil ljsut compare length i was also curious about hte smal ler size but didn t order it so i wil lnever know \nthe only color i saw in person is the blac k on and it is calssic so i went with it shall wait for petite verdict so i tried on the reg ular size in the store and love the top but looked too big on me \n\ncolor is gorgeous and ric h the sheer adds a little whimsical to it and i love the tie neck trend of lately would go ni cely with jeans skinny or flare or trousers not sure about a skirt though love this flowing cute top casual but can be easily dressed up great fit i usually wear an xxsp in retailer br ands i bought this jacket in a regular size 0 and it fits like a glove even the sleeves are th e right length it really accents my narrow waist i imagine it runs very small for those who we ar regular sizes if you are petite this is the jacket for you the jacket is unlined so i cant wear it in cold weather it is very nice over a dress with black boots and with skinny jeans i receive complements every time i wear this item i ordered the navy in size xl and it fits me ju st as it does the model this top is definitely one of my favorite retailer purchases the cut i s very flattering i love how they designed the tunic to have a closer fit on top the arms and through the top of the waist and then flow out i m a pear shape and worried the bottom layer mi ght accent my hips but it all flows really nicely the arms aren t tight they re not loose but aren t too poofy \n\nthe material washed well too without static a pro i really love this swea ter i normally wear an 8 and bought a 12 even it is a little snug but it really is very cute can t wait to wear it with black leggings and boots while this is gorgeous in person if you ha ve a larger bust the v neck will look really weird because its so deep it gets skewed i m a d cup if only the v were 1 or 2 inches higher unfortunately it s going back bought it on sale and i am keeping it it is well made an the material seems to be of good quality however i bel ieve this would be more flattering on someone less curvy less hips smaller bust as it makes me look slightly pregnant still i am keeping it to use on those days i just don t feel like dr essing up for work i bought a large i m a 36 38c but i think i could ve gotten away with a m edium i like this raincoat but it runs large exchanging for a smaller size i bought this in b lue black it is so pretty i get so many compliments i m a size 4 6 but large busted i bought this in a medium it s perfect just the right amount of fullness i m 5 4 so the length for m e is perfect w leggings i purchased this amazing tunic in store in the plaid pattern and could n t be more thrilled with it i can already see myself overwearing it because it s so pretty an d easy i typically wear an xs and sometimes petite styles the regular small fits very well i m sure the xs would have been alright but i like the way my forearms don t feel constricted whe re it buttons and sizing up seemed to help with gaping by the button holes i love the way this looks with a variety bottoms and shoes it this garment is beautiful because the fabric has grea t drape to it i am probably between a small and xsmall but ordered the xsmall it is snug but i have decided to keep it and can wear a cami underneath just in case the buttons gap just a li ttle i am concerned that going up a size with leave the neck area too gaping it is also a litt le snug in the elbow area this is such a lovely blouse the color is true to the picture i am a bigger girl 5 9 and size 12 and i bought the large the fit was beautiful it was forgiving on my less than perfect midsection but wasn t billowy at all it did not pull around the should ers or bust the way some button up blouses do this top is perfect very comfortable and flatter ing for any body type i was disappointed when the dress came in the mail it was much shorter o n my than on the model in the picture i am 5 5 the detail of the dress and fabric shown in t he picture is not as prominent in person which was also disappointing the dress is just average i didn t not return the dress it looks much better on my younger sister who is the same heigh t so i gave it to her i guess it s just not the right dress for me this tunic is beautiful t he color is a vibrant blue i can wear it with jeans or dress it up with my white linen capris i ordered the small and it fits me perfectly love this top so comfy and flattering i order ed the black and the blue and i am itching to get the red purple one too i tried this in the st ore and i liked it the color is very pretty and the fabric is soft and drapey and feels like go od quality i like the little subtle dots i ultimately did not buy it because the tie at the th roat is not my style and because i just don t need this kind of piece enough in my wardrobe at t he moment but it is a very nice top and i would recommend it if you like the color and style i got this number in the turquoise and i hadn t expected the skirt to be ribbed are they all like that retailer was out of the petites so i sized down in a regular instead yeah that didn t work i definitely needed the petite version and perhaps should have even sized up the bust was scandelously tight in the end the dress wasn t flattering on my figure the way this style usual ly is on me the proportions were off somehow it s just not one of those dresses that curvy p etite girls shoul bought this shirt in the colorful polka dot print and i m obsessed like previ ous reviews mentioned it runs a little small in the chest i m normally a medium but am a 36c s o ordered the large and it fits perfect with the way the buttons are spaced i think all sizes w ill pull a little no matter what it s a beautiful shirt and i plan on ordering the blue one as well this dress hits flatters the whole body love the three quarter sleeves love the relaxed fit of the bottom half love how it is fitted body conscious around bust super flattering the teal color is particularly gorgeous a color that would suit a lot of different skin tones this is a no brainer dress that you will reach for in your closet every single time i ve got the pos t baby bulge and this dress makes me the hottest i ve looked in a long time fitted but skimmin g where i don t want to be accentuated it s a rare dress that can pull this off the cleavage is there so i think it s more of a night dress but i d wear it with a sweater during the day very comfortable i m a 34c and 136 lbs i bought this in m in two colors because i love it so m uch the fit is so flattering and the material is so soft and comfortable i continue to get the best quality and fitting dresses from retailer i bought this top in the black motif and it is e asily one of my new go to tops can wear it to brunch work and happy hours it always looks go od such a great buy this is one of the best things i have ever bought from anrtho it is very flattering and i always get compliments when i wear it must have i ordered both a small and a medium because i have lost weight and seem to be in between sizes currently lately i am anywher e from a 6 to a 10 in most retailer sizes almost 5 4 and 140 lbs i could have gotten away wi th the small but my bust size is 36c d the small fit but didn t hang as well or feel as comfor table around the chest as the medium i agree with a previous reviewer that this romper does hav e a tendency to hang awkwardly at the waist until and unless you pull the drawstring tigh i rece ntly bought this top in both the black and blue motifs and love it i m currently 7 months pregn ant and this top provides great coverage for the bump i agree with another reviewer that noted that it is a little tight in the bust as i had to go up a size for that reason this is the rare metallic that doesn 39 t itch really well made italy lightweight it 39 s a total go \r \n\r\ni usually wear a large but i bought a medium i tried it on in the dressing room i th ink it looks better 39 fit 39 than oversized preppy i wear a 38b bra size 12 i typically wear either a 2 or 4 and had to size up with this coat the 6 fit but i decided to go with an 8 to ensure it d fit with layers the sleeves aren t lined so it s a little itchy against bare ar ms it s really flattering and i love the pattern hands down my new favorite top love the loo k of this top i would say this runs a little big i definitely could have sized down however the flowy style of my usual retailer size works for me in this piece the dress fits true to siz e and is pretty comfortable i did look kinda matronly with my 34d chest it s a good basic to h ave on your closet but i ended up returning the one i bought it didn t feel special enough to keep i got this dress to wear for christmas and it is perfect looks great and is very comfy l ow cut in front and back that is not too revealing and allows for perfect bra coverages i got i t in a small small i have been looking at rompers for a while but being that i m 40 a lot of s tores seem to carry rompers that are super short i think these are the perfect length for summe r and for me it s cute i am 5 5 and 110 pounds and i ordered the xs i docked one start be cause the top part seems to have a bit of excess fabric if i pull the waist up the top 1 2 bal loons out a little awkwardly but if i pull the shorts down so that the drawstring is resting lo wer than my natural waist it looks okay this top is beautiful in color and fabric unfortunatel y just didn t work in the breast line gapped and there was just nothing i could do to make it h ang correctly i m not really large in the chest area 38b but the large just didn t work had to send it back extremely soft and comfortable fit very well should travel really well i lov ed this but it made my stomach look a lot bigger then it is i would recommend going up a size i n it i find this romper looks much more crisp on the picure than in real life i find it more sl ouchier and shapeless even though i went with my smaller size the material is very soft but thin that is maybe the reason i am not sure if i am going to keep i wanted a bit more stunnin g look for my money not saying this might be a great romper for somebody else however i love th is top so much i dare say it is one of my favorite retailer purchases to date i got it in the blue and it is really magical i get compliments every time i wear it i have a pair of dressier black leggings that i never know what to wear with i m not really a leggings person but this t unic is exactly the piece plus this tunic comes with pockets what s better than that i m n ormally a 10 12 and ordered the m l the body was a little big but ok the arms are really wide there are snaps to make them tighter but it doesn t do much i do like the embroidery it s an o k jacket but the fit could have been better the tunic shown here black and white is the style i purchased but not the color scheme the one i got has a navy background with colorful large d ots the top is very cute but has one drawback it has covered buttons all the way down and t he top area gaps a bit so you can see your bra i remedied the situation by sewing down the area on the placket around the top two buttons worked like a charm my new favorite top i hate buyi ng dresses because i rarely find one that fits well i m very petite on top xsmall and small m ed on bottom 5 8 usually dresses are tight on my hips thighs and loose up top this fairly lightweight yet warm dress is such a winner form fitting yet stretchy and forgiving in all the right places the x small and small both fit pretty well but i decided to go with the x small on this one i think this will be a staple winter fall dress loved the fit so much i bought it in the peac this coat looks great but the fabric is thin only partly wool the snaps also don amp amp 39 t stay shut very well i amp amp 39 ll probably add a hook and eye closure for security despite its flaws it looks good enough that it amp amp 39 s a keeper when purchased on sale nan this is the perfect jacket to throw on for errands around town picture doesn t do it justic e very unique and stylish love the three quarter sleeves for this time of year this is a gre omfy this dress is comfortable and a great go to dress to wear to work and then after for drink s with friends i love this tunic super flattering long enough if your no super tall like me to wear with leggings it does run a little big i like tops a little looser on me so i didn t m ind that i ordered a small if your typically a small and prefer more fitted tops i would sugge st sizing down \r\n\r\ni bought the blue tunic first the pictures don t do the textile design justice i loved it so much i went back online and purchased this tunic in black \r\n\r\nthan ks retailer for being awesome i purchased this top in the black color and absolutely love it i t is very fun and can be either dressed up or down i would wear this to work as well as out and about around town it is worn loose so i ordered a size down i cannot wait to wear it through spring and summer i ordered this in the navy and the red blue plaid fit i m usually a 10 m a bly going back while this shirt does run a little large i am 5 0 and ordered a petite small it is perfect for layering under a loose cardigan can be dressed up or down looking forward to wearing it this summer i was pleasantly surprised to find this piece in stock at my local store it s a very comfortable top with plenty of room the only criticism i have regarding it is that it s a bit maternity esque bought it in an xs i initially ordered the grey in a m per my usual sizing but on trying it on realized that the m was a bit frumpy and there was a lot of additiona l fabric at the back which tended to wrinkle very easily because it is cotton i sized down to a s and was much happier with the fit and the overall look of the jacket but i think this jacket may need some ironing once in a while the grey color is a darker grey as per the product descri ption and the pictures i m always thrilled to find a piece like this at retailer just receive d my dress and couldn t be happier beautifully made and fits absolutely perfectly i m 5 5 118 lbs and am very comfortable in the small with a little breathing room length is perfect with heels planning to wear it with sandals to a birthday party this month and then into fall and wi nter with boots and a top layer if you re hesitating go for it i love how comfortable this dr ess is it does run a little large so i would order a size down i m 5 3 and around 125lbs and had to exchange the xsp for an xxsp this tunic is perfect from the waist up the problems comes in with the pockets they make the tunic bulky around the hips and who needs bulk there the tun ic is a little more gray in person than what it appears to be in the photo i usually wear an 8 or a medium ordered this tunic in a medium and i think it runs just a little big i may try thi s in a small if that doesn t work i may consider having the pockets removed in the medium jus t wish is wasn t so pricey for all the extra work but i i agree a few others it may be a littl e bit boxy but i don t even care because it s so beautiful definitely a top i m going to love l ong after this floral craze the fashion world is in begins to fade first off the moment i put on i got tons of compliments from complete strangers it truly is a unique and pretty i am 5 3 and originally wanted the med petite for length they were sold out so i got the xs in the regul ar size that worked out good it is a bit snug around the shoulders but not enough to go up a s ize overall xs was a good alternative to medium petite i m so happy i purchased this cardigan every time i ve worn it i ve actually gotten compliments from both women and men i was slight ly undecided at first due to it s quite pricey but i think the quality is amazing and the patte rn will actually last a long time as a keeper not just a quick trend i m so happy i snagged i t before it ran out i have quite muscular upper arms and the medium fits me well the sleeve s do have some give in them and even though i m also broad across my shoul this was a winner re tailer bought it with my birthday discount a bit pricey but when i wore it over and over again i can see why the material is so soft flows beautifully and is just the right length on me i am petite 5 3 slender at 115 and i wear it with wedge heels just like the model i did s in peach and am not ashamed to say that i wore it almost every day in the past week over a tee over a dress over a tunic it looks good with everything my normal size s is on the loos er side compared to my other retailer bombers but i like it for layering purposes so soft and comfy i have a feeling i m going to need a backup of this one this tunic fits exactly as show n and is so comfortable the fabric is soft and buttery and the lace up front is a awesome deta ery retailer piece i love it i wish retailer would bring back more pieces like this anyway the details on this sweater are so special the sweater is sturdier and warmer than i thought it would be which is a plus i love the drape it has to it down the front one slight dislike is th 5lbs curvy athletic frame ordered the size 4 and it fit perfectly i was hesitant to order thi s but i am really glad i did it is just beautiful the quality is excellent i would like it to have more snaps so i am going to add them i can t wait to wear it i adore this sweater so happy that i was able to get one get random compliments from strangers all the time first saw this jacket in the catalog in peach and had to have it i received it today and love it its a soft muted peach very neutral i ordered xl im usually a m l but decided i wanted it to lo ok big and comfy the quality is great feels good on love it so much i just ordered it in the dark grey very classic jacket will wear for years one of my favorite hei hei pieces never di sappoints i love this top in fact when i saw in the store i was hoping that it would go on s ale i wore it and received many compliments the underlay provide adequate coverage so no addit ional cami is needed this top does run large i normally wear a 2 and i ordered this in a 0 and it fits perfectly i would not order this if you are not willing to spend the money to dry clean it it is delicate and i would not encourage washing it at home this screams the old school cla ssic retailer that we all love it was one of my rare full price purchases because it s just per fection i m 5 4 112lbs and normally and xs however when i tried on an xs is store i felt tha t it sort of swallowed me up i went ahead and ordered an xs petite even though i rarely go with petites but it fits perfectly it doesn t leave room for layering but i live in socal so i do n t need to layer often the pattern is actually knitted into the fabric instead of just printed on like i ve sometimes found the embroidery mostly serves as a highlighting feature instead of a focus the inside of the cardigan is another layer of fabric sort of like a double knit but with its own simple striped pattern the collar looks like it might be itchy but it only is un til it gets stretched out a bit and arranged properly definitely a great silhouette overall i t s just a really classic look that can hang around in your closet for years before it looks dat ed that said it runs small i often have difficulty with clothing like this since i m a 4 6 on the top and a 10 12 on the bottom 5 7 35 28 41 my booty is definitely pushing some limits in this dress but it does fit wearing a 6 shapewear to the rescue conversely my shoul ders are petite so the shoulders are a bit large try this dress on in m i m 60 in relatively decent shape 135 lbs and size 6 is perfect i went for the regular rather than petite sizing which came well below my knees and although i would usually have a sheath dress like this hemme d up to that slim part right at the bottom of the knee the slim silhouette shape served to leng then the profile as a longer dress so i left it about 3 below the knee the stretch allows it to hug the body and with the right undergarments it is super comfortable and attractive go i love this tunic in the carbon color on the model the color does look different in person more of a lighter gray on me the tunic runs very large i am usually a small or medium but took the extra small in this and still have room i agree with the other reviewers about the pockets the y do add bulk in the hip area so if this is a problem area for you i d avoid this tunic overal l it s a nice tunic for everyday wear the tie neck adds a nice detail and makes the tunic stan d out it looks g this sweater is so lovely i like the fact that it s not super heavy so you can be comfortable with a layer under it the embroidery is beautiful i usually get petite size s when available but the petite m was sold out when i purchased i went with regular medium and am actually glad it s not overwhelming or too long i m 5 2 in my opinion if you re on the fence go for it totally worth it love this jacket it is quite stylish and comfortable at t he same time i was surprised at how affordable it was my only complaint is that it could was h you out if you have pale skin and get the peach color and this one has a heavenly feel to it i know it s not 100 cashmere but it s soft and cozy i love the understated colors and plan to wear it with a neutral creme sweater perfect to take from fall into winter i bought this dress for a trip to the caribbean and really enjoyed wearing it \ni was worried it might look like a sack but i think it is both slimming and flattering i love the interesting neckline and rolled up sleeves a winner this is very unique and stylish the embroidery is stunning plus it is ex tremely comfortable it is pretty warm it does not itch me at all as others have noted just pu rchased this sweater in store as a christmas present for my self and i m in love i feel the fit besides the shoulders which are somewhat narrow is perfect i usually wear a petite medium in e verything but had to go with the regular small because they didn t have petites in the store i tried on the regular medium and it was just slightly too big everywhere overall i am so pleased with this purchase so happy i popped into retailer today and saw it i really like this jacket it runs big so you may want to size down the fabric was softer than i was expecting but i rea lly like it very cute fall jacket when i first saw this in the retailer catalog i thought it was beautiful i am a sucker for floral prints and unique color combinations both of which thi s top has i m 5 3 120 lbs and a small bust at 32b i usually wear a size 2 but it was a littl e loose all around so i d say it runs big they had the size 2 at a low sale price in my local s tore so i bought it without hesitation it s a little loose but very flattering and very good qu ality i definitely recommend it if your shape is s i saw this online and just had to have it i t fits and looks exactly as pictured excellent for spring or fall this bomber really is superb it s everything you could want in a jacket beautiful color that goes with so much i got the pi nk and is so trendy this fall i am 5 4 and smaller on top so i purchased the small i didn t w ant it too baggy but i probably could ve sized up to a medium too but it does have it s prob lems the neck although it has pretty button detail at the back is very outsized on me i woul d like to see it fit a bit more snugly as by not laying flat necklaces bunch up and are hard to wear with it it is just sort of floppy if i m making sense the camisole liner is nicely made and attaches with snaps at the shoulders which gives this a definite plus the fabric is sort of like chiffon with appliquã d flowers the color combination is beautiful and with the i love thi s skirt the colors and the softness i am little disappointed though that the skirt shrunk quit e significantly in a cold water hand wash after the second time of wearing i don t know if it i s the material but i followed the instructions for washing i am going to keep the skirt because i love it so much and hope that it might stretch a little out with wear and go back to its norma l size despite the shrinkage i highly recommend i love this shirt i wore it to a friend s ba by shower and received a lot of compliments on it the neckline and shoulders and very flatterin g but then i m not very busty so maybe that s why it worked for me the material is hand wash only but well worth it for such a unique pretty top i also didn t get any weird smell from th is shirt nor did i think the material was too stiff i recently purchased this jacket online in the rose color and it is beautiful i usually wear an xs in retailer but purchased this in size s after trying on the grey color at the store there was no xs to try for comparison but the s f it well and leaves room for light layers underneath the only reason i rated it as runs small is that xs is my usual size so this may be true to size for most i also wanted the option of zi pping with layers underneath the sleeves are long but can be rolled this dress needs such a spe cific body type but that s not to say it isn t for everyone this dress is lovely but it s a dre ss that you need to try on in multiple sizes to figure out which will fit i tried this in three different sizes to find the fit it was supposed to be i had to size up and go to petite size i do vary between 6 and 8 and this one i ended up getting an 8p this dress is lovely but it is a trial and error dress so don t get discouraged if you have to size up it will look love this swe lad i made the purchase i really wanted to love this sweater after reading all the reviews but it just didn t work for me the pattern is amazing almost a little over powering making it one of a kind and unique but what i didn t like the color of the knit collar and front bands it s an old looking mauve tweed grandpa color i probably would have kept it if that color was diff ything i found both colors at my local antro today almost ordered the grey online because tha t s all that was available but decided to check my store first so glad i did the peach is so pretty and looks really good with my blond hair the grey looked much more like a faded black darker than pictured online imo i would have still purchased it in grey if that s all they had because it is such a great piece but the peach really is lovely i m 5 10 145 p agree with the positive reviews this fits nicely with my casual lifestyle i ordered an xl in the grey althoug h i generally wear a large it s a bit oversized with plenty of room for layering it does bulge a bit in the back but the knit waistband still hits just below my waist the only drawback is th at the sleeves are a bit wide long and loose at the wrist it s lined in the body with a soft f leece the sleeves aren t lined but have a soft silky fabric in the cuffs so easily rolled addi ng i this dress is really simple and elegant and i want to love it but i m having a hard time ge tting it to fit right i m normally a size 4 6 and i bought this in an 8 and couldn t zip it up i m a 36d which is part of the problem so i exchanged it for a 10 and i can now zip it but the b ar in the back i thought would cover my bra strap but like other reviewers mentioned its a bit h igh most of my bras fall right into the hole beneath the bar its unfortunate because i wanted to love this dress i mi i bought this dress to wear to a funeral i usually wear a medium but w hen i tried it on it was way too big so i exchanged it for a small which fit perfectly the side slits make the dress a bit sexy and the styling is boxy but very comfortable especially with the pockets the fabric lies beautifully on the body i would recommend this dress this dress is pe rfect for anyone with an hour glass shape it is true to size i am 5 3 and 125b the 2 petite fit perfectly the fabric has a little give to it so if you have hips and a chest it will stretch a little without feeling tight and dress sinches in the waist creating a beautiful silhouette it s the structure of this dress that makes it elegant and sexy this dress is so figure flattering i could not believe how many complements i ve received on it this shirt is so soft and buttery it fits tts and just as shown on the model for the sale price this shirt is a gonga good go t o shirt on those days where you re just not sure what to wear one thing that slightly bothers m e about this shirt is that the arm holes are a bit loose so you can see your bra i think if yo u wear a black bra with it though it would be fine 1 i m 5 5 tall 145 lbs and 38 32 40 and the size 30s fit me perfectly \n\n2 i like the regular hyphen chinos and the stet chinos but t hese pleated ones looked like clown pants because the pleats widen the hips and the ankle cuff i s very tight compared to the regular hyphen chinos \n\n3 i hated the mustard color not flatter ing to me at all i love this dress it s the right length and its very soft and comfortable it is not really denim just a soft grey material i tried on the blue one in the store before orde it s soft flattering versatile and has great detail in the stitching perfect layer for fall i m usually a large sometimes medium in hei hei jackets and the large fit very comfortably with room for light layers underneath the style is a little boxy and slouchy but the fit in the shou was very warm and comfortable i did wear a turtleneck under this because of reviews of itching i did not have any problems loved this from the minute i saw it in an email i got the blue gre y in a medium i m 5 4 140 it s a little roomy but will be nice over sweaters too i love the cropped length really well made i see no one has reviewed this yet and since it is a beautiful sweater and only available online i thought i would contribute an opinion the sweater is nice r in real life than the photo it has a wonderful feel the style this sweater has very dramati c sleeves which i like though i could understand how that might annoy someone else it is made w ith a heavy thick soft yarn so the sleeves hang nicely i have worn it once and got complements so it is a sweater that while simple is also a stand first of all i love retailer i am 67 yrs old and my whole closet comes from the store this jacket is way cute the color is very nice an d the fabric is nice only complaint is i wish the cuffs were just a bit tighter smaller this s kirt is so soft and warm looks gorgeous with middi boots or ankle boots colors are beautiful a nd the length is perfect to take you into spring this dress is amazing i have a b cup and didn t quite fill out the top enough but that is a small tailoring fix i am completly in love with this dress and recommend it highly what the picture doesn t show is that there are pockets on t he side seams that do add a bit to the hip area also the dress runs very large in my opinion i ordered a medium my usual size and everything was loose i am going to exchange it for a sma ll and hope the proportions stay the same because it s very pretty \n\nit is very boxy and kind of nightgown looking when it s big so if you wouldn t want it to cling a bit this might not be a good dress the fabric is gorgeous and soft but be a this is beautiful on it flatters the fi gure nicely the material is a rougher cotton which seems oppressive for summer even though thin it is very low cut but it looks wonderful aesthetically pleasing and very well made love it b ut does run large absolutely stunning top love what a great buy on sale i wear a medium lar ge and purchased the size 12 fits perfect beware that the bottom has somewhat of a flair the material is light so i would say this top is something to be worn transitioning between seasons late summer to fall i agree with the reviewer that said this product photo is misleading you c an t possibly wear this sweater off the shoulder as pictured it does however provide a great fi t i sized down from large to medium and the brown color is really pretty i m thinking that t his might be a hit for the petites out there but it didn t quite work on my long torso the sea m across the bust fell a little too high making the shirt ride up and the sleeve ended at a weir d spot not quite 3 4 sleeves and also not long sleeves but there is a band that makes it fee l weird the v neck in the front is low but offered full coverage on my 34a bust but i can se e it being pretty revealing on someone better endowed fabric and color is nice and it s a pret t i can t wait to wear this but it has been to hot in the south you can wear this so many ways t he material is wonderful and the pattern better in person this piece is a great easy throw on that allows you to still look polished it s heavy weight is a perfect substitute for a coat on those in between fall weather days when you don t want to lug a jacket around lining is super s oft and makes it so comfortable to wear bought this in navy going to buy another one in a dif ferent color it fits my curves beautifully does not look boxy like other tunic sweaters i also disagree with other reviews i cannot see through it loved this online and even better i n person inner lining is like a cozy sweatshirt this sweater is super flattering love the cow l neck and longer length it is not boxy or shapeless but manages to show off your figure witho ut clinging anywhere i did not find any of the colors to be see through as some other reviewers had noted i purchased the navy and think i ll go back for the brown as well size down if bet ween sizes i am 5 7 and busty and the medium fit great the description doesn t indicate the metallic thread throughout the design you cannot tell from the pix either it s also a really s trange design with the arm holes being almost the entire length of the sweater can t decide if i want to keep it or return it i really had high hopes for this sweater however unfortunately it is not as nice as i expected it to be i own a few angel of the north sweaters and i really d on t feel like this particular sweater meets their usual standard first of all the yarn feels v ery cheap and is not very soft secondly the actual knit also appears to be very cheap i order ed the white sweater in my usual size medium and while it fits i really can t see how they were able to get the neck of the sweater to go off the m i initially bought this in the brown in a sm all but ended up exchanging it for an xs in ivory as other reviewers have said it s not the so ftest sweater you ll try on if you want it to lightly hug your body like the way it is on the m odel you may need to size down while i love the style it feels like the type of material that will get stretched out easily so i ve been careful getting it on and off i picked this up durin g retailer days and got it on sale the quality is of the yarn is just of i agree with previous review looks so much better in person than online i really do not need another poncho style s weater but i could not resist they colors and style are great the fabric is really gorgeous and the lining is lovely and soft unfortunately being on the petite short side it just didn t look quite right on me i felt a little swallowed up i wish it had worked because it s so lov ely i am very petite size 00 xxs and i got the smallest size this top came in and it fit gr eat in the bust and arms but the bottom billowed out a little too much for my body frame type i t is so beautiful i had considered getting it altered but the material was simply too see throu gh so it had to go back beautiful gauze material and detailing though i must agree with some o f the other reviewers this sweater is so pretty but the quality of the sweater is not great m y sensitive skin found it to be itchy so sadly i had to return it i really wanted to love this top when i got it but not so much it fit nicely through the bust and torso but flared out way too much it ended up looking like a maternity top maybe because i am more of an hourglass shap e another thing it was very low cut i would not have been able to wear this without a cami un derneath the fabric didn t seem to be the best quality it also had a funny smell too it when i took it out of the package this shirt was not worth the price sadly this was a mis i kept sta lking this cape on the site since it went on a few months ago and finally decided to pull the tr igger this is an absolutely gorgeous cape perfect for hourglass figures because of the waist de fining belt its a really modern cut it reminds me of some of the red carpet cape dresses of l ate its so elegant this is a timeless cut the nude is a gorgeous rich warm brown color if you re really busty you might go up a size to get the girls covered i ordered my usual size m and i may i ordered this top from store i m 5 3 and 114 lbs i ordered size 4 fir very nice just front is little to low for me but i wear ten top it will be fine the style and material are amazing love it comfortable and warm i will wear this a lot this winter i have been admi ring this piece for awhile and finally decided to purchase it and i am so happy i did the yell ow is the perfect pop of color for fall winter but it isn t overwhelming or overpowering fit i s oversized as is in any poncho style sweater but it doesn t feel boxy or unflattering if in between sizes definitely go down i like things oversized and i went with the xs s and it fits great this will be a go to piece for many years to come absolutely lovely even better in real life this is not your typical cheap flimsy dress this is quality the fabric is interesting the color is gorgeous and the styling is flattering pay attention to the length there are mil es of fabric in that fortuny esque skirt and the model is very tall i am 5 5 and slim and ord ered petite small and it s a little longer on me than it is on the model i don t mind i ve be en looking for a special occasion dress for a long time and knew this was it walked into the ret ailer store in new york while on vacation and saw this on display had to try it on immediatel y and loved the look received several compliments from customers in the store it s beautifully made soft on the inside and makes a great statement piece that i will enjoy for years to come you will need to size down cause it runs large i love it i love this sweater i ord ered the xs because i have very narrow hips and i didn t want it to be too baggy it fits a litt le like a very short sweater dress on me what i really love is that the arms are nice and long one of my pet peeves is sweaters that are compromised in arm length \r\ni bought the pink and p lan to get at least one other color too i loved this sweater it is a little thin so i will pr obably wear a tank under it but you could probably get away without one i am normally either a n xs or a small and i got the xs in this sweater the bottom is a little loose like in the mode ls photo but i really like it the material this top is made of is extremely comfortable and fl attering for my body type i normally wear 12 14 and 12 fit great if you have a d or bigger yo u may need a bigger size spillage is possible with wrong size lol this cape poncho item is tot ally amazing from the moment it whispered over my head as it slipped past my hair i knew i had to have it this piece is magical it feels like you re wearing a blanket the warmth factor b ut the length is so perfect that it doesn t overwhelm you nor does it make you look like a tank the colors are amazingly saturated and the quality is so worth the price the model is wearing i t with light brown but i tried it on over black leggings in the store and it works w this dress is a beautiful color and is so lightweight and flowing will be perfect for a fall wedding that i am attending it is supposed to be loose so i think it is relatively true to size if not just a bit on the large side will look great with a kimono or other wrap when the weather is a bit c hilly i agree with the other reviewer that the belted part definitely gives some great definiti on for those with a defined waist and that it s a much lovelier color in person but that s abou t it for me thoughts below \r\n \r\npros \r\n tts i ordered the medium for my 36c 5 9 frame and found it sufficient \r\n the color is much nicer in person as the other reviewe r mentioned it s a richer brown think mocha latte in terms of color \r\n the belt really he lps tie it all together and keep it i am so surprised this was not styled properly in the photo if worn the way it should be worn it would have sold out before going on sale yes it is open do wn each side but you need to slide a belt inside the back so the back is left full and bring the belt out into the front on sides cinching in the front making this a dramaticly gorgeous piece i love it and will wear it with my leather jeans to pencil skirt i am a personal stylist and de signer and if you are thinking about this piece jump i bought the white in my usual xs size i d on t agree with some of the other reviews that say it is thin because it is not a sweater it i s a pullover in a kind of waffle weave fabric not a sweater knit very cute with a flattering fit casual wear this top is so lovely but runs soo big i ordered it online and was so surpri sed when i tried it on at home i m normally a size 14 and i was positively swimming in this to p hoping to exchange for a petite sm perfect dress for the hot late summer early autumn weeks this beauty is flowy and rich in color the tie back is adjustable which i love due to my weight fluctuations because of the tie length can be adjustable too i m short so the decision lies o n what shoes i want to wear and how high i want my hem this dress looks cute belted or with my cropped moto jacket thrown on top all in all i really like this dress and i see it staying in my closet for a long while if the horrid viscose construc i wore it belted with a close fitting cami beneath because the sweater is open down both sides be creative and wear it different ways i disagree with the other review i purchased the xxsp in navy and i think the sweater fits true to what is shown on the retailer model the sweater knit is lighter weight it is not heavy it fits more tightly to the body which i like the material is soft to me and navy color has a gra y tone to it i did not find it difficult to wear the sweater off of the shoulders at all if yo u are looking for a heavier sweater this is not for you if you do not want a body skimming swea ter this is not for y i bought this on a whim and i love it the colors are much brighter than the photo would indicate it s definitely a poncho oversize is the name of the game but it s cozy gorgeous and i wish i could wear it every day this is a beautiful skirt and such a great piece to collect from erin fetherston \n\nthe design and cut are very flattering on a variety of body types i have more of a curvy shape and love this type of cut to accentuate my smaller wast e rather than fitted dresses skirts that hug \n\nthere are several linings that help give shap e and volume the stripes are made of ribbon it s so gorgeous i ve received many compliments i ve paired with a sequin tank and glitter keds by kate spade it s a dynam this skirt is going to be perfect for the hot texas summers super lightweight and floaty and the pattern is so gor geous will go great with my favorite purple shoes i absolutely love slips and i like the grey tone of this one and that it is not super shiny it adds to the versatility of the slip which i wear many ways i wear them as under layers for long cardigans i wear them as a real traditiona l slip under other dresses and i also have been known to wear them to bed the fabric on this o ne is absolutely comfortable and lightweight i like that the fabric is cut in a babydoll format and the straps are wider an a different color which adds just enough what a classy special top really dresses up a pair of black slacks i actually think this is a perfect spring piece i lov e these leggings they look and feel great but i can t wear them out of the house there is no elastic in the waistband so they are constantly falling down i won t dare wear them out for f ear they will fall down when i walk across the street everything else about the leggings is exa ctly what i was looking for style comfort and warmth they are great for curling up to read a good book in front of the fire not for doing anything active pretty detail fits nicely i fee l it runs very tts it s a lot though fuzzy and detailed it definitely takes over the outfit i wonder about shedding as well if you pair it with dark pants or jeans it would be gorgeous with simple winter white pants at a holiday event still on the fence i don t know if its for m e good fit quality similar to the brand s other jeans this sweater was just what i was looki ng for it is so soft comfortable the design is unique and delicate yet doesn t shed or it ch the decorations are not as pure white as pictured there are several different tones of ivo ries creams i ordered the xs which is my typical size in retailer sweaters as i find that most run very large and this is no exception it is oversize but not bulky however the deco rations do add some volume so maybe not for all body types noce color as well only gave one l ess star due to thin you could see my bra quality it was pink and i tried on the grey otherwi se nice and soft regular size a little long and long sleeves but sold out n petite this i s great soft sweater that is not to bulky looking sometimes when you have a design like this it looks good off but when you put it on it makes you look like a stuffed marshmallow this sweater s knit is thin enough that when you add the accents it looks less bulky wore it with winter whi te pants and received many compliments classic retailer piece that i am so happy to have in my wardrobe high quality all wool felt jacket unlined stretchy comfortable knit i wear mine as a knit blazer and love it it is not merino soft but soft enough to wear over a long sleeve tee the neck does not itch \r\n\r\nfits tts i wear a l and that is my normal retailer size i am t empted to get the cream as well kicky little pleat in the back is interesting and comfortable great fit good colors and doesn t wrinkle easily the details on this dress were pretty but it was super poofy and i felt like it made me look bigger than i am maybe if you have a straight b ody and want to create curves this would work for that but not great on an hourglass pear shape d figure fits tts i bought these stretchy skinny cords in my usual size 28 31 waist 33 low w aist 38 5 hip butt they are comfortable and long enough for my 5 9 frame i hope they don t shrink the flower pattern on all the pairs in the store has the flowers running down the ins ide and outside of my legs the dark part runs down the middle i wish it was like the picture on the model with the print running right down the front and backs of the legs dark parts on i nner and outer thigh this dress was exactly what i was looking for a rich luxurious fabric a deep neckline and a tightly cinched waist i have a full bust and while the snug waistband was a negative for some reviewers for me it is a little miracle this dress fit like a glove and wa s flattering in my usual size thank you i recommend with reservations these leggings are 100 wool soft not itchy light weight lovely knitted pattern they run large i sized down to a s mall the first time i wore them they were fine but the second time the waist stretched out and was useless they were falling down as i walked such a shame because everything else about them is perfect for cold winter days they even fit under my silk skirt and would make other lighter garments wearable in winter so what to do at the price th the photos don t do the top justice the split back is very unique and adorable i typically take a size 8 in tops but ordered a 12 since a reviewer suggested it was narrow in the shoulders the 12 shoulder fit perfectly but th e body is way too big i was swimming it in i like it enough that i m going to visit the tail or to take in the body with the sale price it is worth tailoring i really liked the fit and f eel of these pants except the bottom of the pant leg was more bell shaped than i wanted bought white pilcro culottes last year and they weren t like this but it wasn t a deal breaker when i got home i tried to pair the chocolate pants with something to wear in the summer but it was n t working for me i think the color was just too dark and fall feeling they do run big so i d think about sizing down definitely worth giving them a try if you re okay with the these p ants are so cute and flattering the linen is substantial and the quality of the tailoring is ve ry good i typically wear a 26p but they were sold out in the gray color so i tried the 25p an d they fit perfectly this tells me that they run just a little big at least in the petite sizi ng i wish the rose color was available in petite i am considering ordering the chocolate as we ll a great addition to any wardrobe can go with nice trousers and dressier shoes for work or j eans and trainers for a casual look i didn t find it to run small and indeed thought it fit as i d expect these pants are great the pattern is beautiful and the fit is perfect they pair we ll with a s front tucked shirt or fitted colwyn neck sweater another great find from retailer gorgeous get these while you can tts has a lot of stretch these are so much fun and will se ll out so happy i received these as a christmas gift they are really cozy warm soft and sup er comfortable however they stretch out a lot as there is no drawstring or elastic on the wai st band this leads them to poof out a lot and i have to keep pulling them up this is fine for hanging out around the house but not if you want to wear them out and about i m keeping them b ecause they re so comfortable but beware how much they stretch i am 5 6 130 lbs and the siz e small fits well i love this slip i am contemplating whether i can pass it off as a dress o ver the summer the skirt is a subtle shinier grey than the top it is flattering with or withou t a bra and i am not usually the type to go without i am 5 3 32c and the xs fits perfectly al so i think it looks better in person loved the chocolate ones so much i went back for the rose my first thought when i tried them on was i could live in these honestly a very comfortable pant i purchased this skirt on a whim as an option for the up and coming hoiday party season an d was plesantly surprised it is very well made a medium weight taffita material and best of al l it has pockets i just love the combination of colors in the skirt navy blue grey and ecru stripe i paired the skirt with a taylored white dress shirt and statement necklace for a classi c look but also imagine it combined with a dressy t shirt cut as well buy it while you can i l ove this top i got it thinking i d wear it mostly with jeans but turns out i have worn it with a lot more it pairs great with cut off shorts white jeans denim jeans i have worn it tucked in with high waisted jeans for a more polished look and also un tucked for a more casual look i get lots of compliments on this top when i wear it i think it could be worn into fall with a ja cket over it very happy with it this top is a great addition to your summer wardrobe it looks great with jeans jean shorts it s relaxed and comfortable with a super flattering cut the stra ps and low cut in the back add a touch of sexy as well i really was uncertain when ordering the se because linen can be difficult these are actually very flowy and soft i do think they run a bit large the petite sizes sold out so i ordered a regular 27 it stretched out a bit too much by the end of the day if that s the case you need to be careful because the hook and tiny belt are going to struggle to keep up you should consider ordering down if you are in between sizes otherwise the rose color is beautiful accurate to the website and work i tried these on in st ore and purchased them in the chocolate brown as the fit was perfect i am 5 8 and weigh 145 p ounds with an approximate 10 difference between hips and waist the size 27 fit perfectly i wa s surprised that they did not wrinkle terribly as they are linen they withstood wear during a v ery active day and still looked great by evening they wash well and only needed a quick touch u p with the iron i liked them so well that i ordered a second pair in grey this is my 4th pair of these printed cords and they are beautiful the color says navy but these are definitely blac k with a grayish print very stretchy all over except for the waist band which is a little uncom fortable but it might loosen up some i wish the rise on these was a little higher also worth n oting is that the design on larger sizes won t look exactly like the picture my size 33 s have the floral scroll print up the front and the back but also the cut has the scroll print running i love these pants they are very soft but the linen is thick and high quality this is a beaut ifully designed jacket that everyone will love and won t want to take off i went with the gray wool i always worry about jackets that are too snug as i am busty but this fit is superb the arms are unusually long though maybe this is good for you i had a dressmaker shorten my sleev es by one inch so now it s perfect for me i bought the regular medium my usual size size 8 o r medium top 34f i tend to wear my blazers and jackets open but it s nice to know that i can but this sweater is gorgeous the colors are beautiful and the piece itself is soft i do think it is a bit shorter than i would prefer and i tend to wear petites the sweater is nice enough that i do not mind nan these tights have a nice pattern and color they look just like the phot ograph they are warm and because they are warm they have wool in them and they are a little itc hy but that s the price you pay for warmth i own several pairs of retailer tights and love th e patterns foxes scotty dogs and now trees love this blouse it has great coverage but is very light yes it is a bit sheer but with a nude bra you can t tell at all so it s great for needing to look professional on hot summer days the structure at the bust waist creates a very flattering shape and i love the bronze gold buttons with the black pattern i got a 2 usually a 0 but every once in a while i need to size up and could ve possibly gone with a 0 but am hap py with the freedom of movement i have with the arms with the 2 ove love this top it has a gre at retro vibe and the colors are great it is very soft and great quality i was in between a s ize xs and small i went with the small and wish i had gone with the xs i would definitely rec ommend this top warm and cozy tights for my daughter she loves them i know what you re thinki ng the review below this says runs small not true i am a size 4 fitted top and ordered a si ze small at first it arrived and was really boxy and so big it wasn t flattering in any way i ordered the xsmall because i really wanted this top to work the fabric quality is amazing so s oft and strong the xsmall is definitely a better fit but the cut is still a little boxy by natu re it s an excellent high quality chambray shirt if you re in the market i love this unique sh irt the only thing is is is really wide like a babydoll top fit i tucked mine into skinny je ans i ordered the xx petite on this one and unlike last year s version of a similar sweater th is one is a bit longer and looser last year i kept the xs p but it was shorter too the fit i s loose not snug or form fitting even as the smallest size available it was loose but not lar ge or unflattering the length was also appropriate love the colors and pattern too the mater ial is soft and the button detail in the back is fun i am 30dd 26 5 in waist 115 lbs for re ference love everything about this sweater i usually wear xs in most retailer tops but had to exchange for a s hope this helps this is my favorite top it is gorgeous soft oh so comfor table it s not too tight works with leggings jeans or as an over shirt love it according to the sizing chart i should be an 8 or 10 i ordered a 10 but i could not get the blouse zippe d up around the ribcage the one spot i don t keep any fat i brought it to the store to exchang e for a 12 but i couldn t breath with the 12 on for reference i am 34ddd it was the 34 part t hat didn t fit the ddd would have fit fine i think the reviews are accurate that have already been said about the material and size i usually wear a size 2 and i bought a size 4 it fits pe rfectly the blouse is very sheer but if you wear a neutral colored bra it should be fine i l ike the flow and cut of this blouse this sweater came in just as expected adorable as oth ers have said it is soft and comfy i will wear it everywhere including work i love it t he liatris floral top is a comfy sweater knit with floral accents on the front and sleeves the back has a row of buttons though the top easily slips on over one s head it contains wool but i s not in the least itchy in fact it has a silky feel to it in its finely knitted fabric it wo uld be cute with a patterned bottom like a plaid or dotted pants as shown doesn t seem to be e asy to snag i ordered this in a petite online and i usually wear petites it isn t see thru in a way that shows a lot and i love the light weight fabric i get a lot of compliments on it i love this it is perfect it is sheer but i wear a black cami underneath and it looks great so glad antro finally has something with a waist the small metal buttons are a really nice added d etail i wish you would make more tops with a defined waist like this one i was excited to see this sweater in my local store i have been coveting it online it was just as pretty in person as i hoped it would be \r\nthe color is vivid and beautiful i loved the buttons down the back \r\ni usually wear a size small but they only had an extra small i tried it on and liked the wa y it fit i wanted a snugger look i think the small would have worked too just a looser feel \r\nthe fabric is very soft now just waiting for cooler weather so i can wear it i love the lo ok of this blouse and i like the light weight material it would require a camisole underneath b ut could be worn at the office or a night out i purchased a size 4 and it fit perfect once i wa s able to get it on so i wouldn t want a larger size but because it doesn t button down all the way and it s so fitted in the waist it was nearly impossible to get it on and off over my should ers there s no give at all sadly i m going to have to return it just received my second pair of pilcro in the red i loved the color and needed a back up pair perfect fabric for year round wear length is great for my height love every pair i own this is my 12th pair love love them the structure makes this fit perfectly the details are also lovely and it is soft and well mad e it is a little sheer but i felt comfortable enough to wear it with just a black bra undernea th if you are between sizes i would probably size up the color is more like bluish green ver y elegant it s very soft and feels great on skin i love the buttons on the back it s such a g reat touch and brings this sweater to a whole new level \r\ni usually wear xs but because i m g oing to wear this sweater with a button up shirt underneath i ordered s great investment love to have it in my closet i thought the design of this dress was distinctive and it did not let me down there is no zip so if your chesty like i am it may be a little difficult to get on but i wouldn t sizes up because then it would be too big and balloony i m 5 5 and i got the petite which hit me about 2 inches above my knee material is like jeans and consequently not see throu gh at all even though it is quite expensive there is something special about the dress great top for me it would be tuck in only as a little wide near waistline i am 5 4 so can do it with top length but not sure someone taller could so depends on wardrobe needs what you plan on wea ring it with would probably look cute with skinny jeans but i bought it for skirts adorable d etailing around neckline and sleeves really love it but more sheer than i expected great with a nude bra but probably would see other colors through it super soft and cute the buttons add a nice touch the color depicted online gave me pause but when i saw it in the store it was mor e of a blue than that what you see in pic great investment beautiful sweater 34c 65 135 an d the small is perfect nan this a heavy cotton which is great for fall design is cute and pock ets are interesting the fit is boxy and can look bulky i only recommend if it s on sale loved this top it s an a line shape which is very flattering thick enough for winter with a coat but light enough for spring still i m normally a 12 14 and ordered my normal size 32 which fit perf ect i purchased both the red and beige the quality fit and color are great i m 5 9 and the re gular length was fine nan i see many uses for this sweater it is so whimsical i love it this sweater is super cute and i so wish it worked for me i am but i must like sweaters a little lon ger than everyone else because this just hit me at the wrong place if you re still trying to wo rk off that last little bit of your baby bump even 2 years removed this hits right there and e mphasizes your waist at least on me and i m 5 5 it s so cute that i might have kept it to see if i could get it to work for me but it still has the ink tag on it so it has to be returned no matter what an i really like this sweater i would suggest ordering a size up i could had worn my normal size but a size up was much more comfortable i have a burnt orange skirt that i wear with this and it makes the flowers pop if i stopped eating for a couple of months or jumped int o a time machine and set the dial for 1990 i would really enjoy this beautifully made delicate b louse the problem area is evident looking at the photo the tiny tight fitted gorgeous bodice i will keep this piece becasue i love it so and the apocolypse is apparently imminent and i have hardly any food in the house i ordered this sweater in a s and i am happy with the sizing i am 5 6 130 and athletic build it is not a long sweater and looks just like the sweater on the mod el i typically like longer sweaters but this will look great with a pair of flare jeans and a n ice belt i purchased these shorts in a size 24 i m on the petite side of things and the shorts are a little big the tie front allows you to tighten the short i actually think the photo does a good job showing this item the color is a washed out gray and the shorts are not too short the fabric is light and this will be great for hotter days i like them first comment about thi s piece is that it runs unbelievably small which is not in line with most retailer pieces i ha d to size up two sizes to get the size to close on top of being busty the material is thin and mildly see thru but i think the shape it cute and it had a unique look to it with the tiny gold buttons and non collar top i decided to keep it i tried this on in store after falling in love with it on the rack the dress is beautifully designed and has elegant subtle features i am no rmally a 2 4 in retailer dresses but the 0 was the closest fit on me unfortunately this dress fit very strangely the waist on the dress was way above my actual waist which was unusual give n i have a very short torso it also had a strange fold right around my belly button which was very distracting i ll put this all down to my extremely straight and tried this lovely navy dre ss on in the store in a size 6 and it was perfect wish there had been a petite available to try since the hem fell below the knees on me and it would have to be hemmed the crisscross on the f ront is very flattering to the waistline and i love the see through fabric along the shoulders a nd back it s stretchy too this is such a great work wear piece for me it s form flattering w ell constructed comfortable and truly elegant this is probably my 5th or 6th dress from the mo ulinette soeurs line and i am consistently impressed with the quality and wearability of these c lothes \n\n5 7 127lbs 34b wearing a size 4 this dress is perfect it s ridiculously soft i fel t like i was wearing pajamas and it fits perfectly the quality is great well worth your purch ase this dress fits beautifully the fabric is thick enough to feel significant and not flimsy but the dress doesn t feel heavy at all the detail is gorgeous but still subtle it s a little too nice for me to wear to work but the perfect special occasion or party dress this dress is a mazing i bought this dress for my daughter for her college graduation it fits like a dream sh e normally wears a size 2 but i got the 4 which was perfect with the slightly longer length it is very professional but with the lace cut outs is great for a party as well it is very flatte ring and well made i fell in love with this dress in the store and have been so excited to rece ive my size in the mail but the proportions are all off even the petite size is too long in th e torso and the regular is laughable for anyone that isn t an amazon princess and i m not even that short 5 4 \n\ncurvy ladies also keep in mind that though the rest of the dress stretche s nicely the grosgrain ribbon detailing in the midsection does not and will cut into any extra flesh hiding out on those hips i would boy is this a winner the fabric has quite a bit of stre tch so it is form fitting but with enough structure that it doesn t make you bulge out in weird places i can wear it with a blazer as a admittedly dressy day to evening look and i can tell i m going to get a lot of mileage out of it for the season s holiday parties i am bigger on bot tom than on top and sometimes that can end up with weird bagginess around the bust for me but not with this dress i m tall 5 8 and so the length is g great dress wonderful on hourglass a nd skinny straight shaped girls \r\nlove the color combination and fit love the fabric and desi gn of this dress very unique and comfortable it is not lined which explains the lower price w hen compared to other well fashioned dresses i wore it successfully with stockings and no slip and it did not ride up or cling strangely the fabric is stretchy and form fitting without feeli ng tight the ribbons that define the detail around the waist were a bit snug but we re not unco mfortable they define the waist very well i am 5 7 127lbs athletic build and the 4 fit i ca n wear this to work or dress it up as a cocktail dress the fit is great and the quality is ver y high am usually a 2 or a 4 depending on the dress and the 2 worked better in this one so i f you are between sizes i would size down i cannot say how much i love this dress i purchased it in mid november and i m wearing it for the 4th time this evening which prompted me to write a review it fits tts the stomach area is slightly unforgiving but due to the dark color it s not at all a deal breaker plus it s a great dress to wear with opaque tights which solve the tummy issues as well what i love most about this dress is its ability to go from day to night l ess formal to more formal it looks great with edgy black ankl so when i first found this dress it was already on sale and sold out in petites for reference i am 5 2 and currently weighing i n at about 108 and my bust is a 32d the store near my work has a petite shop thank goodness so i headed there after my day they didn t have it in my size but they did have the regular siz ing in a 0 which i promptly purchased \n\nthe crossed part sits a little higher than my natural waist but i think for someone with a slightly smaller chest it would hit spot on comfortable s horts thinner fabric pattern disguises underwear lines love the exterior pockets as i won t have to tuck them in when i zip up as the previous reviewer said the black and white pattern h as blue accents they re mid rise and a longer length which i appreciate i am very petite 5 96 100 lbs and find this to be pretty formfitting not in a bad way a rare feat for petites it is very comfortable soft sweater like material and texture which does make the dress feel slightly cheap to me but it doesn t make it look cheap it s also beautifully patterned in pers on pretty true to the online photo with the only difference being the dress is darker in perso n so i don t feel the blue stands out as much as it does on the online photo the length is the se shipped fast the fit is good these shorts have some stretch to them which is nice there is a green blue color in the fine detail making them versatile with a few different colors of to ps true to size the length is perfect for my taste i am 5 7 if i saw this online i would ne ver have glanced at the picture twice instead i came across it at the store and immediately sn atched it up to try on the green is very spring y and rich while the raised little dots give it a lovely texture overall really adorable on and fits fine in the regular although i am usually petite i am in love with this top i was a little nervous because i m on the bustier side 34d dd but it works for me so i say give it a shot you never know i m hoping for more tops like t his in the fall line at first i was interested i liked the color the soft tencel fabric the cut in the back it was all good they didn t have my size in the store so i had to order it wh en it arrived in the mail it was folded up and wrinkled i tried it on and it looked like a life less unstructured blazer i sent it back \r\nall in all it is cute and fun for warm weather i t is definitely a casual blazer i d probably wait for a sale on this one \r\nit does run tts l ove this piece it is warm and attractive and will set any outfit off from a dress to jeans and a t shirt i look forward to wearing it often fits true to size looks great just wish it was a tad longer but i am 5 10 so tried it on in store it s more of a cornflower blue instead of a true navy if you zoom in you ll also notice there s a pattern to it i think it gives it a li ttle something extra i may put gold buttons on it as the plain black buttons are a little borin g \r\n\r\n didn t buy it right away and came back with a survey coupon and it was out of stock had them order and free ship it to me from the store \r\n\r\nfit is nice and relaxed i like ho w it goes up in the back so it pairs well with dresses and very fun shirt is see through beyond lace so need to wear black tank or black bra very comfy flirty and feminine tts flowy fit li ke on model what a flattering top great with jeans or shorts i m a sz12 and l was perfect for me love the colors got lots of comments finally saw this dress online i have to say that it looks better in person the model might be too tall for this dress i am 5 4 it s right to my ankle the color is in a nice off white the material is a good quality the overall cut is nice it s a kind of classic feeling you could wear it for a long time without going out of style i w as going to re turn this top i was really on the fence so glad i didn t it is comfortable an d easy to wear lace is a little restrictive but willing to over look it because i look so cu te i like these pants they fit nice but they are sheer which is not a problem for me my only i ssue was that the print is not symmetrical as shown in the picture the print is what drew me to these pants the pattern is all over the place in the ones i received they are nice so i will k eep them at the sale price but i don t think they would be worth it at full price this white bl ouse is absolutely stunning in person i wore it with a nude strapless bra note to self remove makeup before blouse otherwise it s all over your blouse these are soft silky and super comf ortable the fit is very flattering especially with muscular legs beautiful pattern and colors fit like a glove however unfortunately they felt like pj pants i know they are beach pants but they were pretty see through for the price i decided to return and wait for potential sale \r\nps i needed heels as they are long if you usually get petite i tried this one and actually liked it more on me when the shoulders were slightly covered so i decided to leave it back as i t would bug me eventually but the style is very feminine and the colors are gorgeous if yo u like off the shoulder look i say definitely worth it the fabric was soft enough too \r\n\r\n the xs or 0 was great regular size for 115 lbs 30 dd nan cannot believe this is still avai lable and on sale am 5 6 1 2 150lbs size 12 is perfect this jacket goes with everything i try it with it is silky smooth but still has structure is a softer blue than navy i love it this is an absolute steal on sale this is a gorgeous blouse the quality is on point i was so disappointed because i had to return it \nthe blouse was just a few inches too tight across the bust i loved this top from first sight and finally bought it this week i am usually a six or a small the small was so tight on the top that the ruffle rolled up across my chest i ended up w ith a medium beautiful blouse my only complaint is that the lace is too open for my taste i m a size small or a 4 for the most part in retailer i can sometimes wear an xs i decided to ke ep the small yes it s slightly restricting but i don t notice it much it s definitely not a straight jacket i also ordered a medium and in a way it could have worked but there was a lot o f extra fabric i am not flat chested i wear a 34c 32d depending on the bra if you are inbe tween sizes like me go with the larg i was looking for a cute going out top that was age appropr iate 40yo i read other reviews that it ran large so i got xxs regular xs not available for reference i am 5 2 and 95 pounds but semi broad in the shoulders \r\n\r\ni was wary of the pol y fabric but it is surprisngly nice and drapes well easy care for sure doesn t look cheap at a ll when worn on the shoulders the elastic is tightish but maybe i could have gone to xs if th ey had it but at least i know the xxs won t fall slide \r\n\r\ni nan i love this top super sof t fabric and beautiful with jeans getting ready to retire and will make this a regular in my ne w wardrobe thanks retailer for putting it on sale this top is beautiful the cutout portion ex tends below the bust but is intricate enough to look good with a black bra or exciting with sa y a taupe or grey one the fit across the shoulders is snug but the rest of the top is very vo luminous don t expect to tuck this swamp thing in it s a bit of an odd contrast but if you re prepared to wear something that is itself a beautiful object even if it doesn t really make sen se for a human body this is it color is very nice and dark with just a little fading around the knee i sized down to 25 from my usual 26 27 5 4 120 lb i m not really sure what the des igner was trying to accomplish with this dress the fabrics and details are pretty but the shape is really strange for one thing the dress has a very straight cut so there is not a lot of roo m for movement and the thin belt makes the shape even worse i felt like i was wearing a really fancy garbage bag also the way the bottom flares out is just strange considering the cut and l ength i really wanted to like this dress but unfortunately it was a complete miss this vest goe s with literally everything it is the perfect amount of added warmth though it s a bit hard t o fit under a coat the only thing i will say negatively about it is that it seems to shed on th e inside a bit but otherwise the quality color and length are perfect and i love the pocke ts dress runs a little small tight on top so i had to exchange from a size 8 to a size 10 or iginally ordered a petite but petite wasnt available in the 10 so i will probably have to get al tered for an extra expense the material is light and soft flowers are muted maybe would of pr efered a little sleeve but design is so cute i consider myself fairly busty 34 d but i didn t have any problems wearing my normal size small medium i actually went with the small the lace inset doesn t give but it wasn t tight at all i love the flow of the blouse it is goin g to be a great transitional piece into fall unlike other reviews i find this top to run true t o size for reference i m 5 3 117 lbs 34 b cup and took an xs top fits comfortably no tight ness around the chest and sleeves fullness isn t overwhelming the lace is see through so a c ami is a must top is of excellent quality and craftsmanship i have not laundered it yet so i can t comment on that so happy with my purchase a keeper for sure nan get this while you can it will not last to hit the sales it is a beautiful top with very unique colors and pattern re minds me of key west it has a slight tent shape at the bottom which is not how it appears to b e but the cut is very nice and well done i wouldn t size down as the armholes are not huge a nd then it would be too tight i will have to cut them about 1 2 to not bug me and i m typical ly a med which is the size i got i could take the sides in about 1 on each side which is the fabric is very comfortable and soft \r\nlove it great fit tts \r\nwould recommend these pants are amazing i usually have a hard time finding ones to fit me due to my small size 5 1 100 lb s but the 0 fit me perfectly they are not too tight just slim enough without clinging to you like a second skin love the length hits just above the ankle bone versatile and comfortable however if i were any heavier i cannot say these pants would work i am fairly thin in most c ases i would size up very interesting material the very subtle light window pane pattern is p erfect this is an easy going weekend piece it wrinkles a bit easily but it s comfy and swingy i was a little confused about how to wear the shirt due to the open lace pattern nude bra or nu de cami i m still not sure if it s appropriate to wear without a cami i love this top in peach i usually wear a size 8 and ended up buying the large because that was all they had in store it fits well but loose i usually front tuck it in what i love the most about this top is the perf ect way it slouches off your shoulders very effortless but doesn t feel like it is falling off a few other off the shoulder tops i tried are either falling off or rising up and you constantl y have to pull them down over your shoulders due to elastic in the shoulder this top h i m so glad i found this gem in the store as the online pic does this shirt no justice the green ver sion is vibrant and adorable and this shirt is lightweight without being see through for siz ing reference i m 5 4 135 lbs 34c and a size 6 petite i tried this in the store in a size 4 and an 8 only sizes they had and rushed home to order it online in a 6 perfect fit so i b elieve its true to size the little details the buttons and stitching make this shirt such a winner classic dress with a twist with split colors very comfortable without looking like a ba g on can be dressed up or down i am 5 7 118 and bought th extra small perfect fit for me no t form fitting but still has shape and style i fell in love with this dress from the moment i s aw it on various mother s day weekend insta posts by retailer stores i was worried that it woul d not be a great cut for me as it s pretty straight up and down and i wasn t sure the waist wo uld hit at the right place because i m super high waisted and this didn t appear to be so in t ruth it isn t and i ll be tying the ribbon or wearing a slim belt at a higher point than whe re was originally intended however what struck me was the ability this is a cute dress not re al form fitting and made of a thin but comfortable jersey material little see thru and kind of sexy though if you have cute lingerie this dress is stunning i have been stopped in the street by people asking where the dress is from my only complaint is that it was very wrinkled when i bought it initially i thought it was supposed to be that way but after seeing the stock photos i realized it needed to be ironed it took a long time to iron all of the wrinkles out but it i s totally worth it i bought this top for my daughter the colors are so vibrant and the design and feel of the top is flattering this top can be worn with black pants for a night out with fr iends or with jeans or shorts to hang out at the beach my daughter loves it this shirt is not hing like the online pictures it s a stunner in person ended up with the black one though i wa s torn between it and the white i would agree with some other reviewers that it has little to n o give across the chest so i bought a l due to broad shoulders the m fit like a glove and i was afraid it might tear if i raised arms or reached for something not sure if a large busted girl would be comfortable though i sized up it didn t affect the way it hangs and it hangs beautifu ll i love this off the shoulder top it is so flattering and the colors are gorgeous i normal ly wear a small or medium in retailer tops i am wearing an extra small in this one and it fits great i am only 5 1 tall so the length hits me perfectly i was not sure about ordering this d ress but i m glad i did i love the cut and all the details very unique i am usually a 10 an d the medium fits me perfectly love love if you re on the fence about ordering this dress i say go for it for reference i m 5 6 and the hem hits me mid calf i love this top and was so happy when it came out in black i m typically an 8 on top and sized up to a 10 and it still fe els slightly small across the shoulders and arms it also requires a under tank because it s ver y sheer even with the lining worth it though this dress looks very good on me it s a cute wa y to appear dressy without the extra work to look the part unfortunately i will need to exchan ge for a bigger size i am 5 3 115 pounds i normally wear a 2 or a 4 i ordered a 4 and they are a bit too tight i am worried the 6 will be to big but love the pants enough to give that a try excellent quality very flattering fit a little billowy but i m okay with that because it hides my stomach have to wear a camisole underneath as you can see through the lacey parts ove rall i love the shirt design fabric and fit i bought this blouse in black in december of 2015 like other reviewers noted it has a bit of an odd fit with the lace being a bit constrictive ac ross the bust and raising arms it wasn t a deal breaker because i loved the look of the blouse however i just purchased this blouse in the new color blue in july of 2016 and i m happy to say the blue color is looser and i have no problems with the lace being constrictive around the bust or arms \r\n \r\nthe blue blouse i just purchased is definitely l i love this dress so much ve ry detailed and comfortable looks great with the pilcro vest great top cuter in person with d etails than looks in picture i found it to be true to size though i was worried it might be too boxy and wide it was great very cute i do mostly plan on tucking it in with skirts love lov e love this top it is everything i hoped it would be i liked that it could be worn up or off the shoulder what made me fall in love were the colors quality is excellent as usual it is qu ite full in bodice however it s only an xs i do best with xxs tops the comfort of this fabric is terrific the swing y style is easy to wear however i expected a black and white dress whi ch is how it looked on line in person the light portion of the dress is a marled oatmeal color it is fine just not what i expected \n\nif you are a fan of swing dresses this is a great ca sual choice i tied this on a whim thinking it was a big 80s on the hanger but it is so cute a nd hip i fell instantly in love the material is amazingly soft and generally doesn t wrinkle i wore it for my thesis presentation and it went flawlessly it has a very light light grey wind ow pane print on it that looks great with grey pixie pants white pants and the blue is light e nough you could even pair it with black bottoms and jeans a total catch and the fun layover in the back is just an added pop of you must have this vest for your fall winter wardrobe the desi gn is extremely flattering to the female curves i love the feminine ruffles the pockets are a bonus the vest is vegan friendly a hundred percent polyester i normally wear a medium but th e small size fits me better as an artist i like to wear with my red plaid retailer shirt hurr y and get this vest before they are sold out i m sick i missed out on the museum district vest all the smalls were sold out i hope my experie another keeper this top is just beautiful it i s so well made worn with a black cami chunky necklace and skinny jeans perfection the back dr apes longer in the back which i liked as well this top is beautiful the lace is sturdy and int ricate and the top drapes perfectly slimming but a word to the wise the lace does not stretc h at all even though the rest of the material does and that coupled with where it is on the bust and back means very limited movement unless you are a size 0 with an narrow back chest and shoul ders i can t imagine anyone with a cup size larger than a b wearing this i am 5 5 145 lbs an d a 34b and always a small or medium and a size 6 for reference i thank you to all of the revie wers who took the time to write a review your reviews are what help me know exactly which size to order and how to know that i needed a regular instead of a petite i m 5 3 and typically wear a size 8 in retailer sizes i went with a medium regular based on other reviews thanks so much because the fit was perfect though still a little roomy since i could not find this jacket in t he store i ordered it online and received it today i would say it runs true to size to me fo r reference i am 5 2 120lbs and size small fits fine the material is a little bit on the th in side it is not as thick as a typical denim jacket i also found the color of the buttons to be different from the online images the online images showed that the buttons are bronze golden color but the one i received comes with gunmetal colored buttons i don t k this dress fits wel l and is comfortable my only reflection is that i am 5 9 and it hits at my mid shin rather th an where it appears on the model nan i paired this beauty with the beacheress necklace and the result was stunning the colorway in this top just makes my summer tan pop i am 5 3 36b 108 lb s and the xs fit perfectly since it does run short there is no way that i would suggest anyone go with a petite unless they are under 5 and or very short waisted the fabric in the top drape s beautifully and i felt super feminine all evening and got tons of compliments as well it s embarrassing to admit but i am buying this top for the second time because i ve misplaced the fi rst one and i fear that if i wait too long trying to recover it that it will be a sold out item and i ll never be able to have it again hence the decision to repurchase i just love it that much i m sure that now that i have the second top the first one will mysteriously show up lol \r\n\r\nanyway this top is a very flattering off the shoulder style one of the things i really like about it is a little boxy a little short in the waist a little overpriced but the shoul der ruffle and the color are so flattering and in the mirror it just says summertime casual chic and cute this shirt is such a pretty color i was so excited to get it however i felt like th e fit was not flattering it sort of just hung on me didn t do much for me i actually ended up returning it i love this blouse the color is very cheerful with it s small white polka dot des ign i usually wear a medium but went with the large because the shirt is slightly sheer and i w ill likely wear a cami underneath it s funny because i coveted this top online for weeks but l ooking at the reviews i kept thinking that it would look ridiculous on me i am very busty and d o not like things to cling or be too tight however when i went into the store today i tried on both the cream and the black in larges and both fit beautifully i decided to go with the black just because i thought that i would get more use out of it i find that it fits well though per haps the sleeves because of the elastic are a tad bit the girls at the local retailer are big fa ns of coh i ve been thinking maybe i shld try them out i ordered these online in the size 29 as i am usually a 28 29 in skinnys i am a little hard to please or say hard to fit in skinny j eans i like a snug good looking skinny but not so much if it s uncomfortable paying full price it is expected for the look fit to be perfect even if on sale i won t go it if i think somet hing is not right for me at 5 3 117 slender legs skinnys are either i love the desi blouse i got it in white and it s a little more off white than pure white but it is a great flowy top the touch of lace across the bust is a nice accent the only down fall is that the sleeves are a bit puffy but the rest of the top makes up for that i am usually a small sometimes medium pur chased a small and want to wear it off the shoulder but it is too tight and the fabric is scratc hy it is a crepe fabric and although beautiful the hand of the material is not for me \r\nconfu sed if i should return or get a medium as the look is very cool \r\ni wish this had been linen o r some more natural material but still recommend it as a good buy this is such a cute top i lik e it both off and on the shoulder easily tucked or left out depending how you want to style it i tried this dress on in store and fell in love with it as soon as i put it on it s beautifully made the fabric is soft comfortable and free moving and overall it has a lovely vintage rom antic look i actually ended up wearing it for a family photo shoot the next week and was pleas ed with how it looked in our photos as well especially the lovely way the fabric draped anothe r reviewer said it seemed baggy and oddly shaped it does seem shapeless before you tie the wais t tie but once tha this is a great looking top in person i ve worn this with jeans or skirts f or different looks and it s cute both ways i would order a size up though as it is not a flexib le fabric so the shoulders chest area need a little room to move comfortably nan i was hesitant to buy this because some reviews said that if you were busty it would fit tight and awkward acro ss the chest i m petite 32c 5ft and purchased the xsp in white it is gorgeous it fits a ti ny bit big and i think i could have gotten away with a xxsp but i like the flowiness of this si ze i have so i m keeping it it does not feel tight across the chest at all and hangs beautifull y i love it the material is gorgeous and it is well made i am so glad i read the reviews for this before i purchased it i am 5 5 and 135 pounds and normally wear a size 6 in dresses i wou ld normally buy a small but sized down to an xs and it was perfect it s a beautiful dress and very flattering this top is my new favorite i thought it might have too much volume but it do es not it is very flattering the color looks just like the picture had to send back for excha nge way too big i m very excited to get a smaller size because they are really beautifully mad e i like the color and the plaid pattern on this top the material is soft to the touch and des pite being petite i bought the regular length to pair with tights it has the feel of a baby do ll because of the longer length on me i quite like the feminine cut of the top which makes it s lightly unique as far as plaid tops go the material also doesn t feel too flimsy or cheap and t he top feels well made it will not be hard to reach for this item as it is a versatile piece a s many reviewers have n this dress is really beautiful i plan on wearing it to my nephew s wedd ing in april my only complaint would be is that it runs extremely small i am 5 feet tall and 9 0 pounds slim build and normally wear a 00p or 0p i ended up with the 2p and it fits perfect ly my advice to anyone considering purchasing is to order several different sizes and return th e ones that don t fit i love this shirt so much that i bought a second one even though they are exactly the same the cut and the fit are free and easy so comfortable and how many shirts are all cotton anymore washes well hang dry easy to care for i recommend this shirt for a casual look with style i love these pants the material is so nice and well made i love the glittery threads within the pattern the waistband is elastic which is good for me as my waistline fluctu ates these pants can be dressed up or down the length was perfect and hit at my ankle i m 5 3 the only flaw is that i wish the pant leg was slimmer around the ankle it would be a more flatt ering look \r\n\r\none thing to note if you have a big butt or do not like to emphasize that part of you these are not the pants i love these shorts they re really comfortable and versati le i got them on sale and for the price they were a steal the material is nice and you can d ress them up or down i purchased this top during the 20 off sale and i m very pleased with it i love how flowy it is without looking like a maternity top for reference i m 5 4 130 and pu rchased a small my usual retailer size if you have broad shoulders you may have to size up as i found the arms and shoulders to run a little small i loved this look it s s great light hood ie to throw on comfortable nice color and unique with the plaid later i m 5 3 and the xs fi t well i love these pants they really make you look and feel classy i also bought the feather tank and absolutely love this outfit it is flattering beautiful and oh so comfy true to size love this top the quality is great and the pattern is even cuter in person i m 5 4 125 lbs a nd bought my normal size s which fits perfectly it s pretty flouncy and roomy which is nice be cause it hides my post baby tummy especially love how the back covers my bottom which means i c an wear my skinny black leggings underneath definitely recommend this top is so pretty and fem inine i love how the design and quality of this top i tried on the xs in store would need xxs i think it is short enough to not need petite anyway the neck part was really bunching up on me between neck and girls it wasn t flattering the rest of the tank is really pretty and fla ttering though but the bunching was enough for me to leave it behind the fabric is soft and t he color is nice warm neutral i love the lace back with the subtle layer of satiny looking fabr ic overall goo perhaps i don t have the right shoulder shape fr this very comfy and really ni ce fabric can see myself wearing these a lot i m a size 12 and the fit was perfect this is so soft and really cute would be a good bathing suit cover must wear a cami under it i tried on this top in the ivory color in the store but i didn t need another ivory colored top so i pass ed it up however i kept thinking about the pretty details especially trim on the sleeves so when i saw it online in the red color i ordered it i was surprised when it arrived with how th in and sheer the fabric is the soft flowy mini pleated body of the shirt the other sections ar e flat cotton which is more sturdy i hadn t noticed this when i tried on the ivory version b ut i m ke i bought this top in black and love it the crossed straps in the back give it a styli sh twist i also tried it in white and found it to be a little see thru these shorts are super comfy and the color is awesome flattering fit and design but the material is thin and they are semi sheer great for lounging and the beach very comfy i bought these pants online in blue a nd loved them so much that i bought them in the bronze two days later very flattering fit comf ortable great quality and i look and feel like a class act wearing them they re a bit of a lo oser taper style of fit but that s just the style and i ve received so many compliments on the m this dress looks amazing on it fits your body like a glove and the zipper lies flat the bla ck out lined neckline looks very sophisticated as does the pattern of the dress my only issue i s that the dress ran very small this is a heavier weight shirt it is fitted through the bust a nd shoulders and very loose below so if you don t like loose fitting clothes this is not for y ou it is well made and looks cute with jeans i absolutely love this shirt it s so easily dres sed up and is still really cute just on top of black pants and flats great for the holiday seas on too i am normally a size medium in all tops i am 5 8 150 lbs athletic built and the med ium is perfect true to size definitely recommend tried this top on in store in a small and i t was a bit snug in the chest 32dd but loved it otherwise the sales associate had it shipped to me in a medium and it is perfect a great length over leggings or skinny jeans and is lightw eight enough for warmer days or can be layered with a tank underneath and a cropped cardigan for colder ones nice top you can dress it up or down runs very large i had to exchange sizes twi ce my regular top size is 10 but end up buying size 6 i was hoping not to like this tee so tha t i can be 48 richer lol it s very cute i would say runs true but more on the smaller side i usually wear xs and it s a good cut for me it s not boxy at all i love the strap detail on t his tee i hope the quality will hold up for reference i am 5 3 and 123lbs 2 4 i got this dr ess on line i ordered several sizes after reading the reviews it does run small i usually we ar a 2 in dresses and needed a 4 i love the fit and it is a beautiful dress however the littl e black pin dots are easy to snag i wore it once didn t feel like i was wild that night ha but when i took it off that night it had 3 places where it had snags ugh these are lovely dr essy pants but they act larger than they need to even for the model above see photos i usua lly order size 8 10 in pants and size 10 in these fit at the waist but felt bulky below partly because of large pockets made of the same material another detail to note there is metallic th read running thru out the material glinting more than the photos show the golden vertical leaf lets don t show as much because of the overall shine so i will return these lovelies because nan tis is a soft soft cotton shirt that is comfortable and cute it s a great top to use put o n and go i m looking forward to wearing it often this tee is versatile soft well made and i t washes dries well i love longer length and stripe pocket details it runs true to size and i t is a beautiful dark navy blue what more can i ask for after reading other people s reviews i was afraid it might be too long i ordered the regular xs as all the petite a were sold out i found the length to be perfect and i am only 5 2 love all things mes demoiselles and these do not disappoint the gold does not show in the picture but they sure do sparkle in a great way the fabric is rich and can be worn all year as they are light weight for summer but carry a look perfect with sweaters i love them and with the sale on sale they were a steal and happy to have them they will be that one piece that i will grab again and again i love the look of peasant blouses and shorter vests in a contrast print would be incredible nan love this top great twi st on a traditional plaid looks great with skinny jeans or leggings i get compliments on it ev ery time i wear it these pants are attractive but their material is stiff and feels like canvas i like them but am not sure that i love them perhaps they will get softer with wear but onl y time will tell super light and soft haven t worn it out but expect to wear with jeans it wi ll be cute and comfy i m 5 2 130 lbs and bought a small fits well i bought this shirt in wh ite and am happy with the fact that it s not too sheer the back detail is great my only compla int is that it is too long i got the small and it fits nicely in the arms and top but it is mu ch longer on me than on the model i m 5 5 tall it doesn t look great when i do a half tuck b ut it looks fine if i tuck it all the way in maybe an xs would have been a better fit i really liked these pants they are so audrey hepburn i especially like how they come up high on my wai st i actually bought 3 different pairs of essential pants and kept all of them essential ta per and essential slim i stated that these run small but they just seem to run smaller than th e other two i m 5 3 and they are a touch longer than i d like but that is an easy fix for ref erence i m 110 lbs and bought size 2 in these and 0 in the others nan i bought a pair in both b lack and green i sized up one size because of previous reviews i am happy with the fit they a re very comfortable look good and keep their shape the only negatives are after two washings following the directions cold water no dryer the black has faded and the hook closure on one is difficult to close and the other was barely attached overall i would still recommend them i love these pants the color is great the style is comfortable and easy but can be dressed up like other reviewers i washed these according to the care instructions and they shrunk horribly however after some googling i was able to find a fix soak the pants for 5 10 minutes in warm water mixed with 3 4 tsp hair conditioner gently wring them out and start to gently stretch t he fabric as much as possible hang on a drying rack and continue to gently stretch the fabric a s the pants dry so soft and comfortable i wish i d bought the other colour too i love that th ese are a nice thin stretchy material not in a bad or cheap way because they are perfect for t he warm weather as well i got the color grey in a size 29 i usually wear a 29 in stevie s so t hey were tts maybe a bit tight in the beginning but they do stretch a little with wear i did t ry on the size 30 but they were a little big around the waist for reference i am 5 6 145lbs size 6 m the fit of stevies are perfect and hugs in all the right places i have wider calves a nd it thank you retailer these really are the perfect black pants great fit and construction the material doesn t wrinkle they slim and shape the body and they are at a good price point i did have to go up one size but i especially love the elastic in the waistband my local store al most sold out of these in a day love these jeans love the sleeves good length and fit it s a basic tee that has added flare this is probably my new favorite bathing suit the colors are a tad different than in the picture but still really pretty runs a bit small very slimming lo ve these when will they be available in moss again love this suit i ordered up a size on the bottoms and am so glad i did the style fits true to size is beautiful and vibrant i thought it looked like ribbing vertically but it is just part of the design it is not padded at all b ut is thick enough to be seamless tried one at the store love the look and feel of this pants so soft and flowy sizing runs large for reference i m 5 4 and 115 lbs xxsp fits just right highly recommended love this top for spring great with athletic leggings regular leggings or jeans it is a lot longer in the back which i like as it covers my butt and makes leggings work appropriate great quality true to size i am 5 9 and 128 lbs xs fits perfectly fabric is a little wrinkly but that is intentional lighter material so it is good for spring weather but sturdy enough not to be see through at all i m a tunic girl have to admit that for me this to p is fab i love roomy swingy tops and this is exactly that as others have mentioned it is q uite roomy at the bottom however the weight of the fabric is so light it lays very nicely i l ove how it fits in the arms i hate when arms are too big the sleeve fits snugly for reference i am 5 5 140 lbs the small fit perfectly i have already worn several times to work perfect i n the a c i m just ordering my 3rd pair i first got the grey just about live in them super comfy and flattering then i got the off white and now i ordered the green which i cannot wait t o get great pant perfect \nthese cords are soo soft but hold their shape\nlow rise is great f or shorter people regular rise comes just between navel and bra i purchased these in white a nd love them fit my muscular thighs fine love this top it runs very true to size is not too boxy and looks great on my 5 1 body i bought a medium i purchased the beige top first then bought this one great addition to my wardrobe i purchased these in large which is normally my size on bottom they are a little roomy and the waist is so high on me that i am going to tack t he waist down they are ok good quality but not the best pants in the world this tunic is flow y without having too much material to make you look bigger i love the way it fits i m 5 4 12 5 lbs and got a small i was on the fence about ordering this jacket but i m so glad i did i g ot my birthday discount to help afford it as the first reviewer said the weight is substantial but not too heavy and the embroidery is beautiful i have not worn this jacket yet but i expec t to get many compliments when i do i usually don t wear jackets in this style so it s a fresh new approach for me the embroidery takes it to the next level it fits true to size i usuall y take a medium and the medium fits pe i can t say enough about this pant the fit is perfect enough shape to hold you in but not so tight you think you re wearing leggings this is my go to business casual can t wait to get another color my store had this in black these are super com fy and so flattering i feel like the picture doesn t do them any justice they would also look cute paired with wedges i like these pants a lot got one pair in black\nand one pair in holly the green holly are just a perfect green so nice for the season they are very comfy and feel r ight all day without any sagging \ni highly recommend and would buy more if they weren t on the pricier side \noh and great for causal but also dresses up nicely with some heels and a silk blo use these trousers are not lined there is a wide elastic band that runs along the inside of the se slacks that is not tacked down which is a little cheap and probably to keep the price down b ut doesn t affect the overall fit and they do fit nice when your putting them on the fabric bu nches at the crotch but then slims out after you zip them zips up the back the fabric has som e spandex in it but the lyocell makes them a great choice for work they hit my ankle a bit lowe r than on the model i m you can t go wrong with these pants as other reviews point out when th ey say skinny they do mean that this is a skinny fit so order accordingly i ordered a 4 when i have been wearing 2s in many other styles and was glad for the 4 i thought the fabric was all s eason so don t agree with some other reviewers regarding the stiffness of the fabric i think it s perfect everyone is different these are pretty close to year round wearable i really love t his top i got the ivory and now i will probably get the black too if you get it in your normal size i m almost always an xs and got this in xs it s fitted and flattering the seam across t he sternum makes it feel like an empire top which always seems to look good on me it is fitting in the chest and arms it s really lightweight and has 1 2 sleeves so i will wear this even in s ummer this jacket is a real treasure and i could never have seen how substantial the embroidery is from the photo also from the pic the jacket looks like a thin cotton but on the contrary it is a wonderful weight with a feel like denim the embroidery is a wonderful texture like heavy s tring or thin rope so it really has dimension i loved it so much i got the sweatshirt also by the same designer can t wait until cooler weather so i may live in it also when you have it on for a bit it seems to i purchased the grey cords on sale they are super soft and stretchy t he do run large so you may want to size down otherwise nice fabric and cut just bought this and am in love with it it s a really nice weight light for spring the drape y fit is very fl attering it s longer in the back than in the front and has a nice swing to it can t wait to we ar it \r\n\r\ni tried on the tee in the lighter color and didn t care for it much i liked the contrast of the black and silver stripes love the cut on these cords as well as the fabric it s a somewhat thin corduroy with a nice little stretch which makes them very comfortable and very flattering they are true to size i got the grey which is a pretty light grey without the heav y blue undertone you often get in grey fabric \n\ngreat cords i m a 0 2 on top with 32d s and i purchased this top in a medium and it fit perfectly pretty colors go with a mix of bottoms des ign is both functional and attractive which usually isn t the case with swimwear love the unde rwire cups adjustable ties and straps and the fabric is really soft and comfortable i just bo ught these in store so great looking however i bought the petites and they are still incredib ly long like 6 inches too long so i ll hem them though based on the review that mentions shr inking i might wash them first to see what happens great for summer in the city these pants a re a great addition to my work wardrobe i needed to size up more so for my legs vs my waist bu t nothing a little tailoring won t fix i love this top the beading and detail is wonderful i actually liked it even more when i saw it in person but when i tried it on it is really small i n the neck and arm openings and seems short definitely a different fit than how it appears on t he model i m trading in for a size up and hoping that does the trick i ordered online and got it home tried it on and loved it it is too cute i plan to wear it with bright colored belt and shoes probably red yellow or pink plus i bought a polka dot tote same color cream and black an d a blazer can t wait to wear it i love the fact that i can wear it spring summer fall as wel l winter with my blazer i m keeping it i m 5 5 120 lbs and bought this in size medium because i have long arms and was afraid that the cashmere would shrink even if i hand wash and dry flat because let s be honest i doubt i ll ever send it to the dry cleaner it s loose through the b ody and arms but the sleeves are the perfect length the term bell sleeve is no exaggeration the sleeves are billowy and voluminous and i can see them getting in the way while washing my ha nds or doing dishes i guess i will have to reserve this s this print is beautiful and the desig n is unique and great for work my only complaint is that it runs huge and the torso fit is extr emely boxy i m normally in between a size xs and s at retailer bought the xs in this shirt and it still almost too big it is very comfortable and the fabric is amazing it runs a little shor t on me because i have a long torso but it works great with a tank underneath love it love th ese pants very flattering and comfortable and cool perfect for the hot summer days \r\n\r\nth ey have washed well need ironing the charcoal ran a little bigger and too long but the hot dry er shrank them the orange were perfect still a little longish so i cold wash them and hang to dry to keep from shrinking\r\n\r\n5 5 size 8 so flattering on my curvy and busty body so ma ny swing style tops have too much fabric and make you look larger than you actually are not th e case with this top the fabric and cut make the bottom half flow beautifully so flattering i mo i usually wear a small or medium in meadow rue and went with the small the shoulders and arms fit my small bone structure perfectly the burn out pattern and color are gorgeous can t wait to wear these pants are awesome very light weight and will be great for spring summer no w if only the sunshine will get here and melt away all of this snow \n\ni also purchased the top pictured on the model it is super cute with this outfit and can work with so many different loo ks check it out \n\nthey run big i would definitely consider sizing down or ordering two sizes to try on love this top and the fit is very true to size i am 5 3 and 144 and ordered a medium the fabric weight is just right and not see through the top did not gap and the length falls ju st over tummy without being too tent like too snug or too long so can be worn inside or out wis h there were more color choices to order from it was touted as red motif but i would call it mo re red orange i cannot wear orange but it is red enough to pull off on my skin tone with the white background the sleeves i love these pants so much i had to write a review purchased the carbon color recently in regular length the length stated is pretty true and there was minimal shrinkage for me size was also tts typically wear size 2 and got 26 i ve been wearing them o ften they look great right out of the dryer and drape nicely i ve been purchasing the pilcro l inen trousers for years but these are my favorites this season i also think the quality is m uch better i will be getting them in more colors i got the black in an xs and it fits wells it s a bit warmer than i expected i love the design of this sweater perfect with leggings i boug h a green size s 140lbs 34b 5 8 the sweater is true to size it hits at my low hip and a lthough it is cut generously it is cut close to the body the green color is very pretty and true to the monitor depiction of a bright turquoise the material is very soft and definitely hi gh quality cashmere with no itch factor however the knit of the yarn is very chunky which mea ns that this is not a slimming garment moreover since i have long arms the bell sleeves do no t reach my wri i just received this in the mail today it is very cute however it will be going back if you look at the picture of the back it look like there is only one opening however belo w the knot there is another opening this shirt is so cute alone with jeans or dressed up with n ice jewelry a scarf or cardi its just the right weight true to size drapes nicely and its ve ry flattering i m sorry i didn t order more when i had the chance its already sold out in the colors and sizes i wanted excellent quality as usual thanks again retailer i love how soft and substantial the fabric is the fabric has a nice weight and drapes beautifully the ruffle d etail is very flattering i have broad shoulders and this top looks great loved the version of this loc top that retailer carried two years ago or was it three was thrilled to see what lo oked like the same top and was called the same name but it s just not the same length is to o short body is too wide and even the fabric seems to be lower quality disappointing but i s till bought more than one color these are fantastic great fit super comfortable material and perfect length petite i ordered the carbon to have a neutral pair but i also want the other colors 0p fit 26 5 in waist 115 lbs length on petite is enough to have a small heel i have s hort legs what a great easy to wear jumpsuit i love that the sleeves are a relaxed fit som etimes they make these jumpsuits so unforgiving who wants to wrangle your way in and out anyway i totally agree with the other reviewers that this is very stylish comfortable and it looks ama zing on it was love at first sight the only problem was that it didn t come in my size i took a chance and order a size smaller and it worked out great its a great item that can be worn in the spring and fall exactly what i was looking for love love love i have both colors and we ar with leggings it s not a heavy sweater and has a great drape super flattering i m usually a medium and it runs true to size not supposed to be tight i find it a little low in the fron t but a tank underneath takes of it washes well great style and quality however sizing runs s maller than anticipated \r\ni gave it as a gift to a friend who wears a smaller size than me i went back and forth about buying this jumpsuit very glad that i decided to make the purchase i wore the jumpsuit to a holiday party and look forward to pairing it with a blazer for work the material is very soft yet durable i wore with flats but it would be cute with a colorful pair of heels i ordered the red motif in size xl for me the fit matches the model so i think it s true to size the only larger area on me is for the armholes i use a cami so my bra won t show when raising my arms since it s made of rayon spandex and is a longer length it s a little cli ngy along my hipline for my pear shape but overall it s so soft and comfortable the colors i n the floral pattern are beautiful prettier in person there s no problem with pattern placemen t either a great top for summ i love the coral color allows me to add color to my neutral ward robe very flattering i get a lot of compliments on them i really didn t expect to like thes e pants as much as i do i ordered a pair of the pilcro linen wide legs and really loved the cut e added lace details on them i thought i would exchange these for another pair of those but af ter trying both pairs on i realized how much softer and heavier these are i will keep the one pair of the pilcro but they did feel a little scratchy these have a very nice drape to them an d they do make your bum look nice i ordered a size 8 which is what i seem to we it takes perfe ction for me to pay this much for a pair of pants and these delivered i bought these pants lov e at first sight in the carbon color i have not washed them yet so i can t comment on durabili ty but they fit like a dream i carry extra weight in my thighs and rear and these pants are v ery flattering and slimming and don t pull and crease in the crotch area like so many other pan ts do on my body my usual size fit perfectly and the length is great on my 5 5 frame i can a lmost the cut of this top is cute it s a great basic t with a little flare it s pretty pricey given that the fabric is so thin this top is unique and gorgeous i m a singer and i knew i had to have it for an upcoming performance it s got a really great ethnic bohemian beauty and femin inity to it i saw the top on line then i went to the store to try it on it is delicate it ha s beading embroidery and mesh so one has to be careful putting on jackets brushing up against things etc but it s well worth it please note that due to the lining it does run small i ha d to go up a size depending on how you d like it to does this sweater make my hips look big my wife asked this sweater was one of my christmas gifts to this fair maiden \n \n no love it does not i said but i looked to make sure my reflex was also correct it s a beautiful sweat er for my dear bride mother of our three children and no it does not make her hips look big \n\nin fact it draws out all her lovely lines and curves just so and she is a modest girl so she wears a little undershirt so that her cleavage is somewhat um suppre i ordered this shir t online without seeing it in person and it is great it is true to size if not slightly loose fitting and a thick cottony material with a pretty design could be nice for spring summer or even fall with a cardigan lovely pants incredibly comfy fabric but too short for 5 11 peopl e stated inseam of 31 5 is a bit understated but it is clearly not 34 that i need had to tak e it back to the store i love this top   very comfortable wear it alone or under a sweater i have the black also for reference i m currently hovering in the 14 range for pants called cu rvy on the lower half hahaha   but purchased these in a 12 they are so flattering and comfort able i returned to purchase a pair to keep stashed for when i wear out a pair and actually boug ht two pairs in a size 10 for when i loose weight they look perfectly tailored the fabric is s ubstantial more of a spring weight than summer   so you don t have to worry about showing skin beneath the unlined pant and it drapes e ordered this blouse in a small but it was too big ret urned it for an xs i weigh 123 lbs   i m 5 3 1 2 \r\ni find sizing of clothing at retailer to be unreliable i have had to return many items because of sizing issues unfortunately i live to o far away from a regular store so have to rely on shopping on line \r\ni will complement retail er on the unique designs of the clothing they offer i love this top the quality is topnotch an d it s true to size it s not skintight but it s also not so roomy that you look pregnant one t hing that surprised me is that it s a silk material i thought it was linen or something like th at but i love it the pics online for this dress are horrible in comparison how stunning this d ress is in person \r\njust received it and far exceeded my wildest expectations \r\nit is elegan t classy and an understated sexy \r\nthe colors are rich and vibrant   gorgeous shades of plum and blue   a unique color combination that is gorgeous \r\nthe open mess dress with the so lid under layer is a wow \r\nbeautiful and flattering fit \r\nit is a 10   \r\ni ordered my us ual size and i would say it is true to size but slig looks so fun and whimsical on love love l ove this for photos especially the other reviews stated this was a shapeless top but i sized do wn and it is very flattering and cute the green is a bright gorgeous jewel tone it has an ove rall flowy bohemian look to it   the bell sleeves add just the right touch of boho overall i am very pleased with this top   it will be a great transitional piece into fall i agree with the other reviewer the concept of this is fantastic but sadly did not work for me first of all it runs so small i normally wear a 6 8 and ordered a 10 and i still had a hard time closing over my 34ddd chest but i am abnormal anyways the peplum i wish was a little more subdued like in t he photo maybe its because im so curvy but it just didn t work for me sadly its going back wh en i walked into my retailer store i was immediately drawn to this top the online photo really does not do it justice in person it is stunning i m petite and usually a size 4 but the only sizes available were a 0 and a 6 it looked large so i tried the 0 it actually fit much better than i expected considering i have a 32dd bust but the seam across the chest was too tight ho wever i did not have a problem with the armholes even going down two sizes i have narrow shoul ders so maybe that i happened to see someone purchasing this top in the green at my local retai ler store and the sales associate told me they had just gotten then in and they were already al most gone they only had one left in size s it fit but was a bit too long for me so they orde red the sp for me it s perfect the color says turquoise but it s actually more of an emerald green it s a bright saturated color much more beautiful than the online photo i have green ey es and love the way it brings them out it nan i ordered these with high hopes i have 2 other p airs of joggers by a different brand that i adore i was disappointed the fabric isn t soft as i expected the pants pucker out strangely under the waist band but this might be due to foldin g while packaged i tried these on several times   wanting to like them but just couldn t i am returning them the colors are beautiful   especially the bands on the bottom they seem made we ll it might just be that i am between sizes i am 5 4   115 i tri just bought this in black at my local store and it is adorable   and very comfortable   almost like your favorite t shirt ste pped up one notch   it ran true to size for me these pants are so soft and super comfy \r\nthey look great with heels and sandals \r\nthey will be my go to this summer for sure \r\nwould love them in black or navy this is my go to shirt perfect for layering perfect for around the hous e or perfect for topping an outfit with a scarf the white is a little sheer but it s fine for m e i m a curvy person so my review might not be suited to everyone my standard size in retaile r tops is xl and it is the same for this blouse \r\n \r\noverall \r\noverall gorgeous well mad e blouse but i wish there was less fabric involved and the burnt out design didn t make a horizo ntal stripe across the back and biceps this blouse just might not work out as well if you are a full figured person \r\n \r\npros \r\ngorgeous blouse\r\nhigh quality\r\nunique\r\n \r\ncons \r \ni wish the burnt out design didn t make a hor nice shirt that s a little different from the ty pical flirty sleeves that move in the wind which is a great look   these are the perfect wide legs   they aren t overly wide a common problem for petite women like myself who cannot pull o ff the really wide styles   and they are nicely fitted in the top   the fabric is a great weight neither too heavy nor too light so they lay nicely   the similar level 99 linen wide legs with t he waist ties have a much lighter fabric that doesn t lay right and i like these hei hei pants much better   i said they run large because i tend the fluctuate between 00p and 0p a this top is cute love the ruffle sleeves the store i got these had both colors so ended getting both col ors because the top is cute does run a little large i ended up going a size down i thought thi s top was purely elegant i m 5 4 and 135 lbs i ordered a small and it fits perfectly i thou ght the fabric was soft but somewhat sheer on the top it goes great with just about any pant love this top i get compliments on it every time i put it on it dresses up a pair of jeans per fectly nan this sweater is thicker than some of the other cashmere sweaters i purchased at reta the sleeves do run slightly short i purchased the xs and it fits my petite frame perfectly gra b it while you can it s so luxurious super warm for the winter i received this romper last w eek and have already worn it twice it is soooo comfortable and the material is really soft the romper is loose yet fitted and very cute i love the open back and the shorts are just the righ t length i wish there were other patterns or colors available too i would definitely buy agai n i purchased this top in the purple it is much prettier in person then in the picture the co lor is rich and vibrant i am usually a large or xl but only needed the large in this top \r\nt he combination of fabrics is what makes this top special and the sheer bell sleeve really sets i t off \r\ni felt that it flowed perfectly not as full as some of the fall retailer tops whic h are too full for me \r\ni am around 5 6 and a little on the broad side so perhaps on someon e smaller it might be overbeari i love this shirt the pictures do not do it justice intricate detail lovely if you re a girl with no junk in the trunk buy these pants they make you look l ike you are working with something i love them i am 5 3 and always struggle to find pants tha t aren t too long and that will help me not look like an ironing board these are great not too long in regular and like another reviewer said you ll have a booty great lightweight pants co nceptually this top is great love the design and the bright crisp color and most of all the cu t outs the material is a little stiff but can see it softening up a bit with a wash or two it does run very small i am 145 pounds 5 6 with a full 34c bust and a curvy hourglass figure 34 28 41 while it fits everywhere else the bust is really small i wear a size 6 but had to go u p to a size 10 the size 8 fit but the chest would only close without a bra so i had to go up 2 sizes so when these pants are as dreamy as linen but much more forgiving when worn all day they fit true to size and are very flattering i have 5 pair they are my go to work pant that c an be dressed up with an elegant tank if i have to run to dinner after work \r\nlove them i love it i can wear out to dinner or just out to lunch with\r\nfriends i love everything about thi s top the fit and style are beautiful and the fabric high quality it does run about a half siz e large i m usually a size 4 and needed an xs in this top this is so versatile i have worn i t with a tangerine midi skirt and denim shorts and it looks great however i pair it i highly re commend this adorable top but it runs very small i usually take a 4 but thought it may shrin k up so i ordered a 6 it was a bit tight through the bust 34a so i sent it back for an 8 i saw a photographer wearing this at a wedding i went to in october i absolutely fell in love it is beautiful i can t wait to wear it for the holidays i got the small petite and i am 5 2 12 5 lbs fit great enjoy i thought this was a fun piece to have but didn t realize how versatil e it was until i got home and started mixing it with either casual shoes or dressing it up with fancier accessories \ni love this jumpsuit \nit is well made and the fabric is of a quality tha t lends itself to both casual and dressy i bought a size small 5 6 130lbs it was baggy eve rywhere so i added a belt similar to the model and it did help some but the pockets stuck out to o much i ended up looking hippy with no butt the material is nice and it is a nice quality i just didn t have enough to fill it out anywhere and i felt if i got a xs it would have been to o short in the crotch area just beautiful dress it dits perfectly tts and i feel like princes s in it highly recommend girls nan very cute top but it seems like it won t hold it s shape ve ry long cheaply constructed this top is the perfect staple the fabric is soft and comfortable i generally wear medium tops but the small fits perfectly took the chance ordering online and i am very happy fantastic and comfortable top i had to buy in black and white because it was too cute to buy just one love it great staple for your wardrobe this is a beautiful shirt dr essy imo it s tts i would not size down in this shirt can wear w black white moss khaki jeans etc love it love my mother jeans and these are super cute for spring they fit tts i m 5 7 and i bought my normal 25 great addition to my cold weather wardrobe comfortable and has the slouchy look but still nice enough to wear to work i was a bit concerned that the top woul d be too small on top ordered an xl but the a line design is very flattering and it fit well it is a biit see through so i ll be wearing another layer underneath personal preference i b ought this in size xl and it initially fit me similarly to the model but once i washed it in cold in my machine reshaped and air dried it was so much smaller shorter i loved the embroid ery on the top the mix of pattern colors is great too i like when blues and blacks are mixed t ogether i don t know how i could have prevented the shrinking i now throw on a shrug or jacket over to hide the shorter length still stylish and fun i can tell already that this sweater is going to be in heavy rotation in my closet it s a bit oversized and cozy but the ribbon tie ma kes it neat and not sloppy great with skinny jeans flares or leggings super cute with a cami underneath i love this jacket it is great for lounging because it is loose and comfortable an d it s great to have pockets to stash stuff in as i shuffle cozily around my house on cold lazy days it s not the world s most flattering fit it s kind of boxy but i bought it for comfort a nd i am delighted nan i bought this in a beautiful cornflower blue at my retailer store i don t see that color for sale online the blue material was not thin or see through but perhaps the white is the fit is very structured which helps me cover my mom belly i have never said this before but i think it looks better on me than it does on the model wearing white on sale i go t this for about 20 i got it for a steal i like the different directions of line patterns and the length is nice too one thing you can t i would not wear this to bed it s almost too prett y i ve been wearing this top under sweaters and shells as the weather is moving from winter to spring i think it transitions the comfort of plaid into warmer weather perfectly it dips a li ttle low on me in the front 34b c so it s probably not for more professional settings i like to wear it with a lacy bra type top peeking out underneath nan i absolutely love cozy sweaters and this is my new fave i love that it ties and it feels elegant so much fun with jeans and on e of my fun tees underneath or with a skirt boots and hat love it i wear it as i m sipping m y tea in front of my fire place writing my book yes i m writing a book its a cozy writing a bo ok sweater that is it its perfect for that on my white sheep skin cozy rug and my animal prin t chairs i m in heaven sipping my coffee in my cozy room with my cozy sweater wore this to my sons wedding found it last minute when i had changed my mind about another byron lars dress i felt awesome in it and got many compliments i love this vest it s perfect for day and dress up for the evening very comfy this skirt sparkles when you wear it beautiful in winter it is ma de well great design and fit true to size it is a beautiful fabric with deep blue flowers sti tched in as well as soft silvery gold thread sewn into the background great length too fabulo us this rich color is so flattering i also love that it has pockets and can be worn to dressy events or can be worn in more casual settings the side stripes give it a young and interesting touch the elastic waste makes it comfortable so i know i will get lots of use out of this i knocked off one star because of the price i plan on paring this with tan sandals and a dark de nim blazer to start off with love this dress sooo comfortable and flattering i typically wear a 4 6 in dresses or can be between small and medium depending on style and cut i went with xs o n this dress and it s still very comfortable and loose fitting the small size fit fine but seem ed like too much fabric on the skirt this dress is so soft flowy and comfortable the material is very smooth and silky i m hoping it holds up well over time with washing i am 5 5 120lbs a nd i ordered a xs the elastic waist is a tad tight but otherwise it fits perfectly just as sh own on the model in terms of length and how the top fits i said it runs a large because normall y i would order a s but i think if i did it would be too long and the arm holes might be too bi g like another reviewer said the pictures do not do this fabric justice it s lightly textured but still soft i love the fit of this just the right amount of oversized flowy a sweet tunic with the distinctive lace hemline the length is great just right to wear with skinny jeans or over leggings not too long but long enough for comfort over leggings more of a boxy fit just as expected wore it with my skinny jeans and short boots and got many compliments i saw this in the retailer catalogue and knew i had to own this dress everything about it speaks to me on a cellular level the colour the shape the drape the hem and the little side stripes b e still my heart i went into my local store and picked up the dress in xl and l to try on i m currently a new body shape because of too many burgers a sports injury and not enough cardio so i figured i should size up for a moment uh no the xl was like a tent fabric everywhere i pulled i tried this dress on in the orange and loved it on me and felt it ran tts in my regular size small i m a 34d but very petite body type otherwise and didn t feel like this billowed out as much as some other reviewers described it does have a loose feel on top which i actually lik e and inside there is a comfortable striped strapless top part that holds me in at the same time i liked the feel colors and lenth of the fabric plus i love anything with an elastic waist so i definitely plan on buyi love this sweater so much that i m going to order another when it goes o n sale the material is not thick but it s a nice thin weight that i still feel cozy in i love that it s not long in the back too so cute and soft this jacket is a great buy at the sale pri ce drape is wonderful and the weight is nice lightweight and will transition well from summer to fall the adjustable ties at the waist make it very flattering on a curvy figure i purchased the white and am going to purchase the black as well definitely recommend this jacket is prett y cute in person it is a nice thick gauzy material the black is more like a dark washed gray c olor while i do like the jacket i feel like it is cut a little wide maybe i should have ord ered a size down i usually wear a combination of 6s and 8s and am usually between a small and m edium i ordered this in a medium but there was quite a bit of extra fabric at the sides and in the shoulder area i m returning the jacket for now but might reorder in a small another time oh my this dress is so cute it fits me exactly like the pictures i usually wear a 6 or 8 and ordered a medium i maybe could have worn a small as well though there is a lot of fabric to th is dress so if you re under 5 6 it might overwhelm you i m 5 6 and the medium was barely sl eepy the floor in a low heel this is s dress you can dress up or down i also appreciated the n eckline not being too revealing and pockets that was a nice surprise the fabric is a little thicker so it s no so this is a gorgeous dress but it seems to have too many elements i wish they had left off the white lacy decoration at the neckline because it seems to make the dress m ore girly than sleek i am short so perhaps the multiple design features would be better on a tall woman than on me i ordered the xs p and xxs p in the black one i thought this would be a fairly classic piece to wear any season cold offices in the summer southern california in th e winter the xxs p was a bit better fitted not too small but the xs p was ok too if you pre fer a baggier look so based on that i call it large as i would usually purchase the xs p not xx sp 115 lbs 30 dd 26 5in waist muscular arms \r\n\r\nthe material is airy and light but i a m a little worried about wrinkling we shall see i tried on the xs in the store and decided to size down and get xxs petite it looked much better the length was flattering and as others mentioned the bottom is nice and flowy it is comfortable and the orange color is flattering a nd i love the striped detail on the sides good casual dress but i can dress it up with a bejew eled belt i am 115 lbs 30dd chest for xxs petite just purchased this lovely sweater over the weekend during the 25 off sale i went in to buy the rona sweater in grey which i think is the same style with different name but it was all sold out the sa pointed me to a rack of these sw eaters and i am happy with this choice the back print is really cute and the sweater design and color is very flattering it goes well with pants or skirt and the front is not as short as i h ad imagined the rona sweater to be great quality fit and fashion retailer went back to the da ys of old with this piece and i am so glad the piece is classic yet modern real statement wit hout going overboard this dress like all byron lars dresses is a work of art it has true qual ity of workmanship and fits like a glove i always get compliments when i wear any of his dress es and i have 5 this one is somewhere between casual and dressy perfect for a dinner out on a saturday night order a petite if you are under 5 5 just tried this on in store the color in the photo is wayyyyy off it s a hunter green and dark navy zigzag for maeve it runs large i a m usually a medium or a 10 and a s worked best i m a 36d and there was no pull at the bust wil l pick up when on sale bc a hundo for rayon is laughable i didn t give this dress a second lo ok for the longest time when the summer tag sale came about i decided to pop in and see if i c ould find a versatile summer dress i was in need of a piece i could easily dress up or down th e burnt orange color variation caught my eye first though i also tried on the neutral and it is also fabulous this dress is amazing on i am an hourglass shape 5 8 size 6 8 34 d chest and i tried on both the small and medium the small fit much better on me and i r added this dress to my summer wardrobe in the rust color it s a very relaxed dress easy to throw on as others have suggested in going to add a belt to this to add a little more flair but i love this design er but it does run large sizing down helps immensely the fabric has a beautiful drape the sk irt is a nice length and it blows moves and swings in a most flattering way the gray is a an elegant color and one could definitely wear the dress at both casual and more formal events th e top however sags and overwhelms the more fitted lining too bad i got these in black and i had tried on the gray in the store they run small at the waist i usually wear xs or small but i ordered a medium they are very comfortable on a warm day they look great with a loose tucke d in blouse or tee the down side is they catch and the lace pulls and gets fuzzy when rubbing a gainst things i realized this after a day of wear i haven t washed yet but plan to hand wash great light weight sweater very simple and soft from the front and the back is adorable this skirt is absolutely beautiful in person the metallic thread is a subtle stunning addition to t his elegant piece like the last person mentioned it is thick but i think it makes it look ful l rather than like a bag i think the extra fabric weight adds a more classic traditional look t o it making it look more like a wool skirt from the 50s 60s or 70s if you re not a fan of th at look you probably won t like the way this falls like the description says this is a piece that would neve i love this dress i m 6 so it s a tad bit shorter than what shows on the model it stops right at my ankles which i m okay with it s a heavier fabric so it s maybe not good f or those really hot humid days all in all it is super flattering on my hourglass figure for r eference i m a 38dd and normally wear a large in dresses at retailer i ordered the large this dress is perfect for the summer very lightweight has pockets and not to short lounging around it is loose fitting so i normally wear a size 10 or m and 5 6 tall but had to order this dres s in a s the small fits me perfectly this fabric and quality of the skirt are superb there is a pretty metallic thread detail in the fabric that isn t easy to see online however the skirt is quite puffy which i suppose could be good for someone with a boyish figure looking to add cu rves but for many of us the extra puff might not be welcome one would want to wear it with a t ight fitting top and emphasize a small waist in order to counterbalance the volume of the skirt could be a nice buy for the right person just be aware o the length is lovely the color is nic e the fabric feels like silk but isn t so you can wash it and the cut is flattering if you r e a b cup or below for me the pleats on top made my chestiness look like fattiness many inter net reviews note that byron lars dresses run large and suggest that women 5 5 and under should size down and go petite i am 5 3 and 101 pounds and the 0 petite size was too snug across my b ack and too short when i sat down when i stood up i had to pull the dress down as it would bun ch up around the hips therefore the size 2 regular ended up being a perfect fit no alteration s needed i was searching for a dress for an upcoming wedding and for vacation and kept coming b ack to thi this is a very nice jacket in a pretty textured fabric it seems to fit tts and the cut is very flattering however the white is actually ivory not a big deal unless you were trying to match an outfit with pure white in it still on the fence about whether to keep it or not i didn t fall in love with this jacket but it was comfortable and seems like it has potenti al to be flattering on many body types for reference i tried on a medium and my measurements ar e 38 30 40 nan admittedly i ignored this dress on a few trips to my local retailer and then it went on sale practically begging me to give it attention i tried it on and fell in love so fe minine light and comfortable \r\nit has a sort of roman boho goddess vibe due to the billowy top especially in the lighter greige with some sea hued accessories added but not so much it fe els like cosplay or something i have a full bust dd and didn t find this dress to be unflatte ring after wearing it to a party i ac a lot of reviewers have been saying that this dress is s imply too busy to be wearable and they re right i love the cut and fit of this dress but don t love the style the awesome stylist at my retailer told me to take off the belt and then try it on with a ribbon like the one on the charisma sheath and it was so much more cute it complet ely changed the look of the dress and made it look more classy the belt looks very cheap in per son and a little hoochie mamma if you wear it with the dress i absolutely love this top it fall s perfect in all the right places i ve gotten so many compliments especially from the bow desig n on the back lovely dress but runs at least a full size too big i bought this jacket in white specifically for summer it is the perfect weight for the office air conditioning coolness i wo re this jacket with a sleeveless silk blouse and summer skirt it just looked perfect for a dres sier summer outfit i take a m l in retailer jackets and went with the large in this because i h ave a large bust 36d the medium fit but was just a tad snug through my upper back front area the large gave me a little wiggle room so i could wear a little heavier blouse undernea beautifu l dress but works best with a belt where the dress cinches at the high waist it runs huge i m 5 6 and a m l but the small petite is what looks and fits the best there is a lot of unnecessar y fabric and stretch at the waist i received a lot of compliments on this dress glad i kept tr ying on smaller sizes this sweater is so much cuter than the online picture makes it look i th ink the model is wearing it too large anyway this runs kind of big so size down it s kind of short in the front but it hits at a nice flattering spot love it well made versatile dress have already worn it to a wedding and work could definitely be dressed down for a more casual look i m 5 7 and typically wear a medium in dresses and the small was definitely the right fit with some room to spare has anyone tried to hand wash this dress instead of dryclean \r\nruns a little large i am 5 5 135 34dd and purchased xs i was really surprised that xs fits well i i nitially tried small but the armholes were too big the waist is a little too high but i plan to wear it with a belt i bought this dress online after a long search for the perfect dress to wea r to my daughter s fall wedding i did not want something full length or too formal after model ing several dresses for my boys this one got the thumbs up i do love the design and that it is different enough from all the other mother of bride dresses out there i will wear this with bla ck nylons and wedges since this wedding is in a meadow i m completely satisfied for referenc e i am 45 years old 5 10 160 lbs with i love this dress it is a little sheer so nothing that spanx won t cover i have worn it a couple of times and have gotten many compliments i wasn t e xpecting to like this tank as much as i do because of the other reviews i thought i would send it back if i didn t like it i appreciate the design fabric and construction i plan on wearin g it out to dinner with some friends coming in from out of town tomorrow night can t wait the dress didn t look like much on the hanger but the rust color caught my attention so i tried the dress fits beautifully i did have to size down to a small because the medium was too large on m y frame i have a longer torso and the elastic waist did not quite fall on my natural waist but corrected by pairing with an obi belt which looks fantastic the bottom is lined and flows rath er nicely the dress has a modified hi low thing going where the front and back are longer than the sides but this dress is super comfortable it s s bit long but i m 5 3 so that s to be e xpected i wanted an everyday dress and i can t decide if the full skirt makes it too formal loo king still can t decide if i want to keep this it s super comfortable but much thinner than ex pected and the color seems more navy blue than black wearing this to a weeding in july its so feminine and pretty runs a little big on top at the arm holes but having it tailored love i love the style of this coat and the way it fits on the model in reality the cut is more straight i was hoping for some darting and a slimmer silhouette cinching the belt makes the coat bunch unattractively if i sized down i think it would look better but i m concerned that my shoulders will not fit the fabric is 60 poly 40 wool and a bit itchy where it s not lined the lining is a jersey poly blend the belt has flimsy ugly string loops that cheapens look of the coat other than the b i recommend this dress for people who do not have my body type the dress is very comfortable and nicely designed my torso is a bit barrel chested with a large bust so the fabric both wrapped and billowed out unattractively causing the waistband to ride up and the skirt to pouf out over my tummy if your body is more like the model this is a flattering dress for reference i am 5 3 36dd 140 and ordered the medium petite perhaps if i bought the non petite version or sized down maybe it will the dark orange is a beautiful color this is a very comfortable dress lightweight long enough so you can sit down in it without any concerns unfortunately it s dry clean only and you may want a belt to cover the elastic waist the top part is very loose so this might work better for full figured gals this is my new favorite dress it s super soft comfortable and flattering i have worn it twice and each time have received multiple compliments i love love love it this dress is beautiful i ordered this in the mail and literally said wow when i took it out of the packaging the color looks more like champagne in person and the flowers look fantastic on it i was worried that it might look a little awkward with so many things hanging off but instead the flowers really compliment the entire ensemble it really just looks like a work of art i m usually a small in retailer clothes and that size fits me very well i absolutely love this dress i wasn t overly impressed or drawn to this dress at first even after i bought it but after wearing it i am sold i paired the orange version with caramel colored sandals and gold jewelry i thought it was necessary to wear a long necklace to bring some interest to the otherwise plain top the dress is super comfortable fabric fit and length it billows in such a pretty way when you walk the color also made my skin look extra tan which i loved the waist is short and rides up now and then truly adorable as other reviewers have mentioned much better in person than as pictured the ivory has black khaki and light pink polka dots it is great with a pencil skirt or pants i was desperate to find a dress for an upcoming wedding i basically tired on every dress in the store this one was by far the best dress i tried on the outer layer is delicate and has great stitching and embroidery the only problem is that the slip is skin tight and too small this dress is so awesome i m willing to overlook that and find my own slip when i came out of the dressing room another couple stopped to tell me how amazing the dress looked this dress is beautiful i ordered this online having never seen it in person i loved it as soon as i touched the soft material it fits me perfectly i almost invariably wear a size 6 in retailer dresses and tops which gave me the confidence to order online and this dress is true to size the detailing at the bosom is so flattering the fabric is supple and hangs gracefully without clinging to my not so perfect waistline i have worn this twice already having received it only a week ago the blue black combi i love this sweater timeless classical with an edge i will have it until the end i m writing because i ordered this dress and live it i m usually a medium but bc so many said it ran small i ordered a large it was huge and i wear a 34d it was huge everywhere so now hoping the medium fits nanj brand is by far the best premium denim line retailer sells the fit on these jeans is amazing worth every penny also considering it is a crop jean warm weather wear the denim weight is light and not too thick the color is different from ordinary regular denim blue lighter wash for spring summer quality length size design are all perfect i m sometimes a picky person but i can t say one thing less about this cardigan it s all wool but it feels so soft and comfortable and it doesn t wrinkle i put it in my purse for a couple of hours still great when taken out thin but don t you plan to wear something underneath it goes with everything this kimono is absolutely wonderful i originally purchased it for an upcoming beach vacation but have also found it to be a great piece for my wardrobe in both hot and cold weather goes with pretty much everything highly recommend i actually saw angela from the tv show bones wearing this dress and decided i loved it so much i had to find out where it was from after ordering this dress i couldn t be happier i love it it is a very flattering shape and a thick material so it falls nicely i really liked these cords i ordered both colors they are very lush corduroy material and the color is very rich since i am short i wear them as ankle length i am 5 1 my only issue is that they run very large i am normally a 25 26 and the 25 was still a bit large unfortunately they are all sold out of size 24 i found this dress to run true to size i m 5 4 and 115 lbs and the xs fits great perfect length and i like the thicker fabric so it s not see through the raw edges lend a cool laid back and the final embroidery is a perfect bohemian touch wearing mine with a turquoise choker awesome dress our store only had one petite dress in my s ize in stock i m 5 4 and so can sometimes pull of petite sizing no in this case it was a tun ic on me however the dress fit beautifully everywhere else and the quality was beautiful so i l l probably order my size in regular to give it a try this swimsuit is beautiful the quality is excellent controls without being too thick the colors are bright and the pattern is gorgeous i am curvy 34dd and the top fit perfect good bottom coverage very happy with this purchase not sure who named this dress but it isn t a swing dress it s a beautiful dress out of very so ft fabric with elegant embroidery design and pretty fringe detail and pockets i ve worn this machine washable the fit is relaxed trouser this is a lovely well made piece by maeve a longt ime favorite of mine the material is great weight and won t wrinkle colors are vibrant and de sign of the dress is cute if a bit on the short side \r\n\r\nhowever i like some of the other reviewers didn t love this this on me the waist hit slightly above my natural waist and i m v ery short waisted and this particular sweetheart neckline did nothing to flatter my bust i m a 34dd for reference the end result was a bit too dowdy on top with these pants pair well with a nything dress up or down boots or sandals but beware they run big and rear end stretches out when sitting at work all day if you have a booty these pants will be perfect buy one size d own tho if you have a flat rear like me then buy two sizes down length is good to leave uncur ed just above ankle or roll up to perfect height great color fabric is amazing i m not sure why the other reviewers think that this runs small in my opinion it runs pretty large i am nor mally a medium and i ended up returning the medium to get the small i do have a small bust 36b and skinny arms so maybe that s why regardless it is super cute and i think it can be dressed u p or down it looks awesome with the pilcro jean jacket i tried this on in the store and came o nline for the petite size the length was fine on me it s only the sleeves that would be better for me in petite this cardigan is very cute the dots are a bit more arty looking in person t han you can see here more like watercolor or ink spots which is a nice subtle touch i put r uns small just because i think you might want to size up if you plan on wearing much in the way of layers underneath the merino wool is not itchy it is nice and soft i this is a pretty basi c black dress with a swingy silhouette the slip that comes with it is much tighter than the dre ss the transparent sleeves and open work details help it look a bit airier even though the shap cal store i suppose it was a returned item the petite was still a bit long for me it did not hit me above the knee but rather at or slightly below the knee the dress was cute and comfort i absolutely love this light soft cardigan i don t think the pic does it justice the black long ct for me i tried on the xs and small and while there wasn t a huge difference i went with the small since it had a bit more room it s pricey so i waited for a sale to purchase this tops is super cute and great transitional shirt for the fall a little short in the front but still a gr eat shirt i bought this dress to wear to one of the upcoming events leading up to my wedding in mexico it s the perfect mix of casual yet refined as another reviewer mentioned it is a bit t ight through the bust but luckily i wasn t blessed in that area i would caution that there is absolutely no stretch to this dress it s a true straight shift i m going to rock it with turq uoise and flats in mexico i wanted so badly for this dress to work on me the design is amazing the detail is so pretty and delicate its my version of the perfect little black dress however i have very big arms and while i could have easily sized down for the body of the dress the a rms and chest in my normal size did not fit at all i m usually a 14 16 in dresses i tried the 16 and it just didn t work the arms were way too tight however i ve seen this dress on many ot her women with smaller arms than me and they great fitting longer tee comfortable and light l onger short sleeve a nice change from cap sleeves i have been looking for a black dress for a f ew events i have coming up this winter and have not been able to find anything suitable i have tried a few things from free people but being 5 8 everything there is just too short for these particular events when i saw this dress i had to have it it has the same feel as some of the free people dresses but the length is so much better the dress itself is sheer and not intended for extended outdoor wear but really beautiful on dress up with som these colors my cup of tea i love everything about this top from the fit to the raw edge of the neck trim it does seem like it will wrinkle easily but i can manage that for its sheer beauty this dress is the p erfect combination of bohemian chic however the slip below the dress runs a tad bit small i h ave a wide rib cage and normally wear between a 04 06 the dress would have been just perfect if the slip was a bit larger i loved this dress and wanted to use it for work i read the reviews and saw all the issues with the slip and was nervous but i tried it anyway and figured i could use another plain black slip i have if the one with the dress didn t fit i m really happy i did because it s a gorgeous dress you just may need to wear a different black slip with it i did if you already have one it s no additional hassle or cost and the dress is really unique it s the perfect comfortable but stylish dress for very nice polka dot pattern i so think it is vers atile and can go with a lot of different colors i am worn it was different colors underneath an d both a skirt and jeans it is a timeless classic this is a cute fun addition to my wardrobe especially since i am a polka dot fan it is alittle short for me and i think it runs just a bit small particularly if you want to wear like the model with longer shirt under it overall it w as worth the sale price and will look good with casual pants jeans and with dressier black pant s for work i love this dress so simple yet beautiful very excited to wear this spring and sum mer perfect for easter the overall color of this dress is more buttery white and the pale gold en embroidery almost blends in therefore i think the dress benefits from being styled i tried bold colored scarves with fringes and big statement jewelry this dress is more casual with its fringes the jeans like material although softer than cotton as well as the loose pullover s tyle it is easy to dress down with a blue jean jacket casual sandals or even sneakers \r\ni h ave a 38 c chest and the l fits almost too loos i adore this blouse the colors are vibrant see my photo below this is one of my favorite purchases from retailer the top is light weight tr ue to size i ordered a petite small and am 5 feet tall 120 lbs and curvy i left it untucked a nd loose like in the photo and it was very flattering i disagree about it being frumpy i wore it with kelly green retailer brand slacks paired with the retailer yellow sweater coat with whit e piping and the retailer moss suede cross bag and neutral color nude fl i really like this d ress but after looking at the photo it doesn t look like this well at least on me granted i am 36dd so that might be part of the reason but this dress is definitely trapeze style i love the look but am cringing at the thought that someone is going to think i am pregnant because of this a belt is a must plus it is the only way to achieve the look in the photos because it is a lot fuller in real life \r\n\r\nanother nice touch to this dress is that versatility with the ru these pants are perfect for any casual occasion they can be worn to run errands hang around the house or even go out with friends i love how versatile they are and they are so roomy for those times when you don t want to wear jeans or anything tight they are a bit pricy but i m v ery happy with how they fit i love this cardigan i purchased it in the cream color however i t did fray a bit after washing it other than that i think it was a great buy though so comfor table so versatile so perfect this top is light and airy but substantial enough to wear with sh orts away from the beach its definitely not too sheer to wear without a bathing suit i was act ually pleasantly surprised at the flattering fit it runs slightly big but the top is fitted en ough that its not shapeless the colors are beautiful and the embroidery makes it special i wan ted to love this the fabric and design are very nice unfortunately on my petite frame it loo ked like a lampshade this would be very pretty on taller girls for reference i am 5 3 117 34b i absolutely love these pants they are super comfortable lightweight have big pockets and ar e so cute can wear them anywhere i m taking mine to india next week this is much prettier and beautiful in person \r\nthe fabric is light but it s perfect for the summer first this vest i s made by elevenses i love this menswear inspired vest it s simple and structured however it s long on my 5 2 frame the price is also a little steep but it will add a nice touch to a simp le outfit i plan on taking this to a tailor to take an inch or two off the bottom i ve been de sperate for a swim cover that covers my arms back this one fits nicely just a pretty femini ne happy summer top that still lets me be leggy i can t see them in the photos but the embroi dery detail at the upper part of this top has little mirrors sewn among the dots very fun i m 5 5 and when i paired this with jean shorts everything below the crotch was visible so perhap s slightly shorter than it appears in the pics i just bought these last week and have had a har d time wearing anything else they are super comfortable with great pockets very flattering an d wash up great wish they made more colors i was excited to see these on sale in the honey c olor i wanted unfortunately they were really more of a yellow than the golden color in the pho to also they were so baggy in the rear that i looked silly which was surprising since i don t have a small behind unfortunately all the smaller sizes were sold out had to send them back u nique vest modern chic i especially like the color block one the collar part i know it will become a staple in my working clothes and i can also see it blend in to my weekend clothes i d on t think the back of this vest is of bad quality like another reviewer said overall it s a h ight quality piece already got a lot of compliments on the first day i wore this skirt great f un shape very flattering however the 2 panels were sewn using some type of hard plastic threa d which becomes very itchy when you sit down you can literally feel it through the liner and i m concerned that over time it might actually rip it very poor attention to details this top wasn t an eye catcher off the bat but i love nothing more than a dressed up tee so it s why it made it to the dressing room with me it has elbow length sleeves a slub texture super soft a wesome texture and detail the slight v neck is perfect and the overall fit is great i m typica lly a lover of black but the wine color was gorgeous too so i took both into the fitting room wi th me the other colors weren t available surprisingly the black was not even close to a favo rite but t i bought the green and it is a dark teal the fabric is so soft and it can be dress ed up or down the detail truly sets it apart from your boring tee great purchase especially a t the sale price the shirt fits loosely but not baggy beautiful detail on the back and should ers very soft and lovely material i tried this on at the store in black the lace on the back is gorgeous and the fabric is very soft but i would disagree with the previous reviews i don t think this is flattering on all body types i ve got an hourglass figure and the top absolutel y robs you of a waist it drapes straight down on the front so if you have a larger chest you end up looking like a football player \n\ni think for a narrow frame or a smaller chest this wo und on a saturday afternoon super comfortable and very cute this top is perfect for a weekend casual look you will love this it fits true to size this dress is adorable i purchased it in black and white to wear to my daughter s bridal shower i received so many compliments it was comfortable stylish and best of all wrinkle free i actually ordered it online and when i got i t the dress required no ironing of any kind love it i think i may have to get in in the red a lso i just purchased this adorable unique looking sweater at my local retailer store and absol utely love it as soon as i saw it i knew i had to have it it is super soft tts so i purchase d it in my regular size small and it has the cutest pockets ever the little black buttons also add to the look but the black snails on the pockets are what s really so sweet on this one thou est appearance on this swea this is a nicely made and comfortable sweater that is fun to wear i have worn it with jeans and a t shirt and have received compliments on it nan i was looking for something for a spring wedding that wasn t too billowy but not overly fitted either as i try to hide leftover postpartum pounds this offered the perfect solution with the slip underneath the looser netted overlay i got the black the overlay is not delicate but not stiff either jus t good quality that falls beautifully so happy with this dress comfortable attractive uniqu e and versatile can easily see wearing this to work as well as a wedding it s a very light material so you can wear it early spring or early fall when it s still fairly warm such a cute jacket has no zipper or buttons though so definitely more for style look than for a crazy rain y day use love it i got this in the red and the black i returned the red for it doesn t compar e to the black one i would have loved it if it was a red dress with white flowers i didn t like it being a white dress with red flowers the black one is the one to pick i love this top the f abric is soft and a silky lightweight perfect for summer i feel it runs a size large i m 5 4 130lbs with broad shoulders i usually wear a medium but a small fit perfectly cozy soft fab ric love the snails on the pockets and the cute buttons size down if you want a more tailore d fit this top is very cute on other people i ordered my normal size xs and just did not w ork out it s very billowy on the bottom too much for me and the top portion did not lay right the material is thin so you will need to wear a cami underneath it perhaps if i got the petite xs that right have been a better fit not sure in the end the top went back i ordered the gre en teal in size xl the fit on me doesn t match the model it looks looser on her i think it ru ns small at least in size xl it still is a comfortable fit since the material has stretch the pleat at the top helps the drape of the shirt it s a beautiful color of green too i think the v neck is too low so i wear a tank underneath this also helps with the transparent panels at th e shoulders back my other dolan tops have held up well and retained their color through washing s i bought a size xl in the white with brighter small florals i paid full price as a splurge fo r summer the details on the top are just as nice in person as shown in the photos it s a sweet top i love the upper portion however it runs long i need to belt it tuck it or it looks stra ngely like a long tunic the floral material is slippery and a little heavy not the softest but it s washed well i love the mix of laces at the top it s pretty not worth full price but on s ale it s worth tryi i fell in love with this top as soon as i tried it on it s the perfect spr ing to summer top the fabric is light and airy and the brown stripes give it a lackadaisical v ibe the little buttons on the back are a cute detail that really give something extra to an oth erwise simple top and the v neck did not reveal any cleavage i bought this in a large and i d say it runs a little on the larger side but i like that because it adds to the comfortable flo wy nature of the design for reference i ordered this top in the white and cream color combo an d love it so much the buttons in the back add a sweet touch easy top for fall spring easy t o throw a cardigan over and summer i ordered a medium but probably could have done a small classic retailer i love quirky and unique sweaters cardigans and this is no exception it s n ot obvious in the photo at least it wasn t for me but the cardigan does have buttons all the way down and not just at the top something i appreciated those buttons however are not easy to un button the snails are adorable without being childish i m 5 4 130lbs often between a sm all and medium when it comes to cardigans i chose the medium for this one which fit exactly ho w i wanted it to a k a sleeves were i purchased this on one of retailer s 40 off sales and g ot it for a great price if you re looking for a pretty comfortable t shirt that s a little bey ond the basic this fits the bill unfortunately the neckline was just a tad wide for me in the xs i felt like it might show a peek of my bra and when i adjusted it higher the soft stretch y material showed bra lines underneath that issue and the fact that the shirt is on the flowy side made it less than flattering for my small frame but i i like this sweater for its classic shape and grosgrain ribbon finish on the placket it does have buttons all the way down and they are a little hard to open but the style is fun and fresh it will dress up or down as shown with jeans and tee shirt fit is like on the model for me in a large as i usually wear a 10 12 on top the arms are quite long even for me at 5 9 this sleep is super flattering on but it runs quite small and short it has a lot of stretch to the fabric and my normal size felt like i had a la rge spanx slip on like i said great slip but i d recommend ordering up a size if you want it t o look like the model this dress runs so large why did they not make an extra small the mater ial and detail are great the flow in the back is different but is flattering i wish wish that t hey made this in the extra small i was swimming in it there was no way to fix it so it went ba ck i m not usually a fan of tees as i m a little but busty and don t like material that clings the color of this tee is gorgeous though the neckline is feminine and it has it enough weight that it moves \nnot sure how it ll wash but will try to keep it out of the dryer if you look c losely at the photos the buttons are only shown as applied halfway down the placket but the but tons run the entire length of this fabulous sweater by moth the sweater fits tts i am 5 5 142 lbs and the m is just perfect with room to wear more than an average tight fitting tee underneat h it is a mid weight nylon viscose cashmere knit with understated black cotton rope snails on the pockets there s nothing boring about it as is often the case with long sleeved navy blue c ardig very pretty dress perfect style for my build bigger busted muffin top the material pat tern is really pretty this is my go to top during the not so cold winter days can t be dresse d up or down i have been looking for a cute raincoat forever they are usually just a raincoa t when this raincoat arrived i was happy to finally have something that was fun to wear onl y issue is a little tightness across the shoulder area hoping this will just slightly stretch over time the rest of the raincoat fit perfect and i wouldn t go up a size because of the shoul der issue i purchased a light pink tie belt to use with it so i can keep the front closed when it is raining it looks really cute this is a nice basic solid top with the extra appeal of text ured detail around the shoulders and back the v neck is flattering this top can work with many different outfits i only wish my store carried the petite length as the regular was too long f or me well it s the snails that really make this cardigan special the buttons and the open wo rk stitching are nice too and the fabric is soft and warm a note on the sizing though the st yle runs short in the torso and long on sleeves so if you are petite like me and considering bu ying the regular size because the petite is sold out you ll be fine with the torso length but will have to roll or scrunch up the sleeves that s not too bad because the fabric is soft and e asy to push up at the sleev the green is terrific and the pleat in the back makes the top flows nicely great if you have some muffin top to hide like me and the details across the shoulder s and back makes it more interesting than just a t i m concern about the quality of fabric lat ely there s much rayon mix and they tend to pill or wear out and get holes after washing this t op is just adorable so comfy and cute i love the cut and how it goes a little longer in the ba ck i will be wearing this a lot i have been having the worst trouble lately finding cute comf ortable cotton undies until i found these these fit like a charm are incredibly soft and do n t ride up at all sizing in spot on plus they have the adorable lace trim that makes one fe el nice and girly last summer there was a nyt article saying that comforable underwear was comi ng back in style yay i tried this on in the burgundy color in the store and hoping it goes on sale soon the fabric is not too thin like some of their tops i run the gamut in retailer si zes but lean towards mediums this top fit beautifully in a small it drapes nicely and doesn t hug the body nor is it too flowy looking maternity ish i am 5 4 140 and 34dd for reference it looks like it will hold up well and the bit of lace makes it dressy casual if it doesn t go on sale soon i might have to get it anyway b this is adorable light and breezy i felt it fit t rue to size leaning on the smaller size of a true fit i am normally an xs s and went with the s mall fitting as it does on the model it s a lightweight 100 cotton not a lot of give the v has a tendency to pull and probably will need a securing stitch which was obvious when it arriv ed from another store i think wearing it with a cami is a great option considering it is fl owy on the bottom and it is a thin cotton overall great summer t lovely top that seems to flatt er all body types fit is great fabric is soft style is lovely great to dress up or throw on on it fit perfectly except across the shoulders a problem i haven t encountered before i ve t ried it on twice more do i hope my shoulders will shrink only to see that it pulls across th e top of the back as before otherwise it is so pretty and flattering that i ll be truly sad to send it back the shirt is a very cute cut it poofed out a little more than i thought and kin d of looked like a tutu but i wore it with white jeans to work and got a lot of compliments t he blouse is lightweight and is double layered meaning a light layer over a lower layer it s n er women the print and style of this dress is pure 60 s so fun the black and white is especia lly striking normally i would wait a bit until the weather warmed up a bit more but this dres s is so cute and flattering i just couldn t wait the outer layer is actually sort of an open m esh it s not extremely delicate but could snag if you re not a bit careful however its the f pt if you re busty i normally i do love sheath dresses and this one is very adorable \r\ntrue t o size and nice length \r\nthe black and white is kind of a throwback to the 60s flower power er a and really cute \r\nnice weight so feels substantial not the flimsy wrinkly type material mor e like a crepe \r\nvery nice this is a classic not only is it reminiscent of a fun 60 s swing dress but the perforated outer layer over a solid shift creates this modern edge to a reto style love it i liked this top so much that i purchased it in two colors green and wine the top and colors are exactly as pictured online the material feels great and they fit nicely the fit wa s true to size i originally eyed this dress online the lovely and comfortable weight of it ca s tunic is wonderful wash wear comfortable and classic love the trim \r\n\r\nmany compli ments on this top wow was this top huge on me i am usually a large but lean towards xl when t hings don t have stretch i sized up out of fear that my bust couldn t squeeze into a large 36d d and i didn t want the buttons in the back to gape when i took this out of the package i pur chased the blue i knew right away it was way too big looked like it could fit my husband the sides poofed out so far i looked ridiculous if you look at the photos the model is trying ver y hard to control the poofiness with he this top is cute and comfortable i did order a size lar ger than i would normally wear i usually wear a size small but i had to buy a medium 5 7 145 lbs 34b love this sweater i almost passed it up on line because i didn t notice the snails the sweater is navy and the snails are black they are so cute and such a fun and unique little accent the material is a moderate to light weight sweater the length was perfect i have inadv ertently purchased a bunch of cropped sweaters this year this one is not cropped yay the s leeves are actually a bit on the long side i sized up a little with the idea of wearing it over long sleeved tops i am typica this sweater is way cuter in person the picture online does not really show the adorable contrast of the snails to the rest of the sweater also it looks like they photoshopped out the fact that the buttons run the whole length of the front really cute a nd soft not itchy highly recommend it runs large but thats okay its great quality and super super soft i love the way it makes you feel so comfortable very disappointed the clip fell off i bought this during a 20 off sale which made it even more worth the price i would have purcha sed and kept it regardless but just got lucky \n\nlooking at the pictures online i thought the coat was going to be red however when it showed up it is more purple i still like the color a nd did end up keeping the coat \n\ni do think the buttons are sewn on well but i was surprised it did not come with additional buttons in case one gets lost these are very unique buttons so i can t imagine it woul seafolly is my favorite brand in swimwear i ve collected a few over the years i was so happy to find this print the little umbrellas are so cute and fun i am normall y a size 8 in seafolly and this one ran true to size this robe is such a pretty design very fl owy runs slightly large in my opinion but was so cute i decided to keep it i love this dress i wore it to my friends bridal shower and got so many compliments i can t wait to wear it again i ordered this dress in the black p8 i am 5 3 1 2 140lbs 34dd i am average length in the t orso area when i tried it on i wasn t able to button the button at my chest and the belt came slightly above my natural waist line the length of the dress hit above mid thigh way to short for my comfort level it almost looked like a babydoll dress or a tunic to wear over jeans the material is good quality and has a nice slip lining underneath another nice thing is that it ha s a hook and eye clo i purchased this pretty printed dress as soon as i spotted it on line and o rdered it in my usual size petite 6 i m 5 4 34d 27 35 and found it fit me tts and looks just perfect on i immediately adored all the different prints on this one the length the sweet sle eves and waist band and think this will look so adorable with a jean jacket paired with a cute p air of boots this coming fall amd winter it s a great transition piece that also looks really c ute with sandals or clogs as well also this coat is beautifully made and for 800 i expect no less however i should have checked other resources prior to buying the color on this website is nothing like actual color of coat i was expecting a nice dark red wine as depicted on these photos however it is a bright magenta dark fuscia more on the purpleish side that does not go so much with my wardrobe even though i am a pink loving person haha i had hoped to pair it wi th the same skirt shown here and the peony sweater that was i i love this top the only thing neg ative is how thin and cheap the material feels this suit is well made and is so darn cute i u sually wear a 6 but i am a size 8 in this 8 us size although the main tag is australian size they send out based on the us size ordered the only issue i have is that i have a long ish tor so compared to my size so it s ever so slightly tight in the crotch but not enough to make me send it back i have small boobs so the extra padding is nice i m and athletic 5 6 and 130 lb s i was very excited when this top arrived in the mail it is so so beautiful i love the mate rial and the brightness of the colors it will be a perfect top this holiday season this dress will be very useful it fits loose but it is suppose to i plan to wear this to casual parties out to dinner and possibly a wedding at a winery i weigh am 5 6 weigh 145 lbs and ordered a medium a successful first date sweater the cut is flowy so don t expect snug the quality is average for retailer sweaters i guess nothing will ever be pill free the detailing at the bust reveals a little of what lies beneath which in my case was just a bra but in more conservative environs might have to be a camisole i tried this dress at a store today and ended up ordering it online i tried the red which is a beautiful vibrant color i wasn t sure how it looked on m y skin tone though pale like death so i ordered the black i do believe it runs small in the chest and shoulders i am normally a size 4 in shirts but the buttons were straining over my ch est and my shoulders felt constricted i tried the 6 and it was plenty roomy for reference i a m a 32c with athletic shoulders overall \r\n\r\npros \r\n an this is such a cute dress and i don t know why know one has reviewed it yet its different and fun i have worn it to work once and have gotten several compliments on it i found that it does run a bit short so i wore it wit h leggings this dress is so cute and unique i got many compliments when i wore it to an event recently and i know it will be a great summer dress it definitely runs small and short on me i am usually a 2 4 and needed a 6 in this dress i bought this dress after eyeing it up for weeks it s really stunning the red is incredibly vibrant especially for linen and the construction is very high quality since it s linen it feels crisp and light and you can layer it up nicely with a pullover or roll up the sleeves for flat out hot days the rayon slip is a really nice to uch too since the linen is fairly transparent it really drove home the sense of quality for m e i bought mine in size 0 regular which i found slightly big i so i tried this on in the store and ended up with the size 8 almost could have gone with a size 6 even though i m 135lbs 5 6 and 34 c the dress is beautiful the color is exactly as pictured brilliant red the linen is nice and summery it does make it billow just a tad in the back because of the fabric but not an ything to complain about if i could change just one thing on this dress it would be the length it just feels a little short for being such a classic and classy dress just needs nan love the suit i ordered two sizes and this 6 ended up being too small i m 35x27x36 and 34d and there wasn t enough support in the bust read a lot of mixed reviews regarding sizing on the seafolly suits so i m glad i got two suit is flattering and i love the coverage in the bottom some boy short suits are cheeky but these are not like that only complaint is that while there is a p ocket for the cups they are sewn on top dress is made from a light weight linen and is lined w ith a separate slip high quality with nice details and tts sleeves are average length length of dress feels appropriate on my 5 8 frame hook and eye closure at chest area to keep buttons aligned is a quality detail i think this is a lovely dress that can go from work to play dress is darling and well made however it runs very large i tried to size down but then it became a little short in xsp would be great for taller slim women the style is so cute the online pict ure does not do it justice i am 9 months post baby and still have some body self confidence iss ues i am just not ready nor do i think i want to ever wear a two piece again so i was looking f t looks awesome and my tummy super flat love this suit i am 5 3 and tried this dress on in b oth a large and medium petite the dress is supposed to be a lose fit but i found that i was swi mming in the large but the medium was perfect i bought it in a petite which is shorter for my c omfort to wear alone but looks great with leggings and sandals for spring or with boots in the w inter the embroidery is beautiful plus it has pockets first time i wore it i received tons of compliments i think the description and image might be slightly misleading and is giving this d ress a bad name it s not a drop waist dress as indicated in the description it s a swingy a l ine silhouette more fitted in the bodice and swingy as it its bells at the hem which i find fl attering another discrepancy is that the brand is hd in paris not glamorous however i happene d to find an online return at my local store and liked the print so i tried it on and fell in lo ve with the 60s retro vibe and pr i ve been stalking this suit online for months and i saw it in store yesterday i never knew what size to order because of the australian sizing i went with m y pants size 8 and it looks great i carry my weight in my butt and thighs and the boy legs ar e flattering i found the size up 10 was loose in the bust for me go for it it s the cutest suit ever this dress runs a bit small in my opinion for reference i m a 36 38 c and usually a 10 the medium is tight at the bust the material is beautiful but it looks like a petite cut on me the sleeve and overall length are too short and i m going to return it i had the seafolly g arden suit last year same cut and loved it i decided the light blue color didn t look great o n me so i decided to get this one i found that the garden suit was cut smaller than this umbrel la print one right now i m a 10 m and got the 12 in this just like last time i probably could ve gotten the 10 but i ll keep the 12 for comfort note the leg holes are not tight and do not make upper thighs butt squish out like you might imagine try this suit love this gorgeous fox skirt i typically wear either a size 4 or 6 depending on cut i bought the small and it fit per fectly i wore it with a black turtleneck sweater and black tights boots other colored tops wou ld work as well due to the various flower colors around the fox pink yellow blue white or brick red i d prefer it to be a little warmer lined i love this tee the fabric is very comfor table and the v neck is not too deep for petites i wore this dress yesterday and was complement ed wherever i went and asked where i purchased the dress i love the linen and the back of the d ress is so flattering i ordered a medium and could have gone with a small which i usually neve r wear so i would order a size smaller this dress is incredible on better than the photos t he only problem is i am too busty to wear it bra less or with a bandeau if you don t have that problem this is the perfect spring dress i love everything about this dress it is comfortable classic good quality and fits really well there are two layers to the material so nothing is s ee through the styling on the back is to die for there is a subtle gold line that runs through the blue and white stripes the first day i wore this i received 5 compliments while shopping in a single store \r\n\r\nit is a bit loose in the middle but i paired it with a skinny belt and i t was the perfect fix i can usually wear petite or regular i p this is a beautiful well made skirt that flows over curves beautifully my only complaint is that the picture shows the purple lining showing through the tulle and the waistband having a purplish hue the skirt i received i s completely black and the lining doesn t show through purple at all i purchased this dress in my regular size xs i d come across it several times at my local store but never thought much of it to try it on when i saw it was on sale i decided to take a chance boy was i surprised th e dress is really beautiful the hints of gold reflect nicely the dress is comfortable and lo ose yet flattering i received so many compliments on it i am 5 1 and the regular length worke d for me i was using my daughter s dress and ended up buying myself one as well it is a versat sh that they sold this in more colors i ve gotten many compliments with this delightful dress colors ar light and just right for a summer day so comfortable and has a nice inner lining ver y light and comfortable i saw this dress several times and never try it then i finally put it on omg i love it it does run large i am usually medium but the small size is perfect on me i visually like the blue color but the orange one is cuter on me the length is great i am 5 4 it s right to my lower ankle so i don t need to wear heel the quality is very good it s a gre at weekend dress i am petite and curvy and usually need a dress with a seamed waistline so i w as a bit hesitant in ordering this when it went on sale but i trusted the other reviewers who s aid it was flattering to women with curves they were right the way it s seamed vertically at t he waist makes up for the lack of horizontal seaming and the result is that it s incredibly flat tering the fabric is light enough for warm weather though it may be too heavy for hot weather it s soft and has a very flattering n it s the print that attracted me when i was in the store it is beautiful but i fear it demands darker skin and hair if you have problems with yellow t hen don t buy i don t mind the transparency of the fabric because it is not noticeable if you w ear a flesh colored cami underneath because the fabric is light and the shape boxy it is meant e honest and say that i initially bought the blue color at the store and after falling in love i decided that i deserved to have the mango colored one as well after seeing my sister in it the sizing is just a tab big but it works for the design so i would say stick with your usual size amazing pop of color especially for summer the back design is gorgeous and the gold streaks run ning through it are wonderful do yourselves a favor and just try it on the back of this dress is stunning i am usually a petite but could get away with regular tried on xs 115 lbs 30dd c hest and it was good length and not too low cut colors are really fun the mango one has a tin y bit of sparkle in one of the lines flory and airy i love these pants so much and have worn t hem so many times in a week they are comfy and causal but still chic and presentable these pa nts run true to size and are great for so many things running errands working out lounging ar ound being casual and cool etc etc etc after buying these on sale and loving them i knew i needed more and purchased two more pairs i definitely recommend these for anyone who wants bo th comfort and style thin rayon material see through and unlined size down as this runs large for reference i m 5 4 124lbs size 26 in jeans in retailer clothing i wear sz small or size 4 6 i ordered this in small but the body and shoulders are too wide and unflattering especially with the shorter length of this top that is why sizing is key i know it is meant to fit loosel y but you will have to order a size down otherwise you will look larger and the dark piping det ails on this top will not fall in the rig i wore these pants for the first time yesterday to two parties before anyone asked for my name they complimented me on the pants my husband loved it my friends loved it and people i didn t know loved it it s worth every penny i paid for it i bought these pant to bring on my trip to italy later this summer absolutely love the cut and de sign of these pants fit so well and unique pattern at the ankle however as is the case with ma ny white pants so disappointed when i tried them on at home and could see my underwear nude co lor the pants are beautiful in every way except that they need to be lined going back may o rder the black since they re not likely to be see through disappointing was hoping to wear t hem to a dinner party pretty white pants with nice design at the bottom of the legs had to hav e them hemmed a little i did not have the issue that a previous reviewer did there were ruffle s on my shirt the one thing i didn t know was how wide the top ran i ordered my usual size 8 a nd it fit with no problems i m a 36b the only thing is that in the model shot the shirt is tu cked into the pants and you don t get to see the full volume of it even the model shot of the s hirt from the back doesn t show the wide sleeves and body of the shirt its not a big problem s ince the shirt can be tucked but i will have great flattering fit lovely light fabric classy with an edge getting another one the other color stripes on the taupe one are navy i am a sh orter woman 5 3 and typically a size large i purchased this dress in a large it is flatteri ng and fits well good length as well i absolutely love everything about this top i got compli ments the first time i wore it i do not find the fabric to be sheer at all but perfectly light weight for the heat of summer the neckline and sleeves seem tailor fitted for my body i don t often think much about sleeves but these sleeves are the perfect length shape to be incredibly f lattering they re in a sweet spot somewhere in between a cap sleeve and regular length the nec kline is equally perfect and hugs my curves beautifully wit i d wish i d gotten this in a small i m a true medium and its pretty big on me that being said i still love it and will continue to wear it the v part of the neck lays kind of funny after washing i might try to sew it down th is is already sold out in petites and the reason for this is asymmetrical stripes this is the m ost flattering design for tops horizontal stripes only look good on people trying to look bigge r and heavier do you know anyone like that b c i don t vertical stripes while slimming gene rally look a little severe modern weird occasionally great while asymmetrical stripes knock 5lbs off a person stock more asymmetrical striped tops please this is a great dress that look s better in reality than it shows on the website the style is very flattering fitting snug at the waist with just the right amount of flare i am 132 pounds 34dd and i bought a size 8 and i t fit great the material is soft and flowing and the cut was true to size for me the first tim e i wore it a woman walked across the restaurant to tell me how much she loved my dress this on e is a keeper i bought these in white not a harsh white more soft looking and am very pleas ed with them they are true to the manufacturer s sizing i own another pair of pants from eleve nses in the same size which runs somewhat large i m 5 5 tall weigh 135 pounds and the siz e 6 fit perfectly the back of the waistband is elasticized so there s some give they re long enough on me that they hit the floor with heels they re perfect they look as pictured but wh at you can t tell from the photo i this dress fit perfectly and as i am a bit curvy the style co mpliments my figure it is a bit fuller in the bottom than the photo looks also i am 5 4 and it is a right to the bottom of my knees which is also very complimentary i first tried this dre ss in my usual size 4 and thought it was a pretty fabric but boring and not particularly flatte ring i later read the positive reviews and the next time i was in the store i tried it in a 2 and it was so much better very pretty shape uiu might want to size down because the shoulder s were set a little wide apart and bodice was gapping in my usual size for reference i m 5 6 125 lbs twirly full skirt \r\nme 5 6 130lbs 34 35a 28 36 tried and pictured the size 6 a perfect fit with a bit of give in the bust for a larger cup size \r\ni m not particularly curvy and i felt this added a waistline to me i think this is an almost universally flattering cut \r \nmaterial was soft and an easy wear \r\nsimple enough that i think it will wear for quite a few years i love this tee i am long waisted and so many tops right now that are on the shorter sid e look silly on me so i was happy to find this i m 5 5 118 34b and bought and xs it fits pe rfectly the asymmetry is darling and the stripes are perfect for spring it is a nice weight an d i felt totally worth the money it looks great so far after three washes and hang dries so ve rsatile\ni tried this on in my usual regular 0 but it was way too long at the shoulders large in the bust i am 32b and a tad too long overall i ordered the 0p and it fits perfectly can w ear this year round and looks great with or without a belt pockets would have made it even bett er but still love it this top runs a little large i should probably return for a smaller size but figure after i wash it it ll shrink a bit it s very flattering on and i really like the as ymmetrical design the only thing i don t like about it is that the fabric is a little itching w ithout wearing a tank top underneath the picture does not do it justice this dress is beautifu l on it is fitted on the top and flares on the bottom it is also a very soft denim the person helping me at the store brought a sparkly belt that made it even more spectacular truth is it l ooks great with or without the belt it fits true to size 5 4 135 lbs and 34c and my usual si ze 2 was great product is sheer but definitely adorable w any jean product wouldn t pay ful l price but so glad i got it on sale w extra savings i bought this on sale and absolutely lo ve it i bought the xs i m 5 10 145 lbs and a b c cup and it fit well i am considering sewing in cups since i don t like using stick on bras as much and none of my other bras work with the back that really is my only complaint about the dress everything else is great i like this dr ess i did have to return one for a regular from a petite size 8 normally i wear a size 6 in re tailer dresses but since i have a large bust 34dd i wanted to account for the needed room wit h the petite the bust was not so much a problem as the ribcage which was too tight it is still fitted in the regular size 8 but doable the 6 would have been impossible i am aware that i ha ve a slightly larger ribcage so i was not completely surprised the other reason that i did not give th i was on the fence about another patchwork design peasant inspired blouse but once i tr ied this on i fell in love it drapes beautifullly is not too short and just feels pretty for reference i am 5 feet 6 inches 140 lbs 36b and usually wear a medium in tops the medium fits and flows perfectly hiding all my mature woman problem areas \r\ni purchased quite a few items on the 40 off sale and this is one of my top favorites i love the versatility just gorgeous for casual wear or dressy love these pants very flattering not much stretch the rear waist b and is elastic with minimal stretch and not visible to others they are long but wearable with t he right heels i just wore these and they were comfortable and didn t stretch our or become bag gy throughout the day i have three kids and am constantly moving they re a nice in between wei ght and held up nicely i have some from j crew that stretch out and become baggy in the knees a nd backside and these didn t do that i usually wear an 8 10 and i purchased a medium and they f it well i would say that run a little big though this is a very sexy suit it took some time t o figure out how to put it on it needs instructions but it is well worth it i picked this max i up in navy to go with my summertime capsule wardrobe that i will be doing extensive travel wit h this summer this dress is well made and fits my frame in a size m perfectly 5 4 125lbs 34c it is substantial enough to disguise any backside indiscretions and the halter style front does not expose the girls i do wear petals with this dress to ensure that i don t put on a show espe cially in air conditioned rooms this launders easily and doesn t look rumpled and wilted after not tissue thin like most tees and easily can be dressed up to wear to work in a casual setting i find myself reaching for this tee weekly have every color i usually avoid stripes however th is tee seems to flatter and slim love i absolutely loooove this skirt its just as depicted s uper comfy and warm got tons of compliments wearing it its just adorable the colors are reall y rich and the design if the skirt made it avery flexible to wear with different styles of tops and sweaters highly recommend this print combination is like an arts and crafts wallpaper sam pler and is simply beautiful size down and tuck it in for the best look but wear a high waist bottom with it since it runs a bit short in the torso i didn t find the same transparency probl em of which other reviewers complain i am 70 years old and enjoy retailer so much for uniquenes s \nthis dress is not flattering in the photo but \nit is great on a curvy figure and i pla n to wear it anywhere everywhere i can so flattering\nfrom the bust to the smaller waist tho ugh mine is definitely not small but the skirt then\nflares deligthfully the fabric is not hea vy not too light just great \neasy going length wear as is or add a crop belt etc \n \nagain the photo does not do this dress justice gorgeous skirt received so many complimen ts the colors are perfect to match with many tops jackets sweaters as well as different shoe s boots bringing out the colors i unfortunately ordered a large thinking it ran small and the large is too big in the waist so i will try to have it tailored i like my skirts fuller in the hip area i hope retailer offers more of this type of item just adore it for size i am a 8 10 in bottoms but since the skirt looked slim with out lining i ordered a large i love love love th is dress it s a quality well fitting jean dress that you can dress up or down the top portion dies run small so of you are busy you might want to stay away from this dress these pants are elegant and chic great for tall women wearing to a yacht cruise can t wait would have loved to wait for the sale but i had to have them and i am very pleased love these pants ordered in petite love style great fit but so long \r\nkeeping but have to get hemmed 2 1 2 inches \r \ndecided to order the black green as well size down as the top looks too big at the shoulder s of you get your normal size i don t find the material too see through it s light flowy and pretty not your average boring looking top unique nan this dress has all the hallmarks of a c lassic the fit of the bodice is form enhancing but modest and the flare is very feminine and sw ingy i love the soft denim fabric though it smelled funny out of the package and i had to air i t out i am 140 36dd and bought the size 8 nan this shirt was a little shorter than i hoped bu t definitely too boxy if i had ordered up in size i ordered xs based on reviews i usually wear a s it looks great with higher rise jeans or dress pants i have always liked this look so orde red my usual size s fit is good looks pretty much on me as in the pic even the arm length w orks not too long i don t care for the placement of the top buttons which are just cosmetic they dangle downwards showing more of the loop than the button itself placement is not directly over the bottom buttons which puts it in the lower breast area mmmmm not the look i want l ooks unattractive if i keep this i will have to move the buttons more in lin if you are curvy this dress is for you every details is flattering from the seams to the fit and flare cut tru e to size this dress will easily cross seasons love it this dress is gorgeous it is a perfec t fit and very flattering love these pants thank you retailer for making tall really tall i am 6 feet and have to wear heals keep the pants from dragging love it i got the black not sh ear they run just a tad small i am a 4 6 in pants and the 6t just fit me \r\ni wear with a t ank for casual beach look colorful silk top for a dressier look very versatile \r\n\r\ni jus t may have to buy this in the green i would get the white but some reviews say they are prett y shear fits perfectly i don t think this is too long and i m a shorty great style wish it came in more colors i would definitely buy again i love this shirt i wore it once and it is so cute on the problem came from washing i washed once and made sure i washed on gentle i to ok it out of the washer and hung it to dry and noticed that there was now a tiny hole in the bod y of the shirt i am planning to exchange this and hoping it doesn t happen again i ordered thi s shirt in both white and coral i absolutely love the design and coral color the white was a b it see through so i returned it it would be cute with a cami under but i just wanted somethin g that did not require an extra layer overall it is a flattering fit and i love the detail on the back this is a fantastic sweater really soft great details but it s huge i m generally between an xs and a s at retailer and most always an xs with pure good but this time even th e xs is huge i wish they offered this one in an xxs i love it so much that i may keep it anywa y it s really comfortable and i love the style looks decent with my arms down like the model s pose but when my arms are lifted out to either side it really looks huge i ll have to thin k on this one this shirt is incredibly soft i was drawn to the style based on the feel of the material and the cute tie up detailing in the back definitely size down the sleeves were a lit tle snug but sizing down will help with the length and the bust my only problem with this shir t is that if you bend over anyone can see down your top so be aware otherwise the top is gre at and perfect for summer i am obsessed with these jeans i have them in 3 washes and hardly ev er wear any of the other jeans in my closet now they are truly the perfect skinny jeans you ca n dress them up with heels and a cute top or down with a slouchy sweater and boots or even thr ow on with a simple tee and flats i love that they are low rise as i am short waisted and oft en find the front rise too long on many styles the backside is also super flattering and the b ack pockets are the perfect size and shape no the material is soft and the length is great yo u can wear it with short or skinny jeans the only drawback is the color because it is so light it is pastel so if you like pastels it will be great for you i really liked the look of this to p online but when it came i had a couple of issues with it first when i tried it on i found t he underarms to be a little snug i normally wear a 10 m and that s what i ordered it makes r aising my arms tough and as a teacher i need to be able to lift my arms above my waist second ly my husband s first reaction was that it looks like pajamas the abstract floral stripe get s a little lost \n\non the other hand the color palette is very pretty and the qual beautiful m edium weight duster it looks just like on line photos \r\nmy store did not have this duster so i ordered on line i usually wear a medium top but sometimes a large \r\ni m 5 7 140 lbs and i don t like my tops tight \r\ni ordered this duster in xl because i like room in my cardigans i could have gone with a large \r\ni have to roll up the cuffs of the sleeves but i like to do that anyway \r\nthis sweater duster is soooo soft and warm so comfy very stretchy with no clos ures on the front i ordered this top because i liked the look in the back however the top i r eceived looks nothing like the back online it shows that the back has elastic is gathered al so online it shows thin straps that look like a bra strap but my top has no thin straps no e lastic extremely odd i called customer service but the lady i spoke to didn t have any inform ation or complaints about the top i m holding on to the top because it is cute from the front but i was really wanting the back to lo i absolutely adore this top the design on the front is super bright and beautifully done so beware if you do not like bright colored patterns i norma lly wear a size medium and bought a large in this shirt because of reading other reviews i am g lad i did so i have broad shoulders and muscular arms and i believe a medium would not have fi t my arms and shoulders however it is a little boxy in the torso area because of the extra mat erial therefore i feel a large feels like a medium in the yes 48 may feel like a lot to pay for a tshirt but this is one is worth it i can wear this with everything i bought this in grey and the quality and style are just right to pair with a high waisted skirt or black skinny pants to wear out at night or wear with regular jeans and a cardigan during the day one of the best retailer purchases i ve made in a while love this top the flutter sleeves are really pret ty and give the top a bit more pizzazz than just being a regular tee it makes it easy to dress up or down the length is great not super long but not too short i ordered a medium and it fit s well not tight and isn t baggy the material allows it to float away from the body a bit and doesn t feel stretched over my belly or anything nice silky weight love the design of these pants and they are super comfortable perfect for running errands but managing not to look like you just rolled out of bed bought the regular m size usually i want petite because i m 5 1 a nd while they are a little long they still fit relatively well i bought three of these tees i k ept the turquoise one only though the color was pretty a little drab but not too bad \r\n\r \n i love the style the fabric is so soft and the one i wore was super comfy the sleeves are cute without being too dramatic like the ruffle sleeve tee the sleeves were kind of ridiculou s on me \r\n\r\nnow the cons the colors are pretty drab i normally look better in more vib rant colors the red i bought made me look like a corpse it s not pretty at all can t re i j ust got this top in store today all the colors were heathered pretty casual colors the top is extremely soft and i would say true to size love the flutter sleeves that give nice feminine details i hope it doesn t shrink in the wash and wears well also i found that the purple col or seemed to run slightly smaller than the others kind of odd but i thought worth mentioning it was a little on the thinner side fabric a little more sheer that i would have liked i act ually prefer that it doesn t have the straps in the back i didn t order it before until i read the reviews fit loosely the shirt is comfortable and the back is beautiful love bows tbu t he front was just ordinary for the price even on sale i didn t feel i absolutely needed it b ut if you are looking for a hite tank it is pretty cute ivory not pure white \r\n\r\nxs 11 5 lbs 60 dd as far as t shirts go this one is fun i love the lace up detail in the back the xs regular fit nicely 115 lbs 30dd the shirt flares out swing so it can be a little much on the smaller gals but it was ok enough on me that the stylist decided to try it on too the o range color was pretty but i decided to pass as i have a lot of orange tops and that is the color that was most flattering on my skin amterial is on the thinner side and a little tiny she er must be the trend i bought the mauve color and it s very pretty i felt as though sizing up was a better choice i m usually an xs or a small and i went with the small i liked the leng th of the small better the shoulders add a cute look to it cure pants just bought them \nthey look black but the description says blue motif does anyone else have them and know\ni f they are black or blue i bought the lavender in my normal large the fabric drapes wonderfull y and does not cling to my midsection the texture of the fabric is much more interesting than t he photos online show there is beautiful shimmer tot he heather in the color in my lavender sh irt there is pink gray lavendar white silver depth to the fabric i plan on getting at least two more colors \r\n\r\ni recommend washing all shirts like this in a nylon bag in the machine the n line drying i have done this for years with al wow this sweater is as other reviewers have said perfect weight and the colors are vibrant and will work well with fall colors i m 5 11 s o i m always hoping the length works and in this case it does i am very happy with this agreed that the pictures do not do this top justice it s got shiny threads woven in the fabric and giv es off an iridescent colorful sheen it can be dressed up or down worn with a number of variou s styles jeans dress pants skirts the back adn arms are a tweed sweater knit the front is an unforgiving acetate dry clean only hand wash will ruin this piece i normally wear a smal l but it was tight in the chest 34c so i went with a medium and it worked fine no stretch i n the acetate very well made and comfortable with nice finishing touches and fabric looking for ward to wearing it many different ways either with jeans pants or long dresses i m 5 1 and pet ite sizes were out of stock so i chose small regular which looks great not too long so i won t have to shorten i purchased this tee last week in white and love it as soon as i saw that it w as on sale i ran to get a price adjustment and to pick up a few more colors i had every intenti on to grab up the blue today however i tried on four larges and all were cut way shorter than th e other colors i ended up purchasing the red which fits exactly as my white one does perfect l ight weight easy but adorable tee for summer this skirt is a really beautiful print and made of a lovely silky fabric i didn t have the see through issue that the other reviewer mentione d my main concerns were the length i m 5 1 and it almost goes to my ankles and that it poofs out a little right below the waist band i m between a small and a medium and went with the smal l it fits but i wonder if it would lie flatter and be more flattering if i had gone with a medi um instead perfection effortless cool and the colors are much more vibrant and gorgeous in pe rson endless options you know a sweater must be a dream if you end up buying it when it s stil l 90 degrees outside runs true to size the medium fit with room to layer underneath really i nteresting beautiful colors i found it to be short even in the regular size and i m 5 1 with a short torso wish the fit was slimmer but i could see it working with jeans or being stunni ng with a black ball skirt bought all colors and each one is unique in its beauty material is thicker than most thin tops today but not too thick for the summer i wear size 12 14 and the xl fit with room to spare i bought larger in case of shrinkage it s thin very but i were a cute scrappy athletic type bra underneath and it s so cute \r\nit s a stink top i pick a spot to tuc k in around the from and let the rest flow \r\naside from being a swing top it runs large i ha ve 2 in xs and i m a 34dd and i still have room \r\ni have it in faded red pink and white and am buying blue too love it i didn t pay much attention to this shirt on the website when i was in the store yesterday though i grabbed the green color because it s so pretty i went back hom e to see which shirt this was on the website and was surprised the picture here really doesn t do it justice it s very soft has a beautiful and flattering necklace and the flutter sleeves h ang nicely rather than puffing out like snow white which isn t my goal also because the s leeves drape nicely you could wear it under s i absolutely love this top it can be worn with s horts or jeans dressed up or down it fits perfectly i am broad on top so i ordered a large i bought it in white i wish they had more colors love it this duster is very nicely put togethe r and is mid weight i m not sure it s worth this price point but it s not cheaply made either the colors are as shown on the website to a t the length is also as shown i am 5 5 142 lbs a nd 34d and the small is perfect i think if one is considering multiple layers underneath a medi um would serve the purpose nicely but the small will accommodate a blouse or tee underneath and is just perfect colors are dark teal salmon and gold this is a three seaso i bought this top in every color the fit is so flattering and just flows so nicely not too big love i saw the se in the store and was smitten ordered online and have not been disappointed love the pattern the feel and the fit comfortable fun and interesting the regular length ones are definitely full length on me but not too long i might have gone with the petite length except that they di dn t seem available but am perfectly happy with the regular length if you are self conscious a bout your arms and want a tee that has style then this is the one soft fabric with a flutter sl eeve makes this top so flattering i purchased the turquoise and will purchase other colors it s flowy comfortable and a must have these pants are great super cute and comfy the price is t oo high but i do love them the colors and textures on this top are fun however the boxy shape isn t very flattering and poofs out a bit around the belly maybe it would look a bit more femin ine on someone with a curvier chest i would size up if between sizes because the top part aroun d the arms is not very roomy i tried it on at the store but decided to pass because the xs was a little tight around the arms but the s billowed around the belly too much still a cute piece if it works for you fit wise these leggings were everything i expected them to be they are wel l made and the material is thick enough that i can wear them outside in the colder months of th e year the pattern on the website is accurate and the waistband is comfortable and flattering would definitely buy again this top is very easy to wear it s a great versatile and unique p iece the textile is really soft and i found quite special it is pretty lightweight and the sl eeves have some great stripes of more sheer fabric nan i was fortunate to buy one of the last p etite mediums in this style the knit is soft and comfortable and doesn t seem likely to snag t here are a variety of stitches through the upper areas which add subtle differences the colors are fantastic this will be great for the cooler months it looks fabulous with denim i ordered this in the blue it s a beautiful shade of blue love the lace up detail in the back but the s ize small was just short and very wide i understand it is a swing top but this was not flatter ing on me i m short waisted 34 d 5 3 125 lbs i m sure it would be cute on a very thin pers on this tee fits true to size not oversized the material is super soft and the colors are del icate the armholes don t show your bra which is hard to find nothing bad to say about this top except that my size was sold out in every color but lavender which was lovely i am in love w ith theses they are incredibly comfortable and flattering i have an hourglass figure and they r fun weekend wear good pure are my new go to legging brand i m going to order the solid bla ck and other patterns retailer has on any given day i can usually find tons of stuff i like at retailer but every once in a while comes an item that is extra special \r\n\r\nit has adorable details lovely print fits beautifully and can t be found anywhere else oh and the quality is good \r\n\r\nthis top is it for me \r\n\r\ni love the print and the sleeves remind me a bit of a kimono except that this top s fabric is smooth and flowy \r\n\r\ni tried the top in the store in a small and i felt lost in the fabric i am 5 4 115 and small on just purchased this on s ale will be perfect for summer on those days you wear dresses and don t want your skin to touch the subway bench love it this sweater is so unique not for the faint of heart but it s beauti ful hubby thought pattern looked southeast asian inspired the colors are saturated vibrant l ove the raglan sleeves and the tweed on the sleeves and in the back the front material is sligh tly stiffer i feel like i have a little bit more bulk in the stomach area than i want but i m w illing to overlook it will be a great sweater for the holiday season wear it with a skirt jea ns skinny cargos endless possibilities adorable print just picked these up in the store yest erday the print is so pretty and it caught my eye surprisingly they fit in my usual size for w orkout pants super flattering a great length for me 5 9 but very sheer i love this tshirt but the speckled grey looks more like roof shingles in person i m going to try to exchange it f or a different color while shopping with my daughters i bought this tee in white i immediatel y felt guilty for spending too much on a white tee that was thin and see through enough that i d need to wear something underneath i returned the white but then retailer had a sale weekend s o i ordered the blue with a discount so less guilt and the color is beautiful i don t need to worry about wearing anything underneath the fabric is very thin and super soft and feels so ni ce nan i don t normally write reviews but i love this shirt it s sooo soft and hangs perfect ly not to mention it takes what could be a boring t shirt and makes it anything but that with t he cute flutter sleeves it s beyond comfortable i purchased one and went back immediately to g et another i can tell these will be some of my go to tees plus they are a steal on sale i a m 5 5 135 and medium is perfect i normally wear an xl but could only find this instore in siz e large the blouse fits nicely but i think it would come down a bit lower and also be a longer blouse if i would have purchased it in my usual size the blouse itself has a nice drape to it the black railroad tracks look very pretty in person and add a nice detail the only complain t i have with this blouse is the sleeves the enormous bell sleeve feels like a costume but for a nominal fee i had the sleeves shortened to a ruffl these are very well constructed medium wei ght besutiful leggings i bought this shirt in blue because the store was out of gray and i ha d to have it right then and it is my favorite it is comfortable and durable i also appreciate the length of the shirt it is long enough for me to not worry about putting my arms up it is a n overall great buy i want one in every color cute shirt i thought from the model that it wou ld be big so sized down it s more snug than i expected so will send back and re order in normal size might order 1 size up and compare really fantastic shirt ordered multiple colors and wil l keep them all the gray especially looks a bit boring online but is gorgeous in real life it has different shades mixed together and is really pretty neckline is interesting wish the fron t was a tad shorter i m 5 4 but don t think petite will work really really great shirt the se leggings are so comfortable and luxurious when i opened the package i knew i was in trouble they are comfortable and beautiful a perfect piece for any wardrobe i adore a well made and w ell fit tshirt t la always delivers this one is no exception fun swingy and light the tie o n back is a fun little addition and the length is perfect i m 5 9 and always prefer longer tops the swing in this one gives it a great length love the colors but decided to stick with basic w hite i d love this in black too highly recommend like the other reviewers experienced i rece ived my top in the mail and it does not have the straps as shown in the online pictures not to say that the top is not attractive though and i ll be keeping it very comfortable and cool in the triple digit heat in my community i first saw these in store but decided to risk waiting f e the blue now i have to wait a few months to wear it 5 3 117 usually wear a size small i n the colors on these leggings are very nice and the fit was fabulous the waist is high enough to hold in a slight muffin top and the control in the fabric is just right i received several compliments on them and hubby really liked them love this top bought in 2 colors white and the orange fun change to regular t shirts sized down because its flowy these pants are just what i wanted to work out in something bright cheery and feminine they re super comfortable and fit perfectly i m typically a 2 so i ordered the xs and they are just right this is a be autiful sweater with vibrant colors it is versatile and can be worn throughout the year it run brant and shiny totally my style i highly recommend it if it fits love this top i have it in the green and i am tempted to go and buy it in the other colors it is a simple but cute top th at is easy and comfortable to wear a little dressier than a plain tee this caught my eye in th e store because of the beautiful bell sleeves so i had to try it on i tried on an xs and small to see what fit better for me i am 5 3 and about 120 lbs the xs fit better i usually do tak e an xs in tops i wore it out recently with a pair of distressed jeans and it looked great as with most of the items you see online it is always better to see it in person as the pictures do not do it justice the material was nice and flowy i did not feel the neckline was too low i pu \r\nsleeves i m thrilled to find a shirt that fits flatters my proportional curves and sports s leeves that don t grip my biceps often i must choose to fit my arms or fit my torso unless i want the additional step i really like this skirt but unfortunately there is no lining so it s a bit see through under the light also there is no hook at the top of the zipper to secure the skirt i just think that with this kind of price the skirt should come at least with the lining otherwise it s beautiful skirt flowy and very feminine this tunic is amazing i m not usually one for turtlenecks but it s not too tight around the neck and very comfortable i love the vers atility it can be worn with pants leggings or a skirt you can layer it with a shirt or blouse underneath or throw a jacket over it i was thrilled when this shirt arrived it is as cute in person as in the catalog it s soft it fit perfect and it looks great with shorts and pants it will be my go to shirt this summer i would describe as an upgraded t shirt a perfect flow y top that you can dress up or down comfortable and soft material super cute t shirt keep in m ind to is fairly long i ordered this top despite the other reviews and i m very glad i did it i s adorable well made and very flattering i am usually a size xs or 00 but based on the reviews sized up to a 0 fits perfectly not snug at all highly recommend these pajama pants are dream y in all ways incredibly soft with a soft and not binding elastic waist plus the print is ev ocative \r\n\r\ni am 5 8 and a size 2 4 i bought these in the store the only size left was on e pair of xs sure enough they fit \r\n\r\nthe length is perfect \r\n\r\ni just ordered a pair for my sister skirt has lots of stretch and comes up to waistline so i am not sure yet how i wi i got a small 5 9 135lbs and it fits great it is super comfortable and also looks really goo d on this tunic is just adorable material is very soft and slightly stretchy and drapes so nic ely with just the right amount of fullness without spilling into maternity territory i got it i n the pink color which is really a very beautiful rose color perfect for spring the tie back d etail is so cute and adds a feminine touch \r\nfit is tts i m 5 103 lbs 32b and i got it in an xxs regular which fits me perfectly i was afraid it would be too long on me since there was no option for petite sizes in love the lilac purple color breathable yet not see through material is soft on your skin i like the small detail cut out in the back and a high bonus point for no t showing your bra one minor thing i would change is the length of the string in the back but not a big deal made by dawn suits are the bomb the bottom is a tiny bit cheeky but not thong territory just enough side leg to be seriously sexy the quality is fantastic soft with nude l ining love the retro feel to the high neck top enough support even for my 36d s so comfy i f orgot i was wearing it at lunch the normal triangle tops cut into my shoulders neck and this s tyle does not amazing quality and well worth the price \r\nfyi large top fit perfectly but i needed a medium bottom i purchased this product online so wasn t able to try it on before purch ase it fits perfect i am 5 7 and 160 lbs the only thing i did not like was the fabric it is very thin you can see undergarment lines in the back very cute but i would not call it pink it s more of a melon color i just need to write a review on this sweater because it s the best i currently own the cream blue stripe sweater and have recieved many compliments what i was mos t happy about it was the fact that i have washed it several times and the sweater looks like new and has held it s shape i have ordered the gold one as well and it s still on backorder waitin g for it to arrive don t procrastinate it s worth the price the material on these is super lightweight but still strong perfect for summer so hard to find great lounge sleep clothing in summer for a house without ac \r\n\r\nillustrations are beautiful in person i wish they still had more in stock i want to buy for my mom \r\n\r\nalso i am tall and i like that they are lon g after seeing this top in the catalog i also spotted it in the retailer store the peach color is even more perfect in person and compliments my skin tone perfectly the style of the top is u nique and flattering now that i see even more colors i ll need to buy more my one reservation is that the material is super soft but very thin so i hope it doesn t get holes i want to wea r this one all summer love this sweater warm cozy and and not ordinary fits great too no surprises this is a great everyday top that is very versatile yes this top is not of the best quality but i bought it on sale with an additional 25 off it has a very cute design on the bac k and will be cute on while running errands on a hot day it s true to size i m 5 6 150 lbs a nd m fit well ok so this top is as cute in person as it is online runs very small as theres no stretch or give in fabric i normally wear 12 and i couldnt even halfway get this on lol i may consider a 14 16 but the stores didnt have this yet to try on the ladies at the counter were cr ushing on this top though \nif you can find your fit this top is great for layering that was th e only color i liked it s great if you have a tummy like me and is long enough in the back to c over your butt back detail is cute but annoying sometimes it shifts around and my bra shows and the string is at least 3 feet too long \r\nnot bad i wear it with white gauze pants looks nice good with leggings too this dress is made very well and can be dressed up or down it can be worn with open toe wedges in spring and summer and cute booties in the fall the dress is lov ely my only knock on it is i didn t really feel like the top and the skirt matched in terms of level of dress i guess the top just wasn t fancy enough for me but it is a very beautiful sk irt i wish it was in a tea length the fit was spot on i got a medium as i usually wear that i n everything i am a 36d and this pulled a bit across my chest and back it is a cute idea but the fit is off for my body i am 5 6 and hits me shorter than shown on the model so hits at an odd length i may try to order a large and see if it is better on me because i am so hopeful fo r this to look cute on me the teal blue color is beautiful the pink is more a blush and washed me out the grey is just grey i bought three thinking this would be my go t the perfect fit and style of any jean ever i order one size up in petites i love these jeans and want them in ever y color wash they have wonderful stretch that does not sag i wear them with cuffs folded up in hot weather but can also wear them down thanks to petite styling love love simply lovely to l ook at because of the fringe detail and it s a joy to wear because it does not cling to my troub le spots very versatile as it can be worn and layered in many different ways i was lucky eno ugh to buy this in petite but i m sure the regular would ve been fine looking forward to outfi ic is overall very pretty with soft material and very comfy not itching the color is more like a taupe than what s shown on picture i love it very much as the design is unique romantic but also classic it goes well with skinny jeans or black leggings bought this cardigan on a whim a s a birthday treat pre myself love it i get a compliment everyone i wear it the quality is gr eat fits great with a roomy feel the sweater is very very warm it looks okay not the best but not bad i had high expectations so was disappointed to see no closure i don t wear sweater s and jackets without closures i like having the option of closing buttons if it gets any colde r so i am sending it back i got so many compliments on this the first day i wore it i think o f this more like a sweater coat than a regular sweater it is extremely soft and warm but not b ulky at all it lays really neatly which is why i think of it more like a coat this will defin itely be a staple moving into the winter and then into spring keep in mind though that this doe ial quality product might run a little large depends how roomy you want them lovely colors and perfect length wish they came in other colors it does run large i got it on sale and it is a great sweater coat for 200 00 i would not have paid the full price of 450 00 but i do love i t every time i wear it someone complements me lovely print and colors interior lining was so super soft but it did lay right on me felt very big and bulkly and i wasn t a fan of the singl e snap closure esp being so low so i decided it was not for me at that price and returned 5 5 135lbs 34c and the s was too big it is beautiful and i will consider the xs if the price is cu t further but i do love it i jsut can t pull it off as i am simply too petite short i look lost in it and sold out in petites my taller friend however tried it on and we both loved i t the colors are really fun and it is warm love this jumpsuit i was rather apprehensive as i didn t think it would look as good on me as on the model but i am totally smitten with it very flattering especially if you have some bumps and rolls i ordered in a medium 5 7 and 145 lbs and it fits perfectly definitely recommend to order down \r\nas i m wearing it to yoga i wear a sports bra underneath that also helps with the very deep and open back to cover up a bit more highly recommend the top hits in all the right spots to make one i first saw this sweater coat in the retailer catalog that i got in the mail i thought it was beautiful so ethereal i never thought that i would own it though because of the initial price i never thought it would make it to clearance to my surprise it did and then went the extra 30 off i took the plunge i f ollowed the advice of the other reviewers and ordered a size down a small i am glad that i di d i still feel like i get the oversized wrapped in warmth feel it is not a figure fl the blue color is beautiful and what attracted me to this sweater the draped front is very flattering an d the fit is true to size unfortunately the banded hem creates a pouching effect that is very u nflattering i really wanted to love this sweater but just can t figure out how to wear it with out poofing i think this is the reason it is tucked in in many of the model shots it is still a pretty sweater and it may work with for some i just received this today by mail i am going t o keep it as the reddish color is really pretty it is very lightweight and will travel well for my summer vacations however my first observation is the same as was noted in a previous review not quite sure how to keep this dress in place as soon as you move your arms around the dress goes out of place and it slips back onto your shoulders hopefully it will work out will try a couple more times before i make a final decision i think i agree with a prior reviewer who st sover design of this sweater the v neck is not low cut and can be worn without cami sweater is thin but not find it to be see through although i always were tank tops under my shirts did not find it to be itchy i saw this sweater coat in store and thought it was gorgeous i was turned off by the price so i waited for it to go on sale luckily i snatched it up right away as othe r reviewers have stated it is meant to be worn as a coat jaclket and for me the medium i am u sually a size 8 or medium in retailer fit was slighly oversized on my 5 9 145lb frame i admit that this not an item that i would usually have in my wardrobe and was not sure how the sweater and the fit looked on me i was afraid it w this is my new favorite summer dress seriously i p urchased this dress while there were no reviews at the time but i m so glad a took a chance the colors are pretty close to the picture shown maybe more of a lilac hue than mauve i normally w ear a 6 petite or a 4 regular in dresses so i went with a 6p as other reviewers have mentioned this dress seems to run a little bigger so i could have easily gotten a 4 petite for the shorte r length and it still would ve been flowy i have chosen to dress really pretty and great quali ty slip is small if large breasted i found this at my retailer store the only dress left i b ought this in black in my usual size small 4 6 this dress was so pretty on and fabulous in ho t weather the material is gauzy and so the look is casual i m not sure i would wear it in the evening but the fit was great i am tall 5 9 and the dress is long enough for me i would s ay it is the same length as on the model it is a bit pricey for what it is but i bought it as a birthday gift to myself ok so this coat is amazing it s high quality soft great pattern th e knit lining helps to make this more of a light weight coat than a sweater type coat it s been warmer this season so i ve worn it as a coat and received many compliments it might not be warm enough for january in new england but i bought a size up so i could wear it over a sweater and s till use it as a coat this was purchased on sale w 25 off sale code so for me that was a ste at just a week later the discounted price may be a good de i ll admit i had a lot of sticker s hock when i saw this was a moth sweater coat at this price point but i was immediately drawn to it this is a one of a kind piece for sure the colors are vibrant the design is stylish and it is beautifully unstructured it has a cocoon shape wool on the outside and a soft knit on the i he print very classic on top and very boho on bottom it is gorgeous i woul alright ladies this jacket its even better than it appears online the green anorak fabric has a little stret ate and certainly not a color i would usually pick for myself but at sale price this was a lucky steal for me if i had known how much i would love this dress i would ve paid full price as for sizing i am top heavy but picked the smaller end of my size range instead of my usual the slip is just about tts and the silk outer is larger and flowy for fit reference 5 3 36dd 140 b arrel chested large upper arms and i purchased size 8 this dress is so beautiful i am 50 5 8 and smaller on top larger on bottom size 6 is perfect was worried that it would hit me in all the wrong places happy to say it does not wore it for the first time yesterday and no lie i re ceived no less than 15 compliments from strangers just walked up to tell me how great the dress was colors are so soft and beautiful would buy in other colors if they had it i can see mysel f wearing it to a casual dinner to a wedding our just to feel special on like my title suggests this is lovely and perfect for summer the lining however is not silk it s rayon and sat weird o n me it offered no coverage on my top and actually is quite useless i do have a large bust i have a free people slip that will work and because of that will i m keeping the dress the outer shell is silk and really lovely and the colours are true to the picture i ordered this coat onl ine without trying it on in person the pictures on the models are stunning i have a long most ly rectangular physique with long legs and a little extra love around the middle i like wearing long sweaters and drapey things that accentuate the positive i thought this was right up my all ey but it person it has a weird bunchiness around my middle due to the hidden pockets the sle eves are a bit too long and the lapels and shoulders make me look beefier than i am up top love this sweater it is very simple but pretty it has a very flattering fit and is comfortable i w as a little apprehensive about getting this dress without any reviews but i am really glad i di d first it looks exactly as pictured maybe even more beautiful the material is nice and flow ing and very light so it s going to make a fantastic summer dress there are two layers an un der layer which can be completely detached from the pink silk top layer the reason why i say t rue to size is that even though the pink silk layer is pretty loose the bottom layer conforms m ore your body i this sweater is very pretty but the material is extremely thin the blue was o k but the white is nearly see through the design is unique but unless it fits really well the bottom hem where it criss crosses can bunch out in a weird way i got my usual s and it was rath er loose causing this to happen i suggest you size down if you want it to look smooth like it does on the model this dress is a beautiful classic i am 5 3 113 size 0 fits perfectly i tr eated myself to get this at full price at the start of summer my size is xl and it fits me like the model photos i have gotten such good use out of this blouse it washes well without shrinki ng it s vintage looking so comfortable i love the arm coverage interesting neckline that cov d with a t shirt and flats for the weekend \r\n\r\nthey have a bit of str this is the best dres s i received it last week and have already worn it three times perfect fit casual and so easy but the length and front details make it so fun thicker than many other tshirt dresses but light enough that i wasn t overly hot on super warm days def recommend i tried this on in t he store and was pleasantly surprised at how cute it was i m 5 4 and the large fits me loosely but is still shapely because it s a little longer on me it s great to wear both to work and on the weekends just wish it came in more colors you can t see the color in the photo but there s a sea green lining which is a cute touch this is one of the best purchases i ve ever made i have had the black for over a year and every time i wear it i receive so many complements i ve dressed it up with a striped scooped back shirt or a fitted sweater and paired it with flan nel with a belt i love it i m 6 ft and slender and the xs it hits me at the perfect length just below the knee i recently ordered the silver in a small it s a little big in the waist b ut nothing a corset belt can t help for nye love this dress the picture onlin does not do the se pant jsutice it makes them look wide and short well that might be why these are percect fo r me but on my body type muscular bottom they are awesome the material is stretchy soft a nd thick enough to keep shape and not show dimples lvoe the blue and green color so rich i am keeping the green as they are more unique at 115 lbs i ordered 25p the yfit perfectly but my styllsit keeps insiting that they wil lstretch and made me order the 24p we shal i recommen onl y becuase i like it on other people but not on me the pull on style didn t work i need xs pet ite to fit lenght and waist but the waist wasn t elastic enough to pull up i have let s say a booty i kept hearing hte stiching give it also looked a little too pooooffy on my frmae i am 5 1 5 and it stuck more out than on the model nice idea btu not for me i am 115 lbs t hese pants are super funky the colors have a 70 s vibe retailer do the pants a disservice styl ing them like the image on the website they are playfully chic besides the look they are supe r comfy and have a nice stretch perfect for my job as an art teacher give them a shot i love the way these pants feel on they are so comfortable and breezy i love that i can feel cool in the summer without showing a lot of skin i purchased both colors both are very nice looking t hat said i m not sure if i will keep them they wrinkle something terrible i m pretty casual p erson and it even bothers me it probably wouldn t be so bad if there weren t pleats in the fron t after sitting for just a few minutes the pants look like a disaster in front my husband said it s not ext i love these pants typically i have a difficult time finding pants that fit my sm aller waist and curvier hips and legs but these fit well enough all i need to do it have the w aist tailored and they will be perfect the pants are also soft the only downside and it is no t a deal breaker for me is that they run a little large and seem to stretch out a bit with wear considering this i would downsize one size this shirt is everything i wanted it to be lightwe ight easy style without being shapeless it is sheer but perfect with a tank underneath i m a n extra small and it fit perfectly not tight not too loose honestly if it came in more co lors i d buy it in every one definitely going to be a fall staple loved it on the hanger and w hen i tried it on it s a gorgeous shade of blue denim not navy with some light tie dye strea king along the top and sides which add interest the bat wing feature is a little limiting i won t be able to reach anything high without the whole top coming up with me as for the materia l it s an interesting blend bc it isn t soft or rough some may say it s itchy and some may say it s soft to me it isn t either it s merely smooth enough which sounds terrible it i am so glad that wide leg pants are coming back i love this style so flattering the color on these blue is rich and unique and the fit is exactly what i was hoping for i wanted them loose and l ow waisted and they are perfect i am 5 4 122 lbs and ordered 27 petite the length listed at 30 is spot on with flats no tailoring needed i previously ordered these in white in 27 r th ey also are good but a little too loose and will need hemming def recommend and hope retailer keeps this st love this dress i m wearing it as a bridesmaid in a fall casual outdoor wedding i think it s fancy enough and can also be dressed down later \r\n\r\ni m 6 tall and skinny wi th large breasts and this dress fits beautiful not too much cleavage \r\n\r\nit s not real lace but no one could tell great quality and nice weight to dress great for dancing and spinni ng great casual weekend pants and super comfy and great color these culottes are fun i bought the neutral color with the black stripes in xs in my opinion they run big i am usually a smal l 4 6 31 waist 38 hips pleats at the hip and low waist area are not always my friend but with a longer tank or shirt they looked fine the fabric moves in a graceful way and these culo ttes can be dressed up or down so far wrinkling isn t a huge problem but we ll see i am 5 9 tall and these fall about the same place on the model mid calf they looked grea i knew i would love these pants because of the cute sailor styling but the unusual green color i am 5 5 and thought i would be stepping on them but i am fine they are longer than the picture with the mo del on the website which i expected but they are fine the fabric is beautiful and i can t wait to wear them with my white on white sneakers i will also mix it up with sandals i wrote below that my style is bohemian but truthfully i dress in all the ways listed below classic romant ic i love these pants i got the blue ones i got a petite 25 and i am 115lbs 5 1 5 they sit low on waste and hug curves just right they are little bit long maybe 1 inch too long will we ar with platform or thick squared heel these pants are so comfortable they re very flowy and provide so much airflow to keep you cool during hot days i actually bought these pants for work i m a teacher i like to pair them with a white top and a cardigan the waist band is elastic which is super nice the only thing i would like better is if the waist line was higher the pan ts come up right below my natural waist so they re not quite as high waisted as i would like b ut other than that their silky material give them the ill these pants are great they are comfo rtable light and flowy they are perfect for summer this tee is very comfortable and the color s are amazing i initially purchased in the marigold yellow as i was instantly drawn to the colo r in store it s a beautiful shade that will transition nicely into fall i ve since purchased t he green which i liked on even more so than on the rack overall a nice quality everyday tee t he pocket and embroidered neck make it something retailer very cute love the animals on it e specially the bunnies however not sure about fit fits perfectly at waist but fabric expands a bit further down it seems to billow puff bag in lower part not at bottom but in the stomach ar ea like there is too much fabric so it fits but also looks like there s something slightly of f interested in hearing other s opinions about this also i am slightly und 5 ft there no peti te option but the standard stops slightly above my knees so length seems ok i have a sillier st yle sweater from moth that i got last year and love this is not as great but i like the style so i will keep it i knew the sleeves would be shorter but wish they were made full length with a little less bat wing the color is close to as shown maybe a little lighter i was hoping f or more of a navy since that is what they are calling it but this is more of a denim blue i lo ve these pants they are a beautiful color and very well made i like the fit and the style very much if i hadn t seen the description online i would never have known these pants were navy \r\ni bought them today and tried them on with a black tunic which looked fantastic the style i s very similar to cartonnier slim pant but the fabric is lighter weight and stretchier \r\nsince i m heavy around the stomach i will wear the pant with a long tunic top to avoid the drumstick look which is a shame since the pockets are so cute the colors in the pants mean that you can match and contrast with a wid i love this skirt i have it in black and when i saw this color i was so excited to add another one to my wardrobe these skirts are made well it s not flim sy at a all the actually color is more of a light aqua blue so if you are wanting a baby blue might not be for you overall a super comfy dress that you can wear anywhere short petite l adies beware though the dress does not hang at your natural waist like it shows in the model s photos in order for me to have it sit at my waist the dress was folded over and did not flatte r i just bought this tee in red i have worn it and washed it once i noticed that there is a h ole already by the top of the pocket considering the price i would hope that it lasts for more than one season nan sweet leg warmers that are fun and cute too kept me warm when out in this frosty morning great pants great fall colors great for day or night super fun and funky lov e them fit was very tts it looks more lightweight in the photo than it is in person it s a f airly medium weight sweater i m 5 8 and curvy and it is nowhere near as long on me in the fro nt as it is on the model i still liked the look mostly because of the look from the back of t he shirt this looks exactly as shown in the photo you can tell that it s a really thin lightw eight knit that s almost transparent i ordered a large and it fits the way it does on the mode l am returning because i have a large 34 g bust and this top really emphasized my chest it als o grabs a bit under the arms the color looks just like it does in the photos it hangs nicely a nd isn t oversized which i liked the texture and ribbing on the sleeves hem and pocket take t his a step up from the ordinar it s not them it s me so sad ordered two sizes 25 r and 24 p n othing about them worked for me i loved the colors blue and green i loved the fabric heavy washed soft cotton i loved the style ah but there is the rub i am so small that the width of the legs just swallowed me up whereas the 24s fit around the waist and the length while longer than i d have liked was doable there was just so much fabric around my skinny legs i felt as th ough i was wearing huge balloons on each leg t i tried these on in the store and instantly fel l in love with them they have an elastic waist which for my shape pear can sometimes be bad but these pants don t cut me off or accentuate the fluffy parts but lay nice over my belly an d legs in a flattering way they do have a slit that goes the whole way up the leg that the pic ture doesn t show but the underneath piece of fabric wraps around your legs so i think it woul d be hard to show too much i bought a medium and they hit lower on i am usually a 00 or 0 in dr esses and i ended up with a 4 in this one i could barley zip up the 0 and while i could have gotten away with the 2 there is no elasticity in the waistband the 4 is very slightly roomy b ut more comfortable than the smaller sizes on me for reference i m 109 111 lbs 5 4 and a 30b \r\n\r\nwhen i was finally able to wear the dress i got compliments galore it really is a beau tiful dress just be sure to size up this dress is very versatile and flattering on i ve alre ady worn it out to casual cocktails with friends twice since i ve gotten it i m 5 3 and 125 lbs and the 4 petite worked perfectly on me super comfortable summer dress just bought it yesterda y and i don t want to take it off soft lightweight fabric i just love all pilcro pants they a re great for any occasion any type of weather i am 5 5 125 lb and i wear a 27 in all pilcro pants and they fit perfectly only bummer is that i have to iron them but they iron easily len gth of these pants is just a tad long but i can wear wedges with them and that solves the probl em this top is super cute and colorful admittedly i have not used it just as a pajama top bec ause i think the world deserves to see this piece of art super comfy and i recommend this for e veryone in most shapes and sizes 1 i ve been waiting forever for these to finally arrive i wa s a bit disappointed \r\n\r\n2 i m 5 5 tall 145 lbs and 38 32 40 my normal size 30 s fit me perfectly if a bit loose they fit a lot like the hyphens \r\n\r\n3 the legs are short and wid e they hit me at the ankle which made them look like high waters on me \r\n\r\n4 the legs are very very wide and i didn t think that was flattering on me \r\n\r\n5 same comfy fabric and f it as the hyphens except the front seemed to dip low at the waist i i love these pjs the sale price finally made the set affordable and i could not be happier so soft and comfy these are v ery cute and i bought both colors they are accurately pictured however right out of the bag t hey had an especially strong chemical type odor must be the dye i have been airing them outsid e in the sun trying to decide if i will keep them they seem to be calming down a bit but it s been two days they are not jersey but are a non stretchy type fabric with a slight sheen dres s up or down i m a 00 or 24 and the xs fit well purchased the daisy sleep top to go with the m atching shorts i had been eyeing them for awhile in the store and so glad i took the plunge to get the set i feel feminine and sexy as another reviewer noted while not being revealing helpf ul for visitors and children i purchased a s as it does run a bit large i m being eyeballin g this dress for quite a while finally i decided to jump on it and i was so ansy to receive it in the mail finally arrived and some how wasn t what i was expecting the front part has 2 piec es of fabric attached to the sides of the dress that wrap around your waist making that effect y ou see on the model to be honest i didn t like that at all i think they ruined the dress with that the dress is very comfortable feeling the fabric is super soft i can imagine wearing this nice non clingy cut has details so more than a basic t shirt made my wedding outfit perfect l ove love love these pants i have yet to remove the tags and wear them but that shall happen over this weekend the fit is comfortable and while the pants are not oversized they are very generous in the m\r\nthat i purchased the colour that seems to confuse more than is few is real ly a great combination of a black or navy stripe depends on your lighting and opinion here with tobacco khaki on a white ground the pleats at the top\r\njust add to the great design and i like that they sit these pants are a heavier twill than the pilcro chinos i bought from retail er earlier this year these weightier wide leg trousers have a perfect drape my size is between a petite 26 and a petite 27 the size petite 26 fit me well so i judge them to be a 1 2 size lar ge \r\nif i had written the review before washing them i would have given an overall rating of 5 stars after washing once in cold water detergent and regular wash the color lost a lot of bl ue the color went from a wonderful fresh sp i m 7 months pregnant and bought this dress yesterd ay it is perfect the wrap design makes it possible to expand the skirt and still look cute i m 5 3 bought the small and look forward to wearing this after i deliver as well i am wearing a bodysuit and long skirt from bhldn for my wedding and i bought this skirt to change in to for m y reception it is perfectly elegant yet simple i cannot wait to wear it on my big day it can be dressed up or down so easily love it i love the look and design of these pants i m 5 1 11 0lbs and i ordered a 25p and still had to get them hemmed to even fit like pants on the model these look cropped but mine were even too long to be pants when i got them i love the pant but if you are a petite be ready to need alterations to the length the floral print and colors ar e so pretty for summer that it s tempting to layer this over a seamless tank and wear it out i bought this in xl and it fits just as shown i could size down to a l and it would still fit bec ause there is a lot of flow to this top so if you want a more tailored but loose fit then si ze down \r\n\r\n but it isn t boxy and the deep v is sexy but not immodest and the pocket l ooks like silk but it s just polyester the pleating in the back gives this movement or move ab ility like when you drive there isn t much pull \r\n\r\nit s a thin light material and very c ool for hot humid summer this is such a beautiful top so flattering soft and comfortable it is great as a layering piece the colors are vibrant the blue is a gorgeous blue a deep coba lt blue i got one in every color this top looks as pictured on the model the color is great and true to the pictures with the light faded spots which i really like and make it more intere sting however i am on the fence about keeping it due to the itchiness of the fabric the itchi ng is mainly on the arm holes as it is tight to the skin i wanted this top for when i m feeling a comfy casual look however i m not sure how comfy i ll be if i m itching i may over look the scratchy fabric as the color and fit of the top are gr i own this in the dark blue and adore it i read reviews later as i was pondering buying the white why is it so hard to find a white shir t anymore that isn t see through one of the first reviewers raved that it wasn t see through i ordered it and nope it s totally see through i tried it on and immediately saw the entir e outline of my nude bra and worse still my belly button back it went i got the green inste ad bummer about the white fabric s different than the others beautiful dress that is very fl attering wearing it to my bridal shower more appropriate for spring or summer this is a very appealing and flattering tee the details really make this quite lovely the back pleat makes th e fit fabulous and motion ideal the stitching at the neckline is attractive and artistically pl easing the proportions are balanced nothing too full or tight although the tee is 100 cotton the pocket is 100 polyester quite silky and a nice accent i bought the white which is more of an ivory and gorgeous with complementary deeper ivory stitching my usual medium fits great s these are very pretty and comfy the split in the leg runs a little high for me so i will pro bably have to tack it i ordered a medium i m 5 9 145 lbs usually wear an 8 but these were a bit big on me so i ve reordered a small also the blue looks more like black with tan stripe s love these chinos super soft and amazingly comfy and quite flattering for wide leg pants ags are the only brand of jeans i wear they fit beautifully and last forever i like the slight ly higher waist of these angels very comfortable and flattering with the perfect amount of s tretch be warned unless you re 7 feet tall you ll probably need to shorten these typically i buy the angelinas but they re hard to find nowadays ag please don t stop making petites on e more thing try them on before you cut off the tags i bought 3 identical pairs and returned one as the fit was size up i was surprised that the fit was small i always seem to wear a 6 in retailer pencil skirts this was tight i purchased this in london early april and i wore it to a summer wedding it was perfect and hangs very nicely the colors are rich and the deep blue fl owers have texture the front slit goes up to about the knee but doesn t split apart when walkin g which i appreciated the only thing that i felt was a little off was the circumference of the sleeves i have to keep them unbuttoned but thankfully it looks like just an interesting detail and not so much like an unbuttoned sleeve a definite keep this top fits tts the sweater part i s cream eyelet material is white love it i love this top i wish i had more like this to cycl e into my wardrobe i have been on the hunt for a black pencil skirt so i decided to give this o ne a try based on the previous review i love it i didn t size up went with 0p 26 5 in waist 115lbs 36 ish inches hips the waist is fitted the stylist said when she tried it on it pooc hed but i didn t feel that way on me i had a simple t shirt on and it looked so cute the peti te length was also perfectly on point the lace part hit me above the knee and the lining a lit tle over that perfect and flattering i loved the layered look without all the bulk the differ ent textures make it so interesting i like the casual look of this top \nlike previous review it doesn t have buttons or zipper so a little difficult to fit into pullover your head just gorgeous the dress makes a nice transition piece for early fall perfect in every way i loved this dress after seeing it online it is a pullover dress and is easy to get on my major proble m with the dress is that the waist is extremely high about 3 inches over my natural waist and i usually have no problem with the placement of the waist in dresses i m going to keep the dres s because i like everything else about it the fit is flattering and the dress will be seasonles s here in california i ll search for a wide belt to cover the waistline or perhaps skip a belt altogether can t say how much i love this top ordered on a whim and when it arrived i was so p leasantly surprised the sweatshirt fabric is thick the under layers are high quality sheers s uper easy to dress up or down i wore it to a casual company holiday party and got tons of co mpliments bonus that i just had a baby and the top seemed to hide my not quite prepregnancy bod y but will also look great when i am back in shape a definite keeper the print on this dress is gorgeous but the material does not stretch whatsoever and there are not zippers or buttons to ease in the fit i always always always wear a size zero it was a massive struggle to even get the dress over my head and on to my body i felt like i was getting crushed once on althou gh awfully small the dress is just beautiful in every way so chic i just returned it and orde red two sizes up here s hoping it fits the only reason i gave 4 stars instead of 5 is that it is way too small in the chest if you have anything up there i usually always wear size 4 dresses not in this dress this beauty is a full size too small trust me it is gorgeous but there is no stretch it needs a zipper that said i exchanged it for the size 6 and all the flaws that i v e read in reviews disappear the sleeves are better and it falls nicely and is comfortable also there is no lining just good to know once you get it ov i purchased this jacket in my usual siz e s but wish i would ve chosen the m the small works but the sweater sleeves are tighter than i would ve liked making it hard to layer other clothes underneath the sleeves are also just a little too short this is a very nice top but it is very loose and swingy indeed i sized down one size and it still is very relaxes the material is soft the colors are nice i really love the colors of this dress very unique and classy combo little bit of a retro look to it even though there is no zipper it s somehow fitted and flattering i plan to wear it to a wedding thi s summer in the mountains where it gets chilly in the evening so i m thrilled to find a summer d ress with sleeves it will work well for plenty of other occasions too only problem is the butt ons on the sleeves are nearly impossible to button just too tight for reference i m 5 9 140 lbs an it s still a bit cool here in minnesota however it won t be long before i can wear this lightweight drapey but figure flattering blouse i am 5ft 3in and the 0 petite fits well thes e are super cute and i love the ties on the legs fit is true to size i bought them on sale and they had some black marks on the front when received i called retailer and their great customer service guaranteed that i could return them if the black did not come out when washed it did s o i m stoked this is a cute blouse i get lots of compliments i bought the natural color supe r flattering i bought my normal size in most retailer stuff and had to return for bigger the c hest area is a bit snug had to send back for a larger size super comfortable top easily washa ble 2 options with the sleeves and a nice drape to the fabric truly a go anywhere top i love these jeans the fit is much better than the white pilcro hyphen slit jean which is cuts lower nice weight not to heavy and not too light in weight these look terrific with the vanja peasan t top in the yellow print a darling outfit the lace give them flair and dress them up so i can wear them to work highly recommend such a cute jean got these specifically for the tie up la ce ankle and price also love the shade of gray i bought you know how you look in your closet and things just say i m perfect for today this top is like that i got it a few weeks ago and h ave worn it often because it is so easy and hangs really nice i bought the black one and am con sidering the off white one im normally an xs and i bought size 2 and it fit great very slimmin g and looks great with white capris i bought the calia tunic in blk wht and in red motif i lov e the black and white one the cut is flattering and stylish comfortable you can dress it up o r down all good \r\nthe red motif is cut differently the neckline is very low the shape is d ifferent from the black and white one i am not sure why but i returned it \r\nneither shirt is as long as the one pictured on the model i would recommend the black and white one though love the shirt and style shirt looks better in person than online picture i would get a size down b ecause it runs a little big very cute print but runs large it is really long too i love this top and the relaxed fit can be dressed up or down i bought the bird print and liked it so much i purchased the umbrella print now i m contemplating getting the mixed dot easy to just throw on with anything and the mix of colors keeps it versatile too i love bows \r\nthis dress is ver y cute and flattering while being comfortable it may be sleeveless but i think with the right boots and cardigan it can be brought into fall easily color is a nice green i tried on both t he 00p and 0p and though i loved the fit of the 00p better width i preferred the length of t he 0p otherwise not much difference there i think it is well worth keeping it even though i don t need yet another dress material is pretty comfortable too back is lower really adora ble and very retro looking fits true to size but i got it a size larger because i wanted to ti e up the bottom have had it 3 days have worn it twice already nan i love this unique t sh irt the fall colors and ranchers theme are perfect with skinny jeans and boots a western look that s feminine the shirt is very soft ordered my usual size small a little long but good for tucking in this top is so nice i bought it in 2 colors washes well but does need to be ironed \r\nfits true to size i picked up this t shirt at my local retailer today immediately drawn to the super cute colorful graphics and the unique stitching at the collar saying giddy up to go with the cowboys horses cacti and movie camera unusually the graphics are way cuter i n person as compared to the weirdly wavy distorted and unclear photos shown online if all i ha d seen was these photos i would never have even noticed or recognized the design go to your lo cal store to see this in person and you wi i ordered a size 10 in the neutral motif and it fits perfectly and it looks great i am 5 9 145lbs with 38 bust the sleeves are the perfect length i couldn t be happier with this purchase ditto on the oversized comments am generally a large in tees and sized down to a petite large and probably could fit nicely in a petite medium the s titching on the neck and front design are adorable a bit long but great potential for layering to showcase the writing on the collar or cute design on the front think it s a keeper the tsh irt is comfy and has a little curve on the tail which is fun i m in love with this top i usual ly wear a s m or 6 and the size 6 fits perfectly the cut is very flattering and i love that th e sleeves can be worn rolled up and buttoned or down and when they re down they hit right at th e wrist not too long or short it s lightweight and comfy but looks really pulled together i can see myself wearing this both with ripped boyfriend jeans and sneakers and with dress pants a nd a blazer a great transitional piece \n\ni only wish this came in solid white o i bought the se for next year ordered both 27 28 and kept the 27 which i would say is a pretty true 6 ru ns large but very beautiful and sexy the straps are elastic so better to size down love white jeans and these meet expectations i m 5 9 and 145lbs and usually wear size 29 in pilcros but t hese run a little roomier than others i ve bought going to dry them to see if i can shrink them a bit but still fine and super comfy ties on the bottom are fun this shirt is very comfortabl e and i received a lot of compliments when i wore it i bought the neutral print and everyone wa nts to get close to see what it is i would buy another if it came in this type of pattern thi s is a comfortable pretty blouse i purchased the neutral print and am very pleased with it we always hope that the dress looks just like it is pictured i would say that this dress is more of an emerald green rather then a paler mint green that said it is very forgiving stylewise becau se it does not cling and show your lumps and bumps however the material is very thin like a sh eet length is good it is right to the knee on my 5 3 frame armholes are well positioned and n ot too big as to show bra or undergarments \r\n not so sure how it would hold up over an evenin g or afternoon wea i bought this top in the stripe and i m ordering the black now it s a nice t op to transition from summer to fall even though the temp doesn t change much in texas it does run a bit large so size down held up nicely when washed hand wash cycle i understand th is is a pencil skirt so it s gonna be more body hugging however this really did seem to run s mall i only tried it on because it was on sale and there was a promotion my thoughts below \n \npros \n great design that will match with a lot of things \n very soft and comfortable overa ll due to being part modal lots of stretch \n no dry cleaning here hand wash which is a plus for me \n it s a thicker knit but it s breathable too no issues with being see through \n r e i got two of the shirt am totally in love with them i didn t get the one in black only becaus e i have too many things in black the shirts look awesome with leggings or skinny jeans i m ve ry happy with this purchase i tried these on in in a 27 4 in the store and they were a bit sn ug they graciously offered to look online and found the 28 6 they arrived in less than a week and are perfect a note was enclosed saying they actually ran out of this size but another store was able to find them and ship i love that retailer did not even call and worry me over it th ey just fixed the problem thank you this top is very flattering the fabric flows and moves i t fits perfectly slim cut but hides tummy bulges and other imperfections and it s slimming t oo can be dressed up or down goes with everything i ended up buying all three colors and if there were more i would buy more they fit snug and accentuate all the right curves they could be shorter the lace up sides are interesting but i might sacrifice the lace ups for making the m shorter actually they are cuter on in person than in this photo i bought this in the black a nd white and like it a lot i typically wear an xs or s and purchased the small glad i did bec ause i think the xs would have been too snug i like the tunic length and the fabric feels soft and smooth it s a little low cut for me but i ll wear a cami under it i love this top but i washed it once in cold water and hung it dry it shrunk just enough that it s now too tight ar ound the bust and gaps open up between buttons there so disappointing i will have to send it b ack i love this i pair it with jeans or leggings and it works wonderfully it s comfortable an d stylish and a necessary addition to my wardrobe it s a staple piece that i know i ll be able to use for years love everything about these pants a little sheer but super beautiful and com fortable i wasn t sure how the fabric would be since i ordered it online but i wasn t disappoin ted its got a lot of movement which makes it really comfortable while still being cute it s a little longer than i anticipated but i don t mind that it just gives it a little more versatili ty also it has pockets i love pockets so maybe i m a little biased i saw a sales associate sa wearing it at my local retailer and totally loved it this t shirt runs very large so it de pends on how one wants to wear it the sa wore it oversized and tied to the side super cute i tried on a regular small and it was still 2 sizes too big and too long on me i ordered the xs p etite and it fits perfectly not too fitted and not too loose i m 5 2 34b 26 waist 36 hips my mother was a great embroider and the giddy up embroidery work at the neckline and the these are a different take on the white jean thick enough that you don t see undies cool lace detail on the ankles i have very long legs so they hit me a little higher than described i did undo the laces a bit to give them a little kick at the bottom i love the fit of the plico jean i ow n a few pairs and they sit just high enough on my waist so when you bend over your bottom doesn t peek out i usually wear a 27 and they aren t too tight and have a bit of stretch but don t loose their s love this top you can definitely wear this out with jeans or with dress pants for work it can be dressed up or down so it s very versatile the red motif is a gorgeous color fo r spring and summer received lots of compliments i got the orange motif skirt in s i m 5 3 a nd 130 so it fits snugly but doesn t need hemming which is great when you re petite i love the design and that it has pockets but it s a very full skirt and seems to visually add a couple of pounds to your middle if you have a shirt untucked over it but it s beautiful worn with a tight er shirt tucked in the color is more red than orange to me as well which is a plus beautiful t op the body flows nicely and the colors are wonderfully vivid it goes with everything and look s great for work or going out my only gripe is the sleeves are really tight i struggle a littl e to get on and off but once on it looks awesome i bought this in size xl in the moss color it fits true to size it s very comfortable the fabric is soft i love the draping of this top i m a pear shape and this type of cut is my favorite the moss color looks black online but is rea lly a dark forest green i d love to see this top made in other colors received today the fit is true to size quality fabric beautiful color will go with so many things first of all this jean fits really well but i usually wear a 31 in mother jeans and i had to go up to a 32 in the se ugh because they just ran smaller or whatever i am curvy on the bottom but the 31 s just felt too tight and pulled everywhere \n\nsecond the color is not quite right in this picture i t looks more military green it is not it is a much brighter military green vs a moss green t hat is throwing me a bit not quite as versatile or neutral to me \n\nmeanwhile the styling wit h the could not say enough great things about this jacket nice quality and drape and such a wea rable comfortable option as opposed to a more structured blazer nice true to size fit petite small was perfect on my 5 2 115 lbs frame not too tight and not baggy sleeves still 3 4 wil l order an petite xs for my daughter too retailer i would definitely buy other colors if you decide to order them i hesitated to order this for a long time but am glad i did i was concern ed that it would have trouble staying on the shoulders and would be unflattering to my large ch est 34f however it is surprisingly comfortable and secure has some kind of rubbery grips on the shoulders that keep it in place very well designed and actually supportive to the chest it offers the sun protection i am looking for i am also very pale and tired of getting odd burn s on my stomach and chest and as i head these jeans are my new favorites very flattering cut and color and very high quality i ve worn them a ton since i got them and they haven t stretc hed out or lost their shape at all only thing i would caution is that they run small for ref erence i wear a 26 in paige denim a 27 in citizens and 28 was perfect in these i was really intrigued by this swimsuit when i saw it online but i wasn t sure how it would look on me but th e reviews convinced me i should get it and figured if i didn t like it i could just return it i love this suit the color is beautiful and the high neckline is off set by the open back for an yone who has a large chest which i do 32g this is one of the most secure supportive swimsuit i have ever tried on do not hesitate to buy this suit though i would go a size up if you have a lar this was my favorite piece in my order it fit so well that i immediately went online to s ee if they had other colors they don t i voice the other reviewers opinion get more colors in of this style i would order in a heartbeat i plan on wearing this to work it s freezing in my office but it is versatile enough to pair with jeans for a casual look the material was soft woven tightly a good thing and well made good one retailer definitely a keeper this was sur prisingly more complimentary and easier to wear than i though it would be i love vix bathing su its and the quality is exceptional these jeans fit so well and are made of really high quality denim soft and comfortable but not too much stretch just enough i m short so i have to cuff them i kinda wish they came in petite or ankle length but they look cute cuffed too this shir t is very flattering on it s perfect to wear to work and also in a casual setting it is rather short so it would be best to pair it with high rise pants this is a very well made swimsuit wit h soft foam cups and fully lined the shoulders stay put with thin strips of foam that are sewn in very comfortable and easy to move in my arms have full range the color is like the online photo and to the teal close up i posted of the shoulder area \r\n \r\nthe size m that i order ed fit my bust very well with smooth lines and decent support i m 5 2 currently 33 25 37 30d 32c bra with a average to long torso with a full bottom and thighs i think the i was so please d to receive this dress after purchasing it online the color is vibrant the lace is beautifu l and it is fully lined fit is true to size and its a fit and flare dress so flattering for m ost body types i could dress it up or down for lunches or weddings so overall i think its a gr eat dress for a great price i m a 14 bottom and a 10 12 on top so i m curvy which makes one p iece swimsuits hard to shop for i ordered a m l and while the m overall fit me better the c up size was still way too big on me i m a 34d and i need another set of my girls to fit into the cups otherwise this swimsuit is so beautiful i love this suit and have gotten so many com pliments on it i weigh 106 108 lbs and ordered a s typically i order xs but am glad i went wi th the size up the coloring is beautiful the legs are high cut flattering the top has no pa dding and shows a seamless result highly recommend this dress is even prettier in person i m 5 5 and usually a 4 in fit and flare dresses and got this in a 4 fits like a glove and hits ri ght above my knee the hook and eye closure does get caught on the delicate lace so be careful of that otherwise this dress is perfect for summer weddings i have a number of mother denim i tems jeans skirts etc in a variety of sizes and unfortunately i find mother sizing very in consistent this skirt is no exception it is as expected high quality primarily cotton with a fair amount of stretch very soft frayed at both the hem and the waistband and it runs a li ttle small i have another mother pencil skirt in a size smaller that is actually wider than thi s skirt still not sure if i lll keep it love this dress very feminine and flattering i would say that it runs true to size or a little big size down for a snug fit at the waist i am so h appy i decided to purchase these they are the only invisible socks i ve found that actually sta y on my feet all others always slip off my heel these are great these are really stunning they look exactly like the picture with the pattern matching up perfectly at the seams i love t he mirror image pattern they re just a bit snug where at first i thought i might not be able to get them on but once on they actually fit perfectly so i think that s actually how yoga pant s are supposed to fit i m 115 5 6 and i got the xs this suit is better than i expected i m a large d cup and with this type of top style i typically size up i m a 4 bottom but would nor mally would order a large top because this type of top runs small not here i ordered the larg e and much to my suprise it s too big i m sending back i may order a small and medium just t o be safe but the cups are definitely not cut too small here the bodice is very flattering wit h the black and white contrast so pretty i purchased this for a recent trip with my friends an d thought it was worth the price the swimsuit is comfortable yet flattering and all the patter ns are really unique i received a lot of compliments about the swimsuit the one downside was t hat the fabric hook for one of the straps broke so i had to sew it back on other than that thi s was a great purchase i recommend this to anyone who wants a very whimsical but comfy swimsui t the colors on these leggings are just beautiful the material is very soft and has a nice th ickness to it no issues with see thru material i am 5 8 145 and i ordered my usual medium my local store offered this dress in a navy colorway with sky blue and pink embroidery tried it on and fell in love it fits well while being comfortable my favorite part is the skirt perfe ct flirty a line already bought matching cardigans and can t wait to wear this to work so perf ect for spring i went to the store specifically to try this dress on because i was captivated by the photos online but worried about the fit it was just as pretty or even prettier in real l ife but unfortunately i couldn t fill out the top there was gaping even when i went down to a size 0 even though i mostly wear a 4 and sometimes a 2 in retailer dresses the 0 fit me every where else which is why i m saying this dress runs small would it have worked with a padded b ra or for someone with more cup size i love this skirt so soft and comfortable i wore it cas ual with black nike sneakers a black loose turtleneck top and a moto leather jacket i tried on the m and l and went with the m so i would say it is true to size because that is what i usuall y wear i m 5 9 145 lbs \nnice thick fabric but not heavy good for cool weather i just purc hased this dress yesterday in the navy for my anniversary next month i have to say its totally stunning on the embroidery is beautiful extremely figure flattering and the dress is very well constructed i have to disagree with other reviews who say it doesn t or won t work for bustier women i am a 34 d 5 8 tall and normally wear a size 4 the 4 fits perfectly and the deep v li ke neckline creates a very nice bit of cleavage maybe too much for some at the office i would s ay but loved this dress i am 5 5 34c normally wear a 2 in most the 0 fit a 2 wasn t avail able in store but i will say showed more cleavage on me than in the shown picture \r\n\r\ngorg eous dress wish it were just a little less costly but would be a great purchase for easter we ddings etc the dress looks better than the pictures online it also arrives quite quickly afte r i placed my order i am about 126 lbs and 4p fits me perfectly the embroidery is so radiant i n multiple colors against the navy blue dress i am very please with this purchase very pretty dress the blue is a little lighter than navy but is still really nice the embroidered flowers are lovely as well the a line cut is very flattering on i can t wait to wear this dress this s pring this skirt is so cozy and comfortable it is form fitting but has a lot of give stretch the material feels high quality and heavy without being overly hot i am sure this will be a go to skirt great quality and works in many ways highly recommend i wore this to a gala and i pl an on wearing it over and over again the dress is very comfortable and looks polished i wore t his dress for 12 hours and did not want to take it off the embroidery is beautiful and appears to be well done i am 5 5 and the dress hit me 2 inches above my knee i highly recommend this d ress i received so many compliments the stitching on this dress is absolutely beautiful and ve ry detailed love this dress so beautiful embroidery is lovely well worth the price one of my new absolute favs so elegant and flattering the dress is as appears online and it is true t o size i purchased my usual size 4 with 27 waist chest 34 b c note that there is not a lot of give to the fabric so busty women may need to size up purchased with the minuet necklace t his is a beautiful dress lovely fit unfortunately the fabric wrinkles easily i had to return it because it did not accommodate my slumpy posture and it was too much to maintain for me sinc e i don t iron this dress is gorgeous but if you have a larger bust size i would not recommen d it unfortunately it was not available in any nearby stores and i had to order online the lo w cut looks cute on the model but realistically with a chest it ends up looking a bit too reveal ing i am bummed because the dress really is beautiful i m 5 3 and 160 pounds with short legs and got a large petite it fits really well a tiny bit too short but could just be my proportio ns and the quality seems very high definitely can be dressed up or down good for a business c asual work environment this is the first time that i have tried mother jeans and i am a fan these jeans fit tts and the high waist is flattering and stays put i personally am a big fan o f the distressing it s just enough but not too much and it s lined on the inside so it won t get worse i know some people won t like that but i did also they hit right below my ankle i m 5 5 instead of being a few inches too long a major bonus thus they look great rolled or not but perhaps most importantly these i m 5 2 110 32 24 5 32 5 i tried both the regular 0 and petite 0 the difference was quite substantial sometimes if an item runs shorter or small er i can get away with regular sizing the regular 0 was all wrong and the petite 0 was perfec t in every way the regular 0 was wrong the petite sizing was perfect for top coverage tamed th e flare to just the right amount and the length hit right at the perfect spot where it is suppo sed to above the knee gorgeous embroidered detailing and versa this dress is well made great f it perfect a line the bust was lower cut than shown in the picture but it fits well even with a large chest completely flattering and i would highly recommend these pants are my favorite not only is the fit slimming and perfect but i get compliments on the design every single time i wear them i absolutely love these well worth the money this is a great dress i feel like i t hides any imperfect spots including some armpit fat or belly fat i have gotten several compli ments on this dress because the stitching for the flowers is very high quality i got the burgun dy color and i do have to say that the color looks a little better online than it does in person but it s not too much of a difference this is a really cute thong and if you re just trying to be sexy romantic then i think it would be fine and there s nothing at all wrong with it howeve r i like to wear thongs just in general because i think they re comfortable and i like not havi ng to worry about panty lines and this is definitely not the most comfortable the front patter n this is a beautifully designed and made sweater dress really love it however there s no way that model is 5 10 in the photo because i m 4 inches shorter than that and the dress is 2 inc hes shorter on me it s really not a dress it s a tunic i m happy with it because it s so pret ty but i did think i was buying a dress i just wore it with leggings and i m happy with a beau tiful tunic this dress is a home run on all accounts the embroidery is gorgeous the fabric is high quality and the a line cut is slimming i found this dress to run true to size i am 5 11 and the length hits above the knee so it could be longer on shorter heights i purchased the w hite dress initially and now have also ordered the navy interesting slightly transparent fabri c neckline is not so open as pictured body is boxier than pictured \r\nwould recommend as a ma ybe nan i got this version in the black and white and can t wait to wear it it is very flatter ing on and will look great for those spring summer events the only thing that could have made t his dress better would be side pockets like the fall winter navy dress by the same designer had but don t let that minor detail hold you back nan finally a dress that ticks all the right boxe s mostly natural fibers lovely details fantastic pattern placement and an easy fit that does n t require alterations \r\n \r\nthe dark blue cotton is similar to my embroidered floreat sun less skies shift from around 2008 which looks like new after so many years but required altera tions even in petite \r\n \r\ni m 5 2 currently 33 25 37 30d 32c bra the size 0 regular f it me and ended just below my knees a bit low cut and a tiny bit below my nat this dress is mu ch prettier in person the embroidery is very beautiful and the slight sheen to the material giv es it a dressier look than i expected the lines are simple flattering without clinging or chok ing it is a nice versatile dress that can be casual or fit for party the fit and design qualit y was grea i love the fact that xxs petite is available online i love this skirt so much it s so comfortable and flattering the button design along the sides is adorable it s got a liner i nside the skirt that ensures that it s not see through in anyway it s a great buy this product fit well and was soft and beautifully made this dress is black and white as pictured as oppose d to actually being cream and it fits true to size i ve found that this particular brand runs tight in the shoulders for me but that isn t the case here the cut is very flattering and it s great that this has functional pockets \n\ni was excited that the skirt is fully lined but th e top is ridiculously sheer even with a nude bra this dress needs a camisole underneath it it s so flattering but i m not sure if i ll keep it this is my third velvet by graham and spencer dress and i was not disappointed in the least i love the fabric how it can be dressed up or down worn with a wide variety of footwear and is comfortable at the same time the fabric is br eathable and i can definitely see this becoming something i will throw on with a simple necklace leather jacket and sneakers or boots on the weekend for errands around town then be able to swi tch out my shoes for drinks in the evening it s a simple back dress runs a little small in the shoulders bust this dress is lovely in person light rose color and quality fabric i m a 32c an d had to go down from my usual 2 to a 00 to get a proper fit in the bust and bodice the full sk irt leaves plenty of room to size down if necessary this would work best on someone with a larg er bust and small waist but because of the cut i recommend trying on before buying if you are smaller busted the front tie can be adjusted slightly to get a better fit the skirt portion is unlined though the fabric is thi i love this dress i didn t think that i would feel at ease a s it is very form fitting but it is so comfortable and warm it is dressy yet casual i have r eceived many compliments i have ordered many black and white dresses and end up getting cream a nd black not this one this is truly b w i love the stripes the length at the knee 5 5 an d the pockets time will tell in terms of fabric as rayon is not the most durable the collar se ems to stay down which makes it look 70 s but fabric tape easily fixed it overall i love it i fell in love with the print it is much prettier in real life more teal burgundy on yellow and more vivid than it shows here the waist elastic is too tight and high for me would prefer it looser and not on natural waist but i still bought it and am ordering a second one in hopes tha t the elastic tightness is varied i am short waisted and generally a petite on the top so a l ot of these sweater vest toppers i find to be too long in the torso for me this one however i s the perfect exception it is soft but with some structure comfortable and not too hot for w armer weather climates during the spring i bought it in seattle though i live in dallas and f ound it to be a perfect layering piece with a 3 4 white t shirt and a jean jacket while walking around the rainy city \r\nfyi 5 2 short waist broad i ordered down a size based on other re views i am 5 tall 110 lbs and a size 26 is a great fit i ordered both the navy and turquoise colors my only complaint is the turquoise color is not the vibrant blue in the photo but more o f a green tone i had been waiting for this dress to go on sale and when it did it was only avai lable in a petite xs the only reason i said it ran big is because it was a petite and i usually wear a regular i am 5 4 size 2 the length is perfect and i have really narrow shoulders so the petite fit perfect the details on this dress are just beautiful and extremely comfortable i lo ve this dress it is beautiful and the quality is superb i too found it tight in the neck area i had to untie it as other reviewers have mentioned nice casual dress very comfortable and pe rfect for vacation this summer i love these shorts i usually have a really hard time findin g shorts that fit my pear shape but these are great i bought in a few different colors and i d efinitely will get a lot of use out of them this summer i love this dress length falls as show n on model i m not sure if this fits true to size or not i am normally a medium and kinda wish ed i would have ordered a large i find that the neck is too tight and have to loosely tie it a lso the lining is smaller inside and it ends up causing the arm hole areas to roll inwards so i feel like the back end up being sort of cape like it s rather weird the large may have too m uch material though but overall i still love this dress minus those few fla dress is wonderful ly made the fabric is soft and the print is beautiful wonderful detail especially the ties ni ce lining not see thru at all \r\nmid calf length looks good with heels or flats \r\nlovely dr ess for a sunny day or an evening out i m 5 8 usually a size 2 xs and i bought this in a peti te xs never would i have imagined i d want a petite size but i accidentally took it into the fi tting room the shorter length and less billowy effect is much more flattering that said it sti ll hit just below the knee and is very loose and flowing but in a good way i m always looki ng for easy casual items that will withstand being washed a million times and i think this one will fall into that category it s a nice thick knit durable yet soft and sooo cozy length is fantastic for leggings i ll basically live in this on weekends great detailing in how it s mad e may look best on someone who s slender it runs small and will show if you have even slight c urves i tried on the xs in store i typically need petite and it was a great length for me i t hink petite would be too short for me to wear to work the xs was a little snug on the waist bu t the rest of the skirt fit perfectly so though it was snug i think i would still buy the xs stretchy band the cream color ivory is a nice summery color not see through unless you have d ark unders flirty and overall nice and airy for warm summer days 115 lbs 26 27 inches waist although true to size i sized up to improve pocket placement and for a longer and slouchier fit like on the model the pockets in my regular size were almost too high up and made my midsection look bunchy i thought these were very nice bermuda shorts i have skinnier legs and i didn t se e a problem with them being too baggy there the olive color was nice very comfortable material i would buy these pajamas in every color if offered they feel wonderful to the touch and even b etter on i decided to go shopping at my local co store and as soon as i walked in i saw this s kirt but it was used as a top with green cropped summery pants on a mannequin one of the lovel y salesgirls decided she liked it better that way after she tried it as a top herself i tried it as well and love it as a top she was small framed and my height and told me she sized up for comfort and she was correct if used with a strapless bra your regular size mine is a small will be uncomfortable howeve joggers are my new style this spring summer i think i love the si mplicity of this style the cut is perfect very true to size i like the longer length perfec t to wear with kitten heels flats or slip on canvas this color especially is really versatile and make them my go to pants once a week for a perfectly put together outfit this jumper is so cute it is soft and you can dress it up or down depending on where your going i loved this to p on the mannequin so i had to try it on i am a 36c and normally wear an 8 10 i tried on th e medium and it fit great i have to agree with the other review that the pockets make you appea r curvier but you can always take to a tailor to have them removed i just folded the bottom p art over for a slouchier look i ve already received tons of compliments and plan on ordering t he blue as well i was very happy to see these longer length shorts i have 2 pair of the short er ones and loved them last summer so i ordered them immediately i am curvy and wear a 29 in p ilcro and ordered the navy which is a lovely color and will go with everything i think they fi t great and i like the fact that they are a looser style i will buy more when they go on sale i saw this sweater at the store and instantly love it it run large i am 5 8 and 120 pounds and usually a size s in most retailer tops i had to go with xxs on this one so def size down great easy to wear addition to the wardrobe i wore it all day today and no pilling plus the pockets are really convenient they are a good depth for car keys or a small wallet i m pretty busty 32ddd and have a curvy body with that said the small fit well i prefer wearing it with the zippers opened because my behind and hips look odd with the sweater fully zipped for ref 36 i nch hips give this one a shot it s a nice surprise love this top it s great for wearing wi th leggings the material is soft and not too heavy love the variation the zippers give you i have in the moss and love it this is so ridiculously soft and conformable it can be worn over workout clothes or with skinnies or leggings it looks fabulous either way i wear mine the way the customer photo 2 is shown meaning folded over but it looks great either way the green i s such a nice neutral it looks great with black or shades of brown tan or even grey the func tional pockets are such a nice touch \n \nmy only criticism is this is a dolman style drop hem sleeve which i am not a huge fan of bu love the texture and color of this tunic it does seem to run large i could have probably sized down to a pl without an issue i do agree w ith other reviewers that the pockets are strangely placed and add bulk i m going to have them r emoved overall i really like it and have already worn it multiple times i am very petite how ever fuller on top 34ddd this top looks fabulous it is cut in such a way that every part of your body looks slimmer goes with jeans dress pants of skirt i highly recommend this top is very cute it is a high low top that i wasn t expecting but love it the picture doesn t do it justice it fits closer to the body than on model fits true to size usually a small and this one fits well in small got at a ridiculous price which is an added bonus will get a lot of wear ou t of this top lovely airy fabric and colors true to the pictures online i am 5 3 and 118lb i ordered a regular s and it fits fine yes it is midi length coming to about 3 below my kne e i would have preferred the 39 length if it had been available but it was not still i will compensate by wearing higher heels the embroidered embellishment along the neck and sides st ands out more than in the pic and really makes this dress special the cutaway shoulders give i t sophistication if you want to a this is a beautiful skirt i m very pleased with the quality it runs small though i m usually size small and went for the medium i m 5 2 and got the regul ar vs petit which would have been too short for me to wear at work this tunic is so stylish an d pretty the fit is close but not clingy 5 4 116 lbs size xs and the rear coverage is just right to wear with skinny jeans or leggings the fit is flattering whether the zippers are up or down without riding up around the waist the cowled collar falls around the neck evenly without the bulky look that similar styles can sometimes lend the moss color is pretty the fabric is s oft and warm yet still fairly lightweight if the pockets are properly tucked and layi this is b y far my favorite romper it is very flattering and the material feels wonderful against the ski n beautifully made incredible beadwork and detail sleeves are extra long and a bit heavy and cinched in multiple places which feels strange but the blouse is gorgeous and absolutely pe rfect for autumn i m gonna return and buy the size down while overall it s a pretty top there were a few surprises the biggest one not listed is that the bottom has a thin elastic band wit hout it the top would be wide longer and flow in the picture to get it to the length shown t he elastic is pulled up toward the waist which could work for some as you can adjust the lengt h into a tucked in look it could be cut off and sewn making a normal flowy top i am a normal size 6 and the shoulders are off and the sleeve length is long with elastic i waited so long fo r a small petite to come back in stock and finally it did received the dress last week and it s beautiful it was a perfect fit for me not to big not too small my size 5 3 122lb if you re petite or very thin probably size down i gave it 4 stars because of the quality some of the e yelets looked a little weathered it is lined and there s no see through agree with other revie wers though this dress is not worth 228 price tag product was exactly what i wanted very so ft but very wrinkled upon arrival will wear it with skinny jeans or even leggings i purchased this adorable dress to wear on vacation it s such a cute fun print i purchased my regular size xs and it s a good fit the material is a little stiff but the print makes up for it got it dur ing the 25 percent promo this sheath is extremely well made and the fabric is even more vibr ant and beautiful than it looks in the photos my only complaint it does run a little small in the bodice my usual size 4 fit like a dream everywhere but the top which borders on uncomforta bly snug for reference i m a full 34b the details on this are beautiful i love the gold thre ad and white beads i thought the medium fit too large and got the small it seems to fit really well so you might want to size down one size the only thing that seems a bit off it the length it s pretty long this is so pretty and 60s like i tried on a return size 2 and it really fit i am usually a zero so i was surprised the regular size fit me really well length was perfect pretty heavy and substantial though love the 3 d effect 115 lbs 30 dd 26 5 in waist this shi rt is very swingy but true to size when i tried to size down the shoulders were too tight the green color has great texture nan nan probably should have returned this but it s just so prett y i got complements from strangers the very first time i wore it but it s extremely long tucki ng it in will be tough where do you put all that length aside from that it is beautiful the em broidery is soft and delicate light blues gold neutrals hard to see in the pic but there are textured polka dots all over the shirt great buy i just wonder how i ll wear it or if the lengt h will be too much and it will become a closet sitter love this dress i think i scored the d eal of the year with this one found it in my local retailer store it had been in my save for later forever but i couldn t bring myself to pay full price then it sold out in my size onli ne i was in my local store browsing the new items on sale with the additional 40 off and ther e it was 1 and only 1 and my size i picked it up noticed the cut outs that are not very a pparent in the online photos but it back picked it back up put it back really beautiful dress too special for me as a guest at a wedding i think this can be used as a wedding dress i n an informal intimate wedding it is shift dress so not accentuate your body which is to be ex pected it is running small with my athletic body especially up top the chest arms are tight i could have gone a size up but the body might be too big i unto lately returned beautiful dre ss i just wore this dress for my wedding it was a beautiful wedding dress and i got many compl iments on the uniqueness and the beading detail there was one really big problem the beads and the flowers kept falling off i sat down and stood up leaving a pile of little flowers and beads i could be standing still and they would periodically drop off it was kind of embarrassing and everyone remarked that i was my own flower girl i am still finding pieces of the dress everywhe re i would never had bought this top if i hadn t seen it previously in the store the look in t he picture is not flattering at all too frumpy with the wide pants the many details work well with pastel tones very bohemian look so make sure you balance that with modern bottoms and edgy shoes might be a problem washing it because all of the details mini pearls and golden thread b ut you got to do what you got to do when i received this top i thought it was even prettier than the online picture the colors and beading are more vibrant in person it is a full cut and does have an elastic band at the bottom but i liked the way it looked on i ordered my usual siz e m and it fit me the same as it did the model in the picture it is pretty shear if you wear i t to work or during the daytime it will need a cami however in evening lighting i don t find it to be that see through and i feel comfortable wearing i m 119 and small frame but took a cha nce and ordered the m so glad the fit was perfect the robe is soft and beautiful this is be autiful and fits perfect it s even prettier in person and extremely comfortable and high quali ty i m 5 3 and it hits right above the knee the straps are adjustable and fits true to size i bought an xs and it fits perfect must buy for a sweet little night gown i ordered this dress with the 25 off everything code as it is a bit expensive i will say it is well worth the price from the material to the design and fit i was truly pleased i am usually a 4p in retailer dr esses so i went with the xs p and it fits perfectly it is super cute and unique and i love lo ve love the pockets which is always an added bonus it is so fun and flattering as i am sure people will be asking where this one is from a definite summer must have obsessed with this w haven t decided if i m going to keep this dress yet it arrived torn at the seams but was able to use two sided tape to fix and straps were sewn on twisted in my opinion it is not worth full price i would say it runs tts i m between and 4 and a 6 and the size sp fit perfect however the petite size runs pretty long it says 47 inches from shoulder but i need to wear it with 5 i nch heels mine may have been a wrong size marked issue \r\ndress looks exactly as in the pictur e these are the perfect higher waisted skinny jeans high enough that there is no muffin top b ut not so high they look like mom jeans typical ag super soft fabric they are like wearing swe at pants so worth the extra money for the ag jeans love the length too i m on the fence about this dress but overall i like it the material design and all is great it s a light seersucker type fabric and short sleeves are perfect for summer now the bad thing about this dress is part ly the print combined with the swing large cut if you aren t too careful it can look like a hou sedress or hospital gown i find i definitely need a belt to define my waist to avoid this this top came down to my hip bones but i am short waisted the shirt definitely fits shorter than in the photo the measurements listed for regular seem to be a bit shorter than the 26 l measure ment i got when i measured it i think the quality is nice and though it could likely easily sn ag if you re not one who is used to wearing delicate clothing i didn t find this top to be flim sy at all for reference i purchased a l and the fit is more form fitting on me than it is on th e model but n i don t know what it is about this top but i was so drawn to it when i saw it in the store it s totally see through that s the design and i think it s great i wear a cami und erneath but if you re more daring or you spend a lot of time by the beach you can get away with a nude bra or bikini top this definitely runs small i m 5 5 120 and usually wear xs s but fel t most comfortable in a medium the body isn t tight or anything it s just on the shorter side especially if you have a longer t very soft and comfortable great for girls who don t usually l ike shorts because of bigger muscular thighs i would say these run large but not drastically for reference i m usually a size 6 on the bottom and i got a small the girl at the checkout co unter called them pajama shorts but i think these can definitely be worn out of the house i lov e this top it flows nicely and fits perfectly i m 5 4 1 2 125 lbs and ordered the small i love the little bit of sparkle in the blouse too this is a very beautiful dress with the deta il of the inside lining with a very beautiful fabric as well creating a double layer effect i t creates a great flow i am not sure i would use it with the belt which is beautiful a part o f it is crochet but if i don t the dress would be too long i am a size xl and 5 6 so if yo u are shorter than that i would try it before buying it since it s getting cold here in colora do i ll have to wait for next year to really experience going out with nan this is a gorgeous f dress where the zipper stops needed to be reinforced by hand to keep it from ripping this is a common problem i have with retailer dresses and no i m not trying love this vest since i am 66 years old i was hesitant to try on this vest because it was out of my comfort zone as to style but my daughter convinced me to try it on it is absolutely darling and looked so chic on my 27 year old daughter bought it too so it is stylish for any age the fur collar is fun and the fa rchased this adorable drop waist dress on line and personally found it to fit tts in my regular size small 34d 27 35 the length in the front hits right to the top of my knees perhaps a tad longer so it s not too short for me i m only 5 4 and the back is longer in length there is a lso a detachable matching cotton slip that snaps on or off the dress that has adjustable straps that hit just above my knees i love that this dress was made from cotton and the color is just as picture i am typically a small at retailer but always order a small and medium to try since i m tall the color of the green is really pretty and i can see wearing it on the weekend with casual sandals and dressing it up with a cropped jacket for work the sizing is way off on this dress though the small is too short for me personally i m 5 8 and the waist doesn t sit lo w enough for a drop waisted style so i tried a medium the medium is not sized correctly at all i tried it on and it fits 3 si this dress got my attention in the store due to the bright color it s like a tangerine orange that absolutely shouts summer loved the asymmetrical hem and anoth er plus was the pockets they look completely hidden so the dress does fall flat i thought this ran a little big in the chest area which doesn t happen often a size 8 worked for me can t wa it to wear this fit is breezy which is what i expected a little on the loose side but comfor table and still cute the slip that accompanies the dress is of decent quality as well the bac k of the dress is not that much longer than the front as in the picture but i still liked the dress enough to keep it the orange version is very nice bright but not tacky the fit is super flattering and i love the crisscrossed hem the top part is also flattering on the shoulders h alter but need a strapless bra the 0 fit me well no need for petite on that one might be to o short for me \r\n\r\n 03dd 26 5 in waist 115 lbs \r\n\r\npattern is also gorgeous recommen d i have an hourglass shape and a large chest so it s difficult to find dresses that don t l ike i m wearing a sack or are too form fitting to be appropriate this dress is prefect for acce ntuating my waist while still looking appropriate for weddings and other nice events the color is perfect this will be my favorite fall acquisition looks better in person very flattering d oes run large love the combo of tan and grey this dress is so cute and i received so many com pliments on it i wore it on a gameday and it was so comfortable i love the skirt of the dress because of the trendy v s the top was too loose for me so i had to get it taken in this is su rprising because i have a decent sized chest and broad shoulders other than that this dress is a real winner i love this dress it s a lightweight soft fabric the blue layer is a bit thin so you can see the stripped layer underneath which keeps this from being just an ordinary blue d ress usually i m a size 0xs but got a 2 because i was worried it would be too tight in the shou lders based on another similar dress from holding horses the two fits great the top and wais t fit perfect and the bottom is nice and flowy without being too much fabric i tried this dress on in hawaii before it even hit the website i am guessing retailer tests out their spring line in always summer hawaii i was impressed but wanted to wait for a promo there is a lining that fluffs up the skirt part of dress and makes it fun and girly i sized up to 4p from my usual 2p in holding horses due to the tailored upper part of the dress and my shoulders a wee bit wide i did like this coat however the material was just not what i expected i was hoping for more of a traditional wool material but this had a fuzziness to it not fitted in the waist either whi ch might just be the style but not what i was hoping for like other reviewers i tried on a med ium and a large as i usually take either size in retailer dresses the large was huge on me i had an extra 6 inches or so on each side the next medium that i tried on could barely fit over my head i looked at the tag to see if i had picked up an extra small but it stated medium got another medium and it fit perfectly however the cami underneath one medium was again teeny tin y the other medium was ok you may have to try on a few dresses to get the righ i don t love th is dress but i really like it a lot hence the four stars i opted for the light blue the embro idery is a rich vibrant blue and quite beautifully done i am 5 6 and 125 lbs and the xs fit s perfectly it s intended to be a looser cut but it isn t at all frumpy and it hangs nicely an d it has pockets all around a good summer staple this green dress seemed more fitted and tailo red on the model i ordered a small and medium in the green and mint even though it says mint it s a grayish blue usually i m a medium but even the small seems a bit big it fits more like a loose boho dress rather than how the model wears it the colors are vibrant and the embroidery is nice i will be keeping both colors in small and just have to accept that the fit is similar to a looser casual summer dress if you look at the pics that other c i love this dress however it s not what i expected based off the pictures \r\n\r\nthe modeled photo indicates that it s a shirtdress with a drop waist no it s a smock dress with more of an a line silhouette that begi ns at the shoulders the waistline is more of a detail like the button placket than a structur al quality it s very youthful and whimsical \r\n\r\nthat said it is quite beautiful the fabr ic does not wrinkle easily as another reviewer guessed my daughter wrinkled it sitting on my i tried this dress on in the store it fit okay but the orange is so bright i couldn t bring mys elf to buy it silhouette transcends many occasions beautiful summery dress with bright fun pri nt i think this was well worth the sale price i paid it lays nicely and is flattering i went down a size from my normal 8 to a 6 however as other reviewers have said the arm holes halter top is too blousy and no matter how tight i tied it or type of bra i wore you can see bra on the sides i m going to get this tailored and then it will be perfect can t wait to wear this on my vacation i run 170lbs 36 d 5 4 and ordered a regular 14 probably could get away with a 12 i didn t order a petite because i wanted the length however i ordered the 14 because it is cotton hand wash and thinking there might be some shrinkage it fits to perfection everywhere but the waist it s very loose they must have clipped it in at the waist in the back of this shot on the model the picture doesn t clearly show the hi low concept of the hem i like that so it isn t a problem very unique a well i just love this dress great material beautiful coloring perfect length true to size \r\ni love the pleated neckline i feel like an old hollywood beauty in this dress great one retailer i m usually a 6 in dresses and the 6 here fit okay loose but still flattering a little long for a sundress i was unhappy with it looking a little frumpy and being so loose under the arms all my bras showed i took it back to the store and after reading the reviews here decided to try the smaller sizes well multiple dresses later i ended up buying a size 2 petite and i m 5 9 the 2 reg and petite still had the loose gathering look to the top but both fit much better under the arms so tha i never ever buy anything full price when it comes to retailer shopping love their stuff but way over priced so i patiently watch and wait this dress though i couldn t do it i had to have it i think it is a fabulous addition to my summer collection and i look forward to wearing it in a few weeks to a july 4th get away get it while you can i just received this dress in the mail today i ordered an xs and it was huge there is no way that i could wear a bra without it showing due to the size of the arm holes i m 5 2 and 117 lbs with an athletic build for reference i love free flowing dresses but this was over the top i ordered the plaid version in an xs petite and that fit much truer to size i reordered this in an xs petite to see if that will work better the dress itself is lovely the green color is vibrant and the embroid this dress is adorable but fit a bit large through the waist i ordered the 6 and am exchanging for the 4 so hopefully it will work better for me for reference i am 5 7 135 lbs curvy the fabric is soft and swingy and the striped under layer is feminine and adorable love love this dress it s comfortable\r\nand it can be worn casualties or formally i saw this dress on sale online and it was available at my local retailer i tried it on and went with the xs i m 5 4 130lbs 34c and it fit great with some room tts the material is fabulous and it comes with a matching green slip which is great beautiful color great quality on sale too a must have love this dress in fact i loved it enough to get it altered so it would fit purchased the black dress in a size 6 but the top was too big and i m not small chested i am a 32d i had to get the seam under my underarms taken in for the top of the dress to fit properly but now that it is altered i love it this blouse is beautiful and true to size i was so happy it fit after ordering it online i m a bit busty and broad but generally wear a m in most retailer tops and the m fit perfectly length was perfect on me not too long and not short i m 5 1 for reference definitely a top that can be worn dressed up with slacks and heels or skinny jeans and flats love it i love the lacy details on the skirt this dress is perfectly simple yet can be dressed up too as the evenings get cooler it pairs up nicely with a cropped denim jacket or a cardigan i ordered my usual size 8 but this run huge i had to exchange for 6 or even size 4 the fabric is nice and airy it seems to easily wrinkle though just have to either iron everytime or dry clean i suppose unique design this dress fits incredibly well i loved the color and it will transition through the fall nicely i ordered xs s i usually wear medium in tops and coats the next size up would ve been too big so this cape does run large nan i didn t notice this online but it caught my eye in the store the colors are bright and beautiful i wear a 10 12 or m l i tried the 12 but the bust was too big i wear a 36c i ordered the size 10 and it fits perfect i m so glad i saw it in the store i think it makes much more of an impact in person than online i have the pink plaid pippa and this mint one is nothing like it but in a good way shorter sweet embroidery but the same swing silhouette and drop waist style this dress is a little oversized so if you want more fitted look you can size down stay tts if your busty like me imo the mint looks more sky blue than green i got the medium regular and i m 5 3 140 36dd and ends at my knees just got this dress and am very pleased fell in love with the bright color in the store and then came home ordered it at a great sale price color is as shown beautiful lace trim at the bottom back longer than front as described and pockets i am 5 2 and length on a large comes to just below the knees in front i may wear leggings under it dont like the slip as it is far too tight will wear a tee or turtle under it quality heavier fabric roomy linen and cotton this dress is so simple but gorgeous on the top runs a bit small in the shoulders bust the top button gapes a bit in the bust area the cuffs and collar insides are a different coordinating print and provides a cute option to roll or unbutton and press open to style ok the material is great light airy the th am 142lbs 5 4 and got size 4 it goes beautifully on my slightly brown skin the length is ju have wide arm holes so a bra even a strapless one could be tricky although it wasn t a gaping e a different size i wanted to write a review i m 5 feet tall and 120 lbs i am 34 d so busty the petite did not overwhelm me the pockets do open you re supposed to cut the little threads out ask a dry cleaner or an retailer stylist for help i like that there is a little stiffness to the cape it has holes for your arms not a poncho your lucky if they have your size i love this dress i wish i had ordered a size bigger because now its out of stock if you are between sizes order a size up i m in between a 4 and a 6 petite and ordered the size 4 and the dress is too tight in the bust the dress has no give so it has to fit perfect it is so lovely i don t w ant to return it i will try to find a seamstress to help with the fit my favorite part of the dress are the side pockets they re big and adorable great sweater long and warm but not too ite sure what to think about this top color is nice cut iis pretty but the material is denim denim it would probably soften with wear but the deal breaker for me is that i have a vein in my neck that pops out like crazy when i wear the top if i release the neck it goes back to norm al not that it is tight but apparently it blocks flow somehow so i passed \r\n\r\ni tried on regulat 0 and it was fine at 115 lbs 30 dd chest i found this top in my local store there were two colors available this coral color and a deep teal color i purchased the teal in a m which is one size down from my normal size it drapes beautifully it is a tunic length but not too l ong i love the way it makes my shoulders look i have athletic shoulders and halter styles are best in the summer for me this tank will require a strapless bra i plan to wear a bandeau but i am not very big up top anyhow love this top if it gets release nan i think the orange top w ill look great in the fall as well as spring i m 5 7 5 and it s a great tunic length on me i t s really pretty and i love it snap it up on sale i love this top i purchased it in an xs an d feels it is tts it can be dressed up or down i recently paired this with the cloth and stone chambray drawstring shorts and it was the perfect summer outfit the button details in the back are such a nice touch i got many compliments on this top this blouse is gorgeous first of all it s cotton so it is extremely comfortable it isn t tighter in some areas more than others b ut fits evenly throughout which although a rarity is wonderful finally a blouse that fits pe rfectly i am 5 3 and 108 pounds i ordered the regular xs and it hits right at my hips i have a longer torso however so although i am not tall the petite would have been too short for me it is beautifully made and the red is a beautiful crimson on white grab th this piece is just g orgeous you will almost never catch me paying full price for a clothing item but today i did i ve been admiring it online and when i noticed it had sold out the red version online i sto pped by a store to see if they had it in stock well it looks even more gorgeous in person and i snapped it up right away i envision myself wearing this all summer long and beyond normally i like to purchase from the store so i can try things on first but this top wasn t available lo cally i guessed on a medium i m 5 5 and very curvy and the medium fits just like the picture on the model just a hint of a sleeve and nice and drapey loose over the body the embroidery is just beautiful the only reason i m not giving 5 stars for quality is that i had to sew two butt ons onto the back my top came without them i bought this thinking it would be a great summer t unic but it was really huge on me i normally wear a medium but ordered down a size and it was still quite large it was very long as well and i am 6 tall i am normally a size 8 to give yo u an idea i would recommend it but it is going back for me nan i noticed this top on the sale rack and loved the color palette it would be a nice top through spring summer and into fall t he colors in it will go with lots of things in most wardrobes the cut and style of the top are flattering and it feels good on my skin i can see wearing a shawl with it is cooler weather or perhaps a cropped sweater the cap at the top of the sleeve is cute although i wish it extended just a bit longer i tried a xs and an s probably could have purchased the xs but the lace det ail on this blouse is beautiful i love that it is cotton and it has a detachable camisole which is a nice touch unfortunately this didn t work for me as i found it extremely unflattering th e gathered material just doesn t work if you have a large bust it made me look enormous which is never a good feeling i recommend but only for tall slim types with a small bust i so want ed this blouse to work the lacework is beautiful and it is a substantial and well made top th e neck fits well which is not a given for this style top and i really like the 3 4 length slee ves but the top billows out like a tent on me in all directions and it was an awkward length o n me not quite hip length not quite tunic wish this were cut a little straighter and longer i m 5 4 120 lbs and tried a size s nan this skirt is so cute the fix print is really nice i t s a great piece to add to the fall wardrobe i love how unique this top is especially the but tons that run on the back \r\nit is cut boxy but i think it works because there is so much othe r detail going on the fabric is comfortable and the stitching on the inside is not irritating such great detail great beautiful in red and white this top is so cute and so comfy i love the details especially in the back this embodies what i love about retailer clothing the little u nique touches that you find anywhere else very pleased i tried the 4 and felt it ran a bit big i m 34a 28 26 5 6 about 130lbs and expected to take a 6 the 4 was ideal \r\nlove the concept but thought the material was too stiff to be a swing tank the pleats in the back poke up when you move or bend as if you ve got little horns coming out of your back i think a chambray like cloth and stone produces might have rendered this super cute design better imo \r\nit has a tr apeze shape i wouldn t plan on tucking it in \r\nfinally you mightn t want to nan cute top a little delicate my top arrived with a rip in the sleeve fortunately my tailor was able to fix it luckily i found this in the store though it is on backorder online so if you really want it go to call the store it s effortless fun beautiful and nicely detailed love this top i m 5 5 and usually wear size 6 and i bought a small really worth the price b c you can just throw it on and look fabulous layers well so happy i got this very pretty love the design both fro nt and back this is a beautiful top the pattern reminds me very much of mola designs stitched i n panama i love the contrast of the red stitching against the white background i m not as craz y about the buttons on the back sides not sure what that detail adds to the piece it is a boxy shape so be aware it s not going to hug the figure the cotton is soft and medium weight overa ll it s a stand out absolutely in love with this top the embroidery and back button detail ma ke for a unique and fun look light and airy material will be perfect in warmer weather with a c ute pair of shorts i got a size small and it fits perfectly measurements 5 4 135lbs 32e bou ght this in xs petite i m 5 2 102 it was too big so took it to a tailor altered it so tha t horizontal stitching at the bottom sits gently on my hips rather than floating way out all ar ound it s now nice and flattering i get tons of compliments note that the fabric is more off white than bright white i bought it online thinking it would look good with white jeans it a ctually looks best with blue jeans or navy shorts pants drapes nicely and doesn t wrinkle a wi n most often complimented item of this spring s wardrobe i wound up returning this shirt becau se i ordered the wrong size so sad i should have sized down i m tall and long waisted but s light on top \r\n\r\nthe shirt is gorgeous and the detailing is perfectly done i d definitely recommend trying this one just choose your size carefully this shirt feels so special it is mainly t shirt material so i will be dry cleaning to make sure it keeps\nit s shape and delicate feel the stitching is so beautiful i ll wear this with jeans and even my navy pencil skirt for work so cute it s a cute top i agree with the other poster that the neck in the front feels a little restrictive absolutely love this top i ve been on the lookout for a cute cotton top so mething that d be ideal for summertime this beautiful piece doesn t disappoint the color pairi ng white cotton base and lovely red thread embroidery looks stunning not the mention the un ique back detailing makes it a must have highly recommend this has lovely embroidery of good q uality and it is nicely lined in the embroidered section too it is a very loose swingy shape so size down i love this dress it s beautiful and flattering not to mention that it is also c omfortable with a bit of stretch i couldn t see it in the picture but the black parts on the s houlders in front and on the back is sheer so you have to be careful with underwear choice i h ave an apple shape and yet this was flattering and the perfect length i am short and apple shap ed and it was a great choice i agree the light colored portion of dress is not vanilla it is m ore beige color i liked the dress a lot it had a flattering fit on me extremely comfortable a nd then i noticed the black mesh portion at top of dress it did not lay flat at the outer sides between the mesh and floral fabrics like the picture it poked out on both sides at least 1 whi ch suddenly made the dress look cheap and ill fitting i can guess either the mesh pattern piece was not cut correctly or it was not sewn correct these are my favorite jeans the fabric is soft but has a good amount of weight to them all the details reflect a high quality jean i usually have a very hard time finding jeans that fit my backside and thighs well without a huge gap at t he waist these sit lower on my hips no gap and plenty of space for my butt they do run a bit large though i have a 29 natural waist and think a 28 would have been even more perfect i pur chased this blouse in my usual size xl the wine color is very nice sort of a rusty cranberry i so badly wanted to love this blouse but i have to return it there is so much fabric in the ba ck that it makes me look like a giant cranberry it is not flattering at all on my full figure maybe if i was very slender the massive volume of fabric wouldn t matter but sadly it needs to go back on a side note this is a cotton blouse and i believe it is going to require ironing si nce i badly wri i love this top i got lucky and found it returned at a store always always ch eck the found and collected racks ladies it was a 6 and i was a little worried it would be mu ch to large but it fit great i like that i can wear something under it or on its own i didn t fit it too short but i m a little under 5 7 and roughly 127 lbs 32 34a highly recommend cut e skirt and print but high waisted also was more snug so think it runs a tad small i wanted t o tuck in a shirt like shown in picture but it looks goofy because the waist is so high also t here is no flexibility there so size up if you want to wear it lower the model s arms are cover ing her waist so hard to tell what proportion looks like on her i m 5 4 so might work better on a taller person sending back based on previous reviews i sized up to size 4 i typically wea r xs or s while the length was okay the body was way too wide the neck was almost like a mock neck higher than i expected which made it very uncomfortable for me overall i didn t find it flattering or anything special fits great and super flattering this shirt is really cute i lo ve the color and design i like wearing it with jeans and sneakers the fox print is super cute and the reason i ordered the skirt sizing was true to me i m usually an 8 and the 8 fit fine the waist is high and if you try to wear it low the side zipper puckers out in a weird way sk irt length is above knee i m 5 6 skirt is lined but the lining is dark brown black same as the waist band in the photo of the model wearing it the lining does not show at the hem it s concealed overall a fun a line swingy skirt for late summer that will go into fall loved this from the minute i saw it great quality very heavy denim which i like does run small went up a size to be safe happy with the purchase gorgeous color flowy fabric unique design this top is a winner i don t even mind that i ll have to wear a strapless bra with it a little bit on the larger size but not too big in my opinion love this saw online didn t place the order and when i came back it was gone retailer restocked so i got it second time around ordered the red option this shirt is beautiful sometimes the online photos don t do the piece justice but this time it s even better in person the embroidered detail is gorgeous the fabric is light weight and the back of the shirt has button down panels that are almost linen like in look and feel the fit is just as pictured imo bringing this on vacation with m i recently bought this blouse the soft fabric drapes nicely and the stitching is wonderful love it a wonderfully heavy weight piece opposed to all the swingy chambray of summer this piece will transition wonderfully into fall the only disadvantage is a relatively high neck which looks lovely but can be a little restrictive at times highly recommend nan gorgeous embroidery soft fabric great drape hides tummy overall perfect size down i bought the small and i am 36dd love the fit and color of this top i love that it is somewhat fitted around the arm holes which doesn t allow for extra skin to show it drapes nicely over my hips and tummy got rave reviews from my husband this is such a unique and beautiful top it will be a go to in my closet all year round the red embroidery is amazing meant to be a loose fit i m 5 7 and 120 lbs and ordered the xs fits perfectly beautiful lightweight and well tailored \r\nmore dressy than what it appears in photo form fitting hugs in the right spots and love the pattern it s a little shorter than i expected and too formal to wear to work however an excellent evening dress love these jeans they are the perfect fit from waist to ankles their first wear was like i d been wearing them for years i paired them with the pintuck button down tunic nan i am normally an xs or s in tanks so ordered the size 6 looks pretty much on me as in the pic love that it s a cotton denim but it doesn t have any stretch love the look the fabric but the neck area feels slightly restrictive in the front i think it wld creep up pull on me when wearing fabric is slightly stiff the flared bottom just sticks out armholes do cover the bra length hits at the top of the hips on me going to return the 6 but will try the 8 if the local store has it really gorgeous print i purchased these to go with the top also recommend it as well and i love these i have a larger behind and it s nowadays it seems to find swimsuits with full coverage without feeling like a diaper these are it there is elastic at the leg openings so that may be uncomfortable for some but i found no problem with it for reference i am usually a 6 8 28 29 in pants and i purchased a medium it might look a bit stiff from the photo but this fabric is so soft and really is a fashionable sweatshirt this blouse is perfect in so many ways it s cotton the fit is super flattering the design is gorgeous i never and i mean never wear red but i made an exception here due to the exceptionally stunning embroidery i know this will be comfortable this summer the fit is slightly loose so the air can flow the cotton is light but not thin no cami needed a medium size fits me very well i am size 8 medium top 34f 130 i love that the armholes are high and hide any flaws the button design this is a unique take on a denim shirt i have about five other denim shirts but love this style this is such a lovely top but so very big and billowy makes me wish i were taller then i think it could work there is just too much extra fabric all around so sad because it seems well made and is very beautiful too bad it doesn t come in petites or even an xxs even with my hips it was just too much love this top runs true to size looks cute with in style army green cargo pants great buy at sale price the back of this top is very unique and the embroidery looked like it would hold up \nit does have a boxy shape but it really works with this piece i found it to run true to size compared to other pieces i have from retailer for some reference i m 5 5 and weigh 148lbs what a cute shirt i got the red and white and it s definitely a summer shirt although i m sure you could make it look cute under a cardigan i m a 10 m and the m fit well tts i love this top usually i prefer neutral colors but i looked at every one of the colors and fell in love with the pink i think it looks the best with the embroidery at the top i too love this cut on my shoulders for summer i would definitely recommend this top i bought an xs and it s perfect this shirt made me feel like twirling i love it soft and stylish my usual large seems a bit too large so i will try a medium these pants are amazingly soft and comfortable they can be worn with cute flats and a dressier top accessories to work or with a simple tee or tank with tennies for running errands or lounging around these are great for multiple seasons i m 5 2 so they are a little long but the ruched ankle makes that look by by design this is a really great bathing suit top i haven t purchased a bikini in about 4 years so i m glad this is the one i finally purchased the floral pattern is dainty and gorgeous the fabric itself is soft and comfortable i listed it as a true to size fit but if you re on the larger end of your size spectrum i would get the size up for better coverage i m a size 8 through and through and so ordered a m per their size standar ds the size m was comfortable and fit but the size l covered bette really nice green blend of c olors fun style but not especially figure flattering as it is a very wide peplum i still love it and goes with many outfits and as a fall jacket is a bit itchy need to wear sleeved top or dress underneath love the shirt exteemely comfortable simple and nice my new favorite piece of loungewear super cute and comfortable these are extremely soft but do run about one size to o big with one exception the opening to pull your feet through that bag nicely around your ankl es is soooooo small that you have to work to pull the heel of your foot out for me these are d ual duty pants casual wear like to the grocery store or coffee shop trip and second as great so ft pj bottoms though the ankles are small they do not feel tight at all because the fabric is really that soft they work well with both my sneakers and clas when i tried them on i didn t w ant to take them off they are so soft so stylish they drape your body just the right way the y are stretchy so even though i am wearing 30 in jeans i took s regular run hone and tried it on with moss cowled side zip tunic 2 different booties and aquaflora reversible vest all varia tions and combos looked really cool and great i even tried with high heeled booties and dressie r sweater top warm up pullover in charcoal looked like high couture the color i i ordered th e black 2 months ago it was on back order and i jsut received it finally the fabric is super soft itried on both xxs and xs and could keeo either one the v in front where it crosses is low so most people do need a cami underneath but you could probably do without for ultra sexy look not my style but could be done i plan on wearing this with skirts deresses and slacks i saw a commet on the lighter color not sure but love this one in black for sure i ve been lo oking for a wrap cardigan for a while and this totally fit the bill it fits well is soft and made of good materials i love the versatility of using it with all my dresses this is a great staple piece i loved this dress in the photos and couldn t wait to try it on in person the pri nt varies from dress to dress and mine had noticeably much more cream color in it i didn t mind too much but it didn t look like the dress the model is wearing i bought the xxs petite which f it true to size the v neck is a bit low for petite sizing but the length was perfect on my 5 2 frame which was a plus i agree with the other reviewers the fabric is cheap and feels cheap no t something i would expect from i love this dress it is equally pretty in person too sometimes i will order things and when i get them the colors are totally different than what i anticipated not with this dress i love it and will get a lot of use out of it over the spring summer love the fit and style of this maxi have gotten many compliments however my toddler grabbed the dr ess when she was falling over and it pulled a bunch of threads out and made the fabric look puck ered and worn in that spot for a toddler to do that makes me feel like the quality isn t amaz ing also the waist part itches me this dress is so pretty can be worn casually or with heels to dress up i get so many compliments on it and it s so comfortable it s like wearing pajamas i highly reccomend it this is a lovely dress with a soft fabric that drapes over the body the pattern is soft and feminine very much like the picture my only issue which is why i didn t g ive it 5 stars for my overall rating is it s a bit snug around the bodice this could be becaus endations of other reviewers the small would b i was thinking this was another maeve winner but this is actually plenty by tracy reese dress i love the flowy fabric the soft but vibrant colo rs and the gorgeous print i wanted a size mp but that sold out so i purchased a regular m with the intention to hem and i find it too large in the bust i m going to order the sp instead too see if that fits better for reference i am 5 3 36dd 140 knitted and knotted makes such gorge this dress is everything from the flattering fit to the colors and pattern to the design and to the quality this dress really has it all this is worth every penny and in my opinion a gr eat price for a versatile high quality dress the material is that super comfy stretchy materi al which is perfect for everyday it is a no brainer and easy to throw on i m so happy it comes in petite as the xsp length fits me perfect it hits at the perfect length for a nan this sweate r is gorgeous in print but in person the colors are murkier the yellow dots are really a dusty mustard yellow and the navy is a smokey navy the white background reads more oatmeal in person this sweater is stunning it is extremely well made tons of tiny little embellishments that get noticed even by the most discerning eye i ve received so many compliments on it if you want it to fit generously or with extra roominess i recommend ordering one size up it fits true to siz e i had this in my wish list a long time ten when sale came along my size was sold out howev er someone returned it at my local store i purchased it then tried it on later why i ended returning it \r\n\r\nfabric was gorgeous and light but fall is coming and i won t wear it unt il next summer may get over it by then\r\nthe shape is really nice but the hem hit me in a wei rd spot on my short muscular legs\r\nas others mentioned there are spots where the sewing is no t perfect and bulges a little these culottes are beautiful really pretty cerise shade with a nice eyelet pattern they are only partially lined the size small my normal size was falling off of me so i sized down to extra small which fit perfectly i ve read the previous reviews abo ut this dress and was hesitant to order it but i m so happy i did i can definitely understand w hy certain reviews are saying that the fabric is cheap it is an extremely thin material as well as a thin lining however i think it depends on the person because neither of those things act ually bother me i get hot very easily so i appreciate the fact that this dress is very thin and flowy i think it s extremely comfortable and looks very cute on the zipper d the top is inde ed a bit boxier than i was expecting as the other reviewer found it still looks good tucked in if you re concerned about it the fact that it s sustainably produced in ghana was a big part of my desire to keep it too really great to see designers producing clothing responsibly i wish t hat how a garment is manufactured is highlighted more on this site because it definitely contrib utes to my purchases the texture mixed yarn and beading make for a lovely variation on the fa irisle as other reviewers have said the length is not as long as it appears in the picture th e color is a very dark navy almost black the neck opening is larger than a standard crew sweat er but lays mostly flat the overall look is boxy i m 5 7 and normally wear a medium in retaile r sweaters i changed to a large so it would be longer and have a roomy drapy feel perfection fits like other pilcto jackets and vests tapers in slightly at waist for flattering fit weig ht is light for summer but substantial and good quality silver buttons not bronze or copper slight stretch super comfy no regret nan the sweater is as cute in person as it is online s uch a festive sweater and i ve received many compliments anytime i wear it unique and fun to we ar i really love the look of this sweater and it seems to be of great quality i will say the f it is a bit odd the sweater is on the short side but is very roomy through the neck and shoulde rs i ordered a small 5 6 120lbs and would change for an xs but i m afraid it would be cropp ed i m keeping it but wish it had a more uniform fit \nreally beautify workmanship though this sweater is absolutely gorgeous the design and structure might make your shoulders look a little bigger but i absolutely love it it has a little boxy shape but i feel like it goes with te sty le love it get tons of compliments every time i wear it i m going on a cruise to the bahamas and when i saw this dress i had to have it i love it it s soft to the touch and super fun to twirl around in the seams are a bit awkward and that s due to the bottom part s shape i have a slender navy blue belt that i pair it with to hide the waist seam and to accent my waist more a navy blue sash scarf ribbon around the waist can do the trick too fits well and appropriate for work or going out love the pop of red in the beads could easily be worn with a jacket well int o fall i typically wear a 6 and a small fit perfectly not too short but hits above the knee this will get lots of wear this is a great dress that can be dressed up or worn with flip flops i also love that it has pockets i tried this dress on in the store and loved it i am not a a ize 2 usually a 6 but the dress s a line shape allowed me to get a size 2 the dress is well m ade and the orange beaded work is lovely a very pretty dress that i will wear a lot the color and fit of this dress is fabulous i can t wait to wear it out casual with flats or dressy wit h heels love it really like the style aesthetics of the top it is very unique and works with a variety of pants the only downsides are that it flares out a bit more than it appears on the model and it arrived somewhat wrinkled i am 5 6 125 pounds and i got a size 4 looking forwa rd to wearing this a lot in the fall this was the first suit i ve ever ordered online and the f irst one piece i ve tried since i was a very young girl so i was a little skeptical going into this i m 5 9 145 lbs 34b with a pear shape and short torso i was pleasantly surprised by the overall fit the length was right the bottoms fit really well i was nervous about the boy short hip hugger design and the suit was just very comfortable and cute however something ab out the cups just didn t work with my chest my breasts di im so glad this shirt came to me just as pictured and described color and fit was spot on thank you this dress is just beautiful color fit length style stretchy fabric everything about it seems to flatter all body types it also passes the armhole test no issues there the back closure detail adds a little somethi ng special to it i tried it on with black leggings and a black leather jacket just for fun and it looks surprisingly cute for multi season wear is it overpriced absolutely but so is 99 of the stuff at retailer i will be keeping it anyway though because i think it s a tr i did like t he dress but don t love it i think it would have been better for me if it were snugger the xx s petite was still loose and i found that there are so many dresses with the similar fit i deci ded to pass i also do like both colors the brown is a better choice for me on my skin tone warmer but both are nice i am 115 lbs 30dd 26 5 in waist i don t usually go for swing styl it love this dress light and comfortable and fits true to size i have larger shoulders and t he halter design is really flattering you can dress up or dress down which is a huge plus for m e this is a very pretty top flowy w o making you look larger a nice blue and a good transit ion piece but the upper arms are so tight on me i d say i have pretty average arms definite ly not super thin but not large either i keep staring at it and hoping the fabric will give a bit so i can keep it but sadly i just don t think the material will be very forgiving if you have truly thin arms i think it would be a great top maybe sizing up would also work but for me at least i think it i am not one to complain about things being cut too big as i generally d on t mind lose and flowing however this dress is very bell shaped and the fabric is just thi ck enough that it doesn t really lay well at least not like it does in the photo i bought the earth tone color way and i felt like i was wearing a macrame version of the liberty bell it is also a lot shorter than i was expecting if it weren t so short i would try sizing down it is very good quality and the slip is super soft this swimsuit is super cute and retro the ruching on the stomach is very flattering and the shaping on the padded cups makes for a very nice hourg lass 1950s inspired look great for us ladies without a lot up top i felt very marilyn monroe i n this suit i love the back coverage too your butt doesn t hang out of the suit and the boy short style offers a good amount of coverage without being dowdy \n\ni was worried about sizing when i first ordered it based on what everyone said i went with a i saw this dress in the wind ow at the roc center nyc store and knew i had to have it the one i chose has muted earth tone c olors of tan green gold looks stunning with my complexion the blue one was nice too but the earth tones were more flattering on me the fit is loose and flowy very comfortable but not b aggy i m 5 5 34c 115ish and i took my usual xs i plan to pair it with a muted green leather jacket and brown boots for the fall can t wait love this top fits true to size not to boxy sleeves are so cute looks very rich a must have in your wardrobe very cute dress just way to o big i ordered it online wish i would have gone a size smaller i love love this top it is so pretty i am stopped by strangers complimenting me on it it is so flattering i wear a cam i under it and find it perfect it hits at the perfect length below the waist on my jeans it s easy to throw on and go casual but dressy the sleeves do bell out so you may need to watch them when you eat i ve accidentally caught them on my plate the shirts washes well i ordere d this in the lavender and love the rich color looks great with my blonde hair the bell sleeve s which are all the rage right now add to the feminine look i wore it with jeans and espadril les for a fab boho look i wasn t sure i d like the sleeves but they are very cute and just the right length i really like how the top fits and is very flattering i absolutely love the retro look of this swimsuit i first saw it on blogger amber fillerup clark barefoot blonde and i kn ew i had to have it this is the first one piece suit i ve purchased in about six years i ve av oided one pieces because most of the ones i tried made me feel frumpy and the mono kini look ju st looked odd on me i have a smaller frame and a larger bust 32ddd so finding swimsuits that fit properly is a challenge i am a size 4 but i ordered a size 6 after reading reviews love the fit of pilcro jeans it s always a struggle to find a white jean that is flattering around the t highs and doesn t show off lumps and bumps these are terrific quality indeed very nice basic t ee shirt soft and comfortable well cut i got this top in white rust and it is darling the li ning keeps it from being too see through the bell sleeves add style without getting in the way thanks to the shorter length i get many compliments each time i wear it i am 5 1 103 lbs and take xs fit was true to size i sized up to an xl and although they have everything you want in a yoga lounge pant they just didn t thrill me enough to keep them they re soft warm and comfy but i didn t care for the bulk or fit of the foldover waistband and they were too long so i ret urned if you re built like the model you ll love these i ordered the correct size due to read ing other reviews who gave their height weight and chest size thank you all for that i am 5 feet 5 3 4 inches tall and fluctuate between 135 lbs and 139 lbs i wear 36b in bras i ordered an 8 fits great the coverage is adequate on my backside the rouching is very nice in the mid section for self conscious women like me the color is fun and beautiful the quality is excelle nt i love the bra support there are real bra cups sewn in it was pricey bu love this dress fa bric is very soft and flattering i paired it with wine suede boots great material i will be a

er an xl but read the reviews and ordered a large and was just fine great go to dress saw this in my local retailer and thought it was stunning i usually wear a size 8 because of my broad sh oulders but ended up taking a 6 in this top it was not tight in the arms don t have super skin ny arms and the fabric flows nicely not too much the embroidery is amazing and am sure this top will be in rotation quite a bit the color and fit is amazing on this dress i am 5 7 and we nt with the small and the length wasn t too short either i am in love with these jeans i can t say enough about them they are so forgiving yet keep their shape great they are soft comfor table and are a great color these jeans have the perfect amount of stretch while being substant ial and durable i ordered this last week and received it yesterday and have to say it is a love ly dress the fabric is light but looks quite rich making one want to touch the textile the dr ess pattern reminds me of a missoni oh the dress is lined i purchased the blue pattern and a m planning on wearing it to work on friday dress it up or go casual this dress has it all we ll made and comfortable where other lace rubs the wrong way under arms this is super soft c ant wait to pair different shoe colors and jewelry i saw this dress in the store there are act ually two different colors for this dress one is blue purple silver the other one is orange ta n gold both of them look very nice in person especially with the shimmery thread i tried on t he blue purple silver one and i found it runs large for reference i am 5 2 34b 120 lbs usu ally wearing a size s or sp in retailer dresses i found size xs fits me better in this design the material of this dress drapes nicely but it is kind of itchy the cut of this dress is what drew me to order it but it is so much more first the fabric is more of a raw silk which is m ore like a soft linen than silk it s also got a very soft lining that feels great on the skin and it has pockets love a dress with pockets i also love that the design is on the front and b ack i am 5 4 133 lbs and a 36c and ordered a size 6 it s a little big on the sides so i p robably should ve returned it for a 4 but it wasn t big enough to make it annoying o beautiful dress that is easy to just throw on and go i bought both colors though it is loose it is still flattering it has a good length and movement i m normally a m l or 10 12 i took a medium as i t is pretty loose fit this top is so perfect for the fall flowy beautiful embroidery and pa ired with jeans and brown boots gorgeous wore it once and got a lot of compliments i m 5 2 1 25 and ordered a size 4 2 worked too but just a tad tight in the arms nan this sweet dress is perfect for fall and spring because the knit is not too thick the drape allows layers and th e colors are very versatile the style is loose if you stay tts but will be a slimmer fit if yo u size down if your body habitus is super slender definitely size down the liner slip is so ft and the back side of the knit is a bit scratchy i think this dress is beautiful and best of all forgiving i m happy to have tried both colors the problem is picking which one to keep m nan i wish summer was longer so i could have the opportunity to wear this more much more eye catching and unique in person than the photo 5 stars love this dress i wore it with black boo ts and got so many compliments super comfortable i feel like this dress will never go out styl e i saw these on the freshly cut promo discount decided to order my usual size 28 reg in pi lcro a great fit appreciate the midrise not too snug or baggy look pretty much on me as in the model pic except they fall abt 1 below my ankles i am only 5 3 so not a surprise they are a little longer on me but it s really ok fyi the front button back pocket tacks are gold wh ich gives a classy look to these jeans just love love the price too 5 3 117 i am a huge fan of tracy reese because her dresses are works of art great quality and super wearable for b oth work and play and this is no exception i purchased this dress in regular xs i m 5 2 34b 26 waist 36 hips and it falls right above my knees for the office or more conservative settin g i add a belt and a sweater otherwise i wear it alone for a carefree look i chose the regul ar size because the dress is voluminous and it gets about an inch shorter when i belt it and it looks i like this dress the floral pattern and little red beads others may think it is baggy however i like this type of the style this dress is very comfortable not itchy at all and loo ks great runs on the large side and is a tiny bit unflattering in the middle but it s still a w orthwhile buy the dress runs large so if you go down a size you will be fine looks awesome on love it would definitely recommend i ordered a small i m usually a petite small i like my tee s not fitted i will exchange it for an xs soft it has like the look of a seam down the middle of the back i barely noticed it i think it makes a plain tee shirt a little unique good quali ty 100 percent cotton it s a white tee soft let me start by saying i am incredibly picky abo ut pants i hate probably 99 of the pants i try on pilcro is the consistent exception and the se are probably my favorites of all my pilcros perhaps tied with the cords runs true to pilcr o size which i find to be a bit large most of my other pants are a 30 and a 29 is quite comfo rtable in these despite being leggings they re thick structured enough to wear to work flatte ring flirty bright beautiful romper i wish it come in other colors because i want more j ust received my second pair of pilcro legging jeans having bought them last year as well great for work girls night out date night so comfortable with lots of stretch fortunately they ho ld their shape and don t stretch out they feel like pjs but are nice enough for work my pair from last year have held up well color wise however some of the leg seam stitching unraveled hence the reason for 4 stars in quality hopefully these will fare better \n\nregardless i hig hly recommend great top i bought it for my daughter and it is well made and the fabric is very nice she is 5 4 and it reaches just the top of her jeans love this top however i m biased b c i love hd such originality in their clothing even in something as simple as a black tank top also comes with the bra strap snaps but i find my straps still show in the back need to wear a strapless or criss cross please note that the sides sort of rise up to meet the laces so the m ore you tighten the laces the more it comes up hard to explain if you are at all even a lit tle sensitive about a muffin top again with low rise it would show still l i tried these on a e shorts i don t understand why they aren t sold out yet they are buttery soft and fit great i usually wear a size 26 and these are true to size they are my go to run around shorts but bec ause they are a dark wash so i feel like i can wear them out with a cute top to dinner even lov e i am 5 8 135 lbs broad shoulders and normal waste to hip ratio this jumper fits beautiful ly and material flows just enough to be forgiving but flattering love love love definitely hap py with myself for the splurge can t wait to wear it out i loved these shorts however they seemed to be doomed i received these on july 2nd wore them at for a party we had on july 3rd with the top shown the fit was true to size style quality were nice during the day i first ripped them on a low arbor gate latch then later they were splashed with red wine when my husba nd startled me i threw my red wine in the air typically i am very careful and do no have an issue with ruining my clothes he felt so bad he asked me to get a new pair i stevie styled ags are my favorite love the waist love the length of the short not to long and not too short i a m 5 0 tall and i have decent legs these shorts are pretty short i am sending them back for a small to see if they ll give a little more coverage i should mention that they are absolutely d arling and i bought the top that is shown with them it s going to be a great little summer outf it the quality of this brand is always very good this jumpsuit is gorgeous on the right body if you have a tiny rib cage and a flat stomach and an average to short torso this may fit you b b cage i tried this top on in the store today and had to have it i love the laces up the sides and the zipper in back it is short i found a really cute pair of baggy pants with a black p attern to pair with it \r\nin retailer shirts i wear an xs or s or a 0 or 2 i got this in a 0 and it fit perfectly i love this jacket i m 6 tall 160lbs 30 waist and a 34d i normally g o for an 8 medium and i bought a medium i love it slightly cropped barely snug fit but i can still snap it closed totally warm enough for california fall winter i like that the sleeves do n t have sherpa in them make it easier to layer i bought the silver corduroy and it s less white than the photos but it still fits the bill perfectly love that it s machine washable to o it also has pockets this is one of my favorite pair of pants they don t stretch out while w earing and wash well no pilling or shrinking they can either be worn like leggings or pants i wear a size 2 pants but got these in a 27 because i don t like them super fitted ok so this is true to size i recently had a baby i gained a lot of weight am in the process of losing it and took the risk of buying a jumpsuit online i am 5 3 with a long torso short legs and a big fat butt so buying pants especially rompers are almost impossible lengthwise this fits me li ke pants the draping is so flattering and the color combination is splashy but not loud i had to review this as soon as i realized it fit i don t think i ve ever been so happy with an retai ler pu this is a cute somewhat dressy top it has a bit of a sheen ties on the sides and a zi pper down the back it ll go great with pants or skirts the fit though is huge i m normally an 8 but i got this in a 4 machine washable even though it says dry clean if it doesn t say dry clean only you can wash it awesome top slightly cropped great to dress up jeans or wear with pants or skirt for evening out this is a pretty jump suit true to size looked flattering on me lovely soft tencel like fabric and pretty design fabric however the sides are cut too d eep and it s impossible to wear a strapless bra or any kind of bra without the bra showing i tr ied without one and that definitely doesn t work so back it went to the store great bra fits well works under tighter t shirts just be aware that the straps do clearly read calvin klein more mauve than pink loved this romper wish it was offered in petite arm sleeves are too lo irts that aren t numeric sizes got this one in small i can t say enough about this sweater it light delicate soft vintage chic i could go on and on buy it already i am 5 3 and 34c and bought the regular xs it fits exactly as on the model soft and light and comfortable but very sheer cami required have to try this with both a tucked in cami and a cami bra grea t with midi skirts and culottes and maxi skirts and palazzo and flared pants love i ordered th is skirt in my usual xs when it arrived it looked tiny the xs was almost impossible to get on i ended up returning the xs for a medium which fit perfectly and is work appropriate my meas urements are 5 6 and 125 my recommendation would size up two sizes i don t know that i ll kee p this although i really want to i love the style and the fabric and the length is perfect fo r me i m 5 3 and i ordered the petite length it hits me below the knee as another reviewer mentioned this dress runs small in the chest area and does not provide any stretch luckily for me that wasn t an issue \r\n\r\nmy trouble is this the liner stops just above the slits on the side and it s way more noticeable in person than in the photo the liner is sewn in and yo wow i wish this would have worked for me the pom details are truly adorable and give the sweater th at extra added touch i agree with the other reviewer that the crop style is almost too much a nd gives an awkward fit i am short 5 2 so it cut me off in the wrong area i bought a petite xs the material is delicate but that is part of the charm so i didn t have a problem with that at al my problem was the fit a bit too boxy for my build wish it would have worked but i ll have to admire i absolutely love this bra it is the most comfortable aesthetically pleasing spo rts bra i have ever owned i love the straps they take some patience to get aligned properly on ce the bra is one but afterward it looks amazing the bra itself is soft and the padded inserts actually stay in place without much manipulation so they are aligned properly when moving i do not have any areas that rub or get irritated uncomfortably i absolutely love this bra it gives me the support i need for a high i was very happy to receive this as a birthday gift i usually wear an xs or s in clothes i buy from retailer i was given this in a s but it wasn t even clos e to meeting in the front so i returned it for a m it doesn t button anyway but i didn t want it to look like it wouldn t meet at all i tried on a size s sweater in this brand while i was i n the store and it fit perfectly so this one is just running small overall i love the lace d etail on the front and the softness of the sweater i like everything about this shirt except i wish the embroidery was on the back too gives it a cheaper look by only having it on the front you will look prettier coming than going for sure yes it s a swing top just like many of the other swing tops retailer is offering this season i find this silhouette unflattering on me be ing top heavy so i was frustrated to discover the swing ness only after i ordered it and it arr ived at my house it also runs huge with big gaping arm holes the sleeves are cute and flutter ed the black panels on the sides are semi sheer it is a pretty boxy top which the photo doesn t seem to capture order at least a size smaller than usual this top has a great pattern that c ould be worn with many different things it was a bit short for me as i have a long torso but i wish it had fit right i joked with my husband that if i were with the resistance star wars this is what i would wear i actually really like it it will look best with a girly skirt and b oblem this tee is a mustard color this is a lightweight sweater good for the office and summ er evenings here in so cal it s a good weight sweater year round love the lace trim runs a bit large but not too bad color is a light cornflower blue not lavender this works for me but if you re looking for a lavender sweater you might want to think twice i have this tee in every single color and love it this shirt is so soft airy and comfortable and the ribbon emb m this time there is very little difference in the two sizes but i liked the modest increase i n length i m glad that i did this because the tees shrunk ever so slightly after being in the d this skirt is very comfortable and moves well i m 5 4 and ordered a 2p which fits perfectly the length hits just above the top of my feet the patterned chiffon is sheer and the skirt has a short black slip underneath that ends just above my knees i have a small waist and wider hips but found the inner slip to fit loosely enough so that it doesn t ride up when i walk or sit th e two slits on either side were a great length and make this skirt both flirty and quirky you l ct i live in florida aka where it is hot almost every day of the year it makes a great layer p iece but isn t too warm first of all mine arrived in a regular denim shade not the dark wash shown also the style is more like a blazer and it was huge i am 5 2 and ordered the petite xs but even xxs would have looked like a baggy blazer as well the sleeves came barely past my wrists they are designed to cuff as the model has done perhaps on someone taller and younger i t would look edgy and chic the quality is excellent with some nice details this might be one t o try in person if you can i would give this top a 4 5 it is a very pretty top i love the em broidery but runs a little short for my taste it still meets past the top of my pants but bar ely this is why i didn t give this top a 5 i am 5 9 so i think for a petite person the length would be perfect just bought this today in xl and i like it a lot i am very busty so if i see an xl in most things i will try it on i probably could have fit into a large though this will look cute with leggings as it is long enough to cover your butt i didn t know about the emerald color as it looked in store lights but it is more blue green at home i like it even better we ll worth 48 these are amazing quality i agree size up to not have such a sheer effect i wou i love most things that are denim or look like denim this is a fun twist on a denim shirt the flutter sleeves and side panels make it different and eye catching i have gotten so many compli ear denim to work and still look professional a nice rayon peasant shirt like the sleeve leng th good for a fuller figure covers all the bad sports and very comfortable i like the look an d fit of this shirt can be dressed up or more casual i got the purple motif although i also l ike the brown and think that with all of the black in there on the brown one it would give a d ressier look i usually wear small from retailer although this is my first blouse from this bra nd ended up getting an xs regular i wanted the sleeves to fit at 3 4 as shown in the pics b ut still be loose i had a ton of extra room in the small and the sleeves hit at wrist bone thi l and flattering it s easy to dress up and dress down fantastic top this shirt is much more f lattering in person if i hadn t seen it in store i don t think it would have caught my eye i like the mix of casual and dressy this top has i got it specifically for teaching the one thi ng i noticed however was that the first xs i tried on looked very big on me i tried a second on and the fit was much more flattering i highly recommend that you try on the specific blouse you plan to purchase before you actually buy it i m glad i tried a second on because i th the fabric of these pants isn t like regular denim rather it s soft and velvety in texture more lik e a chino i love the dark saturated olive green the pocket placement is very flattering on the rear normally i wear a size 31 in premium denim and size 30 in paige jimmy jimmy jeans however in this particular pair i needed a size 29 i definitely recommend sizing down i wanted to give this a try but unfortunately disappointed with the fit and styling i m 5 6 petite build and i t consumed my slim figure i loved the soft and coziness and the color is sweet too i just felt like an awkward butterfly with the sleeves pinning them back would have been alright but the ex ecution didn t fit my frame i would have liked it to be a tad longer too i really hope they us e this same material throughout the fall season because it s so cozy this is a really nice fitt ing sweater knit skirt the knit is soft and comfortable heavy enough to smooth out some bumps but definitely shows your curves i got medium and it s a little snug at the waist i m about 29 1 2 but not so much to return it and it fits the rest of me great the only thing i wish was that they d made the slip full length it only goes about mid thigh and sometimes when i get up the slip stays up while the skirt falls right but not a big negative i thought this was love a t first sight the color and design are both stunning and it drapes just perfectly over the bod y without looking like a tent and the fabric feels nice but the very first time i put it on i t snagged on my fingernail and my nails are kept short and neat this wouldn t have been a pro blem except that the snag is very obvious this material seems like it s going to snag on every single thing i didn t dare even try on a necklace for this reason i m really undecided o i ord ered the medium pink in a size small the color is more of a hot pink it runs small through the shoulders and bust i m 34 d i like that it covers your bum and the detail down the back but it is going back i may try a medium petite in a different color this shirt is soft long and i s the perfect pair for leggings i am only 5 ft tall so this is extra long on me in the front a nd back i bought it in 3 colors and hope to get more i bought a large and love how it covers h ides my trouble areas this shirt feels amazing it is the perfect length for leggings i have i t in long sleeves also i don t love the pink color i bought it looks very different from the c olor pictured i bought a few of these tops in the long sleeved version during the fall winter so i was super excited to see the short sleeved version come out in this brand i can wear an x s or s i typically wear a s in retailer tops if you need a tee that covers your lady parts wh en wearing leggings this is it it perfectly covers my rump and looks great it s a nice weight too the detailing down the back is a nice touch i ordered the medium my usual size for flowin g tops it fits nicely looks amazing from the front and looks slimming then i turned to the si de and oh my my boobs protruded like two big balloons i looked like wonder woman there was p lenty of fabric and it was billowy so it wasn t the size just the cut i do have 34 g s but what the heck the color is glorious but it has to go back this tee is a great everyday staple it is comfortable and it also drapes very well i am 5ft 2in 100lbs 34b and i got this in xxs re gular the length is perfect for leggings skinny jeans and it also looks really cute with a si de knot in front i have this is navy green and black the navy color is brighter in person an d in my opinion looks better you can t go wrong planning on getting the grey and pink one as well great tee i usually wear an xs but ended up getting this in xxsp it is very long but th e petite worked perfect on my 5 9 frame it is an expensive panty but so worth the money it i s so unique and flattering i bought this top in both colors the fit is perfect the styling is very cute and it also is very comfortable \r\nthe only bad thing is that it snags on my jewelry if it weren t for that i would rate it a 5 i feel like a pessimist but then again nothings per fect the only thing wrong with this stunning sweater is no button or snap so it just bags open love it tho this sweater is beautiful it fits drapes nicely is a gorgeous color feels soft a nd is comfortable to wear i m generally a s or m in this brand and opted for the medium the sl eeves are pretty long i have to role them up a bit or they cover half my hand but that s all r ight they look fine rolled i highly recommend i wanted a nice well fitting top that would wo rk with trousers jeans and skirts alike and be a nice wardrobe staple i got two of these top s one size s black and one m turquoise the size m is gigantic and i have to return it th e size s is also a whole lotta shirt the top is really long and has a multi level bottom as we ll as the pocket making it not just a simple top but a rather loud top nevertheless i m kee ping the size s black as a versatile shirt that i can hopefully tuc love this t shirt i rarel y pay full price but love this and it s already out of stock fits perfect i tend to be short w aisted so the length is perfect i wanted to love this top it s gorgeous w the beading and ve lvet however it really goes with nothing i m tall and slender the top felt a bit cropped w hen i tried it on very wide flare shape but that wouldn t make me return it what is making me send it back is the color the grey is gorgeous but the fabric is a buttery yellow color i think i was picturing it more cream i don t know what in the world you could wear this with grey pants a grey pencil skirt it looks terrible i m one of those people who is juuuust righ t between being regular and petite sized so i have a hard time with some longer tunic styles t his tee is pretty fitted though the shoulders and bust which makes the rest of the top kind of skim over the body i like that especially for those days where i feel a little bloated or like i want to hide out a bit \r\n\r\nthe fabric is very comfortable and not sheer the little strip e down the back is a cute detail and it s in a slightly contrasting fabric w the color and quali ty of these jeans is great they were too large in my normal size more of a boyfriend fit so si ze down i loved the shape of this basic jacket it s perfect to through on to go to yoga or ove r a dress with heals this shirt fit really really big i ordered an xl but think i could get aw ay with a l if not a medium sadly it s going back otherwise it s high quality and a beaut iful design i tried this on in the store to see if it would be my go to party top and splurge t his season i love the colors textures and embellishments so lovely ultimately the price and the very flowy fit particularly in the back made me put it back another great item from mouli nette soeurs though i am an hourglass figure with a d cup i rarely wear trapeze tops as they make me appear larger this is a very lovely top fits nice i was a medium and hits nicely aro und hips i m 5 4 perfect for a special night out i had a feeling this might not work for me so i decided to try it on in the store just to verify i was quite right i m a tall gal with a size 36c and it just billowed out and made me look wider i normally wear a size m in tops and even this was a tad loose \n\nif you re petite smaller framed this will probably work for you if you re tall and busty this doesn t do us gals any favors in my opinion \n\nit is a lovely t op and i loved the velvet trim at the bottom the inner lining was decent the tee looks longer on the model i am 5 feet 9 and this tee is showing of my belly which surprise me a bit i thoug ht it would hit the waist line still very nice tee i love cotton it simply is the best colo rs are nice too can t wait to wear this out for the holidays very comfortable and versatile looks great with the vegan leather moto pilcro pants or any black skinny jeans for a more dresse prettier in person i recommend this product but with the following reservations \r\n\r\nthe d ye from the product colors my skin every time i wear this outfit i love the fit and make of the jumper but i hate that my skin looks blue by the end of the day this is still happening after several washes which makes me feel disappointed it will dye your undergarments so choose wisel y this is a cute dress but not for me 1 i think it runs very small 2 it is super textured so if you don t want to add bulk aka pounds to your frame this probably isn t for you it s t oo bad it s online only because i would have benefitted from trying this on first i m sure it s probably adorable on smaller thinner people unfortunately mine is going back flattering to t he figure i m bustier and slightly thicker waisted but this jumpsuit hugs and drapes in all the right places normally i wear a medium petite but the regular small fit better win i m disapp ointed in the dye quality my hands were blue from trying on the different sizes and i m now on my second wash before wearing i ordered this on sale after reading the review but i was disap pointed when i tried it on the color is darker in person which is better for me but it looked dull on my skin tone pale also teh sleeves poofed in a weird way on the top where the seam m eets the neck the overall cut is almost flattering a little long still for me in petite i fel t like i was trying on a regular size so not for me for reference i ordered the 0p or xsp n ot sure right now i am 115 lbs 30dd chest 26 5 i m really pleased with this jumpsuit it has great detailing not visible in the online image and the fabric is so soft and comfortable the n avy is lovely i m normally a medium or size 4 6 i ordered the medium online and it was far too baggy especially on top i tried on the small and x small in store and the x small fit exactly how i wanted as worn by the model and the pants were still long enough i m glad i didn t give ve to keep in mind with purchasing items now is how well they work for easy breastfeeding this jumpsuit was perfect dressed up with a cropped tuxedo jacket cute shoes and jewelry i felt s o chic and not only did it fit my new post baby shape but was awesome for nursing him when need ed i felt comfortable all day and look forward to dressing it down for less formal occasions the material is so soft and i size 8 always 36c and i have broad shoulders i found this true to size the colors pop more and there is a cleavage alert just letting you girls know this is very figure flattering especially with my body frame it accentuates the right spots this dres s is so lovely in person with more muted colors than pictured which will transition nicely into fall the overall cut of the dress is really flattering especially for hourglass pear figures sadly i had to return the dress because the arms were insanely small i after putting the dres s on i was worried i wouldn t be able to actually get it off if you have teeny tiny arms y ou ll probably be okay with your regular size if you have any kind of muscle or squish s ize up looks cute on not super form fitting more of a flow fit love the detailed stitching so cute floral pattern is fun not too busy i loved the pockets there is a bit of extra mate rial but if you expect a flowy fit it s still totally lovely i was worried about tightness in t he arms but not a problem at all i love this dress lining makes it feel really well made i have long arms and they are not really small and the small fit me well i think the fact that i have broad shoulders made this top work for me definitely a keeper i am surprised that the arm s fit me though because i often experience sleeves that are too tight when trying on tops i m glad that wasn t the case this time around i m 5 4 130 135lbs depending on my appetite gorge ous dress and very flattering but it does run quite small in the bust i m 32 dd and even the s houlder area i rarely have problems there i also find the side zipper a pain sized up from a 2p to a 4p the lace detail is especially beautiful and the color is more peachy than pink the print quite saturated and not too pastel for early fall i can see wearing it for 3 seasons at least in ca this shirt is nice in theory but you need to have pretty long arms to make it work you also need to be average to tall in height very lovely print and fabric there is more gray to the print s background than the photo shows the shape is feminine and flattering although t he sleeves are more fitted on my arms i bought this to wear to an early fall rehearsal dinner very happy with the purchase these socks feel amazing i have them in both colors \n\nyou would be surprised at the softness of these socks yet they are slightly thicker than normal dress soc ks i have weird toenails that tend to pierce through the tops of socks so a thicker sock is som ething that is very attractive to me i feel like these would last a long time with the bonus o f making my feet feel like they are at the spa these socks are soft \n\nthese socks do not stay on my thigh so i have to use a garter and wear them li the medium fits perfectly it s not too l ong or too short the feel of the fabric is soft and not heavy at all i love the detail in the bird too it bright and colorful overall a great buy this dress was absolutely gorgeous and be autifully made i ordered a size down as the other reviews stated the dress ran large however i t was massive i wanted this dress so badly and mourn that i had to take it back to the store i ordered \r\nxsp\r\nxxs\r\nxxsp\r\n\r\nxxsp was the better fit some people loved it some didn t like as much thought it was baggy and are not used to seeing me in baggy clothing but that bei ng said ti was comfortable the cutouts fell right on spot on my shoulders and it is a nice ca sual embellished look half tucked in some boyfriend jeans i reordered mine as it had something stuck on it and it bothered me like sticky white i will re evaluate when i get the new order o nly because there are sooo m this dress came with two pieces a black sheath slip and a sheer pa ttern top piece pictured it s pull on and comfortable and flows well i ordered online but wi sh i could have selected the pattern as the fabric differs a little from front to back both in the pattern and intensity of color overall though a comfortable light summer dress great fit very soft fabric and the sleeves are long enough great length in the body too i saw this dus ter and immediately ordered it in cream i have worn it every chance i get it goes well with dr esses as well as shorts or jeans the length is perfect the design is flattering and the mater ial is soft and comfortable the sleeves are snug but i like this feature especially for light weight summer use over a tank top or sleeveless blouse this will be a go to item thanks retail er another gem this skirt looks just like it does on the model it is the prefect maxi skirt w ith lots of movement i actually bought the off the shoulder top it is paired with you can t te ll on the model but the slit has buttons up it so you can undo or do as many of the buttons as y ou want to show off as much leg as you want it is a little pricey but well worth it love these socks i need to get more colors they look so good on with boots with the lace showing love this 115 lbs thin arms the xs fits perfect it s very flattering and has a boho vibe bc of i ts length the arms are a little snug but in a very flattering way haven t worn it enough yet t o experience any pilling but crossing my fingers the cream is a really pretty pale oatmeal col or imo the grey is a black grey speckled look i ordered the cream colored duster after purchas ing the grey one in store i loved the grey one so much i had to get the other color i love the length of the item i am 5 9 and don t feel like it is too short for me to get the look it is light weight so i did not get too warm in it and will be able to wear it much of the year i did wear it open as i feel that it runs a tad tight on the arms and torso when buttoned however i prefer the look of it worn open so that was not a problem for me i wore this for the first time today and got so many compliments i m a personal stylist and went to an event for the company i work for which means i was in a room filled with stylish people and i got nothing but complime nts about my top it is so comfy and i did worry at first about the beading and if it was too fr agile but it was fine i sized down for this top but can t wait to wear it all fall and winter i love these pants first they are super flattering for a new mom the waist comes up high and tucks everything in without rolling over second they are versatile you can pair them with poi nted flats boots or casual with sneakers i am wearing mine with cream flats and the cream moth boucle colorblocked pullover sweater also normally i am an xl especially for length but th e large fit perfectly i didn t want to say that they ran large because they aren t too loose it s like a coat for your legs and lined with some silky fabric the only flaw is a slight bulk iness where the fly hooks up i am a little sad that they don t have a petites because i think this is proportioned for women 5 5 and over and i am only 5 3 also not recommended for anyon e with a tummy pooch so tall women with somewhat flat abs snap it up it s a fabulous look fo r you this is a great alternative to a vest it does have some blue in it as the other review mentions i gave it less of a rating due to the potential for snags i am keeping it though for the sale price i absolutely love this dress tried it on one size down from my usual it fit but my size would be perfect and 8 and 10 are out of stock it s stunning and i love it i bad ly have to have it please bring it back retailer great dress fitted but flowing i like the colors and think it will easily grams iron to fall i am 5 ft 32 d 27 waist this is a gorgeous sweater with a great proportion in terms of length and fit i am petite so i worried that such a long sweater might look weird on me but it actually makes me look slim and taller i get so many compliments when i wear it i ordered the xxs petite bought this in cream in my usual xs 0 5 7 32b 115lbs it is a very flattering summer weight cardi which will work well with jeans and maxi dresses this summer i would point out however that the sleeves are very snug if you don t have thin arms then you may have to consider sizing up i stuck with the xs even though i had to carefully pull the arms on because the s was just a little looser in the back the sleeves are meant to be form fitting but i think they have been designed a little this top is soft feeling and i appreciate that it s lined it s light weight and feminine but no camisole is needed when you take it off the shoulder area feels tight so you need to be a little gentle but it s gorgeous and you should get it i m a 32c and i got a 2 sporty comfortable and good option to replace jeans however material needs to be ironed i bought these as a nice dressier alternative to jeans on my trip to europe but didn t end up wearing them b c an iron wasn t readily available and the height of my ankle boots made the style look choppy best to wear these with shoes that don t come above ankle really like this blouse but am returning for a larger size much too tight in the upper arms and somewhat tight in the chest overall i like it i love all paige denim i have the flared which i purchased in july and now the skinny i got the zara ones last year which are a copy obviously and they are just not the same the ones last year the paige sierra sold out fast but luckily these are here i actually like these more because they are more worn looking you can even wear a pretty top underneath to enhance them the colors of this dress really caught my eye i was hesitant to try it in the store because they only had a size 4 and i m normally a size 6 when i tried it on i was pleasantly surprised that the dress fit around my hips success but like the other women that commented there was something funky going on in the midriff area the dress didn t accentuate my curves the stylist was available at the store i was at so she recommended that i belt it to add that extra umph the belt definitely di nice shirt seems well made good just not a great fit for me i loved the design and material of the test but unfortunately it just did not fit me right it was tight in the hips and did not have the relaxed look i was hoping for \r\nalso the pattern did not look good on me \r\nunfortunately i had to return i agree with the other reviewer that the green is brighter in person which was a happy mishap the 8p makes this look just like depicted on me in terms of proportion so beware that this borders on too long for petites my not small chest made me look pregnant but it fit well regardless adding a wide belt made this dress look amazing on me and shortens it to a more flattering length this is a miracle as is because i m very short waisted keeper i m glad they put up some pix of non models looking cute in this dress as it s taken a beating in the reviews i measure 34 a 27 35 and have no problems with the size s fit at all it s drapey but not voluminous with no pulling at the hips the folded detail up at the top does call attention to the shoulders but not in a bad way the pleated neckline is cute on a small chest and the red pattern palette is awesome love the length too i am 5 4 the size s hits me just above the knee i bought this in both the navy a more saturated blue in person gorgeous and green but both are going back it fit everywhere but in the upper arms even across my chest and i usually encounter the opposite i think it might just be the way it s cut across the shoulders that don t allow for much movement so while beautiful and so incredibly soft it has to go back if you have slender arms i think it would be a great fit i bought this dress to wear to work in my second trimester the shape is perfect to accommodate a baby bump while still flattering the top definitely recommend for any pregnant women trying to avoid true maternity clothes nan this shirt is so comfortable the fabric is amazingly soft and it is very well made i liked the top so well that i bought one in grey and one in blue and both in different sizes so that the smaller xs is a little closer fitting and the larger s is more blouse and casual i had originally purchased both in m which also looked fine just larger and even more roomy but exchanged for the smaller sizes this is a wonderful casual weekend top to pair with skinny jeans flats leather boots o this cute blouse runs a little bit small particularly for large busted ladies i found the silk fabric to be less luxurious and more utilitarian it s still a beautiful blouse due to sizing issues mine is going back i read other reviews that there was extra fabric in the stomach area and knew it d be perfect for me to wear to a wedding at 20 weeks pregnant and it was i got tons of compliments it accented my baby bump perfectly fitted but not too tight the pleats at the top create a nice shape for the bump very comfortable for an outdoor wedding my only complaint is that the armholes are rather tight after pregnancy i will try belting the dress this has been my go to top for cooler days so comfortable and soft i would say it runs tts with a little bit of a lose fit i am 5 10 36c and usually wear s and the s fit me well i could have gone down in size but liked this to be a bit loser to wear over skinny je ans and leggings so after ordering this dress and trying it on myself i was able to make sense of the previous reviews this dress is constructed very oddly the top seems to have no room for any hips it is a straight construct so if you are like me that has an hourglass shape but has a pair of hips i would size up i bought this in a 6p and in all colors first off the colors pat terns are amazing in person very adorable this fit my 34ddd bust without any problems and no pr oblems in torso either it was reall so i bought these in 31 my regular size in hei hei and t hey were huge so now i am not sure if i should go for a 30 or 29 i guess i will try the 30 t hey are really soft and very cute pants just the sizing is difficult nan this is one of my fav orite new retailer buys originally got the green for a family holiday party and went back for t he sapphire the cut and design are great for reference i m 5 3 115lbs and a 34a the light w eight fabric is perfect for so cal winter but the real winning feature s is the detail so so cute only complaint is it wrinkled fairly easily but i ll deal with that for a cute form fitti ng but not too fitting top the design is very cute i m glad i listened to reviews b c thi s blouse definitely runs at least 2 sizes small maybe 3 i bought the blue and it s more of a na vy blue instead of royal blue at the sale price and additional 40 off my daughter is an emplo yee i didn t mind paying 24 i want to love this dress the colors and pattern are gorgeous and i love the hemline but something seems off in the chest and shoulders area it almost feels a little slouch y these are very soft and fit well at first i was a bit put off on the stone w ash of the fabric each pair is different but it adds character and given the color and the sof t fabric it s a nice difference i love the pockets they are deep enough for anything you want to put into them i love good deep pockets and my cell fits nice into my back pocket take notic e makers of woman s pants there are some of us who like deep pockets \r\n\r\nonly one negativ e i have noticed hei hei is not sewing i was eyeing this one for a while based on the style and other reviews i did order one size up i think it would have been too small catch on the h ips in my regular size i do wish it was a little longer too the back is fine because it s lo nger it s definitely wearable though i wouldn t recommend it for a work function if you re a b it taller despite all of that i really do like dress it s a new favorite i ordered the blue love the dot pattern i wore it with brown booties and it this dress was built for my body to di sguise it s flaws i did have to size up because i am broad shouldered busty with a tummy pooc h and no hips this dress skims along all that mess and makes me look slimmer received the pack age today and am wearing it right now i m so happy i ordered size 10 my stats are 5 3 145 3 6dd the breast and arm area is too tight best to size up two sizes the blouse runs too small overall the color is a darker blue than pictures in the photo it s a pretty blouse and great quality i purchased this blouse in the kelly green the other day and i love it the color is be autiful and i like how it hangs flows especially the sleeves it s not warm enough to wear by i tself when it s really cold but would be beautiful layered with a cardigan in the winter months and by its own when it s warmer looks great with skinny jeans flares and just about anything i ncluding the right skirt i m so happy i purchased this i am 135 and went with a size zero it was very cute on but a little tight on my hips when sitting the fabric is beautiful and very s oft and silky the length was great comes to just barely above my knees and is long in the back great work outfit i ordered the red motif online in my current size 10 the fabric is so beauti ful even prettier than the online photo the fit is not great on me it made me look wider at m y chest area and almost catches at my hips i m sure shapewear would take care of this the dre ss looks really good with a jacket or vest but just weird by itself i agree with the other revi ewer who said it was a little short i m 5 9 it looks good standing up but is very short when i sit there s no real stretch to the i really like this top bought it in purple but i would not call it that it is more maroon or burgundy color is exactly what it shows in the online ph oto really like the green also crocheted arms are super i found it ran slightly small so if you are between sizes order up one slight personal problem for me is that there is cashmere in it and i live in florida even though we do get cooler weather here i am not sure i will have t hat much chance to wear it it will be too warm for me t i absolutely love this sweater very c omfortable and flattering i m thinking of buying it in another color i tried on the red xs in the store and the v neck was way too low showed at least an inch of my bra strap in the back which was unfortunate because i really loved the dress otherwise i decided to purchase the xxs online hoping the v would not be so deep and would cover my bra it did but the xxs was signifi cantly smaller it still fit but took this from an elegantly flowy and loose dress to one that looked more empire cut and tight in the chest maybe the xs i tried in the store was just st i l ove this top it is easy to wear fun and very comfortable i was thinking about it for weeks and kept coming back to it after i read a review about going up a size i decided to go for it and i am very happy i did my new favorite i got the orange dress and find it super comfortable a nd flattering i dress it up with a one inch taupe belt and taupe wedge shoes it moves beautifu lly i can wear a regular bra and it doesn t show i got an xs regular and the hemline hits 6 a bove my ankles i m 5 3   33 26 35 and normally take a size 2 or 0 i m long waisted so often a petite will be short waisted on me the seam actually comes just below the bust line on me un like on the model on days when i m a bit bloated i can wear i am petite and curvy and was appr ehensive about the cropped length of this jumpsuit however the petite looks great and the leng th is perfect it is light enough weight to keep you cool during the day but provides some cover age for cool evenings i ordered the xs petite and it was still a little loose i am 5 3 and 12 5lbs this will be my go to for fall looks great styled with ankle boots or clogs and will carr y me into fall with a chunky sweater i promised myself only one pair of joggers this year and these were the ones i went with in the blue motif   for me the tipping point was the quality an d fit of these were far superior than the others i tried while still being machine washable th e fabric has aa little substance yet is still lightweight and comfortable the fit has a perfec t bit of tailoring tapering to be ultra flattering while having the comfort of pajama pants the blue motif is adorable too   love the geometric shapes l i can t believe i waited so long to ge t this it is truly soft and well fitted the deails in the sleeves and neck are just great kud dos again angel of the north i bought these in both colors i m usually an xs or a small and i went with the small for the length they are a comfy shirt great for the hot summer days this i s super cute i bought it in the gray and white lace in a size s and it s quite roomy i probabl y could have sized down to an xs but i like the relaxed look there are a few edges of lace tha t are not sewn down all the way and i will have to fix them as i can see them start to pull away and eventually unravel but otherwise it s a beautiful and unique top this dress is so cute and comfortable it can be dressed up or down super versatile love it love this top has a beauti ful shape and it wasn t too long on my 5 3 frame puella always makes items with lovely soft cotton and this is no exception awesome piece for summer i ordered this tank and was very pl eased with the quality each of the stripe colors has a different knit adding an unusual and in teresting look it has a trim fit i wear s and sometimes xs but this fit perfectly in the s i agree with the other reviewers that that armholes are the correct size so nice not to worry abo ut a bra showing in the armholes i purchased these pants in blue they fit great   only problem is that one leg is about 1 2 inch longer than the other i got them on sale with a discount so i will keep them and take them to a tailor to fix bummer beautifully constructed tank but the b odice isn t fitted and hangs straight down on me perhaps better for a full figured individual i m 5 8   34b 120lbs and the xs had no shape on sides   could ve been longer too size of armh oles is perfect though often they gap show bra   love adds texture and femininity to a basic s weater ordered a small so i could layer if you re busty or between a s and m you may want to size up i love this jumpsuit i m 5 3 122 lbs and the x s was to big on me i had to return an d order the x s in petite and the fit was perfect you can wear it with heels or with slides i wore it with a thick brown wide belt and some tan open toe shoes i wore gold earrings and neckl ace i got some many compliments and my girl friends asked where i had purchased it and if pur se i told them retailer   i think this is adorable and am so excited to have bought it it is re ally flattering i love how it hangs   it s loose enough without being unflattering at all it s a little retro it feels really soft i hope it holds up well \r\ni m 5 1 and and 103 i got an xs and it fits perfectly lovely dress   i amp amp 39 m wearing it with a blue denim jacket and brown suede boots   it is most certainly purple   a little more so than the picture   still love it beautiful white denim pants the fit is perfect fitted on the top with a nice flare on the bottom very classy and versatile cut paige denim runs long for me and these are no exception will be getting them hemmed but i don t mind because they are perfect nan i love this shirt lo ve love love it i am a curvy girl and it accents all the right features and hides the ones that need to be hidden \nbut i ve owned it for 6 months and there are already 4 holes in the shirt a nd not holes in the fabric but holes on the seam lines the stitching is not sturdy enough for t he shirt to not fall apart the whole point is to be able to wear it but now i have to bust out my sewing machine to reinforce the seams that split so that i can wear it again   really enjoy this pullover s arm detail i got the purple which was somewhere between aubergine and garnet i think this will easily go with black pants to wear to work or a fun skirt jeans i had eyed th is simple yet stylish dress for awhile but hadn t tried it on yet i managed to snag the orange version during the tag sale   40 for maeve   it is super flattering and will be a wardrobe stap le for years purchased these in the blue motif love the hei hei brand   they run true to size they are very comfortable and wear well you can wear them to the office dress them up or go cas ual with a tee versatility and comfort what more could you ask for purchased these in the blu e motif love the hei hei silky pull on pants i got hooked on them last summer and was thrilled to see them for the upcoming spring they run true to size they are beyond comfortable and wear well everyone should have at least one pair of these comfy pants in their closet dress them up down or wear them to the office versatility and comfort what more could you ask for pros \r\n fits tts i tried on a size m and it fit well for my 36c and hourglass frame \r\n the cowl neck gives it a nice touch of class \r\n love the pop of yellow not too showy and yet cute and fun \r\n fabric has a great feel and stretch to it forgiving fit \r\n will go with many outfits \r\n wore a nude bra and had no see through issues \r\n \r\ncons \r\n does seem a tad delicate easy to snag due to being a knit but otherwise solid construction \r\n unlined \r\n \r\nrea i love this sweatshirt i truly did not pay much attention to it on line but while in my local store one was returned and it caught my eye immediately as the flowers are embroidered in a nice substantial rope type yarn to give it a more demential effect the torn holes here and there give the appearance of being the most loved garment in your closet and it has become mine along with the jacket with the same embroidery funny how 2 pieces i did not give a second thought about have become my li nan nan i ordered this online in red i would definitely say this color is more of an orange red i like the weight and the cut i keep wishin g the material was a soft modal vs what it is the ribbing up top does not bother me but it defi nitely does make it a casual dress which is what i wanted so i m happy with it \r\n\r\nit fit s me nicely the straps for me could be a hare shorter to fit perfectly that being said i m 5 5 and have a thin build small bust i would say there is a some leeway for 1 s i was immedia tely drawn to the ochre yellow color of this dress and it s stitch and pleat details and was hap py to score it early enough in the season still in my size and preferred color option unlike ot her reviewers i was not turned off by the ribbing at the neck and arm lines i received the dre ss yesterday am wearing it today and have already received compliments from even the most sour faced co workers who can t give a compliment or share casual conversation in the hallway the su nny ye just bought this today and i love it so simple and at the same time it s not the fabri c makes it casual to dress up or down but the shape of it is incredible and what takes it above simple the straps felt a little long so i will likely get it altered to be shortened in the st raps got the red and it s gorgeous really like the cut it s tough for petites to find good j oggers and these hit the mark light easy comfy great with heels for work or sandals on the weekend absolutely love this sweater it is a tad bit large i bought it in a medium but becaus e i like the loose fit i will keep it it is very light and great for the summer i ve only worn it once so far and received many compliments on it great quality as well this top is very nice very pretty i thought the design on the top is more shiny but it is embroidery like threads it looks quite nice but is very very short like a crop top it came just down to the top of my tum my i wish it were longer i would have kept it but it is a nice top flattering for curvy figu res i love these i adore tracy reese and these are my favorites they feel like pjs fit true to size and are just perfect for work i m a teacher or for going casual very lightweight and not too hot for texas summers first things first these are not black and white as the photos s uggest they are beige and black which was a disappointment when they arrived i can still wear white shirts with them but had they actually been b w i think they d be more versatile in term s of possible shirt colors that said they are well made and the waistband and pocket detailin g is nicely done i love loose fitting rayon pants and these are just that mine fit a little lo oser than the model s fit i ordered a small and these were not tts imo i am a 10 and ordered the m they did not look bad but b c these have no stretch they were not comfy like joggers a re supposed to be i ordered the lg when they went on sale and while they are baggy the comfort is spot on in the larger size i got the navy after seeing the irl pics happy with this sale pu rchase the neckline is beautiful it s super soft and comfy sadly my normal large looked ver y boxy i am hoping the medium will fit better i love the muted coloring this top is generousl y sized i have a small bust and it is roomy under the arms i wish it was less full around the waist area these truly are tights and not leggings they could not be worn alone but definitely great under skirts or dresses they are thick and warm i thought they ran a little big i love this top it fits perfect and is of great quality i ordered the pink and love it so much i m ge tting the navy one colors are so trendy as well this top is so much cuter in person hard to t ell the detail online definitely recommend to others the picture of this top is misleading it s more like a tent super short dress i ordered my usual size l and could easily get away wit h a small in this top if the arm holes were not too tight i def need to go down to a medium and maybe even a petite medium since i m 5 3 the top is 100 cotton but there is so much fabri c there is no way a little shrinkage would offset the amount of extra fabric it looks like a te nt on plus the picture and description make it seem like a normal top le i saw this dress in a store the other day it is so cute in real life i don t think the pictures online even begin to show how cute it is on the dress is well made and it fit perfectly in fact it is quite flatte ring i am so happy i saw it in the store even though i am big online shopper i would have pass ed on this dress if i only saw it online but don t because it is worth every penny fit is just like stet in my opinion i had been on a white jeans hunt for some time pilcro is one of my fav orite brands and i can buy online with confidence knowing they will fit if petite had been ava ilable that would have been better in length but it was not so i had them hemmed i have been stalking these pants since they first showed up on retailer s site i have never even tried on a nything like this before though so have been waiting patiently for a review to get an idea of w hat they might look like fit like etc sale plus 30 off was incentive to take the plunge with out a review though i am wearing them right now and they are so comfortable and pretty and just everything summer perfect i am not a shorts person generally wear skirts and dresses th ese are i cannot speak more highly of these jeans i am a standard size 2 5 3 and have never b een able to purchase a pair of jeans and wear them right away i always have to hem them by ma ssive amounts these jeans are so flattering the wash is amazing i have worn them with cute ba llet flats and tall boots so far but i think the possibilities are endless i am petite but in a curvy way and i haven t felt these great in a pair of jeans in so long the wash is great for dress up dress down i have i love the details and design of this top my only issue is the top is a bit too flowy seen it online so i ordered it is so cute great fit patchwork is so pretty very vintage looking runs large would be cute with some skinny jeans and some booties this dress is much cuter in person than it looks on the model online it s so flattering it fits like a dr eam and i love the fabric i love that the skirt is a true a line not poofy so it s sleek sl imming and flattering the neckline is feminine and gorgeous and is a bit sexy while still bein g classy oh and the length perfection not too long not too short i never ever pay full pri ce and for this dress i had to i am a curvy size 4 and it fits perfectly true to size i couldn t be hap saw this in the store but didn t have my size ordered online wore it twice already an d got so many compliments very current and flattering i got the blue and love the color it s bigger than it looks here almost like the model has it pinned in the back but it s swingy and super cute and fun this is a super cute top that is a fit and flare design i think the stylis ts wanted it to look more straight hence the odd model shots but this definitely has a flare to it it also has pockets it feels a bit artsy to me which isn t normally my style but the pink and white is just very feminine and pretty i would say it probably runs a little large because of the style but i have larger arms so the arms were a bit snug in my normal size but i didn t want to go up in size as the rest fit nan i loved this dress when i tried it on the plaid is darling and the plunge is sexy i so wish it would work for my body type the waist came a bit t oo high on me almost a line and it made me look kind of frumpy in the midline this elegant wi th a slight edge top has a lovely neckline and is very comfortable i chose the denim blue versi on which i wouldn t wear with jeans but it s great with crops i imagine it will be a good lay ering piece in the fall it s long but not long enough to be a dress overall it s flattering and slightly structured up top with tiny buttons at the back of the neck generous and full below the stylist at my local retailer recommended i try this dress and it did not disappoint the ma terial is fabulous and it looks exactly as pictured on the model it also has pockets which is a bonus to me i normally wear a 4 but bought a 6 in this dress i am a 34c and i felt the 4 w as a little tight across the chest otherwise i feel the dress is pretty much true to size the bra is comfortable and the design is good however the sizing is way off i am a 34c and the sm all fits well with minimal support not sure about quality this one might have to go back re ally gorgeous dress great fabric weight great color style runs one size small i ordered m y regular 6 but had to return hope the 8 works nan these are more than what i had expected they re beautiful and fit like a glove i m thrilled that i purchased them i paired this top wi th pants and cardi from retailer and have really enjoyed wearing this outfit i usually wear a l arge but due to how much material there is and how flowy it is i sized down to a m and it fits p erfectly only down side is getting the buttons buttoned behind your neck wide fit usually an 8 10 at retailer got a large for online order and was large for sure great for summer or wint er with long sleeve and tights the color is great a nice alternative to all my black tights go od quality i bought this in blue and have worn it with jeans khaki shorts and camo pedal push ers added just a perfect amount of feminine detail without being over the top i m loving that it shows off my shoulders they re tan from my vacation and i ve been working like a fiend on my arms in the gym it s well made too i live abroad where there is no retailer so i rely heavi ly on reviews i took the advice from others and ordered a size up glad i did because the top p ortion of the dress runs very small if you have larger breasts this dress may not work for you luckily for me it fits wonderfully i love the fabric and the fact that it has pockets it s li ned but not too bulky its a lovely summer halter where you can show a little skin this looks r eally cute online i was super excited to get it and i ordered my regular size in maeve i got a size 0 i am 5 4 114 the top is very pretty and the fabric is nice but it is very short it didn t even cover my stomach and didn t come to the top of my jeans i m sending it back maeve usually runs big but you can t tell from the photo and the size chart that it s more of a crop t op disappointing since almost every size is sold out this is really a gorgeous blouse the des ign is very feminine and elegant and fits true to size i didn t think it ran short and the mat erial is light and airy it sold out so quickly so i had to wait awhile and managed to get my ha nds on a 4 when it was available for a quick second it was def worth the wait a gorgeous top i needed a summer party dress for a few casual special occasions this summer and this dress fit the bill perfectly fits tts 5 8 160lb sz 8 and is really flattering it is quite open in the front but i was able to keep everything situated w the right bra purchased it on sale and am so pleased these white jeans are super cute the longer length is perfect for tall ladies wh o can still roll them up you can also adjust the height of the cuff since it is not pre attache d to the jeans i will wear them all the time i get compliments on this top every single time i wear it the pattern is so pretty and while it s very lightweight it still drapes nicely i wo uld caution that someone with a larger chest may find that the shape is not quite right i am a 34d and just on the cusp of having it be too balloon y on top nan the prints are subtle the fa bric is soft and the mismatched buttons are cute unfortunately even in an xs it was huge all over i love flowy shirts and swing styles but this just stuck way out from my body and was unf lattering super cute got a marilyn vibe that i like although i can tie the halter to make the chest area tighter i will have to get a tailor to adjust the chest area and under the arms a bi t this is just the cutest dress on i love the way the plaid comes together in the seams and th e fullness of the skirt i almost didn t order it but then i left something in my cart too long and it was gone this was my next choice i haven t had the chance to wear it yet but the wrink les pressed out beautifully and it is hanging in my closet waiting for an event i will wear it without a bra since even with my strapless the bra shows in the front i think if you want to w ear a bra it would be the color is great the fit is accurate and it is a great transitional pie ce this top is perfect i am small chested and it actually makes me look like i have a chest plus for me it s also great for work and casual beautiful top the silk was good quality not thin ordered a 6 because it was selling out so quickly wished i could have ordered the 4 will definitely try if they come back in stock this tank is great goes well with black pants of sk irt it s a nice texture that doesn t show too many wrinkles so will travel well it s a bit har d to get the buttons done in the back of the neck but i assume that will get easier with time i usually wear a medium but in this top probably could have pulled off a small however i was afr aid the neck would be too tight was considering the small because the arm holes were a bit bag gier than i would like no issue with my bra showing though i wasn t able to try on the small to test my theory since i purchased online overall i love the color blue the fabric is comf ortable definitely loose but i m okay with that on a hot sunny day love this dress but wish th e lining was full length will be removing this liner and using a different slip underneath an other lovely billowy top i tried on the xsp and the bottom was just huge and i have a huge bo ttom haha it flowed out so far in the back that it looked silly it s too bad because from t he waist up it looks great cutest dress i own very flattering makes your waist look tiny i am keeping these because the style is just cute as a button the button details on the ankle are so adorable i would normally wear a size small but like the other reviews said they run sma ll i purchased the ml and they fit great i wore them all day to work and they are slightly it chy and during the day they would fall down and i would have to keep pulling them up reminde d me of when i was a little girl and my mom made me wear tights however they are too cute to not have i will love the luxury feel so soft perfect for day out i m 5 6 and the fit is just right not too long or short dalls right at the shoulders too i purchased this dress in blue a nd paired it with the seychelles forward platform wedges in cognac the fit is amazing the leng th is great i m 5 5 and it hits me a couple inches above the knee and it is a great spring s taple my only issue with this dress is that is wrinkles so easily easily fixed with a quick st eam or low iron this bra is so soft and comfortable i feel like i m not wearing a bra at all e xcept i have the gentle support i need the material is very thin and the pink color is see thro ugh so not recommended under a white or see through shirt perfect for sleeping or lounging in so i really like the plaid designs by siyu i saw these pants and questioned whether they would be tight and scratchy and ill fitting but they were so cute i had to find out i m really glad i did the wool is soft and actually a little stretchy it has an elastic waist which is a plus because sometimes even if the legs fit the waist is too small or vice versa i am a large an d very curvy on the bottom and these are perfect and flattering and the elastic waist is just right as on the these pants are so fun i use them to sleep in as they are see through i had t o size up as the waist band gave me muffin top i normally wear a small and ended up getting the large i loved this dress immediately it is soft to the touch and super comfortable i will be wearing this so much this summer the arms are true to size and the body is flowy and roomy but it is still flattering highly recommend this top is truly adorable it runs a little shorter s o better with higher waisted pants the bow is nice it did come with the folded pleats showing we ll see if they come out when i iron i ordered 0 and am 5 1 5 and 115 lbs the top is struct ured and zips all the way in the back these are very fun and breezy pants i first ordered a me dium but the waist was too low i exchanged for a large and i love the fit now i like them loo se and airy for reference i am usually a 10 12 petite and the l regular is super cute 0 i hop e they wash well they are perfect for the hot and humid northern va summer versatile and comfy can be worn with shirts underneath for multi seasonal wear i love the relaxed flattering fit of these pants but the navy die runs a lot the first time i washed them t did so per instructions on the label i did my next load of laundry and everything turned blue grey i tried washing th em again with vinegar to set the color and hopefully that will help lots of color running still though so to be safe wash and then run washer with nothing in it to clean it before doing more laundry i m keeping them because i like the pants but wanted to let you kno love the material and how the back is longer than the front adds style great purchase true to size so flatteri ng love it simplicity buy it if you enjoy compliments i agree with another reviewer who said to get these while you can the fish print is adorable and you can t beat the style and uniquen ess for this price i am 5 6 145 lbs with long legs and a thicker waist normally wear size 8 in pants and purchased these in size small i would definitely recommend sizing down the medium s fit me ok but the small was more flattering overall while still being roomy and having lots of flow can t wait to wear these love this product got them in the coral and they are comfortab le easy flattering versatile \r\ndressed up or down they always look good they hang beauti fully and their ease comfort make them my go to staple in this southern heat i admit i have a soft spot for a most anything from maeve this dress is no exception i had overlooked it onli ne due to the white shirt they show with it online but the material design tex are great the colors are very me and i can see this being a great fall winter and early spring dress the mat erial is very soft i have sensitive skin and i love the little pop of color that the front pi ece adds the only draw back for me is the lack of pockets and it runs big i got this on sale s o siz great style and cut love the deep v the fabric is soft and its very comfortable it give s some support i don t wear it with light blouses or shirts unless i m hanging around the hous e i have this is pink and black this dress is perfection and i bought the blue one please mak e this in black or other dark colors this sweater is beautiful \r\nthe lace is gorgeous and the sweater is soft and cozy rare to find a top that is stunning and comfortable at the same tim e \r\nthe lace is very high quality and enhances the sweater in a very sophisticated way ad ding that little something special \r\nthe color keeps the overall look elegant and appropriate for any age \r\nruns true to size so comfortable i wore it during my last airline travel day and a complete stranger complimented me on it i love this jess i got it in the blue gray color and i think it s going to be great for spring and will work into summer as well cloth and stone is always one of my favorite brands and this dress is so soft i m thinking that i m going to be lt it to give it some more shape but i like how it looks unbelted as well this shirt dress will make a great piece for the summer to throw on the length is perfect for either a dress or throw on some tights as a shirt i bought the beige color one and it s a little see through would def need to wear a slip on \r\n\r\ni am 5 8 120 pounds and the xs fit perfectly i saw this dress in the retailer store and fell in love with it tried it on and even though i was wearing jeans an d desert boots the dress looked terrific it s great can obviously be dressed up or down a wo nderful addition to my wardrobe thanks retailer since these are high waist pants i think the size given is more for a lower waist measurement where most pants these days typically sit i m 5 10 150 lbs and ordered a size 31 but it was much too large i love the style of these pants a lot they look great if you have long legs the size 31 ran about 5 above my ankle higher th an is shown in the photos but it looks great this sweater is very comfortable and soft unlike other reviewer i did not find the lace to be itchy i m 5 4 usually size 6 decided to order medium to give it a nice and relaxing feel this way i find it to be not too short nor fitted i t s easy and relaxing but the lace makes it a little more dressy not sure how it s going to han dle the wash i bought this in a medium at the store usually a size 8 10 and bought one for m y daughter who was with me in the coral color she s 7 months pregnant and bought her a smal l it fits fine below the belly she loves how comfy it is my other daughter saw them and i ha d to buy her a pair as well so we were hanging out at the hotel on a girls weekend and wor e them at the pool and even to sleep in i think you can actually dress it up and wear it out an d about as well i did see that a i ordered these in the pinkish color and i love them i m 5 8 140 lbs and the size small fits perfectly they are definitely sheer but they re advertised as a cover up so that was expected these will be super cute paired with a bathing suit top bikin i bandeau or even tankini the price is great especially for the type of pant and detailing w ith the pom poms no pockets is the only negative i get more compliments on the stress it is p erfect for work perfect for summer night concert perfect date night love this dress loved th ese beach pants i purchased the size medium in the coral i loved the accents on the ties and t he little pom pom details i did get many compliments on them the only thing i don t love about them is the material is very thin i know they are beach pants but i personally would have liked slightly more weight to them i wore them once with a pair of cropped leggings underneath and i thought it was a very cute way to wear them with some additional substance underneath i tried t his on in the store but almost didn t because i thought it would look like a sack the dress lo oks so good it fits nicely in the shoulders which gives structure and then the rest of the dres s is roomy but no so much it looks stupid im 5 5 and it hit above my knees by an inch or two these are adorable pants i ordered them in both colors because i couldn t decide which was cu ter they are light and airy but not see through they will be perfect to use as a swim coverup pajamas dress them up anything very comfortable and versatile i am a size 8 and ordered a me dium and they fit perfect the elastic doesn t pinch but probably would have if i would have we nt with a small super soft light fabric this dress is perfect for work or the weekends this brand is new to me but i ll definitely be checking out their stuff more in the future it s navy and red the photo looked black to me so i couldn t use with black skirt that i had planned to pair it with but it s cute with jeans and maybe white shorts next summer the front gapes open when you sit down so i ll either have to pin it or sew a snap there unless i want the world to see my bra also a little short waited for me i m 5 11 so i wish the wrap hit a little lower but not enough that i didn t keep it it is flattering blouse the shoulder ties add a little ex tra flair love the soft fabric and easy fit of this dress i m pleased that it does give a hint of one s figure and doesn t just hang like a sack i found the blue to be most flattering and wa s playing with styling at home and found that the wider retailer tabby leather belt gave it a whole new look so cute great for over a swim suit or walking around town got these on sale x xs fit perfectly fabric is very soft pom poms add fun styling i went into the store to buy th is in white after seeing it on the website i ended up with the blue gray color the white was c ompletely see thru could have worked as a swim cover but not at this price for me the blue on the other hand is fine the fabric is soft and hangs nicely you can definitely dress it up with some booties and a belt or keep it laid back with flip flops i m sure i ll wear this a bunch t his summer the color is versatile enough that i will pair with leggings and boots the dress has some cute features the little belt motif hits too high on me and the drop waist is a little awk ward but it is comfortable and looks best with some kind of shirt worn underneath i looooove th ese the styling makes me wonder if i could even wear them to work on casual fridays with the ri ght top they are so great i am a little concerned about how they will hold up over time since s ome of the stitching looks a little shoddy but they are still worth it at this price i am goin g to order another pair just in case they don t hold up i love them that much cute top not su re about the tassels at the sleeves very flattering in the waist area this product is the best if not the most excellent garment i have purchased in years i feel like a model even though i am full body lady what gorgeous piece of clothing these are very comfy and can be worn casual or dr essed up love the pom poms i m still on the fence about these i realize they got great review s but i thought they would be a bit thicker they just feel too flimsy and too much like i m rea dy for bed i was looking for more lounge pants that i felt like if i needed to run up to the st eels great and it s a super cute print the only downside is that the rise is really long and h igh i wish they d stocked more petities because the petites are all sold out and only the sup er long regulars are left at this time if you are above 5 7 they ll be awesome on you if you are below 5 4 you may be getting them altered i m a maeve fan and i really like the design f abric and details of this dress unfortunately the skirt flares out too much and ends in an odd area on my legs i m not sure why the silhouette doesn t drape on me as it does on the model it s like a cut off a line flare have to agree that this dress runs large i usually wear a m ord ered the s and it s still too big these are not only comfortable but so cute they are somethi ng you don t see on everyone else and people always comment i get so many compliments or inqui ries every time i have them on the materiel is lightweight and flowing i love these casual be autiful beach pants i got a small my usual size and they fit great 5 3 130 lb s i wear te e shirts bathing tops coobies any kind of top looks swell get them while you can i got the peach and black color i just got this dress in the beige color and i absolutely love it the fi t is perfect and i feel that it is just the right length i got a small and i am 5 9 the pock ets are a great touch and really are the key for tunic style dresses for me i love the soft mat erial and could live in this dress such a great staple for my closet i buy everything that ret ailer sells in chambray this top did not disappoint it is so comfortable and the back the way it is slightly lower than normal is very sexy without being revealing the straps fall off of yo ur shoulders a bit but i do not find it annoying i am not big busted so i didn t have the sizin g issue that others seemed to have this is a very flattering top and the details are spectacula r it is very comfortable to wear and the the appliquã s and embroidery make this very slimming as the other reviews noted the side slits go up quite high i won t be raising my arms much wear ing this the small rhinestones in the center of the black flowers go around the entire sleeve a nd they catch on the rest of the shirt sometimes i have to be aware of it and more careful not to make very fast movements until i m sure i m not tangl this was an impulse purchase for me a year ago i would have never considered a jumpsuit but they are growing on me i had yet to find one that fit without too much need for tailoring this one did the trick i like that the cut is in such a way that you can wear a normal bra underneath it without it showing the fabric itself is very lightweight so i would recommend a bra for some support i like that the fabric is incre dibly lightweight so you can wear it on a hot summer day the jumpsuit is l this is not your bas ic white tee the ruffle and seam down the front add visual interest cute alone or paired with a sweater and statement necklace nan i got this vest on sale in the navy color and love it the quality of the fabric is great and the draped design of it is so chic really adds a stylish tou ch to almost any outfit i was looking for a dressy shirt i could wear more than a few times i have a reunion tomorrow that i wanted to wear this to i went into a store and saw this i immed iately thought this was the perfect shirt i saw the price tag and decided not to get it i loo ked several other places and i kept coming back to this shirt i think if it wasn t displayed in the store i wouldn t have wanted it so much it is so much more beautiful in real life the pho to doesn t do it justice i ended up orderin this vest is much silkier than the pictures online show which was a great surprise the cut of this vest is beautiful and it can be worn so many w ays this shirt is amazing the soft fabric detailed embroidery and gorgeous little beads sequ ins all fabulous quality and make this piece worth the price i love the length and cut of this too not boxy yet not too tight or fitted just covers my bum can be dressed up or down this vest is awesome it can take any dress outfit and instantly make it more fancy and formal the w ay it drapes is very forgiving and the back bow can be modified and switched out for different c olors depending on outfit color i hope you can get this top this is a great classic that will be in my closet for a long time this top is beautifully detailed it is flattering and i am ve ry happy with my purchase i picked this up at my nearest retailer this afternoon after placing my order a few days ago i purchased the off white version in size small i actually tried this on in the dressing room to make sure i was satisfied with the product when i came out i asked the retailer customer service rep if she could cut the tag off so that i could wear it out today she not only helped me out but also commented on how much she liked this sweater while also wond ering why she hasn t seen it in store i informed i found this jumpsuit at my local retailer it must have been a web order return i love it the fit is true size the colors are perfect it s ver y comfortable and gorgeous on and at the sale price i could not pass it up this dress is really stunning can be dressed up or down with a jean jacket really easily runs quite a bit small in the bust i ordered a 16 to accommodate but it is really very pretty i love this brand they a lways have such lovely pieces i m a big fan of left of center as a brand and this top is defin itely a winner the deep green is gorgeous and looks fantastic with denim the shirt is true to size and is flatteringly loose without looking too tent like highly recommend this dress is go rgeous i absolutely love the embroidery a note about the sizing while the top portion fits sn ugly the hip section runs slightly big i was surprised to find that the 4 i ordered looked bag gy so i went into the store to try a 2 but the 0 was the best fit however i m small chested and 5 6 113lbs so i was able to go with the 0 as it fit the hips much better if you re a bus tier type though the top may be tight other than the tricky sizing it s perfect i bought thi s vest to add more versatility to my wardrobe i love it i got it in navy and since it is one color it goes with a lot of different things tanks long sleeves short sleeves pants skirts etc i like the bow in the back and the vest makes a plain outfit look much more elegant and exc iting the vest itself is a little longer than i would have liked makes me feel like a sexy ice skater true to size i am 5 0 and 120 lb and both the small and medium fit i kept the medium love it this top is so beautiful looks even better in person i was hesitant because of the pr ice but i am so happy i bit the bullet and ordered i am a 36c and the bust is slightly snug i love the design of this blouse lots of pretty details the slits on the side are high but with a tank underneath it s perfect love the length of the sleeves and the modest flattering neckl ine the only problems so far are that the rhinestones are prone to falling out and snagging oth er parts of the top so you have to be careful with movements and you can t wear a sweater with it because the rhinestones would snag it a lot even if it loses the rhinestones it s still a b ts do come up a bit far on the sides like another reviewer noted but not really enough to be a p roblem i didn t find it necessary to get the petite size in this top i was going to wait until further markdown since the top is still pricey even with a 20 discount but couldn t resist like other reviewers when i saw this top in person i was struck by it i would never have even looke d twice at it online i hardly ever buy things at full price from retailer but i treated myself to this one the only thing i d disagree with is that it runs true to size at my store there w as only 1 left in a size 10 i m usually a 4 6 but i figured i d try it on since the style is loose anyway and the 10 fit very nicely i did try a 6 in another store and found the slits cam e too high and th the top is just as shown in the picture and it is tts lots of detailing with beads and lace i m 5 1 92lbs and purchased a petite 00 just as the other reviewers noted the side slits do come high high waisted jeans or leggings works perfectly absolutely gorgeous top i have purchased so many retailer tops and this is the 1st review i have ever written this top is just that deserving for a review stunning in so many ways i am 5 2 118 lbs and purchased a size 4 fits perfectly maybe runs a tad small can not wait to wear i have looked at this dr ess a dozen times online and passed after reading other reviews felt compelled to see why every one is in love with this dress when i opened the box i was blown away this dress is so beautif ul and the crystals which look like sequence online are high quality as is the fabric and craf tsmanship \r\na perfect 10 \r\nyou must have this dress in your closet \r\norde red my usual size and fits perfect i loved the look of this tunic it is made well and very pre tty it was so big and heavy i had to return it i think the small in this would be too big thi s sweater is very pretty i had my concerns being that i don t normally pay 300 00 for a sweate r but i found the material to be extremely high quality and the details really make it a beautif ul piece i literally got a little tired of people telling me all day how pretty it was this is definitely a piece of clothing i will cherish for years to come i saw this vest the week it cam e in the store i was hesitant thinking what do i have to go with this i left the store and had to go back and purchase it i m so happy i did it really does go well simple tops dressy o r casual it is also perfect for the winter white trend happening this year this skirt is am azing it has the right amount of sparkle and the right amount of shape i bought this in a size six which i can really switch between 6 and 8 depending but the six fits perfectly i also bough t the regular length even though i could probably be considered petite but it ended up being per fect but the skirt is so lovely in person and has just enough wow that you can wear this thing with a simple tee and still look amazing i wore this to a party with a black high neck tank and re this dress is unusual it can be dressed up with wedges and dressed down with cool sneakers if you have any under arm excess fat it will show but you can hide it with a cropped cardigan i am 5 1 105 pounds lean athletic frame with a 32b bust and it fit well and snug i bought an xxs i am relatively lean under the under arm but this dress does show any flaw in this area and it does not look good minus point super cute and made well i wear it with a cardigan even th ough this is an online exclusive i was able to try on a one off in the store i have been looki ng for a cross front dress and the other option currently at retailer the black and white strip ed top version in a similar length looked awkward this dress looks great on but i needed the xs i usually wear a 2 it was cute and i came online to see if the xs was available but it is s old out the dress would be perfect if it had pockets pictures do not do justice to this beauti ful piece of art the embroidery and jewel detail is exquisite just don t plan on holding any k ids or pets you won t want to snag it or them i had been to the retailer store several times i n hopes in finding the perfect top for my upcoming reunion as soon as i saw this i knew it was perfect for the occasion i m sure i ll get a lot of use out of this top as you can dress it up or down the details and colors are exquisite stop hesitating and get this dress i saw this top online but i didn t fall in love with it until i tried it on in the store the retailer salespe rson told me that she owned this top and that she always received many compliments when wearing it but she also warned me that the rhinestones on the sleeves were a problem as they kept getti ng snagged in the fabric on the body i decided to purchase the top in the end because it is so beautiful and one of a kind but i ended up removing all of the rhinestones on the sleeves and i haven comfortable flattering one step up in formality from jammies what more could you want my daughter tried on this shirt in new york loved it so i ordered it for her for christmas1 i am thrilled she will be thrilled love my purchase very intricate detail with stitching lov e the contrast of black on cream has slits on each side bought it for holiday parties just wh at i had hoped it would be just you know in front of my mirror and around the house i bought this piece because i found it to be a bit funky so you can wear it with jeans for a night out yet with classic elements so it could be worn to work with a skirt also i live in florida whe re it is hot hot hot but i still like to layer my look it has an excellent weight to it withou t being to heavy so it flows well and can be worn even on the warm days instead of a suit jacke t \r\n\r\ni am usually between a small and mediu such a gorgeous top the detail and fit are am azing however after wearing the top for about 8 hours 7 of the center rinestones fell off th e beads on the sleeves also snagged the embroidery where the sleeve touches the body but i lov e the top so much i exchanged it for another and hoping i have better luck with quality this ti me around absolutely adore this dress and plan onwearing it to a wedding it is so well made an s even on sale i was so excited to receive this in the mail it fits true to size and is extre mely flattering so glad that i made this purchase i love the weight and drape of this vest it adds a finished touch to even the simplest t shirts i plan on wearing it into the cooler months of fall however it runs a week bit small across the bust i normally wear a medium at retailer but large would have been a better fit sadly the large vest in the dark blue was sold out weat her changes during a day to extremes in nela lightweight cardigan for when little is needed tha t s pretty and practical if you take a close look at photo you will see the weave is open so c ould snag nothing hidden it is what it is pretty lacy feminine i give this sweater a five s tar review i am always thrilled to be able to add a cardigan or caccoon sweater that is a color that is different than black or white this pairs beautifully with so many of the shells and slee veless shirts that i have from retailer yes this sweater is extremely delicate it didn t pull a t all while i was trying it on this will be a great transition sweater i received this top by mail yesterday and opened it this morning all i can say is wow it s gorgeous the detailing is stunning classic retailer amazing a true standout piece can t wait to wear i ordered size me dium the fit is true to size the color and pattern work beautifully with the delicate yarns an d design of this sweater as other reviewers have stated it is very thin and lightweight in my opinion it serves more as an accessory rather than it being functional as a cardigan worn for w armth when i tried it on i considered whether it would provide any warmth at all summertime air conditioning etc the answer is no if i decide to keep it it will be for its aesthetic the fit is a bit loose in the body more than you can tell on the model more like a true swin g style top i feel the arms are a good fit but i ordered one size up from my normal since i m planning to wear this as a maternity top arms are definitely a size smaller than the body the ruffles at the bottom are a bit odd but overall i still like it the cutout notch at the collar is super cute plus the green color of this top is lovely and i love that it s made in the usa so i ll be keeping this is a truly beautiful dress and yes so much better in person upon exa mining the dress however i saw some problems the embroidery above the waistline was loose in places there were some frayed ends and even some 39 fuzzy 39 spots where it looked like th e stitching had rubbed against something the dress is over 250 and for that price i expect t he embroidery to be top notch returning and hope the replacement is in better shape if so i t will be a keeper a must have sweater with great details it can be a star piece with leather tights or very long flare jeans i recommend platform booties for perfect body proportion this top fits a bit trimmer than the summer version of this top did the lavender color is muted and a nice fall transition color i love this blouse the details are beautiful and and it is so ver satile i can where it with jeans and boots or slim black pants and strappy sandals and get tons of compliments every time one of my favorite retailer purchases ever nan i love designs that a re flowy drapey in the front so this hits the mark when tied in the back has lots of visual in terest but i agree with the other reviewers the slip is super small dress fits true to size if not a bit large but the slip is one full size smaller and you must wear a slip overall i m pleased with the look this product is awesome i m a tall lady with wide calves and thighs and these socks look and feel fantastic on me they are tight enough that they don t wind up sliding down around my ankles but not so snug that they make my legs look like sausages i would recommend this product to all of my girlfriends i m liking this jumpsuit it s not love but it s definitely a like i typically avoid the elevenses brand since it never seems to fit right but i gave this a try i usually take a l in other retailer brands but sized up to xl in this and it was a good choice first off the material is awesome super soft and drapey but i agree with another reviewer who mentioned the zipper being short and it being tough to get into i found that to be right on makes it a little hard to get your arms through the i was considering this online for days before a ladies lunch date meandered into a brick mortar location i had been thinking of sizing up if i ordered online just to be sure it wouldn t be too tight or awkward and when i had looked for it in stores nearby it was out of stock but i hadn t thought to look for my tts which happened to be available in the store where i went i tried it on because i was so curious and it worked i love it it is so easy breezy it will be perfect to layer this jacket is totally adorable i wore it with a man tailored shirt with the color up and the sleeves poking out \nit has a great swing to it and is very comfortable it is sized perfectly and i got it on sale i just purchased this cardigan it is better in person than the picture the fit is fabulous it is very versatile it can be worn with many different options definitively be wearing often great sweater looks and fits as shown if you re between sizes size down as the shoulders are relatively broad this is a beautiful lined jacket with a much more structured fit than a typical kimono it hit me at the high hip not low hip as shown on the model given how structured it is i don t think the one size will work for anyone larger than a small if you want a drapey kimono fit this skirt is stunning the red is so vibrant this will be a staple in my wardrobe for years to come it can be dressed up or down love it this dress is perfect for my florida lifestyle because of the fabric and the design it is not the color pictured on the web page which was a disappointment the color is a lot duller i tried it on in the store and found it to be tight across the chest another lady who also tried it had the same problem i went home and ordered a larger size that dress was baggy and not as cute in the back i realized because of the under slip it could be left open to the waist and work just fine i ended up much nicer in person the chunky knit reads more gray with black accents than blue as described here there are lovely flecks of rust blue goldenrod green throughout super soft stretchy it s fine sizing down otherwise the arm holes dip down very low i m usually a size 4 small and xs was best for me 33 bust long torso broad shoulders i can see wearing another layer underneath when cold weather sets in i m sad i was unable to get an xs as the small is somewhat big on my 125 lb 5 6 frame i m keeping it for the sale price though when i put it on in the store i got so many compliments from other customers who went to find it i think it is meant to run large and honestly i still think even with it looking big it still looked better in person than the model i would recommend ordering it if you can and don t mind pieces that drape like this i bought this in the olive green and blue a while ago both in the small great jumpsuit and true to size i accidentally washed the blue one in the washing machine in cold but caught it before the dryer it still fits although it seems a bit shorter in the legs i ordered this top in a size m as i heard mara hoffman runs small the size chart on her site would have me order a size s as i have a 33 bust 33 25 37 however my bra size is a 30d or 32c and the size m is what fit therefore a m might also fit a 34b and a 36a as the back is adjustable it even stays up without the halter which is highly unusual for me \r\n\r\nthe only negative that really disappointed me is that the patterns are not quite symmetrical as i expect from this brand and from t this is a well made kimono style jacket in a great color choice that is versatile and well constructed being short and with narrow shoulders most kimono style jackets don t work on me they are simply too big too long this jacket s shorter length and more streamlined styling make it perfect for me a keeper and a real steal on sale this top has a beautiful pattern and the color is gorgeous just like the photo it is very thin but under a sweater or blazer in the fall winter would be perfect it is a little big i would order a size down this is adorable and unique i ve tried shawls and ponchos before they usually swallow me up this sweater has that type of feel but isn t so much fabric goes with everything love these shorts not too tight and not too short they match so many tops tts for my hard to fit figure great for weekends vacations and just to be adorable in this is such a great top it can be easily dressed up or down i love my tops flowy and this is just that i have a larger chest 34d and the flowy nature of it keeps it from being too short up front even though it has eyelits in it it can be worn without a cami underneath as long as you wear a good nude bra it ll be a great sweater for all seasons i m even able to wear it to work highly highly recommend i wore this sweater last weekend and received so many compliments not only is this a very pretty style the poncho is comfortable i really glad i purchased i love these shorts very pretty and well made but if you have any kin d of muscle in your thighs beware not as flattering as on the model a9dn probably previous rev iewer shorts hit at hte widest part of my leg creating a weird tent effect around the area w aist was true to sizw and i can only imagine how beautiful they would be on skinny legs i tho ught this sweater was pretty and soft and would be comfortable to wear i really liked the high collar and the interesting poncho like design but the sleeves were a bit short on me and i tho ught it was a little pricy i decided against it for those reasons but if you don t mind those things then you might like it it s definitely worth the try this is the cutest poncho style s weater but the arms aren t attached like a true poncho it doesn t work for a petite customer unfortunately but on average sized it s gorgeous so pretty adorable great for yoga or everyd ay use can even fit a strapless bra under with no showing i purchased the black i m 5 4 usu ally a 6 8 and it fit great i absolutely love this sweater it will take me into spring and rig ht on in to summer beach bonfire nights a great staple the look quality and feel of this jac ket is perfect it does run a large so i would order a size down i definitely worth every penny this dress has a unique watercolor like pattern and design and is silk but as another reviewer mentioned it is unlined so you probably would want to add your own slip the side slits come up high almost to the hip i am 5 1 and bought the petite xs and it comes all the way down to my toes if i don t wear a belt if i belt it the length is more like one would expect from a maxi dress i am a little puzzled as to where i would wear this because the length and fancy sleeves make it seem more fo beautiful detailed sweater when i tried it on i felt it made me look a t ad bit boxy but once i pushed the sleeves up about six inches i loved the way it looked i m w earing it tomorrow and know i will get lots of compliments this really is lovely the overall design from the arms front and back makes this poncho unique it s not too thick either maki ng it a nice everyday sort of thing however it just didn t work for me even though i m 5 9 ponchos have a tendency to i was able to grab two of these in grey and navy during one of their awesome sales it doesn t look like much on the hanger but it s lovely on the body \n \npros \n lots of stretch \n comfortable and roomy without looking frumpy \n lovely color and texture \n can size up or down depending on how you want it to look \n minimizes bust size nic ely \n \ncons \n if you have curves like me it won t be as roomy as the model unle ss you size up i actually bought a size down and it b i ordered this in xs and it fits loosely i am 5 3 and about 120 lbs this looks great with skinny jeans or leggings and shows off the l ong necklaces that are in style right now the chiffon doesn t lie perfectly along the side seam but i m sure only i notice this is such a cute sweater i wouldn t really call it a poncho sinc e it has standard sweater sleeves it has a wide circle hem which is very flattering i would ha ve loved this even more if it were available in other colors besides white red black or na vy would have been perfect this sweater has instantly become a favorite it is incredibly soft the detailing is delicate and feminine and the fit is cozy and flattering the body has a defin itive swing cut while the arms are slim though not tight i find the loose body slim arm comb ination to be very flattering and forgiving run out and buy this now if you love anywhere where it gets cold foggy or dark it s a guaranteed go to i happened upon a pair of these shorts t hat someone had returned they are the perfect length they are very well made i have worn them to my son s baseball game and the sec tournament they are tailored and have an interesting desi gn they make me look as though i have lost ten pounds i am thrilled with them this is so beau tiful and looks hand made but in a really good professional way this will be a perfect fall war drobe addition and i can t wait to wear it with a long sleeve top and jeans and boots it s not too long and it is very flattering and soft and drapes well love it beautiful and flattering i am a 6 across the board but felt the small was too small ordering a medium cause i need this beauty for fall living in florida i thought the design of this sweatshirt was to die for i wa s so pleased with the quality when i received the top however i was nervous to see that it reco mmended washing before wearing due to the dying process i washed cold gentle cycle and tumble d ried low turned out perfect and did not shrink it s adorable plan to wear it with white denim shorts i ordered a size 1 and i normally wear a size small love this piece can be worn casual or fancy runs slightly big but that seems to be the style size down if you are in between siz es the color is unique and organic really comfortable and fun fabric hack wrap the sash arou nd waist twice and tie in back agreed with other reviewers it is a bit sack like when the sash tied in front as seen on model but wrap twice and it makes the silhouette pop fabric is redic ulously lush and pattern is very sophisticated stunning dress will be wearing all summer w ith flats for work with heels for evening oop my usual size fits perfectly 5 4 110 lbs s aw this in the store yesterday and had my daughter try it on it was really cute on her and she loved it in fairness to the other reviewers she tried on a size 0 which was perfect for her pet ite frame and i can see how this blouse would run really big in the larger sizes but the fabric and detail is so pretty and it was on sale love this only wish it wasn t so seasonal so i coul d wear it more often this is the softest shirt in my wardrobe can t believe how nice it feels on a little bit slouchy and over sized i usually wear a m and bought a m and it feels perfect like the other reviewer i was a bit worried about shrinkage but washed it in cold and hung it up and and it cam out fine did wash first before i wore because the dye smelled a bit strong this dress is easy and attractive it s very soft and just slips on but looks very put together on my shorter frame it s a bit long more midi length but it s so comfortable and pretty that i m fine with it it looks a little bit 20 s that way recommended i tried the b w one in the store liked the look and feel of it fabric is soft and comfortable for reference i m 5 4 and 115 lbs this dress runs large size 0 was too big on me armhole waist length etc i m ordering 0p online hoping it will fit better not a huge fan of the black belt otherwise very happy with the dress this dress is very soft and ultra comfortable i got a size 10 and probably could have gotten away with an 8 but due to being busty on top stuck with the 10 i love the length even though i got the regular and not the petite i was pleasantly surprised when i tried on this sweater it is well made and fit perfect the will really enjoy weather this in the fall this blouse was just right for me 5 3 and in my late fifties not too frilly so still age appropriate yet feminine and fun i have largish arms from working out and the sleeves fit with give and at this stage of life the boxy look that falls just below the waist is flattering i took a 10 regular i m usually a medium r or m petite and the fit was comfortable and right both colors are unusual and it works nicely with pants and skirts love this vest just got it in the mail last week and i have already worn it twice with two different looks it s timeless and can be worn in so many fun ways i ordered a sp which is normally the size i wear from retailer i m 5 ft and 129lbs and there is so much extra material on the bottom part of the dress it would make a beautiful summer dress if it was at least 2inches narrower on the bottom unfortunately they are out of the xsp which would be perfect still contemplating whether to keep or return i sized down in this dress from a 6 to a 4 32d 31 38 the 6 was too blousy in the bust and it did feel sack like i sized down and suddenly it looked great fitted enough through the bust and hips be warned this dress has to be pulled over your head the fit in the bust will determine a lot i am tall almost 5 9 and the length was great similar to the model in the photo the cream and black print is gorgeous i just bought this dress yesterday in the store and love it i m 5 1 110 34b and purchased the 0p which fits perfectly \r\n\r\nit s made of a cool material and is lined which adds to the quality of the dress i love the neutral print and the square v neck makes it a little different than just an average dress this dress can be dressed up or down depending on accessories it also makes a great work dress if you add a little cardigan or blazer very versatile and a great buy especially a the s this dress looks better in person the shape is pretty much straight but fits nicely even if you are curvier it doesn t show your imperfections the type blue and white color is nice but a bit see through on the bottom and the slip is a little short came to about mid thigh for me so i would wear leggings underneath i don t think a belt would look good with this because of the shape and if you have curves very cool summer style i honestly don t understand whey this top isn t sold out i have it in both colors and love it it s a cool gauzy woven fabric super soft and perfect for warm weather the white fabric is doubled so it s not see through the pink more of a pale terracotta is doubled halfway up so it s slightly sheer on top but your pants skirt waistband will not show through it is a loose fitting top so you may be able to size down i usually wear size 4p but it was sold out so i got regular size 2 and i this is the perfect duster transitions you perfectly from summer to fall without being an overly heavy piece simple and classic i know i will get a lot of wear out of this item i m fussy about robes i m fairly small size 2 or 4 and a lot of robes swamp me in the smaller size this robe fit well and was flattering the material is soft but absorbent the pattern is lovely and feminine without being dowdy the wrap is generous i wear this robe just out of the shower and don t feel exposed i love this top nice lightweight material but not too sheer runs a little big and may be slightly too boxy for some people for me it was perfect this top is so pretty and festive i am purchasing it for a holiday party i debated between a m and l but went with the m and i m glad i did it is generously sized finding bottoms for it has been a little tricky i m thinking i will try the velvet pants as shown i love the cut of this dress and i m rather short i don t think you need to be tall it s a nice light fabric that will work well for warm weather it did wrinkle quite a bit during the day but never looked messy i certainly wouldn t describe it as frumpy it has a nice loose 1920s feel and you can tighten the belt to make it more fitted through the waist the belt is sewn on in the back so you can t take it off without quite a bit of tailoring i had no trouble with the bust being too i love this jacket it is stylish and is ideal for a casual night out this is my first time purchasing a bra from this brand and i am in love the style and quality are amazing it is the most comfortable bra i owned to date and i will be buying more from this line it provides a lift without all of the uncomfortable padding which requires continuous adjusting i am saying goodbye to vs forever i got this in red and the bra looks more expensive than it actually is and the fit is simply amazing it is sexy and classic at the same time well made gorgeous bra the red is more wine in person which is great this bra runs quite small go up at least 1 band an d 1 cup size i got a 36c and it fits great i m a 34b across brands like vs etc \r\nyou ll feel extra saucy and a bit mischievous knowing you re wearing something this sexy love this dre ss wear it with sneakers or boots can add a belt or the right accessories to dress it up i n the on line picture this lightweight sweatshirt looked so inviting that i decided to order it when it arrived i could not believe how soft and comfortable it felt it was equally comfortabl e on the rayon tencel and cotton content of the fabric created such a comfy feel that this to p is sure to be a favorite for a relaxing week end or evening i ordered the size 3 even though i usually order a small in most tops this one seems to lend itself to the oversized look and i was right about t absolutely perfect for summer great weight lovely soft lining love pockets in any robe sleeve length is perfect actually flattering if you consider robes such a thing i love it the color and fabric of this item are so appealing and i think this is a great piece for the right person the fabric is beautiful but also much thicker than i d imagined from the p hotos it has a quilted quality so doesn t drape very well and is just too much fabric for me ar ound the arms i typically wear a size 12 and ordered the large i think a medium might have bee n better haven t decided yet whether to exchange for m or just plain return has an artsy cool professor vibe that i like this is such an easy dress to wear and it looks very polished it is not a cheap polyester fabric as one reviewer wrote it is a rayon and nylon blend it does wri nkle easily i love that the belt is actually sewn into the dress at the back i don t typically gravitate toward warm color palette but the burnt orange color is really lovely it can be dres sed up or down very easily and it has pockets i typically wear xs in retailer brands and the size 0 fit me well i found this while shopping at my local retailer and loved it i was able to size down from my normal 10 to a 6 i got the warm white and it s lovely couldn t wait to wear it the detail is so pretty and love the buttons and 3 4 length sleeves i am thrilled i could n t be happier i chose the petite small for the shorter length fits perfectly it falls abt 3 below my knees normally i am a small in tops waiting for some cooler weather to wear with some of my swing style turtlenecks i have jeans 5 3 115 3c looks pretty much on me as in the pic cute and comfy seems to fit true to size flattering and roomy on top for my 34ddd shape but doesn t make me look pregnant or fat overall which sometimes happens without a waist to def ine shape super cute overall the dress is beautiful easy and great quality but the bottom part has more fabric than it appears in the photo if that makes sense it s not poofy or super layered but i had to pinch fabric on a part of the dress in order for it to have that more stra ight shift shape that you see online here besides that bottom part the fit is true to size bu t as a petit the extra fabric isn t what i m looking for \ni think it works depending on what y ou re looking for beautiful though i too saw this jacket on the recent retailer email teaser and instantly i was in love i put it in my cart and was contemplating buying it but was unsure on size etc since there was only one review i came back to find it was no longer available and i was devastated i was at my local mall today and decided to pop in much to my delight they h ad a rack full of this coveted jacket it s very cute stylish not very thick and the quality w as just ok there was a slightly worn look that perhap first of all this top runs big i m 5 5 120 and there was still plenty of room to spare in an extra small this is a cute top but i returned it because it was too stiff and boxy for me the fabric is thicker than your average te e and there s not much give so it may not hang well on all body types i might revisit it if i t goes on sale because i like the design with the small details at the sides but this was an eas y pass for me at the regular price oh this skirt is gorgeous but i feel it runs small in the wa ist \ni m sending it back and ordered up i m happy i did as today it s sold out \nbeautiful an d vibrant colors very well made just wish some of the retailer sizes wouldn t run on the small er side these are my favorite jeans i ve bought in the past year they re the perfect length for booties i love the rise and the denim feels amazing so soft mine haven t stretched more than a normal jean in fact they may have stretched less than others i ve had and i can wear t hen multiple times before washing with their shape being in tact love this top so soft fits p erfect this dress is absolutely adorable runs true to size i am five foot nine and a medium f it perfect the denim has a lot of stretch i can t wait to wear it in the winter with tights an d boots don t wait too long before this one sells out i am a big fan of trench coats and i lov e that this one is navy i typically gravitate toward blues because it brings out my eyes and my wardrobe tends to fall in a blue ish category i love that the color of this coat will complimen t other pieces of clothing in my closet wonderfully \n\ni especially love the design of the tren ch with the wider pleated bottom which allows for fluffier dresses but also creates an illusion that is slimming for anyone s figure this is a fantastic unique design for i love love love these jeans they fit like a dream and the fabric is so soft and giving the waist comes up high er and stays snug which means no muffin top plus they look awesome i truly hope paige comes o ut with more like this this dress is adorable the color is on the red orange side and is nice for the summer the cotton is also nice and light however the bust is cut short and the skirt is unforgiving to girls with hips if you have b c cup or less and do not have an hour glass fig ure then this dress may be for you i love the pants and it s so soft and they re great today w as the first day i wore them for more than just a try on and i noticed a hole that s super disa ppointing but i m hoping it was just bad luck very comfortable sweater the material is very soft and not itchy at all i had the hardest time deciding between sizes the medium was slightl y longer and loose through the arms a bit of a boxy shape the small was slightly more fitted t hrough the arms and instead of hanging straight had a slight fit and flare look to it but still loose ended up going with a small since it was less boxy it s a sweater that can look more put together or more laid back just depending on sizing but overall love absolutely love this skirt it is well made and fits as normal i love the fact that it can be dressed up or down this coat is fun flirty flattering i bought it strictly for how good it looks on it s not a coat fo r warmth the top is tailored and fitted but the bottom is very full and swings there is a lo t of fabric on the bottom i m not sure why some people had a hard time with the sleeves i do not have the smallest arms and this was not an issue for me however i had a very thin shirt un derneath the coat and that is all you can fit under it so keep that in mind the small fit me p erfect v i love this coat and wanted it to fit so badly a 12 14 always fits well but i can t even start to button up the large in this coat so sad pretty cut out design it is a great l ength for work but it is also unique enough to get compliments the skirt seems true to size but the waist does not have a lot of give in this regard it may seem a little small i finally wa s able to order the xs petite my typical size adn received it i had previously tried on the xs regular but that was too much fabric i am 5 foot 1 5 inches adn 115 lbs \r\n\r\nso the pe tite fit but i still felt like the swing was a lot of fabric for me classic cut snug on the c hest so i wouldn t be able to wear a sweater underneath overal i did like but decided to retur rn it i saw this in an email and loved it but by the time i tried to order it that evening some sizes were already gone the medium was back ordered but didn t have to wait too long to receive it i especially like the design with the full skirt the material is light weight which is pr efect for my florida climate the design and fit were beautiful i love it and will get years of use out of it my only complaint is the material wrinkles very easily i tried to get them ou t myself but ended up se i had to size up to a medium because otherwise my boobs would not get a long well with that button down front but once that was taken care of i really loved the silhou ette this created the belted waist flatters an hourglass shape nicely perfect for sipping tea and eating finger pastries like a fancy little lady i have no idea what i m going to do when th e time comes to wash it though we ll cross that road when we come to it i guess also the interior seams are a bright electric blue the pictures do not do this skirt justice it is re miniscent of the vintage mexican circle skirts with a pretty lace design the fabric is nice and light and it is a lot of fun to wear \n\nit is definitely one to consider washing by hand i put mine in a lingerie bag and washed it on the gentle cycle but the bottom edge of the lace frayed a bit it is nothing a pair of scissors can t fix but to avoid any further damage i will be wa shing it by hand in the future this skirt is great for anyone who wants to highlight a defined waistline but may want to skim over a few lumps and bumps the skirt has a nice wide waistband that hugs tight at the middle and pleats that give a little flare without being too much \n\nthe fabric is nice and thick and the skirt is lined \n\ni am looking forward to wearing it to the of fice with a fitted dark top and heels this was sold out in an xs when i first saw the email i ended up seeing in my local retailer store and tried on my usual xs i am 5 3 with a longer tor so and about 108 pounds my chest size is 32c and the xs was just too tight it buttoned up beau tifully and the length was as it is on the model even though i am much shorter however when i tried to move my arms the jacket constricted all movement this is a huge disappointment and i imagine going to be an issue for many girls who order online i loved this trench on the web site i couldn t wait until it arrived and was even happy to pay full price to get it it unfortunatel y just didn t complement my 5 2 135 lb curvy figure as i had hoped it was definitely much full er on the bottom which added unnecessary bulk i have narrow shoulders and it was snug and uncom fortable with a simple tank top on i hung it in my closet for a few weeks tags intact continu ing to try it and each time it just wasn t working it also had many stray thre i was looking fo r a dress for an upcoming interview this fit the bill when i took it out of the packaging i wa s worried it would be boxy but it hit in all the right places it was loose enough allowing for movement but accentuated my waist it hangs to just above my knee in an xl i typically wear a 14 16 i was very impressed with the material it feels very soft and luxurious the photos do an amazing job of selling this coat in person it is just a little bit less than what i was hopi ng for the navy blue color is lovely and elegant and fits the sophisticated femininity of this style black or khaki would be too boring \n\nthe fabric is soft and drapes and flows beautifull y but it is quite thin if you hold the coat up to the light you can almost see through it the thinness probably helps the flattering fit of the coat but i don t know how effective that make s it at i like the edge of this dress and it balances my narrower hips well i m usually between 0p and 00p in retailer dresses and xxsp definitely fit better on my 5 1 frame armpits and knee length where it should be \n\nlove that it s machine washable and unusual super soft and beauti ful color even though i normally gravitate to cooler colors \n\nbring it on everleigh i love th e bright red color and also the texture of fabric it s light soft and crisp which is perfect for summer days the dress is definitely designed for people with a short torso the waste line is a bit high for me but overall it didn t feel weird or look funny there is just something ab out this dress that made me very difficult to part with once i tried it on i had to bring it h ome with me this dress is beautiful the concept looked really striking online and it really de livered in person the material is a good weight for winter but soft and really quite luxurious the collar is subtle and adds a lot of elegance there s not a lot of stretch though i m 5 5 1 30lbs and usually btw xs xsp s and sp and will probably go with the s on this one you have to try this on i was a little worried this top wouldn t look quite as nice as it does online du e to the price but it is super cute in person too tank underneath is attached but does not get in the way great top cannot wait to wear it great feeling trench can dress it up or down \r \njust be prepared to take a steamer with you it comes wrinkled and will wrinkle very easy my only complaint is that there is no lining it also came very wrinkly and i need to figure out ho w to steam it \r\n\r\nhowever the fit is perfect tts and it is so very flattering i rarely wr ite reviews on here but this coat deserves a mention \r\n\r\ni have wanted a trench coat for a long time but my build and coloring are not flattered by the traditional beige khaki coat or cu t i leapt when i saw this one and immediately ran to my local store to try it on \r\n\r\nit is not really a rain coat but more like a charming layer in the style of a coat it s lightweigh t soft fabric that swings really well but also gets slightly wrinkly the color is lovely and the buttons are first of all i m not a navy person at all i much prefer black or other brigh t colors i received an e mail showing this trench last saturday and i pulled it up online and n oticed how darling it looked i didn t order it but i went back the following day to check it o ut again it was nowhere on the website then a few days ago back it popped up online again i noticed it wasn t in my local store so i thought i d go in and look this weekend i just had to see it i actually made it to the st saw this on the retailer emails as a cover and knew i had t o try it on went into the store following day and tried it to my delight the tencel fabric is light enough for southern california weather and can be worn as a trench coat over skinny jeans leggings or dresses or act as a dress in itself love the navy color as it is has more of a wash ed looked and not too bold what attracted me to this piece in the first place was the ruffled b ottom and the rounded flaps on the back that is different i m tall with long legs long arms an d a small chest and the medium fits me almost perfectly i love the long sleeves sleeve length is always a challenge for me and how the coat accommodates my broad shoulders my only problem is that the belt wraps around my lower ribs and looks odd if i can get the belt loops lowered 1 5 2 inches it will be perfect if i can t i ll return it because the coat looks much better wi th the belt tied if it s buttoned up one small point the coat arrived incr this sweet little n umber in the mustard yellow has become my fall and winter go to sweater so easy to wear unde rstated and a bit retro looks great tucked into skirts or high waisted jeans or out and the s ubtle shift in textures is a nice detail highly recommend and a great price point i love this coat it s everything i ve been looking for in a trench navy blue cut for dresses with a vint age flair and the medium fits like a glove i m a size 8 all that being said be forewarned t hat this coat in unlined so it won t be that warm a layer the seams are covered in a bright tu rquoise bias tape so it doesn t seem especially unfinished still worth the price on sale the s kirt on this trench has tons of fabric it goes on and on and drapes and twirls beautifully as a trench it fits well and does the trick i believe the skirt is heavy enough not to blow aroun d too much but i haven t been out in extremely strong winds yet it fits true to size at the k nee i m 5 5 i sized up because i assumed i would be layering it over clothes my regular siz e fit fine over a lightweight cardigan the green is vibrant and beautiful and the sweater is v ery soft love this skirt i enjoy being trendy but i love the retro vibe can be dressed up o r worn to work i remember seeing this great jackets online and knowing that i would have to hav e it so i traveled to the store to try it on the ruffle on the bottom was beautiful and fluffy and just like the pictures the color was perfect and it was lightweight enough i could get more uses out of it that most of my coats in the texas heat so i tried on the small the didn t quit e button over my bust and i did an arm wiggle that made the arms too tight near where they met my body no problem medium it is very pretty skirt makes me feel very feminine and makes my w aist look smaller than it is this coat is absolutely beautiful the fabric is soft and almost s ilky and the style is timeless i ordered an xs and it fits true to size and has excellent quali ty i usually wear a s petite so that s what i initially got in this i m 5 2 32c 27 36 the s houlders were about an inch too wide on either side the sides along the top had tons of extra f abric almost like batwings or a dolman cut and the waist was at least 6 too big i m re order ing in petite xs and hoping for the best because this is a gorgeous coat this sweater is flatt ering fun and practical i wear to work and out at night to dressier functions i bought both the green and black both are cute on and super soft after being tentative to splurge on skinny jeans i ve always been a small flare jean girl i am thrilled to say i love these jeans the r ise is perfect in that it holds in anything you want held in and makes a slim shirt look eve n better i have worn them with booties and regular boots alike and have no complaints i was un sure of the jean s claim to not stretch out but have been pleasantly surprised at how they have kept their shape even after sitting for many hours at a time wash cold i m 5 1 100lb and tri ed on pxs ps and xs the portions on the petite are perfect for petite sizes however if you are a d cup keep in mind that you cannot wear anything thick underneath it if you go with the fitte d size the sleeves are pretty slim in the petite xs too i m keeping the pxs skirted trench bec ause it looks like a dress from the fifties fitted and flared and looks so cute unbuttoned li ke on the model also unlike some trenches there are minimum details like epaulets contra ca n t say enough about the style of this trench the material is soft and the shape is amazing for all body types the color is great and there s some pretty aqua colored piping in the inside of the coat \n\nthe sizing is a little hmmm i ordered a large i m usually a 12 on top or a large mostly to accommodate a larger chest ddd i think proportion wise i m more a medium through th e shoulders and in length so sometimes i can size down to a medium or large petite depending on the shape \n\nwith nan i ve been buying and returning several denim shorts lately searching for the right pair these are fantastic they are so so soft and comfy i d say they run slightly bi g but not to the point where i needed to size down like i do with the hyphen chinos love that t hey are not so short but not too long either and can be adjusted by how you roll them these are a nice medium wash and i am 5 5 110 lbs and went w my normal size 26 seems like they may stret ch out a little but that s ok bc then they i purchased this online without seeing in person and was pleasantly surprised i have purchased clothing made from netting with embroidered damask de sign in the past and found them to be stiff and scratchy however this is soft with some stretc h that makes it very comfortable to wear the fit in person is more form fitting than pictured a nd is quite flattering another nice design element is while the shell appears to be see through there is a built in strapless nude cami attached inside over i am very pleased with this skirt you can tell it is very well made and is just beautiful very true to size this trench coat sol ves my eternal problem with trench coats which is that when i see one on a model in an ad they look effortless and casual but then when i try one on it looks rigid and stuffy somehow this t rench coat drapes beautifully that said it s not the same kind of fabric as a traditional tren ch coat so it probably isn t water resistant i m fine with that it looks amazing so happy thi s came back into stock beautiful trench love the flared skirt the coat is perfect for the war ming weather here on the east coast it adds elegance and sophistication to any outfit a must as you can see from all the reviews this dress is such a classic piece my two cents below \r\n \r\npros \r\n fits tts i m either a 10 or 12 in most clothes and bought the l and it fit reall y well on my 5 9 36c bust and hourglass frame it wasn t boxy at all and still left enough for movement and still held a nice shape to my frame without being clingy \r\n fabric is soft it d oes seem a tad fuzzy so just be careful what you wear but the material overall is nice i m no t sure how thick tried it on in store and found it cute and comfortable it might run a little b ig since i was expecting to fit into small but found the xs fit and looked better i will consid er when on sale i felt that it was way over priced however if money is no issue i would buy it so a bit of a bone to pick with retailer i am normally a petite xs 32b chest however the pet ite sizing was not available online so i ordered a regular xs thinking i could always have it al tered i could barely button across the chest huh when i went to return it at the store i no ticed they had xs petite on the rack so decided to try it it fits perfect like how it should i can button fine across the chest and there is a little extra room \n\ni have no idea why the s izing is so off between i agree with the other reviews that the sleeves can be tight even for th ose with slim arms life would be great in this coat if my arms were always down by my sides bu t when i lift my arms that s another story i also agree that the material wrinkles easily this is a high maintenance item as far as pressing and ironing goes it is a very pretty feminine coa t but i would reconsider this only if it goes on sale cute skirt i bought it to go with boots tall and short and looks great if you pair it with the right top it reminds me of the funky e clectic retailer look that this retailer is famous for i usually wear a size 2 or 4 and i went with the 2 because it didn t hang so low but that s just me it is a beautiful coat runs small arms feel tight i am typically xs i can t even button it up bottom is skirted and falls beau tifully it is light weight coat not really fit for cold weather got this style in both black and green the fabric is soft and the neck design is very elegant i am 5 3 120lbs 34dd bra an d take this in size small nan once i saw this trench coat i thought it was so cute i m usually a small in retailer tops but can be a little broad so i decided to go with the medium based on other reviews when i received the coat it was a little tight in the shoulders but still doabl e i was surprised how thin it was just a single sheet of cloth and how full the skirt bottom was however there is a cute light blue seem lining inside overall this trench coat is not re ally a warm coat but more of a fun piece to dress u i want to wear this skirt every day it s so much fun to wear and versatile and i just feel great wearing it \ncan dress it up or down i t s pretty darn fabulous \ni highly recommend it you ll be grateful and feel pretty i saw thi s trench in an email a couple weeks back and instantly fell in love i bought it for myself for my birthday and got it just the other day and it is just as beautiful in person as it is online fits true to size and is so flattering i love the true navy color and cannot wait to wear this on cool spring nights it goes without saying that trenches are timeless but this one broke th e mold with its femininity in the flare and the finally different color i saw this and put i t in my cart debated and went back a few days later as i always end up doing because i could not live without it and it was no longer available i was devastated and could have kicked myse lf but i waited a bit longer went back on the website and thank god retailer had ordered mor e from the designer and had replenished stock this dress looks better when wearing i am 5 8 reg ular size s or 6 cup 34 d and fits perfect length and width in the front is shorter while the back has that pretty extra length the video that is showing here is pretty much the full length but in case you need to adjust you can shorten easily i wish the slip is the same length as the dress i want this dress for a wedding anniversary by the beach so i will need to add some extra fabric i hope it helps i love this dress because it is everything i have been looking for it is flattering because of the details and it gives the illusion of an hourglass figure if you don t have one i love that it has sleeves because sometimes i just don t feel like finding a shawl or bolero or whatever in case i get suddenly anxious about my arms the green is dark and shimme ring almost like lace over jewel tone emerald love i feel like this brand is very good at comi ng up with dresses that are flattering and i feel like they tend to fit my body well i like the design of the dress a lot because it makes me feel like i am walking along with beach it gets me in the mood for summer and it is the perfect casual everyday dress for the summer i love that the color scheme is understated which reinforces that this could be warn anywhere even for every day use the strips are perfect for the look of this dress and i don t this tee is super comfor table it feels and looks like a well worn favorite right off the rack although it only comes i n s m l sizes and i wear an xs 32a b 105 lbs the small fits well no gaping armhoes to worry about the pics don t show that the tee does trapeze out somewhat but it is not to worry about i purchased the reddish color which is a wonderful faded maroon shade i will be getting the bla ck one as well i m so in love with this skirt i sized up to a 4 i m typically a 2 in maeve a nd it s pure perfection i had to steam it after getting home from the store because it wrinkled up pretty quickly wore it with my copper birks and a chambray top but i can see this being dres sed up for work as well took off a star due to his easily it wrinkled i love this shirt it s different than other summer tops it s pretty much as pictured in terms of color and size and r uns true to size on a windy day the front will come open but only to your stomach nan i just received this dress in petite extra small for reference i am 5 7 and 118 pounds to answer the previous reviewer s question the regular size of this dress runs long if you want it to look l ike the one in the video then order it in petite i personally love the style and the material however the inside slip is very short with the petite given my height but this can be solved by adding a half slip underneath it i m just not sure about this top it s very short i m short waisted and it could stand to be at least an inch longer in front for me and as another review er pointed out there s no closure in front i can t imagine wearing it without a tank underneat h one good stiff breeze and everyone would get a peep show it really seems more like a vest than a shirt it s cute enough with a tank underneath but that sort of defeats the purpose of a n easy summer top it s too hot for layers in the s love the pattern play on this skirt i had to size up to a 6 i usually take a 2 or 4 in skirts as it was too snug in the hips waist goin g up a size worked well and the hem hit me at the knee i m 5 6 thought it looked cute with the cloth stone chambray tank i normally don t write reviews for clothing but this dress wa rrants an exception \r\n\r\ni am a little over six months pregnant and have a shotgun wedding at city hall in a couple of weeks with a limited amount of time to plan i bought a bunch of pregn ant wedding dresses online and rented the runway to arrive just before the actual ceremony out of curiosity i walked into retailer today to see if they had any white or ivory dresses that wo uld look cute and city hall wedding ish they did so i too i love all of these dresses ordered the ivory in 00p on accident meant to order 0p was too small but 0p would have fit it is fla ttering the pattern of lace is great but i didn t like the color as much in person i think i would like the blue better this dress is made with stretchy cottony fabric yet very forgiving it fits like a glove but doesn t show bulges fit is perfect i had originally purchased the whi te and grey but the petite length is better too bad as i do love me some red oh well 5 5 1 30 32dd i saw this dress online and thought it was beautiful but considered not buying it bec ause of other comments that the bust was too small for women with more curves fortunately the lovely blue dress was in my local retailer store and i decided to try it on in a size 4 i think the dress fits perfectly and i have gotten many compliments including from random strangers i have had no problem with a tight zipper or a low back which is perfectly able to cover my bra i n the back th i ordered this dress in the blue color it is lovely in person but the petite s eemed to run smaller than most petite dresses i buy from retailer i ordered a 2p and it was t ight in the bust on me i imagine a 4p would be perfect i am 117 5 3 34b online this dress cau ght my eye but the reviews seemed to indicate there was something weird with the length so i did not want to order it online and have to send it back etc because i am 5 5 and did not know we ather to get the petite or the regular my local store had it and i bought a regular small and i t is not too long it comes just to the ground in the back like any other maxi it is super comf ortable and gorgeous i am not sure where i am going in it yet but it was just too pretty o t he fitted top and flared skirt are really nice on this piece i am 5 6 125lb and i took a 6 a 4 might have been ok but i felt more comfortable in the 6 and it had a really nice fit \r\n\r \nthe quality is good but there were some areas that were starting to pull and the floral detai ls come a little frayed around the cutout edges so i m not sure how it will wear skirt is made well and beautiful colors runs a tad small i am typically a 4 6 and i ordered the 8 based on other reviews and it fit well i specifically bought this dress for my bridal shower and loved it i m small on top and have hips that don t lie i purchased the size 2 petite the waist port ion of the dress came up a little higher which was ok since it fell at a small part of my waist the length was just above my knee which i prefer the dress has a nude lining which compliments my tan skin tone i wore a regular nude bra that didn t show beneath the liner i received many compliments and would highly recommend it \r\n\r\nthe i feel in love with the dress when i saw it hanging at the store usually i feel bailey 44 dresses make my body look really round and sh ort i ve passed up a few because i didn t find them too flattering i almost even just passed t his one up because of my past experiences but i tried it on and felt like i had the body of ano ther person it hugged my body very nicely and i felt like it gave me a shape i also saw all th e possibilities it had the store had it styled with a denim jacket i can this skirt is adorabl e there is no give to it though i usually wear a 4 6 and got the 4 and i can t gain a pound or it won t zip it is perfect for spring and summer i m 5 8 135 this dress was as pretty in real life as the picture flattering also unfortunately it is definitely not appropriate for office work even though it appears so in the picture the back is very low cut and there is no way not for bra to show unless you don t need one also it was much tighter on top than the model pictu re even though the rest fit perfectly so i haven t actually tried this and i m sorry for the m isleading star rating i just wanted to get someone s attention on the length the photos show t he dress draping with almost a train even with the model in platform heels but in the video the dress is about 2 inches off the floor is it the model in the video that is extra tall someone help me out this looks gorgeous but since it s an online exclusive i won t be able to try it o n at the store nan this skirt caught my eyes right away in the clearance section i would have tried size 2 but it wasn t available however size 4 fitted just fine the print has bright summ ery feel to it the lines on skirt are more carrot orange than it is to red fabric is soft i l ove this designer so i grabbed at this shirt immediately unlike their other items this shirt i s linen it s a great cut and very flattering once you iron it the only problem i found was tha t as i wore it throughout the day she shirt became wrinkled and misshapen to the point where it ballooned out around my stomach i find it very difficult to find office friendly yet unique des igns and feel this one fits the bill and also has the ability to be dressed up for the evening i am curvy on bottom so i sized up from my normal retailer 4 to a 6 and surprisingly the dress fit my hips just fine i m 5 8 140 about 36 27 36 if it helps as i know it s hard to determine sometimes if this style will fit a more curvy figure my advice is to go up a size if you are the fabric i found true to the photo and the emerald i this dress is stunning no doubt a shim mering forest green under a black teardrop motif thick material nicely cut with pocket panels that are forgiving to a belly however the fact that this dress has zero stretch which is fine if that s what you re looking for coupled with what is quite possibly the cheapest zipper ever manufactured make this dress exhausting to put on i m normally a 14 16 at retailer and i orde red the 16 just to be safe and the waist is exactly the size of my waist nan i read the other r eviews on this skirt and tried the 4 and the 6 i m between the two sizes typically in case it ran small technically it does the 4 is tighter but it looks better sitting higher on my waist the 6 is looser but doesn t look as good likely sticking with the 4 the colors are gorgeous a nd the fabric is light and high quality it can be dressed up or down i ve been looking for a d ress to wear to wedding this summer and this is it the blue color is lovely and the lace overl ay is feminine and pretty i m small busted 34aa with an athletic lower body think 120 lb ma rathoner and the flare of this dress is perfect i ordered this in a 0 and a 0 petite the pet ite size looked little girl short the regular size hit just at my knee and was much more sophis ticated the waistband also fell at a more flattering place in the regular dress i m on th i bo ught this skirt for an end of summer caribbean party the floral detail is even more fun in pe rson it looks great with a red top or black tank i ordered this dress to possibly wear to my w edding rehearsal dinner i an adding this review to give some guidance on sizing i am size 34a and own two other dresses by this designer in size 2 for this dress however i had to size up to a 4 in order to close the side zip i m 5 7 and the dress hit me just above the knee in my opinion it would have been more elegant if it was a little longer the color combo with the ta upe and off white is unique but wasn t particularly flattering on my cute top definitely sheer so need an undershirt really love details on it especially back and fringe at bottom 5 4 135 lbs ordered s i love this dress s gentle blue lace the silhouette is just as seen in the pict ures i found the dress tight in the chest and had to size up one size 6 to 8 the dress looks even better in person the fabric is very delicate though but worth the extra care it needs the fit was perfect and the color is just as in the picture i wore this top right out of the packag e i loved it so much i am 5 8 small busted and size 4 was great the sleeves hit me perfectly the pleated detail in the back is flattering as well my daughter now wants her own top it woul d be nice to have a second color option flattering fitted form flowing fabric well made colo rs are true to pictures very pretty dress wearing it for a family beach portrait it may run a little big but not terribly it is also not super long as pictured i m 5 6 and it s perfect wit h a flat this one is a beauty my store is not carrying the white they had a lovely blue per iwinkle ish that immediately caught my eye the ivory model shot makes the details of the lace and top layer really pop more so than the blue variety but both are stunning the details and layers on this dress are lovely and intricate without feeling overly delicate quality most defi nitely in line with the price \r\n\r\nfit 130lbs 34c 5 6 high waist i m a 4 or 6 at retailer depending on the brand in most mou i love this top i m not one to iron so i wash and hang dr y and wear it great with skinny jeans this cover up is precious i ordered both sizes because i was unsure of how either would fit since there was only a s m and m l there is not a whole lo t of variation between the two i wear a size 10 pants and the s m fit but i may still keep the m l instead for fear that it may shrink when washed the garment is hand wash only which i will do because of the delicacy of the tassels that s a little high maintenance for a cover up but i am willing to do it because it really is a cute cover up i m 5 6 34b 32c apprx 125 lift weights so i have bigger muscular lats back arms my lower half i wear sz 25 mother ag or 7 mankind jeans but upper is more med 4 6 sz hips apprx 35 waist 28 my tops i don t like things tight i ordered medium top fits perfect but waist hips i have take in as more like a r igid stiff gunny sax cottony type fabric not super light chiffon as photos appear the under l ining super short in front and top of calf in back but lining follows the she in the photo thi s looks like a heavy knit top but it s not the fabric is very light thin and soft it s like a knit nightgown material i said this runs big b ecause i m normally a size xl and i can wear t his it actually fits me a little less flowy than on the model and i think looks better so to me you can size down if you want this not to have so much flowing fabric \r\n\r\nthe front cris s crosses over and it will stay together at the top area with movement the two fabric pieces so rt of really cute dress i bought the white i am usually a size 2 in retailer dresses but i cou ld not even zip this side zip was also slightly awkward had to return waiting for the 4 i bo ugh this dress in blue and i cannot tell you the compliments and the looks i get on the street no kidding this is a beautiful dress which has a very feminine romantic quality to it i bought size 4 and it sits perfectly on my waist i completely fell in love with that dress and especiall y with the lace work and the design this is a classic piece that is always going to be timeles s in my opinion no regret at all to have bought it i knew the ivory color was online only so i tried the blue one for size and i couldn t believe how nice the blue one is i ended up buying i t i purchased a size bigger because mine wasn t available but because of lace and side zip it still doesn t look huge if i find my size in another store i can always exchange but i couldn t leave the dress behind this cozy sweater has the feel of cashmere it fits loose and has a si milar look as a wrap or poncho looks better over sleeveless or short sleeve tops i m surprised it isn t one size fits all b c it is very generous in the xs s which i got and i m a 6 i can s ee wearing this all year long even summer cool nights very classic style the picture on websi te looks frumpy to me but on it is very flattering i am a short frame with broad shoulders and a large chest which means peplum tops typically look horribly unflattering on my frame not this top the cut is very flattering due to the lower peplum not too much fabric to add to the waist line truly a perfect fit if this top came in any other colors i would buy them all wonderful colors and fit tts love the style can were on or off the shoulders love it first i found the picture of this blouse stunning because the colors caught my attention with that said i found myself thinking of all the many events this could worn to dressed up or down so i found myself ordering it asap paranoid that others were thinking i was thinking the same thing well i received it in the mail and it was better than i thought the colors and cut of this blouse is just as in the picture i personally love this article pattern of art as i see it as an exp i love the way this fits and feels on it is a beautiful piece and makes me happy to wear i ordered my usual size medium and it fits well the only con is that it is dry clean only i love everything about this sweater it is very well made beautiful material and such an effortless way to pull it all together it runs large which was unfortunate for me as i bought the xs petite and i really need xxs in this one but none are left i am 5 ft tall and weigh about 96 pounds i can wear a 0 but not in this sweater it runs very well and i highly recommend it hope they make more in this style it is so fresh looking and so comfortable i love everything bordeaux so when i saw this one i knew i needed to try it and it s my favorite top from this brand ever i hope they keep the style and offer it in all of the colors going forward it s a very flattering style for anyone accentuates shape without being tight or clingy and the stripes are lovely also the material is so soft i have not washed it yet so i hope it stands up to wash and wear well overall this is an amazing top it runs slightly large i m usually an xs in tops i agree with the previous review i too would not have purchased it if i had not tried it in the store which is 2 hrs from my house the colors are much more saturated but not gaudy the caveat it is quite short i am 5 10 135 lbs i purchased a medium as it gave me the length i needed i m so thrilled with these the fabric is a little heavier and they just fit really well when similar styles tend to be baggy i am 5 5 145 lbs a cup depending on the style of the shirt i am between a medium and a small at retailer in this case i purchased a small even in the small the body has ample space which adds to the relax look without appearing sloppy and because the shirt is wider i would say you can easily size down the shirt is definitely flirty and fun with a great print and easy to wear off of the shoulders i invested in another retailer top that is also an off of the shoulder design but it does not the heart version is very pretty i can t speak for the striped one as i have not seen that one in person i ordered the xxs after trying on the xs as i felt the petite would be perhaps too short the xs was a little big on me the only problem with xxs regular is the sleeves are longer on me like 3 4 length not to elbow as shown on model but i don t want the shirt to be too short so sticking with that size \r\n\r\nfor reference i am 115 lbs 30dd chest 26 5 in waist and short very soft first thing i have to say but runs a little big especially in the sleeves i ordered the xxs p and the sleeves still bunch a lot at the wrists also other bummer is how sheer the ivory fabric is i wish it had more substance for the price but i like the style and color combo classic look effortless and can be paired with so many things the regular size neckline was too low for me the length on the petite was fine not too short so i say it runs big \r\n\r\nfor reference i am 1 i love the look and feel of these shorts typically my issue with any sort of cotton or linen shorts these days is that they re practically made of nothing but these are comfortable and made of decent fabric however they run very large being 100 lbs and about 5 i typically buy size 0 or xs but these looked a bit ridiculous on me with how big they are i tried shrinking them in the wash since they re 100 cotton and that helped some along with getting rid of the creases from shipping truthfully i wouldn t have looked twice at this shirt online i came across it at my local retailer store and i m so glad i did the colors are more vivid and beautiful in person i purchased the small my normal size and it hits at the waist i agree completely with the previous reviews suggesting that this top is much prettier in person i failed to notice this top online but was drawn to it in the store the green color it is perfect for early fall weather although i could probably wear the xs i ordered the xxs online after trying on the xs because i wanted it to be a bit shorter and have less extra fabric in hopes that it would be just that much more flattering this is the second tulle skirt by bailey 44 that i have bought the color is a little more grey blue than the picture online but the quality is excellent i am normally a size 6 and i purchased this skirt in medium and fits fine it is a pull on skirt but the waistband doesn t have a lot of stretch to it i love any bow tie tops but most have the bow too high up which looks dowdy i love the layered look and the contrasting colors i am 100 lbs 5 3 and got the regular xs i wanted the petite xs but it was sold out unfortunately the regular was a little too big but it still works looks great with jeans or dress pants even a skirt very versatile and classy and creative styling the sweater is comfortable and has a little 70s fabric flair not quite as classically modern as it looks on the model i am keeping it because it is a true fall spring item not a fabric weight for summer wear in california the peach color is pretty muted so it is not a show stopping going out piece i love this dress but i am 5 7 and a si ze 12 so am a bit curvy this dress was great on the bottom but the way that he did the top of it made me look even more busty than i am i returned it for that reason however if he would m ake that skirt as a stand alone i would buy in a second this skirt is perfect i m a size 10 and i m 48 years old i ve really been wanting a tulle skirt but didn t want to look like baby huey in it a bip puffy tutu above my knees this skirt is indicative of the quality that is bail ley 44 the fit is great the length is perfect i plan to wear it with a chambray shirt and the burgundy colored obi belt it was love at first sight when i saw this dress online the color c ut and delicate details are perfectly balanced with a moderately sexy neckline ladylike with a little attitude the fabric is gorgeous and is a stunning shade of midnight blue this dress is perfect for a summer beach party or to attend a wedding cut is extremely flattering and the ha lter tie top allows for adjustment for a perfect fit \r\ni just received it today and it is a must have for any closet \r\ntried it on with a be this is a beautiful dress with so many inter esting textures and colors it is form fitting yet modest enough to wear for so many occasions i plan to wear it for my son s graduation but i think there are many potential uses for this dr ess be aware that like many byron lars sheath dresses the bottom part is very tight makes it hard to fit for more pear shaped people the top is a tad loose on me while the bottom is quite snug however if i go up or down a size it will be too big on top or t goes well with lots of sk irts and pants including the culottes shown only downside and not a big one the sleeves are finished with elastic instead of a fabric band which looks a little cheap could not let it pass at a sale price got the 0p and its a bit snug on the waist 25 waist 34a 102lbs otherwise it s perfect will keep the size dress hits me just above knee like in the picture its beautiful in person the details the quality the flattering fit perfect soft comfortable flattering versatile what more can you ask for just wish it came in a long sleeved version i am 5 7 and 125lbs w a muscular bubble butt from climbing and biking usually have trouble w shorts fitting right because my legs and waist don t match my butt these shorts run large i got a medium whi ch should have been okay but they stretched out quite a bit after one wear so am returning for a small it s crazy for my butt to be in a small anything so if you are a skinny minny or have a flat butt these may not work for you in that you don t have anything to hold these up besides the nan love love love this top i want to wear it every day not only is it striped which is super chic but also the peplum hits lower so it really accentuates your waistline in a good w ay plus its soft like so many wonderul bordeaux tops are i wish they had this is solid col ors because i d buy them all for reference i bounce between an xs and s at retailer more alon g the lines of s and i got the xs in this and it still has room 5 7 135 lbs 34a b chest i always chuckle when i see this dress because it looks so busy and so crazy with all the mixed pr ints i think it s a lot of fun not so fun to put on but it s worth the trouble i swear my sh oulders are sore after manipulating this on myself i also own the mona dress in 8p but i had t o size down to a 6 for the melodist because the hips were not fitted enough and the back bloused out too much i love this top it looks as great in person as it does on line it does require s ome adjustment while wearing because it slips up onto the shoulders more than i prefer the qual ity is nice and it is very pretty it is great with skinny jeans and heels for a fall look i mu st admit that i was a little hesitant to try this top on largely due to my shape \r\nfyi broad shoulders back 36c short waist 5 3 \r\ntypical size dress or button down shirt 12 knit or not fitted top m\r\ni purchased the heart design in a size m since the upper part of the shirt is oversized a little bit not too big and baggy though and then narrowis to the waist think upside down triangle as the shape of the top since this is also my shape on top 6 on bottom i worried that th bypassed this blouse online but it s striking colors caught my eye at the sto re bought the olive green color and it s gorgeous the color is great for both spring and fall i m normally a petite xs at 5 0 feet and 104 pounds the regular xs is a great fit for me not t oo boxy and the length hits right at my waist material is lighweight and flowey don t hesitate to buy it s a great piece to add some pop of color and goes great with skinny jeans beautiful fall colors perfect with work pants or jeans i m tall and was a little worried it would be too short but it was a good fit this is a really cute top it s boxy but it s cotton eyelet so you shouldn t expect form fitting if you are in between sizes order a size down i m a 36 ddd and u sually have to wear large with retailer brands however the medium fit fine it doesn t pull in the back or shoulders the cotton material is thick enough that you don t have to wear a cami un derneath if you don t want to it s also long enough that your stomach won t show through the bo ttom eyelet band really like this shirt easy to throw on with jeans black if you don t like t he denim on denim flattering without making you look boxy arms are roomy too unlike the what the picture shows this swing tee is amazing i bought the blue one and the color is true to wha t it looks like online the material is so soft and cozy i am typically an xs and bought an xs however it runs ever so slightly big if i had purchased the xxs it seems like the arms would h ave been to tight and i m definitely not a fan of that whatever the case i highly recommend th is tshirt and love its versatility and that i can wear this all year long love this top i bou ght it for school and im dying to wear it i could see how other people could dislike it bc of t he loose frame but if you like flowy shirts this top is for you i like how the shirt is made o f a really soft and sturdy cotton and the top part is more fitted so the fabric doesnt completel y drown you out also this top looks super cute paired w a bralette and espadrilles beautiful shirt but runs huge usually between a large or xl and i sized down to a medium the fabric ha s a nice sheen and it s a flowy shirt but seriously size down i bought this in red and wear it a lot it is so soft and comfortable i love all the fabric and the design the longer sleeve le ngth is amazing it is a perfect tee you can tell from the pics there s a lot a fabric and it s supposed to be loose and drape like that it fits like in the pics and is true to size wear a t ank underneath in case there s a strong wind i am a sucker for a good swing top i own many sty les from retailer and similar retailers i carry my weight in my stomach butt and hips so this style is always good for me as soon as i saw this online i fell hard and waited patiently for i t to arrive at my store finally it did i love this top its very swingy almost cut like a cir cle so there is tons of room in the body the sleeve is more fitted but my arms are larger so i t might just be fitted for me there is a bit of stretch to it the i love this blouse it looks great under a blazer dressed up and great with boyfriend jeans \nit is loose and flowy the neck line is low i bought a medium and it is a little large but fits with the style of the top \ni h appen to love the fabric it is soft and feels great on the skin one of my favorite fabric comb inations is rayon viscose and cotton awesome shirt great transition into fall somewhat she ng in the navy blue color i loved the effortless swing of this shirt and the comfortable cotton texture that i chose to purchase it in wine and have since received many compliments on both th e shape and color this is an easy top for me to put on and feel good within love this top yes it is a swing top so you have to be prepared for the extra fabric fits true to size thru the sh oulders and chest body of the top then flares for the swing effect great top plan on orderi ng it in the other colors love these vegan leather pants the fit is great for my petite frame i bought them in regular size because the petite sold out so fast i just got them hemmed of cou rse i love the fit but i also loved the color the green was a just a little bit different and took me away from the basic black i ordered my regular size l in black i loved the fabric and f inish on the neckline i feel that in order to have the loose look as on the model i would have to size up to xl i might reorder it in xl but really it is a hassle and will most likely wait until another free shipping promotion \n\nruns a bit short in my opinion too maybe the larger s ize will have a bit more length the first day i wore this dress to work i was amazed by how man th a button down shirt underneath i love this t shirt i fabric is soft yet has a nice weight t o it it is comfortable yet sexy i like the red color and the border detail at the neckline i m not crazy about the way the zipper on the back is emphasized i d rather have a less visible z ipper overall it is a cute and comfortable dress the fabric is soft and substantial and has a nice texture to it the shape is basic so it can be dressed up or down i love the contemporary style of this piece but i returned it because the side slits were too high even for a short per son like me 5 1 but if you don t mind showing a little skin at the waist when you raise your arms it might work for you the fabric has a nice texture and the muted colors would mix well w ith other pieces beautiful dress when you look at it on the hanger you think this could be rea lly good or really bad but it is absolutely beautiful would highly recommend it can dress it up or down i bought this dress in the red option was a little concerned when i read other revi ews that said it looked like a maternity dress but it didn t look like that on me at all it fa and hem will be looking out for other dresses by maeve there is so much i love about this dres s like many of the other reviewers i simply love the fabric it s soft and comfy but has textur e and interest at the same time there s beautiful detail to it as well the edging at the neckl ine and hemline are unfinished and beautifully so having said all that i like many other revie wers i just don t have the body type to pull it off there wasn t one angle that didn t make me look even bigger than i am the pleating in the front while very cute gave very comfy with cot ton and lots of stretch can be dressed up or down i wear it with blue denim jacket and also wi th cream cardi 5 4 135 and the small is perfect i like this dress because it s the perfect s hape on me and i think the design is modern and cute i got the red and i really like the patter olors are always unique i usually wear an xs petite in dolan but i ordered both the xs and the xs petite and i think i m going to keep the xs i had a hard time deciding which to keep but t he xs petite was just a hair too short i think this is a versatile dress for all seasons you c ould pair it with tights in fall winter but it is great for spring summer too these are thi cker and don t have as much stretch needed to go up from my usual 26 to a 27 good for late sum mer to fall transition due to the wash i like dresses with sleeves as those are more appropriat e for work for me this dress is a smooth material and the asymmetrical bottom adds just a littl e extra something i got it in my normal size and i do find it looser not meant to be body huggi ng again making it work appropriate i love this skirt it slips seamlessly from day to night and looks great on those of us who happen to be on the taller side it s super warm so it s per fect with tights and boots on those colder winter evenings out great length very comfortable very pretty perfect dressy winter skirt i ordered a medium as the large in the store was a bit too big i wore this dress to a casual dinner at the grill in the country club and felt so cute but also comfortable i think it is a flattering dress shape and fabric looks just like picture d on your website i really love this dress the material has a lovely feel to the skin silky i typically wear a large occasionally a medium if i wanted this dress to look like the model it would be the large i ended up going with a medium because i wanted to accentuate the smalles t part of me rib cage area this made the black portion a tad snug around the bum but it ease d a bit with wear but still tighter than model picture \r\nsize down if you want it snug norma ter trying it on at my local retailer and absolutely love it it fits tts for me in my regular s ize small 34d 27 35 and it s incredibly soft and comfortable to wear the top portion is so gr eat as it has nice short sleeves the color is a nice deep rich orange which looks great now in the summer but will look especially cute in the fall with tall boots and a light denim jacket pl us the bottom half is cut in such an interesting way the material is amaz i have been needing a perfect go to white tee for layering purposes and this one met and exceeded my expectations it s the perfect weight for year round use love that it s 3 4 sleeves again great for year round and the slight front v adds a nice special touch fell in love with the first one i bought onlin e so ordered a second for backup it s a winner and great price very comfortable dress and c ool for our hot summers i ordered in my normal size medium neckline is cut a little low but n ot enough to change my mind on the purchase i loved this dress so much i got it in two colors the colors match the picture online it s very soft and will work for summer and fall i have an hourglass shape so this skirt is winner for me classic a line fit but with a modern hem it s subtly shiny very stylish and comfortable paired with a tight shirt and heels it looks extrem ely sexy a sale price makes it all the sweeter i love this dress it s so comfortable and perf ect for the summer fall transition it fits true to size and isn t to boxy or tight i love the colors as well i bought this dress tonight and i love it the fit is perfect and the color is p erfect the dress runs true to size as all dolan products do i ill wear this dress to an inter view with tall heel boots love this dress and think everyone should give it a try i loved this dress so much i got it in 2 colors i had to send it back twice to get the size right i ended u p with a medium the fabric was pretty wrinkly on arrival it is dryclean only overall it is an easy and relaxed dress appropriate for work but still very cute fits pretty true to size thick material sits nicely i m in love with this super cute dress the material feels so good on my skin and it has more body than it appears on the pic i m 5 2 115 lbs i bought the s petite and it s perfect for me slightly loose i could have probably fit in an xs but i like the freedom that the s gives me it my official spring dress i m loving these even if they ar e a wee bit tight i m 5 6 130 lbs and they hit well above my ankle as in the photo ordered a 29 i vacillate between a 28 and 29 and am finding a little muffin top spillage even after wear posed to stretching out a ton the denim is durable and stretchy and i would totally recommend t hem bought this in navy in the spring and this fall in green i am 5 10 and 57 with very long legs and they are too short to be work appropriate as a dress at least for me i wear both with leggings short boots and a variety of jackets and love them they feel like butter against the skin and are incredible comfortable recommend for reference i m about 157 and an athletic str aight build and bought m in the blue and l in the green go figure spied this dress in my local retailer and figured i would try it on for overall fit before ordering the petite on line for s ome reason retailer has eliminated in store petite items so disappointing i was pleasantly su rprised the xs regular fit well and was soon in my checkout pile the dress is very soft althoug h i suspect it will wrinkle when packed in a suitcase the color blocking is great and makes thi s dress so versatile for spring summer and fall the xs regular fit my 5 1 115 lb i love this dress so much i bought it in 2 colors it s so soft and cozy i want to live in it as t shirts go this one has a flattering fit shapely waist yet not so tight that unwanted curves show i bought the striped one in my usual medium and it fits perfect now so will have to be careful wh en washing if it were available i would have tried the large so if you re a tad senitive abou t tight clothes i suggest upsizing it s a nice weight fabric and the details around the v neck are great the v dips just like the photo approprialty sexy and age appropriate i m 62 5 3 at 125 i love this tee it has a very flattering fit and the fabric is very soft it runs small especially in the arms i suggest sizing up the tee looks great on it is slimming and super co mfortable love this skirt i ordered a small i m 5 1 about 120 still losing some baby weight so the elastic band is really nice because it will still fit once i get down to 110 really love the cut it falls just above my knees in the front longer in back i wore it to church with a c ream top with victorian lace around neck tucked in and added a belt for a nicer finish althou gh the band looks good without the belt too i got tons of compliments from everyone definitely a score \n p s shoes are fr i love this simple but stylish t shirt the fabric is soft and it fits true to size and i knew i would love it even before it was delivered i recommend it this is such a lovely dress and it looks great on like other customers i like the petal hem and the top part which is stretchy is soft and not clingy \r\n \r\ni think the only drawback is th at the color isn t as rich a green as it looks in the pic i ve attached a pic for comparison an d contrast purposes \r\n\r\ni ll be wearing this way into the fall this dress is great the fit is perfect and very flattering the two colors and asymmetrical hem on the front make it differe nt than you average sundress looks great with flip flops sandals wedges or booties will be a great piece for summer but the darker colors also make it the perfect transition to fall dress for the price this top holds up the colors make this top more interesting but the white is ra ther plain and sheer i tried on my usual size small and it fit well 5 8 135 lbs 32d this is a lot shinier in person and the elastic band is really tight but i still selected true to si ze \nthere is a hi lo hem going on that doesn t flatter my legs but it looks fantastic from the side \ndue to the stiffness of the material and the tightness of the band it can get crumply on the side if you don t get the right size the material feels a little thin and scratchy i love the color combo look and feel to this dress 5 4 120lbs and the xs fits as pictured it is the cutest detailed little white top i recommend this because you can wear it anywhere and dress it up with a scarf this dress is just as it looks in the pictures shapeless the trick is to add some styling to it add the pilcro dark denim jacket and the headwaters scarf and your all set i had on black seychelle loafers but would pair it with a black d orsay flat the top blue of th e dress is a faded sun washed looking navy and it goes well with the black of the skirt i usual ly wear a 4 in dresses and the xs in this dress fit well i m 5 3ish 118 34d dd this is goi ng to be a nice winter to spring dre everything about this dress is perfect the material styl e and fit flattering and comfortable i m 5 9 and the length was just above the knee you can dress it up or down comfortable i definitely recommend i purchased this for my 20 something d aughter it is so complimentary and cute and stylish i ordered this dress in a 12 which is my u sual size and it was tight around the waist and across the back i am 5 7 170lbs small chest bu t broader shoulders and back and curvy butt this dress is beautiful quality and well made but w as too snug it was very long to the point where i would only be able to wear heels the belt i s cheap looking i would recommend replacing it with something nicer the waist drops slightly b elow the natural waist and the top puckers over it in the front and back i saw the colorblock h orizon dress in my local store which sadly no longer carries petites in the red black color co mbination and loved it the colorsblocking the fabric the length after ordering a few petite sizes online the only xsp was the green black although not what i would normally where colorwis e i love this dress and the xsp is the only one that fits this dress runs large and on a small er frame the sp looked shapeless and unattractive perfect length and attractive v neck that i love this skirt it fits perfectly great to transition from work to after work event very comf y got lots of complements i am petite but chesty and this dress is flattering it is a loose f it but not tight across the bust line i tried it on with nude shoes and it dresses it up i end ed up buying this dress in a regular cut s because i wanted it to not be so short which made i t look more like a casual dress to wear with the ocean behind you i think it is a perfect day d ress to go anywhere and by changing your shoes or adding a thin sweater or short jacket you can go out to dinner or theatre the picture is a tr i wear a 25 26 jean and the size s in this biki ni bottom was just too small in photos it looks so cute but on me it just didn t look like any thing special hopefully the larger size has more pizzazz my favorite new dress i love the fee l and slight weight of the fabric it s very flattering and easy to wear love this shirt got i t in white and it will be perfect for spring very flattering fit i really like this piece the fit is great the double zipper falters and cinched waist and 3 4 sleeves flatter i will say i t s pricey for what it is a cardigan but it s a great versatile closet staple its just ok the bodice is fitted and this dress runs tts it does have a little more poof on the skirt part of the dress than it looks on the model at this point in my life when i buy a dress i have to s ay right away i love it and i just didn t my husband looked and said it is just a blah colo r on me so that maybe part of it the fabric is nice doesn t seem inexpensive and the lining i s soft and falls nicely underneath the lace i am 5 and the dress does fall exactly as it is shown o this skirt fits true to size and sits on the natural waist nicely i ve paired it with b lack and the contrast is very nice the material is thick enough for winter but will also work for the fall months too at first i didn t like the way this skirt hung the fabric seemed st iff and it stuck out at the sides where the straight front seam meets the dipped back but i ran it through a wash and dry and it softened up and hangs much better you have to love a polished looking skirt that you can launder with all your other clothes i am also very pleased that alth ough it looks bulky in the pictures here it isn t at all and it doesn t wrinkle perfect for traveling light note also that the front pl loved this top from the moment i saw it i was bumm ed that this top wasn t available in petite sizes but since it was my birthday i thought i woul d treat myself i purchased the xs after receiving it and trying it on it was big under the ar ms and waist area i kind of expected that since i am always a 00p in most retailer clothes i h ad the top altered at a local tailor and now it fits me perfect i was a bit dubious of the top because online the video of it made the top look frumpy wide and wrinkled looking the top see med shorter in the video than in the pictures so i wondered if the images were massaged a bit i n photoshop i got it today and it s fully lined and the material is pretty thick which gives it a rich look and feel i like the top even though it highlights my hips a bit and being pear shap ed i don t normally like that but being thin helps the best part of the top is the ordered two of these and they fit great and will be perfect for layering true to size fit cute detail in the back for a racer tank i completely disagree with the previous review i purchased this dres s and i absolutely love it i went out for a couple occasions one being special and the other n ot so special and both times i received compliments all night my husband loves it and that rea lly says a lot i feel the dress runs true to size and the quality is right where it should be runway worthy absolutely worth 3000 s probably not but i personally can t affor d that anyway i m so happy to have found th i am 4ft 11and 114 lbs and i tried on the regular 0 and 2 the 2 fit better but there was too much extra material in the back so i order the 2 pe tite the 2 petite fit perfectly very classic in the front with the right amount of flow in the back i can t wait to wear this to work or out to dinner with the girls i am going to have to d isagree with the first reviewer this is not the most beautiful top i have ever purchased from r etailer but i like it it is a nice change from the swing silhouette that tendd to look like ma ternity wear on me the key to this is to tighten the drawstring a bit it is a working drawstri ng all the way around and i find that the top is much cuter with the drawstring cinched a bit i actually like the flowing arms too the fabric is lightweight nice for the very warm midwe i love this tunic the fit is just lovely for me i m a large busted muscular shouldered woman who wears a 4 6 on the bottom the 8 fit perfectly across my chest 34ddd without horrid gapin g armpits and the gathered back gives just enough extra fabric so that the buttons do not pull at all in front not easy to achieve in a button down for a big chested girl i also love the cu t and flow it is fabulous and hip with skinny jeans and platform heels but also cute with flat sandals for a day o i really liked the top once i saw it but it needs to be worn with a cami un derneath the fabric is a little stiff it runs true to size and it fits like a peplum top with extra space around the waist the top is not really crocheted by hand it was done by machine bu t it is a nice top when i ordered this all the petite sizes were no longer available i tried t he xs it was actually a nice length for me 5 4 and even the arm openings were not too large which is a plus i expected all the extra flow and material on the back of the tunic but there w as too much fabric on the front too very unflattering if it had been a closer fit on the fron t i probably would have kept it the color is very nice but the fabric is pretty standard noth ing that makes it stand out it is very basic ribbed white tank with a little character in the b ack could easily be dressed up or down material is soft and light and has a slight stretch i will be getting a lot of use out of this piece i was very impressed with the quality of the sat in this top can easily be dressed up or down i purchased the white and love it the almost ful l zip back makes for easy on and off i ordered a medium and think it runs a little big perfect for the change in weather this sweater is very thick and a tad big i would say it is true to s ize but if you re like me and usually order up in sweaters and outerwear don t there is ample room for layering underneath without being too cumbersome the color is a bit different than tha t shown it is more of a blush heather with light gray threads intertwined just a note the pin does not come with the sweater the closeup made me think it did but it really doesn t matter the color i ordered this for my honeymoon and it s perfect true to size and great with cute sho rts the hemline on this is somewhat see through and that makes this denim skirt really stylish the waist runs small so i had to return my size for the next size up which was still a bit snug but the skirt is so far beyond the normal ho hum denim skirt i just have to keep it at 5 3 it hits just right slightly above the knee nan this vest is beautiful and exactly as shown in the model shot it is soft warm and drapes beautifully perfect length on my 5 7 frame the leat her detail along the edge is a nice high quality touch i will say that it is pretty itchy espec ially around the neck but wearing a shirt with a collar like it is shown seems to help that iss ue the dark color is navy in the print not black overall i think this is gorgeous but the full price feels a little ludicrous i think i may wait until sa i ordered this online which is always a gamble when it comes to fit i was pleasantly surprised color is true white and lace i s not flimsy which i appreciate good coverage of the girls so i don t have to layer over a tank also arm holes don t gap and they re not too tight beautiful with trousers jeans or a skirt i ve already worn it twice to work i know i ll be wearing it a lot fit seems true to size i usu ally order a medium and i ordered a medium which fits me perfectly i just got this skirt in the mail and i m absolutely delighted with it i d ordered both my normal size and one size up tak ing a tip from the reviewer who d found it snug but my usual retailer size fit beautifully i do have narrow hips though so maybe it s snug on more curvaceous figures the fabric is so so ft and supple and i ve already tried the skirt with several widely varying shoe styles so i ca n confirm its versatility it looks feminine with heeled sandals as in the pictur i have two tr acy reese skirts from a few years back that i still wear so i am favorably disposed to this des igner s style and quality this is a slim fitting skirt though i ordered it in a 6 and my two o thers are 8s so i don t agree with previous review that this skirt runs large it is nicely fit ted and flattering it does not ride up when sitting which is almost amazing i wish the pocket s laid a bit flatter also on my skirt there is no sewn in fabric or laundering instructions n one th adorable skirt the eyelet part on the bottom is cut out so see through but cute and sub e and unique top the fabric is substantial linen but a little rough i went with my regular si ze but the straps are a little loose i am thinking of having them altered planning on wearing this with a bandeau perfect for summer beautiful blouse i bought this in cream runs tts can wear with jeans skirts etc love front and back very flattering arms i love these pants the pattern is polished and the flowy style is perfect for warm weather i ordered a small and was w orried they would be too short i m 5 10 but they are just right when i wear them just slight ly lower than my true waist my new favorite summer pants saw this tee on line and thought i d give it a shot the fit is very complimentary and the material is heavenly i get lots of raves about the casual yet pretty style too great shirt like another reviewer i recently had a baby and ordered this to hide my belly the m fits perfectly without looking too large and the sleev es fit me just fine i love the thicker fabric and his is he perfect length for leggings absol utely love wear it with suits jeans anything the orange color is super unique and the lace is so pretty and seems like it will hold up over time so glad i purchased i saw this top on line and had to buy it immediate which is rare for me it looked loose and forgiving but had a polished look it didn t disappoint when i tried it on however the straps are a bit loose and will need to be altered the linen fabric can be rough or itchy but still a gorgeous top i am not sure why so many gave only 3 stars yes this top is for a strapless bra my bra top where the strap starts\r\n0 was showing but so nice shape was ok for me it does go in at the hem givinng a bubble like shape but it s part of the charm i dnd t experience the loose straps bu t didn t pay attention to that when i tried it on also didn t notice the stitching was red in t as a cute spin on an otherwise basic top this top looks great with jeans shorts skirts etc i purchased it in all 3 colors the blue is more of a robins egg blue the orange is a great tan gerine color perfect for us tennessee fans and the ivory is a wonderful brownish white the ivory is my favorite because it s a very unique color i have a ton of white and ivory tops bu t i do not have one in a color like this works great on my 5 11 frame is pretty and feminine great with skinny jeans and booties very cute shirt well made nice detail but a little long for my taste but i did keep it super cute and comfy bottom of the legs have about a 8in slit th n sale received many compliments not see through i ve been anticipating the arrival of these pants and was literally at the doorstep with ups i have a birthday celebration visiting winerie s and thought this would be the perfect outfit it did not disappoint fits like a glove very flattering and comfy i am 5 4 and ordered a small petite not too short but still have the opt ion of wearing sandals i hesitated because of the price but so worth it this top has a nice print and material being a full figure it helps when a material stays put instead of being to o flowy not very keen about the straps they re a bit longer for me so they don t stay on my shoulders i ll keep it and adjust the straps first of all this top is brown and light beige i was expecting more of a dark grey and cream it also has very noticeable stitching that is a v en regarding the fit i am 5 6 123lbs 27 inch waist 32d i ordered the 4 and it fit well a s other reviews have mentioned the straps are long so the top of the shirt hangs fairly low i did not find this to be flattering it made my bust look low and my i wore it for the first time this week and received so many compliments i bought the white one and it s a tiny bit see throu gh but still love it i m a sucker for lace details that dress up an otherwise plain white shir t the shoulder and sleeve lace is well done on this top and the cut is flattering skimming ov er the body i appreciated that the product notes included the length as i ordered a petite s i m 5 4 120 lbs and the fit was perfect a regular s would have been too long for me the fab ric is soft and fluid i wish it were a little more substantial but that s a minor quibble lov e this top great for summer unique in the print feels great on a little loose but great for a hot texas summer although i was worried it wouldn t live up to its sticker price i m glad i bought this shirt it is extremely flattering in the way it drapes the lace details make it see m dressy and special the fabric feels luxurious sleeves are almost too short for my long arms but they are good enough i wore this for the first time this weekend and loved it it is long a nd lean but not baggy or tent like i m 6 0 so i appreciate the length and fit \r\nwill get a lot of use out of this good w skinny jeans and i can t seem to have enough black tops was not expecting to like this tried on and super cute comfy relaxed fit looked good with leggings i had on but color will be great with jeans too will wear both unzipped and zipped i love the gr ut it is what i wanted so works for me i love this top it is long enough for my torso and arms i am thinking of ordering in another color i ordered a size large i recently had a baby and w as looking for a top to hide my baby belly until i lose it this shirt fits amazingly i don t find the sleeves to be snug at all if the shirt wasn t so distinctive i d order in several co lors the quality is fantastic for a tee and has a nubbed appearance you can t see in the photo s i ordered one size down and it s still plenty roomy as others have said the sleeves are a t ighter fit but there is a tiny bit of stretch to the fabric i m smaller busted and didn t want the v neck to get too low so i sized down one very cute tucked into jeans or paired with leggi ngs great fabric details construction but it is not grey definitely shades of brown i do like the look style of this top these are amazing wide slits on out seam show off your cu te shoes runs large i m 5 7 140 size 6 hourglass small was quite loose at waist xs fits my actual waist and makes length right for flatter shoe 3 heel or small petite sits on my hip dge shoe excellent quality i love this camisole with it s muted shades of black based on othe r reviews i sized down from my usual 4 to a size 2 and the fit was perfect and no problems with the straps being to long a keeper love this hoodie i bought a large to fit bigger on me and i t works well love the color and embroidery i bought this in the white in both the sp and the m p i am 5 2 i ended up keeping the mp my usually size at 36c broad shoulders i found that the top of the sleeves to be a bit snug and i have normal size arms if you look at the model sh e petite sizing overall i kept it as it was slimming quality made and the tight sleeve hopef ully won t bother me or shrink i m happy i bought this top it s very cute and almost a littl e immature childish but with the right bottoms it looks classy i found it to run large so i si zed down one size and it fits good though the straps can feel a little tight if it rides up it washes beautifully will probably not work on large chested women nan i saw this in the store i n a display and tried it on i got it in the sky color which is a lavender blue color the front and back are both cute this top can be dressed up or worn with jeans very cute top does requi re a strapless bra as the straps are further out than most tops and they also tend to fall down also while the top fit well the top button gaps are far apart and tended to separate to show m y chest easy fix with a snap sewed in this top runs a bit small but it s very pretty i got t he ivory and it s beautiful very form fitting it is a bit see thru so i will probably wear a t ank under it it s simple tshirt material so i feel like it should be a bit less nan hands d own most comfortable bra ever nan i absolutely love the print on this fabric and the linen ble nd is perfect for warmer weather i do wish this top was more fitted overall it seems like the silhouette is a bit looser than is ideal however i m keeping this and wearing it \r\ni m 5 2 95 lbs and ordered the 00 petite my size is 4 but because they did not have it i ordered 6 a little big but i can fix it \r\nthe price was very nice \r\ni thought it said gray but what i got is more brown these are really cute pants nice flowy fabric perfect for dressing up or d own from spring to fall the only problem for me was the sizing i tried my usual xs 0 5 7 1 15lbs but they were huge as in pulled them on without realizing there was actually a zipper opening i then decided to try the petitie in the xs and those fit perfectly but unfortunately t hey were too short the regular length were too long and would have needed hemming but that woul d not have bothered me as it would have i have been eyeballing this shirt online during my visi t yesterday an associate just happened to bring one out for me to try on as my store had just go tten it in happy coincidence \r\n\r\nthe fabric is very soft and comfortable with some give st retch the sleeves seem sturdy like they will hold up in the wash i thought the shoulder area w as fitted but not too snug however i have smallish shoulders the v neck wasn t too low no cam i needed but low enough to be a little sexy not dowdy it s fai this top is lovely and flowy i t fits true to size and the lace detail at the neck is perfect to make this top stand out i fe lt like it was a little sheer but it wasn t problematic enough for me to take away a star i bought this blouse in two different colors the orange and ivory and kept the orange the s tyle and fit were very flattering the drape of the fabric along with length hitting right bel ow waist and sleeves are very flattering i am 5 4 and 118lbs and the 0 fit me perfectly i h ave muscular arms and the capped sleeves are perfect i returned the ivory due to the sheerness of the fabric it is quite sheer which is a problem if i wanted to wear this for work also yo u can see the dark i think these are a cute pant they run large in the waist seat area but not in the length i m 5 4 and this gathered at my ankle i like them even though i have to keep hoi sting them up keep in mind the tie to tighten the waist does not stay i agree with one of the r eviewers that the armholes on this dress are big however the garment is tight around my chest area even though i am not chesty and lays next to my body perfectly so this is not problematic i don t feel like they are gaping holes there is just more area there than i would be used to i like the fabric this is made out of it is not quite as soft as i had hoped but it is comfort able i would say it is a medium weight a little more than i was expecting the flare is i can t believe how much i paid for this top got free shipping special so worth it i ordered the blue and i love it size small fits perfectly i am into peplum tops lately they are so flattering w y below the bust it is not as dressy in person as it appears in the photos a cute top for jean s or leggings as the length falls below the hip easy to wear cute comfy will be a go to for summer a flattering soft basic i m 5 2 120 lbs and purchased the small on sale i had higher hopes for this dress and perhaps should have sized up but it was not very forgiving in the stom ach area on me i still love the dress and the look of it on the model but was less than thrill ed with it on myself i am 5 5 135lbs 34c and ordered a size small art on a dress belt on the back makes it interesting i tried on the xs in the store and i don t need a petite in this but perhaps a xxs it is on the shorter side so no great on my muscular thighs if petite wher eas the regular size hit me just above the knee the cut is away from the body a bit a line but not fitted the colors are gorgeous but i think this is more of a casual dress like brunch with the girlfriends for example love it it is now in my wish list for alter i tried in the usual xs but the arm holes were big and the dress just looked too big for me i am not sure bout ordering petite as it also may be too short so i decided to leave this one behind materia l is really soft though and the cut flattering if it fits which is why i recommended i do have a lot of grey dresses however for reference i am 5 1 5 and 115 lbs i bought this in both ye llow and green what a gorgeous and flatttering top that fits beautifully i love this top i bo ught this dress for my college graduation and it s truly gorgeous i love the loose breezy fit but it did feel just a little bit sack like on me definitely more so than i expected from looki ng at the product picture even after sizing down to a small which was comfortable and i m usu ally a medium i ended up pairing it with a small belt \r\n\r\nreally pretty dress just be ad vised leaves a lot of room around the waist i tried this on yesterday in the store because i was drawn by the rich purple color and pretty print i took my usual size 2 5 2 110 lbs an d while it fit well it did leave too much room in the bust and around the shoulders arms i had the store order me a 2 petite and am confident that this will help the shape of the dress is a bit straighter than it appears in the picture and it didn t gather in the waist at all but i st ill found it flattering i m sure i will get great use out of this i love these pants i ordered mine in green and retailer definitely offers vanity sizing but i love them super cute and comfo rtable i wish they had more colors available these were a great buy super cute dress swingy flattering easy to wear the pattern is great and i felt like it was the perfect length for me though i m short so it may be too short for someone taller the dress runs big i m usually a 6 but i got this is a 4 only complaint is that the pockets add unnecessary bulk top is well made runs large the arm holes were too big and sagged under my arms showing my bra go a size smaller than your normal size i have a racetrack bra that works with the arm holes a bit large like you see on the model so i am not concerned about them i may or may not have my tailor tack th em in length was good knee length some of retailer dresses are a tad short for my 40 yr old s elf shape was flattering i ve some weight on my bum and things even though i m small the ba ck of the dress hung well not clinging to the derriã re the swing shape didn t overly accentua te my hips i really love the dress it s a kn bought these in 28 had to return for a 27p love them i order the 2 other colors this dress is very pretty and we ll made it runs pretty big t hough and i would suggest going a size down i ordered this top in all 3 colors love the peplum look \r\nreturned the green which is actually my fav color but it wasn t a pretty shade of gre en and i don t think that it was a flattering contrast with the cream especially going into sp ring summer \r\nkept the yellow and the navy and love \r\nthe navy is classic and the yellow i s soft and flattering \r\nit s a very cute top runs a little large but is very pretty i typic ally wear a small or x small in most brands from retailer but decided to order a small and medi um in this dress since it s a non stretchy fabric i m glad i did because the medium was a good fit and the small would have been very snug so i would agree with the previous reviewer and say that this dress runs at least a size small otherwise i really like the fit the fabric just as pictured this little top is just too cute the fit is exceptional and quite flattering anothe r very feminine top and the yellow color is perfect i love pairing yellow with black of cours ll them cropped now a days at any rate this is a first rate top that i highly recommend th is is a cute dress the quality is very good for a dress of this type the fabric is not too thi n and the stitching is perfect i do think it runs a little small i typically wear an xxsp or a 0p and i purchased this in the regular xs regular xs is typically way too big but i took a cha nce on this one because i really liked it and i also like my dresses a little bit longer than sh own on the models surprisingly it fit well in the chest and the armholes were not too big as is often the case love this dress the fringe makes it so special it s a little shorter than i anticpated it hits me right about where it shows on the model and i am 5 2 i love the length can t wait to wear this love this dress i agree with some of the other reviewers the arm hole s are a little low but not a deal breaker i m 5 8 120lbs and ordered the xs and it fits perfe ct would definitely recommend i purchased this in black as in the other reviews the lace deta il is a little snug in the arms but it did stretch i did not have a problem with any fraying or quality issues the shape is very flattering i ve been asked where i bought this several times so often you find dresses in a cool breathable material like rayon or silk but the manufacture r lines it in hot non breathable polyester which leaves you sweating on a hot summer day or n ight thankfully someone at antropologie knows what they re doing and this gorgeous silk dress is lined in rayon thank you to that person \r\n\r\nyes this dress is a bit on the short side with it s modest neckline it looks like it could be great for work but it does hit a bit above the knee so if you wo just received this dress and i am in love the colors are beautiful perf ect for both summer and fall the fabric is very soft and the fringe detail adds a nice feminine touch i was disappointed when i missed out on the first fringe stripe shift dress from holding horses at the beginning of this summer it was completely sold out in my size 0 however when i saw they restocked the dress in a new color and now lined yay i had to buy it would defin re commend this dress didn t do much for me on the hanger but it was on sale and thought i would try it on in the store so glad i did definitely cuter on than just hanging there the back has a belt feature that adds a little structure the colors are nice and bright will be good for ou r hot austin summers very comfortable love the built in lining it fits loosely but i don t l ike anything binding so it works for me length is fine i could easily wear it to work the shi rt fits very nicely a little large but very confortable amazing color i got it in green this looks beautiful and fits true to size the material has enough weight so that it hangs well thi s is a very form fitting dress i wouldn t recommend it to someone uncomfortable with a close f itting style i tried a regular 0 in store and it was more billowy than i would like i m usuall y a size 2 4 and 5ft tall i ordered a petite 00 and i m hoping the fit will be more snug and th at the length will be more proportional to me the reg 0 hit just above my knee but it might be cuter mid thigh it s a cute dress that can be dressed up or down and i hope it will work out i tried this on in the navy white combination and loved it except it is cut rather full or larg e through the waist especially if you can size it down so it fits you you will love it it is very soft an easy top to throw on feel comfy and look fantastic i sure wish it was smaller nan i love this top although it is a tad big i expected this because the moth brand usually do es run a tad big however i am still able to wear it without any nerves that it s too big h ope that makes sense the navy was more lovely with my skin hair but the yellow was so pretty too love the colors on this adorable flattering style when this dress first came out i though t it was weird then i started seeing people on instagram wearing outfits that look super cute and i wanted it but sold out so when this version came out i snatched it up right away it s different from anything else i own very quirky and in style details and has a bit of a man re peller vibe that is why i love it i have been a big fan of this canadian designer so when i sa w the sweater on the web i immediately ordered it on the website it looks very modern and edg y chic i was heartbroken when i saw it in person when i opened the bag and put on the sweater i noticed a lot of little black marks on the bathroom floor it came from the sweater size smal l was swimming on me and the holes on the shoulders which supposed to look modern well the t hin cheap material the sweater looks like it s ripped it s a casual dress with a luxurious feel very flowy but the back panel gives it a bit more structure i like that it graces my body with out showing any lumps i will very much appreciate it on hot days i m anticipating a big of hea dache when ironing it but i appreciate that it s not dry clean only i m on the shorter side of average height and it hits me mid thigh i love the top for its minimal fuss no ironing yay definitely go 1 size smaller than your regular size i got my usual small size but was swimming in it at the waist the pattern and material are great i bought the navy blue and might also ge t the yellow i would have liked it to be slightly longer since i have a curvy bottom i am 140 lbs and got the small this is my first tracy reese piece and i love it already the somewhat e dgy unique grommet and navy embroidery on the neckline and upper arms is very flattering on th e body the silky cotton texture surprised me it s 60 cotton 40 viscose it drapes well and f eels good on i will definitely enjoy wearing this for work or nice casual i love that it is re gular bra friendly and that i don t need to stress about a low neckline i am size 8 medium 34 f and the medium is terrific i got the an what attracted me to this beautiful piece is the lur e of angel of the north quality and design i know that this sweater jacket will be worn and enj oyed this fall winter and years to come it s a classic beauty when i put it on it has a com fortable vibe high quality medium weight dark black wool and beautiful lines i love the dee p collar slightly lower back hem and inverted pleat at back waist to give a slight flare to th e drape it accents a feminine look and will be an invaluable st this is a great piece it fits really well and the fabric is nice and soft it is a good thickness so you don t have to wear a shirt underneath love this tee the fit is true to size and very flattering shaping not too t ight not too baggy good length i love the stitching detail on the top the material is thick enough that you are not forced to wear a cami under it my only concern is that it says to hand wash dry clean acceptable i have had some bad luck with retailer tops shrinking i m not going to risk it and dry clean it normally i would not want that expense or hassle looks great on i am 5 11 and the length is perfect hits above the knee but not too short also room in the chest area i just revieved this skirt and like it a lot they did not have my size in petite so i ord ered the regular length it is very long i am 5 4 1 2 and tried it with 4 inch heels and still had about 2 inches dragging on the floor and will need to be hemmed in this picture the stitching around the flowers appear white but it is actuallly a shiny delicate gold thread in person hopefulluy it will not fray with wear i initially got a white top to go with it and it works but i think a red or navy as soon as i saw this blouse in the store i fell in love with it i thought it was a little too expensive for what it was but hey that s antho for you i luckily had a gift card and a 15 off bday promo so i got it at a good discount i love the fit of it sometimes button down tops like this are too tight in the arms or pulls too much around the chest and this one doesn t when i do wear it i have to be conscious of the buttons because it can be a little gappy in between the buttons when ok so first things first i m 5 4 125 4 27 32g and i took a small in this it s your typical cloth stone fabric and feel sooo good \r\ni do agree that this romper is on the shorter side but i liked that about it it is far more flattering than the modeling photos online it doesn t look that oversized i can see where taller ladies won t go for the shortness but at 5 4 that s just not an issue for me the bottom is very flattering and doesn t do that long grandma butt that some rompers i actually like this better on the instagram picture than on the model anyway i ordered the xs petite for 115 lbs 5 1 5 and it fits really nicely not too short the material is nice and soft nad looks like it may not wrinkles which would be a bonus the little gold buttons are super cute but you can t really wear this untied so it is pretty much a strictly tied short sleeves are flattering i think i may keep it i ordered a size xl it ran small especially compared to other retailer xl tops the quality of the material was great as was the embroidery i wish it fit because i definitely would have kept it very pretty tee i saw this in my local retailer store and thought it was super cute tried it on and was delighted the top fits nice and looks crisp and nice a great nautical look the brass buttons add a pop to the shirt that is very nice i usually wear between a medium and large in retailer shirts and the large fit perfectly i am a 34d for reference and usually a size 12 on top \r\n\r\ni bought the top and didn t notice until i got home that it is dry clean only yikes i hate that this is a casual top to me i tried this on in the store the embroidery is very nice and the shirt is very flattering however because of all the stitching the shirt is a bit stiff on top there is not much give i am also concerned that after washing it it will look terrible so i passed nan cute shirt but no worth full price for sure runs small in the bust and i am not busty at all definitely order up a size i am returning mine however because of size and price ok so the shirt is dry clean only however i like it so much that i m not going to knock out a star in the rating the quality is really nice and it was not too short for me i could reach up without worrying my stomach would be exposed i m 5 6 36c and 125 lbs and the size 6 was perfect wonderful for work and also great with jeans i know it s a little pricy but it s cute and unique plus right now it s 25 cheaper nan just received this and know i will get a lot of enjoyment from it cute fit and since i have had something similar in the past i know how versatile it is nice soft material too this is a great fun dress it s very unique and well built my only complaint is that the colors are not the same in the photo the real colors are black on top and a bright red with shiny torquoise thread running through it it s still gorgeous this top is really cute and the cap sleeves are perfect what i didn t notice from the online photos is that the back of the neckline is also scalloped which is a really sweet detail however i thought this t was a little tight through the chest and i m only a b cup and the fit was a little too boxy the length was also just a bit wrong for my waistline hips and in general reminded me of the tops i used to buy from a popular british clothing catalog overall the quality is beautiful and lovely feels like you are wearing silk and hits for comfort in all the right places still mulling whether the short length is appropriate and if my athletic full lower body is complimented by this cutie needed a second opinion to push me over the top and take this home as a summer staple this top will be great in 3 seasons i can wear it alone in summer to dress up and with a blazer or sweater in fall and winter the velvet is beautiful and luxurious without being excessive or too much it s very soft and comfortable on the skin although a little larger than i expected i ordered my usual size small and probably should have gone down a size this is well made and beautiful but it sometimes slides off so i feel like i m adjusting it somewhat regularly i ordered this online and love it the fabric feels nice and it if fitted on the top then the bottom flows i ordered a 4 which is my normal dress size and it fit perfect comes a little above my knees i m 5 6 i ordered this on a whim and didn t expect to like it as much as i do it is very flattering on and seems like you could dress it up or wear it more casual the back is all lace in the photo she must be wearing a cami because it is see through in person some people may be able to pull off a black bra but i am wearing a cami which also helps with the low cut in the front it has sort of a flirty a line shape to it my top is a bit shorter on me than the model photo the top is also well made very pleased with the fabric and design of this it is thick but not heavy and the cut outs in front fall so that you don t really have to wear anything underneath there is one cut o ut pretty low in the middle that i didn t initially notice but wasn t really a problem i m 5 4 b cup and i bought the small but would have been better with a medium as the small kinda pulle d through the chest i couldn t wear anything over it without it pulling the whole top up it s also a bit shorter than i th wasn t sure what to expect but i like it ordered size large and it s a perfect fit the color is a blush beige it falls at the top of my hips i don t think you n eed a camo under it because the holes are small it s a sweater type knit that s substantial but not heavy love that it ties at the shoulder to adjust the fit and length love this top so so ft and it fits true to size i am a 36b and always wear a large i am a size 12 in most tops and dresses this top is flowy and comfortable love the purple color wish there was a large in blue left so i could order that too love it i love dark colors and i loved the summer touch to this top that i feel like i can wear it year round the little anchors on the buttons are such a cute touch very retailer it does run slightly smaller but not in an extreme way i d love to see more styling options for this top because i m a little stumped at how to wear it outside of my w hite high waisted shorts haha love these they are a lovely gauzey cotton so they actually feel light they do have volume however i don t believe they make you look bulkier though i suppose t hat depends on body type and how they are styled on top i first wore with a form fitting sleeve less chambray button down that said i sized down which meant the waistband was really too snu g and so i sewed the button over to allow more room which is why i gave them four stars they h ave an elegant retro feel versatile for spring and this dress is amazing love the fit quality and design so unique and is perfect for dressing up or down wore it to a wedding and plan on w earing it to work also i m a tall girl 5 11 and this dress was such a good length for me no one likes a dress that s too short i ordered a size 8 and it fit perfectly around the waist and chest this is such a gorgeous tee with beautiful embroidery the colors are exactly as show n and while i take petite sizes at 5 1 i like the length of the regular for myself i m 104 pou nds and tried the xxs but found it to be too fitted and went with the xs in the end i do feel t hat it fits tts and that is just a personal preference i absolutely love this romper the chamb ray material is super comfy and easy to wear i ordered a size up l and i m happy i did bc i t would have been a little too tight in the arm area to squeeze into and gave a little extra wig gle room in the belly area for reference i usually wear size 8 m and i m a 34c color and style was pretty but the sleeves were so long i had to return it cuffing the sleeves wasn t an option because you would lose the cute piping detail and see the inside seam i fell in love with this piece the moment i saw it unfort they were out of the s so i went with a medium fortunately f or me this piece runs true to size and so while slightly large i will still keep it the mater ial is sturdy and of good quality the buttons are large and noticeable and the ties by the shou lder are not flimsy great piece picked this up yesterday in the muted teal great shape great color the pink one is way brighter in person and the green i think is more of a forest green each one was a little different super cute good price this top immediately caught my eye in t ive in a warm weather area so i can get good use of these tops year round i say tops because i bought a second top in the green a couple days later you can definitely see your bra when you raise your arms but this top is just so soft and breezy this dress is true to size and great fo r the winter months it s very comfortable and not scratchy at all i love the colors and patter ns on this dress the buttons are a nice detail but after wearing this dress twice one of the buttons has already fallen off they don t seem to be sewn securely i am tall and this dress fa lls as shown on the model this is a great every day dress the buttons in the back make it very figure flattering and i love the long sleeves the fabric is light so i ll definitely be weari ng with leggings \n\nit s a little tight in the shoulders which is pretty standard for this bra nd for me i ve been searching for wide leg trousers for what seems like years and finally i h ave found them and on sale \ni agree that these trousers are long for ladies of average height i am fairly tall 5 8 and the length is perfect for me i don t anticipate that i will have th em hemmed \ni really love the detail of the tie waist one could wear these with or without the ribbon belt i would say that the button closures are a bit less than substantial for the qualit y and weight of the fabric \ni s this dress is even better in person than in the photos online the colors are vibrant the material has a nice warm weight to it and the buttons give the who le dress that something extra to make it special i only wish the dress came with a couple of ex tra buttons as the first time i wore it one of the buttons came loose and i had to sew it back on to make sure it didn t fall off \n\nthe dress does run a little small i think i normally a m an extra small but the small fit me very well i got the blue print and i love it easy to ma tch with any bottom really i like that it can be made strapless this sweater dress is very bea utiful in person the colors are very fall i actually decided against it only because i felt it was too busy for my personality as for the fit it runs fairly true to size maybe slightly small i tried on my usual medium but i think i would have sized up for a more relaxed look fo r reference i m 5 6 135 lbs and wear a size 6 this could be quite a stunning piece on the r ight person i don tr even know why they btohered making a tall size for this i would need a 6 7 inch heel for the petite version which means regualr sized people should get petite \nalso b igger as in loose i tried 0 and 2 and both ewre biggish thopugh i could honestly not tell the difference sales person told me to try 00 so we shall see i will need to hem them if i kle ep them though \n\nbronze color is very nice so is balck i ordered both for comparison \n\nlas tly cut is very flattering especiall everything about the dress is worth it it s true the butt ons are loosely sewn on but that s easily fixed i m a slim person but broad in the shoulders so i had to exchange the small for a medium because it has a narrow fitted construction large chested ladies or athletic types should size up this is a beautiful dress i love the patterns the beading and the texture however i have returned it size medium my usual size and asked for an exchange up to a large fingers crossed it will be available because the shoulders are very narrow i am fairly tall 5 8 with an athletic build the body fit was a bit tighter than i expected also but not really an issue however the shoulders were obviously tight making it l ook too small and uncomfortable yikes i sooooo love this dress a one of the most comfortable t ops i own fits loose such a soft fabric looks cute love it this dress is perfect for any oc casion it looks great with every shoe and is flattering on great peplum top beautiful whine c olor very thick material i m hourglass figure 36d top so it was very flattering omg i am abso lutely in love with this dress i saw it on line and knew immediately that i had to have it i d ecided to go into the store to try it and it looks even better on than it did on the website th e a line shape is very flattering and the retro pattern and colors are amazing the only down si de if there even is on is that it is a little tight across the chest but i am a 36ddd so sometim es that happens i just took a large rather than my usual medium other than that this dress is my fav i like this dress very much the colors are great and the style cute and casual its perf ect with a pair of cognac riding boots and tights \nit really is depicted well in the model phot o although i think it may be cut somewhat shorter than it appears in the photo i am 5 9 and i ts shorter on me than on the model who i imagine is taller than me \nthe dress is made of a su bstantial tight knit material i found it to be a bit boxy so i washed and tumble dried it hop ing to tighten it up a bit t i wanted to love this dress so much but unfortunately it fell a l ittle short of my expectations the overall quality of the dress is great it s very light flow y and super comfortable to wear i just wish it was a bit more flattering i debated on returni ng it since it didn t really give me any shape but the material was so darn comfortable and such an easy outfit to thrown on that i couldn t part with it nan this dress is beautiful with gorge ous coloring nice thick stretchy fabric and wonderful detailing including buttons the only is sue i had with it is that it s does run small especially in the bust i m normally a medium to large depending on cut so after reading the previous reviews i ordered a large and it s pretty snug still deciding whether i will keep or try for an xl which is doubtful in availability at this point i ordered it with two other pieces both of those a medium fit fine sweater dresses are my fall winter uniform and the patterns on this one are particularly unique and lovely i m 5 2 with a small bust this fit nicely and moves well it s not baggy or bulky and not tight good for work and play i would usually wait to see if an item at this price goes on sale but t his one is the kind of piece that i expect to be snapped up swiftly and i don t regret getting i t at full price i ordered the geranium and teal geranium is an awkward pink but i loved the t eal beautiful color ordered large hoping for some length they re very lightweight and almost too short if you hold this up its just a big rectangle but it flows nicely over the body and h as the appearance of being longer on the sides unfortunately you can see all of my bra and to m y stomach when my arms are even slightly raised i decided to return both this is a really grea t dress especially for the holiday season you can do work and post work events with it easil y i ordered a large but it fit me more like a medium it is very comfortable and the quality fe els great boots give it the day look and a nice set of beige high heels gave it a great evening look i think 4 5 shorts are the best length if you want to show off your legs but still feel comfortable running errands and these fit the bill they are short but they are loose the pat tern i got the grey is nice wore them with a black top that flowed over the waistband and fe lt they were perfect memorial day wore them 2 days in a row all day everywhere got lots of compliments comfortable washed and air dried ready to go again i am typically a 12 ordered the large could probably love this tunic dress but i ordered a petite instead of regular becaus e of length fits a bit snug i have gotten sp from retailer before and they have fit just depe nds on the brand i guess great holiday wear i love this dress colors are great but a little tight in the chest and arms i am 5 8 and usually wear a size 6 i bought the medium because i like a little looser fit on top the arm holes are a little large which makes reaching up for th ings awkward beautiful sweater dress nice texture gorgeous pattern however not for my body ty pe i m 5 5 a size 12 14 and i carry my weight in hips butt tummy area this dress is only s lightly a line almost straight and even the xl didn t look flattering on me and the arms are d efinitely smaller and weird too there is bunching in the pit area i tried on a large for compar ison and it was too tight all over and there was a button missing too this def runs small and i think will be flattering on the i love these pants a dry cleaner lost my favorite black pair ten years ago i have not used them since \nif you wait long enough everything comes back in st yle i bought black and rust these pants are comfortable the perfect length can dress up or d own and are very very cute i loved this dress as soon as i saw it online but the price was hi gh and i was nervous about taking a chance on a knit dress would it be too clingy too stretch y too scratchy too wrong i took a chance on it after reading other reviews and as soon as i tried it on i knew i had found the perfect dress for winter it is super comfortable and the quality of the knit is very good the material is soft and warn the dress looks fabulous with b right tights and high boots in the two weeks i this dress is beautiful and unique an eye catch ing piece with a bohemian flare you will not be disappointed tts the colors and design of thi s dress is stunning i am usually a large in retailer clothes this dress is true to size this c an be worn as a dress with boots or flats or even as a tunic i purchased a scarf to also wear i t with this is one of my all time favorite retailer pieces don t hesitate this top looks so much better on than it does in the pictures very flattering cut and the fabric is amazingly com fortable runs true to size i got my normal xs as most have already commented runs small in u pper body i m always a 2 or 4 petite 5 1 120 max 36aa athletic build the petite s was e xceptionally small in upper body and no chance of it stretching enough to be comfortable since i read other reviews before purchasing i also ordered the petite m pm was too big under arms i exchanged both and purchased a regular s in store fits great though would have liked it a mere 1 shorter \nthe sizing should have been 2 4 6 etc \ni m keeping the these pants are beautiful the color is a nice deep red pretty color for fall and the wide legs are very complimentary for athletic thigh women like myself my only regret is listening to the other reviewer these pants run true to size i am normally a 0p in elevenses and should of stayed with that but went for a 00 because of the review claiming they run small the waist is accurate sizing the only thing r unning big on these pants are the width of the legs and that should be expected from th knitted knotted are my new bff their sweater dresses are amazing and i m now tracking down sold out ver sions of their apparel to enhance my closet and have a party i adore and drool just a lil bi t this dress the colors and styling and warmth make me happy i sized up to a l because of my linebacker shoulders broad bust thanks retailer user reviewers i am comfy as long as i don t flail or flap my one teeny tiny little complaint is right out of the factory cellophane bag i had a loose tried this dress in two different sizes and just couldn t get a god fit for me i fo und the upper arms a little snug and unforgiving if you don t have slim arms it is a beautiful dress in person probably more so than in the photos and a nice thick quality feel it didn t w ork on my frame but i definitely recommend you give it a try this top is very pretty and looks so good with the blue flower skirt unfortunately it runs very small it fit my bust but would n ot go down i imagine it would look better on a much slender frame but since it fit my bust i w onder if the armholes are too big or it maybe a bit loose at the top i like the style and desig n a lot very dressy but the buttons at the top are a bit hard to put on and remove since this is turtleneck every time you wear it the buttons have to come on and off the bu i love this dr ess i was afraid it would be too long because it said petite was 56 but it was perfect i am 5 0 and ordered the size xsp and the length is perfect however in the picture the lining is shor ter than the outer layer but on my dress the lining in longer than the dress in some areas the dress is very modest in the front and the back has a nice plunge but not too low comfortable ta nk i m short but it s a long tank even in a taller frame i like that it covers my mid sectio n beautiful blue color great tank i really like the black and white striped one very versat ile for me this skirt runs a little large my waist is smaller than my hips so i was able to order a small which fits perfectly i m 5 5 and the length hits at the right spot too so the re is no need for hemming i have yet to wear the skirt but i anticipate that it will be a grea t piece to transition from summer to fall with an easy switch of the shirt and shoes can t wait to get a lot of use out of this one great maxi skirt that flows as you walk i can see myself wearing this year round i m 5 7 and it s still pretty long on me i would have gotten the pe tite if it were available i usually wear a 10 or 12 in pants and the medium skirt was perfect for me so you may want to size down unless you have bigger hips i m not usually a fan of t he drawstring waist but this one doesn t add bulk like most do overall great skirt this is a great summer staple tank i first ordered it in black white and i m now ordering the coral navy i m usually a petite xs i have a short torso but seeing the length on this tank i went with the regular and glad i did also i had previously bought the filigree lace tank same bran d and the length of the petite on that tank is the same as this tank s regular length so i kn ew it d fit perfectly nan runs a little large i m 5 9 150 lbs and ordered the medium proba bly could have gone with the small still it has a tie waste so it works love the length and p rint can t wait to wear it this fall with a jean jacket these shorts are comfortable but so st ylish even though i love many of retailer shorts these are one of my favorites i found my ex perience odering the moon lake maxi skirt very easy i received the skirt in a timely manner and am very happy with my purchase these cords are a great skinny fit they seem true to size for me and look great on only issue i would have is the color says navy but they are more of a de ep purple ish color i had to recheck my order because they definitely aren t navy but i m k eeping them because the fit is awesome the top for this suit is great i m pretty small up top so it s rare that i find a suit that doesn t gap however the bottoms run so small for referen ce i m a size 0 in dresses and 2 4 in pants i ordered the xs and s to start both were too sma ll with high hopes that i could keep this adorable suit and well made otherwise i ordered a size m bottom they were still small sadly i m giving up and returning \r\nonly order this su it if you re super super tiny on the bottom these are a comfortable and fashionable pair of sh orts they run true to size and look great i am somewhere between a 24 and a 25 i have narrow hips but an average waist so i was happy to find that these worked for me in me in a 0 i love d the blue color as an interesting neutral they did stretch out a little with wear but i still felt like i looked good by the end of the day i typically really like cotton linen blends as i can usually wear them out of the dryer if i m going for a casual look a few wrinkles with line n doesn t bother me but these oh my when i pulled them out o tried small and medium and both were quite tight on the bottom top is perfect will return the bottoms and try the large this skirt was too big so i returned it but did like it well enough to re order quality seems averag e my only complaint is the lining seems too short for the skirt why on a maxi is the slip li ning a mini the first thing my husband said was that it needed a slip he didn t think it had o ne as he could see through the skirt to my knees this is very lightweight fabric but could be w orn all year around depending on the leg wear that is worn with it it is a very versatile piece which is why i first i noticed that the grey was more like a blue grey navy which i don t min d because it s still a nice unique color i ordered petite size 26 and although these are very well made sturdy cords and fit at the ankle like the model pictured the thigh calves were surpr isingly a bit too tight for me and my calves are s c r a w n y this cord version doesn t see m as stretchy as some of their other styles so i m going back for the standard 26 s this tank was much needed for my wardrobe i love the vivid colors and forgiving cut i am 130lbs and purc hased an xs i ordered these without reading the previous reviews and i would have to agree wit h everything everyone has already said these are the cutest cords i ve seen in a long time the y re definitely skinny bridging on way too skinny through the calves but i m willing to stick i t out the thing that bugs me about them is how stinking short they are the description doesn t really mention that they re crops but at this length any ankle bootie is going to be too short also they aren t navy they re i love this tunic i wore it with black leggings and boots it i s well made and flowy i wish it came in more colors love these shorts fit true to size and th e material is so amazing this cardigan is so fun to wear you can wear it like as it is shown o n this model or turn bottom up and wear upside down as tag suggestion i ve been eyeing this pie ce for a while and gave in when there was a sale admittedly i was first drawn away when i read that it was a pull on style which always seemed cheap to me however it worked in my favor sin ce the small was a tad big but the draw string helped cinch it the store currently didn t have xs the skirt as shown on the model seems like it ll be great as a transitional piece for aut umn and winter and when i tried it in the fitting room i paired it with a cardigan and a i thi nk i will really love this skirt it is comfortable and has a lovely sheerness to it it does ha ve a bit of a weird long drop waist but it is very comfortable and still manages to be flatter ing i think this will be a great piece for transitioning to the fall and winter seasons i can wear it with short sleeves now and sweaters soon i am happy with my purchase around 5 years ag o i bought 4 pairs of daughters of the liberation brand very similar style shorts at retail er and have been repairing any and all frayed fabric in the first two pair in a lighter materi al than the second two pair ever since in order to preserve my 1 favorite shorts thank goodn ess pilcro another longtime fave brand of pants available at retailer came through this year with these very similar but perhaps even nicer shorts i bought the yellow striped pai the cut on this is fantastic every color way is vibrant and appealing length just skims over where my hips broaden which is nice and my shoulders look strong and tan however i prefer cotton or at least a cotton blend this fabric is appealing in that the sweat wicks the colors will never fade and the shape won t change i find the man made fabric very very hot though these bottom s run very small i m 5ft 3in and 100 pounds with a 25 inch waist and both the xsmall and small were too small i think i ll need a size medium ok ladies i love the whole idea behind these p ants cargo corduroy what and in a cool different navy color had to have them i got my usual size but in petite i m 5 5 5 with shorter legs longer torso usually don t get petite in skinniest but for some reason did this time and i have to say the calves of these pants are li ke compression stockings the waist and boodie are perfect but the calves yikes but you know how when you want something to work so bad i ordered my usual si these shorts were exactly as expected they are nice thin shorts perfect for a hot summer in texas i have just worn a few ti mes out running errands in high 90 degree weather and they were perfect i bought the grey and t hey are a nice change from jean shorts but still match just about any top i typically wear a s ize 0 but after reading the reviews purchased a size 2 so i would say they run a little small they are slightly snug in the waist but i ordered online and liked them enough to kee i ordered a size large and it s so big i couldn t tell how it would look in a smaller size the waist cinc hed but there s too much fabric in the hips to be slimming the floral pattern is beautiful with light blue and lavender flowers that are generic enough to match with a variety of colors on top it s too long for my frame the slip falls above knee so it s sheer from there down i decided n ot to try a smaller size but recommend going down one or even two sizes i love these the white actually has a more pronounced look between the top and bottom with a little but of shading sin ce they look a bit different because of that i got both white and black perfect wait and not to giant and perfect for year round work the shawl color is a tad flimsy in how it sits but overa ll these are fabulous this is adorable lots of compliments on color great fit besides the beautiful print i found the fit to be extremely flattering i m typically a medium but the sma ll was a better fit this dress hangs beautifully and the unusual waist band gives the dress and me a great shape i felt so wonderful wearing this dress i feel both confident and comfort able in this dress it runs true to size though maybe just a little bit large i enjoyed wearin g it from the get go i just bought these shorts in the gold color the fit is just right and th e material quality matches up to the price you pay totally worth every penny i followed the other reviewers who said these fit true to size i have to disagree i normally wear an 8 in sho rts which is what i ordered and the fit is too tight in the waist and butt i m exchanging for 10 i really like the color and fun accents i really hope i can get these in 10 this is a fair ly high quality tank which i purchased in blue green it s narrower at the top more voluminous at the bottom and a heavier knit than i expected so i m a little concerned about stretching ove r time but i ll be careful washing it and enjoy it till that day does or doesn t come this d ress hits all of the high notes for me it is crisp elegant and it looks like something a euro pean coutour designer would create i am so glad i have this dress in my wrardrobe it hits me j ust above the knee which is super flattering wear this to a fancy party when you want to look f eminine and classy it is a dress that will serve you for a lifetime really love the pattern an d color combination the dress has an attached lining to around the knee i would say this is tt s or a little big i m 5 8 and around 135 and size s fits well with a bit of extra room around the waist print and fabric cover any perceived flaws and create a long lean look i love the f eeling of effortlessness with cute sandals this is an outfit i love the cut and style of this simple striped tank it s good fabric beware white is not white white is more cream off white light beige i was really looking forward to these shorts but was immediately disappointed when i saw the color they are cute but not white i bought them to wear with the nautical look tops for this summer but unfortunately creamy colored shorts don t do much for navy white tops also the button is very difficult to open close otherwise they are ok these pants are uh mazing i love that they have a seam in the front of the leg and in the back of the leg i didn t notice i t in the photo online but in person it stands out more and anything vertical on my petite frame is a way to go these are my new favorite pants i wish pilcro would make this style in more colors and fabrics \r\n\r\ni wear a 25p or a 24p and i m glad i got the 25p because it s true these are tight in the leg but i think that s a good thing since cords look awful when the cute everyday shorts run tts to maybe just slightly small not too short for this mid 30s mom gorge ous top tunic runs true to size i paired it with jeans but i love the look of the white pants in the picture beautiful and flows nicely love this t shirt i will be wearing this until it wears out very soft great fit and very comfortable love this skirt i wore it to work aft er purchasing this and i had at least 20 people comment on how beautiful it is many office la dies asked where i purchased it and one who asked the cost said it was worth the steep price the green in this skirt really pops out as do the gorgeous golden flowers the pockets are a ni ce addition as well i m going through a blouse phase and this was exactly what i wanted i m n ot svelte and blouses rarely hang off my frame in a flowy flattering manner but this one is pe rfect it is just loose enough and just form accentuating enough that it looks amazing i am pet ite with broad shoulders and a large ribcage short torso so flowy is a tough one for me very f lattering suit embroidery is unique and the cut flatters i love the design on this top it s a little thin but it s held up great with a few washes completely in love with this dress i m a huge fan of byron lars and this one by far is my favorite everything about this dress is perfe ct it s very well made too i usually wear a size 4 but kept the size 6 instead the waist fel t a bit too tight with the 4 btw the belt is adjustable great style but not so great quality \r\nstone fell off right away \r\nbut they still look great very flattering suit runs large i stumbled into this in my local store must have been a return i tried it on even though it was a size small not my usual medium fit like a glove covered my 36c chest i have tried many sui ts and this is best on my curvy shape flattering to tummy i am 5 6 127lb not very toned at 59 years of age this suit is amazing highly recommend fun pattern great colors and super comfy and versatile great pickup at the sale price this dress is like a piece of art absolute ly beautiful on i wore it to a charity event and received several compliments it s just so gor geously different beautiful shirt the color is more navy than pictured the middle of the moon is stitched embroiderer very original and a fun texture my only qualms with this shirt is the trapezoid cut it flairs out slightly but enough to notice from shoulders to the bottom hem i ordered the skirt on friday and it arrived on monday my expectations were exceeded the fabric is great quality and there are subtle flecks of gold throughout the fabric is substantial but n ot stiff at all for this type of skirt you need a thicker fabric i m about 5 4 123lbs and i ordered a 2 regular the fit everything from the length to how it fell on the hips is perfe ct can t wait to wear this skirt love love this skirt such a pretty green color and a great q uality this will be a staple in my closet for years to come and i love a skirt with pockets b ought this dress for easter and the compliments were relentless the quality of this is superior hence the price the fact that it can be worn year round i will get my money s worth out of it my only complaint is the belt that little sucker was way confusing to me so i just went witho ut it i needed directions to figure it out or a phd i thought these would be nice and the y are but then i started thinking that the bejewels will eventually be out of style and these ca n t be as much of a classic also the jewels make the jeans feel heavier \r\nfit is like mos t boyfriend girlfriend jeans slightly loose not as much on me due to muscles and length on pe tite was close to what is shown here typical for me that it is still a bit longer as not only am i short but i have short legs for my shortness \r\n\r\nso if you want that styl soft fabric the blue is a nice color rich the drape effect is very flattering on the body the length of t he regular xs was fine on me i often get petite but would not need it in this case could wear this with jeans or dress it up with a nice skirt good basic the skirt looked orange online bu t is more of a nice red i do like orange too though \ni had orginially palced this in my baske t as a to order later to see but my store had it glad because i would have ordered petite adn i do think that would have been too short for me not appropirate for work or in my opinion0 m y age the skirt size 0 regular fit my waste and fell about one inch above my knee i am 5 1 5 115 lbs if it helps so petite would have been short \n\nthe only thing tha so i ordere d this because i like amadi dreses in general and was curious how hte long one would fit i do love it it is really comfortable color is pretty neitral material is thick enough for fall c alifornia winters and cold spring days can be dressed up a little with nice heeled booties i a m less than 5 2 115 lbs if curious and this worked on me petite xs i say go for it i wan ted to love this skirt and i agree with the other reviewers the color of the skirt is beautiful i ve never seen anything quite like it at retailer the quality is superb and the material is fa irly substantial given the brocade design however the skirt made my hips look a lot bigger tha n they are because the shape of the skirt is more of a tulip design i purchased an 0 petite be cause my normal size 00 petite was sold out and while the waist part fit the hip part was dispr oportionately l beautiful color and soft material but runs a little big so size down i loved t hat it was complementing to my figure without making me look larger i fell in love with this ski rt at the store but was concerned i wouldn t have enough to wear with it i ended up purchasing it online and when it arrived found that it goes with so many things black turtleneck as pictur ed navy blue blouse with bird print white t shirt white blouse the options are endless fits true to size too short to wear to work but will be perfect for spring and summer weekends can t wait for the weather to warm up i agree with the other reviewers this shirt is cuter in pers on it is a flattering cut and the design is even prettier than in the photos the color is more navy not the charcoal color it looks in the photos the stitching is also more colorful in real life this was adorable but looks much better on the lean flat chested model i am only 110 lb s and 5 4 but i am curvy and it just didn t do me any justice so i will be returning i think t his would look better on someone more flat chested because it really accentuates the bust i bo ught this top to match a maxi skirt and it was pretty close to perfect i got the blue color which is more of a brighter blue than a navy i m 6ft and wear a 10 top but got this in a larg e hoping to gain some length in the torso out of the of a large and could have gone a size down the top was definitely long enough and i didn t have the problems with the gaping at the hook th at other reviewers had this is probably because i went a little larger in the sizing and i have a very small just got this in a 2 petite 5 4 120lbs 34b and it fits perfectly the length is right at the bottom of the knee it is fitted tight at the waist and the belt is even more beaut iful in person this dress has some weight and the quality seems excellent there is a scalloped nude lining that is attached to the dress and the dress can be unzipped from the bottom as well \nthere is a darker lace fabric under the armpit which i like since it hides your armpits much b etter than the sheer red lace fab this dress is absolutely stunning and well made it can be wor n throughout the seasons i love this designer and this dress is a masterpiece these pants are gorgeous they are not a denim material more like the softest khakis you ve ever felt they re very flattering and hug all the right places i am a 4 6 in pants and the 27 feels great a wort hy investment yes as much as i d have liked this to be a true red it s kind of red orange i am relieved however that it is not as orange as it looks on my monitor that is my only slight and i mean slight disappointment in this cute as all get out skirt i am 5 5 140 lbs and the si worked this may be the most beautiful high quality piece i ve ever seen at retailer i ordered a medium as i like my shirts a bit loose it is a beautiful shirt and looks great in person h owever this shirt is cut more wide and short than it is long and lean exchanged for a small i t took a minute but once i figured out how to wear this i loved it it is meant to be oversize d and for me looks best with leggings and ankle boots too much bulk to be worn with even a sli m skirt i m 5 9 curvy and long limbed the fabric has a thick high quality feel i find it quite soft and comfy the unexpected design of the ribbing gives it a subtle chic it s fashion hich works well for i love the beautiful flowy material and design definitely runs a bit large i ordered an xs and it needs to be taken in as well as taken up i would have ordered the petite if it wasn t out of stock so the length is probably fine for most shimmery detail is beautiful this skirt is a keeper great quality beautiful color great fit i really love this skirt whe n i first tried it on i felt as if it was too thick and bulky for my frame i m very slim but my mom convinced me to get it well mother knows best i wore it to church with boots and a blo use and it looked great i received endless compliments it s also a modest yet fashionable le ngth the colors in this skirt are gorgeous a super pretty emerald green color with graphic sil ver and black flowers this skirt can be dressed up or dressed down i m loving the idea of wear ing black tights and flat boots with it to make it casual or wearing it with tights and heels fo r a holiday party the weight of the skirt isn t heavy so i think with the right colors can wear it in spring too versatile and flattering i don t order many clothes online because i m a toug h fit and need to try on first but this was one of the rare times it was worth the risk i love the high waisted vintage style and the length is perfect the bold color is fun the little det ails are even better navy blue piping the buttons and the ribbon laced on the back great skir t i loved the swimsuit when i saw it online and it looks just a cool in person however i had to return it because the size large top was very very small i wear a 34d bra this top seemed l ike it would only work for an a or b cup size even in the size large cute suit for the right b ody though currently wearing right now \r\npurchased during the first days of the tag sale runs large i e i typically wear m l and ended up going with a small definitely need a tank underneath as the hook does not close the top of fully like the blue color the pink is more o f a peach and made me look incredibly washed out \r\na must at the tag sale price i ordered thi s sweater in a medium with high hopes i m 5 8 and slender but with a 36 bust and the medium was too loose and long sleeves fell past my wrists i would exchange this for a small for a be tter fit but the color is not the white or cream color i was expecting the color of this sweat is more of an oatmeal not flattering on a far skinned blonde i think the color would look fan tastic on someone with dark hair as it does on the girl in the photo the texture is great and i re this is a beautiful skirt i wanted to make sure that i received a size that fit so i order ed two different sizes pxs and ps i typically wear a pxs but since the description mentions a side zip and it looked as if the skirt was to fit higher on the waist i thought i should also tr y a size up as i mentioned it is lovely light airy i just wanted something easy to throw on a nd look put together with flat sandals and a tank for the hot weather that is coming and for an upcoming vacation to the i love this skirt i feel in love with it in store and when i couldn t stop thinking about it a few weeks later i knew i had to get it beautifully made with high qual ity materials and so flattering fits very well for my figure big butt and hips w small waist sits just below my belly button and accentuates my waist and slims my hips must have this t sh irt is great it fits really well and is very flattering the colors are nice including the t s hirt color itself the fit is perfect including the sleeves and it s very comfortable my only concern is how well it will do after you wash it a few times it s such a beautiful skirt i kep t it around and tried it on with every top i own but i could not get the right look the waist poofs out right below the waistband so any shirt worn over it makes you look frumpy tucking a shirt in didn t look right because of the poof it doesn t do anything to flatter a figure the skirt itself is gorgeous for the price i need to make sure my clothes make me look good too r eluctantly i had to return it i was hoping it would be my summer go to skirt this shirt is com fy fits well the color pink or dusty rose works well with most outfits but the front hook i s ill placed and often visible it could be tucked under better so as not to show but it isn t and does show i feel that i frequently need to fluff it up to hide the hook otherwise i like it but i wouldn t have bought it unless it was on discount which it was this arrived in white at my store and it was so airy and dreamy i had to try it on this is the epitome of the effortl ess tank its a simple throw on with enough style that all it needs is your favorite pair of jea ns and a cute necklace unfortunately it didn t quite work for me if you have any kind of tummy or chest size up i tried on my typical large but it was too tight and ended up looking like a maternity shirt on me however my coworker who is much more of a slimmer shape tried this on th e shirt is quite beautiful the lace is thick and high quality however i have a short ish tors o and hourglass figure and this shirt added 20 lbs the peplum fabric below the waist hung awkwa rdly and poofed out maybe this would work better for a taller person or one who has a straight er build i love this skirt and wish i could keep it but it is not for the vertically challenge d i am 5 0 130 lbs and the medium petite was about 4 in too long even with wedges my intent was to wear this with sandals so i have to return boo i love this shirt except that the hook t hat keeps it close doesn t work a lot outside of that i love it i typically wear a small or ex tra small and with this shirt the extra small was perfect the skirt is very pretty but it s no t as dark as the street pictures which i like those colors better it s also super long it will have to be hemmed if i decide to keep it for reference i m 5 7 and it was sweeping the floor size medium given the price i m not certain i will keep it i ll try it on a few times then decide this skirt is absolutely beautiful and is a gorgeous vintage red which is more pigmented than i m used to in my closet but that s not necessarily a good thing or a bad thing it runs a little large in the waist also the skirt comes up higher on the torso than pictured mine come s up to slightly above my waistline and ends at about mid thigh however i love this skirt and its timeless design assures me it will stay in my wardrobe for years to come i absolutely love this skirt the picture does not do it justice it is absolutely beautiful and fits perfectly i received so many compliments when i wore it beautiful well fitting top you can t tell from the picture but the entire top is sheer so you need a tank or camisole underneath nice modern print vibrant colors and not sheer no need to add an extra layer which is nice for those of us who r un hot this t is so pretty in person the gold is metallic with embroidered detail this is my first purchase of this brand so my usual size medium fit just fine i am excited to put this un der one of my blazers for a casula friday it is quite unusual and great quality i love this su it the color is stunning and the quality of the material is excellent a one piece never looked so good i went with my instincts and grabbed a size l as opposed to my usual medium fits grea t and flatters the girls while hiding my meaty back such a great artistic design i will love wearing it this weekend i am scared to wash it i may just have to dip it in lingerie powder a nd drip dry for fit reference 140 36dd i hold my weight in my neck shoulders back upper arms tummy i m not a gorilla love this brand wish there was more available always a perfec t fit and excellent quality great color more rich and red than what you see in pic this skirt is beautiful the green really pops and makes the skirt stand out it runs true to size definit ely a great addition to your wardrobe loved the idea of these as soon as i saw them great mid weight jean a little large in the waist the rhinestones sparkle and i received tons of compl ements when i wore these jeans great dressed up or down i honestly have to give these jeans 5stars i loved them when i saw them in the store and had to have them and when i wore them i got tons of compliments they are super comfortable too i read some of the other reviews and t hought that their comments were a little strange these jeans are obviously not classic and the y will go of style but if you run a little outside of the style box you will welcome them in yo ur wardrobe i purchased this when it was on sale and it is a great comfortable and forgiving top this top again runs a bit large so i ordered a size down and it fits great i think that t hey are off a bit on their description of the color i ordered pink but i would consider it mo re of an orangish red color not my favorite but not terrible either overall it is a great shir t this basketweave bikini top in fractals red by mara hoffman is my favorite right now soft f ully lined and reversible to pale pink as are the matching basketweave bikini bottoms the patt ern looks like a vibrant watercolor painting with some fuzzy edges \r\n \r\ni got the size s according to the size guide on the mara hoffman site i m 5 2 currently 33 25 37ish without a b ra on bra size 30d 32c even a 28dd if i can find it the front coverage is perfect it also fits around the back but i i am 125lbs and purchased the petiite small the dress is very flatt ering and can easily be dressed up or down the fabric is a medium weight and does not cling to trouble areas i was returning something to the store before i stepped out of the store when th is skirt caught my eyes it s such a nice skirt with the gorgeous red color beautiful buttons and material that is heavy and thick but soft i paired it with a white shirt that is currently on sale and fell in love with both matching together it is tts i m 5 5 and 120lb and i usually get 0 2 in size size 0 was sold out in the store so i tried size 2 and it fits me very well th e length is great it falls 2 3 in ok so this top runs extremely large for reference i am a typ ical medium but i ended up purchasing an extra small besides the sizing issue the style is s uper cute and perfect for any summer occasion whether casual or more formal i definitely recomm end ps beware it does wrinkle easily lol soft sleeve is cuffed different called moonsc ape cool vibe tiny threads on front of moon omg i just received this dress and it is absolu tely gorgeous fits me like a glove lovely rich reds and quality for reference i m 5 2 an d 99 lb and the 00 petite was perfect i could have even gone with the 00 regular if it s within your means i highly recommend d i love this dress the print and the fabric make it a fun unc omplicated outfit choice that can be dressed up or down very easily that being said there are two issues i wish i had known about although i probably would have purchased anyway 1 it has pockets yay but also the pockets create a bulge where they hit my hips and it s not a flatt ering spot on me to have an extra bulge 2 i washed before wearing because it was super wrinkle d and me and the iron aren t friends anymore so i thr this tank i am in love with the color is great to go with jeans or any color i have in my wardrobe it works with skinny jeans culottes or a skirt and perfectly compliments the current shoe styles my gladiators summer booties and my espadrilles are all equally cute with this outfit topper it is made out of the most beautifu l lightweight material and will be great for the 100 degree plus summers that we have here in te xas the bra thing is a bit of a problem because a strapless bra dose not really cute and comfy and casual skirt i am looking forward to travelling in this skirt and running around for the su mmer i did size down one size highly recommend will get lots of wear i loved the design of t he top it looks great in person too i am typically a size 12 top and i ordered a size l i co uld barely get the top on and once on it was super tight around my armpit area and waist i am going to exchange it for an xl and hope that that will fit the fabric has no give or stretch i t is tight fitting underneath the ruffles the top looks like a halterneck tank top style i bou ght this cute ruffled tank in ivory to go with a silk wrap skirt i ve had it arrived today and it fits perfect i am 5 5 125 lbs and small busted 34b i bought size small after reading the reviews and glad i did because it fits perfect the straps are not too long a common problem fo r me it s a nice length nipped a bit a bit at the waist with slight flare below also it does not gap under the arms which is much appreciated a lot of thought went into this little top i can wear it to i tried on xs petites as someone had returned it i didn t find that it ran smal l it was ok on me i am not sure if the regular size would work but i didn t end up purchasing this today as the color was jsut so so on my skin tone \n\nlikes contrast and detail in ruffle romantic\n\ndislikes the tag pulled on the fabric a bit and you could tell so the fabric seeme d fragile these shorts are a must they are so soft and go with every top imaginable i bought these in an xs and feel they run tts for reference i am 5 1 and normally wear a 24 25 or 0 y ou will not regret this purchase bought the blue romper and love it to bits definitely a summe r staple i m 5 4 105 lbs and generally consider myself proportioned but curvy on the bottom and the xs fit perfectly many rompers have really short inseams but this one is a relatively c onservative 4 5 so i feel comfortable and can dress it up or down i ve worn it a few times and received tons of compliments it s super comfortable forgiving and flattering i originally pu rchased it in black in pxs and ps because at the ti this dress is extremely comfortable and the material is very soft i was worried it would be too clingy but it hangs nicely the length is j ust right although the pockets hit below my hips i was a little unsure of the bold pattern but i liked it better in person i bought it to wear on an upcoming beach vacation but now i plan to pair it with flats and sweaters for the fall love love love like another chambray item i hav e they feel stuff and rough after washing but once you put them on they soften up and look gr eat i love unstructured pull on dresses in the summer and this maeve is better than photo i we ar a medium and fit is spot on i also purchased the earlier version of this dress same style a nd maker different pattern and have gotten a lot of wear out of it this past summer i expected this dress to be identical but it s even better it s fully lined and is a slightly different a nd more substantial fabric \r\nand did i mention pockets i plan to wear it into the fall with a short cardi to dress it u i ordered a m and l based on the reviews and both were too big this is a drapey top with large arm pit openings \ni have since ordered a small and hope this fits w ell \nin general this top is beautiful \ni usually wear a 4 6 or s m top blouse and am 5 8 wit h a slim build the m should have fit better than it did i purchased this dress in 4 colors b eautiful and so comfortable highly recommend love this dress runs big though size down love t his i sized up to xl from large great pattern very soft i am thick legged and big booty th is romper is the perfect length the only issue is when i need to use the bathroom hard to unzi p from the back in a hurry i had my husband unzip for me in order to pull down i didn t expect to love this dress i assumed it would be something i d return this dress is so cute on i lov e how well it fit me and that i could dress it up for work with booties or pumps and a cardigan or dress it down for happy hour or a baby shower i ordered a small i am 5 4 and 130 lbs and it fit me like a glove good job maeve you did it again love the dress runs a little big i ordered a size down than i normally wear and it fit versatile too i even wore it to the office with a black blazer over it and got lots of compliments nan having recently purchased a pair of citizen jeans from retailer in my normal size i went ahead and ordered these because i needed a skinnier fit my stevies finally ripped they fit sort of big in the seat but improved upon wa shing and are a bit more snug i took them to the tailors and had the length taken up i always have to do this but these were particularly long they are not as skinny as on the model but will still working for going to work not really what i was looking for an every i love an item of clothing that i am able to justify its purchase by knowing it is unlike any other piece in my closet this skirt definitely fits that desire the material looks almost like the colors were f elted onto the dark background creating a wearable art piece very vibrant colors the material itself is somewhat stiff and maintains its structure when on i needed to wear a size 6 i m som etimes a 4 sometimes a 6 with a waist measurement of 28 and the skirt sits at the smallest pa rt this dress is made well love the design and the colors i ordered a size 2 and it was smalle r than i expected but overall quality of this dress is so worth the price this sweater coat is great it super comfortable it s perfect for my california winters it could be layered for col der areas this piece definitely runs large like really large i went with an xs instead of my usual small or medium it is meant to be boxy and still is but sizing down allowed for it to be more flattering i d definitely say go in store and try it on you ll love it i m pear shaped s o my inclination is to always grab an a line fit n flare style dress or skirt but for some reas on this stood out to me and i m glad i tried it on i love this dress i m 5 9 with a longer tor so and this still went down to my knees so it definitely works for taller girls the cut is so f lattering and along with the thicker material it gives me more of an hourglass shape that enha nces my curves instead of making me want to camouflage them i got my dress in a size 6 and it s tt i recommend this dress for women wth a small bust this is an absolutely gorgeous dress but it runs very small through the bodice and is almost empire waisted if you remember the coral dr ess from spring by the same designer it fits the same but this one has a tiered skirt so sad i love this dress the colors and design are beautiful i ordered the cream the fabric is unique similar to a waffle but with a dressy quality you definitely need a cami or tank underneath it s form fitting without being too snug i like to wear it with distressed jeans front tucked in and kind of ruched to hide my middle my trouble spot with chunky accessories belt necklace and a block heel it s a little pricey but decided worth it these are great the colors are a l ittle different in real life they are really great but i think they are a bit delicate and i ho pe they hold up i tried this on the fit was true to size as far as no cup size goes 32dd go t xs was ok the pattern i like and was totally fine on my pale skin but think of it i woul d not likely wear this without a tank or shirt support seemed ok too i do like the criss cro ss detail in the abck thinking about keeping it but i jsut don t need it right this second dilemma \n\ncaveat not been tested in a workout obviously since i am not sure i will keep it may chance it on sale don t size down as one reviewer recommended you ll wind up trying to e xchange the colors are beautiful and the front panel has a lot of texture it s a great find i love this blouse i ve received so many compliments on it unfortunately i just got it back from the dry cleaners and the color completely changed to a pale yellow it also ate away some of the fabric so now it s completely transparent and i go to an organic cleaners \r\n\r\nretailer if you can fix the fabric quality this blouse would be a classic first thing i would say these pants run large i m a size 6 the size 4 fit perfect i love the style and look of the cascade fab ric on leg of these pants but these pants are a little heavy still a beautiful pant this skirt i s absolutely lovely \ni m usually a perfect size 8 in all retailer clothes \ni am curvy on the bottom and the skirt pulls slightly so i will be sizing up \ncan t wait to get my new size t ried the navy in store boy does it run big i m normally a size 6 small ish 5 6 34a 28 3 6 the xs was still quite boxy on me while the sleeves were well fitted i understand this is th e style and i like the design with the different sleeves \nit was a no buy as the main fabric wa s already pilling in store and looked a bit cheap sorry contrary to the first review i find this top to be gorgeous the fabric has a silkiness to it with a slightly heavier weight the lace thru neckline is beautifully done the eyelets are high quality the fit has flow like on the model but still a bit of shape not the formless fit that some blouses like this have i l ove the open sleeves i am 5 8 120lbs 34b and am happy with the xs the dress is lovely the b eadwork creates a nice accent it runs big i got a size 0 which should work out just fine for me but oddly it is big and i wish i got a 00 now there aren t any in that size and i will either have to return the dress or tailor it i would recommend this dress just consider ordering a size down from your usual a finely laced sheer bustier along with a gown split along the sides makes for a lovely sleeping garment the material is cooling and the lace is not itchy i ordered this in the peach color and it is a beautiful pale color the underside of the cuff has a pretty pattern on it so if you roll it up once it adds a little something extra it is extremely see through though so you might want to wear a tank under this dress is beautiful \r\ni am on the short side so i ordered in regular and petite and due to the length the petite is better \r\n the material is soft and comfortable to wear there d a reason this dress is all over instagram and like it s stunning and beautiful perfect for a wedding or event the beading is beautiful and the tiers on the dress are more flattering than you d expect especially since it does have a bit of pouff to it love it 5 stats i sized up so that it would be longer this dress is way prettier in person than online fits like a glove a little tight up top as are most side zips i did not have to size up however i love wide neck off shoulder tops i think they are very flattering at first i thought the fabric was too thin but then realized since i want to wear this with a fuller party skirt its nice that ir is not too bulky \ni actually think it will be really cute with white jeans in the summer and great way to dress up a casual outfit loved this top when i received it unfortunately it runs very big i ordered a small because it had come up but in reality i need an x small and maybe even that would be too big im 130 pounds and 34dd its a nice shirt just a little expensive lovelier in person fit tts i tried this on walked away without it and returned to my store to purchase because i couldn t stop thinking about this dress most definitely can be worn now but will layer well through the winter dress it up with heels and accessories or make it casual with a denim jacket and booties perfect floor length at 5 3 5 in the regular 0 tiny bit of room in the bust for a 32b great coat lightweight oversized yet warm just enough structure to flatter most body types i wear an xl 14 but got medium as it s very oversized light enough to wear with layers got a million compliments this arrived just in time for the winter snow storm \n\ni was glad i had read previous reviews advising that it ran large and that the gray sleeves are surprisingly attached to the sweater and do not represent a separate top beneath the sweater \n\ni got a size small and it fits perfectly it s big and boxy but doesn t make feel like i look fat with slim fitting trousers it s super stylish absolutely gorgeous shirt the quality is outstanding only problem is that it is too small i am usually a perfect size 6 and this will not zip returning for a size 8 you won t regret buying it 1 i m 5 5 tall 145 lbs and 38 36d 32 40 and a solid size 10 the size 10 fit me perfectly but if it shrank it would be too tight across the bust the size 12 also fit me well but was an inch looser all around the darts on the 12 hit me in exactly the right place so i decided to go with the 12 even though it looks a little big it makes me look smaller \r\n \r\n2 the fabric is a soft ivory color and the fabric is soft but thick it s not see through at all \r\n\r\n3 the lace on the sides a absolutely stinning dress statement piece for sure however i will agree with other reviews that the bust is small and has no give or wiggle room with the side zipper one if those dreaded side zippers that you always fear breaking as you dress sizing up would help but the waist then appears too big or bulky i am on the fence about whether or not it s a keeper definitely perfect for the smaller chested i usually wear xs size 2 4 the 6 zipped the 4 nearly did but would ve smashed neverth i m 5 ft 3 inches 130 lbs this dress fits perfect i bought a 4r the petite 4 probably would have fit and been a inch or two shorter but i don t the regular looked bad it hits an inch or two below my knee medium thickness of fabric is forgiving even though the dress hugs in all the right places beautiful dress i love this sports bra i do various exercises and it works great for all of them from yoga to running the floral pattern is what really drew me to get this but the quality of this bra is the best i ve ever gotten i wear a 34b bra and the medium fits perfect this is a really nice dress for the money i definitely had to size down i ve always taken a 4 in hd in paris tops so i initially ordered a 4 but it was a little too big in the chest area i wear a 32dd so normally this isn t my issue i replaced it with a 2 and it fits great i also have a long torso which can be an issue for me with dresses but this one works on me this is definitely a good dress for taller girls the material is high quality too i m going to wear it to my friend s we i knew i had a winner when my husband said cute top the first time i put this on the style quality and sizing are all excellent i love the lace detailing in addition to the open shoulder style i am always looking for long sleeve tops that go great with jeans and are right on trend this a great addition to my all wardrobe i love this gown so much i would wear it everyday if i could it is cozy beautiful and feels special like an heirloom the top is perfect coverage and the skirt is so soft color is much prettier than the photo picks up i love this gown my favorite hands down oh i simply can t say enough about this dress it s just so pretty i ve sometimes had trouble with beaded pieces from retailer but not this dress it s a very flattering piece an d the material is comfortable and soft really flattering you can dress it up or down as well i m glad i ll be able to wear this into fall with a leather jacket i have to say this sweater is gorgeous i bought it in the green motif and absolutely loved the variety of colors used i just didn t like the fit it was so blah i felt like an old lady wearing it it really had no flare to it it was pretty boxy and boring so very unfortunately this one went back w ay too much to not be in love w it just had to review this dress because it is so beautiful the fabric is light and soft and is really perfect for this flowy tiered design the colors are really pretty not too bright and it fit perfectly i would say that it is much more dressy tha n it appeared in photos the bodice has some beading and it was much longer on me than on the m odel though still a perfect maxi length it would be perfect to wear to a wedding or formal aff air i love this sweater i didn t buy it the first time when i tried it at the store because th e buttoned look created a bulk on one side and i thought that this was very weird it might have been what i was wearing underneath that day or that particular sweater but then at 40 off i de cided to give it another try and i m happy that i did i bought the navy and i love the feel of the material sizing down makes all the difference too i wasn t fan of the attached sleeves at first as they are made i just received this beautiful dress in the mail after ordering my usual size petite 12 words can t describe how beautiful the fabric and embroidery appeared as i pulle d the dress from the box i quickly tried it on the length was perfect but when i attempted to zip the side zipper i realized that i would never be able to zip it up over my size 38c chest the bodice is simply too small sadly i have to return the dress this is my biggest disappoint ment from retailer so far if you have a ver the dress is very pretty i ordered for a wedding a nd thought it was a little casual for that in the end i returned because it wasn t very flatter ing for my figure love this coat super soft and cozy did not realize the sleeves are built i n to the jacket wasn t too excited at first but once i tried it on i fell in love great qualit y love the design of this top wish i could have gotten it in white but was sold out it fits n icely overall but is a little snug in the stomach area still kept it though because the shirt is just so pretty my wardrobe craves lush detail rich dresses like this beautiful maxi knowin g that the dress is expensive and made of all synthetic fabric i took the plunge and purchased the largest of my size range i ve noticed that most indian labels commissioned by retailer fit tighter in my chest shoulders so i m glad i trusted my instincts and bought the 12p as it fits perfectly on my 36dd chest and wide shoulders this is not a casual dress there are sequins b eads and rosettes decorating the bodice the denim is soft and very comfortable the color also is very dark and goes well with most anything the style is oversized for baggy look and for t hat reason the sides of the over alls gape open requiring a long top i usually wear a size 4 in citizen jeans and ordered small in the overalls and had to return for an xs i do recommend for comfort and fun they look great with booties or flats and hit just at the ankle beautiful swea ter coat love that is easy to pop on head out i did have to go to a seamstress and have the button moved as it was to large and boxy around my waist area the design of this shirt is stunn ing i can t even tell you how many people complimented me on the shirt the only thing is it do es run a bit long with it being long it can go nicely with leggings and boots \r\n\r\nmaterial is a bit thin and should be hand washed or dry cleaned i do wish there were more sizes in petit e great item and very feminine can be dressed up or down and fits true to size this dress is so flattering i absolutely love it it hides a multitude of flaws the sleeves are just the per fect length for me as is the length of the hem the waist also sits right where i want it in th e regular sizes the material is comfortable and has a little give to be a little clingy on top but flares perfectly on the bottom not too far out that it makes your bottom half look huge jus t perfect it s hard to tell how you will like this top unless you try it on first 1 yes it r uns big and wide but not long which i like 2 yes it it is fairly sheer but the design allows for a fitted tank 3 i found it adorable once those first two issues were corrected it s a cut e late summer top easy breathing for humidity \r\ni like this top as well because it allows fo r a normal bra strap so you feel covered but the sexy shoulders peek out it also is a bit long er in the back than the front wh this is a really pretty top the yellow underneath is a very pr etty shade and the tank itself is very soft and comfortable and just loose enough to hide any bi t of tummy the armholes are large however so they are low and make the front look almost like a halter with the way they come in i would order down a size as a result you ll be able to wea r most bras with it but be aware that anything that spills out under your arms will be visible after seeing how this looked on model in the picture i had a feeling it might be not only a bit short but also high waisted so i took a chance and ordered a regular size 2 i am 5 1 115lbs s o i typically order a petite 2 received this today and am very happy i made that choice the wa istline hits where it should and the skirt hit right at my knees the fabric is perfect for wint er i was actually surprised at the weight of the dress when i pulled it from the box it was v ery heavy the lace this looks great with the pilcro lace bottom white jeans i bought the yello nk it looks cheap i do think it is overpriced but i have a hard time finding tops that hit me a t the right length in front and are not i just received this in my normal petite xs and it fits perfectly it s gorgeous in person and i know this will be one of my most worn tops this summer this is probably my current favorite dress it is beautiful comfortable and flattering i wear it with swept up hair and delicate earnings beautiful overlay runs large had to return for a sm aller size what i like about this is the yellow color peeking through the white it makes the ta nk look sunny happy \r\nsoft tank fabric is really comfortable fit is loose and casual i was undecided but thought i have so many nice pieces i don t need this one xsp was a good fit i am 115 lbs 30 dd this top is very cute however it runs quite large i ordered my usual size xs but it looked rather heavy on me the construction of the top was boxy and didn t produce the same feminine look as it does on the modeled picture it s a very cute design but i would order a size down for a better fit this is the sort of top i love to find at retailer it s versatile because the fabric is comfortable enough to wear everyday and the lace gives it a dressy femini ne feel i love the navy because the white behind it shows up the lace beautifully the yellow b ehind the white is also very pretty it s fuller than it looks in the product shots even in an xxs it s long on me at 5 4 but it s fine not sure i can wear with shorts because of the lengt h but good with a mini the neck is also a little h this dress is everything i wanted it to be i bought it to wear to a winter wedding and the material is perfect for that i initially ordere d it in a 0 regular and ended up having to exchange it for a 0 petite and it fits absolutely per fectly the detailing on the shoulder is beautiful first i must say that this dress fits beaut ifully in my usual xs 5 4 119 lbs and the geometric pattern is adorable i often have a fit problem with dresses i think due to a long waist where the fabric bunches up by my lower back not so with this dress it shows off my curves without being super tight and the fabric has a li ttle stretch so the dress isn t binding for my age however mid 40s this dress is just a lit tle too short for the office so i m sending it back also i felt that i am obsessed with the qu ality of the fabric on this top i am giving it as a gift and can t wait the detail and desi gn is gorgeous on the tank my issue however is that the yellow is pretty bright the website ma kes it look like a butter yellow but it is actually a lemon yellow i do not care for that shade and would definitely limit what i paired it with bummer this blouse is wonderful i just got a nd wore the wine colored blouse today i received so many compliments i love it and with the sa le price it is so worth it the material is very soft and the lace has a beautiful design it lo oks very elegant and romantic you will need a racer back bra to wear with it though because of the design of the straps it is very flowing and i think the cut is flattering the material in the back is slightly transparent so you might want to wear a tank underneath overall very pret ty and i would highly recommend i purchased the white and yellow version love accurate sizi ng feminine details my new favorite top such an easy to wear and nicely cut summer dress it doe s not wrinkle has pretty colors and fits very well i haven t washed it yet but i like the ide a that it can be machine washed highly recommend the fabric is good quality a little bit thic k for hot days though this piece is almost what i want i tried on the white version in an xs and it felt a little too large for me even though it s meant to be a looser fit the buttercup yellow behind the lace is very pretty i especially love that part of this tank it provides a nice contrast and allows the detail to stand out the navy is also nice it was on display next to the white and looks better in person than online what i didn t like was the texture of the spandex on the back portion it looks like to sum up my review at the beginning i walked out to my best friend and two retailer employees and all 3 of them stopped and said whoa it s an un derstated stunner \ni tried this dress on a whim and boy am i glad i did i m 5 4 140lb 34b with weight carried on the bottom usually wear a size 4 in fit and flare dresses the size 2 fi t like a glove here \ni m shocked at just how incredible the lace is thick well laid on the ba se dress fabric gorgeous without being too lacy the base fabri lovely my only issue is that the arm holes are rather large i needed to wear a tank under so that my bra wouldn t show very pretty love this tank fits true to size looks great with jeans or shorts a bit disappointin g that the back does not have the lace like the front only on the top back i purchased this d ress in our retailer store i usually wear either a 0 or 2 petite 5 1 115 lbs i was able t o wear a 0r in this and it fit perfectly i paired it with a sparkly belt from retailer for a co cktail party and received lots of compliments i got this top in a petite xs and it fit just as expected i m 5 2 112lbs the material wears like a tee so it s comfortable but the front d etails give it a special look this is going to be on my go to list all summer beautiful top fo r summer love the yellow under the thin white fabric the photo is good representation running big so hard to guess fit and size so because i carry my weight in my tummy i ordered an xl the y were too big the waistband is a nice very wide comfy elastic but fit loose the legs were a bit baggy too and too long for my frame the fabric is soft and has a bit of a contrast down the sides of the leg due to the length i decided not to reorder a smaller size i think you d be s afe to size down in these you won t break the bank with this cute tee loved that it s not a th in fabric the variation in the stripes adds interest too i ordered a large my regular size and it fit well i returned because it was a bit on the long side on my short frame the colors didn t suit me and i need long sleeve tees now that we re heading into the colder months this s hirt is even prettier in person it s really flowy but still very flattering nan this dress was absolutely beautiful in person but it didn t end up working out for me i wear a 10 the 10 fit but i have a 34g chest and because of that the waistline didn t sit low enough it was just bel ow my bust instead of at my natural waist i really wanted this to work and think it would be gr eat for the right person seemed tts love the detailing love this shirt i got the white yello w one and with a pair of dark jeans and booties i was ready for anything i have an hourglass ty pe figure and sometimes with flowy shirts that is hidden but this shirt somehow subtly emphasi zed that in an attractive way these are a bit oversized order a size down they are a nice wei ght and look great under tunics first off kudos to the other reviewers for setting the expecta tion re the color on these they are not a dark rinse at all not even close they re a light to medium hue with fading down the front of the thighs with that in mind i do like the color especially for spring but would have been very miffed had i ordered these and they arrived so starkly different from the online photo \r\n \r\ni typically wear a 27 29 depending on the brand and waist rise these were an online return t i would suggest trying this on in store the xs would ve worked that s my normal size but i ended up preferring the s it does have lo w armholes the s in the yellow was just right for me but the s in the navy was too low in the armholes and the shirt was cut a little crooked still a very cute and classic top that i know i ll get a lot of use out of i really love this top fits true to size romantic lace detail a lso love the white underlay panel for contrast extremely comfortable soft fabric so many ways to dress this top up or down i bought this cuz i wanted a plaid shirt that didnt have too much plaid this is true to size and adorable i will be wearing it out and not to bed or for lounge adorable detailing on back and on shoulders its a keeper i picked this dress up in a size 8 fits tts i have a 34dd chest 145 lbs and 5 ft 4 inches in height i have an hourglass figure and the size 10 was too big and the 8 fit just right the skirt is lined and the upper bodice pa rt is not it says on the tag hand wash which is a plus because dry cleaning is not a plus hits me just about 2 inches above the knee the thick lace detailing is very special and price point with the dress promo made me feel this would be a great dress for the holiday i actually like th is top but i am wearing it as a cowl neck rather than off the shoulder i found it at the store so i didn t even know it was supposed to be that way i have the ivory color and it it does hav e some tan beige specks in it but i don t mind this at all it adds some texture and warmth i think it is a great neutral top for work it has a double layer of fabric so not sheer at all and this keeps it smooth over my middle without a tank or cami \r\n\r\ni am an xs in most retai ler to it s a very cute design it looks great tucked into a cute pair of jeans if can even be dressed up however i agree with the previous comments about the top not staying folded down i t likes to ride up and is difficult to keep the style like the model in the picture has it s a very cute design it just needs to be worked with and adjusted time and time again as its worn when it does cooperate i ve gotten many compliments on it order a size up i am normally a sma ll but the medium worked be i ordered this top online i had been wanting an off the shoulder to p in a neutral color and when i found this one i had to have it i thought the price was great when i received it i was impressed with the quality of material it fit me a little more tightl y than some of my other tops but was very satisfied with how it looked on my body i got it in a size small i do agree with others on here the shoulders were a little more difficult to keep folded down but overall i am truly satisfi i wanted this this top when i saw it online but w as hesitant when i read the review however i went to the store and was able to try it on good t hing i m not a fan of the off white beige material but really like the black style i had no pr oblem with the shoulders staying down idid get it in a small a size up for me beautiful well made and styled dress perfect for company christmas parties where you want to look nice but not show too much cleavage i wear it with a cameo brooch i purchased this top in the wine color an d found it to be cute and comfortable the sleeves are not tight which is nice but it is very s hort and moving your arms away from our sides make this shirt look a little bit like a tent the color is pretty and the button detail is nice \noverall good purchase but i m glad i got it on sale i just got this tank and love it it has the perfect amount of swing but does run a littl e large the underlay was more yellow than i expected but i think it adds a nice amount of brig htness to the top this will be a summer staple this top is the epitome of late summer and gett ing into fall mood it s soft fabric falls nicely on top of skinny jeans the open shoulders are trendy and flattering love this top tried it on in the store and had to have it did not find it too sheer and could wear my regular bra with it as the shoulders fit where the straps are g ot tons of compliments on it would have bought in more colors if offered i loved it that much the perfect bohemian hippie chic top if there is such a style i noted that this runs large i should say it runs wide it is supposed to be flowy like in the picture but i am really swimmin g in the l that being said i worry that if i returned for a m that it would be too short in th e front i am 5 10 for reference and i would say the length in front is a little shorter than i would like but it still works the black and white print is beautiful i paired it today with d ark skinny jeans and received compliments other reviews about the batwing sleeves this is a gre at easy to wear summer dress a denim jacket would look adorable to wear on a cooler night it r uns a bit small in the waist and i bought the petite because i wanted it to be above the knee su mmer casual it is very flattering because of the pattern detail by the waist it is the perfect summer dress and best of all it is machine washable runs large under arms i am typically a size medium but bought size small love this top the beautiful and delicate details are wonderful t he cut is a loose fit which is great it works with tailored trousers and jeans i love this top shows off the shoulders but a normal bra works no tank needed not too boxy looking all these things i have had a problem in some of the currant tops an retailer i felt it was flattering an d comfortable with some country chic i found the colors to be a bit more rich than online ther e was a tiny bit of puffy fabric around the back upper shoulder but nothing to worry about the neckline is a stretchy and close fitting and that s the part of the top that i don t usually we ar i i purchased the grey jacket first and it seems to work with a lot of things and create diff erent looks so i purchased the tan jacket i found it to less tan as an olive color not my fav orite color for me but the fit is awesome and hopefully the color will prove to be versatile to o the blouse shown with it does not go with it as i had hoped \nthe jacket seems very green wit h the golden brown in the blouse so a black or ivory blouse with some great necklace should wor k recommend pretty true i love this top i bought it in the blue but loved all the colors i f ell in love with it on line and hesitated ordering it only because i was afraid that the arm hol es would be too large based on what i saw in the picture fortunately they had it at my local retailer so i was able to try it on my usual xs fit perfectly great flow soft and casual pe rfect for those cool nights in the summer or layered with a cardigan in the winter nan love the colors of this dress it did run a little large i ordered a large and medium and went with the medium 36dd 10 12 in tops 12 14 in bottoms\n\nthis tank is amazing the flowing a line shape is very flattering the armholes are perfect all too often i see a good tank top ruined by lar ge gaping armholes no bra peek a boo here fabric is a stretch micro rib knit that doesn t cli ng too tightly just enough to give the top good definition i took the size large for the lengt h just past the hips on me the side slits keep the look flowy the light blue contrast color is light grey while the brigh i purchased this in the blue motif i am 5 4 118 pounds and got an xs i love everything about this tee it looks great with jeans and i love it with my white d enim shorts i haven t worn it off the shoulder yet i think it looks great as a regular tee i get compliments whenever i wear it so happy with this purchase this is such a cool military j acket when i saw it displayed on a table at my local retailer i knew it was going home with me this is my 4th marrakech jacket i love their style i bought the black in my usual size large and i agree with the previous reviewer if you have a chest this is a very flattering jacket i usually wear my jackets open and i discovered that if you button back the lapels at the second button down it looks amazing and not so sloppy it kind of bothered me the way i am normally not a vest person however i saw this and had to try it it is awesome and on sale i am 5 3 and 1 28 pounds and the small fit perfectly love love love this jacket i m able to dress it up or casual the hint from a review i read to button the lapels back worked awesome good quality ha s a bit of stretch for bulky shirt to wear underneath would definitely recommend if like the mi litary jacket style i purchased this top in the blue stripe and red after washing the red top it lost color in little spots and also has little holes along the seams the blue washed fine o verall it is a very cute top and great for summer i am so glad that i got this one i wish i go t the bigger size but got it on sale i am glad that i have it for next winter i m obsessed with this top i actually love that the sides are a bit higher than the front and back i feel like t hat gives it shape i bought jeans similar to the pic here and they look so good together love saw this top online and hoped for the best my hopes were rewarded lovely lightweight summery t op but i think with a cardigan it could be worn in the fall also i asked 4 friends if they like d it and they all agreed it was very flattering so i decided it was a keeper have worn it three times since purchasing and have received lots of compliments i am a 4 so i ordered the s slip ped these pants on and i couldn t get them zipped up i thought perhaps i ordered a 0 nope a s i m not even sure a m would fit these unfortunately are going back tomorrow the material and c olor were beautiful bronze but the sizing is very strange i love this jacket it s easy to d ress up or be casual the black is more like a very dark grey i am in love with this bathing su it it is super cute and flattering and i love the pattern on this specific style it is also se ems to be very well made i haven t worn it in the water yet so i can t really speak to that i would say that i believe it is true to size which means that it is a little tight since bathing suits need to be tight to stay on in the water for reference i am a bra size 32dd around 130 p ounds and 5 5 and a size 6 fits perfectly the lining is shorter than the top so i keep pulli ng it down also the finishing of the edges looks like a child cut it with some scissors it is not evenly cut i do like the color and style of the shirt just not the quality one of my favo rites for comfy cute this summer the color is a beautiful berry color also love the length it feels a little longer than a typical top which i love 5 9 i tend to size up when ordering to ps online as i find a lot of retailer stuff to be inconsistent a little big is better than some thing way to small well that was a mistake with this top i sized up and it was much too large everywhere more so than i thought it would be but the neck there s no button or hook and i co uld barely get the top over my head if i had gotten a size smaller i wonder if it would have ri pped as i pulled it on cute top material is so so love marrakech for their jackets this piec e is wonderful i usually wear an xs or s in this brand in jackets i went with an xs as the sle eve are a little loose the body still fits buttoned up nice and tailored the stretch keeps in comfy with the tailored fit in the trunk looks great worn open too i think the best part is th e cut and material i am 5 4 and 125 lbs curvy i received this top in my normal xxsp size and it fits perfect it s roomy so i m glad i went with the smallest size the color states pink but it s really between a red and raspberry so it s better looking than pictured as with most off t he shoulder tops if you raise your hands it slips up but it actually looks good that way too a nd forms a square around the neck that appears like that s the natural design overall great va lue light and flowy plus the fabric is a soft linen so it breathes i carefully read the review s and decided to order a medium since that size works for me generally with floaty styles the n eck was a bit small but once over my head it fit and looked nice the deal breaker for me is the huge droopy armholes that showed half my bra the colors are deeper than shown but the pattern and length overwhelmed my shape feeling a lot like a maternity top i liked that the sides are s horter but overall it s just not my style better suited i think for taller slimmer bod i order ed the blue stripe and white in size large i didn t like it worn off shoulder but it does stay in place which is a good thing and it looks okay worn on the shoulders i find the fabric so u ncomfortable and itchy that i couldn t wait to take it off immediately i tried them on again a second time still hopeful with the same outcome sadly returning everything about this top i s perfect quality is great which is number one in my book color is awesome perfect color for fall summer and spring a must have i love linen i know it s a pain with the wrinkles but it s just a very nice crisp clean feel this vest is wonderful it fits very nice once you size dow n and can work as a bathing suit cover up i m using it with my linen pants and skirts and ever yone has asked me where did you get that i think they re all gone by now but if they aren t gr ab it while you can it s a must have for any woman s closet this suit is so flattering on grea t support and slimming for my post three times baby body i ordered this suit and the skirted ma illot by swim by retailer in the white floral i loved the pattern of the floral more but don t think any chest size larger than a c cup would be supported in that suit was looking for a cute off the shoulder top and this is a fun one can be worn both on or off the shoulders nice lengt h and the pink is a beautiful raspberry color love the linen blend too i m a size 2 and i orde red the xs flows away from body it s a bit big but i like the style this top is great it h angs in the perfect way to hide imperfections the orange red is a great accent and i received c ompliments when i wore it really like this tunic a lot it is comfortable and easy to throw on and look put together i m always a fan of pockets too i ordered the xs i m 5 4 about 118 it fits loose but not in a bad way the fabric allows it to fall well over the body if you are tall it will probably be too short for you as it was a few inches above my knees glad to have s nagged this right away more tunics like this please if all the tops i ordered from retailer th is summer this top is my fav it is a crowd pleaser my friend called it my art shirt the fa bric is nice and the cut hangs nice on my 5 ft 5 170 pound frame the armholes are a little big so i just wear a red bra with it and it s great i m about 5 5 and normally about 120 lbs so i purchased the small i m currently 9 months prego but i couldn t resist this jacket i purchase d anyway and although it doesn t fit over my belly right now i m looking forward to being able to wear it soon it will be perfect for the chilly office or a casual day the fabric is beautif ul with just the right amount of stretch like others have said it has a bit of a navy ish tint to to it so it s not truly black thanks retailer for offering anothe this dress is shorter tha n it looks on the model i m 5 8 and it hits about 1 inch above my knee it also runs a little big in my opinion i love purchasing these tunic ruffle dresses because they can be worn anywher e this dress is definitely a little on the heavy side for winter wear the color is beautif ul i am 5 4 138 pounds and always purchase a large for a relaxed fit i plan to wear it o ut to dinner for my birthday and to a house party on new years day i was looking for an off the shoulder top and chose this one it is pretty the bottom of the shirt is fairly billowy so i can only wear with skinny pants takes a little getting use somewhat restricting my arm movem ent so the shirt pops off my upper arms nan loves it this is my new favorite top it s pretty it s perfect cannot find any bad to say about it this top is well made for the price the co lors are beautiful and will work well with jeans and a leather jacket if it is cooler just gorg eous this is one beautiful top the colors are pretty and vibrant i wear either a large or xl and the large was great in this top dress it up or down this top flows and it drapes beautifull y in the back it looks fantastic with jeans as a bonus it is lined so no need for any type of piece under it it s an all year round top throw a cardigan or wrap over it when the weather co ols down and you are set to go a great top for your wardrobe i would not hesitant to buy it for me at 5 9 the top was not long enough it appeared longer in the photo i ll be returnin g it other than length it is cute tried this one because the ruffled detailing at the collar and sleeves appealed to me as well at the cute button details along the back and the overall co lor and look of it \n \npros \n love the ruffle trim along the collar bottom and wrists it gives it a really romantic feel to it \n a definite winter piece it s extremely war m and very thick and heavy which i found covered any lumps and bumps nicely \n ran tts i m 5 9 36c hourglass and 170 lbs and tried on the medium and fo i m glad i took a chance and orde red this jacket i love military inspired jackets and this one is very cute \r\nit runs a little big so i m glad i ordered a size down i like that it can be worn open or buttoned it looks gr eat with jeans and boots but i can wear it to work as well it s definitely more on the casual s ide but still a very versatile piece in my closet love it this truly is a dress and not a tun ic i normally wear a medium but they were sold out so i thought i would try a l petite i am on ly 5 4 and the large p was really long i could definitely wear as a dress with tights i am hop ing it comes back in stock so i can try a medium p unfortunately it is going back cute sweater as pictured on the model this chambray halter top is a good summer staple from cloth and stone but it is better for longer waists than mine and smaller busts \r\nfyi 36c broad shoulder s back short waist normally i wear a m in c s and that is what i tried in this halter top \r \noddly the overall length was okay but the armholes were very low in the m the bust area was tighter than it should have been for a easy summer top i think that this is due to the overall length of the bodice in other words the top ha this skirt is a beautiful fabric heavy and sof t and fully lined it has two sets of snaps on the inside so you can adjust the waist size i p urchased a medium but found that there wasn t enough of an overlap in the split to be decent i t flaps open when i walk revealing nearly everything so i will be exchanging for a large fo r reference i typically wear a size 10 or 12 in pants and skirts the color is true to the phot os with a matte finish i am 5 8 and length hit me below the knee nan bought the blue gray love the color just the right amount of cling adorable alone or under cardigan super deal on sale this cardigan is very cute and versatile the knit is medium weight and will work well for moderate weather i would say that the sizing is pretty true to size but maybe runs just a bit large thus if you are in between sizes order the smaller size love this sweatshirt i m 5 2 110lbs and ordered the x small it s a little boxy but very comfy it s definitely light peach i n color and not pink as shown very happy with this purchase i wanted these jeans so badly i originally ordered them in my regular size a 27 they were too big even for a tomboy fit so i ordered a 26 the size 26 order was backordered and then cancelled i am so sad i would absolut ely buy these if i could get them in my size they are so soft and beautiful i love ag s qualit y i bought one of these as a gift for a friend and i loved it so much i had to get one for myse lf it s beautiful material and has lovely detail a little sheer so best worn with a cami under neath probably better for those with not too ample busts as it doesn t have a lot of stretch e ven more beautiful in person runs large as i m usually a medium and bought a small great for s ummer fall transition great sweater with gorgeous detail fits tts works best in someone with smaller bust like me pink is peachy pink like other reviewers have commented pairing it with g ray ag jeans will work great for fall winter in louisiana very pretty and delicate top it is fresh and with a delicate embroidered bib style the fabric on the front is silky and the back is a blend of silk and cotton just that part the back could be a little thicker so more durab ility still as it is it s a niece piece and good quality \ni find it you can wear it with dres s pants for office or formal gathering and to dress up jeans and either to leave it our or tuck in since the bib is focal point you can skip any necklace and war dainty earrin when i first sa w this top online i thought it is very common beach like cover up give or take the main point of attraction for me was the cobalt blue silk trim very vibrant looking color and very attracti ve cough my eye for sure however when it arrived i was really surprised how the top turned o ut to be 1 much larger than expected very roomy 2 cobalt blue turned out to be not so brigh t in fact not even that interesting as it stands out in the photo not too bad but unexpected i this is a beautiful dress for fall the fabric is gorgeous and drapey and the skirt is swingy i ordered this in an xl because that size always sells out first i think a l might fit a bit be tter so i will see if any more come in and order another to compare it poofs out in the back a bove the elastic and the waist slides down a bit it is also very long i need to hem it about 3 4 i never know which size to order with this brand i vary between l and xl nice thin tank b ack half is a jersey knit different fabric than the front good layering piece at 5 4 140 lb s the medium is a nice length reaching my hip flexors in front although i m rather short w aisted this sweater is really fun and even cuter in person colors are much brighter in perso n fits well not frumpy like a lot of open front sweaters colors make it perfect for neutrals but maybe hard to mix with other colors pricey so still considering whether to keep it this s uit is so adorable i love the retro style and the two patterns and i really wish it worked for me the suit is comfy seems well made and fit nicely but although it fit technically i don t like the way it cuts me off at the thigh it s not flattering for me at all \r\n\r\nthe suit is kind of a neoprene material so it s thicker than a normal bathing suit so i think even though it isn t lined it might not be see through but i didn t get it wet to test it out in terms of fit i think it i love the unique design and the fit they are very flattering they might be a little too thick to wear in the summer but the rest of the year they will work out great this i s a well made and nice looking top the gathering around the neck adds to the overall look of the shirt but it also affects the way it fits i got my usual size medium and it was tight in the s houlders and arm holes i regret that i had to send it back nan nan this suit itself is adorabl e i usually have to get a size large for length but in this case the cups are way too big it s ays light padding but there is no padding just a giant empty cup i m going to order the size m edium this dress is just lovely beautiful drape comfortable material it is a print that look s like embroidery i am usually an xs or s and i m glad i got the xs as i can tell the s would have been too large the back waistband is elastic and it is easy to move in beautiful neutral colors i think it can be dressed up or down easily with the right shoes and jewelry only negat ive comments there is only a half slip and i wish it was lined more although that will make it easier to wear during the i was surprised how much i like this shirt the fit is really pleasing at first i thought it would be a whatever shirt but i think i will actually wear it a lot mor e it will look cute dressed up with a cute necklace and flats the price is a bit high for this top but i felt it was worth it since it is so hard finding a casual shirt thats not your basic tee ok love this top i m 5 4 106 34b and the 0 reg fits perfect on the top half i am going t o have the waist taken in because i love the top it is very short i usually need a petite but the regular is just barely long enough i thought it was red and white but it is red and beige great with jeans or navy for work the colors in this cardigan are not what they look like on li ne the top is navy and the lower arms are grey the sweater overall has more punch than picture d this is a cotton sweater and a great fall layering piece it will look great with a tee shirt and jeans it is a long sweater but not too long as to swallow a smaller person up i also real ly like that the front is not too flowy i am looking forward to wearing this all fall this is a pretty everyday piece to add to your wardrobe the color is a little less pink and more peach than depicted in the photo and the top is just a bit on the short side but i was afraid that if i sized up it wouldn t give me more length but maybe look boxy instead i m 5 7 140lbs 32dd with an athletic build and ordered the small this sweater is super cute it has nice weight to it and is just a nice casual but attractive piece to wear with jeans or white pants love that i t zips and just a really cute pattern of marigold mint teal and grey dark gray loved this top when i first saw it online and when it arrived it didn t disappoint at all dress it up or down this dress is so beautiful i ordered it online and when i received it i was so pleased with how it was even better in person the fit the embroidery the lovely fall colors makes this a per fect dress all the way around not as pink as pictured online definitely more of a pale peach fits loose so i m glad i went with my normal size or would seem boxy cute top and will wear it around town running errands instead of my activewear the photos really doesn t do this swea ter justice when i saw it in store ii was really drawn to the colors which are a bit brighter t han they appear in the photos this will be great over jeans or slim pants i usually wear a l o r xl and i went with the l which is still roomy enough to layer but not too big at 5 5 it drap es nicely and covers my rear end the arms are a bit long on me but it is a common issue for me as i have short arms others have mentioned the arms being big but i think the i love the design of the suit and decided to take a chance and order despite the mixed reviews i m so happy i did i couldn t be happier with the fit quality and design for reference i am 5 8 size 4 and smal ler chested small b cup and went with a medium i could see that this suit might not work for everyone but i love it i just purchased this blouse in store the fabric has a nice weight and drape feels nice to the touch and is opaque i ll be wearing this one as a dress and a top i m 5 2 and this fell a couple inches above my knee i typically wear an xs at retailer and opted t o go with a small for the extra length and because i hate when off the shoulder silhouettes pop up and become not so off the shoulder i laid the xs and small out to compare sizing and didn t notice a major difference width wise i typi i really wanted to love this top it s cute and fi tted fits well but just hit me a tad higher than i wanted i tried a size 2 and it fit perfect ly but with no extra room i m 5 5 34c normally wear a 2 loving this top feels comfy and ca sual like a sweatshirt but pairs great with a pencil skirt or dress pants to wear to work easy to dress up and down and i get so many compliments on it it s fraying a tiny bit on the front but i think that adds to the not so precious vibe i m 5 10 160 and the m works great i love this top the fit is great for me i ordered a small the color is a bit more peach than the pi nk in the picture but still very cute love this gorgeous off the shoulder top very comfortab le and stylish you can wear it either off the shoulder or not nan this top is really cute for the right body shape \r\nit is tight around the bust area if you select your size and sizing y ou lose the shape i loved this blouses when i saw it on line but when i saw it in on me it loo ked totally different it runs really large and i didn t like the material of blouse love the l ook of these casual or dressy depending on what you pair with them they are so comfortable ed gy but relaxed joggers with a leather look what more could you ask for received a lot of com pliments when i wore this sweater quality is wonderful only thing i noticed is that it s a lit tle shorter in length then what i was expecting i ordered this item before seeing the july 25th review i ordered in a s and need an xs now the xs is sold out unfortunately my waist measures 27 hips 32 and i am 5 4 the material very nice has elastic for movement and comfort i wo uld wear this all the time if i had the correct size it would be cute dressed down or up this suit is the most flattering suit i have owned in a while as well as the most comfortable thoug h the suit is not lined the light wetsuit material holds me in and is supportive despite the o pen back and the slight looseness of it if you do any water sports i think this is a perfect s uit i did purchase some silicone covers for myself however to avoid looking like a farrah faw cett throwback i ve been scouting retailer s store looking for short sleeved tops at a reasona ble price point \r\nthis fit the bill the flouncy sleeves are a bit much for my typical wardrob e but a fun addition i love the fact that there s extra fabric built in to make the armholes s maller therefore no need for a cami underneath \r\ni purchased the black and white in medium t ypically medium to large 5 4 34g i fell in love with this top online and was even more plea sed when it arrived it s pure romance in a top i went to the store and they didn t have it in yet so i ordered it at the store free shipping if ordered from store i was extremely thrilled with everything about this purchase this is a charming sweatshirt top with extra details to mak e it stand out the front panel has lovely art nouveau style embroidery and cut outs i m going to enjoy wearing this with jeans it looks great with gray or black denim the colors are fabul ous for someone with spring coloring the front panel is a very pale peach peche i m 5 4 128lbs with small shoulders and 32c chest i m typically a size 2 4 or size xs s and ordered a n xs it fits well a little tighter than on the model i love love love this top the cutout pattern in front is such a unique look and is a great way to add some fun to your usual t shirt and jeans look it s well made and the fit is great i got it in petite s which worked great len gth wise love the top but very small to the size ordered a medium and had to send back in exc hange for x large nan in the fall and winter i live in my uniform of skinny jeans boots and a long sweater this cardigan will be perfect the fabric is very nice quality and the colors are gorgeous i can see myself wearing it over and over love this shirt it has a femine look with a casual style my local retailer store didn t have this item in stock so i ordered it online may be it s my perception of color but in the photo the top block of color seems to be more of a mu ted blue purple while in person the color is navy and the other stripes are far bolder than the muted colors of the photo i still really like the look overall even though i usually go for mo re neutral tones and it running a little large made the sleeves of the size small long enough f or my 5 10 frame so i may end up k nan this is the weirdest greatest material it feels as so ft and as buttery as leather but doesn t look like leather it looks more like coated denim on ly lighter and stretchy so you don t get the vibe you get from the vast majority of vegan leat her thick rubbery junk trying to masquerade as the real thing \n\nalso gorgeous the cut it s straight and slim but with pleats so hip less ladies like me look like we have some shape \n\ni got my regular size and they fit beautifully but they are not i got compliments the moment i w alked into the office with those they look like leather so much that i had to ensure some peop le that only some polyester had to die so i could wear them i am slim but i think those p ants are cut so well and hang so nicely they make everybody look slimmer they are also super s oft very comjfortable and the pockets are big enough to hold my beloved smart phone securely wi thout showing a bulge the pants look very elegant when paired with the right shoes nan gorgeous flowy dress that s great for three seasons thank you to the previous reviewers for the fit advi ce size small was only available and it fits perfectly on me i m an m l on top i m short and will have to hem because even with 3 heels i kept stepping on the back skirt bodice opening is wide and gapes too much so i will wear a cami bra or fashion tape or have an additional fastener sewn in there are bright little balls of red trim and unexpected pops of violet embroidery add ing to t i ordered the floral version of this swimsuit what you can t really tell from the ima ges is the darling lavender stripe design that is in set opposite the floral it s truly a darl ing suit and very well made the fit is very flattering with oddly enough a conservative yet s exy appeal i ordered a medium after reading the size up recommendations from other consumers but i ve exchanged it for a small the cup size was over exaggerated in the medium and i had plenty of breathing room i i purchased this top online love the off the shoulder trend and this looked like it would be perfect for fall nice fabric and lace detail but the top definitely run s big i ordered an xl and it was beyond swimming on me definitely order a size or two down al so it is very long tunic length i love a tunic but it almost wore more as a dress than a top overall cute item and fabric but definitely order down nan very comfortable well made great with leggings or skinny jeans this is a very well made sweater it is a nice weight great for cool mornings and evenings i don t think you can dress this up but it is perfect with casual pa nts and jeans i found it runs large but that makes it suitable for layering over other tops lo ve the lightweight fabric looks great with skinny jeans it is flowy but flattering \r\nwearin g it on my shoulders for work i purchased this skirt on super sale but i m hesitant to keep it it s not poorly made just not as sturdy as i would expect a skirt of its price that said it s cute and comfortable i wish it came in numbered sizes because the m is snug but i expect the l would be too big has a good amount of stretch shows underwear lines love the style this wrap is awesome soft material perfect length sleeves with thumb holes and warm great for laye ring when you order online you can t always be sure of the quality or sizing you will get lik e the other reviewers i found this piece to be beautiful and well made it s made from rayon an d not sheer the coral cream green and light gray flowers really pop against the black fabric this piece is meant to be swingy and loose however i started with a large but exchanged for a medium it still feels a little loose so if you re undecided about sizes order down cute and c omfortable not sure i d say it s worth the full price as it s not a very heavy jacket it did s uit my needs though and was otherwise what i was looking for so i kept it and have enjoyed wear ing it i just purchased this adorable tank on line and already received it in my regular size s mall 34d 27 35 and it fits me tts the material is actually made with 100 rayon not polyeste r as it describes above which makes it even better the embroidery very beautiful in person as w ell and the arm openings are just right not too large for a nice change if you need a cute tan k in black with a little something special this is the top for you without seeing the online exclusive notation i went into my local retailer store to try on this sweater because sometime s i wear small and sometimes a medium once the very helpful retailer employee looked it up and advised they don t carry it in stores i ordered it at the check out desk in a size medium i wa s so excited with anticipation because i love stripes and i love the color gray this sweater was right up my alley i was very disappointed when i decided to return it first of all i d to be honest i bought this as a pregnancy top since i can t bring myself to buy actual maternity w ear it is gorgeously made of lovely light material and i can actually see myself wearing it ev en after baby i find the asymmetrical hemline to be really chic overall a fave i saw this on line and loved it then when it was on sale i went into the store and tried it on and i couldn t resist the only size that was left in stores was an xs petit and i didn t think that it would f it me because i am usually a regular s m but it was super comfortable and very stylish it wasn t too big or too small it fit me just right without any awkwardness sooo this adorable blouse is indeed different than pictured no ruffle such a bummer sleeves are much longer and yes it s teared in the front and back also the button opening on the back is much longer larger in my opinion i ll most likely keep it but consider the mentioned if buying the fit the length th e color the fabric cannot say anything negative at all the sales associates at the store wh ere i tried them on said they had just gotten them in and she could not wait to see how they lo oked on they were just as awed as i was the pants can easily be dressed up or down the brown color is so so beautiful i would expect these to be twice the price for such a high quality p ant i consider it a timeless cut and can worn for seasons to come cute comfortable dress gr eat for work and more casual events the neckline is more mock style than i was expecting i am in love with this top i saw it online and i was a bit nervous to order it because it s a littl e pricy for a tank top and i was worried it was going to be too short on me i was so wrong th e detail on the top is so beautiful and looks even better in person it hit me right at mid hip and looks so cute with jeans and sandals i sometimes get frustrated with the cut of the arms wi th retailer clothes because they are cut so low that you see your bra when you lift your arms b ut this top is i love to layer and this is a great layering piece it is wonderful for cool cris p mornings this cardigan looks great with skinny jeans and a cute tee the model in the photo shows a super way to look great for a casual day so soft and comfortable i did not want to tak e it off on the cloudy day it was worn very happy with this purchase and delighted i was able t o get it on sale so this is still a pretty cute shirt but my xs is missing the ruffle in the f ront and has layers on the bottom front of shirt it doesn t seem to be defective just a differ ent version of the shirt i m curious to find out from others if they have gotten the same shirt as i have still deciding whether to keep or not no more left in xs to place another order and see what s up i do wish it had the ruffle in front as that is what caught my eye so i really like this sweater as you d expect for this price point it s stylish in a very single way so g lad i read the review before mine to size down the xs is great and i wouldn t want bigger i lo ve the length how it goes long and cones in a little at the bottom and the pockets are higher i always need pockets for my phone the stripes are well draped as the sweater transitions from shoulder to arm the cuffs are fun too \r\nbottom line i m really glad this came on sale and i snatc beautiful top that will go with anything looking forward to wearing it this caught my eye purely by accident as i was in the dressing room immediately attracted to the pattern the color the quality and the shape of the skirt lo and behold it turned out to be maeve one of my favorite designers at retailer this skirt does not disappoint at all i normally try to wait for sales to make a purchase but this is well worth the full retail price the skirt is very we ll made the material is structured but not stiff i also don t normally like high waisted ski t his is quite long on my 5 1 frame but it s wool and will be amazing in the fall and winter so h appy i finally ordered this i bought this skirt in the store a few months ago because i anticip ated that retailer would sell out of my size considering how great the fit look of this skirt is sure enough they ve sold out of the size 2 normally i wear a size 4 sometimes 6 in skirts de pending on the cut and where it s from just last year i bought a skirt from retailer in a size 10 for me this was a skirt i needed to try on to get the perfect size but it s absolutely ado rable and a great deal at the sale price it s mod i personally like light garment and simple de sign for my daily dresses it meets my needs \r\ni personally recommend it to customers always love getting pilcro pants and these are just as good as previously purchased ones i got the gre y in 32 and i m glad i did i ve ranged from a size 30 34 so i wasn t super sure which size wou ld be be best the cut and print of this dress is beautiful however the armhole is way too low which is a reoccurring problem with anything sleeveless from retailer these days please don t d rop the armholes so low most women do not want their bra completely showing every time you lift your arm wish they had more colors avail in my size when i bought this one you can easily dres s it up or down bought the gray and peach in the store and loved it so much ordered the other c olors online this top is very comfortable and stylish it stands out from the crowd as just eno ugh different to be very unique and trendy but still a classic look the sweater front is very s oft and the back has a bit of a silk feel but not sheer i also like that the back is a bit long er than the front it s true to size but as an fyi for fellow pilcro high rise wearers don t si ze down like you might with them i had my regular and my high rise pilcro sizes and my regular size fit in these the down side for these is they are clingy and a bit prone to a camel toe eff ect until they stretch out during the day i ordered two colors of these in 25p i am keeping th em because they feel wonderful on but they definitely have to be hemmed i measured the inseam on both pairs to be closer to 29 inches 29 inches is not a petite length corduroy fabric is h istorically difficult to fit well even with stretch added so imagine my surprise when i trie d on the pilcro serif mid rise corduroy pants in the saffron yellow shade and they fit great th ey were long enough as well i loved them so much that i ordered the aqua shade as well and when that pair arrived it fit just a nicely as the yellow ones how wonderful that there is finally a corduroy pant that truly fits well these are not old lady pants either how nice this sweat er is so lovely i bought it first in navy and then came back for it in grey very soft and comf ortable the back doesn t wrinkle the way you might think it would from the pics alone very fla ttering i highly recommend it the blouse looked better on the model i liked the way it fit j ust not how it looks the fabric made me itch which was one of the other reasons i returned it i wished it had looked good and the fabric didn t make me itch i really liked the unique look t o the shirt i ordered this in large since it was the last one available i normally wear a med but i do enjoy the oversize look in silhouettes like this one the armholes are very low but si nce i have hyperhidrosis excessive sweating this does not bother me one bit i ll just wear a super lightweight tank underneath for coverage protection also the oversize fit allows me to w ear a long sleeve for layering if i desire i love the flow and fluidity of the material and wil l be wearing this one a lot i saw this top online and fell in love with the overall casual look \r\ni ordered all 3 colors and they just arrived love love love \r\nthey are soft co mfortable and a have a very flattering casual fit \r\nthe understated ruffled details add the sp ecial something that is so retailer \r\nthey are sophisticated yet pretty \r\nthe orange is mo re vibrant in person and is a beautiful shade \r\nthe plum purple is a rich unique and pretty c olor \r\nthe navy is a perfect denim color \r\na fantastic basic good dress to wear with heels flats tights versatille these got me so excited for fall the teal is a color i m really into right now and was the real reason i decided to order these when they arrived though i was deli ghted to find that they are light weight and have the perfect amount of stretch the fit is snug but hugs all the right places and are so comfortable these will be a staple in my wardrobe i w ant to order more colors i am in love with these bought the regular length last year and loved them despite the shortness hit right above the ankle that length looks good with ballet flats or tucked into boots this year i bought the burgundy and the teal in the long length i am 5 7 and the long fit perfectly they come to the bottom of my ankle without extra fabric \r\nplease restock the carbon in the long length i want to buy my 4th pair i love these pants the only thing i would say is that they don t run small i read reviews saying they are small in the wais t so i ordered a size up and ended up regretting it other then that i love them at 6 tall it s hard to find pants that fit my inseam 35 and these fit the bill i normally wear a 30 or 31 tall in pants from brands like ag or paige but i bought these in a 29 tall as i find pilcro t ends to run large they are soft and comfortable and don t stretch out 3 sizes by the end of the day which is great they feel like leggings the wine color looks just like the images for tho se who find measurements helpful i m 6 tall 160lbs with about 42 hips and a 35 inseam boug ht my 3rd pair of pilcro cords in the dark turquoise the other 2 are from previous seasons lov e these pants for fall because they are extremely comfortable and stylish the dark turquoise wa s paired with the poppy tunic in blue at my local store i liked the pairing and ended up buyi ng both i find these to fit true to size vs other items at retailer that fit larger i am a 29 8 while in most other pants at retailer i am a 6 i am 5 7 and 135 lbs i love this dress is perfect in every way no complaints very pretty colors will wear it with a belt these pants a re so soft and comfortable the colors are great too can t wait to buy more in other colors t he picture is accurate i got the plum version the color and effect are really unique the fit is tts i wear an 8 in tops and the medium is fine the sleeves are flattering belled but not ridiculous the fabric is soft if the body of the top was a little less wide it would be a 5 st ar item with flare legs i think it will balance out the volume of the cut these tight cords a re perfect for fall i really like this top it is made of cotton and linen blend so the fabric is not as soft as i would have expected however it did not bother me at all and i am really l iking it \nthe fabric is on a sheer side so it is a bit see through nothing too revealing how ever it is a thin fabric \noverall i am happy with this top nan although this isn t a soft top i didn t find it that scratchy or bothersome at all it s 55 linen and for linen it s soft i t s also got tons of stretch which makes it very comfortable as far as movement \r\n\r\ni bough t the black and i do not find this sheer or see thru it s a light thickness which makes it per fect for layering under a jacket or sweater for a cool spring or warm fall day i found it runni ng tts with the sleeves and length a little long i m petite making perfect for the av more of a legging than a true pant fits really well grey color is great and will go with lots of thing s i fell in love with this top in the store and ordered another online it is very soft and com fortable the petite tend to run a little short in the front but the regular is perfect it s o versized without being frumpy or boxy on my petite frame nan these cords are great the fit th e style everything my new favorite fall pants i first bought this top in the dark grey loved it so much that i ordered the navy too the quality is amazing as always and fit is perfect so me may say it runs large but i m pretty sure it is meant to have a looser fit i love the mate rial of the lighter color blocked back it s so versatile and easy to throw on i ve worn it sim ply with jeans and i ve also paired it with a pencil skirt and overlapping skinny belt and heel s for a great work outfit received compliments this piece fits true to size and is very flat tering on sometimes i worry about my stomach not being perfectly flat but this wasn t an issue at all probably because of the intricate lace details the fabric is substantial enough that i don t feel like it ll get a hole in it after multiple wears this tank is lovely understated bu t well made of nice fabric i love viscose because it drapes nicely on my curves but this is a swing shaped tank shoulda known better and it s cropped so giant fabric tent hanging from t he biggest part of me if i put in big french darts it d be too too short no way to make it wo rk so it s going back p s i clicked true to size but what does that mean sizes vary from brand to brand from decade to decade i don t understand how anyone could thin this print col or combination is really pretty i think it s a little muted compared to the picture but still very pretty it is definitely longer than expected i m 5 5 and it almost touches the floor will definitely need to wear with heels colors will actually work in the fall with boots and in spring with heeled sandals it actually has a shorter underskirt so there s no accidental show i really like the dark blue wrap extra fabric at top sits below the waist and will help hide imp such an adorable top very flattering despite it s rather full style just be sure you get t he correct size since it does indeed run quite large i normally wear a small sometimes medium i ordered both sizes to be sure but they were both too large i sized down to xs and that fit pe rfectly i purchased this top in the store intending only to go in and return two tops i purcha sed on sale that did not fit i had been looking for a red top to wear with navy and this one c ouldn t have looked more perfect on the hanger from the front it looks pretty traditional but the back is just gorgeous the multi colors and the pleating give the top a lot of interest and depth the fabric is also super soft and comfortable the top does run quite large though as i purchased an xs and still h i am six feet tall and this sweater is a perfect fit for tunic lengt h over skinny jeans if you are shorter i assume it would be longer i bought the green color wh ich is a beautiful dark hunter green the bodice is fitted and doesn t show any bra straps and t he bottom is slightly loose and forgiving love this sweater this dress is amazing the fit s tyle quality of fabric is just perfect just the right amount of v in the front and back to b e flattering and sexy without being too exposed will be looking for more styles from this desig ner nan i love this top it is flattering in all the right places i struggle with shirts the are too flowy however this is forgiving yet looks more fitted and flattering i bought the shirt in blue and am buying it now in red i typically buy a large or xl in this shirt a large is per fect love these the colors are perfect for fall originally ordered a small which fit fine i m a 6 8 but felt the black color would look better if i sized up and the material wasn t as str etched i m glad i exchanged for a medium for that reason i am truly heartbroken that this dre ss is sold out in my size it s is incredibly flattering glamorous and interesting and it h as sleeves this is such a hard combo to find and i wish more than anything i can find my size t o wear to a wedding retailer please please make more dresses like this one that flatter all fi gures and are classics i saw this dress online and i ordered immediately \nit has everything i love my fav color a peplum and feminine cut out details \ni ordered my usual size medium and it was too tight in the chest and i am just average 34c \nloved it so reordered in a size la rge \nif you are thinking of purchasing this beauty i would suggest going up a size if you are o n the upper end\nof your size medium 8 10 and i am usually a 10 so needed to go up \nthe reason i gave the quality a lower rating is that the med this is a lovely well fitting embroidered n avy tank i cannot find a flaw in this i am 5 5 142 lbs 34d and the size 6 is a fantastic fi t one of those tops that is so well cut that it feels as if one is wearing nothing the lining is impeccably done and is cut perfectly for the blouse it has a small cut out in the back at th e v it fits just as the photo shows and is so versatile it can be worn with everything from jea ns to a formal skirt six stars this is such a cute top it runs large i bought an xs and usu ally wear a small or medium it s flowy and comfy looks great with dark jeans bought this dres s for my daughter to wear to a rehearsal dinner and i couldn t believe how beautifully it fit f itted through the top falling to a gorgeous flare hit her at knee she s 5 6 classic elega nt femme fatale look that will work for a range of occasions i saw this top on a store manniki n and was drawn to it by it s color and print it looked great with blue jeans on display and a lariat necklace then i noticed the different design on the back below the yoke the surprise wa s its being pleated into very fine pleats i liked the funky quality this added the design is a good transitional piece to wear early fall or under a jacket it is machine washable and that fi nalized the purchase of it i bought the necklace too i often wear a small but go adorable with black pants or jeans covers the part of your arm you might want covered the fabric is incre dibly soft and has a good weight to it this is also pretty warm it s not a down jacket but it s as least as warm as a sweatshirt it fits close to the body in typical bomber jacket fashion i m 5 6 155 lbs and went with the large which fits well i always find myself wishing bomber ja ckets were just a tad longer and this is no exception but i can t really fault the jacket for t hat it s true to the style this sweatshirt is really nice it s oversized so best worn with l eggings or skinny jeans it s very warm without being too thick it looks almost exactly like t he picture the quality seems pretty good but we ll see how it holds up after it s washed i am in love with the pilcro brand this pair is gorgeous i love the how versatile these will be in my wardrobe i can dress them up with a nice blazer sweater or dress them down with t shirts or tanks these will be a staple in my wardrobe they are a nice navy blue very cute top even prettier in person i ordered it by mistake but i am definitely keeping it the regular xs size fits perfectly i was concerned about my twin sisters this dress is stunning it is a great c lassic that i wished had worked out for me i went through 3 different dresses and each time the cap sleeve would tear there is not much room if at any for arm movement without the fabri c tearing i am so disappointed it wasn even tearing on a seam so there was no way to repai r it if you do not intent to dance in this dress and are wearing it for a low key night or di nner it would most likely work it is not for a wedding with dancing nan this bomber does ha ve a partial double layer with 2 zippers one for the partial inner sweatshirt and another for the jacket itself the material is soft and cozy and the color is exactly what i was looking for true to the picture i find it very good for colder west coast nights and the hood is cute but not as functional in rain since it s made out of sweatshirt material i am a curvier size l to x l and the large fit me very well and gives a nice shape zipped nan i bought this dress for my b ridesmaids and it fit all 6 different body types wonderfully it is a very classic look the mat erial is very nice a little heavier and more formal super cute blouse great with a jean jacke t sleeved or sleeveless pleating is neat and a nice unique detail without getting to full usually a 4 or small in blouses bought the xs made this decision based on the arm hole opening s seemed a little large and set low on the small i love this top the design is very good i love the pleats at the back and i tried both colors i prefer blue even though both look good the fit is very loose mainly due to the pleats at the back i usually wear xl but bought this in an l which was also very loose i think an m would be too tight across the shoulders but loose lower because of the pleats i am keeping the blue because i like this style with fitted pants it would work well this tank caught my eye in the store yesterday i was taken by the design co ntrast of the front and back the colors are beautiful and rich i see this as the perfect tank to transition into the fall season the top does run a little big i sized down to a medium i a m just under 5 5 and am a 36g saw this hanging in the store it is cute front and back it is flattering as well i plan to wear under a jacket for work and without a jacket at night looks amazing with a denim jacket i love this top i usually wear a medium but all that was left wer e larges so i figured i d take a chance it is gorgeous and not too big the quality is fabulo us and the color is very soft and complimentary i am so glad i ordered this can t wait to wea r it i was looking for the full legged pants with a slit light enough for the beach they ha ve my size finally i m a regular 12 and m worked well for me can t wait to wear these with a n ice top i love this style of tank top with the wider straps very flattering but yes the armhol es are big and i noticed the sizing is different with each color i normally wear an xs but in t he gray and blue i bought s to have a little room i also bought the black color but the s was h uge i exchanged for an xs so hopefully it will fit better it had to be ordered it definitely stretches out as you wear it though cute top good color fabric is a little rough and scratchy i m in love with these tanks so in love that i bought four of them black grey blue and the black motif they are so flattering on i love the low scoop neck and the wide straps the cut is interesting enough to wear the shirt on its own but also perfect for under a cardigan i pur chased a nearly identical one from retailer which was made by velvet several months ago and it was much more pricey these are a much more affordable option wow this skirt blew me away out of the package i almost had to wonder if i received the right skirt i had ordered i thought th e skirt was mostly an oatmeal isth color but irl the skirt is predominantly purple with real a nd beige colors weaved in the skirt itself is also a fine sweater knit which makes it look more luxurious i m thinking this skirt will look awesome in the fall but might be a bit heavy for s ome in the summer weather the skirt is also longer than expected i m 5 6 and nan i wish it was a little bigger i kept this for it will be wonderful for summer i ordered this cutie before i read any reviews and i am so glad i did mine does not have any weird smell at all i ordered a medium and i wear a size 8 it fits perfectly and is long enough to wear with leggings with coverage the detailing on the yoke is so pretty i bought it with a discount promotion so it ma de the price better i am really glad to add it to my wardrobe nan this tank top runs big i m usually a xs and i ordered the xs and pxs due to reviews and the pxs is still big i kept the px s because it s very cute and i love the color ordered the canton i ve been taping the tank to my bra so it does not slip too far down however not sure if i will order this again i ordered the black not yet available through my store as the xs was too big and we tried ordering xs petite but it was not yet available so we ordered xxs i am 115lbs it fits nicely but as mentioned in previous review it is thin not see through in black but thin cut is nice thoug h i still think petite would fit me better i n length but xxs was good got a think if i wil l keep or not as htis is a nice summer basic i bought the white tank and the small fits me bu t it s very low cut for me the white is sheer as well i usually wear an xs or a small and i wo uld be curious to see what the xs would fit like in the sense of how low cut it is i always loo k at jumpsuits but they never seem to work for me because of my height 5 1 and petite stature i ordered the xxsp and it fits perfectly so comfortable and made of high quality silk which you can really feel is well made love that there is no zipper just a hidden elastic tube top and a hook and eye below the nape of the neck plan on wearing this for my 30th birthday with heels or booties and a cropped leather jacket this dress is adorable and professional at the same time i was worried that the print would overpower me but it s a nice fabric i m 5 2 and the petite small is perfect i don t like to wear form fitting clothing for work and this fits right for me plus it s hand washable i haven t worn or washed it yet but i ll easily wear it to my creative professional workplace i was in the store looking specifically for long sleeved tops that are cute and found this pretty color pinky purple and my usual xs is perfect i m 5 6 127 lbs 34 b love this definitely unique and feminine and no nary a smell in the mix this is a beauti ful lightweight sheer blouse the front has a liner and the arms and back are sheer i usually w ear a s or xs the xs was plenty roomy i ll wear a cami due to the sheerness of the back the cutouts in the long sleeves are quite pretty overall this is a classy blouse that can be worn w ith any number of jeans slacks or skirts thanks retailer i tried this in the black and white in the store the material is very thin you cannot wear the white without a cami which defeats the purpose of wearing this tank in the summery the arm holes are cut very inconsistently some are very big which creates a very unflattering gap under the armpit others are cut fine i trie d on 3 different smalls in the black and found one that was cut just right this does fit snuggl y but is more flattering that way love this tank prettier shade of yellow in person love the strap width and length wish they d bring back more in lots of colors i sized up one from my us ual size and will have to shorten the length of the strap myself but it s an easy alteration an d is totally worth it especially good at sale price i really hope they make more in the style in lots of colors great find i bought this top in my usual size large and it is slightly big but not so much that i would want to size down the material is slightly itchy but i think tha t it s worth it because it s such a pretty top i absolutely love the detail at the top it is beautiful if you wear a nude bra you can t see the strap lines through the material i also love the coloring of this top this is a great top that i can see myself wearing with dress pan ts for work or with jeans for a more casual look the picture doesn t do these justice they are beautiful and a must have for summer date nights i am 5 2 and hover between 115 120 i tried on the regular size in store and they were way too long so i ordered the xs petite and they fit pe rfectly i like to pair them with a flowy top that hangs over the waist band not styled like t he pic they literally feel like you are wearing nothing you ll receive so many compliments trust me i bought a similar tee by velvet by graham and spencer a couple years ago and have bee n searching for another one ever since the wide straps are flattering on me because of my broad shoulders i love the price too very reasonable i want one in every color i bought the fuschi a colored tank to wear under a sweater for the fall great color fits well i really like this top perfect underneath cardigans or on its own the fabric is a bit thin so light colors may be see through love the wider style so there is no bra show versatile i see myself purchasing mo re of these this dress is absolutely stunning the colors are vibrant and it flows very nicely touching the floor \r\n it runs very small i ordered size medium and i could not even zip the dress i normally wear size 10 i had to return it and order again in size large i love the fit this time but be aware if your normal size is higher than 10 this dress will not fit and large r sizes are not available for this dress it is nice addition to my wardrobe and i am planning t o wear it to the multiple occasion i have bought 4 of these but after 1st wash on 2 of them and they were in a lingere bag there are little holes on the front of each now they are bum around shirts if they go on sale i will purchase but the material needs to be better nan nan great t ank top loved it so much that i ordered 3 the color was a little darker than it looks online but i like it i made the mistake of ordering a medium instead of large and have the same fit is sues as other reviewers it is tight in the back through the shoulders so if you re considering it i would stick with your larger of your size range the print is beautiful as is the fabric i t looked okay on me from the side but i am short waisted it fell at the perfect length on me to o there s just something about the fit that didn t wow me so i don t plan to reorder but i do think it would be lovely on thinne like the look of this tank ran a bit larger than expected at the neck but overall happy with the purchase lovely top with details and a unique color i have read some other reviews and i honestly don t know why it is getting bad reviews it is linen but not scratchy by any means like linen it does give with wear so i recommend sizing down as it d oes run a little large with a nude bra you won t see your straps and i would dryel this no was hing of any kind linen shrinks overall great top and i was glad i snatched one up this is a s uper flattering cute tank i ve purchased it in several colors because it s such a great fit s omewhat thin material and slightly sheer especially the white i like that it has good coverag e on the sleeves so that bra straps nor side boob armpit fat shows looks great with pilcro ca pris for a cute casual summer look i wish they would come out with even more colors the wide strap style is very flattering this tank is fitted in my normal size small it fits like the mo del in the cobalt blue color i m 5 7 120lbs if you want more room i d size up it is low cut but not inappropriately so fits like the picture shows looks just like it does on the model i am 5 130lbs and the ps fits perfectly i wore mine with a t and wedges adorable and more import antly comfortable flows nicely without being distracting got lots of compliments nan great s oft basic low scoop neck makes this tank flirty while the thicker strap keeps it modest i abso lutely love this top easily dress up and down knitted midi skirts are part of my daily uniform so i was drawn to this one its high quality showcases intricate details the pattern on the fro nt is different from that on the back the hem is asymmetric and is reverse high low the flat w aist means the skirt is not too voluminous the colors and pattern are reminiscent of missoni i t should be easy to coordinate with solid tops wonderful quality and machine washable i m 5 5 and the petite medium fits me as pictured since i want the back t i love this tee and am a pic ky tee person it runs big the striped colors are even bigger but i washed in warm and dried th em and they are great super soft and sexy for a tee i bought the xxs and i am 115 lbs and 5 2 i like the longer length cute with leggings not 5 stars due to stretched out arm holes love the material pockets length i wear petitie i m 5 3 etc i usually wear a medium but this dress runs incredibly large i was drowning in it and sadly had to return it size one or two si zes down if you want to purchase awesome basic top for your wardrobe it s a little sheer but not too much i love this tank basic but super sexy i m an a cub and this tee makes them look a lil bigger so i ll take it i bought the dark grey in small and went back for the striped gre y and purchased small i bought the black one too but i feel like the small in black is too big and the xsmall is too small i m torn because i want the black to tuck in a pencil skirt i took a risk on this one i wasn t sure if the shirt was more green or more blue i look better in blu e it turns out that the shirt is a bit more green but i think it still looks good i m 5 3 an d 125 lbs i got a medium i could have maybe gotten a small but i like the medium the shirt h as a bit of a vintage look to it which i like all in all good this dress is stunning i loved the cut and seam detailing it is very flattering if it fits i have a curvy athletic build an d usually wear a size 10 12 i am also smaller busted and this dress was too tight around my rib s back and tummy i bought the large and it doesn t come in a bigger size it is very well m ade and completely lines i highly recommend this dress but again only it if fits you i wish th ere were 100 colors i d buy them all the white is super sheer but i ll use it as a bottom lay er for something love this shirt it s so comfy for fall winter but has the really cute detai l at the top love the color too i saw the tank at the store and was so glad to try it on i go t the small i m in between xs and s 34b and try to get petites when i can but the small fit gr eat with a longer cut i bought the green and did not find it sheer i actually thought it was t hicker than most tanks and tees these days i found the arm holes were fine i usually need to g o with a petite just for this reason but no need to this time planning on getting a couple of m ore colors nan first of all the photo online doesn t really do the colors of this skirt justic e it is a heathered knit with colors of white gold deep yellow raspberry or almost maroon and teal i have never seen a color combo like this before and its really fun i am wearing it today with a burgundy color sweater but i anticipate being able to match it for summer with any of those colors i just mentioned or even navy or tan the skirt has a lining in it and the wid e ribbed knit runs at varying an actually you would think just another tshirt but actually with the wide straps it changes it up enough to really be cute i like the look it adds i really w ant to get more colors i normally wear everything from retailer in small and even though th is fit it was small for a small i will keep it but i think i will buy others in medium i trie d this on in store in white and in grey it is so super comfy and really cute i love the wide s traps i ended up getting it in white and black the grey looked a tad bit more casual than the white and black tanks this gorgeous dress really does bloom before your eyes the silk is light airy and very delicate the bodice runs large and the length runs long i have to wear my highes t platforms but i would not return because it s an exquisite piece of art this is a great fall shirt great for dressing up casual wear the size s arm holes are a little too over sized and i find i keep adjusting the shoulders so the sides of my bra won t show and sizing down to an x s made the body too tight it s a bit pricey for a basic thin tank but it s a good every day wear all the time staple i bough the blue color and love it the neckline detail is fun and mak e you take a double take when looking at what is otherwise a relatively simple top it drapes ni cely and paired nicely with dark skinny jeans and ballet flats for work i m at a tech company so casual to business casual the ombre color is gorgeous the lavender is pretty too but seem ed to wash me out and not fall as nicely \r\nregarding what other reviewers said yes it has a slightly vinegar smell when it came shipped b i ordered the red motif in size m based on review s this top runs small and it is too big i m 5 7 34c 132 lbs and usually a size s in this bra nd this top was large through the body and the arm openings were huge i washed it and dried it but it still fits a bit large it did wash up well though no pilling love love love the cut of this tank top it s is super thin and see thru however wish it was made a bit thicker i got it in white and you can see right thru it however the cut is so fabulous i can over look that jus t purchased this skirt it is absolutely the most comfortable skirt for every season every color imaginable will go with this skirt great with denim shirt too lightweight cotton knit ma kes the skirt comfy with any temperature waistband is wide and slimming to the tummy i stand 5 foot 10 inches 174 lbs and it is perfect in length platform or flats dress up or down my fav orite is a v neck tee with a couple necklaces and your good to go there s something specia l about this tank that makes it uber flattering the fabric is perfect the colors green and fu chsia are spot on gorgeous and brightening and the cut length wide straps and scooped neckl ine make this the perfect staple it flattered my figure skin color and really hid my flaws i wish i could get away with wearing this every day i purchased the turquoise in a petite xs normally items at retailer run on the larger side and this shirt fit just right i am 4ft 11inch es and 100lbs the material was a little on the lite side which makes a great summer fit but i t is a bit weak so it can tear easily it looks great with all types of skirts and jeans i ju st wish retailer would sell more of the petite sizes i went back in to buy more in other colors and they are sold out already it definitely smells like vinegar but it went away after a few ho urs i don t think its itchy its kind of baggy and kind of has an ombrã look to it fading down to darker it looks casual in the pic but i can wear it out at night with cute earrings nan this is a very flattering pencil skirt i found it in the store and bought an xs and have been weari ng it to work it is not too short and the wrap fit looks great its a pleasure to wear this sw eater it feels like you are wearing a hug it s that cozy yet it s almost weightless which i s nice for me because i get overheated easily the only slight downfall is that it is dry clean only i got this in charcoal but both color options are so pretty and you will be pleased how dr essed up and flattering they look without giving up comfort super soft and comfy with stylish look thank goodness i packed this on a recent trip to adirondacks because it kept me warm in the cool mountain weather i love gray so i was drawn to this open stitch sweater it is a boxy bulk y look but a great layering piece most bulk is in front so it can camouflage areas i wore thi s over a gray and black flannel plaid shirt perfect i was surprised at how much i liked this s weater i was watching it for awhile and when it went on sale i decided to give it a try i coul dn t decided on the rose or black so i ordered both since they were such a good price figuring i would return the color i didn t want boy was i happy i ordered both the rose is very flatter ing and the fit is so much better than i expected i am 5 9 and usually take a large in size i could have gone down one size but the front drapes against your body it runs a bit tight around upper arms love the collar this vest is a really cute idea for layering so i ordered my usual size medium and while it fit it just added about 5 10 pounds onto my frame ehhh the front jus t has this extra fabric that you are supposed to bunch up and then tie down but it just made me look so bulky sizing down wouldn t have helped as the back would have been squeezed in a small it s a shame because it seems pretty well made and comfortable too i m 5 6 140 and usually w ear a 6 or 8 i stumbled upon the blue version in the store i immediately liked that it was eas y chic and just different enough after wearing it for a birthday dinner i saw it online and realized that i had styled it almost exactly the same way the blue one is shown black sandal we dges silver cuff silver earrings it is flattering in an unexpected way which may be partiall y because i am really small chested the front v is deep compared to what i usually wear but do uble sided tape easily kept my bra this is a thick jacquard fabric and the colors are stunning this would be best for very thin petties or tall women i m 5 4 125 27 4 and it was just to o much fabric so my waist looked thick the length was great though sad it didn t work out i sa w the xxs petite in green in my store adn decided to try this on only becasue it was a petite a nd in the store i don t see green as an option nline anymore so it must have been a old return it is extremely soft as others mentioned and the fit is really flaterring i bought it then re ad abou the rebviews so will see the fact that i bought the xxs means it must run big this was returned in store in an xs i tried it on and it fit shorter so it was probably meant to be a mini i will hold on to it for now on sale so worth the price colors are nice and bright i a bsolutely loved this the minute i saw it the quality is impeccable and the fit is amazing i w ill agree with the other reviewer in that the fabric is very thick back to the quality of this piece amazing and some women may not like the extra bulk to that part of the body however i m still on the hunt now for the perfect white top to go with it thank you retailer for always providing unique quality pieces this dress may not be worth the full price of 138 but on sa le it is one huge bargain so easy to wear and so incredibly flattering seriously i don t know why it s not sold out at this price it hides all flaws without looking oversized or bulky i to tally disagree with the reviewer who called this dress sack like found this tts looks great with pumps or flats the print of this dress is what enticed me and it did not disappoint the fabric is a nice shade of medium grey with cream printing however the fabric is very thin tha nkfully the top part is lined but the bottom is not and it should be this lightweight dress gr eat for hot summer days but for the price it really should be lined on the bottom as well \r\n the dress is more a line than pictured which i liked the bust is fitted and there is elastic i n back the skirt is fairly loose and flare i was not expecting to like this i tried it on in t he store on a whim it happened to drape beautifully this will be a great work dress for the su mmer with something underneath the bring up the neckline the blue color is soft and pretty i h ave been looking for a long jacket with personality for a while now i got one from retailer 5 y ears ago and i ve been looking for something just as great walked into the store and fell absol utely in love the fit is true to size i prefer my jackets pretty fitted the color seemed a bi t rosey in the store but now that i m home seems more tan and brown it s not going to be super warm perfect for fall in colorado and warmer winter days it s soft so soft not bulky at all if this is your s i saw this shirt in store a while ago but could not believe the price and was not about to spend my money on it however when it went on sale and there was an extra 40 i d ecided to get it i like the top it s cute and fun however it does poof out a little in the m idline this top goes great with jeans or shorts and it is cute but definitely not worth full price for this this top is very pretty it s a bit more voluminous than the picture would let o n but otherwise as expected you can adjust the ties at the shoulder this is stunning it s al most snug for a 2 i m 5 6 123 lb but that might be because it s strapless it s constructed w ith a bra inside so you can get away without wearing one i can t wait to wear this and i m goin g to have to find an event good enough to deserve this dress i feel like audrey hepburn in this the pattern attracted me to this top in store and when i tried it on i was pleasantly surprised it has a slight swing shape to it which i love i m a 36c d and normally wear an 8 or 10 and bou ght this in a large the front buttons don t peek open and actually lays flat which is unusual f or me with button up tops i m actually wearing it today with some printed green shorts the str ipes on this top make it easy to mix patterns too the material of this swimsuit is amazing the swimsuit is expensive but it is high quality in person definitely one i d recommend buying this robe is exactly what i was looking for it s perfect for lounging around while getting rea dy and also good for post shower while i m still drying off it is a little shorter than it loo ks on the model but that s fine for me only downside is that it has to be hand washed i boug ht the deep maroon which is beautiful absolutely love the softness length and the casual look you can dress it up and dress it down it does run big i got the medium but could wear the smal l easily enough since i am 6 feet tall i wanted to length to be where it is the only part i d id not like is the 3 4 length sleeves as it is tough when wearing a jacket over it love this sw eater i have it in the raspberry and the charcoal color it s so soft and comfortable looks gr eat with jeans or leggings it s casual but you can dress it up a bit and you still looked polis hed it s a little oversized only downfall is that it piles easily i think this shirt is so cu te it is well made it s a flattering fit and it s unusual it still is a neutral though so yo u can wear it with lots of things i m really happy i bought it this is long as it is shown in the picture i am five 8 and it s actually too long for me it looks a bit matronly on as it s just so long i loved the fabric it s not heavy and it s super soft i think it runs one size b ig it s made very well and as i stated it is a nice fabric with a soft hand it would be nice for a crisp fall day that being said the length just isn t right and does nothing for me i m five 8 and slender i definitely do not think a petite woman would like this or be i ordered th is dress online and didn t really know what to expect but to my surprise it s exactly what i h ad hoped it would be the dress is a fantastic fit and has a modern interesting print the fabr ic does seem thin for the price but i am not returning it it s a casual summer dress that kick s up my look a notch on weekends i wear it with beige sandals and the gray and beige look good together too like the other reviewers said it has a lot of bulky fabric if you wear it as pict ured i tried it on and tied the string around the back so it s an open vest i love if i reall y love the fit of this dress i said it runs true to size and it really does even with the str etch fabric around the back and adjustable straps i would not recommend sizing down as i normal ly do at retailer there is no stretch to the actual fabric on the dress i d never bought anyth ing by this brand before and i would say that the fabric is quite thin for the price of the dre ss and it is not lined i m still hoping it s not see through however for me the style make s up for the shirt is great aside from the fact that it runs very large i ordered an xs when i usually wear a s and it is still very big on me the color is great though and the fabric is mo re comfortable than i expected i still wear it occasionally with pants or skirts that i can eas ily tuck it in to this dress is extremely flattering on and looks a lot better when worn than o n the hanger the cut drapes very nicely and is true to size i am 5 feet tall 95lbs and the x xsp fit perfectly it is a bit short however so i would caution that it may not be work office appropriate if you are taller like most hd in paris dresses it is also quite thin although lin ed this dress would look lovely with a either delicate jewelry or a bold statement piece and is casual enough for a lunch outing or i bought the gray and white to take on a trip i wore it nea rly every other day looks good layered with a cami or short sleeved t shirt also threw on a bl azer one chilly night and it looked nice enough to have a dinner out came home and bought it in red and white and solid white true to size not clingy not baggy and comes down just long enou gh to cover the tummy i love wearing this sweater it is unbelievably soft and cozy usually a sweater like this sits like an unflattering sack on me so i was pleasantly surprised by how fla ttering it was on my petite frame i purchased a grey xs regular in store and i am 5 3 120 lbs and it was long but not at all overwhelming it sat very flattering on my figure and kept me wa rm at work on this rainy cold day i wore mine with skinny capri jeans and purple suede kitten h eels would look great with leggings and bo nan i bought this sweater in the gray color and love it it is so very comfortable very soft it looks great with jeans or leggings i ordered this bra in my normal size 32d and it fits me perfectly this bra is beautiful the material seems t o be very high quality and the comfort of this bra is amazing it s definitely a keeper i love this sweater i bought it on sale in maroon and it is the most comfortable sweater ever i like to wear it with leggings it has a nice oversize fit and is perfect for fat days or any day i was looking for a top to go with leggings that didn t look like a sack and this is perfect th e v neck and unusual cut on the bottom makes it more interesting than a typical tunic and the fa bric is so snuggly love it beautiful piece the model actually doesn t do this piece justice it is stunning a light yet quality fabric that drapes effortlessly and ties comfortably great with a white tee and sllm jeans runs ever so slighty large but i took my normal size xs and for the type of piece it is it works wonderful slimming leggings snappy and a great accessor y for any professional outfit i have tried this on several times now and have yet to pull the t rigger i like the coral color the best for its versatility the detailing on this cardigan is f antastic i especially like the back the stitching is already very flattering but then the ple ats really add an extra touch the only reason i have not bought it yet is that i wish it was sl ightly longer especially with it being a cashmere piece i am slightly worried about it shrinkin g in any way which would make it much too short an i love this top it fits true to size hits a t the low hip so its not too short and can be worn casually or dressed up i wore it with rippe d ag stevie ankle jeans freebird by stevie worn brown buckled ankle boots and a glittery silve r necklace but it would have also looked good with turquoise jewelry i also plan to pair it wi th the cabernet turquoise cecelia prado sparkly skirt tights and boots and a jean jacket or bl ack moto jacket this top would also look amazing with the sanctuary arm this jacket is cute and comfy i had never tried on a romper or jumper the print of this changed my mind and i m glad f or it it looks amazing on is easy to wear i kind of wish it were lined but it s probably bette r unlined to keep it light and cool for the summer \r\n\r\ni did end up using double stick take bc the front was so low but it was worth it pictures do not do this top justice looks much cut er in person \r\nit caught my eye right away in the store \r\nperfect top for when the weather starts getting a little cooler this jacket is exactly what i was looking for it is a lightweig ht and comfortable material that will be perfect for fall spring and for layering during a mild winter i am 5 3 128 lbs and generally wear a small but i ordered a medium in this jacket and am happy i sized up the jacket is roomy but the cinched waist makes it flattering rather t han shapeless i d definitely recommend this anorak to anyone i loved the contrasting design of this sweater i loved it even more when it arrived its soft and true to size i received so man y compliments which sealed the deal it s maybe a bit longer than i d like but cute great with s lacks or dresses i happened upon this one in store in my xs size online it would not catch my eye but in person i love it it fits like a glove and is so soft and elegant with the knit deta iling pleats and length in the back i couldn t pass this one up i also agree with the other reviewers about colors nan i m usually a small or medium in retailer tops however jackets i tend to wear a small liking a more fitted look this jacket i also purchased a small but t here is plenty of room so might have even worn an xs anyway the material is great is well ma de wonderful pocketsi super comfy but maybe a little too warm for summer nights i cuffed up the sleeves had no issue with the length i m 5 6 36c and i couldn t be happier with this purchase happy mother s day to me can t wait to wear this during the holidays beautiful embro idery and detailing i love love this sweater it s beautiful on and super comfy my only complai nt is that it had a snag and a hole in the back so i can t say it s good quality this coat is very soft and flattering in design good quality and very comfortable i usually wear a small wh ich is what i got and it fits well if anything it is a little snug across the shoulders when i reach forward so if you plan on wearing a heavier layer underneath go up a size pants were su per comfortable a little too large and the fabric was a little too heavy i sent them back an d i m regretting it now that they re completely unavailable i bought the ivory in my usual size xs and the fit is flattering and quality is good it is a good weight for spring summer and fal l i love that it is a natural cotton linen blend the turquoise was not available in my size in itially but when it restocked for a short time i ordered it also i know i won t be disappointe d beautiful sweater with great details the fabric is very nice and it is completely lined exc ept for the sleeves which are sheer i expected the dress to be lighter so wearing this on a h ot day won t work i ordered an xs because of the former reviews it said it ran large and it doe s it s roomy straight and quite flowy i wanted a casual non clinging dress and it s just li ke the picture it hits below the knee this is a classic well made velvet top it fits true t o size is very flattering the on line photos don t do it justice very pretty in real life 3

4a 123 lbs ordered the xs this is a really lovely jacket silky soft fabric in a pretty color and quality construction throughout i am so sad that it runs very small especially in the arm s and across the chest i will be returning it nan this top is exactly as described it can be casual with jeans or dressed up for evening wear i would have kept it but it was slightly tight across the chest i am 5 1 1 2 tall 112 lbs purchased a petite small my bra size is a 34a nan love it cute flattering and even though the material is thin it is still very cozy i h ave no complains about the quality i haven t found any loose threads or other issues \r\n\r\nth e cardigan runs tts i got m instead of my usual s because s was out of stock and it s a litt le loose in the armpits but i still like the cardigan and i m keeping it was looking for somet hing lighter as we go into warmer temperatures and this one is greatz looks just like pictured a nd ha a flattering fit i had been looking for a green jacket with a hood just like this one and was thrilled to find it i found the fit to be true to size i am 5 4 107 pounds and i bought t he xs which is my usual size in retailer jackets i love the material and the way it hangs so c asually went to the local store today for something else and left with this in the cream color it is just simply awesome i could have worn the s but felt that the m would be a little better i m between a s and m most of the time can t say enough good things about the quality and versa tility of this sweater great piece for cooler summer nights and for a cover up for pilates yoga can t wait to wear it and now i m tempted by the teal these pants are a fun way to mix it up fr om the usual dark solid colored pants the print is a perfect balance between subtle and bold the fabric is soft and stretchy and i love that these pants are washable i i m petite 5 2 bu t my petite size was sold out so i bought these pants in the regular length they are soooo long that i think even the petite size wouldn t have ended up cropped on me having said that i like them enough that i plan to keep them and have them shortened i usually s just bought this weeke nd and had to size down i m usually a small in jackets and went with the xs retailer has had t his style for the last few years and i ve missed out so finally was able to buy before they sold out well worth the price point i think it will be a very versatile jacket for sizing referen ce i m 5 7 and 135lbs cashmere is soft as a feather yet warm easy to wear and the pointelle s titches are lovely i feel lovely wearing this and i m really not that kind of lady so if yo u imagine a side of yourself wanting to try out feeling lovely bite the bullet and buy this car digan it does run small in my bust area but all the rest fits well this jacket is so comforta ble and high quality fabric i love the color and style and easiness of just throwing it on the only thing that i wasn t completely satisfied with is that it is a little bit bulky around the h ips with the pockets however i am 5 0 so that may be more of a length issue for me overall this jacket is really nice i finally bought this top after eyeing it in the store for sometime the design adds a bit of edge to a top that could get matronly very quickly it goes great with a nice pair of jeans and some pumps you re ready for a night out my only critique is that i m a bit busty 38c so in the center of the top where the v of the neckline meets the shirt there is some pulling it s not completely noticeable and doesn t make it uncomfortable in the least love this shirt and so happy i finally indul this is the first romper i ve ever purchased and i m instantly in love it s flows the colors are vibrant and the pockets are practical looking f orward to wearing it for the rest of the season as well as next year was excited to find an ret ailer pkg awaiting in my mailbox ripped open the package and immediately tried on the sweater it did not disappoint i bought turquoise in size medium my regular retailer cardigan size i a m 5 3 medium build and i find the regular size fits me true to size it isn t too long on me at all i think the way the sweater drapes in a curve shape as it flows downs to the length of swea ter makes it very accommodating for various heights figures and is a flattering style for cu i love this jacket and can t get enough of it it has side pockets as well as the buttoned pockets i love the cinched waist option for a more fitted look i am 5 5 125 pounds size 4 ish someti mes a 4 sometimes a 6 athletic build these pants fit great except they are pretty large arou nd the waist about 2 extra inches of space i don t think the problem would be fixed by sizing down since only the waist was large i will need to get them tailored i wish i had sized up on this one you can t tell from the photo but has kind of a weird taper thing where the sides are shorter than the back the back is extremely flatteringly but the front not so much the sho rter sides are a little awkward there is no attached way to fasten this cardigan and it lays k ind of strange the material is a medium thickness and i think will be very versatile very soft of course i got the blue teal color i found the color to be true to the color on line i m 5 5 120 lbs and i bought these in a 0 they fit great i wore them for upwards of 12 hours and i was very comfortable i received compliments on the print and cut very flattering nan the detailin g on this dress is beautiful the cotton fabric is good quality and has a nice weight to it i l ove the print \nas for the fit i sized down one size because of the reviews and the s fit perf ectly i am a 34 d and the dress is slightly snug in the bust and perfectly fitted in the waist i line dried the dress because of that the zipper does stick a little at the waist when zipping i can t wait to wear it holy cow does this run small like really small i ordered the normal si ze i would wear and couldn t even get it passed my legs until i supplied the most amount of effo rt i could against my better judgment and managed to get it on but it was definitely too small i would classify myself as petite and my normal size was way too short on my torso it of cours e was a mistake to force it on because it was just as hard to get it off \n\nthat said i love the suit and am going to try in one and 2 siz i just received this beautiful suit i have purcha sed a boyleg from seafolly before and loved it \nthis color way is totally different it is a wh ite background with a floral pattern that is not over the top \ni am a 32 dd and wear a clothing size 4 i purchased the 6 this suit definitely will accommodate small bust too \nmy sister is a 34 b size 4 clothing and it fit as well \nway to go retailer with another winner i am 5 6 130lbs size 27 short legged and these jeans fit perfectly i ve learned that pilcro s serif f it is my go to and these did not disappoint not only are they a flattering fit they are the i deal medium blue denim and they aren t covered in excessive whiskering which seems to plague m ost jeans good quality dress except the lining is very sheer and thin the inner strap of the lining ripped when i tried it on so be careful putting it on once on it fits true to size th e lining is nice to have so i kept it even though the strap ripped if you are on the fence bet ween sizes i would recommend going smaller to avoid having this style of dress look maternity on you i could live in these jeans they are so comfortable they are have the perfect amount of s tretch and the fabric is so soft i was skeptical because that usually means they lose their sha pe and i m yanking on them all day however i have worn them 3 days now and on the third day th ey may have stretched a little in the waist i am normally a 28 but can get away with 27 someti mes i chose the 28 and felt the fit was perfect by the way i m wearing the jeans with the cub anas ciara glitter boots i love these jeans the perfect amount of stretch very figure flatter ing perfect for lounging around or a night out i felt compelled to write a review to tell ever yone to size up i am 5 4 130 lbs 34d and normally wear a size 4 give or take i debated be tween the 6 8 after reading the reviews and went with the 8 and so glad i did if you re in do ubt between sizes even after sizing up go up one more especially if you re bigger up top mine fit okay in them but probably could have even done better with a larger cup what s weird is t hat they sew in liner cups so you can t remove them without cutting love this top so soft and s weet only complaint is that it s a bit short and a tad boxy for my 5 9 140 frame i also hav e boobs so that doesn t help the fit of this piece going to tuck in the front into high wais ted jeans keeping it i adore this top the tencel fabric feels like a nicely worn out denim sh irt that s been worn for years it is a versatile piece that can be worn year round even if th e sleeves are pulled onto the shoulders it still works and looks just fine i m broad in the s houlders and we ll endowed but the large was perfect i bought this dress to wear to my low k ey backyard rehearsal dinner the dress it s self is beautiful good quality and a perfect summ er maxi however it was way too big i m 5 6 118 lbs i typically wear an xs 0 and felt like i was swimming in fabric i loved the style and make of the dress so i choose to get it tailored nan i love these jeans but they do stretch out i was surprised at how loose they were right af ter washing air drying the first time the jeans are even better in person great fit and the co lor is nice my new fave hesitant at first to spend so much on a swimsuit definitely worth the money quality all around style fit appreciated the review i read prior to purchase to size up so happy i was able to get it on sale as well 120 00 roughly but can see why it cost so mu ove the low price but by no means id cheap really love this little beauty i purchased this dre ss while vacationing in florida and cannot wait for the midwest weather to warm up so i can wear it i am tall 5 8 and love how this dress fits me i found the slip to work well with the dre co these jeans are really soft comfortable and flattering but only after you go a size down all the other pilcro jeans i ve bought have been a consistent 30 but when i got these they were baggy i exchanged them for a 29 and they were just the ticket i liked the jeans but exchange e just a bit too long on me i cannot say enough excellent things about these jeans they fit b eautifully have just enough stretch and sit high enough on my waist to cover any unsightly roll s this was my first pilcro purchase and i will definitely be adding other styles to my closet in the near future typically i m a size 32 or 14 in denim but i sized down to a 31 in these a fter the sales associate made that suggestion i m so glad i did they are a perfect fit these are form fitting and have a great wash the size runs large so i would say consider to go down o ectly i received this as a gift for my birthday in the navy blue and it fits great i m 5 2 and the petite medium was the perfect length i purchased this dress in the store and then realized i could get a petite size i ordered it in a pm but had to return it i reordered it in ps and i t s perfect i love it for a casual evening out of wearing around town in the summer it s suppe r figure flattering gorgeous this dress fit so well and it super flattering i got it in green and the colors are just lovely i had to get it hemmed because i m short and i couldn t find it in petite but definitely worth the extra cost i love love love it just received two the red and the black the black is a great print very versatile both run large but the black most si gnificantly so the red is close enough to fitting to keep the black shows my bra b c it is so large and the armholes cut far too deeply the red also shows a fair amount of the armpit area but barely covers my bra \r\n\r\nthe material is somewhat thinner than expected but not so sh eer that a skin toned bra wouldn t be sufficient the print on this is gorgeous and it s incred ibly comfortable ultimately i didn t buy it because the length was weird for me i m 5 7 it just looked strange like it was cutting me off at a weird point i just purchased this adorable top at my local retailer store not really expecting to find anything i saw this one so i tried it on in my usual size small and it fit me perfectly 34d 27 35 i bought the black with the co lorful print and think it s even prettier in person it looks cute with the ties either open or closed and the material is nice and soft also the arm holes aren t too large which is always a nice plus i don t think it s possible to say enough good things about this dress the fit is b eautiful i m 5 6 130lbs and am a 32h the material is soft and swishes around your legs in a delightful way and the length has all the positives of a maxi dress without dragging on the g round it doesn t show bra straps it looks good with either heels or a trusty pair of birkensto cks the pattern is fun essentially it s the perfect summer dress i bought this item in store in the loden green color i absolutely love it as a light winter dress or tunic the material is thin but provides a nice coverage nonetheless it is super duper comfy and very figure flatter ing i wear it mainly as a dress and looks great with tights and ankle boots so pleased orderi ng the other color i like this top it provides a nice pop to the fall winter dark wardrobe pie ces the picture gives off a blue hue but the top is black kind of a dusty black the picture also gives the impression that the leaves are turquoise but they re actually more green at any rate it is nice addition to my very dark winter wardrobe i cannot wait to wear it with white d enim like the model and something in the green family i definitely recommend it i ordered this pullover in green size large the color is lovely and the fabric feels great however it was t ight even though i often wear a medium unfortunately it will be going back i love this dress it is beyond flattering i tried the south shore dress on earlier this year but found it too sho rt for my taste this however is the same cut on top but longer in the skirt yes please i purchased the turquoise which is exactly as pictured just beautiful hits at my shins for ref erence i m 5 6 136 lbs and ordered a size small these jeans are great for the summer they h ave a great high waist fit and stretch with you very very comfortable rinse is light making them a little casual but they can be dressed up with heels love them i normally don t care fo r rayon clothing but the fabric feels nice and it is flattering in the way it fits i got my usu al medium and it fits well it has a nice drape and is not see through as a teacher it s so gr eat to be able to find dresses that are modest and beautiful that i can wear to work as well a s on the weekends i bought the black and love it i bought both the medium and large but am goi ng to keep the medium it was plenty roomy i m 5 2 and about fluctuate between 125 130 lbs i usually wear a medium or large in retailer wear but i like things roomy have to hide a little e xtra these days i absolutely love this blouse it s easily one of my favorite retailer finds in several seasons it is quite roomy so anyone hoping for a more form fitting cut won t find it h ere this is the type of fit i prefer for summer though as missouri is just disgustingly humid and i can t stand to wear anything clingy once it heats up it s sheer so a cami is required i t s also wrinkle prone but the fabric is almost like a gauze and is not meant to be perfectly p ressed and crisp it s perfect to thro i got this top in the black floral print the print is ve ry pretty and so is the neckline but the body is very loose and shapeless it s not flattering i think the shirt is a little too short as well it would be nicer if it was longer nevertheles s it is a pretty top very flattering cut only con is that is seems to snag easily extremely comfortable and don t need to wear a cami under it like i originally thought i would pants fit great true to size did not stretch like some of the retailer pants that you need to buy in a s maller size love that the calf is bigger than most of their pants which are usually too narrow for my bigger calves very comfy look great with a white shirt and tie die is subtle they will be a staple summer pair of pants wow this dress is very flattering i have a fairly small waist and not so small hips and this dress is slimming it is also soft light airy gorgeous exactl y what you need on a beautiful spring day i wore this dress yesterday and have not felt that be autiful in a very long time thank you so much retailer for the brilliant design purchased thi s maxi dress in blue print size petite xxsmall even in that size i have some difficulty findin g dresses that fit but this one does perfectly no complaints at all length is a bit longer th an pictured on model but that s fine for a maxi summer easy style dress i am quite short besid es being petite so this fits the bill am sure it will be worn quite often for many different oc casions nan this is such a darling velvet dress understated yet eye catching i am very fond of it the cut is flattering to all and the gathered fabric does not add bulk to the waist ther e is a fun tulle underskirt to give just the right amount of volume the straps creep ever so sl ightly toward being off shoulder but fear not because there are loops and fasteners to hold you r bra in place \n\ni am very thrilled to have found my holiday party dress so early and can t wa it to wear it this dress has a really elegant neckline combined with the wide fitted waist and under the bust gathers which really flatter the body i have a fairly straight body and this dre ss gives me shape i usually wear xspetite but the turquoise didn t come in petite and that was my preferred color so i tried the xxs which i could barely get on and off but once on it fit f ine 34aa 26 waist 34 hips i d probably be better off with the xs the length of the regul ar on me was fine like a normal ma this dress is the perfect length and so comfortable it s co nservative enough to wear to work as a teacher but also so cute i m 5 6 and the large hits rig ht above my ankle medium fit as well but i wanted a little extra room in the torso i desperate ly needed some new work clothes so i ordered this and a few other shirts online this was the o nly one that fit me really well and that i really liked it s a bit pricey for a tanktop but it feels really well made the material is soft and comfortable and the ruffle details and the prin t are beautiful the small fits me perfectly 5 7 150 lbs 36a and it s not short like a lot of other shirts i try on which my coworkers probably appreciate since no one wants to see me f lashing this was a bit of an impulse purchase but i m glad i added it it s a pretty standard ta nk but is thoughtfully and well made for example the arm holes are not enormous like they are on some tops i wish everything fit like this the cut at the neckline isn t too modest or too l ow and the fold over of the drawstrings are structured enough that they don t flop over i just received this in the mail and i was so surprised how flattering it is i ordered the print and i can see wearing this to work out with friends or for date night perfect summer tank comfo rtable and flattering a great addition to my wardrobe it fit true to size for me this is a r eally pretty print on a decent top the only reason i returned is because it didn t look good wi th my skin tone and the fabric is thin i d planned to use it as a later under cardigans this d ress is gorgeous flattering comfortable and machine washable \r\n\r\nfor reference i am 5 5 1 45lbs 38 30 40 and 34dd i got the medium and it fits great only flaw is that the armholes are a little large but not enough that my bra shows so i am okay with it this dress is very comfor table the fabric is really nice and the dress flows when you move classic and pretty i ordere d a xs and i m 5 3 135lbs 34b and the fit was great i really liked the lace up details and embr oidery the sleeves were too long for me and i was not a fan of the elastic on the sleeve made it tough to push sleeves up i took to my seamstress and her cut elastic out and hem the sleeve \r\nnow its perfect i wanted this dress in the turquoise motif but it sold out so quickly i t ried on about 10 dresses in my local store and this was the clear winner i got the blue and whi te motif which has enough visual interest with the way the pattern flows across the dress i fo und the dress to be slimming and very comfortable you can throw it on and not think about flash ing anything when you bend over or the skirt flying up in the breeze or needing a strapless br a the skirt flows really nicely and over really cute top comfy with just enough flare that it can be dressed up a bit or worn just casual not clingy at all in fact maybe just a tad too flowy around the middle but not so much that it kept me from going back to buy it immediately i n a second color i typically wear a large but suspect the arms on the medium might be a tad sm all if i sized down i saw this top and loved the pattern meadow rue is one of my favorite bran ds for tops at retailer the pattern is lovely and the fit it tts this top is comfortable for r unning errands and can be dressed up too very versatile for spring nan this dress looks way be tter on you than sitting on the hanger the design really flatters your body and the waist area makes you look very skinny highly recommend the length is also perfect just the right length for a maxi dress long enough but short enough to show off your shoes as well no size fit me i m normally a s to m the small had huge armholes on me and the xs was just a wee bit off somehow perhaps in length so i ended up without it sadly it s really a very nice top and great quality i was unhappy to leave it behind i bought this in my usual size small and love it looks great with skinnies or pencil skirts not sheer enough to need a cami but enough to look cottony and breezy very elegant it falls flatteringly on my shape 34c 28 38 5 3 it has an elegant a rty vibe if you have a long torso or big chest i would say try it on in the store to make sure the chest area falls well for you got this dress in the blue and cream and it s gorgeous i lov e that it s work and date night appropriate but so comfy i am 5 4 but have very short legs s o it s hard to find a maxi dress or skirt that doesn t drag on the ground this floats beautiful ly above my ankles a little lower than on the model but still high enough that i am totally c omfortable wearing the dress without heels i got the small and it fits great the print is love ly the cream fabric is speckled in gray dots in some i have this in darker blue and it is my f avorite dress of the season i didn t realize that there was one in turquoise until it was alrea dy sold out please bring back or be so kind to contact me if an xs comes in as a return etc \r\ni love this so much nan the turquoise print is absolutely stunning i love the feel of the fabric the drape i hesitated to spend the money on this sweater but somehow knew it would be my go to sweater for the season when i tried it on i knew i made the right decision it feels lu xurious and fits like a dream the pop of color on the pocket is perfect to make a statement and to add something different from all those other sweaters the fit is tts this dress is more ado rable on then sitting on the hanger the material clings to all the right places and feels reall y good i must say this is one of the most comfortable dresses i have ever put on would never t ell from the photo that this dress is so adorable if you like a fitted dress in the waist and b ust that subtly accentuates your curves try it adorable sticker price was a shock but it is so worth it it is the best little black dress i have ever owned the lace is so soft and the dr ess is flattering it is fun and flirty this is a closet staple piece for sure love this dre ss so much these run really small almost 2 sizes up so if you order these i would order a fe t me this top is flowy and feminine the pink is slightly more vivid than pictured online but i s still a beautiful soft pink definitely not red i was afraid the shape would be unflatterin g on my not so skinny figure but it s not it s baggy all over and there s plenty of room in th e arms note that dark pants skirts will show through the fabric so i like the shirt better wit h an untucked cami tank top underneath it so the gorgeous neckline isn t disturbed but the pink color runs true throughou i really love this shirt and bought it in several colors i wish it ca ual attire great trouser pants for summer with pretty jacquard print and neat denim detail at h em and waist band usually wear a 6 in retailer but went up a size to 8 with these for looser tr ouser fit fits my backend nicely which is always a plus can t wait to wear them i spotted the se on the sale rack and loved the design the almost regal fabric toned down to casual by the cr opped denim cuffs they weren t my size but to my surprise they could be ordered in my size s till at the sale price \r\nthe fit was perfect they will surely make a statement wherever i cho ose to wear them i m always on the lookout for pieces that look polished but aren t fussy thi s is that blazer i m rather petite and bought the xs though wish they had the petite in stor e to try on as xs is not very fitted on my frame the perfect weight for 65 degree summer days so so cute i am 5 7 150 155lbs and the 10 fit me perfectly i expected the m or 10 to be too small wore them the first day i received them i have a large waist 34 hips about 39 and the 10 fits great not tight love the material and the workmanship is tops i think they are a grea t buy especially on sale wore them with a hei hei jacket also on sale can t get much better i bought the blue and it is beautiful it definitely runs small and i agree with the other reviewe r who stated to order 2 sizes up these are simply the best of everything i love about charlie t rousers great fit classic styling with the pop of the unexpected the fabric is thinner than i t appears perfect for spring and summer the pattern of the damask is not overwhelming but it works very well as a neutral if you want to mix patterns which i do a lot or if you want to p air it with an ivory blouse and a simple blue sweater or jacket roll down the pants for a more professional look during the day roll them up for ca wearing these for the first time today th e way the pants are made is the way a pair of quality pants should be the fabric is gorgeous t he fit is excellent the tone on tone flower is subtle but visible and creates a lovely pattern the denim treatment at the ankle and waistband is a nice added touch true to size too these a re not your run of the mill above the ankle pants they re something special and worth the mone y the fact that i did get them on sale makes it an even better purchase this top looks real cu te on the model wish it looked like that on me way too big so not flattering on my petite fra me sadly going back love this t i now have all the colors it is so soft and comfortable gre at with jeans or dressed up with leggings and boots and when i feeling lazy i just keep it on a nd use it as a night shirt to sleep in it s that comfortable i found the size to be spot on t he deep v doesn t gape and flatters the neckline while the waist high side slits reveal enough to keep this drapey shirt from looking shapeless the material is so lovely and soft and comfy but clings in the right places to really flatter while problem areas get draped in the most per fect way love these jeans as they look great with dress shoes running shoes or boots fit well and true to size this jacket doesn t look all that special in the photos provided i found it a t my local store and i knew it was mine the moment i tried it on it has that boxy shoulder look i associate with 80s power suits i call this look full sigourney weaver and it is marvelous perfect for a lunch date with harrison ford circa 1988 so happy with this purchase highly reco mmend i received the pants and they are really nice you can dress them up or down i ordered a size 0 in regular and they did not fit me well around my thighs as they were loose i will have to return them as they do not have my size in petites i am a size 0 in petites and ordered the size 0 in regular the only downside to the pants was it was hard to undo the buttons and found it rather difficult i just picked this up in store the other day i absolutely love it it is s o easy to throw on real quick for a cute outfit my first review and first full price designer d enim purchase \n\ni recently lost weight and in need to replace all my pants and in search of a dark wash high rise jeans preferably in black finally decided to buy this at full price onl ine coz of all the fab reviews i decided to purchase the 25p thinking that i may return after receiving it in the mail since i wasn t able to try at the store and not sure if i got the right size also it s not the high rise denim that i was looking for but t this was a very nice sweat er but i had to return because it came too late for a birthday gift i was giving it also was no t the sweater i had originally thought i had ordered my mistake it was very soft and would be suitable for any type of figure i was looking for a pair of ankle jeans to wear with booties i love my regular length paige hoxton jeans but they are too long me 5 4 120 if i want to wear booties i decided to try the petite size and perfecto just the right length and the rest of the fit was just like my other paige jeans i love when you can count on sizing to stay true across styles nan ordered the nude color for my daughter love the color and the style it s a comfortable looking top i pressed it before giving it to her seemed to wrinkle easily that s why i gave it three stars probably wrinkle less if it had some polyester in it cute shirt it looked big so i ordered a size smaller worked fine would have liked the option to go even smal ler so i would suggest ordering down ultimately too baggy on my frame so sending back fun shir t though love this top it is exactly as pictured online it s a beautiful coral pink color p erfect for summer i think the description says red but it is definitely pink i love the swi ss dot material the bell sleeves the ruffled bottom they all work perfectly together to make for an adorable top it almost seems as if it can be worn off the shoulder due to the elastic n eckline but i prefer it on as pictured on the model \r\n\r\nthe fit is tts i ordered an xs a nd that is what i usually wear fro i loved this jacket when i tried it on in the store and brou ght home a size med it s a nice weight of material lined and very classy i liked the idea of adding it to my collection of suit jackets for business meetings but when i tried it on again u sing actual outfits from my closet i realized how much it looked like a lab coat i am not givi ng up if it goes on sale i ll order a small to see if it is more flattering but at this poi nt it s a no go hands down one of the more comfortable shirts i ve purchased from retailer fe els great flows nicely and love the pockets that hide pretty much everything from a lipstick c ontainer to a phone when i spotted these online i knew i had to try them out in the past charl ie pants have always been too baggy in the legs for me when trying the regular sizes on in the s tore well these are described as slim tailored in details so decided to order my usual siz e 6 regular upon arrival they were baggy in the thigh area the rise was fine but the crotch a rea pardon me was a little on the short side buttons were difficult to slip into the buttonho le unbuttoning was a job guess the hol always get compliments when i wear these pants my mom has the exact same pants and loves them too they are great for work and transitioning to go ou t after i like my pants tight but these run a little small excellent dress usually i wear a oop and this did fit great a little snug in the chest im a 32c but the buttons are covered by material so it doesnt show the waist hits perfectly there is the right amount of skirt mate rial to make a dramatic silhouette without looking silly awesome dress wish the blue or white with icecream were still available the hot pink is a wonderful summer color though i got this i n regular xs i am xsp or xxsp so it fit fine considering is boxy it is very cute and delic ing the armholes were not too big you do need to wear a bra that crosses in the back if you do not want the straps to show i purchased the red pink color and it is very vibrant and not see t as also not sheer on me because it has a cotton lining underneath got a lot of compliments i o rdered this dress in raspberry the color is beautiful in person i am usually a petite size 2 and it fits perfectly the only thing about this dress that might drive me crazy is that it seem s to wrinkle easily other than that i think it s a great dress for summer this shirt is thin and probably not worth full price but it was flattering to my figure covered my post baby tumm y and complimented minimized my g size chest but the cut was off the seams for the arms were a lmost in the front at the chest so when i moved my arms i had limited movement forward and it p ushed the embroidered panel out and was just irritating an entire day of readjusting my shirt w ould drive me crazy i tried the m and the l i loved the jumpsuit the moment i saw it in the ca talogue and luckily there was one returned to the store near me i am 5 10 and 140 pounds the small fit perfectly but the zipper on the top section was so difficult to use that i would need help every morning to get dressed the zipper was missing a couple prongs and i had to make the return this top looks great and feels great got lots of compliments when i wore it for thanksg iving i pretty plan to wear this for every holiday event this year and will layer it with sweat ers and scarves to mix it up this is a really adorable top normally i shop online but ended up in a store today i bought it instantly but never would have purchased this based upon the pict ures as all the other reviewers have said this does run small and you need to size up especia lly if you are busty for your size i am a 4 or a small 34c in just about everything but had to go to a medium the sleeves attach too far out on the front of the top restricting arm movem ent thankfully i didn t see a significant size this dress is everything i imagined it would be lightweight flattering on my hourglass shape and comfortable i am a true 4p in retailer dress es 5 4 32d 27 inch waist 28 denim size and purchased this dress in a 6 regular i imagine t he petite size would be way too short as the regular size hit about 3 inches above my knee mig ht be a problem for taller girls definitely size up on this one to avoid button gaping this to p has a really pretty pattern and is good quality but was just too boxy for me i also felt lik e the sleeves were a little odd big \r\n\r\nthe fit is tts though slightly shorter then it loo ks on the model love this top \r\nthe fit is perfection \r\nthe fabric is wonderfully soft \r\n i ordered the green love this color \r\nwill be ordering it in the grey also \r\nfits very tru e to size i m 5 2 and based on some other reviews i opted for the regular rather than petite an d am glad i did even the regular is kind of short if i raise my arm s all the way up skin is typically exposed i originally ordered a medium and i liked the fit everywhere except for the c hest i m a 34dd and i felt like i couldn t move my arms i exchanged it for a large to sacrific e some of the fit for some more arm movement the cut is already a bit boxy so having it a bit b oxier with more arm movement w gorgeous colors and great shape for a mini dress stunning on th e only con is how low the back goes a bra alone underneath is not possible will need to wear w ith a finer shirt underneath this top is adorable and looked pretty on but when i raised my ar ms the top wanted to rise up and then stay there above the breast level it didn t settle back i nto place when i lowered my arms maybe a larger size would have helped but then it would have been a boxy fit i also found it hard to take off even with the button on the back of the neckl ine the length is cropped so you would want to wear it with a high waisted skirt or pants i l ike the details in the fabric a lot but i didn t after reading the reviews i was a little afra id of the fit before the dress arrived having ordered it online it is a darling dress i am bi g busted 36d and it fit just fine also it has an cute attached slip so i didn t find it see through the color is gorgeous i chose the blue and it will be perfect for summer no problem at all with the armholes a very beautiful flattering and breathable comfortable mock neck tur tleneck that s great for layering for those unfamiliar with weston this top like many of the ir others is essentially made of panty hose nylon it makes for a super comfy and stretchy top albeit a delicate one be mindful with your hair accessories and jewelery when wearing this \r\n \r\ni wish the arms were lined i have a large tattoo on my arm and you can see it through this and it just looks a little odd when mixe this cover up is perfect for the beach or the pool it is see through this dress fulfills a gap in my wardrobe that i ve long wanted to fill that of the perfect springtime dress i got the sky blue color in a size 4 for reference i am 120 lbs and 34 26 37 and it fits like a glove the color is vivid and the overall effect of the dress i s simple and romantic i ll be wearing it with casual cognac sandals a floppy straw hat and mi nimal makeup i wore this dress to an outdoor farm wedding and it was perfect it runs small i m 5 5 125lbs with 34c bust and i got a size 6 i tried on blue and pink both were great but t he blue won me over it wrinkles easily so i had to use an iron on low to medium beforehand wil l wear many more times fyi the neck does have a hook and eye closure so there is room to get it on and off the fabric is not stretchy the lining is a nice navy however the sleeves are not lined the cut outs have a beautiful blue lace behind it it hit me at my waist i m 5 3 118 i loved this top worked with a pair of the new essential skinny trouser by retailer and the na nsen pointelle cardigan in yellow this also paired well with a pair of rust colored skinny pilc ro with a long necklace first off i adore this jumpsuit i love the mixed stripes and i love that the fabric is structured textured and substantial and for me the xs fits perfectly how ever the sizing is way off from standard sizing i m 5 2 110 24 5 waist 32 5 hips and usual ly 00p 0p and this is fitted on me the wide legs aren t too wide like most wide legs which w ear me instead of vice versa and the structure of the fabric make this piece so flattering for petite ladies if you are petite this jumps i had bought the pull over in the same fabric and now this zipper jacket style so fun and love the texture i waited for markdown plus promo and it was worth waiting tried this on just for fun today and ended up taking it home in the glorio us blue many have commented on the sizing issue for reference i am 5 5 120 lbs 32a slender athletic build i bought a size 2 and it fits like a dream no large arm holes no gaping button s and the length is perfect yes it will wrinkle it s linen that s part of the look i feel t his will fill a void in my closet that was missing i was wearing flat ankle wrap espadrilles wh en i tried it on and it looked super cute very comfy dress that you can wear in the summer if i t s not too hot and in the fall winter with boots tall or ankle i was very excited to get thi s piece but it wasn t quite right for me very well constructed and nice material but the open sides were a bit too open toward the front the top zipper was tough to do on your own adorable top sweet but not too sweet can go either casual or dressy depending on what it is paired with i was looking for cropped tops as that silhouette works better for my proportions with the pleth ora of cropped bottoms that are in stores as another reviewer mentioned it is lined so no cami is necessary the label says dry clean only however i have washed it in a mesh bag on gentle in cold water and hung to dry without any issues the dry cleaning warning may be because of the la ce on t thick material and cute design i am typically a size 2 and the small in this fit but wa s snug in the crotch and just zipped at the waist there is not much if any stretch i am 5 6 wi th a 26 1 2 in waist so that was unexpected it does have cinchers at the waits but they are mor e for aesthetics than functionality it is a very cute design and the fabric is nice as well as the direction of the stripes i have to be honest i wear this away from the pool more than to t he pool it is extremely lightweight and comfortable making it the perfect loungewear to tackle l my friend and i bought the same dress we love it so much we get so many compliments great purc hase i have had my little eye on this dress since it came out lucky me i found it sitting prett y in my local retailer lost found it runs a tad big when i first tried it on with the sleeve s off the shoulder i was disappointed in the length past my knees but i tried it on again wit h the sleeves sitting on my shoulders so so darling this is a beautiful blue color and a fun swing design it is very short so will be limited with what you can wear it with looks very cut e with higher waisted jeans and pencil skirts it is wide but has a lovely flow swing to it lov e the fabric and it is a nice change to everyday style in wardrobe so if you want something fun and flirty and feminine and you do not mind short this is your top the reviews i read scared me a little about this top being super cropped it is on the short side but will be adorable with shorts and pants that aren t low cut the multi textured fabric is gorgeous i purchased these p ants on line in my usual size petite 4 and they were a perfect fit for me i have a 27 waist 3 5 hips and i m 5 4 and found them to be a little long but not so much that i want to hem them as i ll be wearing these with my clogs and platforms anyway if i want to be able to wear them w ith flats i ll need to hem them but i bought them to go with my higher shoes so it s no bother these are very slimming pants and zip up at the back they are a tad difficult to zip up but not i bought this for an event and when it arrived i realized it was probably too dressy for my ev ent there are some large sparkly clusters of stones that are beautiful but do make the dress more cocktail attire than i needed if i had something to wear it to i would keep it in a heart beat the fit is flattering and the quality is reminiscent of old school retailer pieces there are cups already in the bodice which is a huge plus imo it s unique and beautiful i was so pu mped to see a slightly different version of last years military swing shirtdress because i lov ed the idea of it but it was just was too voluminous and short for me well this year i ord ered a size up remembering that last years dress ran right in the chest and shoulders i guesse d right this time in a size up i had breathing room and was much more comfortable this dress is also a lot less billowy there is sting definitely a swing but a much less dramatic version my issue fabric is the nice comfortable hh fabric they have been using to make dresses and shirt s it wrinkles a little though also feel heavy though not too warm i like the collar not bei ng a fold over teh dress wasn t too short on me 00p in front and does go longer in the back high low not an issue for me i ordered the navy\r\n\r\ni decided not to keep it only because i don t really need it and they make a similar version every year but if you don t have it yet good to have \r\n\r\ni am 115 lbs this is dress is great for an occasion such as a wedding \r \n\r\ni wanted to keep this dress for such occasion but there were 2 drawbacks i ordered the dress online and when i opened the package there it had some sort of oil petroleum based produc t smell the other drawback is the hips it just flared out more than i wanted i think that a belt would have solved that but i usually don t find belts in my size \r\n\r\nas for the fit i t is true to size i m a true petite and the 00p fit great this is a full swing top because th e top is so full it should hit at or slightly above the waist and it does on me so that a pan t or skirt waistline can be seen and balance out the proportions will look great with a pencil skirt or any pant that as a mid or high rise fitted waist and flat front no pleats or draw stri s a sin to pass it up especially for this price maeve once again created another beauty love love love i purchased the crocheted cape in cream and have received numerous compliments on th e dress get it while it lasts i typically wear a 4 6 in maeve and got the 6 in this one i did n t really pay this dress much attention online or even in store an associate suggested i try i t on it s so much cuter on than it appears online the button detail is great and i love the po ckets it does bunch up a little but not too bad i tried on my normal size 2 or 4 and the 4 fit me perfectly it was a tad long and maybe the petite will be better i have fairly sensitive ski n and the wool pieces were a bit itchy so i had to take it back but if you aren t sensitive the n this is for i have a closet full of dresses and very few have the quality and attention to det ail as this gorgeous dress \r\noften times when ordering online the dress that you actually rece ive will have a different fabric placement than the online photos and it can detract from the overall look but the one that i received is exactly as pictured the gold details hit in all the right places \r\nthe quality is shocking looks like a 2000 dress \r\ntrue to size howe ver the chest bust runs a little big from the online pics i would never think to try this on but i was looking for a shirtdress with pockets so glad i did i purchased in green and navy i love the neck line when buttoned up almost military jacket ish and i like the idea of wearing over jeans and a shirt and leaving unbuttoned almost like a light layer or jacket super soft ma terial i purchased a size 6 and i am 5 9 and 140 lbs this dress will take you through fall winter and spring i love all the stitching and design detail it has a nice swingy skirt that i s quite a bit longer in the back i loved the dog on this sweater and i rushed into the store t o buy it once i tried it on like others i did find it to be itchy but that i could deal with using a tank or something what bothered me the most was the way the arms were cut my arms look ed much bigger than they are so sadly i left it at the store it really is a cute sweater thoug t i like regular xs because i like the fitted look i am 5ft2in 34b 26 waist 36 hips the h elling it awesome flares and very flattering a wardrobe staple i just scored this dress the o ther day and i don t regret it for a second the bodice is beaded with some sea foam green beads and they are sewn on really well so i am not worried about dropping them all night from the pi ctures i couldn t tell if this was going to look like a cotton skirt or i fit would be chiffon looking it is neither it has a shimmer to it which makes this a more dressy looking dress than i was originally anticipating i thought it was going to be an everyday wear type of d this is a really cute style of t sihrt i totally disagree with the reviewers who thought this was too sho rt in the torso and or overwhelming i m 5 8 and about 145 pounds and this fits just fine i o rdered a size small beautiful drape and i thought relatively slim cut the only reason i m n ot giving this 5 stars across the board is that the fabric is a little too thin not sheer or se e through but not as substantial as i would expect for the price this is my new favorite top it s so comfortable and looks great i wish i could order it in more colors i love this top it s so comfortable and light weight it drapes beautifully with an overall loose fit but a little slimmer at the bottom so flattering i only wish i bought them in every color before they ran o ut nan i really wanted to like this top just got it in mail today but unfortunately it did no t work well for me because i m 6 ft tall and the blouse was too short i like the look and how i t feels and i haven t completely decided whether to return it but here are the issues i have en countered with this top the blouse is very pretty and has a nice refreshing style with good pri nt and color very soft too unusual for rayon of this type feels more like thin delicate cotto n i got my top in red size i loved this top when i first saw it i tried on my usual size l a nd there is no stretch through the bust so it totally flattened my chest a few weeks ago i not iced there were some xl s that must have been returned i tried them on and they fit perfectly i suggest sizing up if you have a chest this is a very flattering top and it looks great paired with scarves as a wrap skinny jeans and boots now this is a summer staple love the design of the bib of this tee super soft great neutral charcoal color and can be dressed up or down it is loose i d recommend sizing down got this shirt in black so i can wear it to work more per sonality than a plain t shirt but still comfortable got lots of compliments button down shirt s usually aren t my thing but the soft fabric of this top makes it feminine and comfortable whi le still keeping that classic look it s also easy to dress up or down which is great i am 5 4 and small framed and the size 0 fits just right this top is super comfy and easy to wear i fo und it to be a bit darker tan than it looks online but still quite cute it s flowy but still g ives you shape overall it was a great buy i ordered the london paris milan print red top i n a size 4 i go back and forth with ordering 2 s and 4 s but i figured that with long sleeves i d rather have a little room than it be fitted my boyfriend asked if i bought it for valentine s day the red print and the cities struck him as romantic anyway lovely top lightweight mate rial will be nice for layering during winter and wearing on it s own in spring and next fall t he perfect tee this is exactly what i have been looking for flattering fit looks great dressed up or down and has just a touch of unique detail without being over the top the top is just sli ghtly thin but can definitely be worn without a cami underneath this reminds me of old retailer tops from several years ago that i just loved and wore to death unfortunately i am not toned e nough to truly show off this beautiful blouse armholes are cut in a bit too far for my 60 year old arms was hoping for a pop of color as a basic sleeveless top to layer under sweaters and ja ckets for traveling but the neckline wasn t layering as i had hoped i am only 5 2 but want a bit more length \r\ni think this blouse is best worn uncovered as shown on a toned body that do es not require the longer length i prefer seems to be well made sadly i must return nan the p hoto doesn t do it justice the detail on the neckline is adorable and looks fantastic with jean s texture is light and gauze y but i don t find it too see though sizing was tough i m 5 10 but thin on top usually between xs s and went with the xs on this ordered both to try sac rificing some length for a more flattering width great for the sale price this is a great bl ouse for all shapes you can wear it under a suit or with jeans super soft and super chic th is sweater wrap looks great at the mall at church and even just curling up with a hot drink on a cold day at home i m still in love with this after a year true to size and adorable very l ightweight will be great for the long hot summer ahead i wanted to love this shirt i like th e style the material is soft but it was so short on me perhaps i just have a long torso but it fit everywhere else i wasn t even able to tuck it in because the sides just were so short i ha d high hopes for this cool top i ordered it in xxs because no petites were available at the tim e and i think the size is just right i m 105 lbs 34aa i just suspect it looks better on people with broad shoulders like the models mine are kind of narrow plus crew necks aren t the most flattering neckline on me i would say it s fairly short just barely covering my belt so on taller people it may be cropped and the waist is kind of fitted as shown i love that it s cotton mad nan i wear a lot of solid dark colors for work so i liked this was dark blue but h ad more pop than the basic navy able to pay it up with other colors too the sides are a little shorter so have to watch throughout the day so belly isn t showing not a bid deal overall got this on sale in three colors love the look of the blouses great for work only con is that th e sides are shorter than i would like i love this top it does run big and maybe some won t li ke it with the elastic waist i think it s the perfect weight and very comfortable i love the detail around the neck line soft fabric and hangs nicely washes well purchased in the orange red and love with jeans nan lost some extra weight and decided to venture into styling territo ry i haven t tried in years bubble hems will never flatter my thick midsection but the drawstr ing with tassel ties make the hemline easily adjustable \r\n\r\nsize i m currently between a sm all and xs the armholes appeared to be on the small side so i ordered a small i m 5 5 tall 130 lbs 34d 35 29 37 long torso and narrow across the shoulders \r\n\r\nfit the top is tts the length hits slightly above hips i didn t need to i purchased this in the red love the fab ric and overall design of the top i have returned it for a larger size it is very small throug h the chest hopefully a larger size will give me more room though the chest without being too large in the rest of the shirt i m a 34 c and ordered a size 6 for reference i love this top the color is quite unique a reddish color but the cut really makes it stand out i love the s quare neckline i feel it accentuates my bust without showing too must breast i notice a number of other reviewers had an issue with the tightness around the bust this top looks like it would have ample stretch in the photograph however in person you can see that the embroidered area d oes not have any stretch for me this was not an issue as the top suited my body type well reg a i love this top and find it flattering but the black and white polka dotted motif that i purc hased definitely has navy blue in it not black kind of disappointing that the color descript ion was so inaccurate very very cute bought in store yesterday put it on today to wear and it is huge i normally buy a large in tshirts i will return for either a small or medium but will try on in the store oh well this is not your traditional moth sweater in that it is not soft and cozy this sweater is great for upcoming summer nights at the beach while fireside or out on the boat i haven t been the biggest fan of the lace up trend but this one is more traditional n autical feeling than others which i did like it s pretty true to size so i wouldnt size up or down for any reason they paired it with a cloth stone white button down underneath at our sto re and it looks great layered too this shirt is very comfortable to wear mostly because the bu ttons are well placed many button down shirts bother me because they gape open at the bust area but the buttons on this one are placed at just the right spot fabric is soft cool and comfortab le love the sleeves as air circulates this is perfect for new wide legs i purchased many comp liments and purchase inquiry when worn purchased in two colors love the detailing around the n eck of this top looks great under cardigan or by itself i sized down to an xs seems to be of g ood quality although to lengthen its life i don t plan on putting it in the dryer bought this size small and orange needed something to where home beautiful comfortable light and airy p aired it with retailer s manella stack pendant necklace even better received alot of complimen ts the color stood out i love this blouse i get so many compliments when i wear it i can t w ait for warmer weather to pair it with my coral short skirt from retailer currently i wear it with a pair of slim cream colored pants and flats it works great it is a little on the short side but it just adds to the tailored look of the cut however if you re taller than 5 5 or 5 6 i would expect it to be much shorter on you you ve been warned \noverall this is a great addition to your wardrobe and it washes nicel i bought this top for work and going out it is a beautiful top that goes with many items in my closet like my red blazer grey blazer red card igan etc it is very flattering the arm holes weren t too big fit tts i loved the look of this top the moment i saw it in the store particularly the muted red color the crochet detail is very pretty and i found the fit to be quite flattering on me however part of the crochet de tail on the one i received has a hole that needs to be repaired since i purchased during the sa le i m going to try and mend myself but this may end up having to go back if you see this in store and find one that is not damaged i would recommend it i wasnt expecting this top to be s o soft and comfortable and breezy i am usually an xs petite but based on reviews i got the reg ular small it is a little loose but the length is perfect i am short for reference 5 2 107 lb 32c the buttons gaped a very tiny bit like a centimeter but not to the point where any s kin or bra was visible had i got the xsp i think the gaping would have been an issue the arms are too baggy for my taste length is ok though but i fold the sleeves up at th great top i g ot the size 4 but i ordered a 6 and plan to return the 4 depending on how the 6 fits the top is really cute but it fits just right and i would like a little more room when i raise my hands th e entire shirt raises up otherwise cannot wait to wear it and this is a great purchase i love this shirt so much i bought it nearly full price with my birthday month discount \nget it i p urchased the red and also like the black white polka dots hangs beautifully \nfeels heavenly a nd polished and fun at the same time i bought the medium am generally\na medium this shirt run s very large i will be returning for a smaller size this blouse is exactly what i wanted and t he fit is great silk is always light and can go with jeans or dress up with a skirt i m weari ng mine to a baby shower in a few weeks so beautiful fabric hangs great lovely detail fits w ell and feels great i bought this top in slate it is very nice looks so flattering and good wi th a light pant it runs large though and is loose fitting like a swing top i like the design at the top i will try the mauve in the store i really like this top and recommend it for casua l wear very comfortable and soft cute basic top it has really great detail at the top and it is a good length it is not super long too short it does billow out a bit at the bottom so i would size down this is what i did after reading the previous reviews i do not think i would have paid full price for this top but on sale it is a great deal and a nice addition to your w ardrobe these pants are adorable i am a petite lady with a small waist and have a hard time fi nding pants that fit and look good but these do they are both cute and elegant and they have pockets i have had many compliments the one drawback is they need dry cleaning this dress us high quality and feels great however i am 5 5 and it is too long for me will definitely need to shorten but love it not above knee as pictured for a non supermodel i could live in these they are so comfy i typically wear a 6 and got the medium they are a little roomy probably co uld have gotten a small but i like them kinda loose and baggy i will probably purchase another color this body suit is super flattering and super comfortable i ll probably order it in the o ther color i love this the contrast in much prettier in person i was skeptical about buying a romper i was also unsure what size would fit me i m 5 5 and 150 lbs to my delight the rom per fit perfectly it s a gorgeous and flattering fit i love the design and fabric it s stun ning bought the tan taupe joggers today in asheville so soft and comfy will probably go back for navy ones i found them true to size will be a great cute addition to my summer wardrobe i have these pants in the blue grey color and like them so much i got them in olive wash well fit perfectly easy to throw on and look great nan i purchased the blue and it s a wonderful deep blueish purple i like the chiffon detail which makes it a bit more stylish than a normal t ee fits nicely a bit big but not enough to go down a size the material is not sheer and a nic e light weight the shirt can be a little boxy so make sure to order your size the peplum is a great length in the back i am always looking for a shirt that s a little different yet as comfo rtable as a normal t shirt running after a 1 year old i need comfort i bought two colors and love the vibrant pink salmon and the dark purple which i think it said was blue for some reason the material is nice and the cut is feminine i love this shirt i ordered a large because i am taller and i wanted the length to be right while it s a little baggy it s still very flatteri ng and i ve received lots of compliments on it the color is exactly what is show in the image it s a versatile shirt depending on what you pair it with it can be appropriate for work dinne r or a night out i d definitely recommend this shirt to a friend nice basic pencil skirt to h ave in the closet i think the fit is right on and did not have any problems with billowing like in the other review quality is nice but could be even better this is a very unique piece it seems to be easy to wear and it is very comfy but i normally wear a medium size 8 and it was to o big i might size down to a petite medium of just go for small it seems this might be a trial and error type of outfit free and easy but the fabric seems cheap the melon color is soft and flattering it is a little on the long side in the back but i paired it with a lightweight flo wy sweater and received compliments i m 5 7 125 lbs and i ordered these in a size small i j ust got them in the mail and the print is really pretty and they seem very well made unfortunat ely they were a little too small particularly around my butt after i ordered them i read rev iews on other merchants websites and saw that many other stores recommend sizing up as the bra nd is known to run small i wish i had known before i ordered but i m exchanging them for a med ium and i hope those fit better because this suit is ador this dress is an absolute attention g etter it s incredibly unique and fits beautifully i m very short and often have problems pul ling off this much pattern but this dress was just right nan nan love this dressed up casual t shirt perfect casual friday shirt or going out for happy hour with the girls super flattering and lovely material dress up or down they run true to size i was lucky to get these on sale w ith free shipping my major lucky shopping moment of the year however they are worth every pen ny of the full price i ve waited years before shelling out this much for a pair of nice jeans but now my skeptical opinion has done a 180 turn these paige verdugo ultra skinny jeans are sup erior to any denim i ve ever tried they look and feel fabulous on me i bought my usual 29 size 6 and am 5 1 130 these pants run small by two sizes or so nice material color true to pict ure saw on my way out of the store and had to try them on they are very comfortable and surpri singly cute the jogger style usually doesn t flatter my curvier body but these have a drape to the fabric that made them look so much nicer i took in two sizes my usual small and a medium s ince i just had my second child and still have some post baby weight i still went with the smal l after trying on both though the medium was a bit too big and shapeless the small was comfort able and looked better t today i happened to walk into my favorite store with an already reduce d 30percent off sale sign i tried on this pants and let me tell you wow they are super comfy and made my behind look great i will definitely start wearing these asap these pants are cut e they seem to me to have a wider leg than appears on the model they do run big so i would recommend sizing down if in doubt these are cute pants that can be dressed up or down but unfo rtunately look pretty sloppy by the end of the day as they stretch and wrinkle very quickly s ince they already run a bit big this is a major negative i wore them to church and they were quite wrinkled by time i got home by late afternoon they looked like a different pair of pants i tried on the blue in store and ordered the red in petite and they are both too long which me ans i will have to hem i am not sure if i want to spend the extra money on hemming so hanging on to them for now as i love hte cut and color they fit like a glove otherwise i do have muscu lar thighs the 0p is good for me 115 lbs can t go wrong for a nice pant i can see wearing these out or for work the color of this is beautiful i m 5 8 and had to order the s because they were out of the m so it s not as dramatically long on me as on the model but otherwise fi t sleeves a little shorter too the m would have been better but it is a little scratchy wher ever it touches my skin so it s not worth the to me going back i really like these pant s great color and design they are even lined unfortunately they do not work on my curvy fra me all the usual problems waist too large hips too small sadly i am taking them back very long so may need to hem if your inseam is under 34 beautiful trousers they were ok pants bu t too small the texture and shape were not what i expected either velvet always has made quali ty clothing and i had purchased the same shirt in another color and i wanted to see if they had other colors they did and i got 2 more i received in expected time and they were wrapped nicel y thank you for great choices of unique clothing i was looking for something to wear on jeans fridays this tunic is super cute and looks great with jeggings i did find the sizing small for me but i am busty received this jacket today and i am so very impressed with the details init ially when i ordered this jacket i first thought the navy blue waffle fabric was a corduroy or v elvet but it is a plain cotton blended fabric with unfinished edges that has the denim attached to it the plus is the inside breast pocket that is trimmed so nicely and lined and fits a nice sized phone the inside is lined and even the sleeves are lined there is pretty cream lace tri m on the inside bottom of the lining i these pants are very cute for spring summer and i enjoy having the option of a looser silhouette with a bit of length nearly all of my pants are a crop ped skinny these days i agree with the other reviews that have described the leg as being les s straight legged than they are pictured on me they have a subtle flare nothing major but just enough to break perfectly over my shoe they fit tts on me but i did need to have the hem taken up i m 100 lbs 5 0 and the 0p fits perfectly i hav bought this dress to wear for my eng agement brunch it does run big but it s a laid back dress to wear i never had to adjust the dr ess of myself while wearing it beautiful dress flowers and material look even better in person loose fit first let me say that the photo does not do this exquisite print justice the fabric is worth framing on a white ground the tones of rose pink purple and touches of blue make it even more fabulous the fit is a tad large as i am 5 3 and usually an size 6 but must size u p to 8 or m because of my chest even zipped it is a tad big but nothing that i cannot deal wi th i don t really see the swing in the dress as it does not flare out in any way but is certa inly is loose and flowing bu like other reviewers found leg more flared straight than pictured i wore all day at work desk job and didn t see any wrinkling the pants were true to size in t he waist but they were a touch long for my 5 5 120 lbs frame i got a size 0 they did stretch out a little during the day i wore them about 10 hours but not nearly as much as the other re views led me to believe however they were a little loose on my legs when i first put them on which i liked i bought these pants on a whim while i was at my local retailer i was so delight ed after trying them on because i ve never tried on a pair of linen pants that i actually liked they definitely have more of a flair leg rather than straight leg like the picture suggests i w ore them for several hours at a party and they didn t stretch that much on me i agree with the other review in that they do get a little wrinkly but not much more than what i would expect fro m linen fabric i m 5 3 so t these jeans fit pretty well on my petite frame although wish they were more cropped for reference i am 5 4 110 lbs i was looking for frayed jeans for this fall and these jeans are on trend i may look at petite options which would be truly cropped overall they are very stretchy skinny jeans and have a nice dark wash i understand what the previous re viewer meant when she says these are great for around the house the yarn is thick but the weave is open so they are nicely springy but not very warm \r\n\r\nthey look perfect with my birkensto cks so i m getting then in all colors very cute and comfortable does run big i used the size c hart and it s very generous would order down a size next time i immediately picked out this in the taupe color at the store the black was pretty basic looking but this color is gorgeous it s quite flowy on me i wear an xs s most places but usually small in tops here the sleeves stre tched out a bit after a day of teaching too one of my favorite tops at retailer right now this jacket is amazing i at first bought the medium because that is what i usually wear on top when it arrived in the mail i put it on asap it fit but was definitely too form fitting to wear a sw eater or long sleeve shirt underneath so i called the store and asked them to reserve a large a nd that one fit perfectly it s loose enough to wear something underneath but not so loose that it looks to big it is so soft and cozy and the hood is my favorite part i tossed this in my b ag online at the last minute thinking i d give it a shot so glad i did this is dress is so s imple and so much more flattering then i expected you can dress it up or down i wish it was ab out 1 2 inch longer but still a good length for me things are always too short for me the mat erial could be a little thicker but then i suppose it would lose the bounce that is so key to th e flow of thing with this dress i love these pants super comfy fit well and a great color i knew immediately when i put them on that i would love them and the button fly to die for \r\n wore them and they did stretch out a bit by the end of the day but they didn t look awful and su per baggy i bought the other color in a size smaller so they might be better a great pant for summer this suit is so beautiful and the quality is great i wanted it to work out but unfort unately my chest size is not compatible with this bathing suit i am a 36c and there is zero sup port which i assumed when i ordered it but it was so lovely in the photo i had to give it a tr y for those who have a smaller bust or are more comfortable with a little sexy side profile this may be perfect i ordered the large and the bottoms were a good fit i am also very petite and the length was good one just got these and love them the blue color is a great bright shade without being too crazy and they fit well i m 5 7 138 straight build and ordered 27 true to size for me they have loosened up throughout the day and the waist and hips are a bit baggy no w but i like that they re not ultra tight nice light fabric for the summer this sweater feels good and not itchy at all i m long waisted and the small hit right at my hip bone top of my low waisted jeans so it s kinda on the shorter side i liked it that way bc it s not baggy at the bottom and is figure flattering i tied the tie twice and thought it looked better i have long arms and was excited the sleeves go down to the middle of my hands it has little hole detailing down the middle but not so much that you d have to wear a shirt underneath i love these socks they are super thick and comfy the quality feels great and they were cheap these are just some classic around the house type socks they re not comfortable enough to wear with some boots or anything just super snuggly and soft for lounging purposes only i love them and am contemplati ng buying the other pair i got the blue and white ones to go with the farrier tee in blue and w hite i m kind of bummed that i can t wear these anywhere but no worries they ll be great with some joggers and a sweatshirt while i work the crossword over a cup of coffee would recommend t hese jeans are super cozy the material is so soft they feel like i m wearing yoga pants the color has a little more depth than in the photo not just straight navy as it appears my only i ssue is because they are so soft they lose a little shape after worn all day love mother jeans this is s very comfortable cami with comfortable and nicely designed straps in back this socks are very comfortable however they do feel a little big around the top so for people with a small lower calf might find them a bit big that being said they are very comfortable if you re like me and wish you could carry on downtown boho dressing when the time to take out your puffer come s to pass this tunic is essential though the silky alpaca wool knit is thicker than gauzy cott on it drapes just as well and keeps one s self warm and cozy without the bulk of a sweater i w as concerned with the elastic banding at the bottom of the tunic because i m only 5 4 but high waisted and banded hems tends to always hit me at the wrong spot luckily it s not very bindin g s i can t stop rubbing the faux fur faux fur can be cheap and tacky but this looks and feels beautiful it has two hook and eyes and comes with a third which i used to add another hook on t op above my bust its roomy so size down if you want it fitted i m 5 1 and 120 with a 34 c bu st and a short torso and i got a small i could have worn the xs but i like the fact that the sm all allows for a good weight cashmere sweater underneath without feeling tight the hood is the best part it s so drama this was my first mother denim purchase and i ve already gotten another color love the feel of this denim it s heavy enough to smooth out any imperfections and manage s to stay tight not stretch out while being comfortable this color is perfect too so flatter ing love simple classic figure flattering and reasonably priced this is a great top not cheap but funky it would look nice on any figure the two blacks on my top are more alike than the picture shows great value for a pretty party top but it can go anywhere love this top i t is almost universally flattering and washes beautifully it is as easy as throwing on a sweat shirt with leggings but soooo much better if you are on the fence on this one i highly recomm end you give it a try i love everything about these pants the color the fit the detail oh and these have a button fly i didn t realize that when i ordered them but i love it i haven t had a pair of button fly pants in so long these have a nice stretch to them as well hei hei kn ows what they re doing and i got them on sale thank you retailer this actually might be my f avorite thing that i have ever owned the jacket is so beautiful and so cozy jacket i agree th at the pics do not do this amazing piece justice for reference i am 5 7 140 lbs and bought th e large to allow a bit of room for layering this jacket is so adorable on i have no idea why r etailer styled it with a chunky cream turtleneck under it considering the jacket is also cream a nd it s hard to tell what it even looks like i ve been searching for a coat like this to give my leather jacket a break in my opinion a lot of the faux coats look like they have cheap itchy material this definitely does not it is super soft and the faux fur is of high quality the in side is also lined and feels like a very thick soft jersey sweater i tried this shirt on in stor e and loved it it has a flattering fit and is very comfortable i read some other reviews abou t the quality not being good i don t feel that way at all the knit and the silky satiny materi als both feel like quality to me the one concern i have is that it may wrinkle easily i m 5 4 and 125lbs and the xs fits well i plan to pair it with skinny jeans very comfortable to sleep in doesn t bunch up or twist love this very cute true to size have kept my eyes out for a j acket like this for several years now and this one is more than i had hoped for in the store i was between a l and m so went with the large after getting home and trying on a couple mor e times i decided to order the petite large jacket is roomy warm and so so soft added bonus w the hood got them on sale in blue and love the color they are flattering and i like the wais t and pocketed area bc it is also comfy waistband and hips are loose but not too loose tts i m 8 10 and took a 29 love these pants very figure flattering and fabric stretch holds up well no sag at end of day i am 5 6 5 and size 6 hits ankle bone i love these so much i went to ord er a second pair and size 6 sold out so i ordered an 8 will see how a size bigger works i thi nk may give a looser look but be comfy so happy to have these wear with booties and my tunics peasant blouses and much more highly recommend i love this dress i was so excited when i saw this hanging in my local retailer just one in my size it must have been a return i tried it on and fell in love with it i am 34b bra size 130 pounds 5 9 tall and an xs fits me great i didn t find it to be tight on top for me as other reviewers have said and the skirt is very fl owy i have worn this dress so many times since i bought it and have gotten compliments on it ea ch time i bought the green color its a beautiful print and usually great color and shape for all seasons i was so elated to get this piece on sale love it this is a heartbreaker love th is dress s colors length flow beading and style but its extremely tight in the shoulders and bust hate to see it go back how has nobody reviewed these pants yet love them they re mo re like really nice structured leggings but thick enough to be substantial pants they re stre tchy hold their shape flattering on my big hips and thighs and have no distracting elements l ike belt loops or protruding pockets like some of my other pants which makes it hard to keep a smooth silhouette under a longer shirt the only bad and it wasn t even really that bad is tha t these are longer than the 27 advertised i m 5 5 well i totally disagree with the previous reviewer on this one i think this top is very pretty yes it does hide any flaws in the tummy but it is not wide nor does it make you look pregnant side or front view i am 5 ft 2 inches broad shouldered 36c and the small fit nicely i usually wear a small to medium in retailer top s i am thinking of purchasing the xs as there is still plenty of room around the chest arm are a the lace is pretty looks good worn with a dark colored pant the only just as nice and comfo rtable except this one ahs the bonus of being able to pair wit different tops too bad i ahve the dress in the same color \r\n\r\nsoft stretchy stays in place lining dind t crwal up when walked but dind t try the petite \r\n\r\nfit true to size if you usually need petites you will otherwise it fals in an awkwards pot on your calves \r\n\r\nmy usual xs was comfrtable an d flattering not clingy i would get it if i dind t have hte dress plus of dress is i don t ha ve to thi maybe the softest sweater that i own buy it and you won t regret it i was recently asked to be a speaker at an important fundraising event for homeless abused women in our city i wanted to appeal to the affluent crowd by my physical presentation and let my words follow wi th a heartfelt presentation of the value worth of these precious ladies \r\n\r\nretailer has c ontinually helped me present polished professional yet still show my personal style inclusi ve nature \r\n\r\nit gives me that extra edge of authenticity encouragement to do the most w w hat has i highly recommend this dress i was a little nervous about purchasing this dress o nline because previous reviewers were saying that it creates static but nothing that a little s tatic guard couldn t prevent i purchased a medium petite and i am about 5 feet tall usually a size 8 in dresses and it fit perfect wore for thanksgiving the fabric and style are very fo rgiving and the dress sort of flows with you when you walk which i love i was so pleasantly s urprised when i received this in the mail because it s much more substantial than i thought it would be it s perfect for fall and spring and the lining is very soft i thought it d be more d ifficult to wear but it goes well with everything i ordered my usual size small and am happy wi th the fit this dress is very flattering on and can easily be dressed up or down i was nervous it might be too flowy but it lays very nice and is so pretty on nan i only say that this sleep top runs small because it shrinks a whole size after you wash it i d recommend that you order u p a size for that reason otherwise it is cute i am ordering the shorts to go with it was in m y local retailer today and just had to try this on it appeared to be a structured jacket but i t is actually a sweater jacket gives a very chanel vibe and looks so chic i plan on wearing it with just about everything i would probably wear it open most times but i love the closure with the button detail i am large busted but petite 119 lbs 5 2 and this was way more fla ttering on me than most jackets normally the sleeves are too long but these were just right i am sure i wi i own the green version of this jacket and ordered the ivory as well because of t he sale price and because i loved the green one so much i highly recommend this jacket to wear over dresses with jeans or skirts all year round lightweight and casual i picked this jacket up on sale i usually don t like sale items aggressively priced there is usually a reason why i t was a difficult sell to begin with but this was a pleasant surprise as in no surprise pictu re depicts color and material well great throw on for running errands clean lines nice simple detail only thing that is slightly annoying is that the off center zipper makes the wider side flap over when not zipped but this is true with almost any top cut th i ordered this to go over a dress i wanted the jacket short to not cover the waist of the dress on sale i think it is a great bargain the sleeves are long on me but i rolled them which i thought was intended sin ce they are lined the medium fit me i am usually an 8 in tops the ivory color is almost a pur e white i love my new blazer the material is very soft and comfortable and very nice quality but not too wooly to wear into spring the cut is very flattering and the patterns and fringe details are very eye catching i am 5 6 and usually wear a size s in retailer and this small fi t perfectly they grey cream color combo is gorgeous and looks very versatile and can be dresse d up or down \r\n\r\nthe one alteration i suggest is moving the button at the shoulder it gives a wide boxy shape my tailor wil i wear size 8 ordered a medium fits great nice quality lik e that you can wear open or buttoned at the shoulder this shirt is super comfortable and super chic it looks great and feels great i can t describe my love for this sweater simple to go o utfit paired with jeans and boots it s an easy go to sweater in a pinch on a cold day i have s ensitive skin so i wore a tank underneath and was fine loved getting this sweater with the ext ra 40 sale price i purchased the medium 2 and it was tts i absolutely love this pullover an d am so glad i purchased it it is the perfect weight for fall winter super soft true to size the diamond shape opening in back looks great with my strappy yoga bras i have received complim ents every time i wear it i am 6 144lb slim athletic build and often have trouble with sleev e length this however is perfect i can use the thumb holes as designed without stretching the sleeves in an awkward way wish it came in more colors so great soft and a great sweater but s till gives you a shape to your body this is the perfect top it is adorable and the fit and cu t of it is forgiving i so wanted to buy this top especially during the 30 off tops sale this past weekend so it would have been just about 100 but while it was well made i could see i t easily snagging or getting caught on jewelry if it was on sale even more i might have con sidered it it could be extremely versatile with jeans black skinny pants or leggings reall y loved it but couldn t see spending that much money on it although it was a bit of a battle w ith my bra straps it was completely worth it for date night hot shirt very comfy and quality fabric next time i may just pin or tape my straps but runs large i tried on the regular 0 in the store and it was very pretty but baggy would definitely need a tank if i were to wear th is to work lace is romantic and i do like the button details i would give it a try but for me i will take my chance and wait for sale if it makes it there in my sie i need 00 petite alread y gone sadly \r\n\r\nreference h that i went back to get it in black too i received a ton of compliments when i wore it the f abric is a nice weight and it hangs beaufully looks great over skinny jeans or leggings i plan on wearing it year round i love this tank i got it in the turquoise and just ordered the blue this tank is indeed linen and does not wrinkle it s fitted without being too tight i have a so mewhat shorter torso and narrow waist and athletic build and this looks great i m not a fan of flowy tops in general so thrilled to find this easy casual piece i ordered an xs but am usuall y either xs or s in retailer love this top red color is a bit orangey for my taste but overall a fabulous piece so glad i purchased this top it has great style and can be matched with just about everything the material is very soft and it seems really durable this is a nice shirt an d very flattering the ivory is actually more of a tan brown i would not call it ivory or off w hite the material has a nice texture to it as well it does run big and long so keep that in mi nd when purchasing i love these cozy fashionable leggings they are super flattering and thick enough to wear to yoga or out and about in the real world i will definitely be getting another pair they seem true to size i am tall 5 11 and usually wear a lg i love these jeans they r e incredibly soft super comfortable and hold their shape i can wear them for hours on end and i don t get that droopy snagging look jeans can get when they stretch out \r\n \r\n\r\nfit i am normally a 29 30 depending on the jean i took these in the 30 i usually have a difficult t i bought this tunic for my mom as a birthday gift it is very good quality and will look cute fo r fall too if your looking for a nice quality basic tee this is it nothing special but the f e retailer has done it again i love this top i purchased it for our engagement photos i am t ypically a small or medium and decided to size down for this one i purchased a small and it fi t perfectly its not near as long as it is in the photo which pleased me i did read about bust y ladies having a problem with the fit and i can definitely see how that would be an issue i love this tunic the detail the weight the fringe but it runs big i would have done better to have ordered one size smaller i think it would have looked more tailored if i had gotten the me st the right way and the slits on the side are a nice touch i m 5 2 and about a 34c and the xs was tight in a good way around my chest and then more flowy after soft material and the red c olor is beautiful i ordered the red and am watching for my size in the green to come back into stock i was already expecting my bra straps to be exposed not a big deal as with shoulder leng th hair it covers them so i found this top to be exactly as pictured described it fits like it looks on the model and i thought the color to be spot on i have washed it once in the washer on cold and dried only for a few minutes on low as i like to do with delicate knits to regain shape and i think it looks as good as it di fell in love with this sweater the minute i saw it the cr ocheted front is stunning the small fit perfectly 5 5 36c i am usually between a small and medium so if a small is usually roomy you may want to size down it s a medium weight soft and comfortable not at all itchy perfect for dressing up or down look forward to many years of us ow this sweater is really pretty in person and well made every time i wear it someone stops w hat they are doing to compliment it one person asked if it was home made in a good way i will admit that i would not have paid full price and did get it on sale and in that case it s worth it the sweater does have an unusual cut the waist is boxy and the back is a bit shorter but s omehow it works for me i see it as a cool style and not a mistake it s super warm and i love i t this is a really elegant sweater coat the faux fur trim adds a lot of flair and the mismatc ht i love wearing it with my paige bell canyon flairs and some clogs my only thing i wish was that it was cut in so much at the top as how you can see at the model s armpit wish that part was a little wider it would be a bit more flattering otherwise great top i have it in black an top very cute top that i will have to wait a few months to wear until it is cooler out but a great piece to pick up for a nice price it is soft and comfortable with a generous amount of ro om but not where you look too big i ordered it in the blue but really it is like a dark gray which does not bother me highly recommend this top received lots of compliments on the day tha t i wore recommend wearing with a tank top i sized up to a medium from a small and was glad i did the top drapes nicely and the fabric is soft \r\n\r\n5 7 140 lb 32 b usually a small on top this is a very beautiful summer dress with plenty of lightweight fabric i loved the colors and the design i know that some other reviewer complained that this is polyester and it is bu t it feels like chiffon the only two complaints i have are 1 the dress is large so go a size smaller than you would normally and 2 this is dry clean only if this is polyester why would they suggest that it should be dry cleaned only that is going to take a chunk out of the budget to get it cleaned oth i love this to throw over leggings covers your butt great fabric and quality i bought white and gray after they arrived i knew i needed a black one but sadly it doesn t come in black \r\ni ordered xs and it s roomy size down for sure i ordered two colors and was happy with them both i wear tanks under many tops in the warm weather as so many are sheer i like a layered look and having layers to peel as needed these tops are great on their own as well i recommend them to anyone wanting swing and extra length really love the fabric too as beautiful as in the picture couldn t go wrong with it excellent quality and gorgeous color i saw this dress in the store tried it on and love it is so hard to find a white dress that is not too fancy or frilly this dress fits great and flatters my full figure size 12 to 14 plus it has pockets the woven material with the big fun flowers is accented by the plain band at the bottom which falls just above the knee the center of the flower adds a nice three dimensional touch i brought it in a large and i will wear this lovely feminine flirty beauty all spring and summer from fun i bought this in white at my local store great staple to wear in the heat of the summer or as a layering piece i bought my normal size medium and it fits loose and flowy i wore a nude racer back bra and felt comfortable without a cami great basic addition to my closet missed these last year in black so snatched them up when i saw them this season great versatile wardrobe piece dress them up or down with knee hi boots booties or great heeled pump with silk blouse or sweater love something that i can wear so many ways and look and feel polished and put together these are as comfortable as any other leggings they are thick enough that they are not see through such a pet peeve when i see people with see through leggings the front panel is so soft and i feel like it gives more of a professional vibe they are a bit cropped short but i m tall so i m used to this quality fabric nice fit and style it s not sheer which is ideal for such a lightweight tank for summer i like the flowiness of the top makes it comfortable and super cute with fitted jeans this is a great top and it fit me very nicely but it s much longer than it appear to be in the picture i m 5 2 and it was more like a tunic than a tank on me if it were shorter it would be one of my favorite staples i m sure if you re very tall i think you will love it this is a beautiful top the detail in the pattern of the fabric is gorgeous and the color goes great with jeans love the design of arm holes they don t show your bra the only con is price but it s a keeper i bought the white in a m one size down from my normal i could have gone with a s given the swingy shape and forgiving nature of the linen it is very light and comfortable the length is a tunic on me at 5 6 so keep that in mind if you dry it in the dryer it will shrink for sure i never recommend drying linen knits in the dryer because they will likely develop holes i love this tank and will probably buy another color or two if they get black or grey i will def buy another one nan i m so excited that retailer is bringing back some of the gorgeous fabrics and details they used to have the all over embroidary is beautiful the cotton silk blend is delicious and there s enough shaping that the top doesn t look too boxy i did end up sizing down for a slightly more fitted loo and for a smaller armhole i also picked through a couple of tops to find the one i wanted since the embroidery pattern wasn t centered on some of them i love these pants they are very flattering and comfy and look like real leather they are also machine washable which is great i ve worn mine 5 times already this is one of my favorite tanks i have ever worn the swing style means you can wear it with any pants and the straps are wide enough to accommodate a serious bra i usually wear an l xl but am wearing a m in these so definitely size down at least once you will love this i purchased this top in white and lavender the white is very nice soft and semi sheer but not completely see thru fine with a nude bra it is a swingy fit and slightly longer in back than front but i expected that i purchased a medium and it s plenty roomy i am usually between a medium and large in retailer tops so i would consider it tts for a very relaxed fit \r\nthe lavender fits slightly looser and the hem is really uneven it looks in some of the photos like this might be intentional b simple style with a great fit love the pink mustard and cream colors together fits true to size i m fairly petite and was not expecting this to be as long as it was on me it s actually great for leggings or skinny jeans though good quality material too love this tank so easy to throw on quickly and still look out together this top is overall very flattering i am petite but large chested and the small fits great in the front although it bunches a little bit in the back where the tag is i think because of the crossing straps but nothing that will gender me from wearing it i got the pink and i do wish it were a little more pink it s so light that it almost looks white overall i am happy with this sale purchase this tank fit perfectly and goes with everything will be purchasing in more colors this dress is so much more stunning in person than in the photos it s incredibly flattering and i like how it pans out at the bottom it also has pockets although it has a built in slip it is a little see through so keep that in mind otherwise i can t wear it enough this skirt is classic very high quality and even better in person it runs true to size the material is slightly thick and will be great for fall winter and early spring my only complaint is i wish it had p ockets i love tracy reese designs i can t wait to wear this for thanksgiving i have been look ing for leather or faux leather pants for a while and these look great they are more expensive than other faux leather pants but the quality is much higher i m glad i didn t buy the cheap leather look pants i keep seeing the only caveat is that they do run small like the other rev iewers said i am a 27 pretty consistently in this brand but i got the 28 they fit perfectly because of the material on the back they do not lose their shape either highly recommended t his top is so beautiful really well made with solid embroidery not the thin lightweight type i thought it ran rather large but i don t have the bust to fill in the top area i m usually a small in tops sometimes medium due to my height 5 8 but went down to an xs so the arm holes d idn t show too much length was still great a steal at the sale price this is a beautiful lo ng midi blazer that happens to feel like a sweatshirt buy it you ll look super classy and put together i wear to work and going out i ve been noted to also curl up in bed wearing this beca use it s so comfortable and i forgot to switch into a sweatshirt \r\n\r\nnote i m on the short side so the blazer ends up being a little longer for me i happen to like it because it gives it a little more formalness of a longer coat while still being spring weight jersey terry on th e i love tracy reese this skirt did not disappoint i saw it originally in store fell in love i waited to see if it would go on sale and it did \n\ni put on the size 12 it fit gorgeousl y the fabric is a bit stiff and bulky but i think that s so it holds its shape first thing i went into my living room began twirling around \n\ni am 5 5 150lbs athletic build the sizin g is true to tracy reese i ll need to get the skirt hemmed as it s quite long on me but this little gem will be worn i was at my local retailer this weekend needing a bathing suit for an u pcoming trip and this set was sitting in the get it while it lasts section in my size i trie d it on top in two different sizes 32c and 34b and a bottom and it was literally the only tim e in my life i ve ever tried on a bathing suit and been happy with the results great material the design is retro but with a modern twist with the fabric supportive top without squishing w ent with the 32c same as my regular bras t the front of these is the leather looking materia l the back is just a stretchy material they are comfortable but they run very small i consist ently wear a 27 in this brand i purchased that size but could barely get them up definitely si ze up i had to exchange they are cute but i m not sure they are worth full price the quality is mediocre and i think you can buy faux leather pants for less at another store i was hesitant to buy these jeans online because citizens are generally not very forgiving being that they don t have much stretch they are always in the stack that i try on but haven t bought a pair of ci tizens in several years these are totally different the have enough stretch to be sculpting w ithout being uncomfortable while keeping the substantial feeling that comes with denim versus le ggings i looooooove these jeans these pants look great on and i love the ponte fabric on th e back of the pants i usually wear a 28 in pilcro but i went with a 29 for these great lengt h and my only criticism would be the price a little expensive for vegan leather i somehow ove rlooked this online and saw it in the store i am a 10 12 or m l i tried on the medium and it w as tight in the bust but fit great in the waist i ended up ordering the large online the large felt good but a tad big in the waist it hit my true waist though and looked good i then notice d the straps were agustable i wonder if i tried the medium and loosened the straps if it would have worked either way i love the dress so pretty and flowy i wasn t bothered by the fabric a nd did love these pants they look great with a pair of mid calf boots and a loose t shirt i us ually wear a size 26 or 27 but went with a 27 on these they are very flattering and edgy love them these leggings are great because they are comfortable stylish and can be dressed down or up great pair of fun leggings to wear i m 5 3 and 180 and so i m not a skinny girl but they are flattering on me i love them comfort is very important to me as someone who is not a skin ny girl slimming clothing is important to me this top is very pretty comfortable and can be dressed up or down it does require dry cleaning which might be a con for some people i tried these on in the store in the small and needed to xs so i ordered them online they are perfect i wore them last night and got so many compliments for reference i am 5 2 and 125 lbs this d ress is lovely exactly as pictured on the site love the colors pattern and received so many co mpliments when i wore it to a brunch party could easily be dressed up for an outdoor wedding i t definitely runs big i am usually an 8 10 and originally ordered in a large was way too big so had to exchange for a m and there was still some room make sure you size down this dress is very comfortable very flattering and just lovely my only critique is that the skirt is more ru st colored in real life where on the website it looks more red and the bodice looked a bit mor e peach pink in the picture still a beautiful interesting well made and extremely comfortable dress thanks retailer i am 5 9 155 and the m is great this velvet maxi dress is what fall d reams are made of it fits very true to size and is the perfect length about to ankles the mat erial is soft and had so much subtle details in it gorgeous once the weather cools a bit it will also pair nicely with tall boots and an undershirt i plan on rocking this all fall and wi nter i love the look of this dress on the hanger in the store and in the pics on the model but i purchased my usual size 0 in petite i am 5 ft 2 in it was very form fitting too much for me and had little gaps near the waist that i attributed to it being tight the hips i exchanged it for a 2 petite and that was too large and gaped in the top and waist for reference my measur ements are 32 26 35 so i am going to deduce from my experience and the other reviews that this dress might be best sizi this dress is gorgeous in person but its very very very fitted i we ar a size 8 in most retailer dresses i ordered the 8 and its not an option not even with contr ol undergarments i sent the 8 back and re ordered in a size 10 i wouldn t be surprised if i ne ed the size 12 i hope it works because this is a beautiful dress the pattern is stunning the red is a deep brick shade the fabric is thick but not too thick to prevent transitioning from season to season as other reviewers said i am this is a super cute adorable and flattering ma xi it s very comfortable and soft i stayed tts in this dress the length hit just right perfect for summer they are exactly as picture i have a lot of extra skin on my midsection due to pregnancies they are a little high waist so they grab all the midsection perfectly the fabr ic is good quality the tones are just beautiful it is a little bit see through on your bum i always try to hide my bum so no issue for me as part of the over 60 crowd i rarely wear dres ses any more but this called out to me and it didn t disappoint i ordered the plum true t o size and and color i usually wear a medium and it fit perfectly i liked the previous review suggestion and i will also wear this with boots and t shirt to get more use out of it as well as dressing up it s a real keeper i debating this dress for a long time i just was hesitant becau se it is very form fitting i think this dress runs true to size after reading other reviews i was debating ordering a 6 i m normally an 8 and i am glad i went with the 8 it is form fitti ng the material is just absolutely beautiful and not stiff it is a bit thicker which will be nice in the fall colors are true to the pictures shown and length falls as shown on model so v ersatile and comfortable i plan adding this into my rotation year round under a jacket or cardi t for hanging out in this dress first caught my eye because of the beautiful color combination and when i tried it on i was sold it s super soft and comfy and just the right amount of cover age i bought the black version of this dress looks exactly like the picture and is true to siz e i just bought this adorable top in the black motif and was surprised by how good it looked i t runs tts 34d 27 35 and got it in my usual size small it s very soft the print is so cute the arm openings aren t too big and the length is just like on the model not too long or short i think it s even cuter in person and i like the price point a very sweet top so worth a try i really like this it s not too baggy and not tight it drapes nicely and the pattern is a bit d ainty without being frilly \ni love this blouse i bought these in my standard 27 on sale woop they are super comfortable with a bit of stretch for those days when you need a little extra roo ekend i am 137 lbs a 34d chest and the small fit me perfectly i want this in every color fit s tts so comfortable flattering and fabric feels like it will hold up well fingers crossed love love love usually wear stevie jeans from ag but wanted to try something different now i l ove farrah this dress is gorgeous i sized up from my usual 6 to an 8 cause i m not much for f orm fitted dresses however it was still pretty body con for me i passed in it for now but in the future i might try a 10 petite the color is a nice brick red with a textured whitish patte rn and it is soft like i wanted to snuggle up on the couch in it but i had to refrain i v e been having bad luck with zippers from retailer dresses recently but this one was smooth sail ing and pretty too the length wa this top is beautiful in both colors it was a difficult decis ion at the store i went with the black and my usual size s fit well with a little room but in no way overly baggy i tried on the xs which also fit but was a little constricting the quality is excellent and i highly recommend this top 1 question i have however is that the online desc ription says machine wash however my tag states dry clean only just curious if anyone has hand washed this yet otherwise it is a beautiful comf i ordered the xxs p as this dress is not a f itted dress and that was the right size for me only thing is the length is a bit linger still 9lower on calf for me the straps are almost tight so i would say the dress is a reversed tape r shape color is beautiful i ordered green as the other color plum doesn t have petite avail able green is rich and classy the fabric is surprisingly soft i love the little details in t he velvet definitely need a strapless bra for this one \r\n\r\n115 lbsm 30d if i had to describ e on two words that would be it the material is not a stiff no give material nbut rahter a so ft stretchy material with some depth the design has grooves not sure how to explain it if you are short i would definitely go with petite though it was a little too long on regular siz e and hit in the wrong spot on my calves very flattering and nice cut i dind t order yet as it is new and i jsut bought a few dresses but in my basket forh te next sale if they s the pictures don t do this dress justice it is fantastic the fit is perfect and it is super co mfortable while still looking polished a must have dress i love this top so much the fit is s uper flattering and forgiving in the tummy area win this dress is simply gorgeous the slit is just right the colors are great and most of all the fabric is very comfy i highly recommend i love all the pilcro chinos they fit great and the material is so soft they also wash very we ll i ordered this in the neutral motif and the colors and design are more beautiful in person unfortunately there were no petites available when i ordered so i will have to have the lengt h and slit tailored this dress is stunning the cut the color mine is a dark green not purp le as pictured and the material are all super unique and gorgeous i first tried on a medium bu t it was a little too large the small fit perfectly and still has the loose romantic look inte nded i can t wait to wear this piece with a suede moto jacket or even denim for a casual funky look love i love white for summer and by august i am tired of wearing sleeveless so this cau ght my eye it is very easy to wear and pretty on i wore it with black tie up shoes and accesso ries super comfy stylish love this top so much that i bought it in both colors the fabric i s wonderful and the pleated front is a nice feature i also like the fabric covered buttons you can button this top all the way or leave the top few buttons undone either way it looks cute i especially like that it looks great under a blazer or cardigan and will look good uncovered wh en the weather heats up great quality and features for the price i ordered this online and rea lly loved the picture when i received the dress it was lovely but the color was more purplish plum than red and the fabric was super thick and a little too stiff i was still hopeful but w hen i tried it on it wasn t flattering the lines of the dress are very sculpted for example the waist nips in which would be good but the place it nipped in was not at my waist i am ver y short waisted with longer legs and often have this problem with dresses often wi love this d ress i bought is for a tropic vacation my husband and i went on and it was great i got so many compliments while wearing it and it was comfortable dress is a little roomy in the top but no t enough to prevent me from wearing it i ordered a medium i was nervous about this dress as w hen i ordered it there were no reviews yet and shortly after they they started coming in and were only negative yes it runs pretty big i m usually a large 12 but could tell from the model it would run big but it s supposed to be loose i wouldn t say it s the most flattering but y ou can tell it s shapeless from the picture it s a great casual dress perfect for hot days whe n i don t want my clothing touching my skin i bought the extra small and although i love the st yle and unique color combo it s pretty large in the collar area and without the right blouse sh irt underneath it makes my neck look really skinny the rest of the coat is true to size longer and straight the design just doesn t have the right balance for me so i m sending it back this is a beautiful flattering dress however i can t decide whether to keep it or not as a few oth er reviewers has mentioned the transition between the top and the skirt is a bit off it s like there is some extra fabric there and the weight of the skirt pulls it down making it a li ttle awkward bunchy i thought it may have been showing up because i am larger chested 36d bu t you can kind of see this on the teal dress image under the chest where there is an extra fold i ordered th this dress is stretchy and soft a great length and an out of this world pattern it will probably be flattering on every body but it certain flattered mine i bought this to we ar for my baby shower at 34 weeks i was able to buy it in my size and still get a great fit an d the skirt hits right at my bump with the band just above it great option for expecting mother s that can be worn after baby the top is also snug enough to feel like it covers properly coul d be too snug if you are large chested though these t shirts by pure good are buttery soft a nd so flattering they are just loose enough to drape beautifully and the detailing at the neckl is gorgeous i bought the patterned dress and it has the perfect colors for the season the pict hly recommended i bought this dress to wear as a casual summer staple i like classic things wi th a twist and this fits the bill it is nice quality and the colors are vivid it is slightly tight in the bust line for me but it is not retailer s fault that i am a bit too busty for this dress i ll deal with it otherwise the dress is nice quality and will come in handy throughou t summer the price is right so grab it these pants look nice and they are comfortable too t he relaxed fit isn t sloppy and the colors are great this dress is beautiful and classy well made the fabric is thick and substantial soft and stretchy unfortunately it did not work for me at all i m somewhat thick in the middle with a few lumps and bumps and this dress was not forgiving despite the thick material i normally wear size 12 or large i actually ordered a 12 online which i didn t receive yet but i tried on a size 14 during an unexpected trip to the sto re 12 was not in stock and it was just not flattering showing all my mi this dress is nicely made fits well and is the right length the colors are beautiful and the fabric is very soft a nd comfortable i will be returning because of issues with length and being low cut \r\n\r\nfor reference i am 5 5 145lbs 38 30 40 34ddd the dress was low cut and showed too much cleavage f or my comfort but this may not be an issue for women with smaller breasts or if you don t mind some cleavage showing this length was also a bit too long so if you are 5 5 or shorter you ma y want to order the petite size you can t exactly tell from the picture but this dress has a s kirt that bubbles a little at the bottom and it really adds interest to the whole piece i thin k my favorite part about this dress though is the weightiness of the skirt it s not so heavy that it s hot or uncomfortable but enough that it feels more quality more special this dress fits true to size and is great to wear around on a warm day you can dress it up or down so ther e are many uses for it this brand has always provided great quality too i m excited for warmer weather love the red color bought the small because left of center usually runs big however i could use m in this style this dress is the perfect combo of flattering comfort and quality i purchased the turquoise color which is vibrant this will be my go to dress for spring the m aterial is super soft flowy and medium weight i ordered petite s probably could have got xs i love love love this dress beautiful dress vibrant colors fabric has a nice weight and dra pes perfectly 36 dd up top and the girls have plenty of space i love this dress as a petite w oman it s hard for my to find maxi dresses that aren t terribly long and that cut in the right places this dress fits perfectly i love the slits in the side that allow for a flowy look and make it easy to walk around there is also an elastic band that helps the materials over the bus t stay in place along your torso if you a bustier person like myself it will likely cut in jus t under your bust line as opposed to as your waist like on the model since i am bus i ordered t his dress in a petite but it arrived in a regular the rest fit and in the meantime the petites ran out in my size the dress is too long but it is so beautiful i will get it shortened the fabric is lovely i am blonde and the green is so nice with my hair which is a good thing si nce the other colour was totally sold out try not to miss out on this lovely purchase lov ed the shorts version of these so ordered the pants but not quite the right fit for my legs no fault of the pants just too skinny in the legs i purchased this in the ping orange color i am 5 8 and 155lbs the medium fit perfectly very soft texture with a nice flow will be purchasing in other colors love it although i had to purchase it in 3 sizes before finding the right one it does run large i normally take a l or el but a medium in this had the perfect drape i am 5 11 and 185 lbs and it is very flattering a perfect piece to be worn as a dress or as a tunic over skinny pants can be as sophisticated or casual as you choose to make it with acce ssories this sweater is really lovely it doesn t look like it does in the picture i got the xsmall as i was worried it would run big it s much shorter than i though fits more like a peti te size the sleeves are 3 4 length which i wasn t thrill with but accepted the color combo is really lovely it s very comfortable and well made and it was perfect for work but lovely with a pair of jeans too they have all the features i ve been searching for \nthe leg is straight not tapered or fitted the fabric is soft with an authentic worn in look the overall look is casua l relaxed and cool i love these chinos and definitely plan to buy more i m 4 11 120 and my u sual small fit as with everything way too long story of my life and i keel a tailor on call i bought the one with blue and white top and black bottom absolutely loved it i am 5 2 so the dress is part is a bit long for me ended up wearing my 4 5 inch heels to make it fit the fabr ic is more heavy than what it seems in the pictures but that makes it more formal it s great the cut is lovely and the fabric is wonderful it s a little thicker than you might think so it f elt a little warm \ni am sending back as i have a little belly and it doesn t hide much but it d id make my boobs look awesome this dress was returned to our store and i was intrigued the sec ond i saw it the dress is definitely oversized so much so that you could probably size down a size or two but what i love about this dress is the style its meant to be oversized and with the print the asymmetric cut and the oversized look its very unique the color is exactly as it appears and the material is wonderful thin but soft and comfortable really easy to wear y ou could do this as a dress or with leggings and b i love how pretty and soft this shirt is it falls well i want to wear it everyday i love this dress it was a tad long i m a shorty but i loved the cut and versatility of the material design that i took it to the tailor now it is perfect i wore it to an engagement party but i could see it going very casual or very high end depending on styling love i love this dress picked one up in store at 20 off even better i m 6 160lbs and 40 29 41 and i did find the waist runs a bit wide because i m tall i think t he length was a plus but a shorter person would definitely want to go with a petite i usually wear an 8 10 but bought a 6 in this dress so i think it runs a tad large the fabric is weighty enough to hide minor lumps and bumps but i ll be wearing shapewear anyway the pattern is perfe ctly aligned just like the online images and these ultra slimming jeans are so comfy the rise is a little higher than i am used to but it covers those little muffin tops perfectly the color is very dark almost black which adds to the slimming effect i have really long legs and these have a little extra at the bottom which is great you could wear with flats booties boots j ust about any type of shoes these are my new favorite jeans this just arrived today the mater ial is very soft and i love the olive color it has a zipper in the back but i was able to easil y slip this over my head making me think it runs a bit large because it is loose the fact that the drop waist hits right at the hip doesn t bother me though i thought it would fall a little lower i am only 5 2 and i consider this to be a short dress with thick leggings i think it wi ll be great winter dress the bodice is fully lined the skirt is not and the ne i loved this d ress so much i bought in the cream pink as well as the blue teal it is so light and easy to thr ow on the slits are higher on me i am 5 2 but not in a risquã way it s very flattering and gives it a little sassiness \r\n\r\ni wish they had even more colors to choose from that is how obsessed i am with it this dress is versatile and cute i purchased the xxs at 5 4 115lbs and it fit perfect a steal at the sale price cute dress flattering and seems to be well made how ever when i received it it seemed that it had been worn the bottom was all dirty and it had a white mark at the top called and rep said they would send new dress if i send first back so ho pefully that gets here quickly and in good shape the other dress i place with my order hasn t e ven shipped and the rep couldn t tell me when if it would this is instantly one of my favorite dresses but please note it runs large size down i am 5 10 and regularly a size 8 10 i tried both of those sizes on in store and picked the 8 it was perfectly form fitted and the perfect l ength when i got home i realized i had been reading the uk sizes on the tag and really bought a size 4 no idea how it fit me i have never purchased a size 4 in my life i am adding a photo s o potential customers can see what it looks like on an average sized person nan nan it drapes perfect and washes well i own all the colors they do not disappoint i m a medium my favorite pants casual and a bit dressier by changing my top comfortable classic well made i bought th ese pants in red after trying them on in store they are soft and company they have a loose fit which is typical for chinos so they pair best with a fitted top i m 5 2 and these were the p erfect length when rolled they run a bit big and stretch out though and eventually were too bag gy i loved them though so i ordered them in a size down i d definitely buy them in other color s too if they become available in my size i purchased this dress in the red orange color and wa s impressed by the quality of the fabric the waist sat a bit higher on me that in does in the p icture so it looks much more like an empire waist on me i love this dress i purchased the neu tral motif in a large and it fits wonderfully i have a double d chest and the top of this fits almost perfectly it s just a bit snug on top but still comfortable because of the fabric i m 5 3 and the dress isn t too long like most maxi s are on me i always have great luck with maeve a nd plan on purchasing another right now it s lightweight soft slinky unike the average t s hirt the slinkiness makes it skim the body nicely the photos on the website do not do the dres s justice i am into texture pattern and contrasting fabrics this dress is gorgeous in person not only has pattern but the pattern is woven so there is this wonderful texture as well that i had to try some of the reviews said the dress runs large others that this is a bodycon dress i ordered a size 8 and my usual 10 both were figure hugging but the size 10 allowed this to be office wear while still being flattering i am fairly straight small this dress is so pretty an d i instantly fell in love with it when i tried it on i generally wear size 0 or 2 and opted fo r the 2 for more room i know some reviewers felt that the dress ran too long at the bottom but for me i was sold on it because this dress is form fitting i like a more conservative look for work wouldn t want form fitting and short dress my favorite kind of dress is form fitting and falls at or below my knees a little i m petite short waisted and slim hipped but with broad sh oulders the byron lars pencil dresses fit me perfectly so i was hoping this pencil dress would too though with this brand my sizing fluctuates \r\n\r\nunfortunately the cut of the shoulde rs made me look like i had hammy arms it was a little tight around the waist area and i could h ave probably gone up a size for a better fit width wise length wise however it would have bee n too long for my torso which i run into a lot \r\n\r\ntoo bad perfect fit this dress is sup er flattering the criss crossing fabric at the bust looks awesome on the fabric is a little bi t thicker through there which is nice for coverage the skirt is light and airy and the pattern is so pretty the perfect spring to summer dress i bought each color in three different sizes b ecause the one i want was sold out the lavender tile motif is the one i got in my ideal size me dium petite and it fits the best what i don t like is that the inside of the skirt is white wh ich features prominently because of the high side slits makes the dress look low quality my fa vorite dresses were the solid teal and solid black however the small was too small on my bust a nd the large petite was too large on my bust i m wondering if wash th i m so glad i trusted my instincts and decided not to size down on this luxurious dress since my body type is so differen t from the previous reviewers size small would have surely cut off my circulation around my sh oulders i bought mp since i have thick arms shoulders back and i m short 135 38 27 35 my o nly gripe is how skinny and insubstantial the straps are so maybe i ll get those changed i m t empted to buy the other color since this dress is so beautiful but i really don t nred it this dress is extremely body conscious so if you want to make an impression wear this dress the fa bric is thick and best worn on a cooler night the pattern is gorgeously done pieced together l ike a garment three times the cost the cut of the armholes might not be flattering on those wit h broad shoulders or chubby upper arms like myself for me this dress is tts but way too long so i will have to hem i purchased this in the black in an xl i am typically a 14 16 dress size and i would say this runs tts with a flowing fit on the bottom the top is fitted but has some s tretch to it absolutely gorgeous fit and quality i love this so much i want to purchase the te al color a spring must have i have 3 pairs of these chinos i love them so much they come so ft like a well worn favorite but are high quality at a great price i m typically a size 4 i bo ught the 26 size but think i could have gone down to a 25 otherwise very happy with this purcha se i purchased the pink top and really like it it will be a go to the material is light but not skimpy and it has a nice drape to it the length is good for me 5 4 and it fits tts ver y happy i purchased this jacket although to me it is really a coat it fits wonderfully and is so soft i appreciate the uniqueness not the usual dull winter shades of black gray navy alth ough i live in minneapolis much of the winter it will not be warm enough once the temps drop b eyond 20 degrees it is perfect for the in between 21 50 degree days i am a size 6 5 5 135 lbs tried the small medium the s was a bit snug in the hips so chose the m and it is just r ight this dress is very cute and super comfortable as soon as i walked into work i received a compliment the fabric is not heavy but actually on the thin side if i knew this dress was mae ve i would have sized down i m always a large at retailer but with some maeve items i need a medium for reference i m 5 9 175 l 12 i love the look of a drop waist but because of my b ig bust i usually look silly but this works i adore this dress i wanted needed to add a few v elvet pieces to my wardrobe and when i saw this online i decided this had to be one of them i m 5 9 and 128 pounds and ordered the x small and it fits me perfectly the color is so rich and t he details are delicate understated and yet striking i intend to wear this for a variety of o ccasions i got this new dress for a work meeting and instantly received compliments it has a v ery unique pattern that is perfect for the office or date night it is a little long and falls b elow the knee but otherwise the dress fits and feels great the fabric has a nice weight so it covers any imperfections you might want to hide i really loved the look of these color blocked leggings online but when i received mine they re nothing like the ones in the pictures the front of the legs on mine are mostly orange with a thin strip of white between the orange then more orange i like orange but really was expecting the pretty color blocking like in the pic tures not mostly orange on both front legs the back of the legs have more color blocking but barely any of the light lavender color there s just the right amount of billowy grace in this dr ess the fit is perfect and the material moves and breathes with you cute with a jean jacket on chillier days too wow wow wow this is so retailer the dress is more breathtaking in person it is a beautiful work of art from top to bottom the fabric is super soft and flows perfectly the lining is super soft as well and it doesn t fall all the way down to the hem so that the bu rnout detail would show through on the bottom i don t like spaghetti straps but the straps are very sturdy and high quality very comfortable fyi the color is much richer a shade darker i n person like an eggplant color i orde looove this so much the color in person is a rich wine the pintuck and button details are hard to see in the photo but there are three buttons so you can chose to open a couple i bought this unique beauty in a size 0 the fit was superb and with out compromise the ascetics are incomparable as well as the quality the most stunning dress i have purchased from retailer in quite a while nan nan i love love this top it look so much bet ter than expected i bought black because red wasn t available in my size the style print and fit are perfect the shirt style hides flaws and the top looks very good and stylish it can be worn for formal or casual occasions i keep looking to see if the red one is available in my siz e i would buy it in every color perfect the attention to detail in aligning the pattern is e xcellent as always with this brand \r\n \r\ni tried a size 2 and it fit fine just above my long waist 5 2 currently 33 25 37 5 with narrow hips and fuller thighs i have several other car tonnier shorts in sizes 0 and 2 depending on my weight and these fit similarly i think the si ze 2 petite would be a bit lower but it s sold out now \r\n \r\nthe only reason i passed was tha t the fabric has a polyester fusible interfacing so that it keeps its s picked this up at the lo cal retailer in both colors the red version was styled in the store with the adorable blue snai l cardigan which i also bought highly recommend i didn t hate it but i don t love it i pur chased it in 2 colors b c i thought i d fall in love it is just ok maybe it s b c i have a lar ger chest but i felt like it was too small in the chest area and too loose elsewhere not the m axi fit i normally go for however the material is great and it s a simple sunday dress to loun ge around in and run errands comfortably tts i m 38c 8 10 and m fits just right nice and fit ted at the top flowy skirt i got the cream and love the skirt pattern just bought this top in the black at my local retailer and i love it it fits well not too large and tenty it actual ly fit me under the arms too usually retailer tops tend to run huge not this one i love tha t it is easy to layer with a long boyfriend cardi or a more structured jacket i m 5 3 110 poun ds and took the xs i would definitely recommend this top this sweater fits perfect and the pin k trim makes it stunning i was pleasantly surprised when i tried this on i don t usually pay t his much for a cardigan but the quality and feel are better than usual these pants are the per fect weight and comfort they are cozy enough to wear around the house and sleep in as well i h ighly recommend these dreamy pants the picture is not a good depiction of what the skirt actual ly looks like the colors are more varied and green is the dominant color it looks great on and the colors compliment each other i would definitely recommend it as a daily go to item for your wardrobe nan very unique cute top i had to order up a size as i thought it ran a little on th e small size good quality fit and length love them the only complaint i would have about th is pullover is that it runs a little big i ordered a small and it is a little big for my taste but it is not something worth returning it for i wouldn t say to size down but be aware it is l arger than what you would expect still love it i have these pants in the brown red colors a nd i love them both equally they are stretchy and stretch out a very little bit as you wear th em but retain their shape neatness this fit great i am 5 8 and 130 lbs i ordered a size me dium and it fit perfect i wore a black tank cami underneath for warmth in the office this dres s is great for hiding any insecurities it s also very comfy i have several tiny tunics in m i received this one today and it is very cute but too tight in the chest i m returning it for a l arge love the top it fits wonderfully and it s lightweight my only complaint is that it has little loops that are prone to getting caught on things other than that it s a great spring to p i loved the material s texture and drape but it was too sheer for me i am 100 against havi ng to wear a tank under white tees which means i have a lot of trouble finding any white tees but \r\n\r\nother than the see through nature i loved this shirt nan i have been thinking about getting this dress for a while but was holding out because i was concerned it would look like a sack but i am so glad i got it and so glad my usual size was not available typically i m a m or a m petite but i ordered this in a s petite while still flowy i think it would have b een overwhelming in my usual size i think it will be great for many occasions as the solid blac k can be dressed up or down i can t wait to wear it definitely consider sizing down this shir t is as cute on as it looks in the pictures i love the fit and felt great in it on a mom s nigh t out with jeans and heals i also think it could be dressed up for work or further down for a d ay out and about love it it s difficult to tell but the skirt is 3 colors the pockets are da rk brown and the hem or bottom part is army green skirt fits pretty well but not great i m a lmost 5 ft 6 in and it hits close to where it hits on model i would have liked it better slight ly longer i m 135 lbs and size 6 fits but is slightly on tight side \nmaterial is high quality and thick cotton this is my new favorite dress i think this is going to be a love or hate top i love it it is see through requiring an under top however the fabric is extremely light wei ght and the style is floaty so a simple lightweight tank cami will look pretty showing through i n a number of colors i bought the off white it is meant to be a full fit but i think going dow n one size will help especially since the photos don t show just how full the back really is th e fabric will probably snag easily still i just really like the sty this is a cute waffle t shi rt material is very thin and see through it s a cute shape and style but it runs absolutely huge \r\n is not a shirt for petite people\r\n the extra extra small was huge i am so in love with th is skirt but unfortunately it runs at least one size small since i am a 16 there is no sizing up the color quality and style are perfection but i would say this runs as more true to junio r s sizing than a regular women s size so sad because it will be going back color was a perfec t match for the linen slacks i wanted to pair it with however the top was way say too big so i ll be sending it back i like this top a lot very nice i love the design style and fabric b ut it runs too small i have a curvy figure and it pulls in the front so you can see between th e buttons and pulls at the bottom as well i usually wear l or xl in xl this one was still a b it fitted especially around the bust i am still keeping it hoping to lose a few pounds but i t is a very nice top with the fabric design and style very stylish it looks casual on the mo del but can be dressy great skirt can be dressy work or casual love it i purchased this lov ely blouse to go with slim cropped stretchy pants good for bum coverage while still looking sle ek and tailored i purchased the medium instead of small as this is a true fitted button up styl e and i wanted to avoid the gaping at bust the arm holes are fitted nicely as well no bra expo sure looks very nice on on point for sure \r\n for reference i m 5 5 34dd ruler shaped fig ure narrow shoulders and usually a small or medium at retailer i saw this top in my local stor e and almost didn t try it on solely because i hate split sleeve cold shoulder tops but the pe plum style and pattern were so cute that i took it into the dressing room anyway after trying o n probably 6 8 items i wound up buying this top and one other i really like the fit as i am h igh waisted and it defines my waist really well the wide neck is also super flattering and i love the pattern i went ahead and purchased despite the fact that i wasn t thrille i love this shirt i received many compliments on it when i wore it to work with a skirt this top is way cu ter in real life it looks a little frumpy on the model but t is very flattering on the sleeves are split so not a warm top but this will be a nice transitional piece i am always looking for interesting but classy tops to war to work and this fits the bill the sherpa vest i received fr om retailer was the color the model is wearing the same hue and shade of both the faux shearli ing and faux leather i m very satisfied with the vest i believe it runs a bit large i usually wear a large sometimes an extra large yet the m l fit me fine shearling is very in this year a nd this will complete your look wearing either pants or skirts i love the style easy to wear t o work or out for an evening great quality love the material and style a very versitile skir t however doesn t fit well for those who don t look good in the slimmer looking pencil skirts this is an intriguing looking skirt with it s sharp diagonal and the quilted optic pattern fr ont panel it s a nice twist on a black pencil skirt i ve been wearing it with a longer wrap s weater in the cold but imagine that i ll be able to wear it into the spring and maybe even year round with lighter weight tops the fabric is a little thin in the back and the diagonal doesn t lie as straight or look as sharp as i d like but for the sale price i paid i really shouldn t c omplain it s also this top is really comfortable and the details make it easy to add interest to an outfit i was worried all the details together would be a bit overwhelming but it works i wish the design was on the back as well but it s fine the material is a nice light weight b ut the pleats do fold up a little after washing so ironing is required retailer does it again i m constantly looking for pieces that will work for a day at the office and then a night out a nd this skirt is perfect you can t really tell in the pictures but there is a larger slit that separates the grey material from the black which makes the skirt have more of a statement it r uns true to size and the material is thick enough that it will do great in winter this skirt is great and you can t beat it for the price it fits more like a pencil skirt on me and looks sor t of a line on the model very nice work appropriate skirt though the slit comes higher than i expected my thighs are tattooed so i put on some black tights and it looks great with a blouse and cardigan it fits great it is super comfortable have gotten many compliments on how this s kirt looks on me this blouse is a great transitional piece as other reviewers have noted the sleeves are split and that s the only reason why it gets four stars instead of five i wore it w ith a 3 4 sleeve black top underneath to eliminate this issue for the cooler months overall des ign is good and the print is classy and creative this will be a lovelyt go to blouse to wear wi th denim fits the budget too this top is prettier in person than on the picture the picture k ind of makes the material look really cheap it actually looks nice in person it s very comfy and feminine showing just the right amount of skin on the arms the elastic on the waist also m akes me look 3 lbs lighter it goes good with jeans or skirts this blouse is just so beautiful but i do love white blouses so that may influence my enthusiasm however once i buttoned it up it was just dreamy i have a long torso and am tall for a typical xs so it s often hard to find something that s the right length this is perfect it may overwhelm some ladies who are on the petite side of height but it s a rare find for me paired with a pair of cropped pants because i d come in a dress it looks delightfully vintage in the best of ways i m sti very flatttering skirt super cute highly recommend this is a high quality swimsuit that can be worn inside out easy to wear colors fantastic pattern placement the other side is an intense blue i woul d suggest going by the size chart on the mara hoffman site \r\n \r\n i think this should look g reat on athletic figures the back is low cut and the bottom has medium coverage not as skimpy as brazilian cut bottoms not ideal for hour glass figures as there is no bust support and you will show quite a bit from the side it is cut in at the front w wearing this today it fits tru e is size is machine washable the slits make it unique don t hesitate to purchase this one i really liked this top but it was very expensive even when on sale and it ended up being boxy i am flat chested 32a 5 7 if i remember correctly i tried on the xs it was cute but it w asn t flattering because it was so boxy on my frame perhaps it d be more flattering on other bo dy shapes i think it would be cuter if it was a bit more fitted otherwise the quality seemed great though i d be worried about all the beading falling off eventually this is the perfect s weater dress for any occasion i dressed it up with a belt and necklace for a christmas party an d wore it with boots to just kick around the house it s a really warm dress too so great for c older weather probably would not want to wear this dress in warm temps \n\nit s so comfortable and it s made with high quality material i m curvy on the bottom and my only wish is that this dress had less material around my waist it s a pretty straight cut nan i loved the way this sw eater was made my arms are really short so the sleeves were way too long and looked silly roll ed i purchased the white in the store in a size 6 34d i ordered the black online in a 6 and t he lining was a bit snug i can maybe remove the black lining however i really like how the p eplum looks the v neck and bra friendly design are a perfect marriage i see wearing these thro ugh the fall with a denim jacket or cardigan for now i am enjoying how floaty and feminine i fe el i think this is a perfect top for women with a larger chest as it gives a nice shape but doe sn t look maternity or b i had been looking for this dress in xs the small ran large on me and xs had sold out online i d been searching for it calling every store around and not having any luck when allison called me from store 428 highland village in houston she had found the dre ss for me in the woodlands i was able to purchase it and i can t wait to get it it will be p erfect for the hot summer here in texas thank you allison for such great customer service and r etailer for employing such great staff this dress has the perfect amount of swing to it that it hides a stomach which i looooove the blue chambray color is beautiful and it is lined partial ly so here s what i don t like this dress would have been so much better fully lined now it could just be that i am extra sensitive to fabric and find it to be a bit itchy where the ruchin g is on the upper back of the dress but i somehow can t get myself to take it off the hanger to wear it i may just be returning this dress i tried this on in store in blue and it s so com fortable it s just the right level of loose to be flattering for me the cap sleeves were a li ttle strange they just didn t sit in a way that was flattering or seemed purposeful not sure i f that was the design or my body i just bought this dress today and it is absolutely stunning it looks so much better in person than on the model i think it runs true to size however it do es have relaxed fit overall the dress has nice quality fabric and nice flow without adding bu lk great buy this is a perfect outer layer for chilly mornings or nights the detail on the ba ck and sleeves is definitely retailer quality the sleeves do run a little long though i adore this dress as a mom of two under 2 i need things that are cute but no fuss this is exactly t hat piece beautifully lined breezy linen fabric machine washable and flattering the catch i s finding the right size to flatter i m 5 7 and 128 found my normal size small to be really b ig everywhere i went with the xs to avoid issues in the shoulders but i maybe could have gone even smaller fabric doesn t have a lot of give so if you are large in the chest my guess woul d be a possi i loved this dress online however i did not love it on me it was a bit snug in th e waist and bust i usually order a 2 or 4 but got the dress in a 4 i thought i would love the mid length but it felt awkward on me i m 5 10 i think its a beautiful dress just didn t work for me nice quality too big for my taste really liked the style but sleeves were very long t his cardigan is so much more beautiful in person i thought it would be very lightweight but it has a nice weight to it this will go with absolutely everything and looks lovely on such a cut e dress but it runs large i m 5 4 130 lbs and am typically a size 4 can wear a size 2 in certa in clothes i tried on the xs and it was still too big i would of bought it in an xxs but they are sold out really a comfy laid back dress that would be comfortable in summer if they get mo re xxs i ll buy it i love this sweater it does run a little large though fits beautifully gr eat for cool summer nights and early fall dress up or down i got the brown one and i m very pl ease with the softness of the thread and the light weight feel of the fabric this is the perfec t day dress loose fit comfortable fabric i usually wear a m or l in most dresses of this type but the s actually was the best fit i have worn it all summer and it s perfect for hot weather just order smaller love this tank the cotton is very soft which also allows some flow i ve w orn this to yoga and to teach barre and cardio dance and it s a hit as a life long dancer thi s was a must have my only negative is since the sizing is either xs s or m l it may run too bi g or too small for some i tyically wear a m or 6 in retailer tops and this is a little large in m l however not to the point of being distracted with straps falling or the like highly recom mend i am a size 14 and tall i was afraid that it would be too short the sales clerk grab bed a large and it fit it s airy and lightweight and hugs nicely around the back the big su rprise pockets love it i thought this sweater was cute online but turns out it is even cuter in person the cotton linen blend makes it easy to layer over a tee shirt or blouse and the neu tral color goes with everything \r\nas a side note included with my sweater was a signed postca rd informing me that this item was not on hand at their distribution center so they sounded th e horns and their spokane wa store saved the day thank you spokane wa store and thank you meredith for packing with care \r\ni love it really great pair of pants leggings considering a second pair great flattering fit i ordered the petite as well because i was concerned about the length but the stride on the petite a was to short and the regular was not too long after al l i have a mixed feeling about this cardigan \r\non one hand i like it on the other hand the re are some minor things i do not like \r\nfirst i love its knit pattern especially the patter n on the back \r\nsecond i like a soft color of this cardigan \r\non website pictures two moti fs look almost the same \r\nin reality brown motif is light pink ish while blue motif is light blue green ish \r\nthird texture \r\nthis cardigan is made of linen and cotton so it feels com fortable to wear \r\nif there are flaws i saw this online visited my local retailer found it it is the most beautiful shade of blue nicely textured material i am 5 7 and 148 pds i bough t the xs and it fits perfect definately designed for us smaller busted gals i bought this in t he blue and you should definitely size down it runs very large it s amazingly comfortable and high quality great length as well not too short and not too long it has a partial lining so it s not necessary to wear a slip which i love i get compliments every time i wear it even one of the saleswomen in retailer asked me where i got the dress she was surprised when i told her it was from retailer from online i liked it so much i just ordered the red plaid this is a cut e sweater i agree that it s slightly boxy partly because of the side pockets which i think are cute the yellow is darker than it appears on my screen more like a mustardy gold which is not great on my skin tone i think it s true to size i got my usual retailer size xspetite i m 34 aa 26 waist and it fits just right it s soft and a nice medium weight on the packaging it w as called a bomber so i d say it is cut a little like a bomber jacket i m a 36ddd and although that s pretty large i don t generally have trouble fitting into most retailer clothing the tr acy reese amoret dress for example fits just fine in my regular size so i ordered this dres s in my regular size well i tried it on and the right and left sides of the front closure on top were literally about 10 inches apart there was no way this would fit even if i went up 3 sizes it s crazy \nthis is a terrible shame because it s really a lovely dress and it fits j th ese pants are so soft and comfortable i m almost 5 6 and the hem completely covers my ankles b ut does stop short of bunching the only thing i m not crazy about is the waist it s pretty hig h and a bit loose so every time i get up from sitting i m having to pull my pants back up other than that love that it s something that can be dressed up or down this is a nice sweater runs a little larger than size cute dress i say true to size but keep in mind it is loose and flo wy and i purchased in my usual size medium and it fits perfectly it s lined so there is no need for a slip very comfortable and cool i am 5 6 and it is 3 above knee i paired it with the g emline lariat turquoise necklace and have already received several compliments and my day is onl y 1 2 over \r\na great priced dress which holds true to retailer s quality and uniqueness of ite ms offered i was swayed to buy this via the reviews on the site and they are all correct it is a beautiful piece i got the brown colored one but it is pretty much exactly the color in the picture more of a khaki \r\n\r\nit is a gorgeous sweater the sleeves are very long but e asy to push up if they re too much for you it is also very long which i prefer but on shorter gals it may be overwhelming it s a perfect shell for cooler summer nights and it dresses up a b asic outfit caught my eye at checkout and had to run back to the dressing room for a quick try on which ended up being a great call the dress is super easy and flattering as the lining kee ps it skimming over my hourglass shape the fabric has a sweet floral texture and the gathering takes a basic shape and makes it interesting i m 5 4 and it came just above the knee in front while the back was a bit longer another flattering feature this is going to be a summer go to loved the grey color and the design but the shirt ran huge i ordered a 2 and it fit me like an extra large i am 5 2 about 110 pounds and not flat chested i usually wear a 6 for skirts and dresses but when i got this in the mail it ended up fitting a bit snug on my hips other than that its super cute and has a great liner underneath these are a nice option if you want crops that are shorter than the typical mid calf length but you don t want short shorts they hit rig y be my favorite retailer buy of the season this sweater is one of a kind just like many pieces from retailer the design is super cute the color is perfect and others dont like the sheer mate rial however for me since it s not see through i really like it the reason for a return is they sent me the wrong size ordered a small i checked my order and i got a xs petite so sad since large is the only size left i love love love this dress for everyday running around or you can dress it up with jewelry or a scarf so boho and so comfortable buying the other color now i l oved the color it is different than in the picture and texture of this cardigan it was very s oft and comfortable to wear nan this dress was huge i m normally an extra small and i was swi mming in it the xxs was sold out but i think it would of been huge as well this sweater runs large and long in the arms i am 5 5 and often wear petite in pants but not tops the medium pe tite is perfect the sweater is a beautiful open gauge knit and will be great this fall winter f or work over a tank and nice pants the blue color is more of a mint green blue very pretty and different than anything i have in my closet great addition purchased this in the blue color in the store today honestly if i had just seen it online i would not have given it a second look it really is beautiful in person the bell sleeves are delicate as well as the pattern throughou t the sweater it fits true to size i would wear it open with a colorful tank underneath perha ps if you are very tall and very thin you may opt to hook it closed the sizing is perfect it f lows and i really have to say you must see this in person to really appreciate i originally saw the sweater in one of the stores it really is much nicer in person than online i decided to tr y it on while there but was looking for other items not sweaters then i normally wear between xs and s depending on the brand well even the xs was too big i thought i d order it in a peti te size since i am short but forgot about it once i got home with some other retailer items i e ventually did search it out but the xs petite was already sold out i ordered the xxs this fits but i i ordered this for my mom in color blue motif i could not see a difference online betwe en the colors brown motif and blue motif both looked grey to me in real life blue motif l ooks grey with a very light bluish tinge to it it looks like grey wool and light grey bluish fi ber was interwoven but you have to look very closely to see that i guess i would have prefered a pure white or cream color but that is a matter ot your pesonal taste i guess the cardigan sty le is an oversized one t easy breezy summer dress love the detailing under the arms comfy and lightweight beautiful blue color sleeves are a bit long but not a bother to me i love he ss overalls they are true to size and have a great vintage look to them but done in a classic w ay i am 5 6 125lbs and a 34b i bought the xs and it fit great they are fitted and not sloppy like a lot of overalls you can easily dress them up or down soft and stretchy material is a pl us nan my bra size is a 36 c i got the medium and the dress buttoned looked nothing like the mo del the top button barely buttoned this is a a great piece i tried it on in denim and went out and ordered the red checked print this was so cute i loved it in the red checked a nd then ordered the denim it can be dressed up or down it is comfortable and there is an ed gy quality to the look you can wear heals and a statement necklace and it really is dressed up order a size down and it works well thank you retailer these leggings are gorgeous soft sue de feel perfect fit great look especially for dressing up and going out love them i just re ceived this in the green color it is a true medium jade green my monitor shows a blue color an d that is what i expected the green is pretty but i would have preferred the blue that was show n i found this to fit large the pockets that are barely visible in any of the photos gape ope n and don t lie flat i do like this sweater as a very casual jacket alternative on cooler days the cashmere is a nice weight and is not too precious to wear every day with jeans i never noti ced this sweater online but when i saw it in the store it was love at first sight i agree with other reviewers that the color description is odd the brown is a very pale gray and the blue is a light mint green the sweater is very delicate looking and fits true to size the sleeves are very long covering my hands and i have long arms it does have enough body to make a large rol l at the cuff i do have a couple of issues that aren t related specifically to this sweater ev en tho this dress is gorgeous it looks exactly as it appears on model the model must be wearin g a petite because the regular size dress is maxi length on anyone 5 8 the petite is midi lengt h and is perfect every where else i am not petite but this petite worked perfect on me for mid i length \npros of dress\nthe dress has nice light float fabric with colorblind on bottom for a touch of modern \nthe dress looks very dowton abby and the vintage look is hard to find now days in dress \nthe dress looks fa i love this tank its something you can dress up with a skirt or wear over jeans i like loose fitting tops although i have a slender frame this is also so com fortable i went with a size medium and it fits perfect i love the color of this cardigan and the cashmere is very soft i love the detail in the stitching and how the zipper is covered i d o wish it were a bit longer but it s definitely a keeper just bought this top today at our loca l store it s just gorgeous on i m a 34dd and bought the size small and it fits perfectly if y ou re small chested you can probably size down as it runs nice and full for a larger bust it s so feminine and pretty on a must for any wardrobe i recently noticed that my trusty black card igan that i ve had for years was getting thin in the elbows and just kind of ragged so out i went on the long journey to find the perfect cardigan with detail this cardigan fit the bill w ith a perfect fit and lovely texture making it not just your average sweater to go with my sty le can t say anything bad about it this dress was love at first sight i did have to size dow n from my normal size but the dress is so comfortable and cool as another reviewer said it do es shrink after first wash but perfect now since i am 5 2 it shrank about one inch in length only i got many compliments and my husband said it was beautiful that s a plus i was comfort able and cool all day get it before it is out of stock this dress will not make it to sale i love this dress my bra straps do not show in the back you can slightly see them in the front but wearing black or nude gets you around this problem i love the slim design it is very flatte ring i tried this is my normal size 4 but also the 4 petite the petite did not work for me sin ce there is a larger fabric cutout for the butt area this was too high and above my natural wast s so flattering and sexy beautiful flower applique on the hips everything about this dress is magnificent i have to agree with people who are saying this dress runs small in the hips even a size 0 is typically roomy on me when it comes to dresses at retailer but a size 4 in this wou ld have been best on my hips the size 2 was just a smidge too tight looking and loose on the up 15 lbs 26 5 in waist 30 dd this precious skirt is a treasure chest of soft bronze fabric cir cles scattered like coins at the bottom of a fountain the circles are a bronze color and cannot be felt through the skirt net it s finely finished and simply a nice piece for dinner out or a day in the office i received many compliments on my first wearing beautiful dress but the fit was off for me overall this is good quality with beautiful lace detail as the other reviewer m entioned the cutout in the back is very cute i wanted to love this dress but i found it to run large in the top i m 5 6 130lb with 34c and i ordered the small the top just hung off of me p erhaps it would have been better with an xs i can t say enough good things about this piece hi gh quality in structure and design when i initially put it on i worried that i might have order ed a size too small so i was pleasantly surprised to realize this dress fits like a glove but h as enough give in all of the right places to let you eat dance breath etc i received tons of compliments \nof note i am 128 lbs and 5 5 i wore a size 4 \nwanting another event that i can wear this to as i wore it to a work xmas party this has a wonderful texture and feel to it the leather dots are supple and the tulle is soft and flowey it s long more like a midi skirt an d the color is more towards taupe than ivory \nwith a shimmer this skirt is very fun to wear i love this shirt and although it is see through a tank works great under it to wear to work the buttons on the back are sewn on really well and it comes down far enough is not too short i am about 5 4 and 100 pounds the 00 was tight on my neck so i kept a 0 otherwise the 00 would hav e fit fine since its a blousy shirt and would not have been too tight in the shoulders or armpit s i bought this top in taupe and love the style it s not too boxy or long cotton is always a plus and i just wish there were more colors this is beautiful and the leather metallic circles are sewn on really well i checked a bunch of them because initially that was my concern that on e would get caught on someone s clothes the 6 fits perfect 5 9 and 140 lbs goes really well with the dark denim shirt that they displayed in store definitely a fun piece for the holiday s eason i adore this skirt it is so soft and flowy i was not sure if the mesh would be a bit s tiff but it s not at all the dots are soft as is the main fabric i could wear this all day lo ng and be very comfy the underlying fabric is a bit more taupe than gold in color i am between sizes to i sized up and was glad i did no pinch at the waist i love that it s feminine yet fun ky and could be worn formally or in fun it is midi length as you see on the model absolutely a great buy this sweater looks alot better in person the picture online doesn t do it justice this can be used both as a sweater or even like a lightweight jacket a very versatile piece add ed to the wardrobe definitely worth the markdown price \nonly con is that it has some fluffy p kled shorts and the fringe gives these shorts a fun and playful look just perfect for a stroll on the beach or shopping with your girlfriends i know these shorts are going to be a staple in my summer wardrobe for years can i have these in more colors and patterns too ordered these pants in an xs 5 5 110lbs they fit well in the waist but are quite long so i roll the wai st band down once they are super fun funky i mainly plan to wear them around my house so i don t mind rolling the waist band if i were going to wear them out i d probably have to pair w the body of the shirt is more loose fitting i m very excited to wear this top this summer i ha ven t worn and washed it yet so i am hoping the color and material will hold up after washing i am i think the fabric is very nice and soft i find this top runs very large i am 5 2 130l normally wear a small in a shirt i should have ordered xs it is very large i actually looked t o see if they sent me the wrong size the shoulder area fits fine i may try tucking it in othe r than size a nice top i m not sure why they call this black because what you see in this pic tures depicted is pretty much the shade in person the fabric itself is lovely it made my wider hips look smaller \n\n \npros \n drapes beautifully on the body especially for cu rvier gals \n not black but a deep navy velvet look and feel \n very forgiving and stretchy \n perfect length in front and back \n hides imperfections wonderfully \n soft flows well and u s compliments get one now before they re gone also it is supposed to be tied in front i m 5 3 and the small petite is just perfect great little spring top the fabric is soft and the drape is of the fabric is just right it is very loose without making it look like a maternity top and the length hits me right at the top of the hipbone for reference i am in my 50 s 5 1 and weig h in the150 s i normally wear medium size and this one was no exception the blue is a beautifu l cobalt color i am super happy with the t shirt it fits true to size and the cut outs are a great detail i m thinking about buying another despite the fact that this jacket is made fro m a gorgeous ottoman looking knit fabric and has perfect fit nice arm length looks good on th e hanger the jacket did me no justice at all it arrived folded in the mail so i had to press down the unruly pleats before i could try it on you have to do this with nearly every item you buy online that comes folded flat and stuck in a cellophane bag so i pressed the jacket trie d to neaten the pleats but to no avail the pleats would not stay put this shirt looked so perfe ct on the model and i was so excited to get it when i received it it was so soft and the colo r was so vibrant the only thing is it s too big it kind of looks like a maternity shirt it w ill definitely have to be taken in on the sides for me but i m happy with it other than that i m normally a l xl but m would have been perfect this time even on sale i was hesitant about pay ing so much for a blouse but i m so happy i did the fabric looks as high quality in person as it does in the picture and it isn t see through the main color of the top is less powder pink and more nude in my opinion but the color is lovely and the various purples and grays of the ar row details really pop the buttons down the back are a fun cute detail and tone down the more professional look of this blouse in order to wear it with jeans for going out love the pattern on this lightweight cardigan and it is super flattering i tried ordering the xs s first because the next size up just sounded too big but i ultimately had to order up for more room in shoulde rs and length in arms though i m hoping the m l fits without too much spare fabric because it really is a great piece picked this up at the store in my usual size small it fit perfectly i am a 34d and the buttons closed with no gap the length was just above the ankle and the fit is slim so comfy my guess is this is going to sell out because everyone including the sa s wanted to buy one loved the color too very versatile i picked this up unexpectedly and whisked it int o the dressing room a long with a handful of other things today \r\ni noticed right away how sof t it was so comfy i have never owned a romper before so i wasn t expecting to like it i was so wrong i m sorry romper i love you \r\ni plan on debuting this little number with a cropped cream cardigan jacket and taupe booties and some layered necklaces for my brother in law s casua l weddingrehearsal dinner \r\nliving in las vegas though i can definite these pants are extrem ely comfortable and flattering i bought them in coral and wore with a black peasant top sanda ls and a long necklace they do stretch out a lot though so i would recommend sizing down i bo ught mine to look like they fit on the model and after a few hours they were hanging off of me so buy them a little bit tighter than you like the drawstring is purely decorative and does not tighten the waist the is a cute dress with a great pattern and nice material it would look gre at on the right kind of figure i m 5 7 and slim but at thirteen weeks pregnant and not showin g the skirt made me look about thirty weeks pregnant but the top fit just fine nan love these pants i bought them in two colors flattering fitting im 5 4 120lbs 36 hip i bought these in size 25 sometimes i don t like petit sizing but these petite at 30 long inseam still gave me e nough length to wear with heals there is the usual good and bad with linen after you wear the m once you need to iron because they look too wrinkled and worn the linen is light and washed unfortunately i don t think these pants will hold up for more than a two years i ll love them w hile i just received this dress today i bought it for a vacation we are taking to mexico i wan ted a nice coverup \r\nthis is beautiful fits nicely without looking like a tent \r\ni would hi ghly recommend \r\nthis is one size fits all is it just me i love these pants i bought them i n 2 sizes first my normal size and then down one size because although they fit perfect in the store with in a hour of wearing them around the house they had stretched out so much that i co uld not keep them up so i purchased the smaller size same color and they stretched out just l ike the first pair so disappointing i took them to my seamstress and she took them in 2 inches in the waist and now at least i can wear them all day not sure if love this sweater fits perf ect flattering and soft i got it in both colors it is a true staple this jumpsuit is very co mfortable the material is soft the waist is elasticised it is not drawstring as it seems in th e photos a perfect go to top looks great with jeans dark faded or bright white top it wit h a cardigan or wear it bare it offers a flattering fit with its high quality textured fabric i normally wear a small or medium top an extra small fits me perfectly absolutely love this dr ess maeve dresses have always been constructed with great care and quality i am and always hav e been a size med in maeve dresses the dress is soft and flowing the fabric is very forgiving and moves with you i recommend trying on a dress by this maker their cuts are consistent so i feel extremely confident in buying their clothes online this is a keeper and can be worn y ear round the photos do not do this skirt justice i m so glad i picked it up in the store as i would not have given it a second look online it is soft stretchy forgiving and one of the most versatile pieces in my closet i dressed it up for an evening event and can t wait to throw it on with a tee and jean jacket love it this is a super cute romper very casual very comfor table i feel it runs a bit big because i tried on an xs i m usually a small 4 6 it fit perfe ctly except for the inseam on the legs i am 5 8 5 tall but mostly legs as opposed to being l ong waisted i wear a 33 inseam with flats if the bottom of the legs were not elasticized i could have just gone with a cropped look or rolled them etc but the elastic was digging into m dered pullover in the store it instantly caught my attention since it was pricey i didn t get it when it went on sale it ran out in my size so recently i was fortunate enough to get the s ame style embroidered birds pullover in the store for 20 off the sale price this shirt looks s o adorable on and is different than the typical sweatshirt i just tried this top on in xs regul ar even though i generally wear xspetite in retailer and it fit great 34aa 26 34 i think it s flattering on my fairly straight body with the halter neck fitted waist and peplum i woul d guess it would be flattering on many body types it highlights shoulders beautifully it was v ery hard to get my head through the small not too stretchy opening so you may want to try it on without makeup i knocked off one star because the neck band wasn t symmetrical i love everythi ng about this jumper it s so comfortable without being too warm it s easy to dress up with bo oties and a hat i suppose the only possible downside is that it s slightly tight at the ankles but honestly this is like a dream this is adorable i got it to wear on the plane for an upco ming vacation this is definitely tts i am normally a medium and got the medium i am long wast ed and this fit just fine looks like it does on the model \r\nthe material is super soft too i t is also easy to get on and off which is sometimes difficult with rompers \r\nplan on wearing i t with gladiator sandals and a jean jacket this jumpsuit is so so comfy i can t wait to wear it def runs on the large size this skirt fits great the thick material helps it lay nicely and sm ed this top so much i ended up buying both of the designs they are so cute and eye catching a nd the layered look is really fun it fit me very well i am so happy with this jumpsuit it is the perfect comfortable and casual summer outfit the fabric is super soft i was unsure about t he length at first because it s shorter than my other jumpsuits but if you scrunch up the botto m of the legs and add some sandals it s a great look \r\nhighly recommend pros material is a mazing super soft and quality thickness but not like uber this just enough it will last al so seems like it won t wrinkle much which would make it a great dress to throw in a bag for a tr ip fits well in the shoulders chest and the length is good \r\n\r\ncons the waist line is r \ni ll pro i finally broke down and went on a christmas shopping spree at retailer for myself wi th hubby in tow as they are gifts from him \nthe skirt is a beautiful dark navy super soft knit very long with a texture pattern i am 5 9 and have put on a few pounds lately but typical wear and 8 10 and bought the large because i didn t want to try it on it works for me because i don t like skirts to cling to much even my pencil skirts i like a more loose fit normally id say a medium would probably f i adore this dress it has a fairly thick material which helps the skir t stay full and is very flattering if like me your thighs or tummy can be a problem area in dr esses the only downside for me is the fact that i have fairly narrow shoulders so the seam for the sleeves tends to stick out a bit i get lots of compliments on this one this jumpsuit is so so cute i tried it on in an xs in store but needed a petite i ordered the xsp online received it but honestly it s still a little big the xxsp is sold out but i love the piece so much i t hink i m going to have it taken in trust me it s just as cute as it looks if not cuter i m a stay at home mom always on the lookout for something casual interesting yet put together it s preppy yet quirky with the embroidery i love this shirt great with jeans can take you from shopping to playground and lunch without feeling under or overdressed anywhere the sparkle from the embroidered birds gives it spunk to not make it look too boring and predictable at the same time it isn t something that screams look at me a perfect mix i don t have anything like the se pants so was thrilled to purchase the coral i found the pants ran slightly large though i s tuck with my regular 28 and they are very comfortable i tried these on in the store today and fell in love they fit drape beautifully and are incredibly comfortable while looking stylish i m 5 7 and 128 lbs and the 27 a 4 i guess fit perfectly sadly i can t afford them full pri ce so will keep my eye on them in case they go on sale great elastic fit might size down i m usually a size 2 in bottoms or a 26 in jeans and i bought the xs it s perfect and goes great wi th boots i love this sweater love the length it s a bit loose and delicate compared to what i usually wear but looks great with boots and leggings love the sheer fabric across the bottom of the back the loose bows on the sides and the drape of the fabric all combine to make a grea t sweater runs true to size has a loose fit but you don t feel like you are drowning in fabric like some loose fitting cardigans love love love i got this jumper right before it started g etting hot and it has been my go to all summer fun night out with the girls perfect walking around the mall awesome at work with a green vest super every time i wear this i get ton s of compliments did i mention it feels like you re wearing pajamas which in my book is everyth ing get it i purchased both colors offered and love this light weight full of neat detail piec e to layer with other tops the material is very soft and stretchy making it easy to wear over a nother item i love the little shirt tail detail in back along with the drawstring trim in front another piece that i am sure i will wear for years to come and the fit is true to size \nthanks antro i m 5 9 and this is a nice pencil fit sweater skirt that is soft not scratchy and long enough fun bias cut sweater pattern and pretty dark blue and black color i wanted this romper so bad after buying and loving a shirt from madewell made with the same fabric earlier this y ear i wish this romper was just a little bit longer and roomier i normally wear a size 10 or 1 2 and bought the large it fit me ok but i felt like i wanted it to be just a little bit more ov ersized around my hips and definitely wanted it to be longer in the legs retailer please stop with the capri lengths it s tired if you are narrow hipped you will fare much better the fa b this dress is flattering but size up tight through chest in my normal size i love this swea ter it s so fun and quirky and shakes up a regular sweater a little large but it fits the st yle the prints are very cute and flattering and the material is thick i m 5 2 107lb and 32c an d got the xsp my usual size the shoulders and sleeves fit perfectly the neckline is a little low questionable for work the fit however is off on the waist which is not as pictured it is more of an empire waist ad barely even clears my boobs so i doubt even a regular xs will cha nge this much it isnt a flattering look on my frame altho the prints hide it somewhat except f rom the side view also i wore this immediately after receiving it as a gift after wearing it for almost 2 hours the fabric started to pill between my legs where it rubs sucks i actually really love this jumper and it s very soft and comfortable just wish it would last longer i m going to be wearing this all the time this summer but i m pretty sure it will rub to the point where there will be holes in my pants between my legs \r\n\r\nonly complaint about sizing i s that the top is too big i m 5 2 135lbs 34a just love sweatshirts ponchos so what an unu sual twist of style ordered my usual size s during the promo looks pretty much as in the pic oversized arm openings are created by a string attached to the sides of the garment it s ok but may eventually break off maybe i ll secure w snaps or just sew it on by hand wore it yesterda y w just a tank underneath to lounge around later wore for casual dining it turned cooler c hanged to a grey t shirt underneath along w dark blue denim skinnys this is a cute casual romp er but i m on the fence about keeping it i hate when there is a pattern mismatch especially a cross the butt and that s why i m on the fence i bought my usual xs 0 5 7 115lbs 32b i w ould say that it is a little roomy around the bust if i keep it i might have to have it altere d slightly to stop my bra from showing this is the first jumpsuit that i have tried that actual ly accommodates my longer torso so many seem to ride up and that is not flattering \r\nwi i pu rchased the bird design top for my 17 year old daughter the fit was true to size and it s a ver y unique item for casual wear it looks nicer in person than in the photo the top is huge i we ar an xs and am not the bustiest of women but the top part of this romper felt like it belonged on a medium or large even though the bottoms and waist fit perfectly i was really disappointed as i loved it in every other way i m a big fan of level 99 jeans and linen pants these are gre at good quality flattering fit lovely color i got the coral in size 26 petite and that wor ks for me they do start out just a bit snug in the seat when i first put them on but they ll p retty quickly stretch out just enough to maintain shape without becoming baggy like my other le vel 99 linens something to keep in mind when trying to find your right fit i was a little wor ried that the drawstring meant there wouldn t be much this shirt runs a little big i bought it for my niece who usually wears a medium but the small fit her she is tall and this was a nice length on her it s very comfortable and is a a perfect staple to send her off to college with i paired it with the nouveau belt in silver as an option for her to wear it with great buy \r\nm y niece is 5 11 with an athletic build i do love this shirt but when it arrived it had make up around the collar apparently from someone else who had tried it on i was able to clean it u p with just soap and water so no big problem but it did make for a poor first impression i lov e this sweater it is very lightweight the knit is a wider weave so if you are cold natured be sure to layer and bring a jacket the fit is great it is very flattering on the back is lined and has the gray fabric that shows past the sweater hemline which adds to the uniqueness this c ould be dressed up or down i paired with a white tee and dark jeans and flats but will wear it next with nice pants and maybe a white collared blouse very happy with my purchase purchased t hese recently and loved the fit and feel upon trying them on i was hoping that unlike linen pan ts they d keep their shape no such luck after an hour or two in them they were hanging and sa gging this is after being a good snug fit i purchased my usual size and i d say they stretch ed at least a size or two bigger the color and feel of these is very nice and i see them being perfect for a very casual or slightly dressier outfit so i do recommend them however buy them small bec i vacillate betwixt saying this shirt runs large and small i usually wear a small in retailer items but the xs was all that was left in the charming bee print the fit is flatterin g even though it s smaller than my usual size conclusion runs large however when i went to p ut my head through the top of the shirt it was like being birthed conclusion runs small bott om line i m in love with this shirt and so i ll just have to get used to the faux birthing feel ing every time i put it o love this skirt very comfy looks like it s very expensive material b ut feels comfortable love this dress the color is beautiful runs large so size down the pic tures are not showing how absolutely spectacular this caftan is it is very delicate even says so on the tag and lightweight so that you won t dread wearing it in the heat of the day by wha t doesn t show up is that this caftan shimmers there is gold string woven throughout the entire garment which gives it a slight sheen it adds significantly to the impact of the garment and i love this detail i love the way this caftan drapes and i love that it is longer than a normal caftan the i bought this top for work but i can also wear it out with friends it is made well and has a lining that is comfortable and makes it flow nicely it will be nice for summer you c an tie the neck or just leave the ties down so it has options nan i was a bit hesitant to purch ase because of the other reviews but so glad i did i usually wear a 4 6 and the 6 fit great it feels like high quality and i think the shirt will work well for both work and casual events i have a long torso and don t find it too short at all it is a tad tight across the shoulders so if you are broad in that area it might not work for you overall love wonderful print and col or dress style is very boxy and oversized fabric is great but has no drape this is the most b eautiful bathing suit ive ever owned it is so unique and comfortable the fit and everything is just amazing so happy with this purchase i love this blouse i debated because of the cost bu t this is a top i will wear forever i have not found any of the issues other reviewers have fi t fine in the arms and the length was perfect and i have a long torso i wear it with a nude bra and i don t have any problems with its being see through i wore it to a party the other day and received several compliments i was also stopped in the store and asked where i got it it looks expensive and special i worn it with jean black jeans and ok so yes it is true that the top part where the sleeves are can be snug a little especially if you work out but overall i found the top to run true to my regular size i only tried on the 0 didn t try bigger the length wa s great for me being short i didn t think i need the petite i usually do for pants and skirts dresses tops on and off the look of the shirt is also classic flowy and it looked great with e half tuck the embroidery is also nice though one part of it seemed loose a i tried on the pi nk version really nice the fit is loose but flattering opening at the neck looks nice either tied or not fabric is airy it looked nice tucked in or with a wide leg pant i passed only bec ause the color wasn t as bright as i need for my pale skin overall very nice \r\n\r\nxs fit a t 115 lbs 30 dd 26 5 in waist this really is a beautiful blouse it s much prettier in person than in the photo the embroidery is delicate and the blouse is feminine is has a nice drape th at isn t boxy or flowy my only complaint is that it gaps widely right at the bust and i am not busty at all there is no pulling it together and smoothing it out it is just too tight and it has to be returned boooo nan i love this shirt bought it at the store i have a few shirts fro m this brand so i knew how it would fit i love the colors in this short it s very spring and l ight weight love it very much this shirt is so beautiful and fits perfectly it is so soft too i didn t expect it to be so soft love this swimsuit runs true to size definitely recommend v ery flattering for reference i have a straight athletic build i m 5 11 150 34c and size 8 was great for top and bottom i love this top it is modest enough for work but fun enough for weekends soft comfortable and lovely pink color i want it in every color it seems to only come in two colors though \r\nsoft flowy fabric is lined with a soft inner fabric as well su per flattering for any body type this is a true tiny top gorgeous and runs small i usua lly wear a small or medium in retailer tops but timy i always size up i m a 36c and a large f its perfect the front is a bit sheer but not so much you need a cami love this top very femi nine and looks cute with heels and jeans or can be worn more casually too bought this in the si lvery grey color in the store yesterday and i have to say the photos don t do this top justice it hangs beautifully is nicely lined and is well made i will leave the ties hanging rather th an tied it isn t too long but long enough and has a nice swing i m short waisted and large br easted and this top is super flattering on me love these i call them my work overalls because thats pretty much what they are the pictures of course don t show it but the sides are cut all the way to the waist band at the beginning of the pant they were very flattering and quite comf y these are just something easy to throw on and go to work in i ordered these in a medium and they fit me perfectly i do wish the top area was slightly wider to accommodate larger busts i love this top so much i tried it on twice because i forgot why it didn t work the first time i have a chest i m just a c cup but i looked lumpy and matronly in this top if that s not an is sue for you i think you ll love it usually can just buy tiny shirts knowing that they will fit me and this one is beautiful but if you have any type of chest it will not work i m a 34d an d it\r\nwas way too small in the chest area it is a beautiful shirt though and i m very sad th at i have to return it it will work better on someone else for sure so i recommend this beau tiful shirt for someone with a different body type from mine hi i love this top it not only i s femine but it is wee bit sexy it could be worn in the office then out for happy hour for me this is the perfect tshirt love the shape size material etc just really like it flattering and good quality this is one of my favorite tops i have it in two colors it s almost like a s wing look yet it still feels like it gives me a shape to my body very easily paired with a ski nny jean i paid full price for th two but now i m sure i ll buy the third on sale this dress is super super pretty it is very dull light blue grey very romantic with the black blow very very pretty i love it my only complaint is that it balloons up a bit due to the fabric it i s very fitted for me i think if it were a tad loose fitting it would not balloon up around the curves as much it is short and comes a little above the knees i love this dress for it s roman tic look it can be paired with leggings as well can t wait to wear it very cute a size small worked perfectly for me fits like a glove it has open sides so i wear a tank top under it lov e this shirt bought this shirt returning this shirt believe this and the other reviewers who say it runs small especially through the bust and even if you re not busty it s now sold out in my size wish i d gotten a bigger size that i could keep the pullover is very light weight m aterial so great for fall or spring it hangs nicely in front and back and is slimming i ordere d a medium other than the sleeves are not as long on me as the model it fits perfectly beautifu l and comfortable although it is a lot looser at the bottom than pictured and the slit on the sides is quite high not deal breakers though such a pleasant surprise i saw this in the store and had to try it on it looks and feels like a lightweight real suede the color is a wonderful neutral much prettier than what i am seeing in the pic here fits tts although i will wear 0 2 petites in dresses and some pants i found the regular xs to be just right i was able to purchas e this on sale and i m so glad i did i usually go between a size s and m 133 lbs 5 5 34 d but the small fits perfectly the color really isn t dark orange as stated kind of a cross between rose pale red salmon but i really love the color it s not super heavy weight but not r eally thin either actually perfect these shorts were beautiful love the material and the w ay they fit the drawstring makes them very adjustable i ordered a bunch of clothing from retai ler last week and this is by far my favorite purchase the detail is gorgeous it s very soft and figure flattering nan softest cardigan i ve had in a long time fits a little bit on the la rge side especially in the sleeve length but who doesn t love a big cozy sweater this is a gr eat way to add some color to any fall outfit highly recommend this one all i wish is that it c ame in more colors it turned out exactly as i d hoped very well made and very classy this j acket is the best definitely my staple jacket for the spring it is so comfortable and soft i usually wear a small in retailer clothing but i opted for the medium in this so there s a littl e room for layering even with the extra room it is so flattering i absolutely love this jacke t i love this tank it is casual and comfortable but has the little scarf attached to it so s weet and styling i tried on the xs regular and would need petite it was a bit long on me but some people may prefer that i also wonder about getting xxs only because it is a looser fit tan k both colors are nice and neutral good piece to add to a transition wardrobe 115 lbs 30 dd 26 5 in waist trying the gray version on in the store i found that the size of the armholes va ried greatly within the same size i am a 32c 5 6 120 lbs bought the size s the top looks g reat with a faded denim skirt and is also appropriate for office environment i also ordered the ivory in a s but again the armholes were so large that i had to return it if you decide to tr y this top order it in multiples of two sizes to find one that fits your arms i have other pai rs of stevie jeans and looked forward to receiving these i would say that they run about a size large compared to my other pairs i am 5 2 and ordered a petite but i found the length to be a bout 2 3 inches too long as compared to how they look on the model also the rise is relativel y low otherwise the quality is great and the denim is very soft i will probably return these given that i am not wowed love the short in the front long in the back look it has an almost glittery look really roomy i would size down really comfy and pretty fits nicely and made wi th high quality material it definitely makes you look very put together with some nice slacks f or work the scarf is a very nice detail and actually doesn 39 t look like it is a part of the shirt love i bought this during the 20 off and i m glad i did the sweater does run large so i would recommend sizing down i m 5 4 135 lbs with a larger bust 34d and even the size smal l is large on me not large enough to exchange but i would probably do better with an xs even with an xs i would still get that oversized look the color is not exactly as pictured it is a brighter yellow in person i was expecting more of a muted soft baby yellow and that s not ex actly what this is some pros a this jacket is as cute as it looks in the picture color is very close too i normally wear a 4 6 top sometimes s sometimes m the small looked great until i t ried to raise my arms the cut runs a bit small acrossed the back i love this jacket though the m fits nicely and i highly recommend it bought this in store at full price it s that prett y black white embroidery pintucks throw it on with capris and flats and you are polished a nd comfy my only prob was i had to buy a little large size 8 as size 6 was already sold out

\r\ni am 5 5   130 lbs really love this jacket i agree with the previous review that while t he x small fits great when i am standing it is a little hard to raise my arms in it however i t is great to wear over a dress or with jeans at the office great quality lined with jersey i ve gotten many compliments   5 8 120 lbs xsmall this is a gorgeous shirt it actually looks m ore fitted on than in this picture where it looks more shapeless even though i love tunics th e online picture wasn t appealing to me   but when i saw the shirt in store and tried it on i l oved it wore it to work today and loved it even more it s great quality gorgeous design love ly tailoring and details throughout i have many pairs of ag jeans   mostly stevie s   harper s and while they re comfortable i am always glad to take them off at the end of the day these je ans are different the fabric is very very soft   feels like it s been washed   worn dozens of times but the color   finish of the jean looks polished   spiffy enough to wear for evenings ou t or casual friday and the fit is perfect once i went up a size slim and figure hugging but n ot at all constricting my regular stevie s always fe i have several pairs of ag jeans and am al ways pleased with them i had to get these when i saw them in the store i m a sucker for cuffed jeans in the spring i also love the dark wash i was surprised when i tried on my usual size 27 that they were too tight i ended up going with a size 28 for reference i am 5 4 122 lbs this dress is perfect for weekend errands or i could see dressing it up as well the material is a he avier weight will not wrinkle and the pockets are an added bonus i purchased the small in this dress and it is perfect for reference 32d 27 35 these jeans are one of my all time favorite ag jeans comfortable denim dark rinse wide cuffs are fashionable but still classy wear them all the time i had been looking for a jacket like this for months but haven t found the right style until i saw this one luckily it was on sale i am 5 10 weigh ca 143lb s and i usually wear a size small in all retailer tops tried on medium but it was too big in the bust area   t hen i tried on the small and it fits great the sleeves are long enough too but it is hard to m ove my arms up to reach something so i just have to avoid that   i have gotten a lot of compl iments for it this sweater is more stunning in person then on the site i saw it on the interne t previous to seeing in the store i purchased it right away it was love at first sight   the detail on the collar is beautiful and reminds me of the unique sweaters i have have in my close t from retailer from years ago that i still love get it before it s gone   this dress fits we ll and the material allows for hiding lumps and bumps material is heavy yet soft i could see wearing it with sneakers as the model is or dressing it up with jewelry and heels this will be a perfect dress to take on vacation as it won t get wrinkled and it is so versatile i m normal ly a size 4 8 depending on clothing item and i bought this in a size small fits perfect for r eference i am 38 26 38 i bought this in store yesterday in a 2 petite   it definitely looks be st if you can get it in your usual size 4 petite just looked too big and changes the look   lov e the embroidery detail it was on display with the sleeves rolled up to elbows and it s really cute that way too i loved this when i saw it online tried it on in the store and though it is beautiful it s a lot of sweater its a a bit heavy in weight the buttons on the collar give yo u the option to wear it up or open as shown in the picture the problem was that when it was ope n the big button loop hung down right in front that was probably the determining factor against purchasing it if it goes on sale i may reconsider nan i love these jeans they are very comfor table and do not stretch excessively after wear i found the cut to be very flattering and the m aterial to be heavy enough to hold its shape while still having enough give to move around and c hase after little ones they look great paired with a v neck and flats or cute blouses and heels a great buy like another reviewer i too found these ran a little small and went up a size i love this sweater jacket found it on the sale rack in a medium and fits like a medium would fit from my adored retailer i am 5 4 inches and 34dd chest and curvy 145 lbs the knitted detailed collar is a show stopper and what makes this item look like an an old school retailer item the color is really not orange but more of a vintage rose with hints of rust and soft shades of pink i love this color and i think it would look beautiful on many skin tones i paired it with a pin k blouse from anth i also sized down and i m glad that i did i had been watching this top for awhile and was glad to get it on sale it is not thick more of a top than a sweater this is wa y shinier in person than i expected but i like it there are gold threads throughout which stan d out i love shiny things so i was pleasantly surprised i agree that you could size down if yo u wanted but it looks cute roomy and loose i think really soft i will wear this to the park o r dressed up for dinner love the double duty aspect i m a little bummed about the fabric conte nt but that s it the knit collar and the color and the drape is what makes this lilitz cardiga n so wonderful and an excellent addition to my signature retailer sweater collection as previou s reviewers stated the color is not orange but more of a marled rose yarn the body of the swea ter is lightweight draped stretchy and warm and the knit collar is much heavier because of my body type 36ddd heavy upper back rounded shoulders this cardigan doesn t look great on me wh en left open as the collar doesn t fall i finally found these jeans   love them and have been we aring them almost everyday i ordered this shirt with some trepidation after reading the one sta r reviews i was however pleasantly surprised when the shirt arrived and i put it on i agree the sleeves are a bit on the slim side noticeable mostly because the fabric doesn t have any gi ve the shirt fabric itself is both billowy and substantial and the embroidery work gives the sh s in the pictures the darts open out to a much gorgeous soft yak hair whaa versatile swea ter lean fit not bulky runs maybe a little large i m generally between a s m in tops so i o rdered both the s fit really well the m did too but a bit bulkier and wide in the hips i m 5 8 140 lbs 34c i ll wear this with everything mostly with leggings or tight jeans with boots nan i bought this top for my 15 year old daughter and she thinks it is beautiful it s very com fortable and good for days that are not too cold but not too warm lovely i really liked this cardigan it is well made and very pretty i will wear it when it gets a little cooler in early fall because i tried to wear it on one of these really hot days and it felt little too warm i h aven t worn this yet but i can t wait too i m 5 3 145 pounds ordered a size small it s fits perfect in fact it s long enough that i may be able to pull it off as a mini dress on a hot da y that said i will mostly layer this piece the ruching on the side flatters the body i would buy this in more colors if it was available also the material is a nice soft quality this car digan is a beautiful not too thin but soft and versatile the cutouts add a nice unique detai l i was worried that the cuts might fray but they actually have a very thin bit of glue to pre vent fraying really beautiful piece for those of us with cold summer offices love the fit an d feel of the fabric says to dry but i found the leg seams did bunch up a bit so next time i wo n t dry them i ll hang to dry very cute style super comfy love these pants also ordered the m in blue great fit and style just bought this dress in a 6 i m 5 7 138 lbs 32b 29 in jean s this is so much better than pictured it s an empire waist that really flatters my small b ust and accentuates the thin part of the waist i have an hourglass figure but can see this wor king great for pear shapes i wish the material felt softer but the fit was so perfect even fo r my broad shoulders will transition nicely to warmer weather but for now i plan to wear it w ith leggings and a cardigan this is the perfect casual yet stylish dress and it s extremely c omfortable the model pose does not do this dress justice it is super flattering and the fabri c is a thick light fabric can t explain it the pattern is simply adorable i can t figure out why this one is on sale while other colors aren t as in my opinion this is the nicest one \n\nf its true to size as in my lower range i tried on both pettie and regular and went with regular petite was too short for me i went with size 0 and am 5 1 5 and weight about 115 i ordered the se for store pick up and loved the color red ones the fit in petite ws nice and flattering b ut iwould have to wear them with ehels still th reason i didn t keep them is perhpas the pocket placement in front didn t flatter me as well i think maybe i will order when on sale or find a similar style with different frnt pockets looks great with skinny jeans or even white pants i have wider hips usually an 8 or 10 on bottom and narrower shoulders small or medium on top i bought the medium and probably should have sized down to the small as this was a little large on me but the top still looked good being oversized i am a 34b and did not have any issues with button gap my only negative is that the material wrinkles easily the floral detail on both the pocket and the sleeves is a nice touch just picked up this cardigan in the heather charcoal s o i can wear it in the fall and winter the design on the border is well done and will show off whatever you wear under this cardi sleeves are snug and long but can easily be pushed up to 3 4 length as another review said the model s pose doesn t do this dress justice and i can t bel ieve this is on sale i picked this up this weekend at my local store it fits wonderfully very flattering the fabric feels good and i m fairly certain won t wrinkle too easily which is going to make this the perfect dress for packing for a trip dress it up with boots for dinner dress it down with sandals for day this is a steal get it i m 5 8 145 the size 8 fit perfect this cardigan is very similar to the c keer wrapped asters cardigan from a few years ago i ha ve this cardigan and have loved wearing it i think it only came in cream color unfortunately i caught the cutouts a few times and the cutouts are slightly ripped in 2 spots not very noti ceable but i know they re there so i was delighted to see that retailer brought back this card igan this time from meadow rue i purchased both the cream and gray colors in a size small i am usually a s this dress is so much better in person i would say it is tts but it was oddly ba ggy around the chest armpit area which didn t deter me from keeping it the biggest negative i h ave is that it is rayon but i don t think that ll change with retailers anytime soon loved the styling versatility fit quality of this top length was good not too fitted perfect piece under cardigans jackets will look great with jeans leggings or skirt very happy with this p urchase i bought an retailer cami 10 years ago and it is still in good shape so i looked on the website to see if they still carried them and they did i bought 3 i was so excited great addit ion to wardrobe have already worn a lot soft and lightweight the colors of this top are eve n better in person the blue is easy to pair with denim and there is no need to accessorize t he print does all the talking it is a bit wide on the bottom and the print material is pretty t hin it definitely looks like something not everyone else has worth the splurge this is a bea utiful cardi the cutouts and the full front panels all make it stand out that said there are 2 minor flows imo worthy of mentioning none diminish my satisfaction toward it though the slee ves are slim meaning no long sleeve shirts under it for me at least the fabric is a bit catc hy meaning you d better wear something silky or slippery under so the fabric doesn t crumple u p behind your back nevertheless i will have so many uses for it \r\n\r\nlast but not the leas t is my sa love these pants they are so soft and comfortable do not fall down like low rise t rousers i like the length for wearing with flats most wide bottom pants are too long and th ese are very casual to be worn with flats i love this top the colors are beautiful look incr edible with jeans as well as so many of the different color pilcro pants in my closet it s the perfect between season item \r\nsince i don t like garments that have a boxy fit i was concer ned that this top wouldn t work for me after reading some of the other reviews but it looks gre at feels comfy looks nearly exactly like the picture will be very comfortable to wear i ord ered a petite large and could really have worn a medium it s big all over i figure i ll do a l ittle tailoring on this come spring and adjust the fit on the whole happy i got this in the b rown and absolutely love it this is perfect for cool weather i m super particular about fabric quality and this cardigan does not disappoint this is a beautiful top extremely classy looks g reat with dressy trousers or jeans drapes very nicely the petite medium fits me perfectly 5 1 126 lb love it the embroidery ads so much so pleased with this purchase i hesitantly ordere d this cardigan after it spent weeks in my basket i love it i am usually large by retailer b rand standards at 5 4 145 lbs but the small fit quite big and i m glad i didn t go for the lar ger one it is super unique and cozy i gave it a 3 on quality because the knit is a bit itchy a nd the fibers do come off on other layers it also is longer than i expected it hits about my m id thigh love the design and print absolutely beautiful bathing suit would size up on the bot toms top is true to size i tried this on in the store and i found my regular medium to be a b it too boxy i ended up going with the petite large because i found it just fit better it wasn t too wide and fit just right \nit is very soft not itchy at all it says dry clean only but it did great on my hand wash setting with cold water laid it out to dry great purchase lovely st yle i got the navy color and it s beautiful i m glad i ordered a smaller size after reading ot her reviews my usual size would have been too big and not as figure flattering but but but the sweater came pilled all over i don t know if it had been worn and returned or if it s just the quality of the material but seriously there was pilling on the entire sweater because the style is so nice and it fits well i m going to keep it and de pill it but was disappointed with retai ler this top is beautiful really special i am a 32dd and this type of flowy top sometimes d oesn t work for me but this one is fine looks great with skinny jeans and boots or flats nan t his top is so cute and of spectacular quality but you have to size up i m a 10 m 34c all the t ime i almost never have to size up or down but this top was so tight around the bust that i co uldn t possibly have closed the zipper in the back i m sending it back for a l in the hopes of a better fit the coloring of the owls is out of this world cute so i m keeping my fingers cros sed that a larger size will be just right this sweater is gorgeous it is of great quality and very warm i was very excited and wanted it to look great however i have a large bust and am full figured so it was not appealing and just kind of hung there i feel that it would look great on thinner women and it is a gorgeous sweater just not for me gorgeous blouse but a touch too large i may return and try a small overall i love this dress it s warm with tights or leggings in cold temperatures and it s super effortless there are a few things you should k now prior to purchasing online though the dress runs large i ordered a large and its big i m ok with it a super tight sweater dress is not was i was hoping for but i might have been able to order a medium i still kept the large the weave of the fabric does not seem as tight as pi ctured i felt the need to wear a tank top beneath because you cou this blouse is very flatterin g it drapes well and i love the textures only problem is the head hole is a little small so if you buy the white one put your makeup on after you have it on and remove your makeup before sli ding it off i bought an extra small even though i m usually a small lovely top a lot of peopl e have commented on it i loved this shirt online and ordered it in blue immediately even though i usually hesitate to spend over 100 on casual blouses unfortunately i was super disappointed when it arrived the lace does not contrast as much as shown in these pictures and it just doesn t look all that special having said that it is super comfy and soft and the sizing is generous it may run big on you if you have a small chest all in all i would buy it on sale but certainl y not worth the price tag i love this top i ordered it in a medium and it s perfect i m 47 y ears old 5 2 125 lbs for reference the detail on this top is beautiful can be paired with so many things love it this is so adorable and flattering dress it up or down with a denim jacket weekday to weekend w flats or pumps love this cute dress not all wool so it s not itchy at all the colors are vibrant and would compliment any complexion i am so glad i ended up with these pants wasn t ready to pay full price but ordered them immediately on sale realized they were definitely worth every penny of full price they are so soft have so much detail these p ants are just gorgeous i m 32 and can t wait to wear these to cabo they may run a little larg e love this dress and its versatility great design concept fabric is pretty soft cozy and w arm as well i found the dress to run large i ordered a medium in the gray and small in the ro se i did like both colors irl but the size small was the best fit for reference i m 5 6 13 5 lbs and wear a 6 the size small hit just above my knees and the sleeves reached down to my k nuckles i wore this around the house for awhile and realized that while the knit was nice and t ight when i first put i this top is very pretty i ordered both xs p and xxs p not knowing some one wrote the word boxy in the review i tried on the xxs p first and that was fine did the trick to not look too boxy teh fabric is stretchy and soft comfortable not scratchy lace the lining is soft as well color is ivory and the embroidery is nice and fiery colors the sleeves are fairly flattering even on bigger arms arm hole was just right too never know with flutter y sleeves \r\nfor reference i am 115 lbs 30 i ordered this in a small and i am 32b and the fit is perfect lovely details and very well made but the online pics make it look like a soft periw inkle blue however when i pulled it out of the shipping bag it was more gray blue dare i say country blue even the pictures i took in this top make the color look different than it really is i almost sent it back and i love the color blue but it was soooo not what i was expecting i t grew on me so i m keeping it in spite of it i read the other reviews and from the picture it looked as though it may be a little short so i ordered up to a large the medium would have fit but since i m in my mid 40 s i felt more comfortable with large but if you are trim and young o r young at heart your usual medium will be fine live the material and the navy makes it classy and rich looking can be dressed up or down have worn it to a cocktail party fundraiser with bl ue crop pants and received many compliments i m always challenge this blouse is stunning it s ultra feminine but has a bit of bohemian feel to it i am 5 3 and 108 pounds i ordered an xs a t first in both colors but they were a little big in the bust area and under the arms my bust s ize is 32c i ordered the xxs in both sizes not petite as i have a longer torso and they fit perfectly they are not too snug anywhere and it makes the blouse look even better obviously because it fits better the hem of the shirt in a size xxs hits right below the hip b i saw this in the store and immediately had to try it on it fits perfectly i m usually a size 4 6 with dr esses and the small fit perfectly it looks expensive and high quality and the print is unique what i love most about it is that i can wear it in the winter time layered over say a black turtle neck and black tights but i think it can also be worn in the spring especially with t hat flower print i love love these wide leg pants the embroidery detail give them a little so mething extra special they are comfortable and perfect the length is great for wedges and th e fold over waist does not add bulk the only downside and this is probably due to my figure b ut the pockets do need to be sewn shut so that they will lie flat i was on the fence about this dress i wanted something nice but casual for a family graduation i m glad i took the chance o nce it went on sale the fabric is not as thick as you d expect for a sweater just thick enou gh to hide any imperfections panty lines etc i plan to layer with long sleeved tees or a jean jacket i think it will do great through fall with tights and a turtleneck \r\n\r\ni m 5 6 135 lbs 34b and the small fit perfectly i am pear shaped by conventional standards bu adorabl e peasant fitting top not too voluminous just right for over jeans and really cute with shor ts the detail makes it wearable for dress up or down and the cut is classic i love this blou se i wasn t sure if i was going to like the high neck but it fits the style the quality is exc ellent i bought a size small and i wear a size 2 4 or xs s in retailer most of the time i coul d have worn the xs if i was a little smaller busted 34c i m 5 9 and i didn t like where the g athering hit with the xs very flowy without looking like a maternity top it s also lightly lin ed so i don t have to wear a cami warning this shirt is long if you are on the short side yo u may i passed over this dress online thinking i d never wear it but then i found myself insid e an retailer store and decided to try it on i am excited to say that i love this dress it is soft and lovely the cowl is large and the whole dress has a really great drape my favorite thi ng is that the buttons along the back are functional opening up the back turns this dress into a long cardigan that is to die for this top would have been better if it had a stretchy fabric being large breasted makes this top a little tight still so pretty so i m keeping it makes me look a little less chesty very cute and comfy dress i m 5 6 and 117 pounds and the xs worked great it is meant to fit big and comfy so don t expect a tailored dress looks great with tight s and boots and i love that you can turn it around to make it a cardigan nan i absolutely love this top i managed to snag one that had been returned to a store so i didn t have to order it i love the cute and the overall boho feel to it i feel like it s true to size as i m normally a medium in retailer i am undecided if i will keep this dress or not i am 5 4 155 lbs and ord ered both the small and medium the medium was comically large on me with broad shoulders and a sack like appearance but the small fit very well and felt very french girl chic the brownish g reenish color is really stunning in person like a greenish copper and the gathered sleeves ele vate this into a dressier look but the material is sheer so you would need to wear a slip and the elastic waist still has somewhat of nan i was in love with this top from the moment i put it on it is of high quality with layers to ensure the top isn t sheer the embroidery is so prett y and the top looks way less grandma in person i ordered the petite xxs and it fits perfectly i really appreciate that the underarm holes are just the right size and don t show off any of my bra which sometimes happens with sleeveless tops i can wear it with jeans and boots or with a pencil skirt and heels and it looks great with both outfits o the picture makes it looks like i t has rich brown yellow and orange colors when it came it was more black with some orange that popped much different then i expected the material was nice and silky but i was not willing to keep something that was dry clean only i sent it back great top i m 5 7 135lbs and normally wear either an xs or s i ordered the white to start with and decided to go back for the other 2 colors it s a great basic to wear with pants shorts skirts but the side slit and slant set it apart from a regular tank i opted for the small in this top just because of where the side slit hit this is an adorable dress medium weight i highly recommend great arm coverage soft mate rial flattering fit wear with favorite worn in jeans with holes in the knees and also with whi te jeans and long or short shorts i really should purchase another color for summer work staple such a lovely well constructed top looks great on petite frames free flowing but not too pea sant like the embroidery is gorgeous while it is pricey it is something you will wear for ye ars as it is a timeless piece lovely statement shift sweet and sophisticated at the same time the lightweight knit drapes nicely over one s figure my store showed it paired with a collared cream white blouse for alternative styling i know i ll be experimenting with solid tees this i s a pretty dress like the positive reviews have noted \r\nvery figure flattering i haven t worn it yet i tried it on when i got it and like it alot i love this sweater dress i was hesitant t o order it after reading some of the reviews but fear not friends this is a comfortable flat tering warm dress with a unique twist i love the cowl and the buttons down the back the knit is fairly large so there s some give to it which means pulling it on is a breeze and the butto ns don t slip out of their closures unexpectedly which is an added bonus i ordered both grey a nd navy i stand at 5 6 and would describe myself as pear shaped typica this blouse runs large billows out slightly and hangs in a boxy straight way i m normally a medium but can probably w ear a small in this blouse the blouse is lined with a light weight material but i can still see through it just a little bit although very pretty the blouse can snag easily so be careful whe n wearing regardless i plan to return for a small because this blouse is beautiful and unique perfect for fall with its warm colors or summer because it s light weight i bought this in red in xs 5 5 115lbs it s really cute and flirty but not in a little girl way which some ruffle tops can look the material is nice a little over priced but isn t everything from retailer the red is a perfect red imo it s got an orange y undertone to it looks so good with white jea ns and black sandals if you re inbetween sizes i would size down but otherwise pretty true to size i wear everything in xs from retailer and the xs fits perfect the rocket by citizens of h umanity are my favorite jeans perfect high rise and still makes the butt look good they are in credibly comfortable no more hiking up your jeans and bending over love these so much am very happy that j brand and citizens are making some good high rises now won t buy anything else th is dress is so cozy and soft love it the cowl is big in a flattering way absolutely adore the buttons that run down the back of the dress such an unexpected detail which makes retailer piec es so special i would layer tights and tank underneath anyway so the see through aspect other r eviewers mentioned wasn t apparent to me and also wasn t as big a deal i was very impressed wit h the fit of this sweater dress i am a 4p 5 4 and the length and general fit of this is perfe ct the fabric is so soft love it i own quite a few pieces from retailerplogie but this one i s my favorite by far the color is a crispy white the length is just right and has a beautiful flow to it it is more fitted on top but flares out for a feminine appeal i am 5 1 115 lbs i bought the regular xs and it fit like a nice tunic top perfect for a curvy figure i wore it with my tight jeans and boots got compliments from everyone i m 5 3 155 lbs ordered the blu e in a large beautiful color and fabric it s big and a bit wide and long hitting below my kne e i might reorder in a smaller size because it has great potential cute casual or dressy i ag ree that it needs a slip but not so obviously sheer in the blue color i stalked this blouse and when the price dropped i pounced on the black sadly it did nothing for me i m a large somet imes medium but decided on the large you d think it came with its own cami at this price but no completely sheer unwearable without one the lace is nothing special the collar is wider i n the back uncomfortable and pulls on the lace in the front the high low hem fit me oddly in t he back i m returning this one this sweater dress is so soft and great quality you can dress it up or down i will get a lot of use out of it saw this online but it said the store was o ut of stock imagine my surprise when i went to my local store and found it in both a small and a medium in white i tried them both on but not a lot of difference in the sizing the small h ad a smaller head neck opening causing it to be a bit tough to remove without getting makeup on it which the small did the medium fit very very close to the small but a smidge bigger at the neck the shoulders of both seemed to fit the same with maybe a tad mo this sweater dress was i ncredibly soft and i loved the button detail down the back unfortunately i m an hourglass fig ure 32dd with 26 waist this sweater did nothing to flatter me i tried it in 2 different si zes the ps looked far too big on but the pxs created an awkward baggy area in my midsection wh ile fitting nicely elsewhere the petite length was great i am 5 1 and i would not have wanted it any shorter wish this was a little more tapered in the waist because the quality is lo was in dire need of black high rise skinny jeans bought these in a moment of treat yo self menta lity absolutely do not regret it at 5 7 27 28 waist typically a 28 in denim i got the 27s as i found that they not only fit in the waist but were more slimming black denim typically stretches out in jeans as they are not of the same fabric these have a great weight perfect r atio of thickness stretch look incredibly sleek paired with anything high rise keeps my belly in check and a i bought the white version of this beautiful top in the store yesterday this ro mantic top is beautifully detailed very soft comfortable and flattering there is a thin cotto n liner underneath too fits true to size with enough room in the bust to not be too tight colo rs are much more vibrant in person love this skirt true to size makes a statement and is stil l classy love this blouse the owl design is flawless front to back the material has a silk li ke feeling i would say the arms a slightly tighter than i would prefer if you have larger arms or have any muscle the sleeves may be tight on you also i am a 38 c and the chest fit well in size large but would not offer much more room for a larger chest if you want a looser and rel axed fit as the model shows i would size up i love the unique design such a lovely shirt and even though it is white flowing and delicate it is not see through so you will not have to worr y about wearing an undershirt in the summer sun lovely top this is really one of those items t hat hits it out of the park first the fit is great it s relaxed without being oversized or ta pering way out or way in or something odd like that it s nearly universally flattering to most body types and it s easy to wear with nearly anything shorts jeans trousers pencil skirts it looks great dressed up or down \r\n\r\ni also like that the pleats that create the ruffle ar e sewn nicely sometimes my recent purchases from retailer have not been the best qua this top i s everything it promises to be i read other reviews and purchased a small i m typically betwee n an x small small depending on the day of the week and was glad i did a medium would definite ly have been too big but the small fit perfectly i have a shorter torso 5 3 117 pounds so i didn t experience any apprehension about my stomach showing i paired it with a pair of skinny b lack ankle pants and a pair of navy and grey d orsay heels it worked wonderful and i can t wait to pair i love these sateen jeans they are a bit more polished than regular flat black jeans but not too shiny i am 5 9 and always wear a 27 in ag jeans and these were consistent with my usual size and fit perfectly the mid rise is very comfortable and the length on me is about the same as on the model hits above my ankles they re easy to dress up or down and i have a feel ing i ll be getting a lot of use out of them if you are in between sizes order smaller size ad orable dress boots or booties look adorable with it denim jacket or dress it up can go either way colors are beautiful i ordered the small and medium and kept the small i did have it sho rtened for reference i am 5 4 120 pounds this bikini bottom is great design and quality but runs small overall i would recommend i agree with other reviewers this print is beautiful i d love to see the artists other work \r\nhowever the price is steep for sure \r\ni was hoping to wear this with my skinny jeans but it is waaaay too short for that i have an extra long tors o so this is not an unusual problem for me but this one is worse than usual almost like a crop top unlike other reviewers tho i would not want to size up it fits snugly but not tight the fabric doesn t give much tho so if you re on the verge of siz the colors look better in person and the sweater knit is thinner than i expected which is actually a plus in my opinion so i wa s very happy when i opened the package unfortunately the fit was off for me the lower part and the back are perfect the dress hangs nicely no puffing no stiffness however the upper part at the front was tight and something about the armholes made my arms and upper body look beefy i promise i usually don t have this problem i am 32a and routinely order xs the i adored this when i saw it online paired with the leather skirt i waisted impatiently for it to show up and when it did was happy at the price point but unsure of how it would feel for the cut i would say it runs tts i am sometimes an xxs but in this case that size was tight across the shoulders i am worried that the xs will be too roomy in the waist but time will tell as for quality well you can feel the polyester in it for sure it s nice to have the lining but i would not say it i just received this blouse and love it more beautiful in person i got the black one in a pet ite and it is perfect if you want it longer in the front order a regular i love love love t his skirt it s comfortable and attention getting i receive compliments whenever i wear it a nd i feel great wearing it colors are much more vivid than on the website that s a plus i a bsolutely love this sweater it is a great quality sweater dress and a beautiful color so comfy and warm too i never want to take it off definitely one of my favorite purchases from retailer these pants are adorable as pajamas or maybe something very casual to wear to the beach but the y honestly do not seem like something that a grown woman would wear in public they are good qua lity and fit nicely but i feel like if you re over 20 they re not really flattering or especia lly appropriate if you are like i am and love coats that stand out this is for you there are many s first being the quality embellishment like this coat has can easily go cra fty and this coat does not also the bead work and trim is sewn beautifully with no loose thread s visible to me it is hard to see the bead work but it pops just right colors are wonderful an d fit is tts it also looks great belted and much nicer in person this dress immediately ca ught my eye in the store the colors are vibrant and the cut is flattering i wear a smaill and it fit perfectly the sweater material is not thick so it can be worn all year it is very versa tile i decided to give these trousers a try despite my reservations about the appropriateness of the flowered embroidery on the fabric given my age girls and younger women can wear these t ypes of pattern in public but not me for me it seems too much like pajama wear so wearing th em as house clothing also didn t appeal to me i ll be returning them \n\nthe length is why i to ok off one star how many petites have a 31 inseam i would need to have them hemmed if you re looking for loose fitting i love this dress sophisticated and amazing fabulous fabric however if you are petite and take a 0 it will be enormous i am trying to decide if i send it back or have it altered love this top wore with jeans comes to about mid hip so good coverage fit wa s perfect for me this top is really pretty however i found it to be super small i know meadow rue tends to run small but this small was like an extra small i m not large chested either i f you are super straight thin with a long torso this is the top for you i got this in black and have no issue wearing a solid black bra under it i felt it ran a little big i m a 34dd and usu ally have to wear a medium due to the girls but a small fit me and fit well i didn t find it boxy and it fit me perfectly in the shoulders i paid full price but i loved it so much i didn t mind the sale price is amazing this may be one of my favorite purchases from retailer in a lon g time i really appreciate the unique design a quality that has drawn me to retailer for years the cute little quirky owls are as rich in color as they are in personality i m don t typically favor cheaper polyester blends though the texture feels fine on my skin this top definitely run s small and i had to size up to get the fit and length i desired overall i am very pleased and have received lots of compliments after wearin i am 5 6 and 140b i m usually a s and that is t he size i bought i loved the fit of the top and wore it immediately then i washed it just as t he instructions said and the liner shrunk about 3 just as another reviewer stated and the sle eves were much tighter and a little shorter however i loved the top so much that i took the to p back to the store and exchanged the store was super understanding about it and i was able to order the same size it s back ordered but once i get the new top loved the material and the fe el however it does run a bit large on the shoulders so i had to return really cute dress for work fits exactly as i expected this dress is very comfortable and looks put together on days when you re being lazy and just want to throw something on i splurged on this top and was sad ly disappointed i m a 36d and the l was so tight i couldn t get it over my chest also the arm s were super tight and the length is nearly cropped and the fabric is shiny the picture makes it look like it s matte if it did fit like the model i would ve loved it the print is beautifu l though bummer this is a beautiful dress just not for me though since i m 5 10 it hit me 2 3 over my knees the colors are vibrant would look good on most my heart s a flutter for this top the fabric has an excellent weight and feel to it and the little fluttery cap sleeves are to die for i ve ordered this in almost every color because it is such a great staple it is a g orgeous pairing with the marala knit skirt especially in green and the double stripe jacquard skirt but i m certain it would be a perfect choice for any pencil skirt it s so flattering and comfortable with a neckline that is perfect for single strand pearls or similar le fits like a dream not too tight not too loose arm holes aren t too big a common problem for me in sleeve less retailer tops dresses the sweater material isn t itchy and the pattern is unusual and ey e catching i felt confident in this dress and received many compliments great addition to the spring wardrobe this is absolutely huge it felt like it was at least 2 sizes too big the em pire waist wasn t even semi fit 36d chest and size small was like a tent however the embro idery was beautiful the top does run large around the upper waist area arms fits perfectly for athletic shoulders and biceps the sleeves come about 4 inches shy of the wrist the embroidery is lovely and the material is very soft but is pretty thin overall i am very happy that this tu nic is actually a tunic the length goes below the butt and is a very cute buy in contrast to t he other reviewer i love this dress worth the sale price at least these are great but unfort unately ran small for me in comparison to my other pilcro jeans i returned and the size i need is sold out now this is a nice sweater very soft and while cardigans are not normally flatteri ng on me i found this one to be slimming for reference i am 170 lbs 5 8 and a size medium or 10 i love pilco jeans they fit in all the right ways for a size 12 this is a great pair of e veryday casual jeans a tiny bit oversized in the ankle a bit of a flair but overall i am very happy very comfortable beautiful top but runs a whole size small gave to my daughter who love d i ordered a m as the previous review said it ran small i found it to be very large i have m ore curves than the model and also thought it made me look boxy i can t tell you how many compl iments i get on this gorgeous sweater poncho there are tiny glimmery threads woven into it that make it so fun for dressing up i wore it to a fall holiday party and it was perfect it s a lit tle on the itchy side but the shirt i wore underneath solved the problem the colors are so g orgeous deep and rich love this piece it s a lovely pattern on a soft tee the fit is simil ar to how it looks on the model not clingy at all it should be noted that it s fairly see thro ugh if i wear a bra that s close to skin color it s not an issue but it is obvious if you re w earing any kind of patterned or contrasting bra i suppose you could wear a cami underneath but it s too hot for that in florida and i think it defeats the purpose of a t shirt overall i m v ery happy with this though i m also very very happy i got thi i loved this t shirt i got the g rey one in small i m a size 2 and 5 3 it is a relaxed fit i love it because it is a bit diffe rent and the flowers add a nice flair i didn t want t plan t shirt but i also didn t want anyth ing too crazy fits well and is soft too nan this is a very nice quality t shirt i loved the m aterial colors i got it on sale and the only reason i had to return it because it was small o n me due to the nice sale another size was not available when i saw this shirt i knew i had to have it i got the white with yellow flowers and the pattern is perfectly charming i m 5 2 and petite with a short torso the petite xs fit me perfectly the material is pretty thin so i hope it stays in good shape until then i can t wait to dress this up for work and dress it dow n for casual summer days i love flowers i love flowers on my basic tees even better simple co mfy but different from your every day plain old tee just got both today skirt and top and i l ove how soft the material is and btw i learned a valuable lesson from past moth sweater purcha ses dry clean even though the how to care for tag states hand washing d r y clean the las t moth sweater i washed was not in the same shape it was when i first purchased but i never mad e that mistake again and it was one of my faves \n\ni bought this particular top in the large as i wanted the boyfriend oversized look and i love the way it drapes o love the color and th e design it is slightly see through which i don t like but it still works wotb a nude bra very comfortable nan i didn t like the price tag but got a good price with a sale so i splurged t his skirt hugs curves in the nicest most flattering way without feeling like you have to hold i n your belly very cute ruched design and soft make it easily dressed up or down i plan to wea r with some bright flats for an upcoming trip but have the perfect white tennies for casual eve ryday love it although i want to support usa products and am so glad retailer continues to add these options i also decided to splurge with family coming home for the holidays a way to stay in pajamas but still look dressed i am only 5 2 and these were just longer than capri length more like the close up view online to get them ankle length you would have to push them way down on your hips not sure how the tall model did that i am 106 lbs and considered exchang ing the xs for an s these run nan the tee is adorable in the floral print the fit is true to s ize as it is a casual tee rather than overly fitted the cuffed sleeves are a nice detail i wo uld have bought this at full price but it is quite see through in the white yellow floral i co uld easily see my nude colored bra and even my belly button it was so sheer having to wear a ta nk underneath this completely defeats the purpose of a cute casual tee you can just throw on i was so disappointed that it was so sheer i think the i love the cut and fit of this t it s sof t and has just enough flow to be comfortable without being unflattering the gray floral print i s very pretty it s perfect with jeans or shorts in the summer cute shirt but it is very hard t o wrap my head around being an xxs sizing is ridiculous and now that i have an xs that is too big the xxs are sold out typical this is casual and comfortable \r\nalong with soft touch of its textile i also like the pastel color of flower prints \r\nespecially i love the purple fl ower print with grey background which is sold out already \r\nit also fits well with my body a nd makes look cool \r\n\r\nit is perfect for everyday use this color came out after i had purc hased the same in the gray motif when i saw this one though i simply had to have it it is su ch a happy print and different color scheme from anything else in my closet i had purchased the gray one in regular only because the petites were all sold out but i was able to get this one i n my usual small petite size it is most definitely a better fit length for me i don t usually like to pay so much for a t shirt but i will splurge for something like this t i love this t sh irt i wish it came in tons of other prints very soft almost feels lived in and high quality all the same these shorts just didn t work for me i loved the embroidery and the color but i just don t have the curves for them try these if you have an hourglass or fuller figure i have a closet filled with black lace dresses but this one is my new favorite \nthe style is classic w ith an unexpected yet still elegant twist \ni ordered my usual size and found it to run a little on the small side especially in the waist \nthis is one dress you need to have in your closet \nif you are in between sizes i would suggest going up one size tshirt is beautiful looks like watercolor the fabric is a thin soft cotton that is really nice i am 5 6 and very thin xs fi t well and was not too short s would have been fine too i would choose a size by your shoulder width i bought my mother the medium these shorts were just what i expected from retailer they are more pretty in person particularly for the color like a rich clay color not garish orang e very good quality fabric the embroidery around the edges is unique i m usually a size smal l in bottoms from retailer the s fits perfectly very soft i sized up was able to wear witho ut a cami underneath i tried on about 25 items in the store today and didn t buy anything but if i had bought just one thing it would have been this great floral t shirt i may have to go back for it the combination of the very soft material and faded look of the pattern gives it the lo ok and feel of an old favorite tee shirt the fit is exceptional as well not too loose or too s nug i would definitely snap it up on sale and may even have to cave to the full price it s a t shirt a very cute print nice cut very soft but a t shirt therefore why is it almost 50 tried it on in the store and loved it but i just can t justify 50 for a t shirt \r\n\r\nfor th ose who will not be deterred by the price i normally wear about an 8 10 dress size at retailer and the medium fit well love this shirt i love florals so the bright pretty yellow just had to be mine it is true to size perfect neckline not too low or high and very flattering see thro ugh enough to require a cami but worth it very soft fabric and really comfy i got the xs and it fits perfectly almost an a line cute slightly fuller on the bottom not too form fitting and not too loose i am 5 1 and the length is not short as it appears in the photo on the model th e yellow flower pattern is super cute material is soft and comfy this tee is very pretty i p urchased it in the grey purple combo i usually wear a medium in this brand just because i don t like my tees to be fitted but i found this one to be a little too loose for me so i should have sized down to a small this tee is so soft and comfy it looks nicer than a regular tee but stil l casual fits true to size and not too loose but not too clingy i know i ll wear this one a lot i loved this t shirt in the gray motif so much went back to get the yellow both go grea t with pilcro hyphen chinos while the fabric is a little thin it s super soft and just the per fect length i ordered the yellow i love this shirt it such a happy print can match a lot of t hings nan i don t know why i didn t pay much attention to this tee the yellow but i didn t i saw it in the store thought it was interesting and kept on going then i really looked at it online and suddenly i had a bad case of the wants so when i was in one of my local stores i ask ed about it and no surprise it was sold out at the suggestion of my sales associate i tried o n a solid one just for the size although i m small i have several tla tees in medium so i tri ed on a medium and a small as i was looking for some comfortable but still stylish shorts for t he weekend these hit the mark nan this t shirt is adorable i saw this in the catalog and ord ered it immediately despite the 50 price tag cute with jeans khakis shorts under a denim j acket the options are endless print is very cute but the sizing and quality left something to be desired the material is extremely thin it will be a matter of time before holes develop no matter how careful you are i ordered a large to be roomy and it was way too big i love ever ything about this skirt except that it adds bulk to the waist and or hip area because of lots o f fabric and pleating i still love it and when i place the waist band higher on my waist look s super cute with a dainty blouse tucked in i m 5 4 105 and have a tiny belly pooch that com es and goes through out the day so although this skirt is beautiful it tends to magnify the tini est of belly pooches and hips i think i love the skirt too much to retun such a great purchas e it can be dressed up or down and seems to go with everything great for summer the shirt is darling soft and relaxed fit i usually wear an xs or small in most retailer tops unfortunatel y i ordered an xs and should have ordered the small i found the length to be a little short in the xs so i m sending it back to exchange for the small i hope it s just a little bit longer t hese pants are really cute but definitely run small i ordered a large so they would be a littl e bigger for lounging and they are not very stretchy the large fits more like a small in regula r sweatpants there is more blue visible in the top and bottom part of the pants as well which i like i ordered this on line while it fits well before washing the fabric is a bit thin i m afraid it might shrink in the wash too i haven t worn it yet because i m trying to decide it i will keep it or return it colors are a bit more muted than i would like also nice print and co mfortable shirt i just received this jumpsuit and was so excited unfortunately it is too smal l and will have to go back the top is so cute and the material is thick so no need for a bra w hich i really liked it runs short in the stride and also in the top i ordered a petite since i am only 5 0 tall and was very surprised how short the stride was the length was great and w ould love to have been able to kept it tried these on several times in store and never bought t hem but was able to get them with a 20 email seemed like a better price for the product the color is rust and a little odd for my wardrobe wish they also came in black love the style an d they are very comfortable perfect for late summer can wear on errands or dress them up a lit tle with shoes accessories for casual dinner out happy i finally purchased them seems like all i wear all summer are solid colored tees with shorts or skirts decided this summer i would have patterns and color this is a great t shirt nice weight pretty pattern i found the length on the small to fit my frame perfectly an xs probably would be good too but i hate having my favo rite t shirts shrink to unwearable so i always start a little bigger literally the only reason i am giving this 4 stars is because of my history with this brand holes developing after minima l wear i will do my usual wash but don t dry and hope it holds up \r\n\r\nmaterial super soft and comfortable almost slubby i haven t seen the yellow in person the purple grey is lovely \r\n\r\nfit moderate scoop neck as pictured almost oval that s a nice touch as it s not too l ow or high at the neck not overly fitted over the chest or stomach without being oversized j i bought the grey version of this shirt in store because of the cute pattern soft material a nd versatility of wear you can dress it up for work or wear with jeans shorts for a more casual look the beautiful purples greens and blues of the roses look like a water color painting an d stand out against the grey background i ve already received multiple complements from co work ers and friends and liked it so much myself i bought the other two colors personally i think i t runs a bit large s love the fit feel and colors of this tee looks great with white jeans b lue jeans and is so springy longer in length than most tees which is a plus for me may run a t ad small since i am usually an xs in most tops but i bought a s and love the fit i love t shirt s by t la but unfortunately this particular one was different the sizing was off it ran small although i ordered my usual size medium for this brand i think the shirt is cute though this blouse is very pretty but the overlap in the front is a little strange it seems to fall open and will require either a pretty pin to hold it closed or a cami underneath despite that flaw i am glad that i purchased this blouse the trim at the shoulders gives it a romantic and specia l appeal the sweater and skirt are so pretty they re really soft and have such an easy comfor table look together really love this gorgeous outfit \n\ni am borderline small medium and kept the size small after trying both on so soft and comfortable and flattering on run small i m a 25 0 pant and a small in these is as small as i d want to go otherwise excellent i really lik e this brand i bought the t shirt in the gray and the red color the sizing is different for th e colors i kept the gray in a small and had to get a medium in the red color they wash very ni cely 7 months pregnant with twins and i prefer to buy regular clothes that can be worn post pre gnancy as well as when pregnant went to a dr apt and the receptionist loved this shirt i told her it was non maternity and she can buy it at retailer i think she stopped by on her way hom e from work great transition into fall super soft and comfy great yellow without being too ye llow love it i bought yellow one and i m very happy with this purchase the flower print is be autiful and the material is light but not too thin i love wearing this top with a pair of blu e denim or a pair of white bottom \r\ni m pretty short in height and size 36c i bought a m in r egular size because i like my tops roomy and it fits really nice i just tie a small knot on th e bottom of this top or tuck the shirt in a little bit it works perfect this shirt is so comfo rtable and soft it has a great fit it is a little thin but i can get away with wearing it by itself i love it pros versatile summer weight t perfect with jeans flattering cut nice col or palette made in the usa reasons for not giving 5 s for overall rating and quality shirt is a bit short overall i m 5 4 fabric is thin and a mixed blend of poly cotton and rayon w ill have to be careful with washing better if you can purchase on sale regular price was steep for a t shirt i love this tee i bought the red and it is just so cute the background is a light pink and there are accents of deeper rose and mint green i also bought the angel of the north cascade cardigan in rose which looks great over this tee buy it i purchased this toward s the end of winter because it reminded me of spring time it is such a lovely soft tee with a delicate flower design i wear it with jeans it always makes me feel happy great fabric great fit great shirt just found my new favorite for this summer this is a cute tee but only if yo u get it on sale i don t love the material it seems flimsy and likely to get holes quickly th e pattern is pretty cute but nothing special glad i got it on sale as with all retailer tees size down xs works good for me these shorts are wonderful very stylish and easy to pair with my tops they do run a bit large i am normally a size 8 or 29 i ordered these in a medium and i definitely could have gone with small they are machine washable though and i m not sure if th ey will shrink at all so i m keeping them i would definitely recommend them i debated forever about ordering this and so glad i did the colors are so pretty i got the yellow and it s sligh tly sheer but ok w a nude bra regarding fit completely tts imo i m a 8 10 and 38 c and the m ed is perfect i am so happy i did not size up i ordered this dress when it was briefly on sale with an extra percent off i was very excited to receive it in my usual size large and wear wit h a jean jacket and cowboy boots when i took it out of the package i could tell it looked real ly small i didn t even try it on i had my daughter who wears a size small try it on and she c ouldn t even get it over her hips if you are tall and thin like the model it will work for you it is made of cupro looks exactly like the photo the color is g i got this piece because it wa s so unique that s one of the things i love so much about retailer not afraid to go where no woman has gone before so i ordered it in a 4p my usual size and a 4 i am petite but the 4 w orked perfectly i think i am pretty voluptuous below the waist and medium to small on the top and the 4p was too small all over so i would agree that it runs small \r\n\r\nthe quality is e xcellent the look is great my husband liked it on me it might work for the office with so i b ought this at the store and when i picked it up i didn t think much of it until i tried it on i t is so adorable i can t even tell you how much i am 48 yo and normaly buy xs s or 2 4 in re tailer mauve dresses are 2 most of the time small chest 5 5 and about 130lbs and i got the s ize 4 and it is perfect i hope it is age appropriate tho i have traveling plans this summ er and i am thinking this could be an easy thing to take along with me one piece clothing that will travel very we i absolutely love this sweater it is a beautiful deep blue color i love th e unique cuff on the sleeves i feel it does run a bit big but once you pull the strings it sho rtens up dramatically looking forward to late summer and early fall so i can wear it i bought this online days before my trip to seattle i read the reviews so was aware it runs large and it does i practically lived in it the whole time i was there it s very comfortable and once it cools down here in so cal i ll be back in it some reviewers mentioned it bunched up when tied b ut didn t like the ties hanging loose i just looped each one and it works great \r\nit really runs large i bought their smallest size and had ample room i tried this one without a bra and t was fine a little droopy but i could go without \r\nthe things that bothered me the patter n wasn t even on both sides so where the seem is on the legs by the wait didn t match some people may not be annoyed by that but hard for me not to look at \r\nalso the length on the mo del is just below the knee i usually order petite but tried on regular size in the store i liked it like that the hem went to below the big part of my calf so it 3was flatte i was immed iately drawn to this tunic at the store it has my favorite colors in it blue and orange as on e reviewer said the print is eye catching the feel of the material is soft i am 5 tall so it fits on me like a dress although if you are a taller person the slits on the side may be highe r on the frame this is definitely one of my favorite tunics now i bought this awesome jumpsuit and i love it i really don t like wearing one piece clothing but this one its just so comfy an d it looks great i wear it with the straps or strapless and it looks different as you can wear it classy or casual and the best park it has side pockets the color is as the description n avy blue and ivory cream pattern i wear a size 2 and that s what i got when i bought this so pretty much to size for my liking make sure to get the whole outfit the skirt sits high enoug h so that it avoids the muffin look i love this sweater i tried it on at the store and had to purchase it s even cuter on i am normally between a small and a medium but decided on the smal l as it has a loose look perfect weight for summer i ordered this in my usual retailer size x spetite and it was too baggy in the bust granted i m only a 34aa but i would still expect it to be a little smaller in the bust at that size the elastic waist was a little loose too i hav e a 26 waist 34 hips and the inner slip showed a tiny bit like another reviewer said but it s the same fabric as the dress the slip is adjustable but it s attached to the dress at the wai st it wasn t flattering on me in the hips either this was a miss for me b nan the material is structured enough to flatter the body only concern was over time the straps may wither as they are thin very happy with the style and comfort of this jumpsuit pockets on side are also usefu l yet discreet i absolutely love this dress beautiful flattering shape with flowing light wei ght fabric i m so in love with this color a great dress for a special night the fit of the dr ess is fabulous it is so flattering and true to size my only complaint is that he lining can b e seen at the neckline it might just be that the one i received is slightly defective even wit h this problem it is a keeper i just received this it is adorable well made with attention t o detail the cotton is soft and it hugs the body well in the right places the pattern is actua lly sewn into the cotton very cool it has a sophisticated elegant and urban vibe to it this one is a winner so glad i gave this a try looks so much better on than seeing it online i d oubt i will ever wear it tied but it s very cute and comfortable it will probably be my go to sweater to throw on over summer clothes when the ac is too cold it would even be great to throw on over workout clothes \r\nfits tts i love this soft glistening flowy beauty it s my favo rite color too i m 5 5 34d size 6 and a small fit me with room to spare don t wait ahh i t s delightful it s a little short in the fit but it s so cute and didn t cost an absurd amou nt like some more heavy weight or full trench coats love it love ag jeans a little on the pr icey side but so worth it the harper style is just enough higher wasted so i can actually ben d over and not worry about anyone seeing anything other than my jeans but not too high waiste d these jeans keep their shape still with a little strestch to them i am 5 5 and 111 lbs and if not wearing under boots would have to a0 alter or b wear as these are in the picture because they d be too long for me but i would purchase these all over again love these i love the desi gn and color of this cardigan and the way it was styled in the store display made me snatch one up right away but unfortunately it s huge and shapeless i tried size xs s and i m a waif 5 2 105 i think it could drape nicely on a tall woman but if you are small to average in hei ght it ll hang down somewhere mid thigh or even lower you can snug up the ties as they are thr eaded through the cardigan like a drawstring but that just made it look bunchy and even more sh apel they have some stretch so if you are between sizes order down they are very long which for me is a good thing love love these jeans they are just the right rise and the straight leg is perfect the color of the demin is great to wear to work the fit is great i really like the soft flowy satin fabric and vibrant color of this dress i am 5 5 125lbs the s was too large so i ordered the xs instead things to note pockets elastic waistband with nice detailing on t he sides slip underneath and large flutter sleeves i think that women with smaller torsos sho uld consider petite sizing i wear a 10 12 i bought a 30 31 and they fit perfect in every way they were even almost too long so i can wear with heels if i want i am so glad i bought these don t let the folded cuff in the picture deceive you a great pair of straight leg jeans the mo del doesn t do this jumpsuit justice absolutely gorgeous beautifully constructed cute detai ls flows well easy to dress up or down \r\n5 5 135 34 c the 6 was perfect the fabric an d design of this piece are so unique i am skeptical of wide leg designs in product photos beca use the fabric is often much more voluminous irl than it appears which is the case for this jum psuit despite the extra volume the fabric weight gives it a structured look which makes the w ide legs look fantastic on there is a silicon grip band around the top that allows you to wear it strapless though it doesn t seem very functional to me without boning or more structure to t he sid this looks great on i m busty so it s a little awkward to zip under the armhole but no t bad a little bit tight in the bust but the smocked back stretches to accommodate \r\ni just wish the description had mentioned that it has silicone gripper across the front neckline i hav e a sensitivity to this type of coating elastic and generally avoid it since it causes my skin to turn red and break out in blisters the jumpsuit looks so great on that i will keep it and ei ther remove the gripper or s love these jeans fit great and can be causal or dressy what i app reciate is that you can wear them with flats boots and heels so worth the cash the quality of the fabric and the design are perfect i love the cut out and how flattering on my shorter figur e i am somewhere between a 6 and 8 and the 6 fit perfectly it can also be strapless which is a sexier version this jacket is perfect and drapes very well i had my eye on it online and the s econd i put it on it was a yes if you are between sizes as one reviewer mentioned size dow n it s tts but has a little extra room for me on the 2 so i sized down to 0 5 4 115lbs i wa nted this jumpsuit to work so badly my regular size 2 crushed my girls flattening them and pu shing them up over the top of the jumpsuit unfortunately i had to go up 2 dress sizes to get it to fit around my bust but was then so big that the material in the front was gapping and folding over for reference i am not overly busty a 34 c with petite but muscular build this is my fir st pair of ag and i love them so far they are not cuffed as shown in the picture they are long so i had to get them altered i m 5 5 the color is a rich blue and they have a nice stretch i haven t worn them all day yet to see if they keep their shape usually a 28 or 29 and went wit h the 28 on these got them on 20 perc off sale so very happy i love these pants so comfortabl e and can be dressed up and dressed down love them i m calling this the gateway jumpsuit for all those ladies who are wondering about this whole jumpsuit trend and how they feel about it y ou know who you are this jumper is flattering comfortable elevated and worth trying on i m petite but long waisted with curves on the bottom which can be a tough combo when trying to fin d a jumper i actually ordered the petite 2 first which was better fitting in the waist area bu t i ended up ultimately purchasing the regular 2 since i preferred where love these jeans comfo rtable fit doesn t stretch out too much after wearing a few hours goes with dress up lazy day or casual tops my go to jeans wish they came in different washes i m 5 120 lbs i m posting a photo one lady was concerned about it being ok for the over 40 crowd i wore it was a cami unde r see pic it is comfy it has pockets and fits beautifully i ordered a 6petite it s a little long on me buy i still like it and am enjoying wearing it i like the color of this dress but its a little thin for fall on me the neckline is more round and the sleeves a little cappier i have dresses in this brand in both a size small and medium i went with a small in this dress returning it for a medium beautiful detail fits likes a glove i have a short torso and design hits perfectly on my waist may not be good for those with longer torsos very flattering arm holes well fitted no open gaps i plan to wear this to a november wedding after trying several one piece options i decided to buy this gorgeous tankini i love the fit bottoms stay put whil e running around the beach with my girls but still stylish the top is a perfect fit little li ning and halter adjustable tie is flattering on a smaller chest the material is high quality an d i will be living in this all summer long there is about a two inch gap between the top and bo ttom i just received this dress yesterday so to be fair i have not worn it out in public yet i am deciding whether or not to keep it i typically love west coast dolan dresses and this one is no different in looks it s adorable and would be a great addition to your fall wardrobe my only concern is the back the back looks like a wrap dress that s backward just the bottom hal f that probably makes no sense my worry is that the slightest bit of wind could catch it and the whole thing could ope i ve been looking for a black off the shoulder dress and found this ba by in store today for reference i am 5 8 34b 140 150 and took a small this dress is a shif t swing style so if you re looking for something fitted this isn t your dress as another revie wer mentioned ladies who are busty may not like this as the ruffle at the top could add unwante d volume if you are extremely thin or petite i might size down but i like my clothing loose v s fitted so i kept the small the fabric is g these shorts are super soft and comfortable i am normally a size 27 or a 2 in shorts i got a size 26 in these shorts and they are still large i exchanged them for a 25 and they fit perfectly so these run 1 2 sizes large other than sizing these shorts are perfectly comfortable and functional the material is so soft and lightweight without being sheer i am 5 1 145 and ordered a size 28 in blue they have a relaxed fit and a polished casual look got these on sale absolutely love eberjey fabric is super soft and easy to wash more normal than other eberjey styles not lingerie i m 5 6 125 lbs and small fit well i am small busted and there is definitely extra room but doesn t make it fit weird at all highly recommend i really wanted to love this dress but unfortunately the length of the ruffle up top is not flattering on someone with a large chest if you are d or smaller it will probabl y be perfect \r\n\r\ngreat material color and feel so bummed i had to return it bought this dress for a wedding in petite fits true to size beading embroidery is beautiful in person o nly downside is that the beads embroidery are very delicate and damage even when sitting on a chair super soft shorts i ordered them in the orange and it s a lovely soft orange they aren t too short about mid thigh i found the 27 to be a little loose on the waist but i was afraid to compromise the length for a size 26 i may order the navy in 26 not sure why this is conside red a top it s an open front cardigan also the the maker is monogram hwr not knitted knotte d soft knit inverted pleat at back yoke slight flare after the armpits slightly fitted at sh oulders but not restrictive pretty much looks like the picture hand stitch elements seem to be the random embroidery sprinkled throughout the sweater colors are dark blue black navy blue g ray blush ivory and turquoise i am 5 3 135 36d 38 28 35 and i purchased size mp this twist front top fits true to size it is perfect i really love the ruched sides i like a longer tank ini but most of them the stomach area is too wide and flowy this one is perfect it hugs your s ides and looks great to wear with my kids but still flirty with my husband i got the navy top a nd the side tie bottoms in navy periwinkle and they are so cute together can t wait to hit the beach as other reviewers have mentioned this dress runs extremely large i m a solid medium i n maeve dresses usually and got this dress in the store in a size x small and took it to my l ocal seamstress to get it taken in i get that this is supposed to be a swingy and airy dres s but there was just too much space and material for me i loved the top and the soft material s o i am ok with spending money to get the waist taken in i think this would be the perfect dress for someone with a slim fig this is such a pretty dress but it didn t do much for my figure i m fairly long waisted and the dress curved in around my lower rib cage also the beads were fa lling off everywhere i really wanted it to work but it is going back i bought the mosaic patt ern in a small the pattern and colors look much better in person the design and quality are so lid the top runs small it is difficult to put on but stays in place i would recommend yes t hese are a true clear red not neon red or orange red but a classic shade of red these pants a re so comfortable with just the right amount of stretch they are a nice weight for spring summe r without being too light or flimsy they remind me of j crew martie but i like these better i d say they fit tts if not slightly on the large side for reference my waist is 26 and hips are 35 the size 0 fits very well but the 2p were too big i also take a 0 in the martie but those are slightly m bought this in the store and fell in love with it very soft and flattering to we ar however after wearing it one day it is already starting to pill this truly is a beautiful sweater but i fear it will not be beautiful for long i am willing to take the chance as i got it on sale sweater fits great and is nice and soft i am 5 11 and got a m and the arms and leng th are perfect for me bought this is black and white love them but washed the white by hand a nd it shrunk i bought this online to wear in my engagement photos and its absolutely perfect i typically wear a size l or xl and could have easily worn the l in this top runs a tad big ke ep in mind it is on the shorter side i will be purchasing a white tank to wear underneath it n an this dress is lovely the soft material is prettier in person and the fit is perfect for me i found it tts wearing my normal s i m 5 8 5 and it hits me a little lower towards my ankles than pictured but doesn t the floor it will be perfect for an upcoming wedding rehearsal lunch and a go to summer dress after that love this top i ordered the pink and it was more of a dust y rose it also runs large i normally wear a medium top i am going to exchange it for white i n small fun top for day or evening loved the one i had in white so much i ordered the green such a beautiful piece size seems true to size and it elevates anything you wear it with skir t jeans shorts if you are on the fence jump you won t be disappointed i tried the xs in store white though it is sold out online guess i was lucky the top is pretty sheer i coul d wear it with nothing underneath like on of the sales people did however you can see my inni e like a big shadow i like the look it is a little boxy but feminine at the same time min e fits wide like the model why i put as true to size if there were still some xxs i might have ordered it it is a bit edgy not romantic as some other pieces i have overall i like th e the material of the lace is nice and soft it is not a stiff lace i am 5 6 36dd 146lbs and o rdered the small it fits perfect not tight through bust or the arm holes i wore today for the first time and everyone that sees the top loves it as much as i do i ordered the white and in t he pictures it looks like a bright white it is not it is more of an antique white and i am wea ring a nude colored camisole and it works perfect i think it will be really cute with a colored cami also this will if you ve been searching for red crops gotta give these a try i bought m y normal size 6 and they fit perfectly they re a little more snug on me in the butt and thigh t han on the model but they re super flattering and the color is wonderful fabric is a tad thin really stretchy in a good way and the weight is great for summer i haven t worn them yet so i m not sure if they ll keep they re shape fingers crossed this top is very pretty and you can definitely wear it without a cami with a nude bra if you re an outgoing person especially for a summer evening my only confusion is the too high neckline if it was just a little lower it wo uld look and feel less chokey i keep wanting to pull it down i m a size 0 and needed the xxs which fits like most people s xs s as sizing continues to get bigger really lovely except for t he neckline looks great over white or colored shorts and is a nice mix of cas i am a true size 6 in virtually everything pants or dress i was swimming in these i am reordering a size 2 th ey were so big i ordered this sweater online in a size xs and the order was cancelled because i t was out of stock i ended up finding a sm at my local retailer and was so happy it worked jus t perfectly i m usually an xs but the sm worked great it is a thick knit and may snag so i m b eing careful with it simply meant to be nan i got the off white lace top and love it quality is great for the price comfortable and the lace isn t super delicate so it seems like it should last what a cute top it s a little on the short side for me 5 7 but i m keeping it because it is so pretty the lace is lightweight and delicate but seems like it will hold up pretty well trying to decide what to wear under it but i think it could look cute with a cami for work or even a cute bra that has some coverage for super casual days the lace is completely sheer but d oesn t feel as revealing as i would expect would be super cute over a swim top with jean shorts and sandals wish i li these pants are gorgeous the fabric has a satiny stretch that simply fe els decadent on i tried on the size 0 and 2 and though they both fit the size 2 was more flatt ering i m 5 8 120lbs compared to cartonnier s capris which i love and wear a size 4 in t he fabric and construction on these is superior and the color is knockout red perfect high ris e jeans just a little bit of stretch for comfort the high waist doesn t roll down and no knic ker cleavage when bending over perfect to go with crop tops love this top the lace detailing o n it is gorgeous and fits tts however the length does run a bit short not crop top short but it is shorter than i expected and i m s short person the color is listed as white and as pictur ed it also looks white but it s not it s definitely an ivory color i bought a white camisole to wear under it and when the top arrived the tank didn t match the top the picture says it al l fits tts love it love it love it i got this dress for my younger sister who s in the proc ess of losing weight she s currently wearing a size 12 with comfort room but can occasionally s queeze into smaller sizes depending on the product this dress is deceptively true to size at f irst glance it looks like a roomy dress but the inner part of the dress zips up real tight as a result the boxy top part of the dress doesn t look too big and is in fact very flattering the dress is very silky and looks as high quality as its price love these pants the color is a tru e red and they are very flattering on i ordered the 6 but they are a little big and i think the pant will give a little when wearing just reordered the size 4 the perfect summer top paired with a small tank underneath and jeans and had many compliments i loved this top it is exactl y what i wanted love this top the lace pattern is gorgeous and the detail at the neck and sle eves make it a little more casual it s completely sheer so you do need a white tank or shell u nderneath the top is on the shorter side but definitely not a crop i m 34c and 140b and got a small fits great and pairs well with black pants and heeled booties fits perfect tank top or bath top swings nicely and not too tight on top i ordered large and am a 38 d sits perfect no t long not short this will be a frequently worn item print is beautiful and the fit is comfy a nd classy this top is a little more casual than i anticipated especially for the price it is c ompletely sheer and you do need a tank under it also the arm and neck makes it look more like a ordinary teeshirt still the lace design is super cute and would work well with both skirts a nd jeans i m an xl in retailer tops and to be frank sometimes some of the xl are too fitted an d i return them i bought this blouse in size large and it fits loose everywhere it drapes very nicely in the front and back and the arms fit loose i m making a point to say this to let peop le know to size down \r\n \r\ni was concerned this blouse might be too short because it looks v ery short on the model but for me it hits at a nice length i have a short waist and am busty the lace doesn t hit my neck this dress attracted my attention with its victorian inspired print the details are to die for the blue is not the same as the picture slightly darker and more mu ted i really love this dress but i am still struggling with keeping it or not i have an hour g lass figure with a somewhat fullish behind it is tight around that area which i think it is meant to be but i am not sure how comfortable i am with that i wasn t sure about the belt but i t really works i am 5 3 and weigh 118 i did have to size up from 2p to 4 p for it not to feel too tight in all areas i tried this top on in the store and didn t buy it because i was in a hu rry obsessed about it and it was sold out when i went back so happy i was able to get it onlin e it s beautiful i got a medium and it fits perfectly enough room that it hangs nicely but no t baggy i m typically a medium in shirts at retailer it looks beautiful with high waisted blac k pants i wear a cami underneath i own it in white and tried it on with a black bra only and i t looked great i just didn t feel comfortable i can t say enough good things about this sweater i bought it when it was full price and it was totally worth it it is incredibly soft and looks very sophisticated i wish i could live in this sweater given the color and my propensity to ma ke a mess i want to buy two more just in case it s a great addition for summer defiantly need a tank on under it but very pretty i was already purchasing another mock neck in a similar colo r when i came upon this sweater it is everything a snuggly sweater should be it is long in the torso with long sleeves that really do cover your hands like in the picture online if you like that sort of thing this is a great sweater the sweater even has pockets which may be a little odd but on this sweater it works i bought this to wear with a pair of sanctuary flowered leggi ngs it is the perfect outfit love this top and will be wearing it for our fall family pics thi s weekend it is lovely soft and flattering i purchased this on sale it exceeded my expectati ons it is extremely soft and had a very unique construction and details i love it it does she d a bit but that does not bother me as the sweater is stunning ordered my typical size small no camisole is needed if worn with a nude bra soft and cozy not itchy at all and it has pocke ts i am 5 3 120lbs 34dd bra and take this in size small straight out of the mail this cozy soft adorable charming sweater was full of little pills i love the embroidery the swingy sli ghtly oversized fit that doesn t overwhelm and the high snuggle factor wish this came in other colors and was knitted with a less fussy yarn this sweater is beautiful and stylish but unfort unately it sheds a bit considering the sale price it s still worth it so i won t return it i love this dress but and it saddened me that there was a but the material would wrinkle nea r the sleeves fit issue and the high neckline was a little uncomfortable i ended up returning it because at this price point i need perfection i would definitely recommend this dress it just wasn t for me the lace on this looks like it would be stiff but it isn t it s soft and d rapes nicely i normally buy an xl if it s not a knit and so i did the top will fit up to a s ize 18 in the xl because it is boxy and generous it fit me perfectly and just tapered my body it looks looser in the photo \r\n\r\nit s as see through as the photo and i wouldn t wear a ca mi under it that defeats the purpose for hot weather imho i think a nude bra works just fine you can see the model is wearing a white bra absolutely love this sweater because it is so prett y while being soft and comfortable i am 5 4 and purchased the small it falls a little below my hips while the color matches everything the pockets and details add a nice touch and the longe r sleeves are cozy the only drawback is it pills and sheds really great tank fit runs a littl e small if you are tall i wore this dress for an after party the day of my wedding day in new o rleans going to a music lounge seriously i kept getting compliments it s fits beautiful a nd i just love the different type of patterns i usually try to buy things on sale but after try ing this dress on twice i didn t want to run the risk of waiting and it selling out it is extr emely flattering and i think it will be very versatile i ll definitely wear this dress to work out with friends and you could also wear it to bridal baby shower events as well i bought the dress in blue and it is extremely comfortable i do think it runs large i am 5 9 145lbs with a very straight no hips athletic build have an athlete butt this dress is absolutely stunn ing i did agree with other reviewers that the skirt is very full i had it taken in and it fit s exactly like the model i love this dress the fabric is super soft and it falls beautifully wish it was lined but it s a keeper it does run big i m always a solid medium and i had to go down to a small for this one but who s complaining the burgundy color is gorgeous i m 5 4 150 lbs a size 8 m almost always lovely dress i did send it back only because the length was below my knee and i prefer slightly above the knee this has quickly become my favorite dres s i bought the turquoise dress and the color is so lovely the fit is perfect and the lines are flattering and classic this is one of those dresses that will never go out of style dress is b eautiful in person light material that is excellent for summer \r\n\r\nthis dress is not forgiv ing in the chest so ladies if you bigger chested i suggest going up a size or two i m 5 4 145 lbs and 34ddd i usually wear 8 or 10 this dress in a 10 made my look like i was wearing an unf lattering sports bra i love this dress wasn t much on the hanger but fell in love as soon as i put it on almost returned after reading the reviews about the fabric content and printed design instead of embroidered but tried it on one last time and decided to keep it the silhouette is j ust stunning absolutely stunning this will be a classic piece in my wardrobe that i pass down to my children one day i love everything about this dress the sleeve and bodice detail make th is dress exceptional the fit is true to size i ordered medium the length is as it appears on the model just below the knee the material is of great quality and the slip lining is made of a nice stretchy knit i love this dress very comfortable fit and lots of compliments for the c olor moss took me from the classroom to a cocktail party one of my best retailer purchases this is a beautiful flattering top that looks great on its own or layered under kimonos or jack ets i bought it in wine and black i love this dress in the photos and like it enough to keep it but i don t love it it runs borderline true to size slightly large i m 5 8 133 lbs 34 b and usually wear a 6 in dresses i ordered a sm and med am keeping the sm medium was way too b ig my main issue is the amount of fabric in the skirt it s a bit full in the pics this dress appears straight but it s not the higher waist and skirt s fullness gives it a more casual yo uthful look which is not what i want but the quality i am 5 2 120lbs and bought the 4 petit e which is what i normally wear and it fits perfectly the quality of the fabric and stitching is good not great and more what i would expect to see in a less expensive garment but for me the style the fit and the fact that it doesn t seem to show wrinkles at least not before washi ng turned it in to a keeper for me the drawstring ties in the back and i find it a little weir d when you wear a belt with it i tried the ada belt with it but found i too bad the blue one i s sold out in my size petite i ordered the 00p based on feedback at m store that it runs big that was a good choice i am 5 1 5 115 lbs \r\n\r\nthe material teds to wrinkle though so w ill have to think about keeping it \r\n\r\ncut is flattering i like it with the belt like the p icture on the model but was nice too with the drawstring and a nice chunky necklace bought bla ck dress so gold necklace is nice \r\n\r\nlength was mid calf but because it has a rounded he m it wa i waited to review as i ordered both colors and multiple sizes for comparison \r\n\r\ni vory is actually truly longer than the black i wasn t sure from the photos on line but having tried both on ivory is longer as shown online \r\n\r\ntrue to size bigger i am never sure if i should write true to size or big but went with the xs petite used to do everything in xs at 115 lbs 30 dd chest 26 5 in waist t ehre was room to move super comfortably petite for sur e for me for both length at the kne this pajama like dress is not worth 150 full price plus ta x in texas so i can t really justify keeping it i kept having to pull it over on one side so it would align correctly it also runs big i bought the m which i am returning and it bunches at the waist but the length was perfect the s is too short on the bottom i love the color but it s going back i d buy it if it were on sale this top is so unbelievably cute the fit is per fect and it goes with just about anything on the bottom i personally styled mine with high wais ted distressed skinny jeans and it looks adorable its a tiny bit see thru so you do need to we ar a tank under it love the warm color and soft fabric paired with chic tights and ankle boot s and it fits right into a more casual workplace this romantic top has lovely embroidery and be ading details i purchased this in purple which is actually more of a cranberry color i like t hat the detail work carries over to the back on the cap sleeves this dress not only makes a sta tement it is very comfortable and versatile casual or dressy options price is reasonable and i am anxious to wear it for the first time true to size and has some give i ordered xs love i t i bought this dress in gray in a size 4 i am usually a size 6 even an 8 in maeve so i said this dress runs a tad large it is soft and easy to wear throw it on and go i think it looks b est with a belt but that s my opinion i am 5 8 5 tall and this is a midi length on me plent y long not sure how it will wash i think a fabric steamer will be needed all in all very ple ased tried the blue motif size 6 regular \r\ni m 5 6 and if i were shorter i d go with petit e sizing \r\nstats 34a 28 36 with broad shoulders sometimes i go up to a size 8 in blazers but this was a perfect fit side pockets dress is unlined and quite lightweight the tie has to be tied in back and i liked the clean lines this gives in front nice and simple for when it warms up beautiful and versatile dress but shoddy quality i hand washed per the instructions it af ter wearing it once and the sleeves are already falling apart i bought this dress in the print and the moss color and may very well return for the dark gray for reference i am 5 2 140 lbs i have been more recently wearing size 6 but a 4 was perfect so i do think it runs a bit large this dress has a drawstring that ties in the back and cinches the waist up nicely and is very f lattering the waist actually hits at the natural waistline and not up on the ribs the fabric i s lightweight and washes well i washed and immediately hung dry it was slight i m trying to bu y more basic versatile clothes and this dress in gray is great for that definitely runs large i usually wear an 8 and it fits in a 6p i m 5 5 and the petite falls where it does on the mod el the regular was unflatteringly long and sack like quality seems ok for the sale price this dress is super soft beautiful on perfect fit this is a cute top but the sleeves are super lon g they swallowed up my entire hand when i put my arms down to the side i also found it to ru n slightly large i ordered my usual medium and i had too much room under the armpits the sle eves weren t as fitted as the model shot either which i would of preferred i probably could o f shortened the sleeves but didn t think this style top fit me so i sent it back this does no t require a cami underneath i was in the store today and saw this dress in blue and had to try it on i usually wear a size 10 in tops to accommodate my large chest but the size 8 fit great with even a little room to spare they didn t have the petite 8 so i ended up with the regular size which falls an inch or so above my ankles i am 5 2 so the petite may fit better as a mid i dress however i really love the length the fabric is soft and airy can t wait to wear this once the weather is warmer this shirt is just as great in person as it is online it s a subst antial fabric which is not see through which seems hard to find these days with whitish tops t he color is more off white without looking yellow i ordered a small and medium because i was c oncerned about the length and tightness in sleeves they fit almost the same with the only diff erence being that the upper sleeves on the small were just a tad bit more fitted but not in a b ad way i m 5 5 and found the length to be jus great staple item i have it in multiple colors and like them all easy to add statement necklace to change up the look wear it under cardi or jacket to make it not look tent like i ordered both the petite and regular in the olive green motif the regular fit more as i was hoping so i returned the petite \r\ni am only 5 4 but my legs are long for my height i wasn t ready to have the side slits up to here and whereas they are not they are still quite high it is modest enough to be worn any place i might wear the dres s i think i will likely wear a belt with it as shown at least part of the time i just bought s ome print fabric sling back shoes which go beautifully with love this dress it fits perfectly is flattering and the fabric is high quality i ordered the blue print and it is a vibrant tur quoise i may order in the charcoal as well as this is a comfortable cute dress for everyday c asual i am 5 7 135 lbs and the size 4 was perfect even a tad bit loose but i prefer a bit lo ose to tight especially with the design with the buttons up the front i bought the burgundy co lor in this shirt dress usually wear a size 4 and xs in most brands purchased the xs in this d ress i m 5 4 118 34d the fabric is rayon however it feels more like a light flannel or soft brushed cotton like you ve worn it forever the length says 40 long but i found when worn with the belt it rides up substantially about 2 3 inches above the knee felt like i was squirming t o pull it down i normally wouldn t be drawn to something so simple but when i walked out bought this back during an retailer event because i was in the market something long oversized to we ar over leggings so when i saw this i thought it could fit the bill i read the reviews knew it was more of a soft t shirt like fabric and is short when belted so because i m 5 10 i was sold \r\ni bought the xl because i have wide shoulders a dd chest size \r\n\r\nwhen i got it home i was in love rich garnet so soft comfy then i tried buttoning it it was just a b it too small pul i purchased the grey color and i love love love everything about this dress the fabric is so soft and feels like pj s i m just shy of 5 9 and the length is perfect for wo rk i purchased the medium the fit was perfect for me size 8 138 lb \n\nhighly recommended this dress is very lovely ivory fits as pictured slightly below knee in ivory not as the bla ck is depicted much shorter fits a little larger than expected and material is very stretchy lots of embellishment striking magenta color feels great on with a flattering neckline that i sn t too low i recommend it this dress is much better irl than pictured when i saw it online i thought it looked very frumpy but i tried it on in store and loved it it s a perfectly drape d shirt dress and it ties to define the waist a classic this is a very cute dress the sweate r material is not itchy at all i love the bell sleeve and how the seam at the top of the bell m atches up to the waistline of the dress good quality and well made i am 5 9 tall and this dr ess falls just above my knees so for me it s the perfect length i bought the black dress and i look forward to wearing it throughout the fall and winter i wasn t sure about this dress and decided to give it a shot based on reviews could not be happier before trying it on i was worr ied about the length and always worry about dreaded button gap at the chest but none of that i s an issue i was nervous about this purchase but it turned out to be a new favorite the blue color is stunning on and i can easily see this taking me from work to dinner i am normally a si ze 2 or 4 in dresses after reading reviews about how this dress runs large i ordered a 2 and h oped i didn t have to return it the 2 is perfect and roomy the drawstring can be let out or in for more figure definition this really is a beautiful and modest dress material is nice great for a party or date night fits true to size l for me i m a 12 would recommend the bell sl eeve is right on trend and very tasteful fits well soft and comfortable i ordered the purple a nd black first loved both colors but they ran large and after i tried on the purple i realized the metallic threads in the shoulder area were irritatingly itchy for reference i m currently 165 and 5 11 with broader shoulders returned the larges and just bought the medium purple on sale waiting for its arrival to see if the threads will bother me after a bit beautiful satur ated purple color btw very true to the image not cranberry as one reviewer thought i love t his top looks great with just about any kind of jean skinny flare especially high waisted even looks good with vests and cardigans a perfect versatile piece for the fall you won t reg ret this is a cute swing top tts but generous best thing about it the color i got purple an d it is so pretty and saturated i think it ll look great with big gold hoop earrings alone or under a cardigan or denim jacket i d consider other colors at sale price i was pleasantly surp rised with this one fits a bit large i m 8 10 the 8 fits just right the moss is a great stap le color i loved the style when i saw it online and even more in person the fabric is light bu t not too light it has a nice drape i didn t expect easy to wear and style the draw string gi ves it a great shape but a belt is a great addition for more interest the length is fantastic a s well wonderful midi length but with the side slits comfortable flattering i agree with oth er reviewers that this is great piece i purchased the red one and it is beautiful fits tts on e of the reasons i avoid skirts at all costs is because i have a bigger tummy and don t like the extra tight feeling i have of a skirt around my waist i like this skirt because of its stretchi ness even wore it to a bbq where i could eat my heart out and not feel constricted at all \r\n \r\nreceived many compliments including you look like you re vacating in the caribbean these jeans fit true to size and they look amazing i wear a 26 and have an athletic build and they look great everywhere i love how they look with sandals oh how i wanted this skirt to work the fabric both pattern and color is beautiful the style is very nice the knit is comforta ble but the knit was so soft and pliable that it lost its shape right away after wearing it for an hour the front slit was curling in weird directions the fabric around the hips got sort of crooked and hang y i would have loved the fabric to be one notch more substantial for a more defined waist and better integrity around the hips i find that petite gals with short muscula r legs can have a hard time finding cropped pants that fit right the flare on these makes the pants oh so flattering the material is nice and thick and holds you in the colors and patterns are beautiful fall colors quite lovely and subtle there is a nice stretch to the pant the wai st has nice closures can t wait to weer these i ordered the 0p and htey fit perfectly 115 lb s 26 5 in wiast this is my first maxi skirt and i am pleasantly surprised i might not have pu rchased this had i not tried it on in store but did for the fun of it and loved the shape and s wing of the skirt the material is a comfortable and substantial stretchy jersey fabric with an inner lining that keeps it from being sheer though it is kind of a dark navy i would agree wit h one of the previous reviewers that it could pass for a black and white pattern for my sister s graduation i paired it with a white this skirt has a great pattern and the stretchy fabric al lows it to shape my body perfectly adorable with a white t or a black one great for a night out on the town and some sexy strappy sandals love this skirt i love this skirt i normally w ear a medium or large depending on cut and i bought this in a medium very stretchy and forgiv ing it s lined so it feels substantial but not too heavy it s flattering i think i own nearly every maeve skirt retailer has sold over the last five years and this might be my new favorite one major improvement over years past is the fit it really is true to size rather than runnin g large as has been the case in the past the material is a substantial stretchy jersey with a nice texture the weight of the fabric combined with the jersey slip means it s not sheer at all and it also a nice smooth fit skimming over less than perfect areas i also really appreciate l ove love love this dress but if you are not wearing a slip you should be please wear a slip you can see right through this dress i tried on this romper when it was still full price and lo ved it but wasn t sure i wanted to splurge at the time at the new sale price this romper is de finitely worth it for the quality and style i am 5 2 103lbs and the xs fits pretty well but truthfully an xxs would have been better if it existed the top part of the romper above the wa ist is a bit long the waistband hits maybe an inch or 2 below my natural waist but perhaps this can be tailored overall very happy with this purchas i couldn t be happier with this skirt i was expecting a jersey type material but was pleasantly surprised by the thicker textured h igher quality material the ruffle on the front is such a cute feature this skirt moves and flo a bit more room for the booty 3 spandex and they seem like standard cartonnier charlie fit \r\ni love the kicky cropped flare \r\nthey re described as grey motif but everyone in store an d i agree called them green the main diamonds are forest green with a grey green inset and a b lue grey inset inside that whew \r\nthey come with an extra button keep it as those tiny but tons are going to be first love the color pattern tiny gold buttons flattering fit quality of fabric and make i got size 4 petite which fits perfectly my husband said they looked really good on me and were keepers i m 5 2 115 highly recommend this skirt fits amazing i run between a s and m in bottoms and went with the s there is a little give in the fabric which is always a plus this will surely become a staple in my wardrobe i am in love with this skirt it is the most flattering thing i have purchased in a while the fabric is a beautiful medium weigh t knit with a good amount of give it hugs your curves but doesn t cut in anywhere i was able t o easily go down a size from my usual i love it so much that i am going to order the other colo r as well i walked into a local retailer store and saw these pants talk about love at first si ght they have an amazing look and fit usually i have to buy petite sized pants but the lengt h fit at my ankle and i like the look better than what is shown since it is still summer i pa ired the pants with a cute white tank and black flip flops but can t wait to mix it up with a c ute bootie and sweater i absolutely love the way this skirt looks and fits i have a smaller wa ist and larger hips so it is hard to find a pencil skirt that fits but this skirt fits great t he material has some stretch to it but is still thick and looks really nice the colors are beau tiful i bought it in the red which is really just multi colored i want it in the green now too i am a small athletic build and typically wear an xsmall in tops naturally in something with a more straight fit and blousy shape an xsmall would be appropriate i ordered it and was super bummed the lace detail made the collar lay funny and the shoulders were too tight i like d the sheer fabric though and the lace details and decided to order a size up i am so glad i di d because everything laid like it was supposed to this top is beautiful with a sexy but refine d look i plan to dress i i wore this skirt immediately when my delivery arrived nothing but co mpliments i went right back to order the green and it has sold out bummer i would buy every single color this skirt is that great this skirt fits like a glove i m 5 6 curvy and it is very flattering on my shape its a good length and the material has some stretch in it so it s v ery comfortable again maeve knocks it out of the park with this skirt great quality style an d comfort i love that it s machine washable so great and versatile for work or a night out th is is not a con but might be a bit long for short ladies i m 5 6 and it s below the knee my only problem with the skirt was the length it appears shorter in the pictures and i can t tak e it up since it would mess up the front slit i would have returned for the petite but it was not available in the green color which i loved even though the length is longer than i usually wear i get non stop compliments on the skirt and it s very versatile great skirt i bought t he red and paired it with a casual white button down i feel like the top definitely needs to be short or tucked in for the look to work i am typically a 2 in bottoms and went with the small in this the xs probably fits more like it s intended to but it is very curve hugging and i wa s more comfortable with the looser fit of the small especially since i am tucking in a blouse there is stretch in the skirt and the fabric has a nice feel amazing pants i saw them at my l ocal retailer and knew they would be great addition to my wardrobe in person is even better tha n photo they are flattering and i love that the pattern lends itself to many options could be an ivory sweater or blouse or perhaps a mustard jacket so much fun i am 135 lbs 5 7 and went with the 6 love this beautiful sweater it s become one of my wardrobe staples it s got a great cut and i love the design i bought the skirt in the green color and it is beautiful this skirt is curve hugging but in a sexy way very comfortable as well nan these are the softest j eans ever i love the way that they hold their shape and make my bum look amazing i am 5 3 a nd they do come much longer than shown on the model right below my ankle bone i actually pref er this because they will be wearable right through fall if i pair them with booties the fit is true to size 108 pounds and i got a 25 highly recommend i ordered this online in a m and l because i am usually one of those on the bottom i will be returning both for a s the fabric i s great and a cool pattern but it runs large by far in addition to the large sizing the fabric has a decent stretch so that makes it even larger i think the small will fit well and the cut i s flattering i am about 5 11 and it hits below my knees similar to the model in the picture so i would definitely get this in petite if youre on the shorter side it s al love this skirt i have worn it to work with a simple black shirt for a great outfit i have had many compliments on it it is very flattering and comfortable this skirt is figure flattering and stylish while still being work appropriate i like the length as well really beautiful skirt unique print r ed and stylish keep in mind this is knit stretchy form fitting as mentioned the skirt is ve ry comfortable and a heavier texture fabric i purchased a large i am 5 7 and 154lbs and don t like skirts too tight so i sized up the large is fine however i noticed at the bottom of the s kirt it doesn t quite fit as slim as i would like i suspect the m would be better if you have a stomach it will show i also noticed that the skirt seemed much longer on i ordered this skirt in both colors and they are just to die for the fun fabrics make it a playful and trendy take o n a timeless essential and the fit is incredibly flattering an added bonus the fabric has giv e so it s also extremely comfortable i hope they come out with more color options i love these they are cute enough to wear out and they are really comfortable i ordered a small and at 5 3 they are a little long but they shrunk in the wash and they re still totally wearable i disagree with the most recent review they are legging style fit but not leggings at all they are a jean style with a patterning on them a texture \r\ngreat colors beautiful and flowy blouse bottom is very full so i recommend sizing down 1 size very feminine and i really like the colors and pattern i am a 36c on top and found top flattering with pilcro serif legging like jeans and boo ties i saw this shirt online loved it but unfortunately it was sold out in the regular size s mall however retailer shirts tend to be long on me so i ordered a petite small it fits great i am actually happy i got a petite because i feel a regular would have been too long the shirt comes to my hips for reference i m 5 8 145 lbs and my measurements are 34 27 38 comfy cozy and great bargain for the sale price beautiful top but disappointed that the top was so sheer i m 5 2 120 and i ordered my usual xs fit perfectly but may exchange for a s as i was hoping f or it to be a little longer hits right below my waist i purchased this shirt and was hoping t o be able to wear it without a tank underneath because of the lace detailing on the back howe ver this shirt is a bit see through so i still had to wear a tank with it it s very cute even with the tank though i ordered the coral size small it s a beautiful peach color and the line n is very soft it is longer and roomier in the waist than i was expecting however with skinn y jeans it looks great the detail makes this top very eye catching i m very happy with my purc hase this shirt is so flattering i bought it in the recent it color but i wish it came in so me additional brighter hues this shirt is just so lovely it s long in length too i am 5 3 3 4 tall and usually wear medium in retailer tops i love this top purchased same style in slee veless this past summer and was hoping the style would return as i was complimented every singl e time i wore my summer version i do wear a cami underneath i agree that in the picture the yo ke doesn t seem pink however i like it even better with the more pink hue as it gives an even m ore eye catching piece the pizzaz i look forward to seeing in retailer offers i love retailerpo i love the flowy beachy look of this jumpsuit it is very comfortable and super cute my only gripe is that the hip part is pretty wide hands in the pockets you can t tell but if i were to get this i would want a xxs length was ok not petite since it is a flowy look colors are v ery nice too kind of 70 s but i love it i think i will get this if it goes to sale even if it is a little big on me i am 115 lbs 30d chest and tried on xs i absolutely love this top i own it in coral and white it is simply beautiful and the linen fabric makes it comfortable an d breathable i am so happy i bought this top this is a beautiful light weight summer top i o rdered the white perfect for summer very feminine true to size i am 117 5 3 34b and the x s mall fit perfectly nan i have to disagree with earlier reviewers who suggested this top isn t f lattering for larger breasted women i m breastfeeding so i currently have dds that are the ban e of my existence and i was very happy with the way this top fit across my chest i didn t give it a full 5 stars for aesthetic design only because i wish it were a bit longer it hit me below my waist but not below the crotch of my jeans where it hits the model possibly because she is not burdened by swollen breasts the shir this poncho is so comfortable fabric soft and not to o hot this goes with so many things my favorite purchase this fall this poncho is my new favo rite thing the material is soft and it is long enough in the back to cover your butt which i al so love so that i can wear leggings underneath i normally wear a size m top but bought the xs s poncho otherwise it was just too big the only negative is that you have to hand wash i hav e been waiting for this poncho to hit my local retailer it was as good as it looks online the perfect piece to put on over a tank or t shirt you can dress it up or down and i love that it h as pockets i wear a 10 and i bought the m l this is meant to be oversized so buy appropriately found this jumpsuit in standard size small red motif pictures don t do it justice in store and to my surprise it actually fit of course it was billowy since i m short 113lbs and it came all the way down to the bottom of my ankles where they meet my feet which i don t mind i love that it almost looks like a maxi dress when on the smocked bodice was snug for a size small so there is a little bit of skin bubbling out in the chest area near my armpits like normal women usually have ladi i loved the fit and design so much that i splurged and purchased all three t he lavender has a blue tinge to it that makes it really unique the coral is a little on the neo n side but i love that and it s a great color for summer i m waiting for the white to arrive an d hope it s actually white and not ivory as retailer colors are sometime a little off i m peti te and order the xxsp which fits like a dream not too tight or loose super comfortable and fla ttering easy to pair with white khaki feels a bit more tunic than blouse but it s a lovely pi ece all the same short of calling it dark gray which isn t dark but that s fine because i sa w the picture it s everything i wanted it to be i just wish it was chiller here in georgia so i can wear it more often nan quality assembled comfortable and stylish with 2 tone fabric wash w o shrinkage pair with every rainbow color nice alternative to jean days i love this great coverage goes with everything flattering pockets soft and soothing taupey gray palette a retailer does it again my husband bought me these joggers for a retreat i went on they are so comfortable and really cute i am usually a size 4 and the size small fit great with some room this could worn with anything tank top long sleeves gloves jeans and pants very high qualit y material will be a staple in my wardrobe this fall i have been searching around for new an d unique clothes to wear to work this top is cute comfortable and well made these are all qu alities that i look for when purchasing clothes also the shirt is flattering for the stomach if you are like me and had a baby super comfortable pant they don t feel or look like jeans but will hug your body like jeans i bought the regular size 26 they waist is not tight and i nee ded to roll up the bottoms about 1 5 inches i have not washed or dried these yet but i imagine they will wash well i ll admit it s been a few months since i ve shopped at retailer i feel l ike i have to try on just about everything because there doesn t seem to be much consistency bet ween the brands i m so glad i wandered in our local store this week this top is so beautiful i n person and well made the embroidery is lovely and it s lined so not too sheer i m tall and it was a good length hitting just above the hip i think it runs tts or maybe just a tad big t he s fit perfectly across the chest beautiful skirt but does run small i wear a small and am a ble to keep the skirt but have to be very careful about under garments since it is so tight loo ks great though i m giving these leggings 5 stars although i did return them first off i do lo ve pilcro jeans and leggings beware these are not jeans at all the tag says serif legging the se are excellent leggings if that s what you re looking for i thought they were jeans and was w illing to spend the money on them but not for leggings i ll consider buying if they go on sale i bought this in coral it is soft and the fit is flattering the perfect top for transitioning into fall here in the desert this is such a classy elegant and interest piece for your wardrob e the fabric and cut is lovely and it drapes really nice i love how it doesn t slide around on your frame when you move and the pockets are awesome such a fun and practical extra i thought the arms were a little tricky but you would see the same issue with any cape style top the gr ay is a nice color but i wish it came in another option a wine color would be amazing as soo n as i saw this online i knew i d love it and when it arrived in my store i scooped it up right away the poncho is exactly as it appears online the color is different variations of gray t he fabric is soft and not itchy at all it s longer in back has arm holes on either side and la ys beautifully it s long enough to wear with leggings but looks clean enough to pair with jean s and a top this is light enough for cool summer nights but will be my fall go to once the col d weather com this is a gem stretchy graphic easy to wear lightweight and so fun the best t hing about this is it can be worn as a jumpsuit or as a higher waisted pant i ve seen it paired with a pilcro denim jacket and cute sandals and then worn as pants with a black tank jacket an d silver belt i love that this can be dressed up or down you could even throw it on over your bathing suit as a coverup i would go true to size on this one since there is some room and the top has great stretch this is a very pretty top with a nice flow i love the delicate pattern it fits perfectly and is great for work or the weekend i love this top and despite the higher p rice point it came home with me normally i tend to go for very basic colors white black gr ay but i saw this and was intrigued by the high neck and subtle cut away sleeveless style trie d it on and it was love the fit is great it is flowey but without the maternity look in front and all that extra fabric in the back it s just right i love the print and i am so not a print person i tried it on with some taupe skinny jeans and a denim jacket per i love the navy blue color they are a fun alternative to skinny jeans the fit is great and they are super comfortab le so many compliments and so comfortable all i want from a pair of pants i am 5 8 and aroun d 135 and a little bit of a pear and these fit perfectly in size 28l they felt a little tight at first and then stretched to be ideal i bought black and really love the softness the rise and the way they go with everything thinking of going back for one in the dark red this will b e a winter staple to dress up or down \r\ni just hope they don t wear out too quickly these ar e incredibly soft and comfortable they are only for inside lounging because they are a bit see through and have that long johns type of material on it this is so pretty it was beautiful in white but i bought the blue because the fabric is a little bit see through i m 5 4 and weigh about 135 and this shirt fit just like on the model in the picture it was a nice neat loose no t sloppy at all i ve never owned a romper before but after trying it on at the store i fell in love i m pear shaped 5 4 at 185 i got a med and it fits beautifully with just enough room to not be baggy i got the red mitif super flattering i purchased the one marked with the red dot the one with the larger pattern and orange in it i spied it in the store as soon as it arrived i fell absolutely in love with it immediately i am normally xl but this piece runs large so i t ried the l and it s perfect very bohemian which i adore first time out i folded over the top and wore it as pants and it looked fabulous with a black top it can also be worn the way it is shown i have also belted it and worn it with a black jacket as show i bought the top that goes with the pants live that it s comfortable to wear at home yet looks good enough to to go anywh ere easy to care for very happy with this i love boys and arrows but this top is really bes t suited to smaller size chests because there s no adjustable ties or straps or reinforcements f or support also the fabric is super soft which is great for feel but not so much for fit if y ou require a little boost for my 32d s i chose a different design this jumpsuit is absolutely fabulous i normally don t wear jumpsuit but i like this one very much it can be dresse down or dressied up i really recommend this to everyone any shape who have very relaxing and beautiful i love the pilcro line and these leggings yes definitely more a legging than jean did not disa ppoint however i did think the material would have a little more substance and weight they a re pricey so i am hoping that the thinness of the material will not prevent them from holding u p well i bought this in white and coral i usually wear xl but both l and xl fit well i bough t coral in l and white in xl it is a tad see through but not a lot the top is comfortable and looks very good on coral is so dreamy and white perfect for a casual day out i am not crazy ab out linen fabric though it can be a bit scratchy i would have preferred if the top were in a s ofter fabric for now though i plan to keep both this dress is exactly what i hoped it would be super sexy and great material i really like the gentle flow of the fabric this top can be worn casual or dressy by adding jewelry or or a scarf this shirt is very comfortable though it s ca sual its uneven seams and asymmetry give it a little\r\nmore edge and character fits true to s ize i m 5 5 125 lbs and was happy with the small i have this color also in the grey flatt ering interesting shirt i have think hips but a fuller waist the vertical lines of this shirt design suggest otherwise great to pair with torn up skinny jeans love the petite line now in p ortland cute shirt nice for layering this dress is really cute and is a lightweight knit that is great for warmer days the color is a lovely dusty rose that looks just like the picture sin ce it is a knit material and does tend to stretch out i did go down one size so that it would b e more form fitting the length on the petite size is perfect for me i saw this online and love d it i wanted to wait for a sale and a promotion but this tee shirt sold out in the color holl y completely sold out but for petite i bought a s and a m the small works it is comfortable it can be dressy or very casual i bought the white and the carbon it is a different style on a tee if you notice the front neck and the bottom of the back you will see what i mean i recomme nd this highly i can t imagine anyone not liking it love the way this tee looks and feels so comfortable and fun good length perfect jeans tee nan i am still in love with my ribboned den im dress from earlier this year so when i saw this dress i was super excited and ordered it ri ght away in the same size it just came and i m kinda disappointed the fit is shrunken kind of like i m wearing a petite size it s around 3 to 4 inches shorter the tie at the waist hits instead right under my bust and there s some weird bunching happening above my rear i ke pt wanting to pull the whole dress down more but that s just the way it was i love this top it s not just an average tee due to the asymmetry in the seams it s super soft and comes in some g reat colors i wish it was slightly longer on the sides but otherwise perfect tee i ordered it with a particular outfit in mind as i liked the purple burgundy color ordered xxsp as with m ost t shirts at retailer they run a little big xxs seems to be my new xs which used to be s \r\n\r\ncolor was nice fit was good too i just felt not special enough but if you are lo oking for a tshirt then i say give it a try as it was comfortable and the shape at least is un usual \r\n\r\nfor reference 115 lbs 30dd 26 5 in waist i purchased in white the material is a little thinner than i like but the material is soft runs tts over all the arms are long but i like this in a t shirt i will probably pick up another color in this shirt purchased this t shirt in white it s lightweight and slightly sheer perfect for layering looks cute with a pon cho blazer or on it s own really wish it was available in black this is my new favorite dress it s a lovely fall mustard shade the design really accentuates the waistline i would buy the o ther colors in a heartbeat on my petite frame the dress hits just above my knees i was expecti ng to love this based on the reviews and my prior experience with this brand but i m a little u nsure the front part hangs a bit too low on my 5 4 frame yet i think a petite would have the slits too high on the sides i m just not sure it hangs right on me it s fitted through the arm s and shoulders nicely and looks great with the front loosely tucked just not what i was expec ting i bought this top in white and my usual size large based on other reviews the sleeves ar e wonderfully long enough for this tall girl which means that they are likely very long on shor ter gals i love the style of this t the white is slightly see through but with a nude color bra works ok i do wish that it didn t cut up so high on the sides this probably isn t an issu e with shorter people but i need to wear something under it to avoid showing skin i ve tried a white camisole under an great quality flattering cut could even be used as a little day dres s for warm weather love the detail of the buttons on the back and the delicacy of the straps a bsolutely love the jacket wore it out in nyc at a rooftop bar and many people complimented on i t the faux fur is soft and pink color is beautiful it is trendy but classy and can be worn dre ssy or dressed down with boyfriend jeans and booties perfect transitional jacket from day to ni ght i was on my way out the door when i noticed this adorable t shirt and of course i grabbe d one and went to try it on i love it it s a different take on a t shirt it s comfortable and stylish i ended up buying the white one and gold colored one i m even thinking about grabbing a couple more colors i was expecting this to be longer nothing wrong with it i will be return ing it because it was a little short lovely color and really nice fabric not much form to the dress but will be lovely with a belt or jacket this will be my go to shirt for fall its a grea t layering piece with just enough detail to make it different than a plain crew neck long sleeve the neckline is unique the slit in the back of the shirt adds interest fit is slim nicely ta ilored which makes it perfect for layering i will likely purchase more colors once on sale i p urchased the dark grey and color is just as expected my only drawback is how thin the material is i can see it getting snags or holes easily but i will deal these jeans didn t fit like i t hought based on the model i usually wear 25 but these were snug and i i have snug jeans l ots of them and i wanted looser flared jeans kind of a 60 s look not these a bigger size wo uldn t have improved it they are a perfectly good jean love the color but not what i wanted i was looking for a white shirt to layer with this winter this shirt looks great on its own bu t it has also done great as a long sleeved layer under vests etc it s a little thin so i only gave it 4 stars for quality but it is holding up well so far i have many left of center tees and this one is a part of that same family i got the deep purple kind of an eggplant color w hich is perfect for fall the sleeves are long the cotton is thick and i love the small detail s at the neckline and bottom hem it s not quite 5 stars for me though because it is very high on the sides not too much that you can see skin while standing still but enough if you raise yo ur arms not a deal breaker for me though i purchased this dress on super sale and i m so happ y i did it looks better on me than on the model and that s never the case the material is soft corduroy with comfortable give it moves with me true to size i ordered a size 8 and for refer ence i m 5 2 140lbs 36c love this staple fall winter piece i wore it to a conference for work with footless tights and a black cardigan i can t say enough how comfortable it is on it has a structured give if that makes any sense love it this can be worn now on its own or as th e weather gets colder it will make a great layering piece\r\ni bought one and liked it so much i bought it in another color loved the colors greenish coal and white and shirt texture but the fit was horrible i sized up to an xl because you can never tell sizing with this line that did n t help it fit although a bit long but the deal breaker was that i looked huge from the side view since i carry my weight in my mid section high low cuts on the side are tricky on my fram e it fit well in the bust over my 34g s and looked nice from the front i do recommend it if y ou have my body issues you might pass nan nan great fitted tee nice styling hard to find tees that are fitted they seem to make most of them these days like boxes i suppose because it s ea sier to make this looks great and feels good true to size loving it nice dress fits true to size beautiful mustard yellow and soft corduroy this is a very comfortable shirt great basi c to have in the wardrobe it runs a little high on the sides the dress is true to size but h as generous stretch to it i absolutely love this dress i compliments where needed and hides wh at needs to be hid for me the tummy this top was really cute but the side slits were just a li ttle to high for my taste maybe a size up would have worked better love this shirt and the det ails on the collar nan really cute tee charcoal is deep and great all seasons cut high on s ides may need to size up to accommodate depends on body shape tried the white didn t buy too lightweight but could work layered love it fits great very comfy goes with all i was pleas e with how well this shirt fits and how flattering it is while adding a bit of visual interest with the unique neckline soft comfortable material love the carbon color great everyday casua l tee but with a nice bit of detail \r\ni liked it so much that i ordered a second one i m alwa ys searching for a dressed up tees and these were fabulous true to size and great quality na n this shirt was better than expected the fit is fitted but still flows it s comfortable and t he material is great it goes with anything ive tucked it into pants and skirts but i ve also j ust worn with leggings looks great either way im going to buy more of this shirt this is a ni ce easy go to shirt that i will be grabbing for this fall comfy but still styled to add a li ttle fun in the everyday white tee love the gorgeous mustard goldenrod shade but it s unflatter ing to my skintone makes my olive tan look more sallow all the versions of the tied dresses t hat holding horses has come out with are fantastic in fit and flattering to the tummy if you ar e busty broad back wide rib cage size up if you have generous hip bum curves give both your r egular this shirt is so cute i ordered a white but will have to return it for a different colo r the white is very sheer shee through i love this kimono the material and construction are b eautiful but the one size fits all may be too big for a petite frame you can throw it over the simplest outfit and make an instant glamour statement the knit is thin it s more for a chilly spring or warm fall day but it s not see through although a bit light weight \r\n\r\nthe sty le if figure flattering and fits tts i am short and i found the sleeves length perfect so i f you are tall you might find this shorter in the arms or body on you \r\n\r\ni bought the pu rple and it s a great color love it these are cool jeans to have in a mound of typical denim jeans i have in my closet and these are like a thorwback of the 60s 70s made with modern high q uality denim this is my first pair of 7 for all mankind denim so i can t reference how they fi t to their other jeans however based on typical pants sizing with other brands at retailer th ese pants do run smaller than other brands especially in the waist area i ended up buying my s ize but clearly a diet will be in my near future because they this is a super cute peasant top super light weight and perfect for summer looks good with jeans or shorts perfect for summer spring or fall colors are super pretty and bright it was love at first sight for me i am pet ite 5 2 about 115 lbs and the small worked well for me i usually order xs in most items in reta iler but because they only had a small left in the store i thought it would work as i do like my coats a little bigger when i tried it on it was the perfect size like the other reviewer s aid i could see why it may not work for those with a fuller chest area i am on the smaller sid e in that area and the fact that i went up to a small instead of xs may hav as with most retaile r tops this sweater is boxy and baggy through the middle i ordered an xs it s a very nice pretty sweater that i m going to try in an xxs the v neck does go down rather low so it will n eed a tank underneath the lace accents are very delicate and make the sweater look more upscale the white is a soft winter white i bought this sweater to wear with leggings for fall and winte r the quality is nice but the color is a bit different than the pic it has more brown than true berry in it it is very soft and stretchy but is a bit boxy on i am debating whether to keep it or not it was a little cheaper with my birthday discount applied but not sure i d kee p it if it was full price this is a really pretty sweater it is also very soft no wool or fur yay it is covers my bum which i love the ivory is slightly sheer so you may want to wear a ca mi with it i have it on my wish list i love this dress it s super comfortable and can easily be dressed down with a jean jacket and some sandals or dressed up with leather and a good pair of heels the fit is spot on and very slimming and i like that the length isn t too short as we ll nan classic design with nice details stays in place for those active bikini wearers this s uper cute skirt has a beautiful drape and overall fit i was afraid the tie at the front would e mphasize my slight tummy but to the contrary the skirt is flattering and slimming at 5 3 th e front of the skirt hits at my upper to mid knee 118 lbs 26 waist 36 hips size 2 regular is a perfect fit dress is pretty and works are a tunic too i m short 5 1 5 but the fabric do es not overwhelm me nan i fell in love with this dress online and ordered it despite some of th e reviews that claimed it cut too high in the leg and couldn t be worn as a dress i thought it was lovely enough to wear as a long shirt even if that was the case however when it arrived t he side hems were not cut too high for me and i have successfully worn it as a dress receiving many compliments along the way i m 5 2 and a quarter inches 117lbs i ordered an extra smal l and it fits perfectly the fabric is soft a this shirt is made of a thicker material so you a re able to wear it through multiple seasons i also liked that it is a bit longer however it r uns a little large so i would order a size down if possible this looked more fitted on the mod el the xs was still boxy on me but i loved the eyelet hem so much i kept it i got this for my girlfriend and was happy they had additional sizes online as we were not able to find this in th e store we loved that this could be worn stand alone with leggings or as an over shirt it s very versatile and is perfect for your fall wardrobe nan i love this dress i do agree with the other reviewers it does come up higher on the sides it has a hi lo hem style on me but i m s hort 5 3 and got the petite xxs and it s not too short to wear as a dress it s super cute if you re short er and don t mind showing a little leg i highly recommend it nan nan this d ress is beautiful i cannot begin to express how pleased i am with the design and timelessness o f this dress in my mind it takes me back to the 20s and 30s more so than a flapper dress as it exudes the simplicity yet elegance of the early 20th century the champagne color is light and a iry and it is incredibly comfortable to wear i am wearing this to a musical at the tuts theatre in two weeks with pearls this was a splurge piece for my fall wardrobe however i will be retu rning it it s extremely heavy and bulky the collar doesn t lay right it s tall so it wants to flop over but it s too bulky to fold and stay down i went a size down and the sleeves are huge wide and too long it s not flattering on my figure i have a booty but the sweater doesn t show curves at all i also thought the colors were dingy not bright like the photo i think it would look good on someone tall and slender als great dress with just the right amount of movement an d flow everywhere perfect to dress up for a night out or wear it casually during the day i love d everything about this dress except the length that fabric is great the width of the dress wa s great not too slim but not too baggy but the front side length was the problem it is lon ger in the back which was great i could have even dealt with the front length but for my age the way the sides came up fairly high just couldn t work for me \r\ni you are younger and okay with showing lots of leg go for it its really cute i love this jumper i m 5 1 and the 00p f it beautifully i needed no alterations i found it true to size i can see that if my torso was any longer it wouldn t fit though i found the quality of the fabric was nice it just gathers slightly but you can see that on the model too in the photo that doesn t bother me i really l ike how this fits it is soft and the eyelet details are very cute i bought this originally for my daughter but fell in love with it when i tried it on and kept it for myself it is a cotton p olyester blend so it is very comfortable to wear the length fits nice as well i have received so many compliments wearing it with dress pants and also with jeans thank you for making an ite m that is both pretty flexible and meets the needs of young women and their moms i bought t his skirt yesterday and love love love it very flattering will go with anything i am 5 5 127 and size 6 fit perfectly this is a great dress for me to wear to work lounging on a sunda y and everywhere in between i d even wear it over a bathing suite on a chilly beach highly rec ommend it i tried this on twice in nyc and loved this jacket it is so much cuter in person my only concern is whether the mesh fabric will hold up over time and at this price point it needs to last more than one season it has adorable embroidery on it the colors are vibrant you need to see this in person i love this dress i will be living in it this fall and winter the color is perfect the fabric is soft seriously it is so conformable and cute i will style it with bo oties tall boots with vests wear it as a tunic i love it as a dress i didn t think it was t oo short at all i m 5 7 so things tend to be short on my anyway but i thought this was perfect and hit in the right spots love love love it i really liked this dress i agree with the other s that say the side seam comes up pretty high i think i d wear as a tunic or open like the mode l i can t justify full price though tts my normal med fit i bought this dress online in the cream black combo for an incredible deal i wasn t thrilled about it when it arrived even for t he ridiculously low price because the contrast between the top and bottom was too big the two materials are quite different the top fabric being much more casual than the bottom fabric and with the color contrast it just looked like a top and skirt that you wouldn t put together if th ey were separates when i went to my local store to return they had the grey com this is a very pretty dress with a unique bodice and neckline however it seems to run small on top i can not zip up the top by myself zipper is in the back even though i usually wear a size 2 or xs in th is brand i m a 32d so i m narrow on top i haven t decided yet if i m keeping it because despi te the sizing issue the dress is lovely this pink tank is a wonderful addition to my go to bas ics i love the color which is a nice deep pink that is pretty spot on in terms of accuracy to the online photo it is a wonderful comfy fabric and the side knot adds nice visual interest to make this top appealing and unique i also appreciate the wide straps which means i can wear a normal bra instead of a strapless one without worrying about straps playing peek a boo the only drawback is size i ordered my usual xs i am 5 5 110 lbs i absolutely love this skirt i pur chased both a medium and a large i found that it ran big i typically wear a size 10 12 i ende d up keeping the medium and it was perfect i read prior reviews and decided to go forward with my purchase i am so pleased that i did the m fit nicely the fabric is not as soft as i had wi shed however i think with wear it will become broken in i love the cold shoulder trend this sweater is not bulky but the thick knit will keep you warm while looking stylish it is not you r typical sweater if you want something unique but still basic this is your sweater looks gr eat with jeans and khakis i don t know how this dress doesn t have more of a following it s re ally perfect i will say i am tall 5 8 and lanky the dress is oversized but not overly so drapes beautifully and will work for any season fabric is divine i plan to wear this to work for travel on weekends etc love the cream deep charcoal color at the sale price this really is a great versatile find this blouse is so pretty i love the design the material and the p attern is so unique i love the sleeves and how they billow out just above the elbow and come in at the wrist i think the amount of fabric is perfect and would not be nearly as nice with less the cut around the top where it starts to gather and fall is so feminine and modern princess fee ling i hope they make this same style in other colors and prints i adore it and feel so good wearing it if i could change anything i d m this top is super cute unfortunately it seems to run small so i had to return this is a great light weight tank true to size but size up if yo u prefer a baggier fit size down for a closer fit your preference for fit should be your guide i prefer a closer fit so i choose a xs i am a 6 8 in tops the arm holes are slim and high so you are completely covered in all sizes excellent drape the twist in the front is just perfect looks great with jeans print joggers and even wide leg pants i imagine it would be fantastic with a pencil skirt denim perhaps hope it liked everything about this coat but the length it is beautiful and good quality first ordered a medium because the fit seemed slight i m a 4 6 returned it for a large unfortunately the large will also be returned the body length is ve ry cropped not at all as it appears in photo to meet the top of a waistband i ll hope to find a similar coat with just a bit more length fits great super comfortable i love this dress t he sweater has a substantial weight to it i ordered xs which is my usual size and i didn t find it ran big at all the sleeve length and hem length were perfect very cute with jeans i love w earing sweaters when it gets cooler out but hate the bulkiness that comes with them this is a s uper cute sweater that isn t too bulky and gives you the sexiness you re looking for great mate rial i typically take a m or a l in retailer tops sweaters so i ordered one of each as this h as been on back order for forever the medium was swimming on me and i have a very athletic fr ame with huge traps and biceps i could have easily taken this in a small and still had plenty of length in the sleeves and i have very long arms \r\n \r\nthis sweater is thick and heavy there s no way here in atlanta it can be worn anytime other than spring and the occasiona l very very cool summer night i sized down to an xs based on reviews and the fit was perfect i am 34 b and usually take a small i like the classic lines with the sexy edge this is a heavi er sweater but perfect for our houston fall and winter if you size down the sweater has a much nicer fit to it and is not at all loose fitting it just skims your curves i am absolutely addi cted to tunics so when i saw this on sale with an extra 30 off i went for it i m glad i di d it s absolutely beautiful i love the opposing stripe patterns the hi lo feature very subtl e and the tie back so cute \n\nif you re petite like me though you may want to wear somethi ng underneath it does cut a bit low in the chest area nan this top is perfect under a blazer o r sweater the peplum is pretty and the scallops as texture to the tank love going to alter sh oulders straps by shortening for a better fit petite size would have fit better but was sold o ut i m an xl in retailer tops but large also fit well in this blouse so you might be able to s ize down this blouse is so voluminous i am returning it i m full figured and have a short tors o so the large billowy swingy body of this blouse does nothing for my shape i m busty and the blouse cascades off of my bustline which makes me look either pregnant or much heavier than i ac tually am if you re tall or slender the extra volume might not be an issue \r\n \r\ni really w anted to keep this blouse beca got this in white and love the scallop detail the material is al so super soft and stretchy i would ve absolutely loved this in black but i feel like the white enhances my hips a bit too much i think this would be super cute on a taller frame got my usua l xs and it was a perfect fit i got this dress in the gray size small and it fits me perfectly it hides flaws in your figure and is nice enough that it can be worn to the office and then out later for a date or dinner i did not try on the white black combo because i thought the white t op part might be too sheer unlike other reviewers i think the contrast of fabrics works i m n ot sure why there are negative reviews here i must have the right body type for it because i lo ve it this jacket is so well made and absolutely beautiful i usually wear a size 4 or small in everything at retailer sadly i ordered a small and will have to return it too tight on chest a nd arms i recommend going a size up also this jacket is really cropped probably needs a hifh waist pant to compliment it otherwise might appear too short nothing wrong with the dress sad ly it s the body i m putting it on that s less than perfect fits fine and tts but just doesn t do anything for my bit wide hips other than adds to them hangs nicely but jersey top and nylo n bottom add to the wide hip issue that said i think i may still keep it as its a great length not too short and a nice simple dress really versatile i m petite and pear shaped so i m sma ll on top and curvy around the hips and love the way this dress fits it s a relaxed fit so it s not super fitted and it s loose around the waist which is great it s a wonderful casual dress t o wear with a pair of tall boots i adore it this blouse is great to wear almost anytime it ca n easily be dressed up or down depending on the occasion and the accessories it has a bit more volume around the waist then the picture shows but that could be because i m bit more well en dowed than the model i m 5 0 and size m 8 this shape looks great on my curves without making me look chunky or stout the image makes the color look black but in person the color can pass for a really dark blue in some light the textile of the fabric is super cute was really please d with my purchase of this sweater runs just a little big i m very happy with the interesting print and unusual bib design of this comfortable dress the bib embroidery is off in some areas i find that the swath of beige to be too much since it almost matches my skin tone to break it up i took the unnecessary waist tie and used it as a bodice trim creatively knotting tucking and securing with mini safety pins i purchased the m petite and though it has a zipper back i did not have to unzip to put this on or take it off i have a heavily padded up this skirt is ho t i love it and would marry it if possible super pretty the jewel hem looks awesome buy it we can be twins the fabric on this top is just so soft it s a thin cotton knit and drapes bea utifully \r\n\r\nthe top runs tts but it is tailored to the body it s not loose and wide i n the width the length hits the top of the hips just as shown \r\n\r\nthis works for casual or dress for dress i just put a fancy rhinestone pin over where the knot is btw i bought this i n black which is why adding the pin glams it up although i bought it in black it s not sheer so a cami isn t needed love this top simple yet so stylish nan nan i love this shirt so much i bought it in another color it looks like it does in the picture loose and flowy these are e xcellent as previous reviewers noted they are a thin material and there isn t much stretch t hat being said they have a casual work appropriate men s wear vibe the extra fabric in the cr otch region contributing to this if you really don t like the extra fabric wearing them a lit tle higher and closer to the natural waist should solve the problem the navy is a little lighte r in person than on the site just fyi it s less easy to mistake for black which is alright in my book nan i don t buy many jackets retired but i think they are still useful i had my doub ts about this jacket like could they really get the trim straight at this price but they did the jacket is casual but sophisticated i got the grey and the color is just as pictured i will probably wear with dark jeans and i see several creative mashups with things in my closet i am pleased and i think you will be too this is a great layering tank that is super comfy the sale price is a bargain effortless and super cute i m currently wearing my blue tunic for the first time with black leggings and booties i absolutely love the everyday comfort of this piece a f ew have mentioned length as being an issue i m wearing a regular s my normal size at 5 7 an d find the length similar to the model s the cut on this is perfect i was worried that it wou ld look like a plaid sack on but it s a slim cut that looks polished without needing to be belt ed this will surely be a go to for me i like this top a lot it s cuter in person than it look s on the model it s a little heathered it definitely fits slimmer one me than on the model and i m pretty small on top \n\noverall nice to see a reasonably priced basic t on the retailer site love love these jeans being short they come right to my ankle super soft and don t requi re any hemming i ordered my typical jean size of 26 and they fit like a glove would love to ha ve these in black and grey these tights are perfect they seem like they will last a couple sea sons with minimal wear just the slightest texture and not shiny i got the beige brown to layer with dresses skirts and boots love i was walking by my local retailer and saw this in the wind ow and loved the colors it s a great combination and looks good with white jeans and regular d enim i like the cuffs on the sleeves and the textured material it is a kimono so in essence it is not form fitting it s meant to flow over whatever else you have on i purchased the xs s and i am a normal size 2 and it looks cute i got lots of compliments when i wore it there are slits on either side at the bottom hem as well which allow this shirts dresses up anything tight s jeans or a skirt love the color and the length i got size 2p it comes down a little over my knee cap and i wish it was rather a little above it i have a small chest about 32b and with a p added push up bra it was still bit loose on the top i do have a shorter torso i feel like i co uld ve gone with the 0 petite i m a pear shape and more like a size 4 on the bottom and i weigh about 115lbs there is tons of room to go smaller it is not form fitting on the bottom at all has that slight polyester feel but the fabric is beautiful and thick i was surprised how great t his blouse looks on the color and texture are awesome very well made but runs a tad small this will be my new go to when i open my closet love this top super soft and drapes great eve n after washing it is pretty long and loose but it is so comfy and cute to wear with jeans or even joggers love these tanks so much i have them in every color i wear them layered under blo uses thermals henleys blazers etc i m typically and extra small but the small fits perfectl y these jeans are so comfortable they are well made they are the perfect pair of jeans the o nly thing i do not love is they stretch out a little bit after wearing i am going to order thes e again in the next smaller size comfortable and soft are two of my favorite words when it come s to clothes this shirt meets both requirement it is a great length and can be casual and dres sed up must have for fall and winter this shirt spoke to me as soon as i entered the store i love the colorful plaid the flattering cut and the light airy material at very least i thin k this will be a three season go to this is the softest most perfectly cut basic love the bla ck wish the white was a true white or ivory instead of heathered as usual with retailer basics i prefer the regular length despite being petite with a short torso this product is just what i wanted it was a great color and nice quality for the price it is tighter than the model but i am curvy and that s usually the case looks cute with a patterned pant and jewelry bought this shirt in red in my usual size small it is so comfortable and easy to wear i am 5 8 5 tall an d it fall on me similar to the model in the picture not sure if i can wear with leggings may b e too short in front i m looking forward to layering it under sweaters and sweater vests for a pop of color nan i am giving it five stars because the colors and design are so beautiful but i am a medium size 6 around 5 8 and i chose the m l which is just too big i also found a ru n in the fabric which is very loose and knit like in places but i don t care i am exchanging for another one in small nan i purchased this top on 2 colors a great go to stylish soft and very comfortable this tunic is a great way to wear the plaid trend right now without it bei ng the traditional collared shirt it s fun comfortable and has great style the first time i w ore it i got tons of compliments i m 5 8 and the back of the shirt goes to the back of my knee s i usually wear a size 12 and the large fit great i really looked forward to receiving this p iece it was however extremely difficult to get on and off you have to step into it and it is v ery narrow it is difficult to get your arms in and i had to have my husband s help getting it o ff i am 5 9 135 pounds i have a fit figure i ordered a medium i wear a small or x small for a top and an 8 in shorts or pants once it was on i was not thrilled with the extra material aro und the hips and tummy area it is not terribly becoming it bunches up i m about 10 15 lbs over weight and the material clings a bit this would be a wonderful top for someone who has a nice s hape simple cotton garment such that the price seems high if it had fit perfectly there is a c hance i would have kept the dress but my normal size 6 was a bit large and even though it was s ize petite also to long in the upper body perhaps a 4 p would have fit but it may have then b een too small puzzling for petite to be too long in upper body love this shape dress and the c olor and pattern however when i saw this on a model at my retailer store i fell for it i love the colors and the weave of this kimono it looks great over anything denim or chambray in parti cular it will be useful for cooler days and nights or air conditionied places the knit cuffs h old it in place i got many compliments on it the first time i wore it comfortable jacket that your can cross your arms and your back is not stuck it is stretchy i really love this additio n to my wardrobe the colors are great and it is very comfortable my only complaint is that it runs large it would be nice if they had more than two sizes pretty blues colors are exactly a s pictured fits perfectly not boxy not tight just comfortable i m 5 9 and this is tunic len gth on me the stitching is why i like this dress even though the arms and waist were a little large on me i decided to keep it because of the beautiful pattern i think going a size down f rom what i normally wear would be too tight across my back or too short i will wear it with a cardigan tights and boots as the weather gets cooler i love everything about this tunic the color fabric and design i am very happy with this perches i absolutely love this top especia lly for fl weather \nit s soft and falls just a tad longer in the back and is a little fitted in the bust area with a very feline look \ni had the tank as well and just love the satin trim \ni will say it runs a little smaller than the tank bc i have xs in the tank and needed a small in t his \nlove it the title says it all \r\nperfect go to tank for underneath tops smooths out l ines purchased in a large so if you re between sizes may want to size up i was first attract ed to this tunic by the beautiful bright colors tried it on and it was becoming comfortable and perfect for my laid back lifestyle i just bought it a week ago have worn it three times al ready i bought the blue it actually is a pretty good t shirt but i wish that i had known that white actually means oatmeal with bits of grey and beige i bought three and will now need to r eturn them all hopefully i can find it in other colors i like nice practical tank that i can wear with everything but the fabric is kind of weird overly warm and pulls up around the bot tom when i wear it sometimes i would still recommend it but just know it s not just a cotton t ank i was in love with this top as soon as i saw it i love the patchwork and i think it is wel l put together i ve worn it once the day i got it i was so excited and washed it and it is s till in great shape \r\ni liked it with the sleeves rolled up and the bottom tucked in as it wa s a little longer than i m used to but nothing too long my torso is short \r\nthe material is not thick or heavy and the sleeves and some patches are kinda thin nice material but not some thing to wear if it s very ch i liked this shirt well enough to order in several colors preferr ed it fitting loosely 5 1 around 100 105 size small i always look for marine was able and th is fit the bill or so i thought was so so dismayed to see that after one wash the dye had sett led strangely into folds making it look like the shirt had cracks all over it worse looking on the moss green but still apparent in the black both no longer wearable \n\ni am forced to retur n the shirts but since i do like the shirts i am goi i have these in many different colors some with stripes very versatile and i wear them all year around holds well through the washing lov e these tank top love this top i m 5 7 145 pounds athletic build and the medium falls sligh tly loosely and very nicely over my hips it is quite low cut so i wear a tank under it in a pr ofessional environment but it s fine to wear sans tank top in a more casual setting i really l ove the back as the straps are sexy and show off my shoulders the material seems to be good qu ality and i would order this in more colors if it were available i had read all the reviews ab out the regular length being too long they were out of stock on the petite when i ordered but i took a chance and ordered the regular size i love it it is a little long in the back but i think that makes it a little more fun than your standard plaid shirt so cute with skinny jeans and leggings it is one of my favorite fall tops i got the blue but might go back and get the r ed since it would be so great for the holidays it s perfect perfect fit long enough to wear l eggings and cover my behind it s perfect look carefully at the pics of the back if this style and the color suit you just go ahead and order this one it looks just like the pics and is li ght comfortable and true to size the kind of top you can throw on when you are in a hurry and look great however because the back is sheer from halfway down maybe not for work if you work in an office moth is one of my favorite brands at retailer and this one is easy peasy i am 5 3 34c 28 38 and ordered the regular s i just received this top in the mail and i couldn t be happ ier with how it fits and feels on might have to wear a camisole under with a bit see through in front it is very true to size and drapes beautifully with the back being very feminine i am 5 6 and the length falls just about the same on myself as does the model i will wear with skinny jeans with the nice length working well with them i love this top i am 5 8 135 36d ordered a small and it fit perfectly length is long but i liked it i paired it with grey jeans and bl ack wedge boots love this top nan this shirt is comfortable loose but doesn t make you look like you re shapeless it compliments top was featured in an email ad i love the colors in bot h tops and bought both plaids i m 5 4 about 130 lbs and the medium fits well it is long in the back but i like that if the front were a little longer i d prefer that but the length is ok the colors are definitely cheery and mood enhancing very appropriate for this holiday seaso n there s something wonderful about this tee it s the way it fits it hangs so nicely and is a wonderful year round item i bought it in black for myself and one for my daughter she ordered another color and i did too when i bought it one of the gals at the store said it had been su ch a popular tee this year and once i put it on i understood why i give it a high rating if you re not a petite and are reading this read on i m always on the lookout in the petite sec tion because many times us fuller girls can fit into these \r\n \r\npros \r\n tts for m e i m normally a size 10 12 m l in the regular sizes i tried on the 12p and it fit everywher e perfectly especially at the bust in which i m a 36c \r\n fabric is on the thicker side but that s what gives it this adorable shape besides already being fit and flare \r\n pockets i always lean towards dresse this pair of age stevie capris is everything that i could want in a p air of jeans soft sexy without being skintight and the perfect color of blue i am 5 3 10 8 lbs and the 25 was a perfect fit these hit about an inch above my ankle and looked amazing think legs that look a mile long with booties one night and nude heels the next wow love t his blazer it s not as structured as some blazers but the woven fabric hugs in the right plac es fantastic addition and great alternative to the good ol black blazer great versatility wor k to play nice weight for fall but will also do well for my fl winter it s longer than some o f my other blazers but i like it with the front pockets as they are it makes for a unique de sign that gets noticed i got the size 4 and i have broad shoulders for someone 135lbs makes for a n i love this shirt great fabric nice quality flattering fit i have gotten this shirt in 4 colors my only complaint is that the color names do not match the actual color not sure who named these the orange is a lovely burgundy and the white is actually oatmeal one of the best tops i have ever bought i love he material and the style the satin trim around the edges adds a classy touch i wore this top with yoga pants and then with jeans and it was perfect for both outfits the shirt is true to size i wear a size small and it fit perfectly 5 7 145lbs 34b the fabric of this dress feels like suede i couldn t stop touching it here comes the bu t the dress is cut straight down no definition the rosette lace is sewn on like an aftertho ught just to make the dress not to look plain or cheap i tried it on with a belt and by itself and i still feel like it s just a plain dress that i can get at a discount store i m a big fan of tracey reese and own a lot of her dresses and i feel that this is the most plain dress she e ver designed size s regu this dress can be dressed up or down it looks cute w a black open sw eater and looks great alone the fabric is very soft although it isn t fitted it doesn t have too much material either so it is very flattering on the back yoke also has the white embroide red flowers which finishes off a quality look the pockets are nice and light inside i usually wear a 10 12 and the large fit perfectly i was also lucky to get it on sale i am most please d with this tunic purchased it in red nice quality and very comfortable casual top it has a f lattering cut that isn t boxy for a long tunic so it s flattering the weight of the fabric is s ubstantial but not heavy or stiff so it doesn t add any bulk which is a bit slimming it would w ork well for a wide variety of body types i may buy the blue as well love these jeans flatter ing and comfortable great length for short girl worth the money i received this tee in grey as gift and immediately went online to buy another \n\nbeware because the color names are confus ing i originally thought it was a mix up in the naming on the website so i ordered the red t hinking i d get the red colored tee however the red tee is actually a light orange color th e orange tee is actually a burgundy red color \n\ni ended up keeping the orange colored tee al though i actually wanted the red color because i really do love the quality of this shirt this dress is pretty and is somewhat fitted in the bodice it does have an a line fit in the skirt t he stitching is beautiful honestly the stitching was a little too bright for me some may like that but i was hoping for a little more toned down or muted the colors are so vibrant in my op inion it almost cheapens the dress the fabric is cotton and it is not lined i am 5 9 and it d oes hit right about where it does on the model i am sending it back because i didn t say wow i love this w as the previous reviewer mentioned this dress is great for a dress that doesn t have a true waist it really fits awesome so incredibly soft high quality material and the me sh pockets are perfection pockets that are so small light that you can t tell the dress even ha d them when looking at it the color of the dress is what initially drew me to it definitely a different color for a sun dress and after trying it on in stores i would say beware though it truly is a rich and different c i got this jacket in the gray the fit is amazing and it is s oooooo comfortable i love that it is a bit less structured but still looks polished beautifu l neutral color in a comfortable fabric fits tts i am 5 ft 2 in and went with the petite it i s a midi on me i have other skirts from retailer from past years in similar fabric and will say that overtime the waist will stretch even if hand washed carefully so that being said buy your size in this skirt don t go bigger to get a longer length you can wear it lower on your hips i f you like it longer which i think actually looks more flattering in any case it s a great pie ce that no o nan i love the print and quality and safari look to me it does run tight across th e shoulders i would size up it is delightful dreamy and yes it is quite right perfect fit i wear a size 8 and it was right on great skirt easy to wear perfect weight for spring fall very comfortable while still looking stylish the xs fit well i ordered this in a 4 34b 140lb s 5 8 because it looked like it would run big and it definitely does the 4 fit comfortably but the cut of this dress made me look about 10 lbs heavier than i am i am pear shaped and thi s dress made me look very bottom heavy so i returned it that said the material is gorgeous as it is the perfect weight and the colors are much more striking and complementary in person i f i had a straight er silhouette and a larger bust this dress would have been a these are very versatile pants you can pair them with a tank top and flip flops and be ready for a casual summ er day or pair them with a dressy top and heels and be ready for a formal function i ve only wo rn these once to a formal city function and felt put together and comfortable with the pants i wore a black lace button up top satin peep toe heels black tuxedo jacket and a chunky necklace very cute my husband loved it i m 5 3 117 lbs and the xs fit perfectly they only downside t o i am a horse lover so i had to have it as it is of good quality and unique be mindful that it runs small and fits alittle snug across shoulder also excellent for layering this general sweat shirt is cute stylish and can be dressed up or down a fresh alternative to the standard grey s weatshirt with leggings for casual mornings i love the model s pairing of this sweatshirt and w as struck by it when i walked in the store like the other reviewer said you could dress up or down despite the sweatshirt name and i m planning to wear it with the galleria corduroy skir t and gray booties love the stitched pockets on the side but i m unlikely to put anything the re since it would probably fall out \r\n\r\nsizing definitely boxy as the first reviewer said i m solidly a small in most tops and this one i have a bit of spare i was looking for a top tha t this because i thought it would flatter my boxy big busted shape and it does however while i liked the irregular hemline on the model on my 5 5 frame it hits at a strange place and so i wi ight weight summer top even here in the south i love the modern styling but the quality of the fabric is a concern definitely no dryer on this one i bought this top in the store and love it i was surprised to see negative reviews online i am small chested curvier on the bottom this top does have a wide and short fit but the cut is flattering all three colors are beautiful i wear it with high waist short jean shorts and it looks very fresh i ordered the xl and it fits me the same as pictured on the model so it s true to size the peplum is very comfortable i lov e the mix of colors especially for fall i ve always had great luck with the fit wear of this brand i d love to see this same style done in lighter colors for summer fits well comfortable and flattering i wouldn t call this pattern fabric purple though it is definitely multi colore d and purple should not be called the dominate color the picture is an accurate representation of the color lovely top that will be a great year round staple to my wardrobe peplum and pleat ggings ok received this in the mail yesterday and tried on this morning i ordered the size 2 snd it is really big i notice that the armhole sag and there is a lot of extra room everywhere i am a 32d on the top so that is why i ordered the size 2 but i will return this and order the size 0 and i hope that will take care of the sagging arm area like the other reviewers have said this is a wider shirt but the width done is in a stylish way i did not think it looked frumpy or sack like on however i found it to be rather short i bought a 0 regular not petite and it fits shorter than many shirts i have from retailer madewell etc which have the same looser fit i am 5 2 115 lbs so it is odd that it fit somewhat short on me if you are tall it mig ht bare your midriff some i bought the peach which was close to the color pictu i ordered this in a s for reference i am 5 7 128 130 lb 32dd with a 27 waist and it fits nicely i hav e a fairly large chest but i didn t find that the pleats laid awkwardly or over accentuated my boobs but i got the purple motif so the pattern and the higher neckline may have helped keep the top looking cute and stylish but still modest on me the top drapes a little more than than it does on the model but it s flattering and not at all sloppy thanks to the fabric which has a jus i bought this top in 2 colors it was endlessly comfortable and easy to wear so i bought it in the 3rd color it s so versatile that i found myself trying to wear it in too many situati ons travel weekends and work the feel of the fabric is gorgeous but it pills after wear s o when the top went on sale i bought an extra set of all 3 colors now i have a set for play an d a set for work i love this shirt this top is absolute perfection i don t think the photo do es it justice as it looks so much better untucked i don t even have great toned arms but it s still so flattering i got the gray one amd might get another color great value as well i m p etite 5 1 and bought my usual size small i originally bought this from my local retailer in an xs petite i think it was a return i brought it home and decided it was just too big for my 5 4 116 frame i ordered it in an xxs petite and am keeping it the colters are just so pretty and it is machine washable which is an added bonus it is still flowy but not objectionably so it is meant to be unstructured and bohemain i think looking forward to wearing this on my upcom ing trip to italy i really am happy with this purchase i am only 5 1 and this will be a perfec t dress for me the cuts hit at just the right spot i know a lot of folks thought this top was too big boxy but i m pretty slim up top with a big booty quintessential pear shape and i thi nk the shape is totally flattering your mileage may vary but with free returns i d just try it on first i sized down one size which helped and got the raspberry colored one i adore the color it s impossibly vibrant and beautiful for spring summer or fall the eyelets don t hav e any cloth underneath just bare skin but they re so small that i don lovely sweater that is good with jeans or a skirt i ordered an xl and my only complaint is that i wish it were a bit l onger in the front i am heavy chested though so that s how most tops fit me i ordered the gray black and it s really nice i receive lots of compliments i absolutely love this blouse i ord ered it in peach then waited for the raspberry to come back in my size now i have 2 colors it runs really large but putting a tank or cami underneath is fun a fun top \r\ni tried o n both the medium and large i m between sizes 5 4 34g and preferred the large the medium w aist rode up a bit on my torso so the large stayed down a bit also the medium pleats did not fall as nicely on my chest i m surprised there are no reviews on this blouse yet i ve had it f or a couple of months and love it it looks great in the spring with my flora retailer infinity scarf the color is beautiful i ve gotten many compliments on this too it fits well and has a small texture which makes it more interesting must wear tank under or i feel immodest due to e yelet holes beautiful i m machine washing w delicates n hang dry comes out great easy breezy nan great dramatic cardigan wearable art and not for the meek i ll wear with a leather skirt and boots jeans and boots or a dress and boots if the lack of closure at top bothers you att ach something be creative i like the movement that alternately hides and reveals the statemen t jewelry worn i bought 2 of these in peach and maize the fabric is yummy and soft as silk th e eyelet detail gorgeous and the colors are great however there is too much fabric if only a b it less the fabulous swing shape would work that said i m keeping mine if just for the gorgeo us fabric and colors i would even consider buying the third color just to wear around the house if sale was on sale again weighs nothing so comfortable great length not too short fits a t ad loose but very pretty and easy to wear fun print flattering casual style with a touch of class 5 3 110lbs and the xs fits just as it shows on the model i am 5 6 and wear between a 9 10 pant and m l tops depending i would consider myself a pear bodytype bc i have a thicker mids ection and flat everywhere else for this i ordered a medium and it was slightly loose so if y ou are conscious about your midsection ordering your normal size will probably be fine the fab ric is very lightweight like a normal drapey t shirt would be made out of just to keep in mind the draping is really cool though i would just probably hand wash dry clean or if i had this on my wish list as soon as it came in i just bought it last week and i m so glad i did i bough t the purple print and it is really pretty here in northern cal i can wear this almost year rou nd i am often right between sizes when it comes to deletta tops this one is a little bit big i m hoping that the extra room will help keep it cool during our 100 degree days i bought the pur ple motif in size medium my regular retailer size the fit is true to size the knit is soft an d comfortable this top can be dressed up or worn casually it is a great all around basic top f or summer this shirt dress has the right amount of body skimming drape and length to flatter my short potbellied square waisted self i wish they made more versions more colors more sleeves i can wear this top with jeans or a business suit the cowl neck is the best part it gives this g arment a little pop yesterday i combined it with a black business suit and white pearls i had so many compliments i ordered my usual size s in the purple print this peplum top style color s pattern will go easily with pretty much anything shorts pants jeans skirts wear for cas ual or dress it up for me the fit is tts armholes provide good coverage length is fine the top has a bit of stretch doesn t feel restrictive the waist is banded a little loose which is fine don t like tight fitting waists on tops i like that the waist seems a little lower tha n other peplum tops at retailer the skirt love this tank the purple motif is gorgeous and the carbon color is a rich dark gray with a slight blue tinge at 5 4 130 with a fairly proporti onate torso to leg ratio i sometimes need a petite in tops like this to avoid the armholes bein g too long in this top i found the petite small too short but the regular small was perfect t he waist hits right above my natural waist the hem is just a skosh lower than the model photo and the armholes are the right length beautiful flattering cu i get that it s a swing tank and it s supposed to be loose but i got a 00p and it s huge too much material with that being said it s such a cute top that i decided to keep it i got it taken in about 2 inches on each side an d it now looks great this shirt has it all great staple piece to add to your wardrobe not onl y is it classy with a pair of black pants and booties but you can add a little spice to it by dr essing it up with some funky earrings found it to be a bit large in the armpit area so i sized down i love this feminine blouse and the gorgeous colors on it s a fresh shape that is truly f lattering i like that it comes in specific sizes so the proportions seem accurate i bought the 8 in peach all the colors are very pretty i am a usual 8 medium and am 34f so the regular bra friendliness is essential this is a new fuller shape for me i m on a quest at this time of ye ar for clothing that feels comfortable in the beginning heat of summer and this is a lovely cho ice you could pair it w this shirt is a steal at the sale price i ve received many compliments it is a swing top so not a lot of form i wear a cami underneath have found the style to be c omfortable for work like the other reviewer said the print is more beautiful in person i am u sually a small in meadow rue and this fits well in a small my only issue is that the lining ha ngs out from the bottom and hangs out unevenly hopefully i can exchange it or get it sewed up evenly this a beatifully made top it does run large so i sized down it has a very floaty qua lity but it truly lovely so i kept it and glad i did i ve had many compliments have run a rib bon through the holes around the waist once to pull it in and it worked really well it s conve rtible this top is super flattering and comfortable perfect summer wear this cute top is made in the usa yay it is a flattering cut and looks great under jackets i prefer the ivory color and feel of the fabric the black and white was cute but hung strangely and felt stiff i am si ze sm med 34c and went with the small cowl is cozy and can be styled to keep you warm perfect very pretty and flattering without being too fussy helps to hide my tummy and very well made t hat said i have fairly wide shoulders and a larger ribcage so i had to size up considerably usu ally a 4 or a 6 and i needed a 10 to be comfortable the 8 went on but the fabric has no give so i sized up i am never a 10 but that s what worked in this blouse surprisingly it still looked nice and tailored definately runs on the smaller side \r\n\r\nlovely worth the full price in m y opinion this skirt is so light and breezy perfect for hot or humid weather the first time i wore it i got compliments all day long the length is perfect for a more conservative look i do n t wear mini skirts and the slit on the side shows just the right amount of leg it runs a bit large so i had to go down a size i love this blouse it s really pretty and very flattering it i m almost always a 0 to make some room for the girls i m a 32 c d depending on the brand so d have been nice if retailer had ordered some extra tops in larger sizes as i am sure that many people will have to size up regardless i love the blouse and would definitely recommend it to an this top is adorable runs a bit small but so cute worth the price and tons of compliments this blouse is very beautiful and flattering it s just a little bit see through so i will wear a cami underneath as with sizing i did size up as the other commenters recommended to do so i purchased this blouse for an easter brunch and couldn t be happier the feminine romantic print is a gorgeous addition to my spring wardrobe i ve paired it with a pencil skirt and heels for a dressier look as well as my favorite ag cuffed denim and sandals for a more casual daytime look light and airy runs really small had to go up 2 sizes a little pricy but overall a cute blous e not your typical blouse this top is very pretty and figure flattering because of the way it nips in under the bust the neckline and color are also flattering however it runs a bit small and you need to get the right fit for the bust balancing the band under the bustline with the r oominess of the chest area there is a side zipper but it can still be a little tricky to get on and off i wound up not buying it due to the price but i d probably snap it on sale when i saw this top i had to have it runs very small would size up especially if curvy on top sheer but not too sheer feels and looks delicate no problems so far i just purchased this cute top at my local retailer store and definetely the size is way off in blouses i wear a size 6 small or medium with a 34b bust tall and slender and i had to purchase a size 12 what \r\n\r\noverall so cute and could not pass it up good luck try it on before purchasing beauti ful delicate and unique cotton blouse that accentuates the waist and falls nicely down the belly i love the floral print very appropriate for spring summer i agree with the other reviewers wh o ve mentioned that it runs small i have a bust size of 34 dd and waist size 25 and i had to si ze up to 12 nevertheless i am really looking forward to wearing this with a pair of skinny jea ns and some nude pumps for a girls night out oh my goodness i paid full price for this dress b ecause i loved it so much i styled it with a cream lace poncho also from retailer and it is gorgeous at the sale price you can t lose this jacket is really cute i tried in in a large i n the store and was too big so i took a chance and ordered medium on line i have broad shoulder s so i was a bit worried it s perfect very fitted and cropped but will look great to throw on over a dress for reference i m 5 foot 6 inches and a 34 c 132lbs slender but athletic medium was perfect i have always love tracy reese products this blouse is really fun nice fabric and the proportions are perfect but why does it have to show the wide band of my bra across my back the cut out dips low so i can t imagine a bra that would work with it it s a 70 s hippy themed blouse maybe the designer expects us to go braless unfortunately i m going to have to wear a c ami underneath it my girls need support what a beautiful harbinger of spring this blouse is s o lovely and uplifting for me tts i bought the size 4 34 b and it fits perfectly this is a fitted blouse especially in the waistline so i understand why some say size up the print is pr etty with muted shades of pinks and burgundies the detailing of beige lace and the tiny buttons on the waist adds a very feminine touch along with the added interest on the back of the blouse the fabric is soft but not overly sheer this is a beautiful blouse that runs one to two sizes t oo small i usually wear an 8 maybe a 10 on a bad day i couldn t get into the 8 the 10 was un comfortably tight and even the 12 was snug i haven t worn a size 12 anything since i was pregn ant years ago i think this blouse would look best on a woman without any curves as it adds cur ves to any woman s body since i already have curves i felt like jessica rabbit in this blouse it was too much for me again lovely blouse but i would no i love this blouse it s very flatt ering gives the illusion of an hourglass shape the fabric feels soft and flowy and the patter n is pretty it does need a camisole underneath because it s kinda sheer it does run small i u sually wear a size 0 in retailer clothes but i bought a size 2 in this shirt and the sleeves ar e still very snug around my forearms which is unusual for me this dress is probably the most co mfortable dress i ve ever had the fabric is very comfortable and breathable and it flatters my straight body type great romper i personally would not wear it for ever day i will be wearing it for a beach cover up while on vacation for reference i ordered a m and am 130 34b very femi nine and romantic blouse i love it it runs small as other reviewer said i had to go 3 size up as i want to wear a cami under it the fabric is soft and sheer the design emphasizes the natur e curve of a woman s body in a good way back is longer than the front part if you like romant ic floral prints and soft fabric this one is a winner i saw this gorgeous blouse in a store o ver dark blue jeans on feb 19 of course the store stock only went up to a size 12 typical w ith the way the 12 fit i knew i had to size up from my usual size 14 and i did i ordered it i n a size 16 and it arrived on monday feb 22 with lightening fast speed it is breathtaking and fits wonderfully i like the top button undone the buttons are gorgeous and the blouse is very retro circa 1973 but you definitely have to go up one size the only love this top but u nfortunately i returned it for exchange coz it was too small for me hoping there s a sz sm in s tock overall great romper i have a long torso and thicker legs so i sized up to a small and i am very happy i did the shorts are a bit on the shorter side and go upon the sides so another r eason to consider sizing up the quality is great and super soft chambray with a trendy tie up this is a very pretty blouse the fabric is lightweight and very soft i read the other reviews and this does run very small i ordered two sizes larger than i normally would and it fits very nicely i was hesitent to order this was worried it would be too shapeless i m glad i ordered it as it is light and flowy though not so much that it makes you look like a shapeless tent the colors are vibrant and the smooth fabric feels good against your skin it is lined i had no iss ry comfy top and washes well with no problems the style does swing but not too huge i m about 130 lbs and 6 tall and usually a small would be my size these fit but i would be more comfy in a m they are stretchy soft and opaque perfect for under a couple sweater dresses i picked up by retailer will be re ordering i really love these leggings the different textures that all the colors have make them interesting quality is great i am 5 1 and 125lbs the s m fit p retty well but i wish there was a xs option but still would not hesitate to buy again i actua lly went to retailer tonight to purchase all the other colors that s how happy i am with this purchase 20 for super comfy warm leggings bought two pairs for myself and another pair for m y mother let s be honest i ll probably be buying another pair love these leggings soft co zy and yummy feeling can t wait for the weather to get cooler these fleece lined leggings will be a new staple this winter i love these jeans but they run small i recommend ordering one size up i bought this to wear to and english garden themed party and i loved it for this event it is very bright maybe even more than the pictures if that s possible and the skirt is was long on my 5 4 frame so i had to get it it hemmed several inches so that it didn t give the 50 s hous ewife look it was comfortable and i the skirt had just enough poof to make me feel great i cou

2 more after this review i purchased this dress for a black tie optional wedding in the mansion s of rhode island it was comfortable and appropriate i received so many compliments from stran gers wonderfully twirling dress for dancing too i love this dress even more beautiful in pers on these leggings are awesome quality especially for the price they are warm and form fittin g they are thick and the design is nice i plan on wearing them all winter these leggings are amazing by far one of the most comfortable pairs that i own i should have ordered more i got a m l and they fit perfect the detailing is awesome and they even stay opaque when you sit so you don t have to worry about them being see through great buy i loved the look of these jeans super cute however they were way too tight i ordered my usual size 31 they don t fit like a da rker pair of serif jeans i own back they go i d be curious if anyone else found these to run smaller i love this skirt i wasn t sure about the mix of the back pattern with the front but i t works it is great for work at a less conservative place and for dinners out too the quality is great the skirt is a fine silk ant it is lined so you don t need a slip i think it fits perfectly for my body type and while it runs big compared to typical retailer sizing it is tru e to size compared to other stores in the petite sizes anyway i am normally a 0 petite 5 2 1 04 waist 24 5 hips 34 great leggings for the price they are ultra soft and stretchy a great pair of leggings to relax in they are very stretchy and only come in 2 sizes s m l xl i am 5 tall and they fit fine because usually such generic sizing is too large for my small frame the y are a bit long for a petite person but tucked into boots and nobody will know nan and runs l arge i m always a size 8 in dresses and the 8 was too big i would buy it in a 6 if the color w as closer to what i m seeing online i was expecting these to be the normal thickness of everyda y leggings plus fleece instead they re more like thicker than average tights still warm tho ugh there s a weird seam on the inside of the thighs that takes away from some of the comfort n ot so bad that i want to return them but not what i was hoping for either i never buy prints ar a medium and ordered my usual size and it fits beautifully \r\nlove \r\nreminds me of a monet watercolor my husband rarely seems this pleased and he always likes to see what i try on oohs and aaaahs galore with this one let s let him review this one he says he loves the vibrant c olor length and the way the top is perfectly fitted he was impressed with the lining and the mesh at the hem that keeps the flare in the skirt i had to explain that one he likes the w ay it looks with a sweater and without and said that i could use more than one of the many pairs of shoes with it that he sees these are the best leggings they were so comfortable that i wore them all day and then to bed i didn t want to take them off i m hoping to get a few more pairs i have these in grey and i love them they are so comfy i got them in m l even though i am a s m because i like the loose fit they are very soft so much to love about this dress the color is exactly as pictured in the video not photos the fabric is substantial beautiful colors th e dress is well constructed back zipper and is easy to put on and take off it is not only lin ed but has a crinoline built in to the liner it s not super puffy just enough to give it some flare i am 36b 5 8 155 lbs and bought a 10 it fits me perfectly the shoulders are a smidge too big but not enough for me to have them taken up just yet oh and i i needed a legging to we ar with boots makes sense that if it is cold enough to wear boots in socal then it is too cold to wear thin leggings try to find warm leggings almost impossible until retailer put fleece lined leggings in their catalogue the leggings have a vertical knitted stripe which elongates t he leg and they are warm perfection in garments is very rare but these leggings are hot these are great jeans and worth every penny they hug every curve and have just enough give in the pla ces that you need them i find them to be very figure flattering and dressed them up with high h eeled boots and a nice blouse even though i m petite i ordered a regular in my size 26 becau se i wanted the length of regular jeans as opposed to ankle length nan really comfortable grea t for casual event or everyday wearing best style with jeans love the leggings very soft and comfortable i ordered two pair one s m and one m l the s m fit better on me but both will wor k these pants are so warm and cozy and comfortable they are like cashmere for your legs so a mazingly soft and for that price it s definitely worth getting all the colors i wanted thes e leggings to wear under dresses during winter to keep my legs warm they get the job done and f or an incredible price they are soft and lined with fleece on the inside i m not sure the ribb ing on the black is necessary but it s subtle and i don t mind it they are a tad long on my pet ite frame but since i intend to tuck them into boots the length not a problem my only quibble is that my first pair arrived with three snags on one leg retailer kindly sent me a new pair fo r love how these fit they are warm and such a good price i got 3 pairs i washed mine in a gar ment bag and it washed just fine i hung them dry truly the only word that comes to mind when i think of this dress is dazzling the pictures online just barely do it justice if you have an retailer nearby check to see if its available in store and go check it out in person it does n ot disappoint every year around this time our beloved retailer seems to come out with this sty le of dress in the years past they have all been different and beautiful but i think they have truly outdone themselves this year this dress is a deep emerald green really comfortable leg gings not see through and at a great price these are my new favorite leggings they have every thing i need soft waist band that doesn t squeeze me at all not overly long subtle ribbed te xture black pair that make them feel just a little nicer and most importantly they are not se e thru at all so soft on the inside too and this price is nuts too i m so happy with these i bought this in the green and i had to try a few to get one that sat well in fact i tried on a s ize above my normal size and that particular dress was shorter and tighter than my normal size when i reordered my normal size it was a pretty good fit i kept the dress but am still on the fence on whether or not i should actually keep it it took so long to find one that fit well tha t it missed the holiday events where i d hoped to wear it these leggings are a quality product at a great price i ordered these for my daughter and she loves them warm and comfy she wears them all the time these are super comfy and a great fitting everyday short the embroidery give s them a nice touch i am ordering another pair i ve worn this dress to two summer weddings and i couldn t be happier with it this dress is extremely flattering i usually wear a size 12 but i returned the dress for a size 10 which fit perfectly the exact same dress but in a different color was being sold at another major store the other color wasn t nearly as flattering but st ill cute and the price was comparable i bought this dress in the store and realized that it wa s a little too long for my frame i m 5 1 i then found it online in the same size but in petit e and it fits perfectly i got a ton of compliments and i wore it to a holiday wedding and am pl anning on wearing it to several other occasions over the holidays would def recommend this dres s liked everything about these but they should say in the description that they re ribbed i co uldn t believe the bargain price of these leggings so i took a chance and ordered all 3 colors when they arrived i was equally pleased to see how soft cozy and warm they were and how nice t hey looked with all my oversized tops also interesting is that the textures of all 3 are differ ent the black has a vertical lined texture the lavender has a cable weave texture and the gray is untextured wearing them is going to be a pleasure loved this dress fit like a glove so fl attering and perfect for a summer fall wedding material is substantial and dress is well made i m 5 4 large chest and curvy and a size 6 fit perfectly longer than seen on the model for m e but i actually love it being tea length \r\n\r\na strip of tulle attached to the lining unde rneath the skirt to help it poof i removed it but looks good either way i think the shirt i s supposed to be a relaxed fit but i could have definitely gone down a size from quality to d esign and overall comfort these leggings have it all they are so so soft and feel and look a mazing on i bought the black and i love the ribbed detailing it s just enough to add a little something i ended up buying the other two colors and another pair of black for the price it s more than worth it just got this top in the mail today and i love it i bought the white in a small and it fits as pictured on the model the fabric says it s cotton but it s a substantial fabric and feels as soft as silk the bodice is lined so no bra lines show through the tiered part of the tank is not lined but is not really sheer or see through the arm holes are not too large as sometimes happens on me when i wear sleeveless tops i think i ll be wearing this one a lot this summer and a lot of summers i normally stay away from dresses like these because the y have a tendency to make my tall hourglass frame look like i had one too many burgers however i saw one left in the store and was drawn in by it s color and beautiful sequins my thoughts be low \r\n\r\n \r\npros \r\n exactly as pictured i got the purple option but i did see a nother lady grab the green both are beautiful in different ways \r\n like another mentioned t he sequins on the bottoms gives some weight to the dress but in a g i love this skirt it does run a little small i ordered an extra small and it is tight at the waist but still works i ha ve received more compliments on this skirt than maybe anything i have owned i ve been stopped a t the grocery store by people telling me how much they like it i also work with kids and they all love it as well i m 5 9 and these run true to size for the fit but having long legs by the end of the day they start to sag down in the crotch and hit me about mid calf straight out is th e package they wash up perfectly and are cozy if you re of average height these will probably be your favorite these are fabulous leggings for cold days i am a teacher who has to do crossi ng guard duty in the mornings and finally i have something stylish that also keeps me warm love them and i highly recommend only con is that they are about 1 2 of an inch shorter than i would like so soft comfortable and warm i ordered the black and think i ll buy the grey and lavende r as well the material is a little synthetic almost shiny looking but definitely not a deal b reaker these are my new lounge pants recommend i get so many compliments when i wear this colors are great and print is unique perfect for fall this dress fits to a t true to size ve ry flattering fabric is soft and comfortable this dress is absolutely gorgeous every time i w ear it people just don t stop admiring it great material and great fit love the block appearance looks exactly like on the model material again could have been better dry clean only so expensive wear price per wear may be high due to that as each time you dry clean price actually goes up and use goes down this is a cute jacket nice materials comfortable and feels very well made i read some reviews about sizing and went with a small when i am usually an xs or s the small was too big and boxy feeling i think i would have liked it better if it felt like a more tailored fit the design is definitely different and i played around with the collar drape thing but it felt a little awkward to me overall i think it s a cute jacket but i sent it back not for me the top red is more like orange was disappointed and returned it i loved this top but it runs small so i had to send it back unfortunately \nbeautiful styling and color blocking just wish there had been a larger size available to have been able to exchange for light but cozy enveloping sweater i ve worn this with an evening outfit as well as to a preschooler s birthday party it is an odd cut but now that i have figured it out it is an easy piece to throw on and look put together tons of compliments every time i wear it it is quite long i m 5 4 so it would work for someone taller too i m a 34c and 136 lbs i bought this jacket in m and it fits perfect the sleeves are just the right length it fits through the chest and hips the leather and other material is super soft i love the dark brown color it s just as pictured like someone else said you can tuck the hanging material inside the jacket for a sleeker look this is my new favorite jacket i am in love with this dress ordered online in both my usual 4 and 6 i go back and forth and this time i kept the six there is a little bit of stretch to the fabric but it has nice structure and the cap sleeves make it a welcome addition to my wardrobe i plan on wearing this as a day to night dress since it s appropriate for work and for an evening out this jacket is stunning the vegan leather has a slight shimmer the waterfall fabric is nice and soft it s really beautiful and unique cropped jackets tend to shorten me but the cascading waterfall fabric add a nice little bit of length that just balances the jacket nicely the sleeves in the xxsp petite size that i tried on were tight they were better in the xsp but i won t be wearing any thick sweaters underneath it fit everywhere else i m usually an xxsp and sized up for the arms ove i buy pretty much every tiny top retailer carries and so of course i grabbed this one online i would say size wise it s consistent for tiny which in my opinion is in the runs small category as i m a large in basically every top ever except the tiiny brand where i always have to take an xl anyway the print is beautiful but the neckline is strange there is a very flimsy button keeping it tacked shut at the very top and if that snap pops open it s open all the way down to the waist area where this jacket is phenomenal the color is gorgeous in person the brown has a unique shimmer to it that just makes it feminine and special it s also very warm and comfortable like some other reviewers said it looked great zipped as well as unzipped this is a really special find and great addition if you re considering this jacket i say go for it for reference i actually love the fit and thought it was tts though i am a 32c and got this in a small so perhaps that s only the case for c cup a was so excited to see that this colorful top came in petite sizes it fits perfectly and so happy that it doesn t fall too long looks great with a longer cardigan sweater very happy with this find i love the colors and pattern on this dress and it s nice that it has a lining so no slip needed the cut works perfectly for my big booty figure however i m pretty small up top and the neckline comes pretty low so i either have to wear my craziest push up bra or get the top altered i haven t decided what my plan is yet but will keep the dress for sure i purchased this dress in the blue version its a lovely dress that would be perfect for summer the dress fit tts on me it is a little low in the neck area and it is a little uncomfortable in the torso area i am on the fence about keeping it the skirt is flouncy cute and fun i hope i can get it to work beautiful color however the fabric did not work for me tight on top large on bottom love love this top fabric is nice and soft looks great with leggings love the way it falls in the front an long enough in the back 5 6 149lbs 34d normally size 6\r\n\r\ni picked this up on a whim to try on and i am glad i did it is very flattering on my curvy frame it does run a big big so i sized down to a 4 instead of my normal size 6 the top is still a tad bit big as another commented not enough that i would need to have it altered but enough that i probably wouldn t wear it to work without a cami under it over all i love this dress its very flattering and flirty and it makes me feel pretty i bought the orange motif love the skirt colors are nice fabric is thick enough to go to fall but not too thick for summer ti is short so has room the colors are somewhat brighter in person but not summer bright more fall bright not sure htat makes sense love the flower pattern it is pretty but strong at the same time \r\n\r\nnow on to fit the waist is the small part my usual 0 was snug on the waist but the skirt was perfect everywhere else not sure about sizing up yet as it may flare out too much will g i love this tank super soft and comfy i wear with leggings jeans shorts anything longer in the back so will cover your butt at least it covered mine runs slightly oversized love the asymmetry in the front very flattering very hap py with it online this dress looks so perfect but in person it s a bit dowdy and unflattering at least on me i m a size 4 with curves and i was hoping it would enhance my waist and flatter my figure but sadly it was too large on the waist and too poofy in the skirt so it just did nothing for me i considered sizing down to a 2 so that the waist would fit but the skirt still has too much fabric making my hips look large so much potential but missed the mark for me i ordered a size 6 and an 8 based on the review that said that the piece ran small i fit both ski rts but chose the size 8 as it was a bit looser at the hip and the length was better funny thou gh the pockets on both skirts were sewn at very uneven areas on both neither skirt had usable p ockets as they were sewn shut at half inch intervals on one skirt 6 and very uneven intervals on the other 8 i liked the idea of pockets which is one reason i ordered it it is described a s having side poc i am 5 5 150 lb and i usually wear a 10 or 12 in tops because i don t like c lothing too tight on top i took a chance and got the xl because it was all that remained now i wish i could be more please bring this back retailer i saw this dress in the store window and gave it a try i found it to be super flattering and feminine the bodice is form fitting and th e skirt flares out to a full skirt the colors are fun and vibrant the neckline is a bit low fo r work but perfect for evening it is true to size some quick notes it is not sheer like a pr evious poster was asking there is a lining the color is darker than it appears online which w as ok with me i thought it still looked nice as a deeper gold i was excited about this top an d thought it was the perfect thing for a casual festive company holiday party i ordered a m an d am usually between m and s in most retailer items unfortunately it fit me rather boxy and sho rt i have a larger bust 30g and it draped in a very unflattering way m i bought this dress i n the orange and it is great for summer even though i am normally a small size 4 at 5 5 118 lbs i opted for the 6 because i am busty 34d this was the right call the dress is comfortab le flattering and i got lots of compliments it s a keeper the dress has an awesome fit and th e perfect length it s easy to make it more classy with a summer cardigan cute bright colored s uit a little more orange than pink i prefer pink but the fit didn t quite work for me \r\n\r\n t he bottoms were a little too big and the top although was fairly well proportioned just didn t l ook right altogether \r\n\r\n purchase the extra smalls in both and have since returned \r\n\r \n i do love the suits that retailer has been offering would just love to be able to try them on in the store\r\n nice quality good colors i didn t notice what some of the other reviews have sa id i think it s very flattering makes my waist look tiny and the flouncy skirt is a lot of fun it is low cut in the bust but not crazy i m a modest person and i m comfortable with it what i like best however it the cut of the top it is wide enough at the arms to cover any armpit bul ge the fabric is very light and soft and the colors are vibrant and fun it does run a tad larg e i can go between a 2 and 4 in most retailer dresses and got as soon as i saw this skirt i was in love i like the fit it is very comfortable i love the detail in the crocheted part of the s kirt i can t wait to wear it and i recommend this item love this dress sadly it ran so large that it was literally falling off of me because i bought it on sale the option wasn t there to buy a smaller one the quality is excellent and it s perfect for a spring or summer day in miami sorry to have had to return it due to the sizing issue nan great top for everyday wear runs a little large as i usually for size medium and i bought a small a tiny bit see through but i thi nk i can get away without wearing a tank underneath everyone else who reviewed felt the dress f it quite odd i have an oddly shaped body so this dress was perfect on me the bigger bodice fit on my large broad rounded upper body skimmed my true waist and flared out to complimentary skirt that wasn t too twee the silhouette evens out my odd figure the fabric is a gorgeous p ink orange teal pattern on comfortable cotton i do have to agree with the lowness of the neckl ine it s a bit immodest i wear my cropped denim jacket and a simple la this skirt is worth ev ery penny it appears slightly different than pictured in terms of color it is a cream blue g ray making it very versatile the crochet work is beautiful and cream it is not too bright to s how every dirt mark the cream coordinates perfectly with the leather color it is a classic el egant design and could be paired with a silk type or even a cashmere sweater in the cooler month s to come for me it is tts mostly i am usually a 4 6 and the six fits perfectly it has an t hese are the best tights last year i bought these and they went back to regular waistband this year the best waistband tights are best the color of these shorts is even more beautiful and vi brant in real life the detail is wonderful and they are so comfortable i saw this initially in the store and thought it was nice but did not purchase because i thought the price was too high i saw it again and it was on sale but the store had sold out of my size i checked online and m y size was available so i ordered i was afraid this cape would be to long and make me look fru mpy but it wasn t and i didn t it looked great i tie the belt a little higher than the model to make me look taller i can t wait to wear it on cool fall days this is a very lovely sweat er dress it looks just as pictured and true to size i ordered mine online and was very happy w ith this purchase the material of the top white portion is very soft and cozy and bottom peach a little longer than i had expected hits about mid calf on me great quality corduroy nice me dium green color very unique sort of vintage feel piece this poncho is dreamy the colors are divine and appear a little bolder in person there is a gorgeous leather trim around the edges t hat elevates the look so much the belt minimizes how big the poncho is and really makes it femi nine its everything you dream of when it comes to a third layer for fall my only gripe is that the fabric is a little itchy it being wool i can t say that i m surprised and the truth is that its heavy enough that you would definitely be wearing long sleeves underneat unlike one comment below a review on here who stated it felt childish i didn t feel this way at all i m a sucker for anything white with tulle and soft colors and a bit of bling here s my thoughts \n \npros \n very soft with good amount of stretch \n tulle bottom is exactly as pictured i disa gree with another reviewer who said the color was more of taupe it is not this is pink nude sh ade all the way \n runs tts i m a 36c hourglass 5 9 and found the medium to be these shorts are great for warm weather they look great with a navy top the pattern is very attractive the y are on the baggy side but the style is very flattering love the interesting patterns and sli ghtly oversized fit perfect for a relaxed day with a cami skinnies and sneakers what i don t like is the materials used to make this sweater i m concerned laundering will shrink and i w ill lose the drape or it will be too short the perforated part is truly see through so yes we ar an under or over layer i love the texture and sheen of corduroy combined with this beautiful evergreen color i purchased size 10 and the somewhat stretchy fit accommodates my bust size 36 dd with a blouse or slim fitting sweater quite well i think the skirt flares out too much and ends a little too low for my height so i m waiting for the petite to arrive to see if it s more flattering i picked tts but may be a bit large for those who are less busty so you may want to size down if you re slender or pear shaped i tried it in the store but was not the true size so i ordered online i wore it only once so far and got lots of compliments very unique design re ally unique will easily go with many tops bottoms i agree with the other reviewers it s itch y but so super cute the sale price is a good deal i had already planned to wear with long sle eves so the itchy fabric should not be a problem i got the xs s my usual size nan this is so much nicer in person wore this out today now that it isn t too too cold fashionable and warm love the clasp quite genius i am a 36c and while i d normally take a small got this in medium and it fits perfectly i d say this piece runs slightly small for retailer i loved this dress i m 5 6 and wore the small and even in heels it was a bit long i have a larger chest double d and the chest was slightly snug but otherwise fit perfectly i got compliments from everyone g i had to have it i got the s m boxy in a good way got it yesterday with the antro members 2 0 off i love this shimmer tank in both colors it is a very thin fabric thinner than i would h ave expected but i think this is okay since i would use it for layering and probably never wear it as a standalone tank i think you can never go wrong with sparkles especially in a layering tank it dresses up or fancies up the outfit the straps on this tank are not adjustable and if you are large chested i think a lot of cleavage would show in this tank i would have preferred the sleeves are very sligh i was hesitant to buy this due to the price but so i glad i did when it came in the mail great quality and surprisingly thick silky fabric very comfortable and the shimmery thread detail is beautiful could be very warm in the summer due to the thick tweed lik e fabric fits and looks true to size just like it does on the model i adore this top lovely c olor fit is very flattering can dress up for work with a skirt or down with jeans i purchase d this in both colors the neutral and grey i love them both but the grey is by far my fave thi s is a nice soft beautiful tee the burst of flowers are just adorable i found these ran tts on me cute little top and such a good deal at sale price nice quality fabric that s soft to the t ouch lightweight and lays smoothly runs small great for those of us who are small on top t he s fits like xs longer length but not tunic length the navy can pass for dark silver gray i like that the top is lightweight and very comfortable and is flattering i can see wearing this over the holidays for entertaining it looks festive and pretty something easy to pop on and l ook pulled together in a flash vibrant lovely and quite long this maxi works for leggy bettys i stand 5 11 in my stocking feet and the dress hem grazed the floor not quite as voluminous a s the photo suggests but stunning nonetheless runs a bit small i normally wear xs to s and i tried a xs in store but it fit just ever so slightly too snug i didn t try a size s but i sus pect it may have fit ever so slightly too large i like the idea of a skort and how it is diffe rent than everything else out there this skort is a bit dressy perfect for a summer party or d rinks on the patio at a city cafe i love that it has pockets the fabrics used in the patchwork are quality and the tailoring is nice it fit me true to size i can t wait for warmer weather t o wear it nan in love with this dress so feminine and lovely makes you feel beautiful the fa bric flow and construction of this dress is stunning and flattering i am 5ft2in and 114 lbs bought the xs and it fit perfectly in the waist but is a bit snug in my not so large bust area however the s was too large and did nothing to accentuate my waist and changed the whole look o f the dress on me cannot wait to wear this dress but it is so long needs to be altered itll be worth it cute summer vacation dress lightweight material but not flimsy i m normally a xs s and i ordered the s petite which was right b c i think the xs would have been too clingy looki ng the regular length would also have been too long cute top somewhat sheer but color and fit are great fits slim but true to size these pants are wonderful they are very flattering the color is gorgeous and they are incredibly comfortable got tons of complements gorgeous soft c olors that can be worn with many things lightweight fabric with beautiful detailed finish to th e neckline i purchased at my local retailer store along with the baroque tee that i purchased in a smaller size because of the differences in the design of the two shirts highly recommend both this top is perfectly feminine the fabric is light and the bow adds that perfect touch of distinction this seems like a simple tank but the shape of it is super flattering it kind of soles in at the seam and the shoulders are just adorable and sexy at the same time i love the detail in the straps coloring is neutral enough adn the fabric is very soft i am glad i fin ally tried it on jsut didn t want t pay full price but broke down as sizes are selling out sm aller sizes i am usually xs petite and that is gone so is xxs so went with xs i am 115 lbs and 30dd for reference flattering cut the tie neck is very nice but definitely needed the p etite for me regualr size went too low the striping is a nice flowey thin fabric in grey and n avy with a bit of texture in ti not sure it is obvious from the picture length in eptite went right below my knee but in a goood spot overall loved it but returned in hopes it hits sales one day jsut spending too much latetly the dress is gorgeous material is soft great desig n but runs at least one size small and very long i m 5 3 and even with 4 in heels it s way to long alteration needed far more attractive in person than online earlier reviews are all accur ate very flattering and quality manufacturing the scarf bow makes it so distinctive beautiful tee and cut with a classic simple silhouette nice weight and true to size i m 5 7 132 and the small fits me like i like not tight at all with room to allow for shrinkage i really appr eciate the higher cut of the neck as most tees i have purchased last several years i love for th e overall fit and material but am a little self conscious in due to the low cut neck maybe if i weren t as small chested this wouldn t be an issue for me i definitely recommend this tee this is just a really fun jacket agreed with the previous reviewer that it s not the most functional but guess what this is super cozy it s lined with the softest faux fur it s quilted in an army green and it has the best trim along the arm they could ve cut corners on the quality her e for instance with the beading or the material on the trim however they didn t cut those co rners instead the jacket feels incredibly well made and feels very expensive can t wait till the weather g i wanted to love this but my hips interfered it is a little on the short side als o as one previous reviewer noted and is definitely made for a straight figure beautiful details on the shoulder and could definitely see this as a staple in my closet if the fit was right sad ly it was returned i cannot believe this t shirt is on sale the colors and the design are beau tiful and soft the shirt is an average t shirt weight and the fit is nice and loose on the bod y like it is on the models i am 5 3 with a petite athletic build and the xs fits comfortably with some room washing may make it even more perfect i cannot wait to wear this with jeans o n the weekends or with a grey skirt to work i really try to avoid hand washing so i immediately checked the label when i found this dress in store and despite the fact that retailer lists thi s as hand wash online the label says machine wash it also says lay flat to dry so i was hap py about that i tried this in xs regular first photo with camisole which was too low cut and then ordered the xspetite in the second photo i m a 34aa 105 lbs which was better higher v neck mainly and shorter length although i could ve gone with eit the dress is beautiful it is very long romantic and feminine i am 5 10 and it touches the ground i tried on an xl norm ally i am a l and today i wore a size m retailer dress to work and i could not even begin to zi p the xl dress the arms were fine i think i would need 2 3 sizes higher i am so sad because i t is so beautiful i loved this dress until i washed it the label says machine wash cold and lay flat to dry which i did washed on delicate now it s not the same dress it s too short and not as soft and i feel so much differently about it i wish the label would just instruct to dry clean i would pay the extra expense to still have the dress i loved just kind of annoyed so it s an awesome dress just be prepared to dry clean it or risk shrinkage if you wash it the se are so comfortable i love how they fit snug but have tons of stretch this is my second pair of fleetwood from coh love this style what a fabulous find i purchased the grey and it looks g reat with different shades of blue jeans i am 5 9 136lbs and wear a size 6 34 c and the m edium fits wonderful was worried it would run short as i am long waisted but fits just a bit shorted then pictured i love tucking the front in and letting the back hang out i tried the gr ay pattern on in the store and it is very soft and pretty the fabric has a nice drape to it ho wever the length was too long on me so i came online to find it in petite but most of the peti te sizes are sold out in the gray i shop at retailer because i like it that so many of their st yles are available in petite however the petite length sizes seem to sell out much faster than the regular sizes i hope retailer will give us short girls a break and order more petite length sizes so very cute skort that fits tts great length for us middle aged women as well love the hidden front pockets and the modern color block design my only issue is the side zipper gets st uck right where the waistband starts i m assuming this is because of the thicker fabric around the waistband i usually try to wait for the sale prices but i think this skort will sell out w ell before then was actually looking for something completely different and then walked into th is dress i have already a few events lining up for the summer months and i could see this work ing on those hot summer days i m short and curvy so i tried on the large in store i m busty a nd ended up ordering the petite l online the top part fits proportion wise better with petite w hile a l gives my larger bust size enough room i love the 3 4 length i feel a great length whe n you re only 5 1 will look great wi i love this tee so much i bought in every color available i have received so many compliments on each one so soft and comfortable and easy care i love t his piece and have bought it for three different clients as well as myself it runs a size lar ger i am usually a 4 and the 2 fits perfectly the skort was one size off for my clients too definitely a great choice for spring summer especially if you love to dress up but lead an acti ve lifestyle love the dress it s beautiful and flowy and makes you feel like a princess when y ou wear it also very versatile as it can be worn in multiple seasons and dressed up or dressed down love everything about the dress and know that it will become a staple in my closet runs t rue to size xs 0 2 and s 2 4 if you are short be prepared to have the hem taken up \r\n \r\nworth the buy i ordered this dress for my engagement photos and i am so excited to wear it it s a gorgeous dress a bit fancy it drapes so nicely on the body as previous reviews have st ated it s a little snug in the chest and shoulders so you might want to size up i typically we ar a size 4 in dresses and fairly small chested and i decided to stick with the small in this d ress i probably would have been a little more comfortable in a medium as it s a little tight in the shoulder area still overall thou i love this top i purchased the gray simply because i fel t it would go with more i can pair it with blue jeans my pink pilcro chinos and even my turqu oise pilcro shorts i love that this tee doesn t have the rolled sleeves so it s a little more finished looking i tried on both the small and medium and both fit but i preferred the tapered fit of the small and ultimately went with that for reference i m 5 8 140 lbs 32d chest i d o think 58 is hefty for a t shirt so you could roll the love this dress so so much the wearab ility of it isn t much since it s such a wow dress but if you have a wedding that it would b e fitting for itso perfect if it were a touch shorter i d be happy wearing it to the park i d suggest hemming if you want to make it more casual buy why go there when it s so stunning long the sales associates in store kept telling me i looked like a princess although that may have been my doing as i kept twirling for them saying look how cool this is i would absolutely recommend this dress if you have the right body type i love this dress it is so much fun to we ar to the beach or out to lunch the arm holes are a little large so i wear s tank underneath s uper soft cap sleeves shirt tail hem and double stitched seams mine is the grey green motif a nd tts i bought s 34 b and the fit was perfect the tee can transition into fall as i feel it has a more fall appeal over summer because of the grey green motif the blue pink motif feels mo re like summer this is a very lovely t shirt because of the color and design it has a very ni ce shape as well as the sides are not just straight across it s perfect for leaving it untucked the petite fits really well no too long or too short my only complaint is the the material wh ile really soft is also quite thin so i m not sure how durable it is i liked the idea of the sc arf tie so i tried on this top in the store it was so cute on that i ignored that it was a bi t overpriced for the quality the material is more of a t shirt with elastic at the bottom so i t poofs a bit rather than laying flat i m not sure how durable the fabric is it s still really flattering and the scarf color adds a bit of a pop to the navy color i think ti would look grea t with jeans but with the right pants i could dress it up a bit and wear it to work it i was hesitant to purchase since this price is expensive for a tank but the quality and true shimmery ness are worth it it fits very well and goes with many different sweaters very happy with my p urchase i ordered two sizes up after reading reviews and added a belt for waist definition it is long i am six feet tall and it is perfect for me this is absolutely beautiful my husband loves the floral print and i received countless compliments after one wear the light flowing material swayed and billowed in the breeze of the outdoor wedding i attended very feminine and enjoyable to wear pricey but i felt i could wear spring through autumn love 3 wore these to church and stayed cool without being scandy i havent worn skorts since the 90s and this was suc h a nice return to that trend this is one of those pieces that are timeless special and ab solutely stunning the body of the jacket is quilted very boxy and the embroidery and beading on the jacket is what makes it absolutely gorgeous the inside of the jacket is this super soft incredible fleecy fur it adds to the luxury of the jacket in regard to fit its very boxy if you live near an retailer i would highly recommend popping in to try it on i personally wish it was a smudge longer but i think the detail and style of i have discovered that i m really picky about t shirts it s hard to find a cute flattering one that you can wear with whatever this o ne is perfect the neckline is different the sleeves are short almost cap sleeves it fits n icely everywhere i am an 8 10 and the medium fit well i love that it s a dark enough color and not sheer why are so many of your clothes see through retailer so i don t have to layer something under it just to wear it it s thin enough that you can wear it in i love this dress it is so flattering and comfortable i am petite with curves and feel so good when wearing this i ordered a petite small i will have to stop myself from wearing it every day this summer don t pass this one up ladies the fabric is casual and relaxed but the drawstring like collar gi ves it class and flirt all at the same time i paired it with a jersey mini skirt and the way th e banding at the waist falls on this top made it look like one whole dress i can wear this with cropped jeans shorts anything truly a homerun i m 5 10 138lbs and small fit perfectly thi s dress makes me feel like the princess of fall it is very slimming the colors are much bright er in real life they look pastel here but are more pronounced love this dress i ordered a med ium and it fit perfectly i am anywhere from a size 6 8 5 9 155lbs \r\nsadly i am returning t his dress because the horizontal stripes make my hips look huge love this dress very flatterin g material is thinner and more lightweight than i was imaging but it is great it really does r un small like the other reviewers said glad i ordered one size up fits perfectly nan nice t shirt the print is very nice and the fabric is soft and flowing i love the baseball cut it gives it a different look this is cuter in person than online the scarf goes all the way aroun d the neck and ties on the side as the halter the whole top is soft like a t shirt material th ere is an elastic band at the bottom but it s not too cinched so it won t cut into your waist it just gives it a little bit of shape it s a cute way to show off some shoulder this summer in a lightweight fabric i m looking forward to wearing it out at night with nice jeans or during t he day outside a good price for retailer i absolutely fell in love with the stress when i soug ht in the store the fabric and drape of the fabric is amazing however it runs extremely small i normally wear a medium and can sometimes even wear a small and dresses i tried on the medium and the large and i could not even get them zipped all the way i m so disappointed as this is a gorgeous dress definitely size up at least one maybe two sizes i love this shirt so much t hat i bought it in both colors i purchased the xs regular which fit perfectly the material is incredibly soft yet thick enough that i know it has some durability the neckline is very flatte ring and comes up higher than most tees but not so high that it feels constricting i also love that it is slightly tapered and comes in towards your waist at the sides and is slightly longer in the back it s an absolute staple in my wardrobe now this dress is adorable it s very comfo rtable and so flattering the only thing is i can t understand why it is priced so high it s a great dress but i m just not convinced it s the worth the price tag i m going to watch for it to go on sale fingers crossed i love the fit of this tee for everyday wear it s forgiving on my late 30s mom body and looks much more stylish than the average tee my only complaint is that the fabric started pilling on the second wear otherwise the fit style and fabric weight are g reat it fits tts i m usually a size 4 and the small fits perfectly i absolutely adore this se t it s beautifully constructed perfect for something special but comfortable enough for every day wear i normally wear a 32 c but got the 34 a b and it fits perfectly my only complaint is that the longline portion tends to ride up and rest just below the underwire as there is no ban d holding the lace in place along the bottom still it is far and away my favourite bra and i h ighly recommend it this dress is gorgeous i bought it to wear to the ballet and i know i will wear it to other formal events as well it is really fancy definitely wouldn t wear it to work i had it hemmed as it was really long on me and it is a bit tight in the shoulders it has a be autiful shape and flows while you are walking it felt pretty a truly gorgeous dress ran a li ttle too small in the shoulders for me so i had to reorder the next size up its is very long b ut i won t hesitate to have it altered it is stunning i love skorts so when i saw this online i ordered my usual size 6 arrived today really cute fit is good w some room to spare almos t too big but i ll stick w the 6 looks as in the pic except the lower front part the back ha s a metallic sparkly fiber in the fabric not shown in the pic though it s understated but attr active the fabric patches give this skort a special uniqueness casual or a little dressy just love 5 3 117 nan this wears nicely and is true to photo flattering in the waist and on a petite everything fell in the right places i also like the lightweight creppy skirt fabric just one design note the tie is sort of strange essentially there s a long tube of fabric co ming out of each side of the bust and it looks very odd when the ties are undone love this d ress beautiful i really love this piece it s so different from anything else i own the mater ial has a lot of fine details to it that are hard to see in the photos easy to dress up with a bit of jewelry and heels the only downside is the upper body fit i m 5 6 and 130 lbs with mor e of an hourglass shape i did not fill out the top at all although the shorts fit fine around my waist i read all the previous reviews and wasn t sure what to think when i saw it on sale a t my local retailer store i decided that despite the thin fabric it was worth getting i love the quote spoken by audrey hepburn in the movie sabrina and knew i just needed to add a cami u nderneath i bought it two days ago and wore it yesterday with a short sleeved open sweater so the quote showed i got two compliments on it within a short time for reference i am 5 9 and 150 lbs i bought a large and i i love this dress saw it online and went to try it on in the st ore the next day this dress is perfect the pattern stands out but isn t too overwhelming i m 5 4 120lbs and 32ddd i bought an xs and i love the fit it s just the right amount of fabric to be flowy without being excessive one thing i ve found with flowy dresses is they make you look preggers if you have a large bust however this dress is nothing of the sort seriously if you fi nd your size in stock snatch it up i d been eyeing this skirt for quite some time so when it we nt in sale i took the plunge i hover between a size 12 and 14 though lately unfortunately it s usually a 14 haha the 14 fit true to size perfect silhouette i will say it was more of a midi length on me than as seen on the model and i m a near 5 9 so for more petite girls the length might be tricky for me it was fine i liked the slightly longer length it made it even more elegant the quality was superb no missing thread these shorts are so cute and comfortable you can wear any color top and they are very flattering they fit tts i fell in love with this dress as soon as i saw it it does fit more loosely than i typically prefer but the colors and the patterns have such personality that it didn t matter i wear mine both as a dress and with l eggings for the windy days this is one of my new favorites really cute romper that can be dres sed up or down super comfortable and flattering i ordered the xs and it fit perfect for refer ence i am 5 7 145lbs 34b normally a size m 6 i got the med and it ftt size i ordered this o nline and it came a bit wrinkled so i m hoping once i iron it out it won t be a problem when i a m wearing it i was looking for a nice flowy tunic like shirt that was flattering but nothing to o constricting this is the perfect length for me to wear with leggings which is what i was look ing for it is longer in the back covers my bottom which is what i wanted and shorter in the f ront the this dress is so pretty and the petite fits great in the arms and the length is good just above the knees the material is nice not flimsy i m just not sure if it looks right on m y petite straight frame the front is cute but the back is pretty baggy and shapeless i ve nev er worn a shirt dress so i m not sure if this is how it s supposed to look i tried it with a be lt but it doesn t seem to work with this dress as there s a band of loose elastic probably woul d look better on a curvier bod this romper is one of my favorite purchases the material is grea t the fit is very forgiving and it is very comfortable it is easily dressed up or down i pur chased a size smaller than i usually wear and it fits well nan i ordered the orange color onlin e and was very happy with the product when it arrived it s a soft orange color perfect for fal l the shirt is thin and probably will need a cami underneath but it s longer in the back than the front and will go great with leggings or skinny jeans the picture does not do this swing sw eater any justice first of all the colors are much more vibrant in person than in the picture the description says it is a yellow motif there is absolutely no yellow in it a bit of khaki in two rows of plaid but no yellow the predominant colors are a rich maroon which is so popul ar this season some bright blue and salmon colors which does not come out in the picture rich and beautiful \r\n\r\nsecondly the sweater is sassy on just plain fun i am i saw this onlin e and loved it instantly i happened to come by it in the store and tried it on it was almost p erfect but sadly being busty makes the dress hang not quite as well as it could i think this might be a better dress for the less busty less curvy but it is super cute and fun very flatte ring on i m 5 4 145lbs and took a small i love how substantial the fabric is and how slimmin g it looks on the only weird thing for me is getting it on you had to step thru the opening on top there are no zippers buttons and if you have larger hips or butt it will be a challenge t o get on once on it looks great and believe it or not roomy this sweater jacket is beautiful i wasn t going to try it on because i am very sensitive to fabrics that are itchy but i am so g lad i did it s super soft and looks great with jeans and a t shirt i have a petite frame an d it doesn t look boxy at all like some swing styles tend to do totally recommend this one i was so skeptical about ordering this it s really not my style i m more of a black halter dress kind of person this is so cute and flattering it s well made not flimsy but is soft and pre tty i m 5 6 and weigh 130 i bought the small and it fits perfectly the dress hits me right a bove the knee in front i can see myself wearing this with cute sandals and a floppy hat at a be ach bar or wearing it wiht6 leggings ans shooties when it s cooler and dress it up with jewelry side note i m absolutely love the design fabric and fit of this dress a perfect dress for ma ny occasions one of the many reasons i love this company excellent customer service employees and of course adorable clothing 10 10 would recommend buying this dress and to all the taller girls i am 5 11 and 170lbs and this dress is still a good length no need to continuously pull down and worry about who might see your rear i am not a one piece body type this is the best b est best romper i have ever tried on i have a large bottom and this is so forgiving due to the 1 perfect length of shorts 2 drapey fabric not clingy 3 asymmetrical cut of the top highly recommend on shopping trips i try to try on at least one thing that i like but don t think will look that great on me this dress was that item today not only did i like it but i liked the w ay it looked on me i m 5 3 140 pounds and purchased the medium i loved it the clerks loved it and my very honest daughter also loved it i will wear it as a dress and also as a tunic ove r skinny jeans i absolutely loved the print on this shirt and as soon as i saw in the catalog i knew i had to have it the velvet is beautiful and the pattern is even more rich in person un fortunately the shirt is very thin much thinner than i d expect with velvet and is so short that it is more like a crop top even with the shoulders pulled down for the off the shoulder lo ok the front of the shirt hit me barely below my navel for reference i m only 5 1 i would bu y this over again if it were only l i am 5 9 very long waisted generally a size 10 12 or med but ordered the large to ensure it would not ride up \n and this brand has run small in the past \ni am keeping the large but also ordering a med to compare as i have room to spare length and width\neither way this is a keeper \nit is adorable on comfortable my t back bra works perfe ctly very flattering and way better than expected\nthe shorts length is a little longer than p ictured but there is an elastic waist with a cami under an this is a great summer shirt that wi ll also transition into the fall it is 100 rayon so flows beautifully and feels really soft a nd cool against your skin it is also washable i think it looks much better in person than onli ne \r\ni opted to have a snap added just above the top button which makes the shirt stay more cl osed and even looking as it tended to gap slightly at the top \r\nfor reference i am 5 5 12 5 lb but have broad shoulders making my usual best size a medium in most tops and noticed thi s sweater as soon as i walked in the store i am 5 5 135lbs with an athletic build so teeter b etween a small and medium in tops i spent a long time trying to decide if i preferred the small or medium fit the sweater is a bit boxy so ended up sizing up as the longer length seems to of f set some of the boxiness i am looking forward to wearing this with skinny jeans and boots as another reviewer suggested i think a denim shirt will look great underneath rated a good in qu ality b i bought this in store and it is much nicer than it appears in the photos online the fa bric is soft and drapey making the top lightweight and flowy this is not a fitted shirt and i didn t feel it was overly large so i think it runs true to size i felt fine in an xs t did fe el the need to wear a camisole tank with it but i tend towards the modest side i bought it wi th the wide legged linen pants and have worn it with wedge sandals with many compliments i wish i d noticed the navy blue after having my third child i was looking for clothes to hide my tumm y i ve always loved the comfort of a romper but the typical cinched waist was never flattering his jumpsuit is all the things other reviewers have stated roomy flattering has give however note the way in and out of this outfit is a single button with a loop at the top of the back i f you need to run to the restroom plan it can be an absolute pain to get out of this outfit t o go to the restroom let s not talk about the possibilities of the outfit dropping on a public restroom floor yes i went there \r\n\r\ni would have preferred separates to a single piece you could achieve th cute print got lots of compliments when i wore it lightweight looks great with boots fabulous dress for both quality and design the embroidery is gorgeous and the long s leeves make it practical to begin wearing immediately true to size and flattering looks darlin g with booties retailer rarely disappoints and this jumpsuit is a perfect example i ordered a small based on reviews that it runs large and i do not like tight shorts and it was the right de rice also it has pockets a huge plus for me since it is a loose fitting style i would say it run just a tad big i bought the s petite and i am 5 4 115lbs i could ve gone xs petite but the s fits well and looks great the pattern is stunning a great addition to my summer ward robe i thought about pairing it with a fitted white pant but it hits me right love this dress perfect length and i love the construction and where the seams hit not too long not too short i got so many compliments with this dress this shirt is very flattering and drapes beautifully i am 5 7 175 and the medium fits perfectly i bought in navy but am disappointed in the other op ellow it s n i threw this into my cart online on a whim but i m not disappointed and i don t even wear rompers usually for reference i m 5 2 and normally a size 2 and i bought this rompe r in a size xs petite if you re on the shorter side i definitely recommend buying it in the pe tite size as i feel that this romper would run large in the regular sizes the fabric of the to p drapes nicely on me and the shorts are about medium length i like the neckline details the armholes in the petite size aren t this is a pretty tunic but it just didn t look right on me t he colors are nice and you can easily hide body flaws a fun dress to just throw on go nice det ails in the bodice mix of blues in the prints little longer in back is nice detail for those o f us who want a shorter dress but not the worry of flashing from behind cute design the fabric drapes well conceals many possible figure flaws and has an upbeat easy vibe i got a small an d am 125 lbs and 5 4 i also washed it on a short cycle on cold and put it in the dryer for 5 m inutes which worked out just fine great dress the style and fit are excellent doesn t make y ou look frumpy or larger just can t get into the pattern combo the white is too stark and i fe el like it was slapped on my chest like a dickey i have the paquerette and that s a mixed bag o f patterns that works really well i m not sure if i am keeping i may have to bleed it out to s often the white purchased size medium for my 36dd chest and wide rib cage the print length an d cut are all flattering i bought the other tiny dress that was similar and will buy every patt ern they make i was so pleased to see this in the store and i am glad that i had a chance to f eel the knit the combination of wool cotton and nylon creates a really soft luxurious feel t o the sweater i was shocked that it didn t have cashmere in the blend it is that soft but it is equally substantial this sweater can surely be worn as a piece of outerwear and it can be u sed as a layering piece i consider this one tts because i typically wear a m in a knit that isn t fitted i disagree with an earl this is a great casual top that can work in all seasons i lo ve it with skinny pants jeans love everything about this the length cut look etc i wear me dium large went with medium and it was perfect purchased this dress at the sale price with an additional 20 off sale not exactly sure what to expect the print is so different than my usual style preference so glad i did while the dress is way oversized for reference i m 5 4 132 lbs ordered size sm but prob should have gone with xs it s stylish yet effortless today is the first day of wear at my office and already received many complements i definitely tren d towards preferring my clothes looser as a style but the fit on this dress felt a bit too boxy i typically run between and x small and small should have gone with the x small i loved the pr int and quality of the dress though and would recommend it this top is gorgeous i normally we ar s to m depending on brand and style ordered a s and it was so small i returned and have l o n order it is cropped i am 5 3 and it hit me as pictured on model if you are tall or like longer tops this may not be for you love love this dress i got the regular size but the length is more on the petite side it s shorter than what i m comfortable with so will probably return it this dress is really pretty and fun i can see where i can dress it up or tone it down subt le pretty beading at the neck just ran a bit big on me i sent back for the next size down can t wait to get it this shirt is incredibly comfortable the material is so soft and it fits so well i am 5 6 and 130 lbs with a 32b chest and i purchased a small it is large on me and i would have preferred an xs but the small is just fine as well it is a great shirt especially for an oversized henley 100 recommend one star off for the larger sizing nan very cozy wra p the material is so soft find myself grabbing this anytime i am chilly day and night i o ffen find my daughter wrapped up in it too and with the arm holes it stays on very pleased i almost walked past this until i saw it on the display mannequin the shimmer is very subtle b ut there the picture here makes hte shirt look more like a grey shirt but it is more sophisti cated in person very soft fabric fitted on the wasit but romier on top cowl is super flat tering usual sizze fit very nicely highly recommend i won t hev to tuck it in everytime i wea r it i think it can be dressed up skirt or down jeans almost a basic t i fell in love with these trousers as soon as i saw them online i am a big fan of essentiel antwerp their des igns are unique and bold these trousers definitely fit their aesthetic the print is darker com pared to the picture making the green more of a dark olive and the blue almost looks black the y have an elastic waist so that helps for some of us who have a wider bottom they cinch back in once they are buttoned at the waist so it doesn t make your hips look wide the fabric is soft and i bought this in size xl and the overall fit matched the model s photos the neckline was a bit higher than pictured the material was pretty in person the problem was the material s thre ads were too scratchy i was uncomfortable with that scratchiness against my neck so i returned it i did like the unique leaf pattern of the lace very pretty cardigan but it is huge i order ed a large normally xl or large and it is so big the shoulder seam comes to middle of my uppe r arm i wanted to exchange it for a medium but they are out of stock bummer i had high hopes for these as coh is my favorite brand of denim and these crops were made specifically for petit es also i was happy to see they were described as a straight jean not a skinny the fit and s izing seems to be a little off i ordered my regular size in this brand 27p but they were too big sized down to a 26p they were still too large in the waist seemed very stretchy but fit well in the legs i like the fact that these crops were made for petites so the length was perfe ct very much liked this shirt for super casual days its got a very flowy and boxy fit to it wi th side slits it runs a bit big compared to what it looks like on the model i m 5 3 135lbs wit h hour glassy figure and the medium was a too tight from the waste down but perfect on the top i m a 36c pretty dress overall and looks true to color in photo but have to return these jea ns are very comfortable the distress look is enough but not too much so it is a nice change to the traditional jeans without looking too worn down this is a great winter addition to any ward robe warm but not hot looks great with tights as a dress or with leggings so many compliments this top is sooo cute it does not look like pajamas as one person said it looks like a top it s a bit on the boxy style so anything you want to hide below is well covered has a nice length to it is not just for lounging paired it with a black pencil skirt and it looked great i orde red the xl i am a 40d for reference and it hung very nicely its extremely soft and very comfy i only wish they had more colors in accordance with other reviewers the pictures don t do this gorgeous lightweight sweater justice the fabric has threads of gold silver and black that tog ether make for shimmery elegance not at all the heather grey in the photo i m 5 8 120 34b a nd the xs regular fits perfect and actually more slimming fit than in the photo sleeves are long which i love a keeper especially on sale i didn t think from the photo online that the sweater would be quite so sparkly gold it has gold weaved in so if the sparkly isn t your t hing beware the sweater fit well although i didn t feel the neckline was quite as clean as in the photo above also you d have to be careful not to snag on jewelry it s a thin sweater mate rial that may require a camisole underneath depending on the weather i actually like my shirt m ore than the other reviewers it seems i am little 5 1 and 103 and i don t think it s too box y at all i like the way it hangs and i ll say i like it much more in person than on the model it s somehow cozier than it looks in the picture it s a real boosh that mean s comfy i would n t have picked it from the online pic but in person it really caught my eye when i walked in to my local retailer two of the saleswomen were wearing this stunning top in totally different ways and i knew it would be the perfect gift for my mom unfortunately the small was sold out but they were able to order it online and have it sent gorgeous medium to lightweight fabric th at looks great out or tucked in i purchased this in the store i thought it was cute and unique i like most things with a raw edge i am 5 3 115 lbs and purchased an xs i have worn it a cou ple of times and have received several compliments my only complaint is that when i saw the pic online i was annoyed the top is much wider than the photo depicts lying flat it measures 24 side to side at the hem and 24 25 from shoulder to hem why take photos that misrepresent the i tem there will only be more returns so if you li this top is super soft cotton with raw edges on the sleeves and hem i bought the green top which is a medium faded olive color despite th e picture this top is shortish in the front and on the sides which are slit the top is also v ery very boxy it s wide across and doesn t fit the body at all the sleeves are a slimmer f it which contrasts nicely with the wide body the picture is very deceptive that said this to p is perfect for early fall late summer super comfy floaty i wear i am normally a small or x s with retailer clothing i saw the previous review that this dress runs small but the medium w as sold out i am heartbroken i have to return and can t get my size since they are all gone wa s aiming to wear this to a high school reunion i fell in love with this dress when i saw it onl ine and got it as soon as it went on sale 25 off the colors are vibrant and the fit is perfect whether you have areas that you want to hide or not it is true to size and i can see how you wo uld want to size it down since it s baby doll shape but it didn t work for me around the arm ho les and mine are not that big i am 5 3 and 120 lb and size 2 worked perfect pretty color \r \nlove the lace \r\nmy husband thought it looked a little old lady ish but i think it depends on what you wear it with \r\nit s been too hot here to wear yet i believe it will look great with a cami and leggings cute stripes and soft but very pajama top like in feel look like i f you wear it out people will assume you ve got the matching bottoms stuck under your pillow at home nan the color is perfect for fall dressy enough for work and looks great with a pair of jeans i purchased the green online in my usual medium i do like it but i will be returning it for a few reasons first i couldn t justify the price as it s really not unique enough it kind of reminds me of a pajama top also i thought it was 3 4 sleeve which it is not it s long sle eve and lastly it appears to be regular length on the model i m maybe 5 4 at best and it s sh orter and boxy i gave it 4 stars because i really like it for what it is but just not what i e xpected it is cute spor this top is so cute but after i added my tank top under neath it made me look frumpy however if you pair it with the right tank and bottoms it could be very cute i think my problem is that i am not long wasted enough i wish that it had worked because it is so unique i always wear a small in retailer tops and this was very tight in the chest had to return for a medium cute top otherwise i m between a s m on most swing tops usually s which i thought i d be in this one but not the case a m fit but i thought i could probably even wear a l which i never wear but it is gorgeous this is one of those shirts that keep me coming back to retailer this is a perfect fall top great tan color the beading is so so pretty and will really look great under sweaters this top looked so great with my louis vuitton bag it was just too good to pass up so go to your local store find th great fitting and super cute my husband said this is the cutest bathing suit i ve owned and i live in bathing suits i love this design so much and it is very well made i also like the adjustable shoulder straps and that the cups are not padded cups i think that makes it look less like a bra and more like a bathing suit only con is that it seems to run small a beautiful classic \r\nlove the denim fabric in such a pretty style \r\nthis top has a more flattering fit than appears in the pics \r\nthe fabric is soft and the fit very flattering \r\nordered my usual size medium and fits perfectly very true to size i ordered this online with a little hesitation due to the negative reviews \r\nit arrived and it is beautiful \r\nthe beading and subtle cut outs are gorgeous \r\nthe colors of the beadwork in contrast to the nude tone of the fabric is stunning and elegant \r\nthe fit is very very flattering \r\nruns very true to size really cute top especially the back i ve tried on several of these tops that overlap in the back and none of them lay as nice as this one the soft cotton fabric really works well with this style runs tts and i love that the arms are more fitted with some stretch to the fabric regular length works fine on my petite frame as well the color is a darker cream and almost has a slight nubby effect to it first one i received had a snag hole in the lower sleeve so hopefully it holds up this is a tts basic tee with the added flare of the ruffled back peplum and the elegance of the beaded front neckline the beading is lovely and mine was intact i bought my normal small based on reviews and the fit was perfect 34 b the beige color is a classic neutral and can be worn year round by just adding a jacket or sweater love it bought in the store will look great with black or dark blue jeans and a fun long necklace does not fit like it looks on the model it is more fitted i plan on wearing a spaghetti strapped cami underneath because the back has a draping effect and is open the front is on the shorter side but the bottom of the shirt not including tassels reaches the top of my jeans and the tassels hang below it is a very versatile top one that can be dressed up or down sleeves above wrist very pretty top the fabric is super soft i ended up sizing up from my regular xs to a s because the chest area was just a bit snug love these lightweight pants they re beyond comfortable and the print is darling hope this designer has additional pieces next season i adore this shirt like a previous reviewer the shirt runs a little small in the bust i got a 6 instead of my typical 4 and it looks great the quality is great and the color is lovely the feel of the fabric is nice substantial weight i loved this sweater when i bought it wore it a couple times then washed it according to the tag it shrunk at least two sizes and the tassels got all tangled which i guess i should have seen coming pretty bummed about it because this sweater looked beautiful on the design is gorgeous and the fabric feels great not a lot of functionality then again i did buy the kimono to feel sexy and not to keep warm i ordered the xsmall small and feel i should have ordered the med large unless you re super tiny fit i d recommend sizing up here i bet it would still be super flattering a touch larger nan this is adorable the sweater is light weight and soft please know that the sweater line falls right at my mid riff followed by the fringe so for me it s almost cropped the fringe covers my mid riff the back is open and so this sweater will not be super warm in the winter but it is stylish and cute i love it it s different and unique i purchased xxs in petite fits a little more cropped than the photo shows these leggings are so thick and soft they feel like velvet on your skin i am so so happy with my purchase and would recommend these to anyone who is looking for a unique comfortable and quality pair of leggings this button down is to die for the material is incredibly soft and comfy it looks great with my retailer leggings and is also a great look with my casual denim paired with a cardi and flats or booties i ve worn it several times for different looks and always get compliments on it definitely a head turning piece this sweater looks just as pictured on the model its very warm though even with cropped sleeves i ordered a large and it was true to size but roomy i liked this top very much but is thicker than seems outer grey material isn t very pleasant itchy however the bottom portion is an underneath gown and attached to sleeves inside so its very soft on touch this has a very nice hang to it combination of the cut and linen like fabric i liked it so much that i bought two different colors so many tees are blousy and full now i am short so they look like maternity tops this one is much more flattering fantastic top fits flatters and falls beautifully i loved the white so much i went back for the black i wear with jeans leggings and with pant suit s lovely with all this coat is so stylish and actually reminded my daughter of the madeline stories she just got her first paid internship in the city so i am buying this beautiful red c oat for her to celebrate after all a girl has to make a good first impression ordered this coat in a small it is meant to be a slouchy and the fit is perfect i m 5 5 and weigh around 120 the sleeves are slightly longer than 3 4 the fabric is so soft the coat is unlined and dr apes beautifully this coat reminds me of a coat my mother had when i was a child she referr ed to it as her car coat i believe that was a style then worth the i bought the white a nd olive today i usually get a size s but opted for the xs for this shirt i am longer torsoed than perhaps average so it came to just below mid butt which i like my shoulders are on the b roader side and a bit muscular but even still the xs was perfect and cute rather than just com fy def an undershirt is needed for these but i run cold so i nearly always have an undershirt the fabric is just nice enough that i could wear the shirt with a fun nice skirt with a high lo ve this top i have it in several colors and i m waiting for the black to be restocked it s som ewhat sheer perfect w my kimonos i bought this tee for a light summer top as i love linen this top does not disappoint i bought my usual size xs and the length is good slightly longer in bac k i purchased the black and the grey the grey will be great with jeans in any color and the bl ack i can wear either dressed up or down the quality seems good great purchase i adore this t op i ordered in the white and wear it with everything i am a 34c and size 6 and purchased the xs it was slightly snug in the arms but it does stretch i just bought the black as well as it truly it a great staple piece forewarning do not dry this my husband accidentally did and i w as forced to buy another one since it shrunk so much the fabric is lightweight and great for s ummer but keep in mind that it is thin and may require something underneath tank top etc th is dress was so comfortable i wore it all day to church out to brunch and actually slept in it it would travel well too i bought this t shirt in three colors and i m keeping them becaus e they work for what i want travel clothes but the t shirts run big and are too boxy i think they look nice if you tuck them in i have not a actually purchased this coat yet but was able t o try it on at my local retailer thought i d pass along a couple of details the description is missing the coat is not lined i have regular length arms and the sleeves are a bit short not quite 3 4 length but not long enough to keep my wrists warm also i was afraid the red would be more orange it is a very pretty red it also runs a little big i am 5 4 medium athletic buil d and would probably consider a m but it seemed bi i love this coat it is exactly what i was lo oking for it is unlined with cute fabric edging on the seams and a lightweight wool but it is roomy enough for layering and that is what i like about it also like the length as it can conce al a long tunic sweater without it hanging out the bottom it is very versatile in that it can b e worn with something dressy or jeans and leggings also like that i can add any fun scarf to dr ess it up or down it s a great contemporary shape i would say this c i echo what the other rev iews say this is a tshirt but it s very flattering i bought the black and dressed it with a b right turquoise necklace and received a ton of compliments extremely comfortable i ve been jus t looking for this shirt when i get home from work or having to do errands because it is that co mfortable \r\n\r\ni m buying more it s so comfortable and flattering love this cost runs large usually wear a medium or large ordered a medium and had to exchange it for a small fits perfec t now not very heavy so don t buy if you re looking for a warm coat i love the way this coat l ooks in the website it turned out to be a little different than i thought it would be can t de cide if i will keep it \nthe sleeves are bracelet length i have long arms so slightly awkward f or me i ordered the small even though i wear a medium in everything else 5 8 135 so glad i did because it is biggish on me \nit is unlined but made of a lovely soft wool the edges are all finished with a bias edging which is unique and well done it is boxy very \nlovely wo i lo ve everything about this skirt the fabric is super comfy and it drapes wonderfully fits great a bit long for me as i m 5 6 but totally worth it i don t wear heels so i might need to alter t he length but i knew it would be long when i ordered it i purchased the grey but i might have to order the taupe as well i bought an extra small and i love it i m a size 2 4 it s warm i t s comfortable it fits with everything can be dressed up or down it s not lined but it is we ll finished and does not feels like a sweater coat it feels like you have a new friend love d this sweater when i saw it online when it arrived it had a very strong chemical smell to it a nd was very stiff textured despite the dry clean only tag i decided to soak it overnight in woo lite to soften it and get rid of the smell the next day i rinsed it in cold water and block dri ed it outside it still wreaked of chemicals and took three more subsequent washings to finally get rid of the smell hand washing did not hurt it whatsoever fyi it looks fab with jeans and i s very comfy i i love this coat it was a great purchase and i would reccomend it to others it looks great with layers and is comfortable for 30 50 degree temps definitely size down when buy ing a few things this runs very large i m usually a s m i m a little busty so i sometimes si ze up and i ll definitely need an xs in this i m swimming in the small the blue is definitel y a steel blue grey not really navy the material is very thin i thought it would be a bit mo re substantial it s very lightweight that said it s very pretty i love the neckline which ca n be worn as a cowl neck or off the shoulder and i ll give the xs a shot instead do not under estimate the boxy shape of this it looks kind of like a hospital scrub i think with this top th e styling is key the sleeves are long and boxy and the neckline is somewhat of an oval so for m e this wasn t a top i could just throw on without doing some outfit editing i styled this with a dark high waisted skinny jean which i tucked the shirt into and some red heels and i was ready t o go anyways the material was great it was a silk type polyester that didn t seem to be static prone the jumpsuit is very pretty but it s definitely not meant for women who are on the curvier side or shorter plus it sort of looks like pajamas on i am 5 7 and i wanted to to look similar to the model in the picture but it comes down to my ankles so it would look best on taller thin woman this top is light and swingy with a bold pattern that looks even better in person the ne ckline is very high which was a surprise for a summer tank but it s cut well nice surprise o n seem pockets wore it today for the first time and received many comments a keeper fits true to size and perfect for my petite build up top this is a great little top colors are beautiful and more vibrant in real life ordered size large and the fit is the same as the model you coul d probably size down armholes are a bit large but am picky about that area and i can work with it the body flows but it s not huge and is slimming the high neck and tie are darling will be cute under a sweater or jacket as weather cools good buy on sale runs small in the chest so d on t order if you are large chested over all very cute i love this jumpsuit it s fun flirty and seems to put a smile on the faces of passersby it works for multiple occasions events and is so comfortable if daytime pajamas sounds good to you this is your jumpsuit dress it up wit h an up do and dangly earrings or down with slip ons and a cardigan i have found that i can t go wrong with it fits me just perfectly doesn t wrinkle too much during wear and the adjustab le shoulder ties are convenient i love the serif jeans and these stet mid rise jeans fit perfec tly too true to size and i really like the wash i am 5 4 and a size 2 and the 26 fits just right because of my height they come closer to the ankle on me than what you see on the model i have more of an athletic build rather than curvy flattering fit true to size i ordered 31 which fit perfectly i am 5 8 145 lbs wish it came in off white sand and black great with bo ots and more substantial than some leggings also extremely comfy these look great on my wif e very versatile and go with like 80 of her wardrobe she raves about them and they look great love this shawl wrap was looking to purchase the white warren cashmere poncho but available online only and then saw this in the store tried it on and fell in love love that it s 100 cashmere super soft and warm would recommend very flattering ang comfy but they do run slig htly big i stayed with my true size because i am thicker in waist but if small waisted size dow n fit ty s in legs and bottom love color great fit and extremely comfortable this dress is s o beautifully embroidered with really cool mix of colors it is pricey but i do think it will st and the test of time and become an retailer vintage piece planning to wear it now with wedges a nd in the fall with booties and a light sweater i love these jeans i wear them all the time i love the way they fit and the price is great please make these exact pants in more colors i go t the cream color and absolutely love the style and color of this sweater however when i tried it on at the store the one i tried on was super soft and comfy i ended up finding this later o n sale and ordered it online when i got it i don t know if it was once worn or washed by someo ne before but the inside was not soft at all i was so sad anyone else have this experience s ize is great i ordered an xs i saw this in stores and ran right up to it because of the gorgeo us embroidery work and vivid colors unfortunately those bright colors are totally washed out i n the online model pics barely recognizable the fabric itself is super soft and not at all st iff plus it has pockets i can see this looking great with leggings and boots but the sleeves flared a little too much which i think would add bulk under a cardigan so it might not carry as far into cooler months as i would like my usual s i love the details that this cardigan has tr y it nan i tried it one bcasue it is on sale and i love it too bad i don t need yet anothr bl ack top fit is loose flowy but the ruffles add a littl cahrm to the shirt tried on regualr xs i could proably go to petites though but thankfully there is a button at the neck i tried this sweater on in store in grey from front it appears like a nice normal sweater even a little bo ring but the side and back are wow really fun the colors and swing of the back material look great especially with jeans the front is short making you wonder if it s supposed to be a cro p top also the style of the sweater lets isn t very warm because the back is so loose and flow y i couldn t decide whether to buy it or not maybe i will wait for a sale i have been searchi ng for grey jeans and haven t found anything that i truly love i tried on both a 25p and 26p t he 25p was too tight and i don t think they would have stretched out enough for me to be comfort able in the 26p was close but i was afraid they would stretch out too much they looked good fr om the front but did nothing for my cushion the color length and feel of the jeans was perfect in the end they went back and the hunt continues for grey jeans i would recommend trying these i ordered this for the colors and modern geometric design colors are as shown a beautiful com bination that works well with blue jeans and my burgundy flats it s casual and soft enough to wear all day i wore it to the beach then out to dinner the same evening oh i spilled red w ine on it at the beach and couldn t wash it until the next day i used dawn dish detergent and hydrogen peroxide on the spots then laundered in the washer on hot and they came out completel y i air dried and very cute print love the mix of the colors on this sweater looks great wit h jeans throw it on over a tshirt and you are set i normally wear a size 27 but i have a pai r of shorts by same designer bought several years ago in a size 26 and so i went with a size 26 for this purchase they fit perfectly i would have liked to order the petite but it did not ap pear to be an option the fabric is very soft and stretchy they are little loose around the ank le but i have very skinny calves and ankles so that is not so surprising the color is a perfe ct grey that will go with everything i would buy these in other colors this dress is 100 rayo n not silk like the description says that doesn t bother me that much because it s a really cu te dress it s also hand washable which i like i hate going to the dry cleaners it fits true to size and i know i will wear it for lots of occasions from casual to business i almost alw ays wear a small in retailer dresses and this one is the same i m 5 3 and the length hits me a t the knee so it might be too short for taller girls the only other thing that was unexpected pretty and with pockets also nice quality for the price interesting texture i absolutely lov e these pants they are my new favorite thank you i am very happy with this poncho sweater it is my first cashmere sweater and it feels so soft and luxurious true it does not have full length sleeves but if you adjust the sweater so that it comes down lower on your shoulders it will come well past your elbows covering most of your arms i feel very elegant wearing it loo ks great with skinny pants or leggings and boots would recommend love this sweater so much i p urchased the grey and the pink so far no issues with the stitching i ordered the large but it swallowed me the store happened to have a medium so i was able to make an exchange the medium fit perfect i m delighted to include this in my wardrobe i love these jeans perfect amount of stretch without sag great color ordered my usual size 28 i wish they had these in olive and black these are a lovely neutral to slightly warm grey pair of jeans from a great line i wore my usual size without issues let me start by saying this skirt is beautiful quality it is a st retchy material which makes it very comfy i ordered a large because i am a size 8 sometimes 10 in jeans but i get the waist taken in on almost every pair of jeans i have ever owned my tai lor calls me kim k lol i was hoping i wouldn t have that same problem with this skirt but the waist is enormous but fits my hips thighs and booty like a dream i m hoping a tailor can ha ve the waist taken in if i didn t have a small these are probably my 10th pair of pilcro leggin g jeans and though i love the color sort of a worn in soft black dark gray these particular pair fit a tiny bit more snug than any of my others it could be the fact that these are ankle l ength vs most others are long with the cords being extra long and cozy so i wonder if the fact that these are shorter they tend to sit on my legs a little differently it may also be just thi s pair was cut a tiny bit smaller i am toying with the idea of ask had to return for a larger s ize like the design though quality wasn t as expected but since i purchased on sale i decide d not to return the top but exchange for a larger size which i hope is still available i got th is shirt in an xxsp and it has a great slim body the front ruffle isn t overpowering although i don t love the ruffles on the sleeves i think it s just a little too much but they aren t vi sible under a sweater or jacket the length is just right so the shirt can be tucked in or left untucked without looking long and messy the silk is just a touch sheer but not too see through it s a good shirt i bought the green pair in store and loved their fit i ended up buying the r ust color online too i m 5 3 125 and i went down a size to a 26 cause they will stretch a lit tle perfect length for my height too great with wedges or boots i bought this dress after i ha d overnighted a different one and it wasn t going to be delivered on time i m so happy that i b ought this dress its so comfortable and easy to wear i got lots of compliments on it \r\nit ru ns very large though i ended up with a size 6 i initially tried on the 10 as i have a larger chest the 6 still had plenty of room these are really nice pants color and style are perfect but when i first put them on they seemed like they fit perfectly on me then within 30 minutes th ey looked 2 sizes too big they got loose due to the material not being firm or thick enough i would go down a size for sure the cons aren t unsolvable so try them out it feels weightless a nd is so feminine great for layering or on its own so happy i purchased it know i will get t ons of use out of it these jeans are great the rise is perfect this sweatshirt is a very nice staple piece i think it can be easily dressed up and down the quality is quite nice and should hold up over time \n\nthe sizing of this really depends on the desired fit i elected to go with a size small because i felt that it fit a little bit closer to my figure and the length seemed t o go better with skirts but honestly i tried the medium as well and it was much different just a bit more slouchy and looser in the arms if layering is desired for reference everything that pilcro makes for pants fit me great i am not skinny but these pants fit me in a way that y ou can t see my belly i love when pilcro goes on sale because they are a great quality and gett ing their stuff on sale is a bonus i bought these about a month ago and i love them great fit not too tight for legging jeans which means i can dress up with a tunic and boots for work so stretchy and comfortable but still made out of a jean type material love the color it s a bi t of a gray black so looks great with everything i m 5 4 and 125 and the 28 fit comfortably i initially bought the 27 but felt it was snug in the seat so switched out for the 28 i m 52 so d idn t want the painted on look they will need to be washed more frequently since they do stretc h out as they are worn love the gray color and goes with so many fall colors i love almost eve rything about this first you know it s cashmere soft soft soft without being heavy i m a little afraid to wear it it s so nice i got the gray which is a beautiful light casual shade of gray that looks great with everything the pockets are fantastic if a bit useless they hang lower than i can reach with my hands \n\nthe construction is a bit odd at first it took me som e brow furrowing to figure out how to put it on and i don t love the way the two front panels h ang obsessed with these pants i have them in the green color and was looking for them to go on sale great fit very comfortable these are colors i normally never wear baby pink lavender light blue but what drew me to this was the wine color mixed in it s my favorite i also ador e a good poncho this poncho is so rich and so heavenly super soft very oversized incredibly nice fabric its like a light weight sweater lots of movement and such a statement piece it w ill look great over a white tank top or an all black ensemble with great boots this only comes in two sizes but runs large i m 5 8 and curvy and bought the green in the store wore them ev ery week for 3 weeks so i bought the bronze color too i usually wear a 26 in pilcro because the y do give a little during the day i had to go up to the 27 because the thighs were a little too snug for me there s a zipper at the ankle so getting you foot through isn t a problem the fabr ic is sturdy it almost feels like a brushed cotton soft to the touch they zip up the side so are very slimming i m 5 4 120 for reference i am curvy petite this fits great is true to s ize is super comfortable and lined with cotton very pretty and well made this has a heftier f abric than seems to be in the picture online i wish it were the same fabric as the fringed cham bray dress that coupled with it being cut very generously and the hip placement of the bulky pocket fabric causes it to look quite thick and dumpy unless you pin your elbows in to show whe re your waist is i usually wear a 4 6 and bought the 2 i m returning it for a 0 petite and s ee how that goes i love it so i m hoping that causes the fit to appear more as it does on the lightweight silk with sweet details ruffles fits comfortably and nice for workplace with suit or more casual i saw this t on sale and ordered it i had second thoughts thinking it would be just like a lot of ts i already have well i got it today and am thrilled the fabric is so sof t a sumptuous softness that makes me feel good the fit is the fit we all want in a great t ni ce fit not too baggy not too tight and it is so flattering it doesn t show off my tummy as s o many other ts do i can wear this with jeans or a skirt so glad i got it this dress is gorge ous in person soft and wonderfully comfortable with two large pockets it also comes with a cot ton knit slip for added swing i bought at size 6 which was two sizes smaller than my normal siz e 10 in retailer dresses i have worn twice and each time 2 random strangers have complimented i t it dry cleaned beautifully and it is really fun to wear the model is shows the neck wide ope n but it is very cute tied in a little bow expensive maybe but well worth it this dress defin itely runs large so i ordered it through my local store in order to get a size that would fit i ordered one size down but could have gone down 2 i love the embroidered design i just wore the dress to a slovak festival yesterday and it fit right in very comfortable and fun to wear this is a great feminine top i just wish it were a little bit longer for my taste it hit about two inches below my belly button it was a little snug around the belly area so that s why i feel it runs small for the brand usually the brand runs true to size but not for this top bes t jeggings ever they look and fit like skinny jeans but feel like leggings soft but substant ial fabric nice dark gray worn in color first of all i love cashmere so by default i love thi s sweater shawl the photos are a bit odd because you can wear it two different ways if you wea r it so it s long in front then the back comes up a bit higher and vice versa my only big compl aint is that i ve worn it twice and there s already a large hole in the arm seam poor construct ion which is disappointing hopefully mine was a one off \ni d recommend it but definitely wait for a sale lets discuss the neckline it s fabulous \nfurthermore this sweater can go anywhere \nit s dress up dress down \n\nfeeling low this girl will lift you up and take you to town lo ve the length color and rise new favorite jeans they re a little loose around the ankle and the way they hang is the only thing i don t like great leggings they re well made and comforta ble to wear my only complaint is that they seem to be stretching just a little and don t fit pe rfectly i absolutely love the fit and look of these jeans i am 5 4 and they fit perfectly bu t oh my the smell it s like burnt chemicals i don t know if it s just this pair or a probl em with this dye in general any one find any solution to this doesnt seem to go away with wash ing may have to return these jeans if i can t get rid of the smell i love this summery blou se it sits at high hip so no tucking in the sleeves are fluttery and flattering to the arm i own this same pattern in a knit and like it so much i got the woven when i saw it the only dow nsides are that it has to be ironed and it the sleeves are too big to layer under a sweater i j ust got this tunic last night and was excited to try it on i could barely get it over my should ers and once i did it was immediately apparent that it was very tight under the arms and in the shoulders i usually wear a 12 but listened to all the other reviewers and sized down to a 10 t he 10 shoulder seams were significantly narrower than i would have expected i don t think even a 12 would have been large enough in the shoulders \r\n\r\nvery bummed but yet i wasn t drawn t o the colors in pers i bought the cream version online as the blue was sold out i was rather d isappointed to see that the cream is just a glorified sweatshirt there are no dots it it just the heathered cream of any normal sweatshirt i do however like the design and the fit of the sweatshirt i am sad that is was not clear in the photos or in the name that the cream version was not dotted i am still deciding if i will keep the shirt i love the design and fit but the plain boring sweatshirt was not what i i ordered these jeans to wear to work since they are very dark and tailored my usual size 26 fit perfectly but they did have to go to the tailors since they were incredibly long which is nice for those of you that need more length given that i usu ally am in skinnies i like how they fit singly on the hips and slightly flare out towards the b ottom but not too much these will work well with a variety of looks making the price tag well worth it just love this sweater have it in both colors can be dressed up or more casual this dress is really beautiful in person it comes with a spaghetti strap clingy cotton slip undernea th it runs at least 2 sizes large i tried my usual size 6 and needed to go down to a zero i j ust got this in and i love it it s happy super soft and will be perfect for the fall season i n new orleans since it s not too light but also not heavy i see myself wearing this often jus t like in picture super cute and comfortable sweater i am all about beach cover ups i already have the leblon one from this season which i looooooove but i love this one too and it is in my go to color which is fantastic i love beach cover ups i always imagine the sounds of the birds waves rolling in and a nice breeze allowing it to flow as i walk along side the beach my reali ty of course is chasing after screaming kids and walking along a mn pond not rolling waves b ut this dress would at least make me feel like i am in my own little wo love the pockets and bac k of dress the buttons on the the straps allow for them to be adjusted that s a plus i m 5 3 with an athletic build at 34d the medium fits perfect this is a beautiful casual top it is a loose fit that is generously sized so instead of my usual large i purchased the medium for a bet ter fit the length is perfect not too long or short the colors coordinate great with denim w hen i saw these in the store i liked how they were different from usual leggings and the nice f abric weight i especially liked how they were not tight at the ankle and fit similar to a pair of ankle pants since i wanted a slightly looser fit i usually wear a 2 4 i went w a medium ca n t wait for the weather to get colder so i can wear them with a sweater and ankle boots i look at the top quite a few times before i bought it i absolutely love it it s a super soft thic k cotton material it drapes perfectly and wears well stunning bought it today and i love it it runs big i m usually a xs s and went with the xs and it s perfect flowy and comfy i m 5 4 132lbs great for summer and i think will transition great into fall with a cardigan really lik e the quality color and overall design of these jeans they ran a little long on me but i jus t cut off an inch from the bottom and they fit perfectly with some tall booties i didn t need t o get them altered because the design of them is that they are cut at the bottom and are a littl e frayed so glad that was the case given the price tag on them i am 5 7 128 lbs and wear a size 28 which fit perfectly except for the length which was easily fixed definitely recommend t hese jeans nan i loved the concept of the dress and that is why i chose to keep it in spite of t he negatives the grey color is drab yet leaves room for creativity it s stylish yet wrinkles horribly i am 5 2 so it hangs too low in the front and armpits another reviewer mentioned th e buttons yet there should be one more to bring it up in the chest the pockets are a great spa ce for hands yet fabric is too thin and they are side slits so will not hold much i typically wear a 4 petite and the small fits i bought this tank to go with the navy wide legs pants shown in the picture i bought this top in a 12 and could have gone a size down i m very small ches ted i think that for someone with a larger chest it is probably more true to size i wanted t he extra length so i m keeping the 12 i m 6 ft 175 lbs and usually wear a medium or large 1 0 12 in retailer tops the layering of the top is very pretty as is the embroidery this top i s adorable normally wear small or xs but got xxs based on reviews and glad i did still really loose but so cute would have preferred petite but sold out i knew i had to have this as soon a s i saw it pop up in the tops section it s effortless love the quirky design and the overall f it it s a tad on the large side but i m all about the flow these days oh and the poms at the bottom about sent me over the edge fantastic piece very comfortable great quality with beautiful crocheted front top and lovely blend of colors great top can be dressed up or down the lace is great quality and i love the border detailing i found this shirt to run pretty true to size this henley has a lot of very nice details lace embroidery the material is soft and a little bit sheer more so in the lacey sections it is made in india and the style strikes me as a bit indian looking the only thing i do not like is that there are two buttons along the v shape decolltage but there are no button holes on the other side so they are purely for decoration you can see those buttons in the enlarged detail view only this irks me a bit because i would like to button the sh nan i love the unique design the details are wonderful it runs a bit large but it works a great piece these pants are amazing material on the thicker heavier side the pants are very comfortable and very cute for the fall fits perfect love the unique stitching on the shirt and the dye job i think it does run a little big the arm holes are quite deep even in a medium but the fabric is thin so a tank underneath would probably work out well i like this top it is a nice casual top i think it looks better on the model because it looks a bit dressy when i tried it on it looked good but not as dressy the embroidery on the side gives the top a nice look i also like the tie dye look the price is high i got it on sale price the fabric is a simple t shirt the embroidery makes it stand out i am keeping it love i always used to wear skinny jeans until i discovered these highly recommend they elongate your legs and curve in just the right places super flattering plus they are extremely comfortable however i m 5 ft 2 inches and i have to wear a good 2 inch heel with them i ordered this shirt in the grey blue color choice the creamy grey is perfectly heathered and the blue silk like bottom is a classy touch the fit of this shirt in the arms torso and back was flattering with a little room to drape love it this hoodie is really cute i got the polka dot color and it is very soft and roomy i am normally a small but got the medium and it fits exactly how i wanted however it is not a pullover and instead zips up so odd that the pic of the hoodie is a pullover debated returning because i wanted a pullover but have decided to keep it because of how soft it is i love this peasant dress i have worn it twice already with black lizard cowboy boots frye jane boots black tights and silver sparkly earrings no need for a necklace because of the beautiful beading at the yoke \nthe fabric is 100 rayon and has a beautiful drape so it doesn t poof out like a maternity dress it is lined has 3 4 sleeves with an elasticized cuff and hits around my knee this dress could have definitely supported pockets in the side seams or patch pockets on the front i have i bought this today in black it fits true to size and is very flattering i love the draping the weight of the fabric and the length i would buy it in another color i like it so much i will probably wear this with jeans and boots with a sweater over it i wasn t sure i was going to like the little connector piece across the front neckline but it works if it wasn t there the top would probably gape open i saw this dress online this morning went into a store this afternoon and walked out with it i love this brand because the designs are modest but feminine and practical this dress is made of a thicker study cotton with beautiful all over embroidery the fit is tts and you can adjust the waist to fit loose or a bit more snug the length is just above my knee at 5 3 i plan to wear this now with black boots and a furry vest and later by itself with sandals and big sunnies i bought this in the neutral motif and it s exactly as it appears online except a bit more vivid in real life the colors are ivory with dusty pink and blue gray puffs of color the fabric is incredibly soft i usually wear a small in tops but went up to a medium and i m glad i did if you like things really fitted i guess you could order your normal size but since i wanted this to have some room for long sleeves underneath i went with the medium this zip hoodie is great quality and it look i tried this dress at the store today and couldn t leave without it also tried the pacquerette shirtdress which has a similar boho peasant vibe and overall preferred the fit and look of this one plus its lined which the paquerette shirtdress is not for the same price fit was very similar to the anwen peasant dress which i also have and the regular size xs fit me much the same as in that dress it is maybe 1 inch longer though but still that makes it a couple of inches above the knee for i love this dress i typically do not like or wear dresses often and definitely not this style i m glad i tried something different i received numerous compliments on how flattering and attractive it is yes the belt is only in the front but i cinched it very tight and it pulled the back in i bought size s it was very form fitting in the top and waist and not too big through the hips i have a 38 bust and i can button all the top without pulling i wore it with black tights and high brow i saw this in the store and it caught my eye right away due to its bold color and pattern i tried on an extra small and it was large especially in the sleeves i ordered an extra small in petite and it fits perfectly i love the velvet and jeweled detail along with the cris cross tie i wore it to work today and received so many compliments one lady said how artsy i looked i paired it with burgundy velvet tie up boots to complete the look totally worth the money ladies i wore this dress on thanksgiving with black tights and black flats and it looked great the dress is forgiving if you re trying to hide a chunky waistline because the belt doesn t go all the way around it s just in the front so it gives the illusion of a waistline and doesn t look like just a sack if you have a great waistline you may not like this i wish it were a bit longer but with black tights it looked fine i m 5 5 no where near as tall as the model and it was about 2 above my i tried this on xs and thought it would be great but it was simply bog on me and boxy unfortunately they are out of petite in the grey color my favorite of the 3 this top is soft and feminine if it fits properly but too big was a little too boxy the dress is nice love the embroidery love the front cinch but why not all the way around the back is fast flat so cinching makes the sides stick out got petite and the sizing was nice i just didn t love the overall look on my body type this is a lovely top sooo soft very flattering draping if you have a bit of a tummy i wasn t sure about it on the hanger but was pleasantly surprised when i tried it on very glad i have it a chance this dress is a marvel it s flattering and cute it is great for work a date or just a casual day and machine washable best thing i ve ever purchased from retailer i love this dress i would have never picked it off the hanger in the store in fact i went right past it however when i was in the dressing room trying something else on i saw two girls wearing it and it was adorable i immediately tried it on and loved it i think it runs really big i am normally a size 8 athletic build and i bought the x small i small also fit but was a bit too baggy most tops dresses at retailer also run big so it makes sense this does too but there is no way i am a true cute and different dress cute with boots very comfortable runs large could size down nan surprised that this is a fall winter dress the embroidery is beautiful but the material isn t that thick and the tie at the waist is unusual would have been better if rather than having the tie built into the dress it was separate it s exactly how it appears in the pictures awesome shirt i bought this shirt in the turquoise color with the navy trim and love it color is as pictured shirt is very soft and flowy the length was a little shorter than expected the slits on the side almost reach the top of my jeans so i m glad i got the regular xs and not the petite this shirt is unique without getting too crazy lovely at 5 6 34a 28 29 36 the size small was a great fit moss color is really quite grey drapes beautifully and is an easy wear this top is soft flattering modest enough to wear to work but subtly sexy and i m amply endowed at 36d i just wish i d gotten one in every color very pretty and has potential only down side i thought it was more like a cardigan with sleeves but it s really more of a shawl and the photos and descriptions are misleading i tried this on at the store and am coming online to order it in petite i m 5 1 and the length hit me just below the knee in the regular length so i m hoping it will hit just above the knee in petite it was very cute might run a bit large but basically true to size size down if between sizes it has a little bit of sparkle beading around the neck which is nice this black dress with raised white embroidery is lovely and flattering the fabric has a nice texture and is medium weight cotton and machine washable the dress is unlined it s a bit hard to get on and take off even though the buttons can be undone which helps there is a tie at the waist drawstring style i only wish my store had the petite size as i am wondering whether the xs that fit me in the store will still fit as an xs p just wanted to review so people know this hoodie has a zipper it s very soft and comfy but i was looking for a pullover hoodie and am disappointed that once again retailer s picture doesn t match the actual product it does fit true to size however got this today and highly recommend it it fits perfectly and is very flattering i can see wearing this all wear round perfect date shirt i saw this dress online and b lined it to the store to try on it is a beautifully made dress lots of great detail with stitching and beading on the front placket feels very boho and chic i have received lots of compliments while wearing this dress i was almost turned off by the price but decided to see it in person worth every penny wear it with sandals or tall boots could have worn a medium but a little tight for 38c on top so this shirt is very cute i like the drape if you can get it arranged properly but it is not black more of a charcoal bordering on heathered navy i wear all black so it quite obviously stands out as a different color in my closet i am keeping it thinking i will wear it with leather since it is flattering and the keyhole is something different i am a true medium and bought the medium and it fits fine a little shorter in the back but not a deal breaker nan i love everything about this top first it s super flattering especially if you have a tummy i am small chested and it makes me look a little chestier than i am i tried on both the xs and s in the black it s really a charcoal gray but preferred the fit of the xs note i m 5 8 136 lbs and typically wear an xs or s in most retailer tops the small seemed too drapey and the armholes were a tad big my store didn t have the wine color or i would have purchased it too i think this shawl is much more stunning on than on the hanger i think it will be a great piece to transition into fall wearing it over a black or white tee it can be dressed up or down especially for the sale price a great piece nan this arrived today and i am thrilled with it the mate rial is soft but not at all clingy it drapes perfectly falling just above the knee there is a matching slip that is as nicely made as the dress itself what a find love this dress the neck line is gorgeous very cool top i purchased this in the black which is more of a very dark gray imagine sanded silk it s very figure flattering and accentuates curves it also disguises any minor tummy issues not to clingy but follows your form the fabric is well made with a perfect drape to match the style definitely a winner colors are vibrant i ordered the blue color comb o material is light and feels great against your skin nan this dress is absolutely gorgeous t he colors are actually very bright it has a little embroidery and beading in the chest area th e fabric is actually very soft and it comes with built in slip i found that it runs true to siz e i got a medium as i wanted it to be more roomy i m planning to wear it with booties long b oots or sandals in the spring i think it will make a great teacher dress very figure flatteri ng i am 5 6 128 lbs 32b chest and size xs is perfect these are nice flattering bra with ligh t to medium suport however the colors and patters are not quite as pictured i almost suspect t hey are slightly different on each bra exmaple on the picture online the left side seems to be a light blue and the right one orange on the bra i received the left side is a darker bluishgr een color the right side is orange and light purple i would hae prefered the colors on the pho to but it is not a big deal i guess i ordered the color block shorts as we i purchased this onl ine because i just loved the gorgeous designs and embroidery it has a unique cut to it as it ha s wrist holes but is otherwise open i have a difficult time keeping it from falling off of my s houlders when i wear it over bear skin i hope it will stay in place when i wear it over long sl eeves or a sweater overall i am happy with it but i think it may run small as it hits the mode l at her wrists but hits me above my elbow i am not very tall or long limned so it seems strang i cannot believe how different this top looks in person i purchased this in the store and fell in love with it immediately viewing the pictures on here does not do the top justice it is ver y form fitting and compliments large busted women the cut is not too low and lays beautifully i had my eye on this tee for awhile and finally ordered the turquoise navy in the small as soo n as i received it i ordered it in the taupe peach and am contemplating one more i plan to lay er it now and can t wait to wear it solo next spring and summer the colors are gorgeous althou gh the taupe is more dark gray which i love the material is very soft stretchy and comfortabl e but it s the very flattering cut that sold me it hangs beautifully and doesn t cling to my m iddle but skims it p i am generally a size l and after reading reviews sized down the inner l ayer was a little snug but this was not an issue because of the outer layer great dress this dress is a winner i m baffled that there is only one review i thought this was a dolan dress the material is soft and substantial the cut and style hides figure flaws without adding bulk this versatile dress is perfect for all seasons and all social situations i m 5 3 135 38 28 3 5 and purchased size m this is a busy dress that makes me think boho glam holly hobby i boug ht my usual size and it looks like nightmare of a nightgown on me i m going to try a size small er in the hopes i will love it more i m recommending this dress for those that like the quirky whimsical hippie eclectic crafty style i just bought this and really think it is a great dress it is conservative and i will be able to wear it to teach or play the organ at my church i am a church organist and college professor and need conservative clothes yet i do not like to look frumpy this is cute and chic yet conservative also j got 25 because it is black friday tha nk you retailer great dress fits tts i am a 6p and purchased a sp looks good with boots or ballet flats perfection soft lived in feel and look without holes or rips and for someone who is 5 ft 2 in they are just the right length if i don t feel like cuffing the bottom fit tt s nan as other reviews noted this runs large huge is more like it it s great quality but i m wondering now if the s m would take me through the third trimester of pregnancy which is why i ordered a m l i m 5 7 and if i were any less i don t think this would work for me at all nice basic shirt to wear with jeans it is super soft and hangs nicely runs true to size i am a 10 12 and ordered the m l it s very large i normally take a large in retailer but i can t f igure out my size in this it s very wide i love the denim patchwork detail so i will order the s m and see how it is i ordered this in a small and it fit perfectly i love the longer length so that it can be worn with leggings the detail is so pretty especially the colorful side panel s nan i bought these leggings for yoga i love them the material is so soft and also seems swe at wicking which is a plus the back detail on the calf is a nice touch of flair compared to bas ic leggings the waistband is wide and did not fold over during practice for reference i am 5 end this seems like a great top i have only worn it once but it is super soft and comfy yet stylish sleeves are fun color is vibrant as shown i purchased this shirt to wear postpartum s o i could easily be comfortable but still cute it will work well for the fall with some cute je ans and booties i cannot wait to wear it any day now great choice it is a beautiful shirt and fits perfectly i purchased it in ivory and although not a true ivory it has some pinkish t ones to it it is absolutely beautiful looks perfect with a long necklace and jeans this top r uns large for sure and reminds me more of a tunic due to the length nice detailing around neck and sleeves and the paisley print on the side hems is super cute size down soft material lays nicely got an xs but usually wear a smaill got it in the mail and it is wrinkly so will need t o steam it regarding the product high quality materials and overall make extremely comfortabl e and flattering cut i d love this in all the colors of the rainbow this is a beautiful top t he fit is very flattering i m tall with broad shoulders and the sleeves hit just above my elbow i wear it on the weekends and to work very versatile i washed it in the washing machine and h ues highly recommend it this top is extremely well made the fabric is so soft the style is v ery stylish it is very figure flattering and chic a keeper i m petite and the style is not ov erwhelming this top flows so nice i get so many compliments when i wear it plus the color is an interesting blue so glad i finally bought this love it and have received many compliments wore it with brown over the knee boots one of my fave all time outfits right now this top is a tough one i ordered my usual medium i m 5 7 165 lbs 34c and wear a 10 m pretty much all th e time tops and bottoms let s begin \n\nthe bad \nwhen i tried it on i found the bust to be too small and the darting on the sides puckered in a very non flattering way the ruffle at the neck stood up more like a mock turtleneck which is not my scene also the fabric seemed a lit tle thin for chambray \n\nthe good \nthe pattern is adorable the sleeveless design would be gre at under bl very good quality love the length of it i wore it with a belt since on me without it looked a bit too big i bought the blue one i was on the fence about this dress but so glad i did thanks to the reviews i sized down from my normal medium to a small and this dress is def initely one of my favs it is a quality comfortable material that does stretch and allows you movement with ease the illusion slims me in the middle where i need it most i adore this dress i almost missed this i snagged it during the black friday sale online i got an extra small and it fits great not too fitted the back is a cotton material with some stretch to it the embroid ery is beautiful nan i ordered this dress in both colors i m very fair and blonde and the dark er dress just swallowed me up looked really messy on me the lighter one love it it s ver y flowy and not form fitting of course but something about the lighter color just seems less o verwhelming i like this dress a lot it does not have much form but with a belt looks great i bought both color options in this dress and they are both gorgeous but i think this dress must o nly look good on the model and her body types because i put it on and cringed i m 5 7 and slim it was matronly i also ordered my usual size small and felt like the medium might have been bet ter the picture of blue colored dress looks more fitted around the waist and these dresses and very loose the only way it would be flattering is if you added a belt keep that in mind if you do buy pretty love this dress the stripes are flattering the material is interesting and it s wings it s feminine and fun i ordered the peach ivory tan version in size xl and i love everyt hing about this dress i m size xl and a pear shape so dresses can be hit or miss this one is a favorite it s so soft the mix of colors and the sizing of the stripes pleats is flattering it s nice being more fitted on top flowy through the bottom i love this dress so much i m havin g fun pairing different combos of necklaces vests pins belts boots with it i ll get good u se out of this through spring comfortable pret i have been self conscious about a recent weigh t gain going from a size 6 to a size 10 12 but this dress makes me look feel skinny again i know people have suggested that vertical stripes help if you want to elongate your figure it is true thanks to this dress i look like my old self and i am super comfortable wearing this all the time you can wear this dress from day to night you can dress this up or down it looks gre at with a jean jacket and high tops or high heeled booties with a n by itself this dress is a disaster it s semi maternity and offers no shape at all however with a belt it really become s the sweetest sweater dress i can t believe how flattering the dress becomes with a belt the skirt falls perfectly it s perfect especially with it s rich colors \n\nfor 50 you can t go wrong and i m positive you need this dress boots heels jacket whatever it goes up and down it s perfect i have worn this beautiful sweater with all kinds of outfits i love to dress it d own with ripped skinnies booties some long layered necklaces i did not have as big an avers ion to the itch factor as the other reviewer but it is definitely not super soft or anything i t fit a little larger than true to size in my opinion i should ve ordered a small i think it s a very unique winter staple that matches almost every single thing in my wardrobe it s versatil e snuggly warm i d recommend it s a perfect maternity dress but i love that i will still be able to wear it with a belt once the baby comes i walked into a hair salon wearing this dress and everyone who walked by complimented me to me that s a definite winner i got the blue colo r and the various colors in it are vibrant and lively the underdress is like a full slip and a n added bonus this probably also makes the dress hang the way it should there s no static or c linging where there shouldn t be i was afraid i might be too short to pull this off but i abso lutely love it i saw this dress online first and suspected i would like it but the price scare d me away then while visiting in portland i saw it on sale at an retailer store when i came out of the dressing room to look in a bigger mirror the store clerk said well that s a no brai ner i thought the same thing i love this dress so much i actually would have paid full price for it it s super fun and easy to wear i paired it with navy blute tights and suede ankle boot ies i m 5 6 138 lbs and the m i just got this at the black friday sale i may have passed it by had i not been in an adventurous mood i usually wear brighter colors it feels wonderfu l cozy and silky like expensive pjs looks very glamorous yet laid back i feel like i am in a 40 s romantic film i got a ps and it fits flowy it was the only one so i was not able to try the xs love it it was cold today so i wore a cami under it with lace peeking thru the low neckline this dress fits great and is very warm for the winter months i just ordered this dre ss in blue on sale and it was such a bargain for the quality and look it s a very comfortable d ress that swings and flatters my body type which is tall and thin i think this dress would not work on a more busty woman s frame but it definitely works for me i m 5 9 and 135 pounds and a small is plenty big i often take a medium i definitely recommend this dress i own many tiny tops and like other reviews have stated this is a favorite the ombre design makes it stand out the embroidery is beautiful these are usually tops i throw on during my time off weekends and i have received many compliments on this one tiny usually runs small but this is true to size or even a size smaller i wasn t sure how clingy this dress might be or how it would look on my cu rvy body it s actually really lovely it runs large but not overwhelming nice length above t he knee in the front slightly longer in the back the colors are really beautiful i got the da rker color will definitely wear this with a belt otherwise i think as other reviewers said it will be too maternity looking i got this at a great sale price i saw this online when it wa s full price and was tempted to buy it because i liked it but did not when i saw it on sale d efinitely wanted to try it i bought a large and it was too big in the torso area so i returned and got a medium and it fit better and flattered my figure better i so rarely wear a medium in anything retailer so i would say this runs large \n\ni have received 6 compliments on this dres s the first day i wore it it is comfortable love the colors and design it is fun very g ilov e this dress even though it does run big i put a belt with it and it looks stunning saw this in the store and loved it the photos on line do not do this justice material is soft and substant ial if you love the look of raw edge you ll love this piece as usual i wish it were a bit shor ts you expect from retailer you wouldn t find it anywhere else \n\ni ve had this shirt a couple of months now and have to note that even with careful treatment some of the embroidery is comin g loose it s gotten to the point that i want save it for special occasions rather t i was pleas antly surprised how this dress fit me very comfortable and flattering on me love the look nee d to watch not to wear anything scratchy as it may pull the fabric this dress is really beautifu l the material is soft and sways but it is sweater like not flimsy it does seem to run maybe a little large throughout but i liked that look not form fitting has more of a drape i love this dress based on reviews i ordered the small and the only problem i had was that while th e dress is quite large the detachable slip lining was quite tight and fitted which i didn t fi nd comfortable so i replaced it with a flowy silk slip of my own and the results are great th e fiber content contains a bit of wool but i do not find it scratchy to my skin and i am lovin the hi lo aspects of the hem fun dress for winter love this dress so cute and comfortable go nd luckily for me it was already on sale i read the other reviews and ordered a s usually ord er xs or s but went with s for this one because i was worried about the fit of the bust overa ll the shirt is huge on me i considered returning for an xs but suspect that would also be too big and maybe too short i decided i could get it tailored instead for the cost of exchange ship ping so i will be doing that otherwise i love everything a i needed to write a review only bec ause i feel like the dress is getting a bad rap by other reviewers it is a loose flowy swing dress i typically wear structured fit and flare dresses but i do love a feminine loose casua l dress from time to time too this totally fit the bill it is true to size fitted on the arms loose and swingy everywhere else i got the peach color and love it the cotton slip underneath is very comfortable too i ordered the sp and it hits just above my knees in th i wore this dres s for the first time the other day and it fit larger than i expected it is definitely not form fitting however i still love it just note the previous description if that is the sort of fit you were looking for as far as the length goes i am 5 3 and the dress covers my knees the qu ality and material of this dress is very nice it s true to size and very pretty this is a grea t addition it s comfortable pretty and can be dressed up and down most importantly it s slen derizing and a great length for me i bought it in my regular size but bought the petite size noting the model is 5 10 and where the dress stopped on her i m 5 6 the dress fits perfectly and is a great length for me it also comes with a lovely blue slip such great quality for the price love this dress i ve already worn it many times i started off with a small but had to g o to xs which is smaller than my normal size in order to get the fit as pictured the length is great and works with tights or boots \n\ngreat unique dress another reviewer mentioned this was maternity ish i am currently almost 5 months pregnant and i have to say this is a wonderful m aternity dress even if that s not what it was made for when not pregnant i think this might h ave been a little overwhelming and i guess we ll see next year if that s the case for me th ere is a lot of fabric here i am usually a small or medium in antrho dresses and i am wearing a small in this now with room to grow as my stomach grows the colors on the blu i love the styl e of this jumpsuit it is so much more interesting than a long dress i am 5 7 and need a few inches hemmed which will cut off some of the pretty embroidery at the bottom my biggest regret with this is that it is not made from better fabric it is a little stiff and scratchy if it we re more silky it would be a dream but i am happy to have this in my closet i purchased this in the berry red originally i bought this in black and white recently purchased several more in d ifferent colorways why it s just perfect to wear as an under tank cami i m a busty gal and s ometimes cami straps can be too thin and dig into my shoulders this is soft smooth and provide s just enough coverage very flattering fit on its own as well great under loose knit or low cu t sweaters love love this tank material and fit are great love that it s reversible highly recommend i had my eye on this piece since it came out but thought it was a little pricier tha n i like spending but it finally went on sale alas all the petite sizes are gone but i dec ided to order the regular xs anyway the length quote is long but i figured maybe with heels then the xxs became available and i snatched that too so glad the xxs fits better and isn t a s long i have to wear heels don t get me wrong but the xs was still long with heels it is s oft and lovely the xxs linin i hardly believe i have not reviewed htis yet so i tried it on in the sotre and was not convinced my usual xs looked huge and hte hip part flared out in a f unny way i did however decide to order it online in petties to see i really do love the desi gn in the front and the hemline is fun and unusual they didn t have my usual xs so odrdered x xs just to see what a great choice it fits like a glove now and the swaeter is jsut so beau tiful jsut wish it wasn t so pricey but wil ke i am an retailer employee i love this romper and suggested it to several of my regular ladies the day it arrived in our store they both love d the piece before they tried it on the jumpsuit is so cute and has the special flair of a pie ce you would expect to find at retailer the piece is lined which is an added bonus but there is where the issue with the jumpsuit arrives the lining is to short makes it feel awkward i order ed the xxs petite and it fits perfect except the inside l i have the raspberry jumper and i fe el like royalty in it the silk is luxurious and looks expensive when i walk if feels like it i s fluttering around me like butterflies around sleeping beauty typically i am quite disappointe d when trying a jumper and find that what looked amazing on the model simply makes me look goofy but this one is the exception i think the super long length although problematic as well as t he soft elegant drape of he fabric as well as the angled cut at the bodice ar purchased it in r aspberry first time it came in the mail it was stained and the hem looked like it had been dra gged through the mud come on customer service you need to be more diligent about checking out items before you ship them i ordered it again and this time it was a new jumpsuit in plastic so pristine \r\ni am a size 8 10 and the small fit me fine the lining is a little tight in th e crotch area but i can put up with it for the style of this jumpsuit the reason i gave this an overall rating of 4 stars is because of the sizing the jumpsuit runs big and the black does not have a petite option otherwise i would give this 5 stars this jumpsuit is so gorgeous tha t i had to buy both colors i bought the black in medium and it looks absolutely beautiful on bu t i will have to take it to get it altered it is way too big on me i really need a petite in t h just purchased these online and couldn t wait to try them on they are soft comfortable and m y new favorite pair of jeans i love them i am 5 8 and sz 29 the color and quality are above my expectations beautiful dusty rose color the fit is fabulous love the sleeve and hem leng th very flattering and does not cling love love this i was hesitant to buy this at first th e reviews made it seem so big and i wasn t sure if it was my kind of outfit but i wanted to try a jumpsuit and this was the perfect find the xs was a typical retailer size for me so the size was good in this too the color is fabulous and the fit is great the rise is slightly short b ut not a problem i can t wait to where it for my next great event i wish i could buy it in the black too i really liked the fabric and the design of this sweater but the sleeves hung at an odd length no way to push them up like on the model and the sweater was large on me i have br oad shoulders but am otherwise petite unfortunately i had to return this glad others are havin g better luck this tank is soft and flexible great fit with wonderful material very pleased i am in love with this piece i am long waisted and large busted so finding a jumpsuit to fit me can be challenging having said that i sized up when ordering this wrong ladies no need i had to reorder my normal size and even that was roomy but in a good way as i prefer belting it with my huge concho belts i purchased it in the rasberry and i am still scratching my head as t o why the black sold first the red is stunning and i find it more versatile going from casual t o dressy and this i just bought this dress and love the fit i m pear shaped and it s very flat tering it s not clingy because it is lined and it has great drape it s also seasonless it wil l look great with boots and a sweater or kimono i ordered this top because it was on a crazy sa ve i had to order it online because i needed the xsp as the xs in store was way too big please be warned that this runs large and definitely buy the petite if you are petite or a little talle r i am 5 3 for reference and even at 5 3 it s barely short enough to not be too long on me so if you are an inch or two taller i would recommend the pe this is an awesome piece and i got many complements while wearing it it is that rare combo of super comfortable yet amazing look a ll in one it does run a bit big especially on top but the stride is short so i had to keep my regular size or i would have had a wedgie all night such a gorgeous weight cut and style the button detail is adorable and the fit of the sweater is fantastic the hem style not sure what you would call it is incredibly flattering for an hourglass figure i am 5 4 133 and 34dd fi t is tts maybe a bit large but nothing crazy love i recently wore this to a beach wedding and it worked out great with a cute denim jacket the orange color is pretty and vibrant and it is comfortable to wear i like the length of it and it flows really well as you walk the cons are that it wrinkles really easily i used a steamer extensively when it arrived to steam out the wr inkles but it still had a wrinkled look to it because i think of how the seams are as i got ba ck up from sitting down for 10 15 minutes the front and back were alr this tunic is a nice basi c to have it is like a light sweater knit the arm holes are a little large and hang low but ca n easily be remedied by wearing a camisole underneath nice with leggings or skinny jeans i rea lly couldn t tell if i like the dress or not it was swimming on me and i always wear a size sm all design is great with cross straps in the back thin silky fabric i would call the color m ore of a bright coral orange not a bright red i ll get back if i decide to try ordering the xs the colors are beautiful on this shirt and it is true to size it is very comfortable but i wish the flowing part on top was pinned under arms or something it is attached at the top of the tan k top but nowhere else so it just kind of lays over the tank with a poncho look i also think the top layer would look better if it was longer it hits at my natural waist and i m petite i stil l plan on keeping it and think it will be cute enough with jeans just really wanted to love it the fabric is super soft and the quality is just exceptional the pattern coloring is even more beautiful in person overall an excellent pair of leggings to work out in or run errands in i j ust got these leggings yesterday and honestly they re amazing they look just like the picture feel great on don t slip in the waist zero negatives i can t wait to wear these bad boys out ssic with impeccable quality this sweater is very long could be worn as a dress at 5 3 i pur chased a large and it fit perfect i m a size 12 36dd the material is very forgiving and flows over my curves thick enough that it doesn t need a slip and will stretch to fit size 14 ladies maybe size 16 too i m 5 7 and the length is great on me with flat sandals doesn t show my bra either color not as vibrant as in the picture skirt is darted which is not clearly seen in th ewers are instructed to avoid writing about customer service but i feel compelled to note that the customer service i have i love the beading at the neck of this top and also the half length banded sleeves it is a dressy top that is nevertheless very comfortable to wear it looks like silk although it is synthetic i do wish it came in a petite length because it is a bit long for me but it is one of those pieces you can just put on over a variety of pants or skirts and you re done and ready for work or going out to an event it requires little in the way of accessorie s because the beading at the neck acts as built love this fun print one of the most complimente ove the length and the color will likely exchange for a smaller size and wear it all spring and summer i love this dress the only issue is i ordered on line and it came from a store location not the warehouse so it came dirty on the bottom and wrinkled \r\nonce i washed it yes its was ormal size 26 2 and they fit great i have an athletic build and they fit me like a glove with comfy room i can t wait till the temperature gets i was looking for a top to wear out that was chic but not too dressy this top fit the bill the sleeves and the embellishments give it a ver y feminine touch i paired it with skinny black ankle pants and black heels and received lots of compliments it is comfortable and easy to wear for a long night out it does run big so i recom mend sizing down also the sides are slightly sheer but i wore a black tank underneath without a problem great top this bra is incredibly comfortable but not meant for practices that involv u wanted to take it in that direction i love this dress i ordered the small i am 5 2 and 116 ibs the dress fell right at my knee cap i had it altered in length 2 and now it looks great i was a little concerned about having to cut off some of the print design elements but it didn t effect the look im size 16 top and the xl is a little big but it is a longer tshirt whihc i love thank you sooo much please return the size large back it is a beautiful dress but didn t fit me this is better for someone tall and thin now i ordered both striped versions and i don t know which to keep the material is a nice soft knit the neck line is almost boat neck wit h little buttons so cute colors are really nice too i tried it on with skinnies and trousers a nd ti looked great with both i went with the petite version for those shorter gals out there xxs petite fit me i havne t tried o the xs petite yet 5 1 5 and 115 lbs i think it would l oke nice with a pencil skirt too if i only had one that went wit this is a nice sleeveless butt on down the bee design is really fun but the colors make this more stylish than i would have t hought i tried it on with a pair of white shorts with a half tuck and it looked great i can also see it paired with trousers or flared jeans nice addition i purchased the 0 or xs my u sual size in regular length and it was fine the stylist also showed me how to tied it in the front to wear with high waisted pants i am 115 lbs for reference and 30 dd nice quality can w ork as a jacket or sweater i ve worn with and without the tie i didn t realize from the pictur es but the sleeves bell out giving it an extra touch i purchased the navy breton stripe version of this shirt it s chic versatile and soft a great rendition of a wardrobe classic loved th al i could see it running a tad large but i think it s pretty true to size now i m debating a bout buying it in blush i am 5 4 and 128 lbs and could have worn the 4 or 6 but took the 6 i t does run short and the length in the 6 was better than the 4 with arm hole size being the same the bees are embroidered making the fabric high quality and normally i would run from a print li y people have complimented me on this dress and ask where i bought it the color is so soft and pretty the dress is comfortable as well it looks great with a light pair of wedges i bought t his shirt in the teal navy and loved it so much that i went back and bought the white navy too it is so soft the shirt runs a little tight but is stretchy and not uncomfortable the sleeve l t as comfortable overall very cute and flattering love the colors in this autumn designed swea ter that i just received but it has to be returned i disagree with one of the reviews that it i s not as pictured as far as the green being off i think it is just as pictured i love the te xture of the large pockets and belt with the suede feel i love the flap on the back what i don t like is how large it is i have never worn an xs from retailer and i should have listened to t he advice from the previous reviews but i didn t \r\ni could send it back fabulous fabric ador

i love the raw edges on this t shirt and the marled pink is a pretty color the fit is not as ov th hoping it works perfectly i ordered a size up after reading the reviews but i wouldn t of had to it s not a snug fit at all although i am fairly small busted soft fabric with a littl e stretch that will be great for lounging around the house or running errands this is so awesom e i love how it fits it s great quality it s flattering it s casual but put together love fits true to size i bought it in white as well i bought this dress on super sale online after seeing it in the store the pattern is just so beautiful and unique i think it looks much prett y in person than online there isn t a lot of shape to the dress but i like the loose style and can see this being worn with boots booties it also looks nice with a belt my only complaint is i had to size down to a 6 usually an 8 10 in dresses and the liner slip was a little tight al so would have loved to try this in petite the regular falls to just this blouse is very cute an d will be great for summer casual wear so cute in this print it looks great with colored crop pants \r\n\r\nit is a bit tough to get the right fit in this top depending on your preference i usually wear a size 2 4 in tops 26 waist 34b c but went with a 0 in this because it just felt wide otherwise also i am fine with it but this blouse seems to be somewhat short in the torso if you are particular possibly buy in store because the pattern of bees varies quite bea utiful cardigan but it does run large i m about 5 9 160 lbs normally a large in tops and the medium fits great it s still a bit roomy but i think this cardigan is meant to be a tad ro omy i agree with another reviewer that it s a bit itchy on bare skin but it s wool so that s a given overall a great cardigan for fall love the fabric of this button down runs really l arge however am usually a small or xs so bought a 4 it s ok but is incredibly boxy and sta nds away from the body not in a good way i think it probably works well tied at the waist but alas i am too old to be showing off that part of my anatomy returned reluctantly hope others will enjoy it s the perfect long loose t shirt flattering without being fitted love i t this is such a cute top i bought it when it was a new arrival and couldn t be more thrilled it washes well in the the washing machine the only flaw is that it runs on the short side othe rwise i m thrilled 1 i m 5 6 tall with a short waist and long legs and this skirt came all the way down to my ankles i would have kept it if it had stopped mid calf like in the photo \n \n2 i m 38 32 40 and the size 12 fit me perfectly in the waist hip area so i would say it runs true to size \n\n3 the buttons lay nice and flat over the tummy so that s a plus at least you don t have to undo them to go to the bathroom i purchased the cedar one not sure where they go t color name from since i don t see any cedar in it the picture of the model is accurate in col oring and fit tts the sleeves are a little wider and longer at bottom but in a good way to me the pockets and belt are a suede like material which makes for a lovely detail it s not a slend er izing piece but not a frumpy fit imo at all soft material and nicely made but for that pric e i would hope so i m 5 1 and a tad busty and this sweater i found to be most flattering i saw it i the store on was drawn to it i love the shimmer but perhaps that s because the holiday fe int would be cute with so many bottoms the sleeves are a bit too voluminous and the solid color collar stands out a bit too much but it s a cute pattern and style very comfortable this is a nice tunic but i wish it was a bit more structured the band in the back helps hold it togethe r so it doesn t balloon out but a few more pin tucks would have been nice i do like the length and style as a alternate to a white button down shirt and it looks super cute with skinny crop p ants this sweater was in store in a more neutral color palette and was so pretty when i tried it on i noticed a few things the versatility and quality are definitely there this is a nice piece even at full price the downside is that it runs very large i m typically a 14 16 and a s ize xl in most retailer items and even the large was a bit roomy the other thing was that the sleeves of this sweater are pretty long and i have long arms due to the bell cut of the sleev e you couldn t even really c beautiful 100 lambswool sweater with all these gorgeous fall color s arranged into an eye catching design i agree with reviewer numero uno she is correct on all counts pretty colors quality construction ultra long bell sleeves look at model wearing ceda r neutral colorway oversized fit sizing down will still have those ridiculously long sleeves but i m fine with that i ordered size m and will exchange for a s as the cardigan is too large y can t wait to pair with booties into fall i got this dress in the mail today and it s one o f the best dresses i ve ever gotten at retailer the material is of high quality and feels silk y against the skin the fit is true to size for maeve and is so flattering for reference i m thin 116 lbs but curvy and usually order a regular xs in maeve i m usually an xsp and the xsp fit perfectly it looks good with a wide cream colored crocheted belt also from retailer or on its own this dress is beautiful and very flattering i bought the 8 and am 5 3 and 138lb s it fits right at the knee and is flowy but still gives some shape without looking baggy i l ove it i am busty and have a difficult time wearing stripes because they are not that flatterin g the stripes on this top are narrow and the material is thin which makes this great to wear u nder a jacket if you want to dress it up i am 5 feet tall and ordered both the regular small an d the ps because i wasn t sure which sleeves would be best on me as far as the length goes if you want the sleeves to look like they do on the model order the petite if that s what you usual ly order you can also get what a great sweater the pale pink is sweet but the grey was more my style i m 5 5 120 34c and the xs is perfect i know everyone is saying this sweater runs large but i believe this style is meant to be a bit oversized so i would call it true to size with that in mind the arms are long the shape is boxy but not short and i love the way it hangs on my thin frame it s super soft cozy will easily be a go to sweater this fall i love this sweater it is so soft and the pink is such a sweet shade it is large and falls of the shoulder but that s how it is designed to fit it is my new favorite sweater nan i am so happy with this dress i bought my usual size 2 and it was a perfect fit this dress is gorgeous it has some stretch which is a plus i am 5 5 and it was not too long on me at all i am so thrilled with my purchase i a looking forward to wearing this dress with a jean or leather jacket the dress is well made and the fringe adds a nice detail to the otherwise basic design be sure to order a couple of sizes smaller than your regular size because the dress is huge i ordered the dress in both colors and am keeping the blue i wanted the blight yellow as photo with navy flower motifs however it was much more darker as on the tag mustard if you like its color you will like it love this sweater super comfy can wear with everything this dress is more beautiful in person loved it fits true to size i had to return it because it was to long for what i needed chic and comfortable even in 90 degree heat so easy to wear very nice sweater surprisingly just as pictured color wise i ordered a large and it felt true to size in the shoulders but this sweater flair out to the bottom you can kind of see it in the photo the length is good as well for a regular fit it s very unique combination of fabric acrylic wool knit the texture is really nice and soft and looks very good on also it s thick and warm i wore the top to work today on 34 degree weather and received many compliments sweater looks simple but the i bought this light weight duster in the cream color it runs a little large through the shoulders so i sized down from my usual l to a size m its very flattering on and made with natural fibers such as cotton and linen i wear this unbuttoned with a tank top cropped jeans and sandals i m 5 5 128 lbs 34b cup slender throughout size 2 fit perfectly lightweight flattering dress bought on sale to wear next year to baby bridal shower type event i just received this dress and i feel like a goddess in it it is perfect for graduations weddings romantic dinners tropical va cations heck i ll wear it to the grocery store i love it that much \r\n\r\ni am 5 7 with a 34c bust i have this dress in a size 4 and it fits very well this dress is slim cut from the shoulder down to the waist the dress length hits me at the lower calf just like the model online i think the armholes are cut a little high this being said this dress would this sweater works on many levels for petite frames the length is just right hitting at the lower waist the design is very pretty feminine and with flair absolutely love the print and quality is great too unfortunately for a well endowed woman like myself it runs terribly small in the bust and hip region it absolutely does not look as flowy on an hourglass body type too bad because it s beautiful might try sizing up but doubt it will work i wanted this top since the first time i saw it it fits perfectly in a small as i usually wear a small or medium it would probably fit better if you are smaller on top i am a 36a as it is not generously sized it flares at the bottom which looks quite flattering the lace on the sleeves really adds a lot of style i will wash it carefully as i am not sure how well the lace will hold up with washing this is a beautiful top and i am considering buying another in a different color i think this dress was so cute and comfortable i said it runs big but i think that may also simply be the style of it i paired it with some cute boots and received many compliments love it i ve been searching high and low for a pair of flattering and comfortable linen pants i m very particular and have turned down every pair until these these are perfect they fit true to size they are a relaxed but not baggy cut i hate saggy butt pants the legs are slightly tapered so they don t widen my frame they look great rolled up or left down the linen is soft not scratchy the elastic band sits comfortably on my waist they are also not see through a must for me i ordered th yay hei hei love these pants thanks to the roll up they show a nice bit of ankle lightweight but sturdy i ve been reaching for them when it just seems too hot for jeans they re a little poufy toward the top below the waist but the tie waist makes them sufficiently cinchable i expect to get a lot of wear out of these this summer i did experience some stretching sagging after a full day of walking moving and sitting so i bought my second pair in m instead of l got navy and went back i ordered the red in xs petite xxs and xxs petite in case petite was too short so far the xs petite and xxs petite were shipped to me however thought the bag said petite the actual dresses inside were regular sizes and they were huge even the xxs i put it on on top of another knit dress and it was big0 so i reordered this time only the xxs petite though i am technically waiting for the xxs regular perhaps all the bags have been switched we shall see but perhaps this isn t t i love the pattern but the color was not great on my skin tone i tried on the regular size and it wasn t great teh cut could work but overall i didn t feel like it was enough for me to order the petite to see and i sometimes do in a tall darker toned person this would be gorgeous what i like the most is the color pattern in the print and shimmer rec ently wore this lovely dress during business trip was stopped four times while walking thru or lando airport the design is extremely comfortable the print will make you and others smile so elegant and fun the beading on the flowers is elegant such a unique piece buy these they are a keeper sturdy fabric not too thin and they do not sag or stretch after wearing i tested the m before taking the tag off by sitting in them on my couch for several hours comfy soft fabri c i will be ordering other colors hoping that black will be available this is simply a fabulo us dress i think the issue with the other reviewers is that they are too small though there is nothing wrong with that i am not i am older and heavier and the dress fits very well i m al so rounder on the bottom so it is not baggy or tent like the material and texture of the yarn i s soft and comfortable you can wear it all day at the office and into the evening it looks gre at with a jean jacket for example and booties and it also looks terrific with flats it d thi s dress is a lovely creation however i had to buy it three times before finding the proper fit it runs extremely large i am 5 4 weighing around 128 i ordered a 4 petite the first time be cause others stated this dress ran small ha it was a sack the 2 petite was little better t he 0 petite was perfect but i have never worn a 0 petite in my entire life \r\n\r\notherwise t his dress is an original that i will enjoy for many years to come if only it had been made of s ilk it would be un i ordered this dress in navy for fall and it is now easily the most darling and figure flattering dress in my wardrobe i am 125 lbs and size 27 in jeans i usually wear a size small but ordered a medium based on reviews that said this dress runs small and i like tha t the medium is a little longer and slightly blousy making it more modest but the small would have worked just fine for a slightly more figure accentuating look the fabric hangs beautifully and has a silky feel the navy flower i bought this sweater in the black it is so flattering an d feels great on the sleeves are a bit long but they are supposed to be the material is not o verly thick yet it feels soft and well made while the lace sleeves are the star of this show the back is so flattering it has a perfect cut that i don t think comes through in the picture it fits true to size love this one i ordered the ivory in size xl it fit a little on the s mall side the knit was good quality as was the lace unfortunately the mock neck was stiff and uncomfortable the sleeves were a little too long for me as well so i returned it but it s suc h a unique style and good quality it is rare that i find a pair of pants that works for me at r etailer as a woman with curves i have found that most of retailer s pants are cut for slim figu red women this rare pair of pants crosses the divide flattering both shapes i usually have to look for xls here i found that i had too much room and sized down to a l these pants are grea t they are lightweight without being so gauzy that they highlight imperfections they will be m y go to summer pant i love them it s stunning in person delicate beading detail on bodice isn t visible in the photo but really dresses it up fits lovely but runs small i am usually a 6 or 8 ordered the 8 and it just fits fully lined bought it to attend a wedding and i m very pleas ed with it i love drop shoulder sweaters and find them to be very flattering so i took a chance on this one despite the reviews stating it runs very large i was attracted to the style as well as the natural cotton fiber which i find holds up best over time i am 34b and usually wear xs or small and in this i ordered the xs it fits perfectly i layered this soft pink sweater over a rounded hem tee with a black and white pattern so cute it is slightly short on my 5 8 frame so the shirt tail hems peeked i ve been looking for comfortable pants for the summer this pant s is the answer it s comfortable thin and yet not to sheer this pants a bit loose i could fit in s i usually buy size 8 or 10 for shorts from retailer so i ll say this pants run big the con with this pants is the stitching around the back pockets is not very sturdy i found ti ny holes on 2 other pairs before i bought mine i bought this is in the gray color although imo it has more of a greenish hue i love it it s a wide boxy fit like others have said and tends to fall off the shoulder i purchased it in the small my typical size and it definitely seems to run large it relaxes too as i wear it giving it an even roomier feel that said it s very cozy comfortable i wear a tank underneath works well for 50 s and 60 s weather this is a pe rfect sweater it s comfortable practical and lends an elegant hand to a pair of jeans it also hides your bits and stays flattering i have worn it a lot because it makes life so easy and i h ave not had any issues yet with lace tearing \n\ntts 5 7 127 lbs 34b wearing this in size smal l these pants are so great light comfortable and reasonably priced they are very well made a nd the soft fabric is perfect for summer traveling and hiking there s a bit of elastic in the w aist which i like since pants usually gap at the waist on me they re like classier lounge pants don t wait get this dress now before it disappears it is gorgeous it is well made it is like butter the fit is perfect and the workmanship is stunning everything about this screams lets go party oh yeah and the skirt part kind of swishes around as you dance you cannot get mo re charming than this i ordered the small and it fits ok i probably could have went with an xs but i am keeping the dress it is a very beautiful dress this dress can be worn for casual or dre ssed up for evening very versatile dress and well made i did get it on sale which made it very a ffordable i am only 5 3 and the length in the regular s is fine for me i am 5 8 and 220lbs e xtremely muscular i ordered a size large and it hangs very nicely over my curves the neckline looks pretty good with my broad shoulder and the dress comes about 4 inches above my knee i th ink people with curves would really like this dress but it does lack shape so beware if you re l ooking for something with some structure the blue is gorgeous and the fringe details are very c ute this dress does seem to run a bit big this is a gorgeous sweater i purchased it in black and purple i was looking for something business casual when i ran into this dress in store i w as able to wear a petite small but am normally a 4 6 in dresses it does run large its perfect with heels for work or dressed down with boots in the fall it is very comfortable and still loo ks like you re trying i bought this dress to wear to my graduation where i was receiving a degr ee in horticulture i also just had a child a few weeks prior and was worried about sizing the high waist worked well for the post pregnancy belly i am 5 3 and was typically around 130 lbs pre pregnancy which was typically a 4 in dresses i ordered a 6 petite in this dress and it was perfect the only area that was sort of tight was the bosom but i am nursing so i expected as mu ch the petite length was perfect for my he absolutely beautiful i am extremely happy with this purchase i bought this top a couple of months ago and have worn it many times initially i was a little apprehensive to order due to some of the other reviews but i found that this top is ver y figure flattering it is very soft and warm and i am positive it will be in my wardrobe for qu ite a few years to come i am almost sad that i will have to put it away for the season soon i loved the look and style of the dress but was unsure how it would work with my body i m curvy b ut slim and usually a size 6 or 8 in retailer i went with the m in the navy color and i m happ y i did \r\nthe floral pattern is vibrant and the ruffled skirt is flirty and fun as far as fi t goes i d say this runs mostly true to size but is rather short in length i have a large ches t so the top part looked more baggy than blousy and the skirt portion was just comfortably fitt ed however the cuten this sweater is even better looking in person the body of the sweater is substantial a nice weight the lace is gorgeous i usually wear a size large but found the sle eves really long i purchased a medium and it fits better sleeves are perfect this is a great dress nice soft fabric and the red is a nice vibrant tomato red color i ordered a small i am 5 4 and usually wear a 4 in dressed this dress was so huge it might be mismarked but lab eled a small i will have to return it not even my seamstress can make it fit love the lace cut out detail on the sleeves which is initially what attracted me to this sweater just be care ful with the threads the sleeves are long but are supposed to be as in the photo comfortable material with nice weave flattering cut i bought the ivory color in xs for my 5 2 115 strai ght frame not too long love love love this sweater it is so comfy and well made this is a p iece i will have for a very long time the beautiful lace detail are the sleeves are to die for picture doesn t do this sweater justice i love this sweater and the sleeves are amazing i also love the purple color which is more of a deep maroon the material seems to be of good quality what i don t love about this sweater is the shape it is very swingy which is somewhat flatteri ng because it isn t too clingy but it poofs out a bit too much on the sides becoming unflatter ing from certain angles love love love it is a little boxy but it is soo soft and comfortabl e it does run at least a size or 2 big i picked it up in the pink color yesterday at me loca l retailer store was not sure about it when i first saw it online but fell in love with it quic kly when i tried it on great sweater for fall winter this shirt is beautiful however i thoug ht that it was made of a softer lighter material it is instead made of a thick heavy materi al that was unflattering for my shape short torso ann s large bust it made me look boxy and chunky in the middle sadly i ll be returning i purchased the pale green in this sweater first loved it so much i purchased in another color stunning sweater for cooler weather i think it r uns a little small so returned first one and ordered one size up which fits perfect i ordered t his online and i love the style but didn t like the print as much as i thought i would this is a lovely sweater unique nicely made though i found that it ran large for me i was between a size xs and small and neither one seemed just right so i ended up returning it the small had t he right length in the arms and torso but was too wide in the torso and shoulders and the xs w as too short bummer also found that every single ivory one had stains or spots on them in my l ocal store not sure why if i had been able to settle on the right size i probably would ve kep t it i ordered the navy in an xl although am generally a medium or large in tops i sized up be cause it looked fitted and i think it was a good choice for me it fits just like the model but the back droops a bit and the neck is wider my bra is still covered in the back it fits perfe ctly in the waist and the elastic allows for some adjustment in placement there s 2 layers of r uffles in the skirt portion i m 66 and was concerned it would be too young looking but i love t he look it hits about an fun socks you will want to show off design is printed on a relatively thin trouser sock i wanted to love this dress but sadly returned it i think it would be mor e appropriate for someone younger it runs very large but its not clingy so forgiving of anyone with chunkiness such as myself i guess i just thought the blue was a little too unexciting for me wore this got many compliments true to size elegant these pants are really great the fabric is soft but substantial and the fit is so comfortable i bought the grey color it s a very light grey almost a stone color it s a perfect neutral to wear with just about any top you may have i love the deep front pockets and the elastic waist is an added bonus i m 5 5 124 lb and purchased the small i already have some dresses similar to this but i couldn t hel p getting this one too i love the flowers bees and ladybugs on the print there is some shim mery beading on the neck and a few spots i think i can wear this at work with the right cardiga n jacket so i ll get more use out of it it s a lovely light floaty fabric that s nice for war mer weather i felt a review would be helpful for anyone between sizes i am long lean and bro ad shouldered i normally wear a m but ordered a l it still fits snug so i ve exchanged for a n xl in order to get the drape as pictured on the model material and color of the red motif is darling light as a feather will take me spring through summer slouchy longer in the sleeves a little cropped great neckline stylish these are just some of the reasons i absolutely lo ve this sweater i ve been looking for a style like this for a long time i went down a size bec ause of the wide neckline and the fact that it is a bit oversized i m petite 119 lbs with a 32f bust size i went with the grey but i m loving it so much i might pick one up in the pink so comfy and cozy and chic beautiful sweater i first bought it in black and loved it so much i bought it in burgundy the burgundy one is longer and slightly bigger than the black one and t hey are both smalls nice thing is i can wear the burgundy one with leggings love the lace on t he sleeves and the sweater is a nice weight this dress runs very large i am usually wear an xs but i had to get xxsp runs large through the mid section and arm holes very comfortable and sup er cute on very high quality fabric and the fit is excellent the skirt is stylish yet simple a nd very easy to wear as i feel i would have no trouble paring it with several different tops it can easily be dressed up or down and is excellent for work i got this on sale and am so glad s till it is one of the few items actually worth the initial high price tag great quality these pants are so comfy i m getting a second pair i ordered the olive color in a small reg im think ing of ordering the xs next time since they do stretch out a great deal as the day goes on woul d definitely recommend these for sure hope this review is helpful as i struggled with ordering petite or not glad i didn t loved everything about this sweater but the short length didn t notice in the pictures but the last one of the back of the model shows the length it barely rea ched the very top of my jeans so would have to wear something under or i d be flashing my stomac h all the time worked a bit better with skirts but still too cropped for my frame wish it wa s 1 2 longer in length and would have been a new fall favorite really great color and design b esides that just make sure you are wanting the sh the skirt really is beautiful the blue and coral are brighter in person than in the picture above it s a nice lightweight material that fe els quality but has too much stretchy spandex in it for my tastes i had the same problem as ot hers the skirt runs very small i am usually a size 6 and while i could zip the 6 up the ski rt had those puckers that come from being a size too small these are nice comfortable summer p ants that travel well the material has a nice feel to it lightweight but not too thin they ar e easy to wear with any summer top and look just dressy enough i like the elastic waist but t he pants will stretch out a bit and run a little large this dress is absolutely stunning i m 5 feet curvy it s flowy lightweight has some sparkle mixed in with the gorgeous print i t fit everywhere except when i got the zipper up to my chest i m a 36dd it wasn t going to fi nish zipping i was very sad i even tried the biggest size they had a 12 it didn t work if that zipper had been able to go all the way up would own this dress i bought this dress in bu rnt orange for my 19 year old collage daughter she loved it and has found many opportunities to wear it on campus she said it is so comfortable and perfect with a sweater for cool fall mornin gs and sleeveless as the day warms up love this romantic girlie girl dress so pretty i bought this duster in the blue color and really like it i am 5 11 so love the longer length the larg e was too wide so got the medium the sleeves were a little snug on my upper arms but after wear ing it for awhile they loosened up i think i will get the white too gorgeous sweater such a simple design but really stunning on seems to be true to size definitely a nice winter piece that s got a hint of dressy to it maybe for date night my only wish is that it didn t flair so much at the bottom wish it was a bit more straight but other than that i love it \ni m a pprox 5 5 and about 125 lbs i purchased the small i love this turtleneck it s soft cashm ere blend is sexy with the lace design and loose but form fitting style and the 70s inspired sleeves are really flirty i purchased it in two colors because i got so many compliments the fi rst time around nan i also agree that this piece ran very small my normal size did not zip up i sized up a size and it pulled across my thighs i sized up two sizes and it fit as i had hop ed it would if you get the right size it is beautiful on the colors are so fun and i love th e side slit i bought it to wear to work with a blouse or blazer and it is definitely a stateme nt piece i bought this dress at my local retailer store on friday and love it the dress is wel l made with some heft to the yarn the colors of the yarn blue white and grey seem to shimme r a bit due to their weave but there is no metallic thread in the dress that i can tell i know some have written that the dress is a sack but not on me i toyed with buying this online and t hen didn t due to the negative comments about the dress i bought an extra small and it fits wel l i usually where an x small this dress was stunning on the hanger on me not so much i am 5 1 5 and typically a sz 2 the smallest size at the store was a 4 i felt it was baggy about the waist and the length would have been better in petite sizing the print is gorgeous with bea ding accenting different flowers there is a tinge of green yellow to the background fabric and the color did not look good on me i hope to try this in a 4p i love this cotton weave shift dr ess it is supposed to be loose and not tight i purchased a medium and fits the way i see it sh ould fit ref 34dd 148 lb 5 4 height hits above the knee but office appropriate as not too s hort i paired it with a few seasons ago the navy blue suede fringe jacket by retailer elevense s new necklace in the blue motif from retailer it has a hanging druzy pendant navy hose and navy crew neck long sleeve top great outfit for work and an after work party at retailer very comfortable and attractive pullover not too long or bulky although i find myself rolling the s leeves up to keep them out of the way \n\nbut it s a keeper i love the look on this dress feel s great for a romantic night out or for a party nan purchased this in store today i m normally a small but tried on x small before trying on my regular size the x small fit perfectly i m 5 5 135 lbs with wide hips and petite derriã re the dress fit well slightly hugging my bottom while i don t like things that draw attention to my bottom with an outward tug or two of the st retchy material of the dress it fit perfectly sweater dresses tend to be bulky so it makes se nse to down size definitely a nice addition to my closet i almost never buy anything full pric e here and usually wait patiently for a sale promotion however this really struck me and i decided to buy it telling myself it s an investment piece for years to come it s just so uniqu e and beautiful the things that makes retailer unique that aren t as common anymore \r\n\r\n \r\npros \r\n very comfortable i was skeptical because it s all polyester but it s light and thin and breathable it feels wonderful on the skin the lining inside is ver the lace inlet sle eves on this comfy top add unexpected detail that dresses it up you can wear this with jeans or skinny cords as well as a fitted skirt the material is comfy and the neck is not too tight no r too loose \ni usually wear a small and the small fit the best i tried the xs and medium and a lthough they both fit the xs seemed a bit too short and the medium was too long in the arms th is looked really pretty but i think i am just too short for it a little on the wider side woul d look good on someone taller nan i have an athletic body 5 6 i have no curves and this dress made me look so feminine and long and lean on top of it being beautiful the dress has a very comfortable jersey knit type lining so easy to wear and incredibly comfortable sitting and o r dancing for the last two years i have only purchased clothing for myself if it is secondhand but then i saw this skirt and succumbed to temptation first of all the print is gorgeous i m a sucker for blue and white anything so it wasn t that hard of a sell as other reviewers have m entioned the seams line up this kind of quality is so hard to find in clothing items anymore a nd really makes the skirt seem much more pricey than it really is if you re buying it on sale l ike i did i m 5 3 and will per reviews and from looking at retailer employee pics on instagra m i sized down to a small cinched with a wide leather belt topped with a cropped jacket adde d some shooties and a necklace when winter comes this will go with my knee high suede boots l ong wool coat and chunky scarf this does not look like a table runner on me like the model shot and previous reviews imply now i am tempted to buy the other color i m 5 3 135 36d 38 28 35 and purchased red melange in size s i went back and forth on whether to purchase this dress an d i m so glad i did the fit was perfect i m always a little hesitant about long dresses since i m 5 2 but the petite length was perfect the quality is great and the dress is so comfortabl e but i feel elegant in it i wore it for rehearsal dinner at my wedding and plan on wearing it again for a wedding next month this is a beautifully made sweater i bought this sweater in ivo ry yesterday i wore it today and received many compliments i think the sweater is adorable it s soft and warm the neck is perfect i like that it s not as restrictive as a turtleneck the l ong sleeves add character and help to make it interesting i highly recommend it i m looking for a black one this skirt is of the highest quality the fabric and cut is that of a much higher p riced item the fabric at the seams matches no one mentions any longer when fabric seams are mismatched as if that is nonconsequential to me it means the difference between good and great this skirt is great except for the sizing as other reviewers have mentioned it runs so small it will be nice into fall with a sweater my daughter got this dress in the 10 and i got it in t he 6 we are both tall also she s a redhead and got the butterfly version and i m blonde and got the pink also both of us are small chested and since there is no give in the fabric i d on t know where one would fit boobs if you have them one thing i noted and i am not happy abou t is that the back is puckered up along the zipper this has to be on purpose and i don t real ly understand that detail as it doesn t flatter me and it loo i am a fan of these designers and their gorgeous fabrics most of which are heavy brocades this is so pretty and fun the print is playful and colors are gorgeous and the fit is floaty but not too full or too tight i love the bit of beading and that i can dress it up or down \r\n\r\ni am petite and not usually a big

00 petite as i know that only this small size fits me at retailer 0 s swallow me this i i ord ered this in a 2 but returned for a 4 because the arm holes were a little tight other than tha t this is a absolutely flattering dress u will be wearing it for an outdoor garden wedding sho wer the beading around the flowers makes such a different accent just be careful zipping it up love it first of all the fabric s summery pattern of blossoms honeybees and butterflies is be autiful and absolutely unique i love it so much i wish i could afford to keep the dress as an a rt object also with one important exception the dress is well made the underslip is the righ t length and opacity the dress is not transparent \r\nwhich is a big plus there is a slight gr eenish cast to the background instead of the pure ivory shown\r\nin the pictures this makes the color a bit harder to wear and this a a great sweater it is classic but has the fun surprise element of the lace bell sleeves loved it so much i got the black and the sea mist looks great with jeans or leggings the only negative is you can call it that is that the sleeves are a tad long for me compliments everytime i wear very pretty sweater i love the bell sleeves with the design on the sides the sweater runs a bit short though and wish it hung a little longer looks great with flare jeans and boots this is a beautiful knit dress however it runs large so be w ary for reference i am a 34d 28 inch waist and 41 inch hips i ordered a medium because dress es usually run tight around my bum and it was very very big i m hoping the small is much more flattering because the quality of the knit is very nice i love the way this dress fits and flow s it does run big i normally wear size 6 in retailer dresses had to downsize to 6p for refer ence i m 5 10 and 34c the pink color is 1 shade darker than shown in the pictures there was a tear in fabric along the zipper called for replacing the dress the sales rep was very pleasant agreed to send another one i debated buying this so glad i did tts i m 5 5 115 and 32c i g ot size 2 and it worked but i could have done a 0 which is my usual size i was afraid to ord er it too small because i needed it right away this dress is gorgeous i got the pink color way and it is more vibrant in person the beading is beautiful it s incredibly soft and flowy this dress is probably my favorite dress ever if you re on the fence order it i got this in blue a nd i love it it skims your curves without being clingy and it is very comfortable i was hesit ant to buy this but it s surprisingly flattering it will be perfect with heels for early fall then worn with a long sleeve shirt and boots when the temperatures dip my only caution is that it is shorter than it appears in this photo it falls well above my knees and i am shorter than the model regardless i am thrilled with my purchase i had purchased the black color of this s weater at full price and loved it so much that when i saw the burgundy color go on sale i knew i had to have it this sweater is very comfortable and elevates any look with its lace down the sl eeve mock neck collar and slightly flared silhouette it s so fun to find different shirts to wear underneath to get a whole new look highly recommend would have gotten all colors love th is sweater it fits true to size fun and different purchased 30 off but i don t think the pri ce it terrible depending on your clothing budget i love the 2 straps details funny thing thoug ts bra lvoe the color ordered the purple so there weren t any product reviews to go by when i ordered the last small i had no way of knowing if it ran big small or tts i m usually a me d but to my surprise the small worked due to the fluid pleating it sits right on my natural wa istline similar to the model and not too short in length i m 5 8   i also like the med weight of the fabric it moves freely when you walk but not too light it is similar to a double weight georgette or crepe great basic skirt to have   it flows beautifully and the print is a classic with a twist   it can be dressed up or down with heels or flats   a great addition to my wardro be i love this piece like another reviewer i did notice a broken button right out of the packa ge but it was so great in every other way that i m going to keep it and have that mended and the buttons reinforced \n\ni m 5 7 140 generally a size 8 medium small frame on top but baby gro wing hips   i found it tts when i saw this dress in the store in a size small i usually wea r a large   i thought   how cute   so i tried it on it fit very well   all but in the armhole so i decided to order a medium i received the medium and it fits exactly like the small armhol e and all in addition i agree with other reviews that this dress description above the knee does not accurately describe length unless you re somewhat tall i found this dress hit me just where i d like it to   right above the knee not a nan i love the lace on this top it s perfect it s great for my shape i m\nso happy with this purchase the reason for the title above is thi s skirt doesn t wow me i felt like i could find this anywhere and i don t go to retailer for s uch things they have definitely mainstreamed more and more over the years   \r\n   \r\n pros \r\n tts i tried on a large and i m normally either a 10 or 12 and it fit well and hung well on my hourglass and wider hips without billowing out \r\n flows nicely it does have a gre at movement to it \r\n a good everyday skirt \r\n not sheer at all it is lined \r\n when y i love this dress i agree with the other reviewers that the rhinestone linkages do very easily ge t caught on the lace part of the dress and i could see it snagging very quickly that said i am going to keep it and hope for the best because it is absolutely gorgeous it is not actually a t rue white as it looks pictured instead we it is more of a nude color but it adds to the flatt ering nature of the dress and makes it look sheer the embroidery is beautiful my only complain t is that it will i love clothing that has little surprises and i love the detailing at the arm s with the lace like openings which is not very characteristic and actually quite fancy for a typical henley i found the fabric to be medium weight and thought the quality was fine i like all of the colors this comes in each would fit into my wardrobe nicely i have gotten into comfo rtable clothing that is still flattering and functional lately and am on a huge kick of gravit ating toward it this top certainly is this is a beautiful dress and fits well the embroidery i s delicate and can snag easily got this in the petite xs in mint the color is gorgeous it s a really bright mint that complements my super fair skin really well though it would work for pre tty much any skin tone   it s still a good length in the petite for the type of shirt it is 5 1 and hits right around my lower hips   it is a thinner fabric but that s what i was expecting a nd the lace detailing at the bottom of the sleeves is a nice touch and makes it more than just a plain henley these socks are soft and comfortable and they are very short so they ll be good w ith booties i couldn t tell from the pictures but the pale gray dots are surrounded by a border of subtle silver thread they re adorable beautiful unique design it s very flattering the wa y the fabric hangs \n\ni usually wear a 10 but because the lining is much smaller than the dres s which many linings are   it s a pet peeve of mine   i sized up to a 12 and took in the shoul ders a couple inches so the bodice area would sit correctly on my bust otherwise in the 10 my s tomach would feel squeezed even if it looked like it fit perfectly that said i m very sensitiv e to that kind of thing \n\nother reviewers have noted that the emb i had my eye on this for a w hile and finally picked it up on sale i got the darker blue in xs great piece fits well very cozy but the cuffs add such cute detail i love a jumpsuit for its ease of dressing this is the 3rd i ve purchased from retailer \nmaterial is thin and gauzy as described with a sweater or ja cket it will be plenty warm for so cal winters and great the rest of the year \nif you are all t all the waist might fall a bit short i am 5 6 and the waist just barely hits my waistline \nd oubt i would have purchased this item full price but on sale it s a great deal i found this to p to be very beautiful and well made \nthe fabric is on the lighter side however for me that is a double plus \nit is great for layering with a cami underneath and or a heavier sweater on top \nand going towards spring it extends wearing time \nthe lace on the sleeves is beautiful and a pretty peek a boo effect if layered under another sweater \nit s a subtle sexy top with endless possibilities \ni found it runs very true to size \ni purchased the aqua and after receiving it i rushed t these are nice jeans for the price they are tight at first but do stretch out so i a m glad i went with my normal denim size and didn t size up i wish they didn t have a button fly but it didn t bother me enough to return them i love these jeans but be advised that they run a little small in the waist they work for me but i think they d work best on those with an hourgl ass shape i m 5 7 and about 112 lbs with a small waist and i wear a 28 in these but i have hi ps   the 28 fits perfectly since it has a small waist but accommodates my hips i love these jea ns great fit good fabric great price this is the most beautiful dress i ve ever owned the d etail is exquisite i never write reviews and felt i had to for this dress i love it \n\nthe em broidery does catch on the beading so you have to handle it carefully it s worth the special tr eatment though i was checking out at my local retailer when one of the salespeople held up thi s top and said someone had just returned it they were talking about how cute it was they didn t have it in the store i asked what size it was and it was a medium so i said i want to try it on after trying it on i fell in love it is so cute the cut fit great it is a little bi g but the small might have been too snug in the bust if you are in between sizes you can prob ably size down i wore it yest love polkadots love sparkle these little socks are perfect for booties i love this top i had no issues with fabric it is soft and light the wrist details a re very pretty i love the buttons it fits true to size and it is a good layering top i got th e red which is true to the picture not looking red but a bright coral color ok because i m pet ite i thought there s no way this was going to work but it does a little sheer would probably wear with a boyfriend cardi to work dark undergarments a must but flattering and comfortable these are nice flattering short however the colors and patters are not quite as pictured i al most suspect they are slightly different on each short exmaple on the picture online the left leg seems to be mint green and the right one blue the ones i received the left leg is a darker bluishgreen color the right leg is orange i would hae prefered the colors on the photo but it is not a big deal i guess i ordered the color block bra as well and it has the same issue colo rs and patterns are this coat is simply beautiful i love the slits on the sides it makes it un ique and sexy i would suggest that you go up a size so the silhouette is not disturbed by any p ulling or tugging i m so happy with my purchase i love these little socks and the dots spark le i wear them with my heels and leggings or jump suit pants when i don t want a higher sock or knee high stockings i liked the simple styling of these jeans when i saw them in the store the price is right considering what some jeans cost today unfortunately these are made in china t hat bummed me out they run a tad bit small but in the end i think they are more true to size be cause they give especially in the waist the higher waist is a nice change it s nice to be able to skip a belt the denim is a bit rough after air drying so i hope it softens up love these je ans so comfortable and the high waist is great for my long torso these are real denim not the thin stretchy legging type jeans they fit true to size on me i am 5 4 120 pounds and i wear a 26 they were a little long so i chopped them off to hit just above the ankle i agree with the other reviews that the side slits are not at all represented in the images thankfully there was an instagram photo of the coat posted by the time i ordered it that showed the side panels very clearly so i was not caught off guard i like that the panels allow for ease of movement but w hen there s a cold wind it would be nice if they were not there this coat is a great statement piece for a night out just not as much for day to day wear if you re looking for something warm a i ordered this dress in pm and it was very tight in the top also the dress is lovely but the undertones are very gray colored and did not go well with my skin coloring it had to go back bu t others may love it i have dark hair olive skin it also ran a small on top i m 38 d there should be a pm available soon lol i ve been looking for a light colored flowy cardigan for awhil e and finally found this one is perfect the materials is soft and has just the right about of d etails for me with the gently ruffled edges tie front an some bunching around the sleeves colo r is between ivory and tan i am petite height and medium framed with broad shoulders and since they didn t have petite in stock i bought regular s it fits well enough though i probably cou ld have bought an xs my new favorite card i think it s prettier in person the color is a litt le brighter in reality and the beading on the lower half is in 2 colors green and gray which isn t apparent in the photo although i would consider it true to size it s a full looking top i m 5 8 and both the sleeves and the length are not as long on me as they are on the model it s a bit sheer but i personally found it to be fine with a nude bra cute vintage look nan had a feeling when i saw this that it would be a great top love the way the elasticized neck hugs t ightly and has two little back buttons the beading is elegant and subtle the body flows nicely not overly billowy definitely true to size interesting ocher color a yellowy green this is o ne to own it s a soft comfy fabric cute ruffle may be a little on the bigger side but sti ll super cute very form fitting but still fits true to size imo the olive color is even more be autiful in person i love pilcro legging jeans and cords and this pair was no exception i di dn t see much difference in the fit and i bought my usual 27 the stretch definitely creates a lot of give but i don t mind i d be hesitant to size down in the waistband but if you usually have room and prefer a more snug fit then go ahead washed well the first time this dress is be autiful it just swallowed my small frame whole the colors and design are gorgeous just not a good fit for me even at a 0p i just got this in the mail today it s really cute when i put it on but it s definitely meant to be worn slightly off the shoulders like the model is showing i was hoping i could wear it both ways but then the v neck becomes way too low i would recommend sizing down unless you re bigger busted however the torso is cut very true to size which might make it hard for some to size down without it becoming too small a larger bust might help to ke ep this from falling off the shoulders i m not adorable dress amazing fit i absolutely love t his cardigan it is so soft and goes with anything it can be dressed up or down it is definite ly my new go to for airplane travels highly recommend i saw online and bought in white and moss moss is darker in person i am 106 5 1 but a 30f and the top fits very well it actually minimized my chest which i love not sure how well this would fit on small chested ladies not s uper clingy in the midsection but will look nice with pants or skirts super happy what a great purchase love this vest i live in pa and i see myself wearing this sweater for 3 seasons whic h i love great details length and knit true to size this is a beautiful dress i ordered a s ize 10 to accommodate my bust 36d which it did but the rest of the dress was too big it was b ulky in the middle area and did nothing for my shape this would likely work best for smaller la dies to start i m 135 lbs 5 7 34c 28 jeans size 4 dress amazing skirt for an outstandi ng price incredibly lightweight has a stretchy jersey lining to fit high waisted like the mod el go down 1 2 sizes in work slacks i wear a size 6 or 8 however my natural waist is small i tried on the size 2 and the size 4 i purchased the size 2 although i still wish there was a size 0 to try on a larger size will fit lower at the waist and will bring the midi length to an kle length this wash fits differently than other pilcro jean leggings the rise is higher and t he fit is larger bulkier through the waist and hips i love pilcro legging jeans so the fit dif ference is kind of disappointing i recommend trying this wash on first to see if you need a sma ller size i got the same size i always get in this style and this wash is definitely not as fla ttering as other pairs i own bought this dress on sale i haven t decided if i m going to keep it yet or not because i m not sure if it s flattering to my bubble butt i normally wear a 6 8 in retailer 5 6 135 lbs thin limbs 38 26 38 i ordered this dress in a size 4 regular and i f ind the length perfect with flats or with heels i also find the bust area waist and hips accom modating without being tight which usually never happens for this current sale price this is a gorgeous dress made with beautiful material i tried this on when i saw it hanging in the dres sing room i was pleasantly surprised by this piece the color is beautiful not too yellow n ot too brown i have not worn it yet so i m assuming it will hold up pretty well considering my other pieces from this designer are still looking good with several wears i bought this in a sm all size so it does not hang down like it does on the model perhaps that s why i don t need a c ami underneath i m always looking for something that is unique and can be layered this looks j ust like it does on the model you ll need a cami underneath as it is not lined a little shorte r in front than in the back but drapes nicely styled it with black denim ankle jeans black loa fers or boots and a blue denim jacket i m 118 34d 5 4 and the s fit well overall very p retty i love this robe and can t wait to wear it while i m getting ready for my upcoming weddin g the only con that i can see is that the sleeves are a bit baggy but other than that it s per fect i bought this as a present and am very happy with it the pattern is fun and i like the sl ouchy fit love this sweater i wore it to work with leggings and a long sleeved shirt underneat h it lays nicely these joggers are so comfortable nice and lightweight and fabric is very sof t and a bit stretchy so they move with you beautiful dark navy indigo print very subtle and b lends well with many tops perfect length i am 5 3 116 lb and purchased xs love them this skirt is a perfect statement piece that will work fancy cocktails and social events it is a ful l skirt but not too overwhelming perfect with a slim fitting black bodysuit i sized up a bit a nd ordered an 8 waist fits well and length works with slight heel quality is great design is beautiful without being too much this dress is so beautiful it makes me feel like a goddess lo l i m normally a 10 12 or m l and took a 12 i think the 10 would have worked too everything f rom the colors fit and flow of the dress is wonderful i didn t have any problem with there bei ng too much fabric as some of the reviews mentioned love love love this skirt perfect for th e holidays but it can also be dressed down pair it with gold burgundy black or a more casual chambray jean shirt a great price point and i was able to grab it when it was 20 off if you c an get over the fact that this skirt feels and looks awfully similar to the exact same fabric your drugstore halloween costumes had when you were a little kid then it s surprisingly fun to wear i can t say enough about this jumpsuit within 1 hour of wearing this shopping i had 4 compliments from strangers it is flattering pretty soft comfortable love love love purcha sed this top in navy blue it is versatile appropriate for the office and to go out i specific ally like the look with white jeans it looks put together the quality is good and there are se veral nice detsils in the design highly recomnend it this skirt is unique yet versatile and go rgeous everything about this skirt works dazzle balanced out with softness and midi length th e twirly width shows off the skirt in a subtle way and super comfortable no petite 2 left so i purchased a regular 2 and it fits perfectly i am 5ft2in 26 waist 36 hips the hem falls abou t 2in longer than shown on the model this skirt is sold out fast no surprise it flatters all body types at all ages get ready for lots of compliments this top is my favorite of the season planning to order in black too this sweater is the bomb it s soft flattering and looks good with everything i ordered a second one to have when this one gets worn out tried on bought i n store so cute flattering the picture doesn t do it justice great neutral piece more beig e than ivory in person looks cute tied or untied i m 5 3 and 120 lbs and the regular size s fit perfectly not too snug not too loose and just long enough to cover my bum lots of pairs of the pilcro serif and for some reason after 5mo or less of normal wear these have bit the dust \r\ni don t dry my denim and do wash on gentle cycles this pair just doesn t seem to be too happy began pilling after two washes just seems to be a different blend of fabric than the others \r\n\r\nsuper bummed and now there s no way to replace it wamp wamp i love this sweate r it s sort of like a tunic and sort of like a vest i am pairing it with leggings and a white long sleeve tee underneath i m 5 3 109 lbs and the xs fit very well i love the versatility an d design of this nan these leggings run true to size the strappy detail at the ankle is a nice touch i especially like the quality of the material used as they are not see through like some leggings tend to be very cute top but it is wide and runs large it is very flattering with ski nny jeans and the color is a beautiful navy almost a hint of purple i would consider a size dow n may run on the short side for those with longer torsos i love this top it s well made impo rtant if you re in chlorine or salt water and has vibrant colors the back strap has two clasp options so not much room for adjustment but i like this fastening method because you don t have a big bow to lay on when laying out this sweater jacket is great over any blouses love the col or it looks more slightly peachy cream color that i love goes with everything warm i thought it ran true to size i ordered a small and love the way it fits if you are looking for more of an oversized piece then you would need to size up i don t normally like lace up details but for some reason i don t mind it on this top it s a bit shorter than it looks on the model and i m not especially tall the fabric is nice not too heavy not too lightweight great for fal l love this top fits me perfect i am bigger on top and received many compliments in this shir t i went to the store to try on a jumpsuit and ended up with these instead while the jumpsuit was really cute i thought these would be more versatile as far as i can tell they are the same style as the pradollano tapered loungers by hei hei these were so cute and comfy i bought both they can easily be dressed up with a jacket and heels or worn casually with a tee and sandals i think these are much cuter in person than online there is a little red design in the pants whic h is hard to see in love the fit of this top love the design it does fit a bit small which was a pleasant surprise considering the sizes don t go as small as i usually have to i got the smal lest size and its pretty tight its a revealing low cut top which is great for minimal tan line s negative threads are coming out all over after one wear but i love it so much i will probab ly order again once it falls apart not so great considering the price though my new favorite i purchased the ivory in a medium and the lilac in a large when it went on sale medium was alr eady sold out i m 5 7 and about 125 pounds 34c give or take the medium fits great and i fo und the large only slightly bigger but it does not look too big i usually wear a small or medi um in most retailer sweaters \nas was previously noted the back is cut higher than pictured i actually like this as it gives the sweater a unique look i tend to layer with a button down fo r the so comfortable fit just right flattering beautiful neutral color but different love t he embroidery nothing bad about it that being said i haven t worn them the whole day i suspe ct they will stretch a bit also have not washed them so i hope the color stays the nice rich d ark gray turquoise the length is perfect too i ordered the petite and they fit as on the model for a change i have pretty short legs 115 lbs 26 5 in waist muscular legs super cute wel l made great embroidery waist runs big this top runs large i am usually a medium in retailer but when i read the first review i ordered a small and it was the right decision i also agree that this top might be short for someone with long torso love the back detail and the print and color is really nice love this dress the light fabric quality color and design all added to the grecian goddess feeling my usual 0 fit perfectly giving me a great shape and the length is great this dress has rich color excellent quality fabric and wonderful style you can wear it now for fall with boots and jean jacket or in the summer for a great sun dress definitely order down a size i am almost always an xl big chest broad shoulders but the l in this fits me per fectly well worth the sale price a fun boho transition piece \r\nit is a reverse print so th e inside is brighter than the outside but i like the blurred paisley print it s subtle \r\n\r \nthe back detail is great and very flattering \r\n\r\nit is quite full and flowy but in a flat tering way i think just restrained enough love the muted pattern in the blue and spots of gra y front and back i wore this with my gray legging pants the pleats allow for a relaxed fit v ery comfortable over all i d say these are exactly as pictured and i m happy with them they ru n a little big in the waist i most often wear xspetite in retailer sizes and can often wear xs regular but these are a bit loose i have a 26 waist 34 hips the drawstring tie solves that of course but it s only in the front it doesn t go all the way around the waist the rest is el astic i d also say these are high rise or long in the crotch but i m only 5 3 so they re pro bably mid rise on tall people i have them hi nan love this top fits perfectly it s lovely this top is very flattering on my torso my problem area the sleeves are adorable and i love the navy with purple tints and the touches of gray i would say this product could work on most body types it s very comfortable and i could wear it for a long time i would suggest consideri ng a smaller size than one s normal size but i would look into both sizes and see which one you prefer i ended up getting my regular size because i just liked the way it looked better i orde red this online in the cream color and because some of the reviews mentioned the shorter back i went with a medium but that ended up running too big i typically wear between a 4 and a 6 sm all and medium so i m always on the fence about which size to get i often order both online and return the one that doesn t fit as well so i wish i had this time too the detail on the front is super cute and i didn t even mind the plainer back but the sleeves went well past my wrist a nd i felt li i wanted to like this top so badly because it has so many interesting pieces to the blouse ultimately i didn t keep this because of the bell sleeves and the pattern going across the body just wasn t flattering on my full figure i went down a size to help reduce the amount of fabric draping in the back but it didn t make up for the pattern that i just didn t like if you are interested in this blouse i recommend it because it might work out for someone with a d ifferent figure than mine these joggers are super cute and comfortable in addition to being styl ish they have beautiful colors and design if these were presented in other colors i would bu y those as well 5 5 135 small fit perfectly recently bought these on sale though they were s till a bit in the expensive side i m 5 2 and typically a size 4 the xs fits perfectly the pa nts fall to my ankle and are not cropped as they are on the model but i m fine with that the p iping on the seams helps them not seem too much like pajamas and i was particularly pleased tha t the crotch was not too baggy as sometimes happens with this style i love the design of this and the pattern it s comfy but a bit too much side boob for actually swimming i like a bit mor e coverage the front has great coverage but on the side whoa i purchased these leggings t o match the top pictured with the outfit i love the top and i wanted to love the leggings sinc e the combination of the top with the leggings has fantastic style alas the straps around the ankle got bunched because my legs are just not long enough even though these are very comfortab le leggings i will be returning the leggings due to the length issue a little treat for me i work from home and am sick of all my boring tops this is a comfy little updo number these wand erer pants are my go to i love the patch pocket styling they are true to size but seem to str etch so buy a size down trust me it will work i ordered this sweater in green in petite larg e the color and knit is beautiful and the shoulders and body fit comfortably however the slee ves were very long for a petite i roll them and it looks okay but would have rather had a norm al petite length sleeve i was not sure if they would be flattering with the waistband but i lo ve them they feel wonderful yet they are so light perfect for warm weather the print takes t hem from day to night this tee is cute and unusual and i am sure i will wear it pretty often i do wish i had ordered a size smaller than my normal large but i am waiting for it to shrink in the wash a bit the material is thin and it certainly doesn t feel like it is worth the price ta g i got it on sale and still think it is only worth about 20 i m 5 8 130 and a small fits ni ce these are different with the silky fabric pattern and piping busy but still classy it is hard to match with a shirt as you need a shorter top so you don t lose too much of the pant s un ique design i was a bit nervous ordering this dress because it had so much going on but i have to say it s beautiful on it s stretchy and super comfortable as well i usually struggle with tight pencil like dresses but this is stretchy and super comfy no riding up on me i cannot sa y enough good things about this dress it s just so flattering and i get so many compliments whe n i wear it this dress is more beautiful in person \nthis dress fits well on top for my broad s houlders chest 40c and through my straight hips note the side bottom panels are very stretchy i will have it tailored slimmer so if you are bottom curvy this dress is awesome i was in tro uble when i saw this dress in the new arrivals section this month it s one of those dresses i h ad to have for the holidays i didn t want to risk it not fitting so i ordered my usual size 6 a nd also a size up 8 5 6 135lbs size 6 well the 6 was entirely to tight i couldn t even z ip past my rib cage the 8 went on but it was very body con looking hugged every curve this m ight be the look some might be going for but not me i m so disappointed that i can t have the dress f i happened to really like this top it does show some back but looked cute with high wa isted jeans i happened to like the raw hemline and found it quite comfortable and cute i am 5 5 135lbs 34c and the size small fit well though i could have gone with a medium for a much looser look i really wanted to like this since i ve purchased previous byron lars dresses and h ave never not been complimented on them however the picture on this one is misleading the col ors are extremely bright which on my pale skin makes me look washed out for example the borde r on the collar is actually more hot pink where in the picture here it appears almost white the brightness and business just didn t work on me that being said it still fit like a glove 5 11 and 145 pounds and the size 4 wa there comes a point where i have to draw the line with things i purchase i ordered this as i didn t have a black skirt but thought ti wasn t special enough don t get me wrong it fits nicely and is comfortable but i was wowed 0p or xs p fir perfectl y 26 5 in waist and 115 lbs if you want ta nice casual skirt the sale price is a good fir for the skirt just wasn t enough for me every byron lars dress that i have is definitely beyond ordinary and this one is no exception i love the petals that adorn the front my dress was bac k ordered for a couple of months but it was well worth the wait i wore it recently and received compliments galore if you re undecided about this one go for it it s a winner i bought th is dress on a whim one day even though i wasn t sure where i would wear it but i just had to h ave it this dress fits beautifully and is very flattering i am 5 9 and typically a size 14 wi th large hips behind and a smaller waist the 12 fit me very well snugged in all the right pl aces and just right everywhere else i ended up wearing this to a benefit and i received many co mpliments go for it i have the charisma sheath by the same designer and love it so much i th ought i d try this one looks so much better in person than in the picture it s extremely flatt ering on my curve less frame whenever i wear it to work i get stopped and asked where i got it great dress you ll love it more in real life i just scoured the other reviews to see if anyone mentioned this so maybe i got a defected item but on my size 6 dress eagerly awaited there is a big bulge on the upper back my husband suggested it was designed for a hunchback that s really the only explanation the back seems tall in general like 2 3 inches above a normal neck line i tried pulling it down a bit spreading my shoulders out folding the top over all with minimal results i have a size 4 coming too 20 off discount arr i got the tan one my friend g ot the same skirt she s tiny i m not i have hips we both got a size 6 and it fit us both it just sits higher on my waist than it does on hers above my navel not above hers i do hav e a small waist the skirt has a lot of movement but isn t poofy it is not see through it has that retailer charm where it looks pretty basic but is really flattering and charming a new wa rdrobe staple can dress it up or down only problem is the zipper in the back i love this dre ss the pattern print is very different than most of the dresses i own i m 5 1 106lbs and the 0p fit perfectly it s a delicate dress its very fitted in the skirt portion the top is more o f a knit fabric that has some give to it i wore this to my retirement party i wanted something special for a once in a lifetime event i wanted something that was dressy while also being uni que so i wouldn t look like everyone else almost without exception from my boyfriend to everyo ne i talked with mentioned my dress the design is so unique making me feel even more special on my special day it s beautiful yet comfortable the stretchy sides made it feel snug without pinching or discomfort really a fun dress to wear i m sure i have no need for this dress but h ad to have it i read the reviews and when there was a sale weekend pulled the trigger on it j ust as reviewers noted it s very flattering from the front and just as another reviewer note d the back torso is widely misshapen creating a hunchback look but i figured a good tailor co uld make it right it s going to cost just under 2 jacksons to do it which is about how much th e discount was for the sale but i expect to have this dress for years and can t i m so glad i s aw this pretty dress on sale as my eye overlooked when it was introduced i have to agree with t he previous reviewer that the zipper on this adorable dress is yucky to grab and zip i also wis h there were pockets but it s not a deal breaker perfect dress for autumn winter especially wit h a thin layer to wear underneath as the armholes are cut a bit large showing my side boob and bra i had to go two sizes up because 10p was sold out skirt profile looks a little too wide s o i l nan cute design for a casual top however it was a little snug on the bust for a medium i returned it it s a pretty low key no fuss skirt i prefer the ivory color because the details are more visible there are different designs in the same hue the zipper is very thick and stu rdy a bonus size 2 regular fit me well the hem falls right above my knees i m 5 2 26 waist 36 hips perfect for work and play a touch of linen keeps the fabric cool for summer but it d oesn t wrinkle for the price and the name like thera i expect more flair to match its medite rranean name for those who do i usually wear an 8 which wasn t available and sized up to the 10 which fit just fine as there is no stretch and it s a set in waist band the fabric is pretty the skirt is fully lined the length is not too short and the only thing i don t like is the bi g bronzey toothed zipper it looks ok on the beige version but on the black it stands out \r\n \r\nit s perfect for summer but i could also see wearing the black version during holidays i go t the white with black print and it is nice material and a pretty dress i just would have prefe rred a better cut but overall pretty work dress i really like this dress buying it during ret ailer weekend helps me to like it more the fabric is lovely i like the popover styling its sl ightly boxy but not oversized the sleeves do puff a little bit and i wish they didn t but tha t s not a deal breaker the shoulders are cut a little small so it can be a challenge to take o ff i usually wear a medium or an 8 in most retailer brands i ordered this in a medium and it f it true to size this is my first romper and i am in love so comfortable and easily dressed up or down i am usually an xs small or petite small in retailer brands the xs worked best for me the petite small was too big i am 5 2 and the length of the xs is perfect ankle length i was nervous to put it in the washer on delicate cycle but it came out perfectly i m a big fan of the idea of jumpsuits and rompers but so often they go wrong this one was an unexpected s urprise i m 5 10 size 8 10 medium and the medium fit well and was actually super flattering the waist is cinched just so that it s very slimming the roll tab cuff is a cute touch and is p robably 2 higher on me than the model but adorable none the less great quality too love the cotton silk blend fabric is beautiful and breathes well i wouldn t have given this dress a thou ght based on the online pics but in person i found it femine pretty and comfortable for an out door garden party i m attending it isn t too short when i sit or bend over and with some funky colorful jewelry i really liked it i enjoy the slightly puffy gathered shoulder i did size do wn so the dress wouldn t be too blowzy but mostly b c i wanted a tighter fit and it still hides my belly i have been looking for the perfect jumpsuit and this is it i am 5 7 5 and 122 lbs a nd the small is a perfect fit the fabric is super comfy you can wear a regular bra yay and it can be dressed up or down i am looking forward to taking this on my european vacation in aug ust the blue is a very pretty blue but i opted for the black i almost always return dresses af ter trying them at home but not this one i love it and can t wait to get it back from the dry c leaner the shoulders are really stylish and the dress is super comfortable it has pockets whic h is also a bonus i told my husband that i want to bring it to a seamstress and have it duplic ated in another fabric because i love it so much i was returning an in line order from same des igner and saw this dress i love it much prettier in person this will get well worn by me thi s is the third jumpsuit i ve ordered and written a review for this season this jumpsuit is the best by far i bought it in my usual size small 32d 31 38 and it fit me even though i m tall 5 8 5 i would say it looks much the same as it does on the model maybe an inch shorter in t he legs on me love that the legs are rolled up by a tab and a snap no uncomfortable elasticize d legs i am more legs than long torso i usually wear a 33 inseam with flats the jumpsuit is very easy to g this runs tts maybe a little on the large side i typically wear between a smal l and a medium or 6 and 8 and the small was a perfect fit this is my second jumpsuit and i a lways worry about how easy they are to pull down for restroom breaks i drink a ton of water t his one is relatively easy it has a button at the back neck that you have to unfasten and it s super easy and not awkward at all i love how you can dress this up with heels for a night out o r pair with sandals for a more cau cute spring dress fit can be a little challenging if you hav e a full bust however print is so beautiful the material is soft i liked the puff in the sle eve it made the look more unique i love this jumpsuit it runs a little large but still works for me it makes it super comfy and a great piece for every day these are such fun pants it s a heavier denim without being so stiff they run tts i got my usual size 26 they fit comforta bly i haven t washed them yet but once i do i typically wash in cold gentle cycle hang dry i ve never worn a romper before but decided to give this one a try because i m loving the colors p attern i m so glad i did it s even cuter on and very flattering my only complaint is the butt ons i wish it was easier to remove and put on especially since this is a romper afterall still this is a beautiful piece strange fit if you have a short torso i ordered a medium petite and the drop waist looked strange so i tried using a belt and it bunched up returned the dress wh y should a nice simple dress like this create such hard work i really like this dress it is c ute but not too frilly i purchased in the store and they only had a petite i am 5 6 so not a petite but it fit a little short but not too crazy can be dressed up or down the materia l and the print are really lovely like the other reviewer said it 39 s hard to get on and i ha d to size down like i often do at retailer but it 39 s so pretty and it 39 s not too short li ke most rompers we host thanksgiving every year and i 39 m so excited to find an alternative t o a dress pants so i can work amp cook in style the fabric is a nice weight jersey i prefer to wear the dress backwards as the back of the dress has a moderate v and the round neck which is actually the front of the dress makes for a very flattering back the skirt part of the dres s is full but the jersey fabric falls in such a way that does not cause the silhouette to look hippy this is not a dress that fits close to the body through the torso so if you re looking for that you might consider going down a size the fabric making this dress is great quality he avyweight and so soft against the skin the design is near perfect with an extraordinarily flatt ering silhouette that hangs just right from the hips with poof or flare the fateful flaw is in the neckline a broad boat shape that looks awkward couples with a corset like torso that acts a s a push up bra not for larger busted woman 34d here and certainly not suitable for work abs olutely love this dress i ended up wearing it backwards to work for a more modest neckline but flipped it around for an evening night out can t recommend it enough two of my colleagues ord ered it that day i thought this dress looked cute online and was excited to try it on at my loc al retailer it fits so well and is very flattering i really like the material \r\n\r\nthe onl y thing for me is that i have long arms so the sleeves have to get pushed up but it looks like that s how it s supposed to be i love the look of this dress when it s on the only issue i hav e with it is that the inside of the dress is white which shows through on the chest slightly b ut it s such a pretty dress and such an overall great fit that i m keeping it anyway i did not intend on buying this dress as i had taken two others that i had seen on line into the dressing room i actually saw the black version of this dress first and was a bit disappointed that it w asn t available in my size so i thought i would try this on just for size i was totally shock ed as to how cute it looked on i had taken both the xs and the s into the dressing room the xs was very tight fitting in the arms and chest i am very small busted and normally wear a xs in tops and agree with other reviewers this dress is surprisingly nice weight quality fabric it s also very swingy i find i am usually a size 10 in hd in paris items m in deletta and s m in meadow rue for comparison since i m a 34d i find hd in paris items to leave too little room fo r larger busts so i size up in this dress i m going to try for the m since the l i ordered was too big the swingyness leaves lots of room if you are an hourglass shape and the sleeves were r oomy without being too big very comfy can wear the dress both ways the front is a deep swoop neck cut the back is a v neck cut i flipped the dress around to the v neck was more flattering on me due to having a smaller chest got an size 4 the material of this dress is really thick a nd substantial very soft and it has good movement the cut was not quire right for my body unf ortunately but on the right person this would be very nice i think a lot of different body ty pes would look great in this dress depending on where the waist hits etc the material is a med ium weight jersey knit that is slightly thicker so it provides enough coverage and support to be flattering without being bulky i think this dress is true to size or maybe runs a little bit b ig but only by a little bit i bought a medium and am a size 8 in tops and 10 in pants the dre ss hugs nicely on the upper body arms chest ribs and flares just a little bit on the hips tu mmy butt area it is forgiving of little bumps or lumps the scoop neckline is a bit lower tha i am five four and one hundred and twenty pounds and the small fits me perfectly with enough room in the arms and chest i am a 34c the red is gorgeous and sweet got it on line sale and worth it i love the overall look and feel of the dress my only complaint is that it was shorter and l ower cut in person than it looked on the model and i m not tall i ordered a small and i m 5 4 1 30 lbs bottom heavy the skirt is perfectly flowy and hides my problem areas really well howeve r i will need to wear a camisole with it to hide cleavage that will show otherwise nan i bough t this dress in both the red and black motifs and love them both i m 5 7 and usually a medium but i found the medium to run a little larger than expected it s fine if you want the dress to hang looser on your body otherwise consider trying it a size down nice easy to wear dress t he dress is very comfortable and the fit is very flattering i really like the colors and the de sign the only con is that it isn t lined rarely do i find tops that fit similar to the model i n the picture my body type is no comparison i am 5 5 and about 170 with 30 waist this swea ter in a large fit perfectly where the back lining and ruffle fell right at the top of my bottom which was very flattering not to short and not long over bottom just right bought in cream an d wish i would have bought in both colors i purchased this dress in the raspberry for my best friend s bridal shower and it was such a hit i got it for the 60 sale price with the a dditional 40 off sale items that retailer loves so much it came to 41 i paired it with a chu nky gold necklace and it was adorable so many compliments i m typically a medium through and t hrough and this fit me true to size as well 5 6 between 135 140lbs the cut of the dress fit me perfectly and the material is amazing i d definitely purchase this cute easy to wear dress personally i think it looks better with a belt or something to accentuate the waist otherwise it s a lot of fabric in the middle i didn t think the top was too low as others have mentioned though it is possible to wear backwards with a v neck front if that bothered you nice length long enough for work i discovered seea bathing suits last year and fell in love i currently ow n two the hermosa surf suit and the seea zuma for reference i am 5 7 135 pounds 34c 28 waist dress size 4 6 pants 6 8 jeans 28 if you have questions about sizing there is a great reference on seea s website on how to size if you are taller than the reference sizing they pro vide but still the same measurements as another size mentioned they suggest sizing up as the s uits are typically made for surfing padd this is such a cute dress the skirt is very full but d oes not add visual weight to those of us who already have enough actual weight i ordered the bl ack beige print and the fabric is beautiful it really drapes and hangs nicely because there is so much fabric i don t think this dress needs a lining it seems to wash and hang dry well i m 5 4 about 160 lbs i like the way the medium fit the length was slightly above the knee whic h was ok with me i m nearly 60 all in all i can see mys the fabric is great and the cut is f lattering i have dds so it pulls a little in the middle you can just cut from the inside to r elease the pulling thread i agree with the other reviews it s a little small in the arms low cut in the chest but really broad in the shoulders i bought the xsp which is a size up from m y normal xxsp they didn t have xxsp to compare and i am a small person with big athletic shoul ders and my usual problem is with things being tight in the shoulders and fit everywhere else overall an excellent buy at the sale price size up for more room in the chest and arms great dress the seaming helps add shape to the dress it is flattering and super comfortable this dr ess is so easy to wear i m sure i will reach for it again and again i loved the details on the top of the shirt but was especially excited by the length of the top it comes just over the hi ps and gives a flattering fit as well as the sweet little micro sleeves the color is kind of w orn looking but it is so soft i will definitely wear this a lot \r\n \r\ni bought a medium but probably could ve gotten away with a small i am going to keep it i think it will be a great t hrow on and go piece you can wear with many different types of shoe sandal the detail on top i s excellent and it is a flattering cut two complaints runs a little big on bottom a little g enie looking like there is too much fabric above the elastic around your upper ankles but th e bigger issue is that there is no zipper or elastic on top so slipping the top over your should ers is super tight to the point i thought i was going to rip it love it as a previous reviewer stated you can actually wear it reversible \nso happy i purchased it i find it very hard to fi nd a dress never like the way they look on me this one fits like a glove flatters my silh ouette which is difficult because even though i am at a good weight my waist is never small l ooks like million bucks on me i love it i bought this dress online and have to say the mat erial is really soft has a great weight to it and i bought it in the red motif i just wore it to work this past week and received a ton of compliments on it i wore it with black nylons blac k heels and a cropped leather jacket it is so figure flattering and so comfortable to wear i typically range in size from an xs to a s and the s fit me the best i m 5 9 and 130 lb it is truly a lovely dress i was pleasantly surprised by this dress it goes perfectly from work to d rinks and i receive tons of compliments on it i pair it with a thin belt and heels or booties d epending on the occasion i ordered a small it is a little big but the fabric is stretchy i a m 5 4 125lbs this dress accentuates my upper half while disguising my lower half thanks dr ess this very lightweight and semi sheer dress fits like a midi dress on my height the back he m ends low calf and the front hem is below knee straps are adjustable and bodice edge is elasti cized the print is pretty and can pair with any sweater or jacket or jewelry or shoes that hits your fancy my concern is regarding the 100 rayon fabric and how it will hold up after cleaning as all of my 100 rayon clothing from random fast fashion retailer does not last long i m 5 3 140 39 28 35 and hap i have been looking for lace shorts for years yes years finally found t hese shorts that are perfect the lace is sturdy not flimsy so they are not see through i pur chased both the cream and the blue when they went on sale my skin is a bit tan so lighter colo red clothing can be see through for me both colors are fantastic and i get compliments on them all the time especially the blue shorts plus they complement either a t shirt or a blouse i love the eyelash fringe at the hem such super easy date or work dress it s a little small in the bust so i had to size up but otherwise a great fit i love love this top it is a very prett y casual top it looks very nice on and is more like a tunic perfect with jeans very casual bu t the embroidery ruffle sleeves and buttons at the top add a nice touch i have the red i am considering buying this in blue as well i have so many newly purchased blue tops i love this k imono it fits great and is gorgeous i love this sweater dress i got the ivory color in a si ze small i m a size 6 5 5 i feel in love with it while shopping with a friend who kind of rolled her eyes at it i went back later because i knew i loved it since the ones on the sale r ack were covered with dust and dirt at the hem i ordered it on line in m small and the small fit better it is so soft and the color is great i thought this coat was absolutely unique whe n i first laid my eyes on it i saw it on a co worker on thanksgiving 2015 her coat was in navy blue pattern mine was grey but looked very good on and let me say the way she wore the coat i t looked oversize on her my co worker is a very skinny size xs s woman with very slim slender c urve less figure unlike mine we are about the same height but i m a bit taller with curves 6ft 160lb i normally wear size l 10 i like my outfits lose but after even at 5 1 this kimono wo rks for me because it s so light in weight the length and amount of fabric are not at all overw helming it can be dressy or casual as others have noted a good sweater but something about it was just not right for me just didn t feel like i would wear it the colors and design are stun ning in person it is one size and as most kimonos go it is billowy and flowing and not fitted i plan to wear it with a pair of black shorts and also with black leggings i love the idea of l ayering this over shorts i have a similar kimono and wear it as a bating suit cover up the lon g kimono over short looks fresh and modern and gives you the option to have some coverage when y ou want it also really pops over simple black leggings and black top it s light an let me sta rt off my saying that i hate pants i will wear dresses and skirts whenever possible to avoid th em however i found these at my local retailer and just had to try them on because the pattern was so adorable i have another pair of pilcro shorts that i love because they are so comfortabl e and have so much stretch to them that they don t make me crazy like other pants do these were no exception i love everything about them and am going to have a hard time not wanting to wear them every this is a wow so chic reminds of something i would have bought in paris worth eve ry penny even my husband loves it on me his words were it s a standout i work in the desig n industry so i am always looking for something that represents what i do nailed it i was so excited to try this dress but after ready the reviews i though they were all over the place i descided to order my typical retailer size small i m 5 6 134 lbs and wear a size 6 well i t was a snug fit i have a slim build and this was just to snug for my taste i imagine a medium would have been better however i was very surprised by the length and slit the dress hit at my knee cap with the slit going all the way up to mid thigh i ve seen pics of this dress on instagr this is a very soft and feminine chemise it is a little more see thru than i had ant icipated but i still love it beautiful material and washable i m vertically challenged and the slits are a tad bit high even for me but still tasteful i would suggest sizing down as i m normally a medium in retailer but due to the nature of the material i opted to size down and i m so glad i did no arm hole struggles with my particular dress either overall just a really c ute versatile cozy and functional option that will certainly get plenty of exposure for many w inters to come im normally a medium across the board for outerwear 5 8 and 135 lbs this jac ket looked giant from the photos so i bought a small when i first tried it on i thought no way it s gotta go back it was enormous and the fit was rather awkward i looked like the size of a house from all angles ha i was still in love with the color and print as i wore it around the house it began to loose it s rigidity and form against my body in places it is definitely a jac ket you got to play around with d love this kimono it is so versatile it is a one size only s o it might be a bit volumnous for some people first off let me say that i am 52 and don t oft en go for print jeans these days however these are just so stinking fun and flattering that i couldn t say no these look great cuffed for warmer temps and rolled to full length will be fun to wear with fall sweaters if you are looking for something fun and flattering these are the t icket i bought the grey version and feel that they will work with many pieces that i already ha ve i didn t have high hopes for these because things seem to ride on me but these stay put and i love the adjustable sides these are a pretty color i ordered the raspberry and the sil ver grey and love both i normally would not pay a ton for undies but these are worth every dol lar i have a larger bottom so purchased the large but sometimes i can wear medium so this is great being adjustable i am 5 7 and weigh 123 lbs i tried on both these dresses in medium a nd they both fit they are not too thin not too high slit not scratchy the problem is i am mi ddle aged with a thick waist the waist looked lumpy with the close fit knit if you are younger slim and tall you will love it i sent it back with regrets hope this helps this is a lovely little nightie i am a size 8 and i bought the medium and it fits perfect it s soft and lightwe ight and not as see thru as i thought it would be very light and airy and the sale price was gr eat i tried this on in the store all of the dresses in the store were misshapen and pulled l ong in the armholes and i love all of my local retailer stores i don t think these should be hung on a hanger the knit is too heavy for hanging the hem on the dress i tried in the store w as dirty from dragging on the floor i went home and ordered it online with the 20 dress discou nt and free shipping the dress i received was clean unstretched in the armholes and not oddly short like some review based on the mixed reviews about fit i waited to purchase until i could try it on in the store and was not disappointed i m wondering if there are different batches of this dress i m 5 7 and the dress fit as in the photo the side slits come above my knees but no t too high arm holes are a bit large so if you want more coverage this may not be for you the material is cozy and soft the cream color is gorgeous size wise it definitely looks boxy and marshmallow like if too loose i am usuall i ordered the chelan wrap coat in the beautiful red c olor it s artsy and will be fun to wear with jeans and other casual clothing it s super comfy and fits true to size i m usually wary of light colored knits because they can often be thin an d see through but this one had nothing for me to worry about this had an adequate thickness wh ich does not leave me freezing and i did not consider it sheer i find that the sleeveless turtl eneck design can be versatile for the seasons i plan to wear it with a cropped denim jacket and boots for colder days and sandals on warmer days the material is very soft the cut is true to size to large i went true to size because the cream color in this dress is divine such a stunn ing dress that can be worn with a vest jacket or alone it looks very luxe and expensive in the cream color because it s a knit can go smaller in size i tried on both the x small and small opted to go with the x small found it fit better i did not notice this dress on the website i t was not until i saw it in store was an online purchase returned i was immediately in lov e i love the color texture and rosettes i feel like a million bucks wearing it and have recei ved so many compliments on it before buying it i actually ran home to gather a previous purcha se and return it so i could buy this dress and not feel guilty i am usually a 2 or 4 and the 6 fits perfect through and through so happy with this lovely dress tried on my normal size in th e store and i was swimming in it the sales associate suggested i order the petite in store per fect i just wish there were more opportunities to try on petite sizes in store \nthis coat is s oft and roomy when it s buttoned up it has a great shape too this trench coat is the best fit and feel true to size and cozy excellent material i bought this kimono only a couple weeks ago and i think i ve worn it six times already this kimono is stunning light airy and the colors are absolutely gorgeous the print is unique and bold i ve worn this over a black dress with leggings and a white tank with denim and every color top the options are endless with this be auty the only downside is the kimono is so airy and oversized that the armholes easily get hook ed on things i ripped it once but thankfully it was right down the s nan i got this coat becaus e i needed something black and thought the plaid was black it s not but that s my fault and i love it anyway it s perfect for our temperate seattle fall and winter not too light not t oo heavy i get a ton of compliments i m 5 9 and about 145 and a medium fits perfectly i own several of retailer s kimonos this has to be the prettiest the colors are rich more beauti ful in person i can t wait to pair this with jeans shorts this summer i love this coat i wo uld definitely recommend it i normally wear a size 6 or a medium i bought my normal size and h ad to return it for a small customer service was great and made for an easy online exchange th e lighter tinted denim is a faded blue grey that will go perfectly with most of my wardrobe and is more summery than the usual dark denim i wear these feel like stretchy jeans to me not legg ings i wear size 28 in most jeans and these fit tts really nice this coat is very nice it s soft and the colors are great the only reason i gave it a 4 stars and not 5 is that it runs hug e i normally wear a size small to medium in tops and i like a bit of moving room in my coats so i ordered a medium when i put it on i just started laughing it was so huge i wanted to exchan ge it for an xs to see if that would have been small enough but it has already sold out in that size i think this could be a big win for larger sizes but unfortunately for me it did i love th is sweater i bought it in navy at this sale price and now plan on ordering it in the cream colo r it runs a tad large and it might even stretch just a teensy bit but not a lot however i ad ore sweaters to be a little too big so this is perfect for me whenever i wear this sweater i ge t huge compliments to the end that the friends wants to go online and order it for herself tkh e only problem with the sweater is that i love it so much i want to wear it every single day w hich is why it is gorgeous and yes the side slits are very high but i am still keeping and ro cking it i am a size 10 12 and got the large probably could have got the medium but after a f ew washings i think the larger size will be ok side slits high but if the weather is good an d you have self tanner on legs it looks great with shortie boots i have gotten many cmpliments on it just hope it still keeps its shape after a long day of wear very pretty in cream though i do recommend it i am 5 8 i love the way the mock neck style looks but the shirt is cut very small i realize it s supposed to stretch but it s still very very tight on particularly in t he shoulder area if you like the style i d recommend sizing up i love this top i m wearing i t today i bought it to wear under blazers and it works perfectly i knew it would be slim fitti ng and while i normally buy med or sometimes small i bought the large and i m glad i did it s s till form fitting without strangling me the color is very nice as well nice fabric and well mad e a great layering basic this top was so beautiful exactly like the image shows but the waist was so tight it was uncomfortable enough that i am going to return it sad because the top and arms fit great i am an hourglass so my waist is very small compared to my top and bottom oh we ll next time i can t get enough off the shoulder tops so even though this is out of season i went for it in both colors my only con is the fabric has a slight sheen which cheapens the look a tad like i d read in other reviews it does run a bit small for this cut top i just wa nted a bit more volume in the neck hole and in the waist since i won t be tucking in if you wan t it more fitted and ruched around the waist go for your normal size i ll be ordering a small in both colors because i know i won i am on the fence with this one the black lace on the bottom is beautiful and pairs so well with my black velvet gladiator sandals but it came ve ry wrinkled and the fabric almost feels more like a cheap cotton i am always in between a sm a nd med so tried the small the shoulders do want to slide up a bit arms need to be down \r\nit is very voluminous and falls below my bottom would make a pretty maternity top the idea of it overall is pretty but not sure i want all the volu i just go these socks in one of my bea uty boxes there is nothing like a new pair of socks they feel amazing no matter what you do these are ultra soft and in line with other slipper socks i have tried with the grippies on the bottom i like the color black style actually i like all the new styles at retailer right now and i didn t think i would like the higher tabs in the back but it turns out i love them to make sure the sock is covering my whole ankle when i put my shoes on the very comfortable flatterin g washes nicely love it i love this top very comfortable fabric and it can be worn in multip le ways it is tight on the bottom i usually wear an xs 5 4 and 120 lbs had to exchange for a small very flattering liked it so much i ordered it in both colors i just bought these jean s and i absolutely love them they are my new favorites i like them so much i am buying another pair i am short but always wear heels and these are perfect in every way slimming as well lov e these pants super comfy and casual i found they run true to size and are just lose enough to feel casual not sloppy my only complaint the cuffs of the jeans were thoroughly covered in so me kind of animal hair very disgusting but love the jeans beautiful beautiful beautiful goes great with pilcro stet big rise grey jeans and deep green hei jeans i wear this on shoulders vs off so lovely beautiful rich earth tone colors and live the lace bottom can dress up with bl ack skirt or black skinnies and heels highly recommend this is my favorite pair so far from ca rtonnier the side zip dresses up the pants which is something i was looking for and i just love the print so happy with the quality i ordered a second pair fit true to size for me i plan t o wear them with knee high boots as it gets colder beautiful top you can wear it as a wide boa t neck or as its pictured off the shoulder the bottom is tight with ruching which makes it very flattering i found the fit true to size love the neutral light brown color will look nice wit h white denim for the summer excited to dress this unique top up or down i bought these to hav e a pair between standard fair and sexy but these are so comfortable and gorgeous i would wear them everyday it doesn t even feel like i am wearing anything love these i just bought this n ice dress on sale as i love the dolan brand and purchased my regular size small 34 27 35 and i t fits me perfect so i d say it runs tts the material is nice and soft not see through at all and a good length i m 5 4 i bought the regular and didn t seem to need a petite it s a slim ming dress that s not overly tight too i also really like the mock neck and don t find it const ricting at all as the material has a bit of stretch the short sleeves will be nice when it s sp this was my favorite item in the august catalog i knew i had to have it my store had not rece ived it yet so i ordered online after reading the other reviews i sized down and the fit is st ill much too large as this top has way too much material this is coming from someone who loves swing tees and can appreciate a loose fit however this top hangs like a tent also the elasti c around the bottom of the sleeves is quite uncomfortable i do think the top is pretty and reco mmend only if you ar i love the design of this sweater shorter length with shorter sleeves \n goes great with jeans and has a very different look i ve worn this dress to work with a black c orset belt and to disneyland as is it s made of a medium weight knit that doesn t cling the cu t is flattering i wish they had an option with no slits though this alternate cut would be sig nificantly less comfortable it would create a sexier silhouette i purchased this item on sale \r\n\r\ni m a little worried that it ll shrink in the wash i ve had varied luck with fabric con taining modal i am so amazed that i finally found the perfect straight legged denim not too s kinny nor too tight b c i have athletic calves i have been waiting a long time for reference i took a size 26 and usually wear a 2 it is great and comfortable for someone my age i love thes e and they are the best investment so i bought these pants in mid september while at a local r etailer store i thought they were a bit short but the salesgirl assured me they were fine wor e them soon after and then discovered they came in tall sizes as well anyway one they came on sale i rebought them nabbing the last tall in my size while that is a testament for how much i love them the fit is true to size other than the length issue i am 5 10 with long legs the 28t fit me perfectly of course they cost me more than th i love this sweater it is well made the colors are great adn the feel is very soft i just love troubadour never knew of it before this season but already own a few pirces \ni tried on the blue version fits true to size i don t hink i need the petite the nexl ine was more falttering than the pcture shows i love hte sl eeves too i think overall the shirt is a bit of flared out style which i love nan ordered my usual medium it swallowed me have returned to store and they ordered me a small to try very c ute comfortable top this is my second pair of pilcro chinos their pants and shorts are so soft even those who love to run around pantless might relent this brand tends to run a bit large so if you like your pants form fitting you may want to size down beautifully detailed top that pai rs well with dark denim top is a bit wide but i think that is the style a unique and differen t piece to add to your wardrobe these are great looking chinos and very comfortable i m 5 11 and unrolled they are long enough for me this top is amazing i originally ordered it in smal l which fit but opted for a large for the option of wearing it more off or the shoulder the l arge fit perfect great length for leggings and can wear both off the shoulder or just one ca n t wait for fall for reference i m 135 lbs 34b i rarely order pants on line as the size o ften varies so much took a chance on these as they were on sale and they are just stink n adora ble i am so glad i did i love them i ordered both colors haven t got the neutral pair yet bu t the green plaid fits me like they were made for me for reference i am about 5 3 tall my we ight is around 137 5 ish i ordered the 28 regular and they fit perfectly i hope they don t st retch to much when i wear them if so i will update my review \ni just lo i discovered this top folded on a shelf and loved the material and this brand so i decided to try it on even though it s super hot right now in ar i m so glad i did and ended up finding the other color and buyin g both i am 5 9 127 34b and long waisted it is difficult to tell in the pictures how this top fits around the waist it is snug fitting but the material is thicker so i feel like it s very flattering i tried it on as a boat neck look then saw online it was off the shoulder a bo ught this for my daughter in college for her birthday i heard shouts of this being her new go t o top \r\nher roomies have already tried to borrow it super comfy with a beautiful off the shou lder style \r\nno one can go wrong with this this is a great top going into the fall season it runs a little large i went down one size and it fits perfect i like this blouse very much but my work is extremely conservative so i chose to return it it really pops even though it is jus t black and white it has some sparkles in it well another major score with pilcro \r\nthese p ants in general are my go to pants so i had high expectations when i bought them \r\n i have about every color in the hyphen cut and always hope they make more pairs \r\nand what do you k now they ve met even exceeded these expectations \r\n\r\nlove the fit true to size even thou gh i will order another smaller size when i get smaller these are good enough to have that big pair and that oh i feel svelte pair the denim has just enough stretch a what a perfect dres s it was perfect for a black tie optional wedding i didn t want another black dress but when i saw this i knew it was something special i am 5 5 130lbs and 34dd the size 8 fit my top bett er but the size 6 length was better but i decided to stay with the size 8 i love the way this to p fits i am busty on top and smaller on bottom and it really flatters it s funny to see it ca lled off the shoulder b c so far i have worn it on the shoulders when worn on the shoulders the neck is very flattering kind of like a cowl neck i probably would not wear it off the shou lder b c of the whole bra strap challenge i got the charcoal color which looks great with jeans or black leggings being six feet tall i m always combing reviews for the opinions of other tal l women and i m glad i did on this one with the off the shoulder look you can sometimes gain extra length and it s true in this case i stayed tts because of length issues and while it is billowy it s not horribly so i would think however if you re between sizes or not worried a bout height i d go with the smaller option adorable comfy casual while being dressy enough f or a night out love this top off the shoulder fits great little extra room around the torso t han i d love but still absolutely in love with this top the black lace detail on the bottom is amazing love the colors for fall ordered a small and i m 5 9 138lbs and i ordered a small i read all the reviews and they were very helpful the waist does run small so i sized up which was perfect i love how this skirt is lightweight and swingy i cant get enough comfortable denim sk irts so size up and you will love this i am a slightly hippy girl and the skirt did not make m e look big at all other reviewers have pointed out that these tops i have both colors now spo ilers run long and i am happy to agree basically there s a lot to work with here i m alway s looking for longer tops to traverse a larger bust and this is a great hip hitting length for me plus the neckline can be style multiple ways all in all a flattering better than basic sw eater this skirt is the perfect flirty denim piece for the summer it s light weight but good quality the only draw back is the waist is quite fitted when zipped had to size up it s like a pencil skirt on top which does make it tough to tuck anything in unless it s very thin overall charming skirt do love i bought this in the green plaid for travel since i don t we ar long pants of this fabric weight here in honolulu it is styled so that you can roll the bott oms up for a more casual look showing some ankle and wearing dress flats would be a perfect c asual work look with a navy tee since i m only 5 3 and this is travel wear i got it in a regu lar rather than petite because i wanted to keep the cuffed look but cover my ankles i tend towa rd adventure travel and these held up well on a recent t these jeans are excellent i ve been lo oking for a boyfriend jean that has plenty of room without just looking too big and these are it there s lots of give in the material but they still conform to your shape i highly recommend l ove this top pretty colors and don t forget to notice the black lace at the bottom can easily be dressed up or down with jeans or cigarette black pants and heels everyone looks good with ba re shoulders so this is a definite for my fall winter season so after reading the 2 reviews decided to just order my usual size 26 thinking they might be a tad snug wrong they were hu ge i looked at the size to see if they sent me a size 30 by mistake unfortunately small sizes sold out quality is excellent as well as style so bummed this skirt is adorable and has a bea utiful pattern it s also extremely comfortable a total steal at the sale price purchased the navy green and the red brown ultimately exchanged the red for the black gold the charlies tend to run small so size up one i normally wear a 26 2 but needed a 4 in these the side zip make s for a slimming fit i m 5 3 and it is an ankle fit i ve paired a sleeveless silk navy blouse with the blue pant when the weather was warm and now i pair with a white oxford and navy cable k nit sweater i see many more possibilities for both pairs fun print and fabric that can work th rough this top is very gorgeous and chic it is very tight at the bottom but i feel like it wil l stretch a little over time it is also very long which i love because it can be rouched up to a great length if you are curvy both colors are great i bought both and love both the sizing was correct if you want it to fit like it does on the model shot if you want it a little more fitted size down but it may be very tight on the bottom all in all i love them and they are d efinitely a great find fo as soon as my eyes touched these pants i knew my body had to not only e quickly become my favorites i loved the first pair so much i immediately bought the other col or what a great fit it is casual but can be dressed up i could have done the extra small bu t the small isn t too big and is still flattering the sweater is prettier in person than online great quality tight knit overall good purchase however it does run small i would absolutely size up i am a size 4 with a 34 c chest and i ordered a m and i would have been happy with a ro omier l i was going to return to my local store but they were sold out in the larger sizes \ni will keep it because it s gorgeous and i ll make do with the less relaxed fit but it doesn t lo ok on me like it does on the model this is a lovely sweater that doesn t look much on me the wa y it does on the model in the picture i actually like it better on me it s got a good scoop ne ck and it gives me a shape i tried it on in a small and i m on the fence about whether to buy i t or not i don t really need it but with the discount codes retailer is offering these days i feel like i should buy it anyway this sweater looks way better in person than in this picture the secret try the petite size loses a star for not having seamed edges so it might fray or unravel easily but of course that clean unseamed cut looks super cute especially around the n eck also a bit spendy but let me say again super cute on i purchased this sweater since the design immediately caught my eye i love it i am 5 03 fit and trim but chose a large regular t o accommodate my shoulders and chest the fit is close but i do not look poured into it i do have a long back waist length not a true petite the wool is soft substantial but not bulky sleeve length is flattering i plan to wear this sweater to the office on casual fridays with we ll fitted dark wash jeans an appropriate look for anyone not withstanding an ad it does run la rge as most reviewers noted i opted for the pxs and it was still very large and the way that th e elastic at the top hit me it bunched funny and made my chest look huge and i m only a b cup i t added a good two cup sizes to my chest and it just looked odd the length of the petite was go od for me at only 5 4 so the length did not overwhelm but the width was still really too wide love the fabric and the lace at the hemline it just wasn t for me but for those it works for it is be i am usually between a s m bought it in the small and glad i did the blouse is billowy had some trouble at first getting the top to stay off the shoulder because it raises up when y ou raise your arms obviously stretched out just enough and is now comfortable the black la ce design at the bottom is different and pretty love the way these pants fit love the length love the cut just the right amount of flare normally i am a 28 or 29 in citizens jeans i co nsidered the 27 in them but the legs were a bit tight 28 was just about perfect and the best part they are finally on sale i look forward to wearing them with flats or heels and a simpl e white shirt this sweater looks heavy online bit is a very thin sweater it runs tts however i f you like the short length then i d size down i m 5 4 120 34d and the xs was perfect the sw eater didn t feel too scratchy but it s not a soft sweater very feminine this sweater fits dif ferently than it looks on the model in the photo it is more fitted less bell sleeve and the n eck is less boat neck on me i am often between sizes at retailer but in this one i got the lar ger size and it fits well i love this sweater i just wanted to mention that i think it fits di fferently than what it looks like in the pic this dress the picture doesn t do the dress justi ce its so beautiful well made and unique lots of beading and detailing for the price i m su per happy with my purchase nan the jeans are soft and comfortable they are the perfect stapl e in my closet more colors please nan this is a perfect late summer into fall top you can ea sily pair with shorts and sandals then transition to jeans booties for the fall it s slightly o n the roomy side i am usually a medium and i had room but i think that s just the structure of the shirt off the shoulder style stays perfectly in place adorable skirt but fit is definitely too tight like the other reviews before me \r\n i am super petite 4 11 105 pounds the double zer o and zero were just a little tight for me and a little too long both could fit around my wais t which is a 24 but high waisted and tight not a fit around the hips \r\n if the length had bee n above the knee i might have kept the zero but they were both returned \r\n great skirt in the theory with the wrong waste fit and length i m curvy on the bottom and i think this is quite flattering for curves i d definitely advise sizing up on this one because it s flared i can w ear it higher up on my waist but that s not ideal and i think a bigger size will fit better i t s a very lightweight fabric and does wrinkle easily the color i got was a faded denim blue t his is a lot lighter than what i d call dark denim love the style fabric and fit generally but even ordering down a size i could yank them right down trying going down one more size bu t not sure it will work as much as i want it to i wasn t sure how this top would look on me but i just love it i am 5 3 115 lbs and i ordered the petite small i may even been able to get a way with petite xs i did not find this top too full long or tentlike at all i have a bust as well and it looks very flattering on me i wore it with denim shorts and it will look great with skinny jeans i would also wear it on the beach as a cover up very versatile i love the color and pattern on the top and really love the black lace on the bottom i love this style reminds m e of what we used to wear back in the 70 s it s very cute flattering and material is a high q uality will look good with skinny or boot cut jeans if you like this baby doll style you ll love this the material is great got them in both colors and went with a tall size for one ev eryone compliments them order yourself a pair today my new favorite jean especially for sprin g summer good color and very comfortable for the last few seasons bordeaux releases this top i n different materials and a slight variation but same off the shoulder theme the winter merino wool version was always sold out as soon as it hit the store this is my third top in this vers ion it is very flattering but it must be styled right which an retailer stylist taught me it must be turned to the side a bit in order to fit correctly but not necessarily have to be pulle d off the shoulder the bottom hem has to be placed at the uppe this may be the most beautiful top i ve ever purchased from retailer gorgeous classy comfortable and one of a kind i wish there were another pattern available so i could buy it runs large buy a smaller size than you usually wear you will feel chic and confident in this flattering top i wear it on the should ers a perfect 10 the adjustable tie is really nice and adds a nice style twist to a black su it i saw this on a girl at the winery where i work and i thought to myself i have to have tha t top it is perfect for the fall season the pattern print is very intricate and lovely i thin k it fits true to size the petite xxs is just right the sleeves do not come to the wrist but the photo here depicts that already the elastic in the arms feel a little tight but that would be my own negative comment the fabric is beautiful and flows just right it does not feel to b ig to me at all i m s i love the look of this dress but it runs very large i am 5 2 110lbs i ordered the extra small on sale got a killer deal on it i intended to use it as a beach cover up since it s sheer but when i tried it on i felt like i was wearing a mumu even for the price for the beach i am going to return it i m sad because it is a beautiful cover up and for what i t is i think the quality is good i got this in the blue and love it tts and the shape is very unique and classy better than shown on the model it can be worn alone or with a long sleeve un derneath as a layer considering the neutral as well lovely sweater which fits true to size i wish i would have known it was 3 4 sleeve i just got this shirt the other day at the store \r\nto my surprise i needed a size zero i usually wear a size 4 or small never that small \r\n i am 5 4 and a 34dd and it was still a little loose i bought the blue and brown color combinat ion \r\nit looked really cute on with a pair of white jeans for summer it was hard for me to ra te how this was sized it is tight through the bust very baggy and boxy through the body and sh ort looked gorgeous on the hanger though fell in love with the dress at the first sign yes h ave to confess that i always love white dresses but this dress is not only beautiful on the pic ture but also very pretty to put on material is natural gentle on my skin style is simple r omantic and it goes well with almost everything to dress up or dress down very comfortable t o wear good for a long moon light beach walk \r\nsize runs large have to get petite xxs and i t fits perfectly normally i go with petite 2 for a fitted dress i love this top it is a cool style mix between mensware and women s the collar is gorgeous making it feminine and beautiful i normally wear a size large in retailer i would size down returning my large for a medium a beautiful shirt for many occasions this dress is lovely and has a comfy fit the green color is gorgeous i felt the sizing was large and sent it back with all the white dresses to choose fro m this year this was the one i settled on it is comfortable the quality is good especially i n the edge detail it s machine washable which is a must for me and white and it is easy to d ress up or down i am 5 7 125lbs and found my usual size small to fit tts it is loose fit li ke the model shot easy throw on and go dress with cute details to boot i bought this dress t o use for maternity photos and it is perfect i love the flow of the skirt and the elastic waist band worked perfect i was able to fit in a size 2 normally a size 0 so i hope to be able to w ear it after pregnancy as well i was worried about the bust area being too small and while it s a tight fit for me currently it still worked so i typically avoid jumpsuits rompers etc bu t there is always something that still makes me try them and every time i m disappointed inevi tably which is such a bummer so i knew this time wouldn t be any different plus there was onl y an extra small available to try which i m definitely not an extra small usually a medium maa yyyyybe a small but i kid you not it fit perfectly it was super flattering in every way th e material is so soft and light weight but still thick enough i a i m not sure i understand t he negative reviews either the fit for me was perfect and i saw another lady try it on with a v ery different body type from mine and it looked great on her the colors are gorgeous and i am i n love with the fact that it has sleeves maybe i am of an age where i don t always want my arms showing but it is so refreshing to have some choices in retailer of dresses with sleeves i also appreciate that the slip underneath is a great stretchy material and not the stiff polyes i orde red the dress online and found it to be not as pictured the length hit several inches above th e knee the sleeves are also 3 4 length rather than full length as pictured i found the cut t o be much less fitted through the torso as well i tried both the small and xsmall which are m y usual sizes the small was very loose through the torso the xsmall was better but looked ov erall too short as if it were a petite cut i am 5 9 however the model is supposed to be 5 1 0 i bought this top in the caramel brown and white i m blonde so the color combo is super cut e matched with a lower rise faded worn jeans rolled and caramel leather slip on gym shoes and it makes such a cute weekend outfit the top is very light and sheer so a camp underneath it s a loose fit but not too much do a little quarter tuck in the front and roll the sleeves and voi la super cuteness \r\nthe fit was great for me as a slender but athletic build small bust tru e to size gorgeous blush color soft flowing material made for a perfect outdoor summer wedding guest dress the elastic around the waist could have been slightly tighter as the dress is a bit weighted but not loose enough to deter my purchase i m curvy and this dress was very flattering i m on the shorter side and didn t buy the petite it wasn t available in store and i bought thi s the day before the wedding i had to pick up the dress to walk up steps but was fine otherwis e in 2 inch heels i receiv i so wanted this top in red and tried on the 0 but it was a little big long on my 5 1 5 frame 115 lbs 30dd i tried ordering 0petite but it was sold out te o nly one available was the honey color so i decided to try it even though i am very pale wel l i actually do like it it isn t as popping as the red but it is super flattering and the co lor is actually classy so i feel like i could wear this with a dressier outfit not just cas ual i love the feel the fabric is airy great i ordered this dress on a whim because i love th e classic look it has long sleeves and the color is beautiful i can t tell if there is sparkl e in person it looks like it on pictures or holes but regardless love it i tried on both xxs p and xs p and found the xs p was more comfortable for me for those who find clothing at re tailer is being made bigger this is more a classic size as in what i would have ordered in t he past this summer i had to go down in size a lot the fabric is c soft and feminine pretty pastel colors very romantic the fit is flattering and feminine the fabric is light the linin g is soft color is pale and i may need a little brighter colors but i might let that pass i am on the fence only based on color otherwise gorgeous dress the 0 fit me well but the back touched the ground so i would probably order petite front is higher so no issue there \r\n \r\n30 dd 26 5 in waist 115 lbs for reference with 0 nice light weight fabric drapes well a wesome detailing have worn twice already with lots of compliments i ordered this top in small petite but wished i had exchanged it for an xsp because it s wide in the arm holes but i love i t nonetheless and wear it with a cami underneath i love that while it s sleeveless the straps are wide this type of wide top is not for well endowed women up top i don t have that problem so it looks really cute i also love the length a lot of tops tend to be really long and for a petite person shorter tops look best this is a great casual top it is true to size and a ligh t weight cotton blend i am an xxsp which fits me perfectly and the tan and white looks crisp an d clean i keep finding myself choosing this top to wear with jeans cut offs and white shorts i am frequently chilly even in the summer and like the long sleeve which i can roll up or keep down i wish i bought the other two colors before they sold out in my size i don t understand t he negative reviews on this dress i absolutely love the fit may be the prior reviewer was tryi ng a size on that was too large yes the fabric and the snaps are very delicate so you have to be careful putting it on and off but the fit is very flattering on most people i saw three dif ferent people trying it on in the fitting room today so i decided to try it on myself and had to have it the colors are beautiful and the uneven hem makes it more fun and young i will wear i this dress is great it s easy to dress up or down and is comfy loved this dress it does run a little long even with 3 high heels i am5 3 and probably would have been\r\nbetter with a pe tite size often i do not like the proportions with petite so i ordered the regular size i feel very feminine in this dress and love the opening at the side i can walk in it if i hold the ski rt up in front a tiny bit not sure if i will hem it the print is pretty however busy i will keep this dress as it does make one look slim and romantic i added an black belt w this top is so good i bought every single color i sized up for more flow but it does run true to size th is is that sweet little summer top that we all long for this dress is beautiful on it is flowy and loose but is cut well so it avoids looking like a tent white dresses with lace can run the risk of being a bit fussy the lace at the bottom is a beautiful detail without being too preci ous and the handkerchief bottom keeps it interesting can be styled so many ways looks great w ith a cropped denim jacket belted or loose with a long necklace also tried with a sleeveless long sweater vest and it was adorable the dress is fully lined and feels su i was a little wary of this top but decided to try anyway so glad i did the style is great and the fabric is light weight and comfy i debated between the blue and the honey and ended up with the honey it is ju st so different yet such a nice neutral i am normally a size 10 or maybe a large 8 in tops an d purchased this in size 6 it definitely runs large for reference i am 5 6 145 lbs 34dd no t sure why another reviewer said this top isn t for large busts it was very flattering on me an this shirt is a great deal on sale i would not pay full price i got it in the honey color and it is really cute this shirt does run very large i normally wear a small or size 4 to 6 and i was lost in a size 6 i went with a size 2 and it was perfect for sizing purposes i am a 34c and 5 3 112lbs shirt is a bit lightweight so it is nice for summer or year round love everything about this dress except for the elastic waistband it s a dressier style and the elastic cheapens the look definitely needs a ribbon or belt to cover otherwise the cut and fit is very flattering the fabric is nice and the floral pattern is lovely i found the dress tts size 4r and i m 5 4 120 lbs nice fabric and construction the small fit me a usual size 6 only problem there is no way to easily use the bathroom in this thing seriously that s why i m returning it the fab ric has a smooth feel and the shape is perfect over skinny jeans i like the yoked v neckline a different take on the usual buttons of a popover i wear a white cami under it from retailer t o bring up the depth just a little great with blue jeans white jeans and shorts i bought thi s shirt in red size 2 i m 5 6 125 lbs super cute great for a casual summer day fabric is nice and light and honey color goes well with denim kaki or olive green runs a little large b ut still looks good especially with fitted jeans or capri pants i bought this dress last week f or a wedding next summer it did not appeal to me on the hanger but once i tried it on i was s o impressed the green color is lovely and it is lightweight and airy and it does have a lining which is a plus i love the little ruffle sleeves and the tie in the back is perfect there have been comments about the hemline being awkward but the length on me was perfect and has just the right amount of flounce to be feminine i can t wait to wear this dress i am 5 6 i really lik ed this top the red gingham is adorable and it looked great tucked into the pencil skirt i wa s also trying on sadly it had two things going against it \r\n when i didn t tuck it in it l ooked like i was hiding an early pregnancy it just hangs from the chest and my bust is relativ ely large 34dd \r\n the material is awfully thin and i don t know how it would hold up that s a concern when you re spending 90 on a casual top \r\ni would certainly consider purchasing this on sale this is the perfect summer top lightweight and breezy looks great either tucked i n to jeans or shorts or worn loose loved the blue one so i came back to get the red one i wo uld recommend buying one size smaller than usual i saw this dress but was hesitant to purchase it online because of the reviews i went to the absolutely fabulous new walnut creek store and t hough it wasn t on the floor they found one in my size in the storeroom \r\ni tried it on and wa s immediately enthralled i am 5 10 and the dress flowed like a dream i will be wearing it for my anniversary celebration with pearls and victorian earrings i can t wait it is lovely you m ay need to be a little taller than average to wear this but it is wonder i originally bought the tan at the store i loved it so much and ordered the red but went down a size as it does run bi g perfect for the summer i saw this top in store and immediately picked up the red one i am u sually a 6 in tops sometimes an 8 but ended up with a 4 feels a little snug in the armpit area but doesn t look it i ended up getting the honey color one which looks great with white and arm y green pants i loved the red one but felt like i was wearing a picnic blanket it is a little flimsy and probably won t last that long so if you want to wait for it to go on sale and hope th ey have your size i would do that when i saw this top online i loved it and in person i love i t even more so perfect for spring summer and i can see it even transitioning into fall the siz ing is perfect i am a size 12 l in tops and the size 12 i ordered is just right it s loose b ut not too loose or frumpy looking the fabric is slightly thin but that s perfect for the summe r but it would be cute layered with a cami or a cardigan when it s cooler the only thing is i f you a little busty the neckline might dip a tiny bit i must disagree with some of the other r eviews when i first saw this dress online i loved it and couldn t wait to try it on i didn t order it online because i read some of the other reviews and so i wanted to try it on in the sto re before i bought it because i was nervous the fit wasn t going to be good they were so wrong maybe it just takes a certain body type i have an hourglass figure and i m 5 8 tall i tried on a size 10 and it fit beautifully the waist is very form fitting and t i love the pattern a nd style of the dress but unfortunately it s doesn t fit quite right the top is too loose th e clip doesn t work well and the waist line of the dress sit above the waist and the sleeves a re tight which is shocking to me because i have skinny arms the dress is absolutely beautiful the fabric is light the pattern is not overwhelming and has a zipper on the side to make it mor e fitted in the waist the top is blousy but i am only a c cup and it still was perfect the bo ttom has an uneven cut that makes the dress very interesting i love it i am usually a size 2 o r 4 and the size 4 was perfect i bought this top in the brown white combo although i really wa nted the red white but haven t had any luck finding it i am never sure of my size in retailer but run anywhere from small to large depending on brands i m 5 4 140 34 ddd i wish other re viewers would state their sizes to help others purchase i got this shirt in size 8 which usual ly never happens to me i wear a white tank or cream cami underneath since it is very sheer and dips low at the cleavage area it is still flowy but n once i tried this dress on i understood w hy the pricepoint was so high it s very thick but not uncomfortable and very well made love the color and style of this dress but as others have said the model picture is deceiving try it on in store to see if you like it for yourself i m curvy on top and bottom with broad should ers and personally it was a no for me i found other dresses that i loved more this one was pre tty but wasn t a hit for me the fabric and color is stunning very well made i m 5 8 and this romper works fine it is long enough in the body true to size love it love the colors and top part but it runs extremely large and there is way too much fabric it is almost like a moo moo h ad to return this dress is amazing i have to say when i picked it up to try it on i thought it would just be an ok dress but i thought might as well try it on to my surprise it was more than perfect the waste cinches in when it is zip it up and the blousing in the chest fits lovely i had been eying this dress online for a while and when it finally came into stores i was so excit ed this dress is so gorgeous and very flattering on my body i love the bottom of it it is mor e of a u cut in the front and square in the back add an ada wrap belt and perfection i bought the xs and the fit was good i ll probably add a snap at the bust area because the slip undernea th does show like a camisole which is fine but i prefer it closed also i ll add a belt to cin ch my waist booties and maybe a hat i love the material flow of the bottom half of this dres s it fits like a charm for reference i am a 34 29 38 39 the size 6 was spot on that being s aid i was a little disappointed by the top portion of the dress the dolman sleeve seems odd the faux wrap is gaping doesn t seem to clip in the right spot sloppy not like on the model the dress would be perfect as a full sleeve a little snugger of a wrap i could alter the top but the material just wouldn t lay right to the waist i love this dress but i will return it be cause the sleeves are too tight i have never had this problem before i ordered a petite 0 and petite 2 for reference i am 5 4 tall and 117 lbs the length is perfect and i really like the style if the sleeves had not been so tight i would have kept the petite 0 the petite 2 sleeves were no looser sorry that this did not work for me i love this dress it is so comfortable th e material feels nice and the print is beautiful the only reason i didn t give this a 5 overall rating is because this fits a little big i bought a petite medium and the elastic around the to p is not as tight as i d like it still fits and stays on but it would feel a little better if i t was a little more snug at the top i love this dress because it is casual enough to walk aroun d in but still feels somewhat dressy i will probably take this dress wi this is so pretty for s ummer it is very lightweight and flattering on the color was a little brighter than i expected but it is still beautiful being 5 ft long maxi dresses are usually not what i buy but i tried this dress on and it was the perfect length for me i wear size 2 or 4 and i tried on both sizes in store the 4 i tried on had a shorter length for some reason than the 2 maybe it was a petit e and was mislabeled i ended up getting the 4 and i love the dress gorgeous dress love that it s flowy soft and fits very well it does run a size smaller i usually wear a 4 and went wi th a 2p one this one the sleeves are a bit tighter on the petite than the regular in the same s ize living in a warm climate i m always on the hunt for great spring summer dresses that can b e worn to work dinner or just general out and about \r\nthis dress is a great length with the varied hemline that gives you enough length for work or dinner it s also great for a summer coc ktail party or afternoon out shopping i m a traditional hourglass figure larger on top and bot tom with a small waist dress size 6 or 8 depending on the top i roared this in a medium and it s perfectly comfy and hang i tried this dress on on a whim and will definitely be getting it th e fit was perfect as it is not to structured so its really a more relaxed piece even though it d oesnt look it but the way you feel when you wear it is just magical i love this dress i like this top very much i love the color and the embroidery makes it very dressy it fits right for me however the picture doesn t show it well but there s a bit too much fabric on the sides i absolutely loved this once i got it out of the package it s a very vibrant print in the red p rint almost a picnic vibe and the material feels soft and high quality it runs very large tho ugh i usually take an 8 or maybe a 6 and am busty and in this i am pretty sure i will need th e 4 i almost convinced myself i had lost weight when i tried it on but i will return the 8 and get the 4 in the red as well as probably at least one of the other colors as i like it so much soft florals on light as air chiffon layers what s not to like on this romantic dress i appre ciate the elastic waist and the tie at the back of the neck as it gives me flexibility during m y weight fluctuations my only regret is that i m too darn short for regular length and will ha ve to wear platforms since the back of the hem drags on my 5 3 self purchased the size 8 and i am 140 36dd charming dress fit perfectly with great movement through back and chest area f lattering length s with just the right amount of fabric inside dress sheath or slip dress zip s to waist for fit i am smitten with the dress just love it this top is cute i purchased a 2 instead of my usual size 4 and it fits well i only recommend buying this top on sale it is n ot good quality there are loose threads hanging out of the seams all over the place and it is s ee through it is totally nuts that it costs 88 this is the perfect dress for it being a long maxi it s surprisingly lightweight the built in slip it covers everywhere you need it to witho ut detracting from the overall look of the dress i absolutely love it and wish it came in other colors patterns i would never have bought this top from the online photo but happily came acros s in in my local store i bought it in the hot pink gingham check and it is so cute and fresh w ill work well for hot summer days when i may want to wear rolled up sleeves as it is very lightw eight and gauzy i bought my usual xs 0 5 7 32b 115lbs and whilst it is looser on me than the model i would still say that it is tts maybe a little fuller in the back than i would lik e but i will wear mine partially tu i love this dress so much absolutely beautiful true to the size since i start wearing it i got so many good compliment the flowers is very spring and sum mary very sexy to the bottom this top is girl next door sweet i m mad about plaid so it wa s love at first sight for me i love a blouse with a touch of spandex because i like the fitted look but not tight or loose and spandex gives a bit of a yield size 4 regular fits me well i m 5 2 34b 26 waist 36 hips the hem falls at mid hip and the sleeves fall about 1 4 pass m y wrist i plan to wear this top tucked in and the sleeves rolled up since the weather is warmer now the color honey is versatile blue motif has a this is the best little romper i have ever tried on i don t typically love myself in shorts but these are so flowing and the pattern is so pretty i couldn t resist the material is nice and the length is great i m 5 6 and 135lbs and the small fit great i typically do well with jumpsuits but this one did not work i am smaller on top than the bottom but not by much i got the xs and it was tight in the calves and short in the waist but the top fit perfectly maybe a s would have fit better but i got it on sale and s was out of stock it defiantly did not look like it does on the model i am typically a size 2 the material is really nice i was hoping for a jumpsuit that could be casual an covered sinc e most jumpsuits tend to show more skin i m 5 4 between sizes 12 and 14 i ordered a size pet ite large and it s a bit loose which is acceptable but i d like to try a regular size medium to see if it d be more fitted like i see in the model \r\nmy problem is with the length i read the description and it says petite 40 5 of length the large petite i ordered is above my kn ees this is not 40 of length by any means it s 36 5 \r\ni d really appreciate if the size info was correctly available this is a great long sleeve casual shirt for spring soft and ai ry pairs well with jeans i found that it fit me just right i m not very tall but my shoulder s are a little broad for my height which typically puts me in the small medium range so i go t size 6 regular this hits just below the hip and the shoulders are spot on very flattering yo lk that gives a little contour to the bust gauzy fabric has wrinkled texture which gives it a c asual look and feel my only problem is there aren i love this dress the fit is incredibl y flattering and i m currently carrying more weight than my normal size i selected a 6 which is about a size larger than normal and it was a perfect fit i tried on a larger size for measu re and the 6 provided a perfect fit and flare i ve worn the dress on three occasions alread y and each time friends remarked on their admiration for the dress itself and flattering style for me i have no issues at all with the cut and to me the bias a this top is very light wei ght and comfortable i am normally a 8 10 in tops due to my bust size but ordered a 6 based on o ther reviews it fits great i really like the fit and the pattern it has been a great summer s hirt and i can see myself grabbing for it in the fall paired with skinny jeans and a cute bootie this is a precious it s a little thin as i prefer a thicker fabric however wearing a tank to p under it works perfectly i have it now in both colors great price on sale i got this shirt in red plaid and love it super cute without being too trendy i wore it with shorts and got lot s of compliments i originally purchased this dress in a petite 6 i am 5 3 125lbs with a 36 bust the petite 6 was a bit too tight so i returned it and went up to a size 8 so happy i did this dress drapes and flows beautifully and i find it immensely flattering to my hourglass figur e i also adore the floral print one reviewer objected to the way the bodice drapes and the ver y small hook closure which seemed insufficient i did not object to this characteristic it fit me beautifully throughout the bodice this is not usually a top that i am attracted to but it i s so cute paired with jeans and sandals nice light weight top for summer this dress is very f lattering comfortable and made me feel pretty i love this dress but it definitely runs big i bought a size small and i m between a 4 and a 6 and will have to return for an xs the top feels like it will fall down and i m a size 34c so soft such beautiful fabric it flows so graceful ly and looks lovely with black leggings as pictured one of my favorite retailer purchases to da te i bought this sweater because i love twinkle s knitting patterns and yarns this sweater d oesn t disappoint i love all of the great details like the detachable collar the double button s along the front and the back panel is in a seed stitch which differs from the front and sleev e stitch it s super warm and cozy but it s also very heavy depending on the temp outside i c an wear this as a coat but i think the sweater will stretch over time because it s so heavy lo ve the look it s a little tight but i still like it i love the detail on this shirt it is sh eer but looks great with a cami great unique piece the front and back materials differ the back of the shirt is soft and thin the front embroidery is stiff but i imagine it will soften a fter a wash pretty shirt though love it i am 125 and usually a size 2 4 or 26 27 in bottoms typically size up for holding horses based on other reviews i ordered this in a 2 it stretche d just a bit after wearing all day so i m glad i didn t get my normal 4 the fit is great qual ity is great it dresses up for a casual office day wearing well with boots and tights and i i magine pairing with tshirt and flip flops over the summer i unique piece that quickly became a favorite on the hanger this looks like a great dress especially to wear to a hawaii wedding on me not quite \r\n\r\nthe bell shape of this dress made it appear that i was carrying extra weight in the middle and the shorter length accentuated my big calves \r\n\r\nfor reference i tried a 00p and i m 5 1 102 and 34a can i tell you this top is amazing get it quick bef ore it sells out i wanted to love this top but found it to run small and was too sheer for my taste it is a beautiful top though but you will need a cami with it this skirt is so cute th is is a staple to have in your wardrobe i wear it with boots and boot socks but tights for col d winter days as well as flip flops in the summer i got my true size of 4 its fits perfectly i love the length with a peek of leg when you walk the only reason i gave this top a 4 star is that it didn t have enough room around the bust area i m a d cup and the front didn t button p roperly but for the price i paid 40 off sale price i have no coplaints \r\ni would recommen d love love this tunic my size 4 fits perfectly with a little room material is very soft and very comfortable could be worn with leggings or with a belt as a dress so many options so wo rth it i m undecided about this shirt this design is absolutely beautiful but the shirt is very very sheer and the front comes down so low in a curved hem line so when you wear the nece ssary base layer the shirt extends several inches beyond that and it looks kind of odd i reall y wish tiny would make some beautiful shirts like this that aren t sheer and have a shorter fron t i purchased my regular size and it fits a little smaller than other tiny shirts i have purcha sed since the shirt is so bea this top is similar to other tiny tops that i have ordered in the past beautiful embroidery great neutral and metallic color pallet that goes with everything and light weight the top does run small so i needed the large size to accommodate my 38in bust plus a thin cami shirt is see through the large fit similarly to the fit on the model a grea t long line bra beautiful and well made however it s tough to get the fit perfectly right i us ually wear a 32 b or 34 a and am 115lbs the small was the best fit as the 32 xs was a very sm all 32 i could almost say it more of a 30 if that s even a size it also rubs my skin few place s so definitely not meant to be worn for more than a few hours otherwise i recommend it absolu tely love this shirt the embroidery on the front is beautiful gold and silver metallic thread with good quality very slim fit through the torso with loose sleeves the only downside is the cream material is very sheer definitely have to wear a tank underneath i must say that at fir st i had mixed feelings about this sweater i was actually going to return it because i was unsu re about the style and color the color is to me like a lavender mauv ish color but the descript ion is actually natural i must admit that in some light it looks more brown then lavender regardless i think that in itself tells you that this sweater is not like any other i actually wear it as a coat and its become an essential part of my wardrobe i found the size to be true t his shirt is stunning definitely a shirt for special occasions it s more than i would normally pay for a top but it is a really special piece of clothing the fit is slim i m 5 6 and 118 p ounds i typically wear an xxs or xs in retailer clothes the xxs is just right it is quite she er so i imagine i will wear a nude tank top underneath this top looks fantastic on definitly great when you want to look a little more dressed up the fabric is a bit sheer so i will wear a nude camisole underneath the design has the perfect amount of shimmer to make it dressy it is so silky and feels great on the neckline has the perfect plunge too after reading the other re views i felt compelled to write one for this top it is not often that i get to shop at an reta iler store but a few weeks ago i had the pleasure i saw this top and while it was not on sal e i had to have it yes it is sheer and so you do need a camisole under it the gold and silve r embroidery is gorgeous to be honest this is my favorite top in my closet right now i can dr ess it up or make it more casual and now that it s on sale don t hesitate in this purchas ove rall i was pleased with this dress i didn t love how the front wrap transitioned to the back it is comfortable and versatile it can be dressed up or down the online pictures do not do t his dress justice the materials between the top and skirt are different with the black part bei ng a soft sweater feel and the bottom part being an appropriately thick knit feel the contract is stunning and is largely washed out in the online pictures this is not the kind of dress you see on a rack and think oh my gosh that s the one but if you try it on you will have this m oment it is comfortable flattering and slimming a prefect everyday dress lots of seam and st itching details make this even cuter than the picture s initial impression fabric drapes nicely the sleeves are a little tight if wearing something long sleeved underneath overall very unique love the pattern the pants are really cute perfect for pajamas or casual outfit to go to a fie nds house in they do have a funny seam above the knee but i still find them comfortable i feel like snagging a pair of these was the equivalent to standing in line for black friday as they a lways seem to be out of stock now i know why these are soft comfortable and slimming they r e somewhere between the hold of control top pantyhose and spans they don t fall and sag through out the day and are nicely slimming without being pain inducing love this print and fabric its soft and comfy with adjustable straps so pretty and feminine i tried on this dress in the stor e and was pleasantly surprised with the fit and the look it looks way better in person than in the pictures the picture really doesn t do it justice i consider myself a slight hour glass figured girl and this dress at the top hit me just right so that the crosswrap looks like it was made for my body and the peephole keyhole in the front you can hardly see on the model photo i s visible i m so happy with this dress i feel like i could wear it at work chu don t know wh y but i didn t have high expectations for this dress turns out it s uber flattering makes my w aist look tiny accentuated bust perfect for those of us with straight figures looking for a li ttle more curves bottom half of dress has heavy silky linking top half unlined and a bit thin color is almost pearl very very light gray i m between xs s 33b 26 36 5 8 120lb and went with a small hits an inch above knees sleeves slightly loose through upper arm which is always bett love this dress very flattering fit and the fabric does not feel heavy but is sturdy i w ore it for first dinner out with my husband after losing most of my baby weight and felt great a nd confident in it love this cardigan as a wardrobe staple to quickly throw on especially over dresses but also anything it drapes beautifully and i love the button closure detail it is definitely a thin soft light weight knit but i think that makes it practical for year round u se much like other items by bordeaux as per usual bordeaux is perfect with this cardigan very soft washes well love it i love this jacket so much i bought two it goes with almost everyt hing and is a nice weight for almost any weather i recommend you grab it while it s on sale th is tee is amazing it s light weight and perfect for the summer heat the detail of the cross an d tie back is perfect to elevate the style this is going to be a solid staple in my tee collect ion i wish it came in other colors because i would buy them all i like the contrast of the ski rt with the bodice the length of the sleeves adn the subtle cut out at the neck the cut is ve ry flattering adn i am glad the daker color is at the top hte bottome color would wash me out i tried on the regular size nad i would not get a peitte in this as the size was the perfect len gth for me petite would be too short for my liking regular hit just above the knee i recentl y purchased this dress at my local retailer when it was 40 percent on sale i was overwhelmed wi th how much i liked it it s comfortable elegant and very chic \r\n\r\ni will make this my go to dress from now on i ordered this skirt hoping i could wear it to work as it looked tailored on the model this skirt is made from a heavy material but flares out it is a whole lot of skir t i m 5 2 and short waisted it looked like i was getting swallowed up i love the colors and design but it just overwhelmed me it would work on someone taller i am 5 2 about 118 lbs th ought this fit really well very comfortable material i wish the skirt was a different color fe els a little bland the fabric is very thick and textured almost like upholstery and has no give to it the zipper is a little tricky to get all the way up because of the fabric thickness i l ooks cute and holds its shape it may run a touch small because of the fabric the colors are gr eat though and i really like it this is a very cute dress that i did not keep mainly because i did not like the neckline on me if it had been different i probably would have kept it i liked the fabric the top is a little thin but i did not think it was sheer the bottom part is sheer but there is a lining it drapes beautifully it is a little like a maternity dress but not eno ugh to dissuade me i have been on a search for a dress with sleeves that cute enough for date n ight as a bigger girl than most retailer reviewers i was happy to find this covered my ample c hest and between the crosswrap and a little flare in the skirt it camoflauges my belly it is a sweater dress which is not easily noticable in the web photos and can certainly be dressed up for a dinner or for the office these pants are soft fun print and comfy they are a drop crotc h but the cut is flattering without bunching up between legs they are perfect for pjs all day type day this is my new favorite sweater it is lightweight and drapey very flattering can be dressy or casual this is my new favorite dress my only complaint is the slip is too small and the dress cannot be worn without it i can t order a size up as the dress would then be huge no t sure what the solution is but the dress itself is stunning i tried these on at the store and the fit was good the length was even ok for me as a petite person the fabric was substantial a nd mostly cotton which i like but i felt like the floral pattern drew too much attention to my thighs so it wasn t ultimately something i felt i would wear still a nice comfort piece if you are ok with a floral pattern on your lower half the pattern of this skirt is adorable and looks better in person but the fabric isnt the best it feels like an elastic fabric and is way to vol umous overall not my favorite these pants overall are very comfortable but have an unusual fi t they tend to run a bit short and i always have to get pants hemmed shorter so if you have l ong legs or like more draping you probably won t like these they also ran a bit large in the w aist and thigh a bit puffy i had to size down in order to get a good fit very good quality a nd cute design i wore this dress to work the other day and got so many compliments on the fit a nd the design the wrap on the top i got it in grey and it s a beautiful color for winter the dress is very comfortable to wear i bought this dress for work and post work happy hours love it it s material is high quality and is flattering since it falls nicely on my postpartum figur e it s a little shorter than i thought but still appropriate for work this dress has a great d esign and fits very well and looks great although the material is not cheap it is very warm and doesn t breath very well which is good in the winter the only complaint i have is there was a s mall snag in it but i was able to fix it my self i worry when i have an elastic waist or some thing that resembles this but the dress hangs like a dream \nno puffing out no gathers that yo u can see \nit is not sheath but not a line either kind of in between hits several inches abo ve my knees but perfect with some black tights for winter i saw the note about grey have to t ry it on agin in daylight but i would say think black on the top light camel color on the bott om\ni am 5 8 typically wear a size 12 and it was true to size for me\nthe i love this little c hemise the adjustable straps sold me because i m petite i generally wear a small 27p i m abou t 5 1 124 lbs i purchased a small and it fit perfect the fabric is nice not too thin or too thick i would totally wear it just as easily as a nightgown or beach coverup i ve never been a ble to wear scrappy dresses but it could probably pass for one of those too it s flattering an d pretty without being too pretty if you get my meaning my size was not available so based o n reviews stating the bagginess of a certain area i sized down and glad i did i never size dow n because i do not like tight clothing especially casual wear nice muted print and good qualit y terry material recommend but size down if you want a more fitted feel nan love the way thes e pants look in the pictures great quality but the style isn t really me i gave it a try so that s what counts i saw the shirt on the retailer website and new i had to have it when it ar rived it was perfectly draped light and airy and incredibly soft and comfortable it s perfe ct to throw on with yoga pants for errands or dress up a bit a casual night out with friends wo uld buy this again in several different colors if they were offered 9 10 great quality and ext remely flattering bonus that it is on sale i felt like this dress was a godsend i am five mon ths pregnant and needed a dress that made me feel comfortable but not frumpy i think i ll get a lot of mileage out of it as there s enough stretch to get me through the next few months and th en hopefully i can wear it after too also can be dressed up or down so appropriate for many occasions i believe it runs true to size i sized up from xs to s for obvious reasons but ye s this is a great dress i wasn t sure about it online because of the color combination i thin k i would have preferred the gray color but it was sold out it received very good reviews onlin e so i thought it was worth the risk at the sale price i am always on the hunt for great dresse s at great prices who isn t once i received it and tried it on oh wow i love it it is so flattering it is a very pretty dress i think i will wear this all the time i am actually thin king of all the d cute dress but not for me the waist is too high and the sleeves are tight maybe on a different body type this dress would be perfect i returned it these bottoms are ve ry cute but defiantly cheeky i would recommend sizing up if you want to have more coverage i m so impressed with the beautiful color combinations and embroidery but disappointed in the rayon fabric used especially at this price point the sleeveless sheer blue outer dress is a flowy s wing silhouette that retains many wrinkles i have thick shoulders and upper arms so the armho les cut into my armpits the silky rayon liner is a blush rose color with adjustable spaghetti straps the slip has no stretch and feels a bit tight on my chest i ordered size medium petit e and my stats a so i wasn t sure about ordering this skirt because i couldn t see it in person first but i m so glad i did the skirt and design is well made and doesn t look or feel cheap t he color isn t blaring offensive red so it worked with my pale skin better than i anticipated i wore it to my daughter s dance production with tall boots and a sweater and i got numerous com pliments fit is true i am 5 2 and i picked the petite length the skirt has a slight a line r ather than a tight pencil fit but the nan i was very happy to snag this dress at such a great pr ice it s very easy to slip on and has a very flattering cut and color combo it reminds me of m aternity clothes soft stretchy shiny material cut is flattering and drapes nicely i only fo und one button to close front looked awkward nice long sleeves \nnot for me but maybe for ot hers just ok i bought this dress for a wedding i have this summer and it s so cute unfortuna tely the fit isn t perfect the medium fits my waist perfectly but was way too long and too big Imbalance: If the dataset is highly imbalanced (e.g., too many positive reviews), the model might be predicting the majority class most of the time. Fixes:

Resampling techniques like SMOTE (for oversampling the minority class) or undersampling the majority class. Use class weights in your model training (e.g., class_weight='balanced' in LogisticRegression). Review Length: If reviews are too short or too long, consider truncating or padding reviews to ensure consistency across all data points.

Key Words in Reviews: If specific words appear predominantly in one sentiment, you might want to tweak your model's feature extraction or try more sophisticated models that can capture context (e.g., BERT, LSTM).

Model Performance on Imbalanced Data: If the model still struggles despite addressing imbalances, try different algorithms that are more robust to imbalance, or adjust the decision threshold for classification.
